ONE FOR THE MONEY...

People Told To Watch For Their Numbers

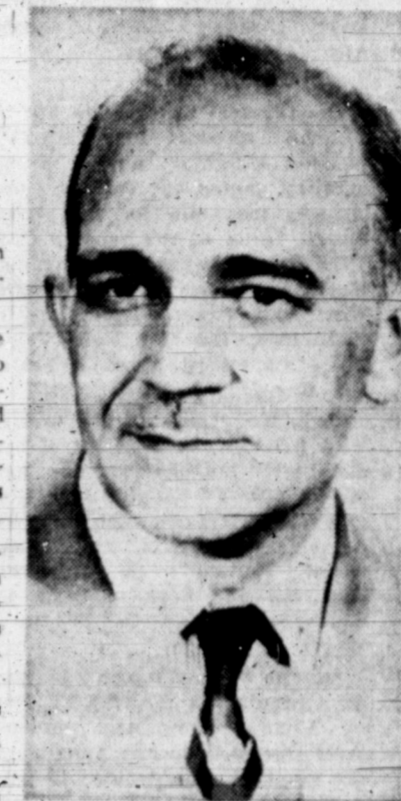

Pampa Value Days will climax at 8 p.m. Saturday with the award of four hundred silver dollars to one of the numerous ticket holders present at a merchant-financed drawing. Lucian Young, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Merchants Activities Committee, today outlined the procedure of registration. Persons can register in any of the 74 participating stores whether or not they make a purchase. They may register as many times as they wish. Registrants will be given a ticket stub which will give them a stake in a prize drawing held in a registering store and also give them a chance at the silver jackpot. Although they need not be present at one of the 74 separate drawings, they must bring their ticket stub to the store next week to claim their prize. The winning number will be posted on the cash register. In no other way will they be notified. The individual drawings will take place at 7 p.m. Saturday throughout the Value Days stores. The jackpot drawing will be held in front of the LaNora Theatre building at 8 p.m. Ticket holders must be there with their ticket if they expect to claim the prize. The drawing will continue until the prize is claimed, according to Young.

Western Allies Nix U.S. Berlin Plan

LONDON (UPI) — The Western Allies have cold-shouldered an American plan that would link a German peace treaty with the step by step unification of Germany, diplomatic sources reported today. East and West were hardening their positions in preparation for the May 11 foreign ministers conference in Geneva. Moscow issued a new blast accusing the United States of sabotaging the talks before they start. Moscow Radio broadcast two editorials in the newspaper Pravda today saying the United States was trying to sabotage the Geneva talks now by arming its Allies with missiles and by making high altitude flights to Berlin. Similar charges came from Moscow before and today's repetition confirmed the belief by Western diplomats that the Russians were prepared to make no important concessions. The Western jockeying on a united viewpoint represented this hardening of the Allied approach as experts of America, Britain, France and West Germany studied plans for a package deal for the Geneva meeting. The U.S. plan was reported to call for delaying a peace treaty for several years until West and East Germany can be united stage by stage. Each stage would be linked to agreed moves toward European security. Britain believes the plan follows too closely on a 1955 Western proposal firmly and repeatedly rejected by Russia and offering no promising ground for negotiations. France and West Germany oppose it for fear the Communists might gain the upper hand in West Germany. There were these other major developments in the East-West dispute: — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, speaking before a Conservative Party rally in Preston, warned that a summit conference is no cure-all for East-West differences. But he said such a meeting would mark the beginning of better relations. — The doctor placed a pan of water under the puppy's nose and it drank probably because the mouth gets dry. The water ran immediately out of the puppy's esophagus, the end of which sticks out of the big dog's shaved neck. — The puppy head does not need to eat or drink. It is nourished by the big dog's body on two rabbits a day, porridge and bread. But the puppy head still likes to lick candy. — Two girl assistants who care for Pirat 24 hours a day give him penicillin and streptomycin shots every four hours. — When the puppy dies, Pirat will just have a wound to show for his spare head. (After this dispatch was written, Texas news agency reported Demikhov did another head transplant with two dogs in a four-hour operation April 22.)

