Chiang Will Help Tibet

By ALBERT E. KAFF
United Press International
TAIPEI (UPI)—President Chiang Kai-shek said today he would lead his Nationalist Chinese forces against the Communists if the Tibetan rebels carry on their fight.

Chiang in his first statement since the anti-Communist revolt broke out in Tibet, said the Nationalists are "making every possible effort" to aid the revolutionary forces.

Chiang's declaration followed reports from Nationalist intelligence sources that the insurgents have cut the two mainland routes from Red China to the remote Himalayan kingdom.

Chiang addressed his 500-word message to the people of Tibet. "If you remain firm and courageous and if you continue to carry on the fight soon I shall lead your compatriots, civilian and military alike, to join forces with you on the mainland and to fight shoulder to shoulder for the successful fulfillment of our sacred mission of national salvation," Chiang said.

The 70-year-old generalissimo said "the government of the Republic of (Nationalist) China is making every possible effort to give you continuous and effective aid."

He did not disclose what the aid was. But key Nationalist officials have been meeting day and night during the past 72 hours to find ways to help the anti-Red uprising.

The Chiang statement came as the London Times, in a dispatch from Kalimpong on the Indian-Tibetan frontier, said the Kashag, Supreme Tibetan Cabinet, had declared itself independent of Chinese national control.

In New Delhi where the Indian government has reestablished radio contact with the Tibetan capital of Lhasa there was no confirmation of the report, a government spokesman said.

Says Reds Abandoned Roads
Reports reaching New Delhi indicated Lhasa was quiet but that there was widespread fighting in other areas of Tibet and that the rebels were holding the town of Gyantse which controls an important road through Tibet. (Tibet reports reaching Darjeeling, India, said refugees from Lhasa believed the Dalai Lama to be safe. The Dalai Lama is the spiritual and temporal ruler of Tibet and is revered by Tibetans as the reincarnation of their god Buddha.)

Scott Elected PHS President

Jim Scott, popular Pampa High Junior, was elected president of the PHS Student Body Wednesday. He received a majority of votes cast by the juniors. Dewayne "Butch" Dunham was elected vice president on the preferential ballot.

The Student Council will elect a secretary in the near future, according to Mrs. Ruby Capps, SC sponsor.

Other candidates for the presidency were Karen Capps, John Campbell and Jackie Collins. Joe Bourland was nominated but withdrew.

Scott is a senior director of the Key Club, a tackle on the Harvester football team, and catcher on the baseball team. He was a co-chairman of youth activities during the January March of Dimes campaign. Last week he served as youth pastor of the Central Baptist Church.

For the past year he has served as chaplain of the Student Council. Scott was named junior class favorite and runner up for the "most athletic boy" this year. He was a sophomore class favorite and has been a Carnival King attendant for the last two years.

Dunham is president of his homeroom and a senior director of the Key Club. He has played football for four years, and was co-captain of the Shockers for the 1957-1958 season.

Cancer Crusade Opens on April 1

The 1959 Crusade Against Cancer will kick off April 1, with a meeting in Lovett Memorial Library. Frank Stockwell, the area director of the American Cancer Society from Amarillo, will meet with team captains and officials. A cancer film will be shown at the 9:30 a. m. meeting, according to Bob Hudson, Crusade chairman. Plans for the April Crusade were announced at a board meeting of the Gray County Cancer Unit Wednesday. R. J. Bean of Miami received a certificate for ten years service to the fight against cancer. Bean was once a Cancer patient.

Advance Gifts solicitation is already underway. This phase of the campaign is under the direction of Roy Bourland, Jack Skelly's Industrial Division will start work March 29. Cecil Howchin and other life underwriters will begin a Special Gifts drive April 5.

A Radiothon is scheduled for Sunday afternoon, April 12. The board has decided to try an education pitch, with spot announcements on this radio station. On April 14, Mrs. Berton Doucette will head a house-to-house solicitation. Mrs. Doucette has recruited 391 women and 32 captains to cover Pampa, Lefors and McLean.

Pamphlets and posters will be distributed in Pampa's civic clubs to facilitate the campaign. The ACS Crusader, flown by two pilots from Anchorage, Alaska will be over Pampa April 16. The pilots, Gene Tanner and Lewis Becker, plan a cross-country endurance flight to bring attention to the Crusade. The plane will be over Pampa for four minutes. Tanner and Becker will use a public address system to enlist the public's support.

Coldwell Is C-C Speaker Here Monday

The March Membership Meeting of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce will be held on Monday with a luncheon in the Palm Room of the City Hall, according to Warren Hasse, president of the Chamber.

Speaker for the Monday Luncheon Meeting will be Dr. Philip E. Coldwell, Director of Research of the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas. Charles E. Walker, Vice President of the Dallas Reserve Bank was originally scheduled to speak.

However, conflicting business engagements made it impossible for Walker to attend.

Dr. Coldwell was born in Champaign, Illinois, and received his BS and MS Degrees from the University of Illinois and his Ph.D. Degree from the University of Wisconsin. During World War II he served in the Navy as a Fighter pilot. He was employed as a Professor of Economics at Universities in Montana, Illinois, Wisconsin and Louisiana.

Dr. Coldwell joined the Federal Reserve System at the Kansas City Bank in 1951 and was transferred to the Dallas Bank in 1952. He is now Director of Research at the Federal Reserve Bank in Dallas and is considered one of the best informed men in the field of Economics in the Southwest.

Reservations are now being made for the Monday Luncheon, at $1.25 per plate. The Public is invited to attend and reservations will be handled on a first come first serve basis. The Palm Room can accommodate approximately 150 people.

In commenting on the monthly meetings held by the Chamber, Hasse expressed satisfaction that good crowds have attended all of the meetings thus far. All of the programs presented at these monthly meetings deal with matters of current interest and the public is always urged to attend.

Summer Summit Proposed With Berlin Peace Eyed

By DAYTON MOORE
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States, Britain and France sent notes to Russia today proposing a summit conference this summer which could deal with a peace treaty with Germany and the Berlin crisis.

The notes insisted that a foreign ministers meeting precede the summit conference and that it "justify" such a top level parley.

The separate notes to Russian suggested the foreign ministers meeting discuss "questions relating to Germany, including a peace treaty with Germany and the question of Berlin."

The U.S. note said the purpose of the foreign ministers meeting "should be to reach positive agreements over as wide a field as possible, and in any case to narrow the differences between the respective points of view and to prepare constructive proposals for a needs of government meeting later in the summer."

Similar in Intent
"On this understanding and as soon as developments in the foreign ministers meeting justify holding a summit conference, the U.S. government would be ready to participate in such a (summit) conference," the U.S. note said.

The British note signified Britain's readiness to participate in a summit conference "as soon as developments in the foreign ministers meeting warrant" it.

The French note stated, "If the conference of foreign ministers brings signs of real progress, the French government agrees to accept a conference at the summit at an appropriate date and place. The agenda of such a conference should be discussed by the foreign ministers."

On 25th points the notes appeared similar in content and intent.

The summit conference, the U.S. note said, "could consider, and if possible, resolve some wider problems" raised by Russia and the Western Allies in previous exchanges of notes.

Only Four Powers
The Western powers rejected Russia's proposal that Polish and Czechoslovakian foreign ministers be full-fledged participants in the foreign ministers meeting. But the Western Big Three agreed for the two Russian satellites to join in "at a certain stage in negotiations." They would presumably have the status of observers.

But the United States "believes that the proposed meeting should, at least in the outset involve only the four powers responsible for Germany," the note said.

It was noted that Russia had agreed for representatives of East and West Germany to sit in as observers at the foreign ministers meeting.

Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev had agreed in advance to the foreign ministers meeting starting May 11 in Geneva.

But, at the same time, he said that only a summit conference really could accomplish anything definite.

