De Gaulle Said Bound For Paris

United Press International
PARIS (UPI)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle left his home 150 miles east of Paris suddenly today. There was speculation he was answering a call from President Rene Coty to attend a conference forming a new government for France.

Graduation Is Thursday In Fieldhouse

Pampa High School Graduation Thursday will star three student speakers. Valedictorian John Mead, Salutatorian Pat L. Jones and Class President Marvin Pickett will be the starting speakers. Graduation will be held in the fieldhouse at 8 p.m.

Pampa School Superintendent Knox Kinard and Principal Jack Edmondson will have 224 diplomas to hand out before the graduates sing "Dear Old Pampa High School" once more.

"The Past as Prelude to the Future" will be the Valedictory Address. Besides working up a 76.53 average, Mead has appeared in two Thespian productions, "The Grass Harp" and last year's "I Remember Mama." He holds membership in the National Honor Society and in the Pampa Chess Club.

Miss Jones, salutatorian at 96.10, will proceed with "Looking Toward the Future." Miss Jones has had plenty of speech experience with the Thespians, most recently as the woman prayer leader in "God's Trombones." She received a rating of "Excellent" in this year's contest play "The Bad Seed" and in her Junior year drew "Best Actress" for her part in "The Long Christmas Dinner."

Further distinctions are presidency of the National Honor Society, membership in Quill and Scroll and leadership in the Student Council.

Pickett, Senior Class president, will discuss the educational system. His political career extends from the PHS Student Council to the District Association of Student Councils in which he is vice president. Last year he had a bit part in "I Remember Mama."

Soloist JoAnn Jones will represent "A Cappella Choir" with "My Talk" by Ashford.

Traditional features of the Commencement will be the Invocation and Benediction. Father William E. West, rector of St. William's Episcopal Church, will give the Invocation. The Benediction will be by Rev. Jones. Jones is minister of the Mary Ellen at Harvester Church of Christ in Pampa.

The Harvester Band will carry on with the "Pomp and Circumstance" procession and will close with the March from Richard Wagner's "Tannhauser."

An Open House reception will be held in Lovett Memorial Library tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 in observance of "Senior Citizens of America Week."

protest De Gaulle's apparently steady rise to power. De Gaulle sped away from his home at Colombey - les - deux - Eglises shortly after 5 p.m. (11 a.m. c.d.t.). His destination was not known immediately.

Coty, striving desperately to find an escape from the threat of a military dictatorship or a Communist grab for power, began his crucial conferences at 4 a.m.

Strike Hits Transportation
He refused to accept Premier Pierre Pflimlin's resignation until a new government could be formed. Pflimlin, his government crumbling around him, asked to quit after he was unable to muster a constitutional majority in a shouting, fist-waving session of the General Assembly Tuesday night.

A lightning strike shut down Paris subways, buses and suburban trains, coinciding with the anti-De Gaulle demonstrations and hitting the capital at its rush hour.

At least 50,000 demonstrators marched into the Place de la Bastille at 5 p.m.

Round of Conferences
De Gaulle, who had declared he would take power only by legal means, had conducted a round of consultations of his own. Two of his Free French associates of wartime—Marshal Alphonse Juin and Gen. Georges Catroux—went to see him.

Coty first consulted with the presidents of the two houses of Parliament. Then he held a joint meeting—almost unprecedented in French government crises—with heads of three of the main middle-line parties—the Socialists, the Catholic Popular Republicans (MRP) and the Independents (Conservatives).

Despite the fact it was 4 a.m. and his own a sleepless night, Coty began his crucial consultations immediately after his session with Pflimlin.

Husted Is Speaker For Jaycees
Clayton Husted, local oil field contractor, was the speaker at the Pampa Jaycees' meeting yesterday.

Husted's talk was on the oil industry and its contribution to our standard of living. He gave several examples of things petroleum can do, including making some synthetic rubber and showing it to the club members.

Husted also explained the function of the American Petroleum Institute. API seeks to standardize the equipment used in oil fields and also has a role in the education of the general public concerning the petroleum industry.

Johnny Campbell, immediate past president of the club, gave a report on his recent trip to Washington, D.C. Campbell's trip was sponsored by the Citizens Committee for the Adoption of the Hoover Commission Recommendations.

Campbell and Horton Russell, president of the club, attended the state executive committee meeting held in Grand Prairie last week. Campbell was named state committee chairman of Americanism.

Trust Foundation Is Incorporated
CHICAGO (UPI)—Attorneys for paroled thrill killer Nathan Leopold have incorporated a trust foundation, to be financed by proceeds from Leopold's autobiography, to help delinquent and retarded children.

Elmer Gertz, an attorney for Leopold, said Tuesday night the Leopold foundation was incorporated April 18 in the secretary of state's office in Springfield, Ill.

Vanguard Fails To Orbit

Ike Says He 'Likes' De Gaulle

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower said today he likes Gen. Charles de Gaulle, the military leader who appears headed for control of the French government.

The President recalled at his news conference that he had had a friendly association with De Gaulle in the past. He said he was one of those who liked the French general.

The President flatly refused, however, to attempt any analysis of what effect De Gaulle's likely rise to power in France would have on French relations with the United States and other Western powers.

Eisenhower opened his weekly news conference with a statement that crises still plague France and Lebanon. Therefore, he said, it was inadvisable for him to discuss either topic, and he told reporters not to ask him to.

Wouldn't Analyze the General
But a newsmen, stating that he meant no reference to any current international crisis, asked whether the President would recall his past association with De Gaulle and give his impressions of the Frenchman.

The question evoked laughter from the President and newsmen. Eisenhower immediately pointed out that De Gaulle is part of the present French crisis and therefore he could not try to analyze him.

But the President went on to say he was one of those who liked De Gaulle.

In other foreign news conference developments, the President said the world situation seems to call for more intensive review of current U.S. international responsibilities than might normally be the case. He said every day there are conferences to determine what new duties and responsibilities fall on the United States as a result of particular world events.

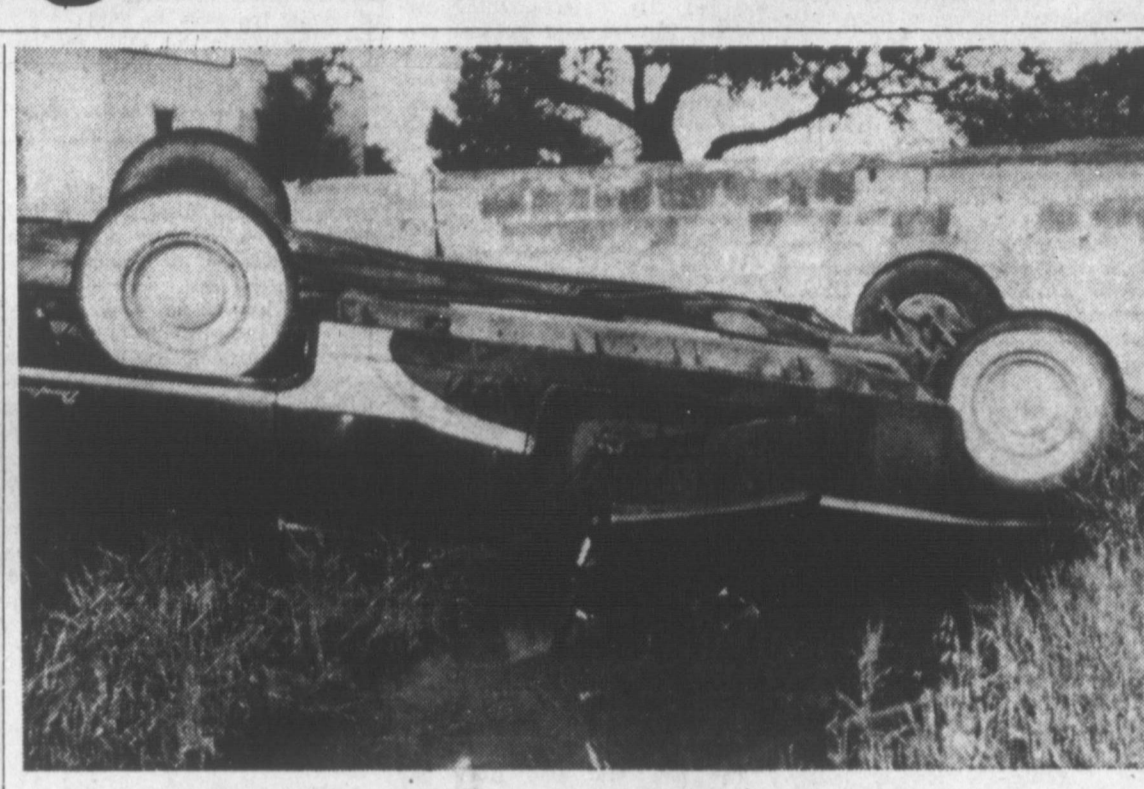

Live and Let Live
—Declared that the United States must not adopt dictatorial, Communist-type policies in efforts to influence allies who are having trouble. He said the United States must observe the principle of live and let live while trying to exercise influence by persuasion.

—Said U.S. forces seem to be pretty well dispersed to meet threats of small wars developing quickly. He made the statement when reporter said there had been suggestions of administration studies of the "small war problem" and American ability to deal with it.

Sentenced Man's Hearing Today
AUSTIN (UPI)—The Board of Pardons and Paroles will hold a hearing at 3 p.m. today in the case of Alvin Charles Blankenship, sentenced to death for armed robbery.

