SKY RIDERS!

Holiday Road Deaths Below Usual; 438 Die

Total Of 602 Fatalities Counted Since Wednesday

United Press International
The nation's traffic fatalities in the Thanksgiving Day weekend ran below the toll for an ordinary weekend of the same duration at this time of year, rising figures showed today.

A United Press International count showed that between 6 p.m. Wednesday and midnight Sunday, 438 persons died in traffic accidents. Fires took 48 lives, plane accidents took 5, and other accidents killed 111 persons, for a total of 602.

California had 32 auto deaths; New York 28; Alabama 24; Pennsylvania 21; Illinois 20; Michigan 19, and Ohio and Virginia 18 each to lead the list of states.

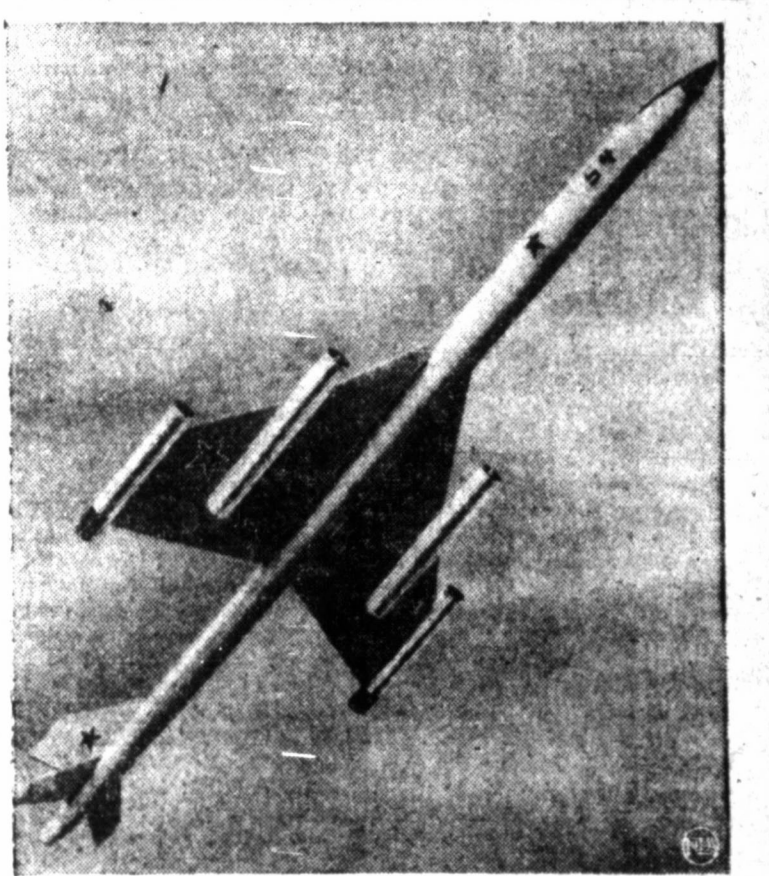

Rhode Island, Nevada and Alaska reported no traffic deaths in the holiday period.

Bad Weather Helped
The National Safety Council, saying that it does not regard the Thanksgiving holiday as one calling for as much travel as Christmas, New Year's, Labor Day and one or two others, issued no advance estimate for Thanksgiving holiday deaths, but noted that in an ordinary 102-hour weekend period at this time of year, about 470 persons would be killed in traffic.

The council had no immediate explanation for the traffic total being lower than normal. A spokesman said that almost nationwide bad weather may have kept motorists completely from the roads.

In contrast, last Thanksgiving United Press International counted 554 traffic deaths in a similar period.

One of the holiday's worst accidents killed five persons, three of them children, in a crash near Mountainburg, Ark. Sunday. The victims were crushed when the trailer of a truck overturned on a

De Gaulle Lands Wave Of French Run-Off Votes

20 Million Voters Blitz Once Potent French Reds

PARIS (UPI)—Premier Charles de Gaulle ruled today as France's undisputed strong man, swept to a pinnacle of power and prestige by a tidal wave of votes in run-off elections Sunday for parliament.

In doing so the nearly 20 million French voters: — Blitzed and routed the once powerful, Moscow-controlled French Communist Party, turning it into a tiny, impotent group that can no longer sway French parliamentary politics.

— Ousted in a mass wave of national contempt the men of the Fourth Republic whom they blamed for dragging France to the brink of civil war. Former premiers and cabinet ministers were dumped in wholesale lots.

Elected a parliament in which De Gaulle was ensured of a crushing majority backed by the rightwing and military elements who raised him to eminence in a near-revolution last May.

Third Confidence Vote
This was the third straight massive confidence vote for De Gaulle in two months. He is expected to get an even bigger edge on Dec. 21 when 100,000 "grand electors" meet to name a president with greater powers than modern France has known. De Gaulle is the overwhelming favorite.

He received his first landslide victory Sept. 28 when 80 per cent of France voted for his new constitution. His second came a week ago when the first round of parliamentary balloting inflicted the worst defeat on his Communist foes in 20 years.

The third straight vote Sunday tore the Communist parliamentary party to shreds and left De Gaulle in the driver's seat backed by a parliamentary majority such as this nation has seldom seen.

The voting began last Sunday to elect 465 deputies in metropolitan France and 10 in the overseas department. Because only 39 candidates won the necessary majority, (See FRENCH, Page 3)

27 Texans Die Violently Over Holiday; 13 In Traffic, 14 In Other Accidents

United Press International
Texas counted its Thanksgiving holiday death toll today to find at least 13 persons died in traffic accidents, and 14 more met violent deaths in fires, accidental shootings, a plane crash and miscellaneous accidents. The total was 27.

Four small children burned to death Sunday to bring the total of deaths by fire to nine during the four-day period.

Guadalupe Salinas, 10 months, and Ofelia Salinas, 23 months, both of Santa Rosa, died in a fire set off when a lighted candle toppled onto their bed. They were the children of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Salinas.

In Dallas, two small Negro children died Sunday night in a fire blamed on a gas heater. They (See TEXAS, Page 3)

School Bond Voting Light

Absentee balloting closes at 5 p.m. Tuesday for a $1,250,000 school bond issue called by Pampa School Board. Qualified voters may vote absentee in the School Business Office, downstairs in City Hall.

The office is open from 8 a.m. to noon, 1 to 5 p.m. Absentee voting has been extremely light with only two votes cast as of this morning.

With the bond election Saturday, spokesmen will appear in Pampa's civic clubs, starting with the Jaycees, Tuesday at noon. Rex Rose, a School Board member, will be the Jaycees speaker.

D. E. Holt, another School Board member, will speak at Top O' Texas Kiwanis Club Tuesday night in Episcopal Parish Hall. Wednesday, Art Teed, School attorney, will appear at Rotary Club. Teed will speak again at Noon Lions Club Thursday.

J. M. Nelson will speak Thursday at Evening Lions Club. Friday Rose will speak to Kiwanis.

Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Saturday. Potential voters, qualified by owning property in the Pampa Independent School District, number 6,200.

The election was called in response to parent's petitions for a new elementary school and improvements in existing schools.

Break-In Reported

The Legion Drive-in, 709 S. Gray, was broken into sometime Saturday night, Pampa police reported this morning. Only reported loss was $5.70 in change from a cigarette vending machine. The burglar gained entrance by kicking open a front door.

THREE WORKMEN ARE HURT AS BEAM FALLS

Three workmen were injured, one critically, when 5,000 pound, 48-foot steel beam fell from the auditorium roof of the new Calvary Baptist church, 824 S. Barnes.

Critically injured with a skull fracture and broken ankle was Thomas Green, about 55, 501 Brown. Less seriously hurt was welder, O. H. Ernst, 612 E. Campbell, and a mortician, Benny Lee White, Dallas.

The three men were rushed by ambulance to Pampa hospitals; Green was taken to Highland General.

The accident occurred shortly before 10 a.m. when a rope, holding the huge beam to its moorings in the roof, snapped. The beam swung free, striking Ernst, then Green and White.

Breaks foreman Archie Jackson, Dallas was not harmed. A fourth man on the job suffered minor scratches.

RUSSIA YELPS OF INJUSTICE

MOSCOW (UPI)—The official Soviet news agency, Tass, today gloomily viewed the crushing of the Communist party in the French elections, and put it down to "an unjust and anti-democratic electoral system."

But Tass took some consolation from re-election of French Communist leader Maurice Thorez and noted, "The reactionaries" were unable to keep him out.

Western Big Three Hunts For Berlin Counter Proposal

By STEWART HENSLEY
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Western Big Three today hunted for a counter-proposal to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's call to make West Berlin a demilitarized free city.

It appeared likely the counter-proposal, when it is made, will call for Big Four talks with Russia on the entire German question — not on Berlin alone as Khrushchev was reported to have suggested at a cocktail party.

Meanwhile President Eisenhower renewed the U.S. pledge to refrain from any agreement or course of action that would abandon West Berlin to Russian domination.

Dulles Releases Statement
The President's reassurance was announced in August. Gen. John Foster Dulles who conferred with the Chief Executive for more than an hour at his winter White House.

In a brief statement after the meeting, Dulles said he had reported to Eisenhower "on the developing situation" following receipt of Khrushchev's Berlin note last week.

"We noted the exchanges of views which already had taken place between the Western Allies most concerned, including the Federal Republic of Germany,

Pampa Boy Nabbed In Auto Theft

A Pampa youth, Bobby Joe Ramey, 19, has been arrested at Poteau, Okla., on charges of car theft, the Daily News learned Sunday.

Ramey was arrested by Sheriff Jack Craig at Poteau after attempting to trade a stolen 1956 Chevrolet to a car dealer near Poteau. The car was stolen Monday (Nov. 24) from the Rex Rose used car lot in Pampa.

