Sheppard Case Confession Signed By Florida Convict

CLEVELAND (UP)—Two attorneys for Dr. Samuel Sheppard hoped today that a Florida convict's signed "confession" would reopen the investigation into the murder of the osteopath's wife. But their efforts appeared doomed in the face of claims by Cleveland authorities that the signed statement by Donald Joseph Wedler, like his verbal confession, was a fraud.

Attorneys William Corrigan and Fred Garmone obtained the signed statement Tuesday in De Land, Fla., and left immediately for Cleveland. They said they felt the confession "certainly" was enough to reopen the case which resulted in a life sentence for "Dr. Sam."

Authorities Not Convinced

But the two men who headed the investigation, Guyahoga County Coroner Samuel R. Gerber and former Chief of Cleveland Detectives James McArthur, said after examining Wedler's statement they were convinced he had nothing to do with the blood-gut murder of Marilyn Sheppard. They said Wedler's signed confession conflicted with verbal statements he made to them earlier and, also, with established facts in the case.

McArthur said he and Gerber were convinced, on the basis of their talks with Wedler, that he never had been in Cleveland.

Rites Tomorrow For County Pioneer

Funeral services for a 50-year resident of Gray County, Mrs. Anie Hessey, 90, will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the First Methodist Church. The Rev. Woodrow Adcock, pastor, will officiate.

Mrs. Hessey died at 11:30 p.m. yesterday in the Groom Hospital. She had been living with her daughter, Mrs. T. A. Boyd of Borger.

Mrs. Hessey was born in Tipper County, Miss., on July 10, 1867, and moved to McGregor, Tex., as a child. In 1896 she married John B. Hessey, a Methodist minister, and moved to Alameda in 1907. Mr. Hessey died in 1928.

She is survived by one son, John Hessey of Pampa; one daughter, Mrs. T. A. Boyd of Borger; a granddaughter, Mrs. Fred Howard of Borger; and two great-granddaughters, Dian Howard of Borger and Jari Michele Hessey of Dear Park, Wash.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the First Methodist Church. The Rev. Woodrow Adcock, pastor, will officiate.

Atomic Opposers Will Meet Armed Guard

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UP)—The Atomic Energy Commission warned today that any attempt to enter the Nevada proving grounds by members of the National Committee for Non-Violent Action against Nuclear Weapons would be repulsed by armed guards.

The warning followed the group's announcement in New York that some of its members would deliberately violate the law by walking into the restricted nuclear testing area next week. The committee said it planned the action to back up its protests against nuclear testing.

Meanwhile, the AEC announced the second consecutive 24-hour postponement of its 11th blast of the test series because of adverse wind conditions. The test, dubbed "Shasta," has been rescheduled for 4:45 a.m. p.d.t. Thursday. Scientists said predicted winds would have spread fallout over Lincoln Mine, a community of several hundred persons 40 miles east of the test area.

Miss Texas Predictions

KERRVILLE, Tex. (UP)—Although Miss Texas of 1957 will not be chosen until Sunday, advance calculations indicate she will be about five feet five inches, weigh 118 pounds, have brown hair and eyes, and measure 35 1/2-23-36.

In the talent competition, she'll sing and dance. These qualities were determined by collecting the vital facts about all 33 entries and finding the average.

The winner represents Texas in the Miss American-finals at Atlantic City.

Tallest candidate, Elizabeth Avary of Monahans, "Miss Odessa," is 5-9 1/2 (36-28-36), a dimpled blonde with green eyes. Most petite entry is Brunette Prunty Rees, of San Antonio, who stands 5-1 and measures 35-22-35.

Most of the girls come from the eastern half of the state—17 in an area from Dallas east. Last year's Miss Texas—Barbara Murry—hails from that section, Houston.

Leopold To Try Again For Parole

JOLIET, Ill. (UP)—Thrill killer Nathan Leopold took steps today to make another appeal for freedom before the state Parole Board meets in October.

Leopold, slayer of young Bobby Franks in the "crime of the century," saw his hopes for freedom by Christmas evaporate Tuesday on a technicality.

Gov. William G. Stratton, in a carefully worded statement, rejected Leopold's appeal because executive clemency would remove him from parole supervision.

But Stratton's statement appeared to invite Leopold to petition a third time for a rehearing on his parole application.

Because Leopold is ailing with diabetes and a heart condition, he does not believe he will live to the year 1968 when he will be eligible for parole.

Funeral Services Today For Former Pampa Resident

Funeral services for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown of Spearman, who were killed in a two-car collision late Monday, were held at 2 p.m. today in the First Baptist Church in Spearman. Mrs. Brown is the daughter of former Pampa, Ken Bennett, a former employee of the Pampa Daily News and Radio Station KPDV.

The Rev. O. L. Bryant, pastor of the Baptist Church and the Rev. Waid Griffin, pastor of the First Methodist Church in Spearman, officiated. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery in Pampa under the direction of Boxwell Brothers Funeral Home of Spearman.

The Browns were killed and six persons injured approximately one mile from the Brown's home when a pickup truck, driven by Glenn Bennett, 50, of Spearman, collided with the station wagon, driven by Raymond Brown, Brown's cousin, of Guymon, Okla. The station wagon burned following the collision.

