2.26 Inches Of Rain In Pampa

Clouds hanging over the Top of Texas area Saturday and Sunday brought Pampa 2.26 inches of rain and a sprinkling of hail. Although no damage was done in the immediate area, traffic has been blocked by a wash-out of the approach to McClellan Creek bridge between Lefors and McLean on Highway 273.

Twelve received the heaviest amount of area rainfall with a recorded 4 1/2 to 5 inches. Some wash-out damage was done in the area with water covering the highway part of the time yesterday.

According to KPAT Radio Station, Pampa received .20 inches before 6:30 a.m. Saturday, and only .10 inches all day Saturday. Between 6 p.m. Saturday and 2:30 a.m. Sunday, .97 inches fell, with an inch being received between 2:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. Sunday.

Pampa's high Sunday was 72 degrees. The high Saturday was 90 and the low last night, 64 degrees.

U. S. Highway 60 and 87 between Amarillo and Canyon was flooded temporarily by soaking rains there Sunday, and a tornado was sighted in the air near Olton. Olton got 2.3 inches of rain.

Plainview mopped up today from a 4 inch deluge Sunday that sent water rushing into some stores. Most of the rain fell within a 30-minute period, causing temporary flooding.

Thunder showers brought Wheeler only 1/2 inch yesterday and last night, and Perryton received only a trace. The southern part of Ochiltree County got 1.20 inches, and Canadian received no rain at all.

The United States weather bureau predicted increased thunder-shower activity for this afternoon and tonight.

Winds accompanied the downpour shortly after noon Sunday, but there was no hail. The country roads are pretty muddy in the Lefors received approximately a half inch from a drizzling rain all day Sunday with the rain being a little harder in the south part of town than the north.

KEVA radio station in Shamrock recorded 2.50 inches between 1:30 p.m. Sunday and 7 a.m. today. The Boren Ranch near the Bethel Community, east of Shamrock, reported 2.21 inches and the Roam Sewell Ranch, 3 inches. The south section of Shamrock received only 1 to 1 1/2 inches.

Convict To Testify For Senate Group

WASHINGTON (UP)—A convict temporarily paroled from his New York jail cell appears for questioning before the Senate Rackets Committee today.

He is Max Chester, former union official and friend of the notorious Johnny Dio. Chester, convicted of conspiring with employers, was slated to appear before the investigating committee this afternoon.

The committee's goal in questioning Chester — and others to come — is to trace the "bouncing charter" of one of Dio's New York union locals.

Nation's Leaders Mourn Death of Former Senator George

UP26 GEORGE 1st 5 pghs
VIENNA, Ga. (UP) — The nation's leaders today joined friends and neighbors of former Sen. Walter F. George in mourning the death of a small-town lawyer who mounted the forums of world statesmanship.

President Eisenhower said the Georgia Democrat, hailed for his bipartisanship in U. S. foreign af-airs, "served his country and the free world for many years with distinction and integrity."

George headed the powerful Senate Foreign Relations Committee at the pinnacle of his 34-year Senate career and afterward became the President's representative to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

George 79, died at his home here early Sunday after a six-week struggle with heart disease which last June ended his active role in his new international career.

The body was to lie in state until about an hour before the funeral services (at 4 p.m. e.s.t.) in the First Baptist Church, where George had worshipped most of his life.

The winner of the contest will be presented with a saddle at the close of Saturday's performance.

Kid Pony Parade Today; Show Tonight Called Off

Soggy grounds today caused the 13th annual Top of Texas Rodeo and Kid Pony Show to bog down before it got underway.

At a meeting of rodeo officials this morning, it was decided for safety reasons to postpone tonight's kid pony show. It is tentatively set for 2 p.m. tomorrow, weather permitting. The second round of the kid pony show is scheduled to follow at 8 p.m. as was originally planned.

The opening parade was to have been held according to schedule at 3 this afternoon.

Bob Adams, association president, said that the two kid pony show performances would definitely be held sometime this week even if inclement weather forced postponement tomorrow also.

Reports this morning indicated that the grounds were so muddy that it would be unsafe to go ahead with the show.

The kid pony show and miniature rodeo has been divided into five groups. Group I to include children ages 5, 6 and 7; group II, ages 8, 9 and 10; group III, ages 11 and 12; group IV, ages 13 and 14; and group V, age 15. John Pitts is chairman of the kid pony show.

Groups I and II are to perform in the first show, while groups III, IV and V take over for the second and final kid pony show.

The rodeo will get down to business Wednesday with the regular performances which are expected to attract more than 300 top performers from four or more surrounding states.

The kickoff is to be a street parade Wednesday at 3 p.m. coming down Cuyler street.

Besides many seasoned rodeo performers the show is to feature such attractions as Ruby Nance's world championship rodeo band, 12 old-time vehicles from Fort Jordan at Clayton, N.M., Leon McAuliffe and the Cimarron Boys, to play between rodeo events and nightly for dances at the National Guard Armory, well-known rodeo clowns, and many other colorful acts. Another special attraction will be Hubert Castle, tight wire artist, who will perform between acts. Acclaimed in Life magazine as "Tops among one-man acts," Castle does his famous drunk act on the high wire plus other fancy skipping.

Pampa Jaycees, who have been promoting a beard-growing contest to stimulate interest in the rodeo, are holding a street dance Tuesday night at 9 at which time the champion beard growers will be named.

"We are expecting this to be the best rodeo in Pampa's history," Andis said.

From 12 to 15 riding or roping clubs from the Panhandle area, plus the newly formed Top of Texas Girls' Riding club will grace the parade Wednesday and the grand entries.

Wednesday's parade is scheduled to form at W. Foster and Hobart at 2:15 p.m., according to Holly Gray, parade chairman.

In the rodeo, which is featuring eight events, some $5,000 in prize money will be split between winners plus buckles, saddles and other awards.

Winner of the cutting horse contest will take home a $500 purse plus entry fees.

Other events include calf roping, bulldogging, bull riding, double mugging, bareback bronc riding, saddle bronc riding and cowgirl sponsored contests.

First prize in the cowgirls' contest will be a hand-stamped saddle, second prize will be a silver belt buckle and third prize is a pair of shop-made boots presented by the Pursley Motor Company.

The best all-around cowboy, who must be entered in three major rodeo events to qualify, will receive a X Beaver Seton hat from the Pampa Daily News and a silver buckle from the Rodeo Association. Awards are to be presented the last night.

The show is being produced by veteran rodeo showman Goat Mayo of Petrolia. Mayo furnishes the rodeo stock and the clowns and directs the show. He has produced all the previous Pampa shows.

At Thursday night's performance, the Pampa Jaycees will inaugurate the kid pony show. (See KID PONY Page)

Siren Test Set Friday

If the sky is clear Friday afternoon the storm siren will be tested at 5:30 p.m.

Sheriff Rufe Jordan reported today that plans for testing the siren are continuing but if any clouds are in the sky at the time of the test it would be cancelled.

"I don't want to test it when there is a danger of a storm in the area or when it might cause undue panic of the residents of Pampa," the sheriff stated.