Sheriff Rufe Jordan in Pampa said Deputy Shirley Nichols will bring Ramey to Pampa sometime today. The car itself was brought to Pampa Saturday with a damaged transmission.

Canara Carruth, sales manager for Rex Rose, reported Ramey attempted to trade the car Tuesday near Poteau for an older model at terms that made a Poteau car salesman suspicious. The dealer phoned police who checked on the auto and learned it had been stolen.

Poteau is in northeast Oklahoma about 40 miles from Ft. Smith, Ark., on U.S. 371.

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have been interested in the number of occasions on which you advise some person who is in difficulty to see his minister. In fact, I sometimes wonder what you would tell a minister who needed advice. A minister isn't God. He only works for HIM, and ministers have their problems too. To whom would you send a minister? Yours truly,

MINISTER
Dear Minister: A minister must seek strength for himself from the same resources he prescribes for others. He will find it in the Gospel he preaches.

DEAR ABBY: I have been married 27 years, am of average intelligence and think I am broad-minded, but why does this problem bother me when it doesn't seem to bother anybody else? We have friends who have made a fortune in the junk business (they call it "scrap") and now they have a beautiful home filled with "art" which I can't even look at without blushing. There are pictures of naked ladies and statues of naked men and ladies wrapped up in each other. I don't mind naked children, but I can't look at naked adults in mixed company. I refuse to go to these people's home, and my husband says I am either evil-minded or not grown up. Am I in the wrong?

BLUSHING
Dear Blushing: Evil (like beauty) lies in the mind of the beholder. G. but don't give these embarrassing objects a glance or a second thought. Museums, art galleries and even churches have dealt in nakedness for centuries. These are the bare facts.

DEAR ABBY: I am ten years old and not very smart in school. But smart enough to know what that teen-ager meant about her fat sloppy mother. My dear mother was once everything this girl said her mother was. About 20 months ago I came home from school and found my mother lying on the floor. She didn't know anything. She was in the hospital for weeks. She had too much sugar. And now she has to take a shot before meals. She weighs over 200 pounds. But now she weighs 130. She is neat and clean and sweet as she can be. Abby, underneath all the sloppy fat was the most wonderful mother in all the world. I couldn't sleep last night for thinking about this. I beg this girl to take her mother to a doctor.

TEN-YEAR-OLD FRIEND
DEAR ABBY: My brother recently got married because he had to. She didn't find him until she was in her fifth month, but anyway, that's their business. She is 24 and my brother is 27 and they are both old enough to know better than to advertise the fact that they've been married such a short time. They gave a party and invited all our friends to celebrate their ONE-MONTH anniversary and here she was way out in front. I was embarrassed to death. How can people be so shameless? How can I keep her from disgracing me further?

ASHAMED
Dear Ashamed: She is disgracing only herself. People know that you are NOT your brother's keeper, even if he needs one.

HD Council Plans Christmas Party

Gray County Home Demonstration Council met recently in Miss Lou Ella Patterson's office in the Courthouse for its regular meeting. Club presidents and committee chairmen made their yearly reports.

Mrs. J. L. Carlton reported on the party which the council had given for Senior Citizens on Nov. 20.

Mrs. O. O. Bishop of Lefors HDC reported on the recreation training school given recently by Miss Lucille Moore of College Station at Claude for clubs of this district. Mrs. Bishop will teach a recreation school in the near future for clubs in this county.

Mrs. R. Frazier announced that the council Christmas party will be held in St. Matthew's Episcopal Parish Hall on Dec. 4 at two p.m. All home demonstration club members are invited to attend.

Mrs. O. G. Smith, Mrs. Jack Howard and Mrs. A. P. Coombes were appointed as a committee to see if dresses can be put up in the home demonstrator's office.

It was voted by the council to have one meeting in January instead of two, as has been done previously.

Miss Patterson will hold a training school for newly-elected officers on Dec. 8 at 9:30 a.m. which presidents, secretaries and council delegates are urged to attend.

Girl Scout Activities

Troop 77, under the leadership of Mrs. Frank Conner and Mrs. Jackie Liller are working on First Class badges. The troop spent a recent Saturday at Camp Mel Davis, where they hiked, practiced fire - building and cooked dinner on open fires.

Scouts attending were Mattie Kay Aulil, Donna Conner, Patricia Lambright, Nancy Liller, Jowanah McDowell, Livillo Pruess, Linda Simpson, Linda Henning, Linda Peacock, Becky Selman and Winifred Reams.

Troop 76 of Lamar Neighborhood have just recently been organized with thirteen girls in the troop. During their first four meetings, the Brownies were busy learning their Promise and making Brownie coin purses.

An investiture service was held on Nov. 24 in Girl Scout Little House. Becoming full-fledged first-year Brownies and receiving pins were Carolyn Gabin, Hope Clett, Phillis Blackmon, Ginger Ferguson, Donna Bowen, Judy Hopper, Carlotta Larkin, Susie Weatherly, Toni Blackmon, Gail Ann Ogilvie, Joanne Hanson, Rosalie Franke, Judy Hogan and the assistant leader, Mrs. Frank Blackmon. During the next few meetings, the Brownies will be planning for Christmas.

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 50 celebrated its third birthday recently in Girl Scout Little House. As each scout made her Girl Scout Promise, she lighted a candle and was presented with her membership star pin by Mrs. John Ramsey, leader and Mrs. J. R. Bonner, assistant. Susan Davis received her fly - up wings and Intermediate pin and was welcomed as a new member.

Scouts receiving membership stars were Judy Bonner, Suzy Benton, Kathleen Dailey, Jessica Dugan, Kona Dugan, Mary Goodwin, Frances Hampton, Diana Farrow, Cynthia Osborn, Patricia Ramsey, Martha Stewart, and Bruce Ann Gorden.

Mrs. J. W. Dugan, Mrs. James Dailey and Mrs. D. A. Stuart served refreshments of cake and pink lemonade following the ceremony. The troop has been making Christmas cards during their November troop meetings.

Brownie Scout Troop 76 has been busy as the proverbial bees during their fall troop meetings. On pretty days they have been on hikes and trips to the park. During one meeting they assisted with the TB seal campaign.

Mrs. Joe Fischer is leader with Mrs. A. P. Coombes as co-leader. Troop members are Debbie Allen, Terry Lee Bailey, Carol Camy, Paige, Jackie Coombs, Cheryl Daniels, Vickie Elishmer, Joanne Fischer, Sharon Frasier, Joanne Hickman, Joyce Hoover, Vicki Hudson, Judy Hurry, Penny Payne, Barbara Piteck, Cathy Rasmussen, LaJohnna Sears, Donna Seitz, Karen Taylor, Judy Ann Utzman, and Sherry Washington.

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 12 of Highland Neighborhood with its leaders, Mrs. Vernon Stuckley and Mrs. Vernon Langley and assistant leaders, Mrs. M. A. Grappe and Mrs. R. V. Masterson, spent a recent Saturday on a cook out near Miami. The troop left by auto mobiles from Girl Scout Little House at 9:45 a.m. and returned at 4 p.m.

Upon arrival at the campsite, east of Miami, troop members unloaded food, supplies and cooking equipment. They divided into groups and selected places to start fires, clearing away leaves, making wood piles for the ten - can stoves used to cook meat and potatoes. Open fires were used to roast marshmallows. Each scout furnished the food she wanted to cook and was responsible for cooking equipment, which they have made at troop meetings.

Hiking and exploring were the favorite activities during the cook-out.

Members of the troop making the trip were Annette Grappe, Karan Hepler, Beverly Langley, Teresa Mack, Patricia Masterson, Marion Neslage, Nancy Schwind, Joy Shultz, Maurine Stuart, Patricia Stuckey, Terrie Watson and Mary Carol who is a new troop member.

SKELLYTOWN (Spl) — Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 49 had an overnight stay at Camp Mel Davis recently. A Weiner roast was held on Friday evening before the indoor fire - place. Saturday was spent hiking and following tracks of wildlife. For lunch, scouts made a campfire stew.

Making the trip were the leader, Mrs. F. C. Horner, Mrs. Floyd Boston, committee mother and scouts, Rosalie McAllister, Donna Moore, Ann Harlan, Melva Bacon, Beverly Heaton, Sharon Mayfield and Peggy Horner.

When John Marshall Harlan was sworn in as a Supreme Court justice in 1955, he became the 89th man to sit on the high bench.

If the vote was a smashing defeat for the Communists it was a bitter vote of no confidence for the former deputies who snarled French politics from the day the Fourth Republic began after World War II.

Only 146 former deputies were re-elected; 338 were beaten and 88 did not run for reelection.

Former Premier Edgar Faure and white goateed Socialist Paul Ramadier were defeated Sunday. Former premiers Pierre Mendes-Franche and Joseph Laniel were knocked out a week ago. Former Premier Edouard Daladier quit after the first ballot because his defeat was certain.

C-M Television Doing Business On Somerville

C & M Television, a Pampa home furnishings store, opened today at its new location, 125 N. Somerville. The store, formerly located at 308 W. Foster, moved into the old Ford Food building last week.

People are busy registering for a Saturday drawing in which a television set, electric drier, RCA Hi-Fi and many small appliances will be given away. Registrants must be over 18 but need not buy anything to qualify.

Hours this week are 8:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. with the drawing set for 8 p.m. Saturday. A General Electric television set, an RCA Whirlpool drier and an RCA Hi-Fi set with extra speakers will be big items in the giveaway.

An additional drawing card is a free RCA electric toy truck with every purchase of an RCA product.

C & M Television, in business for six years on Foster, has expanded operations by moving into a larger store. Formerly C & M furniture was housed in an adjoining building.

