HISTORY AND MONEY—Janet Marshall made Air Force history when she became the first woman to be commissioned a 2nd lieutenant in the Women's Air Force under the new Reserve Officers Training Corps program. And Sgt. Gerald C. Purcell, of Superior, Neb., hit on an old but easy way to make a few dollars. Lieutenant Marshall, you see, will have to pay Sergeant Purcell one dollar for his being the first enlisted man to salute her after she received her commission at George Washington University. From the looks of that fistful of dollar bills, Purcell has been doing a land-office business. Miss Marshall, 21, is from Honolulu, T.H.

De Gaulle In Encouraging Start As 'Authoritarian'

Foreign News Commentary
By CHARLES M. MCCANN
UPI Foreign News Analyst

Gen. Charles de Gaulle has made an encouraging start as the "authoritarian" premier of France.

He has shown both moderation and firmness in the first stage of his task of bringing France back from political chaos to stability. The French people, as a whole, have accepted him with evident relief.

Governments of the countries allied with France in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, while they are still watching closely for the development of his foreign policy, appear to be increasingly confident that he will not weaken the Western side in the cold war.

Want Dictator

The only elements which seem to be unhappy over developments since De Gaulle took office on June 1 are the right-wing extremists, who want him to be a swabbing dictator, and the Communists.

De Gaulle's first act in office was to appoint a cabinet, including three former premiers, in which the moderate right, middle-of-the-road and moderate left parties are represented.

The right-wing extremists who, by means of a military revolt against the government of Premier Pierre Pflimlin, brought De Gaulle into office, were excluded completely.

The Communists, who threatened riots and revolutionary strikes if De Gaulle became premier, have been strangely inactive.

Soviet Russia, too, sat on the fence for a while. But now, apparently, the Soviet government has made up its mind that from the Communist viewpoint De Gaulle is up to no good.

Have Challenged General

The right-wing extremists who staged the revolt in Algeria and Corsica that led to De Gaulle's emergence as premier have openly challenged his authority.

The so-called "all-Algeria Committee of Public Safety" sent De Gaulle on Tuesday a demand that French political parties "disappear" — suspend activities — until a national referendum is held on the premier's proposed constitutional reform plan.

The committee called also for a similar committee in France itself. This would mean that De Gaulle would subject himself to the direction of the extremists.

De Gaulle retorted with a message calling the extremist demands "unfortunate," "untimely" and "peremptory."

The attitude of both the right-wing extremists and the Communists indicates that the French political crisis is far from over.

But De Gaulle is not the man to let anybody tell him what to do, and he seems to have the support not only of the French people but of the overwhelming majority of French Army officers.

On The Business Scene

The government reported that personal income last month as running at a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $344,500,000,000 or $1,200,000,000 greater than April. The Commerce Department said the increase reflected a sharp rise in government payments for jobless benefits, veterans and old age pensions.

The Senate passed a multi-pronged program of loan guarantees and other stimulants for the nation's financially ailing railroads after knocking out a provision permitting the roads to set up tax-deferred construction of reserves. The House Commerce Committee also is expected to eliminate the construction reserve.

Custom smelters raised their copper price 1 cent a pound to 26 cents in further response to the government's proposal to take 150,000 pounds of domestic copper off the market by acquiring it for the federal stockpile. Big producers in this country however, held their price at 25 cents.

The Federal Trade Commission charged Westinghouse Electric Corp. and a subsidiary with favoring certain of their dealers with lower prices and bigger advertising allowances. The FTC said in a complaint that the companies' alleged price discrimination destroys competition between dealers in violation of antitrust laws.

Evening Lions In Guest Night

On its first official guest night Thursday, the Pampa Evening Lions Club recognized 12 guests and the Lions who brought them. Lions who for some reason did not bring a guest had to deal with the formidable "Trail Twister," Gordon Crinklaw.

At this meeting, Rev. Woodrow Adcock, pastor of the Pampa First Methodist Church and soon vice president of the Noon Club, told the Evening Lions that Lionism is a potent force for world peace since it embraces 88 countries and territories.

The club's summer program rolls into its second meeting Thursday with a hamburger supper in the backyard of Lion D. V. Biggers.

commander-in-chief in Algeria, refused to order army officers to withdraw from the insurgent "Committees of Public Safety" which forced the downfall of Premier Pierre Pflimlin. This was not outright disobedience of a De Gaulle order, but it at least was a rebuff to the premier who told Salan to stay out of politics.

Air Force Gen. Lionel Max (Massin, one of the mystery figures of the Algerian insurrection, told a news conference in Paris he was launching a "popular" movement to help De Gaulle turn France into a non-party state.

Many members of the Algerian Public Safety Committee were reported in France drumming up support for the rebel movement.

Anti-tax crusader Pierre Poujade dissolved his extreme right-wing parliamentary group and swung his shop keeper's party behind the public safety committee movement in France.

