

Streets Icy: 13 Accidents, 5 Injured Here

By MARVIN OLSEN
Daily News Staff Writer

Five persons were injured in two separate collisions Saturday afternoon on treacherously icy Pampa streets. Since early Friday evening, 13 collisions had been reported to Pampa police.

Four persons were injured, one seriously, when two cars collided on snowy N. Hobart St. Saturday afternoon at about 4:25.

Most seriously injured was Jimmy Weatherly, 15, the son of James T. Weatherly, 2011 Coffee. The Pampa youth was brought to the emergency room at Highland General Hospital with a broken pelvis, "probable internal injuries" and a badly sprained ankle.

Weatherly was a passenger in a 1950 Ford driven by Jack Dillon Lathrop, 18, Rt. 3, when the Lathrop machine slid out of control on a 1954 Buick driven by Mrs. R. L. Brown, 41, of Rt. 2, Pampa.

Mrs. Brown, her husband, and Lathrop were all injured, and brought to Highland. Mrs. Brown suffered leg injuries. Brown and Lathrop had assorted lacerations and bruises.

Both cars, officers said, had damages exceeding their value and were listed as total wrecks.

Numerous other two-car collisions were reported in Pampa Saturday as snow fell on streets during the afternoon hours and created hazardous driving conditions.

In one collision at 5:40 p.m., a three-year-old Pampa girl, Gladys Kay Weson, daughter of Mrs. Maxine Weson, suffered head lacerations in a two-car collision on E. Frederic.

The youngster and her mother were passengers in a car driven by Mrs. Weson's brother, Eddie Calley of Lefors.

Police reported the Calley machine spun on a turn and slid into a 1953 Cadillac driven by William Earl Duncan, 104 N. Wynne.

Glenda Kay received several stitches in close cuts in her head at Highland hospital.

Since snow until early Saturday evening police officers had investigated seven other collisions, most of which were listed as minor.

They were:

At 11:22 a.m. — A pickup driven by Frank Shaw, 27, 338 Henry, bumped a car driven by Charles E. Kimbrell, 18, 106 E. Tyng, in the 100 block of W. Foster. No damages reported, Kimbrell was tagged for failure to control his car's speed.

12:25 p.m. — Cars driven by David Pearson, 15, Sheffield, and William Harper, 31, 609 N. Russell, bumped drivers in an alleyway behind Zale's Jewelry store.

Damages were set at $50.

1 p.m. — A 1958 coach driven by Ralph Faxon, 81, 815 N. West, and a 1955 sedan driven by James Lee, 24, 805 N. Gray, collided in the 200 block of N. Hobart. Damages totaled $125. Lee was tagged for exceeding a safe speed.

3:55 p.m. — Two cars hit in the 300 block of N. Hobart. Drivers were Jeanie Reams, Rt. 4, and Edna Brown, 1809 N. Duane. Brown, whose 1956 sedan hit the rear of the Reams car, reported $50 damages.

4:22 p.m. — A 1956 model car driven by Alvin Nadine Robertson, 717 N. West, slid into the rear of a 1952 Chevrolet driven by Donald Galtner, 428 Graham, in the 800 block of Atrock St. Galtner was tagged for exceeding a safe speed.

5:26 p.m. — A car driven by Lilly McMillan Fowler, 1220 E. Francis, was struck in the rear by a 1956 Buick driven by Jeff O. Brewer, 521 Powell. Mrs. Fowler was pulling into a drive Robert at the front of her home. Brewer was tagged for following too closely.

Correctness Of Incumbent Party Hailed

MOSCOW (UPI)—Anastas I. Mikoyan, adding his voice to rising chorus, Saturday denounced the ousted "anti-party" group and boasted that its members failed to win a "single recruit" since their downfall.

In an address to the 21st Communist Party Congress, the first deputy premier said the reason the charges against the Bannin-Molotov-Malenkov group and its backers were aimed was to "prove the absolute incorrectness" of the group's actions and the "correctness" of the party.

"As for the anti-party group," Mikoyan said, "it did not win a single recruit since the time it was exposed" in July, 1957.

Claims No Repression

During his speech, he reiterated that there was to be no repression of Soviet citizens for political reasons.

Mikoyan, who recently returned from a 17-day tour of the United States, also reported that Russia was prepared to enter long-term trade agreements with America. He pledged that Russia would not dump goods on world markets at low prices and said the new seven-year plan had great world trade possibilities.

Tass News Agency carried the report of his speech.

He denied as "groundless" the accusations of U. S. officials that trade agreements with the Soviet Union were unreliable.

He said Western powers feared that as the Russian economy swelled the Soviet Union would throw goods on the world market at low prices.

"We have never engaged in dumping and we shall not do so," Mikoyan said.

Low Price Plan

The West has accused the Russians most recently of flooding world markets with low priced tin. Before that it was cotton.

Mikoyan said U. S. deputy under secretary of state, Douglas Dillon called trade agreements with the U.S.S.R. "unreliable."

Mikoyan said Russia maintained trade agreements with Great Britain, France and other countries, and that the Soviet foreign trade turnover during 1958 was several times higher than in 1950.

Three teenage Clarendon boys—described as "mood-ey" Tom Sawyer, changed their minds about hitch-hiking in California Friday after two days in the frigid open near Pampa.

The boys, brothers, ages 14 and 15, and a friend, 15, ended their trip in Pampa when a telephone call put them into the hands of H. A. Doggett, Pampa's juvenile officer.

Doggett told the Daily News the boys had spent one night "under a eucalypt near Pampa" on the Clarendon highway.

Ship Strikes Iceberg On First Voyage

HALIFAX, N. S. (UPI)—An armada of search planes and ships battled perilous ice and the Arctic darkness Saturday in a fruitless search for an "unsinkable" Danish ship that crashed into an iceberg in a Titanic-like disaster on her maiden voyage.

The 2,857-ton orange-painted Hans Hedtoft, flagship of the Royal Greenland Trading Company's Arctic fleet, had not been heard from since 3:36 p.m. (est) Friday, when she radiored her hull was holed and she was sinking.

Search planes and a U.S. Coast Guard cutter that reached the scene shortly before the 2:30 p.m. (est) Arctic sunset reported the area was thick with icebergs and floating chunks of ice of various sizes. At least one mighty ship struck back because of the menacing ice.

The cutter reported a high, hazardous concentration of ice, with one the measuring 40 miles by a half-mile in size. The weather was clear, but the early sunset cut the cutter's search short.

First Sailed 1912

The disaster, the first ship collision with an iceberg in peacetime since the Titanic went down in 1912, occurred far north of the most heavily traveled Atlantic shipping lanes, which are patrolled constantly for icebergs.

Officials held slight hope on the survival of the crewmen and 55 passengers, including 19 women and 4 children, who were aboard the Hans Hedtoft.

The ship was on the homeward leg of its maiden voyage between Denmark and Greenland when it was caught by a wave, propelling it into the Greenland coast in a fierce North Atlantic blizzard that whipped up 20-foot waves.

Experts estimated that a person could live only about an hour in the freezing-cold Atlantic.

All 66 persons aboard the Hans Hedtoft were safe and sound.

Negro Students Will Be On Their Own In Integration Try

By JACK V. FOX
United Press International
NORFOLK, Va. (UPI)—Seventeen Negro students entering previously all-white schools here Monday will do so individually and without escort in the hope Virginia's first integration will go off quietly, it was revealed Saturday.
Victor Ashe, local representative of the NAACP said parents of the Negro children probably would accompany them to the three high schools and three junior high schools Monday morning.
"Other than that," he said, "the children will be strictly on their own—just like any students transferred from one school to another."
Norfolk was doing its utmost to soft-pedal integration of the schools, closed since September by order of Gov. J. Lindsay Almond.
Plain Clothes Police
Police chief Harold Anderson will have plain clothes men on hand at the six schools, but uniformed officers will not be present unless there is a disturbance. Pro-segregation groups have made no announcement of plans to protest. Norfolk churches will say prayers Sunday that integration is peaceful.
No trouble was expected at Arlington, Va., where four Negro pupils will enter previously all-white Stratford Junior High just across the Potomac from Washington, D.C.
Chief Justice Earl Warren of the Supreme Court refused Saturday to grant a stay of integration in Arlington. There had been no school closings in Arlington, and pupils at Stratford have been attending classes regularly.
In Richmond Saturday, the Legislature finished work on Gov. J. Lindsay Almond's private school tuition grants program which will not prevent Monday's integration. The lawmakers killed several hasty stop-integration plans, but there was feeling that the legislators should stay in their special emergency session Monday to see what develops.
$250 Tuition Grants
Almond's program will pay $250-a-year private school tuition grants to parents who choose not to send their children to integrated public school classrooms.
Calyvin Dalby, director of public safety for Norfolk, said the city "does not anticipate any trouble."
Likeliest site of trouble if it comes was Norview High School, a beautiful new building with a normal enrollment of more than 2,000. It is situated right where Negro and white neighborhoods merge, bringing some friction in the past. The building is a magnificent three-story plant, resembling Central High School in Little Rock.
Four Negro girls and three boys will enroll at Norview Monday in the half-day session from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. (est). Three Negro girls and two boys will enter Norview Junior High, less than a quarter of a mile away.
Norview High's principal, Charles W. Perdue, former football star at Duke University, said he expected a peaceful start.

Davis States Requirements For Filing IRS Returns

Wiley E. Davis, Administrative Officer of Internal Revenue Service, Pampa, today reviewed Federal income tax filing requirements for 1958 returns.
United States citizens, adults of minors, with gross 1958 income of $600 or more ($1,200 or more, if 65 or older at close of '58) must file a return with their IRS district director.
Most taxpayers file their returns on the calendar year basis. This means that Wednesday midnight, April 15, is the final hour to file that return for '58. "By filing as soon as possible, however," Davis reveals, "odds are in your favor for getting an early refund, if you are eligible for one."
"Taxpayers using the fiscal year basis must file by the 15th day of the fourth month following the end of their fiscal year."
Joint Returns
Husbands and wives may file a joint return and take advantage of the income splitting provisions of the law, or they may file separately, if both had income. If either died during 1958 the other may file a joint return for '58. The next two succeeding years the survivor may file as a "surviving spouse" and continue the income splitting advantage, provided the survivor has not remarried and maintains a household which is the principal place of abode of a son or daughter who qualifies as a dependent.
"Head Of Household"
Qualifications for filing as "head of household" include being an unmarried individual, or being married to a nonresident alien, and meeting one of the following conditions: (1) Furnishing more than one-half of the cost of maintaining a household which is the principal abode of a dependent other than one claimed under the multiple support agreement or the unmarried child, grandchild or stepchild, even though not a dependent; (2) Furnishing more than one-half of the cost of maintaining a household, separate from your own, which is the principal abode of a dependent.
Personal Exemptions
"This important business of a taxpayer's exemptions is an all too familiar stumbling block for taxpayers. It's one that helps slow up refunds."
Davis explained that each individual filing a '58 tax return is allowed a deduction for personal exemptions. Each taxpayer is allowed an exemption of at least $1,800. If he is 65 or older, or if blind, he's due an additional exemption. Here's how it goes:
If under 65: 1 exemption—$1,800; 65 or older: 2 exemptions—$1,200; 65 or over and blind: 3 exemptions—$1,800.
These exemptions also apply to the taxpayer's husband or wife, when claimed on a separate return.
The IRS representative said that on a joint return a husband and wife claim the same number of exemptions to which they would be entitled if they filed separate returns. If the husband files a separate return he may claim the exemptions for his wife, only if she had no income, and isn't required to file a return, and did not receive more than one-half of her support from another taxpayer.
"It saves time and tax money for taxpayers to complete their own returns without help from the Internal Revenue. However, when taxpayers try and fail we'll gladly help. Telephone the IRS office at MO 4-2131, or visit it on Taxpayer Assistance Day any Monday. The IRS office is located at Room 303, Kings Worley Building, 120 W. Kingsmill.

Panhandle To Receive More Snow Today

United Press International
Freezing rain and sleet fell over the Panhandle Saturday and snow was forecast for the upper portion today.
The intermittent sleet and rain glazed highways and streets, causing a rash of motor accidents. Amarillo police counted 28 accidents since 8 a.m. Saturday.
Colder air from the north started pushing southward again Saturday and was expected to reach a line along Abilene and Gatesville early today.
The weather bureau said some rain and drizzle would fall over most of the state east of the Pecos River today.
High temperatures Saturday ranged from 28 degrees at Amarillo to 73 at Presidio.
A low of 17 degrees was forecast for the Panhandle for early this morning and from 25 to 35 for the South Plains.
The rest of West Texas was expected to have readings of from 35 to 45.
Other lows forecast included 30 to 40 for the interior of East Texas, 25 to 45 in the north and central portions of South Central Texas and 26 to 36 in North Central Texas.
Occasional light rain was forecast for all parts except North Central Texas.