Ships Collide 1 Dead, 5 Hurt

NEW YORK (UPI)—The cruise ship Santa Rosa, returning from the Bahamas, slashed into the stern of the tanker Valchem in an early morning collision at sea today, killing one member of the tanker crew and injuring five others.

The Coast Guard said two tugs were en route to the scene, which was about 50 miles from the New York harbor. Also en route were five Coast Guard surface vessels and two aircraft.

The Coast Guard said that passengers from the Santa Rosa were to be transferred to the Santa Clara, another Grace Line ship, because of a fire aboard the Santa Rosa.

However, a spokesman for the Grace Line said that the fire was under control and that plans for transfer of the passengers had been dropped. He said that the Santa Rosa carried 512 persons, including 247 passengers.

The crewman killed, whose name was not immediately known, died as he was being flown by Coast Guard helicopter from the scene of the collision about 20 miles off the New Jersey coast to Atlantic City, N.J.

There were no reports of injuries aboard the Santa Rosa. However, a fire broke out in a paint locker aboard the cruise ship.

All of the injured men from the tanker were transferred to the Santa Rosa, which has full medical facilities.

The Coast Guard said that the Santa Rosa, a 10,000-ton vessel, struck the Valchem near the stern and that the box of the luxury ship knifed about halfway through the tanker's fire room.

All the injured crewmen were serving in the fire room. The Coast Guard said that the Valchem was in no danger of sinking but was unable to get un-

Neatness Urged By Garden Clubs

Pampa's four garden clubs, engaged in promoting Civic Beautification week, today pointed out five ways each citizen can help eliminate litter on city streets, avenues and parks.

1.—Dispose of trash at home or in a proper receptacle wherever you are.

2.—Carry a travel trash container in your car.

3.—Set a good example for children—habits are formed early.

4.—Urge your community officials to provide sufficient litter receptacles, conveniently placed.

5.—Encourage local educational programs to prevent litter.

In their announcement the clubs drew attention to the fact that $50 million a year is spent removing litter from the nation's highways each year. Texas each year budgets $500,000 for litter removal.

27 of Rain

Twenty-seven hundredths of an inch of rain fell on Pampa Wednesday, according to the rain gauge atop the Daily News building.

The rain began with an early morning thunderstorm and fell intermittently through the day.

4TH OF A SERIES

Radcliff, Crawford Vie in Ward Four

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the fourth in a series outlining briefly the background of candidates for the April 7 city election and the April 4 school board election. Today's installment deals with candidates for commissioner of Ward 4.)

JAMES CRAWFORD

James T. Crawford Jr., 30, is the youngest candidate for office in the April 7 city election. He is married, has a daughter, 5, and lives at 1112 S. Nelson. He came to Pampa three years ago following his discharge from the service. Candidate Crawford has been a Texan 24 years, is a graduate of White Deer independent schools, and is employed in the production department at Celanese.

Crawford is perhaps the most active campaigner among the commissioner candidates. He said he has been going door-to-door throughout Ward 4, shaking hands and "talking city government."

He feels the City Commission would have representation from all walks of life, the businessman and the working man. Crawford said he has followed local politics closely and is extremely interested in city business.

GLENN RADCLIFF

Glenn T. Radcliff, 51, is one of two candidates for commissioner of Ward 4. He is the owner of Radcliff Bros. Electric Co. at 519 S. Chrysler where he has been in business since 1931. Radcliff is married and the father of two children, now both married. He attended high school in Tulsa, Okla., and became a Pampa resident in 1931. The Radcliffs live at 1237 S. Wilcox.

Candidate Radcliff is a newcomer to politics. He said he plans to do no campaigning because he feels if Ward 4 residents want him they will vote for him.

He said he filed at the request of neighbors, and if elected would have time to devote to the job. His reason for running, he said, is "Pampa has been good to me, I would like to do something for Pampa."

Mama Nature Runs Amuck Across Texas

United Press International
Hail, high wind, dust, driving rain, tornadoes and snow lashed North and West Texas Wednesday and Wednesday night as a cold front moved through the state.

The front had lost much of its punch by today as it entered South Texas. However, it will keep temperatures cooler than they have been the past few days.

Three tornado warnings for the state were issued Wednesday and Wednesday night, and at least two and possibly three tornadoes struck the ground.

What was believed to have been a tornado struck the southeast edge of Denison, near the Red River, about 7 p. m., causing considerable damage to a cotton mill, telephone poles and lines, trees and small sheds.

Mrs. Montoria Arman, 66, suffered a broken arm when she was struck by flying debris—believed to be her hen house—while she was in the back yard of her home. Tornadoes Near Tulsa.

Flying debris injured a horse so severely at Denison that it had to be destroyed.

Two tornadoes were seen moving along the ground near Tulsa, in the Panhandle. Tulsa is 30 miles northwest of Silverton, where a vicious tornado killed 21 persons and injured 80 others the night of May 15, 1957.

The people of the little town of Silverton were warned Wednesday that a tornado was headed in their direction, and they wasted no time getting into storm cellars. But the twisters dissipated without causing any damage.

The snowstorm in the Panhandle didn't turn out to be as bad as first feared. Although up to 10 inches of snow was reported in northeastern New Mexico, hot far across the Texas line, accumulation in the Panhandle amounted to no more than two or three inches, and this was in the northern tier of counties.

Earth Covered With Radiation

By JOSEPH L. MYLER
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The U.S. atomic tests above the South Atlantic last year spread a 100-mile thick shell of deadly radiation over the earth at altitudes of up to 4,000 miles.

This was disclosed late Wednesday when the White House released a 2,400-word report giving the first details on scientific results of the high-altitude Argus experiment.

Dr. Herbert York, research director for the Defense Department, said the strongest part of the shell compared in intensity with the natural radiation zones in space named after Dr. James A. Van Allen of the University of Iowa.

He told reporters at a White House news conference that bigger bombs would have created a correspondingly bigger and more intense zone of radiation.

Military details were kept out of the White House report, and York refused to discuss the explosion's effect on such things as radio, communications, missile electronic equipment, and radar early warning systems.

But the shells caused artificial auroral displays, which are known to accompany natural electronic disturbances which disrupt communications. Lower altitude but more powerful H-bomb tests in the Pacific a few weeks before the Argus Project blacked out radio communications for hundreds of miles.

York did not estimate the intensity of the Argus electron shell in terms of radiation dosage, that would be experienced by unshielded occupants of a space craft that might venture into it.

But Dr. Van Allen has estimated peak radiation intensities of the two natural electron shells, discovered last year, at from 10 to 100 roentgens an hour. A dose of 400 to 600 roentgens could kill an unprotected human being.

So any space pilot, for example, the operator of a manned satellite, who spent more than four to 10 hours in either the natural or artificial radiation zones might be fatally injured unless he were protected by a lead shield.

In the Argus experiment kept secret until last week, three small atomic bombs were exploded more than 300 miles above the U.S. missile ship Norton sound in the South Atlantic on Aug. 27, Aug. 30, and Sept. 6.

School's Out
School will let out this afternoon for a four-day Easter holiday. Knox Kinard, superintendent of Pampa Public Schools, has announced. Classes will resume Tuesday.

Holy Souls Catholic School and St. Matthew's Episcopal Day School will also close down today. Officials indicated they would follow the public school schedule.

SPEAKS TONIGHT—Ray W. Tosch of Dallas, president of Texas Service Stations Associated, will be the featured speaker at an 8 p. m. banquet in the Pampa Hotel tonight. Tosch is guest speaker for the annual meeting of Pampa Unit of TSSA. Some 75 men are expected to attend.

