Founded First Hospital

Purviance Rites Slated Saturday

Funeral services for Dr. Walter Purviance, founder of the first hospital in Pampa and the third mayor of this town, will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at the First Methodist Church with Rev. Woodrow Adcock officiating.

Dr. Purviance died at his cabin in Evergreen, Colo., yesterday at 6 a.m. where he and Mrs. Purviance were vacationing.

Dr. Purviance, born Sept. 27, 1879, in Pleasant Plains, Ill., was a graduate of the Iowa Medical School. He lived in Grant City, Ill., and began his practice of medicine there. After living there for several years his health failed and he moved to a ranch northwest of Panhandle.

DR. WALTER PURVIANCE dies Thursday

A few years later, he moved to Pampa and bought a drug store which he operated until World War I when he was commissioned lieutenant in the Army Medical Corps. He received his training at Waco and was sent overseas with a field hospital unit where he was under fire at Colbiens and the Rhine and was promoted to the rank of captain before his discharge.

After returning to Pampa after the war, he worked in the First National Bank for a short time before resuming the practice of medicine. This time he worked in association with Dr. Archie Cole.

A few years later, Dr. J. D. Kelley joined the partnership and the three doctors were instrumental in founding Pampa's first hospital, located at Gillispie and Kingmill streets. When Dr. Kelley and Cole both died, Dr. Purviance built a clinic on W. Foster and the clinic still operates under the name of Purviance, Key and McDaniel although Dr. Purviance retired from active practice about three years ago.

On Dec. 11, 1952, before his retirement, he was honored by Pampa physicians at a dinner recognizing his 50th anniversary of the practice of medicine. Dr. Purviance was a member of the Masonic Lodge for 50 years and was a past member of the Pampa Rotary Club.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Grace Purviance of Pampa, a daughter, Mrs. Frank Akright of Oklahoma City, Okla., a sister, Mrs. Alice Atherton of Pleasant Plains, Ill., and two grandchildren, Judith Ann and John Franklin Akright, both of Oklahoma City.

The body will lie in state at the Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home until funeral time. The casket will not be opened at the church. Flowers may be omitted and donations sent to the Memorial Fund of the Methodist Church.

Pallbearers will be Gene Sidwell, Louis Williams, Gene Green, Clyde Mathere, DeLea Vicars, Edwin Vicars, W. G. Purviance, and Stewart Purviance.

Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Duenkel-Carmichael.

France Is Set For NY Talks

PARIS (UPI)—France glumly went ahead today with preparations for a New York summit meeting convinced that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev already has won a "great victory."

Premier Charles de Gaulle indicated Thursday he reluctantly has decided to attend the summit meeting if the other powers want it in New York and only if it did not last more than two or three days.

Kassem Dreamed Of Revolt In Iraq For Years He Tells Press

BAGHDAD (UPI)—Brig. Abdul Karim Kassem dreamed of revolution for nearly a quarter of a century before triggering the plot that finally overthrew the monarchy in Iraq 11 days ago.

The soldier-premier smiled frequently as he told a news conference Thursday of his long wait to achieve his aims.

Kassem said he began preparing in earnest for the revolution three years ago, but too many spies appeared and he considered the "time was not ripe" then.

It was not until this month that a favorable opportunity presented itself, he said. "I read it in the eyes of the people."

As for the future, Kassem said, "everything will be done for the benefit of the nation."

He said the provisional constitution for the Iraqi republic proclaimed after the assassination of

Middle-East Talks May Mean Unity

LONDON (UPI)—Prospects of a Middle East summit conference brought Britain closer to complete national unity today than any issue since World War II.

The nation was basking for the first time in 13 years in the warmth of tri-partisan foreign policy.

All three of Britain's major political groups hailed Prime Minister Harold Macmillan for leading the West in accepting Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's invitation.

Macmillan's political stature and prestige were never higher with his own ruling Conservative Party, the Labor Party opposition and the small Liberal Party.

Observers said there was little doubt it was realization of the overwhelming demand by British public opinion for a summit meeting that made Macmillan go ahead and accept it even though the United States still was hanging back.

No Major Incident

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI)—Rebel snipers opened heavy fire in Beirut Thursday night but no major incident followed and there were growing indications Lebanon might solve its own crisis without further bloodshed.

State Department trouble shooter Robert Murphy was carrying out a non-stop program of negotiations in hopes the government supporters and the rebels who want to oust President Camille Chamoun could find a presidential candidate they both could support. Observers believed the two sides eventually would settle on a leading and popular military figure before the 66-man Parliament meets next Thursday to elect the successor to Chamoun. Gen. Fusteh Chehab, chief of staff of the army, has been mentioned as a popular choice by both sides although he has not mixed in politics.

Murphy conferred Thursday with Chamoun, the first time he has seen him since he opened talks with the rebel leaders early this week. The firing was heard near the presidential palace soon after Murphy left the area Thursday night.

The rebel opposition's responsible leaders actually have ordered the rebel marksmen to avoid incident, but the question was how long their men would remain under control. Murphy himself was racing against time, hoping to mediate the dispute before a new shooting war breaks out.

While Murphy went from one side to the other, there were intense behind-the-scenes electioneering by members of the Lebanese Parliament. The opposition was boosting Beshara el Khoury for president—a man totally unacceptable to the government.

Others Considered
The Chamoun supporters are backing Deputy Salim Lahoud but Lahoud is unpopular with the opposition. Other possibilities were former President Alfred Naccache, scholar—lawyer Joseph Hitti and neutralist newspaper editor Charles Helou.

Rebel leader Saei Salem, in an interview on ABC-TV Thursday night, warned his faction would boycott next week's election unless Chamoun and the U.S. forces were removed first.

Kike Sends Khrushchev Note

Aug. 4 Seen As Date For Summit Meet

By BRUCE W. MUNN
United Press International

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—Well-informed diplomats said today Aug. 4 is the earliest likely date on which a summit meeting could be convened in the Security Council. Whether press arrangements would be complete by then was another matter.

U. N. press officers expected a rush of at least 2,000 newsmen to the New York headquarters to cover the vital meeting—more than twice the 800 who flocked here in 1956 to cover the debates during the Suez crisis.

Nobody knew for sure when the meeting would be held, and everybody was waiting for word from Washington.

Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold saw some diplomats and discussed arrangements for housing a summit meeting but he was saying nothing and neither were they.

Among the diplomats who saw Hammarskjold Thursday was Ambassador James J. Wadsworth, deputy chief of the U. S. delegation, running the U. S. mission while Ambassador Henry Cabott Lodge took a breather in the country, then left for Washington.

Hammarskjold, in addition to his preoccupation with the summit meeting, was working on plans to beef up the U. N. observer group in Lebanon despite Russia's veto on Tuesday of a Japanese resolution directing him to do so.

He called in the ambassadors of Brazil, Canada, Ceylon, Colombia, India, Norway and Pakistan for a late afternoon meeting. They are the countries which also serve on the General Assembly's advisory committee for the U. N. emergency force in the Gaza Strip.

Price Daniel has three opponents for governor, W. Lee O'Daniel, Henry B. Gonzalez and Joe A. Irwin. George Nokes and Ben Ramsey are candidates for lieutenant governor. William A. Blakely is fighting Ralph W. Yarborough for his seat in the US Senate.

The Associate Justice of the Supreme Court from Place 1, will be designated as Wilmer B. Hunt, J. Edwin Smith, or Robert W. Hamilton, Associate Justice, Place 4, will be Sarah T. Hughes or Joe Greenhill.

The Commissionership of the General Land Office has two contenders, Bill Alcorn and L. J. Dimmitt. Glenn H. Kothmann, Tom Griffin and John C. White are contesting for the commissioner of agriculture office.

