By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
BERLIN (AP)—Austria appealed to the Big Four today to restore independence without further delay and at the same time asked for an easing of "harsh and inequitable" economic concessions to Russia.

The appeal was laid before the Berlin conference by Austrian Foreign Minister Leopold Figl. As the ministers took up the Austrian question, Russia's V. M. Molotov indicated he had a new proposal to make on the subject. Details were not immediately available.

Judgment Due To End Lengthy Trial In Court

Judgment will be entered in a week or two following the jury verdict holding Thursday for A. L. Wasson and N. H. Reed in the case brought by J. S. Garlington, et al.

This climaxes 13 years of litigation over land which Wasson acquired from Garlington under a deed of trust in 1937. In the latest suit, the jury found that Garlington, a former Howard County judge, was of sound mind when he executed the deed of trust to Wasson on Sept. 1, 1937. Reed later acquired the land from Wasson.

Clyde Thomas, veteran Big Spring attorney, represented Wasson in successfully defending the title to the property.

Bill Would Cut Down Payments On Home Loans

By ROWLAND EVANS JR.
WASHINGTON (AP)—Legislation was drawn today to reduce the down payments and stretch out the repayment periods of Federal Housing Administration (FHA) home loans.

Identical bills by Sen. Capehart (R-Ind) and Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich) chairmen of the Senate and House banking committees, were described by the authors as the administration measures designed to carry out President Eisenhower's housing recommendations of Jan. 25.

They would cut down payments by varying amounts—for example, by $350 on a $10,000 house—and would reduce monthly payments by extending to 30 years, instead of the present 20 or 25, the time in which a loan must be paid off.

FHA itself does not make loans but only insures repayment of housing mortgages. The terms set up by law are required to make the loans eligible for FHA guarantee.

Nixon Advises GOP To Speak Carefully

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Nixon has advised fellow Republicans to avoid "indiscriminate" attacks on the opposition on the issue of communism, while accusing the Democrats of losing at the conference table victories won in war.

Whether by coincidence or in line with President Eisenhower's counsel to shun extreme partisanship, a number of GOP senators seemed to take a more moderate tone as the Lincoln Day speech-making reached its peak volume on this anniversary of the Civil War President's birth.

There were still plenty of accusations that past Democratic administrations had coddled Communists, or been outsmarted by them.

Nixon himself, in a speech last night at New Haven, Conn., paid tribute to the way in which he said Secretary of State Dulles "has stood up to the Communists at the conference table in Berlin," and he added:

"The day is past when our diplomats lose at the conference table the victories which our fighting men win on the battlefields."

In counseling Republicans against indiscriminate attacks, Nixon said: "We must remember that millions of Democrats were just as fed up with Trumanism as we were in 1952."

Eisenhower told a Wednesday news conference the times are too serious for extreme partisanship. He said he would advise his official family against such tactics, and assumed the GOP National Committee would follow the same course. But he said he did not see how he could tone down others.

Sen. Carlson (R-Kan.), who told his Senate colleagues yesterday he doesn't think the Democrats "should be crying foul," told a party audience at East Orange, N.J., last night that Democratic administrations "permitted Communists to penetrate into the highest policy-making branches of government."

He said the people in 1952 voted against an administration which "tolerated" Communists and which "permitted graft, bribery and favoritism to step into almost every department of the government."

In delivering his speech, however, Carlson omitted a sentence from his text which said of the Democrats: "They weakened our defenses and it was through individuals in our own government that Russia secured the atom bomb."

Rep. Velde (R-Ill.), chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, told a Boston news conference he thinks McCarthy "knows what he is talking about when he says the Democratic party has been infiltrated by subversive influences during the past 20 years."

Riding The GRUB LINE With Franklin Reynolds

While Texas Ranger Captain Alfred Allee is engaged in using a slapping hand, fists, sixshooter and sharp boot toes to point out certain positive facts to a few fellows down there in South Texas, there's a man in Big Spring who is watching the proceedings in the papers with a great deal of interest.

He is C. B. Arnold, Inspector in charge of the Big Spring office of the Texas Liquor Control Board.

Arnold had a brother who was sheriff of Bee County years back. Allee was this brother's chief deputy and the officer now stationed in Big Spring was also a deputy and worked with Allee.

"There's one thing I could tell those people down there about Allee," says Arnold, "but they've already found it out. He's not a bit afraid of them."

The annual Borden County Livestock Show will be held at Gall on Saturday, March 6, it has been announced by George Sealy, county agricultural agent.

The show barn is just at the west edge of Gall on the road to Lamesa. The FHA girls will also have a bake show at the Gall School the same day. As usual everybody will bring a basket dinner and eat on the show grounds.