Former Land Commissioner Leaves Prison Saturday

By O. B. LLOYD JR.
United Press International

AUSTIN (UPI) — Former Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, key figure in Texas' multi-million dollar veterans' land scandal, walks from Huntsville prison Saturday as a free man, the final hour of his sentence served.

Behind him will be a record of exemplary prison conduct that earned him the rating of trusty and cut his six year sentence in half. Ahead will be the return to his family, varied business interests and a farm that has been in the family more than 100 years.

Giles' departure from the grim prison walls involves neither pardon nor parole.

He became technically eligible for parole consideration on Jan. 10, 1957 — almost two years ago. But state authorities rejected all family pleas for clemency. With credit for good behavior, he will have served the last day of his sentence next Saturday.

In Fine Health

Giles was described as in good condition — both physically and mentally, but about 20 pounds lighter than when he surrendered himself at the penitentiary early on the morning of Jan. 16, 1956.

That was after he was convicted and sentenced to three years in prison as an accomplice to theft by a district court jury in Austin.

Then, the walls of public esteem tumbling about him, the man who had been elected to nine consecutive terms as land commissioner entered a plea of guilty to 12 indictments — nine in Travis county, one in Bexar and two in Zavala.

On each plea, he received a six-year concurrent sentence. Coupled with the first conviction, the sentences totaled 75 years.

Rogan Giles, who has handled the family affairs in his father's absence, said Giles intends to face the future "day by day."

The young Austin attorney has visited his father regularly for the two years, 11 months and 20 days he will have been behind walls.

"I know his attitude and his outlook... his interests are varied... his mind is keen and alert," the attorney said of his 58-year-old father.

He has made the best of a situation as he found it. And he has tried to fit in to the best of his ability.

"His feeling is that the past is in the past. There is nothing about the past that can be changed. My observation is that he's concerned about the future."

Giles, the son added, "looks fine."

He then asked to be quoted as commending prison authorities for the treatment his father has received.

"We were extremely impressed — my mother, my brother and I — with the fair and impartial way everything was handled. He was never given one single thing extra. But he was never denied anything because it was an unusual case," he said.

"We commend, admire and respect" the prison administration. "I don't mind giving them a public pat on the back because it is darn sure true," he added.

His father, he said, feels there is nothing can be done "about what has gone by." The former state official, the young attorney said, intends to return to Austin and "try to be a part of community life in every way possible."

As a trusty, the elder Giles has been doing what was described as both clerical and manual work in the main construction office.

"And when he walks out that door Saturday, he will have served every single solitary minute of the time assessed," his son said.

New President Inaugurated In Mexico City

MEXICO CITY (UPI) — Adolfo Lopez Mateos was inaugurated president of Mexico today in colorful ceremonies attended by thousands of persons, including U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

More than 3,000 persons jammed into the palace of fine arts to watch Lopez Mateos take the oath of office and to see outgoing President Adolfo Ruiz pascual the symbolic white and green sash diagonally across his chest.

Nearly half a million persons lined the streets to form a guard of honor for Lopez Mateos and Ruiz Cortines as they drove to the palace. The capital was in a gala, festive mood. Flags and banners fluttered in the breeze beside multi-colored Christmas decorations put up last week.

Lopez Mateos, 48, described as a "practical egghead," won the recent presidential elections as the candidate for the Party of Revolutionary. He had been secretary of labor in the Ruiz Cortines cabinet.

Official delegations from 51 nations were on hand to witness the inauguration.

Dulles, Dr. Milton Eisenhower, brother of President Eisenhower and president of Johns Hopkins University, and Gen. Curtis LeMay headed the U.S. delegation.

Man Found Guilty Of Drunken Driving

Lister Foy Blackstone, 31, 214 E. Tuke, entered a plea of guilty this morning to charges of driving while intoxicated. Blackstone was fined $125 and sentenced to the mandatory three days in jail by Judge Bruce Parker.

Blackstone was arrested by Pampa police Saturday about 5:15 p.m. after running a red light at the intersection of S. Starkweather and Barnes. It was Blackstone's second D.W.I. offense.

Heart Operation Might Be Solution

By DELOS SMITH
UPI Science Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—A brand new heart operation points toward a surgical solution for angina pectoris, a disease which causes disabling chest pains when the victim exerts himself and thus makes countless cardiac cripples.

When the heart muscle doesn't get enough blood to meet the immediate demands being made upon it, you have angina pectoris. But what causes these passing failures in blood supply to the muscle is a matter for scientific argument. Some authorities list angina pectoris as a psychosomatic disease.

The new operation is based on the premise that in the severe form of the disease one or more of the three major branches of the main heart artery has been plugged entirely by the fatty substances which cause "hardening" of the arteries.

Devise Operation
Three professors of the University of California Medical School, Los Angeles, devised an operation to correct such a situation (if it existed) by the most direct means possible. The surgeon exposes the heart, looks at and feels the arterial branches where they connect with the main heart artery, and removes the plug if one is found.

They have tried the operation on five men whose angina pectoris had made them cripples. In all five they found arterial plugs and removed them. One died of surgical complications. The other four have been greatly improved and one even has a part-time job.

In reporting to the New England Journal of Medicine, Dr. William P. Longmire Jr., professor of surgery, Dr. Jack A. Cannon, associate professor, and Dr. Albert A. Kattus, associate professor of cardiology, made no claim for the operation beyond their proof that it is "technically feasible to re-establish blood flow in previously obstructed major coronary arteries."

Benefits Must Be Proven
Before any one can say for sure that it is a solution for angina pectoris, the operation will have to be performed on a much larger number of patients and the benefits will have to be proven to be lasting. Their four surviving patients are only a year or less away from their operations.

None of the several operations now used to increase blood flow to the heart muscle, is good enough to have been generally accepted by surgeons, they pointed out. It seemed to them that the best procedure would be to remove any obstructions from the heart arteries directly. This is done routinely in blocked arteries which are near the surface. Then why not in heart arteries?

They invented two surgical tools with which to open arterial branches at their junctions with the main heart artery, and remove any obstructing core. Since it was doubtful that techniques could cope with such surgery in an artery under the pressure of a heart artery, the operation was first tried and proved in laboratory animals.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

The American bridge player believes firmly that everyone is entitled to life, liberty and the right for everyone to play no-trump contracts, except his partner.

As a result of this belief, although practically everyone sets his requirements for a two no-trump opening as from 22 to 24 points, practically everyone opens two no-trump with a 21-point hand, balanced distribution and stoppers in all suits.

The ostensible theory is that he ensures the lead coming up to his big hand and also gives no suit information.

The 21-point two no-trump came out pretty well today. North raised to game and West opened the trick to game and South won the trick, took his three top diamonds, led a club to dummy's ace, discarded a spade on dummy's jack of clubs, East had to play the jack and this gave South three club tricks and his contract.

If South had merely opened one club North would either have passed or responded, one diamond. In either case, East would have stuck in a heart bid and now a heart would be opened and effectively scuttle any no-trump game.

CARPET'S CLEAN

This housewife does her own carpet cleaning at home without any inconvenience or trouble by using Blue Lustre Carpet and Upholstery Cleaner, available at Pampa Hardware, 120 N. Cuyler.

NAZI TRIALS SPEEDED
STUTTGART, Germany (UPI)—West Germany is taking steps to speed up the prosecution of Nazi criminals. The Baden-Wuerttemberg State Ministry of Justice announced that a central agency for preparing and coordinating prosecution of former Nazis is being set up at Ludwigsburg near here.

Blue Lustre Eases Carpet Cleaning

The cleaning of wall-to-wall carpeting and fine upholstery has always been of major concern to neat homemakers everywhere.

In the days of the kerosene lamp and the back yard pump, housewives relied on the old-fashioned carpet beater to literally attack carpet soil by trying to pound it out in clouds of dust.

Today, thanks to science and technical skill, many household chores have become simple tasks—and this is more than ever true with carpet and upholstery cleaning when Blue Lustre was developed.

Like so many other wonderful products on the market today, the magic of modern chemistry also created the efficient cleaning agent that has made Blue Lustre famous.

Blue Lustre, a very gentle and odorless liquid concentrate, was designed for the fine home cleaning of carpets and upholstery.

ing of carpets and upholstery which produces professional results at great savings.

This marvelous concentrate is mixed with water, then agitated or stirred to create a billowy foam. This Blue Lustre foam is easily applied with a long handled brush or it can be used in any type of shampoo rug applicator. Housewives using Blue Lustre for the first time are always surprised at how quickly old forgotten colors seem to spring back to life, revealing again the true beauty of their floor covering.

Blue Lustre foam penetrates instantly to the carpet soil and its unique action holds the dirt particles in suspension for easy removal by vacuuming. Since only foam is used, there is no soaking or matting of the fabric and it is soon dry and ready for use again with nap left open and lofty. When vacuuming after the carpet is dry, all soil and cleaning agent is removed so there is no oily or gummy residue left in the carpet.

A wonderful advantage to the busy housewife who keeps Blue Lustre on hand is the convenience of quickly eliminating those soiled pathways on the carpet or cleaning any other small area without going over the entire carpet—keeping the floor covering new and fresh looking by removing spots dulled by soil as they appear.

At considerable savings in cost, housewives are turning more and more to Blue Lustre's modern home cleaning method for the care of fine carpeting and upholstery. Blue Lustre is so handy to keep around the house because it is odorless and non-flammable. It's so economical to use—one half gallon will clean three 9 x 12 rugs—it's also available in quarts and gallons. Available at Pampa Hardware Co.

Richard Arlen Swashbuckles Before Movie Cameras Again

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Richard Arlen. Remember that name? He made his movie debut back in 1920 when films were silent. Woodrow Wilson was president, prohibition was in force, and the New York Yankees were just another baseball club.