Sheriff Jordan is Gray County coordinator of Civil Defense and, with the help of the city and county, obtained the siren to warn residents of Pampa of approaching storms.

The siren has been installed on the roof of the Hughes Building and the manufacturer reported that the sound should be heard for at least five miles.

The test planned for 5:30 Friday afternoon is to determine if all residents in all parts of Pampa will be able to hear the siren. Residents will be asked to call the Pampa News to report the results of the test.

Officers will be accompanied by representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the program, who will welcome the visitors to Pampa and to a night of "Top of Texas hospitality."

Hearing Is Held For Local Youths

The eight boys involved in the burglaries of railroad boxcars and local businesses during the past four or five months were placed in the custody of their parents this morning by Judge Bruce Parker, juvenile judge, following a hearing in Juvenile Court.

In releasing the youths to the parents, Judge Parker told the youths to spend more time with them.

The hearing opened at 10 this morning and following the hearing the judge talked to the parents and the boys for nearly an hour before placing the youths in the parents' custody.

Police chief, Jim Conner told the court that seven of the eight boys were involved in the burglaries and thefts and that the eighth youth was indirectly involved in that some of the stolen merchandise had been taken to him for safe keeping.

All of the seven boys admitted to the judge that they had taken part in the burglary of the boxcars, which were parked on a siding during the blizzard earlier this year. The youths admitted breaking the seals on at least nine or ten of the boxcars and some of the boys stated that as many as 15 seals were possibly broken.

The boys stated that seals had been broken on the doors of some of the cars but they had not entered because the doors were hard to open.

Admission in court by the youths indicated that a total of eight canned hams, several cans of Spam, two boxes of candy and four comforts were taken from the boxcars. Three of the comforts, which were being shipped to Beverly Hills, Calif., have been recovered by local officers and the youths told Judge Parker this morning that the fourth comfort would be brought in today.

The boys said that they had taken a hog from a farmer and had sold it but later had taken a hog owned by one of the boys to the farmer and had everything settled with the farmer. They also stated they had taken two small pigs which had died. The exact location (See HEARING Page 3)

Beard Prizes To Be Given Tuesday Nite

From the shaggiest to the neatest to the loudest colored beards will be given prizes Tuesday night by the Pampa Jaycees at their street dance, George Whitten, beard chairman, said today.

The affair will be held on Kingsmill street between the City Hall and the County Courthouse beginning at 9 p.m. Beard growers are asked to assemble there at 8:45.

A slate of three judges has just been selected to do the "picking." The trio includes Miss Pampa (Johnnie Lee Smith), Sheriff Rufe Jordan and Al Mayfield of KGNC-TV in Amarillo.

They will select the outstanding beard ($25), shaggiest beard ($15), youngest beard grower ($10), oldest beard grower ($10), heaviest beard ($5), thinnest beard ($5), neatest mustache ($5) and a host of other "bobby" prizes which include the loudest colored beard in each color for $2.50.

The outstanding young farmer of the area is to be announced at this time also. This is a part of the national Jaycee contest which will go through state and eventually choose four outstanding farmers over the nation.

The dance itself, to be old-time dances, chiefly the square dance, is being played by Humphy Matheny, and will run from 9 to 12 p.m.

Commission To Meet Wednesday

The meeting of the city commissioners, which is usually held on Tuesday morning in City Hall, will be held on Wednesday to allow the commission to accept bids on water and sewer pipe.

The delay was occasioned when the urgent need for the pipe was learned and the commission had to set the earliest bid date possible. According to law, the bids must be advertised for a minimum of 15 days, which resulted in the commission having to meet on Wednesday in order to open the bids as early as possible.

The opening of the bids so far is the only item on the agenda, according to John Koons, acting city manager.

AFL-CIO Meet Set For Today

By EDWARD J. McFALL
United Press Staff Correspondent
ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (UP)—A special meeting of the AFL-CIO Building Trades Department opened here today with the threat of a Teamster attack directed by Teamster Crown Prince James R. Hoffa against AFL-CIO President George Meany.

Labor sources viewed the expected attack on the prestige and leadership of Meany as a "power play" by Hoffa, vice president of the strong Teamsters Union who is currently campaigning for Dave Beck's presidency.

Hoffa, one of five Teamster delegates, will appeal to the old AFL building trades leaders to join his union's revolt against Meany's program to end jurisdictional disputes between the building trades unions and the industrial unions.

McClellan, who predicted in advance his committee's current racket hearings would be "stupid," said labor corruption turned-up so far was "greater and more extensive than I anticipated."

He expressed belief the Senate should continue the hearings for at least two years, and said there "must be remedial" legislation to restore control of unions to their membership and protect their funds.

Chester was convicted July 25, along with Dio and Samuel Goldstein, an official of a Teamster local, of conspiring to get money from employers to insure labor peace.

Officials said the special mission, which was set up to look into operations of American bases and troops overseas, was headed by Frank G. Nash, former assistant secretary of defense for international affairs.

The Nash mission report may lead to a reduction in the number of American servicemen stationed abroad, the elimination of some minor bases, and an acreage cut-back at other overseas bases.

Nash said his on-the-spot check is now complete and he is ready to write a report.

Nash was given the assignment by President Eisenhower on the recommendation of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles, but there has never been any official announcement of the Nash mission's existence.

Officials told the United Press the Nash investigation was well under way when the anti-American riots broke out in Formosa last May and that Nash was in Taipei then.

Experts said the administration is faced with a two-pronged problem.

Steps should be taken soon to improve relations with allies where there are American bases and troops, they said, but the problem is how to accomplish this without impairing American-Alien defense strength at key global trouble spots.

US May Cut Armed Forces Overseas

WASHINGTON (UP)—A top-secret investigation by a special presidential mission may result in a cutback in U.S. military might overseas, according to high administration officials.

Officials said the special mission, which was set up to look into operations of American bases and troops overseas, was headed by Frank G. Nash, former assistant secretary of defense for international affairs.

Capitol Hill Roundup: Congress Lines Up For Wet-Dry Fight Over Tax On Night Clubs

WASHINGTON (UP)—Congressmen lined up for a wet-vs-dry fight today over whether to cut the federal tax on night-clubbing. The House called up for a vote a bill to reduce by half the 20 per cent tax on food and drink charged in cabarets providing entertainment or live music.

The outcome was in doubt. Sponsors of the measure, hoping for quick action before Congress adjourns, bypassed the rules committee and brought the bill up under a procedure requiring a two-thirds majority for passage.

Outnumbered congressmen from "dry areas" thus had a chance to whip up enough support to block the measure. A similar bill passed the House several years ago but died in the Senate. There was little chance the Senate would get around to the measure before next year.