To be seen there will be 4-H Club and FFA Chapter projects, including breeding classes, that will also be shown at the annual Dawson-Borden Boys' Livestock Show at Lamesa, Feb. 19-20, and at Lubbock.

Borden County 4-H Club members with livestock entries and the shows at which they will exhibit include:

Sammy Davenport of Gall, five Rambouillet lambs to be shown at Lamesa, Gall and Lubbock; Steve Dennis of Gall, five Rambouillet lambs to be shown at Gall; Joe Dennis of Gall, one Rambouillet lamb to be shown at Gall; Jerry Reddell of Gall, two Rambouillet lambs to be shown at Lamesa, Gall and Lubbock; Norman Ledbetter, Route 1, O'Donnell, one Hampshire barrow to be shown at Lamesa, Gall and Lubbock; Roy Rogers of Gall, one Hampshire barrow to be shown at Lamesa and Gall; Shorty Farmer, Route 1, O'Donnell, one Spotted Poland China barrow to be shown at Lamesa, Gall and Lubbock; Barbara Sharp of Gall, one Hampshire barrow to be shown at Gall; Kenneth Williams, Route 1, O'Donnell, one Hereford steer to be shown at Gall; Travis Walker, Route 1, O'Donnell, one Hereford steer to be shown at Gall, and Barbara Reeder of Fluvanna, one Angus steer to be shown at Lamesa and Snyder.

Because of the drought, Sealy explains, club members were not too greatly encouraged to put any animals on feed this year.

Farm Bureau members will be glad to know that the American Farm Bureau Federation has stepped into the gap to urge Congress to approve legislation designed to clarify the authority of the Department of Labor to continue a program for temporary employment of Braceros on the farms and ranches when needed.

The principal obstacle to a continuation of the program appears to be a lack of funds. The Comptroller General of the United States has ruled that such funds as were originally set aside for the administration of the program can no longer be used. He points out that the funds were appropriated for use in connection with a "negotiated agreement with Mexico" and that since no "negotiated agreement" now exists the funds cannot be used without prior approval of Congress. The agreement expired Dec. 31, 1953, and negotiations for a new one broke down in the middle of the road.

Farm Bureau officials believe the deal will be worked out with complete satisfaction to the farmers and ranchers and Braceros, even though the Mexican politicians may be unhappy with it.

The outlook for commercial grain storage space in Texas is not bright, according to C. H. Bates, farm management specialist with the Extension Service.

Currently Bates points out the government owns 108 million bushels of 1952 wheat which is stored in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma. In addition, he says, the CCC expects to take over large stocks of 1953 wheat and grain and that if one-half of the 1953 wheat and grain sorghums are taken over, nearly all grain storage space in the Southwest will be filled.

Against this situation prospects for a good wheat crop in Texas are good, and indications also point to greatly expanded plantings of grain sorghums because of the reduced acreage which can be planted to cotton.

The question of storage is important, Bates continues, because storage must be available before price support loans can be obtained. He believes farmers should start in now to make arrangements about storage if grain is to be planted.

On-the-farm storage facilities can be financed through a federal loan program, he explains, and these are repayable over a five-year period at four per cent interest. Such loans may be arranged through the various county Agricultural Stabilization Committees.

Parakeet Import Counts Returned

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A federal grand jury has indicted three men on charges of importing parakeets illegally. Health authorities say many of the birds have died of parrot fever.

Some 400 parakeets were destroyed when tests showed they were infected, Carl F. White, U.S. customs collector, said yesterday. Warnings were sent to 30 persons who had been in contact with the birds, he added. They were urged to take inoculations of antibiotics. Those indicted yesterday were George A. Emerson, head of the wild animal department at a film studio; George R. Todd, San Diego businessman; and Nicholas A. Spicula, also of San Diego.

Tax Collections Here Nearly $1½-Million

Nearly $1½ million in city, county, state, and school taxes have been paid by Big Spring and Howard County property owners since last Oct. 1.

The total is approximately $1,435,000. That's better than 90 per cent of the combined tax rolls, a survey of local taxing agencies this week shows.

The county tax office is leading all others in collections. Mrs. Viola Robinson reports $777,075.36 collected on a roll of $820,998.67.

That's nearly 95 per cent of the roll.

The figure, representing current taxes only, includes collection of state, county, junior college and common school taxes, which Mrs. Robinson's office handles. Collected were $127,376.78 for the state; $292,605.03 for the county; $169,536.92 for the junior college, and $164,820.15 for common schools.

County tax office collections included $996,379.54 in October, $24,202.99 in November, $16,461.94 in December, and $40,090.89 in January.