After 38 years Arlen still is swashbuckling before the cameras. This week he is performing in his 250th picture. It's not the lead role, but the veteran actor isn't fretting about that.

His leading man days are over, his co-stars almost "forgotten"—Clara Bow, Mary Bryan, Fay Wray and Virginia Bruce. Arlen, who looks 10 years younger than his 58 years, recalled the old days nostalgically, then blasted the current crop of stars.

"Used to be that 15,000 fans would greet a star at the railroad station when he came back to Hollywood," he said.

"There was a special ramp provided for us to get through the crowds. Nowadays when the stars arrive their own families don't bother to meet them. That's because the new bunch are as dull off the screen as they are in pictures."

"In the early days we tried to make a good impression on the public. I still do. Whenever I'm in public I look the very best I can by wearing a suit and tie. Now the girls wear blue jeans and the boys think they're well-dressed in T-shirts.

"It's just a matter of bad manners and poor upbringing. It shows a lack of respect for our audiences."

Arlen recalled the fun involved in making movies.

"We'd laugh it up between scenes and enjoy ourselves. And when it was time to roll the cameras the director would say, 'Ok, kids, stop your scratching, and we'd shoot the scene. Today the actors brood around between takes and then start scratching when the film starts moving."

"Thirty-five years ago there were no psychiatrists out here. We didn't need 'em. We were too busy working and having fun."

"Today there are 147 head shrinkers in Beverly Hills alone."

Arlen has a feature role in 20th Century-Fox's "Warlock" in which he is listed eighth in the billing behind such stars as Richard Widmark, Henry Fonda, and Anthony Quinn. During his lunch breaks he sits with other oldtimers in the east talking over the good old days.

"You can't stay on the top of the heap forever," he observed. "The picture business has given me a good life, lots of laughs, travel and a fine income."

Colts Clinch West NFL Division Title

By EARL WRIGHT
United Press International

The Colts, Baltimore's biggest sports find since Babe Ruth, have won their first pro football division title and will play the Cleveland Browns or New York Giants for the National League championship Dec. 28.

The Colts proved their class Sunday by scoring 28 points in the second half to erase a 27-7 San Francisco 49ers-Niners lead and clinch the Western Division title with a 35-27 triumph. Each NFL club has two more games and no team has won the Western race so easily since the league assumed its current setup in 1950 with the Browns, Forty-Niners and Colts entering from the All-America conference.

Such stars as John Unitas, Lenney Moore and Alan Ameche probably could be elected mayor of Baltimore this week but the Colts and their rabid rovers also owe a vote of thanks to the league's hottest current club, the Pittsburgh Steelers.

The Steelers, playing in 16-degree weather at Pitt Stadium, were as hot as a blast furnace while whipping the Chicago Bears—only club that had much hope of catching the Colts, 24-10. The victory, the first the Steelers ever scored against the Bears in 14 tries, enabled the Colts to boost their margin to three games with only two to play.

Cleveland put basketball shoes on quarterback Milt Plum in the final period and maintained its one-game margin over New York in the Eastern race. Plum's passes, plus the receiving of Ray Renfro and Lew Carpenter's running, enabled the Browns to rally and defeat the Washington Redskins, 21-14, while the Giants defeated the Philadelphia Eagles, 24-10.

Rams Beat Cards
Billy Wade's two touchdown passes to Leon Clarke in the last 20 minutes gave the Los Angeles Rams a 20-14 victory over the Chicago Cardinals in the other game. The Detroit Lions scored a 24-14 victory over the Green Bay Packers Thursday and those two clubs did not play Sunday.

The Steelers, who have swept their last five starts, trail the Browns by two games and the Giants by one but don't get another crack at the two leaders. The Browns visit the Eagles next Sunday while the Lions entertain the Giants. The Giants then play host to the Browns Dec. 14 in the game which probably will decide the Eastern race unless Cleveland and Detroit win Sunday.

Defending State Champs To Go For 16th Straight

The defending state champion Pampa Harvesters open their home season tonight at 8 p. m. in Harvester Field House against Mangum, Okla.

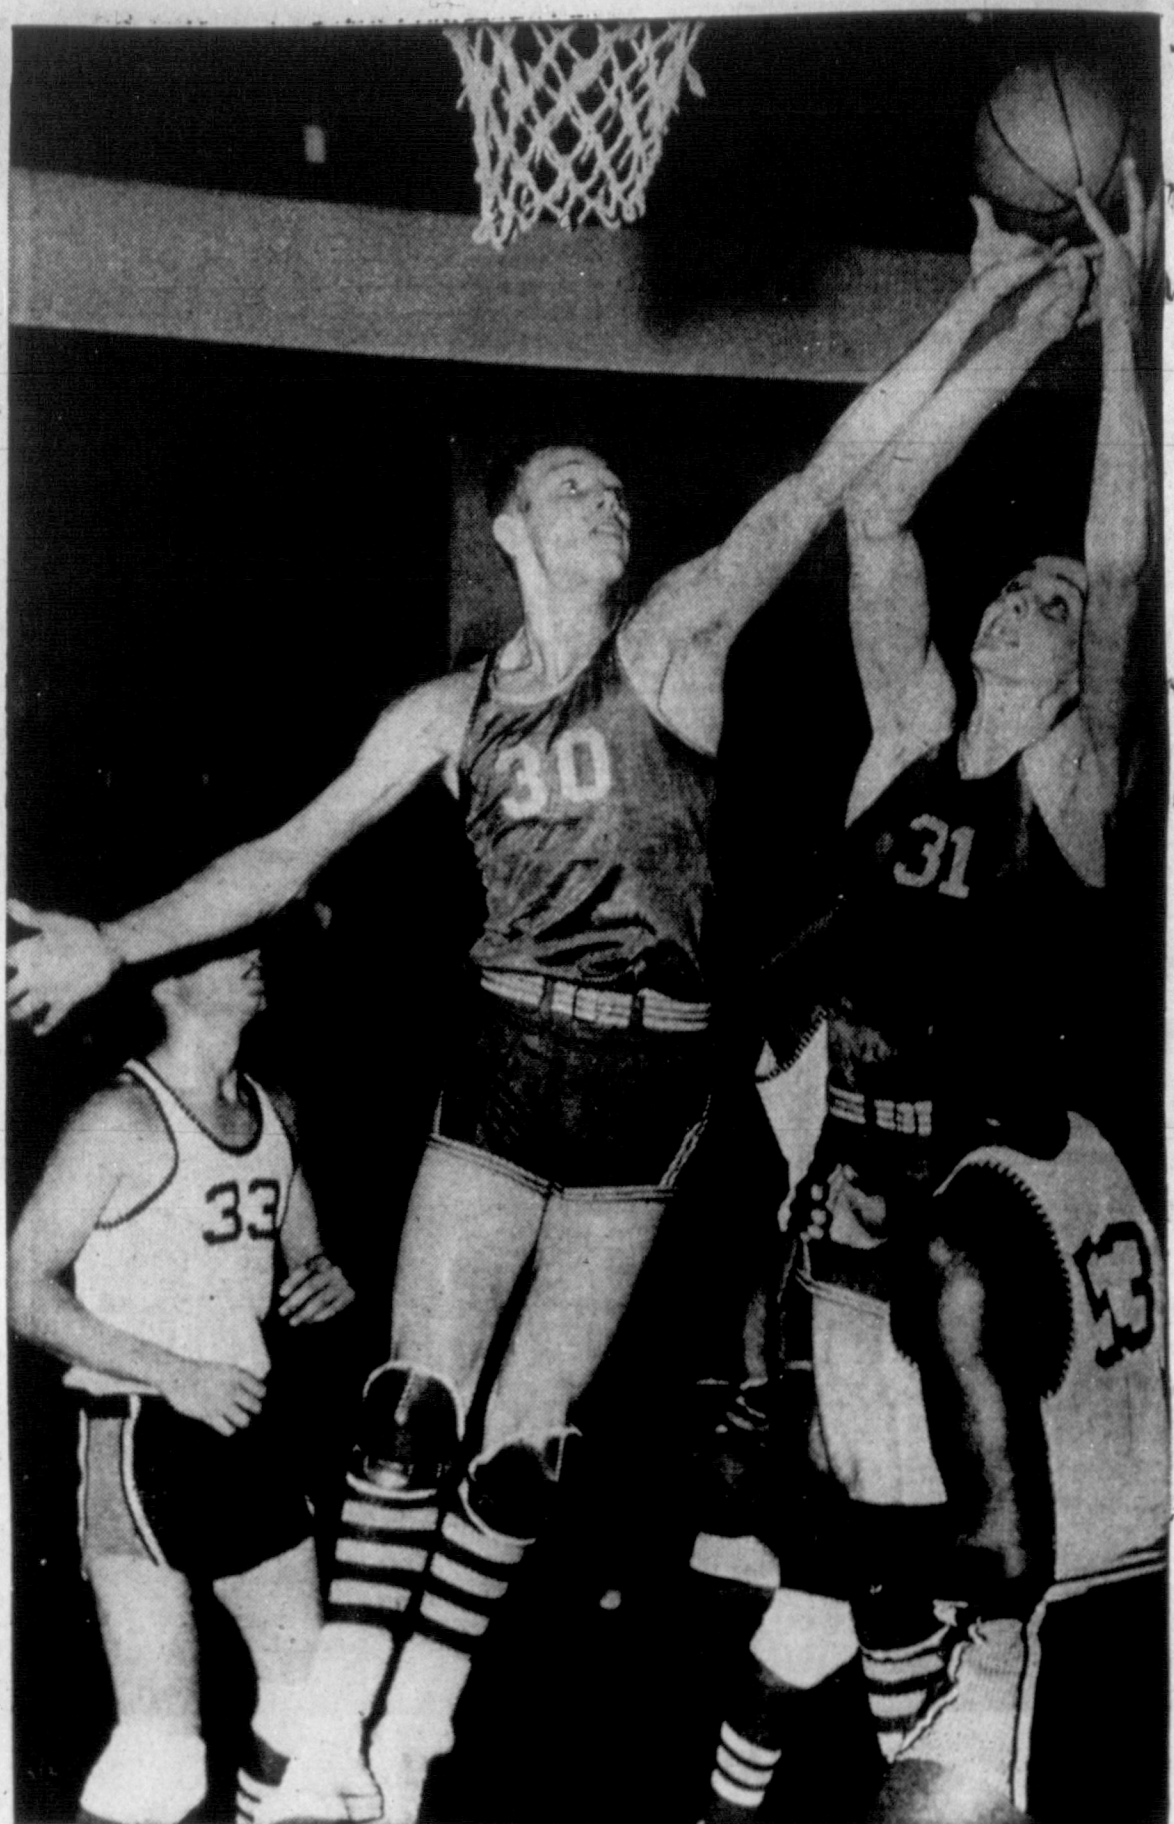

In a preliminary game, the Shockers will take on Mangum B at 6:30 p. m.