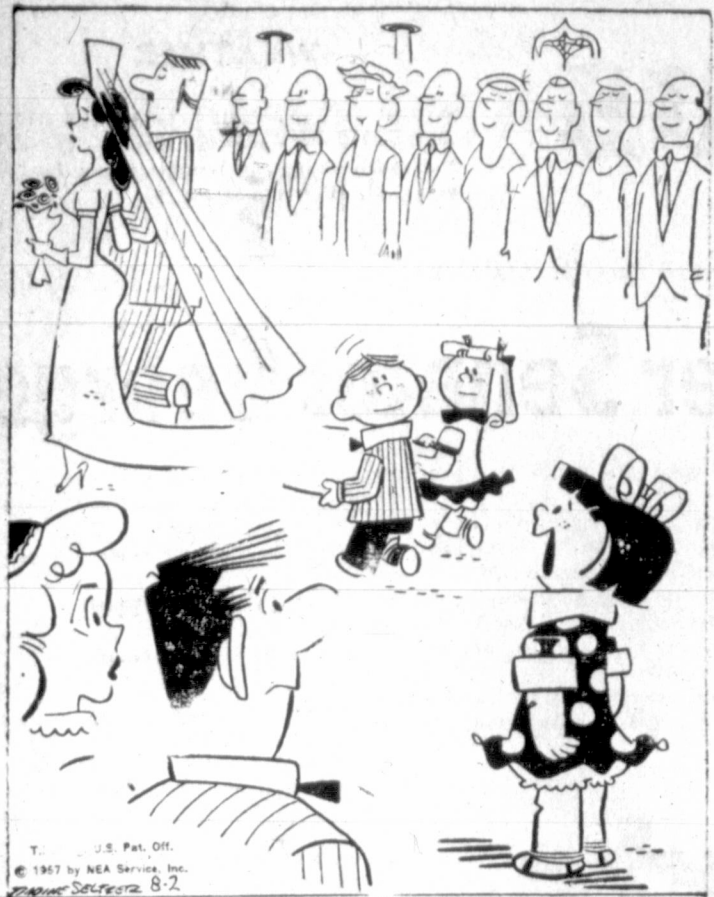

The musicians union has been spearheading the drive for the legislation outside Congress, claiming it cuts down on night club attendance. Prohibitionists who believe that liquor should be taxed as heavily as possible have fought it.

They got an assist from the Treasury Department, which doesn't want to lose the additional tax revenues.

Other congressional news: An adjournment: Congressmen looked hopefully forward to adjourning before the end of the month. With some qualifying "ifs" Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland and others talked about ending the session about Aug. 24.

Jordan May Ask Ouster Of Syrian

AMMAN, Jordan (UP)—The Jordanian government was expected today to demand the withdrawal of Syrian Charge d'Affaires Ahmad Rahbi for his part in the crisis in Syrian-Jordanian relations.

The crisis exploded when Damascus Radio broadcast a Syrian communique saying Jordan had threatened to sever diplomatic relations and to resort to "armed intervention" if Syria did not halt its press campaigns against Jordan.

Authoritative sources in Amman said "Jordan will never be the first in any case to take action in respect to cutting off diplomatic relations with Syria or resorting to armed intervention."

Diplomatic circles in Damascus said the tension had receded following the denial but that the crisis was not yet over. Informed sources there said the Arab League Council may be called in to try to end the state of tension.

LONDON (UP)—Commoners, bluebloods and British newspapers blasted 33-year-old Lord Altrincham today for criticizing the Queen's English. Two peers suggested he be "shot."

The words "God save our Queen" were smeared in three-foot-high letters on the wall of Altrincham's ancestral home and the word "our" was underlined heavily.

Texas Traffic Deaths High; 22 Killed During Weekend

By UNITED PRESS
Traffic accidents accounted for the major share of nearly two dozen accidental deaths in Texas over the weekend.

A United Press survey today shows 22 persons died violently in accidents from Friday evening through midnight Sunday. A total of 18 were killed in traffic accidents, two drowned and two died in other types of mishaps.

Two crashes Saturday claimed three lives each.

William T. Travathan Sr. of D'Bois, Tex., and his two sons, James and William of Houston, died when their car went out of control and crashed on the Gulf freeway between Houston and Galveston.

In the other wreck, Mrs. Irene Powers Swiney, her son Kenneth, 14, and Wayne Lemons, 17, all of Dallas were killed when their car crashed into a switch engine at a railroad crossing near Greenville.

Everett Barber, 26, San Antonio, died when his car smashed into a mailbox south of San Antonio Sunday.

Johnnie Wilson Jr., 25, Gainesville, was killed in a two-car collision south of Gainesville Sunday.

Miss Calvert, talented and beautiful daughter of Justice and Mrs. Robert W. Calvert of Austin, was selected for the title over 33 other contestants Sunday night. Judges said the contest was one of the "most intense and close" races in the history of the pageant.

54, 116 Pounds
The new Miss Texas, secretary to the manager of Estes Park Chalet in Estes Park, Colo., is five feet, five and a half inches tall and weighs 116 pounds. Her measurements are 36, 24 1/2, 37. Judges scored heavily in her favor on the basis of her dramatic presentation of Medea, a figure in Greek tragedy contemplating the murder of her children.

Brown-haired Miss Calvert was named the winner by the five judges after three nights of competition. She won the right to represent Texas at the Miss America pageant next month in Atlantic City, N. J.

Miss Congeniality
She was crowned by the 1956 Miss Texas, Beverly Murry of Houston.

Glenda Barton of Marshall was named Miss Congeniality by the contestants in the pageant, sponsored by the Kerrville Jaycees.

Theft in Shamrock Reported

(Special To The News)
SHAMROCK — One hundred dollars in cash was stolen from the Liberty Theatre in Shamrock shortly after closing hours Saturday night.

According to Wheeler County Sheriff Bus Dorman, the thief must have remained hidden in the theater until after it closed for the front door was standing open with no evidence of a break in.

The lock was pried off the front door of the Gulf Service Station on Highway 86 in an attempt to rob the station Saturday night. Since the station had been closed for over a month, no money was left in the cash register.

The thief damaged the cigarette machine and took the key to the cash register, apparently in search for money. The owner, Joe Taylor, didn't miss anything from the store and only damage was reported.

As the result of questioning by the judge, the youths admitted they had taken grain and feed from local firms while playing in the bins at the elevators and feed stores. This grain was fed to their pigeons, the boys reported.

The series of thefts were uncovered last Thursday and the investigation was concluded Friday when statements from the boys were completed.

Judge Parker stated that the court was lenient in the case because of the type homes the boys were from and the fact that the parents showed an interest in the boys. He also stated that all of the boys were Scouts and that they attended church regularly.

"Because this was the first trouble the youths had been involved in it was my decision to let the youths and the parents work together to keep the boys from getting into additional trouble," he concluded.

Las Cresas Guests Honored At Tea

Las Cresas Club entertained its pledges with a semi-formal tea held recently in the City Club Room. Upon arrival, guests were welcome and seated by the hostesses.

Miss Carol Miller, president, introduced the new club officers and explained the meaning of rush. Miss Kay McMurray, historian, gave a history of the club, which included the beginning, activities, and projects of Las Cresas.

The Stardets, Misses Priscilla Turnbo, Mary Gerik, and Shirley Chase entertained by singing the club song, "Under the Moonlit Starry Splendor."

Traditionally, each pledge with her Big Sister was presented to the president, Miss Miller, to take the pledge oath. Miss Mary Helen, vice president, then presented each pledge with a wristlet of yellow roses tied with a gold ribbon.