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a divorced woman with two sons, ages 11 and 9. I have been going steady with a bachelor for eight years. We have been enjoying all the rights and privileges of engaged couples all during this time. Every time I mention marriage he gives me another excuse why he can't marry me. He has nobody else to support and lives alone and has money in the bank. He never bought me one thing that cost over ten dollars and I am the one who has him to my house for dinner without demanding that he take me out. Now will you please tell me why he doesn't marry me?
WAITING
 Dear Waiting: Will you please tell me why he should? He never had it so good.

AT WITS' END
 Dear At: About the only things left are livers, kidneys, brains, fish, fruit, pumpkin pie and cake without frosting. Good luck!

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

DEAR ABBY: I am a young man of 20 and my parents are always trying to make me get a date. The fact is that I have asked lots of girls for dates and have been turned down because I am so homely. I don't want to get hurt any more so I have given up asking. What can I do to get my parents off my neck? Aren't boys supposed to have feelings... is that just for girls?
A HOMEY BOY
 Dear Young Man: Handsome is handsome does — and if you only handsome boys get with girls, you had better mind. Keep asking!

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who told her I would be worth one for her if she would for the yarn and but I'd do it but asked me if her mother for her. I knit she had gave it to her. years ago for almost two paying to once mentioned. How can you and buttons. By money?

COOK'S NOOK

These Dishes Are Corny And Deliciously So

By GAYNOR MADDOX
 NEA Food and Markets Editor
 From now on through October, fresh corn will be abundant. So let's be corny to our heart's content and boil it, roast it over an open fire or combine cut-off kernels in succulent dishes.
 Buy ears well filled with bright, plump, milky kernels in tight-packed rows. There is a flavor difference between sweet corn and field corn — sometimes sold as green corn or "roasting ears." Field corn never tastes as definitely sweet as sweet corn.
BOILED FRESH CORN ON THE COB WITH GUACAMOLE BUTTER
 (Allow 1 to 2 ears per person)
 Remove husks from corn. Cut off tips and brush off silks. Place in a kettle with boiling water and salt, using 1 teaspoon salt to 1 quart water. Cover and bring to boiling point. Boil 5-8 minutes or until milk corn is just set. (The cooking time depends upon the age of the corn.) Remove from water and serve at once with guacamole butter.
GUACAMOLE BUTTER
 (Yield: Approximately 1/2 cup)
 Cut 1 fully rip medium avocado in half. Remove pit and scoop out avocado. Mash, put through a sieve and measure (there should be 1/2 cup). Add 2 teaspoons fresh lemon juice, 1 teaspoon onion juice, 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper and 1 tablespoon catsup. Mix well. Spread over boiled hot corn instead of butter.
FRESH CORN WITH GREEN PEPPER
 (Yield: 6 servings)
 Melt 2 tablespoons butter or margarine in a saucepan. Add 4 cups fresh corn cut off the cob and 1 cup diced green pepper. Saute 3 minutes. Add 1/2 cup tomato catsup, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon ground black pepper and 1 teaspoon paprika. Mix well and cook 5 minutes, or until done. Serve hot.
TOMORROW'S DINNER: Charcoal broiled steak, French fried potatoes, corn on the cob with guacamole butter, soft rolls, butter or margarine, sliced tomatoes, fresh blueberry pie, coffee, tea, milk.

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

Rev. L. B. Davis
Progressive Baptist Church

"AROUSING SYMPATHY AND PITY IN THE CHURCH"

PHILIPPIANS. 2:1-2

The great gospel precept pressed upon us; that is, to love one another. This is the law of Christ's kingdom, the lesson of his school the livery of his family. This he represents in (v. 2) by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

1. If there is any consolation in Christ. Have you experienced consolation in Christ? The sweetness we have found in the doctrine of Christ should sweeten our spirit. If we have not consolation in Christ, then where else can we expect it? (Peter knew that man could find consolation only in Christ, therefore, he said "Lord to whom shall we go, thou hast the word of eternal life.")