Russians Produce Two-Headed Dog

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press International
MOSCOW (UPI) — I've interviewed Lassie the TV canine and Trigger the movie horse, but strolling around Moscow with a two-headed dog is downright electrifying. The animal is Russia's "surgical-Sputnik" and may go down in medical history as the key to results that seem like science fiction — from replacing lost limbs and worn out organs to possible rejuvenation. I met the medical marvel at the First Medical Institute, an ordinary stone building on a Moscow side street. Dr. Vladimir Demikhov, the noted transplanting surgeon who performed the operation, introduced a huge German Shepherd with the appealing head and forelegs of a little white puppy panting happily on the back of its neck. Demikhov performed the operation when the puppy was a month old by joining major blood vessels. The fact that the puppy has lived almost a month is astounding. The doctor took the dog out for a walk with me. At first the big dog, named Pirat, resisted the walk because he has to be led by his ears (where would you put the collar?). Otherwise he didn't seem to care whether two heads are better than one. "The big dog doesn't understand," explained Demikhov. "He feels some kind of inconvenience, but he doesn't know what it is. "Sometimes the puppy will playfully bite the ear of the big dog and Pirat will shake his head but he never has tried to scratch or kick off the extra head. "The puppy licked its paws and washed its face like a cat. When I patted big Pirat, the puppy head became drowsy in the sunshine and dozed off; the two heads sleep and wake independently. The doctor explained this normally is why the operation is a bombshell in the medical world.

J. G. GOODRICH
... C-C speaker

Freight Agent Will Speak At C-C Luncheon

J. G. Goodrich, freight claim agent for the Santa Fe Railroad Co. of Amarillo, will be the speaker at Monday's Chamber of Commerce Membership Luncheon, according to Warren Hasse, president of the Chamber. Goodrich will bring Pampa businessmen up to date information on recent shipping regulations and will offer suggestions as to how better service can be made available to the public through better understanding of problems that confront the shipper and the various transportation companies. The National Association of Shippers is now conducting a campaign for better handling and shipping as well as a clearer understanding of techniques that may be employed. Reservations are now being taken for the Monday luncheon meeting to be held in the Palm Room of the City Hall at $1.25 per plate.

Speaker Pleads For Fast Action

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — The Texas House, spurred by Speaker Waggoner Carr to give the Senate a chance before it is "too late," prepared to take final action today on a drastically reduced multi-million dollar tax bill. During the past four days, the lower chamber has whacked some 220 million dollars in potential revenue out of the proposed 300 million dollar general tax bill. The majority of members felt the various levies proposed look too much like a general sales tax. In a rare move, Carr gave up the speaker's chair Thursday and moved to the floor of the House and made a dramatic plea for the members to take final action on the bill and send it to the Senate for consideration while there is still time to pass some sort of revenue producing legislation. The legislature is scheduled to adjourn on May 12, less than three weeks away. Could Be Close Approval of the bill was expected to be touch-and-go today. The membership approved it on second reading by a 73-72 vote Thursday, setting it up for final action. Carr said the bill is "obviously not a satisfactory tax bill in its present form, but the Texas legislature must pass a tax bill and soon." Fiscal experts estimate that at least 177 million dollars in new revenue is needed to put an already approved state budget into effect. And the lawmakers have postponed action on a proposed teacher's pay raise until they see if they can raise the necessary funds. The bill before the House would raise approximately 80 million dollars in its present form. It would raise six million dollars a year by raising the natural gas tax from 7 to 8 per cent; $7,200,000 a year by hiking the automobile sales tax from 1.1 per cent to 1.5 per cent; $9,700,000 a year by a one-cent boost in cigarette taxes; $1,500,000 by increases in radio, television, and cosmetics taxes; $221,000 from a tax on storage of foreign oil; some three million dollars through a 10-per cent per gallon boost in liquor taxes; $1,100,000 from a tripled retail beer dealers' licenses, and $4,800,000 through a 12 per cent levy on cigars and other tobacco products. Charges Its Sales Tax Rep. Jerry Sadler of Palestine charged that "95.5 per cent of this bill is in direct sales taxes." Carr said the main question is not who shall and shall not be taxed, but who shall or shall not go hungry if we don't provide the money to operate state government. "Our one main purpose is to pay our bills," he said.