Injured were Mrs. Bill Brown, 25, of Guymon, who is in serious condition at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo; her son, Kelly, 4, at Hansford County Hospital for treatment of a broken leg; Glenn Bennett, who is in the Spearman Hospital in fair condition; Mrs. Brown's husband, Raymond, and their two-year-old son, who were released from the Hansford County Hospital yesterday after having been held overnight for observation and treatment of minor injuries; and the 9-month-old son of the fatally injured couple, who was also released with minor injuries.

Bennett suffered undetermined internal injuries. Mrs. Brown underwent orthopedic surgery at 4 p.m. yesterday at the Amarillo hospital.

Mrs. Brown, 25, is survived by her three children, Wesley, 5, Kathy, 3, and Douglas, 9 months; her mother, Mrs. Lillian Morris and a sister, Judy Morris, both of Ponca City, Okla.; and her father, Kenneth Bennett, and a brother, Ben Bennett, both of Gladewater.

Besides the children, Mr. Brown, 27, is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Brown of Spearman, and his grandmother, Mrs. T. H. Coffin of Pampa.

The President Monday formally signed the necessary documents to bring the atoms-for-peace agency into being. The committee included its restriction in a separate act outlining procedures under the treaty.

One source said the proposal, sponsored by Sen. John W. Bricker (R-Ohio), was approved by a vote of 10-5. State Department spokesmen said the restriction was cumbersome but the administration could live with it.

Rock 'N Roll Makes Kids Happy, Says DJ

(TV-RADIO)
 William Ewald is on vacation. Today's guest writer is Alan Freed, rock 'n' roll jockey and emcee of ABC-TV's "The Big Beat".

By ALAN FREED
 Written For United Press
 NEW YORK (UP)—When people ask me what rock 'n' roll is doing to the younger generation, I always say, "It's making them happy!"

It's making me happy, too. Because I know that their music—and make no mistake about it, the kids discovered rock 'n' roll and it belongs to them—is giving them a powerful interest that is working against juvenile delinquency.

Interested In Youngsters
 Sure, I'm making my living in rock 'n' roll music. But my wife and I have two boys and two girls and naturally, we're interested as any parents in the welfare of youngsters.

Unfortunately, many parents don't understand the importance of rock 'n' roll to their teen-age offspring. The kids feel that it's new, it's theirs and something they understand and enjoy. A healthy, wholesome way to get rid of excess energy. The kids are just as much a part of it as the performers.

You'll see what I mean when you tune in "The Big Beat" on ABC-TV. Rock 'n' roll audiences, loving the music, are really part of the show.

In looking back to my own teenage years, I recall how enthralled I was with swing, with Benny Goodman, Glen Miller and Harry James. Maybe today's teen-agers are more enthusiastic about their music. Maybe it seems that way because I'm older now. But obviously, every generation has its own music.

No Immoral Music
 I sincerely believe that no music is immoral. When a youngster starts out listening to music, any sort of music, he is in effect whetting his appetite for culture, leading him, as some surveys indicate, to an interest in opera and the classics.

What will happen when today's teen-agers become the older generation? Probably history will repeat itself and there'll be a new music form to replace rock 'n' roll, just as swing was replaced.

But rock 'n' roll, has become so strong I doubt if it'll ever completely pass away. Like the classic swing tunes, the best of rock 'n' roll will become part of our musical heritage.

And the kids will be responsible for it.

Behrman's
 "Exclusive But Not Expensive"

The girl who needs glasses can wear them and still be pretty in the opinion of Mildred Miller, Metropolitan Opera singer. She wears glasses in private life and thinks they should be conspicuous and dramatic. Here, she wears three pairs from her own collection, all of them in metal and in pastel colors. Sun glasses (left) are set in bronzy-gold frame, have flexible metal bands at either side that are both decorative and handy for holding hair in place on a windy beach or in the car. Silver metal frame (center) is for dressy wear, is ornamented with tiny flowers at either side of frame. Another and far more elaborate version of frames with bandeau (right) offers the adjustable metal strips in flower form. Colors are gold-and-pink. Mildred Miller thinks that glasses should be regarded as any other beauty aid (eye shadow or mascara) and should be fun for the wearer. She also likes color in her frames, both vivid and pastel.

RUTH MILLET 'Energy-Saving Kitchen Workroom' Is Topic For Home Demonstration Club