The Harvesters have won 15 straight games, including their first two this year. They have captured 30 of their last 32 contests.

Coyle Winborn, 6-4 all-state forward, has been the big gun for Pampa so far this year. He scored 19 points in Friday's 55-42 win over Mangum, and also tallied 19 in Saturday's 67-51 triumph over Quanah.

Charles Minor, a 5-11 guard, netted 13 points against Mangum and 16 against Quanah. Mack Layne, the 6-5 starting center, tossed in 18 points against Quanah.

Other Harvester starters will be 6-4 forward Bob Gindorf and 6-3 forward Craig Winborn. Coach Clifton McNeely lists three of his cagers as forwards, since his offense is set up that way.

LSU Leads Final UPI Poll; Sooners Fifth; TCU Ninth

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Louisiana State Tigers, picked to finish ninth this year in their own 12-team Southeastern Conference, today were voted 1958 national college football champions by the United Press International Board of Coaches.

Twenty-nine of the 55 leading coaches, whose weekly ratings generally have become recognized as the most authoritative in college football, picked Louisiana State first on their final ballots. Four coaches cast first-place votes for second-ranked Iowa, one picked third-ranked Army for first and the other first-place vote went to the Air Force Academy.

Coach Paul Dietzel's Tigers, who swept through 10 games to emerge as the nation's only major undefeated-untied team and gain a Sugar Bowl berth opposite Clemson, received a total of 331 points. LSU thus fell only 19 points shy of a perfect score of 350.

Becomes Steady Team
The Tigers, ranked 17th in the early UPI ratings, became one of the few steady teams in an unpredictable 1958 campaign. They were the sixth team to appear at the top of the UPI ratings during the first eight weeks but sank their claws in and held on after taking over the No. 1 spot Nov. 11. Louisiana State averaged 27.5 points a game while limiting its victims to a 5.3-point average. The

Big Improvement
The Harvesters looked a little rough around the edges in their season opener, despite their win over Mangum. However, they showed great improvement in lining a Quanah team which averaged almost 6-4 in height.

Pampa hit more than 40 percent of its field goal attempts against Quanah Saturday night.

Boys likely to see action for the Harvesters, besides the starters, are 5-10 Joe Timms and 5-11 guard Phillip Gist. Timms has scored 6 points in less than 5 minutes of game action, and Gist has tallied two points, in less than three minutes of playing time.

Other players on the Pampa varsity are 5-11 guard Mert Cooper, 5-9 guard Hershell Terrell, 6-3 guard Don McGuire, and 5-11 guard Bill Wray.

Hustling Mangum
The Mangum team is only average in height, but is a hustling group which makes more than its share of shots and gets more than its share of rebounds.

Two of Mangum's most dangerous men are the guards, Murl Anderson and Ken Parker. Anderson made eight points Friday, and Parker sank 11. Jim Norwood, the center, is a good playmaker, and forward James Callens is deadly at the free-throw line.

Other Mangum varsity players are forwards Nick Curtiss and Stanley Conrad.

Shocker Starters
The Shockers have proved to be a good last-half club in winning both their starts—42-34 over Mangum B and 34-27 over Quanah B. In the Mangum game, the score was tied 20-20 at halftime, and in the Quanah contest the Shockers led only 17-16 at intermission. However, they came back strong in the second halves for decisive victories.

Pat Carter and Allen Wise have led the Shocker attack. Carter has tallied a total of 24 points, and Wise has scored 18. Other probable Shocker starters are Bill Neslage, 6-Wisconsin (7-1-1) 170, Bengi Richardson, and Hershell Terrell.

Shocker reserves are Eben Warner, Oscar Watters, Harold Green, Jim Wilborn, Larry Stroud, Don Curry, Lester Stanfield, and Ken Dulaney.

Surprise! Pampa Picked For Title

Surprise!
The Pampa Harvesters have been picked to win the District 8-A championship. The Harvesters were the unanimous choice of district coaches.

The Harvesters received a 11 seven first place votes, for a total of 49 points in the poll. A first place vote counted 7 points, a second place vote 6, etc. Coaches did not rank their own teams.

Borger was a solid choice for second place with 40 points. Monterey had 28, Palo Duro 26, Tascosa 24, Plainview 24, Amarillo 20, and Lubbock 10.

Borger split with Pampa last year, but was knocked off by Plainview—so the Harvesters took the undisputed title. The Bulldog had a 23-4 record last year, but have only one returning regular and two letterman from last year's squad.

Monterey finished in the cellar last year, with only one win, but has two returning regulars, 6-4 center Dick Deilke and 5-11 guard Dave Hutson.

Palo Duro has one returning starter and two lettermen. The fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth place teams don't have a starting regular among them. However,

Plainview has four lettermen and Lubbock has two.

District records last year were Pampa 11-1; Borger 10-2; Plainview 8-4; Amarillo 6-6; Palo Duro 4-8; Lubbock 2-10, and Monterey 1-11. This is Tascosa's first year in the district.

Amarillo's seventh ranking is the lowest ever given the Sandies in a pre-season basketball poll.

and went on to down Alabama, Hardin-Simmons, Miami (Fla.), Kentucky, Florida, Mississippi, Duke, Mississippi State and Tulane en route to their best season in 50 years.

Two Close Shaves
The Tigers had only two close shaves, edging Florida, 10-7, and Mississippi State, 7-6.

In addition to their 29 first-place votes, the Tigers received two for second place, two for third and one for fourth. Points are distributed on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis for votes from first through tenth place.

Runnerup Iowa, the Big Ten's champion and Rose Bowl representative, drew 275 points, while third-place Army had 255. They were followed by Auburn with 234, Oklahoma with 224, Wisconsin with 170, last year's champion Ohio State with 117, the Air Force with 75, Texas Christian with 74 and Syracuse with 64.

In addition to LSU, four other members of the top 10 wound up with bowl berths. Oklahoma will play Syracuse in the Orange Bowl while the Air Force meets TCU in the Cotton Bowl.

Only eight other teams received votes in the final roundup as follows: Purdue, 54; Mississippi, 41; Clemson, 24; Notre Dame, 22; Florida, 9; California, 8; Northwestern, 6; and Southern Methodist, 2.

Pro Grid Draft Slated Today

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—The Green Bay Packers open the National Football League's "early" draft of college stars today and are expected to make Buddy Humphrey of Baylor, Tom Greene of Holy Cross or Randy Duncan of Iowa their No. 1 choice. All are quarterbacks.

The 12 clubs will run through the first four rounds of their annual draft, starting at 10 a. m. s. t. The remaining 26 rounds will be rescheduled at the league's regular January meeting at Miami, Fla.

Besides Humphrey, Green and Duncan, other quarterbacks who figure to be selected today are Don Allard of Boston College, Joe Kapp of California and Boyd Dowler of Colorado. Others who probably will be picked include Buddy Dial, Rice's All-America end; Bob Harrison, Oklahoma's All-America center; Wray Carlton, Duke halfback; Nick Petrante, Notre Dame fullback; Gary Frahat, Michigan end; John Wooden, Colorado guard; and Ellison Kelly, Michigan state guard.

Dick Bass, major college total offense leader from the College of the Pacific, also figures to be drafted although he announced Saturday he would remain in school next season. He is eligible for the draft but has another year of eligibility.

The team with the poorest current percentages will lead off each round with the top-percentage clubs selecting last each time until 48 players have been chosen. The Packers won the dubious honor of picking first in each of Monday's rounds by losing to the Detroit Lions last Thursday to bring their record to 1-4-1.

Each club will not wind up with four players. Most of the teams will have more than four or less than four choices because of prior deals involving draft selections. The Los Angeles Rams, for example, will get nine selections while the Pittsburgh Steelers, who have been busy trading draft choices for current professionals since Buddy Parker became coach just before the 1957 season began, will make no selections.

Harris Fights Don Fleeman

NEW YORK (UPI)—Former heavyweight challenger Roland LaStarza and Roy Harris try comebacks tonight, the start of a lively boxing week featured by Virgil Alkins' first defense of the welterweight crown.

For 31-year-old LaStarza of New York, it will be the third comeback attempt since his 11th-round knockout by Rocky Marciano in their title fight Sept. 24, 1953.

Roland, out of action this time for 13 months while having chips pared out of his elbows, meets Larry Zernitz of Springfield, Mass., in a 10-rounder at St. Nicholas Arena tonight. Zernitz, 25, has won five straight.

At Dallas, Tex., tonight, Harris makes his first start since he failed to wrest the heavy crown from Floyd Patterson Aug. 18. Patterson knocked him out in the 12th round.