The State Legislature will have Johnny Campbell, Pampa, or Grainger McIlhenny, Wheeler seeking votes for State representative.

The Primary will decide between Lewis M. Goodrich, Shamrock, and Bruce L. Parker, Pampa, as District Judge and among J. H. Saunders, William J. "Bill" Craig and C. E. Cary as Gray County judge.

L. T. "Tom" Clatterbaugh, G. H. Kyle, G. L. "Nat" Lunsford and Dean Monday are the candidates concerned with the County Commissionership, Precinct 2.

They could be calling you. Tomorrow is the day of the Democratic Primary, as if you didn't know. You may be hearing some Las Cressas voices over the telephone. If you've paid your poll tax, you'll be invited to the polls. Club Vice President Mary Clark, left, directs the pledges in the telephone campaign. Beryl Nash is doing the actual calling. There with the poll tax list are Alice Coombes and Lette Roberts, right.

Primary Is Tomorrow!

Pampa is geared to the Democratic Primary, opening at 8 a.m. tomorrow in the polling places of Texas.

Telephones are ringing in Gray County.

The lines are busy with election talk. Pampa girls' clubs are on the line reminding residents of their duty to vote.

There are 7,320 names on the poll tax list. That is what the girls are calling from. Sub Deb, K. I. Kat and Las Cressas girls call for an all out vote.

The day of decision tomorrow will bring the vote for governor, lieutenant governor, United States Senator, associate justices of the Supreme Court, commissioner of general land office, commissioner of agriculture, state representative, District Judge, County Judge and County commissioners.

Final Round Of Political Speeches Due

By RENE GNAM
United Press International

Texas gubernatorial and senatorial candidates readied their final round of campaign speeches today to wind up a percussive season of pre-primary charges and counter charges.

Incumbent U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, hard pressed in his bid for a full six-year term by Dallas cattleman-banker William A. Blakely, called the challenger "only a part-time senator" when he was appointed by ex-Gov. Allan Shivers to fill out a three-months term last year.

Blakely lashed back at Yarborough on a Corpus Christi TV program Thursday. "The present short-term junior senator from Texas is making a crude attempt to play on the emotions of the people of Texas by using a United States flag and the Holy Bible as props in his political stunt show," Blakely said.

Plan Talks
Both candidates planned wrap-up state-wide television addresses for tonight.

Gov. Price Daniel was scheduled to wind up his campaign tonight with a filmed account of his administration. Fess Parker, Hollywood's "Davy Crockett" will serve as master of ceremonies.

Meanwhile, Daniel's opponent, former Gov. and U.S. Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel scheduled 13 helicopter stops in his last day of campaigning. O'Daniel was to speak at Mansfield, Cleburne, Weatherford, Mineral Wells, Bowie, Wichita Falls, Vernon, Seymour, Knott, Haskell, Throckmorton, Breckenridge and Fort Worth.

Irwin To Speak

know how much of an increase Anderson would ask. But other informants said he would ask for a permanent debt ceiling be raised from 275 billion to 285 billion and the temporary ceiling from 280 billion to 288 billion.

Housing: The House banking subcommittee agreed on a controversial bill calling for a vast expansion in the federal government's role in promoting construction of housing and classroom facilities. The catch-all bill contains many provisions opposed by the administration and faces almost certain veto if it reaches the President's desk.

Defense: Congress swiftly and unanimously sent President Eisenhower over compromise legislation granting most of the authority he requested to streamline the nation's military machinery. The defense reorganization bill, hammered out only Wednesday by a joint conference committee, was approved without argument by

President Calls For UN Rules In Meet

By STEWART HENSLEY
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower dispatched a note to Nikita Khrushchev today which a senator said informed the Soviet premier any summit conference in New York must be held under United Nations rules for Security Council meetings.

The White House withheld publication of the text of the President's letter to Khrushchev until after 12:30 p.m. (c.d.t.).

But Sen. J. William Fulbright, (D-Ark.), one of 15 senators briefed on its contents, said the note insists that Security Council ground rules be followed if the summit meeting is held.

Fulbright also said the President took the position that the summit conference "should be a Security Council meeting and not just a meeting near or in the environs of the U.N."

Letter Cleared by NATO
The President's insistence that Security Council rules be followed would leave it up to that body to say what non-member countries should be invited as "interested parties."

Khrushchev has demanded that neutralist India and the Arab states be among the participants. India is not a Security Council member and only Iraq of the Arab nations is a member.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the President's letter had been cleared by the 15-member NATO Council in Paris.

Hagerty said the note was addressed to U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson in Moscow, for delivery to the Russian Foreign Ministry.

Hagerty said the note runs about 1,000 words. He refused to say whether any changes were made in the original draft after its submission to the NATO allies.

Fulbright and some 15 other senators were briefed on the general contents of the note by Assistant Secretary of State William B. Macomber. They were not shown the text.

The Arkansas senator said the United States takes the position that the conference should follow the rules already set down by the U.N. for Security Council sessions.

He said it should be "just another meeting of the council, with the heads of state attending for their countries instead of the regular heads of mission."

High officials previously had described the President's letter as an effort to bring some order out of the confusion surrounding the proposed meeting and to apply brakes to the pell-mell dash to the summit urged by Khrushchev.

Not Before Aug. 4
The President is willing to hold the summit meeting under proper arrangements, but both this country and Great Britain said Khrushchev's suggested Monday starting date was too early.

In related summit developments around the world:
Paris—French Premier Charles de Gaulle's government prepared for a New York summit meeting but was holding off its formal reply to Khrushchev's proposal. French diplomats were convinced the summit issue already had handed a great victory to Khrushchev.

Moscow—Pravda urged the Western powers to hold a summit conference without delay if the West wants to preserve peace. The Communist Party newspaper said none of the "difficulties" (See NOTE, Page 3)

Taxes: The House Ways and Means Committee voted 14 to 11 to give the nation's one million railroad workers special tax savings of up to $27.30 a year now and possibly more later. Disregarding administration opposition, it approved a bill to let the workers deduct from their federal income taxes any sum in excess of 3 per cent which they pay into their pension funds. But the close committee vote indicated little chance the bill would pass in the rush for adjournment.

Funds: The Senate Appropriations Committee voted to boost the President's defense budget by $1,200,000,000 despite administration notice the extra money may not be spent. It did so in sending a $40,022,000,000 military spending bill to the floor. The committee endorsed House opposition to ground force cuts and included increases in funds for air striking power.

Murder With Malice Is The Charge

DENISON, Tex. (UPI)—Charges of murder with malice have been filed against W. C. Parker in connection with the shooting of a 17-year-old Denison youth.

Eddie Thomas was wounded by a shotgun blast while in a watermelon patch Tuesday. He died Thursday.

Parker, a 67-year-old Denison farmer, fired his shotgun at Thomas and two other boys who visited his melon patch.

Conduct Autopsy
J. L. Thomas, father of the victim, signed the complaint against Parker and the charge was filed in Justice of the Peace Jim Spangler's court by Asst. Dist. Atty. Kellis Sampson.

An autopsy was performed to determine what killed the youth, who was struck on the right side by some 200 shotgun pellets. Doctors added that the Denison boy apparently hurt his head in a fall while trying to get away from the shotgun blast.

Parker expressed regret Thursday when he learned of Thomas' death.

Expresses Regret
"They could have had that watermelon patch before I would have harmed anyone but it's too late now and I'm awful sorry," Parker said.

Parker added that he had been sitting up all night in his field for a week in an attempt to halt raiders who had been carrying off melons.

But he said, "I didn't want to hurt anybody. I just wanted to scare them off."