Gross collections for the City of Big Spring stood at $248,301.95 at the end of January. Discounts made for early payments dropped the amount of revenue to $241,301.95.

The gross collections amounted to about 87.5 per cent of the city's $286,436.57 tax roll. However, Perry Johnson, city tax collector, said January payments made by mail and reaching the office after Jan. 30 were logged under February business.

Tax collections for the Big Spring Independent School District have passed the estimated mark.

The school board had figured on a 90 per cent collection in pegging the budget. J. O. Hagood, district tax collector-assessor, said that the amount received on the current roll to date was 91 per cent.

Total collections stood at $410,370 on a levy of $451,474. Of this amount $307,637 went to local maintenance and $91,898 went to interest and sinking fund. Discounts allowed stood at $10,841. Delinquent collections so far are $6,350 and miscellaneous fees $1.91.

Couldn't Believe It

PORT HURON, Mich. (AP)—Firemen relaxed after an hour's tough fight to put out a blaze that swept a restaurant and apartment building last night. Then they were amazed. From the building ran two dogs, soaking wet but barking and wagging their tails like all get out. They'd spent the time inside, unharmed.

Filtration Plant Addition

Progress on the construction at the city's filtration plant can be inspected by viewing these two pictures. The above photo shows the reinforcing steel and concrete wall on the filtration unit. The concrete foundations have also been poured for the entire floor level. Size of the unit can be determined by the truck parked in the excavation. The picture at right shows the half million gallon water storage tank located on the property. Both the tank and the filtration unit are located at 16th and Virginia. Kasch and Sons, contractors, have 275 calendar days to complete the job, and starting date was Sept. 18.

Mexico Re-Opens George Ochoa Case

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Federal authorities here have re-opened the case of George Ochoa, Laredo, Tex., customs broker, and he will be tried on charges of shooting two men to death in 1949. Ochoa, who has been free on bond since February, 1953, is accused in Texas of slaying Henry Whittenberg Jr., of McAllen, Tex., and James Lindsay, of McKenale, Tenn.

Both men, whom police said were acquaintances of Ochoa's beautiful wife, were shot to death in separate rooms of the same Laredo hotel.

Ochoa, a handsome, debonair individual—expert marksman, golfer, and handy with his fist—heard the next day that he was to be charged with the murder. He disappeared from the Laredo Country Club and was hunted for nearly a year before his arrest by Mexican authorities in a small Mexican town in Lower California.

Efforts of the United States to extradite him failed when Ochoa claimed Mexican citizenship, offering birth certificates as proof.

Murchison Enters Insurance Squabble

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Millionaire Clint Murchison of Dallas has asked court permission here to enter the fight over the future of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Co.

Murchison, one of Texas' wealthiest men, carried a 17-million-dollar offer in his pocket. He was granted until Feb. 26 to file a brief as a friend of the court in the proposed mutualization of the company.

The fabulously wealthy Murchison aimed his petition at the California District Court of Appeals. It said that if mutualization plans were thrown out of court he was prepared to make 17-million dollars available to restore benefits of non-cancelable health and accident insurance policies of the old company and pay off certain stockholders liabilities.

But Leo Quetewke, teniente or head councilman, says Lessarley should have turned over a case, given the Zunis in 1963 by President Lincoln, to the lieutenant governor.

Reporter's Kidnap Tale Is Personal

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A newspaper reporter who started home for supper a few minutes early because it was a "dull evening" wound up writing his own kidnap story after being robbed and left gagged in a lonely wooded area near here.

Less than half an hour after reporter Bill Woolsey broke his bonds and called police from a farm home, two alert Nashville officers arrested two men and charged them with highway robbery.

Police identified them tentatively as Perry William Moore, about 33, and Joe Sturella, about 30. Moore said he escaped from Kilby Prison in Alabama in November 1953 while serving sentence for highway robbery.

The kidnaping occurred in the parking lot of the Nashville Printing Corp., just behind the editorial and printing rooms. Woolsey, of the Nashville Tennessean, said he went to his automobile and "thought the two men were couple of passers-by who had slipped into my car for a quick drink or play the car radio. The next thing I realized was that Moore had a gun in my ribs." Woolsey said the men robbed him of $11 and spent part of it on adhesive tape which they used to bind him up.

Ohio Schoolmen Censor Library

GALION, Ohio (AP)—The City Board of Education has removed Richard Wright's 1940 novel "Native Son" and two famed novels by Hervey Allen from the Galion High School library, following a unanimous decision that the books were not proper reading material for the students.

The two romantic novels by Allen are "Anthony Adverse" (1933) and "Toward the Morning" (1948). Wright's "Native Son" concerns the problems of a Negro boy growing up in the United States.