GIFT BOXES READY

Members of the Junior Red-Cross Council happily stuff gift boxes at Stephen F. Austin Elementary School. The little boxes that hold so much will be sent to needy children overseas. # Robinson's, Senior and Junior Make Acting Debut On TV

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Edward G. Robinson Sr. and Jr. make their acting debut together in a TV show next month, but even more important to both of them is their warm friendship they've developed following a lengthy dispute.

Father and son sat together during lunch this week in what amounted to a mutual admiration society.

"Manny here has an enormous potential to become a great actor," Edward Sr. said, clapping his son affectionately on the back of the neck. "I'd like to make a movie with him, someday—if the right story comes along."

Young Robinson beamed proudly, but couldn't get a word in edgewise.

"When Manny makes it big maybe he can find a little part in one of his pictures for me," Robinson added, puffing the ever-present cigar with amusement.

"It was just great working with Eddie Jr. put in a 'It's Son' something. I've wanted since I was a little boy. A dream come true."

"Ah, we just had a couple of scenes together. But he did his job well. I meant to tell you, son. After the show was over the producer and director came up to say some nice things about you."

Manny was warmed by the praise, and said, "in one scene I had to rough dad up a little. I was getting even for all the licks I got as a kid."

"Did you deserve 'em?" his father asked.

"Believe me," Jr. grinned, "I had them coming."

The father and son combination may be seen April 2 in a segment of the "Zane Grey Theater" on CBS-TV.

The Robinsons have had their differences since Jr. was a teenager. He was ordered from the family home at the age of 19. Since then young Eddie has had his troubles with alcoholism and police, followed by his hard-hit

OPPOSE DEATH PENALTY

OTTAWA, Ont. (UPI) — Support grew today for a move to abolish the death penalty for murder in Canada. The controversial question of capital punishment was spotlighted in the House of Commons Tuesday when a private member's bill to abolish capital punishment came up for second reading.

TELLS AGENT FIRST

Man Injured In Wheeler Fire Accident

SHAMROCK (Sp) — D. W. Weldon was injured Tuesday while fighting a warehouse fire in Wheeler. Weldon is in Shamrock General Hospital with undetermined injuries caused by a falling conveyor pipe.

The warehouse, owned by J. M. Kendall, was completely destroyed by a fire that started in dry grass south of the building. Kendall estimated the loss at $25,000.

The fire was reported at 4:30 p.m. and was brought under control at approximately six p.m. by members of the Shamrock and McLean fire departments.

Earlier, firemen battled a grass fire on the Mills Ranch in the Davis Community. The fire burned 100 acres on the ranch and roared into Oklahoma. It covered 900 acres before it was extinguished by Oklahoma firefighters.

No ranch buildings were lost but firemen rescued 10 baby calves from the tall grass. The fire was reported at 1:45 and was finally extinguished at 7 p.m. in Oklahoma.

Boy, Farmer Killed By Poisoned Fish

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — A poisoned fish scare that spread through 16 eastern states after the death of a three-year-old boy and a farm laborer was narrowed by health officials today to the Philadelphia and south New Jersey area.

Persons in that region were warned to throw away any filets of flounder or fluke they may have purchased since Monday. Authorities said all poisoned fish except that already purchased by the public has been recovered.

Dead were Dale Klimeschmidt, 3, of Haddon Heights, N.J., and Charles McQuade, 53, of Philadelphia. Both ate flounder dinners Tuesday night, and medical authorities suspected fish poisoning.

Mrs. Marie Povelko, 49, was listed in critical condition at Hatterden Medical Center, Flemington, N.J. Physicians suspected fish poisoning pending the result of laboratory tests.

All the poisoned fish was in the form of filets, according to Philadelphia City Health Commissioner Dr. James P. Dixon.

Dixon said the poison involved was sodium nitrite, a chemical similar to salt in appearance which sometimes is used in weak solution to preserve fish between the time it is processed and the time it is put on sale in refrigerated cases. Dixon speculated that the solution used might have been stronger than intended, so that the chemical might have been mistaken for salt and used to wash the fish.

An official of the Food and Drug Administration said he had no reason to believe that any of the fish went outside the Philadelphia and south New Jersey areas.

"As far as we know it is all confined to one Philadelphia area distributor and his outlets," said Robert C. Stanfill, chief of the Philadelphia district of the Federal Food and Drug Administration. "He has recalled all that was left in his stores."

The distributor involved was not immediately identified. Until the source was pinpointed, the poison alarm had gone out through all eastern states from Maine to Ohio. City and state police in New York City, Newark, N.J., Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Stamford, Conn., and many other cities moved swiftly to halt the sale and consumption of flounder.

None Injured In Two Mishaps

No injuries were reported Wednesday in two separate collisions on Pampa streets.

Shortly before noon a 1956 two-ton truck collided with a 1963 Chevrolet on N. Ward near W. Francis. The car, driven by Mary Ellen Koib, 430 N. Sumner, had damages set at $25. The truck, operated by Ezra Devoll, 815 Finley, was undamaged.

At 7:40 p.m. two cars bumped at the intersection of Hamilton and Decatur streets. The drivers were Jewell Lockhart, 1825 Hamilton, and Charles Minor, 721 S. Barlow. Minor's 1954 Ford had $30 damages, while the Lockhart car, a 1957 Studebaker, had $100 damages.

Broker Talks To Rotarian

Strauss Suffers From Hay Fever And Hostile Congress

Personality Spotlight
United Press International
LEWIS L. STRAUSS
Cabinet Nominee

Lewis Lichtenstein Strauss suffers periodically from hay fever and hostile congressional relations. That his nomination as commerce secretary has involved him in a stormy Senate confirmation hearing comes as no surprise. The 62-year-old investment banker who is well-versed on both atoms and operatic arias has been the center of more personal disputes and controversies than any other official of the Eisenhower administration.

Strauss clashed frequently with critics during his tenure as chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission. He was blamed for the Dixon-Yates private power contract which was later rescinded by the government. He was reproached for the role he played in the security case which barred famed scientist J. Robert Oppenheimer from atomic secrets. He was sharply criticized for his opposition to sharing atomic data with other nations—even friendly allies.

Has President's Esteem
But Strauss has retained the esteem of President Eisenhower. To his friends, he is an affable, witty, erudite companion.

At his 1,500-acre cattle farm at Brandy Rock, Va., he spends his week ends reading Latin classics, listening to hi-fi and adding to his collection of lore about his personal hero, George Washington.

Strauss dresses the part of the investment banker that he was. In 1919 at age 23, he went to work for the Wall Street firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and eventually became a partner. He is married to the daughter of another partner of the firm. They have one son.

A native of Charleston, W. Va., Strauss has had an abiding passion for government service. During World War I, he gave up his job as a shoe salesman, came to Washington and obtained a job under Herbert Hoover, then head of the Belgian Relief Commission.

In World War II, he became a right-hand man to the late James V. Forrestal who was Navy secretary. He represented the Navy on the inter-departmental committee on Atomic Energy and won the rank of admiral.

Named AEC Chairman
In 1946, President Truman named him as one of the first atomic energy commissioners when the program was turned over to civilian control. After a brief period of retirement, he was named chairman in 1953 by Eisenhower.

The enemies he incurred in Congress were believed responsible for the fact that Strauss resigned as AEC chief last year rather than seek confirmation for another term.

Eisenhower reluctantly accepted the resignation but kept Strauss on hand as his personal adviser on atomic energy. When a cabinet vacancy was created by the resignation of Commerce Secretary Sinclair Weeks, the President quickly named Strauss for the post.

As a result he is again undergoing barbed questioning from a congressional committee.

Watch Out For Hawaiian Jokes

By DOC QUIGG
United Press International

The new national American dish seems to be pizza. One of the big dishes of Hawaii is poi. Hawaii is going to become a state. So now, the wags are saying, we will have pizza-poi.

This awful joke may be the first of a new crop of jokes springing up around Hawaii as it moves to statehood. Most of them will fall flat. You really can't joke much about paradise.