Blankenship, the first man ever to be given the death penalty for robbery by firearms from Houston, is scheduled to die June 8 at Huntsville prison.

A Harris County jury convicted him of stealing $2,930 from a safe at Busch Stadium after he bludgeoned 77-year-old watchman Ora Gilmore, shot him four times and slashed his throat twice.

TOTAL LOSS
Police are looking for the driver of this 1950 Buick, which crashed into a culvert in the 1200 block of S. Barnes about 11:30 last night. City police believed the driver of the car is Mrs. J. W. Hickey, who lives at the 1200 block of S. Barnes. The Buick was a total loss. (News Photo)

Some Crop Damage

Rains in the Top of Texas area ranged from a trace at White Deer to one inch at Lefors last night.

Canadian received .60 of an inch of rain and high winds that caused no damage while McLean residents took to the storm cellars as their storm warning siren blew and trees limbs and TV antennas were blown down. A total of .55 of an inch of rain was recorded at McLean to run the yearly total to 11.96 inches.

Ralph Thomas, Gray County Agent, said that he hadn't had a chance to talk to many farmers today but one that he had talked with, who lives about three miles south of town, said almost all of his what had blown down.

Skeet Roberts, who lives three miles north of Pampa, said he received .30 of an inch of moisture and no crop damage, while Dick Walker, two and one-half miles east of Pampa, received .80 of an inch of rain and reported no damage to his crops. Wade Duncan, four miles east of Pampa, received .61 of an inch of rain and no crop damage.

The rain gauge atop the Pampa News building collected .90 of an inch during last night's downpour.

The Top of Texas forecast calls for partly cloudy skies and warmer through tomorrow with widely scattered afternoon and evening thundershowers. The low tonight is expected to be 62 and the high tomorrow 95.

Tornadoes, high winds, heavy rains, dust storms and a heat wave swept Texas Tuesday. One person was injured in a wind-storm at El Paso.

The tornadoes did no reported damage. One bolted out of black clouds and danced through an open field 18 miles northwest of Lubbock. Weather bureau observers watched it for four minutes.

The other tornado was sighted 21 miles east of Stamford. Although it did no damage, a rain of 2.47 inches and winds estimated between 75 and 80 miles per hour ripped through nearby Haskell, wrecking a warehouse and plunging the city into darkness.

Dust became so thick in El Paso that one city motorcycle officer said his vehicle was "drowned" out by sand and dust blown into the engine.

One woman was injured slightly when high winds caved in her roof. The winds, whipped by a downdraft from the mountains surrounding El Paso, knocked down trees and ripped up utility poles.

Rains Widespread In Pampa Area

Pampa Police today are trying to locate Mrs. J. W. Hickey, who lives in cabin 25 at the Orange Courts, located in the 1200 block of S. Barnes.

It is believed by the police that Mrs. Hickey was involved in a car accident last night about 11:30 in which her 1950 Buick was demolished after it ran off the highway and into a culvert full of water in the 1200 block of S. Barnes.

About 11:40 last night, police received a call from an unidentified person that a car was turned upside down in a culvert in S. Barnes. While investigating the accident, the police were told by a truck driver that he had been driving by when the accident occurred and had taken Mrs. Hickey to a service station and that she appeared not to be hurt at all.

Attendants at the station said that Mrs. Hickey seemed all right to them and after staying at the station for a while she left about 12:30 p.m., and police haven't been able to locate her since.

Another unidentified person said she passed the car just before it plunged into the culvert and that she couldn't see anyone in the car at the time but it was raining pretty heavily and that might have been the reason.

The car was a 1950 Buick with dynaflo, white wall tires and the license number, AV-2427, is registered to J. W. Hickey of Pampa. At press time today, police were still trying to locate Mrs. Hickey.

'Career Day' To Be Talked

The Board of Directors of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce will take up the question of a Career Day for Pampa students at its next meeting, according to Frank Culbertson, chairman of the Industrial Committee.

Career Day will be considered as a replacement for the Business-Industrial-Education Days held here every year. The main feature will be the availability of leading businessmen and others of the area to talk with students on the line of work they expect to take up.

Missile Goes 2,000 Miles Up, Plunges

By CHARLES TAYLOR
United Press International
CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI)—The Navy reported early today that the full-scale satellite launched Tuesday night with the Vanguard rocket shot 2,000 miles into space but at an off-angle which caused it to plunge back to earth and burn.

It was the second consecutive failure of the Vanguard to blast a fully instrumented 20-inch satellite into orbit, the satellite President Eisenhower talked about in 1955 when he first announced this country's space program for the International Geophysical Year.

The Vanguard was fired at 10:46 p.m. c.d.t. It pierced a puff of clouds and in about two minutes was no longer visible.

At first it appeared the launching was successful and that the satellite would join in space the 6.4 inch Vanguard test moon put into orbit last March 17, the two Explorers and gigantic Sputnik III which weighs 1½ tons.

Signals Then Silence
Radio Corporation of America at Riverhead, N.Y., reported it picked up a signal at 10:50 p.m. c.d.t. and received it until 11:08 p.m. Downrange stations in the South Atlantic also picked up signals shortly after the launching.

There then was silence and listening points around the world dimmed hopes of orbiting by turning in negative reports.

Navy scientists at Cape Canaveral and Washington admitted behavior of the Vanguard was confusing. But it was not until dawn that they announced the attempt had failed.

Dr. John P. Hagen, director of the Vanguard project who came to this launching base to observe the event, said the 72-foot rocket "appeared to function well through the firing of all three stages but still did not result in an orbit."

In Washington, Dr. Richard W. Porter, chairman of the IGY satellite program, issued an identical statement to newsmen who had kept a vigil with him.

Hagen said radio signals received from the satellite at a Navy mini-track station on Antigua Island in the West Indies indicated that the satellite "had assumed an arc-like upward attitude."

Will Gain Information
This prevailed, Hagen said, as the satellite sped southeastward the satellite reached "a peak above the Atlantic."

According to initial calculations altitude of about 2,000 statute miles at its zenith and fell back to earth," Hagen said.

He emphasized that while the little artificial moon failed to attain an orbit with the three other U.S. satellites now whirling around the earth and the Russian Sputnik, the great height achieved by the satellite was expected to produce "much valuable scientific information."

Signals Received
Porter said the satellite radioed data to earth for 15 to 25 minutes after it was fired "and possibly for as much as a half hour."

He said the third stage of the (See MISSILE, Page 2)

Gikas' Team Wins In CoC Member Drive

John Gikas' Team 19 came in first in the Annual Membership Round-Up of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, according to Warren Hasse, Finance director. E. L. Henderson's Team 1 was in second place with Elmer Fisher's Team 9 in third.

The campaign closed Tuesday with a check-in coffee in the Chamber of Commerce Conference Room at which the 20 teams reported membership gains for the Chamber. Members of the Board of Directors captained the teams.

Gerald Sims and J. C. Roberts were the members of the first place team. Henderson's team had J. B. Maguire Jr. and Horace Prince as members. Jack Vaughn and Ed Myatt served on Fisher's team.

A total of approximately $2,500 including new memberships and the renewals of old memberships, resulted from the campaign. Sixty-nine new members went on the rolls of the Chamber, Hasse said.

Red Cross Has Board Meeting

At its meeting today, the Board of Directors of the Pampa Red Cross approved LeRoy Kraetzmeier as treasurer and confirmed the appointment of three new committee heads. The Board agreed to send two Chapter members to special training schools in First Aid and Water Safety. The executive secretary, Mrs. Libby Shotwell, announced that the Junior Red Cross would send three Pampa High school students to Camp Fellowship in Wichita, Kans.

Mrs. Euna Lee Moores will replace Mrs. Dorothy Jeffries as Home Service chairman. Mrs. Jeffries had served two years by the Board. E. B. Pemberton's placement as First Aid chairman will be Carl Hills. Pemberton has served three years. Charles Toots will be the new Lefors chairman replacing Mrs. Mary Hatfield.

James Hart, Water Safety chairman, nominated Roy Watts for a two week aquatic school in Ardmore, Okla. Watts is a student at Phillips University and will instruct in the Red Cross Water Safety program this summer, following his two weeks' training.

Alvin Lewis of White Deer will take a two day First Aid Instructor course at Ardmore to qualify as an instructor trainer in the Gray-Carson County area. Lewis is safety man at Northern Natural Gas Company and has received the support of H. H. Gilliam, area instructor, as the second First Aid man with the Chapters.

Marilyn Shelton, Carl Kitto and Sue Foster are the three Junior Red Cross leaders who will receive leadership training at Camp Fellowship.

Most Businesses To Close For Holiday Friday

Most businesses and City and County offices in Pampa will be closed Friday in observance of Memorial Day. E. M. Behrman, Chairman of the merchants activities committees of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce notes, Memorial Day is one of the regularly scheduled holidays of the committee.

Unknown Soldiers In Nation's Capitol

By WARREN DUFFEE
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Two nameless heroes of World War II and Korea returned to their native soil today and were laid in state in the Capitol rotunda amid the highest honors the republic can bestow.

Both houses of Congress, the Supreme Court, the diplomatic corps and the highest officers of all the military services joined in a simple, wordless six-minute ceremony as the flag-draped caskets were carried up the Capitol's east steps and placed atop black covered catafalques beneath the enormous dome.

Smartly drilled enlisted men from all services took up their posts as honor guards for the lying-in-state which will last until Friday afternoon. Then the two unknown heroes will be taken to Arlington Memorial Cemetery for reburial with the unknown of World War I. President Eisenhower will lead the nation in tribute.