Nehru Says That Reds Are Liars

MUSSOORIE, India (UPI) — Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru today denied Chinese Communist charges the Dalai Lama was being held against his will and invited the Red-sponsored Panchen Lama to come here and see for himself. Nehru said the repeated Communist assertions also made by Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai and the Panchen Lama in Peiping were "patently not so." Peiping Radio repeated the charges again today. Nehru made the statement in dollars in his present form. It would raise six million dollars a year by raising the natural gas tax from 7 to 8 per cent; $7,200,000 a year by hiking the automobile sales tax from 1.1 per cent to 1.5 per cent; $9,700,000 a year by a one-cent boost in cigarette taxes; $1,500,000 by increases in radio, television, and cosmetics taxes; $221,000 from a tax on storage of foreign oil; some three million dollars through a 10-per cent per gallon boost in liquor taxes; $1,100,000 from a tripled retail beer dealers' licenses, and $4,800,000 through a 12 per cent levy on cigars and other tobacco products. Charges Its Sales Tax Rep. Jerry Sadler of Palestine charged that "95.5 per cent of this bill is in direct sales taxes." Carr said the main question is not who shall and shall not be taxed, but who shall or shall not go hungry if we don't provide the money to operate state government. "Our one main purpose is to pay our bills," he said.

Southern Senators Recruited To Stop Labor Bill of Rights

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Southern senators were being recruited as unexpected allies today in a last-ditch drive to upset a labor reform "bill of rights" sponsored by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.). Sen. John Stennis (D-Miss.) told newsmen he and several other Democrats from the South were having "serious second thoughts" about having supported the provision, which was approved Wednesday by a vote of 47-49. He said they were much disturbed over whether they gave the secretary of labor the same "scatter-gun power" to obtain injunctions that they denied the attorney general in civil rights legislation two years ago. It was reported a memorandum was being circulated among the southerners stating that the amendment might lead to enforced racial integration of labor unions in the South. Confer With Johnson Backers of the union reform bill sponsored by Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) struggled to come up with a way to get rid of the McClellan amendment as the Senate drove to complete action on the measure by tonight. McClellan's was the only one of 17 amendments approved so far which Kennedy strongly opposed. AFL-CIO sources have threatened to oppose the bill if it stays in and Kennedy said the provision would jeopardize passage of the anti-corruption measure. Stennis and a group of other southerners held a whispered conference with Democratic leaders Lyndon B. Johnson (Tex.) on the Senate floor Thursday night. Among them were Sens. Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.), James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) and Strom Thurmond (D-S.C.). Aimed At Teamsters McClellan indirectly won an avowed victory Thursday night when the Senate, climaxing an 11-hour session, voted to add to the reform bill a ban on "hot cargo" contracts such as those used by the Teamsters Union. Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn.) sponsored the amendment that its "man in space" program.

CASTRO KILLERS FOUND TENDING TO BUSINESS

NEW YORK (UPI) — The "American gangsters" reported converging on New York to assassinate Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro for pay were located Thursday night, going peacefully about their business in Philadelphia and Las Vegas. But police refused today to relax their heavy guard around the people-loving statesman. Castro himself was unworried, and underlined from his ebullient round of seeing sights and meeting people. New York police already had the heaviest security guard ever around the visiting Cuban leader. When they received a report Thursday that hands of hired killers were on their way to the city to slay Castro, they had nothing to add but vigilance. An estimated 30 plainclothes policemen were on guard with uniformed police through the night outside Castro's 17th-floor hotel suite. At least an equal number patrolled the lobby and hotel entrances. More than 500 police were detailed to a Central Park rally tonight for the biggest security headache and the last scheduled appearance — of Castro's New York visit. Castro just kept smiling. "In Cuba they had tanks, planes and guns and they ran away so what can they do here," he asked. "I sleep very well and don't worry at all." The report of the assassination (See CASTRO, Page 3)