Harris engages Don Fleeman of Dallas in a 12-rounder. In Fleeman's last bout, he knocked out ex-champion Ezzard Charles.

In the week's big fight, Friday night, Akins of St. Louis risks his lightweight crown for the first time in a 15-rounder with Don Jordan of Los Angeles at the Los Angeles Olympic Auditorium. Their bout will be televised and broadcast nationally by NBC.

Junior High Cagers Open Tuesday

Both Pampa junior high schools open their basketball seasons Tuesday afternoon, at home.

The Pampa Junior High Reapers swing into action with both eighth and ninth grade games in Reeper Gymnasium, against Travis of Amarillo. The first game, which may be either the eighth or ninth grade contest, begins at 2:30 p. m.

The Lee Rebel ninth graders open at 3:45 in Rebel Field House against Horace Mann of Amarillo. No eighth grade game is scheduled. A Sunday story which reported the Lee-Mann contest as a night game was in error.

One line of the Lee schedule was also incorrect. Lee does not play Ferrytan Jan. 13.

The starting lineup for Lee will be Lloyd Balch at center; Jim Crinklow, guard; Jim Stephenson, forward; Harold Burgess, forward; and Jerry Ford, guard.

Pampa's starters will be picked from the following seven boys: Max Patton, J. D. Hinger, Bill Hughes, Corky Godfrey, Jim Harris, Jim Story, and Robert Garrett.

Major Loops Draft Today

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The pickings will be slim in the annual major league draft today with no more than six players expected to be selected although such "retreads" as Dave Pope, Larry Raines and Jim Pisoni may earn another go-around.

Draft price for any major league club wishing to take a chance is $25,000 and if that club cares to return the player after a 30-day "look," it gets only $12,500 back.

At that rate, it amounts to $12,500 for a look—so a lot of clubs, including the world champion Yankees, aren't even going to bother.

Two clubs, the Cubs and Orioles, are interested in Pope, a long-ball hitting outfielder who batted .315 with San Diego of the Pacific Coast League last season and now is on the Toronto roster. Pope played briefly with the Orioles two seasons back but spent most of his big league career with the Indians.

Pittsburgh is reported toying with the idea of drafting Raines, another former member of the Indians who played shortstop for San Diego this year and batted

Tag Team Match Slated Tonight

The wrestling card tonight at the Top 'O Texas Sportsman's Club has Red Donovan and Doug Donovon going against All Bey and Danno McDonald in the tag team main event.

In other matches, Bad Boy Hines wrestles Tommy Phelps three out of five falls, with no time limit and no disqualification. Red Donovan grapples All Bey in a one fall, 30 minute time limit opening match. First match begins at 8:30.

College Basketball Season Scheduled to Open Tonight

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press International

NCAA champion Kentucky and National scoring champion Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati will serve as the feature attractions on the opening program of the 1958-59 college basketball season tonight.

In every section of the country, college teams that have been straining at the leash waiting for the official Dec. 1 starting date will be rushing into action. Among them will be many of the top-ranked teams and players from last season.

Kentucky, surprise winner of the NCAA tournament last spring, has lost all starters except Johnny Cox but, with tall replacements on hand, is expected to start another triumphant campaign for Coach Adolph Rupp by blasting Florida State.

Face Indiana State
Robertson, who racked up the scoring crown as a sophomore last year with an average of 35.1 points per game, will be on view in a home opening game against Indiana State.

Little Don Hennon of Pittsburgh, with Robertson the only returning member of the 1957-58 UPI All-America team, also will be "at work," leading the Panthers in a visit to Ann Arbor, Mich., for a game against Michigan.

Kansas, which had expected to have seven-foot All-America Wilt Chamberlain on hand for another season, will be without him when it opens the season against Rice. Chamberlain has turned professional with the Harlem Globetrotters. Elgin Baylor of Seattle, also an All-American as a junior last year, now plays pro ball with the Minneapolis Lakers. Guy Rodgers of Temple, fifth member of last year's glamor five, graduated.

West Virginia, voted the No. 1 team in the nation by the UPI Board of Coaches at the end of the last regular season, will be opening tonight with a road game against Furman. The Mountaineers have lost three starters but still have star Jerry West and are figured very strong.

Three Texas Loop Teams In American Association?

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Houston, Dallas and Fort Worth officially will be welcomed into the American Association today as the newest members of a 10-team league barring some unforeseen, last-minute hitch.

The presidents of both leagues involved, Ed Doherty of the triple-A American Association and Dick Butler of the Double-A Texas League, were "highly confident" the new realignment setup would be adopted today.

"There are only a few minor obstacles to be cleared up," Doherty said, "and they are not big enough to stand in the way."

One of those obstacles is an indemnity payment to the five clubs still remaining in the Texas League—Tulsa, San Antonio, Austin, Victoria and Corpus Christi. These clubs originally asked for a total of $120,000 and the American Association countered with an offer of $50,000.

"So we decided to split it down the middle," Butler said. "And if they come up with $85,000, it's a deal."

Skelly's 1959 Car Comparisons:

What are the prices of the new cars? Do I have to take off my hat to sit in the back seat? How much leg room in each? Hip room? How do horsepower ratings compare? What cars will fit into my garage?

What you get for your car money is answered in the many specifications of popular models listed below. In most cases, car manufacturers or their dealers have provided these figures. In others, we believe the facts are the most authentic obtainable.

What gasoline to use—what motor oil? Skelly has given answers to these questions. Especially note the chart at the bottom of the page, showing the rating of various motor oils, figured on a system similar to that used in establishing Olympic Decathlon standards.

More than $1,500,000,000 has been spent to bring about the changes you find listed in the chart below. Skelly hopes you will spend many an interesting minute analyzing those figures in your own interest.

The Pampa Daily News YOUR FREEDOM NEWSPAPER

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is a right that must be consistent with the truths expressed in such great moral guides as the Golden Rule, The Ten Commandments and the Declaration of Independence.

Too Much Adjustment

"There are limits to the uses of conformity, and the evidence suggests that we have just about reached them." Thus the Reader's Digest wisely intones a rising theme of contemporary thought.

It seems that in the Midwest recently, a survey was conducted among parents of school age children. The survey revealed that the most important thing the parents wanted the schools to teach their offspring was how to get along with others.

Now, if conformity is so all-fired important, is this the stuff you want your children to conform to? We should remind ourselves that some of this world's most advanced thinkers were non-conformists right from the beginning.

New Defense Trends

Some of the recent notions expressed by high officials on the matter of defense trends must seem as much puzzling as comforting to the ordinary American citizen.

Take for instance the comments of Secretary of Defense McElroy on the occasion of his return from a long tour of Asia and the Middle East.

He said the United States has to step up its capacity to fight limited wars, particularly in fringe areas accessible only by sea and air.

What is hard to grasp is why this seems to come to the government now as a relatively new idea. Ever since Korea we've all been aware of the danger of the so-called brushfire wars that could not reasonably be stilled by resort to massive retaliatory weapons.

McElroy made it plain the new interest in military power to meet small-scale Communist harassments stems from our experiences in the Lebanon and Formosa situations this year. Reliance on steadily maintained sea and air communications was obviously vital.

Yet one cannot help wondering why these experiences were necessary to drive the lesson home. The Reds have long showed a ready disposition to prob into fringe area soft spots.

It was likewise a little disconcerting to hear the way in which it was suggested it might be time for us to reappraise our use of the intermediate range ballistic missiles.

We are now considering a production slash in these weapons, in favor of the longer-range intercontinental missiles.

McElroy said the ICBM's are coming along faster than expected, and also that IRBM bases planned on Allied soil are vulnerable to Soviet assault. Economy enters the picture, too, since we are anxious to avoid piling one weapons system upon another unless it is crucial to our defense.

But, of course, the European bases, over which there has been so much furor abroad, have always been vulnerable. And with agency introduced as the result of Soviet progress on intercontinental missiles, for some time there has been a pretty fair prospect we'd get our ICBM's into production sooner than originally thought.

BETTER JOBS By R. C. HOLES

Hon. Ralph Gwinn Advice At D.A.R. Convention

"Your resolutions, so carefully prepared, are headed for the bottom of the well when they arrive in Congress. Nearly all the people's petitions and resolutions to reduce debt and taxes and stop Socialist measures are ignored. It is about as useless for the people to petition Congress in these matters today as it was for your ancestors to petition Parliament and King George in 1775!"

"Time is short. Labor leaders now have at their beck and call probably less than 2 million political workers out of their total of 18 million dues-payers. This relatively small number has been organized calculating in exactly the places where it will bring about the most far-reaching political results."

"There is only one danger that Communists face today and only one thing they fear. That is, for the American people to be awakened sufficiently, to the very nature, methods, existence and progress of the Communist conspiracy itself."

"By doing nothing you and you will have become another ally of world Communism."

"Now we have, after ten years of AFL-CIO political action, this situation: At least 175 members in the House of Representatives today owe their seats, wholly or partially, to the money and the work of the CIO-AFL and their allies. We now have 21 Congressmen and 45 Senators (that is, a working majority) who vote most of the time for the legislative programs of the Americans for Democratic Action. This is the front organization for labor bosses. This is the descendant of the Socialist Party in America, and the financial beneficiary of large sums from the CIO-AFL."

"Walter Reuther is not going to be President of the United States some time in the future as some fear. He does not need to be President. Labor bosses have already taken over, in critical areas, and are now dominating Congress. When the elections are over this fall, they will have, in all probability, 25 to 30 more members beholden to them, on the floor of the Houses of Congress. They will have been selected, financed and then elected by CIO - AFL. They expect to have no opposition for political action."

"This prediction made before the election by Congressman Gwinn has come true."