Nixon Places Wreath
Vice President Richard M. Nixon placed the first wreath—a huge circle of carnations from "The Congress of the United States."

Speaker Sam Rayburn followed with an identical wreath, also from Congress. Guillermo Sevillano, the Nicaraguan ambassador and dean of the diplomatic corps, followed with a third identical floral piece from all the diplomats.

The unknowns—symbolic representatives of the 320,000 dead of two wars—finally came to home soil when they were carried ashore at the Naval Gun Factory from the destroyer Blundy.

The Coast Guard cutter Ingham accompanied the Blundy to the Navy Yard from Hampton roads, Va., after the World War II victim had been chosen at sea in a final selection ceremony Monday. A second World War II unknown was buried at sea.

Lie Where Presidents Lay
Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy and Treasury Secretary Robert B. Anderson headed the official arrival delegation. Twenty minutes later, two black hearses rolled up to the Capitol plaza, and the flag-covered coffins were taken to the rotunda.

Inside the rotunda, ringed around the walls, the dignitaries stood in silence as military pallbearers brought the coffins in—first the World War II hero and then the Korean unknown.

The unknown of World War II was placed on a three-tiered black catafalque which has held the bodies of five presidents—Abraham Lincoln, James A. Garfield, William McKinley, Warren G. Harding and William Howard Taft. The Korean dead was placed on an identically constructed catafalque. Thursday they will be reinterred.

When the ceremony ended and the dignitaries went their way, it was time for the public to group its tribute. Group after group was ready to place wreaths and perform other honors during the three-day period.

The bodies will lie in state in the Capitol rotunda until Friday afternoon, when President Eisenhower will lead the nation in paying tribute at Arlington.

Officials estimated that the number of visitors filing through the rotunda during the three-day period might run into the hundreds of thousands, especially during this heavy period of Washington's tourist season.

Registration Extended For Camp

Girl Scout Day Camp registration for both Intermediate and Brownie scouts has been extended through June 4, it has been announced by Mrs. N. G. Kadango, executive GS director. The time has been extended, she reports, because of closing-of-school activities and the Memorial Day week end.

Mrs. Kadango also states that the Girl Scout office will be closed for the summer months after June 4.

Mrs. John Holt Jr., president of the Top of Texas Girl Scout Council and director for the Intermediate Day Camp, states that the Intermediates will camp from June 16 through the 20, in order to allow the leaders and girls involved to attend the Cabot picnic on the 21st.

According to Mrs. Holt, Intermediate day campers will have two over-nights; on June 18 and 19. "Fly-Ups will have their overnight camping adventure on the 19. Parent visitation night will be on the 19, also, at which time parents are invited to attend the ceremonies planned for end-of-camp."

Four Cent Stamp Is Set For August

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The four-cent stamp for local and out-of-town letters definitely goes into effect Aug. 1.

President Eisenhower signed a bill Tuesday which raises both postal rates and wages. First class letters will be increased from 3 to 4 cents. Air Mail will be hiked from 6 to 7 cents. It will be the first increase in first-class mail rates since 1932.

The President said the bill's "public interest" features outweighed its objectionable provisions. But he said several provisions caused him "grave concern," including one which would assess the treasury for an "excessive amount of postal services costs" instead of levying them against users of the mails.

He said these postal services would cost about 100 million dollars a year and "logically and equitably" should have been financed through proper rates of postage.

Other presidential objections were "failure of the Congress to provide sufficient revenues to meet the full cost of operating the postal service," and a salary structure for postal workers which raises pay of lower salaried workers whereas some top bracket employees got no increase at all.

The penny boost in letter charges is the main item in the rate increase package, biggest in history and expected to bring in an extra 550 million dollars annually when all its provisions take effect.

The new law also gives pay raises of 265 million dollars a year to 325,000 postal workers, retroactive to last Jan. 1.

President Eisenhower Says Recession Has 'Spent Force'

By DAYTON MOORE
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower said today he believes the recession has largely spent its force.

But he cautioned against any optimism that a healthy economic upturn would occur in the near future.

He told a news conference that some of the economic indexes point to an upturn. But he said one swallow does not make a summer.

Some parts of the national economy, such as the auto and other durable goods industries, still are not doing too well, he said.

On the whole, he said, the nation is weathering the recession well.

Says Tax Cuts Not Warranted
In other news conference remarks, the President:

—Said that as of now the economic situation does not warrant anti-recession tax cuts that would greatly increase the federal budget deficit.

—Said he would deplore any peacetime attempt to control wages and prices. But he said he feels strongly that both must be held down in an effort to maintain stable living costs and a sound dollar.

—Declined to comment on the crises in France and Lebanon. But he did say he happened to like Gen. Charles de Gaulle. (The French general appears headed for control of the French government.)

Because of the President's refusal to discuss the French crisis, his news conference was devoted almost entirely to domestic matters.

Reporter Draws a Chuckle
The President mostly was in a serious and calm mood. But there were several chuckles, including one when a reporter identified himself as representing United Press International.

As to his decision against a tax cut, he said that a question in which a tax reduction was identified as an anti-recession measure appeared to be loaded. He said he was not so sure that it would have an anti-recession effect.

The President said he and his economic aides had tax reforms and reductions under constant study. But as of now, he said, they do not believe large tax cuts are justified in the light of increased federal spending.

Eisenhower expressed hope, however, that Congress will approve the minor tax reforms and reductions he has recommended for relief of small business.

Not a Prophet
He said government policy is aimed at a sound dollar and a healthy upturn. But he does not know what the government can do about rising prices other than combat them with its cal policies.

He said his economic aides had told him labor costs accounted for about 80 per cent of the price of durable goods. As long as wages go up, he said, prices are bound to rise too.

The President was asked when he expects the nation to get back on the road to prosperity.

He replied that he certainly was not capable of saying when there would be a healthy upturn. But he added that some economic statistics indicate that the worst of our problems are behind us.

The President said a drop of 1/4 or 1/2 per cent in long-term interest rates would be of considerable help.

Graham 'Christian Life Is Life Of Rejoicing'

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Billy Graham told 15,000 persons at the Cow Palace arena Tuesday night that the Christian life is a life of rejoicing—"but it is not a joke."

"It is not a joke," the evangelist said, "because you only can enter the Christian life after being convicted of your sins by the Holy Spirit."

He said millions of Americans are lying to the Holy Spirit by pretending to be something they are not.

Earlier in the day, a crowd of 12,000 persons turned out in City Hall Plaza at Oakland to observe "Billy Graham Day." The evangelist said they were "all sinners."

"Too many of us try to substitute tranquilizers, liquor and night clubs for religion," Graham said. "We hear the excuse that the church is not perfect... this is true, but the church is the greatest moral influence in any community."

Father Of Pampan Dies

Mr. Alfred A. Hodge, father of Mrs. G. K. Reading, 1200 N. Russell, died at 1:30 a.m. today in Maples. He was a Maples magistrate.

His wife, Ollie Lou, preceded him in death by ten days.

Survivors are three daughters, two sons, two brothers and one sister.

Burial services will take place in Maples at 3 p.m. Thursday.

pencil - slim rocket apparently fired at too high an angle to the Coty, striving desperately to earth. He said this may have been caused by an error in the "attitude" of the second stage at the time the final stage of the rocket ignited.

Porter said the third stage was ignited by a signal from the ground rather than by automatic controls within the rocket.

But he said this did not necessarily mean anything went wrong with the automatic firing device.

Will Try Again
Porter said another satellite containing the same instruments as Tuesday night's ill-fated moon, probably would be fired within a month.

He said scientists would not know what happened until they evaluated all data received from the ill-fated Vanguard.

Porter said the satellite's radio signal was picked up at these points: Cape Canaveral; Antigua; Havana, Cuba; Ft. Monmouth, N.J.; Blossom Point, Md.; Ft. Steward, Ga.; and Aberdeen, Md.

Porter said the satellite could have been off course as much as 90 degrees. The satellite, he said, carried no life of any form.

Jury Acquits Former Boxer In New York

NEW YORK (UPI)—An all-male jury Tuesday night acquitted Vincent (Chin) Gigante of the attempted assassination of gambler Frank Costello.

The blue ribbon panel deliberated 8 1/2 hours before deciding that Gigante, a former heavyweight boxer, was not the waddling gunman who creased Costello's scalp with a bullet as the gambler entered the foyer of his apartment building May 2, 1957.

If convicted of the attempted murder charge, Gigante, 30, could have received a maximum prison sentence of 25 years.

The jury's verdict, returned shortly before midnight, in effect repudiated the testimony of the prosecution's star witness, Norval Keith, the doorman in Costello's apartment building. The only witness to the shooting, he had identified Gigante as the gunman who fired the bullet.

Defense counsel Maurice Edelbaum stressed to the jury, however, that Keith has extremely poor vision in one eye and that the sight in his other eye was impaired.

Costello, testifying for the prosecution, maintained he did not see his assailant and had no idea why anyone would want to kill him.

Mother Of Pampan Dies

Mrs. Orah Henderson, mother of E. L. Henderson, 419 E. Foster, died at Noon Tuesday in Niotaze, Kans. Henderson was in Pittsburgh, Pa., attending the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church when news reached him of her death. He is leaving Pittsburgh today for Niotaze.

Mrs. Henderson was the widow of J. A. Henderson of Niotaze. For many years they operated a farm in the vicinity.

Funeral services will take place Saturday at Niotaze.