Commies Licked In Japan Election

TOKYO (UPI) — Communist-leaning left-wing parties suffered major defeats Thursday in nationwide elections of governors and prefectural legislatures. The results were considered a victory for the government of Premier Nobusuke Kishi, whose policies were attacked by his opposition as too pro-Western. Results tabulated today showed Kishi's Liberal Democrats and their conservative allies won the government's faces in 13 of 19 prefectures, including Tokyo and Osaka. Three went to the Socialists and the left-wingers. The left-wing Socialists had pegged their election platform upon "independence from the United States" and "recognition of Communist China." Kishi's avowed close ties with the United States is considered pro-Western and has opposed recognition of Peiping. If it comes from a hardware store we have it. Lewis Hardware.

Missile Passes Its Flight Test

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) — A new bomber-launched missile named the "Hound Dog" passed its first flight test high over the Atlantic tracking range Thursday. A B-52 bomber near the cape fired the missile, a winged weapon with a range of several hundred miles. The Air Force said in Washington the Hound Dog successfully met its test objectives. Strategic Air Command bombers armed with the supersonic missiles could stay beyond reach of enemy air defenses to safely attack their targets. The Hound Dog is designed to carry a nuclear warhead. Officials declined to say how far the first Hound Dog traveled. At Santa Rosa Island, just offshore from Eglin, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration held another experiment in its "man in space" program.

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — Jack Turner, 32, an escaped convict, was recaptured without a struggle Thursday as he sat in a movie theater watching "Good Day For a Hanging." "I went to kill some time," Turner said. "Instead, I got pay-off bills," he said.

TECH STUDENTS IN PANTY RAID

LUBBOCK (UPI) — Around 1,000 men students at Texas Tech staged a panty raid early today as climax to a near riot on and near the campus. Lubbock police, and students said the incident was touched off when a city policeman went on the campus to give a student a traffic ticket. Male students poured out of dormitories in protest and milled around, traffic on an adjoining street was halted briefly. At least two dozen students entered a women's dormitory but left hurriedly. The demonstration broke up around 2 a.m. and police announced one student was picked up for questioning but released.

Kills Self

SAN ANTONIO (UPI) — Ernest Ruffo Jr., 18, hanged himself in his girl friend's back yard because he didn't want to go to a parade today and didn't want her to go without him. Homicide detective Frank Castillon said the girl, Janice Jo Rieck, 15, told him they had argued Thursday night about going to the parade. She said she told Ruffo if he didn't take her, she would go anyway.

'Show of Month' Actors Will Probably Receive TV Awards

By WILLIAM EWALD
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI)—The "Browning Version" is a typical Terrence Rattigan play—slick, small-scaled, fluent, fluid and a superb parlor car for actors in search of trophies.

Thursday night, John Gielgud and Margaret Leighton took up temporary lodgings on CBS-TV's Dupont Show of the Month, were presented with "The Browning Version," and promptly threw a party. The year is only four months old, but I would guess that both players—and Gielgud in particular—will bulk large on all those tedious prize-giving lists in December.

Bull Market Predicted For Wall Street

Wall Street Chatter
NEW YORK (UPI)—Edmund W. Tabell of Walston & Co. thinks "we are probably now embarked on the final upward wave of the bull market. This is usually the most dynamic wave, with the speculative and speculative stocks leading the way. My guess is that the phase that began late in 1957 will continue into 1961 with the Dow-Jones Industrials hitting 800, possibly 850."