"Paradise of the Pacific" is no idle name—Hawaii is heaven on the high seas, as far as climate and environmental deportment go. The name "Sandwich Islands" was pinned on them by Captain Cook, the explorer, in ostensible tribute to the Earl of Sandwich. Actually what happened was that the captain discovered a place sandwiched between beauty and bliss—and named it accordingly.

Breezes, The Balmiest
In Hawaii the air is the dreamiest, the breezes the balmiest, the skies are the meltingest, the rainbows the runniest, the temperature the timidest, the flowers the boldest, the surf the ridigest, the moon the closest, the legends the looniest, and the monotony the hundrestest that man has ever inhaled, felt, gazed at, marvelled over, luxuriated in, sniffed, wallowed in, reached for, swallowed, and submitted to.

In short, the place is exactly what the last two syllables of Honolulu say it is, a lulu. You wouldn't believe it unless you lived it. The air is so waxy with the smell of flowers and sea heavy but not oppressive—that every afternoon about 4 o'clock everybody stifles a "hamma" (yawn) of sheer languor and thinks happy thoughts.

It doesn't rain in Hawaii. What happens is that creamy clouds cision that he wants to see this left to the state."

"There's Something About Spring" That Calls For New Approach To Old Ways

There's something about the approach of Spring that makes everything from your best dress to the bedroom curtains seem a little "tired." Even favorite recipes suddenly get dull. All in all, the season definitely calls for new ideas and fresh ways of doing things, so the Pillsbury people could hardly have picked a better time to introduce six sparkling new products.

All baking mixes, four of the new six add delicious possibilities to the realm of mix-made cakes; Orange Angel Food Mix, Pineapple-Lemon Angel Food Mix, Banana Loaf-size Cake Mix, and Pound Cake Mix. The fifth newcomer — Apple Crunch Mix — is an altogether new dessert invention with the cinnamon-spicy flavor of homemade apple pie and a crisp, crunchy texture all its own. Best of all, it's so simple to make you don't even use a mixing bowl.

Number six on the Pillsbury debut list is Popover Mix — a new and failproof way to make the most impressive hot bread of them all. Light, tender, and puffy when they come from the oven, popovers are a hit at breakfast, lunch, dinner, or most any time between.

Starting right now you'll be able to find Pillsbury's new six in most grocery stores, and for your get-acquainted use we suggest these special variations:

COCONUT CRUSTED APPLE CRUNCH
1 package Pillsbury Apple Crunch Mix
1/2 cup shredded or flaked coconut
1/4 cup soft butter

Prepare Pillsbury Apple Crunch Mix as directed on package, reserving 1/4 cup of package B. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees) 30 to 35 minutes until golden brown. Meanwhile, combine the reserved topping and coconut. Blend in soft butter. Sprinkle mixture over baked apple crunch. Broil a few minutes until topping is golden brown. Watch carefully.

POPOVER RING
1 package Pillsbury Popover Mix
2 eggs with enough milk to measure 2 cups
Break 2 eggs into glass measuring cup. Add enough milk to make 1 cup. Place Popover Mix in small

Greet Spring Thaws With Alaskan Cake
Greet the spring thaws with a frosty treat — Alaskan Angel Food Cake. To prepare: Cut a baker's angel food loaf cake, horizontally, into 3 equal layers. Re-stack the cake using slices of ice cream for the fillings. Make the upper one strawberry flavor. Place on cookie sheet. Completely cover top and sides of filled cake with a stiffly-beaten meringue, making sure meringue seals cake and ice cream from the air. Store in freezer at 0 degrees F. until ready to bake. Or, bake at once in a hot oven (450 degrees F.) until lightly browned, about 5 minutes.

CREAMED SHRIMP FILLING
1 can (11 oz.) cream of mushroom soup
1/4 cup milk
1 cup cooked or canned shrimp
1 chopped hard-cooked egg
1 tablespoon pimiento, chopped
Combine milk with cream of mushroom soup. Heat, stirring until smooth. Add shrimp, cut in large pieces, chopped egg and pimiento. Combine well and heat thoroughly. Makes 3 cups filling.

BANANA SPONGE CAKE
3 eggs
1 1/2 cups sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup mashed ripe bananas
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 cup sifted potato starch
Preheat oven to 350 degree F. (moderate oven).

CHALUPAS
1 lb. ground beef
2 medium onions, chopped
2 tablespoons cooking fat
1/2 cup water — approximately
2 tablespoons flour
2 or 3 tablespoons chili powder
1 10 1/2-ounce can tomato soup
1 13-ounce can evaporated milk
1 1/2 cups grated cheddar cheese
Salt to taste
12 tortillas

Fresh, Fragrant Banana Sponge Cake Festive Variation For Serving Guests

A festive variation of the traditional Passover sponge cake is Banana Sponge Cake, which is made with mashed ripe bananas. Every crumb of this cake is touched with the delicate fresh banana flavor which is so well loved by people of all ages.

The bananas also help keep the cake moist and fresh. So after the Seder is over, when guests drop in during the Passover season, you will still be able to offer them a piece of fresh, fragrant Banana Sponge Cake.

As a matter of fact, with so much work to do in preparing for the Seder, you may want to bake the cake a day or two ahead. In this case, wrap the cake securely in foil or waxed paper, and rest assured that it will keep perfectly well.

Banana Sponge Cake needs no further adornment. But for a change, try spooning your favorite stewed fruit over a slice of this delicious cake.

Sausage Cups, Scrambled Eggs Breakfast Treat
Sausage Cups:
1 1/2 lb. pork sausage meat
1/2 teaspoon onion powder
3/4 teaspoon sage (optional)
1 cup Quaker or Mother's Oats (quick or old fashioned, uncooked)
1 egg, beaten
1/4 cup milk
Scrambled Eggs:
12 eggs
1/2 cup milk
2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
Melted butter or margarine
Heat oven to moderate (350 degrees F.). For sausage cups, break up sausage with fork; stir in onion powder, sage and oats. Stir egg and milk into sausage mixture. Pat into 8 custard cups. Bake in preheated oven (350 degrees F.) 30 minutes. Unmold on absorbent paper to drain.

Sugar Cookies Make Delightful Easter Treats
Of all the traditional activities associated with the Easter season, the one custom which brings the greatest pleasure to every child is coloring and decorating the holiday eggs.

To give added joy to the occasion, here's an easy fun project for the youngsters to do. Rolled sugar cookies are cut oval-shaped to resemble the traditional egg. Then, by using a small paint brush, these cookies are brushed with tinted decorator's icing to form interesting designs.

An unusual way to serve these cookies is to set them in and around the Easter basket surrounded by green grass and a bunny centerpiece.

Texans Adopt Chalupas Dish
"Chalupas" is an easy-to-fix casserole combination of that all-time favorite, ground beef, and "Mexican food" spicings which Texans have adopted for their own. It is well adapted to casual Texan living — "Chalupas" and a salad are an informal meal.

Decorating the Icing
1/4 cup (1 stick) butter or margarine
1 lb. confectioners' sugar
Place butter in mixing bowl, allow to soften, then cream well. Stir in 1/2 confectioners' sugar and mix well. Add remaining sugar and milk alternately, beating after each addition until smooth. Add lemon juice and vanilla and mix well. Add desired food coloring.

Decorator's Icing
3 tablespoons milk
1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Decorating the Icing
3 tablespoons milk
1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon vanilla

Corn-Hash Casserole At High Tea Time Welcomes Sunday Eve Guests

Contrary to general belief that a high tea is a formal affair, it frequently serves as the main meal or supper for many families in England. Usually, a main dish is added to the regular tea fare, and is not unlike our informal buffet suppers.

A Sunday night high tea is a good tradition to establish in your home. It is an informal meal that welcomes any one who might drop in on a Sunday evening.