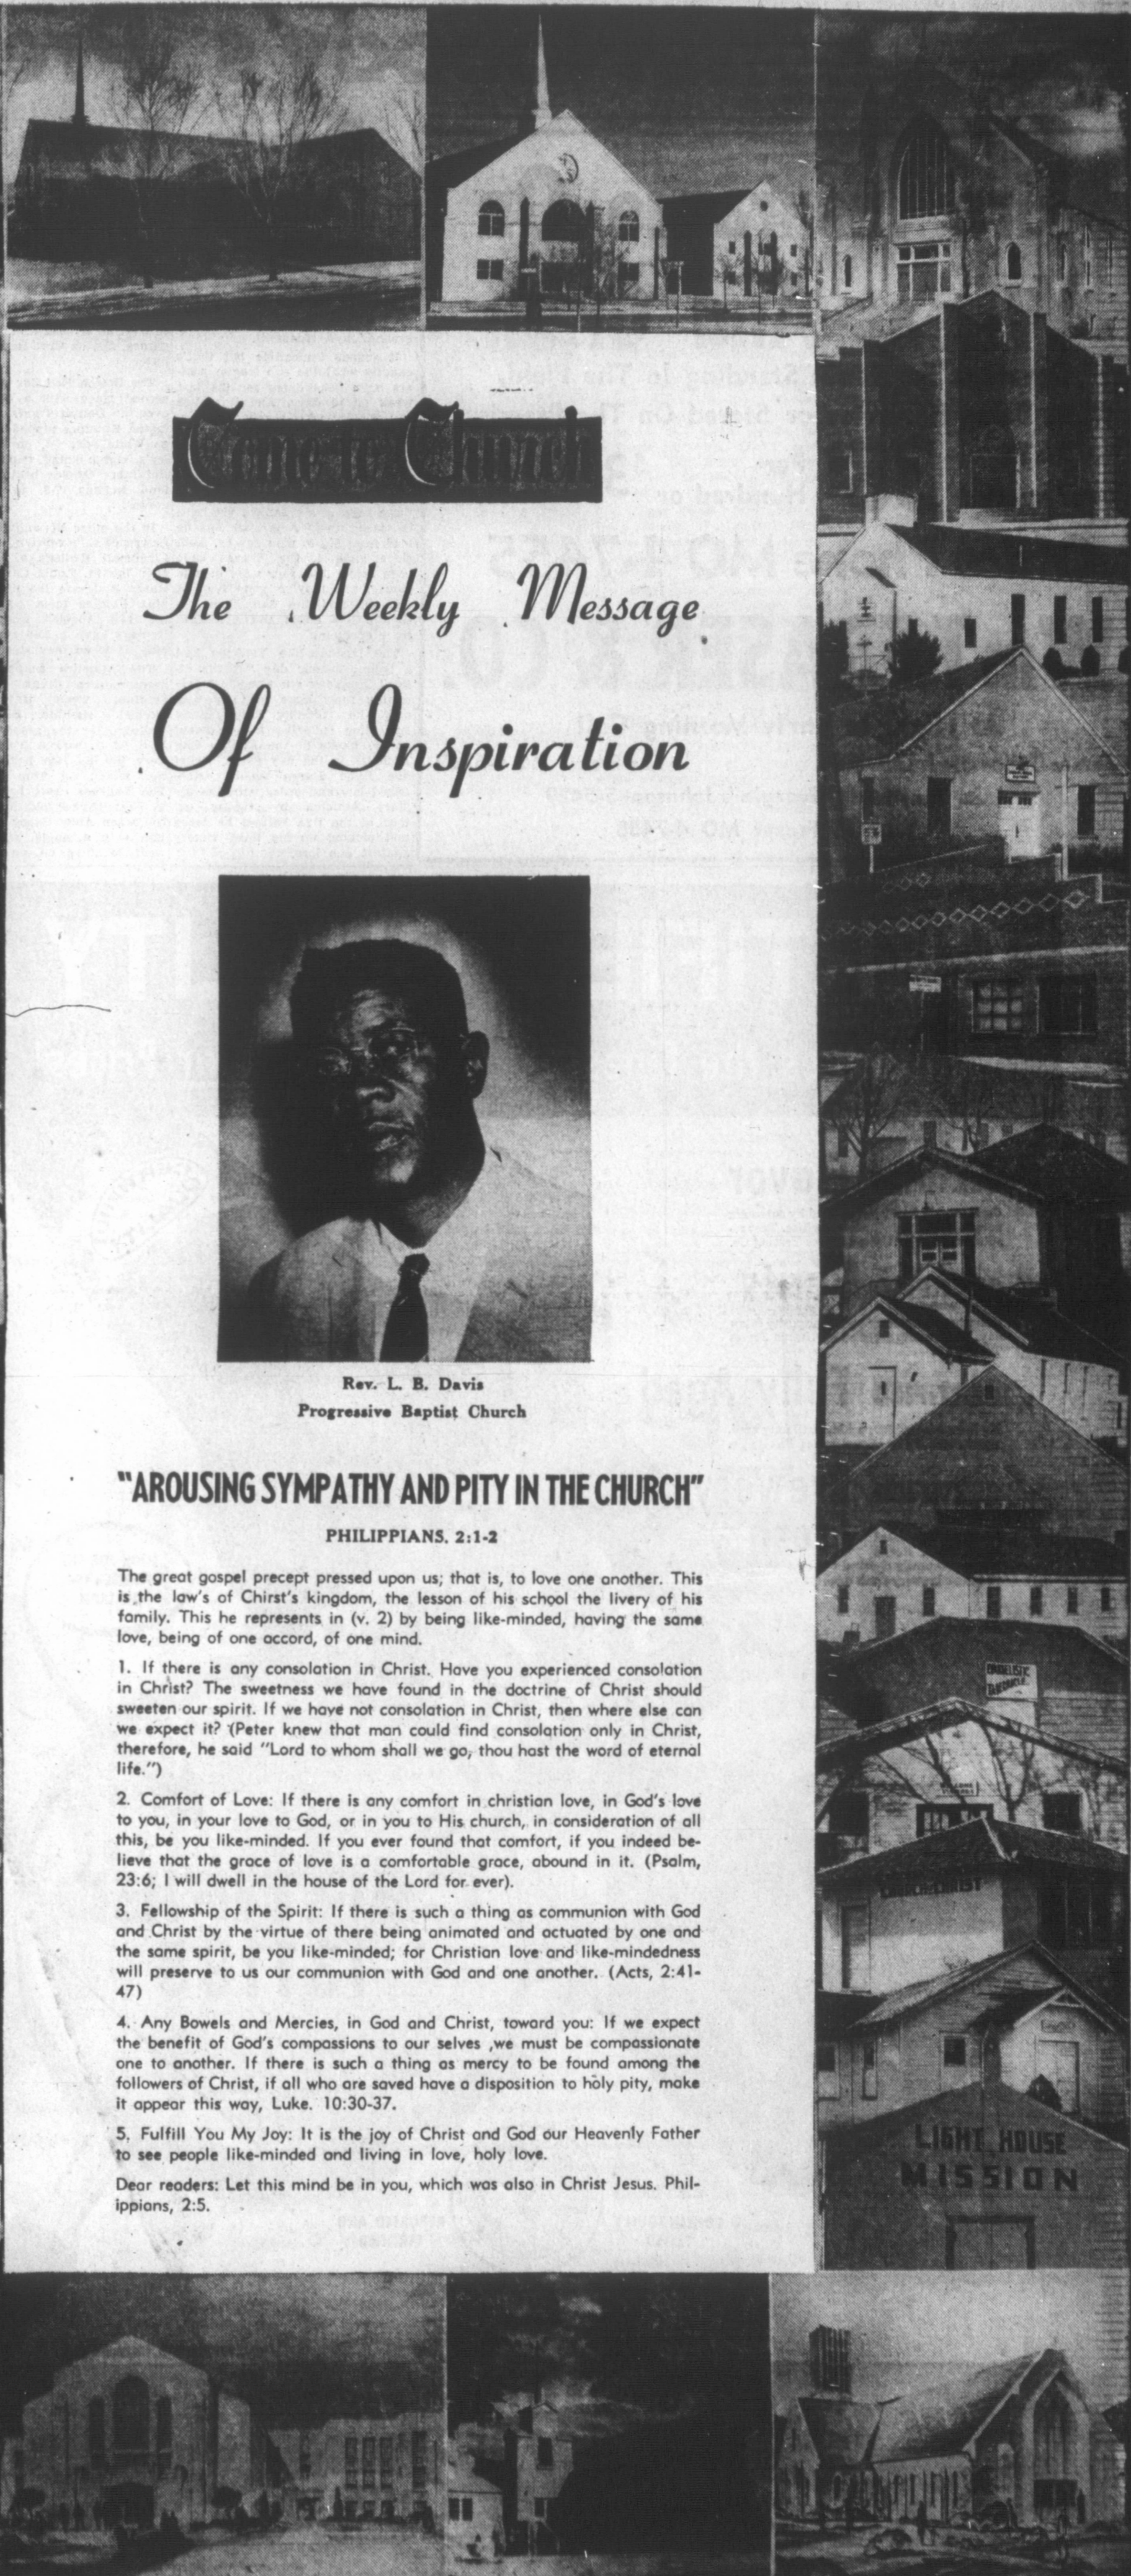

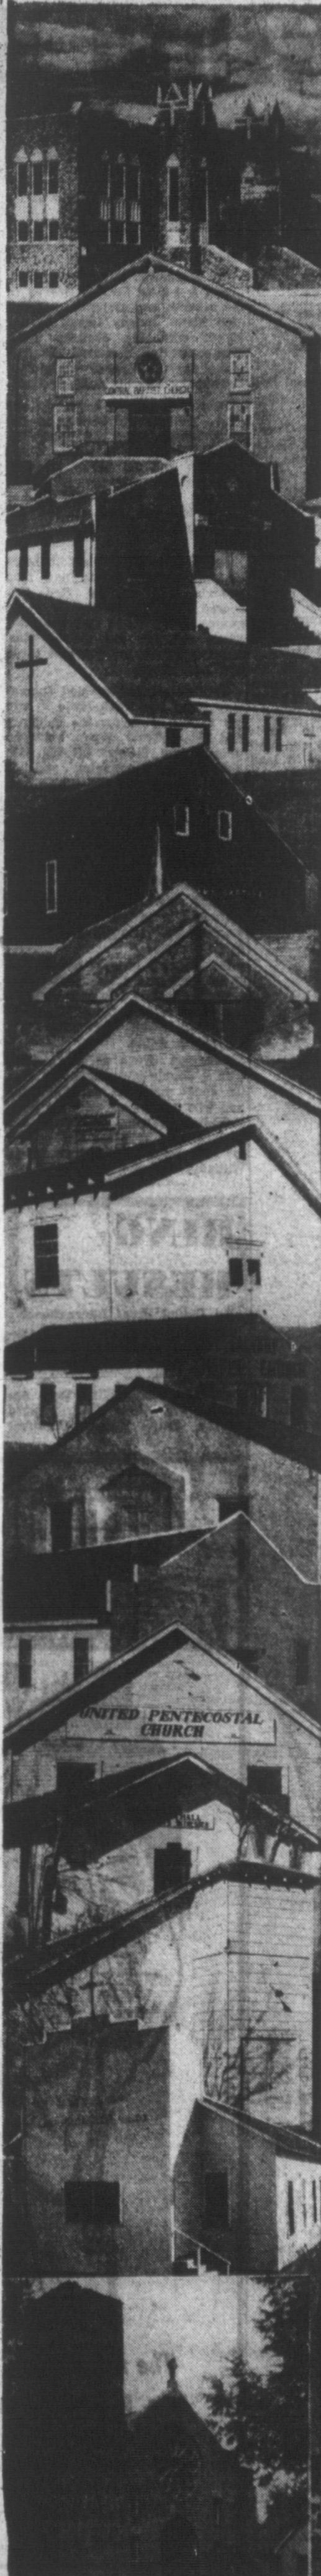

2. Comfort of Love: If there is any comfort in christian love, in God's love to you, in your love to God, or in you to His church, in consideration of all this, be you like-minded. If you ever found that comfort, if you indeed believe that the grace of love is a comfortable grace, abound in it. (Psalm, 23:6; I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever).

3. Fellowship of the Spirit: If there is such a thing as communion with God and Christ by the virtue of there being animated and actuated by one and the same spirit, be you like-minded; for Christian love and like-mindedness will preserve to us our communion with God and one another. (Acts, 2:41-47)

4. Any Bowels and Mercies, in God and Christ, toward you: If we expect the benefit of God's compassions to our selves, we must be compassionate one to another. If there is such a thing as mercy to be found among the followers of Christ, if all who are saved have a disposition to holy pity, make it appear this way, Luke. 10:30-37.

5. Fulfill You My Joy: It is the joy of Christ and God our Heavenly Father to see people like-minded and living in love, holy love.

Dear readers: Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus. Philippians, 2:5.

Braves, Yanks Hike Leads Despite Sub .500 Playing

By FRED DOWN
 United Press International
