

Korean Boy's Dream Of Life In America Realized

By JIM CLARK
A dream with a fairy tale twist—a dream of life in America—has been fulfilled for a 14-year-old Korean chap. And he is presently touring the country he desired to make his home.

Joe Anthony, with his adopted "brother," Chaplain Donald Werr, arrived in Big Spring yesterday, where they will remain until going to Edwards Air Base, Calif., where Father Werr will be stationed. They are guests of Lt. Richard Miller and Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Fiewellen.

The boy's Korean name was Shu. But American soldiers, finding his name hard to pronounce, called him Little Joe. Chaplain Werr gave him the name of Anthony, after the patron saint of lost objects.

Joe, a war orphan found in the rubble of war ravaged Seoul, was adopted by American troops when he was 9, and got his first job in an Army mess hall. Shy, likeable, and spirited, Joe's dream began when he looked at American magazines after hours. The advertising sections, giving Joe a profile of America, fascinated him.

Spurred by the marvels that existed in America, Joe's heart was filled with a wild, impractical urge to come to the United States. Ignorant of geography and immigration laws, Joe decided he would go to America and enjoy the things he saw in magazines. His method was by walking. First, he decided to walk to Japan. But getting into Japan was another problem, so he devised a scheme of telling officials he had been adopted by U. S. troops in Japan and brought to Korea when the Korean war started; he would say he was trying to get back home. Setting out on a 200-mile jaunt

Evacuation Plans Urged For Cities By Defense Chief

WASHINGTON, July 10 (AP)—The growing power of hydrogen bombs makes evacuation of cities an "urgent necessity," Civil Defense Administrator Val Peterson said today.

"The fact that evacuation is difficult or inconvenient," he said, "does not detract from the fact that we must have planned evacuation or millions of Americans will die unnecessarily in the event of attack."

Seeking more operating funds for his agency for 1955, Peterson told the Senate Appropriations Committee that the hydrogen bomb has limited the people's choices to "die, dig or get out." And he said digging bomb shelters will not solve the problem.

Peterson said Los Angeles with its system of traffic freeways, or express highways, is best suited thus far to evacuate its population in advance of a hydrogen bomb attack.

from Seoul to Pusan, he stopped over at Itazuke Air Base, where he met Chaplain Werr. He was then 10. Desiring to help the boy, the chaplain got him a job and served as his tutor, using government literature for texts.

Taught the three R's by Chaplain Werr, Joe was then entered in the American dependents' school. It was not long until his adopted brother had devised a scheme to get the Korean youth into the United States—he would send him to Boys Town, Neb. That was last year.

Chaplain Werr believes that Joe, who has had only one year of formal schooling, is ready for high school. He will be given tests this summer to determine his classification.

Then begins the process of placing Joe in school. But there will be no problems about college, for the chap has been given an expense paid, four-year scholarship to Quincy (Ill.) College.

At Boys' Town last year, Joe won swimming medals in Nebraska state competition. He is qualified as a junior life saver. He likes baseball, basketball, and plays the piano. "But I don't play like Liberace," Joe quipped.

Joe was the subject of a January "Saturday Evening Post" article and has appeared on television programs (four in one day). MGM is presently in the process of purchasing movie rights to Joe's life.

None of this cost him any of his modesty. "I am so grateful to everyone who helped me to come here," he said, "I am most happy."

Colorado Governor Views Farm Pegs As No. 1 Issue

BOLTON LANDING, N.Y., July 10 (AP)—The chairman of the annual governors' conference opening here tomorrow said today $2 wheat can't be justified and flexible farm price supports will be "the No. 1 domestic issue in the coming political campaign."

Gov. Dan Thornton of Colorado said he thinks President Eisenhower, who was to address the governors Monday night, still is "extremely popular" in Colorado but "there is doubt in the minds of the people about the Republican party." A Republican himself, he didn't amplify on that.

The President had been scheduled to address the conference Monday night, but canceled his plans tonight because of the death of his sister-in-law.

Vice President Richard Nixon will substitute for President Eisenhower, arriving here at 10:50 a.m. Monday morning and following the same itinerary worked out for the President.

In addition to farm policy, Thornton said he considers taxes a prime issue in the 1954 political year because the people certainly are more conscious of high taxes—"more so because of the clamor in Congress for tax cuts."

And, he said, the world situation is serious and the free nations must draw the line against communism and make it clear they will back up their action "by military force if necessary." He also said that "Indochina may not be the place to fight a war." Perhaps, he said, the situation there can be solved by political means.

The Colorado governor said he is for Eisenhower's flexible price support program for farmers, which took a setback when the Senate Agriculture Committee voted 13 to 2 in Washington yesterday to put on the floor a bill to continue rigid supports at 90 per cent of parity for another year.

Thornton called the Eisenhower plan a step in the right direction, but said it should be put into effect gradually rather than all at once.

"I would say," the governor remarked, "that a lot of the farmers in Colorado feel as I do about it. How can we justify $2 a bushel wheat in eastern Colorado when it can be grown for 50 or 55 cents a bushel?" Thornton said he has a farm plan of his own—to put a "floor" against disaster under farm prices, based on average cost of production.

Deadline Near For Bidding On Land

Deadline to submit bids for the purchase of two city owned tracts just east of Big Spring is Tuesday at 5 p.m. As of Saturday noon there had been no bids submitted, said City Secretary C. R. McClenny.

The two tracts are located where the old city dump grounds were, between the city limits and the addition now being developed by Ward Hall. They will be divided in the future by the extension of 6th Street.

The tract on the north side of the proposed 6th Street contains 1,292 acres of land, with a 355-foot front on the street right-of-way. The tract on the south side has a 251-foot front on the right-of-way, and it contains 4,212 acres.

According to the city advertisement, bids can be made on the tract separately or jointly.

Optimists Choose Ex-Big Springer As International V-P

William T. (Bill) Tate, former Big Springer and owner of insurance interests here, has been named a vice president of Optimist International.

Now a resident of Dallas, Tate was selected as one of four international v-p's at the recent convention of Optimist International, held in Houston.

Tate has been an active leader in Optimist Club work for several years, and served as District Governor of the organization's District 7. He holds an honor as the district's all-time Outstanding Optimist, has visited, on several occasions, all the clubs in his district.

Police Receive Theft Reports

Several thefts—including a bicycle, engagement rings, and money—were reported to police here Saturday.

W. L. McCarty, who resides at Miller's Courts, told officers that two engagement rings and a wedding band were stolen from his room during the last four days. All three rings were of yellow gold, he said, and the wedding band had five stones settings.

The bicycle was reported stolen by Mrs. Fred Wilkinson, 311 West Blvd. She said it was taken while her son was at the Ritz Theatre. The bicycle was black and white and did not have fenders, she stated.

Theft of $10 was reported to police by T. C. Jackson, who called officers to a northside restaurant Saturday afternoon. Officers advised him to file a complaint.

Hardeman Suggests State Bond Issue For Dam Projects

SAN ANGELO, Tex., July 10 (AP)—State Sen. Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo has proposed a $100 million bond issue as a means of financing Texas water projects.

Hardeman offered the plan as a possible constitutional amendment. He outlined the plan in a letter to J.B. Thomas, chairman of the governor's committee on water conservation. Hardeman is the chairman of the State Water Resources Committee named by the Legislature.

The San Angelo lawmaker proposed that the state finance portions of dam project costs over a 25 to 40 year term. No state funds have yet been expended for water project construction.

Hardeman's water committee is to meet at Austin Thursday and Friday of next week.

Bessmay Man Guilty In Death Of Woman

JASPER, Tex., July 10 (AP)—J.W. Barfield, 34, of Bessmay, was convicted today of murder without malice in the death of Mrs. Margaret Newson, 36, of Nederland.

Mrs. Newson was found dead last March 15 in the home of Homer Barfield in Bessmay. Homer Barfield is the father of J.W. Barfield.

The younger Barfield was arrested at the home the same day. Barfield was sentenced to a five year term. He was released on a $2,500 bond.

Walkout Occurs On Laredo Bridge Job

LAREDO, Tex., July 10 (AP)—A wage dispute caused 39 men working on a pontoon bridge across the Rio Grande here to walk off their jobs.

Andrew M. Gault, general manager of the Laredo Bridge System, said the men were asking a 25-cent an hour wage hike. Gault said he thought the dispute could be settled quickly. The workers are non-union.

A two-lane semi-permanent pontoon bridge is being built to replace the international bridge which was knocked out in the Rio Grande flood last week.

Prisoner In Amarillo Jail Dies Of Injuries

AMARILLO, Tex., July 10 (AP)—Walker H. Wilson, 24, died of injuries today after being kicked by a fellow prisoner in the city jail here.

Charged with murder in connection with the death of James M. Gollighugh of Amarillo. Prisoner said Wilson, of Gregory, was kicked in the mouth or on the chin and fell backward with his head striking the concrete floor.

Letter Carriers Select Officers

LUBBOCK, Tex., July 10 (AP)—The Texas Association of Letter Carriers today chose Corpus Christi for its next convention.

The association, at its convention here, chose L.N. Presley of Fort Worth as president. Named vice presidents were A.B. Cross of Corpus Christi and Dennis Lee of Paris. Mrs. Lera McCulley of Wichita Falls was voted the president of the auxiliary.

New, bigger load space! New, lower loading height!

New Chevrolet Trucks... do more work per day... more work per dollar!

You save on operating costs. High-compression power in every model saves you money every mile! The "Thrifmaster 235" engine, the "Loadmaster 235," and the "Jobmaster 261" (optional on 2-ton models at extra cost), deliver increased horsepower and operating economy, both.

You save extra trips. That's because of the extra load space you get. New pickup bodies are deeper... new stake and platform bodies are wider and longer. Also, they're set lower to the ground to make loading and unloading faster and easier.

You save time on deliveries. With new truck Hydra-Matic transmission, you save valuable time at every delivery stop. And you can forget about clutching and shifting! This proved automatic transmission is optional at extra cost on 1/2-, 3/4- and 1-ton models.

You save with lower upkeep, too. New chassis strength saves you money on maintenance. For example, there are heavier axle shafts in two-ton models... bigger clutches in light- and heavy-duty models... stronger frames in all models.

You save hours on the road. Thanks to new high-compression engine power, you can maintain faster schedules without driving at higher maximum road speeds. Increased acceleration and hill-climbing ability let you save time where it counts!

And your savings start the day you buy. Chevrolet, you know, is America's lowest-priced line of trucks. And it's also the truck that has a traditionally higher trade-in value.

Mr. and Mrs. James Underwood have returned from their vacation in South Texas towns including Rockport and Corpus Christi where they fished and visited friends.

UNCLE RAY'S CORNER

A nine-year-old girl wrote a letter several weeks ago, and news of it was telegraphed far and wide. The girl of whom I speak is Linda Sue Russell, and she lives in the state of New Mexico.

Millions of letters have been written by children, but few of them have been published so widely. There was something special about Linda's letter—it was addressed to the people of Mars!

Linda asked some of the Martians to visit her home. She had an idea which she wanted to talk over with them. She said that she was writing to stop the earth people from fighting, and added, "All they have is war, war, and I'm getting tired of it..."