Corn-Hash Casserole is a main dish suggestion to serve at a high tea. It can be used to take care of the left over roast. A few sandwiches, a piping-hot-pot-of-tea, and cookies complete the menu.

To make good tea, be sure to use a teapot, freshly drawn cold water brought to a full rolling boil, and enough tea, i.e. 1 teaspoonful or 1 teabag per cup. Be sure to brew the tea 3-5 minutes. If you like stronger tea, increase the amount of tea you use, but do not increase the brewing period. For weaker tea, add piping hot water to the individual cup serving after the brewing period.

CORN-HASH CASSEROLE
(Makes about 6 servings)

For scrambled eggs, beat together eggs, milk, salt and pepper. Scramble in a little melted butter over low heat, stirring until eggs are firm, but not dry. Place sausage cups and eggs on serving platter and serve. Makes 8 servings.

2 tablespoons minced onion
1/4 cup butter
1 cup chopped, cooked ham or roast beef
1 cup chopped, cooked potatoes
1/4 cups evaporated milk
Pepper and salt to taste
3 tablespoons flour

1/2 cup liquid, drained from can of corn
1 No. 2 can whole-kernel corn
1-3 cup grated cheese
Saute onion in half the butter, till golden brown; mix with chopped meat, potatoes, 1/2 cup milk.

Press into buttered baking dish to form a ring. Melt remaining butter, blend in flour, salt and pepper to taste. Stir in liquid from corn to make a smooth paste, then gradually add remaining milk, cooking and stirring constantly until thickened and smooth. Add corn and turn into hash-lined baking dish. Sprinkle with cheese. Bake in moderate oven 350 degrees F. about 30 minutes.

The term "engineer" originally was applied to any person who produced military weapons of defenses.

MARGARET MUST NOW PROVE SHE'S ADULT

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)— Ex-child star Margaret O'Brien, making her first movie in four years, is the "poor little rich girl" come to life.

Though she earned $100,000 on television shows last year, and has a sizeable fortune set up in trust funds, the fragile little actress admits she is lonely.

"It's been seven months since mother died," Margaret said. "She was a tower of strength to me. Now that she's gone I find myself spending more and more time alone."

Most sheltered of all child performers, Margaret rarely was seen without her mother who made all the decisions for her talented daughter.

Now Faces Obligations
"Mother took care of my contracts and finances," Maggie went on. "I was terrified at first about taking over such big responsibilities. I didn't think I could do it. Now I'm facing my obligations because I realize no one else is going to do it for me."

Margaret just turned 21, and is free to kick up her heels. But she continues to lead the almost austere life laid down for her by her mother.

"I've never wanted to break loose and raise heck," she said. "I've seen too much of that kind of life all around me. My few friends are not part of the Hollywood crowd. I guess Anna Maria Albergheggi is the only friend I have in show business."

Last Christmas Margaret became engaged to commercial artist Robert Allen, whom she plans to marry next September.

ly and a wife should take care of their home. "I'd like to go on working, but I certainly don't have to. If I never perform again I wouldn't have to worry about finances. I do have a regular allowance from the trust fund that is spread out over many years to come." Margaret is starring with Anthony Quinn and Sophia Loren in Paramount's "Heller With A Gun." It is her first adult movie role.

EISENHOWER GETTING STRONG CHURCH SUPPORT ON BERLIN

Religion In America
By LOUIS CANSELS
United Press International

President Eisenhower is getting strong support from American church leaders for his handling of the Berlin crisis.

Their approval of the administration's course to date contrasts sharply with their attitude toward the Quemoy crisis a few months ago. Many Protestant churchmen felt that and privately warmed the White House and State Department that the United States was unjustified in risking a major nuclear war over the Chinese offshore island.

Religious leaders view the Berlin situation in a different light for two reasons.

1. They are convinced the United States has not only a political commitment, but a clear moral duty, to uphold the freedom of the 2,000,000 people who live in West Berlin.

Aware Of Dangers
2. They believe the administration is fully aware of the grave dangers implicit in the Berlin dilemma, and that it is sincerely seeking a basis for negotiation that will lead to a peaceful and honorable settlement.

There is a subtle but distinct difference in the weight attached to these two points by various church leaders.

Statements by Catholic spokesmen tend to emphasize the necessity of a firm stand in defense of West Berlin's freedom. Diocesan newspapers, for example, gave prominent display to a recent declaration by Harry W. Flannery, president of the Catholic Assn. for International Peace, that "the Allies must remain in West Berlin and take all measures necessary to maintain free access to the city."

Stress Urgency
Protestant and orthodox leaders who speak through the National Council of Churches agree the United States must not abandon its responsibilities in Berlin or seek peace through appeasement. But in public statements and in private representations to government leaders, they have stressed the urgency of finding a "constructive" solution rather than letting the situation drift into global nuclear war.

The Rev. Dr. Edwin T. Dahlberg, president of the National Council of Churches, sent a telegram to President Eisenhower saying that national council leaders "strongly support" the President's public assurances that the United States will "make a constructive answer" to the Soviet demands.

Dahlberg's telegram, sent after consultations among leaders of 33 member denominations and made public by the council, praised the President for "saying that the United States, while not abandoning over Berlin responsibilities, will explore different propositions for a peace treaty" and will "persist in a readiness to negotiate."

Summarized Attitudes
One highly-placed churchman, who is in a position to be thoroughly familiar with the thinking of Protestant and Orthodox leaders of many denominations, summarized their attitude as follows:

"We cannot sell out the people of West Berlin. That would be immoral and it would not buy peace, since it would merely set the stage for successive Communist demands.

"On the other hand, we cannot simply plant our feet, say no, and point omnously to our stockpile of H-bombs. A global nuclear war would be such a total catastrophe for the human race that we must search, with all the vigor and imagination at our command, for an honorable way to avoid it.

"This means we must be ready as the President says we are to negotiate, to seek in good-faith a solution that will not involve abandonment of our responsibilities in Berlin. We should not sit back and wait for somebody else to come up with propositions, but should take the initiative in trying to devise an acceptable settlement.

"The most dangerous thing that can happen in this situation is for both sides to harden their positions, to slip into the fatal game of trading warnings and then ultimatums. The President has clearly recognized this fact in his public statements on Berlin, and we have let him know we are backing him up strongly."

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: A few months ago my husband (who is 61) started getting letters from lonely widows. According to him he only wanted their names for his mail-order business. When I asked him how come these letters are coming to the house instead of his office he tells me he doesn't want his SECRETARY to know about it. Now I'm beginning to wonder what's going on between him and his secretary if he's worried about what SHE thinks. We've been married almost 40 years and he always seemed satisfied with me. Is there such a thing as "change of life" for men, Abby, and how can I tell if this is what's happening to my husband?

DEAR ABBY: For years I have been doing research on the Civil War. I've studied the battles from Antietam to Vicksburg. I can match fighting ancestor against fighting ancestor and family tragedy against family tragedy and I have come to the conclusion that we have been missing the point. The war which should have ended in a few short months dragged on for four bloody years because each side was valiant. That spirit still prevails the South today and will not let them acknowledge defeat. May I quote from a letter my grandfather wrote at Appomattox the day Lee surrendered? "We cheered and the Johnnies cheered. We were all glad to have it ended. Haps we can take a cue from that."

WIFE

DEAR WIFE: A doctor should check your husband if you're worried about his physical condition, but the "change of life" in men usually occurs in men of any age who would like "a change." Keep your eye on him and give him enough affection to assure him that you care.

DEAR ABBY: In a letter signed PEGGY involving HOWIE'S "tattoo" you misspelled "TATTOO" three times. Three "T's" please!

DEAR ABBY: Can a single girl wreck a home if it isn't really a "home" merely a "peaceful co-existence"?