 The New York Yankees and Milwaukee Braves have discovered a neat trick — how to gain ground on a treadmill.

It sounds impossible but that's exactly what the two league leaders have been doing for the last week or 10 days. And it makes you wonder what's going to happen to the races when the defending champs start rolling again.

The Yankees, for example, have played only 500 ball since June 7, three wins in six games, yet have increased their American League lead from 8½ to nine games. And, since June 1, the Braves have been below .500, four wins in nine games, yet they've gone from a game behind the San Francisco Giants to a game and a half in front of them.

The business-like Yankees had a trying 10-hour day "at the office" Thursday but wound up protecting their huge lead by winning the 11-inning night game, 3-2, after suffering a 4-1 defeat at the hands of the Kansas City Athletics in the day game. Relief ace Ryne Duren finally established law and order with the upstart Athletics by striking out four of the five batters he faced and picking up his third victory against one loss.

The Braves, meanwhile, treated the Chicago Cubs to an early 4-1 lead with four errors but rallied for a 5-4 triumph and picked up a full game when the Pittsburgh Pirates handed the Giants their fifth straight loss and 12th in 16 games, 2-1, on Curt Raydon's two-hitter.

The Boston Red Sox moved into second place with a 4-2 decision over the Detroit Tigers, the Washington Senators nipped the Chicago White Sox, 6-5, on Neil Christley's eighth-inning triple and the Baltimore Orioles beat the Cleveland Indians, 7-5, in other AL games.

In the other NL activity, Brooks Lawrence's six-hitter gave the Cincinnati Redlegs a 5-0 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals and Harry Anderson led the Philadelphia Phillies to a 4-3 win over the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Redlegs have a 13-6 record since May 21 when they stood 11-17.

The Athletics snapped an 18-game losing streak at Yankee Stadium when Ray Herbert pitched a six-hitter. Billy Hunter, traded after the game to Cleveland, hit a two-run triple and Bob Cerv hit his 16th homer to lead the attack on Tom Sturdivant. The Yankees came back at night to beat 42-year old Murry Dickson when Andy Carey led off the 12th with a single, stole second, went to third on an error and scored on Elston Howard's single.

Mathews Homers
 Ed Mathews' 13th homer produced a 4-4 tie for the Braves in the seventh and Del Crandall singled home Johnny Logan in the eighth with the decisive tally. Humberto Robinson won his first game for the Braves while Moe Drabowsky lost his sixth decision.

Paul Giel walked home the decisive run for the Pirates in the sixth inning after the bases became loaded on a walk, a hit batsman and an error. Raydon, who yielded singles to Daryl Spencer and Orlando Cepeda, struck out five and walked six in posting his first major league victory.