Some readers may ask, "How could a letter be delivered to Mars?"

That question is hard to answer, but I think there is wisdom in Linda's heart. Most other persons, including grownups, fold their hands and wait to see whether a third world war will take place. This child, on the other hand, has tried to do something to stop war.

are on earth. If people, in general, express their views strongly enough, I believe that they can save the human race. The voice of the people is important to men in high office. Even when such men care little about the general good, they are likely to be afraid of public opinion.

No way exists, at this time, to deliver Linda's letter to Mars. The day may come when rockets will keep up a mail service between planets, but only the future can tell whether that will take place.

For the present, this eager-minded child might seem to have missed out in her effort, but there are points to remember. Her words have reached millions of homes on this earth. The plea of a child for a decent world has been heard.

Since writing her letter to Mars, Linda Sue Russell has received letters in large number. They have been sent to her by men and women, boys and girls. In this way she has been given proof that countless people feel the same way she does about the need for world peace.

Senate Investigators Of Housing Scandal To Take Testimony On Brooklyn Project

By ROWLAND EVANS JR. WASHINGTON, July 10 (U)—Senators investigating multi-million-dollar postwar housing irregularities will take testimony Monday from one of the backers of a Brooklyn, N.Y., apartment project built with a government-insured loan alleged to have exceeded construction cost by 3½ million dollars. Chairman Capehart (R-Ind) of the Senate Banking Committee identified the builder in a statement as Fred C. Trump. Capehart said Trump is one of five metropolitan New York operators summoned for next week's resumption of public hearings into housing scandal charges.

Trump has been identified by William F. McKenna, hired by the Housing and Home Finance Agency to head a special scandal cleanup squad, as a "principal" in the Beach Haven Apartments, Inc., in Brooklyn.

McKenna testified several weeks ago that loans to build the project, guaranteed by the Federal Housing Administration, exceeded the cost of the project by 3½ million dollars. In addition, McKenna testified, "over $1,700,000 in rents were collected before the first payment had to be made on the mortgage . . . partly because permission to commence construction in advance of loan closing was granted without requiring that the first principal payment be advanced." McKenna said that according to FHA records Trump and William Tomassello, whose address was not given, were "the principals of this project." Tomassello was not on the list of witnesses announced today. McKenna indicated the sponsors' total investment in cash was $34,500.

Cowleys Visiting Throughout State

FORSAN—Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Cowley and their granddaughter, Martha Cowley, and Mrs. Amy Reid left Friday for a vacation in several East Texas and South Texas points.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Grissom, DeElma, Pamela and Sue and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sherrill attended funeral services for Mrs. O. G. Ham in San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Goepflinger and children have been visiting in Big Lake with his parents. Jack Averett of Terminal is here with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Averett and Sue.

he probably will take up with the Senate this week the question of obtaining an extra half million dollars for the housing scandal probe. The Senate already has voted his committee a $150,000 fund.

The Indiana Republican declared himself "absolutely amazed and aghast" at what he called "the incredible way the FHA handled this program." He said he would need several score committee investigators "to do the kind of a reporting job the American people should get on this fantastic situation."

"Windfall" profits in the expired postwar apartment - project program and existing other programs also under study resulted from government - insured loans exceeding construction costs. The difference allegedly was pocketed by the sponsor or builder of the project in some cases and rents were set to meet the amortization costs of the swollen loans rather than the actual construction cost.

DO IT YOURSELF Desk Combination Is Ideal For Children

By BILL BAKER
If there are children in your family, today's pattern is for you—and this is the case no matter in what age group your children may fall.

Today's pattern is a Children's Desk Combination. It has been designed to meet the needs of your offspring from the time he is about a year old until he graduates from college.

I want to tell you something about this unusual furniture item because I know it can do a good job for you, just as it is now doing a good job for me in my own home. And, best of all, it will be so very easy for you to build this desk yourself and put it to work in the children's room.

The desk top is planned so that it may be tilted to any angle. This feature is highly desirable for the very young, since it allows a better display for drawing being done by tiny, unsure hands.

And as the child grows older, the desk surface will continue to be used. For writing it can be slanted to any desired angle. And in its flat position it is sturdy enough to hold a typewriter.

To the right of the desk is a spacious storage section. Three deep shelves will hold toys in the early years, and later will display school books, treasured collections

For The Children

Add this desk combination to your home with Bill Baker's newest do-it-yourself design. Cary, at desk, and Claudia, two of Bill Baker's three children, show you how the finished product will look in your home.

or personal property.

A roomy drawer is at the bottom of the shelf section. Here the youngster will have a place to hide his secrets—a drawer of his own. And when school starts it will continue to offer a place for storage—for class projects or clothing, or for any of the thousands of things students keep.

Like all patterns in this series, the Children's Desk Combination is very easy to build. All you need to put this useful item into your child's room is the help of Bill

Baker's extra-simple pattern number 121.

Heavy duty paper pattern pieces are supplied, so all you have to do is trace, cut and assemble. The pattern is exact size, assuring an exact fit when the item is finished. Your desk, then, will have all of the appearance features usually found only in custom-built pieces.

When you add this item to your home, you'll wonder how you ever managed without it. I know this from personal experience.

Commiss Proceed Methodically In Selling Asia Neutralist Line

Editor's Note — Communist China's Premier Chou En-lai is pushing a Red line in Asia with remarkable success. Veteran foreign affairs reporter William L. Ryan, who recently toured Southeast Asia and talked to its leaders, tells in this column report why Asians are acting favorably to Communist propaganda — and why they distrust the United States.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press Foreign News Analyst

Friendly, reasonable and all smiles, the Communists are proceeding methodically in an attempt to bring off a political Dien Bien Phu in Asia.

The fact the West must face is that the Communists are meeting with astonishing success.

First, they have presented to the West an unenviable choice between retreating and risking world war.

Second, they have provoked a situation which strains the West's grand alliance against Red imperialism.

Third, the alarm inspired by their successes abroad has brought about sharp divisions within the United States — as exemplified by the quarrel over possible American withdrawal from the United Nations in the event Red China wins admission.

Red victory in the military battle of Dien Bien Phu in Indochina frightened the West as the possibility that attempts to stop Red expansion will bring all-out war to Asian soil. The Communists have played on this fear in a drive to isolate as much of Asia as possible from the United States.

Grinning amiably and speaking softly, Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai is a super-salesman for the Moscow-Peking line. He is attempting to sell Asians a big package deal: the promise of peaceful coexistence, nonaggression pacts and mutual respect of sovereignties for the price of turning away from the United States and rendering themselves helpless against future Red plans.

Even before Chou made his swing through South and Southeast Asia, Communist victories in Indochina had been paving the way for his success, creating a climate of cautious, fear-inspired neutralism. "We don't want to be part of any power bloc," an influential government leader told me recently in Burma. "Our country has just emerged from colonialism. It is like a tender plant which needs time to grow."

And a leader of the strongly anti-Communist Masjumi party, largest numerically in populous Indonesia, said: "If we were in power today, we would shy away from involvement in any power bloc."

Even the most pro-American statesmen in India professed the same sentiment.

Skilled observers in Asia size up the situation this way:

Neither Moscow nor Peking wants war now. But both are gambling heavily on the assumption that no other nation wants war either.

Whatever differences might exist between Moscow and Peking, the two have reached general agreement on a common program for a cautious step-by-step expansion of Communist domination.

The heart of this program is the new post-Stalin look. Gone are the scowls and thunder of Stalin which had the effect of hardening resistance to him in non-Communist lands. The present world Communist leadership is intent upon giving substance to its self-portrait of a movement for world peace.

launched their smiling approach, things have gone badly for the Western Alliance and the audience for Soviet blandishments abroad has been growing.

NEED 20 'NO' VOTES

U. N. Diplomats Doubt If U. S. Able To Defeat Red China Bid

By RELMAN MORIN

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., July 10 (AP)—A diplomat sat in the lounge in the United Nations Building the other day, playing a solo version of the game, 20 Questions.

"I am trying to figure out," he said, soberly, "whether the United States can get the 20 votes to keep Red China out of here."

His conclusion: It will be close. To seat the Reds in the General Assembly would require an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the 60 nations, assuming there were no abstentions. The United States, then, would need 20 votes, plus its own, to defeat the motion.

Secretary of State Dulles has expressed confidence that these votes will be forthcoming if or when the issue is raised. At the U.N., delegates are much less sure of that.

They say the lineup of nations has shifted so that a greater number of them now favor admitting the Chinese Communists into the organization. A leading Asian statesman predicted that "The United States will be supported only by a handful of Latin American nations."

(There are 20 of these, however, so if they voted solidly, the issue would be decided.)

The major shift appears to have been in the position of Britain. Officials in London have indicated that, barring unforeseen developments, the United Kingdom is strongly inclined to favor admitting Red China.

Reliable Washington sources reported Prime Minister Churchill and Foreign Secretary Eden informed President Eisenhower of this when they were here.

Several days ago New Zealand's foreign minister, T. Clifton Webb, urged U.N. membership for Red China during a foreign policy debate in Parliament. The other British Commonwealth nations might go along.

How many other votes this swing might carry with it is hard to gauge.

Possibly as a reaction, a spate of sternly-worded statements came from Washington. The one that stirred most comment came from Sen. Knowland, (R-Calif) Senate majority leader. He advocated that the United States pull out of the U.N. if Red China is voted in.

A delegate to the U.N. who asked not to be identified said Knowland's statement would win votes for the group advocating membership for the Chinese Communist regime. "American threats," he said, "will only put peoples' backs up."

However that may be, the world lineup presented itself this way to the people who are playing diplomatic "20 Questions" —

Within the U.N. there are 17 nations that have recognized Mao Tse-tung's government. Along with the Communist countries, they include Britain, Norway, Sweden, Denmark and The Netherlands. Depending on present negotiations over Indochina, there is a possibility that France might be added to this list. A majority of the votes from Western Europe thus might be cast for admitting Red China.

In the Middle East, Israel has recognized Peking. However, Greece and Turkey generally have voted with the United States. An Arab statesman predicted the Arab nations will vote together, but would not hazard a guess which way.

In the Far East, India, Burma, Ceylon and Indonesia advocate membership for the Reds. New Zealand, Australia, and Pakistan possibly would follow Britain's lead. Thailand and the Chinese Nationalists would vote against. The Philippines government has not clarified its position. Japan is not a member of the U.N.

In South America, most of the nations have tended to support the U.S. position on most issues. Probably a majority, if not all, would ballot against Red China on this one.

LEIGHTON R. MUNDT
For TREASURER of HOWARD COUNTY

Let's give him a chance to prove his qualifications. He has lived among us for twenty-one years and is well known for his honesty and efficiency. Vote for Mundt July 24th. He will be on the Job for you. (Paid Pol. Adv.)

I Want To Introduce To The Voters Of Howard County

(Myself)

RALPH J. NEILL

As A Candidate FOR YOUR NEXT

Commissioner of Precinct No. 4

I am 39 years of age, born and raised here in Howard County. Have a wife and three children, we live and operate a farm in the Center Point Community. I attended Big Spring High School. After my schooling I became employed in the oil field. Seven years of my oil field experience I was foreman over a tank builders crew. I have had experience in various kinds of construction, building construction, road construction, bridges, retaining walls. Also have had experience in dealing with people. In my past experience I have always tried to be honest and faithful to my fellowman. I enlisted in the Navy Construction Battalion during World War II. I served as an instructor in technical training school for the first year, also served overseas for 22 months as a Chief Petty Officer, received my discharge in November of 1945. Since then I have lived on the farm.

