Private Little Rock Classes Open In Makeshift School

By BRUCE MILLER
United Press International
LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)—A teacher went to the back door of what used to be the University of Arkansas Graduate School today and told nearly 300 white high school senior students to come on in.

Thus started the first attempt of the Little Rock Private School Corp. to provide private, segregated classes with public contributions for Little Rock's white high school students.

Herschel Goodman, a member of the Private School Corp., said classes will organize today and school will let out early. He said regular classes will start Wednesday.

Goodman told newsmen that they would be allowed on the school ground and asked them not to interview any students. Idle Several Weeks

Nearly 300 students were registered, but W. C. Brashears, superintendent of schools for the corporation, declined to say exactly how many. "A few more will register today."

Negro leaders discussed an all-out assault on private school plans which would "save the public school system" for both races.

Schools Never Opened
More than 3,000 high school students have been idle for the past seven weeks because the four high schools have never opened. Gov. Orval Faubus kept the schools closed to keep them from being integrated. He blames the federal government for keeping them closed.

Negro leaders, meanwhile, turned thumbs down on proposals to start their own private schools.

"It would put the Negro in the position of supporting private schools and supporting segregation," said L. C. Bates, publisher, husband of the president of the Arkansas chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Consider Court Action
His wife and NAACP attorneys had been working over the week end on court action that would bring this situation to an end, and for all.

"It is ironic that the Negro has to be the one to save the public schools," Bates said.

School leaders have pointed out that if there is to be any chance of a full year of schooling, the public schools must be opened by Nov. 1.

NAACP lawyers have talked of filing an action to force the private corporation to open its doors to Negroes on the theory that the private schools are a substitute for public schools.

"These schools are open for one purpose — to defy the Supreme Court ruling," Bates said.

Dulles Launches Three-Day Talks Over Quemoy Crisis

By AL KAFF
United Press International
TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and President Chiang Kai-shek met for 2½ hours today. A spokesman for Dulles said it was logical to assume they discussed resumption of U.S. naval convoys for Nationalist ships supplying the Quemoy.

As they started the first of three days of talks on the Formosa Strait crisis, the Nationalist Defense Ministry reported that the Red Chinese had opened another artillery bombardment of offshore islands.

The ministry said the Communists poured a total of 3,313 shells into the Quemoy on this second day of renewed bombardment of the Quemoy after 15 days of quiet.

Joseph Greene, special assistant to Dulles, briefed newsmen at the end of the opening discussions at Chiang's mountain retreat near Taipei. He said he was not present at the talks, but was filled in afterwards.

Not Twisting Arm
Questioned whether Dulles proposed offshore island troop reduction, which Chiang opposes, Green said:

"Mr. Dulles is not out here to twist anyone's arm, apply any pressure or heat. That sort of thing is not compatible with the mutual trust and confidence which governs our relations."

Asked if the question of the United States resuming its naval escort of Nationalist supply ships to Quemoy was considered, Greene replied: "I would imagine that matter was encompassed in the general review of the military situation."

Nationalist government spokesman Sampson Shen issued this statement after today's meeting: "The two sides made a preliminary exchange of views on problems of mutual interest. The meetings will be resumed tomorrow."

Dulles came here to discuss with Chiang and other leaders ways to strengthen U.S.-Nationalist Chinese relationships. On this score, Greene told reporters that "the keynote of the talks was set in what Dulles said upon arrival in Taipei his morning."

This referred to Dulles' statement that "our consultations are not aimed at reaching any new agreement."

"We hope through re-examination further to consolidate a relationship of mutual trust and confidence which is of immense value (See DULLES, Page 2)

ALL KINDS OF ACCUSATIONS

Ike Mounts New Attack To Verbally Blast Demos

By MERRIMAN SMITH
United Press International
LOS ANGELES (UPI)—President Eisenhower today mounted a new attack on the Democrats, accusing them of everything from economic pocket-picking to being politically nutty.

The Chief Executive, as he carried the Republican congressional campaign up the West Coast north to San Francisco, seemed convinced through his choice of unusually tough words, that Vice President Richard M. Nixon had the right idea in letting the opposition have it with both barrels.

Not since his own 1956 re-election campaign had Eisenhower employed such harsh labels for his political opposition as he did here Monday night in the first major speech of his current cross-country tour.

He said the Democrats were suffering from "political schizophrenia." He said they were

Asks Financial Help
Furthermore, he told an audience of 6,700 GOP precinct workers — and the state Republican campaign slate — that unless they put more effort and money into the current campaign, the Democrats would be unchecked in "pursuing economic and political goals at odds with American tradition."

"The opposition record is one of ever higher taxes — of dollars worth fifty cents — of sky-high prices — of an economy harassed into producing fewer jobs, chronic unemployment, labor strife and fear of the future," he said. "If you don't want that kind of government again, work for a Republican victory."

Calls For Harmony
Eisenhower did his best in personal contacts and in his speech to smooth relations between Sen. William F. Knowland, running for governor, and Gov. Goodwin J. Knight, seeking Knowland's vacated Senate seat. Both candidates applauded when the President said, "Let's have no more family bickering," but there was no sign of a working Knowland-Knight alliance coming out of Eisenhower's two days in California.

Both Knowland and Knight, along with Rep. Pat Hillings, the GOP candidate for state attorney general, were to accompany the President to San Francisco today for two GOP meetings. Knowland introduced the President Monday night. It was Knight's turn today.

Lauds Nixon
While calling for the election of Knowland, Knight and Hillings, the President Monday night also was unusually laudatory of Nixon, who campaigned in California last week.

Possibly mindful of Nixon's chances for the GOP presidential nomination in 1960, the President said all over the country, but particularly in California, it behooved all voters to stick with the Republicans because of the GOP record over the past six years.

Dulles Has Really Flown

WASHINGTON (UPI)—When Secretary of State John Foster Dulles arrived in Formosa today for talks with President Chiang Kai-shek of Nationalist China he had logged more than enough air miles during his six years in office for a round trip to the moon.

The unofficial total for America's jet-age foreign minister when his plane touched down at Taipei, Formosa, read approximately 522,226 miles of air travel since January, 1953.

Of this 447,553 has been abroad and 74,673 within the United States.

A round trip to the moon, even at the "fastest point" of its orbit from earth, would measure only about 505,000 miles.

America's traveling 70-year-old statesman, who is called an unguided missile by his enemies and a dynamic peacemaker by his friends, chalked up another first on this trip when he flew over the North Pole region in an all-jet transport on the England-Alaska leg of his flight from Rome, Italy, to Taipei.

Reds Are Sought In Thailand
BANGKOK, Thailand (UPI)—Field Marshal Sarit Thanarat, who seized power in Thailand in a bloodless coup d'etat Monday night, today began a roundup of the Communists who he says threaten the nation's security.

More than 100 police patrols fanned out across the city at 1:30 a.m., seeking suspected Reds. Chinese-language newspapers were a particular target of the dragnet, and it was reported that some newspapermen had been picked up for questioning.

Police predicted that the roundup would bring in a number of high-ranking army and police officials. It was impossible immediately to determine whether any prominent leftist politicians are under arrest.

The roundup followed Monday's seizure of power by Sarit's Revolutionary Party, which charges that Communist subversion had become a threat to the nation.

The field marshal, who had been supreme commander of the armed forces, declared martial law, scrapped the constitution and dissolved the national assembly.

He announced over Radio Thailand that his revolutionary party will rule the country until further notice.

The coup came six hours after Premier Thanom Kittikachorn had resigned, declaring that he "could not conduct the affairs of the state with the desired results."

A government broadcast said Thanom agreed to Sarit's seizure of power.

YOU'RE NEVER TOO YOUNG!

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)—Even children are getting ulcers these days, President-elect Dr. Joseph Shalken of the American College of Gastro-Enterology reports.