Jackie Jensen hit his 15th homer and Sammy White had four straight hits as the Red Sox scored their eighth victory in 11 games. Dave Slater won his sixth game although Ike Delock shut out the Tigers for the last three and 2-3 innings.

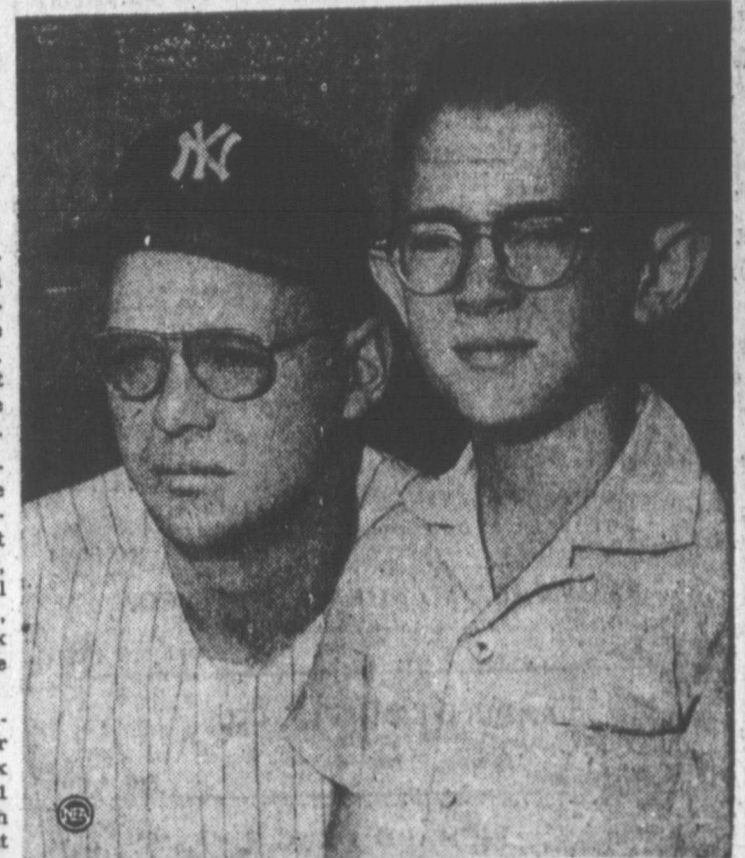

Christley's triple enabled submarine relief star Dick Hyde to win his fourth game for the Senators and dealt Early Wynn his fifth defeat. Roy Sievers hit his 12th homer for Washington and Al Smith hit two for the White Sox.

Johnson Wins Third
 Jim Marshall hit a two-run second-inning homer and drove in the tie-breaking run in the fifth as Connie Johnson gained his third win for Baltimore.

Chico Carrasquel, who went to Kansas City in the deal for Hunter, paced Cleveland's attack with three singles.

Ed Bailey's two-run homer and Frank Robinson's solo shot paced a 10-hit Cincinnati attack on Vinegar Bend Mizell, Lindy McDaniel and Phil Paine. Lawrence won his fourth game.

Anderson drove in three runs with a double and single and Willie Jones homered for the Phillies who have won three of their last four games. Relief pitcher Dick Farrell won his third game for Philadelphia while rookie Stan Williams was the loser.

THE EYES HAVE IT—Ryne Duren and his son Steve, 8, strike a bespectacled father-and-son pose. Pop starred in relief yesterday for the Yanks, fanning four of five batters he faced, and notching his 3rd win against only one loss.

AT BERKELEY

6 Hope To Hold NCAA Crowns

BERKELEY, Calif. (UPI)—Six athletes will attempt to retain their crowns Saturday when the finals of the National Collegiate Athletic Association track and field meet get under way in Edwards Stadium.

Gunning for repeat victories will be: Don Stewart of Southern Methodist, who tied for the high jump crown last year at 6 ft. 7½ inches.

Don Bowden of California, will attempt to retain his 880 crown. Ron Delany of Villanova, will try to keep his mile championship.

Greg Bell, the Indiana whiz who won the broad jump last year with a leap of 26 ft. 7 in. Al Oerter of Kansas, who has been throwing around 200 feet this year, trying to keep his discus crown.

CHAMPS TO BEAUMONT
 BEAUMONT (UPI)—Champions of sectional tournaments at Rottan, Waco, West Columbia and Corpus Christi July 28-Aug. 2 will send their Little League champs here for the state Little League Baseball tournament Aug. 8-9.

And John Fromm of Pacific Lutheran, who hurled the spear 248 ft. 1 in., to win the javelin last season.

Preliminaries in all events except the distance runs were slated for this afternoon, with the finals set for tomorrow.

Hart-Turner Fight To Draw

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Garnet (Sugar) Hart and Gil Turner, welterweight contenders, and Philadelphia buddies, bashed in renewed friendship today after scrapping a peace pact Thursday night to fight a bout which resulted in a rare 10-round draw.