My campaign is to build and maintain better roads, to work for an honest administration of our county to be honest and faithful to everyone, to give an honest decision on every problem that comes before the commissioners court also give you an honest days work and expect every employe of the county to do likewise. I understand the need of our county roads.

Let me have the opportunity to be your next Commissioner of Precinct No. 4. I'll work for a good administration of our county—also a good sound maintenance of our county roads. (Pd. Pol. Adv.)

Saturday Play Day Programs Will End

The Saturday play day programs, held the past three weeks, will be discontinued beginning Saturday, B. B. Lees, director, has announced.

Saturday attendance was higher when all three of Big Spring's playgrounds were kept open, Lees said. Two of the playgrounds had been closed each Saturday, one remaining open.

In the future all playgrounds will have supervised Saturday programs.

I WANT To Be Your SHERIFF

Right now I am, as I have been for several years, a roofing contractor, but I really want to be your sheriff — I want to be so earnestly I'll do my dead level best to make you a good one. I will be friendly, honest and operate the office economically and efficiently.

And Please Remember

Wheat Harvest Nears End

Mitchell County wheat cascades into a wagon on the Zack Lasseter farm, in the Carr community. A. T. Barker is combine operator and T. A. Rees spreads the grain. Mitchell County farmers were expected to realize $70,000 from their 1954 wheat.

Mitchell Farmers Near End Of $70,000 Wheat Crop Harvest

COLORADO CITY — Mitchell County farmers move into the final days of the wheat harvest this week, with a $70,000 crop in prospect for the county.

"Officially, there are 8,443 acres of wheat in the county," says Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation administrator Will Jones, "and probably about 5,000 will be harvested." Jones said that the ASC had 18 wheat loans on 7,703 bushels of wheat from Mitchell County—all stored at Roscoe and Big Spring. The farmer with wheat under a loan will receive the support price of $2.21, less warehousing, which leaves a net of about $2.05. In contrast, the farmer who sells his wheat on the open market will receive about $1.80, per bushel.

Jones estimates a total harvest in the neighborhood of 35,000 bushels. Zack T. Lasseter of Westbrook says that this year's crop is only "fair—not an average crop." High winds ruined the crop, says Lasseter.

Lasseter is a wheat booster and prefers it to the county's traditional cotton—"I'd rather have 15-bushel-to-the-acre wheat any day than to have a cotton crop."

Lasseter has over 400 acres of wheat on his farms south of Westbrook and in the Carr community northwest of Westbrook.

This year Lasseter has a brand new 14-foot, self-propelled combine, probably the largest in the county. "I tried to use a 10-foot combine for five years," Lasseter says, "but it's not big enough."

According to A. T. Barker of Westbrook, who operates the new machine for Lasseter, it will cut about 50 acres a day of 20-bushel wheat. It cuts thin wheat at a steady average of over three miles per hour and will do about 20 on the open road. Improvements on the new model include a hydraulic lift on the sickle.

"If you have a bad year with wheat, you can make your expense money by grazing it—and you can't do that with cotton," Lasseter declares.

In addition to wheat, Lasseter has been cutting oats. He had 60 acres of his own and Westbrook neighbors have more. ASC estimates place the number of acres of oats in the county at about 2,000, with about 700 to be harvested. The balance will be grazed.

In September, Lasseter will use his machine to combine maize. Jones says that the national referendum on wheat controls is set for July 23. A two-thirds majority of eligible voters favoring acreage controls will entitle wheat raisers to the subsidy price which will be set at from 75 to 90 per cent of parity. The exact percentage is still to be determined by Congress.

If controls are rejected, quota allotments will be set anyway and only those farmers who stay within them will be eligible for the 50 per cent support price.

Jones said that polling places will probably be at Colorado City, Loraine and Westbrook.

Adlai Declares GOP Promises Biggest Surplus

EUGENE, Ore., July 10 (AP)—Adlai Stevenson told a Democratic party rally here today that "our greatest national surplus" is "perishable Republican campaign promises of 1952."

In a speech prepared for the rally, the 1952 Democratic presidential nominee referred to Republican campaign slogans and declared:

"Now, a year and a half later, what do we see? It looks as though our greatest national surplus wasn't wheat after all but the perishable Republican campaign promises of 1952."

"I never thought I would live to see that day when we would have the lowest farm prices and the highest cost of living in years all at the same time."

"But," he continued, "our predicament is no joking matter with unemployment spreading, Asia tottering, our alliances disintegrating and our leadership faltering at home and abroad in a perilous period."

He said Democrats can take no "partisan satisfaction in the melancholy state of our affairs."

"We must help this administration in Washington succeed," Stevenson said. "It must succeed because America must succeed."

Stevenson sharply criticized Republican power and water policies.

He said they add up to "a drastic change in what has been virtually a bipartisan natural resources policy for almost half a century."

"I don't believe the people" in 1952 "intended their vote as a license to turn the national domain over to private interests," he said.

"I often warned during the campaign of 1952 that the Republican policy of relinquishing the tidelands was also dangerous as a precedent for giving away other assets of the nation that belong to the people. And that is exactly what appears to be happening."

Use of fertilizer in the United States reached an all-time high of 23,143,000 tons in 1953.

5,027 Books Issued In June From Library At Courthouse

A total of 5,027 books was checked out in June, Howard County Free Library officials reported. The library, open six days a week, has issued cards to 1,143 borrowers.

Ten books were purchased recently and are now available, Mrs. Opal McDaniel, librarian, said.

They are Daphne Du Maurier's novel, "Mary Anne"; "Best in Books," "Tomorrow" by Philip Wylie; "On Eagles' Wings," by Arthur E. Southan; Margaret Mitchell's "Gone With the Wind"; "Three Stars for the Colonel," by James A. Clark; "Reader's Digest Condensed Books"; Garland Barker's "A Story of the Texas Navy"; and Homer's "The Iliad," and "The Odyssey."

Excerpts from works of Joseph Conrad, Helen Beal Woodward, Ruth McKeeny, Milton Runyon, Vilma Bergane, J. Wesley Smith, and Burr Shafer are included in "Best in Books."

"Reader's Digest Condensed Books" contains condensations from "The Power and the Prize," by Howard Swiggert; Joseph Hayes' "The Desperate Hours"; "General Dean's Story," an autobiography; "The Duchess and the Smugs," by Pamela Frankau; and "Mr. Hobbs' Vacation," by Edward Streeter.

New officers of the Knights of Pythias will be installed Tuesday by H. M. Rainbolt, immediate past grand commander of Texas.

The ceremony is set for 8 p.m. in Castle Hall at 1407 Lancaster and all knights are being urged to participate.

J. O. Tines will become chancellor commander, succeeding Clyde McMahon, who becomes master at work. Others to be installed include M. L. Gourley, vice commander; Douglas Jones, prelate; Luther Coleman, master at arms; Richard Collier, inner guard; R. S. McCullah, outer guard; and Robert Hill, secretary-treasurer.

New Grader Goes In Service In City

A new maintainer was put into service by the City of Big Spring during the latter part of the week, it was announced by City Manager H. W. Whitney.

The maintainer was sold to the city by Morton Equipment Company of Abilene on low bid. The six-cylinder motor has 50 horsepower, and the vehicle is equipped with a 10-foot moldboard.

An old maintainer was traded in on the newer model, and the difference in cost was $4,250. Manager Whitney said that workers have expressed satisfaction in the performance of the machine.

Man Is Jailed In Theft Case

A man was placed in the Howard County jail Saturday pending completion of an investigation into the theft of some $500 worth of equipment from a drilling rig in the northeast part of the county.

The theft occurred Thursday night. The man was arrested Friday in Stanton in connection with another offense. Questioning by officers disclosed the possibility of the prisoner's connection with the oil field theft. He was transferred here Saturday from Stanton. No charges have been filed.

Knights Of Pythias To Install Officers

New officers of the Knights of Pythias will be installed Tuesday by H. M. Rainbolt, immediate past grand commander of Texas.

The ceremony is set for 8 p.m. in Castle Hall at 1407 Lancaster and all knights are being urged to participate.

J. O. Tines will become chancellor commander, succeeding Clyde McMahon, who becomes master at work. Others to be installed include M. L. Gourley, vice commander; Douglas Jones, prelate; Luther Coleman, master at arms; Richard Collier, inner guard; R. S. McCullah, outer guard; and Robert Hill, secretary-treasurer.

Kreuger To Aid In Handbook Preparation

Sgt. Ed Kreuger has been assigned to temporary duty at Scott Field, Ill., to help prepare a new handbook for editors of base newspapers in Flying Training Air Force.

The "Springboard," Webb AFB paper, edited by Sgt. Kreuger, was selected as the best in the training command and the editor was sent to Scott for a short stay to work on the new guide. Sgt. Bill Siler, who has been editing the paper for the past month, will continue in charge of the Springboard.

Use of fertilizer in the United States reached an all-time high of 23,143,000 tons in 1953.

Chamber Directors Will Meet Monday

There will be a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce board of directors at noon Monday, it was announced by J. H. Greene, Chamber manager.

Routine business will be discussed, Greene said. The meeting is to take the place of the one which was postponed July 5, he explained.

The session was called by Champ Rainwater, Big Spring Chamber president. It will be held in the conference room at the Permian Building, and sandwiches will be served.

Labor Council Sets Meet To Complete Candidates Roster

The Big Spring Trades & Labor Council, representing most of the labor unions in Big Spring, will meet Tuesday evening to complete a roster of candidates it will endorse for the various political offices.

The meeting is set for 8 p.m. in the justice courtroom at the courthouse.

The Trades & Labor Council includes representatives of 13 unions. Each union has one member and one alternate for the council.

M. J. O'Brien, representing the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, is the council president. Vice president is J. J. Roemer, of the Carpenter's Local. L. R. Mundt, of the Painters' Local, is secretary.

Bids Requested On McEwen Project

Construction bids on a used car sales building for McEwen Motor Company can be submitted until 2 p.m. on July 16, it was announced Saturday.

The building, which will be 32 by 41½ feet, is to be located on the corner of 5th and Grege. It will contain two offices plus wash and polish rooms.

Architects for the structure are Puckett and French, and the firm has placed a set of plans in the Chamber of Commerce offices for the convenience of those who wish to see them.

The sales building apparently will combine features of ranch type and modernistic structures. It will have a porch along one side, and outside walls will be of Roman brick and plywood.

Firemen To Attend A&M Short Course

Three Big Spring firemen will attend the 30th annual Firefighters' School at Texas A&M College next week. They are Chief H. V. Crocker, Pete Anderson, and Jewel Williamson.

Anderson and Crocker were admitted to leave Big Spring today. They will be joined at College Station by Crocker, who has been in Lubbock on vacation for the past week.

The school will continue through next Friday, classes starting at 8 a.m. and ending at 2 p.m. each day.