Ulcers in youngsters are a result of tension from unsatisfactory family situations, difficulties with playmates, trouble at school and even imaginary difficulties, Shalken told the group's annual convention Monday.

PAMPA MAN IS GIVEN THREE YEAR SENTENCE

A district court jury deliberated almost 90 minutes Monday night before returning a guilty verdict against Edgar Lee Blair, 36-year-old Pampa resident, charged with sodomy.

Judge Lewis M. Goodrich, 31st judicial district, sentenced Blair to three years in the state penitentiary at Huntsville.

Monday's trial, first on the fall jury term docket, lasted just two hours. Ten witnesses took the stand including Sheriff Rufe Jordan, Blair himself and an eight-year-old girl.

Four of the witnesses were called by District Attorney Bill Waters, Defense Attorney Reynold Gardner, Amarillo, called six persons, most of whom testified to Blair's character.

The 12-member jury retired at 7:35 p.m. and returned its verdict at 9 p.m. Jurors were John B. Rice, W. L. Watson, Frank Howard and Mrs. Joe Graham, all of McLennan; and Mrs. E. M. Keller, Mrs. Joe Donaldson, J. E. Tatum, W. L. Bruce, James Robert Brown, Mrs. Melton O. Burns, J. P. Herring and Mrs. John Schoolfield, all of Pampa.

Could Not Escape
"If I am found guilty," she said, "in time they'll find out I am innocent and then they'll know they made a big mistake. I think someone else was in on this thing from the beginning."

She would not elaborate on who she thought the "someone else" was.

Caril said she could not escape from Starkweather during his slaying spree because "he had a knife and gun" and "would have killed me if I'd tried."

She said that after the slaying of Jensen and two others in the Bennet area she tried to persuade Starkweather to surrender, but he said "one more killing wouldn't make any difference."

First Boy Friend
Starkweather was her first "steady boy friend," Caril said. She added her parents, who were among Starkweather's victims, didn't approve of the red-haired garbage collector but did not forbid her from seeing him.

She said their main recreation was going to movies and horseback riding because "he was too bow-legged to go dancing."

"I think he's crazy," she told reporters. She said she does not love him nor feel sorry for him.

Caril also denied rumors that she had been pregnant and said, "I've never had a baby."

Dist. Atty. Elmer Scheele has said he has a "drawer full" of evidence linking Caril with the Jensen murder. Her trial was delayed while her attorney sought unsuccessfully to have her tried in juvenile court instead of district court where she is liable to the death penalty if convicted.

RESIGNS—Dr. Riccardo Galeazzi, physician to the late Pope Pius XII, had his resignation readily accepted by the Cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church after he, as director of the Vatican Health service, sold his "diary" of the Pope's last hours for publication. See story on page 3.

Quads' Pop Hopes For Bigger Home

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI)—The surprised, and pleased, father of newborn quadruplets said today he hopes he can find a bigger house before the new family comes home from the hospital.

There were already six little girls in the Edward Englehart's five-room, three-bedroom, home when Mrs. Laura Englehart, 34, gave birth Monday to two boys and two girls.

"It kind of took me by surprise," said Englehart, 32, who earns about $65 a week driving a street sweeper for the city of Richmond.

"The doc said something about twins, but I wasn't expecting a litter."

Despite the housing problem and the strain on the budget, Englehart said, the older children "think it is something grand" and he does, too.

As for Mrs. Englehart, "she still can't believe it," her husband said.

But the parents, surprised once before by twins, came up quickly with names for the new arrivals: Evelyn Grace, Edna Gay, Edwin George and Edward G. Englehart Jr.

Englehart said he plans to keep right on working every day but will begin looking "right away" for a larger house. "Seven rooms ought to do all right."

He said he expects to have several weeks to look and move before the youngsters are released from the hospital, where they are all reported doing fine in incubators. They weighed between 2 pounds 11 ounces and 4 pounds at birth.

The other children are Maria, 10, Beverly, 9, Gloria, 5—Mrs. Englehart's children by a previous marriage. The Engleharths have 4-year-old twins, Kathleen and Josephine, and Mary Jane, 2½.

to all of the free world," Dulles said.

The newsmen questioned Greene on whether Dulles' 10-minute telephone conversation Monday after the Communists initially broke their own self-imposed cease-fire had affected the secretary's approach to Chiang. Dulles called the President in Denver during a stopover in Fairbanks, Alaska, while en route here from Europe. It was decided then for him to continue here despite the renewed Red bombardment.

"There was no change in the purpose of the talks," Greene said.

Greene said there was no set agenda for the Dulles-Chiang talks, but that a second meeting will be arranged for Wednesday when the two leaders meet at dinner tonight.

Communist guns lobbed shells at the tiny outpost island of the Quemoy group today, but with nothing like the fury of Monday's attack. The Chinese Nationalist Defense Ministry reported that 352 shells fell on the islands during the hours between midnight and noon.

Dulles arrived at 10:13 a.m., winding up a trail-blazing flight in a converted jet tanker over the North Pole from Europe, where he had attended funeral services for the late Pope Pius XII and conferred with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd.

Attends Embassy Briefing

He went at once to the U. S. Embassy for a briefing which was attended also by Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, who flew in from Japan 2½ hours before Dulles arrived, and Gen. I. D. White, U. S. Army commander in the Pacific.

While the Communist guns thundered, the Red radio alternated snarls of "Americans go home or we will bury you" with declarations that the Communists still want a "peaceful settlement" of the Formosa crisis.

Broadcasts from Peiping reiterated the Red charge that the bombardment was resumed because U. S. warships were once again conveying supply ships to Quemoy—a charge denied officially in Washington and by officials and unofficial observers here.

"The Americans who are brazenly hanging around on Taiwan (Formosa) must clear out and go home," one broadcast said. "If they refuse to do this, the whole Chinese people, including patriotic military men and civilians on Taiwan, Penghu (the Pescadores), Quemoy and Matsu will certainly bury them in the Taiwan Strait."

Another broadcast assailed the Nationalists for "rejecting the proposal for peace talks and showing no signs of repentance."

This was a reference to the steadfast Nationalist refusal to negotiate with the Communist conquerors of their homeland.

Officer Had Been Banned From Bar

NEW YORK (UPI)—The maddened off-duty policeman who methodically shot four patrons of a Broadway restaurant-bar in the head early Sunday had been banned from the place for drunkenly annoying the customers, police said Monday night.

Patrolman James B. McDermott had been told by owner Lou Olman of the Pic-A-Rib restaurant to stay away because he became boisterous when drinking and bothered the other customers, police Inspector Frederick Lussen said.

Police were inclined, however, to discount the possibility that McDermott may have been driven by vengeful feelings against Olman when he stalked into the bar and killed the four persons, three of whom McDermott knew.

Police also were investigating the possibility that McDermott owed money to one of his victims, loan shark Edmund Leahy, but McDermott's wife, mother, and his four children, said she did not know of any such debts. The best explanation appeared today to be simply that McDermott had suddenly gone mad, possibly from a head injury received in an auto accident last year.

McDermott still was in critical condition today at Roosevelt Hospital.

Missing Bodies Are Discovered

ALPINE, Tex. (UPI)—The charred bodies of two Odessa businessmen, missing since Sept. 30, have been found near the wreckage of their fire-raked plane at Del Norte Gap, in the rugged, sparsely-populated Big Bend country of West Texas.

Brewster county Sheriff Jim Skinner said the bodies of Doss Millasp, 47, and Elvis Walker, 41, were brought here Monday night. They were identified by rings on their fingers.

The businessmen took off Sept. 30 on an aerial tour of the Presidio area, hit by Rio Grande floodwaters.

The bodies and wreckage of the private plane were found on the Combs ranch, about 20 miles southwest of Marathon, Tex. The sheriff said the plane dug a hole in the level stretch of ground nine inches deep and six feet across, bounced 87 feet, caught fire, and both tanks exploded.