Disappearance Of Admiral Is Investigated

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Navy investigators today probed the mysterious disappearance at sea of Rear Adm. Lynne C. Quiggle, 52, who was en route from the Far East to a new post in San Diego.

The captain of the ship on which Quiggle was a passenger said he apparently committed suicide by jumping overboard about 800 miles out of San Francisco. Investigating officers here went aboard the liner President Cleveland when the ship docked here Thursday.

Commodore H. J. Ehman, captain of the vessel, said Quiggle's disappearance, a rly Tuesday morning "had to be by design, rather than accidental." He said the sea was calm and no one could have fallen overboard.

Fellow passengers said Quiggle had been acting peculiarly. One, Gloria Steinem, 24, of Washington, D. C., said a ship officer told her Quiggle was heard to say to his wife: "You are better off as a widow."

"The admiral then kissed his wife and walked slowly from their stateroom," Miss Steinem said.

Quiggle was returning with his wife, Anne, from Tokyo where he was deputy chief of staff of the Joint Command, U. S. Forces. He was to become commander of Amphibious Group 1 at San Diego.

Better Qualified To Serve All Texas

Out-Of-State Influences Back Opposition

"When you go to the polls on July 26, remember this one thing: On the records, the official records, of the Congress of the United States, there are sworn affidavits showing the names of the men, the organizations, the street addresses, the cities, and the states from whence came the money to send this man to the Senate.

Those names are there in Washington, for all to see. Those names have never been filed in Texas. Those names and the amounts of money have never been mentioned by my opponent in his sworn statement, as the law requires.

"Here are the names, here are the facts—taken from the official records:

"Emil Mazy, UAW-CIO, $5,000.
"James L. McDevitt, AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education, $10,000.

"Frank Rosenblum, Amalgamated Political Education Committee, $1,000.

"John Chupka, Textile Workers Union, $1,000.

"L. W. Abel, United Steel Workers, $5,000.

"C. T. Anderson, Railway Labor Political League, $2,000.

"Yes when you go to the polls on Saturday morning, remember those names. Remember no matter how early you arrive at the polls the votes of these men are already in. They have cast their votes absentee, with money and influence, from Detroit, from Cleveland, from Pittsburgh, from New York and from Washington, for the vote in the United States Senate of the present junior Senator from Texas.

A WEST TEXAS Senator For You!

A man with ranching background . . . a man whose career has paralleled the growth and development of all West Texas.

A man who knows the problems of West Texas from the Panhandle to the great Fort Worth-Dallas industrial. Whether it's industry or crop or cattle BILL BLAKELY knows it! For the first time in fifty years YOU can vote for a Panhandle man, a West Texan who knows West Texas, its people and its business.

Bill Blakley

Has a Practical Program, Not Empty Political Promises. He Says:

RURAL ELECTRIFICATION: "The Rural Electric Cooperatives have performed one of the greatest of all services to the rural people of Texas. This work must continue, and Congress must see that REA Co-ops get all the electric power they need at low enough rates to supply the needs of the Farm and Ranch people of Texas."

FARM PRICE SUPPORTS: "I grew up on a farm and made a living as a cow hand before the day of 'windshield farmers'. Many times before and throughout this campaign I have said that farmers should have the right to make a living without government controls. But, until a way can be found to do it, the farmer must receive subsidies that will give him a return on his labor and investment that equals the rest of our American economy."

"This is now accomplished best with PRICE SUPPORTS, and they must continue until the government can set up a system that will enable farmers to finance production and marketing facilities of their own, controlled solely by them, making it possible for them to produce and market their products under the same business principles as other producers."

WATER AND SOIL: "For over 40 years the soil and its problems have been a part of me, and I have been a part of the farm and ranch life of Texas. Soil and Water conservation in Texas are as vital to our economy and our way of life as the air we breathe. We have done much, but we must do ten fold more. And when we do it, let's do it in such a way that a man can build a tank or lake on his farm or ranch without a government permit, and be able to use the water without some bureaucrat telling him he has no right to do it."

FINANCING AND INTEREST RATES: "Few farmers and ranchers in Texas can borrow enough money at low enough interest rates and satisfactory terms to enable them to develop their farms and ranches so they can operate efficiently and profitably. Money at low interest rates is as vital to the farmers and ranchers as it is to any businessman or manufacturer. As your Senator, I will support the creation by Congress of a lending agency which would be in addition to the Federal Land Bank, the Intermediate Credit Bank and other lending institutions. This agency would insure that any responsible farmer or rancher would be able to borrow the money he needs at reasonable rates."

Bill Blakley - - - A Man You Can Trust

BILL BLAKLEY -- THE CANDIDATE for ALL the PEOPLE!

Bill Blakley believes that the people of Texas, not the politicians, ought to have their Senator in office. Bill Blakley has faith in the great majority of Texans, the generous and the unfrightened, those who are proud of our progress and sure of our future.

Bill Blakley entered this race because he wants Texas to have a Senator who will be owned by no one . . . who will be obligated to no one . . . who couldn't care less about granting "favors" or getting them . . . who doesn't have to kow-tow to any political group or pressure organizations. Bill Blakley will work through the long days and nights and speak for the MAJORITY of Texans.

The facts are simple. The facts are clear. Whatever your stakes in life, wherever you live or work in Texas, whatever your creed or color, you deserve a Senator who is free and unafraid. Bill Blakley is that man.

Taxi Trip From Beirut To Baghdad

Editor's Note: Daniel F. Gilmore of United Press International arrived in Baghdad, Iraq, this week after driving 620 miles by taxi from Beirut, Lebanon. In the following dispatch he describes the rigors of desert travel.

By DANIEL F. GILMORE
United Press International
BAGHDAD, Iraq (UPI)—With the taxi window open thick, swirling dust filled the air on the trip from Beirut to Baghdad.
With the window closed it was like a Turkish bath gone mad. You can breathe in a Turkish bath so we kept the windows closed.
At one point we passed the dead white bones of a fallen camel, picked clean by carrion and bleached by a merciless desert sun. It was a grim reminder we had reached the danger point on the desert drive.
Time didn't seem to matter too much on that desert drive and it took us four days to make it by taxi and occasionally by hitchhiking from Beirut to Baghdad, scene of a lightning coup d'etat by military forces a week ago Monday.

Mother Forgives Son's Killer

FAIRFIELD, Conn. (UPI)—Mrs. Charles T. Sanborn, mother of a Connecticut Marine who was killed when he failed to answer a sentry's challenge in Lebanon, said that she holds no resentment toward the Leatherneck who shot him.
Mrs. Sanborn, a Christian Scientist, said the Marine who shot her son, Scott, 18, "must feel very bad. We are praying for him. Our love goes out to him."
She said her son's life was not given in vain and she still believes President Eisenhower did the right thing by sending Marines into revolt-torn Lebanon.
"Through my son's death," Mrs. Sanborn told United Press International, "I feel he was able to bring a better understanding of peace in the world. This is all we want."
"Only good can come from God. I still feel this even through tragedy has struck me."
Sanborn was shot when he reentered his own lines after laying a trip flare wire around his company perimeter. A sentry challenged him three times but he did not answer.

West Texas Sales Show Increase
ABILENE, Tex. (UPI)—Retail sales in West Texas increased by nearly a half million dollars a day in 1957, the West Texas Chamber of Commerce announced Wednesday.
The West Texas region reported advances of almost 200 million dollars in retail sales compared with the 1956 total.
A survey prepared by Sales Management Magazine showed that many West Texas counties moved up in national rankings among the top 200 counties in the United States.