23 Cub Packs Tour News In January

Busy Daily News staffers breathed a sigh of relief Thursday when the last den of Cub Scouts left the News building.
In the 20 days of Cub Scout Newsman month, 23 dens were shown through the News. They meant approximately 185 Cubbers and 45 den mothers. Having seen the plant, the young newsman went back to their packs and presumably worked out some variation on their January theme of the month. Several den mothers said they were going to put out Cub Scout newspapers. One den even took notes. But, lacking printing presses, staffers suspect that in the majority of packs, newspaper skits were the outcome.
Key days excepted; few dens missed their opportunity to see the fascinating machinery that turns out news copy, lines of type and finally a newspaper. On some days, tour scheduling was the work of a mastermind and even so someone was more than likely to end up conducting two tours at the same time.
On one rather slow afternoon, a Girl Scout troop made its way through.
Some 13 packs of the Santa Fe District had one or more dens at the News. Packs represented were 4, 14, 15, 17, 18, 20, 22, 24, 27, 81, 110, and 144. Among the den mothers were Mrs. Wendell Valson, Mrs. T. E. Hardegree, Mrs. Charles Duengel, Mrs. N. L. Nicholl, Mrs. Dave Redus, Mrs. John Bow, Mrs. Wiley Davis, Mrs. W. S. West, Mrs. Lois C. Collins, Mrs. Clarence Scott, Mrs. Pete Burnett, Mrs. Berton Doucette, Mrs. Bill Gough, Mrs. J. C. Hopkins, Mrs. C. T. Smith, Mrs. Joe Buhr, Mrs. Q. C. Rogers.

The most prominent passenger was 60-year-old Augo Lyng, one of Greenland's two representatives in the Danish Parliament.

"Passenger lines should never sail on the Greenland routes during winter season. It is too dangerous."

Cubs Climax News Month
 Cub Pack 22 will hold a Blue and Gold banquet Feb. 24. It was decided at a monthly Pack meeting Thursday night. Plans also were made for a bake sale which will be held in the near future.
 The banquet will take place in Pampa's First Methodist Church at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 24. "God and My Country" will be the theme. Children's tickets are priced at $1. Adults are $1.25.
 To carry out the theme of Cub Scout Newsmen month, four Cub Scouts put on a short skit. These newsmen were Ford Herring, Dale Giblin, Bill Foreman and Charles Albin. Cubs of Den 5 presented a skit in which they portrayed well known news commentators.
 The highlight of the meeting was the presentation of merit awards around the council fire of "Abe's." Cubmaster Bill Spidell appeared in full Indian regalia to make the presentation.

BEAUTY SALON WEEK
 Mayor Lynn Boyd — who does not seem to be attending to business at the moment — signed a proclamation Saturday declaring Feb. 8 the beginning of National Beauty Salon Week. The "distraction" at left is Jimmie Jones, hair stylist for the Modern Beauty Shop, 110 N. Russell. At right is Odie Roles, stylist at Modern Beauty Shop and chairman of the Beauty Salon week in Pampa. A contest, Roles announced, is being held in conjunction with Beauty Salon week. First prize is lifetime of free professional beauty care. Official entries are now available at most Pampa hairdresser shops. (Daily News Photo)

Prince Shows New Firmness In Monaco
 Prince Rainier III of Monaco has suddenly started ruling his tiny country with a very firm hand. By so doing he has startled those who saw him merely as the charming, aristocratic husband of ex-Hollywood star Grace Kelly. Those who really know Rainier were hardly surprised when he took all power into his hands here Thursday by abruptly suspending Monaco's constitution.
 The 35-year-old Prince always has been a bit of a dare-devil. His friends say married life has mellowed him, but he has a will of iron as befits the scion of the autocratic Grimaldi dynasty which has ruled Monaco for seven centuries.

 He has proved his mettle on the battlefield, and risked his princely neck time and again.
 In World War II, he went into combat as a lieutenant in the French army and was cited for bravery several times.
 He refused a colonelcy offered him by the French government, saying "I don't want an administrative rank."
 He has a reputation as a dashing skier and a race-car driver with a passion for speed. He made a practice of skin diving to dangerous depths until Grace was reported to have got him to stop.
 He himself once said: "I can be a lion, if necessary." He was proving it today.
 Rainier Louis Henri Maxence Bertrand de Grimaldi was born here on May 31, 1923, the only son of Pierre de Polignac and Princess Charlotte of Monaco.
 His father did not belong to the ruling Grimaldi line. Rainier inherited his right to the throne through his mother, who renounced her claims on it in his favor.

Santa Fe's Herb Makes A Final Run

By MARVIN OLSEN
Daily News Staff Writer

Early Saturday afternoon a nostalgic gentleman, Santa Fe railroad's H. B. "Herb" Hackney, entered his final run. The run marked the end of a career that spanned nearly 60 years of railroading.

The "last run," which Hackney said "comes sooner or later for all of us," was from his hometown, Clinton, Okla., to the Santa Fe station in Pampa.

Hackney, a native of Washington, Kan., was frankly sentimental about his railroading and engineering days during a conversation Thursday.

He talked about the early days of steam engines. "I miss the whistle and exhaust noises," and his first days on the railroad as a lad of 18 in Kansas.

"I started in the round house for the Burlington line and moved on as a fireman with the Rock Island Line in Belleville, Kan.," he said.

In 1912 he became an engineer when the Rock Island's Gary, Okla. terminal moved to El Reno. Hackney later worked 13 years for the Clinton and Western at Clinton and then, in May, 1928, began his long career with Santa Fe.

Retirement is something the native Kansan takes philosophically. "It is better to retire while I am still able to go places. I will try as hard to make a success of retirement as I did of working."

When his diesel pulled into Pampa Saturday he declared his first object was to "get to bed and get a rest." He said he promised two daughters a visit, and his first problem would be which daughter to visit first. One lives on Puget Sound in Washington, and the other at Ft. Uster, W. Va. His wife had died in 1918.

Hackney, regarded a "gentleman in every sense of the word" by co-workers, had only kind words for Santa Fe. He said it was hard to leave the line "that has treated me so well." "You don't know what fine people run the Santa Fe, fair in every way," he added.

Hackney's last run Saturday was made with two old traveling companions, Conductor Nilt Nottingham and Santa Fe Traveling Engineer Warren Ludden.

WALTER ROGERS SAYS Inflation, Not Communism Ranks As Biggest U.S. Enemy

Communism cannot conquer this nation. Inflation can.

The preservation of a strong economy in any country requires a constant vigilance on the part of the people against inflation. In our time we have seen the ravages of this economic disease in many countries throughout the world. It is now eating at the vitals of many nations. It has gained a foothold in this country, and unless it is checked, it could become the economic cancer that could disastrously soften us. Thus, we could become fair game for the Communists. We in our time have watched a number of countries that permitted inflation to go unchecked. In every instance an economic revolution was necessary and the result was a change in the form of government. Under the circumstances, we should at least recognize the fact that, unless we are willing to pay the price to check inflation, we too are running the risk of losing our form of government as we have known it. This is not intended to be an alarmist statement, but it is simply for the purpose of facing up to the facts.

We heard our own President, in his recent State of the Union Message, speak of a balanced federal budget. This remark resulted in extended applause, as it should have. Everyone is for a balanced budget, but somehow it never seems to get balanced. The question is, "what is going to be done about it?" We look at the estimates and figures of the Bureau of the Budget for the past several years and we see a claim that the budget for 1956 produced a surplus of 1.6 billions of dollars. It was estimated in that report that the 1956 fiscal operations would result in a deficit of 400 million dollars, and that 1957 would result in a surplus of 500 million dollars. Adding all of these figures and subtracting the deficits from the surplus claimed by the Administration, we find that we should have 3 billion 300 million dollars in extra cash. Yet, in 1958, the Administration came to the Congress and said we have no money, we must have additional authority to borrow money. At that time the debt ceiling was 275 billion dollars. The Congress in response to the pleas of the Administration, authorized a temporary increase of the national debt to 288 billion dollars until June 30, 1959, and a permanent increase thereafter to the sum of 283 billion dollars. Now, according to one set of Administration figures the country should be 3 billion 300 million dollars in the black on its operations since 1955; yet, by another set of figures it is necessary for the federal government to have borrowing authority of an additional 13 billion dollars until June 30, 1959, in order to meet its financial requirements. I was unable to find out what happened to the 3.3 billion dollar surplus.

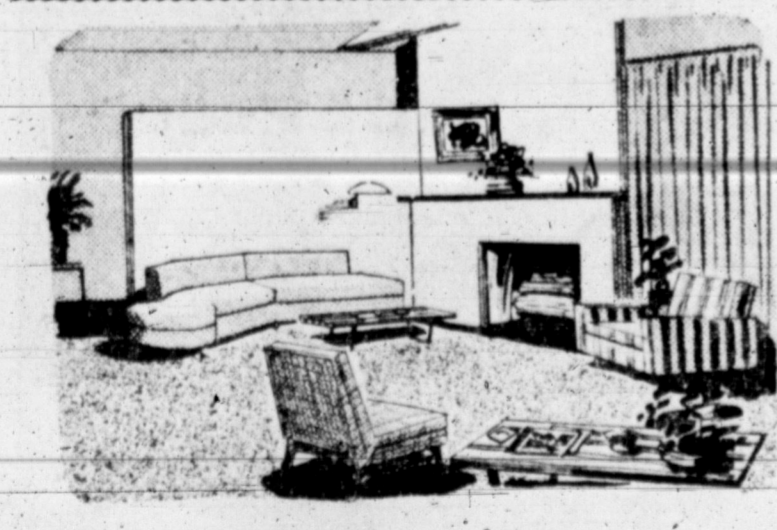

During this period of time between 1955 and the time that the authority to increase the public debt was allowed, we find that the American taxpayer was required to pay the sum of 1 billion 429 million dollars in additional interest charges for the same amount of money. The interest charges for the fiscal year 1955 amounted to 8 billion 438 million dollars. The interest charges for 1958, according to the Budget Bureau figures, were 7 billion 867 million dollars. This means that in 1955 the taxpayers were paying approximately 6 1/2 billions of dollars in interest each year for the use of approximately 275 billion dollars. Less than 2 years later, the American taxpayer was paying almost 8 billion dollars for this same amount of money, and this will increase next year. It occurred to me that if these folks are really serious about balancing the budget, the increased amount of interest that the taxpayers had to pay might make the difference between a balanced and unbalanced budget. Some people will argue that hard money and high interest rates operate to control inflationary trends. This may have been true a number of years ago, but the reverse is true today. Such a policy under our present economy is likely for inflationary trends. The increase in the cost of money in Wall Street is reflected very quickly in the price of a product that you and I purchase in our daily living. This, of course, constitutes an increase in the cost of living index. The increase in the cost of living index, in turn, triggers the escalator provisions in wage contracts tied to the cost of living index. This increase in the wage requirements is soon reflected in the money market and the inflationary spiral continues on and on until the entire government blows up, when is exactly what will happen if the inflation is not checked.

Of course, this does not mean that easy money and the issuance of more money by the government is the answer to inflation. It is not. It is one of the causes. The control of the medium of exchange of the country must be geared to the economy of that country. This requires the constant maintenance of a very delicate balance.

Visitors in Washington last week included Honorable and Mrs. William Smith of Pampa, who were in Washington on business.

YOU and YOUR HOME by Jack Foster

THE SOCIAL CIRCLE

Haven't you many times walked into rooms that were elegantly furnished and decorated yet gave you the feeling of being unsocial? It's true, even the finest of furnishings can appear unsocial and ineffective unless they are put together and arranged with sociability in mind.

The furniture in large rooms should be arranged in functional groupings. The fireside group is usually the center of interest in a room and the focal point of social activity. Seating units, when intimately arranged, court easy conversation. Music and study groups conceivably occupy other areas in the room.

The room sketched above shows the social circle occupying the largest area in the room. Large circular sofa, invites relaxation, provides seating area for at least five persons. Companion chairs are large-scale to tie in well with the size of the sofa. Lowness of furniture adds to the feeling of spaciousness. High-low pile of room-size rug gives texture interest to a room without pattern.

Color scheme is lively yet cool and unusual. Yellowish citron and aqua marine blue. Warm tones are introduced with flowers and accessories.

Federal Housing Department Has Versatile Commissioner

By EDWARD COWAN
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—An aide in 1949 at the age of 32, attorney from Wichita, Kan., who to be an attorney, he was already handles a tennis racket and a weekly Clearwater (Kan.) News, is the new federal housing commissioner.

He is Julian H. Zimmerman, who will be 42 next month and years in the Army. He enlisted as a private and emerged as a lieutenant in government service in a short time.

As the Federal Housing Administration's new chief, Zimmerman replaced Norman P. Mason who was moved up to the post of federal housing administrator, the government's top housing job.

Zimmerman had been general counsel of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, of which FHA is a branch, for 17 months when President Eisenhower tapped him for Mason's job.

Prior to that, his public service as the housing agency's assistant was limited to several months as the housing agency's assistant, general counsel and a spell as executive secretary to former Gov. Edward F. Arn of Kansas.

Published Kansas Paper

By the time Zimmerman de- sided in 1949 at the age of 32, attorney from Wichita, Kan., who to be an attorney, he was already handles a tennis racket and a weekly Clearwater (Kan.) News, is the new federal housing commissioner.

He is Julian H. Zimmerman, who will be 42 next month and years in the Army. He enlisted as a private and emerged as a lieutenant in government service in a short time.

As the Federal Housing Administration's new chief, Zimmerman replaced Norman P. Mason who was moved up to the post of federal housing administrator, the government's top housing job.