A woman isn't really grown up until she can have a good time at a party, even though she is wearing an old or not too becoming dress. She can get real pleasure from making someone else happy. She has learned a sure cure for feeling low, whether it is buying a new hat, baking a cake, visiting a sick friend, planning a party, or working in the yard. She can dismiss an unkind or tactless remark instead of brooding over it. She realizes that her children weren't put upon the earth to fulfill her dreams, but their own. She can praise another woman or hear her praised without a nifty temptation to add a belittling remark. She can meet disappointments and frustrations without thinking, "Why did this have to happen to me?" She realizes that other people don't really want to hear about her troubles. She learns to do unpleasant tasks as quickly as possible, instead of letting them hang over her head. She does things for others because she wants to, not because she expects unending gratitude. She can laugh at herself occasionally. She can start a conversation with anyone she meets and can learn something from almost anyone she talks to for half an hour. She can forego small indulgences to take these days, too, for glasses have come into their own. Frames are as feminine and glamorous as you could want them to be. No one is more in the limelight than Mildred Miller, the lovely young mezzo-soprano of the Metropolitan Opera. Although she doesn't wear glasses onstage, she's interested enough in life, people and store windows to want to see what's going on, and she wears them as a matter of course when she's not performing. Miss Miller is convinced that there's no such thing as an inconspicuous pair of specs, and feels that if there were, they'd be mousy and do nothing for you. Selecting different frames is fun, and glasses can be an exciting addition to any costume. Many of the new frames do double duty. Some, for instance, come with ornamental metal strips attached to the earpieces, which can be bent around the head to make almost a complete bandeau. This type is excellent for sunglasses worn for active sports, for it keeps the hair in place. For dress-up time, you can get a frame that has an adjustable spray of flowers which can serve as an attractive hair ornament. There are dozens of shapes and sparkling colors to choose from, and they will add a smart note to dress or play wear.

Special to The News) LEFORS — "Energy-Saving Kitchen Workroom" was the subject of a film shown by Miss Helen Dunlap, Gray county HDA, to the Lefors Home Demonstration club at their regular meeting on Friday in the civic center. In addition to the film, Miss Dunlap gave a program on lighting in the kitchen, stating that the present day trend is toward larger kitchens and larger windows for more natural light. The purpose, for the larger kitchen, is for such things as freezers, dishwashers, washers, household management centers, which are now part of our kitchens and require extra space. Artificial lights, for which we are indebted to Thomas Edison, are very necessary and should be placed objectively for good visibility to do our tasks; and subjectively for comfort, not straining our eyes, thus avoiding headache and nervousness. She also mentioned that television viewers should have a light directly behind the screen and in order to attain a worthwhile goal. She can enjoy young people without envying them their youth. She can be friends without feeling inferior to those who have more than she, and without feeling superior to those less fortunate.

other lights around the room. "The TV screen is ten times brighter than the movie screen and will strain the eyes in an improperly lighted room." The business meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. J. D. Smithee, who led the group in the club prayer. The roll call was answered with questions and answers on lighting. It was decided to change the club meeting day to the second and fourth Thursdays in each month. The next meeting will be August 22, at which time Miss Dunlap will give a sewing demonstration, the first in a series to catch the club up on its sewing for the year. An open discussion followed the business meeting concerning ideas for the coming year book. Members present were Mmes. J. D. Smithee, B. J. Diehl, L. D. Rider, and Charles Roberts.

Miss Slack Named 'Miss Majorette'

(Special to The News) PERRYTON — Miss Sydney Slack, Perryton Ranger Band drum majorette and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Slack, was chosen "Miss Majorette" and awarded a trophy in the annual beauty contest at the University of New Mexico Twirling Clinic in Albuquerque, N.M., last week. Beside this honor, Miss Slack has won other awards in twirling contests; was named "Miss Perryton" last August; and "Miss Flipper" in the annual contest in Liberal, Kan. Miss Donna Hoots, twirler for the Ranger Band and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hoots, attended the clinic last week, also. She and Miss Slack won second place in open competition in the clinic. Mrs. Hoots, Mrs. Slack and Phil returned with the girls after attending the twirling contest finals and the beauty contest.

ITS GOODNESS IS SAVED

The goodness of the meat is saved by the method by which it's cooked. Regardless of the method used, always cook meat at a low temperature. This gives a more tender and juicier cut of meat. When preparing to pan-fry meat, fry the meat slowly in lard or drippings. Do not allow the fat to smoke. If you are deep-fat frying, use a deep-fat frying thermometer and do not allow the temperature of the lard to be beyond 360 degrees F.

Girls Who Wear Glasses Can Be As Glamorously Feminine As She Wants

By ALICIA HART, NEA Beauty Editor

It's a foolish gal who needs eyeglasses and is too vain to wear them. Aside from the damage she is doing to her sight, eyestrain induces fatigue, and she'll soon find herself tired and worn out when the people she is with are still bent on a few more hours of evening fun. Nothing is more unattractive than squint lines around the eyes, and they're bound to become a permanent fixture for anyone who needs glasses and won't admit that she does. It's a particularly silly attitude

Baby-Sitting In U. S. Now Billion Dollar Business: More Than Six Million Sitters

Baby-sitting, once confined to proud grandparents, has become a thriving profession, with over a billion dollars a year going to more than 6 million sitters. The big boom in the baby-sitting business is analyzed in the current (July 29) issue of Life Magazine. The magazine found that the teen-ager still accounts for the majority of sitters in the U.S., 48 per cent of America's 7.9 million teen-age girls earn an estimated $670 million, while 23 per cent of the 7.9 million teen-age boys earn an estimated $319 million. The average fee for city teen-agers is 75 cents an hour; in small towns it is 55 cents.

HIGHEST RATES IN NEW YORK

But the teen-ager, says Life, is getting potent competition from approximately 250 baby-sitting agencies in the U.S., which for a fee of 50 cents or as much as 15 per cent of wages, furnish many thousands of women with full-time careers. The highest agency rates in the U.S. are considered to be in New York, where sitters cost up to $1.10 an hour for two children and one agency adds 25 cents an hour per extra child.