Survivors are E. L. Henderson of Pampa and Paul F. of Sunray, Mrs. Betty Dooley of Sunray, Mrs. Georgia Meadows of Artesia, N. M., J. C. Henderson of Niotaze, Mrs. Irene Carra of Niotaze, Mrs. Alpha McCurry of Topeka, Mrs. Cecil Gilmore of Redlands, Calif., Mrs. Donna Wilson of Sulphur, La. and Mrs. J. C. Knight of Perryton.

Lewis Is Home With Bride Of 13

LONDON (UPI)—Rock 'n' Roll singer Jerry Lee Lewis, who had been threatened with deportation from Great Britain, left for home early today with his 13-year-old Tennessee bride.

Lewis and the former Myra Brown, the teen-ager he married before his divorce from his second wife became final, boarded an airliner due in New York today.

The blond guitar thumper's British tour was cancelled, his hotel room "requested" by the management and his papers reviewed with the idea of possible deportation after newspapers here reported the age of his bride and the circumstances of their marriage.

He said, however, that he did not feel the furor had hurt him.

Myra's father, J. W. Brown, plays bass in Lewis' orchestra. Meanwhile, Lewis' second wife, the former Jane Micham, said in Natchez, Miss., that she still loves him "and I guess I always will."

Trade Union Survival Is Asked For

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Arthur J. Goldberg, general counsel of the AFL-CIO industrial union department and the United Steelworkers of America, has called on Congress to pass legislation to insure "survival" of trade unions by making them liable only for authorized acts of their agents and declaring that federal law is exclusive in labor matters.

Goldberg took issue with the Supreme Court's decisions Monday in the United Auto Workers vs. Russell and Machinists vs. Gonzalez cases.

Paul Russell, an electrician, was awarded $10,000 damages by an Alabama state court because a 1951 picket line of the UAW kept him away from his job. The Supreme Court upheld the award.

The high court also sustained the right of Marcos Gonzalez, a San Francisco machinist, to sue in California courts for reinstatement and damages after he was expelled from a Machinists' local union. He was awarded $9,300.

Goldberg said Tuesday the Russell decision "means that strikers and unions can be oppressed by suits for damages in hostile state courts which might, as did the Alabama court, award astronomical amounts to non-strikers and to strike breakers."

Former Resident Of Pampa Dies In Pennsylvania

Mrs. Della Eoretta Linnon, 57, who lived in Pampa from 1926 to 1938, died last Monday a week ago in Kittanning, Pa.

Mrs. Linnon was born July 28, 1900, in East Brady, Pa. She was a member of the St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

In addition to her husband, Ralph W. Linnon, she leaves a son, Thomas of Kittanning; two grandchildren; a brother, Ralph L. Thomas of Ford City, Pa.; and three sisters, Mrs. Craig Hawk of Applow, Pa., Mrs. Charles E. Benton of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mrs. Reed Slaughter of St. Petersburg, Pa.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. last Thursday. Burial was in Kittanning Cemetery.

RAIN

widely scattered light showers and thundershowers were in store today, mostly in North Central and West Texas. The weather bureau summary said skies ranged from fair to partly cloudy along the Texas coast and in South Central and East Texas to partly cloudy in North Central and West Texas.

Besides the heavy rain at Haskell, other rainfall reports included Amarillo .14, Lubbock .18, Abilene .16 and Texarkana .03.

chairman presided at his first Board Meeting. Immediate Past Chairman John F. Campbell will serve in an advisory position as assistant chairman.

Mrs. Emma Lee Moores gave a brief report on the Council of Chapters meeting that she and Mrs. Shotwell attended in Amarillo Tuesday. She announced that the Pampa Chapter was bringing the Council Meeting to Pampa the last Tuesday in September.

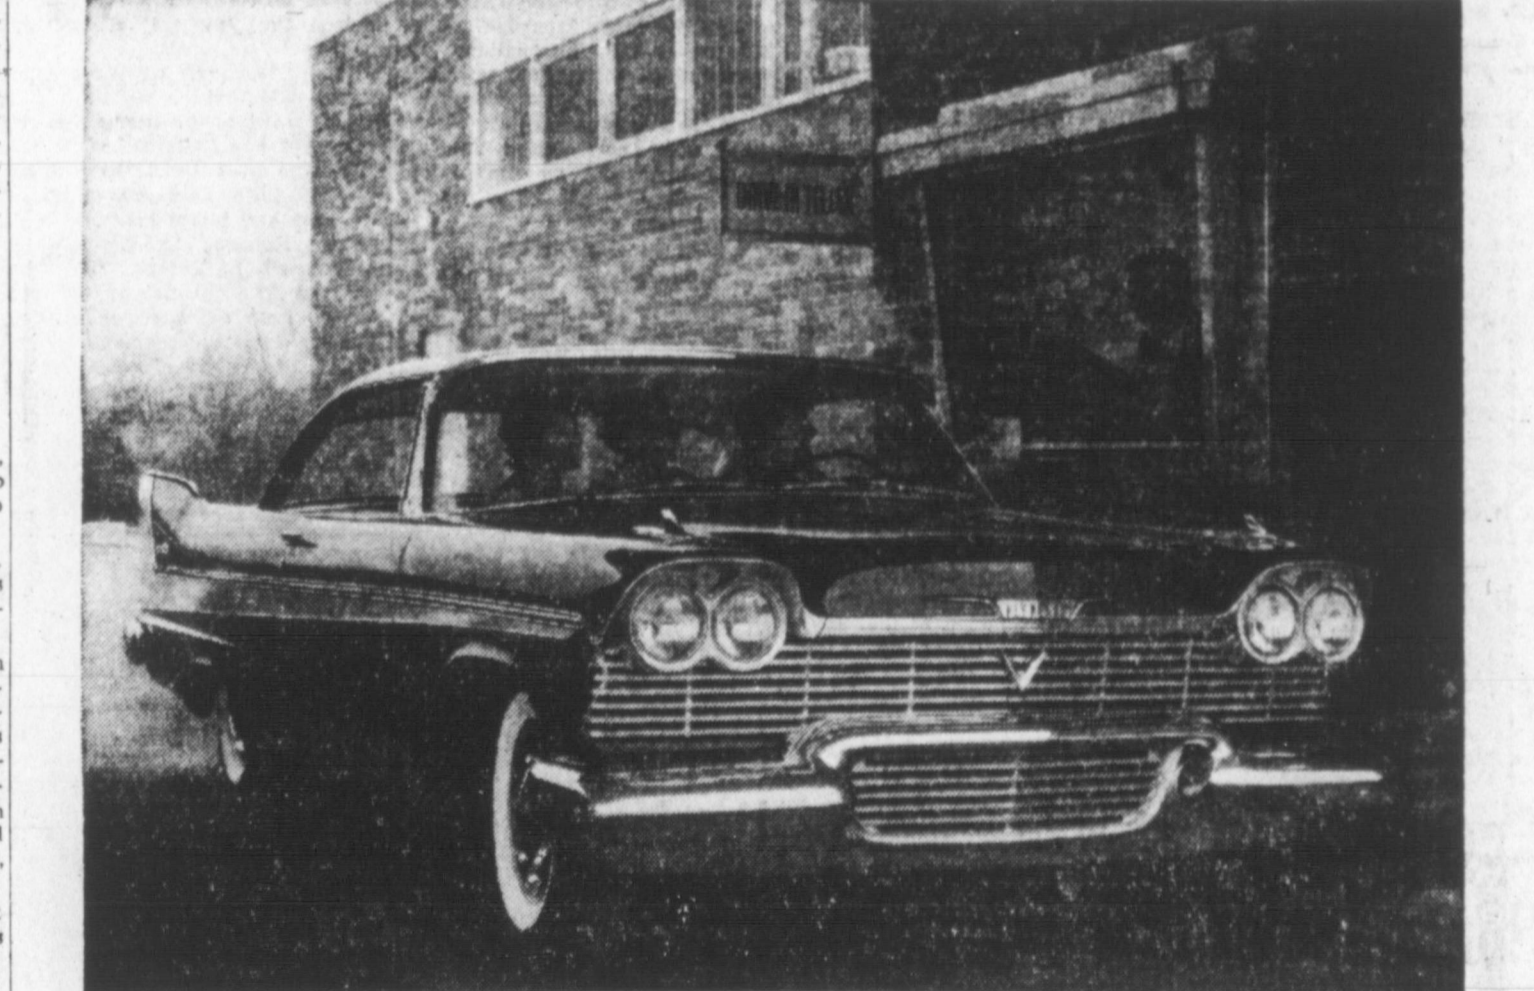

Gikas said that the Board would not meet in June or August but would hold a back yard supper July 8 and would resume regular meetings the second Tuesday in September.

Mrs. Shotwell gave the new officers and chairmen their orientation in which she reminded them that they were strictly volunteers.

Price For Eggs May Go Up

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department has said farmers are likely to get more for eggs in the next few months.

Egg prices weakened in April and early May but remained well above last year. The U.S. average price received by farmers in mid-May was close to 37.4 cents per dozen in mid-April and well above the prices in April and May of a year ago.

The department's "Poultry and Egg Situation" report pointed out that despite markedly higher egg prices this spring farmers are raising only about 6 to 8 per cent more replacement chicks than last year. The current laying flock contains more hens than usual, of which few will be retained for another laying year.

At the beginning of 1958, the laying flock contained 12 per cent fewer pullets than a year earlier. Therefore the 6 to 8 per cent increase in chickens raised will result in a much smaller percentage increase in next year's laying flock.