Zimmerman had been general counsel of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, of which FHA is a branch, for 17 months when President Eisenhower tapped him for Mason's job.

Prior to that, his public service as the housing agency's assistant was limited to several months as the housing agency's assistant, general counsel and a spell as executive secretary to former Gov. Edward F. Arn of Kansas.

While he joined the National Guard during the war he saw service in the European and African theaters.

The war over, he went back to Kansas.

What made him decide to go into newspaper publishing? "A fellow in the Army 5 1/2 years gets a lot of ideas," he said. "Suppose he wants somebody to listen to him for a change."

Zimmerman and his wife, the former Reba Corbett—a childhood sweetheart—bought the Clearwater News and wrote, edited, sold and published it. "I ended up a very good linotype operator," Zimmerman said.

What he learned as a newsman persuaded him to return to college and go on to law school. He received both his undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Kansas.

An avowed tennis, hiking and camping enthusiast and a "pretty good fly fisherman," Zimmerman lives in one of Washington's more rustic suburbs, McLean, Va. "We rent 15 acres, which include a stream, some heavily wooded ground, an old house and a big yard. And I cut my own firewood," he said.

Johnson Bill Would Punish Hate And Strike Bombers

By JACK V. FOX
United Press International

ATLANTA, Ga. (UPI)—You hear on every side in the South today the flat and uncompromising point that this region will never integrate Negroes and whites. And yet on every side, in various ways and in individual instances, the South is in fact integrating.

The schools of Norfolk, Virginia's largest city, and three other communities in the state, apparently are going to admit a small group of Negroes next Monday morning after collapse of the "massive resistance" laws which closed nine schools serving 12,000 students.

Atlanta, the South's great metropolis, has just quietly accepted the desegregation of Negroes on the trolley system. There has not been an incident over it. Thirty-four other Southern cities now have integrated buses, including Little Rock, New Orleans, Miami, Nashville, Richmond, Chattanooga and Dallas, Raleigh and Charlotte.

On the border states, more than a quarter-million Negro children are now going to public schools with whites. There are 10,000 more in white classes in Texas. North Carolina has taken integration.

But the wage has been opened on the college level in three of them—Louisiana, Virginia and Florida.

Sen. Lyndon Johnson's proposal for some sort of "mediation board" on segregation disputes is evidence that the very top Southern democratic leadership feels the South must take some new, positive approach to the problem.

Little Rock A Symbol
Little Rock has become a symbol of the South's determination to shut the schools if it is necessary. But it is noteworthy that half a dozen other Arkansas communities have integration.

Integration dominates almost every conversation. There is no question of Southerners not wanting to talk with the outsiders about it. Instead they are movingly eager to get their point of view across. There is reason to believe they are making headway in convincing Northerners that this matter of proceeding "at deliberate speed" means integration should be going more slowly than it is.

The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, probably the foremost spokesman for the Negro integration force, sees danger in this. "Gradualism in the white South means never," he says. "Certainly the process of Negro equality is going to take time."

"But the Southern whites don't want it to come gradually why, the Little Rock plan was going to take 10 to 12 years. It was the epitome of gradualism."

Talmadge Impact
It was interesting to note the impact made in the South by Sen. Herman Talmadge (D-Ga.) proposed amendment to the U.S. Constitution. It would turn over administration of public schools exclusively to the states and their subdivisions.

Editor Ralph McGill wrote in the Atlanta Constitution: "It cuts through the hypocrisy that has been one of the features of politics in the deep South. A good 99 per cent of the South's political leadership has all along admitted that the courts' action was constitutionally valid. They have said, privately, 'We know it is inevitable that the schools close unless some positive action is taken.' But publicly they have encouraged the mob, the haters, the minds which think in terms of bombing churches and schools, by the most outrageous vilifications and denials of court authority and law."

GROOMED TO GO

Pampa High Future Farmer of America, Billy Tidwell, right, stands with the calf, named "Bob," which he'll enter in the Top O' Texas Fat Stock Show in Pampa, Mar. 2-4. Standing at left with Tidwell, who lives southeast of Pampa, is the donor of the calf, caught in last August's Top O' Texas Rodeo "calf scramble," Rob Campbell.

'Scramble' Calves To Be Shown Here

When 80 determined boys between nine and 15 years old, and 10 scared calves were turned into the Top O' Texas Rodeo arena for the annual calf scramble, last Aug. 9, three Pampa High School Future Farmers came out of the dust with a calf apiece.

FFA boys, J. W. Henderson, Billy Tidwell, and George Thompson earned calves which were donated by ranchers in this area, according to Bob Skaggs, FFA sponsor.

Handicapped by a time limit of 15 minutes, each boy was to try to catch a calf, put a halter on it, then lead it into a marked off circle.

One calf, later named Andy, was caught twice. Thompson caught the calf first; then lost his halter. When he reached for the halter, he lost the calf. And Henderson caught it, and kept it. But because Thompson had shown good sportsmanship, Goat Mayo, rodeo producer, donated one of his Brahma calves to the boy. Tidwell's calf was donated by Bob Campbell and J. W.'s by Bob Andis.

Calf scramble calves will be shown at the Top O' Texas Fat Stock Show, March 2-4. First prize is $15; second, $12; third, $10; fourth, $7; fifth, $5; and sixth $4. Seventh through tenth prizes are ribbons. The boys have to halter break the calves and train them to lead.

Calf scramble calves are judged according to the regular judging standards. These consist of three main qualities: type, body conformation; finish, fatness of animal; and personal appearance, the manner in which the calves are groomed and presented.

Henderson named his calf Andy, and claims "Mine was the last one caught. He didn't put up too big a fight because he was tired. He was worth about $150 and weighed 300 pounds when I caught him. He weighs about 700 pounds now and I hope to sell him for $300."

"I wouldn't have had a calf to show if I hadn't caught one in the scramble," says Henderson. "I think the calf scramble should always be included in the rodeo. It is real good for the boys, and gives them experience and opportunity in showing calves."

Henderson's and mine were the two biggest calves out there. They both weighed about 350 pounds. Bob, the calf, weighs about 700 pounds now. If I hadn't caught a calf at the scramble, I wouldn't have had one for the stock show."

"I believe we should have the scramble every year. It gives the boys a chance to get started in showing beef cattle. After I sell my calf at the show, I plan to buy another calf," said Tidwell.

George Thompson's calf, Goat, has increased in weight from 300 pounds to 650 pounds, gaining an average of two pounds per day. Thompson also plans to buy another calf for the next year's show.

"It was real nice of the sponsors to donate the calves," Thompson said. "I wouldn't have had one to show otherwise. While we were trying to catch the calves, we didn't seem to notice if we got hurt or not. We were more worried about catching a calf than getting hurt. I think the calf scramble should be included in the next rodeo because it gives some boys who don't have the money to buy a calf, the opportunity to get one."

Fairbanks Likely To Quit Filmdom

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Douglas Fairbanks Jr., fair-haired boy of the Coast of St. James, may forego his film career to concentrate on his activities as a popcorn tycoon and other commercial ventures.

Fairbanks, debonair and English-accepted, now is selling popcorn to English movie theaters instead of peddling his old celluloid charm.

It's been seven years since Douglas has made a movie and as of the moment he has no plans to return to the screen — nor to performing on television again.

"I have no great desire to return to acting," he said. "Acting is an insecure business, dependent on too many outside factors that don't trouble people in other professions. If I fail in a business deal I have no one to blame but myself. This is not true in pictures."

Outside Interests Profitable

In addition to his Douglas Fairbanks Movie Company, Fairbanks is a director of a successful ballpoint pen company (Scripto), part owner of an industrial development concern, a camera corporation, a hotel syndicate and a big wheel in Pima Popcorn Ltd., which distributes popcorn to British Theaters, hotels and pubs.

"I must admit I've made more money outside of the movies," says actor-businessman grimes.

"But in all honesty I have to add that the business world isn't as absorbing as performing in or producing films. There are compensations, though. When I went broke in the old days I'd scurry around looking for work until I was solvent again. That doesn't happen anymore."

Fairbanks, who makes his business headquarters in New York, still is a legal resident of California.

Very Active Office

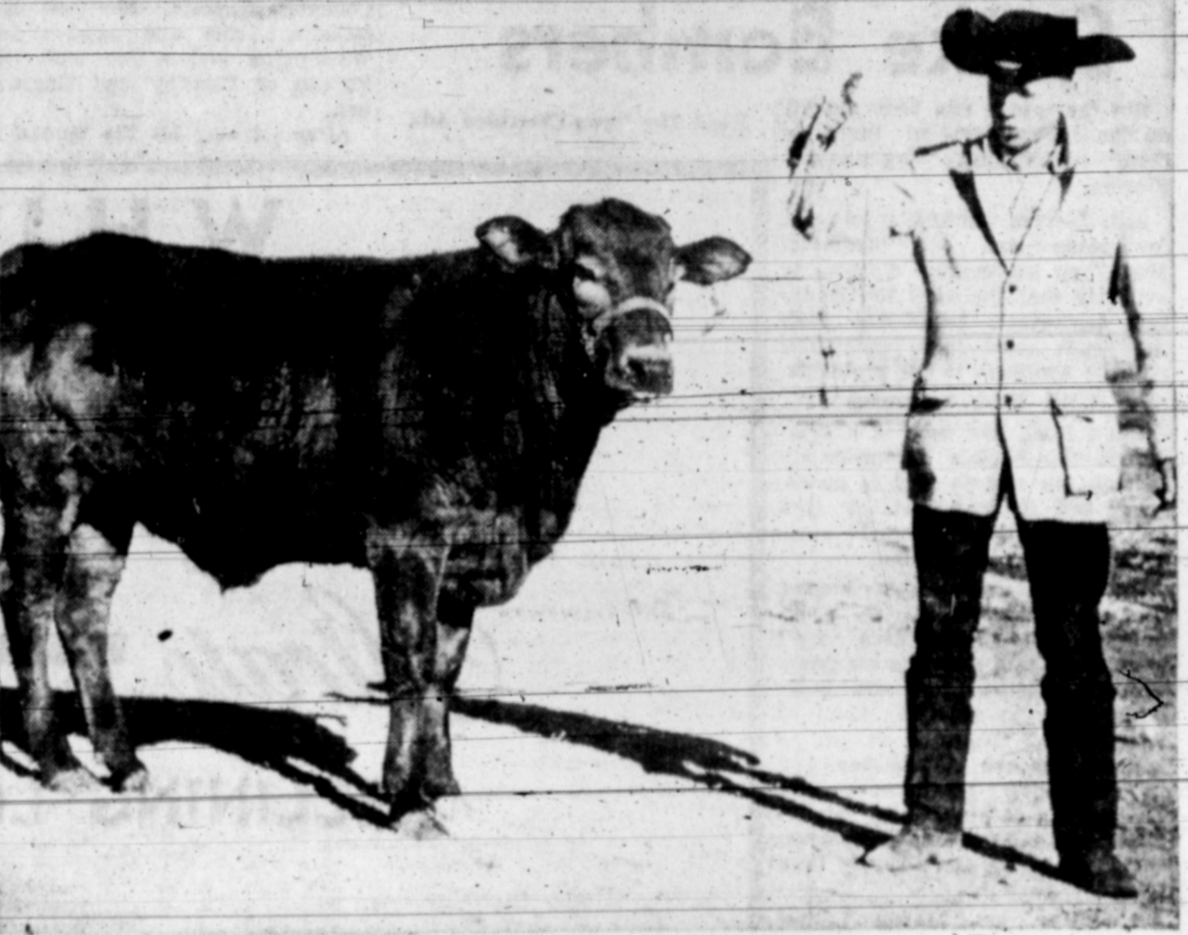

"I haven't been to Hollywood in two years, but my office here is very active," he said. "And I'd like to take the opportunity to clear up the misconception that I am a British citizen. I've always been an American."

The bespectacled, graying son of the first great film idol is the father of three daughters, which makes him the last in the male line of Fairbanks.

"My wife is upset because we don't have a son to carry on the Fairbanks name and tradition," he laughed. "But to me it's sort of fun to be the last of the Mohicans."

"And so far none of my daughters has shown any desire to act. Amen."

'GOAT'S' READY FOR SHOW

George Thompson, Pampa High Future Farmer who lives on the Buddy Price Ranch, is ready with his calf "Goat" for the Mar. 2-4 Top O' Texas Fat Stock Show. Thompson was given the calf by rodeo producer Goat Mayo, after a near-miss and a display of good sportsmanship in last August's Top O' Texas Rodeo.

Department Of Agriculture Seeks Cause Of High Yields

On the Farm Front
By GAYLORD P. GODWIN
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Agriculture Department is wondering out loud about what is behind the record crop yields of 1958.

Last year's crop yields per acre reached their highest point ever. Could this achievement be just another high point in a continuing upward trend? Or could it be a peak that juts above the surrounding years?

Or, asks the department publication, "Agricultural Situation," what has made yields go so high? Will such high yields be common from now on?

The yields of 1958 showed a surprising gain above the high levels of recent years. Yields per acre, all crops considered, have increased markedly since the early 1950's. In 1958, the average yield per acre for all crops was 43 percent larger than the average of the fair, excellent years 1947 through 1949.