More Than 100 At Forsan Rally

More than 100 voters and politicians were on hand for the political rally and barbecue at the Forsan Country Club Friday evening.

Candidates spoke from the porch of the country club building following the barbecue. They were introduced by Lee Porter, chairman of political activities for Howard County candidates.

This Is What People Who Know Him Best Think Of DALE LANE

TO THE HONORABLE CITIZENS AND VOTERS OF HOWARD COUNTY, TEXAS

This Department and myself as Chief of Police for the city of Amarillo, Texas have known Mr. Dale Lane, Ex-Sheriff of Hutchinson County, and have had considerable correspondence and work with Mr. Lane in connection with Law Enforcement in Texas. We know that he is well qualified as Peace Officer and will do his best to fill the job given him by Officers or Citizens. He has worked in and out of Amarillo for over 15 years as a Peace Officer working on Criminal Cases and other work that is given Officers to carry out in their line of duty.

We feel sure that if Mr. Dale Lane is given a job as Law Enforcement Official in your County that he will make a good, honest effort to fill the job for you. We know that he is capable of working out problems of Law Enforcement to the best benefit to the people and those involved.

Please feel free to call on this Department for any service we can give as Officers for you Citizens of Howard County or any other City, County or State.

Capacity Crowd Due At Fete For Tollett

While a capacity crowd is in prospect, reservations still may be had for the dinner program honoring Raymond L. Tollett, the Chamber of Commerce Committee sponsoring the affair announced Saturday.

Those who wish to have a part in expressing the community's appreciation to Tollett for his civic contributions through the years are requested to arrange for tickets immediately. It is planned to close reservations lists by Wednesday.

The banquet will be at the Settles Hotel Friday evening, beginning at 7 o'clock.

Principal speaker will be the Hon. James V. Allred, U. S. District Judge who formerly was attorney general and governor of Texas, and who ranks as one of the important figures in recent Texas political history.

A large number of out-of-town civic and business leaders have accepted invitations to join in the tribute to Tollett. These will be introduced, and will be represented by remarks of response from C. T. McLaughlin, oil man of Snyder.

Vocal numbers will be given by Mrs. David Barlow, of New York City, the former Cornelia Frazier, who is here visiting her mother. Accompanist will be Mrs. Champ Rainwater, who also will play organ music during the meal.

Special recognition will be given to Tollett by the Chamber of Commerce, through Champ Rainwater, president; by Local 826, IUOE, the organization with which Cosden has an operating contract and by a group of veteran employes at Cosden. R. W. Whipkey is to be master of ceremonies.

State National Bank, R. V. Burns, Noel Lester, Jack Willcox, Bud Flanagan, Temp Currie Jr., E. W. Lomax, and Dave Christian made $10 donations.

Making $5 donations were Dr. O. E. Wolfe, Durward Lewter, P. O. Hughes, Mrs. T. S. Currie, Agnes Currie, Mrs. Loy Acuff, L. R. Mundt, Alvin Bates, J. T. Bell, Kyle Miller and Victor Mellinger.

Other cash donations were T. O. Nichols, $2.50; a friend, $2; W. F. Heckler, $2.00; and Murph Thorp, $1.

Donations may be sent to Big Spring Weekly News or Temp Currie Jr. at State National Bank.

Planning committees will meet at 2:30 p.m. July 17 in the constable's office to discuss last minute plans.

Electrical 'Short' Causes Fire Alarm

Ceiling sheetrock was damaged by water at the home of Casimiro Rocha, 600 NE 9th, Friday evening when he attempted to put out what he believed to be an attic fire.

The electrical wires had shorted out, firemen said, and a number of sparks resulted in the attic. Rocha disconnected electricity by pulling the switch in the switch box.

Smoke still poured from the attic, and he thought the building was on fire. So he took a garden hose to the attic and turned on the water.

When fire truck arrived, the attic was filled with considerable water. The only damage, according to firemen, was what the water did to the sheetrock.

Sue Newman, Howard County home demonstration agent since last Aug. 15, Saturday notified County Judge R. H. Weaver of plans to transfer to Marlin, where she will serve as Falls County home demonstration agent. Her husband, Thomas Newman, will enroll in Texas A&M College as an agriculture student. Mrs. Newman accepted the Falls County position because of its proximity to College Station. The county commissioners court is to confer with extension service officials in the near future concerning the selection of a successor to Mrs. Newman.

Man Accused Of Leaving Wreck Scene Is Jailed

Police placed in jail Saturday a Big Spring man who they say left the scene of an accident last Monday evening without giving proper information to the other driver.

Complaint against the man was signed by Antonio Rodriguez, the other car operator. The accident occurred in the 500 block of West 3rd.

Four automobile accidents were reported to police Friday afternoon and Saturday, and officers said there apparently were no injuries.

Third and Johnson was the scene of a collision at 7:10 a.m. Saturday. Drivers of the vehicles involved were Wilber Luther Clendinning, 2001 Scurry, and Walter Lee Hathcox, Detroit, Mich. Saturday afternoon police said a car rolled down a hill and ran into a fence at 210 Algetita.

Shortly after noon Friday a collision occurred in the 2500 block of Gregg. Drivers were Aubrey Ray Barshler, Snyder, and Carole Rae Miller, California.

About 12:30 p.m. Friday, Herbert Clark, Fort Worth, and Don Morris Sherman, Odessa, were driving cars which were in an accident in the 300 block of East 3rd.

Fined For Theft

A man was fined $35 in City Court Saturday morning after he pleaded guilty to charges of petty theft. He admitted taking some canned goods from Newsom's Grocery. The man had been arrested Friday night in the 200 block of Main.

French Fear Tunisia Might Become Another Indochina

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

TUNIS (U)—A 5-year-old boy was murdered in cold blood, and suddenly Frenchmen wondered if they were going to have another Indochina on their hands.

The boy was the son of a Tunisian farmer who had been a member of a new "army of liberation" but had quit. The child was slain out of vengeance and as a warning to others.

In May this "army of liberation" known simply as the Fellagahs and once considered only bandits, started a hit-and-run warfare against the French with naked terror as a weapon. The terror is still going on.

I have seen Indochina and I have seen Nationalist movements in action in many parts of the world. In North Africa there are all the elements for a future bloody hide-and-seek war.

The French say the Fellagahs number only about 800 but admit they are now organized. Tunisians say the Fellagahs number many more, an organized force which can march miles on almost no food under harsh conditions in a type of guerrilla warfare. Raising such a force is difficult—fear of reprisals against families is fresh in the minds of all Tunisians.

Fellagah reinforcements are believed to train in a school near Tripoli, in Libya. This report came from many sources, both French and Tunisian. They agree that the Fellagahs are being trained with modern weapons, although they use leftover guns of World War II. The Fellagahs are often uniformed and often wear insignia of rank.

Some belief is expressed that North African soldiers captured in Indochina by the Communists have received "political re-education" and sent to Tunisia to train and

Crane Polio Case Rushed To Hospital

Five-year-old Leslie Oldham, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Oldham, son of Crane, was admitted to Malone and Hogan Hospital during the pre-dawn hours Saturday for treatment of infantile paralysis.

His physician said that the youth apparently has a non-paralytic case of polio, but that it is yet too early to know for sure. The doctor stated that he is optimistic as to the results.

Leslie was rushed to Big Spring via ambulance when his illness was diagnosed as polio. Local po-

Use escorted the Crane ambulance to the hospital at 1 a.m. Saturday.

Split Of Long-Disputed Trieste Between Italy, Slavs Due Soon

By JAMES M. LONG
 ROME, July 10 (AP)—A so-called "provisional" division of the long-disputed Trieste Free Territory between Yugoslavia and Italy is expected within a few days, possibly early next week.
 Immediate results will be:
 1. Italy probably will be invited to join Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey in their projected Balkan military alliance. This would knock down the last barriers to link Communist but anti-Communist Yugoslavia with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.
 2. Italy probably would rush her ratification of the European Defense Community by the end of August, leaving France as the last holdout nation to a West European army.
 3. This nation's thin-majority Center bloc government would face its "test in blood" against the powerful Communist Left and rising Fascist Right. Both threaten strikes and riots over any compromise on Trieste.
 4. Trieste itself, losing its tax-free international status, would face an economic crisis after nine years of dollar-padded prosperity.

A settlement would write a new leaf in the troubled, conqueror-studded 2,122-year history of this strategic upper Adriatic port which Caesar called "Tergeste" in his Gallic wars and which Dante mentioned in his "Inferno."
 Advance reports say Yugoslavia has accepted a compromise worked out in conferences with the United States and Britain, and Italy is expected to agree.
 Yugoslavia and Italy will call the division "provisional," since both claim all the disputed area—Italy as a prize of World War I and Yugoslavia as a prize of World War II.
 In brief, the compromise provides:
 Italy will take over Zone A of Trieste, 86 square miles with a population of 300,000, including the port of Trieste, guarded for nine years since the World War II peace treaty by a United States regiment—4,000 men—and three British battalions—3,000 men.
 Yugoslavia will finalize her control over Zone B, a farming hinterland south and east of the port city, with 75,000 population and 119 square miles, which her troops have guarded for those nine years. The compromise reportedly calls for minor adjustments of the zonal frontier, mostly in favor of Yugoslavia, and for an undisclosed number of millions of American dollars to help Yugoslavia develop her own port at Capodistria, south of Trieste.

 That is close to the same thing as the British-American announcement of last Oct. 8 that they planned to turn Zone A over to Italian administration.
 Then Yugoslav President Tito roared like a wounded lion and rushed his tough-trained troops to the Italian frontier, Italy moved up NATO-armed infantry and tank divisions.
Strept Throat Leads Contagious Diseases
 Twenty-five cases of strept throat were reported in the county last week.
 Other diseases included diarrhea, 23; upper respiratory, 15; tonsillitis, 15; influenza, 12; chicken pox, 5; mumps, 3; pneumonia, 2; and hepatitis, 1.

$75 Fine Levied On DWI Charges

A fine of $75 was assessed in County Court Saturday against Milton Jackson Miller Jr., who pleaded guilty to charges of driving while intoxicated.
 Miller was charged on complaint of Highway Patrolman Jimmie Parks. The charge was filed following an accident on Highway 80 west of Big Spring June 29. Miller said Saturday he had been in a hospital since the accident.
 A $20 fine was levied Friday against B. N. Harrell, who pleaded guilty to charges of defrauding with worthless check. Charges against Harrell were filed in connection with a $10 check given at the Mason Drive Inn.
 Only about one person in seven over 65 years old is disabled.

French Premier Remains Hopeful

PARIS, July 10 (AP)—Premier Pierre Mendes-France tonight told the French people negotiations for an end to the fighting in Indochina have run into obstacles but he was hopeful they could be overcome. Mendes-France spoke in a radio address recorded just before he left by plane for Geneva to lead the French delegation. The Premier said he was determined to be firm in his negotiations and to reject any attempt to drive a wedge between France and her allies. He declared all his efforts in the past three weeks had been aimed at strengthening France's position so that it can achieve its goal of peace. This will be the do-or-die effort of Mendes-France's political career. He has promised to resign if he has not worked out a cease-fire by July 20. "No one can definitely say at the present time what the outcome will be because, on several important points, the negotiations in progress have not yet permitted us to find an agreement," he said. "All through the days which are coming, there will be divergences, misunderstandings, problems, accidents. And each time that one difficulty will have been solved, another and then another will appear right up to the last moment. These difficulties must be surmounted."