The magazine credits four factors with the phenomenal boom in baby-sitting: the high postwar birth rate (46 million since 1944); the rise in individual earnings (200 per cent since 1940); the rarity and expense of full-time maids (up to $75 per week); the countrywide increase in leisure time.

Cleavage Of Long Standing Unions Mark Summer Unrest

NEW YORK (UP)—Unrest is gripping our midsummer manners all over, marked by numerous partings of parties "gone to the dogs."

500 Attend Shamrock Homecoming

(Special To The News)
SHAMROCK—More than 500 graduates and ex-students of Shamrock High School and their families attended the third school homecoming here last weekend.

This was the largest group ever to attend the event.
 Registration began at 10 Friday morning at Louise's Flower Shop where headquarters was established.

Merchants in downtown Shamrock fixed window displays in keeping of the school days and plaques were awarded first, second and third winners. First place went to the Shamrock Builders Supply, which had the "Little Red School House." Third place was awarded to Drapers Jewelry. In one of their window pictures of all the school buildings in Shamrock including the new $60,000 building now under construction were displayed. In the other window class rings from each class were exhibited with the slogan "from class ring to diamond ring." Second place award went to Louise's Flowers on her all-white window with the open Bible and white cross bearing the words, "Lest we Forget."

Class house parties were held at all available places and in many homes Friday night ex-students were together for the first time since school days.

Saturday, there was free swimming at City pool and free golfing. At 11 a.m. a parade assembled on main street. The class of 1925 took the most attention riding in Mrs. Ida Gregg's 1929 Ford. At 5:30 p.m. dinner was served at the National Guard armory by the Guard and a business meeting followed with the election of officers. The group voted to meet again in two years.

New officers for the coming two years are Harry Clay, president; Harold Williams, first vice president; Bryan Close, second vice president; Mrs. Mary Paice, recording secretary; Mrs. Beverly Whittle, corresponding secretary; Wilton Cole, treasurer; and Mrs. Barbara Laycock Yarborough, publicity chairman.

A talent show was presented at the Clark Auditorium under the direction of Mrs. Helen Stevens Linkey and Mrs. Bernice Stevens Hall of Wheeler. M. W. Yarborough was master of ceremonies and an oldtime sing-song by Mrs. Inez Garrison Kennedy and Mrs. Inez Garrison Kenendy of Muleshoe playing the piano followed. A quintet composed of Misses Mickey Linkey, Annette Whittle, Linda Skidmore, Earnestine Hoffmann and Mrs. Julia Holmes Henderson accompanied by Miss Carol Ann Harvey was also done. A show by Janice Glass accompanied by Glenda Porter Henderson of Wheeler, and a piano selection by Carol Ann Harvey and Walter Dugger of Anadarko were featured. Ryland Shaddix of Midland, also performed.

The guest speaker was Jack Taylor of Columbus, Mo. To end the show Weldon Bright of KGNCTV and Ryland Shaddix played on twin pianos and ended with "My Wild Irish Rose."

A dance followed at the Armory with Charles Grimes and Orchestra of Amarillo, playing the music.

Outgoing officers were A. F. Wischkeapper Jr., president; Harry Wofford of Wheeler and Marvin Tindall, vice presidents, Mrs. Acha Lile Blake, recording secretary, Mrs. Nina Tinsley Morgan, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Betty Burks Sherrod, treasurer and Mrs. Merita Bumpers and Arvel Montgomery, publicity chairman.

from each other after the publicist took on the Dominican Republic as a client. A conflict of client viewpoints was indicated.

Also in New York, an advertising firm known for short as BBD&O resigned from the Reader's Digest advertising account because of a "conflict of interest" between the magazine and another BBD&O client which is engaged in largescale manufacture of cigarettes.

In London, Prof. J.B.S. Haldane, a leading geneticist, resigned from England because it had "foreign troops all over the place; yes, I do mean the Americans," Haldane, who long had voiced disgruntlement with British policies, left to settle in a "free country"—India, where he doubtless will be grunted as all get-out.

Comes Bright News

In the face of these and other reports of cleavage of unions of long standing, comes the bright news of a prospective reunion after dreary years of separation—Tomogene Coca and Sid Caesar probably will get together again on television.

For this TV onlooker, the prospective return of Miss Coca to the national living room with the proper framework for her remarkable talents is the happiest news since the invention of air conditioning. I must confess to a certain overflow of heroine worship in her direction for many years.

In the ancient days before television, I used to go to any nightclub at which she was appearing just for the privilege of sitting there and watching her roll those billiard-ball eyes. She had one skit in which she rolled the audience in the tiny aisles by whipping out a trombone and braying on it in lamppoon of Spitalny's all-girl band, twirling her eyes in time to the music.

To the business of being a funny person, Miss Coca brings some outstanding equipment. Her face is so arranged that her leer is the finest in the comic world today, bar none. Her voice can range from a splitting squeak that would startle a rat, down through the roller-coaster of coloratura into a husky bass yodel which can be described only by remarking that it has undertones.