This means that 57 acres harvested last year produced as much food, feed, and fiber as 100 acres yielded only 10 years ago. Land not chosen for cultivation can be rested through conservation practices or devoted to grazing, forests, recreation areas, or other uses. Such cropland shifts, however, have not offset mounting yields per acre.

Crop Production Grows

Crop production totals have grown rather consistently during the last 10 years, and in 1958 surpassed the previous record years of 1957, 1956, and 1948 by 11 percent.

Many factors must work together to attain high yields. The retirement of poorer land from cultivation is one obviously important factor that has raised yield averages. But the 1958 gain over 1957 cannot be explained by this factor to any large extent since harvested acreage increased slightly in 1958.

Farmers are constantly changing their practices in many phases of land and crop management. They know that high yields often bring lower costs per bushel of other production unit. The department said good farmers also appear to get a huge kick from out-doing former best yields of either their own fields or those of their neighbors.

Few farmers would say that they put into practice everything there is to be known about fertilizer, irrigation, pest control, or improved varieties. Because of constant improvement in farm methods it would seem that a fairly regular uptrend in crop yield could be expected. Such increases, however, are not delivered on a regular schedule. Weather often makes more difference than all other factors combined.

Weather Good In 1958

Ideal weather cannot be expected to favor consistently each crop throughout the country. Too much or too little rain, heat, or wind hits some section or some crop almost every week of the growing season. Weather that aids one crop may harm another, right on the same farm. New-mown hay calls for clear, sunny weather. The cornfield and hay pasture beg for rain. Upland crops thrive from rains which flood the bottomlands.

Some years definitely are better than others for more crops and over wider areas. Last year, the weather was mainly favorable throughout the country. The outstanding characteristic was the widespread abundance of moisture which stimulated plant growth and enabled more land than usual to cash in on improved practices which would have been less effective in a dry year. For example, in the Great Plains, 1958 may stand out for some time as the best crop year for the area. The weather was good, too, in the north central states, the East, and the South.

The outcome of farmers planning, skill, and chance for 1958 was new high record national yield averages for corn, wheat, oats, soybeans, barley, rye, sorghum grains, rice, cotton, hay, peanuts, potatoes, sweet potatoes and tobacco.

While all this output increased already large surpluses, and brought more problems to price support officials, the demonstration of productive power carried assurance of adequate future food supplies. Especially so, with the present population increase running at a rate of an addition equal to a California every four years.

Red Cross Helps Flood Victims In Five-State Area

The Red Cross is rendering service in 65 counties of a five-state area ravaged by phenomenal disasters brought on by erratic weather conditions. National staff workers responding to requests for additional workers to assist volunteers total 130 as of this date. They include 27 persons assigned from the Midwest, Raymond Conley, assistant director of Disaster Services, Midwestern Area Office of Red Cross, left from St. Louis and is serving as assistant director of operations at disaster headquarters in Columbus, Ohio.

Statistics released by chapter survey teams in the affected areas of Ohio, Indiana, Pennsylvania, New York, and West Virginia include the following: Homes destroyed or damaged, 3,500; 6,000 persons fed in 82 shelters opened by ARC in churches, schools, and other public buildings; more than 22,000 families affected.

In Eastern states all chapters were accepting contributions from groups and individuals wishing to make an immediate and tangible demonstration of desire to help flood victims. Chapters in the Midwestern Area may also accept contributions for the relief of disaster sufferers, but no special campaign is planned in Pampa, according to R. F. Kuhn, disaster chairman of the Pampa Red Cross.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower has been assured by General Alfred M. Gruentier, President of the American Red Cross, that the organization will "continue its emergency and rehabilitation work until the needs of all these families (22,000), lacking necessary funds, have been fully met."

IPAA Comes Out With 'Manifesto'

By MAC SEBREE
United Press International
TULSA (UPI)—In the next 10 years, total U. S. energy requirements are expected to increase by more than one-third over present consumption.

The Independent Petroleum Association of America, whose national headquarters are in Tulsa, has been doing a lot of thinking about that.

This week the IPAA came out with an "industrial manifesto" outlining its lobbying and public relations plans for 1959 and later, based on the assumption that the U. S. will need all the energy—not just oil—that it can lay its hands on to keep its "energy supremacy."

But the IPAA was quick to quote a special president's cabinet committee report of 1957 saying that oil and gas account for two-thirds of the energy consumed in this country, and "there is no adequate substitute in sight for the foreseeable future."

Program Outlined

"With national energy requirements rising sharply for both civilian and military uses, the necessity of maintaining wise energy development policies is obvious," the IPAA said.

The IPAA listed a 10-point program for what it called the "maintenance of the domestic oil and natural gas producing industry as a dynamic force in our energy picture." The 10 points are:

1. The IPAA will support scientific petroleum and geologic investigations of the potential petroleum resources available to the nation... "so as to demonstrate beyond question the sufficiency of domestic petroleum supplies."
2. IPAA will work "to improve relationships within the industry," noting that "conflicts of interests" often arise between different segments within the industry itself, such as production, refining, marketing, transportation, and so on.

Stimulate Inflation

3. The IPAA has organized a specialized committee to pursue the problems of discovery and development of new sources of supply.

4. The IPAA hopes to dramatize the inflation in the oil business, and "the necessity for compensating adjustments in the prices the producer receives for his products." Since 1953, says the IPAA, oil field machinery has risen in price 23 per cent, well casing by 37 per cent. "Crude oil prices have risen in the same period only 10 per cent."

5. A committee has been organized to study and develop data on the oil taxation problem, i. e., the IPAA wants no reduction in the 27 1/2 per cent depletion allowance.

6. "IPAA will vigorously seek an effective implementation of the established policies of Congress and the executive branch of the government that oil imports must be limited."

Cooperation Asked

7. IPAA will lobby and implore that independent natural gas producers be freed from federal utility-type controls.

8. "Unfortunately, too little is known as to many important aspects of the producing branch of the petroleum industry," IPAA will broaden and intensify its fact-finding efforts in all branches of the industry.

9. The IPAA "will take every action to support the continuance of public lands areas for full development of petroleum and mineral resources."

10. The IPAA pledges to work with all energy-producing industries, "and solicits the cooperation of these industries" to take the case of energy to the people.

Cleanliness, they say, is the next door neighbor to Godliness, and next to that must be Minding One's Own Business.

It's the toughest of the three.

But Saturday afternoon, just the same, we tackled Alexander Graham Bell's black mouthpiece with paper in one hand and hot little quill in the other.

Blazing up of late, like a dormant bed of coals will do when you flick it with kerosene, has been street corner chit-chat on the annual Pampa Men's Bowling Association City Tournament, now only a fortnight away.

Love may make the world go round, as they tell me all time, but gossip sure makes it dizzy.

You don't have to lean over the back fence too long these days to get a bruised ear, and it ain't about Liz and Eddie. (That's Liz and Eddie Glutzberger down the street, who just bought a brand-new car and how do they do it on their budget we'll never know because everybody on the block knows he was let out of the plant for smoking hashish.)

You hear-for example that there just ain't no justice these days when it comes to beer, skittles and bowling.

Emotions Are Mixed

There's words of varying opinions on this year's Men's City Bowling Tournament being held solely at the Harvester Bowl where the white cedars sparkle loudly.

"Ohmigosh," comes some cries, "I been bowling all season at Garden Lanes and can't understand why they're not splitting up the tournament at both places."

It's an age-old problem with cities with one or more alleys, this deciding who'll get the lion's share of the loot from the big city tournaments. It is a good idea indeed to stage any entire tournament at one establishment to avoid confusion and mix-ups in schedules.

Borger, a city like Pampa with two alleys, has a democratic and smart setup for its city tournament. One year all the business is given to the Borger Bowl (as was the case last year) and the next it's given to the Cedar Lanes (as is the case this year).

Democratic, you bet. Even Liz and Eddie Glutzberger can see that.

Some local keggers have stewed over a much discussed December decision by the Pampa Men's Bowling Association's Board of Directors to throw the entire City Tournament which will be unfurled on Feb. 14-15 and Feb. 20-22, in the laps of the Harvester Bowl.

Others are elated over the decision. The men who should really be jumping with glee or down in the mouth, Red Watson of Harvester Bowl and Gil Burgund of Garden Lanes, are standing by mutely, not casting any stones or popping any champagne corks. Everybody's happy it would appear then, just for Ted Lewis' information.

The city tournament this year is expected to lure some 114 teams or over 500 bowlers. They'll pay $3 for bowling expense and prize money of the singles and doubles events, besides their five-man team competition and with that kind of dough coming in a whole lot of hashish could be wildly puffed by the Glutzbergers.

HEMMED IN—Mack Layne (33) of the Harvesters is boxed in by two Borger players, Sam Seamster (22) and Sam Smith, as he attempts to go up for a rebound. Borger got the ball, one of its 28 rebounds. Pampa captured 38 off the boards.

Last Quarter Stall Makes Rout of Nip-Tuck Contest

By RED GRIGGS

Daily News Sports Editor

BORGER — The Pampa Harvesters won the District 3-A championship, for all practical purposes, here Friday night by coming from behind to whip the Borger Bulldogs, 64-50.

Pampa now stands 8-0 in district play, with six games remaining. Borger is 6-2, also with six games remaining.

Three of the Harvesters' games are at home, where they haven't lost for two years, and only a total collapse of the team could cause them to lose two of the three road games — especially since one of them is against cellar-dwelling Tascosa.

The red-hot Borger team threatened for three quarters to tie the district race and break the Harvesters' win streak, at 33 games as they led for all but a few brief seconds throughout the first three periods.

However, Pampa managed to tie the score at the three-quarter mark, 45-45; then went ahead 61-47 two minutes deep in the fourth quarter, and used an effective stall to protect their lead and add to it.

With 27 seconds remaining in the third period, Coyle Winborn sank a free throw to tie the score at 45-45. This was the first time since the opening minutes of the game that the Harvesters had been even with the Bulldogs. The Harvesters had led by one point, 28-27, for less than 15 seconds in the second quarter.

Stall Loss Game
The Bulldogs started the fourth quarter as if they had no intention of cooling off, as Don Seamster sank a 30-foot jump shot in the opening seconds to put Borger back in the lead.

But Pampa finally broke the Borger spell with three straight buckets in the next two minutes, to practically put the game on ice. Bon Gindorf sank a set shot from the left corner to tie the score 43 seconds deep in the quarter; Craig Winborn tossed in a left-handed crisp shot at 1:31, and Coyle Winborn went under the basket for the clincher at 2 minutes.

Seconds later, the Harvesters grabbed a rebound, moved the ball back into Borger's end of the court, and began a stall which completely demoralized the Bulldogs and made a rout of the fourth quarter. They held the ball until only three minutes, 29 seconds remaining in the game.

Then Coyle Winborn was fouled by the Bulldogs, who were desperate to get the ball. Winborn sank his first free shot, but missed his second. Mack Layne grabbed the rebound and tossed in a field goal, putting the Harvesters ahead 54-47.

Borger managed only three free throws the rest of the game, while the Harvesters tossed in three field goals and four free throws.

Minor Returns
Pampa fans got one of their biggest thrills of the game when Charlie Minor made a surprise entrance into the game at 3:22 of the second period. The little playmaker, who dislocated a shoulder two weeks ago, still had a harness on his shoulder, although his arm and shoulder were out of the cast he had been wearing.

Minor gave the Harvesters a fast lift, as he pulled his ball-stealing trick two quick times in succession. He failed to score either time, but the steals did seem to restore the Harvesters' confidence.

Minor played the rest of the game. He scored only two free throws, but he bolstered the Pampa lead.

HEMMED IN—Mack Layne (33) of the Harvesters is boxed in by two Borger players, Sam Seamster (22) and Sam Smith, as he attempts to go up for a rebound. Borger got the ball, one of its 28 rebounds. Pampa captured 38 off the boards.

Eight-Man Open Team Set For Regional Boxing Meet

Pampa will take a squad of eight open boxers and 10 to 12 high school boxers to the Amarillo Regional Open Boxing Meet this week, according to O. F. (Ollie) Wilhelm, coach of the Pampa Optimist Boys' Club squad.

The only Pampa boxer expected to have a relatively easy time is Carl McClure, who will fight either heavy or light-heavy.

The regional meet begins Wednesday, and will continue Thursday and Saturday, with a break Friday. Open winners will go to the state tournament in Fort Worth, but the regional meet is the lightest and middleweight divisions as especially rugged.

Pampa High's Lyon Has 36 Cinder Candidates

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of a series outlining the prospects of spring sports at Pampa High School.

By RICK PEZDIRTZ
Daily News Managing Editor

If there's strength in numbers like some wise old gent once claimed, Coach Dwain Lyon, entering his sixth season as Pampa High track coach, should have another bang-up year and may be able to come up with a really fine mile relay team, maybe one that can rely on for that state meet trip in May.

Fleet-footed Alton Thygeson, a young man who's been known to outrun Top-O-Texas windstorms, carried the Green and Gold colors into last spring's state schoolboy meet, winning the 100 and 200 yard dashes. Thygeson is presently attending Brigham Young University in Utah. Another ace of last year's track team, Frank Snow, is under full scholarship at North Texas State while two other 1958 tracksters, Bill Brashears and Robert Warren are working out in Waco with the Baylor University tracksters.