A Look Ahead At Future Headlines

By United Press International

United Press International correspondents look ahead at the news that will make headlines.

CARDINALS

Pope Pius XII is as reluctant as ever to call a consistory to elect new members to the badly-depleted College of Cardinals. Since the last consistory in 1953, the college has fallen by death to less than 60, out of a maximum of 70. But despite all reports that another will be called, most Vatican observers think the Pontiff, for his own reasons, does not want one right now. It's a good guess that when and if he does convoke a consistory, there will be one and possibly two additional red hats for the United States hierarchy.

ARMS RACE

Washington disarmament experts see signs Russia may really be weary of the all-out arms race and willing to seek progress towards ending it. One sign was Khrushchev's agreement on technical talks towards policing a nuclear weapons test ban; another was a little-noticed statement in his note to President Eisenhower emphasizing his willingness to accept certain zones for aerial inspection. But the United States is treading carefully. Some experts fear any arms control agreement might tempt the West to drop its guard. That, they warn, would be an almost fatal mistake.

AIR SCHOOL

Commercial aviation officials are trying to whip up congressional interest in a sort of civilian West Point of the air to train key flight and ground personnel. The hullabaloo over air safety in Washington last week should help the campaign.

PHILIPPINES

An anti-American campaign is getting up steam in the Philippines. Sparkplug is Senator Claro M. Recto, an unsuccessful presidential candidate last year and longtime critic of the United States. His latest argument is a charge that the United States is trying to set up missile bases in the islands behind the backs of Filipinos.

ANGLO-AMERICAN

The Anglo-American Alliance will cinch its bonds a little tighter. Badly ruptured during the 1956 Suez crisis and still suffering from a strong streak of anti-Americanism in Britain, relations have been getting increasingly friendlier on the official level. Next month's Washington trip by Prime Minister Harold Macmillan will increase the warm glow—particularly in light of what has been happening in France.

FRANCE

The United States will catch some brickbats in the French crisis. Many of the Algerian rebels feel the United States has let France down over the North African question. Jacques Soustelle, De Gaulle's right hand man in Algeria, never has hidden his anti-American feelings. He sounded off loudly against the United States in parliamentary debate last month.

The Squeeze On Your Pocketbook

By ROBERT SHORTEL

NEW YORK (UPI)—The dollar today is worth about 25 cents less than a decade ago.

This means that what $4 would have bought 10 years ago now costs you $5.

Inflation has socked Americans where it hurts the most—in the pocketbook. Gone are the nickel beers, phone calls, bus rides, and cigars. These items now cost two, three and even four times as much.

In this same postwar period, the tax burden on each American has jumped from around $375 to $658.

Rising prices and taxes have combined to put a squeeze on the average family. The Tax Foundation has figured out that the total tax burden now amounts to around one-third of family income.

"The average tax burden on a $3,500 income family is estimated at $1,058 (including hidden taxes); on a family with $4,500 income, $1,383 and on an $8,000 income family, $2,726," the foundation said.

The foundation, a non-profit group dedicated to more efficient government, said that in view of rising costs and taxes a single man who made $2,000 in 1946 would have to earn $2,931 today to be just as well off.

A married man with two dependents who made $2,000 in 1946 would have to earn $2,924.

Commenting on the tax burden of $658 per person, the foundation said that in what total tax receipts collected in fiscal 1958 worked out to on a per capita

French Political Crisis Is 'Lasting'

Foreign News Commentary
By CHARLES M. McCANN

The one sure thing about the French political crisis seems to be that it will last a long time. In the end, it may prove to be a good thing for France. Apparently it had to come. The French parliamentary system of government had been falling to pieces bit by bit due to the year-long succession of smaller crises which resulted in the overthrow of Premiers by the National Assembly.

Premier Pierre Pflimlin is fighting hard for his government's life. Dispatches from Paris emphasize more and more the odds against him. They say that he has almost no chance.

The alternative to Pflimlin, or to another parliamentary Premier whose position would be even weaker, is Gen. Charles de Gaulle, the great unknown of French and world politics.

doubt that the non-Communist unions would join the Red-controlled General Confederation of Labor in the strike.

The feeling seems to be that would accept De Gaulle calmly, if not gladly, as the one hope of ending the progress of political disintegration.

Whether there would be disorders on a serious scale nobody knows. The Communists certainly would be expected to foment riots.

Whether labor unions generally would join in them, and to what extent, is uncertain.

Formidable Force
De Gaulle would have control of the French armed forces and of the formidable army of police, totalling about 250,000 men including the Republican Security Guards and the Mobile Guards.

If Pflimlin stayed in office, he would have the herculean task of regaining authority over the rebellious armed forces. Then he would face the problem of the future of Algeria as his predecessors have done.

If De Gaulle took office he, too, would have problems—France's relations with its fellow North Atlantic Treaty Organization allies and with Soviet Russia, Algeria, Tunisia, Morocco.

It is possible that in time, he might find the armed forces a problem. It was the armed forces that overthrew this. A victory—De Gaulle would be above all a political victory for the French officer corps. And such a corps, having tasted political victory once, might not want to go back on a strictly military diet.

ALTHEA GOES ABROAD
NEW YORK (UPI)—Top-ranked U.S. woman tennis player Althea Gibson left for England Monday to defend her singles title in the Wimbledon Championships beginning June 23. Before competing at Wimbledon, she will defend her titles in the Surbiton International Tournament and the Manchester Tournament and play on the U.S. Wightman Cup team, June 13-14.

Little Known
About all that is known of De Gaulle—and this includes his own followers—seems to be that he wants very badly to be France's leader, with virtually dictatorial power, and that he would like to be put in office legally.

But De Gaulle would have handicaps too.

The Communists have made it known that they will call a general strike at once if De Gaulle is called to power. There is little

In today's hand Marshall Miles covers an interesting duplicate situation.

You are South and have made a sound non-vulnerable overall. You now find yourself in four spades doubled. You are sure from the bidding that the ace of diamonds is held by East so you count two diamond and three club losers. If you also lose a trump trick you will be down 500 for a very bad duplicate score.

You also note that East and West will play some heart contract at most other tables and will be unable to make four hearts if each one holds two spades. Hence, the only chance to get a decent duplicate score is to go down only two tricks against an uneven break in trumps.

If any one is going to hold three trumps it will be East. Then what is the best percentage play to keep from losing a trump trick?

The play is to get to dummy by ruffing a heart and to lead the spade jack. If this loses to a singleton queen you look like an idiot. If West's singleton is any one of the other three spades you lose no spade trick. You may have to go back to dummy again but there is another heart to ruff and you have plenty of time.

Twelve railroads cut freight rates for soft coal shipments in the Midwest. At the same time several eastern roads said they are considering cuts on hard coal rates. And a number of eastern carriers revealed that charges for cement shipments in the Northeast were slashed recently as much as 20 per cent to combat lower truck rates.

The treasury's short term borrowing costs eased again, dropping to the lowest level in nearly four years. The latest issue of 91-day treasury bills was marketed at 0.635 per cent, against 0.931 per cent last week.

Chrysler Corp. announced it will shut down 75 to 80 per cent of its production this week to adjust inventories. Some 10,000 workers will be affected in Detroit and Los Angeles.

The Internal Revenue Service has revoked an earlier ruling and held that unreimbursed expenses of a delegation to a church convention or an American Legion convention are deductible for income tax purposes as contributions. Previously, such expenses were not deductible.

Bear Gets Clean Bill Of Health

AUSTIN (UPI)—Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has ruled former Texas A&M football coach Paul (Bear) Bryant's contract for 1 per cent of gross receipts from Aggie football games legal.
Wilson said Tuesday his office had "carefully considered" legal questions brought up last week in a report by State Auditor C. H. Cavness.
"We have concluded," Wilson said, "that the contract does not violate any provisions of the state law."
He also said a transaction by which Bryant bought a home for $22,400, sold it to A&M for $30,000 and then received the home rent-free, was also legal.
Wilson said "It seems agreed by all parties concerned that the college received full value for the funds expended."
Bryant resigned after the 1957 season and took over at Alabama.
Wilson said a third question raised by Cavness concerning $7,214 paid to former A&M head basketball coach Ken Loeffler for the remainder of his contract after he left about a year ago was moot.
Wilson said Loeffler, "on being removed by the governing body of Texas A&M College, was paid the compensation called for in his contract."

BRACING POINT? — It looks as though Chuck Weyant made a mighty sudden stop on the Indianapolis Speedway in his elongated No. 89. Actually, the hood of the car was removed by mechanics making an adjustment of the engine. This set Weyant up for the famed 500-mile race on Friday, Memorial Day.

Gala '500 Is Big Blowout

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—Indianapolis tonight begins its official role as host to a quarter-million persons, mostly 500-mile race fans, with a restrained version of New Orleans' Mardi Gras.
The 500-mile event dates back to 1911 at Indianapolis Motor Speedway, but it was not until two years ago Indianapolis began to blossom with municipally sponsored dances, parades and other social appendages to the race itself on May 30.
Spokesmen for this second annual "500" festival say they wish to avoid what they diagnose as Louisville's "trouble" with its Derby festival—too many events. But they hope to produce something "comparable to the Mardi Gras or Pasadena's Tournament of Roses."
Tonight's opening event is a formal ball at the Indiana Roof. Thursday's crowded day begins with a mayor's breakfast in the Claypool Hotel at which former race winners are honor guests.
A Mardi Gras touch to the breakfast is importation of two New Orleans bartenders to serve gin fizzes, an unheard-of item on the normal Hoosier breakfast.
The parade with its 33 floats, 33 bands and 33 marching units winds through the downtown area beginning at 7:30 p. m. Thursday. The number is a reminder that 33 drivers start in the Friday race.
An assurance that all visitors will find a room at reasonable prices came from Joseph Cripe who heads the Indianapolis Convention Bureau. He said rooms start at $5 per person, but these are mainly in private homes.