Capital Is Calm
There were bad moments, especially when our car appeared helplessly stuck on one of the desert tracks. We were pulled out by a following carload of newsmen, with thoughts of those snow-white camel bones on our minds.
When we finally arrived in Baghdad, the capital showed no sign that only a week before it had been the scene of a coup that killed King Faisal, Crown Prince Abdul Ilah, elder statesman Nuri Said and others—how many others no one can yet say with certainty.
At one point, our motorcade passed near the former British air base of Habbaniya, now taken over by the new Iraqi government. Everything appeared peaceful, although we were not able to visit it.
We left Beirut late in the afternoon, and by the time we reached Chatoura, now the limit of government-held territory, it was growing dark.

BEWARE WATCH OUT FOR THE FAST TALKING SALESMAN
Every year about this time, out-of-town roofing salesmen make their appearance in this territory. Any reputable lumber dealer can tell you what happens next! People complain about being charged outrageous prices... complain about inferior materials and poor workmanship. And so we issue this friendly warning; Be on your guard against hit-and-run selling tactics... don't be high-pressured into buying a roof or a siding job at double regular prices... above all, get a quotation from your local lumber dealer... before you buy, make sure you know what you are getting. Any reliable lumber yard, including ours, will be happy to give you an estimate without cost or obligation.
THIS IS WHAT YOU SHOULD PAY
ROOFING Roofing is sold by the bundle or by the square. It takes three bundles or one square to cover an area 10x10ft. An average size roof, completely applied, should cost about $7.03 Per Month 36 MONTHS TO PAY $12.73 Per Month
SIDING Asbestos cement siding is the most popular type. This is also sold by the square. An average home, can be resided, including all labor or charges for as little as Eisenhower Pulling Another Switch?

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Three years and some months after a switcheroo on basic policy which was at the least most astonishing, President Eisenhower seems to have done it again.

Three years and some months ago, as today, the policy question was whether the President should join with the other heads of state in a summit meeting.

Back Stairs At The White House

By DAYTON MOORE
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Back stairs at the White House? President Eisenhower cancelled plans to participate in the current civil defense exercise, "Operation Alert," because of the Midwest crisis. Before the revolt in Iraq, he had planned to fly by helicopter to one of the secret sites set up for emergency evacuation of the federal government in case of attack.

However, he never intended to spend more than an hour or so at the emergency headquarters in this year's exercise. Last year, the President and key members of his White House staff made a full-fledged evacuation by helicopter to his secret, emergency headquarters.

The current exercise was designed primarily to test emergency communications. It starts in May and will end in about two weeks.

For tourists who may wonder about the ditch being dug parallel to Pennsylvania Avenue in the White House north lawn: It is for some new telephone and electrical cables for the executive mansion.

White House aides still are shaking their heads in amazement over the Canadians letting a newsman caddy for the President when he played golf on his recent good will visit to Ottawa. It is not planned to make any complaints, even unofficial, to the Canadians.

But the President's staff is determined to make sure that it never happens again.

In making the routine check on the President's caddy, White House aides were told that he would be a member of the Ottawa Hunt and Golf Club. And he was. But he also was a sports writer for the Ottawa Journal.

The caddy - sports writer, Edward MacCabe, thus scored a first on covering Eisenhower's golf game. He wrote a detailed stroke-by-stroke, comment-by-comment on the President's round.

White House aides didn't learn that MacCabe also was a reporter until later. And even then, they didn't believe he would write a story on the President's game. They expected that he would observe what they believed was universal, at least continental, knowledge that the President permitted little publicity on his golf game.

The President is described as being more hurt than mad about the incident.

"STAR" DUST — The Lone Star state may lose one tiny twinkling if the would-be state of "Big Bend" comes into being. Cattle counties of Jeff Davis, Presidio and Brewster have joined forces to seek separate statehood. Under the congressional enabling act of 1845 which annexed Texas to the Union, the Lone Star republic was guaranteed the right to divide itself into as many as five states.

Paraplegics Work In Fight Against Disease

By SHERI GILES
United Press International
CHICAGO (UPI) — The big, good-looking guy in the wheelchair reached down and caught hold of his right leg. He was trying to stop it from twitching.

"Hey, doc," he grinned to a grey suit, "you want a reaction? Here it is."

"Bring out the morphine, doc," laughed a man in another wheelchair.

Several other men, also all in wheelchairs, talked gaily, making lavish gestures with their arms. They were imitating a recent skeet-shooting bout.

The group was made up of 20 representatives of the 1,600-member Paralyzed Veterans of America, now convening in Chicago.

They all were paraplegics or quadriplegics — partially or almost wholly paralyzed by war injuries to their spinal cords.

And like 25,000 other Americans thus afflicted, they know they never will walk again.

"This is the biggest hurdle for a paraplegic," said the "doc," who is Dr. L. W. Freeman, 43, head of the 11-member medical advisory committee for the National Paraplegia Foundation and professor of surgery at Indiana University.

"It takes years for the total realization of their disability to sink in."

"But that's what's so great about these guys," he said. "They give what's left of themselves to fight for the recovery of others. Their disability has made them more aware, more community-minded than most other people."

Freeman said the latest paraplegia research, which is sponsored and financed by the National Paraplegia Foundation, is "encouraging."

He has worked "successfully" with animals, severing spinal cords and restoring them to full use.

Outstanding Police Woman Is Charged

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Florence Coberly Stanton, chosen as the outstanding woman on the Los Angeles police force in 1952, today faced dismissal from her post because of a shoplifting charge.

Dismissal was ordered Wednesday by a police board which reviewed a charge that Mrs. Stanton and her mother lifted $2.32 in groceries from a supermarket.

Police Chief William H. Parker said he would dismiss the police woman as soon as he received the board's order.

Could The Issue Be ...

FREE PUBLIC SCHOOLS?

THE PAMPA DAILY NEWS, known all over the state of Texas for its views on the matter of Public Education, has asked for the defeat of State Representative Grainger McIlhany.

The California owned Pampa newspaper has appealed to Gray County voters "to keep the individual free from the clutches of a POWER-HUNGRY, DESPOTIC GOVERNMENT."

This came as no surprise to readers of Mr. Hoiles' Pampa Newspaper!

THE PAMPA NEWS KNOWS WHERE McILHANY STANDS

State Representative McIlhany offers no apology to the Pampa News for his determined stand in favor of a free public school system in Texas, or for control of the State Government by a MAJORITY of its citizens. He is proud of his record in supporting higher state aid, better pay for school teachers, and the fine program of the State Teachers Association.

HE IS PROUD OF THE FACT HE HAS NEVER TAKEN ORDERS FROM THE PAMPA DAILY NEWS IN THE MATTER OF PUBLIC EDUCATION OR ON ANY OTHER THEORY OR PHILOSOPHY. HE HAS VOTED THE AMERICAN TICKET ONE HUNDRED PER CENT. HE HAS REPRESENTED THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE OF HIS DISTRICT DESPITE UNSOLICITED ADVICE FROM THIS OUT - OF - STATE OWNED NEWSPAPER TO THE CONTRARY.

If Elected, He Will Be A Free Agent,

MOSCOW—Nikita Khrushchev, in a message to President Eisenhower accepting the White House's proposal for a conference of government heads within the framework of the U.N. Security Council:

"The Soviet government considers that the threat to world peace at present has reached a dangerous level, so much so that no time should be lost in arguing. This cannot but delay the time of reaching agreement and the adoption of all possible and immediate steps to prevent the outbreak of a world conflict."

GENEVA—Dr. Nahum Goldmann, president of the World Jewish Congress, after contending that the world's 12 million Jews face a harder battle to maintain their own customs and traditions now that anti-Semitism is on the downgrade:

"Anti-Semitism has become a minor factor in our life and Jewish poverty is no longer substantial. Our people know how to behave heroically in bad times but have not yet learned to live creatively in good times."