Has Outstanding Equipment

She has a pretty fair knack at ballet, too, if she wants to travesty that dance form. And as a mimic and pantomimist— from femme fatale to wispy hobo—she is tops.

Caesar is a fine comedian. It is to be hoped that if he brings Miss Coca back on a show with him, he will turn her loose unrestrained on stage and let her ramble.

Robins Hurls Shutout For Hoffman

Jan Robins of the Hoffman Little League farm team hurled a one hit shutout over the Sportsmen Store yesterday afternoon to retain for his team the top notch in the closely contested league.

Sportsmen's only hit of the game came in the sixth when catcher Bobbitt singled, followed by McCracken who was given an intentional walk. But the set up double was unnecessary as Robins retired in order the next two batters to end the only real threat of the game.

Bridges was credited with the loss, but pitched an exceptional game in allowing only four runs. Sparking the attack for Hoffman was Maquin and Baton with two hits each which accounted for three of the four winning runs.

Score by innings:

The victory chalked the ninth for Hoffman against 2 losses, with the final contest scheduled for August 6 against Jeffries.

Other scheduled games are Utility vs Mobil, Cabot vs Jeffries and Sports vs Tom Rose, all to be played August 3.

Orioles Stung By Bees
BALTIMORE (UP)—Ray Moore of Baltimore originally was slated to pitch against Cleveland tonight but he has a honey-of-an- excuse why he can't.

The Orioles' right-hander was so severely stung by a swarm of bees at his home in Upper Marlboro, Md., that he required injections from club physician Dr. Erwin Mayer.

NEW YORK (UP)—Yogi Berra's third inning homer against the Kansas City Athletics Tuesday was the New York Yankees' 100th of the season, and it marked the 34th year they have totaled at least 100 homers.

RUB' OF THE GREEN—Third basemen make split decisions just like umpires. Jerry Coleman of the home club has no play on a swift runner, so waits until a topped grounder rolls foul at Yankee Stadium. After all, what can Jerry lose?

Donovan Praised By Ike In 7-1 Win Over Senators

President Eisenhower picked a fine night to watch a ball game and he wound up joining in the praise of the "hottest" pitcher in the majors at the moment—Dick Donovan of the Chicago White Sox.

Buffs Bash Dallas, 9-1; Missions, Tulsa Split Twin

By UNITED PRESS
Houston bounced back to even its series with Texas League leading Dallas Tuesday night and Tulsa and Austin fell back into a tie for third.

The Buffs bashed Dallas 9-1 and moved back to nine games out. San Antonio and Tulsa divided a doubleheader, the Missions winning the opener, 3-2 and Tulsa taking the nightcap 5-3.

The President, making his first mid-season appearance at a baseball game Tuesday night since last Aug. 31, commented appreciatively to aides on Donovan's brilliant three-hit pitching as the White Sox righthander beat the Senators, 7-1. Donovan, who didn't walk a batter in breezing to his 11th victory, has given up a total of eight hits in his last three games.

Not only did the President witness some fine pitching, but also some long ball clouting as Larry Doby and Minnie Minoso each walloped a pair of homers to keep the White Sox within three games of first place. Roy Sievers, who collected two of Washington's hits, also homered.

In other American League games, the Yankees helped Casey Stengel celebrate his birthday with a 10-4 victory over the Athletics; Boston blanked Detroit, 4-0, and Cleveland licked Baltimore, 6-0.

Braves Retain Lead
The Milwaukee Braves clung to their half game lead in the National League race with a 5-2 decision over the Pirates; the Cardinals topped the Giants, 7-3; Philadelphia defeated Cincinnati, 8-5, and the Cubs split a doubleheader with the Dodgers, Brooklyn winning the opener, 1-0, and Chicago the nightcap, 4-3.

Yogi Berra drove in four runs with four hits, including a homer, to pace a 16-hit attack that gave the Yankees their 14th victory in 15 meetings with Kansas City this season.

Southpaw Whitey Ford wasn't nearly at his best, giving up 13 hits, including a homer by Billy Martin, but he hung in there for the distance to post his sixth triumph.

Bob Porterfield of the Red Sox turned back the Tigers on four hits while Jackie Jensen drove in three of Boston's four runs with a homer and a single. Ted Williams rapped out three hits to boost his batting average to .354. Frank and Don Elston.

Patterson Bouts Withdrawn From Home Television In IBC Wrangle

By JACK CUDDY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UP)—Manager Gus D'Amato's defiance of power and tradition in the fight game was attracting almost as much attention today as the first of his heavyweight champion, Floyd Patterson.

D'Amato is in the midst of four moves that may make him top man in the world of boxing. They are:

—Thursday he sends young Patterson back to camp at Greenwood Lake, N. Y., to sharpen for the first "open championship" in ring history—a defense of his world professional title against the world amateur champion, Pete Rademacher, at Seattle, Wash., Aug. 22.

—He and Patterson have waived the $175,000 guarantee for Monday night's knockout defense against Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson in order to make certain that the D'Amato-appointed promoter, Emil Lence, suffers no loss from the Polo Grounds' disappointing gate and stays in business.