As a chunk of theatre, "The Browning Version" is, of course, a marvelous piece of sleight of hand. It is an artificial bunco game, a slab of glossy hokum, redeemed by its classy craftsmanship. Rattigan may not dig hard or deep or in original ground, but he knows his theatre and his constructions move and they play well. In an actors' theatre such as ours, Rattigan holds all the proper credentials.

Health Service Will Probe Auto Exhausts

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Public Health Service plans to investigate the role played by auto exhaust in causing or contributing to heart disease, cancer and various other ailments.

Mark D. Hollis, chief of the Sanitary Engineering Division, told the subcommittee that "marked statistical associations between air pollution and many forms of heart disease and cancer have been noted."

Lions Counselled On Stock Investments

"The economic future of our country is apparently very good," Wayne Carleton, a representative of Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith, Inc., told members of the Pampa Noon Lions Club Thursday.

The speaker mentioned atomic energy, new drugs and electronics as evidence of economic growth. "This is a young nation compared with most of the world," he said. "Common stock does offer a good means of participating in this country's economic future."

Common stock has high marketability at a relatively low service cost. It is easy to manage and can be liquidated easily in an estate.

Carleton also defined preferred stock, corporate bonds and municipal bonds. Although he encouraged persons to make shrewd investments, he pointed out that other things, such as investments in homes and insurance programs, should come first.

Lions also heard a three minute speech by Lois Johnson, editor of the Junior Red Cross Journal and News Mrs. Johnson is here from Washington, D.C., to do an article on local JRC work. This chapter is one of the eight to be so honored.

"Thanks to your Chamber of Commerce manager, I have been commissioned a member of the True Top of Texas Top Rail Club and I can brag all I want about the top of Texas and the Pampa Red Cross," said the Washington editor.

J. C. Roberts, business manager of the Lions Club Minutrel, announced that the show cleared over $2,900 this year. Boss Lion Joe Tooley said that the profit will be a little over $3,000 when all the money is in.

H. M. Luna announced that Frank Smith, Ray Kuhn and Floyd Imel will take part in a Lions District 27-1 golf tournament Saturday in Plainview.

Others going to the Saturday-Tuesday convention are H. D. Bathrope, J. C. Roberts, Woodrow Adcock, Joe Tooley, O. K. Gaylor, Ray Duncan, William J. Craig, W. L. Veale, Ralph Thomas, B. R. Shultz, Raymond Darcy, Bill Garrett, Phil Ragland, Bobby D. Garrison and M. O. Moore.

Lions will be in charge of a sound car program this weekend, in preparation for a city cleanup campaign. Monroe Moore, City engineer, announced that City trucks will pick up trash from Ward 4 April 27-29.

"Don't leave anything in the alley that you don't want because if two men can pick it up they're going to haul it away," Moore said.

The Lions welcomed J. E. McCann, a transfer from Midland. Guests were Lige Lindsey, Mrs. Blake Laramore, Dale Thut, Judy Baer, April sweetheart, and Anita Guidry, club pianist.

Little Rock School Withdraws From State Association

CHICAGO (UPI) — The North Central Assn. took final action today to approve voluntary withdrawal from the NCA of three Little Rock, Ark., high schools closed in the struggle there over integration of schools.

The NCA disclosed that the Commission on secondary schools already has approved the step. Technically, the action did not become final until the executive committee had approved it and the association voted as a whole today. But once past the commission hurdle, subsequent proceedings were only a formality.

The only alternative to voluntary withdrawal would be expulsion from the organization, an NCA spokesman said.

The move would hit at college plans of Little Rock high school students, since most colleges refuse to admit graduates of non-NCA accredited high schools without examinations.

The three schools—Central, Hall and Horace Mann—were padlocked by Gov. Orval Faubus last Sept. 12 when the Supreme Court ordered integration at Central High.

William R. Ross, president of Colorado State College, was elected NCA president today. Another Coloradoan, Stephen A. Roming, director of the college of education at the University of Colorado, was named vice president.