WASHINGTON—House Speaker Sam Rayburn, announcing to newsmen he had informed supporters of the Hawaiian statehood bill that he would oppose calling the measure up for a vote in the House this year:

"I told those people I thought they were making a mistake in trying to pass that bill this year."

CHICAGO—Rev. Cyril P. Wagner, American Catholic priest who came home Wednesday after five years of imprisonment in a Chinese Red jail:

"The Communists have even rounded up the 65 Chinese priests who were trained by the missionaries and are trying to re-indoctrinate them."

DAYTON, Ohio—Widower Steve Horsley, 73-year-old great-grandfather, following announcement that he will wed an 18-year-old girl next Monday:

"A body needs someone to come home to at night, somebody to talk to and go to church with."

WASHINGTON—President Eisenhower, in replying to Russian Premier Khrushchev's bid for an emergency summit meeting on the Middle East:

"Don't cry in the popcorn, Jane! It's too salty as it is!"

Burglar Is A Failure!
CHICAGO (UPI)—Gerald Thomazek, 19, admitted to police he was no great shakes as a burglar after:

- Passersby frightened him from a school he was looting.
- Honorable thieves stole $4,000 worth of loot he had hidden in a garage.
- He was unable to peddle 3,200 more in loot.
- Police caught him hiding still more stolen goods in the garage.

Signs of improved business have been reported by steel warehouses which account for about 20 per cent of finished steel sales. Industry leaders attending a meeting in Chicago said they look for "gradual improvement" in business this fall.

Prospecting while wondering whatever happened to Turhan Bey!

Can't understand our not being tipped off about the Kiwanis Club's sponsoring of a Feb. 11 exhibition basketball game here between West Texas State and the Phillips 66 Oilers, a top-flight amateur quint.

Dispatch comes from Ed Fite, United Press International Sports Editor in Dallas and secretary of the Texas Sports Writers' Association, that registration for the annual week-long Texas Coaches School will be held in the Rice Hotel at Houston on Aug. 4. Pampa's Bill Brown is a member of the North team in the all-star basketball game, set for Aug. 7.

Fabled jockey, Eddie Arcaro authored this honest quote on why he doesn't retire: "I like being a celebrity. When I retire, I'll be just another little man..."

And then there was the slump-ridden ballplayer who kept seeing tiny men running under his bed every night, until his manager solved his problems. Sawed the legs off his hero's bed.

Some Hither, Others Yon

Bullet Bob Turley, the greatest thing that's happened to the Yankees since automatic turnstiles, shouts to the world—he ain't interested in strikeouts, just winning 20 games this year.

With 15 pitching victories already to his credit, he's bidding to become the first Bomber hurler to win more than 21 games since Lefty Gomez notched 26 back in 1934. Turley, who sez he used to be a thrower but is now becoming a pitcher, is the American League strikeout king at the moment.

Leave it to Texas, and Dallas in particular, to come up with the world's plushiest bowling center. The last word in luxury is the 32-lane Great Southwest Lanes opened earlier this month at a cost of one-million dollars. They're located mid-way between Dallas and Fort Worth, adjacent to the turnpike.

In the current issue of Ebony, Jackie Robinson says he has a little or no interest in baseball, the sport that put him on easy street.

Two hot tips to improve your golf score: lying and cheating.

Brown An Oldy

Lily Darby of Lamesa gets the distinction of becoming the one-millionth member of the Women's International Bowling Congress.

Lightweight champ Joe Brown who retained his crown over challenger Kenny Lane and pocketed a neat $42,400 for his winning effort at Houston Wednesday night was the oldest in his class to ever capture the title in the first place, at 32. Joe Louis was the youngest heavyweight ever to win the title in his division, at 23.

Move Over Elvis!

Moving Roy Harris from Cut-N-Shoot to Los Angeles worked its hardships on Monroe County down near Houston. For the first time in history county election officials were faced with requests for an absentee ballot.

The rustic challenger wants to be sure and vote, especially since he has two special candidates in the upcoming election. Brother Tobe Harris is running for county treasurer, and cousin Wild Man Woodman is hoping to become county school supervisor. And two major recording companies are mulling a tape made by Harris and his hill-billy band. Tunney read Shakespeare, and Harris twangs a guitar and toots a French horn on key. One of his songs is the Ballad of Cut-N-Shoot.

Over at LaMesa Park in Raton, New Mexico, last Sunday we saw windows at the track marked, $2, $5, $10 and rich Texans!

Duren's Dad Sees Son Get Hit By Pitch

DETROIT (UPI)—Ryne Duren's father picked the wrong day to watch his son pitch for the first time since he hit the major leagues.

The near-sighted New York Yankee relief artist was felled by Paul Foytack, another fastballer, in Thursday's New York-Detroit Tiger game and rushed to a hospital where X-rays showed no fracture.

The elder Duren, hearing and reading of his 6-foot, 2-inch, 195-pound son's exploits with the American League leaders—he's saved 16 victories, posted a 1.56 earned run average, struck out 63 and walked only 24 in 84 innings—journeyed to Detroit from his Cazenovia, Wis., home.

Duren had pitched two hitless innings while New York wiped out a 5-0 deficit and went ahead 6-5. He had two strikes and no balls on him with two out in the ninth when he was hit. New York went on to score four more runs and win, 10-7.

"I knew it was going to be a bad pitch as soon as I let go of it," Foytack said. "It was so dumfounded I couldn't yell at him to get out of the way."

Duren, who is extremely near-sighted, was crowding the plate when he went down and a hollow "Thack!" resounded through the stadium. The ball hit part of his batting helmet.

Dr. A. H. Whittaker said the Yankee flame thrower was a "little uncomfortable because of the pain and headache" and that he would remain in the hospital under observation for several days.

Rademacher Tries Zora Folley Tonite

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Former Olympic champion Pete Rademacher and Zora Folley, ranked as one of the two leading contenders for the heavyweight crown, meet tonight in a nationally televised 10-round bout.

It will be Rademacher's second professional bout and a victory might project him into a second title match with champion Floyd Patterson. Folley, who lost some luster when he fought a draw with Eddie Machen last April, will be seeking to redeem himself.

Folley was a 2½-1 favorite but Rademacher had many supporters who pointed out he floored Patterson in their bout last summer and is a much improved fighter.

Folley vowed he not only would beat Rademacher but would try for a knockout to strengthen his claim for a bout with Patterson after the champion meets Roy Harris here Aug. 18.

Bomber's Berra Bops Big Bengal Bunning

Yanks Overcome 5-0 Lead To Win

By FRED DOWN United Press International

Yogi Berra may look a bit funny playing right field but there's nothing humorous to rival pitchers about the way he's swinging his bat.

And the .432 batting pace he struck since July 4 is a ringing answer to critics who were saying a few weeks ago that 33-year-old Yogi was washed up.

Berra struck the key blow Thursday—a two-run eighth-inning homer—as the Yankees rallied from a 5-0 deficit to beat Jim (No Hit) Bunning and the Detroit Tigers, 10-7. The Yankees had scored four runs in the seventh to cut Detroit's margin to 5-4 and Berra's homer with Mickey Mantle on base put them ahead, 6-5.

Berra, who had two hits in three tries, now has hit safely in seven straight games and has lifted his average from a sickly .227 on July 4 to .260. That average is nine points higher than his mark last season and, with 16 homers, he should also top his 1957 total of 24.

Yanks Stretch Lead Mantle and Gil McDougald also homered for the Yankees, who caught up to Bunning after the slender fireballer had held them to one hit for six innings. The Tigers staged a two-run rally in the ninth before 15-game winner Bob Turley, seventh Yankee pitcher, finally got them out.

The victory, the Yankees' third straight over Detroit, stretched their American League lead to a massive 13½ games. The American League record of 19½ is held by the 1936 Yankees.