Expected to help make his mile stay with the heart-tearing race relay team the scrabble of the Panhandle, Lyon is banking on the efforts of Tommy Locke, who concentrated on the 440 yard-dash last season and who'll probably stay with the heart-tearing race relay team in addition to running with relay quints.

Besides Locke, returning letter-men include, Buddy Rawls, Dickie Watkins, Paul Brown, Charles Warren, and Rex Williams. Brown and Watkins are both gunning for their third track monograms this spring.

Bullpups Gnaw On Shockers, 54-50

BORGER — The Bullpups gained a measure of revenge for the varsity's licking, as they handed the Pampa Shockers their second straight defeat, and their third loss of the year, 54-50 here Friday night.

The Shockers, like the Harvesters, "pained" in the fourth quarter, but it was "too little and too late. The Shockers outscored the Bullpups in the final period, 16-9.

Borger became the first team this year to hold a commanding lead over the Pampa B team, throughout the game. The Bullpups led 12-9 after the first quarter, 30-20 at halftime, and 45-34 at the end of the third quarter.

The Shockers now stand 16-3 for the year. Their other losses were by one point to Hobbs and seven points to Amarillo. Friday's game was the exact opposite of Tuesday's Amarillo contest, because it was Amarillo which rallied in the fourth quarter to overcome a Shockers lead.

Three of the Bullpups hit in double figures — Welch with 21, Levine with 11, and Baker with 11. Pat Carter, of the Shockers, with 20, was the only Pampa player to score in double figures.

PANAMA CITY (UPI)—Anzures, which won the Panama League pennant with a 5-4 victory over Mariboro Thursday night, leaves for Caracas, Venezuela, Feb. 2 to compete in the Caribbean Baseball World Series.

Carver Romps Over Memphis

In their last game before the district tournament February 7, Carver's eagles defeated Memphis here Friday, 62-49. The Carver girls romped over the Memphis girls, 46-16.

Probable starters for Carver in the upcoming district tournament are Charles O'Neal, 5-9; Larry Cash, 5-5; Raymond Duke, 5-10; James Taylor, 6-1; and George Duke, 5-8.

Probable starters for the girls will be Roy Sue Bunton, 5-10; Claudette Cash, 4-11; Bessie Dixon, 5-8; Willie Pearl Oliver, 5-5; Mary Dixon, 5-4; Frances Calhoun, 5-11; and Mary Duke, 5-4.

The Carver boys now have a big lead in district play, with a 1-2 record. They have beaten everyone except Plainview, a team they must play twice more. For the season, Carver is 18-4.

In Friday night's game, Raymond Duke hit 22 points, Charles O'Neal 20, Larry Cash 5; Ernest Mathis, George Morgan, and James Taylor four each; and George Duke three. For the girls, Bessie Mae Dixon scored 23, Claudette Cash 10, and Roy Sue Bunton nine.

Army Hires New Coach

WEST POINT, N. Y. (UPI)—Dale Hall, an unsung hero on the outstanding Army football team that included Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis, Saturday was named head football coach at the U. S. Military Academy to succeed Earl (Red) Blaik.

The 34-year-old Hall, who has been Blaik's No. 1 assistant for the past three seasons, thus becomes one of the youngest head coaches ever put in charge of the cadets.

He was chosen for the job from among three outstanding West Point alumni who are all active in coaching. The others under consideration had been Bobby Dobbs, head coach at Tulane, and Johnny Green, who played guard on the same teams with Hall and who now is an assistant coach at Tulane.

COACH DWAIN LYON, ready for 6th season

Blink, one of the nation's most successful coaches, announced on Jan. 13 that he was resigning to accept "one of several opportunities" either in television or business. "He will leave the job on his 62nd birthday, Feb. 15.

Hall is regarded as a go-getter. He was the first to apply for the much-sought Army job — filing a formal application the day after Blaik retired last month.

A native of Parson, Kan., the cadets' new head coach also participated in basketball and tennis during his undergraduate days at the Point. Upon his graduation in 1945, he received the Army A.A. trophy, presented annually to the man who rendered "the most valuable service to athletics during his cadet career."

Shooters' League Slates Awards to Top Marksmen

Eight area rifle and pistol teams which have been shooting against each other recently, have officially dubbed their association as the "High Plains Rifle and Pistol League."

The league has also agreed on several awards. However, it has not been decided whether to have an awards dinner. Pampa Rifle and Pistol Club members have been urged to submit their suggestions on this matter, or anything else affecting the league, by Feb. 15, so an early decision can be made.

The team awards will consist of a traveling trophy (if one can be donated) and gold medals to the top four team members. The top four members of the second team will receive silver medals, and the top third-place team members will get bronze medals.

A total of 15 individual awards will be made. A silver medal will be presented to the high man on each team, and the league's first aggregate scorer will receive a gold medal. The second and third aggregate scorers will receive silver medals.

Perryton Sets Sport Banquet

PERRYTON (Sp) — At their noon luncheon, Tuesday the Perryton Lions Club voted to sponsor an All Sports Banquet, sometime in April. This banquet will honor the athletes of Perryton High School. It will take the place of the "Annual Football Banquet" and has been expanded to include the students taking part in basketball, track, tennis and girls basketball.

This All Sports Banquet will also serve in the place of the football banquet planned this year and cancelled because of the sudden death of Coach Pete Peterson. The banquet was planned for Monday evening, December 15 and Coach Peterson died on Sunday, December 14.

George Zoller, high school principal, has been named general chairman for the banquet. Other committees will be named at a later meeting. It is planned to have a number of trophies and awards to be given on this night, with other civic clubs participating in the awards.

Borger Guard Nips Pampa A In Rifle Shoot

The Pampa "A" smallbore rifle team fired their league match with Borger National Guard Jan. 30 at the National Guard Armory in Borger.

The Borger National Guard took the match with an aggregate score of 1497. Pampa "A" fired the highest aggregate score they have ever fired, a 1445, but had to concede to a better score.

High man for the match was Chandler, Borger National Guard, aggregate 382; second was W. F. Huff, Pampa "A", 376.

Men firing for the Berger team, and their aggregate scores were: Chandler, 382; Leigh 371, Kuncze 373, Freeman 371, Hedgecock 368, Patrick 365, Barnes 361.

Men firing for the Pampa "A" team and their aggregate scores were: Huff 376, Bob Coombes 362, Pete Coombes 358, Lloyd Dugan 349, Elmer Kilpatrick 344, O. C. Pannel 340, Charley Thomas 332, John Warner 286, Paul Edwards 266.

Just the four high men actually count for the team scores. This gives all a chance to be counted in the team aggregate if and when they improve enough.

Only four men used scope sights (they are permitted). Any one using a scope is fined 1 point per possible 100 or 4 points on his total score.

The strangest incident of this match was Pete and Bob Coombes coaching each other. They are father and son, and their scores were only four points apart.

WRESTLING RETURNS

Wrestling returns to Pampa Saturday night, after an absence of nearly two months. In the main event, the Kangaroos (Al Costello and Roy Heffernan) will go against Dory Funk and Sonny Myers.

The first match begins at 8:30 p.m. at Top of Texas Sportman Club. Bob Geigel is promoter of the match, sponsored by Pampa Shrine Club.

In a semi-final match, Gory Guerrero will go against Iron Mike and Heffernan will wrestle Myers in the curtain-raiser.

Tickets are on sale at Levine's Department Store. Ringside seats are $1.50, reserved seats $1.25, and general admission $1.00.

Basketball Roundup

PERRYTON — Stu Johnson scored 18 points to lead the Perryton Rangers to a 46-41 District 5-AA victory over the Wellington Skyrockets. Ronnie O'Rear tallied 13 for Wellington.

Wellington took the girls' game, 48-38. Pat Tompkins and Marcela Savage of Wellington, and Ardit Wilson of Perryton each netted 18 points.

WHEELER — The Wheeler Mustangs threw the Shamrock Irish Friday, 40-35. J. A. Atherton hit 16 points for Wheeler, and Charles Tyler led the losers with 15. Wheeler also won the girls' game, 41-33, with Sharon Beatty scoring 23 points. Nekita Palmer of Shamrock tallied 16. Wheeler won the girls' B game, 41-13.

LUBBOCK — Plainview's Bulldogs edged Monterey 53-52 in District 3-AA. Richard Harrison scored 23 for Monterey, and Lee Richards hit 15 for Plainview. The Bulldogs now stand 5-3 in the district, and Monterey is 2-6.

Poly Assistants Get Promotions

PORT WORTH (UPI) — Two assistant coaches have been promoted to fill head coaching vacancies in football and basketball at Polytechnic High School here.

Jack Whitley, former coach at Masonic Home, Friday took over the post vacated by the resignation of football coach Dan Campbell last week, and Tommy Taylor will become basketball coach when Jack Harley's resignation becomes effective at the end of the current season.

Red Griggs

the pipeline

With three weeks remaining in the district basketball race, the Harvesters already have the district championship in the bag. Miracles can always happen, of course, but they don't occur very often.

With a two-game lead over the Borger Bulldogs, the Harvesters would have to lose two games for Borger to even tie the race, and it's hard to see how anyone will beat them the rest of the season. Besides, Borger is no cinch to go through the rest of the season undefeated, even if Pampa does lose two.

After seeing the Harvesters beat Palo Duro and Amarillo, despite slipshod play in both games, we're pretty well convinced that only a great team can beat the Harvesters, even on a cold night.

One team that's pretty close to the "great" class is Borger, and they're already by the boards. If and until the Harvesters reach the state tournament, they'll meet only one team which might be capable of beating them — the Odessa Bronchos.

Bronchos Still Undefeated

At last report, the Bronchos were still undefeated, and as far as we know they're the only undefeated class 4A team in the state.

Spec Gammon, sports editor of the Odessa American, reports that the Bronchos are much shorter than the Harvesters. Their tallest man is 6-3. However, the Bronchos are reported to have much more hustle than the Harvesters.

The Harvesters will meet Odessa in the regional round, if both teams get by their bi-district games. And it's a good bet that both of them will.

Pampa's bi-district opponent will probably be either Wichita Falls or Arlington. Wichita Falls won it last year with just an average team, and Wichita Falls sports editor Randy MacPherson says that they're not quite as good this year.

The chances are, then, that both Pampa and Odessa will get by their first hurdles and meet each other in what could be the real state championship game.

Cupid, Stop Pickin' on Them

One of the teams playing here in the big Feb. 11 doubleheader, the Phillips Oilers, has been hurt this year by injuries. Another of the teams has a quite different problem. In fact, they might quote the song "stupid cupid, stop pickin' on me."

The Clarendon Junior Comets, the women's team which is to play the Wayland Flying Queens, has had to shift its lineup because some of its members got married. However, the remaining players are still plenty good enough to give the Queens a scrap.

They've lost some ball games, but they've been to the 1-2-3 women's teams in the nation — Wayland, Nashville Business College, and Iowa Wesleyan. The Comets have consistently ranked among the top ten women's teams in the nation.

Raiders Rap Aggies, 57-46

LUBBOCK (UPI) — Potts Hill paced Texas Tech to a 57-46 victory over Texas A&M Saturday in a regionally televised basketball game, giving the Red Raiders their third consecutive Southwest Conference victory.

Tech now is tied for second in the conference standings with a 4-2 record, depending on the outcome of Saturday night's game.

The Raiders took the lead with less than four minutes gone and never were tied or headed, after that. They dominated the game with defensive work that kept the Aggie attack off-balance all afternoon.

Hill scored 18 points, 12 in the second half when he was carrying four fouls. Charley Lynch, another defensive standout, scored 16.

The Aggies were led by Wilmer Cox, who scored 13 points, 10 in the second when he primarily was responsible for cutting Tech's lead from 16 points to nine, the closest the Aggies came.

Tech led at the half 30-21. The Raiders hit 41 per cent from the field, and A&M hit 36 per cent. They divided rebounds 38 apiece.

It was the lowest point output of the season for the Aggies.

White Deer Edges McLean, 65 to 61

McLEAN — Darrell Christian's resurgent McLean High Tigers gave Sam Christy's championship-bound White Deer express a severe jolt here Friday night but no derailment occurred and the Bucks squeezed into the station with their seventh straight District 2-A triumph, 65-61.

It was all tied up at 61-61 with only 55 seconds left in the game, and pressure could have been chopped out in large swatches with a rusty butcher-knife before all-state, football end. Jeff Bearden drew a foul, calmly sunk a pair of free pitches and then moments later streaked down court on a fast break for a crisp shot to ice the game.

Bearden's four-point heroics in the last minute allowed him to finish only a free throw shy of the magic 30-point circle, with 29 markers. However, his torrid shooting was heavily overshadowed in the preliminary tilt as White Deer's Mary Ann Freeman ran wild for 47 points, pushing in shots from all angles on the court.

Bob Moore's White Deer girls posted their seventh straight victory in conference play too, 72-57, as Juanna Jo Moore assisted Freeman's one-girl act with 17 and Marilyn Kotara had six. Josephine McPherson and Laura Mae Switzer both bucketed 29 points to pace the McLean offensive.