Pennsylvania replaced the round scoring system with a five-point method tabulation in order to avoid draw verdicts. But up came the even-step decision from the score cards of the two judges and referee Zach Clayton.

Promoter Herman Taylor had offered Akins $40,000 to meet the Hart-Turner winner, George Katz, Turner's manager, wants an Akins match, anyhow, pointing out his boxer already holds a decision over the title-holder.

Hart, who scaled 145½ to Turner's 150, was an 8-5 favorite in the bout before 8,799 fans at Connie Mack Stadium.

Weak US Squad After Wightman

WIMBLEDON, Eng. (UPI)—The United States sent one of its weakest squads of recent years into the opening matches of the women's Wightman Cup tennis matches against Britain today, but still was a solid 3-1 favorite to win the cup.

The two-day, best-of-five-a-matches competition opening on the historic courts here is the latest renewal of one of the most lopsided rivalries in sports history.

The Americans have won 25 of the 29 series played to date, the last 21 in a row. Britain hasn't won since 1930 and, with a squad composed of too-young hopefuls and mediocre has-beens, is given very little chance of an upset this time.

Today's matches include Althea Gibson, New York, vs Shirley Bloomer, Britain.

The Gibson-Bloomer match brings together the aces of the two squads.

Carter Returns To Madison Garden

NEW YORK (UPI)—Harold Carter, a potential heavyweight challenger before he entered the Army 17 months ago, returns to the ring tonight in a TV fight with contender Willi Besmanoff at Madison Square Garden.

Despite the long lay-off, Carter, 24, of Linden, N.J., is favored at 13-5 over the stocky but speedy ex-baker from Munich, Germany.

Barrel-chested Besmanoff is rated ninth among contenders, but sleek Carter, who was ranked fourth when tapped by Uncle Sam has been dropped from the top 10 because of inactivity.

RING RESULTS

By United Press International
 PHILADELPHIA—Garnet (Sugar) Hart, 145½, Philadelphia, and Gil Turner, 150, Philadelphia, draw (10).
 MILWAUKEE, Wis.—Tony Anthony, 178, New York, stopped Orville Pitts, 174½, Milwaukee (5).

Hagge Holds 10 Point Golf Lead

MARBLEHEAD, Mass. (UPI)—Red-haired Mariens Bauer Hagge holds her putter with authority, and it is that "bold" power on the greens that gave her a commanding 10-point lead in the second round of the Triangle Round Robin Invitation golf tournament today.

Utility, Optimists Tree Post Wins

Utility Oil gained a tie for first place Thursday in the Western Little League with an easy 10-5 win over C. R. Hoover. Terry Holt gained the win for Utility striking out 11 to win his strike out total of four games to 54. Jim Hickey took the loss for Hoover giving up 10 runs on 10 hits. Walter Ross boosted his league leading batting average to .601 with two home runs, his sixth and seventh of the year, and a double.

Warren Head took the win for Optimist and Ed Langwell the loss.

Jim Pools hit two homers for Kist, and Larry Brawley got one. Kenny Albert led the Cree attack with two doubles, one with the bases loaded and two out in the seventh to win the game.

The Cree team tallied four runs in the bottom of the 7th to nip Kist 5-7 in Pony League play.

Gerald Owens was the winning pitcher and Butch Roseland the loser.

Jim Pools hit two homers for Kist, and Larry Brawley got one.

Mrs. Hagge virtually ran away from the field in the opening round of the unique match-medal tournament Thursday. Her putting, perfect for the spacious-but-slow greens of the lush 6,171-yard Te-desco country club course, gave her a near-record 23 points from the first 18 holes.

Mariens was three-under-par with a sizzling 70 under ideal weather conditions. That gave her 23 points, just 10 more than Betty Dodd who landed second on a 73 score.

Louise Suggs, Triangle winner in 1955, had a better medal score of 71 but collected only six points in the stiff competition of a foursome composed of Kathy Cornelius, Alice Bauer and defending champion Mickey Wright.

Miss Wright faced perhaps the most difficult task of all, because she lost 10 points in the first round, and faced Mrs. Hagge to boot. Mrs. Hagge, who is 38, carded one over par 71 in the first round—the first time since the Open was held at scorned Oakland Hills at Birmingham, Mich., in 1961, that the field hasn't been able to break par.

Back then, Sam Snead, the 5-1 favorite to win this one, shot a 71. Snead, whose driver went sour on him, carded a 75. The 95-degree heat, the clutching rough, the 25-mile an hour winds, the powdery fine sand traps, the mud in the watered fairways, the pin placements and the spike marks on the green had most of the 162 players in the field groaning. Two of them—Ernie Ball and Johnny Bulla—gave up the ghost and withdrew without completing the first round.

Believe Course is Fair Not since Oakland Hills, has a course come in for so much complaining. But there was a big difference—here, they think the course is tough, but fair. They blame the conditions here, except for the heat and wind, on the U.S. Golf Association. The scores bore out their crying when 81 players—exactly half the field—failed to break 80, which is 10 over par, and five were in the 90's. Never has an Open seen such high scores.