Bodies Of Air Crash Victims To Be Sent Home During Day

Bodies of two cadets and two officers, victims of a collision in flight north of Webb AFB Thursday night, were to be shipped home Sunday for final rites. Identification was fixed late Friday on two who were aboard the first plane found. They were 1st Lt. John J. Sorem, 24, pilot instructor, and AC Albert S. Edmondson, III, 21. Those identified Friday morning were 2nd Lt. Edward R. Cavanaugh, 25, and AC John P. Street, 22. Everley-River Funeral Home was to ship the bodies of Lt. Sorem and Cadets Street and Edmondson via T&P train at 8:40 a. m. and Lt. Cavanaugh at 3:35 p. m. Lt. Cavanaugh is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cavanaugh, Phoenix, Ariz., and his body will be accompanied by 1st Lt. Jerry L. Welch. The remains will be sent to the Whitney-Murphy Funeral Home in Phoenix. Lt. Sorem's remains will be sent to the Peterson and Neill Funeral Home in Clay Center, Kan. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Georgia Brashears Sorem, an 18-month-old daughter, Karen Joan, of 1054-B Sycamore, Big Spring, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sorem, Clay Center, Kan. Lt. Sorem was a veteran of 100 fighter bomber missions in Korea with the 310th Fighter-Bomber Squadron. He had attended Clay County Consolidated High School, from which he was graduated in 1947, and the University of Kansas. Cadet Edmondson had a younger brother, A-C John G. Edmondson, 20, who was a member of his same class, 33-B. John Edmondson left Friday evening to precede his brother's body home and to be with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Edmondson Jr., 1346 Avalon Place NE, Atlanta, Ga. Cadet Albert Edmondson was a 1950 graduate of Henry W. Grady High School in Atlanta and he attended the Georgia Institute of Technology before he joined the Air Force in October 1952. He had been in flying school since January 1953. Escort for his body was to be A-C Robert B. Moore. The body of Cadet John P. Street was to be escorted by A-C Donald J. Hopkins and will be sent to the Vandale Funeral Home in Spencer, W. Va. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Street, Liver-pool, W. Va.

Friends Daub Eyes As Blind Couple Married In Church

CORRY, Pa., July 10 (AP)—The sun was shining today at the wedding of Howard Collins and Gladys Camfield but neither saw it. Both are blind.

Some 150 friends of the bride and bridegroom daubed at moist eyes as the couple was united in marriage at the Evangelical United Brethren Church. The couple became acquainted about a year ago when Howard, 45, of Lock Haven, Pa., blind since birth, began corresponding with Miss Camfield, of Corry, who has been blind since she was 14. She is now 42. The Braille correspondence grew into a courtship. The newlyweds, accompanied by Mrs. Collins' seeing-eye dog, plan to leave for Lock Haven where they will make their home with Collins' mother, Mrs. Bertha McKinney.

Pope Raps Living Outside Of Homes

VATICAN CITY, July 10 (AP) — Pope Pius XII today criticized what he said is the modern tendency of people to "live too much" outside their homes.

The pontiff's criticism was contained in a letter sent through the Vatican secretary of state's office to Spain's Catholic social problems meeting, now being held at Burgos. The letter underlined the problem of providing homes and urged that costs of construction be reduced.

Costa Rica Relaxes After War Threat

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica, July 10 (AP)—This capital returned to normal today as the government of President Jose Figueres relaxed security measures against a rumored Guatemala-style invasion by exile leaders. San Jose airport was closed to traffic yesterday and guards were placed at strategic points about the capital to meet any threat from members of the old Calderonista party. But the government later received word that the invasion reports were a false alarm.

JULY AND AUGUST HAVE THEIR SHARE OF BRIDES

Love-McBride

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Love, 1021 Bluebonnet, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sue, to Harry Martin McBride, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Martin McBride of Sugarland. Their wedding will be an event of Aug. 29 at 5 p.m. at the First Baptist Church. Miss Love attended Howard County Junior College and Southwestern University. Mr. McBride also attended Southwestern. In September they plan to enroll at the University of Houston.

MRS. BEN HITT

Tucker-Fry

Thelma Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Tucker, 1019 Johnson, will become the bride of Tommy Fry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fry of Sweetwater, in Abilene, on August 26. Both Miss Tucker and Mr. Fry are students in McMurry College in Abilene. She will be graduated in the August class, and he will finish in May of next year.

Home Ceremony Unites Dolores Sneed, Ben Hitt

Burks-Eiland

The wedding of Shirley Jean Burks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin L. Burks of Pine Bluff, Ark., to Guy Merwyn Eiland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy A. Eiland of Stanton, will be solemnized at 8 p.m. August 7, in the First Baptist Church of Pine Bluff. Miss Burks has been attending the University of Arkansas, but she is now a junior in Baylor University. The prospective bridegroom is a senior at Baylor.

In a home ceremony July 2, at 7:30 p.m. Dolores Sneed and Ben Hitt were united in an informal, double ring ceremony. Chaplain C. O. Hitt, father of the bridegroom, read the ceremony before an altar of white gladioli and and gypsophila fern. A cluster of wedding bells decorated an arch of candles.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Sneed, 704 Matthews, and the bridegroom is the son of Chaplain and Mrs. C. O. Hitt, 1301 Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Lois Hitt played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Joe Hitt as she sang "O Promise Me" and "Because." Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length princess designed dress of white embossed linen. The dress was styled with a rounded shoulder neckline and a full skirt. Her veil fell from a cap-style hat of beads and tiny flowers. Her veil and mits were of fine dainty lace. She wore a strand of pearls and matching ear screws that she had borrowed from her mother and a blue garter. Something old was a silk handkerchief of her grandmother's, and her wedding dress was new. She wore a penny in her shoe for luck. Her bridal bouquet was a white Bible topped with white agapanthus and white satin ribbon streamers.

Beverly Edwards, maid of honor, wore a dress of orchid cotton satin fashioned similar to the bride's dress. She wore a white beaded hat and carried orchid agapanthus. Harold Hitt was best man. Kent Sneed, brother of the bride, was ring bearer, and candlelighter was Lynda Sneed, sister of the bride.

An informal reception was held following the nuptials. Punch and a three tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bridal couple were served from a table laid with a crocheted cloth over blue stain. The table was centered with an arrangement of white and blue pin cushion flowers and tapers. The punch was served by Ellen Hitt, and Gwen Gafford and Nelda Williams served the cake. Mrs. C. E. Hogue of Midland was in charge of the register.

The couple went on their wedding trip to Cloudcroft, N. M. For traveling Mrs. Hitt wore a pastel blue suit of summer poodle cloth with matching shoes and bag. Her blouse, hat, and gloves were of shaded pink and she wore a pink carnation corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Hitt are both graduates of Big Spring High School and he attended Howard County Junior College. While a student at Big Spring High School, Mrs. Hitt was a member of the A Capella Choir and the Triple Trio. She is now employed at the General Adjustment Bureau in the Permian Building. Her husband is an employee of the State Highway Department. The couple are making their home at 1402 Rannels St.

Denise Honey, installing officer, and Claudine Butler, installing marshal, installed the following: past president, Lorene Burns, president, Ina Joy Williamson; vice-president, Mary Hedrick; warden, Sarah Louder; conductor, Mary Day; marshal, Jannette Howell and treasurer, Linda Bess Bryan. Marilyn Constant, past president of the local club was given a past president's pin. Refreshments were served to 21 local members and two advisers and seven Stanton girls and two advisers.

DRESS PARADE

JODY MILLER

A blue dress of dacron and cotton is a versatile ensemble worn by Jody Miller, who attended Texas Tech last fall. The dress worn with the jacket would hold its own among the most elegant, and without the jacket—presto—a casual sundress. The cuffs and collar of the button-down-the-front jacket are trimmed with white cord, pearls, and rhinestones. The accordion pleats in the skirt are permanent. For accessories, Jody chooses white beaded ear screws, white suede cloth shortie gloves, white kid pumps designed with an open toe, and a crisp looking white crocheted hat. The hat is starched, and white net forms a wreath around the crown and ties in a big bow in the back.

From London To Big Spring

Milan Jurco helps his wife Joanne unpack after her voyage from England to America.

Meet This Scot Who Hopped The Atlantic

On June 5, 1954, a lovely Scottish lass left her homeland shores to sail across the Atlantic Ocean and on to America. She arrived at Corpus Christi June 12, and on June 17, she became Mrs. Milan Jurco. After a honeymoon in Corpus Christi, the Jurcos journeyed on to Big Spring to make their home while he is working on the alkylatation unit that is to be installed here. He is a chemical engineer for Universal Oil Products. Joanne and Milan Jurco met in London where she was a receptionist at the Waldorf Hotel. Her home is in Huntley, Scotland, although she has lived in London for the past six years.

One of the first things Joanne mentioned was the difference in the American and British radio programs. BBC, one of the three broadcasting companies in Britain, is run by the government, as are the other two. None of these stations have advertising and the programs consist mostly of plays and orchestra music, contrasted to our large variety of programs and the large amount of advertising that is done over U. S. networks.

Next on the agenda for the Jurcos is for him to teach her to swim. Besides swimming, Mrs. Jurco is also interested in tennis and poetry reading. She belonged to a poetry reading group when she lived in Scotland.

Milan Jurco is almost as foreign to Texas as his wife, as he is from Riverside, Ill. He received his degree in chemical engineering from Purdue University, where he participated in various intramural sports and chemical engineering clubs. Mrs. Jurco graduated, or matriculated as the English would say, from England's equivalent to our high school with a major in domestic science.

Kentucky Guest Feted

Mrs. Victor Packwood, who has been a guest in the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. A. Archer and Capt. Archer, has returned to her home in Louisville, Ky. A barbecue, given in her honor was attended by Maj. and Mrs. R. E. Wall, Maj. and Mrs. John W. Smith, Capt. and Mrs. K. A. Aber and Capt. and Mrs. R. O. Franz.

IDEAL FOR ANY AGE

Flattering Lines Revealed
In This Fashion-Wise Frock

Joseph Halpert's collections are nationally known for their fine workmanship and their made-to-order characteristics but his dress pattern today reveals still another facet of his reputation in the fashion field. It is ageless. As ideal for a freshman at a freshman tea as it is for her mother at a more sophisticated function, it is a dress whose bodice with its surplice-type neckline and tiny buttoned cuffs leaves nothing to be desired as far as good design and flattering line are concerned. It is the skirt however that is the pivotal point fashion-wise. All around box pleats are given an extra nip and tuck at the top center of each one, a device that puts bounce in the skirt while minimizing the waist. Originally shown in a black and white plaid taffeta with black velvet collar, it is best in any of the party fabrics such as taffeta, brocade, peau de soie.