MUFFLING THE THUNDER — All set for a full-power ground test, a supersonic F-105 Thunderchief is hooked up to a giant silencer stretching out behind it. The new $250,000, two-story muffer is claimed to reduce the roar of the 20,000-pound thrust J-75 engine to a low-pitched moan. Normal conversation can be carried on a dozen feet away even while the jet is going full blast during tests. The front section of the muffer, fronted by two six-ton doors, has a perforated metal liner backed by compressed glass fiber. The liner, aided by air drawn in through the 35-foot-high stacks, absorbs most of the noise. The remainder is funneled to the muffler tank and blown out through an exhaust stack. Special restraining devices under the plane hold it in place. The muffler system, which is portable, is said to be more than 12 times as effective as previous models. It was recently unveiled at Republic Aviation's field at Farmingdale, N.Y.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

Under the proposal there would be a limitation of Eighty Dollars per month on payments to a Ranger or his widow. The pensions could be paid only from the Confederate veterans pension fund, which is already in existence and is kept up by a State ad valorem property tax levy of two cents per hundred dollar valuation. The State Building Fund is currently being maintained from the same source.

Proposed Amendment Number Seven would strike from the Texas Constitution the original 1876 provision which prohibits the Legislature from appropriating public money for any purpose of bringing immigrants to the State. Substituted would be an authorization for the Legislature to appropriate money and establish procedure for developing information about the historical, natural, agricultural, recreational and other resources of Texas.

Funds might also be appropriated for the purpose of informing persons and corporations of other states through advertising in periodicals having national circulation, and the dissemination of factual information about the advantages and economic resources offered by the State of Texas.

Pictures of living state officials could not be used in any of such advertising. The Legislature would be authorized to require that any sum appropriated under the new provision be matched by an equal sum from private sources before being paid out.

Proposed Amendment Number Eight would empower the Legislature to provide for direct payments for medical care in addition to the amount paid in the form of direct public assistance to needy recipients of Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Blind, Aid to Dependent Children or Aid to the Permanently and Totally Disabled.

State funds paid out for such medical care could not exceed those paid out of Federal funds for the same purpose; and the Legislature would be authorized to accept financial aid from the Federal Government for those purposes.

Proposed Amendment Number Nine authorizes the creation of Hospital Districts in the City of Amarillo and in Wichita and Jefferson Counties. The first two districts would extend to the respective city and county boundaries, but two separate districts could be set up in Jefferson County. One of these would cover the Port Arthur Independent School District and other would cover the remainder of the county. All of the districts would be supported by taxes upon property within their boundaries.

Transports Lift US Paratroopers Back To Germany

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI)—Huge transport planes airlifted American paratroopers back to Germany Monday in the final phase of the U.S. troop withdrawal from Lebanon. Informed sources said the evacuation should end this week.

British troops who went into Jordan at the same time the United States was moving to aid Lebanon began pulling out today. British military spokesman Maj. Ron Challoner said in Amman that the first shipload embarked at Aqaba and that more troops will leave for Cyprus every day for the next few days.

That's What The Man Said; Fred's A Gifted Warbler

By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI)—I hate using the word "class." It's a word that has almost lost its meaning, having been applied to everything from Grace Kelly to white wall tires.

However, there's no escaping the fact that last Friday's NBC-TV special, "An Evening With Fred Astaire," meant its air of distinctive class. Fred Astaire, exuded class. By class, I mean its air of distinctive elegance, its aura of polish, ease and taste.

Astaire is one of the great entertainers of our time. He is a dancer whose body seems to have been built out of some sort of graceful spring. Even in repose, his body appears to be coiled, waiting to unleash energy. But when that energy is unleashed, it is released with intelligence and purpose. The most ordinary female dancer who falls into Astaire's arms for a short whirl looks good.

But Astaire is not only a great dancer, he also is a great singer. Yes, lady, I said a great singer. He doesn't have much of a voice, but singing isn't made up entirely of voice. Witness, say, the late recordings of Lotte Lehmann or the current Frank Sinatra.

In Astaire's case, his greatness as a singer stems from his complete kenning of each lyric, his ability to stamp his own identity on a song without wrenching it and the bifurcated electricity that he shoots through each tune. Friday night, he trotted out such nourishments as "Foggy Day," "Top Hat," "It's A Lovely Day" and "Dancing Queen To Cheek" and he delivered them in the sort of style that TV too often lacks.

That style was evident in all departments of the show: In the fluent outpourings of Jonah Jones and his quartet; in the willowy muscularity of Barrie Chase, Astaire's dancing partner; in the unhurried and clean direction of Bud Yorkin. All in all, one of TV's finer moments.

The Channel Swim: NBC-TV has insisted that Dean Martin continue his future TV appearances to NBC-TV. As a result, Martin was forced to turn down a shot on ABC-TV's "77 Sunset Strip" and has told CBS-TV he can't appear on their proposed Debbie Reynolds spectacular next spring.

NBC-TV's "An Evening With Fred Astaire" racked up an 18.9 Trendex Friday night to out-edge its CBS-TV and ABC-TV competition. Jacques Tati, the great French comic, will drop in on the ABC-TV "Peter Lind Hayes Show" Oct. 29. Bob Hope is inked in for Eddie Fischer's Christmas week show on NBC-TV.

CBS-TV's "U.S. Steel Hour" will tape on Nov. 15 "One Red Rose For Christmas," a drama with Helen Hayes that will be slotted on Dec. 17. ABC-TV's "Bold Journey" will visit Albert Schweitzer's home in the Belgian Congo on Nov. 10.

Cardinals Accept Resignation

United Press International
ROME (UPI)—The cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church Monday accepted the resignation of Dr. Riccardo Galeazzi-Lisi, physician to the late Pope Pius XII, as director of the Vatican health service.

The swift action of the group administering affairs of the church until a new pope can be elected followed a far-reaching outcry against Galeazzi-Lisi's action in selling his "diary" about the last hours of Pope Pius XII to the world press.

Underlining their acceptance of the resignation of the man who for a quarter of a century was the late Pontiff's physician, the cardinals declared that the post as "archiatro" (chief physician) of the Vatican was vacant.

Vatican sources said that Galeazzi-Lisi also had been formally barred from Vatican City by the cardinals.

The sources said Galeazzi-Lisi handed in his resignation to the appropriate Vatican office this morning and that it included his resignation as honorary major and medical officer to the papal palatine guard.

Vatican sources said that in the letter of resignation in which Galeazzi-Lisi sent to Eugene Cardinal Tisserant, dean of the sacred college, the former papal doctor said he was resigning in order to be more free to defend himself against the accusations leveled at him by the Rome Medical Assn.

This group scheduled a meeting for today to decide whether Galeazzi-Lisi violated professional ethics by writing newspaper and magazine articles describing the last moments of the late Pope.

US Hopes Talks Will Bring End To All Tests

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States has told Russia it sincerely hopes that Big Three talks beginning in Geneva Oct. 31 will lead eventually to "the final termination" of all nuclear weapons tests.

The United States, in a note delivered at the Soviet Foreign Ministry, rejected a Russian proposal that foreign ministers attend the Geneva talks from the beginning. The note said that Secretary of State John Foster Dulles would be prepared at a later date if "the presence of foreign ministers seems necessary and desirable."

The note reiterated President Eisenhower's Aug. 22 proposal for a year-to-year test suspension if sufficient progress is made on an international control and inspection system and other phases of disarmament.

The U.S. note was released by the State Department. At the same time, Britain informed Moscow that it will attend the conference but also made it clear that foreign ministers should sit in only at a later date when top level discussions would be required.

The U.S. note said the American government "considers that an agreement for the suspension of nuclear weapons testing under international control should be worked out as rapidly as possible."