Boycotts Home TV
Boycotts Home TV—He has withdrawn Patterson

from home fight-television on any network until such time as one of the major TV corporations shall contract with an independent promoter, like Lence, for a weekly TV-fight series, in opposition to the International Boxing Club's TV-fight supremacy.

—Looking beyond the Rademacher fight, D'Amato is planning another Patterson defense under Lence promotion at New York in October or November, which he will try to force into Madison Square Garden or, otherwise, stage at the King'sbridge Army in the Bronx.

"I want to break the fight game wide open," said the stocky, gray-haired manager today. "I'll have no truck with monopolies or combines or cliques. I want to help independent promoters get back on their feet and make it possible for fighters, in all stages of development, to get what they're worth. And, luckily, I've got a world heavyweight champion who shares my ideals."

Floyd Loeses $51,140
In waiving the $175,000 guarantee for last Monday's fight, D'Amato flabbergasted managers throughout fistiana. Patterson accepted 40 per cent of all net receipts and took a purse of $123,859—which was $51,140 less than the guarantee.

Meanwhile, Jackson, the badly battered challenger, remained abed at the Meadowbrook Hospital in suburban East Meadow, recovering from a kidney bruise that caused blood in his bladder-kidney tract.

Five specialists made a series of tests, including X-rays, and recommended he remain in the hospital several days for observation. Their thorough examinations disclosed no other serious injuries.

The Hurricane's mother, Georgia, and his sister took him to the hospital at 4:40 a.m. e.d.t. Tuesday about six hours after his 10-round technical knockout by Patterson.

Women's Bowling League Meeting Announced

There will be a meeting of all members of the Tuesday night Women's Top of Texas Bowling League in the Cabot Coffee Room of the Hughes Building Thursday night at 8, announced Peggy Ormson, president of the league.

The purpose of the meeting is to organize teams for the forthcoming season, which is scheduled to begin Tuesday, August 27. Officers for this year's league are Peggy Ormson, president; Kietha Clifton, vice president; Ina Reading, secretary; Hazel Mullanax, treasurer and Iva Mayfield, sergeant-at-arms.

Pros Qualify For All American Tournament

CHICAGO (UP)—Second and final qualifying rounds for men professionals in the All American Golf Tourney were slated for today at Tam O'Shanter Country Club.

The second wave of pros to tee off onto Tam's slopes represented some 275 entrants in the tourney fighting for one of the 72 qualifying spots.

Paul Harney of Bolton, Mass., led the first day qualifying round with a blazing six-under-par 66. Harney, a graduate of Holy Cross, had cut his six strokes under par by the end of the 10th hole in Tuesday's 18-hole competition and maintained a red-hot pace the rest of the way.

Gavilan, Ortega Bout Tonight

MIAMI BEACH (UP)—Flashy Kid Gavilan, who still has visions of regaining the welterweight title despite his 31 years and a depressing losing streak, gets a big chance to boost his stock tonight against Gaspar Ortega at the Miami Beach Auditorium.

Because the Cuban "kidd" is unpredictable and explosive, Ortega was only an 8-5 favorite for the 10-round nationally televised (ABC) bout, although he is second ranked among the welters. Fight time is 10 p.m. e.d.t.

A victory over Mexico's Ortega, who gave up bullfighting for the prize ring, would boost Gavilan's chances of getting a title shot eventually at welter champion Carmen Basilio, whom he once defeated.

Kivett Leads In Public Links Tourney

HERSHEY, Pa. (UP)—Bud Kivett, 35-year-old five-time city champion of High Point, N.C., led 63 other weekend golfers into match play of the 32nd annual U.S. Public Links golf championship here today.

Kivett, who toured the rugged 8,055-yard Hershey Country Club course in 72 on the opening round Monday, found the range Tuesday to chalk up a one under par 26-33—69 to bring his two-day total to 141 and capture medal honors.

Hawaii's Jack S. Chun, a plumber when not on the fairways, took the low-round honors during the medal play with a 68, 74 score. He helped Honolulu's three-man team win the Warren G. Harding team trophy for the first time in 21 tries.

All Tardy Tigers Need Is Much Tastier K-Ration

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK — (NEA) — The Tigers, seemed to be an exciting outfit at the Lakeland, Fla., training base last spring. Jack Tighe, the tough-talking manager, had difficulty restraining himself when he spoke of the first major league club he was to handle. You got the idea that he felt sure not even the Yankees were going to kick it around. You looked around and saw young fellows like Harvey Kuenn, Al Kaline, Bill Tuttle, Frank House, Frank Bolling, Frank Lary and Billy Hoelt. You remembered Yogi Berra of the Yankees saying, two years before, that "if I had to pick a future championship team, it'd be Detroit."

But here we are headed into August, and the Tigers are far off the pace set by the Yankees and White Sox, and Kuenn and Kaline have had difficulty buying base hits. There had been talk of front office grumbling. So, you expected to find Tighe, the fighting Irishman and freshman manager, teeming with rage and disappointment.

It is rather surprising therefore to get a highly optimistic report. "Our trouble narrows down to the heartbeat of the club, Kuenn and Kaline, not hitting," says Tighe. "The pitching has been excellent. Kaline has started to hit and we know Kuenn will, and we're looking forward to the finish we made last year, when we won 46 of the last 70."