Rathman Has Gold Glint In His Eyes

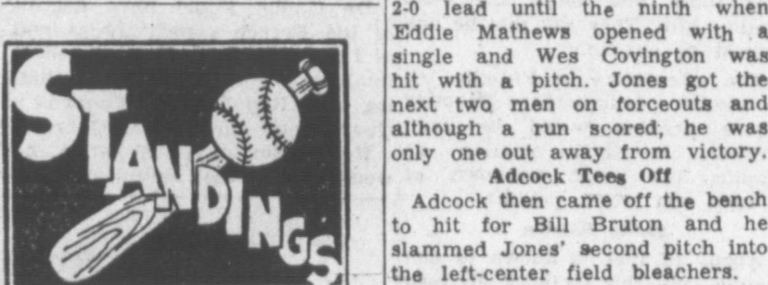

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI)—Dick Rathmann is so confident he will win Friday's 500-mile Speedway auto race that already he is counting his loot.
"I figure to go as fast as I can," said Rathmann. "I don't have any strategy, but there's less pressure in front and I'll try to stay there."
"There's only one way to drive here — flat out at high speed. These cars are built for speed. With the good equipment and crew, I think I have a good chance to win."
Rathmann is dead sure the race record of 135.60 miles per hour set by Sam Hanks last year will be shattered by "three or four miles."
"That goes for the first 10 laps," he said. The first few laps are the most dangerous since the field is still tightly bunched and there is more jockeying for positions.
Rathmann is counting on three pit stops to pick up fuel and new tires. This will be only his third "500," but he predicted it'll also be the toughest.
"I think Ed Elisian and Jimmy Reece will be pushing me," he said. Rathmann beat Elisian out of the pole spot and Reece is the other front-row tenant.
Rathmann, of Miami, Fla., finished fifth two years ago. In his maiden ride in 1950 he went only 25 laps before a broken oil line sidelined his machine.
He qualified last year, too, but couldn't start the race because of an eye injury.

Braves Lose '57 Flag But Hot After '58's

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
Some scoundrel walked right up and stole Milwaukee's 1957 world championship flag Tuesday night but the embarrassed Braves are making it quite clear no one is going to steal the 1958 pennant from them.
Whoever took the pennant unloosened the rope attaching it to the pole in left field, calmly lowered baseball's cherished banner of supremacy and fled into the night.
But if the Braves thought they were robbed, how do you think the Cardinals felt? bleachers.
Sam Jones of the Cards was coasting along with a two-hit, 2-0 lead until the ninth when Eddie Mathews opened with a single and Wes Covington was hit with a pitch. Jones got the next two men on forceful and although a run scored, he was only one out away from victory.
Adcock Tees Off
Adcock then came off the bench to hit for Bill Bruton and he slammed Jones' second pitch into the left-center field bleachers.
Adcock's homer enabled southpaw Warren Spahn to record his seventh victory against a single loss. Spahn yielded eight hits, including a homer by Curt Flood. Rip Repulski's three-run homer in the first inning powered the Phillies to a 5-1 triumph.

Milwaukee's Mop Up Guys Well Rested

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—The Milwaukee Braves pitching strength is keeping most of their relief pitchers leaning against the bull pen fence.
As of Monday, the Braves' starting hurlers had pitched 15 complete games and gone at least seven innings in 24 out of 35 games. Nine of the games needed only one relief pitcher, and since May 13, three pitchers have been used in one game only once in 13 games.
It's this type of balance that makes most observers feel that over a 154-game stretch, it will be the Braves that finish on top. The consensus is that while other mound stars will falter under doubleheaders and hot weather, the Braves will be able to maintain a steady level of good pitching.
No one is complaining about this type of situation in Milwaukee, but Ernie Johnson and Dick Littlefield are two of the five relief pitchers carried by the Braves who had been getting almost as much exercise picking up their checks as they have during the game.
With most of the starters going seven innings or more, the bulk of the relief work has gone to Don McMahon, who has a 1.13 earned run average in 16 innings. Littlefield, obtained from the Cubs at the start of the season, has been in only three games for a total of six innings.
Johnson also has been in three games, but only 1-3 innings.

Joey Named 2nd Ranking Middle

NEW YORK (UPI)—Joey Giardello, boxing's former "bad boy," was named second-ranking middleweight contender and "fighter of the month" today in the Ring magazine's latest ratings.
New Yorker Joe, formerly of Philadelphia, was lifted from fourth place to the number two notch, just beneath ex-champion Carmen Basilio, because of his impressive victory over Rory Calhoun at San Francisco, May 5.
Unbeaten in his last 20 stars, 27-year-old Giardello now is in position to challenge champion Ray Robinson in case Sugar Ray can not come to terms with top-ranked Basilio for a third title fight.
Joey has been a serious and successful fighter since his out-of-the-ring shenanigans in Philadelphia three years ago.
Meanwhile ex-champion Gene Fullmer, West Jordan, Utah, and frenchman Charley Humez, champion of Europe, dropped a notch each to third and fourth, respectively, because of inactivity.

Out Of The Past

Whatever Happened To...
Ira Rodgers
Ira Rodgers is hailed as the greatest name in West Virginia's sports history, largely for his exploits in football. During the 1919 season, he piled up a total of 397 points and led the nation in scoring. That year, too, he almost single-handedly carried West Virginia to its greatest football victory, 26-0 over Princeton. The late Walter Camp named him captain and fullback on the 1919 All-American team, seven of whose members now are in football's Hall of Fame.
Whatever happened to Ira Rodgers? He has been at his alma mater ever since his graduation in 1920, once was head football coach, and now coaches golf in addition to his duties as associate professor of physical education.

Cats Tie Tulsa For TL 2nd Spot

By United Press International.
Fort Worth edged into a second place tie with Tulsa Tuesday night by bumping the Oilers, 4-3 as fifth-ranked Dallas stopped Texas League leading Austin, 7-2. Cellular-dwelling Victoria outlasted Houston, 7-5, in 16 innings, and San Antonio took an extra frame to overcome Corpus Christi, 9-7.

Frank Thomas ... raps 3 hits over the first-place Giants.

Frank Thomas rapped out three hits and Ronnie Kline posted his sixth victory as the Pirates tripped the last-place Dodgers, 5-3.
Cincinnati Wins
Don Hoak's 10th inning single with the bases loaded off reliever Don Elston paced Cincinnati to a 4-3 win over Chicago. The Cubs scored all their runs off starter Brooks Lawrence in the fourth inning. Walt Moryn's two-run homer featured the rally. Jerry Lynch and Frank Robinson homered for the Redlegs. Reliever Hal Jeffcoat was the winner.
Over in the American League, the Kansas City Athletics hopped all over Bob Turley to beat the first-place New York Yankees, 7-3. Bob Cerv put the A's in front with a three-run homer in the first inning and the Yankees never were able to catch up as ex-teammate Jack Urban checked them on six hits. The defeat for Turley was his first after seven victories in a row and the six earned runs he allowed totaled as many as he had allowed all year. Elston Howard homered for the Yankees.

Early Wynn needed a helping hand from Gerry Staley in the ninth inning but he was credited with his fourth straight victory and fifth of the year as the White Sox topped the Senators, 7-3.
Despite Ted Williams' sixth homer of the season, the Detroit Tigers held on for a 3-2 win over the Boston Red Sox. Fast-baller Paul Foytack scored his fourth victory although Vito Valentini nailed down the final out of the game when he struck out Gene Stephens with runners on second and third.
The Cleveland Indians handed the Baltimore Orioles their sixth straight defeat, 7-4, in 10 innings. Reliever Billy O'Dell forced in the winning run when he walked Mickey Vernon with the bases full in the 10th. Baltimore starter Billy Loes had a 6-4 lead in the ninth but was lifted in favor of O'Dell, who yielded a two-run pinch homer by J.-W. Porter. That tied the score and reliever Hoyt Wilhelm went on to gain the victory. Billy Harrell and Gus Triandis also hit homers.

New Organization Supplies Eyeglasses For The Needy

By DOC QUIGG
SHORT HILLS, N.J. (UPI) — The good ladies who volunteer to staff the famed 25-year-old Short Hills community project "New Eyes For The Needy" are accustomed to receiving 30 mailbags full of donated eyeglasses every week.

But never before in one shipment such a whopper of a windfall as they've got now. This will be 175,000 specs — new and used frames and lenses — from New England, northern New York, and Tennessee. Collected by the Lions Clubs of those areas, they've been stacking up steadily for two years.

The target was to be India — for use by the poor. But suddenly, when the eyeglasses were assembled, it was discovered that the target wouldn't cooperate. The discovery was made by the Tewksbury, Mass., Lions Club, which had volunteered to supervise the drive. The Indian government required a duty on the shipment too high to be met.

So, the whole collection is going to "New Eyes For The Needy," the organization which got a powerful boost in its infancy from enthusiastic endorsement by such persons as Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt and the late Alexander Woolcott. It supplies eyeglasses to charity cases throughout the United States and in Africa, Indonesia, Burma, and the Philippines.