The Baltimore Orioles knocked off the Chicago White Sox, 7-3, and the Cleveland Indians beat the Washington Senators, 6-1, in the other A.L. games. Boston at Kansas City was rained out.

The Milwaukee Braves' National League lead dwindled to six percentage points when they dropped a 4-0 decision to the St. Louis Cardinals. The second-place San Francisco Giants were rained out of their two-night doubleheader in Philadelphia but the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 5-3, and the Cincinnati Redlegs downed the Chicago Cubs, 4-3.

Milt Pappas, 20-year-old rookie right-hander, pitched a five-hitter and contributed a homer and a double to the Orioles' 12-hit attack. Bob Nieman also homered for the Orioles who dealt Jim Wilson his eighth defeat compared with seven victories.

Four-Hitter For Jones Rookie Gary Bell pitched a three-hitter and Russ Nixon drove in four runs with four hits as the Indians handed Hal Griggs his eighth loss. Rocky Colavito also homered for Cleveland while Ken Aspromonte homered for Washington's run in the third inning.

Sam (Toothpick) Jones pitched a four-hitter and struck out five batters to win his eighth game for the Cardinals. Warren Spahn was kayoed in the first inning when the Cardinals scored two runs on singles by Stan Musial, Ken Boyer, Del Ennis and Gene Freese, Don Blasingame missed the game ending his 336-game consecutive playing streak.

Dick Stuart's two-run homer was the big blow for the Pirates, who completed a three-game sweep of their series with Los Angeles. Rookie George Witt received credit for his third win while Stan Williams suffered his fifth loss and second in as many days.

Ed Bailey hit a two-run eighth-inning homer that lifted the Redlegs to their victory over the Cubs. Bailey's homer followed a single by pinch-hitter Jerry Lynch and gave the victory to Alex Kellner, who shutout the Cubs for the last 2-3 innings. Frank Robinson also homered for the Redlegs.

TO BORGER, 13-4

Pampa Pony Stars Bow In District Tourney Finals

HEREFORD — Pampa's Pony League All-Stars, shooting it out with Littlefield for the second time in four nights, scored a 15-0 victory to trudge into the district tournament finals where they met their last roundup, Borger's Pony Stars doing the gulching, 13-4 here Thursday night.

Borger's hefty win shows them into regional tournament competition at Lubbock next week. Pampa, an 8-5 loser to Littlefield Monday night and a 9-1 victor over host Hereford Wednesday night, led Borger 2-1 going into the last of the third in the championship game, but then began showing signs of wear-and-tear from the week's activity.

Borger spiked home with three runs in the third for a 4-2 advantage thanks to a two-run homer by Herb Gray, and then led it with two in the fourth, three in the fifth and four in the sixth for a fat 13-2 cushion.

Pampa whittled the score to 13-4 with two tallies in the top of the seventh.

W. E. Pool was charged with the loss. He started out in good fashion, fanning the side in the second. He was shelved to cover, however, in the fifth in favor of Mike Clark who got his share of the lumps also before being relieved by Robert Woodard in the sixth.

Gerald Owens, clean-up battering first sacker, whiffed his third homer in the four tournament games to lead off Pampa's second inning and tie the game at 1-1. Owens slapped out four basers against Littlefield Monday night and Hereford Wednesday night. Tuesday's play was rained out.

Bill Langley also scored in the second for Pampa. He walked, pilfered second and came home on two passed balls. Singles by Langley and John Arthur in the seventh, a walk to Keith Gregory, and a pistol-shot single by Jim Stephenson netted Pampa its last two tallies.

Borger's lanky Negro right-hander, Bud Wilson limited Pampa to five hits, and posted seven whiffs in the process to mark up his second pitching victory of the tournament. He stopped Hereford with a one-hit performance, 5-1, Monday night.

Randy Matson hit a harmless double for Pampa in the sixth. He was left stranded at second, however, as Wilson bore down and retired the side.

In the early game Thursday night, Pampa punished Littlefield from the start. Jerry Glover, who was beaten by Littlefield on Monday, came back strong with a neat two-hitter in a game that was called after five frames.

Pampa bashed out a dozen base-hits in chalking up its 15 runs. Rightfielder Randy Matson paced the slugging with a perfect 4 for 4, including a double.

Four other Pampa players shouldered the rest of the winner's hitting, cracking out two hits apiece.

Catcher Bill Langley had a homer and a single, Dale Coffin had a pair of doubles, Owens had a double and single and Charles Fant collected a couple singles.

In the first, Keith Gregory, who walked four straight times in the game, led off with a free pass. Fant and Matson singled, Owens walked and back-to-back sacrifice flies by Mike Clark and Butch Crossland gave the locals a 3-0 edge.

Pampa picked up three in the second with a two-run double by Matson accounting for most of the damage. Coffin doubled in the third and later scored on an error and then Pampa caved the Littlefield field in with eight big runs in the fourth, with Langley's long blast over the leftfield fence making the biggest splash of the inning.

Pampa played flawless ball against Littlefield.

Washington (UPI)—Lobbyists representing professional baseball and football have descended on Washington like locusts in a bid for blanket exemption of sports from federal anti-trust laws, according to Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-N. Y.).

The chairman of the House Judiciary Committee appeared before a Senate subcommittee Thursday and urged that group to junk a House-passed bill that exemptions to professional baseball, football, basketball and hockey.

Celler said the biggest lobby he ever has seen had been mustered by the play-for-pay brigade.

"They descended upon Washington like locusts," he said. "They were in every nook and cranny." Celler accused big league baseball owners of trying to become "federal lords with the right to treat their players like serfs" and maintaining "a public-battered attitude."

He noted that many of the baseball players who testified at the committee hearing were high-priced stars and held "a sort of canine loyalty to their owners."

Celler asked the Senate to approve his original bill, rejected by the House, which would make anti-trust exemptions for professional sports pass the test of being "reasonably necessary."

He protested the current measure would give a small number of private club owners "unfettered control over the interstate business of professional team sports exhibitions." He said House files on sports legislation hearings are "replete with instances where baseball club owners have abused their powers."

PAMPA EAST-DUMAS IN LL TILT TONIGHT

CANYON — Pampa's Eastern Little League All-Stars lock horns with Dumas at 8 p.m. here tonight in the semi-finals of the district tournament play.

Pampa East earned its berth in the district meet earlier this week in a 9-team sub-district tourney in Pampa. They topped cross-town rival, Pampa West, 11-8, last Tuesday and then scampared to a 6-1 decision over Borger Central the following night.

Dumas, a high scoring outfit, found ten runs more than enough to twice tack up sub-district verdicts. Pampa's 8 p.m. foe thrashed Canadian,

10-1, on Tuesday and then roared to a 10-4 conquest of Canyon Wednesday.

The winner of the Pampa-Dumas argument will tackle the Levelland-Littlefield victor in the district finals Saturday, with that winner gaining a trip to Rotan for the Area Tournament.

Rotan winner goes to Beaumont for Regional play, from whence the champ advances to Louisville, Ky., for Sectional Tournament action.

The Louisville winner will be one of the eight teams in the Little League World Series in Williamsport, Pa., next month.

AND HE'S SORRY!

Saliva Test Costs The 'Spitter' $250

CHICAGO (UPI)—It's more than spitting distance from Kansas City, Mo., to Chicago, but Boston Red Sox slugger Ted Williams today felt a $250 impact for a spitting incident back in Kansas City's ball park.

Ted Apologized and readied a check in payment of a $250 fine levied by American League President Will Harridge, after the Boston star retaliated to boost from Kansas City fans' Wednesday night with a stream of saliva.

Williams said Thursday night he was "very sorry" over the incident which occurred during a "fit of temper."