DEAR SINGLE GIRL: Let's not quibble about the meaning of words. A single girl CAN wreck a "peaceful co-existence" which amounts to the same thing.

DEAR MISS ABBY: Although I am only eleven years old I want to tell you about the Civil War business. The North won all right, but the South won twice as many battles. Lee would never have surrendered if he had any airplanes left. He was completely out of supplies and he didn't have any men left either to replace the worn-out ones. Even if you don't print this I want to tell you that the people of the South love Robert E. Lee more than any other person living or dead.

DEAR ABBY: Let's not quibble about the meaning of words. A single girl CAN wreck a "peaceful co-existence" which amounts to the same thing.

Bunny Brings Delight With This Unusual Easter Cake

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Easter calls for a delightful treat, for something special for the youngsters. An especially decorated cake called "Look What the Bunny Brought" is not difficult to make although it looks as though an artist made it. It will add springtime gaiety to the family Easter dinner.

The basic cake is angel food mix. The semisweet chocolate frosting is a simplified formula. The festive Easter basket with white "wickers" is just lines of frosting. The "nest" is a pile-up of the same fluffy frosting and jelly beans are the eggs.

LOOK WHAT THE BUNNY BROUGHT! EASTER CAKE
(Yield: One 10-inch tube cake)
One package (17 ounces) angel food cake mix, 2 tablespoons vegetable shortening, 1/4 cup corn syrup, 3 tablespoons water, one 6-ounce package (1 cup) semisweet chocolate morsels, 1 package (6 1/2 ounces) seven-minute frosting mix, jelly bean candies.

Prepare and bake cake in a 10-inch tube pan according to package directions. Cool; remove from pan. Combine shortening, light corn syrup and water in saucepan. Bring just to a boil over moderate heat, stirring constantly. Remove from heat; add semisweet chocolate morsels and stir until smooth. Prepare seven-minute frosting according to package directions. To put together Easter cake, place cake on serving plate, wide end at top. Frost with semisweet chocolate frosting. To make wicker design on basket use 2-3 of the seven-minute frosting in a cake decorator or paper cone with tip snipped off. Put straight, vertical lines of white frosting at about 1 1/2-inch intervals on chocolate-frosted sides of cake. Then fill in between vertical lines with 2 "X's." Finish with any desired pattern of edging around top rim of cake. Pile remaining frosting in center top of cake to resemble "nest." Fill nest with jelly beans. If desired, a basket handle may be made by wrapping ribbon around a strip of paper board; press ends in sides of cake.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Half grapefruit, oven-broiled chicken, new potatoes, peas with onions, seeded rolls, butter or margarine, green apple pie, cheese, coffee, tea, milk.

Hoe Down

(Editor's Note: The following article, "Pruning Roses," has been submitted by Mrs. A. F. Johnston, member of the Pampa Rose Society.)

The time for pruning roses varies greatly depending on climate and other factors. One of the greatest mistakes is to prune too early. Do not prune in the Fall, nor before the last freeze in the Spring.

If pruning is done too early, the new growth that starts at the top of the cane can be damaged. This can be cut away if the bush has not been pruned too severely. But if the gardener has pruned quite hard, the lower buds are forced into growth too soon and might be damaged by frost. This results in retarding the plant, lessens its vigor; or it may be killed as it has no reserve supply of food left on which to draw.

"Whackers," who believe in hard pruning will recommend pruning roses to the nub to get exhibition blooms, but authorities who have experimented say that high pruning will give a greater number of better quality blooms. The larger the bush, the bigger, more shapely and more numerous the bloom.

Proper pruning is simply removing superfluous twigs and branches from the bush. Hybrid Teas resent hard pruning. Keep the center of the bush open to air and sun by removing all in-growing, dead or diseased wood and twiggy growth. Thin out two thirds of the top growth (the area and not the height). All cuts should be made on a slant and one-fourth inch above an eye pointing in the direction the new shoot is to go; away from the center of the plant. Leave two to four healthy canes two-thirds of their original height. Paint all wounds with some protective such as paraffin or pure white lead.

First off, we shall smote you across the chops with the name Morrie Shapiro and then there will be a brief pause for head-scratching purposes.

Then, as they did in video quizland before the FBI took over, we casually drop in a clue. A nickname.

The jet-age Atlas, nee Morrie Shapiro, hasn't exactly been going around the past few years bouncing any planets off his huge biceps, but he has been making a globe-sized name for himself in professional wrestling circles and, of course, fattening up the ole bank account a tidy sum in the process.

Pampa ring promoter, Bob Geigel, has booked Atlas into the local arena for a Saturday night slam-banger with young Joe Hamilton, who as a semi-rookie grappler will have the best chance to earn his spurs thus far along an almost rockless career path.

Along with the most deadly full-nelson in the business, Atlas, who ranks among the Top 5 drawing cards going today, will bring his undisputed title as "the World's strongest human" with him to Pampa.

World's Strongest Human!

You hear a lot of street talk about wrestlers and their holds these days, but lemme tell you, there ain't a man alive who can find anything phony about Atlas' tremendous strength.

No Spectator Lover

Joiner of the Chicago DT quotes Atlas: "All Gorgeous George had was a coiffure, a butler and a perfume atomizer. I decided I needed a gimmick so I settled on something more legitimate... feats of strength."

Cubs Shoot For Top 4

Cerv Serves Well

BOB CERV

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

Bob Cerv is flexing his muscles again and so the Kansas City Athletics figure they're no longer the "paties" of the Grapefruit League.

Cerv, one of the American League's top sluggers last season, could lead the Athletics into the first division this year, according to manager Harry Craft.

Both Cerv and the Athletics got off to a poor start this spring but Bob took charge all by himself Wednesday when the Athletics scored a 3-2 decision over the New York Yankees. It was only the Athletics' sixth victory in 14 Grapefruit League games.

Cerv singled home one run in the first inning and tripled home another in the third in addition to clouting a double. Ned Garver pitched the first five innings for the Athletics and held the Yankees to three hits.

Both Received Seniors

The Washington Senators and Cincinnati Reds—each enjoyed a pleasant surprise when Chuck Stobbs and Orlando Pena turned in nine-inning performances.

Stobbs, traded to the St. Louis Cardinals last season and then re-roth in gwe nn uah er-rige Cardinals last season and then re-acquired for nothing when he received an outright release, scattered eight hits to beat the Baltimore Orioles, 5-1. He has yielded only one run in 18 innings this spring and attributes his comeback to the fact that he is wearing glasses.

Pena, who had an 11-10 record for Havana of the International League last season, pitched a five-hitter—to become the first Cincinnati pitcher to go nine innings this spring in a 4-1 win over the Cardinals. Frank Robinson's second homer in as many days uhbkte shpgeoirniforsrdhJspfd na and his fourth of the spring broke a 1-1 tie in the fourth.

Andrews — A nine-man Pampa High School track team will be entered here Friday in the Mustang Relays. Many other Panhandle area squads are also entered, including those from the Amarillo schools and Borger.

The host Andrews Mustangs, defending state champions, are expected to battle it out for the championship with Borger.

The Pampa team, which made a surprisingly good showing last week at the West Texas Relays in Odessa—eighth place among 51 teams—has shown rapid improvement and may be at its greatest strength of the season.

Only four Harvesters entered the Odessa meet, and only three of them reached the finals. Five other men have been added this week.

Heading Pampa's track squad will be the three men who have accounted for the vast majority of the Harvesters' points this year—hurdlers Rex Williams and Charles Warren and weight man Paul Brown.

Williams will also be entered in the shot, discus, and 440-yard relay. Warren will enter the mile relay, as well as the two hurdles, and Brown will compete in the high hurdles, in addition to the discus and shot.