The American note made it clear that the United States is sticking by its conditional year-to-year offer. The U.S. noted that the Soviet Union had said the aim of the conference should be to end atomic and hydrogen bomb tests "by all states forever."

Then the note added that it was the "sincere hope" of the United States that the Geneva talks would "make sufficient progress to justify expectation that the final termination of all nuclear test explosions may in due course be achieved."

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: There are two fellows I am in love with. They both play football for the Philadelphia Eagles. One plays halfback and the other plays right tackle. I wrote to them, but never got an answer from either of them. I tried to call them on the telephone, but couldn't get them. I don't know if they are married or going steady or anything about them, but they sure got me shook. Please tell me how I can meet them?

"FOR THE EAGLES" DEAR FOR: You may be "for the Eagles," but your behavior is for the birds. If you want to score, you will have to let the fellows make the passes.

DEAR ABBY: I am a fifteen-year-old girl and my problem is I want my own bedroom. I am expected to share a bedroom with my brother who is 12. It isn't because we don't have a big house, either because we have. My mother has two extra bedrooms. One is full of old furniture and piled to the ceiling with empty boxes and junk but she is too lazy to clean it out. The other one she uses for a sewing room but she never sews. Can you tell me if I am wrong in complaining?

FIFTEEN DEAR FIFTEEN: You are definitely NOT wrong. You should not be expected to share a bedroom with your 12-year-old brother. Offer the room full of junk (and I'll bet your brother would help, too) and enlist the support of your father on the project.

DEAR ABBY...

DEAR ABBY: There are two fellows I am in love with. They both play football for the Philadelphia Eagles. One plays halfback and the other plays right tackle. I wrote to them, but never got an answer from either of them. I tried to call them on the telephone, but couldn't get them. I don't know if they are married or going steady or anything about them, but they sure got me shook. Please tell me how I can meet them?

"FOR THE EAGLES" DEAR FOR: You may be "for the Eagles," but your behavior is for the birds. If you want to score, you will have to let the fellows make the passes.

DEAR ABBY: I am a fifteen-year-old girl and my problem is I want my own bedroom. I am expected to share a bedroom with my brother who is 12. It isn't because we don't have a big house, either because we have. My mother has two extra bedrooms. One is full of old furniture and piled to the ceiling with empty boxes and junk but she is too lazy to clean it out. The other one she uses for a sewing room but she never sews. Can you tell me if I am wrong in complaining?

FIFTEEN DEAR FIFTEEN: You are definitely NOT wrong. You should not be expected to share a bedroom with your 12-year-old brother. Offer the room full of junk (and I'll bet your brother would help, too) and enlist the support of your father on the project.

DEAR ABBY: I am one of those foolish women you read about who let a man waste eight years of her Reach for a can of rich, golden pumpkin or squash and make a pumpkin pie for dinner. With cool, invigorating weather there comes a yen for home-baked pies, and pumpkin is a top choice.

It's always good served plain, but for special occasions add a conversation-making topping. Shredded or flaked coconut, well drained crushed pineapple, cranberry sauce flavored whipped cream or toasted sesame seed are some extra good suggestions.

Pumpkin Pie With Coconut
 3 eggs 1 1/2 cups canned pumpkin, or squash
 1/2 cup sugar 1 cup evaporated milk
 1/2 teaspoon ginger 1 cup water
 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg 1/2 cup Pastry
 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon 1/2 cup shredded or flaked coconut
 1/2 teaspoon salt

Mix well beaten eggs, sugar, spices, salt and pumpkin. Add milk and water and stir until mixture is smooth. Pour into a 9-inch pastry lined pie pan. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees) 45 to 55 minutes, or until mixture is firm and crust is well browned. Cool slightly and sprinkle with coconut. One 9-inch pie.

Lasses Who Wear Glasses Need Few Baubles To Complement Pretty Frame

By ALICIA HART
 NEA Beauty Editor

The girl who wears glasses most likely does not, in this year 1958, consider them a handicap in any way. She probably has several frames in assorted colors and shapes and some really outstanding ones for evening.

She knows that her eyes are too valuable to risk in eyestrain by going without her glasses. But she should also face up to the limitations that glasses impose upon her. Glasses in themselves are shiny. The frames have color and perhaps shiny metal trim or even rhinestones. If you add to this, as many girls mistakenly do, earrings, a necklace, a fancy hairdo and a hat with tussy veil or glitter, the effect is fuzzy, not pretty.

Keep it simple if you want to look pretty. Wear earrings if you like, but skip the veil and the necklace on the same day. Keep your hairdo simple and flattering and remember that you cannot wear every hairstyle that comes along.

You'll look and feel far better if you regard your glasses as ornaments in themselves.

If you're a gal who wonders how a friend of yours who makes an equal salary can dress so well, sit down and do a little figuring.

Are you an impulse buyer? That is, do you wander through the stores and pick up, on impulse, a skirt that's on sale, a nightgown that's shopworn and therefore has been reduced, a dress in an odd color that fits with nothing in your present wardrobe? Do you own loads of scarves and hats and costume jewelry but find that your budget won't permit you to buy a winter coat that you really need?

If so, it's time to take yourself in hand. Sit down and make a list of your present and future needs. Then resolve that you will buy nothing but the things on the list. Check each off as you buy it. And as you walk through a department store and are tempted, think of your list.

You'll find you're able to pass up all those knockdowns that cost you so dearly in the terms of being well-dressed.

A comb does not replace a brush in taking care of your hair. In fact, many girls with beautiful, glossy hair are adept at parting and arranging their hair with a brush. A comb is meant merely to straighten a part; it's brushing that gives your hair gloss and that brushed, healthy look.

Keeping feet looking pretty is doubly important during open shoe months. Cracked and calloused heels need special treatment. Begin by scrubbing them vigorously with a stiff brush to dislodge dead cuticle. Apply a softening cream after each bath, and at night you can tie on little heelcaps to keep cream from messing bed linens.

'To Use Or Not' Question Settled

By ALICIA HART
 NEA Beauty Editor

For people who have been developing a split personality over the question of which to use, loose or pressed powder, a new day has dawned. They may have both.

The controversy about the merits of each has been going on for some time now. Generally, it has been conceded that loose powder is kinder to the skin, creates a mistier effect and is altogether more flattering. But American women, geared to efficiency and timesaving, took to the pressed powder because it was convenient, wouldn't spill, went on smoothly.

Now both ideas have been combined in one compact by a well-known beauty house. The result is a powder make-up which is softly pressed into a compact case and which gives the effect of loose powder when applied to the skin. This is clearly a case of having your cake and eating it, too.

The case which contains this powder is not plastic but metal in a rich black-and-gold combination.

The Christian church first celebrated Palm Sunday in the 300s in Jerusalem.

Family Will Join "Clean Plate Club" When Served Cheeseburger Pie

Hamburger, with or without variations, is a favorite of the small fry, and it finds just as many fans among grown-ups too. So with this favoritism, Mom is guaranteed a "clean plate club" reaction to Cheeseburger Pie for dinner.

Hearty and nourishing for cold weather appetites, Cheeseburger Pie features a jiffy "no lumps" sauce made with instant nonfat dry milk. This Borden Test Kitchen recipe eliminates the necessity of making a roux, mixture of flour and butter for thickening sauce.