For the season the White Deer boys are 10-1 after a late start due to their winning of the Class A grid title. The White Deer ladies are 14-2. Both are heavy favorites now to pluck off loop titles, as four of their five district games are booked for the home court in White Deer. Only a Feb. 17 trip to Panshandle where a tough arch-rival Panther sits in wait remains on the road for the White Deer cagers. Memphis visits the Bucks' lair Tuesday night.

Last year White Deer's Bucks tied for the 1-A title and lost to Gruver in a sudden-death playoff game. The White Deer girls under Moore, however, advanced all the way to the state tournament at Austin, lost to Moulton in a heart-breaker, 65-45, and then lashed Central of Pollok, 70-53, for third place.

In Friday night's game, the Bucks blew a fat 23-10 first period lead, hitting a cold streak after blowing hot from the outset and not managing another field goal until 1:35 left in the first half. The Bucks nursed a slim 36-31 halftime advantage.

Christian's Tigers warmed up in the second half behind post-man Murrill Hill, who had 25 points in the contest, and leaped ahead early in the fourth period by 12. It was nip-and-tuck the rest of the way before Bearden came through with his four last minute points to provide the margin of victory.

The Bucks were hurt early in the third stanza when sparkplug Ronnie Castle drew his fifth foul and was sidelined.

The loss mathematically eliminated McLean, an early season powerhouse, from the championship running.

BUFF STAR—Milt Flitts, West Texas Buffalo cager, will be one of the top cagers appearing here Feb. 11 in a basketball doubleheader featuring the Phillips Oilers vs. the West Texas Buffs. Also on the bill will be two top women's teams, the Clarendon Comets and the Wayland Flying Queens. Flitts has a 23.5 per game scoring average.

Skate Game

A roller hockey doubleheader will be played Monday at Pampa Skating Rink for the benefit of the March of Dimes. Since there will be no expenses, all proceeds will go directly to the March of Dimes. Roller hockey teams are composed of five players, and two fifteen-minute quarters are played. Two Pampa squads will be going against teams from Borger and Amarillo. All three squads are composed of independent amateur players. Tickets may be purchased at 50 cents each from members of the Pampa skating club, who are sponsoring the doubleheader. Those wishing to watch the event should buy tickets early, according to rink operator Bill Watson, because the seating capacity is only about 50. One Pampa team is captained by Melvin Jaroe. Its members are John Owen, Herman Caldwell, Dean Betts, and Othal Hicks. The other team, captained by Jerry Morris, is composed of Freddie Thurman, Ralph Hollis, Mike King, and Peanut Bennett.

HARVESTERS

(Continued From Page 9) pa defense, and boosted the Harvesters' morale, to offset Borger's big home-court advantage. Borger had won 23 straight in the Junior High Field House. Winborn sinks 25 While it was Minor who provided the "intangibles," it was Coyie Winborn who sparked the Pampa offense by putting a very tangible 25 points in the scorebook. Winborn hit both crisp shots under the basket and long set shots from the left side, as well as five of seven free throws. Mack Layne, Craig Winborn, and Gindorf also marked the attack, as all three scored in double figures. Layne tallied 11 points, Craig 12, and Gindorf 11. Borger had only one man in double figures, Don Seamster, with 17. However, the Bulldogs hit a credible 38 percent of their shots despite the last quarter slump in which they canned only one of eight. Pampa sank 54 percent of its field goal attempts, hitting seven of eight in the grand and glorious fourth. The Harvesters had a 38-28 edge in rebounding, a much smaller margin than they held over Borger at Pampa.

BORGER LEADS

Borger drew first blood in the game on a follow-up shot in the first minute by James Armstrong, but Pampa tied it on a follow-up shot by Layne. Then Armstrong sank a crisp shot to give Borger a lead they were to hold for almost all of the first three quarters. Hitting remarkably well on jump shots and set shots from 20 feet or more, the Bulldogs maintained a lead ranging from one to seven points, until the end of the third period. The Harvesters, always stayed close, but went ahead only once, 28-27, on a bucket by Craig Winborn with 1:12 remaining in the second quarter. The Bulldogs led 17-14 at the end of the first quarter, and 33-32 at halftime. Their largest lead of the game was 17-10 late in the first quarter.

Walker Cup Team Picked

NEW YORK (UPI)—The United States Golf Assn. Saturday named a nine-man 1959 Walker Cup team that included four young players who never before had been chosen to the squad. Thomas Aaron, 21, from Gainesville, Ga.; Deane R. Beaman, 20, from Silver Spring, Md.; Jack Micklaus, 19, from Columbus, Ohio, and H. Ward Wettlaufer, 23, from Buffalo, N.Y., were the newcomers selected. Charles Coe of Oklahoma City was chosen captain of the squad which will meet the British amateur stars in the 17th renewal of the biennial series at Muirfield, Scotland, next May 15-18.

FRANK THOMAS ...traded to Redlegs

FRANK THOMAS TRADED FOR HADDIX, BURGESS

By NORMAN MILLER United Press International NEW YORK (UPI)—General Manager Gabe Paul of Cincinnati said Saturday that he and Joe Brown of the Pittsburgh Pirates "spent about 100 hours" to complete the trade which brought Frank Thomas to the Redlegs, and the man who took up all that time was Harvey Haddix. "The biggest National League trade of the off-season was started during the last World Series and finally consummated in a hotel suite just before midnight Friday. The deal sent Thomas, pitcher, Whammy Douglas, outfielder John Powers and handyman Jim Pendleton to Cincinnati in exchange for Haddix, catcher Snakey Burgess and third baseman Don Hoak. "Thomas will be our third baseman," said Paul in explaining the deal. "We got him because we felt we needed a front-line third baseman and right-handed hitting power. "But the fellow who held up the deal was Haddix," Paul continued. "Joe Brown and I estimate we spent 100 hours in making this deal. Since the series, we got together on every detail except Haddix. We were very reluctant to give him up in view of the fact that we're still looking for a stronger pitcher. But Brown insisted on getting Harvey." Brown, standing nearby, agreed that "if Gabe and I were paid the hour on this deal, we'd be wind up being rich men." "We were reluctant to give up Thomas, but if we didn't the deal never would have been made," Hoak will be our third baseman and it looks right now like Burgess could be our first string catcher." Paul said he thought the 31-year-old left-handed hitting Burgess "is much better defensively than most people give him credit for."

Elliott Runs 1:51.6 Half

MELBOURNE, Australia (UPI)—Herb Elliott, the Australian wonder man of the track world, warmed up Saturday for another possible assault on the mile record he already holds by winning the Victoria half-mile title in 1:51.6 seconds. Elliott, who lowered the world standard for the mile to 3:54.5 at Dublin, Ireland, Aug. 6, 1958, was pressed hard all the way by Tony Blue, a 22-year-old Queensland medical student in Saturday's race, run in blistering 96 degree heat at Olympic Park. Elliott won by a half yard.

LYON

(Continued From Page 9) Lyon is hoping the snows of Saturday will melt fast and an early spring will come to the Top O' Texas so he can go about his business of trying to cut seconds off his sprinters and add inches to his jumpers and weight men's efforts. Other Pampa High track candidates include: Jerry Baxter, Jackie Bromlow, Stanley Butler, Bill Byerly, Keith Cable, Bill Cooper, Jimmy Davenport, Steve Dobbin, Max Flippen, Bob Follcivell, Charles Geise, John Gross, Leroy Gross, Tommy Hill, Kent Mitchell and Sherill Miller. Also Jim Scott, Ronnie Smith, Bennie Stout, Rowland Stone, Butch Dunham, Lucky Dunham, Duane Urbanczyk, Jimmy Watkins, Roy Don Stephens, Boyd Stephens, David McQuarry, Gene Daisling, Gary Mackey, Travis Cook, and Harold Stokes.

Cronin Installed As AL President

NEW YORK (UPI)—Joe Cronin, who started out at the bottom of the baseball ladder as a $50-per-month shortstop, officially takes over the American League president's chair today at $50,000 per year. Election of the 52-year-old Cronin as the fourth president in American League history, a cut-and-dried formality, will be announced shortly after the opening of the major leagues' annual mid-winter meetings. Cronin, up to now the general manager of the Boston Red Sox, actually was certified as successor to 73-year-old Will Harridge by a so-called "screening committee" before which he was summoned in Chicago, Jan. 14. Cronin, there was little on the agenda of either the American or National leagues. Frick is stumping for a proposal that would allow Latin-American clubs to offer winter employment to more major leaguers than they can now. The majors will vote on the proposal during their joint session which will follow separate meetings by each circuit. "Player" attorney J. Norman Lewis called on major league officials to place the International League "problem" on their agenda, but it is doubtful that they will. International League players have threatened to strike unless their demands for a pension plan are met. League directors have suggested that finances for the fund be obtained from major league television receipts and Lewis is in accord with the suggestion. Cronin's election to the presidency will cap a 24-year career in baseball which began when he broke in as an 18-year-old shortstop with Johnston of the class C-Middle Atlantic League back in 1925. Later, he went on to star for the Washington Senators and Red Sox and after serving as manager for both clubs, he was elected to baseball's Hall of Fame in 1956. The screening committee already has recommended that the A.L. office be moved from Chicago to Boston and that Harridge, who retired as president after 27 years service, remain as chairman of the board in his Chicago office.

Vargas Beats Tony Anthony

NEW YORK (UPI)—Heavyweight Reuben Vargas, who decked Tony Anthony Friday night and broke his seven-bout winning streak on a split decision, will meet china-chinned Anthony in a return fight at Madison Square Garden, March 29. Matchmaker Jack Barrett closed for the bout today because Friday night's TV 10-rounder at the Garden was such a see-saw, bruising, bloody brawl. Stocky, mustachioed Vargas, the San Francisco Mexican who is heavyweight champion of California, went into the ring a 5-1 underdog, but he fought the fight of his life because he needs money to build a new home for his ailing mother, Michaela. Reuben could hardly see from his swollen right eye after the third round. Vargas, 28 and weighing 186 1/2 pounds, floored Anthony's 177-pound Tony with a left hook to the chin for a count of nine in the eighth round. And he had Tony bleeding profusely from a cut inside his lower lip and from the nose as early as the third round. The aggressive, bobbing, wild-hooking Californian gave Anthony such a merciless beating in the fifth round — on the ropes and in corners — that it seemed referee Davey Field would stop the massacre. But he didn't, and Tony rallied with machine-gun bursts to break even in the sixth and take the seventh on all three official score cards.

Prime Minister Resigns But Not Without Italian Note

Personality Spotlight
United Press International
AMINTORE FANFANI,
Outgoing Italian Prime Minister

Amintore Fanfani is a little man who has gone a long way in mind. He is scarcely 5 feet 5 inches tall. But until he became premier of Italy last July, Fanfani was the most powerful and least known man in Italy. In the gamble of democratic politics, which can be more puzzling in Europe than elsewhere in the world, Fanfani gave up Monday he will be 51 on February 6. He is married and the father of six children, the oldest a girl of 18 and the youngest a boy of six. Fanfani, bald and with a gray-speckled moustache, is a social reformer and a skilled politician. Fanfani was a graduate of economic sciences in 1930 and became a regular professor of his subject at the Catholic University of the Sacred Heart in Milan in 1936. From 1938 until 1943, Fanfani lectured at the Institute of Economics in Venice. When Benito Mussolini created his puppet republic in northern Italy in 1943, Fanfani fled to Switzerland. He lived there as a military intern. Fanfani returned to Italy at the end of the war and was elected a member of the constitutional assembly for the Christian Democratic Party in 1946. He has been a member of parliament since that time. In 1947, Fanfani became minister of labor and social affairs in the fourth cabinet of the late Alcide De Gasperi. He held that post in the succeeding cabinet of the following year, but was dropped in 1950 when the "right wing" of the party was in control. Fanfani, according to the best information available is and has always been a practicing Catholic and a vigorous foe of Communism.

He entered the government again in 1951 as agriculture minister. His star began to rise. Fanfani served successively as interior minister in 1953 and the following year was tapped as premier. This was after the fall of Premier Giuseppe Pella. Fanfani tried to form a one-party cabinet with the representation of Christian Democrats. Parliament gave him a vote of non-confidence and Marion Scelba took over. Fanfani concentrated on party work. In the May general elections of last year, Fanfani triumphed over his party won considerable gains but just short of a parliamentary majority. The victory made him the logical choice as premier. Fanfani's government, a coalition of Christian Democrats and Social Democrats, was sworn in since then.

Business Views

United Press International

Chairman Roger M. Blough of U.S. Steel Corp. said the company hopes to arrive at a peaceful, non-inflationary settlement with the Steelworkers Union, when current contracts expire at mid-year. He also reported incoming orders are now the heaviest in a year. His remarks came after the company reported lower sales and earnings in 1958, reflecting the recession.

The New York Central Railroad reported earnings of $4,050,995 or 62 cents a share for 1958. This was less than half that cleared in 1957 and was the smallest for any year since 1946 when the company suffered a deficit of $10,449,000.

Monsanto Chemical Co. had the best fourth quarter in its history, but earnings for all of 1958 fell behind the previous year. Fourth quarter profits amounted to $1 million, up from $700,000 last July 2nd. He had had a difficult time since then.

Perryton VFW Takes Honors At Round Up

PERRYTON (SpI) — The Perryton Veterans of Foreign Wars Post was named the most outstanding post in the state of Texas at the annual mid-winter roundup held in Fort Worth recently.