This pattern is cut in Designer sizes.
Size 10, bust 34, waist 24, hips 35; size 12, bust 35, waist 25, hips 36; size 14, bust 36½, waist 26½, hips 37½; size 16, bust 38, waist 28, hips 39; size 18, bust 40, waist 30, hips 41.
Size 12 requires 5½ yards of 36-inch material for dress and ¾ yard of 36-inch material for contrast. To order pattern 1189, address Spadea Syndicate, Inc., Box 535, Dept. B-5, G. P. O., New York 1, N. Y. State size. Send $1.00. Add 4 cents for handling. If paid by check or money order. Airmail handling 25 cents extra.

Wear What Is Right

Nothing gives you confidence like knowing what you are wearing is right for you, says Polish-born Bella Darvi. You'll be seeing Bella soon in "The Egyptian" for 20th Century-Fox.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Feel 'Right' In Clothes You Wear Is Advice

By LYDIA LANE
 HOLLYWOOD — This town is full of Cinderella stories but even a press agent would hesitate to suggest that a girl who was not beautiful, without dramatic training and who didn't speak English would end up with a contract and a starring role in her first picture. But it happened to Polish-born Bella Darvi who plays the feminine lead in "Hell and High Water."
 "How did it happen?" I asked Miss Darvi as we lunched recently in the restaurant at 20th Century-Fox studio.
 "When Mr. and Mrs. Zanuck were in France they invited me to come visit them. At that time I me a present of something else I give it away. I couldn't wear anything which was not right for me."

 I wanted to know how Miss Darvi felt the American girls compared with the Europeans.
 "I have not been anywhere except here, Palm Springs and Sun Valley so I don't feel that I'm qualified to judge but I think the American women seem more friendly and less jealous. There is one thing," she hesitated for fear of offending.
 "Criticism can be constructive," I coaxed.
 "If I think a person should look at you when you're talking to them and they should listen. Many Americans don't do this." She explained that giving undivided attention during a conversation was an important part of the charm picture.

FASHION NEWS
 Bella is so right when she stresses the importance of clothes. And it's so easy to learn tricks to help stretch your wardrobe budget. Get a copy of "Fashion Do's and Don'ts" as your first step. Here you'll have tips for dressing if you are too tall, too short, overweight, underweight or just right. Get your copy by sending 5 cents AND a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Lydia Lane, Hollywood Beauty, in care of The Big Spring Herald. Ask for leaflet M-31.
 wasn't free and had no idea of coming to the United States. But later, when I was no longer obligated, I decided to come to Hollywood.
 "Maybe you'll get into pictures," my mother said to me, but I told her "That's absurd. I don't speak the language, I'm not beautiful and I've never studied dramatics."
 "But all these obstacles didn't seem to matter," I commented, complimenting Miss Darvi on her English which she speaks with hesitation but scarcely any accent.
 "Soon after I came here in the fall of '52 Mr. Zanuck offered me a contract. I have been busy ever since studying dramatics and learning English."
 "Did you always dream of being an actress?" I asked.
 "No," Bella confided. "My older sister was one of the top models in Paris. She's a beautiful girl—we don't look alike—but she helped me to get a job as a model.
 "I've always had definite ideas about clothes and known how to dress myself. It's important because nothing gives you confidence like knowing that what you have on is right.
 "Modeling is an art too," Bella confided. "If I didn't believe in a dress I wouldn't model it. It's difficult to make a good impression in something you don't feel comfortable in.
 "I don't understand how anyone can be indifferent to their appearance," she added. "If I'm invited to go to a movie and come home early I may wear a sweater and skirt but if the boy changes his mind and suggests that we go dancing afterwards I wouldn't accept. I couldn't have a good time if I weren't dressed for the occasion."
 Miss Darvi remarked that she considered grooming was just as important as wearing the right clothes. "I like to allow one hour and a half to dress," she explained. "I can do it in much less but when I rush I don't feel right, even if I get compliments."
 I asked if she considered perfume as an indispensable part of her toilette.
 "Yes, I use only one and I always wear it. When friends make

HI--TALK
 By PEGGY HOGAN

I'm introducing the newcomers first this week. Let's get acquainted with them before school starts, what say? One of the four cute kids is a seventeen-year-old miss from Abilene named Carol Carpenter. Carol is attending summer school in order to graduate from BSHS and enroll at Hardin-Simmons at mid term. She plans to major in medical technology. Carol loves to sing and play the piano and she takes great pride in a book collection she owns. Carol is also a swimming and tennis fan and she lives at 1502 Stadium.
 A fella that is destined to become a big part of BSHS because of his exhilarant spirit is sandy headed, blue-eyed Jon Cook. Jon took an active part in all the school and extra-curricular activities of Midland, his ex-residence. Being an active DeMolay and president of the Presbyterian Youth Fellowship, Jon plans to continue these activities here. He likes baseball, dancing, and band music. Jon lives at 1205 Stanford and he will be classified as a junior in the fall.
 Hey girls! We have a couple of more boys added to our list of newcomers. Richard, 15, and Troy Carter, 17, from Abilene. Both boys played football at Abilene. Richard is a quarter-back and Troy plays end. Each of the dark-headed guys belong to the FFA Club and their specialty is sheep raising. The brothers live at 1507 Young. We hope you fellas will find your place in Big Spring and fit right in with lots of new friends.
 There are a few kids visiting in Big Spring this week. Georgia Sawyer, 16, from Jones, La., is visiting the Tommy Huttos. She plans to be here indefinitely this summer.

6'6" Randy Price from West Lake, La., is visiting his granddad, Charlie Vines, for a week or two. (Note: Nancy Pittman is occupying most of his time.)
 Maren Tinkham is home for a month from the California Hospital School of Nursing. Maren has only one more year in the Los Angeles school.
 Don Moore from Fort Worth visited with Margie Martin for a couple of days last week.
 All the kids that attend the Teen-age dance next Friday really have a treat in store for them. "Lee Underwood and his Serenaders" will be music makers. The gang of boys that make up the orchestra have been practicing for a long, long time and with all the talent represented, they ought to really make with the rhythm for good dancing. Lee plays the piano, Derrel Saunders and Swain Patton work over the trumpets. Norman Gound, Billy Bradley and Don Anderson play the saxophones, and Billy Bob Satterwhite makes with the drums.
 Recently the Rainbow girls had an ice cream supper at the City park in the celebration of Founders Day. About 20 attended the party, devouring plenty of home made ice cream and cake.
 Thursday night about 23 young people from the First Baptist Church attended an area Youth Rally in Midland. Around 1,000 Baptist youth attended the meeting which was held at the beautiful, new First Baptist Church in Midland.

 The swimming instructors of the Y.M.C.A. had a banquet at the Wagon Wheel Tuesday. About 12 attended the affair and discussed accomplishments of their "working hours." The girls are now teaching the intermediate group swimmers from 10-11:30 a.m.
 Tuesday afternoon Jane Reynolds was feted with a surprise birthday party at the home of Janice Nalley. About 10 gals came to honor Jane on her seventeenth birthday and tell her good-by, as she left Wednesday for two weeks. The Reynolds are going to Longview for a couple of days and then on to Galveston for the rest of the vacation trip.
 Caroline Wingate left last week for a month in industrial Birmingham, Alabama, the "Pittsburgh of the South." She will also visit relatives and friends in Verbena, Ala.
 Albuquerque, New Mexico, is the town where Kay Jamison will soon spend ten days. She will visit relatives and friends in the old Spanish city.
 Norma and Bernice Reed left last week for California. The red-headed sisters are permanently moving to the Western state.
 Iris Rice took a train trip to Maryland last week. There, she became the bride of Billy Overton. Congratulations, kids!
 Glenda Adams and Sherry Fuller spent a couple of days at Canyon last week. They tell of a good time swimming and just fooling around. Virginia Carpenter has gone to Breckenridge (the city of the Steers great rival) for a week. She plans to do plenty of advocating our football and basketball teams while visiting relatives.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES MAXIE CANTRELL

Norma Jean Barr Weds In Vincent Church

In the first wedding ever performed at the Vincent Baptist Church, Norma Jean Barr became the bride of James Maxie Cantrell of Midland July 2.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Barr of Vincent and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. L. E. Brown of Brownfield.

The Rev. Virgil Drewery read the double ring vows before an altar decorated with greenery and flanked by baskets of pink majestic daisies and white gladioli.

The nuptial music was presented by the Rev. Douglass Crow, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Oh, Love of God." Mrs. Crow accompanied him and played the wedding marches.

For the informal ceremony the bride wore a white nylon ballerina length gown posed over taffeta. The neckline was sweetheart style and the sleeves were long and pointed at the wrists. Her veil was fingertip length. She wore a rhinestone necklace belonging to Mrs. Alfred Cate and carried a handkerchief which had belonged to her grandmother, the late Mrs. Frances Glover. She also wore a traditional blue garter.

The bridal bouquet was of pink and white agapanthus.

L. M. Barr gave his daughter in marriage. As maid of honor, Betty Burns of Midland wore a blue ballerina length dress of taffeta and net with a net stole. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Kenneth Brown of Brownfield, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Jack Dunn of Cuthbert and Grady Barr of Vincent, nephew of the bride.

Lighting the tapers were Elaine Carpenter and Sherry Barr, niece of the bride. They wore ballerina length blue taffeta dresses and coronets of pink and white carnations.

The bride's parents entertained with a reception in the educational building of the church following the wedding. The three-tiered bride's cake was placed on a table covered with an imported linen cloth. Appointments were crystal.

Serving were Mrs. James C. Barr of Cuthbert, Mrs. George Flynn of Stanton, Mrs. Calvin Smith of Midland and Melodies Burris of Midland. Nelda Barr, a niece of the bride, kept the register.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Reaves Smith of Midland, Mrs. Hoyt Burris of Midland, Patty Davis of Midland, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brown of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Riggs of Midland, Mrs. Dorothy McQuerry of Midland and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Smith of Colorado City.

For a wedding trip to Shreveport, La., and Galveston the bride wore a blue dress with white accessories.

The bride graduated from Coahoma High School and attended Wayland College. She has been employed by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. The bridegroom attended Lamesa schools and is associated with the Fire Station at Midland. The couple will reside at 3225 Franklin St., Midland.

JUBILEE OVERTURE

Home Wedding Rites Unite Nina James, Doyle Forbus

In her parents' home in Midland, Nina James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Brown, became the bride of Doyle Forbus, son of Mrs. W. F. Cain, 503 Main, in an informal single ring ceremony on Thursday evening.

The wedding scene was reflected in a large mirror banked with flowers before which the ceremony was read by the Church of Christ minister, Mr. Channel.

The bride wore a navy lace dress of cocktail length with a sweetheart neckline. A navy taffeta off-face hat with a tiny veil and navy pumps completed her ensemble. She wore rhinestone earrings and necklace and carried white roses.

A reception followed the rites with the receiving line composed of the bridal couple, their mothers, Mrs. V. W. Kemper, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Paul Pace, sister of the bridegroom. Other members of the houseparty were Mrs. J. A. Brown Jr., Mrs. Nellie Weaver of Big Spring, and Mrs. Emmett Hull, who served at the tea-table with Mrs. Kemper.

The table was laid with a lace cloth over green linen and centered with an arrangement of summer flowers on a reflector. A tiered wedding cake completed the decorations.