The tea table was covered with a white lace cloth centered with a floral arrangement of assorted garden flowers. White cake decorated in yellow and white roses was served by Miss McMurray. Miss Jayne Glidson presided at the punch service. Assorted minis, nuts, white and yellow napkins completed the color scheme.

Prospective members present were Misses Vicki Payne, Sarah White, Sally Parsley, Linda Wilhelm, Nancy Bailey, Virginia Worrell, Pamela Goodlett, Helen Humphries, Carolyn Wallen, Marilyn Whitener, Gloria Daniels, and Maryana Perkins. Rushes, who were out of town and unable to attend were Misses Donna Herer and Ruth Erwin.

Special guests were Mrs. John Langford, the former Miss Betty Bullard and former member; and mothers of the rushes.

Ruth Millett

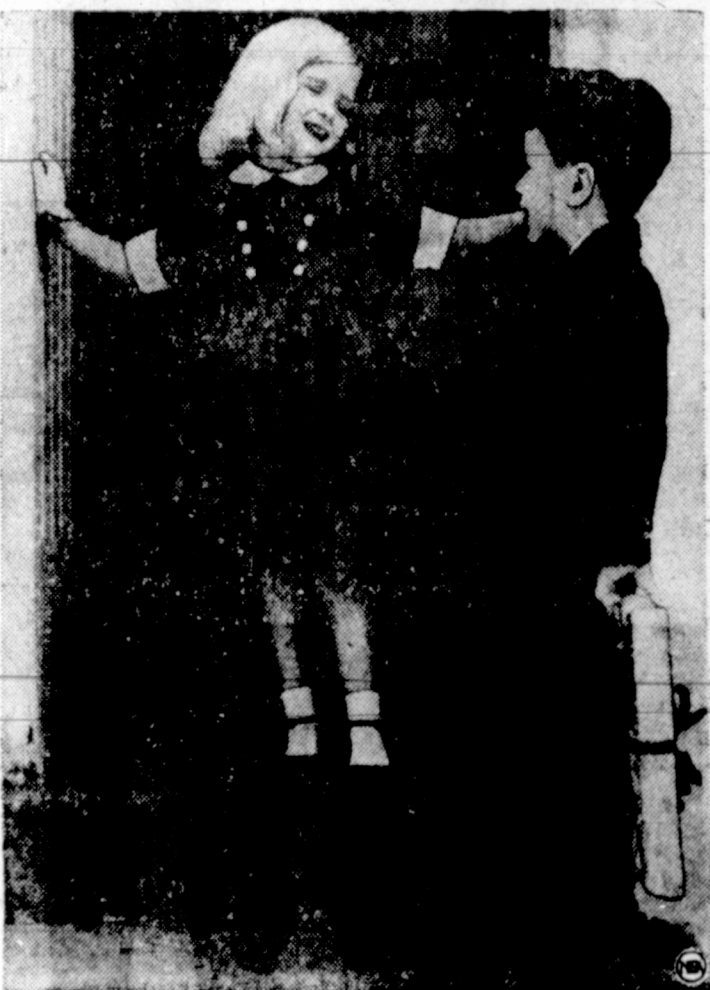

On Saturday morning John's father went out to prune the backyard hedge. John followed. He became fascinated by the sight and sound of the pruned twigs snapping between the sharp blades of his father's new clippers.

Though his father kept telling him to keep away, their attraction was too strong. Finally, when his father was called to the phone, he reached for the clippers—and with an exciting sense of perilous adventure, tried them out.

Returning, his father was shocked by this spectacle of 7-year-old disobedience. He bore the squirming, furious youngster into the house and spanked him.

At once tension went out of John. His angry crying became submissive. Sobbing, he promised never to touch the clippers again. And indeed for the rest of the day he behaved like a cherub of heaven.

Said his father smugly to his mother, "Nothing can clear the air like a good old-fashioned spanking!"

When those school bells ring, a girl has to be ready. This small charmer wears a dress of red pinwale corduroy with double row of brass buttons and white collar and cuffs. Her friend has Edwardian jacket of black-and-red striped corduroy and long black pants. — By GAILE DUGAS, NEA Women's Editor.

With enough of summer left to insure plenty of warm weather, most girls will buy a second bath.

Clear the air of what? His own shilly-shallying indecisiveness.

Spanking had not changed John. What had subdued him was not getting beaten but getting certainty that his father meant what he said.

After spanking, children often relax. They relax, not because we have hit their bodies, but because we have finally made our demands on them clear.

So we're not bright to get romantic over spanking's efficiency. Its only efficiency is that it contains our decision to mean what we've said.

Frequent spanking means we've got the habit of not meaning what we've said. It encourages us to nag absent-mindedly. Had John's father attended to what he was saying, he'd have given meaning to it with John's first defiance. He'd have quit clipping.

With his hands on his child's shoulders, looking straight into his eye, he'd have said, "Because the clippers are very sharp, you must not touch them. Now say it after me three times — 'I am not to touch Dad's clippers.'"

Cook's Look

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Big, tender turkeys are the outstanding food news for August. They score high in taste, nutrition and value for your money.

Other August bountiful include dairy products and lemons and limes. Here is the U.S. Department of Agriculture's national list of foods to be plentiful in August:

Turkeys, milk and dairy products, peaches, lemons and limes, Bartlett pears, summer vegetables, vegetable fats and oils, peanut butter.

Turkey pie is good party or picnic food. Cooking experts of the department give this nourishing recipe:

Turkey Pie (4 servings)
One and one-half cups chopped turkey, 1/4 cup cooked diced celery, 2 tablespoons finely minced onion, 1/4 cup cooked diced carrots, 1/4 cup cooked fresh peas, 1 1/2 cups medium sauce or turkey gravy, unbacked pastry.

Place turkey, vegetables and sauce in layers in shallow baking dish or in four individual baking dishes. Bake at 425 degrees F. (hot oven) 20 minutes or until hot through. Meanwhile, cut pastry into four circles or other designs and bake 12-15 minutes on baking sheet. Place baked pastries on top of pie and serve. Note: One cup seasoned mashed potatoes may be used in place of pastry. Add potatoes in ring around edge of pie before baking.

For medium sauce, use 2 tablespoons fat, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 cup broth derived from cooking turkey, and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Melt fat, blend in flour. Add broth and salt. Cook gently until thickened.

Tomorrow's dinner: Turkey pie, corn - on - cob, hot biscuits, butter or margarine, beefsteak tomatoes, sliced peaches with vanilla ice cream, coffee, tea, milk.

WOMEN AT WORK
Today, over 30 per cent of all adult women in the United States work at occupations outside the home. This figure includes thousands of mature women who have returned to the business world.

These gray haired women know that care of their hair is a key to good grooming. And well-groomed silver curls are based upon a home permanent for manageable, natural-looking waves.

Home Permanents End With Shampoo

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

Most women consider a permanent to be indispensable. Barren the lucky few with naturally curl or partly curly hair, women would be urged ducking without the glamor a permanent lends.

But there's more to it than that. It gets a girl out of the time-consuming business of pin-curling hair every night. It keeps her looking neat through rain, heat, humidity and fog.