"Mr. Harridge was very nice about it," Williams said. "I'm sorry I did it."

"I lost my head in a fit of temper, and I'm principally sorry I lost the $250."

Fans jeered Williams with a flurry of boos when he failed to run out a fourth-inning dribbler down the first base line.

As the Red Sox slugger turned toward the Boston dugout, boos went up from the crowd. Williams spat and the fans turned it on more loudly.

It was the second time Williams was fined for expressing his resentment with saliva. He was slapped with an unusually severe fine of $5,000 in 1956 by Boston Manager Joe Cronin when he spat at the crowd in Boston's the New York Yankees.

Fight Looms

FRENCH LICK, Ind. (UPI)—A tough fight shaped up in the French Lick Women's Open golf tournament today with Betty Jameson holding a slim, one-stroke lead going into the second round.

Player Hot

BALTIMORE (UPI)—Gary Player, a little South African in search of "the Yankee dollar," shared the lead with two other steady strikers today going into the second round of the Eastern Open Golf Tournament.

Player, who has averaged better than $1,000 a week since joining the American tour, posted a four-under-par 68 in his first official tour over the Mount Pleasant course Thursday to tie Mike Fetcheck and Bob Rosburg for the lead.

Semi's Today

CHICAGO (UPI)—Three former junior champions and one who might have been, had she had a chance to play, compete today in the semifinals of the 58th Women's Western Amateur golf tournament.

The quartet of survivors of a starting field of 170 were Anne Quast, 1956 amateur winner and junior champion in 1954; Anne Richardson, junior champion in 1963; Barbara McIntire, junior champion in 1952, and Mrs. Alice O'Neill Dye, who "came up" when there was no junior tournament.

Out Of The Past

Whatever Happened To...

MARION MOTLEY

Marion Motley, 240 pounds of battering bone and muscle, became one of pro football's all-time fullback greats in his long career with the Cleveland Browns. In eight seasons, 1946-53, the former Nevada star piled up 4,712 yards for the almost perennial pro champs. But that was only part of the story. As blocker on pass plays, he was the key man who aided Otto Graham build his brilliant record as a thrower. He and Otto also were the 1-2 punch in Cleveland's pass-trap offense. When rivals rushed Graham too hard, the Browns gave the ball to Motley and away he zoomed.

Whatever happened to Marion Motley? The old pro, who opened a bar but later sold it, now works for the Post Office in Cleveland, the town in which he won his fame.

For Carbo Cops Look

NEW YORK (UPI)—Police in 15 states were on the lookout today for Frankie Carbo, the reputed underworld "Mr. Big" of professional boxing who has been indicted by a New York grand jury on charges of acting as an undercover manager and matchmaker.

The nationwide alarm for the 54-year-old mobster was issued Thursday after Carbo eluded a trap at the Joe Brown-Kenny Lane lightweight title fight at Houston, Tex., Wednesday night. Detectives were waiting at the Sam Houston Arena with warrants; but Carbo never appeared.

According to District Attorney Frank Hogan, Carbo was last seen at Tijuana, Mexico, last month.

"He has a home in Hollywood, Fla., but he rarely there," said Hogan, who added he held up his release of the lengthy detailed indictment against Carbo until Thursday in the hope of taking him into custody.

The 10-count indictment specifically charges Carbo with conspiracy, acting as an undercover manager for seven fights and serving as an unlicensed matchmaker for two bouts.

Hogan said Carbo pulled the strings in main events at Madison Square Garden and St. Nicholas Arena.

Looking fresh, crisp and pretty in the humidity and heat of summer means that hair, skin and clothes must have the special look of absolute cleanliness. Most of us can give the iron a summer vacation to some degree with so many drip-dry fashions on hand. But we can't neglect soap-and-water, particularly with this summer's slick white nautical styles.

Sea coat (left) in white duck, has nautical trim of colored braid. It goes over swim suit, pants or a narrow dress. Nautical accessories (center), including rope belt with anchor fastening, get light brush-off with soft brush and dry soap suds. Brunch coat (right) is no problem to launder since it is devoid of frills or fuss, takes no ironing.

A wife can be her husband's business partner without ever going near his place of work. That's the kind of business partner Mrs. C. has been through the years.

From the first, she saw her husband's dream of what he wanted to accomplish, and she has helped him in every way a wife could.

She not only moved the family to a different part of the country when it meant a step up for her, but she also took care of all the complaining and set about putting roots in their new home and looking for all the advantages the new town had to offer.

Her friendliness to everyone has made her a good-will ambassador for her husband. Her hospitality has made and kept friends.

Because she has always been a good manager, the C's have always lived well on whatever her husband earned. And they have always managed to save money for the unexpected emergency or opportunity.

Because she likes, as well as loves, her husband she has always presented him in a flattering light and been happy to see him shine.

Mr. C. has always had the comfortable assurance that his wife would never let him down, that she could manage the house without his help and leave him free to concentrate on his career.

Mr. C. is now a successful man. But he could never have gone as far without his silent business partner—the woman who saw what he wanted to achieve and set about doing all that a wife could help him.

There are quite a few beauty aids to go into a girl's beach bag if she's to look pretty and be comfortable, too. That's probably why beach bags have reached their present proportions.

In addition to sun tan lotion, a girl should tote insect repellent since flies and mosquitoes can ruin an otherwise perfect day. Dark glasses or eye shields are a must and so are cloth-topped shoes with rubber soles for walking on wet sand. A swim cap that's both flattering and practical about keeping out the water is an absolute necessity.

But somehow, hair does pick up salt spray and is blown about by the sea breezes. So the best thing to do is to pack along a fragrant hair set, one that sprays on quickly and puts hair in its place.

There's one hair spray available which contains no lacquer and has enriching lanolin to offset drying effects of wind and sun.

Mrs. Dan Michael Feted At Shower

Mrs. Dan Michael was honored at a pink and blue shower in the home of Mrs. Ross Buzzard, 2429 Christine, on Tuesday night.

Hostesses were Meses. James Bossay, Lloyd Zmotony, and Ross Buzzard.

Each guest registered in a white, leather baby-book.

The serving table was covered with a mint green damask cloth centered with a tiny, pink satin hassinet holding a baby-doll shaded by a net umbrella, and at the base encircled with tiny rosebuds tied with pink satin ribbon flanked with pink tapers. Favors were marshmallow buggies.

Mrs. Zmotony served cake and Mrs. Bob Smith presided at the punch service. Assorted mints and nuts were served.

Let Lettuce Wilt While You Keep Cool With Special Look Of Fresh Grooming

To look crisp and fresh in the summer is a chore in itself, and requires careful planning. During the cool months, your skin will look fresh for hours after a thorough cleansing and a careful make-up job. But because of the summer heat and humidity, your skin requires more care. Dust and dirt are inclined to cling, and a grimy-streaked, shiny complexion is not a pretty sight to behold.

The wise woman, whether she is spending the dog days at her desk in an office or on vacation at the seashore, will keep a cooling astringent on hand, together with a supply of cotton, for facial touchups during the day.

Make-up, too, must be checked more frequently, for the heat often causes lipstick to smear and mascara to run.

Summer also presents a hair problem. Elaborate hair styles fall flat and are impossible to maintain, especially if you enjoy swimming and other summertime sports.

A gal's best bet, if she wants to enjoy all the fun summer offers, is a short, simply-arranged hair style that can be easily combed into place and a soft permanent if her hair doesn't wave naturally. She can save the tusey hairdo for cooler weather.

Your wardrobe for the hot days of summer should be carefully planned too, so that you can look well-groomed without spending hours over the ironing board.

There are so many pert and pretty fashions for warm weather. And they hold up well in spite of that need little or no ironing. And they hold up well in spite of the heat.