The Indian situation was explained by Mrs. Arthur Goat, chairman of the "New Eyes" group: "We ourselves sent glasses to India up to two years ago. We were able to get quantities of them in. But at that time, customs became so high and so difficult that the missionaries and hospitals — we were sending to about 15 of them — requested us to stop because they couldn't pay the fee."

The Lions Club shipment will go through the regular channels of the "New Eyes" organization. About 75 women, young housewives with children, work in the donated basement of Christ Church to handle the 300,000 contributed pairs of glasses received each year. Each woman, volunteering her services, works 2½ hours a week.

The plastic frame glasses are destined for overseas. They select the simple near and far-sight glasses and grade them as to strength. These go to hospitals and missions where there is no money for new glasses but where there's a doctor or nurse to fit them.

In this country, funds are set up in hospitals and welfare agencies for new prescription glasses. This is financed from selling the metal from the donated metal-framed glasses — along with odd bits of jewelry, cufflinks, and the gold and platinum of dentures that come in.

"We never ask for a cent," says Mrs. Goat, "never any donations of money — and if we get any we send them back. But glasses we want — addressed to New Eyes For The Needy, Short Hills 10, N.J. We are getting many more requests for help in 1958 than any other year."

MISSED PATENT
Elisha Gray invented the telegraph. He also is remembered because he just missed getting a patent on the telephone by filing in the Patent Office a few hours too late.

People Put 'Too Much Stress On Stress'

By DELOS SMITH
United Press Science Editor
NEW YORK (UPI) — People are putting much too much stress on stress, even people who should know better, said an internationally known medical scientist.

"To believe one is under stress or strain is easy and acceptable. Acceptable to doctors because it explains much that cannot be otherwise explained. Acceptable to patients because it excuses much that cannot be otherwise excused. And acceptable to drug houses because it provides a demand for drugs that would not otherwise be demanded."

However, continued Dr. Richard Asher, "speed and complexity" are not the same as "stress and strain."

An Old Problem
"Cavemen probably suffered as much strain over the problem of choosing the right cave as business men suffer today over choosing the right stocks," he said in lecturing a scientific audience in London.

"Tension," to him, "is a vague word." But if there has been any increase in "tension" due to modern living it "is more apparent than real. Under different names, it has troubled men for centuries." The difference now is that publicity has made it "respectable." His reference was to the tranquility produced by the tranquillizing drugs. "If there is any real increase in tension it may well be the result of tranquilizers because their withdrawal encourages the symptom to develop," he said.

Talk About Troubles
Tranquility can also be produced by massage, by heat, by "appropriate sights and sounds." There are many means of producing it, but it is "more logical to quieten a mind directly than by stupefying its physical casing."

The technique for that is psychotherapy. He said he had applied it to a young man and had been thanked for it by the young man's father in these words: "I think it's done him a lot of good being able to tell all his troubles to someone. When I was his age, I used to tell all my troubles to a large rubber duck, and it seemed a great help. I suppose you're much the same sort of thing."

This, said the eminent doctor, had made him feel "rather small"; it was "humbling" but it also was "enlightening." Tranquillizing psychotherapy is not applied simply by listening. "The doctor, however effective a rubber duck he may be, has to emit an occasional quack."

USS Skipjack Is Pace Setting Sub Says Adm. Burke

GROTON, Conn. (UP) — The USS Skipjack has launched a new generation of submarines. Adm. Arleigh A. Burke said Monday, when the Navy's latest atomic sub slid down the ways.

The Skipjack will join the two record-breaking atomic subs Skate and Seawolf in the growing nuclear-powered American fleet armed to "hunt down and kill enemy submarines."

At the launching of the whale-shaped Skipjack, Burke, chief of Naval operations, disclosed that the Skate and Seawolf set new endurance records by remaining submerged for more than 30 days. Burke warned that the Soviet submarine menace today was one of the greatest military threats facing this country.

But he said the Skipjack was armed with the most powerful anti-submarine weapons and detection equipment. It will have "unmatched speed, endurance and underwater maneuverability," he said.

AROUND THE WORLD

WHAT A RACKET!—To prove he's a funnyman, Max Patkin, left, uses a big, big racket. But Australian tennis star Lew Hoad showed he's twice the star by using two rackets to beat Patkin at a game of paddlecake in Cleveland, Ohio. The tennis players were clowning between matches of a professional tennis tournament there.

SHE'S ALL SET—Lovely Czech ice skating star Mira Slava teasingly gestured to have someone tie her lace as she arrived in New York. The performer who skated behind the Iron Curtain a few years ago had flown in for an engagement in a new night club. It's a fairly safe bet that someone else finished tying those laces.

PRINCELY GREETING—Britain's Prince Philip shakes hands with Manchester United player Ron Cope prior to the start of the English soccer cup championship match between that team and the Bolton Wanderers in Wembley. Manchester, six of whose star players were killed in a plane crash in Germany last February, was the favorite, but Bolton won, 2-0.

HOOP LA LA—Believe it or not, Ruth Whitlock couldn't find anyone to go to the beach with her in Miami. But she's an ingenious gal, and Ruth took an old-fashioned hoop along with her. It turned out she had a ball—or five—after all, so she wasn't too lonely.

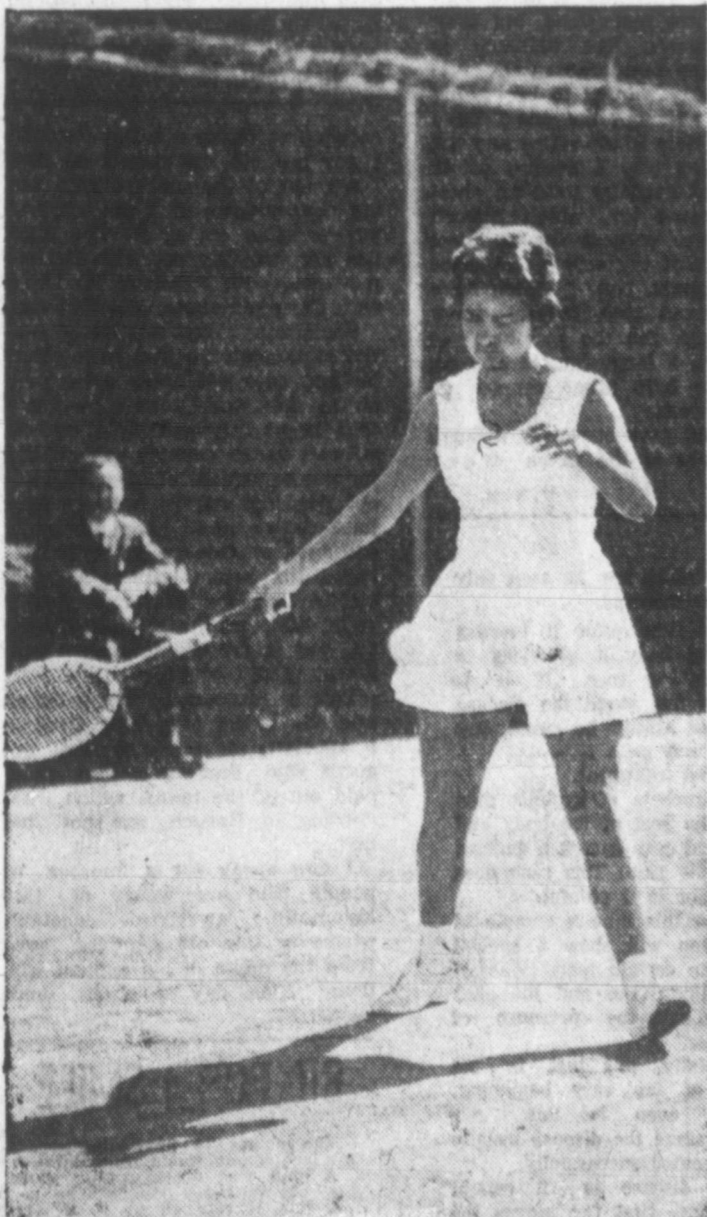

SHADY CHARACTER—A drizzle wasn't enough to keep actress Judy Holliday from playing ball with her show's team in New York's Central Park. Holding an umbrella for her is outfielder-singer David McDaniel. Catcher-singer Ben Raisin and umpire Phil Northrup seem to be unfazed by the innovation in baseball etiquette.

A CHALLENGER—The sleek yacht, Sceptre, representing Britain's first bid for the America Cup in 20 years, got its final coat of paint in Gosport. It will be shipped to the U.S. in July to be readied at Stamford, Conn., for the races in September.