The couple left after the reception for a wedding trip to Ruidoso and they will return by Lubbock to attend a reunion of the Brown family. Upon their return to Big Spring, they will be at home at 1506 Kentucky Way, where a new home awaits them.

Mrs. Forbus is a graduate of Loraine High School and of Parkland Hospital School of Nursing in Dallas. She is now employed at Malone-Hogan Hospital. The bridegroom attended the Loraine schools and is a carpenter.

Other out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Loal P. Brown of Odessa, Elizabeth Hines of Big Spring and J. B. Curtis of Dallas.

Child Court Is Gotham Worry

By JAMES MCGILICRY
New York Daily News Reporter
NEW YORK (U.S.)—The children's court of New York City has become a joke to budding criminals, a sore spot with policemen the city over, a problem to citizens interested in youth welfare, and a constant headache to such of its judges as are genuinely interested in their jobs.

Last year, according to the annual report, 6,610 accused juvenile delinquents paraded before the bench, compared with 5,762 the year before. Of the 1953 total, 1,069 were committed to institutions—about one sixth of those hailed into court.

"What's the use," asks a cop, "of dragging a kid into children's court? You know the judge is only going to give him a slap on the wrist and let him go. It burns me the way those judges mollycoddle these young hoods."

"What can we do?" answers a judge. "We can't lock up half the kids we'd like. There's no place to send them."

Most of the delinquents brought up last year—whether their crimes were rape, assault, purse snatching, mugging or whatever—got off with a fatherly lecture.

The heart of the matter is a difference of opinion about what the court should do. Theory-trained social workers feel it should wean delinquents from crime careers and nurse them back to becoming of some use to society. Cops feel it ought to punish children who are 14 and already repeat offenders.

The court's judges are somewhere in between—some feel the delinquents should be patted on the back and asked to go straight; others feel they ought to be effectively punished and made to go straight.

But the one thing a coming Capone carted into Children's Court can be sure of at present is that he is going to get more lecture than effective discipline. This does not dissuade tough teen-agers from such peccadillos as house-breaking and it does not persuade police that there is much good in arresting them.

William the Conqueror, king of England, died in Rouen, capital of Normandy in 1087.

British-American Competition Helps Make Bikes More Popular

By JIM CLARK
If America's purchase of bicycles continues to climb, some believe that the United States, where automobiles by far outnumber all other modes of transportation, will like Europe soon have more bicycles than autos.

Big Spring bicycle dealers report that purchases are up this year. Those who handle both British and American bikes report that sales are about evenly distributed. They say bikes are now being used more frequently by older teen-agers and grownups, whereas in the past most riders were children.

British bicycles, trim and lightweight (28-33 pounds) have a distinct advantage over the typical 50-55 pound U. S. bikes, most people say.

"The fad for British bikes," Time magazine reported this week, "got a boost from the 5,000,000 U. S. servicemen who served in Britain during the war." Also, the magazine says, they caught the fancy of U. S. youngsters, who like such advantages as hand brakes, three-speed gear systems, and generator-operated lights.

Once a great deal more expensive than American bikes, they today cost about the same, providing the British bikes do not have the "extras."

U. S. bike manufacturers say the British can produce bicycles and export them to our country for less than the cost of those manufac-

Overcoming the difficulty in mounting and riding these bicycles, the English, in 1880, invented little wheels for the front and made possible the use of a sprocket and chain device to move the wheel by pedals.

Bike riding was most popular during the late 1890's in America, reaching the height of its vogue about 1899. Its popularity declined with the invention of the auto. Again in 1931 sales greatly increased; however, most riders were children. With auto tire shortages during the second World War, renewed use of the bike was effected. Rising and falling since that time, it looks as if cycling—for recreation, sport, and practical use—may soon become quite the vogue.

Power Lawn Mowers Prove More Popular This Season

Local hardware dealers report that power lawn mowers have tended to be more popular with buyers this year. "Takes less time with power and the wife can use them easily," one dealer quipped.

Push mowers are still a 2-1 choice. They account this not to preference, but to the price. Best available power mowers cost about $150, most push mowers range in the $30 vicinity.

Of the two types of power mowers—gas and electric—gas are proving more popular. Electric mowers, which have the disadvantage of being leashed to the power outlet, are suitable only for small lawns that are unobstructed, the dealers say.

Both the gas and electric mowers are available in two types—the rotary, which cuts by means of blades whirling in a horizontal plane, and reel type, which is similar in cutting action to the conventional hand mower. The reel type is more popular. The reel model, dealers say, has a distinct advantage, moving both the blades and wheels, thus relieving the operator of pushing. Most rotary mowers revolve blades only. The chief advantage of rotary mowers is their ability to cut extremely high grass and in closer against fences, curbs and other bordering material.

C. W. Gunn Rites Held Here Friday

Last rites were said Friday at 4 p.m. at the Eberley-River Chapel for Charles Wallace Gunn, 73, who died Thursday in a hospital here.

Mr. Gunn came to Big Spring in 1905 and was well known as a cook. He had served in that capacity for a number of establishments for more than two score years. He had been ill for the past five months.

There were no immediate survivors and nearest relatives are U. G. Powell and Mrs. D. W. Dennis, Big Spring, and Mrs. R. L. Cole, Roswell, N. M., all cousins.

Burial was in the City Cemetery following services conducted by Dr. Jordan Grooms, pastor of the First Methodist Church.

Pallbearers were J. O. Tines, Robert Hill, J. E. Underwood, Jack Johnson, W. D. Miller and Cy Nabors.

A turtle with two heads, kept as a curiosity by the Fish and Wild Life Service often staged fights between the two heads for food.

Lake Water May Be Used Aug. 1

Prospects are that some lake water will be infused in the city's system by Aug. 1.

While completion of the new filtration plant is several weeks away at best, Fred Kasch of A. P. Kasch & Sons, has told city authorities that he believes the old portion of the filtration plant will be ready to operate around Aug. 1.

Water from Powell Creek will be utilized.

A year ago when the city lakes caught water it could not be utilized because of higher pressures from the Colorado River Municipal Water District. However, when the old plant section is made ready to operate again, the output would go to the big clear well which has been constructed in the meantime.

High lift pumps would pick up the water there and inject it into mains under sufficient pressure.

H. W. Whitney, city manager, estimates that the city could produce one and three-quarters million gallons of lake water a day.

Songs Of Love

Edmund Purdom as Prince Karl and Ann Blyth as his barmid sweetheart sing songs of love in "Student Prince." M-G-M CinemaScope musical which shows today and Monday at the Ritz Theatre. The film, also in color, features the voice of Mario Lanza on the sound track featuring songs by Sigmund Romberg.

'Student Prince' In CinemaScope, Color

One of the all-time favorite operettas comes to the screen in CinemaScope with the release of M-G-M's "The Student Prince." The film, starring Ann Blyth and Edmund Purdom, shows at the Ritz Theatre today and Monday. The voice of Mario Lanza is featured in the musical numbers from the famed score by Sigmund Romberg, although Purdom appears to be doing the actual singing.

Songs featured in the musical romance include such numbers "Days in My Heart, Dear," "Come, Boys, Let's All Be Gay, Boys," "What's To Be Is To Be," "Drink, Drink, Drink" and "To the Inn

We're Marching," all from the original score. Nicholas Brodsky and Paul Francis Webster have added three more songs, "Summertime in Heidelberg," "I'll Walk With God," and "Beloved."

The plot is the same as in the operetta with Purdom as Prince Karl who goes to the university at Heidelberg and there falls in love with a commoner, Kathi, the niece of the innkeeper, much to the consternation of all. Miss Blyth plays Kathi.

Other players featured in the movie are John Ericson and Louis Calhern. Betta St. John, Edmund Gwenn, and S. Z. (Cuddles) Sakall also have important roles. As well as being in CinemaScope, the film is in color.

Against All Odds

Stanwyck In New Thriller

Barbara Stanwyck has another thriller role like "Double Indemnity" and "Sorry, Wrong Number" in her latest film, "Witness to Murder," which shows Tuesday and Wednesday at the Ritz Theatre.

In this film she plays a woman who sees a murder committed and calls the police. Police investigation finds no evidence of any murder having occurred.

Miss Stanwyck is called upon to defend her own sanity and is even committed for psychiatric observation in a mental hospital.

George Sanders play the man who was seen strangling woman and who then does everything he can to get Miss Stanwyck and the police to doubt what was seen.

Gary Merrill has the role of the police officer who investigates the case. The picture is a United Artists release.

'Racing Blood' Film To Show At State

Bill Williams, Jean Porter and Jimmy Boyd star in "Racing Blood," film which shows Friday and Saturday at the State Theatre.

It's the first film for Boyd, the child singing star who became famous with the record "I Saw Mommie Kissing Santa Claus." He sings and plays the guitar in this film.

Williams plays the trainer for a racing stable and Miss Porter plays the stable owner's daughter. Boyd plays a stable hand. The picture, released through Twentieth Century-Fox, is in SuperCineColor.

Bids Asked For Two State Hospital Jobs

Bids have been asked for July 23 for two projects at the Big Spring State Hospital.

One is the installation of an air conditioning system for the hospital's main operating rooms, said Dr. Roy Sloan, superintendent.

The other is for installation of an electrical distribution system, which in reality involves the rumpaging of the present system due to new construction and increased load.

She Won't Believe Him

And he won't believe her. That's the crux of the matter in "Witness to Murder." United Artists release which shows Tuesday and Wednesday at the Ritz Theatre. Barbara Stanwyck sees a murder being committed but can't get anyone to believe her, particularly police officer Gary Merrill. However, George Sanders has reasons of his own for believing her.

Tony Curtis, Piper Laurie Team In 'Johnny Dark' Film

Tony Curtis and Piper Laurie are teamed again in "Johnny Dark," which shows Thursday through Saturday at the Ritz Theatre.

Curtis in the title role plays an automobile firm engineer who designs a sports car model which the firm's directors have no intentions of building. Miss Laurie plays the car's stylist and Don Taylor has the role of the car's test driver.

Disappointed when he finds out that the car is not to be built commercially, Curtis steals the experimental model and enters it secretly in a race. The car is about to roar to victory when a mechanical failure catches up with it. Undaunted, the car is fixed up and entered in a big race from Canada to Mexico, across the United States.

By this time the two old friends, Curtis and Taylor, have split up and are racing against each other. Competition for the attention of Miss Laurie is partially responsible for this turn of events.

Sidney Blackmer plays the boss while Ika Chase has the role of the secretary. Paul Kelly plays the plant foreman and Ruth Hampton has the role of the beauty, Miss Border-to-Border, who waves the cars off in the big race.

The Universal-International film is in Technicolor.

'How To Marry A Millionaire' To Show This Week

The CinemaScope comedy "How to Marry a Millionaire" will show at the Jet Drive-In Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. It marks the second CinemaScope presentation in the pioneer CinemaScope drive-in in West Texas.

Starring in this film, which is also in Technicolor, are Marilyn Monroe, Betty Grable and Lauren Bacall, all of whom are doing their best to wed wealthy.

The things get going when the girls pool their finances and rent an apartment on New York's swank Sutton Place for a month.

More than 100,000 automobiles a year are ferried across the English Channel.