The award was based on membership, community service, youth activities and other phases of post activity. Every award offered by the state department was won by the Perryton post, according to Jack Voorhees, Commander.

Among these was a membership citation for securing their quota on time. A savings bond and a plaque were presented to the Perryton post for their outstanding record.

Those attending the convention from Perryton VFW were Bob Lowell, E. D. Kelly, George Symon, Tom Davis, Jack Voorhees and Floyd Hubbard. Auxiliary members attending were Mrs. E. D. Kelly, Mrs. George Symons and Mrs. Voorhees.

An Air Force report released today describes a solid electrolyte fossil bioreactor medri capable for commercial production.

The nation's blast furnaces produced 57,764,100 tons of pig iron and ferro alloys last year, against 79,338,932 the previous year. December, 1958, production was 6,072,890 tons, highest output for any month since October 1957, with concrete blocks to prevent activities and other phases of post activity. Every award offered by the state department was won by the Perryton post, according to Jack Voorhees, Commander. Among these was a membership citation for securing their quota on time. A savings bond and a plaque were presented to the Perryton post for their outstanding record. Peg O' Pampa

DID YOU SEE THE FAIRY-LAND... into which the parks and the cemetery were transformed by the coating of ice which was on each little twig? that was last Tuesday... and we loaded the kids into the car and had ourselves a small ride just as much fun as a ride in the summertime... and along the streets the north side of the evergreen trees was glistening white with ice... some of the long-necked varieties were the prettiest... but enough about the silly old weather.

LET'S GET DOWN TO THE BUSINESS AT HAND... the Michael Wilson's are enjoying their new home on Aspen and their new baby daughter... makes them three girls now, Gail, Susan, and the new one... their home is a lovely one, with a large family room, and the nicest bedrooms and a pretty kitchen on the front of the house... all sorts of new things in the way of homes are going up... heard rumors that Jean and Kirk Dunson are building a home complete with swimming pool... shades of Hollywood... and have you noticed how the houses are springing up seemingly overnight... out in the Overton Addition happened to be out in that "neck of the woods"... and was astounded... Pampa is really growing... saw Sharon Haralson and Clay Crossland chatting over the coffee cups... quite an institution that, the coffee-break... and speaking of the men... was glad to see H. E. Stanfield president of the Top O' Texas Kiwanis... and Charlie Wilkerson as first vice-president to take over when he is absent... and John McCausland second vice... and Bob Thompson their secretary... and C. R. Hoover in charge of the money... the men are as busy with club work as the women, by the looks of things... look at how much work the Jaycees put in on their various objects... just putting up and taking down the Christmas decorations on the streets is plenty of work... and usually in cold weather, too... and speaking of weather... we know some Pampans who are lolling around in the sun at Phoenix, Arizona while we freeze and shiver... they are the Floyd Imels and the Del Baagles... merry sunshine there, we hear... tell and a nice place to be during a cold snap... but they still can't beat Panhandle weather when it gets around to being good... had to laugh the other night at Dan True... on the TV weather cast... he said that Wednesday the Panhandle was the warmest spot in Texas, but nobody would hear about that... just about our cold wave when it hit a few days later... but poor Dan has reason to be cynical about the reputation this area has for its weather... just let it snow a little bit here, and people panic and run around yelling that the roads are blocked, etc., etc., you know how it is.

ALL ABOUT PAMPANS... there's going to be a good science fair show again this year... remember how impressive it was last year?... February 6th is the deadline set for entries by the school children... elementary and junior high schools are included as well as the High School... there will be a regional exhibit for local winners, in Amarillo... Elaine Ledbetter is doing a fine job of organization and direction of the whole thing... the fair itself will be February 20th and 21st... so mark the date on your calendars... of course, those of you who have youngsters entering, have no doubt already lived with the thing for months!... just like the ages it takes to make an entry for the Soapbox derby... kids eat and sleep what they are interested in... the Sub-Deb club is getting all set for their annual Valentine Ball... which is going to be February 14th... how nice it is the right date on the right day... makes it especially nice... some lucky Sub Deb will be crowned Queen of the Ball... and it is ever a secret until the big minute... and speaking of the Ball... and dancing... hear that there is talk of a High School Social Dance Class coming up... how nice that will be as preparation for the big and fancy COLLEGE dances that Freshmen in college are immediately thrown into... when they arrive on the campus... Mr. Stephens, from Amarillo, we hear, will direct the class... here's the opportunity for the kids to get the lead out of their shoes... Joan Haggeman is a pert and pretty little blonde, just moved here from Amarillo... she's a junior in High School... glad to have her here... everybody is just sure that Pampa will go to State in the basketball finals this year... everybody is certainly pulling for the team... hope it turns out that way.

INCIDENTAL INTELLIGENCE... here's a new gimmick for the Loan Companies... if you want to borrow money, why don't they lend you some without even your signature being required... they could simply deduct each week from your salary until the sum you need has been accumulated in their office... then you could borrow it! And the best thing would be that you wouldn't have to repay to loan... how about that?

GUESS WE'D BETTER GET DOWN TO BUSINESS... Mrs. Azell Loftus and Pauline Williams took in some fine shoes in Dallas, recently?... don't you think Marilyn Steels is pretty with her gray hair?... we do... saw Mrs. H. H. Boynton browsing in the grocery store one day last week... looking pert and pretty as usual... bet she is readying things for the Spring planting and digging in her wonderful garden... and the Garden Club has already seen some action on their Red Deer Creek park project out on Duncan... there is one terrace already in existence... and a regular beehive of activity around there... it will be nice for those who live along Linda Drive... already made rose garden practically in their front lawns... a very sweet person we'd like to give orchids to this time is Mary Hoover... always ready to lend a helping hand... and busy with family (two girls and a boy, wonderful children) and Scout work, and so on... have you seen Leah Behrman's new Cadillac?... Lois McQuire is proudly wearing a pretty bracelet these days, with dangling charms with the names of her grandchildren on them... Melissa and Mike... a very nice way of drawing attention to the "pearls" one collects as one's grandchildren appear... guess this a good time to mention the Silver coffee coming up February 10th from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., sponsored by the Twentieth Century Club, it is on behalf of the March of Dimes... it will be held in the home of Mrs. Joe Gordon at 1811 Charles... Mrs. Kirk Dunson is proxy of this organization... and we think this a very fine thing to do... and the annual Potluck Supper at the Episcopal parish hall will be held February 10th also... and, of course, the plans are cooking for the Mardi Gras celebration at Holy Souls Parish Hall... it will be February 7th at 9:00 p.m. Mrs. F. N. Hills is cooking the food... Mrs. W. Merrill is in charge of the decorations... which will include masks and balloons and all the trimmings this time... incidentally, the tickets are $3.50, which includes the food... and what's more, the money goes to buy textbooks and supplies for the school... building of the new school is coming along, out on North Hobart... and by the way... the Catholic Home and School Association has a man for its president... Stan Burnham... we think this is just fine... men should take hold and things sometimes... say... we've heard about rumblings about the annual Community Concert Association membership campaign... guess it is coming in the near future... understand that Connie McDaniel and Adrienne Foster are heading the campaign this year... and that there are plans for a wonderful season next year with something attractive as Vienna on Parade and B... Linn and Red Alexander were in the hat... that's about all for now... see you next week over your Sun... morning cup of coffee.

Love, Peg

Mental Illness Topic For CC C

Civic Culture Club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. E. Townsend with Mrs. R. E. Dauer, president, presiding during the business session, which opened with the group reading in unison the Club Collect.

Mrs. H. W. Waters gave a talk on mental illness. She stated that a turn is beginning to be made in the fight against mental illness.

However, there is no massive breakthrough yet. Mental illness still remains our nation's number one health problem.

"Some of the hospitals," she said, "for the mentally ill have unlocked their doors and removed the bars from their windows. Since this has been done more patients are recovering."

To illustrate, Mrs. Waters pointed out that in the St. Lawrence State Hospital in Ogdensburg, N. Y., some 98 percent of the 1,882 patients have freedom of the buildings and grounds. This trend is still over New York. There are thousands of recovered patients in danger of breaking down again, because they cannot get a welcome, a home or a job.

During the business meeting, new officers were elected for next year. To serve are Mmes. E. E. Osborne, vice president; W. J. Pennington, president; Emmett Osborne, vice president; W. J. Morris, recording secretary; Louise Sewall, corresponding secretary; Jack Hon, treasurer; Carl Axelsson, parliamentarian; Stanley Brandt, reporter; R. E. Dauer, council representative.

It was announced that the next meeting will be a Guest Day Tea in the Lovett Memorial Library.

Religion Illustrated In Art, Hymns Program For Varietas Study Club

Varietas Study Club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. W. A. Wagoner, 1208 Russell. Mrs. Joe Weaver presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Dow King.

Mrs. S. C. Evans gave the Thought For the Day, a parable "The Rug Weaver" using the many colors as a demonstration of "the pattern we make by the lives we live each day."

Mrs. H. H. Bratcher, program chairman, introduced the program theme, "With righteousness in the heart, there will be beauty in the character." She gave an introduction of how art influences lives.

"Jesus, in art, was not painted for many years. There was only a description of him in a letter of Lentulus. Grotto was one of the first who started paintings of Jesus in early Italian and German works; most all of the early works were in the 13th century. Rembrandt's representation of Jesus showed him with the haloes; Rembrandt campained his with early primitive paintings of Jesus which he had no feeling nor depth."

Mrs. Bratcher also showed the paintings by Hoffman of Jesus at the age of 32. "Sallman painted the head of Christ, which has been approved by most of the people." Mrs. Bratcher concluded her illustrations of religious art with a story "Life Of Jesus."

Mrs. Sherman White spoke on hymns. "People have always loved to sing, a natural way of expressing happiness. Songs of praise to the Lord are among the earliest writings. Singing was the largest part of the old Egyptian ritual; four times a day, sunrise, noon, sunset, and midnight, the priests chanted regularly the praises of their Gods. And on down through the ages, songs and music have been of great comfort to troubled hearts."

"The favorite hymn of President Eisenhower's is 'Lead Kindly Light'; John Charles Daly's is 'In Christ, There Is No East Nor West'; and J. C. Penney's favorite is 'God Will Take Care Of You.'"

Mrs. Wagoner played a number of favorite hymns.

Refreshments were served during the social hour to Mrs. Cecil Dalton, Price Doster, C. O. Drew, H. H. Butler, Luther Pierson, Lee

RUTH MILLETT

Any mother should teach her daughter — Never to become completely dependent on any one person. Never to forget that a boy's feelings and his pride are as easily hurt as a girl's. Always to remember that the more feminine she is, the easier life is for a woman — and the more rewarding, too. That whether she is beautiful or plain, her looks are NOT the most important thing about her. That gentleness is a quality worth cultivating. That neatness is a great help to any girl who expects to have her own home some day. That boys respect the girl who respects herself, but have little respect for the girl who chases after them or is willing to date just anybody rather than have a date. That loudness in a girl or woman never attracts the right kind of attention. That making the most of her looks is a duty any girl owes to herself. That picking others to pieces is a common feminine failing, and one that should be guarded against by any girl or woman who wants to keep her friends. That limiting one's friends to a small closed circle is not only selfish, but is as harmful to those who are shut in as to those who are shut out. That the little mistakes she makes aren't nearly as important to others as they are to her. That neatness is a great help to she can't be satisfied with what she has simply because someone else has something a little bit newer or a little bit better. That the important thing is NOT to be as nearly like everyone in the crowd as possible, but to be herself, so that she stands out a little from the crowd. Never place a new coat of floor wax over an old coat.

Cosmetologist, Lady Doctor, Doll Maker Topics For Twentieth Century Forum

Twentieth Century Forum Study Club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. M. McDaniel with Mrs. W. Calvin Jones, president, presiding during the unanimous election of the following officers for 1959-60, Mrs. M. Daniel, president; W. Calvin Jones, vice president; Aubrey Steel, secretary; John B. McCrery, treasurer; D. M. Lawrence, reporter; and Henry J. Ross, parliamentarian.

Mrs. E. J. Dunigan Jr. and Mrs. J. R. Holloway presented the afternoon program on "Our Fair Ladies."

To open her portion of the program, Mrs. Dunigan gave a biography of Hazel Bishop. "The name HAZEL BISHOP," Mrs. Dunigan began, "belongs to an American research chemist as well as the 'Lasting Lipstick' which she introduced in 1950. This product, the first of the 'non-smear, long-lasting' type, revolutionized the lipstick market. In 1954, Miss Bishop sold all of her stock in Hazel Bishop, Inc. the company which she founded, and since that time she has devoted her chemical researches toward developing new products in the cosmetic and allied fields."

"Hazel grew up with a background of family talk about wise and ethical business practices," Mrs. Dunigan continued. "She received a BA degree from Barnard College in 1929, as a pre-medical student. But the depression of the 1930's shifted her graduate study at Columbia University to night classes where she actually began her career in bio-chemical research. She became research assistant to a world-famous dermatologist. World War II gave her a chance to extend her researches to other fields. As a senior organic chemist for Standard Oil Development Co. she concentrated on studies of aviation fuels; her findings aided in development of a special gasoline for bomber plants. She began experimenting in her home kitchen with her favorite interest, lipstick formulas. After 809 experiments and two years of testing product, package, market and quantity production, she was ready to introduce her lipstick to American women."