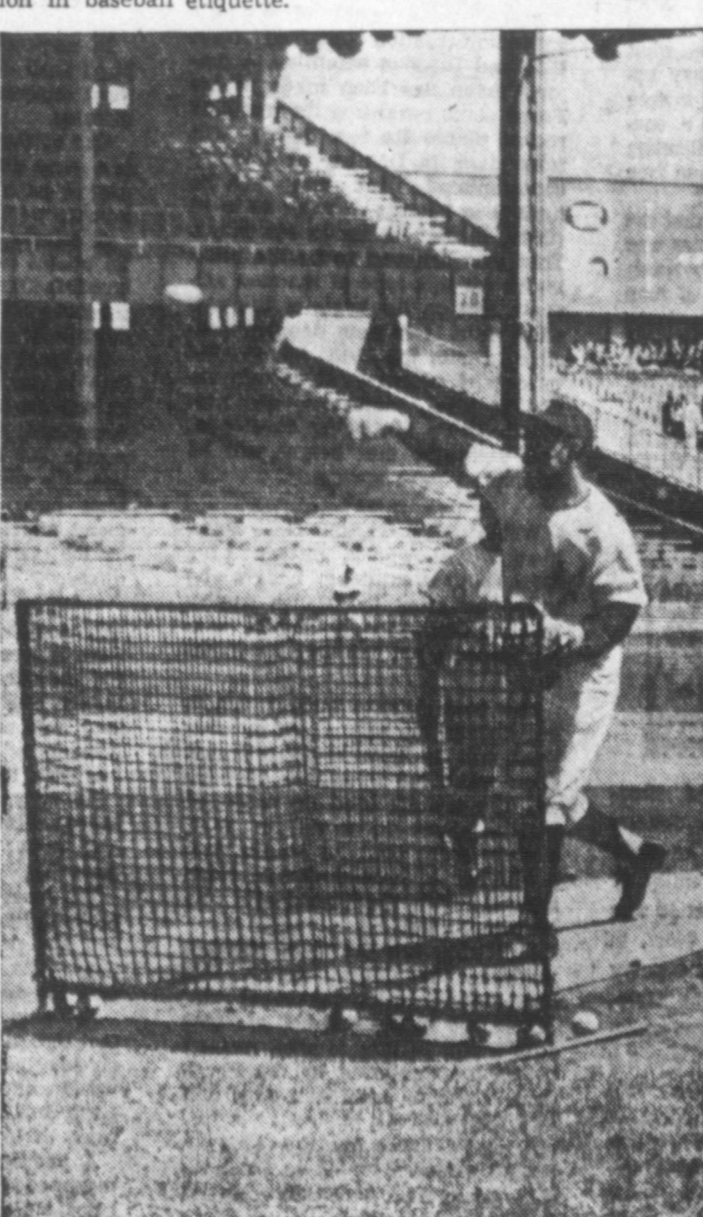

COOL WORKOUT—Australian miler Herb Elliott is racing underwater but isn't trying for any record. His workouts took place at a hotel pool in Los Angeles where he appeared in the Coliseum Relays. Just try smiling this way without getting a mouthful of water.

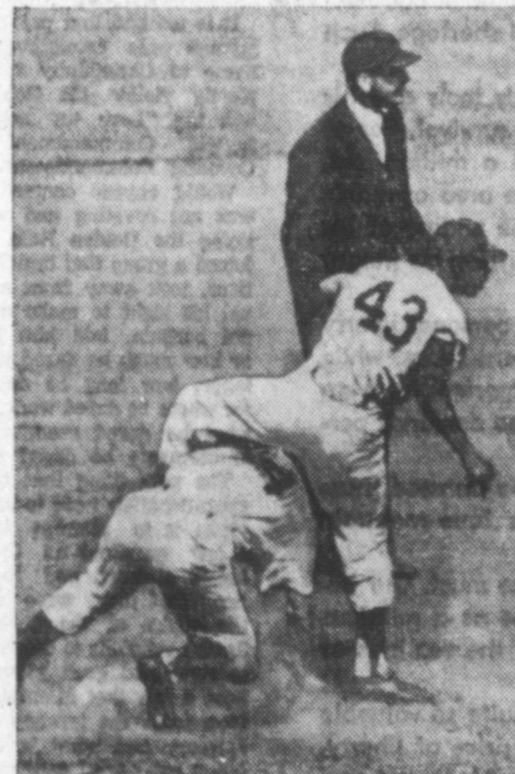

GRIM, AND BEAR IT—Yola Ramirez, of Mexico, didn't look very happy as she played in the quarter-finals of the women's singles during the International Tennis Tournament in Rome. Yola's determination won her a victory over Italy's Silvano Lazzarino, but she was defeated in the semi-finals.

SIZE OF IT—The long and the short of players in the Little League in West Los Angeles is clearly indicated by two team members. Brad Raisin, 10, is four feet, one inch tall, while Jim Cobrae, 12, is a six-footer. Brad's coach says he more than "measures up" on the ball field, however.

SCREENED OUT—Yankees' catcher Yogi Berra, in the unfamiliar role of pitcher, hurls from behind a protective screen during batting practice before a game between New York and Baltimore at Yankee Stadium. Berra got no more exercise during the day, however, as he did not play in the game.

NBC-TV's 'Twenty-One' Is A Beautifully Patterned Drama

By WILLIAM EWALD
NEW YORK (UPI)—My intention was to lead off with a review of "Studio One," but it seems to me the most beautifully patterned drama on TV Monday night took place on "Twenty One."

The quizzes have taken their lumps from the critics and I have lumped along with the best of them. But it must be said that when a well-constructed quiz clicks, its action can be as compelling as anything on TV.

NBC-TV's "Twenty One" was clicking hard Monday night when Vonnie Nardroff ran her pile to $218,500, the second highest boodle ever booted on TV. (Only Rob Strom, the boy science-master, who knocked off $224,000, now outranks her.)

"Twenty One" is built more cleanly than any quiz on TV. It sets man against question and man against man in a game that has levels of complexity, but few loose ends.

In a way, when "Twenty One" is working well, it's very much like a good play or poem or piece of music. It shuttles constantly between small tensions and small releases as each question is posed and answered. But it also has another level of larger tensions that underlie the entire game and which are resolved only when man has beaten man and the game is over.

However, what has happened pined with Charlie Van Doren—is that a third level now has been piled on. That extra level is a result of Miss Nardroff's crazy and wonderful refusal to bow out of the program, to take on all comers, a campaign that conceivably could relieve the entire nation of its third blood and the sponsor of his profits.

Monday night, Miss Nardroff made her 15th appearance on "Twenty One" and I would say she is a natural. She has a face with shine, a frame of some elegance and a personality that combines strength and softness, a pretty difficult posture for any woman.

She had tied a gentleman named Frederick Rein in four games on the show and Monday night they played their fifth. Their ties had been made of the stuff of agony and Monday night when Rein, a contestant of mild and serious mien, flubbed his big question, perspiration poured from my side of the screen as well as his.

"I'm sorry . . . I'm afraid I don't know," he mumbled, "I just can't think of it . . . I'm sorry." The climax of the drama occurred right there—although Miss Nardroff still had to tackle a question of her own to wrap it up. She did without much trouble, bibbed some water and it was all over. Curtain.

Next Monday, Miss Nardroff will be back for a possible crack at another contestant and I hope she continues her wacky quest for money that has really ceased to mean anything, what with taxes and all. I will be on hand and I think you should, too. Right now, "Twenty One," is pouring out some of the tastiest action that can be seen on the home screen.

CBS-TV's "Studio One" reeled off a mildly gripping piece, "The Enemy Within," last night about a training course at an Air Force survival school. Its trouble was that almost all of its conflicts were resolved by the simple passage of time—once the training course was over, most of the problems were. To put it even more simply, its flaw was that it was almost narrative, rather than dramatic. Dane Clark, Don DeFore and Dick York worked hard.

The Channel Swim: A one-hour polka show out of Chicago will be the ABC-TV summer replacement for Lawrence Welk's "Top Tunes and New Talent." . . . Tommy Sands, the young singer who whooshed to fame after an appearance on NBC-TV's "Kraft Theatre" last season, is ticketed in for a CBS-TV "Studio One" drama, "Hear the Wind Blow," on June 16.

Ed Sullivan will celebrate his 10th anniversary on CBS-TV June 22 with a show made up of kinoscopes from his best shows. Among some of the performers on kinnie: Victor Berge, Margaret Truman, Phil Silvers, Jackie Gleason and Sophie Tucker. There's a good chance some of these performers will appear live, too.

Rod Serling has sold another drama, "A Town Turned to Dust," to "Playhouse 90," his fourth entry on the CBS-TV show this season. It'll be slotted on June 19 . . . Johnny Gilbert will emcee "Music Bingo," the new NBC-TV quiz

Candidates To Speak At Lefors

(Special To The News)
LEFORS — All candidates for forth-coming elections in Gray County are going to present their platforms to the public at the regular Town Hall meeting of Lefors citizens, Thursday night, June 5, at 7:30 p.m. at the civic center.

Regular business will be carried out as usual.

The public is invited and urged to attend, according to J. R. Sparksman, chairman.

Guilty Plea Is Made By Mother

MARINETTE, Wis. (UPI) — A mother pleaded guilty late Monday to a charge of lewd and lascivious conduct after being accused of spending the night with a man while a farm home containing her five children burned down.

Her 18-month-old daughter died in the fire. Mrs. Ruby Wheeler, 33, entered the plea before Justice Charles Victor, who ordered her bound over to Circuit Court for pre-sentence investigation and a review of the circumstances. Mrs. Wheeler was placed in jail after entering the plea.

The mother and Warren Reimer, of the town of Pound, were accused of the same charge in separate warrants issued earlier by Dist. Atty. Harry E. White.

Reimer, however, still was sought by authorities.

White said his investigation showed that Mrs. Wheeler and Reimer spent Friday night in a hotel room in Crivitz, Wis., while the Wheeler's two-story house at Coleman, Wis., burned down.

Asparagus was first used as a medicine, and then as a food in the 17th century.

MILWAUKEE (UP) — Seven-year-old Tony Cloninger, previously signed to the Austin, Tex., Senators, will report to Eau Claire, Wis., of the Class C Northern League next week. Cloninger, who chalked up two no-hit games—one a perfect hurling job—for his North Carolina high school team this spring, was signed Thursday by the Milwaukee Braves.