"We're 10 games better off than we were a year ago. Our paid attendance at home to date is $70,000 or 100,000 more than last year. "No one has said a word to me about the failure of the club to climb higher. As a baseball man, Johnny McHale, the general manager, knows we are fortunate to be where we are with Kuenn and Kaline."

Anti-Trust Hears More Pro-Players

WASHINGTON (UP)—A House anti-trust subcommittee hears more on the players' side of the case today in its investigation of professional football.

Creighton Miller, lawyer for the National Football League Players Assn., was slated to lead off testimony as the subcommittee's hearings on professional team sports entered the next-to-last week. Miller was to be followed by George Ratterman, former player for the New York Yankees, Montreal Alouettes and Cleveland Browns; Norm Van Brocklin, player representative for the Los Angeles Rams; and Kyle Rote, player representative for the New York giants.

Pierce First To Win 15; Still Has Some Gas Left

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (UP)—Bill Pierce has turned his year around and may pay off with the White Sox southpaw has had. Billy was a 20-game winner last season yet actually he stumbled into the charmed circle. He won 16 of his first 20 games but from this point on, captured four of his last nine games. The answer is that he ran out of gas while this season, due to a change in tactics, he has a full tank. "It's just that I feel stronger this year," says the slender left hander who, with a 15-7 mark, was the first 15-game winner in the majors this season. The Big Season The reason is that he didn't pitch himself out in the spring. The man who led the American League with a 1.97 earned run average in 1955 was finding his legs and strengthening his arm.

So when the flay went on the line, the 30-year-old Pierce was right there. Proof came on opening day as he beat Herb Score, the Cleveland fireballer, in a 3-2 thriller. Lack of stamina formerly was his big problem. Yet he has shown no hint of tiring in a skein of triumphs which include a pair of 10-inning wins, three shutouts, a two-hitter, a pair of three hiters and three four-hit efforts.

Westerners Blank Midland
By UNITED PRESS
Ballinger moved four and a half games into the Southwestern League lead Tuesday night as Carlsbad threatens to take over second place. The Westerners blanked Midland 4-0 behind Don Lippold's eight-hit, Carlsbad stopped Hobbs 5-1 and moved within a game of the second-place Sports. Don Risinger paced the Carlsbad victory with four hits, good for two runs.

CHEVROLET BEST IN TRANSCONTINENTAL ECONOMY TEST!

In a conclusive test, sanctioned and certified by the NATA,* Chevrolet proved that it costs least to operate of the three leading low-priced cars tested! Traveling from Los Angeles to New York, Chevrolet recorded up to 17% greater fuel economy and lower total cost for the trip!

Chevy showed its outstanding thriftiness, all right, in one of the most thorough tests of this kind ever undertaken. Still, Chevrolet's ability to save big hardly comes as a surprise. Its economy is as traditional as its craftsmanship and solid construction. You take for granted Chevy's low operating costs, just as you've come to expect its fine finishing touches and careful attention to details. See your Chevrolet dealer for a demonstration drive!

All Tardy Tigers Need Is Much Tastier K-Ration

By HARRY GRAYSON
 NEA Sports Editor
 NEW YORK — (NEA) — The Tigers seemed to be an exciting outfit at the Lakeland, Fla., training base last spring. Jack Tighe, the tough-talking manager, had difficulty restraining himself when he spoke of the first major league club he was to handle. You got the idea that he fell sure not even the Yankees were going to kick it around. You looked around and saw young fellows like Harvey Kuenn, Al Kaline, Bill Tuttle, Frank House, Frank Bolling, Frank Lary and Billy Hoelt. You remembered Yogi Berra of the Yankees saying, two years before, that "If I had a pick a future championship team, it'd be Detroit."

write that we work for great people — John Fetzer, Harvey Hanson and Fred Knorr, the new owners."
 Kuen, who upped his average to .332 last season, is the deepest puzzle to Tighe.
 "We can't see that he is doing anything different at the plate," explains the boss man. "The hits simply have not dropped for him."
 "Kuenn switched to third base because he is a big fellow who lacks range at shortstop and we figured the move might help his hitting. But it didn't, and when Ronnie Samford failed to hit as the shortstop, we had to get Reno

Pierce First To Win 15; Still Has Some Gas Left

By OSCAR FRALEY
 United Press Sports Writer
 NEW YORK (UP)—Bill Pierce turned his year around and may pay off with the big one in the White Sox southpaw's hand.
 Billy was a 20-game winner last season yet actually he staggered in the charmed circle. He won 14 of his first 20 games but then, on this point on, captured only 10 of his last nine games.
 The answer is that he ran out of gas while this season, due to a change in tactics, he has a full tank.
 "It's just that I feel stronger this year," says the slender left hander who, with a 157 mark, was the first 15-game winner in the majors this season.
The Big Reason
 The reason is that he didn't pitch himself out in the spring. The man who led the American League with a 1.97 earned run average in 1955 was finding his legs and strengthening his arm.