CHEESEBURGER PIE
 (Makes 6 - 8 servings)

1 1/2 pound ground beef
 1 onion, finely chopped
 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
 3 tablespoons chili sauce
 1 teaspoon salt
 2 cups liquefied instant Starlac nonfat dry milk
 1/4 cup flour

1 teaspoon salt
 1 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 1 (6-oz.) package sharp processed American cheddar cheese slices, shredded
 2 cups biscuit mix

2-3 cup liquefied instant Starlac nonfat dry milk

Combine beef, onion, parsley, chili sauce and 1 teaspoon salt; set aside. Four liquefied instant Starlac nonfat dry milk into top of double boiler. Sprinkle flour, 1 teaspoon salt and pepper over surface of Starlac; beat with rotary beater until blended. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Add cheese; stir until cheese melts and sauce is well blended. Prepare and knead biscuit dough (using biscuit mix and 2-3 cup liquefied instant Starlac nonfat dry milk) following directions on package of mix. Roll dough to thickness of 1/4 inch. Line bottom and sides of 1 1/2-quart casserole with dough, reserving enough for lattice top. Fill with alternate layers of meat mixture and cheese sauce, beginning with meat and ending with sauce. Cover with biscuit lattice top. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 1 hour; increase oven temperature to hot (400 degrees F.) for 10 minutes, or until lattice top is golden brown.

ALASKA'S CONTRIBUTION—Australia gave us the omnipresent hoop and now the Alaskan Eskimos are getting into the act with a sort of bolas of the South American Gaucho. It can also be likened to a yo-yo. Sharon Orbeck of Fairbanks demonstrates the bolas (or yo-yo, or whatever) in Washington, D.C. ## Michigan's Governor Williams Favored To Win Sixth Term

By GEORGE WEEKS
United Press International
LANSING, Mich. (UPI)—Gov. G. Mennen Williams is favored to win an unprecedented sixth term two weeks from today in Democratic tide that could weaken GOP control of the Michigan congressional delegation and the state Legislature.

That's how most observers are betting late in a dull campaign that just now is beginning to quicken for the first time since Democrats swept to their biggest primary landslide in state history on Aug. 5.

The GOP, however, claims its chances are getting better as out-state Republicans rally around a polio - crippled college professor and a legless war veteran.

Williams, whose stature as a presidential contender in 1960 will rise or fall Nov. 4, faces one of his strongest opponents in a decade in Paul D. Bagwell, a hard-campaigning Michigan State University speech teacher with an enthusiastic following.

But Bagwell is bucking voter sparthy, shaky financing, early-campaign defeatism within his party, a Democratic trend, a powerful labor - political party coalition, and Williams himself, who has been campaigning 18 to 20 hours a day.

Both Williams and his protege, Hart, have endorsement of Michigan's vote-disciplined United Auto Workers Union.

Williams has been forced to wage his first defensive campaign because Republicans charge his alliance with UAW President Walter P. Reuther is chasing industry and jobs out of Michigan.

Potter claims Hart is a captive of labor. Hart says Potter is captive of big business.

The labor issue has been sordidly lately since there is relative peace in the auto industry, although both parties still try to link the other with Teamsters President James R. Hoffa.

Predict Williams Victory
Williams counters the main GOP issue by charging Republicans with "smearing Michigan" and blaming economic woes on "the Eisenhower recession." Williams, Bagwell, Potter and Hart clashed on these issues in a rare face-to-face meeting Saturday at a political workshop sponsored by the United Press International editors of Michigan.

A poll of 10 of the editors after the meeting resulted in a unanimous prediction of a Williams victory and an even split over the Potter-Hart race.

Democrats see their ticket winning by more than 300,000. Williams won by 290,000 in 1956. Republicans are silent, but see Hart trailing far behind Williams.

Republicans insist they have a chance. Bagwell says Williams is "running scared." Potter says Hart's appeal is over estimated and that Hart will trail far behind Williams.

State Elections Director Robert Montgomery expects only about 2,250,000 of the state's 3,500,000 registered voters to go to the polls.

WHAT WITH TAXES LIKE THEY ARE!

FT. JACKSON, S.C. (UPI)—A veteran master sergeant pleaded innocent Monday to charges he forced trainees to eat dollar bills as punishment at this huge infantry training center.

M. Sg. George R. Sovie, 30, Ogdensburg, N.Y., entered a plea of "not guilty" to each of five mistreatment charges and two assault and battery charges. Maximum sentence if convicted on all seven counts would be 6 1/2 years in prison.

Lt. John Shea, the Army prosecutor, told the eight-member court the charges against Sovie were "sordid," and demonstrated an "abuse of power."

Trial of the Bronze Star and Purple Heart winner before a court of five officers and three master sergeants was the first of three such general courts martials scheduled here. Also charged are a sergeant first class and a lieutenant.

Safety Council Has Long Road To Travel Yet

CHICAGO (UPI)—Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, bid farewell to delegates attending the 48th National Safety Congress Monday by warning the safety movement still has a long way to go.

Dearborn, who is retiring, spoke at the opening session of the week-long congress which is being attended by about 12,500 persons.

"The council has been my life for the last 16 years," Dearborn said.

"This talk is given with the conviction that the seriousness of accident prevention deserves the most vigorous emphasis and re-emphasis of which we are capable."

Republicans See Sabotage Of Policy

By RAYMOND LAHR
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Republicans charged Monday that an increased Democratic majority in Congress would "sabotage" President Eisenhower's conduct of foreign policy. Democrats denied it and said an increased margin would strengthen bipartisanship.

The clash came as President Eisenhower moved into California for his first major campaign speech of the 1958 congressional contest. His first speech, in Los Angeles Monday was billed as a "hard-hitting recital of the record" of his administration.

The President's speeches this week, to be carried over regional TV networks, will push the campaign into its climactic stage in which both parties will be throwing all they have into the most critical states.

Former President Truman, the Democrats' most active campaigner, returns to the stump Tuesday for a series of East Coast appearances which will have him crossing paths with Vice President Richard M. Nixon, business campaigner for the GOP.

Party Chairmen Clash
The sharpened pitch of the final two weeks of vote-seeking was preaged Sunday by the rival party chairmen.

GOP National Chairman Meade Aicon, referring to the Democrats as "the party of the left-wingers and appeasers," said the President would be "consistently undercut, sniped at and sabotaged" in dealing with Communists and preserving peace if a "big Democrat Congress" is elected Nov. 4.

Democratic Chairman Paul M. Butler asserted a larger Democratic majority in Congress would mean "return to bipartisanship in forming our foreign policy." He said a Democratic majority "will not attempt to create pressure" to change the administration's Far Eastern policy.

The Democrats still confidently expect to increase their present slim majorities in both houses in the Nov. 4 balloting. Butler has of 8 to 12 Democratic senate seats and 40 to 49 in the House. Sunday night he said it would be "closer to 12 than 8, or even beyond 12" in the Senate and "probably 50 rather than close to 40" in the House.

Other political developments:
Butler openly invited Southern Democrats who don't agree with the Supreme Court's school integration ruling to quit the Democratic Party and join the GOP or form a third party. Sen. George A. Smathers (D-Fla.), chairman of the Senate Democratic Campaign committee, accused Butler of dividing the Democrats when they needed unity. There were reports that efforts will be made before long to oust Butler from his party chairmanship.

A group of liberal Democrats headed by A. A. Berle Jr. of New York is seeking contributions for liberal Democratic Senate candidates on grounds they are not getting it from party headquarters. An official spokesman for the Senate Campaign Committee denied it had funneled party funds to Southern and conservative Democrats and withheld them from liberals.

Red Griggs the pipeline

We were pleased to see the following in Sunday morning's Amarillo News Globe, in the column written by sports editor Dick Kranz: "The police department's presence at a football game is to police the orderly conduct of the fans at the game—before, during and afterward. However, when the officials lose control over their realm of responsibility, the field and the players, the police, by the very nature of their profession, are right in taking the steps necessary to quell any fight, anywhere, at any time!"

Setting Record Straight

Since the Globe-News was honest and straightforward enough to correct its original mistake, we feel it is our duty to be just as honest in admitting some of ours. We still believe our four main points of criticism were valid at the time when Sunday's "Pipeline" was written, and that three of them are still valid. However, we may have left some things unsaid which would have made Amarillo look not quite so bad.