For both city and vacation wear, this season's crisp, colorful nautical fashions add color and fun to your wardrobe.

The emphasis is on white, with red and navy trim, and the virtue of these nautical styles lies in their simplicity. They present no laundering problem, for there is no fluff or frills to bother about.

There are shirts, chemises and blouses in the nautical mood for street and office wear, and pretty, boxy sea-coats and play suits for resort wear.

Accessories, too, can be had in the same motif—biets, and collar and cuff sets with navy and red braid trim. And they're all sudable.

In addition to the nautical styles, there are a score of crisp, pastel daytime dresses and filmy, glamorous fashions for evening wear, all of which look fresh and new after a hand washing in warm suds.

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Don't laugh at the man who said the modern woman makes too much fuss over giving birth. It isn't the women's fault, though, it's these modern doctors who give them so many shots and pills they go out of their heads and can't remember a thing. I think it is a sin to deprive a woman of the most beautiful memories she will ever experience. I have had seven children and remember every minute of labor with each and every one of them. It was wonderful! Grandmother was right. Stay awake and pray.

MOTHER OF SEVEN
Dear Mother: Medical science has provided us with improvements making childbirth safer and virtually painless. The modern woman who stays awake and prays is usually praying for something to put her to sleep.

DEAR ABBY: I read in your column where an eligible young man said he was intelligent, handsome and liked a good time but he was not geared for marriage. I know his kind. I am not interested in him for myself, but there is a living doll in this office who would like a man of his description. Please send me his name. I think this girl has what it takes to strip his gears. Thanks.

"The Gal at the Switchboard."
Dear Gal: Sorry—no can do!

DEAR ABBY: While I was in Okinawa I fell in love for the first time. She was a wonderful Okinawan girl. I would have married her, but my friends told me it would never work out so I left her behind although it broke my heart. I thought I would forget her if I forced myself to go with American girls. I am sorry to say I talked myself into marrying an American girl. I grew up with. She loves me but I do not love her because I am still in love with the girl I left in Okinawa. Should I be honest with my bride of six weeks and break up the marriage before there are children? If a man has ever really been able to forget his first love I wish he would write and tell me how he did it.

HEART-BROKEN SGT.
Dear Heart-Broken: Don't compound the felony of a snap-judgment marriage by a snap-judgment divorce. You'll have fewer regrets if you unburden your troubled conscience to your clergyman instead of your bride. Quit brooding and living in the past. I think you made the best choice.

ment marriage by a snap-judgment divorce. You'll have fewer regrets if you unburden your troubled conscience to your clergyman instead of your bride. Quit brooding and living in the past. I think you made the best choice.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 16-year-old girl who has a problem. Whenever a boy calls me up and my mother answers the telephone she always asks "WHO IS THIS?" I am standing right there and she could very easily just say, "ONE MOMENT, PLEASE" and hand the phone to me. But she insists on asking who it is. Sometimes the boy will say, "NEVER MIND, I'LL CALL BACK" but he never does. I am losing out on more calls that way. Is my mother right in asking who it is and scaring them away or isn't she?

LOSING OUT
Dear Losing: Your mother is interested and curious, so don't be too critical. There is no reason for her to ask who is calling if you are standing right beside her. Plead your case in the most appealing mother-daughter language and she'll comply.

CONFIDENTIAL TO AGGIE:
Some fellows don't realize they aren't the only pebbles on the beach until they're all washed up. If he doesn't know how to treat a nice girl, he doesn't deserve to have one. Say nix.

Britain, France In Top Summit Role

Foreign News Commentary
By CHARLES M. MCCANN
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Great Britain and France seem to be taking the ball away from the United States in negotiations for a "summit" conference.

If such a conference is held on the Middle Eastern crisis, it is pretty sure that British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and French Premier Charles de Gaulle will have a full say in preparations for it.

The Allied replies to Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's demand for a conference disclose a radical departure from customary procedure.

In the correspondence with the Soviet government during the last seven months on a summit conference, British, French and American notes to Russia were practically identical—up to this week.

These notes also have followed pretty close the viewpoint of President Eisenhower and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. This is not true of the replies to Khrushchev's bellicose demand for an immediate conference on the United States and British troop landings in Lebanon and Jordan.

Acceptance of Khrushchev's demand would have meant that the three Allies would have appeared before him and Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru to defend themselves against his charges that they were aggressors.

Naturally there was no chance that the Allies would agree to that.

But in their notes to Khrushchev Tuesday, the Allied governments did agree to a summit conference on their own terms.

It is indicated strongly that Macmillan took the lead in insisting that the replies meet Khrushchev's demand at least in part.

During the long negotiations for a summit conference on general cold war issues, Macmillan had been under severe pressure not only by the Labor Party but by the British public to work for a summit conference on almost any terms.

The French government, up to the time that De Gaulle took over, had been favorable to the conference idea.

Dulles had held back. He had insisted that there must be proper preparation for a conference, to insure that Russia could not make use of it as a pure propaganda sounding board.

Macmillan, in his note to Khrushchev, said that he agreed that a conference on the Middle East would be "useful." He said that it should be held under the United Nations Security Council.

De Gaulle did not favor an im-

Designers Show Work At Florence

FLORENCE, Italy (UPI)—Four of Italy's leading fashion designers previewed their autumn-winter collections at the Pitti Palace on the next to last day of the Florence fashion shows.

Simonetta, Fubiani, Marucelli and Antonelli unveiled their high fashion collections to a capacity audience of international style executives.

mediate conference. He said the U.N. should continue its meetings on the Middle East. If the U.N. failed to settle the crisis, he said, a summit conference could be held.

Eisenhower's note showed clearly his reluctance to agree to a special summit conference on the Middle East. But he said he was ready to hold one under Security Council procedure.

Washington dispatches say that Eisenhower agreed to an early conference only under British pressure.

Whatever happens with regard to the negotiations now being conducted, it is indicated that both Macmillan and De Gaulle will have much more to say than in the past about Allied tactics.

peris. A "his and hers" show by Brioni of Rome and Veneziani of Milan drew enthusiastic applause. Veneziani showed her new line side by side with Brioni's high fashion for men.

Veneziani presented a high waisted trapeze silhouette with fullness swinging from below the bustline. She carries this line through from dark winter coats to a champagne net evening gown with jeweled panels.

Furs take a bow in the Veneziani collection in the form of Neapolitan shepherds' vests. They look just like life jackets and are worn with slim, short jacket suits.

In The Interest of Good Government

ELECT
JOHNNY CAMPBELL
State Representative

BECAUSE:
We believe in the Best Government possible; and because GOOD GOVERNMENT is dependent on the men we elect to our public offices, we believe that those best qualified, who have signified their willingness to serve, merit the active support of those who know them best.

For no other reason we endorse the candidacy of
JOHN F. CAMPBELL
for the office of STATE REPRESENTATIVE from District 87.

In so doing, we are unsolicited by the candidate himself. We have no special interests to pursue, and no hope of any gain of a personal nature. In fact, we know that if the interests of our community, state or nation might be better served by a decision that might actually be personally detrimental to us, Johnny would not hesitate in making the decision he thought was best for all concerned. The only benefit we hope to derive from his election will be an honest, fearless and straightforward administration of his duties, consistent with law and good business.

We feel that this district is fortunate indeed in having the opportunity to select Johnny for this office. We know that his energy, ability and leadership will reflect honor to our section, and help to raise the esteem of our State Government in the eyes of our citizens and those of our neighboring states.

THEREFORE WE ARE AFFIXING OUR SIGNATURES TO THIS STATEMENT, AND PAYING FROM OUR OWN POCKETS OUR PROPORTIONATE PART OF THE EXPENSE OF ITS PUBLICATION.