So when the flay went on the line, the 30-year-old Pierce was right there. Proof came on opening day as he beat Herb Score, the Cleveland fireballer, in a 3-2 thriller.
 Lack of stamina formerly was his big problem. Yet he has shown no hint of tiring in a skein of triumphs which include a pair of 10-inning wigs, three shutouts, a two-hitter, a pair of three hits and three four-hit efforts.
 Most of his wins have been over the top clubs, too, with four over Cleveland, three over the Yankees and two each against Detroit and Boston.
Off Detroit Sandlots
 Pierce, who came off the Detroit sandlots, was a long time arriving. After three years at Buffalo, he rode the Detroit bench in 1948 and "got the best break I ever had" by being traded to the White Sox in November of 1948.
 After four mediocre years, he developed a slider which helped him to 14 victories in 1953, fell back to mediocrity because of a

Anti-Trust Hears More Pro-Players

WASHINGTON (UP)—A House anti-trust subcommittee hears more on the players' side of the case today in its investigation of professional football.
 Creighton Miller, lawyer for the National Football League Players Assn., was slated to lead off testimony as the subcommittee's hearings on professional team sports entered the next-to-last week.
 Miller was to be followed by George Ratterman, former player for the New York Yankees, Montreal Alouettes and Cleveland Browns; Norm Van Brocklin, player representative for the Los Angeles Rams; and Kyle Rote, player representative for the New York giants.

Graham's Conversions May Only Be Mass Emotionalism

EDITOR'S NOTE: Author of this week's column is editor of the Christian Century magazine, an old and respected organ which circulates widely among clergymen of all major Protestant denominations. He raises questions about the lasting benefits of crusading techniques like Billy Graham's and finds that in the past mass conversions have failed to take hold.

By DR. HAROLD E. FEY
Written For The United Press
Each Saturday evening during his New York Crusade the nation has seen hundreds of televised men and women moving to the front of Madison Square Garden as evangelist Billy Graham has pleaded with them to "accept Christ."

Forty years ago Billy Sunday urged New Yorkers to "hit the sawdust trail," and they came in even larger numbers. But the effects of the Billy Sunday meetings have long ago disappeared, and it seems likely the Billy Graham revival may have a similar transiency. Mass-produced conversions fail to endure the test of time.

On the other hand, the one-by-one conversions which take place through the churches amount to more than three millions each year, renewing a Christian community of nearly 100 million each generation, without fanfare or excitement and with a minimum of loss and disillusionment.

Believes in Conversion
Right off I must make it clear that my skepticism concerning the value of mass evangelism does not mean I am skeptical concerning the importance of religious conversion. Real conversion is not only possible; it takes place every day and under the right circumstances it is greatly to be desired.

Conversion can bring a radical and wholesome change to life. A person who has been consciously alien, despairing, guilty, confused as to his goals and at odds with the universe, with society and with himself, can be changed. He or she can come to know reconciliation with God, with other people, with self. Despair can be transformed to confidence, guilt to forgiveness, the cross purposes of uncertain goals to the integrity of one aim. The personality, hitherto utterly alone, takes on a new character as it becomes part of the church, the living society which holds as its highest designation the title "Body of Christ."

Clearly it is of overwhelming importance that a person who has been at odds with himself and the universe can be so reconciled with God, his fellows and his own soul. This change is conversion. It can usually take place without a wracking emotional upheaval, but it involves the emotions since they part of the totality of personality. But it can never take place without the presence and help of the church at various stages.

Urges Church Association
Billy Graham is right in insisting that every person must make his own decision about Christ, must surrender his life to God. But experience has repeatedly shown that the person who "accepts Christ" in such circumstances as those seen in Madison Square Garden is very likely to lose his way.

He may transiently know what it means to be converted, but if he fails to become integrally identified with other Christians in a church, the experience will wither. He needs guidance immediately into an understanding of the goods news which runs far deeper than that preached by the mass evangelist, whose sole concern is to present only that portion of the gospel which bears on "decisions for Christ."

The new Christian needs more help than ordinarily he knows to "grow in grace." He is fortunate if he is led into the experience of conversion by the pastor or members of a church whose individual counsel and prayers guide each step.

John Gerber of Houston, one of the country's finest players and inventor of the Gerber siam convention, still be back in action at the San Antonio regional after a two-year layoff.
Today's hand shows Mr. Gerber and his convention in action.
He sat South and his four-club bid asked for ace. North's four-trump response showed three aces and Gerber's five-club bid called for kings. When North replied five diamonds to show no kings, Gerber bid six spades only.
He won the opening heart lead in his own hand and decided to play as safely as possible for the slam. Hence, his first play was to lead the queen of spades to encourage a cover from West if he held the king. When West followed low Johnny went right up with dummy's ace. He did not really care about the spade finesse. He was certain of his contract provided the spades broke two-one. East followed, whereupon Mr. Gerber cashed his second high heart and led a low spade.

East was in the lead and also in a helpless position. A heart lead would allow declarer to discard a diamond and ruff in dummy, a diamond lead would give him a free finesse and take care of the diamond loser, and a club lead would solve the club problem for Mr. Gerber and allow an eventual discard of his potential losing diamond on dummy's long club.
Of course Johnny could have taken the spade finesse and guessed one of the minor suit queens later but this play was just about a sure thing.