Elmer Ellis, president of the University of Missouri, was re-elected to a four-year term on the executive committee.

NCA admitted 77 new high schools and 16 colleges and universities to membership, swelling the organization to 3,327 high schools and 416 institutions of higher learning.

Night Shift Of Textile Mill Beset Again

HENDERSON, N.C. (UPI) — Non-union Harriet-Henderson Cotton Mills workers leaving the night shift were harassed again Thursday night.

Police, however, reported a lessening of the violence which renewed here Monday night when members of the Textile Workers Union of America charged the company with reneging on a new unsigned contract.

The status of the new contract was up in the air. It was agreed to last Friday night when Gov. Luther H. Hodges intervened to reach a settlement between mills president John D. Cooper Jr. and Carolinas TWUA director Boyd Payton.

The union ratified the contract Sunday but Payton refused to sign it as scheduled Monday afternoon when the plant hired 15 former strikers for the night shift, which began operation Monday.

Cooper maintains the total line union he would not re-hire all the strikers. Payton, claims Cooper promised to hire 222 unionists for the night shift and the third of overnight shift which is scheduled to begin next Monday.

The disparity on what was agreed to verbally threw the unionists into an uproar. The 700 non-union workers have been jeered daily by unionists.

Hodges charged management had "intentionally misled" the union into thinking most of the jobs on the second shift were open, when actually only 15 unionists were recalled.

Manners Makes Friends

"How are you?" he isn't asking for and doesn't want to hear a detailed account of your aches and pains. If you can't honestly say you are fine, at least sum up the situation in a brief sentence or two.

MATURE PARENT

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

In the back yard Miriam and a friend were making a dollhouse out of grocery cartons. They were installing its partitions when her little brother, envious of their pleasure, threw a handful of mud into the house's open roof. Miriam chased him, caught him; but before she could hit him, his roars brought their mother running from the kitchen. Rescuing him, she sent Miriam's friend home and said to her, "I don't want to hear one word about what Billy did. I'm sick of your squabbling. Go on. Go on up to your room."

Save detailed accounts of your miseries for your doctor. forced to put on submissive acts without any meaning to them. Am I urging Miriam's mother to permit her to break china, deface wallpaper and beat up her little brother when she's mad? No, I'm not. No parent can permit these protesting actions. But we can permit the protesting words that also express Miriam's protesting anger. It's when we show irritation, hurt or disappointment with the protesting words that "repression" starts. And Miriam, out of fear of isolation gradually loses, not just awareness that she's mad at injustice but awareness that injustice has actually occurred. That's the danger of "repression." Once it starts, we may lose the ability to register what's being done to us.

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My father is 74 but he doesn't look his age and lately he hasn't been acting it, either. He's retired and lives a few months here and a few months there. (You might say he "travels.") I heard from my sister in Canton, Ohio, that Daddy was there with his new wife. Last spring he brought his new wife here and they stayed with us. He met her in Florida and said he married her in Cuba. Her name was Maybelle. My sister said he and his wife were there and her name was Della. My husband says if he comes back he'd better bring Maybelle or he isn't going to let him in the house. We never had this kind of trouble with Daddy before and Mamma's been gone 16 years. Can you tell me how to cope with it?

You see, my family tells me I snore very loud for a girl. Sincerely, GIRL SNORER

DEAR ABBY: I would like your honest opinion of what I am going to ask you. What do you really think of a husband who is far from perfect himself, who professes great love for you and then tells you to your face that you are ugly without make-up? I have practically lost all feeling for him over this and wonder if possibly I can be wrong. Thank you kindly.

DEAR GIRL: Why not see an Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialist? Perhaps he can help you. If it can't be helped, don't worry about it. (There is always a possibility that your fiance snores, too, in which case you could make beautiful music together.

Key Bride-Elect's Favored Color To Gifts When Planning Bridal Shower

By KA YSHERWOOD NEA Staff Writer The happy and exciting weeks ahead for the June bride will include gray bridal showers which she'll remember always as an important part of the delightful time she's having. If you're a close friend of a bride-to-be, perhaps you are planning a shower. It's up to the hostess to decide what type of shower is to be given.