"Miss Bishop believes that women have an insight and understanding of cosmetology a male chemist can never have. She feels that cosmetic chemistry is a wonderful field for women. She wrote in one of her many learned papers that 'Women have a right to expect real fundamental progress. I have found personal satisfaction in cosmetics research for new products. Its a game... its fun... a challenge and it's a privilege.'"

Mrs. Dunigan also gave the biography of Millie Parnis, the dress designer from whom Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower buys many of her clothes. "Wearable, distinctively American clothes are the hallmark of this New York designer. Without any specialized training, Miss Parnis became a dress designer. With the encouragement of her husband, Leon J. Livingston, their own wholesale firm, Parnis-Livingston, Inc. was started in 1933 and has achieved success and renown. Her clothes range in price from $90 to $150 retail."

Miss Parnis, born and reared in New York City, recalled, "Mrs. Dunigan said 'I got into the habit of stepping into the designing room and making a suggestion... adding a jabot to a blouse or changing a sleeve. Before long, I was asked if I'd like to try my hand at designing.'"

"Miss Parnis believes that a dress to be in good fashion, the wearer must be unself-conscious in it. Avoid fads, she advises, when you are selecting clothes. Above all don't try to look like the girls on magazine covers. Even the models themselves don't affect such extremes of dress when they go about their daily lives. In conceiving designs, she said, I keep in mind the type of clothes I like to wear and those I enjoy seeing the people I know in for we lead an average active American life."

Mrs. Holloway continued the program with a biography of Boston's Dr. Sara M. Fordan, an internationally recognized authority on stomach and intestinal disturbances. Termed by grateful patients as the "patron saint of the ulcer-afflicted," Dr. Jordan and her sprightly maxims are widely quoted. She believes frying pans should be abolished together with the deep fat kettle. Four favorite American dishes are indigestible and should be avoided: pork and beans, fried clams, doughnuts, and mince pie. A relaxed attitude is imperative for good health, she believes."

Dr. Jordan's medical career began unusually late in life; indeed, her first 32 years were spent in study, being a housewife and mother. She graduated from Tufts Medical School in 1921 summa cum laude having worked her way through medical school except for her first year. In 1923, Dr. Frank H. Lahey organized a clinic and invited her to join. She chose gastroenterology as her field."

Mrs. Holloway continued the report. "Her personal charm and sense of fair play did much to overcome prejudice against 'hen medics' and as time went on the word, 'first woman doctor' to began appearing almost automatically after her name. She was the first woman member of the American Gastroenterological Association and its only female president. She has received many honors, doctors of both sexes look upon Sara as one of the eminent female physicians in the world."

Continuing with the biography of Madame Alexander, Mrs. Holloway stated that for over three decades the doll creations of Madame Alexander have endeared themselves to both children and adult hobbyists. One of the world's foremost doll manufacturers, she is four times a Fashion Academy Gold Medal Winner and is credited with creating the first portrait dolls and the first curly-haired American baby-doll."

"In May 1953, her collection of dolls, valued at $25,000 depicting the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II of Great Britain, was shown on the Columbia Broadcasting System television and exhibited in large stores in New York. The entire group, consisting of 38 figures is on Monohan with John Terry Mullians and Jennie Ledrick with Jimmy Crouch.

Punch with dry ice was served later in the evening from twin crystal punch bowls centered by a silver epergne fountain spraying blue water. Silver candelabra held blue tapers and the table cloth was a matching blue to the draperies back of the stage.

Members and guests danced during the evening under a ceiling studded with crystal and blue stars, mirrored balls and festooned crepe paper swirls.

Ninth grade members of the Hep Cat Club and their escorts were Betty Lou McWilliams, Lynn Schoofield; Beverly Moore, David Tripplehorn; Pat Nichols, Steve French; Diane Snider, Butcher Dunham; Beverly Stephens, Dalton Sanders, Donna Walsh, Bob Followell; Mary Ellen Williams, Bill Langley; Judy Buckingham; G. M. Walls; Judy Vail, Lynn Houston; Sandra Wheelchel, Robby Robison; Kay Bailey, Jimmy Storms; Margaret Burns, George Simmons; Anita Buske, Wayne

The following pledges then made up the "Crystal Ball Court": Linda Key, escorted by Wilbur Walls; Cecily Morgan with John Osborne; Judy Stephens with Tommy Woodruff; D'Ann Tarr with Bill King; Phyllis Taylor with Bill Snider; Rhonda Walker with Billy Madeira; Betty Bruce with Dennis Mills; Gail Champion and Brian Eppinger; Barbey Crews with Jim Crinklaw; and Dee Ann Drew escorted by Jackie Nichols.

Miss Betty Lou McWilliams, club president, expressed the club's pride in the new members and also its appreciation of the sponsor, Mrs. Al Metz. She also extended a welcome to the guests of the ball.

Other eight grade members presented at this time were Jan Grady escorted by Richard Organ; Lucille Gordon escorted by John Holloway; Linda Andis escorted by Randy Haralson; Jan Adams with Dwight Thompson; Sheridan Walker and Don Sears; Judy Vandenburg and Kenny Cambern; Pat Simms with Sammy Gideon; Karen now on permanent exhibition in the Brooklyn Childrens Museum."

Madam Alexander (Mrs. Philip Behrman), born and educated in New York City, has a suburban home in Westchester county. She is quite active in charitable work. She married Philip Behrman, after finishing high school, and he is now the general manager of her three doll factories. Her son-in-law, the husband of her only daughter, is also active in these factories, which have over 1,500 employees, chiefly women who cut and stitch the clothes."

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the program to the following members, Mrs. M. Daniel, Mrs. J. R. Holloway, E. J. Dunigan Jr., E. J. Dunigan, R. C. Federer Jr., J. R. Holloway, R. G. Hughes, Homer D. Johnson, W. Calvin Jones, Frank Kelley, D. M. Lawrence, Henry J. Ross, Arthur Teed, and Felix J. Vendrell.

dew tell!
by
Doris E. Wilson
Pampa News Women's Editor

What has happened to the good, old-fashioned "spelling bee?" Has it gone the way of the iron-back soda fountain chairs, the front porch swing, or the abandoned courtesy of calling on new neighbors in the block? Perhaps, you will be as happy and relieved as we were to know that learning to spell correctly has not been completely forsaken.

Mrs. Ben Ogden and her sixth grade class at Stephen F. Austin School are still fanning the dying embers of what used to form the nucleus of the school's social curriculum back in the McGuffey's Reader days. Mrs. Ogden meets with her group of good spellers and those interested in learning to spell correctly one night each week. They have formed a Spelling Club and each member takes turns inviting the club to his or her home. This is not exactly a new "outside-of-school" activity for Mrs. Ogden—we understand—but has been going on for a number of years.

We had the pleasant privilege to sit in one of their sessions recently, when our little Missy, Kim, invited the group over to our home for a spelling bee. We sat, literally spell-bound, for an hour, while this group of 11 and 12-year-olds went through such words as "advantageous, boulevard, anxiety, etc." on their way to working up to the ability to spell such words as "snyecdoche, somnambulant, resuscitate."

The club meetings are not without a definite purpose; albeit, the main one is to teach correct spelling. In the back of the members' minds and we are sure in Mrs. Ogden's, is the hope that from this group, the next Spelling Champion of Texas and the Nation will emerge.

The words they are spelling and learning to spell are taken from a list of practice words to help students in the 32nd annual National Spelling Bee, which will be held in Washington D.C. on June 8 through June 13 and which will be sponsored locally by the Amarillo Globe News.

We peeked in the back of the book at the list of winning words on which national championships have won or lost since the National Spelling Bee began. We glimpsed such words as "abbacy, condominium, eudaemonic, propitiatory, propylaeum, syllepsis and uncinated" before we hurriedly closed the book.

The Spelling Club members sit around in a relaxed comfortable fashion, while Mrs. Ogden gives out words from the "Words of the Champion" practice book. In the beginning sessions, each student has been allowed three misses per page, before he or she is disqualified from the rest of the round; soon, these misses will be narrowed down to absolute correct spelling. The interested pupil, who has been disqualified by two many misses in favor of the perfect speller, will then act as trainer for the good speller.

"Most often," Mrs. Ogden said, "these trainers take as much pride and interest in their prospective champion as they would if they were in the race themselves. Some of the trainers, in the past, have even accompanied the champion on to out-of-town contests."

After spelling for an hour and covering several pages of words, the group adjourns for a social period of refreshments, games, and conversation before their parents call for them.

Club members attending the recent spelling bee in addition to the teacher and hostess were Misses Terry Watson, Carletta Johnson, Ginger Hall, Georganne Perkins, Kathy Lyle, Jimmy Metz, and Jackie Tidrick.

We note with applause, that Georgia Crutchfield is opening her Lady B Lovely Salon for "Men Only" nights on Tuesdays and Thursdays. This should be quite a boon for those "desk-bound" executives, tension-tired salesmen, or "standing-on-their-feet" all day males. If the "Missus" is reluctant to spend the hour alone, while hubby is getting the nervous kinks worked out, there is a pleasant, relaxing atmosphere in the sitting room of the salon, where she can knit, read, or listen to soft hi-fi recordings.

We have one helpful suggestion to make though (suggestions we are never without). We imagine some males feel a bit sheepish about walking into a place designated "Lady B Lovely." So, we suggest that Georgia have an interchangeable sign that she can hang out on Tuesday and Thursday evenings... we are at a loss to suggest a name, unless it would be "Pop's Place."

Brownie Troop 34 Has 1st Birthday

Brownie Girl Scout Troop 34 of Highland Neighborhood celebrated the Troop's first birthday on Jan. 14.

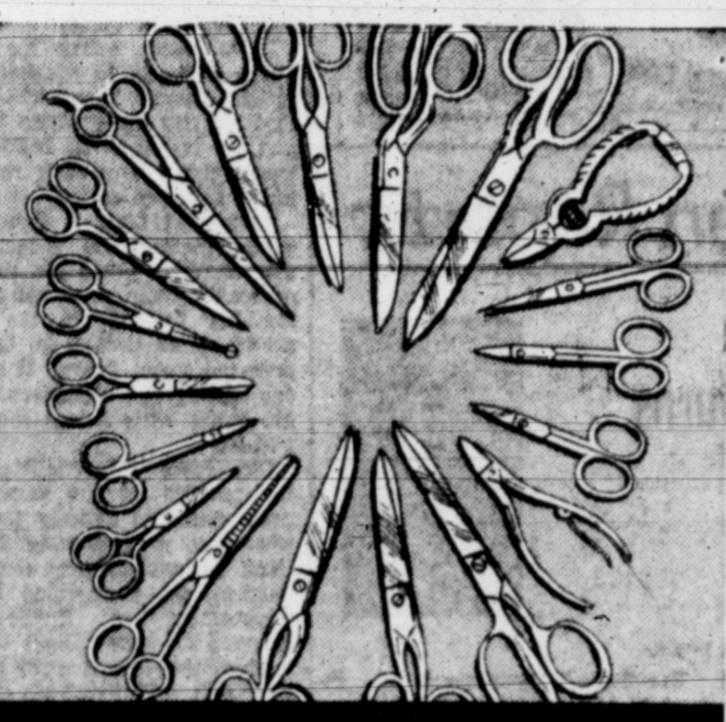

Mrs. Martin Stubbe, leader, and Mrs. Mike Porter, assistant leader, presented star pins to Shari Anderson, Dinah Elder, Tina McIntosh, Renee Secrest, Cheryl Porter, Paula Ramsey, Beverly Tidrow, Diane Webb, Rebecca Ingram, Peggy Sheffield, Martha Ratliff, Jerry Pennington, Laura Thompson, and Bertha Lee Stubbe. Unable to attend the ceremony, but who will be presented pins later were Barbara Collins, Becky Hood, and Sharon Cambren.

The birthday cake with one candle, was baked and served by Mrs. A. E. Pennington. Scouts prepared the punch and decorated the napkins, which were in the table decorations.

United Press International

There has been "quite an upsurge in orders" at Bethlehem Steel Corp. with January bookings at the highest level in three years, Arthur B. Homer, president, said. He predicted operations will average 80 per cent of capacity in the first quarter and 85 per cent in the second. His statement came after the company reported lower sales and earnings for 1958 but the second-highest fourth quarter earnings in its history.

F.W. Dodge Corp. reported housing contracts let in December topped $2,300,000,000 or 15 per cent of December, 1957. Other major types of construction awards also showed strength except for industrial plants. For all of 1958 awards for future building rose 9 per cent above 1957.

The treasury said it will continue next week's refunding program to shorter term securities. It said it will offer a 3 1/2 per cent one-year certificate and a 4 per cent three-year note in exchange for some 15 billion dollars of maturing securities.

U.S. Steel Corp. announced it is reopening its No. 4 open hearth shop at its Homestead, Pa., works after nearly a year of idleness. Seven of the plant's 14 steel-making furnaces will be put back into production.

The Federal Reserve Board staff was reported to have a "generally optimistic" feeling about economic conditions ahead. The staff officials' opinions were reported after a closed door session with the Senate Banking Committee.