Jet Will Show Film With Rosalind Russell

Showing Tuesday and Wednesday at the Jet Drive-in is "Never Wave at a Wac," RKO comedy which stars Rosalind Russell and Paul Douglas.

Miss Russell plays a spoiled rich girl who joins the Wacs while Douglas has the role of her ex-husband who does his best to make her life miserable while in the service.

Prince Valiant
IN THE DAYS OF KING ARTHUR
by Harold R. Foster

Our Story: DAWN COMES AT LAST AND PRINCE VALIANT SPEAKS: "DEATH AWAITS US IN JERUSALEM; OUR ENEMIES WILL LOOK FOR US ON THE ROAD TO JAFFA WHERE OUR SHIP WAITS. IN THIS LAND THERE IS NO FRIEND TO WHOM WE CAN TURN. YET WE ARE PILGRIMS AND HAVE MADE A VOW."

SIR BASIL ANSWERS: — "I TOO HAVE TAKEN THE PILGRIM'S VOW AND IT HAS COST ME TEN YEARS IN PRISON. YET I WILL FULFILL THAT VOW."

"THEN LET US CONTINUE TO NAZARETH!" CRIES GAWAIN. "AND HEAVEN HELP THE ARAB OR SYRIAN WHO TRIES TO STOP US!" WITH ARMOR CONCEALED BENEATH NATIVE GARMENTS THEY MAKE THEIR WAY SLOWLY NORTHWARD.

THEY FALL IN WITH A CARAVAN BOUND FOR DAMASCUS, THE BETTER TO CONCEAL THEMSELVES. BUT VAL AND GAWAIN ARE WARRIORS, THE SONS OF KINGS, AND CANNOT CONCEAL THEIR NOBLE BEARING.

AN ARAB FROM JERUSALEM SUSPECTS THEY ARE THE ONES WHO DEALT SO ROUGHLY WITH THE GREAT CHIEFTAIN BEN EL RASCH, AND TURNS BACK.

AT A CROSSROAD THE CARAVAN GOES ON TOWARD GALILEE, BUT THE PILGRIMS TURN OFF FOR NAZARETH.

OUT FROM JERUSALEM RACE THE FOLLOWERS OF EL RASCH, EAGER TO AVENGE THEIR MASTER.

NEXT WEEK— ERF DOUBT!

Edgar Rice Burroughs

...TWO YOUNG ROUES, GEORGIE FEARONS AND STERLING SHEA, WERE ENTHRALLED BY THE LATTER'S UNCLE, BERNARD SHEA, AND HIS ACCOUNT OF AFRICAN ADVENTURE.

...YES, BOYS, AFRICA IS A LAND OF INTRIGUE— BUT TOO HAZARDOUS FOR CHAPS LIKE YOU—

STERLING WAS IRRITATED. "I BEG PARDON, UNCLE BERNIE—PERHAPS WE ARE FOND OF THE DRAWING ROOM—BUT I DARE SAY WE'VE ALSO GOT INTESTINAL FORTITUDE—"

"COME, COME," SCOFFED BERNARD. "EVEN YOUR MONEY WOULD BE USELESS IN THE CONGO—AND HOW COULD YOU MISS YOUR DAILY GIN AND BITTERS?"

STERLING'S FACE REDDENED. "REALLY, UNCLE, WHY PROVOKE GEORGIE AND ME? I'LL WAGER THAT WE CAN SURVIVE ANYWHERE—ON OUR OWN RESOURCES—"

"WELL, I-I—" GEORGIE SPUTTERED. "GOOD!" COAXED BERNARD SHEA. "A SPORTING CHALLENGE, THEN—I'LL ARRANGE TO FLY YOU TO AN UNCHARTERED SECTION—"

...THUS, DAYS LATER, TARZAN OF THE APES WAS ALERTED IN HIS JUNGLE HABITAT BY THE PURRING ENGINE OF A DISTANT AIR-PLANE.

HEY! OUR TREASURE PIT'S FULL O' WATER!

UGH!—SALTY! IT'S TIDE WATER!

BUT HOW? WE'RE STILL WELL ABOVE TIDE LEVEL! THE PIT WOULD HAVE TO BE FED FROM THE BEACH BY A PASSAGE OF SOME SORT!

IT IS TIDE WATER! LOOK, YOU CAN SEE HOW THE LEVEL HAS FALLEN SINCE THE TIDE WENT OUT!

WHERE DOES THAT LEAVE US, JACK?

IT MIGHT BE POSSIBLE TO BLOCK THE PASSAGE...PROVIDING WE CAN FIND IT!

WAL, LET'S GIT T'BLOCKIN'! WE SURE CAN'T WORK THAT PIT IF IT'S GONNA FILL UP WITH WATER EVER! NIGHT!

SPREAD OUT AND DIG ALONG THE BEACH'S HIGH TIDE MARK!

AN HOUR PASSES. THEN—

HEY! LOOK!

OVER HERE! KIT FOX HIT SOMETHING!

IT'S A THICK MATTING MADE FROM TROPICAL LEAVES OF SOME KIND!

TH' DANG STUFF MUST BE LAID ACROSS TH' HULL DANG BEACH!

WELL, THERE GOES OUR BURIED TREASURE!

HOW MANY TIMES HAVE I TOLD YOU, YOUNG MAN? --I DON'T WANT YOU PLAYIN' BASEBALL!

YOU'VE GOT TO HAVE A RELIABLE PROFESSION LIKE A DOCTOR OR LAWYER OR--

BUT GEE, DAD, I WANTED TO BE LIKE YOU! YOU WERE A GREAT BASEBALL PLAYER!

WERE... YES, WERE IS RIGHT! THIS CONFOUNDED HAND PUT ME OUT OF BUSINESS WHEN IT WAS INJURED IN THAT ACCIDENT AND I COULDN'T PITCH ANY MORE! I WON'T LET IT HAPPEN --

HOLD ON, LEFTY, I THOUGHT THIS WAS A PARTY!

SORRY, SAL... DINAH... BUT I'VE TOLD JIM REPEATEDLY THAT I DON'T WANT HIM PLAYIN' BALLS!

THAT'S KINDA LIKE TELLIN' A BIRD NOT T' FLY, AINT IT?

SAY, JIM... LE'S YOU AN' ME GO INTO TH' KITCHEN AN' MIX SOME DRINKS... ICE CREAM AN' SODA THAT IS!

YES'M!

LATER...

HOW ABOUT ANOTHUH PIECE UF CAKE, SOMEBUDDY?

I THINK I MIGHT MANAGE A SMALL PIECE, SAL!

SAY, POP, HOW COME YUN GOT HOME FROM WORK SO EARLY...

AN' WHAT ARE WE CELEBRATIN'?

UH... YOU SEE, JIMMY... WE... UH... PERSUADED YO' DAD TO GO BACK T' PLAYIN' BASEBALL, SO HE DONE QUIT HIS JOB!

THAT'S IT EXACTLY... AN' THAT'S WHY WE'RE HAVIN' THIS PARTY!

I DON'T WANT ANY LUNCH, FATHER, I'LL JUST SIT WITH YOU.

BETTER HAVE SOMETHING.

I COULDN'T EAT A MORSEL I HAD A LATE BREAKFAST.

WELL, HERE COMES MY PLATTER.

IT LOOKS DELICIOUS, MAY I JUST NIBBLE THIS BEEF OF YOURS?

HELP YOURSELF, LET ME ORDER YOU ONE.

NO, BUT MAY I JUST TASTE THE STEAK?

COME ON, CHANGE YOUR MIND, ORDER ONE OF YOUR OWN.

I JUST SIMPLY COULDN'T. UM-M, THE BROCCOLI WAS DIVINE, HEAVENS I SEEM TO HAVE EATEN IT ALL.

WOULD YOU LIKE SOME DESSERT?

NO, BUT I'LL TASTE YOURS JUST TO BE SOCIABLE.

GO TO IT.

AHEM, I'LL HAVE TO BE GETTING BACK TO THE OFFICE, PRINCESS.

I MAY AS WELL STAY AND FINISH THIS, FATHER.

HOW ABOUT A FAST HAMBURGER, MAC?

COMING RIGHT UP.

New Colgate Dental Cream with GARDOL*

CLEANS YOUR BREATH...

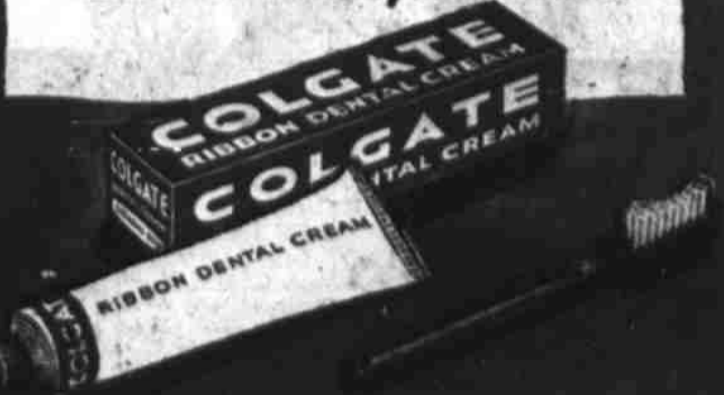

Works instantly to stop BAD BREATH! One brushing with New Colgate Dental Cream leaves your mouth cleaner, fresher for 12 hours or more—helps keep you socially acceptable. Tests show Colgate's stops bad breath instantly in 7 out of 10 cases that originate in the mouth.

while it GUARDS YOUR TEETH!

Works constantly to stop TOOTH DECAY! One brushing with New Colgate Dental Cream guards against tooth decay for 12 hours or more. Night and morning brushings guard your teeth all day—all night. In this way, Colgate's Gardol works around the clock to stop the action of decay-causing enzymes. In full-year clinical tests, X rays showed far fewer cavities for the hundreds of people in the group using Colgate Dental Cream with Gardol. In fact, no new cavities whatever for 4 out of 5.

GARDOL
Colgate's miracle ingredient makes it doubly effective!

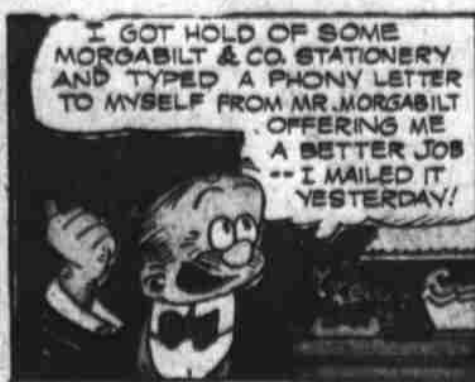

HOW GARDOL WORKS: Every time you brush your teeth with New Colgate Dental Cream, Gardol binds itself to your teeth...remains active for 12 hours or more. That's why Gardol, Colgate's long-lasting anti-enzyme ingredient, gives you the surest protection against tooth decay ever offered by any toothpaste—leaves your mouth cleaner, fresher for 12 hours or more! Gardol's protection won't rinse off, won't wear off, all day. Thus, morning and night brushings with New Colgate Dental Cream with Gardol give continuous protection around the clock.

ONLY COLGATE'S GIVES YOU FULL GARDOL PROTECTION AGAINST TOOTH DECAY!