Miler John Gross and sprinter Tommy Locke, whom Pampa coach Duane Lyon describes as "two of the most improved men on the squad," will make the Andrews trip.

Gross, though he didn't qualify for the West Texas finals, has come closer to the first place time in every race he's entered.

Locke, who'll be entered in the 220-yard dash, mile relay, and 440-yard relay, has turned in some good 440's in recent practice sessions.

Rounding out the squad will be Dickie Watkins, Buddy Rawls, Duane Urbanzyk, and Bill King. Watkins will compete in the shot, discus, 440 relay, and 220-yard dash; Rawls will enter the broad jump, mile relay, and 440-yard dash; Urbanzyk will take part in the mile relay and 440-yard dash; and King will enter the 880-yard run.

Lyon said that Warren, who had injured his foot early this week by stepping on a starting block spike, will probably be ready to go full speed by meet time.

New York Wins Gloves Victory

CHICAGO (UPI)—New York's golden glove victory over Chicago today was credited to better conditioning and more experience.

The New York team, which represented the cream of the eastern crop of amateur boxers, defeated Chicago, 10-6, with a team composed of three Golden Glove veterans and a coach who said he put his squad through a tough training program.

"I stressed a strong body attack because we expected the Chicago boys to be going for the head," coach Vic Delimpio said after Sylvester Banks, one of two New York substitutes who won championships, gave the team its final winning score and its second straight victory over the western team in the 32-year history of the annual intercity matches.

IBC Will Promote Durelle-Moore Go

MONTREAL (UPI)—Fight promoter Jim Norris today chalked up his first victory since the courts disbanded his International Boxing Club—the signing of lightweight champion Archie Moore and Yvon Durelle for a July 15 repeat of 1958's "fight of the year."

Norris, now operating through the National Boxing Enterprises of Chicago, pulled out this big plum at a time when rival promoter Bill Rosenzohn in New York was trying to line Moore up against Sugar Ray Robinson. Truman Gibson, president of the Norris-backed NBE, called the signing "a major move by the NBE." He insisted that the signing didn't mean the NBE had given up trying to match Moore and Robinson, either, but said a Moore win over Durelle "would make a Moore-Robinson fight even more attractive."

And Gibson made it plain he thinks the NBE would be the outfit that would land Moore-Robinson, too.

"There are about 18 guys trying to promote that fight," Gibson said, "but most of them haven't got a nickel. Archie knows that Norris has the money on the line."

Gibson and co-promoter Eddie Quinn of Montreal made the announcement here Wednesday while Norris was in town to watch his Chicago Black Hawks meet the Montreal Canadiens in the Stanley Cup hockey playoffs.

"Moore, who got off the 110 or four times to kayo Durelle in the 11th round last Dec. 10, will receive a $250,000 guarantee. Durelle, Base Ste. Anne, N. B., fisherman who never has had a "big pay day," will settle for a $15,000 minimum. The fight will be at the Montreal Forum, if Quinn, Gibson and Co., can convince Moore it should not be held outdoors.

In New York, Robinson had obtained a promise of a $600,000 guarantee from promoter Bill Rosenzohn for a proposed bout with Moore with the latter's title at stake. The two fighters would have split the guarantee down the middle, Robinson said in New York Wednesday that Moore had a right to fight anyone he wanted to meet.

WASHINGTON — Secretary Arthur Flemming, of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, is grappling with an extraordinary "directive" from the House Appropriations Subcommittee.

It has "directed" him to personally go back to the Budget Bureau and ask that his White House-approved $3.176-billion budget be increased by 10 percent.

Also that some $60,000,000 of these additional funds be used for medical research in cancer, heart disease, arthritis, viruses and other killer and crippling ailments.

Secretary Flemming was questioned about this detailed report, and explained the Budget Bureau had eliminated increases for medical research "in line with the President's policy of balancing the budget."

NEW YORK — Although I have never dived for a sponge (they have dived for me, at times, when they were the human variety), seized a shrimp, run a large corporation (except the one I am developing at the belt-line) or cooked a meal in a hotel kitchen, I count among the plusses in my life that I have acquaintance with William A. Herten, who is only 37 years old but can find any and all such employes whenever they are needed.

WASHINGTON — Secretary Arthur Flemming, of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, is grappling with an extraordinary "directive" from the House Appropriations Subcommittee.

Hankering

By HENRY MCLEMORE

Crawling Baby Is Fastest Thing Going!

If asked to name the (at least) thing known to man, what would you answer? A space rocket? A bus you're trying to catch? A falling star? A Congressman hiring his kin? All very fast, but nowhere near the fastest.

That honor belongs to a crawling baby. Pounded for pound, be it he or she, a crawling baby is the most mercurial of all objects, animate or inanimate.

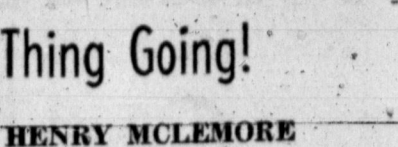

No one knows for certain which is the faster, a boy or a girl. All attempts to hold a national match to decide the question have fallen through, usually because the parents of outstanding crawlers were unable to decide on a suitable "field" for the contest.

Western parents wanted the match held in their section of the country, Easterners held out for the Atlantic Seaboard, and parents who lived in mountainous regions said their tiny competitors would be at a disadvantage at low altitudes.

As the father of an eight-month-old daughter who is, I believe, the fastest crawler in the world, this choosiness about a site is a sign of lack of confidence.

Dalai Lama Stands As Living Buddha

Personality Spotlight United Press International
THE DALAI LAMA
 Spiritual and Political Leader of Tibet

The Dalai Lama is revered by Tibet's nearly three million people as a living Buddha, the 14th reincarnation of the god Chenrezig. He is Chinese-born, the son of a poverty-ridden peasant named Chog-Chu Tsering, and to the people of the Himalayan theocracy he is the greatest man alive.

He was born in a squalid shack in China's Tsinghai Province Dec. 17, 1933, supposedly at the exact moment his predecessor died in the mountain top city of Lhasa. His parents named him Kundun and for four years he lived the life of a peasant boy while the Tibetan priests and chiefs followed the signs and portents of the Lammist-Buddhism which led to his home.

Lionesses Feted At Monthly Banquet

LEFORS (Sp)—The high school cafeteria was the scene of the monthly ladies night banquet of the Lefors Lions Club, this week with 102 persons present.

Jim Hathaway, deputy District governor, of McLean, was present with his wife and delivered the address of the evening. He said, "Lionism is you, Lionism is a non profit organization and volunteer service of men to the community with an aim to make this a better world in which to live, each man having a great responsibility to his club and community. By working together more good can be accomplished."

Put To Test

They told his startled parents that he was the next embodiment of the former Dalai Lama's spirit. Then they put him to the test. They placed before the child a number of articles belonging to the late grand lama. The colorful objects were mixed with other items not belonging to the late lama.

The boy reached for a cane and two necklaces that were genuine and an examination revealed he had three of the five physical signs associated with the incarnated divinity.

TO VISIT TRED CHINA

CARRO (UPI)—A nine-man military mission from the Algerian government-in-exile will leave here Thursday for a visit to Communist China, an Algerian spokesman said Wednesday.

TEACHER OF YEAR

NEW YORK (UPI)—Miss Edna Donley, a high school mathematics teacher for 30 years in Alva, Okla., was named "National Teacher of the Year" today by McCall's Magazine.

World Without Cheer

The young Buddhist leader grew up, however, into a world without cheer. He reached maturity only in time to face the Red menace from China, to see his tribesmen die in battle and finally to flee the Communist occupiers of his mountain nation.

He fled to India to seek aid in the Western world, but finding no nation willing to fight for Tibet, he returned to Lhasa in 1951 to and you'll want it for all its worth

Chevy makes one for you...