Not All Sandies Guilty

The fourth point is one which we'll have to back down somewhat, to the extent of substituting "SOME of the Amarillo Sandies" instead of "the Amarillo Sandies." We still believe that any boy who would attack a policeman, or any group of players who would gang up on one man, have no business on a football field.

Scotties Capture Second in AAAA

DALLAS (UPI)—Highland Park moved ahead of Wichita Falls into the No. 2 spot behind Abilene on the strength of its 20-6 whipping of Corpus Christi Miller in this week's United Press International coaches board Class AAAA schoolboy football ratings.

'Dirty Football' Says Mitchell

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI)—Coach Woody Hayes of Ohio State, obviously pleased that his "dirty football" charges have brought officials under public scrutiny, had a companion today in Kansas coach Jack Mitchell.

SWC ROUNDUP

Southwest conference teams took stock of last week's games Monday as they opened light practice sessions for the next round Saturday. Arkansas coach Frank Broyles said his Razorbacks showed "about a 25 per cent improvement" in blocking in their 24-6 loss to Texas Saturday.

Reapers' Mentor Promises 'Few Surprises' For Lee

Robert E. Lee was probably the greatest general of the Civil War, yet Lee's Rebels lost the war. Why? Most historians would say it was because he was outnumbered and outgunned. This week, a similar situation faces not Robert E. Lee's Rebels, but their gridiron opponents, the Pampa Junior High Reapers.

'Skin Owner, Colt Center Blast Away

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)—The Baltimore Colts were "teamed up" today for their meeting with the Washington Redskins Sunday following Redskin owner George Preston Marshall's charge that Colt center Buzz Nutter is "a liar."

Phelps Takes Death Match

Tommy Phelps won the "death match" from Bad Boy Hines Monday night in the main event at Top of Texas Sportsman's Club. In the second event, Art Nelson came back to win the last two falls after losing the first, winning over Larry Wright.

Quarterback Club Meets Tonight

The regular weekly meeting of the quarterback club will be held tonight at 7:30 p.m. at Lee Junior High School. The club reached a membership total of 118 at its last meeting, and is still shooting for 150.

Light Hitter Scores Kayo

NEW YORK (UPI)—Eddie Lynch, a light-hitting New York welterweight, must have felt like a pitcher blasting a home run when he stopped Charley Cummings of Philadelphia Monday night in the ninth round at St. Nicholas Arena.

Army Keeps Top UPI Poll Spot

NEW YORK (UPI)—Army was No. 1 in the United Press International college football ratings today for the second straight week but Ohio State replaced Auburn in second place in the wake of a wave of upsets.

Pampa Piles Up Yardage But Lacks Scoring Punch

If football games were decided by first downs and total yardage instead of touchdowns, the Pampa Harvesters would be in the thick of the District 3 4-A championship fight.

Over the full season, the Harvesters have, on the average, matched their opponents yard-for-yard and first-down-for-first down. However, they've never been able to come across with that needed scoring punch.

In the forgotten 47 minutes, 54 seconds of last week's football game at Amarillo Friday, the Harvesters completely dominated first half play and matched the Sandies pretty well during the second half.

However, two of the three old bugaboos turned up again to plague the Harvesters. One was a fumble, while the other was running out of steam in scoring territory.

Two Harvester drives were stopped inside the Amarillo 1-yard line, and a Pampa fumble gave Amarillo one of its touchdowns. But an Amarillo fumble also gave Pampa a touchdown.

For the first time this season, the Harvesters licked their third big weakness—pass defense. Amarillo completed only two of eight passes. Witness on the part of Sandie passers helped the Harvesters some in the aerial defense department.

One thing largely overlooked in Friday night's excitement was that Gary Willis ran for 107 yards, the second largest Harvester total of the year, for a single game. Willis had two or three fairly long gallops, but mostly he made it by just plugging away, on 20 carries.

Rex Williams turned in another good performance for the Harvesters, catching an 18-yard pass and running for 26 yards on just four attempts.

Three other Pampans turned in a good night's work which didn't show in the statistics. The entire left side of the line—end Paul Brown, tackle Jim Scott, and guard Gary Matlock did some terrific blocking, opening up some big holes for Harvester ball carriers.

Ronnie Smith continued to do it with his booming punts. Smith kicked a pair for 44 and 42 yards, raising his season average to 41.0—which would be great even in college ball.

Despite Hartack's optimism, Black Hills will be facing a crack field of 3-year-olds including the leading juveniles of 1958—First Landing, Tommy Lee, Intentionally, Restless Wind and Winsome Winner.

Hartack Shoots For Third Win

CAMDEN, N.J. (UPI)—Jockey Willie Hartack will be shooting for his third straight victory in the world's richest horse race—the Garden State Stakes—this Saturday on a horse which ran six times before finally reaching the winner's circle.

The colt is the King Ranch's Black Hills, who qualified for the mile and one-sixteenth Garden State Monday by scoring an impressive two-length victory in a mile and 70-yard maiden event.

"If I had my choice of mounts in Saturday's race, I'd still take this one (Black Hills)," said Hartack, who won the 1956 edition of the Garden State on Barbison and came back last year to score on Nadir.

Despite Hartack's optimism, Black Hills will be facing a crack field of 3-year-olds including the leading juveniles of 1958—First Landing, Tommy Lee, Intentionally, Restless Wind and Winsome Winner.

Army Keeps Top UPI Poll Spot

NEW YORK (UPI)—Army was No. 1 in the United Press International college football ratings today for the second straight week but Ohio State replaced Auburn in second place in the wake of a wave of upsets.

Of the first 10 teams, only Army remained in the position it held last week. Iowa and Oklahoma moved back into the select group and Northwestern made its first appearance of the season in the top 10. They replaced Wisconsin, Michigan State and Navy—three victims of Saturday upsets.

NEW YORK (UPI)—The United Press International major college football ratings (first-place votes and won-lost records in parentheses):

Table with columns: Team, Points, 1. Army (23) (4-0), 2. Ohio State (8) (4-0), 3. Auburn (1) (3-0-1), 4. Texas (1) (5-0), 5. Louisiana State (2) (5-0), 6. Iowa (3-0-1), 7. Mississippi (5-0), 8. Oklahoma (3-1), 9. Notre Dame (3-1), 10. Northwestern (4-0), 11. Wisconsin, 12. Colorado, 13. Purdue, 14. Wisconsin, 15. Michigan State, 16. Texas Christian, 17. Air Force Academy, 18. (tie), Pittsburgh and Oregon, 4 each; 20. College of Pacific, 2.

Army, a 35-6 victor over Virginia, received 23 first-place votes and a total of 330 points from the 35 leading coaches who rate the teams for UPI. Ohio State advanced from fourth to second with eight first-place votes and 295 points as a result of its 49-8 victory over Indiana. Auburn, held to a 7-7 tie by Georgia Tech, slipped to third with a first-place vote.

Kramer Goes Independent

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Jack Kramer, miffed by 10 months of bickering with Australian tennis associations, today put into operation plans to stage his pro tennis tours there independently.

The tennis associations charged that the tennis associations not only charged him double the normal assessed other touring troupe but in addition demanded thousands of free tickets for their members.

Big Mo Was Hunting Bear With Switch, Says Coach

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI) — Missouri Coach Dan Devine said today his Tiger football team went bear hunting with a switch Saturday and got away with it.

Twenty-one of the 36-man traveling squad that pulled a 22-8 unexpected rout of Kansas State were sophomores, including three members of the starting backfield.

"It was the greatest team of-fort in my 11 years of coaching," Devine said, but he didn't overlook the outstanding individual performances of sophomore half-back Mel West and junior quarterback Phil Snowden.

West gained 170 yards in 26 carries in taking the lead from Hank Kuhlmann, Missouri's leading ground gainer for the past two years who was out with an injured ankle.