There was, until now, a period of time when every woman detested her permanent. That was the week after she got it. She couldn't shampoo her hair for fear of relaxing it too much. So she went about yearning for the week to go by. Meanwhile, she avoided dates or social engagements of any kind.

Someone was bound to come up with a solution and someone has. A well-known maker of home permanent has brought out a home wave that lets you shampoo your hair as the final step of the permanent. And there's no need to shampoo before you wave, the maker claims.

LAMB-MINT SANDWICHES
Good news is here for every homemaker who is in need of lunch box ideas. To use the left-over lamb from Easter, try this suggestion. Place a thin slice of chilled leftover lamb on a slice of bread spread lightly with mint jelly. Season the lamb with salt and top with a second slice of bread.

CARVE IT THIN
Roast pork is most tempting when sliced as cut fairly thin. With a large loin of pork it is possible to cut two boneless slices between each two ribs. With a small loin, the slices may be thin enough if the cut is made between each pair of ribs. Two slices usually are served to each person.

Sub Deb DJ Dance Announced Success

Guests at the Sub Deb Club Disc Jockey Dance held last week in the Episcopal Parish Hall were entertained throughout the evening by Ed Etheridge.

Decorations for the dance set a musical atmosphere with black silhouettes of musical instruments and notes billowing out from the walls. The ceiling was draped the entire length of the room with orchid crepe paper streamers from which musical notes were hung. Miss Karla Cox was in charge of decorations with pledges and club members helping.

Music for the first hour was provided by recordings. From nine until midnight, music was broadcast from radio station KPDM with Mr. Etheridge announcing the numbers and requests, conducting interview with the guests, and giving accounts of the dance directly from the Parish Hall, while the music emanated from the radio station.

Approximately 150 guests attended the affair. Sponsors for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Luna, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kennedy, Mmes. Dorothy Cox, Assie Loftus, and G. J. Epps.

Front End Alignment

To help you enjoy safer and more economical driving Hukill recommends front end alignment, wheel balancing and tire truing.

Wheel alignment is a system of interrelated angles of the axles, wheels and other front-end parts. It's the precision adjustment of these angles that allows you to steer your car straight and makes it possible to turn corners without either front wheel skidding sideways. When any one of these delicately balanced angles is disturbed, wheels may be thrown enough out of adjustment so they drag, skid and scuff.

Alignment is directly related to the ease with which your car steers; the safety with which you drive; the life of your tires; and the amount of wear on vital front-end parts.

One common cause of misalignment is the knocking back of the knees, usually when your car hits a curb or chock hole too hard. Then the entire knee action assembly may be knocked back, perhaps only slightly, but enough so the wheel no longer rolls true.

A bent fram may prevent back wheels from following the fronts in a parallel position. Again wheels are forced to skid, drag or slide as they roll.

Cuts Tire Wear

Remember, it doesn't take an accident to throw your car out of alignment. Ordinary driving conditions will do it. Sudden stops or starts, hitting bumps at high speeds and other common occurrences place a strain on your car chassis. That's why wheel alignment service should be a regular part of car maintenance like a

Trio Of Boys Plot Murder Of Father

BALNERD, Min. (UP)—A 10-year-old boy today faced a possible murder charge after confessing he killed his father in a plot backed by his two brothers.

The boy, Ira Rollins Aamodt, told authorities he stalked his father in a dense woods and carried out his part of the plot by shooting him in the back.

"He was always hitting and kicking us," the boy said.

Ira's confession apparently ended a nine-day search for the slayer of Ole Aamodt, 57, who was found face down in a thicket near his northern Minnesota farm on July 27.

Sheriff Roy Wickland said Ira, his brother Billy, 13, and stepbrother Richard, 15, were questioned immediately after the discovery of Aamodt's body. After further questioning Ira broke down late Saturday and confessed.

"I couldn't do anything to suit him," the slight, fair-haired boy said.

Wickland said the three boys signed confessions in the presence of their mother, who resolved to stand by them. The boys, Wickland said, admitted they made plans to "do away" with their father following a series of beatings.

The murder plot took form last June when their father beat them because he was displeased with the way they had planted some corn, Wickland said.

Ira saw his father enter the woods to hunt a sheep-killing bear. Putting down his pitchfork, Ira took up a .22 caliber rifle, and trailed his father into the woods where he shot him.

A ballistics test indicated the bullet found in Aamodt's back came from a rifle in the Aamodt home.

LIKE FATHER, LIKE SON—Comedian Red Skelton and his son, Richard, 9, join forces to gag it up for photographers in Paris—as they show off their Tyrolean hats decorated with travel insignia. Doctors say the youngster, who is on a world tour with his father and mother, is doomed by leukemia.

LATTER DAY ADVENTURERS—One of three teen-age youths, all from Union City, N.J., jumps into the Hudson River to join his companions (circled), after the trio paid a surprise visit to the Mayflower II, anchored in New York. The boys swam the two-mile distance to the ship from the Jersey side of the river, and then, after taking in the sights aboard the ship, they jumped back into the water for the return trip. The adventuresome trio are Bob Walderman, 16, David Neilson, 19, and Henry Enders, 15.

Baseball's Battles Should Have Prosperous Outcome

EDITOR'S NOTE: During Oscar Fraley's vacation, his column will be written by leading sports figures.

TODAY'S SPORT PARADE (By U.S. Pat. Off.) President of the American League Written for United Press

CHICAGO (UP)—These are the times of baseball's greatest problems—and their certain solution, I believe, will result in the game's finest period of prosperity and popularity.

Softball Finals Postponed

The final game in the first division of the Top-O-Texas softball tournament, between Hawbaker and Frank Phillips Mens Club, was postponed yesterday due to rain and has not been re-scheduled.

It had been previously decided that Hawbaker and Philback would represent this district in the All-American tournament to be held in Brownwood August 11, but the championship of the Pampa tournament depended upon yesterday's game.

Wilkerson stated that no definite arrangements would be made until the fields are in condition to allow further play.

Lynch Battles Russo In TV Bout Tonight

NEW YORK (UP)—Welterweights Eddie Lynch and Danny Russo are slated for only eight rounds on TV tonight at St. Nicholas Arena, but the background noise will sound like the battle of the century.

Pigeons will fly, bugles blow, firecrackers explode, feet stamp and mouths yell as ex-soldier Lynch of New York matches leather with young Russo of Brooklyn in an old-fashioned interborough brawl.

Most of the demonstrators will be with Lynch, the 7-3 favorite. As he fought his way up through the four-rounders and six-rounders, 23-year-old Eddie has been rooted home in 1 of 12 bouts by Pandemonium, Inc. He lost but one fight, and scored but one knock.

Russo, only 19, registered no knockouts while winning 10 of his 13 starts. He lost three decisions.

even greater period of success and prosperity.

In the season of 1945, with the effect of wartime service calls being felt by every club, the American League recorded a season attendance of 5,580,000—an all-time league record. Every club owner was gratified with that record.