Fewer and fewer people, we're happy to say, think it's necessary to look over different makes of cars to find the one automobile that offers exactly what they want.

There's really no reason to look further than your Chevrolet dealer's. For the plain fact is that Chevrolet builds so many different kinds of cars there's one to please just about everyone.

Say you want a stylish, spacious car that combines low initial cost with rock-bottom operating expense. You'll find what you want in the Biscayne 2-Door Sedan—one of the lowest priced Chevy models. You can have Chevrolet's new Hi-Thrift 6 under the hood to stretch out the distance between gas stops.

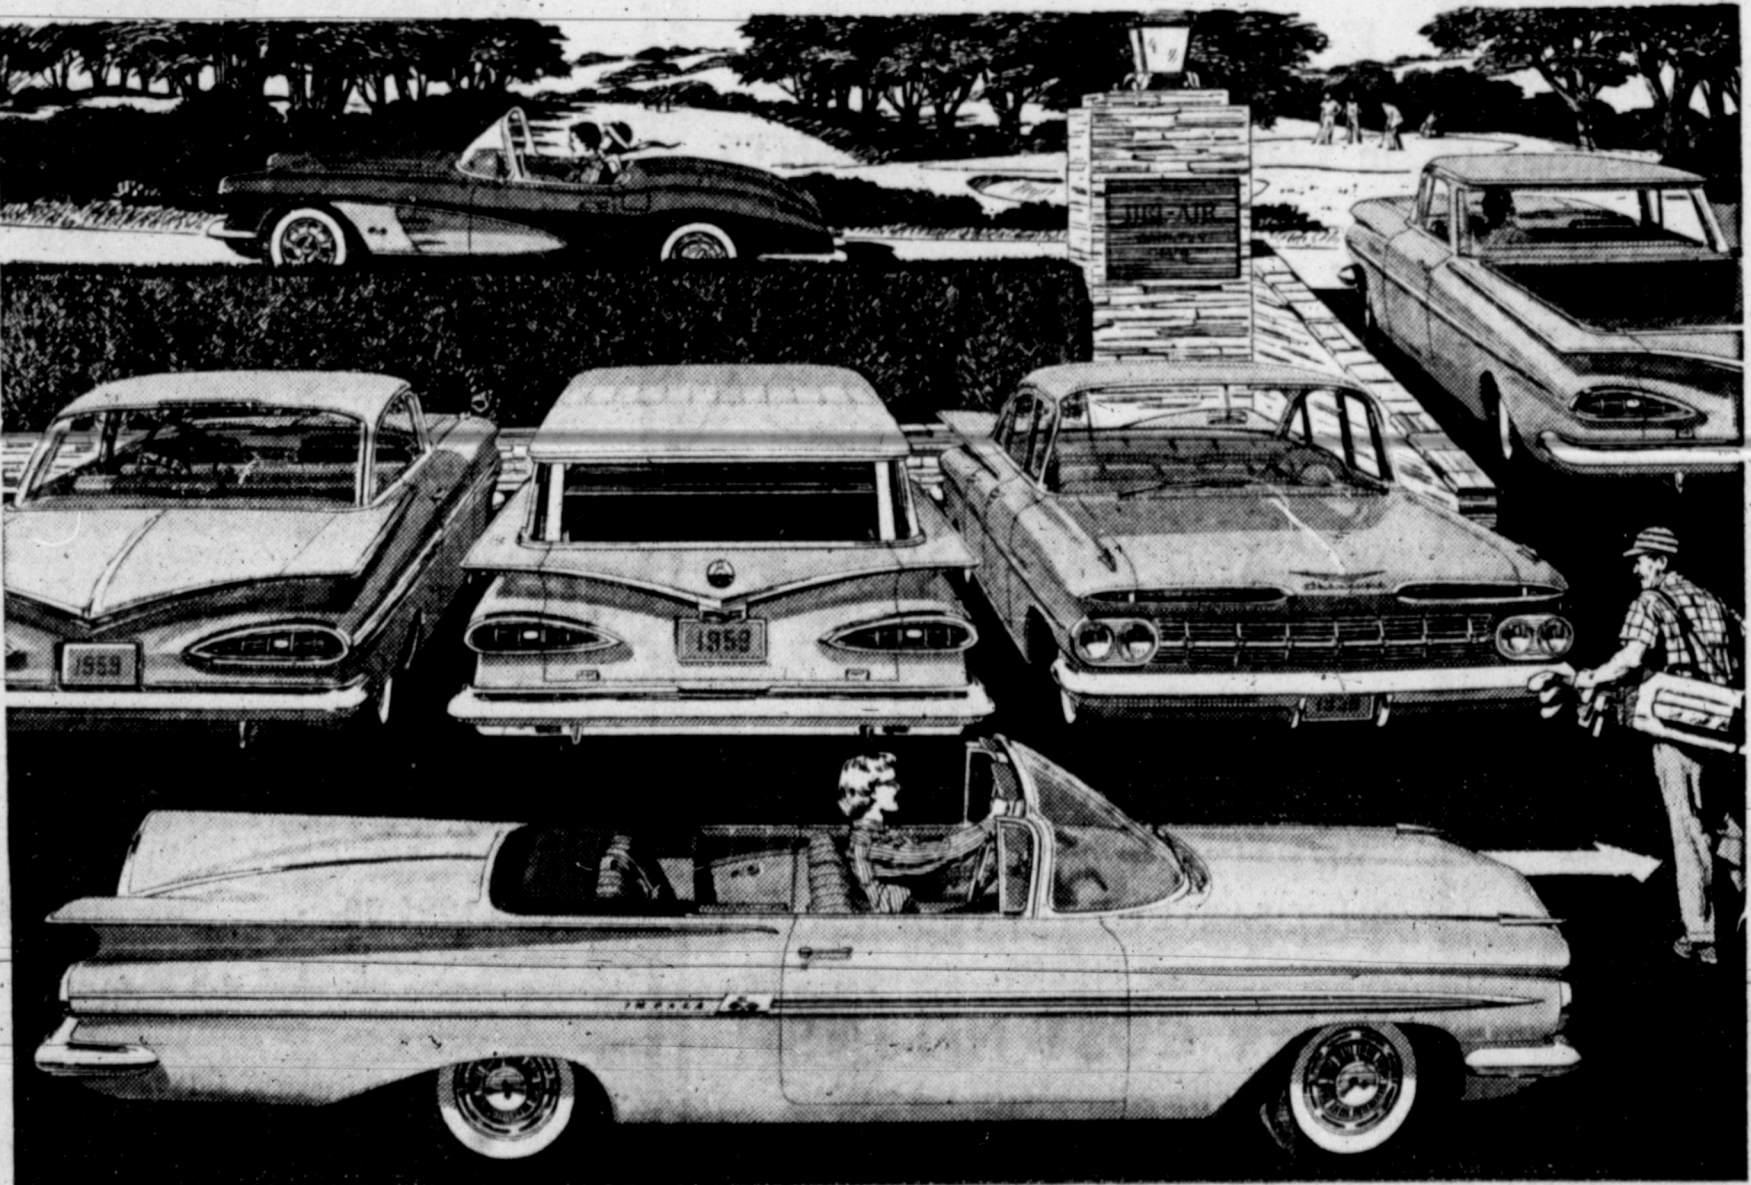

If, on the other hand, you're looking for a car of utmost elegance, there's the Chevrolet Impala 4-Door Sport Sedan. And, to go with it, Chevy's velvety V8 power teamed with triple-turbine Turboglide*—one of the finest, smoothest automatic drives offered on any car.

These are just two examples of the dozens of different kinds of Chevrolets you can choose from. One of them may be just what you want. It's almost certain—with models ranging from five beautiful, useful station wagons to the unique Corvette—that Chevrolet builds your kind of car. Stop by your dealer's and he'll be happy to help you pick it out.