"What Socialism is - we have gotten to the point that such things as a billion-dollar increase in Government lending authority is no longer socialism in the minds of most of our people. You know better. Your resolutions show that you know better and you must continue to tell America that our Government today is almost at the mercy of worldwide socialism. And that America, too, is Socialist in everything but name."

"But you are prepared to see the Congress of the United States drop your resolutions to the bottom of a well."

"You can be sure a labor-dominated Congress will continue to press for more and more appropriations for public power projects, food subsidies, public housing, irrigation, credits, and loans. Additional burdens will be laid on every taxpayer - now and for generations to come."

"We must all begin to fight in the same manner that the labor leaders fight to extend their control over our great Nation."

"Dean Manion, an old and cherished friend of mine, calls my attention to a quotation from the book of Proverbs: 'Remove not the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set.'"

"What is the landmark? What must we do if we had the votes? We can restore the Constitution, and reassert its provisions so that even the Supreme Court of the United States cannot misinterpret it."

"We can limit the power of Congress to tax, as it was limited until the 16th amendment."

"We can take away - if the face of the Congress is changed - those things which the Federal Government is now doing which are immoral, unconstitutional, illegal, and outrageous."

"We can once more set free the mind of America, the foundation, the creative, the atomic power of America, free America further from the restrictions, the management of man over man, the compulsions, the propaganda, the deception, the unlimited, unconscionable power of government."

"Almost six years ago Senator Taft and Candidate Eisenhower signed a manifesto of principles. This is what it says, in part: 'The greatest threat to liberty today is internal, from the constant growth of big government through the constantly increasing power and spending of the Federal Government...'

"God help us as we organize for the peaceful revolution to restore constitutional government in our land."

candidates for high public office? His views are too pronounced, 'he is too distinctly an individual, 'he isn't a hall fellow well met with the crowd.' 'We need an average man who hasn't done anything to make enemies and who hasn't distinguished himself in any way to arouse jealousies, 'we want an ordinary man who hasn't aroused any resentment in any quarter.' Have we come to the point where anyone who rises above the common denominator level has disqualified himself for political leadership?"

Fair Enough

Conservative Americans Not Humble Or Submissive

by WESTBROOK PEGLER

There being no objection, I wish to comment as follows: The Republican party which Senator Taft personified is dead and the Conservative Americans with a mistaken belief in the Constitution and in the honor of man are a scattered minority, despised and ridiculed but not humble or submissive.

Joe McCarthy is not our God as the Fascist-proletarian overwhelming majority would have it. But we take pleasure in Ike's personal embarrassment because he went out of his way to persecute, even insult, a man who fought Communism and individual Communists. It was bad enough that Eisenhower defiantly threw in with Paul Hoffman, an adventurer without credentials from our party, and approved this interloper's election ruling McCarthy and Barry Goldwater out of our party. But Ike rubbed it in when he pointedly excluded Joe and Mrs. McCarthy and them alone from a couple of cheap cocktail swills at which attendance by men and women of dignity and character was a painful matter of political duty and prestige.

Joe and Jeannie were not actually insulted in the social sense, but the presidency, which the nation had entrusted to Ike, was put to that nasty personal use and we do not forgive that. If Ike had ever offered the slightest explanation or justification of this hostility toward a man - and his wife - noted only for his campaign against treason we might have some hope of forgiving Ike. But, in common with millions who were incited by a cruel, insensate propaganda, Ike came out against an undefined something called McCarthyism. He had his nerve! We remember that Ike's first campaign cry was a tuneless, cheap song inserted in "Call Me Madam" entitled "I Like Ike."

This was Irving Berlin's show and Berlin was a Roosevelt man so we Republicans thought at the time that Ike was a Democrat and sat on our hands. Anyway the song had no place in the show. It was strictly a commercial.

This is a matter of bitterness to many of us Conservative Republicans. We took more pleasure than you might have realized in the returns from Utah where Bracken Lee, the true Republican anti-income-tax candidate, took a waxy enough vote from Arthur W. Watkins to beat him. Watkins was the "Modern" Republican Senator who organized the plot to break McCarthy in the Senate. He finally got his. The loss of that seat to the Democratic machine by means of Lee's intrusion means no loss to us. Watkins was the equivalent of a Democrat, and revenge is sweet.

In Arizona, Barry Goldwater's re-election was a great satisfaction to us. Not only was Barry read out of the Republican party by Ike's house-pet, Hoffman, in that gratuitous offense against our principles, but Ike, and even Dick Nixon, flagrantly kept out of Arizona during the campaign. Ike flew over Arizona but did not sit down and the state in which he did sit down, California, repudiated him and Nixon although they busted their gullets trying to reconcile a "Modern" Republican, Goodwin Knight, with a Taft Republican, Bill Knowland, as though there were nothing to choose between wrong and right. If Ike had joined in on Barry's campaign he might have loused him up.

Barry Goldwater was enormously without Ike's help, indeed against Ike's repudiation, and snub, and an unknown Republican was elected governor with him. This makes Barry, in his second term, the runner-up for the true Republican leadership, the Taft leadership, of the Senate, next to Styles Bridges. It is too bad that Saltonstall, of Massachusetts, defected to the "Modern" wing but it can't be helped.

Rockefeller in New York is not a Republican at all. He crowed Browder to the left. He is strung along with so many Communist fronts and exploits that he is hardly preferable to Eleanor Roosevelt. His "charm" is nothing.

F. D. Roosevelt was loaded with it and he got us into the worst war in the history of man as a dodge to confuse in the public mind and the record of history the fact that he had no political remedy for the problems which he had promised to solve by statesmanship.

Rockefeller supported Vincent Lombardo Toledano, the Mexican Communist, against the American anti-Communist unionists when he was co-ordinator of Inter-American Affairs under Roosevelt in the

Down South

By Thurman Sensing

NEW YORK - Because New York has a millionaire who won his political race, I thought it would be interesting to talk to a North Carolina millionaire who lost his. As things turned out, it was a much better story than that.

Heinz Rollman ran for Congress in the 12th District of North Carolina - and almost won. He put on a smashing campaign. He took a store and put in a cracker barrel and pot-bellied stove and said "What we need is more businessmen in Washington and fewer lawyers and orators." His fellow Carolinians liked it. They also liked his idea that every candidate for public office should undergo a lie detector test at the start of the campaign - before it's too late.

It took the people of Waynesville a long time to get used to Rollman. He came into town one day several years ago and bought up a rehabilitating it, but flew the flag of the 72 nations to whom he sells shoe ideas, shoes and manufacturing techniques. One day Waynesville awoke to see a group of sandaled, turbaned and flowing robed Hindus in town. They had seen such in movies, but not in person. The Hindus had come from India to study modern shoemaking, so they could go back home and do likewise. Oddly garbed (by North Carolina standards) folk have come from other countries.

"They tell me you have made three fortunes," I said. "A Carolinian told me - and with admiration, not envy or jealousy." "Is it important?" he replied. "It's important to create, to provide other people with opportunity and incentive, the world over if one can. Getting rich is a by-product. Strictly speaking, yes, I have made three fortunes. The first one was made in Germany, my native country. The Nazis came in 1935 and took my factories and drove me out of the country. I went to Belgium with two skimpy packed suitcases. In four years I was full steam ahead again. I was married and came to the United States on my honeymoon. While we were here, the Nazis rolled again and again took my factories. I was stranded in the United States with a new bride, no work and money to last me exactly 21 more days. I was 28 years old and talked my way into an experimental shoe laboratory in New York. Right here, we did fine right from the start, but I didn't like a big city. I heard of the place in Waynesville and bought it. Mostly because it was available but also, emotionally, because the mountains reminded me of home in Germany. It went fine for 10 years, and then I got an idea: vulcanizing foam rubber soles to shoe and slipper uppers. Not sewing them on. It took me two hours on a telephone to finance the idea."

"Odu did you talk to?" "Odu? Fred Oduum. I called him at his Palm Springs retreat in California, hastily sketched my background and said: 'Now that you know something about me, listen to me without interruption until the end. Make notes as I speak. When it is done, ask anything you like.' So I talked two hours about my idea and he let me have $150,000. He's happy: we have 7,000 dealers in the United States and Canada and license the process into 72 different countries. It has given me an insight."

"Insight into what?" "Our world. A troubled one, of course. You know, I think I have one way to calm things down. Observers. Let them in. We send them over there. Observers everywhere. Russians here, Americans there and so on. But real observers. Let them see everything and we see everything. Soon enough the obvious will become clear to all of them: no one wants war. No one hopes for it. They don't, we don't. The suspicious die down, distrust evaporates. I'm serious. A sincere observer corps the world over would erase the tensions and create truces. Out of truth comes peace. Do you believe we or they want to pour these wasteful billions into armament? Of course not. Think war. And he picked Jo Davidson, the Communist sculptor, to make bronze heads of nine Latin-American dictators including Communist nationalists and had him flown all over South America and paid him our money. He told me this cost only $25,000 but I know something about this Red's prices and that was not enough. Most of those dictators are gone and forgotten now. If Rockefeller is a Republican how can he be in the Supreme Court as the high controller and moderator of laws and money. Most of our people are sick of the Republic and the Constitution. That's for sure."

Falcons Giving Other Academics Horse-Laugh!

By HENRY McLEMORE

The folks here in Colorado Springs, home of the United States Air Force Academy, are in a quandary.

"They don't know whether to wax indignant, or just sit down and have a good laugh, at the refusal of the West Point and Annapolis football teams to agree to a home-and-home schedule with the Falcons because of the altitude in these parts."

The Cadets and Midshipmen are perfectly willing to play the Falcons in their own back yards, but are balky at coming here for a game in the wild blue yonder. They say the mile-high altitude would leave their brave laddies panting like fish on a rug.

The excuse is nonsensical, of course, but it isn't the first time, not even the millionth time, that citizens of the lowlands have taken advantage of the altitude to excuse themselves.