For the past eight years the league has drawn a total of 68,772,672 paid admissions—an eight-year season average of 8,596,584. In addition, the major leagues' All-Star game is securely established as a high point of mid-season interest, and the national and world-wide interest in each fall's World Series has made possible a player pension plan which has made finer than ever the relations between players and management.

The tremendous development of amateur baseball will continue to aid the professional game. For more than a half century, the American League club lineup was unchanged. Then, in 1954 and 1955, Baltimore and Kansas City became new members of the circuit and under fine leadership are certain to add strength to our league, for those clubs are headed by men dedicated to bringing the best major league ball to their cities.

Further expansion of professional ball is certain to come, and that expansion, I feel, will be a part of baseball's finest era in the next decade.

Vicenzo Leads Into Final Of All American Tourney

CHICAGO (UP)—Argentine Roberto DeVicenzo moved into the final round of the All-American tourney today with a four-stroke lead on the field, but he didn't plan to coast for the final 18 holes.

"I hope a 70 will be good enough to win," he said, "but maybe I'll shoot better than that. And maybe a 72 or 73 would be all right."

De Vicenzo fired a two-under-par 70 Sunday for a 203 total and veteran Sam Snead, White Sulphur Springs, W.Va., became the runner-up with a six-under-par 66 for 207. Paul Harney, Worcester, Mass., was third at 208 on a third-round 72.

Bunched behind the three leaders were Dow Finsterwald, Tequesta, Fla.; Bill Casper Jr., Bonita, Calif.; and Jimmy Demaree, Klamath Lake, N.Y., at 210. Art Walz Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa., was at 211, and Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex.; Jack Pleck, Rochester, Mich.; Bob Rosburg, San Francisco, Calif.; Doug Ford, Mahopac, N.Y.; and Don Fairfield, Casey, Ill., were at 212.

Jackie Pung, Honolulu, led the women pros with 226, two under par, with Fay Crocker, Uruguay, and Patty Berg, Chicago, tied for Casey, Ill., were at 212.

Cardinals Hold NL Lead In Split Double With Phils

By FRED DOWN United Press Sports Writer

Enos Slaughter keeps demonstrating why the New York Yankees' American League rivals rate him "the greatest of 'em all."

The 41-year-old, balding Slaughter showed the "young 'uns" how it's done Sunday when he smashed five hits and drove in five runs to lead the Yankees to a 5-2 and 6-5 sweep of the Cleveland Indians.

The victories extended the Yankees' winning streak to eight games and their first place lead to a season's high of 8 1/2 games.

Slaughter, who joined the Yankees a year ago this month, delivered a three-run homer in the opener and capped the performance when he singled in the ninth inning of the nightcap to drive in Yogi Berra with the decisive run.

The Chicago White Sox dropped another half-game off the Yankees' lead with a 4-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox, the Washington Senators out-homered the Detroit Tigers, 8-4, and the Baltimore Orioles tied the Indians for fourth place with a 5-0 decision over the Kansas City Athletics.

The St. Louis Cardinals split a double-header with the Philadelphia Phillies, winning 4-1, after a 5-4 defeat, and held first place by a half game after another furious day of activity in the National League.

The Milwaukee Braves downed the Brooklyn Dodgers, 9-7, the Cincinnati Reds rebounded from a 14-inning, 7-6 loss to whip the New York Giants, 3-2, and the Chicago Cubs ruined Danny Murtaugh's managerial debut with 6-0 and 3-2 wins over the Pittsburgh Pirates in the other NL games.

Whitely Ford struck out seven and allowed six hits to win his seventh game for the Yankees in the opener and Bob Turley also gained his seventh win in the nightcap. The Indians went ahead, 5-1, in the eighth inning when Dick Williams homered but the Yankees tied the score in the ninth on singles by Tony Kubek, Berra and Jerry Lumpe to set the stage for Slaughter.

Larry Doby, Luis Aparicio, Bubba Phillips and Jim Rivaletti led the White Sox' 19-hit assault with three blows each as Chicago snapped its three-game losing skid. Dick Donovan went the route for his 12th win despite 14 hits, three by Ted Williams, who raised his league-leading average to .389.

Pedro Ramos, Mit Bolling, Rocky Bridges and Eddie Yost homered for Washington and Al Kaline, Bill Tuttle and Ray Boone homered for Detroit in a game that set a homer-mark for Griffith Stadium but the big news was that Roy Sievers failed to connect.

Boudreau faces the eight-day deadline because the Kansas City front office feels something drastic has to be done before the A's come off the road and return home, Aug. 13.

Boudreau, whose contract still has another year to go, will be doubly popular figure in that city, front office, according to the source. As a matter of fact, he may be offered the same post with the Athletics Selkirk now holds—director of player personnel—so that the two men actually would be trading jobs.

Man, you are not by yourself! What a lot of them come in here! We understand all about the jam you can be in—for $300 you haven't got! You should see that big SMILE when they walk out with that check for $300! Or $500 or $900. LOOK! $15.54 per month (24 months) repays that $300 here—and you get a big smile from US every time. Subject to usual credit requirements. Naturally, but quick, private, friendly, like you want it. Get yourself on down here—and get some sleep—SOS-SIC Now, tonight!

TU Nabs Major Share Of All-Stars

By ED FITE United Press Sports Writer

DALLAS (UP)—The University of Texas grabbed off a major share of both basketball and football players who will compete in the annual All-Star games climaxing the record-breaking Texas High School Coaches Association clinic opening today.

The Longhorns, who snared 10 of the 66 football players, came up today with four of the two dozen basketball stars gathered here for their roles in the 25th annual coaching school—the largest ever held in the world.

Every coach who registered to white boosted the record enrolment to a new peak. When the registration desk closed at 8 p.m. Sunday, 2,107 had signed up for the lectures by some of the nation's foremost tutors in football, basketball and track.

That was 106 more than the previous high of 2,001 which attended the school last year in Lubbock. Classes, with students numbered in the hundreds, started their five-day run today at two downtown hotels with Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma and Bowden Wyatt of Tennessee teaching football, Henry Iba of Oklahoma State and Milton Jowers of Southwest Texas lecturing on basketball, and Oliver Jackson of Abilene Christian on track.

The 80—all-stars in both sports also started their two-day workouts this morning on the Southern Methodist University campus.

Of these stars, only one of the football players remained undecided about where he would cast his lot in college, but six of the basketball players indicated they hadn't made up their minds.

Six Undecided Southwest Conference schools did not dominate the basketball list, however, as they did in football. While Texas picked off four cagers, Texas Christian and Rice got two each and Texas A&M, Baylor and Texas Tech one each. The six undecided basketball players were Mike Behrens of El Paso Austin, Jim Bery of Roperaville, Donnie Lester of Longview, Milton Bond of McGregor, Donnie Schmeltekoft of Kyle and James Sharp of Port Arthur.

Davis Cup Team In Philippine Match Today

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. (UP)—The United States Davis Cup team today looked forward to the match with the Philippine entry after taking the American zone championship with a 5-0 sweep over Brazil.

The United States-Philippine series will probably total 102 in December. The eventual zonal winner takes on defending Davis Cup champion Australia.