Rash Near Record

"But when Kuhlmann returns, there will be plenty of room for both in the backfield," Devine said optimistically.

Devine, who gained fame with the multiple-offense while leading Arizona State into a national power, has been installing it gingerly at Missouri, a little bit each week.

Last Saturday, it was the slot back, flanking both the end and the halfback, that caught Kansas State by surprise.

But mixed with the joy of Missouri's greatest effort this season, was a personal blow to Charlie Rash, a senior guard who had kicked 29 consecutive extra points and was only one short of the national collegiate record going into the game.

Rash, who had a bad knee and hadn't practiced his kicking last week, was wide of the mark his first try to snap the string. He hung his head, but then snapped up and trotted back up field for the kickoff.

"Rash said it was a good snap good and everything," Devine said, "but he wanted to watch the ball go through the uprights. So he looked up instead of straight ahead. He took the blame himself. But he couldn't care less. He was happy that Missouri won."

Top Games Set In Class AA

United Press International

Crucial district battles involving defending state champ Terrell and highly-regarded Electra against unbeaten but one-tied challengers highlight this week's Class AA Texas schoolboy football schedule.

Coach Leon Vineyard's champion Tigers, who haven't been pressed to date, bump into Kaufman, a team rolling right along with a perfect record until held to a 6-6 tie last week by Wilmer-Hutchins.

Kaufman may bounce back to give Terrell its toughest battle of the year from an AA club, but the Tigers will be overwhelming favorites.

Electra, which got an 8-6 score from three-times beaten Olney last week, now must try to get by one-tied Nocona, a team that looked just about as potent as Electra as it bounced tough Burkburnett 27-14.

Bowie, the other challenger to Electra's leadership in 9-A, puts its perfect record to the test Burkburnett in another feature.

Most of the remaining perfect record teams in the division's list of 13 face what appears to be easy sailing, although Cleco might get a rough time from old-time rival Ranger in 7-AA.

Bonham, the state's highest scoring AA eleven with its 42.7-point per game average, may have that figure shaved a bit, but still should get by Lewisville handily in a 12-AA battle.

Other wise, the unbeaten-untied line up like this: Abernathy at Lockney, Floydada vs. Post, Denver City at Crane, Marlin vs. West, Angleton at Channelview, Hallettsville at Yoakum and Benavides at San Diego. Aransas Pass is idle.

Besides Nocona and Kaufman, two other teams are unbeaten but tied. They are Grapevine, which plays at Azle, and Edna, which hosts Boling.

Offense, Passing Leaders Will Clash Saturday Night

United Press International

A duel between the Southwest Conference's two top total offense and passing leaders — Charlie Miltstead of Texas A&M and Buddy Humphrey of Baylor — will spark next Saturday night's clash at Waco.

Miltstead, who poured 16 out of 23 pass attempts through the TCU defenses last week for 180 yards, took command of the total offense race with 539 yards, 55 yards better than Humphrey's 485 total. The Aggie tallback has 157 yards rushing and 382 on passing. Humphrey didn't fare badly last week either, hitting 11 of 15 against Texas Tech for 84 yards and a season total of 46 out of 82 for 442 yards.

Totals High

Both season totals are high among the throwers. Miltstead has hit 32 of 54 for 382 yards.

Hunter Enis, the senior sparkler who was supposed to have been the answer to TCU's prayers for a passer, jumped into the thick of the scrap for loop honors with eight out of 10 against A&M to bring his season total to 28 completions, only one less than

Don Meredith of SMU and James Monroe of Arkansas.

Enis also leads the circuit in interceptions. He is just one of five players who have snagged

Baseball Clinics Set Next Month

NEW YORK (UPI) — A group of major league players and officials, headed by Commissioner Ford Frick, will conduct a series of baseball clinics in Venezuela next month.

The players who will take an active part in the clinics include Richie Ashburn of the Phillies, the 1958 National League batting champion; Elston Howard of the Yankees; Bob Friend and Dick Groat of the Pirates; Pete Runnels of the Red Sox, and Gus Triandos of the Orioles.

Others who will make the trip are hall-of-famer Frankie Frisch, Cal Hubbard, umpire-in-chief of the American League, and Al Schacht, "clown prince of baseball."

two enemy aeriels, but his edge comes on a 10-yard average return.

Baylor's Larry Hickman held to his solid lead among the rushers with a 49-yard performance against Tech to boost his season total to 312 yards to 258 for TCU's Jack Spikes. Texas' Rene Ramirez boomed into third place at 282 with 101-yard night against Arkansas.

Punting Figures

Among the punters, Pat Bailey of Rice owns the top figure of 40.6 yards, 1.5 yards ahead of Texas' Bobby Lackey.

Marvin Lesater of TCU holds the punt runback lead with a 15.8-yard average and Larry Duettt of Rice leads in kickoff returns with a 22-yard average.

John Tracey of Texas A&M moved up to challenge Charles Barnes of Arkansas and Albert Witcher of Baylor as pass receivers with 13 catches to 14 for the pace-setters.

TCU sported the best total offense (332.6 yards per game), best total defense (202.2), rushing offense (211.4) and rushing defense (106.2).

Jockeys Earn Good Money

By OSCAR FRALEY

United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — The guy who said "time is money" must have been a jockey.

The midget millionaires have had something big going for them ever since the invention of the automobile made it necessary for horses to find another dodge. They get 10 per cent of whatever the outburner pulls down and that ain't hay.

Like the little matter of earning $78,614 in a champagne break of eight minutes, 42-5 seconds.

That's been the total payoff to the five riders of the past winners of the Garden State, the world's richest horse race, which goes up for grabs at the New Jersey track Saturday. It's enough to make a man quit feeding his son vitamins.

Good Day's Wage

Hank Moreno won the inaugural running in 1963. For his one minute and 46 seconds of labor his payoff was $15,128—the winner's purse that year being $151,280.

A cook that couldn't crow announced the dawn of television making. According to the story, about 1608 a Dutch spectacle maker, Hans Lippershey, was at work in his shop in Middleburg, Holland. By chance he picked up two lenses. Holding them together, he looked through them at the weather vane on a nearby steeple. The cock on the vane appeared as big as life.

NADA Prexy Raps New Car Taxes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Dean Chaffin, president of the National Automobile Dealers Association, described the federal excise tax on new automobiles as 10 percent luxury tax "for a human necessity preceded only by food, clothing and shelter."

Chaffin urged auto dealers and motorists to campaign for removal of the tax as the "quickest and most direct method of reducing the cost of a new car." He said the tax was imposed to discourage auto buying during wartime and "these conditions do not apply now."

Four of Five Ministers In South Favor Integration

NEW YORK (UPI) — A confidential poll indicated Monday that four out of five Protestant ministers in the South favor racial integration in southern schools. Most of the remaining ministers favor searching for possible legal means of thwarting implementation of the Supreme Court's desegregation order although disavowing open disobedience, according to Pulpit Digest which conducted the poll. Only 3 percent expressed favor with open disobedience, the publication said. Of the 3,606 questionnaires sent out (representing one-fifth of the number of Protestant ministers in the South) 769 have been returned to Pulpit Digest, a nondenominational professional journal for Protestant ministry and seminary students.

The poll indicated that sentiment for integration was almost unanimous among ministers in the border states. By comparison, in South Carolina only 50 percent of the responding ministers favored integration, with 28 percent favoring a quest of legal means to avoid integration and 11 percent favoring open disobedience. Approximately half of the ministers said they believed racial integration in the schools was inevitable. Only 7 percent said that integration could "never succeed" in the South.