It is such an easy, handy alibi. I have used it a dozen times since the McLemore Cross-Country Caravan has been resting here at the Broadmoor. When it is time to get up in the morning, and I want to stay in bed a while longer, I fall back on, "You know, this altitude takes a lot of getting used to. I'm so sleepy I could stay in bed all day."

Mary and I had dinner with Major and Mrs. Lochy Rigby, who recently came to Fort Carson from Germany, and when Pat's biscuits turned out a mess, she wasn't a bit crestfallen. Certainly not as crestfallen as the biscuits.

"Cooking up here where it is high is different from cooking down below," she said, as she passed some store-bought bread. "The altitude does something to flour."

In the lobby of the Broadmoor I heard a gentleman complain of a toothache to his wife. She suggested a trip to the dentist.

"Oh, there's nothing really wrong with my teeth," he said. "They are hurting because of how high we are. As soon as we get down to sea level they'll be fine."

There just couldn't be any more convenient excuse for not doing what one doesn't want to do than the Rocky Mountains.

I have found it most helpful in escaping errands in the drugstore, helping Miss Megan's formula, and even dressing for dinner.

"A man must take it real easy up here for a few days until he gets acclimated," I say when I'm in no mood for work. "Can't afford to get too short of breath."

Despite the "deadly" atmosphere, I have yet to see healthier citizens than these Coloradans. And the golf course, the tennis courts, the swimming pool, and the skating rink of the Broadmoor are crowded with guests from sea level who don't seem to mind the fact they're a mile high.

My guess about the refusal of West Point and Annapolis to arrange a home-and-home game with the Air Force Academy boys is of what those billions could do for humanity. Eradicate disease, inequity, slums. Paradise could be bought if only distrust vanished. Humanity together with observers keeping an eye on things could usher in the era of peace. And plenty for all. Research, such as on rockets into explored space, yes. On those we could spend. But not on rocket missiles. Or they, either. Just good for all and observers are the way to it. But honest observers, glued to exact truth."

Rollman, apparently, knows how to vulcanize logic as well as shoe soles.

The Nation's Press

DEFENSE AND BIG BUDGETS (The Wall Street Journal)

The Eisenhower Administration is busy working on the 1960 budget, and the scratch pads show that unless there are some second thoughts the budget for the next fiscal year will reach or surpass $80 billion.

Right now the budget for fiscal 1959 is hovering at $80 billion - up $5.3 billion from the estimate last January of what the Government's bills would run. Spending, quite plainly, is skyrocketing.

Why, then, one may ask, is there so little public grumbling about all the big spending? For one thing, there is a great deal of misunderstanding about the reasons for bigger and bigger budgets. Many people think the increase comes from increased spending for defense, and since many people think it sounds sort of unpatriotic to complain about "dollars for defense," they don't say much.

Certainly, whenever a nation's officials or Congress talk about the big budget, the talk is on defense spending. The talk is mostly of missiles and satellites and guns and warships and planes. Of nuclear weapons and new developments. Of new concepts and new growth in national security.

LIZ' DAUGHTER OKAY

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Elizabeth Frances Todd, 15-month-old daughter of actress Elizabeth Taylor and her third husband, the late Mike Todd, has been released from UCLA Medical Center where she had been under treatment for pneumonia. The child, taken to the center Nov. 13 by Miss Taylor and singer Eddie Fisher, was released Saturday.

Beer production of the United States amounts to 37.8 per cent of the world total.

From Drama To Cheesecake Rushes Starlet Barbara Rush

By VERNON SCOTT
 UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Many an actress builds her career on her build — that is, the glamour treatment complete with girly-girly cheesecake. And it works out pretty well. A girl can always learn to act later.

An exception is Barbara Rush who's been playing dramatic roles since she arrived in Cinema City. Now she's eager for the glamour bit.

In seven years the dark-haired actress has appeared in 15 pictures, all with heavy accent on drama. She was pegged as a young Olivia DeHavilland. "Once when I was under contract to Universal — international publicity department posed me for some bathing suit art," Barbara recalled. "But I looked like a little girl trying to be a movie queen. It was so horrible they destroyed the pictures."

"Now things are different, and I've changed my attitude toward being sexy. I've proved I can act, so I don't have to worry about being a glamour gal."

Ready to Pose
 "I'm ready to pose in bathing suits, lingerie, and anything else they want me to wear. I looked like a little girl six years ago, but I've changed since then. I fill out a bathing suit much better now."

Barbara hastened to add she'd also like to play sex-bitten roles in pictures — although her current role in Warner Brothers' "The Philadelphia" is strictly dramatic.

"Playing languid, sexy parts are the easiest of all because an actress can be a female animal doing what comes naturally. There's not much to it."

"All Brigitte Bardot does is take off her clothes — and I do that every day of my life. You can't help but come off well if you have a decent figure."

And Barbara does. She makes numerical music with a well-turned-out 34-22-35. Barbara's smart cookie, too. Before invading Movietown she earned a Master's Degree in English from the University of California.

Beauty A Drawback
 "I never wanted to establish myself as a great intellect," she said. "But it used to irk me to be patted on the head and told I was a 'pretty young thing.' That word 'pretty' has given a lot of trouble."

"The general feeling in this town is that a pretty girl can't be very bright or talented. 'Being pretty is a drawback. It's much better to have great beauty like Elizabeth Taylor, or to be unusual in appearance like Leslie Caron and Audrey Hepburn. If you're just pretty you're in a no-woman's land."

Barbara has jazzed up her personal wardrobe to conform to her new off-screen point of view. Her gowns are more revealing and form-fitting.

"And besides, I lie four strokes right now."

Area Girls Make WT Sororities

CANYON (Spi) — Twenty-five women from Pampa and surrounding area have been initiated into four West Texas State College sororities.

National officers of the sororities were visitors on campus during activities, highlighted by teas, coffees, luncheons and banquets during the last two weeks.

Initiated into Zeta Tau Alpha were Nita Jo Messenge, Hoover junior; and Marilyn Pafford, Le-fors sophomore. An alumnae initiate was Miss Martha Montgomery of Pampa. A fall pledge of the sorority is Dot Gantz, Pampa freshman. Zeta Tau Alpha was formerly Pi Omega sorority.

Alpha Delta Pi, formerly Kappa Tau Phi, initiated Judith Ann Rhoades, Skellytown sophomore; and Phyllis Vernon, Perryton senior, as active members. M. S. Dare Locke of White Deer was initiated as an alumnae member. Julia Neslage, Pampa sophomore and Carolyn Ledbetter, Kelton the sorority.

Mrs. Herbert Brillhart of Perryton was initiated as an alumnae member of Chi Omega Fraternity. Active members initiated were Georgette Rohan, Panhandle senior; Shirley Weatherly, Panhandle senior; and Sandra Walsh, Pampa sophomore. Carolyn McLaughlin, Mrs. W. J. Derington of Pampa, pledge. Chi Omega is the former Gamma Phi social club.

Delta Zeta Chi alumnae who were initiated into Delta Zeta a sophomore.

Sorority were Mrs. Henry Hale of Perryton, Mrs. Bernice Shackelford, Mrs. C. R. Stedum, and Mrs. W. J. Derington of Pampa. Fall pledges for the sorority include Carolyn Vance, Panhandle senior; and Judy Friemel, Groom sophomore.

It's Not Only On Highways Where 'Driver' Is Dangerous

By MERRIMAN SMITH
 United Press International

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI) — Backstairs at the White House: From the hallowed locker room of the Augusta National Golf Club where President Eisenhower has been playing of late, a secret pipeline relayed two stories the members are telling.

One concerns a duffer who somehow achieved membership in the President's club. The tyro of the tee smacked a long wood shot that hooked terribly over the club fence into a residential driveway. The ball struck a man squarely on the forehead and he dropped stone dead.

The duffer saw what he'd done, grabbed up his clubs and fled back to the members' quarters where he cowered in his bedroom. A few hours later, there was a knock on the door.

A man in a tweed suit produced a badge. "Murphy of homicide. We've determined that you're the golfer who hit that awful hook. It hit a man in the head and killed him. What do you have to say for yourself?"

The duffer thought for a moment, then extended his clasped hands, waving them back and forth.

"I believe," he said, "if I change my grip just a little bit like this, by golly, I'll cure that hook."

Second story concerns another new member of the National. He was on the first tee alone and took a vicious cut at the ball, completely missing it. An assistant pro spotted him and walked out.

"May I interrupt?" the pro inquired politely. "I may be able to help you. Your swing simply must be corrected because as it is now, the swing is, if you'll pardon me, unspeakable, and with your friends here, certainly you'll want to take some strokes off your score."

The lonely duffer thanked the pro rather diffidently, advising him to save his feelings of concern for others.

"You see," explained the golfer, "there are several reasons why your advice will do little good. "In the first place, I'm new here. Not a soul will even speak to me, much less play with me. "And besides, I lie four strokes right now."

Matter of FACT

In ancient Rome, the name actarius was given to the clerks who recorded the acts of the senate and to the officers who kept military accounts and enforced the fulfillment of contracts for military supplies. In its English form, the word has undergone a limitation of meaning so that it now is applied to a person who makes calculations on the probabilities of the length of human life for insurance purposes.

START IRRIGATION PROGRAM

TOKYO (UPI) — Peasants in Communist China's Kwangtung Province have begun work on a vast irrigation program equivalent to the digging of "20 Panama Canals," the Communist New China news agency said today.

Sorority were Mrs. Henry Hale of Perryton, Mrs. Bernice Shackelford, Mrs. C. R. Stedum, and Mrs. W. J. Derington of Pampa. Fall pledges for the sorority include Carolyn Vance, Panhandle senior; and Judy Friemel, Groom sophomore.