The pin placements came in for the most criticism. "What are they trying to do, drive all the young golfers out of business," asked the 56-year-old Gene Sarazen, competing in his 28th Open. Sarazen carded an 84. Ben Complains Ben Hogan, shooting for an unprecedented fifth Open crown, said the spike marks on the greens late in the afternoon made it "impossible to get a true line on a putt."

Ed Furgol, the 1954 Open champion, had a ball bury in the mud on the first fairway. A stroke off the pace of the leaders, was 43-year-old Lloyd Mangrum, who won this one back in 1946 and 35-year-old Frank Stranahan. At 73, two strokes behind the front running trio, were Bruce Crampton and grandpaw Jimmy Demaret, who is 47.

At 74, two-time U.S. amateur champion Harvie Ward, 33; 27-year-old Gene Littler; Smiley Quick, who is 48; and 50-year-old Labron Harris, a teaching pro from Stillwater, Okla. There were 20 at 75. Beside Hogan, Snead and Middlecoff and Harbert, they included Chick Harbert, Pat Schwab, the young bridegroom from Dayton, Ohio; Mike Souchak, former PGA king; Walter Burkemo, Masters champion and leading money winner

Borus, Bolt, Metz Pacing Open Play

By LEO H. PETERSEN UPI Sports Editor

TULSA, Okla. (UPI)—The toughest and one of the most criticized U.S. Open championships of them all saw three veterans of the golfing wars—Julius Boros, Tommy Bolt and Dick Metz—lead the field into the second round today with the Southern Hills course's tough par 70 proving more than the nation's best golfers could crack.

Boros, who won the Open in 1952 and who is 38; Bolt, who is 39 and Metz, who is 50, carded one over par 71 in the first round—the first time since the Open was held at scorned Oakland Hills at Birmingham, Mich., in 1961, that the field hasn't been able to break par.

The 95-degree heat, the clutching rough, the 25-mile an hour winds, the powdery fine sand traps, the mud in the watered fairways, the pin placements and the spike marks on the green had most of the 162 players in the field groaning. LAGS FOUR BEHIND—Ben Hogan, leaping to line up a putt, carded a five-over-par 75 Thursday in opening round US Open Golf action. He and 19 others with 75 trail by four strokes, 71's turned in by Julius Boros, Tommy Bolt and 50-year-old Dick Metz. Hogan is gunning for a 5th National Open crown.

At 74, two-time U.S. amateur champion Harvie Ward, 33; 27-year-old Gene Littler; Smiley Quick, who is 48; and 50-year-old Labron Harris, a teaching pro from Stillwater, Okla. There were 20 at 75. MOORE QUILTS AT LHS

LUBBOCK (SpI)—Wilford Moore, 38, resigned as head football coach at Lubbock High School here Thursday. He quit to take a similar post and become athletic director at Port Neches High School.

Moore, who made $3,293 per year here, tops in District 3-A, said he would "get more money and be in a city with only one high school" at Port Neches. The Indians were a long time power in S-A circles before neighboring Nederland rose to grid prominence.

A former Littlefield High and Hardin-Simmons University player, Moore had a 7-13-1 record at Lubbock for the two years he was head coach there. He had previously coached at Abilene High and McMurry College.

Edgar Payne, first assistant to Moore at Lubbock High, also announced his resignation, to join Moore at Port Neches.

Supt. Nat Williams of the Lubbock School system said applications are now being accepted for both positions.

Time Runs Out For Game Bids

CHICAGO (UPI)—American cities wishing to play host to the 1964 Olympic games have until Sept. 1 to make their applications to the U.S. Olympic Committee.

Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson, president of the committee, said Thursday the chief executive of the city concerned must make an application five years in advance. Announcement of the host city will be made in May of next year.

In order to qualify, a city must prove financial ability to stage the games, build an Olympic village to house about 6,000 competitors, provide technical facilities for at least 15 of the 21 sports, and prove it can absorb the heavy influx of spectators.

Jacoby On Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY Written for NEA Service Mrs. Gus Davis of Morehead City writes, "South did not know whether he was bidding six diamonds to make or as a sacrifice."

It negotiated a pretty difficult tightrope for a TV who dunit — shuttling between the straight old fashioned puzzle-type mystery and work story. It managed to braid both skeins together in an hour that was long on skillful direction and playing.

Table with bridge bidding information: NORTH (D) 10, WEST, EAST, SOUTH, and various hand notations.

Over at "Armstrong," Talent Associates turned its hand to "Kidnap Story," a dramatization of a real life event set in San Francisco.

South's bidding was excellent indeed. He certainly had reason not to let his opponents play five spades and he was fortunate enough to bring home his slam contract.

Tonight's TV highlight and perhaps the highlight of the month is "Member of the Wedding" (CBS-TV), a 90-minute version of the Carson McCullers work. It's the last "Du Pont Show of the Month" and features three relatively unknown players.