The U.S. squad topped Brazil in both singles matches here Sunday to complete their sweep. The double win made little difference as the United States had already clinched the title with two singles victories Friday followed by a doubles win Saturday.

Draft Is Immoral

A student of liberty has requested that we write concerning the draft. It is a subject now of much debate and many conclusions reached in heat and even bitterness.

What is the draft? It is simply a legalized use of force, by means of which the government is able to compel involuntary servitude upon the victims of the draft.

There are only two questions to be answered. They are: Is the draft moral, and is the draft necessary?

The first question concerns itself with the rightness or the wrongness of the thing itself. The second deals with the practicality and concerns itself with results. Let us take these two in turn.

The moral issue: There are only two possible theories respecting human beings. Either the individual human being is supreme and all agencies, including his government, are his servants. Or the individual human being is not supreme. Rather, he is the servant of whatever agencies he has and lives to serve their purpose. The former theory is the American one. The second is the theory of collectivism as epitomized in communism or socialism.

We must begin by discussing the nature of supremacy. The word itself supplies an absolute. If the individual is supreme, then there is nothing... no agency, no organization, no business, no church... nothing which is supreme and over the individual. Nor can any excuse, however valid it may be made to appear, alter that supremacy.

The argument is given by the pro-draft people, that a national emergency pre-empts individual supremacy. It is claimed that the government has a right to rob certain persons of their freedom so that the freedom of others can be protected. And, while we can understand that in the event of a national emergency, the temptation to rob some of freedom under the assumption that by doing so others would be protected, is an ever present temptation, we cannot grant such conduct on any moral grounds. If we were to grant it, we would be stating in effect that the individual is not supreme, but rather that the emergency was supreme. Or that the Government was supreme. Or that freedom could be protected by eliminating freedom. This last is a contradiction and wholly inconsistent.

Freedom is an individual affair, not a group affair. One does not have a free country if the individuals within the country are not free. One does not have a forest devoid of trees.

If the freedom of so much as one person is removed, whatever the excuse, then the group to which that person belongs is not free. We hold unvaryingly to the conclusion that the individual is supreme and that his own choices and his own actions come exclusively under his own purview, that anything else is contradictory, immoral and in essence un-American.

The practical issue: Let us suppose here, that there is an actual emergency. If the emergency is real and not some political dodge dreamed up by the men in power then, surely, no draft is necessary. Never would it be required for all men to join the armed forces. How well we know that modern warfare is geared primarily to supply and production. So the argument that some persons might not volunteer to serve in the armed forces is invalid. No military commander could possibly handle ALL persons in a given nation under arms.

It would be sound to hope that many persons would NOT volunteer for military service. The bastions of production must be manned. Besides, the record of history provides adequate evidence that when a real emergency threatens, it is literally impossible to handle all the volunteers for military service, anyway. Thus, on practical grounds, no draft would either be necessary or desirable.

Then, too, let us suppose that the emergency, so called, is not real. Then how much more wrong would it be to compel men to leave their chosen tasks, to change their lives, to submit to useless and unnecessary training, simply to enhance the political power of the bosses.

Yet, if we leave the matter of choice to the individual, the laws of life, of nature and of God will triumph. If the individual does not choose to arm himself, freedom is enhanced, not curtailed. And, if the individual does choose to arm himself then the commander will find himself with good and willing soldiers ready for the fray.

We cannot grant either the moral rightness or the necessity of the draft. Universal Military Training, which is a scheme embodying such use of aggressive force against individuals, is a most harmful thing. In the end we will be stronger both morally and physically if we believe in freedom and let it act, than if we take refuge in some iniquitous device of government under the fear of an emergency.

Freedom is safe under the voluntary actions of individual men. It is never safe under the compulsive actions of government, regardless of the excuse given.

It is no more rational to draft men to serve as soldiers than as policemen. If salaries are sufficient there will be no difficulty employing competent men as soldiers, policemen or other occupations.

Chimneysweep Is Respected In Bavaria

By HENRY McLEMORE

OBERAMMERGAU — My shape makes the idea preposterous, but I can think of a lot worse jobs than that of a chimneysweep in Bavaria.

The chimneysweep, or "Schornsteinfeger," holds a respected place in the community, gets good pay, and his security is guaranteed by one of the highest-handed guilds in existence.

Depressions do not affect the chimneysweep. There are no layoffs. In the 14th century a law was passed that every chimney had to be cleaned once a month, and that law is still in existence.

It's not easy to become a chimneysweep. The apprentice must be of a proper size to begin with and he faces three years of climbing up and down the inside of chimneys before his journeyman's examination. On becoming a journeyman, he must serve six years before taking his master's examination.

The examination for journeyman is far from a cinch. He must know all there is to know about chimney construction and the laws which govern them. At a glance he must be able to judge whether the chimney is of the right size and shape for the house and, from the smoke coming out of it, determine if it needs a cleaning.

House owners have no control over their chimneys. They are told what type to build, and their care and cleaning is completely in the hands of the sweeps. They can order it cleaned at any time, and if they say it needs repair, or that it would work better if it were shorter or longer, the owner has to heed their words or go to court.

There are fewer than 300 master sweeps in all Bavaria, and the examinations, both practical and written, are extremely difficult. In the practical examination the sweep must clean a certain number of chimneys within a time limit, and they are of different sizes and shapes. Many a journeyman flunks by getting stuck in a chimney of strange design.

The written examination covers fire, building, insurance, and police laws throughout Germany. Once a sweep becomes a master he is set for life, but there is still room for the more ambitious. Over the masters are chiefs and over the chiefs are chief masters. Above the chief masters there is nothing but the blue sky. They hold their positions for 26 years before retiring.

Under the rules of the Guild, whenever a master gets stuck in a chimney and cannot be rescued by normal means, the chimney is pulled down and the Guild foots the bill for its reconstruction. No mention is made of what happens when a journeyman or an apprentice gets stuck for good.

The first-time visitor to Germany never fails to be charmed by the sweeps when he sees them riding on their bikes, back from had to foot, and wearing an immaculate top hat.

The legend of the top hat is that years ago, when apprentices had to do their masters' shopping, and were not given time to wash themselves before going to the market place, they took to wearing top hats so the villagers would respect them.

The masters whacked the apprentices for this show-offishness, but when one of the apprentices finally became a master he decreed that all sweeps would wear the elegant headgear.

To touch a chimneysweep when he is all grimy (it requires nearly 1 1/2 hours for a sweep to clean himself at the end of the day) is considered lucky, and at New Year's Eve parties they are engaged to stand outside the door and each arriving guest pats them on the head or cheek for luck.

In a sense, however, and this growing realization will influence future Presidential and even humbler campaigns, this "father image" of Ike is a triumph of Madison Avenue advertising. When these controllers and manipulators of human passion and emotion were placed in charge of Eisenhower's future in 1952 and 1956, they deliberately fixed upon this pattern of paternalism.

In personal behavior and in governmental policies, Ike has played the allotted role perfectly and sincerely because he happens to be that kind of a man.