Jack Benny To Head Heart Drive

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Veteran comedian Jack Benny has been named national chairman of the American Heart Association's "Heart Sunday" drive to collect funds for medical research, it was announced today. Benny, who has worked with the association since 1949, will direct some 1,500,000 volunteer workers who will solicit contributions in their communities throughout the nation during February, 1959. Heart Sunday has been set for Feb. 22. On Oct. 26 the comedian will be presented with the "Heart and Torch" award in San Francisco for his efforts in previous fund drives.

Demos' Civil Rights Fight Bluntly Breaks Into The Open

By LEE NICHOLS United Press International WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Democrats' smoldering civil rights fight broke into the open Monday with a blunt invitation by Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler to anti-civil rights Democrats to quit the party. Butler, interviewed Sunday on ABC-TV's "College News Conference," said the racial issue requires "moral leadership" and predicted there will be "no compromise" on a strong civil rights stand in the Democratic platform in 1960. "Those in the South who are not deeply dedicated to the philosophy of the Democratic Party will have to go their own way," he declared. "If they don't want to go along on the racial problem and the whole area of human rights, then I think they are going to have to take political asylum wherever they can find it, either in the Republican Party or a third party..."

Smathers Raps Butler "I would say anyone who is unwilling to accept the platform of the Democratic Party in 1960, and anyone who is going to stand up in America today and say we are going to resist the decisions of the Supreme Court, and we shall not recognize the principles of law and order upon which this nation exists, then I certainly would hope they would take leave of the Democratic Party..." Sen. George A. Smathers (D-Fla.), in charge of the campaign to elect Democratic senators Nov. 4, promptly accused Butler of dividing the Democratic Party at a time when its primary need is unity. "I think the time has come when the chairman of the Democratic National Committee should start spending his time pointing up the unity of the Democratic Party rather than its division," Smathers told United Press International in an interview. "A leader is supposed to gather his forces, not divide them. I think his (Butler's) time would be better spent assisting our candidates to get elected than this continued pontificating about what's going to happen in 1960. "What we need is unity, not dividers. What we need are peacemakers, not agitators." For and Against From other highly-placed Democratic sources came the suggestion that the time is near at hand when Butler should be replaced by a national chairman capable of healing the Democrats' civil rights split rather than inflaming it. Some influential Democratic quarters, notably the party's congressional leadership, have made no secret of the fact that they hold Butler in something considerably less than high esteem. However Butler's strong civil rights stand will find support also within the Democratic Party. Some powerful Northern Democrats feel their party must take an unequivocal pro-civil rights stand if it is to prevent further loss of Negro votes and capture the presidency in 1960.

NADA Prexy Raps New Car Taxes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Dean Chaffin, president of the National Automobile Dealers Association, described the federal excise tax on new automobiles as 10 per cent luxury tax "for a human necessity preceded only by food, clothing and shelter."

Chaffin urged auto dealers and motorists to campaign for removal of the tax as the "quickest and most direct method of reducing the cost of a new car." He said the tax was imposed to discourage auto buying during wartime and "these conditions do not apply now."

Four of Five Ministers In South Favor Integration

NEW YORK (UPI) — A confidential poll indicated Monday that four out of five Protestant ministers in the South favor racial integration in southern schools.

Most of the remaining ministers favor searching for possible legal means of thwarting implementation of the Supreme Court's desegregation order although disavowing open disobedience, according to Pulpit Digest which conducted the poll. Only 3 per cent expressed favor with open disobedience, the publication said.

Of the 3,606 questionnaires sent out (representing one-fifth of the number of Protestant ministers in the South) 769 have been returned to Pulpit Digest, a nondenominational professional journal for Protestant ministry and seminary students.

The poll indicated that sentiment for integration was almost unanimous among ministers in the border states. By comparison, in South Carolina only 50 per cent of the responding ministers favored integration, with 28 per cent favoring a quest of legal means to avoid integration and 11 per cent favoring open disobedience.

Approximately half of the ministers said they believed racial integration in the schools was inevitable. Only 7 per cent said that integration could "never succeed" in the South.

Jack Benny To Head Heart Drive

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Veteran comedian Jack Benny has been named national chairman of the American Heart Association's "Heart Sunday" drive to collect funds for medical research, it was announced today.

Benny, who has worked with the association since 1949, will direct some 1,500,000 volunteer workers who will solicit contributions in their communities throughout the nation during February, 1959. Heart Sunday has been set for Feb. 22.

On Oct. 28 the comedian will be presented with the "Heart and Torch" award in San Francisco for his efforts in previous fund drives.

Demos' Civil Rights Fight Bluntly Breaks Into The Open

By LEE NICHOLS
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Democrats' smoldering civil rights fight broke into the open Monday with a blunt invitation by Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler to anti-civil rights Democrats to quit the party.

Butler, interviewed Sunday on ABC-TV's "College News Conference," said the racial issue requires "moral leadership" and predicted there will be "no compromise" on a strong civil rights stand in the Democratic platform in 1960.

"Those in the South who are not deeply dedicated to the philosophies of the Democratic Party will have to go their own way," he declared. "If they don't want to go along on the racial problem and the whole area of human rights, then I think they are going to have to take political asylum wherever they can find it, either in the Republican Party or a third party..."

Smathers Raps Butler
"I would say anyone who is unwilling to accept the platform of the Democratic Party..."
Sen. George A. Smathers (D-Fla.), in charge of the campaign to elect Democratic senators Nov. 4, promptly accused Butler of dividing the Democratic Party at a time when its primary need is unity.

"I think the time has come when the chairman of the Democratic National Committee should start spending his time pointing up the unity of the Democratic Party rather than its division," Smathers told United Press International in an interview. "A leader is supposed to gather his forces, not divide them. I think his (Butler's) time would be better spent assisting our candidates to get elected than this continued pontificating about what's going to happen in 1960.

"What we need is unity, not dividers. What we need are peacemakers, not agitators."

For and Against
From other highly-placed Democratic sources came the suggestion that the time is near at hand when Butler should be replaced by a national chairman capable of healing the Democrats' civil rights split rather than inflaming it. Some influential Democratic quarters, notably the party's congressional leadership, have made no secret of the fact that they hold Butler in something considerably less than high esteem.

However Butler's strong civil rights stand will find support also within the Democratic Party. Some powerful Northern Democrats feel their party must take an unequivocal pro-civil rights stand if it is to prevent further loss of Negro votes and capture the presidency in 1960.

For Sale Cheap, One Giant Theater

By WILLIAM ANDERSON
United Press International
BRUSSELS (UPI) — Want to buy a theater at the Brussels World Fair?
It's going cheap because so far U.S. Commissioner General Howard Cullman cannot even give it away.

Along with the huge, round U.S. pavilion, the theater is valued at six million dollars. They have both been offered to the Brussels City Council as an outright gift now that the fair is over.

But the council has not accepted so far. They reckon the pavilion would cost too much to transform and keep up. They don't want the theater because the theaters in Brussels are half empty in normal times and this one situated in the world fair grounds five miles from town would probably be a costly white elephant.

So, the most modern theater in Europe will probably be snatched up by some scrap metal dealer for a song.

This is typical of the giant rummage sale which got under way today.

If you're not in the theater buying mood, then perhaps you might be tempted by an imitation coal mine.

There's even one of these going. The European coal and steel community's exhibit doesn't contain much coal but it sure is realistic.

Then there's the 8,000 wire garden chairs, somewhat battered and weather-beaten, but still a bargain at 60 cents a piece if you've got room for this number in the garden.

A 150-foot-high spiral with built-in neon lights which the owners admit is not good for anything is also on the sales list as the "show of the Century" becomes the "Sale of the Century."

But more than 50 per cent of the exhibits at the fair will be returned to their country of origin. Many have been lent by museums, industrial concerns, and private owners.

The frugal Russians are dismantling their giant pavilion and shipping it back to Moscow to serve as an agricultural show hall.

Both George Washington, a n.d. Abraham Lincoln had been survivors before becoming presidents.