Eisenhower Has Knack For Escaping Criticism

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — The immunity which President Eisenhower enjoys in the face of Administration failures, ineptitude and inconsistencies impresses veteran politicians as miraculous and mysterious. Save for a very few Democratic opponents on Capitol Hill, nobody blames him for blunders in high places.

His popularity remains so great that he could probably be reelected easily, if it were not for the third-term prohibition. Republican graybeards concede that they will miss him, even though many oppose his major policies, especially his "modern Republicanism."

With the possible exceptions of Andrew Jackson, Abraham Lincoln, Theodore Roosevelt and Franklin Roosevelt, it is doubtful if any President evoked such affection, not even George Washington and Thomas Jefferson. The American people appear to feel that Ike feels for them, even if he frequently fails in keeping his promises on their behalf.

FATHERLY NATURE OF IKE — It is true that Ike fits into this kind of fatherly framework. He is not the conventional political type. He is kindly and well-meaning, although astonishingly indecisive on occasions for the soldier who commanded the mightiest fighting force in military annals.

In a sense, however, and this growing realization will influence future Presidential and even humbler campaigns, this "father image" of Ike is a triumph of Madison Avenue advertising. When these controllers and manipulators of human passion and emotion were placed in charge of Eisenhower's future in 1952 and 1956, they deliberately fixed upon this pattern of paternalism.

In personal behavior and in governmental policies, Ike has played the allotted role perfectly and sincerely because he happens to be that kind of a man.

"BLAME EISENHOWER FOR DEFEAT OF SCHOOL CONSTRUCTION BILL" — However, regardless of the explanation for this enduring affection and popularity, the favorable and friendly public reaction persists.

The Democrats, for instance, blame him for defeat of the school construction bill. They charge that he did not try to drag out House Republicans into line for the measure, as he has done on foreign aid appropriations and even minor proposals. But the popular impression is that it was beaten because of the Powell-Wainwright, antisegregation rider.

Ike has turned and twisted on the budget. On presentation, he declared firmly that it was "down to the bone" affair. Subsequently, he asked Congress to cut it, and admitted that it furnished room for economy. But the responsibility for these shifts is laid out on George M. Humphrey, the outgoing Secretary of the Treasury. He is also hooked for "tight money" and inflationary trends.

BROWNELL BEARS BRUNT OF IKE'S WAVERING — Ike has wavered on the emasculated Civil Rights Bill. But the resentment over the measure's extreme provisions — juryless trials and military enforcement in segregation disputes — is directed against Attorney General Brownell. And he conceals the identity of the actual drafter of the legislation.

Ike admitted ignorance of the features of the Dixon-Yates, TVA contract, which led him to repudiate that important "partnership" proposal. But, here again, the men held responsible were Sherman Adams, White House Chief of Staff, and Douglas McKay, former Secretary of the Interior.

Foreign affairs fiascos, as the Democrats regard the Administration's policies in the Middle East, the Far East and Indo-China, have created public fear of this country's position vis-a-vis Russia. Scientists and intellectuals have protested against our rigid attitude on foreign problems and on atomic bomb tests. They have scoffed at the Dulles statement that "brinkmanship" is the secret of successful diplomacy.

DULLES, THE DEFENDER — But it is the Secretary of State, in this delicate field, who goes on radio and television to defend the Administration. Another catcher of opposition inwashers is Harold E. Stassen, the wandering disarmament adviser.

Even Senator Robert S. Kerr's suggestion that Ike "lack brains," fiscal or otherwise, boomeranged. Remembering poignantly the excesses of F.D.R.'s "brain trust," the people appear to be comforted by the conviction that, like so many fathers they have known and loved, Ike is not an intellectual genius hard to live with or under!

FOOT TROUBLE—More than two feet of trouble for the Army is what the tape measure shows. Pfc. John Aho, 23, of Trenton, N.J., is having trouble being fitted by the Army. In fact, after a year of service he still hasn't been fitted with the 16 AAA brogans or the 17 1/2 socks he wears. Aho is pictured at Letterman Army Hospital in San Francisco, where the Army is trying to solve his problems. Until they do, he'll be the envy of all GI's with his sandals and argyle socks.

China Reds Tell Of Drive

TOKYO, Aug. 3 (UP)—The Chinese Communists today announced the formation of a national Catholic "patriotic church movement" which will break off political and economic ties with the Vatican. The Communist effort to isolate Chinese Roman Catholics from their church was announced in a Peiping radio broadcast that also made a bitter attack against the Vatican. The Red radio accused the Vatican of "provoking Chinese Catholics to stand against their government" and making the Chinese Catholic Church "an instrument of imperialism." Singled out for attack by the Chinese Communists was Msgr. Anthony Riberi, the former Papal Nuncio in China, who is now in Paris, Aug. 3 (UP)—Three robbers, who made the mistake of sampling some of their loot on the spot, sobered up in jail here today. Police, alerted by the sexton of St. Ambrose church, rushed to a vacationing parish priest's office and found the three men quaffing a bottle of rare old calvados (applejack), which they had taken along with 50 pairs of black socks, 12 packs of cigarettes and $42. Formosa following his expulsion from the Mainland, Riberi was accused of spying on the Reds and sowing discord between Catholic believers and the Peiping regime. The Peiping broadcast said the break with the Vatican was announced in a resolution adopted Friday at a national conference of Catholics in Peiping. Classified Ads Get Results.

Ike Gunning For Rights Compromise

By DAYTON MOORE, United Press Staff Correspondent. WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower is gunning for a civil rights compromise that at the very minimum limits jury trials to voting rights cases, authoritative quarters indicated today. Highly placed administration sources said there is "no doubt" the President would veto the civil rights bill the Senate is set to pass this week. With voting on amendments ended, the Senate put the rights bill aside today to work on other business. A vote to pass it was expected possibly Tuesday or Wednesday. The administration is pinning its hopes on a Senate-House conference committee to beef up the Senate bill enough to make it acceptable. Many Democrats supporting Senate version hope the House will approve it "as is" and send it to the White House. Called Inadequate. The Senate measure provides for (1) a bipartisan commission to investigate violations of voting rights; (2) a new assistant attorney general to handle civil rights cases in the Justice Department; (3) power for the attorney general to seek federal court injunctions to prevent threats to Negroes' voting rights; (4) trial by jury for criminal contempt, but not civil contempt, arising out of violation of injunctions under this or other federal laws; (5) elimination of a present barrier to service by Negroes on some Southern juries; and (6) repeal of an old law permitting use of troops to enforce Negro rights. Highest councils in the President's official family, chiefly the Justice Department, called the Senate version "woefully inadequate" and unacceptable. They centered their fire on the bill's provision for jury trials in criminal contempt cases. This covers not only the measure's own voting rights section but all other criminal contempt cases brought by the federal government. Fear Chaos. The sources said this would cause chaos in the federal courts by interfering with cases arising under a long list of statutes including labor cases, antitrust violations, federal trade commission matters and others. Eisenhower was described by one source as having "really gotten his dander up" over Senate changes and determined to make a strong fight for strengthening the bill in a Senate-House conference. From the explanation of his objections, it appeared the least he will settle for is an amendment limiting the jury trial proviso to the voting rights section of the rights bill.