Miscellaneous showers are the safest. A fresh twist on this theme is to give a "color shower." Base your decorations, food and gifts on her favorite color. Without actually telling her friends what to buy as gifts, you can tell them the color to purchase.

Children who take school lunches will appreciate a fresh-lunch container each day. To chase stale food odors, give the containers a hot sudsing each evening. This cuts down on carry-over food odors which make future meals unpleasant.

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

Rev. DOUGLAS CARVER
First Baptist Church

THE PERSONAL TAX

"He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief; and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

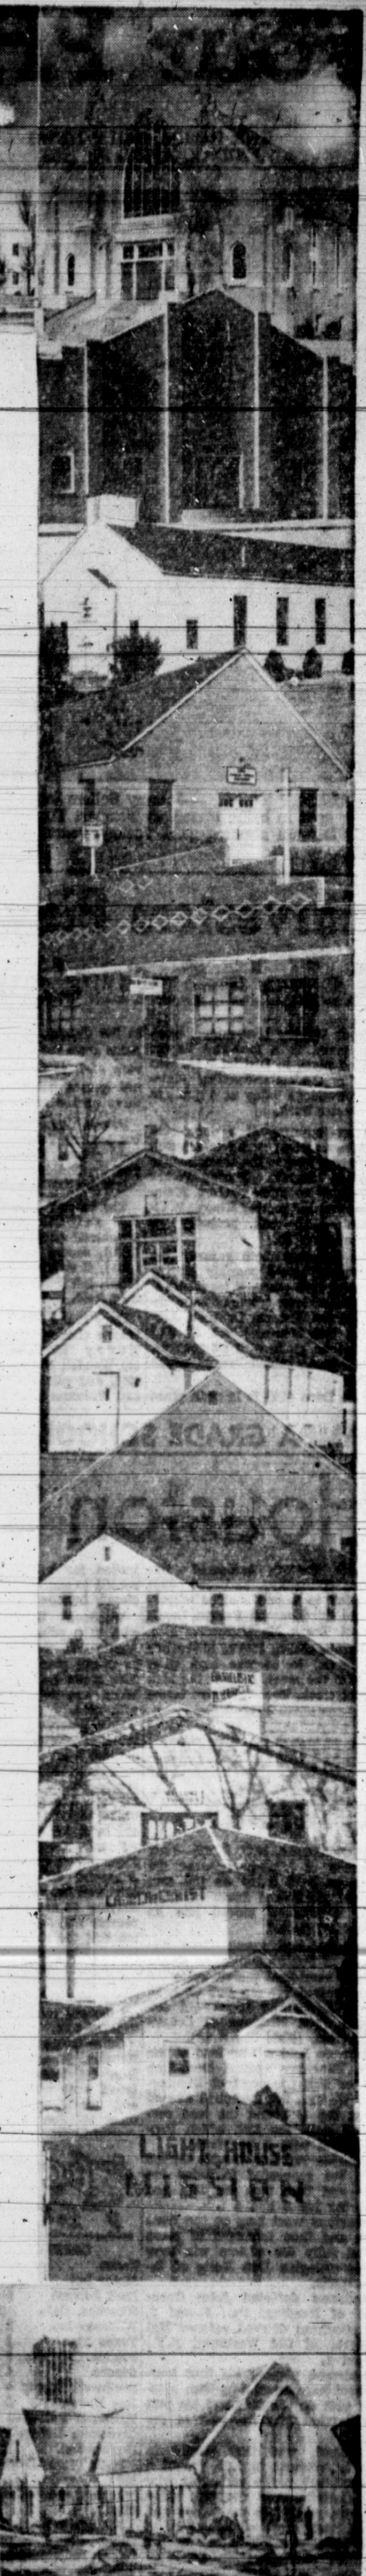

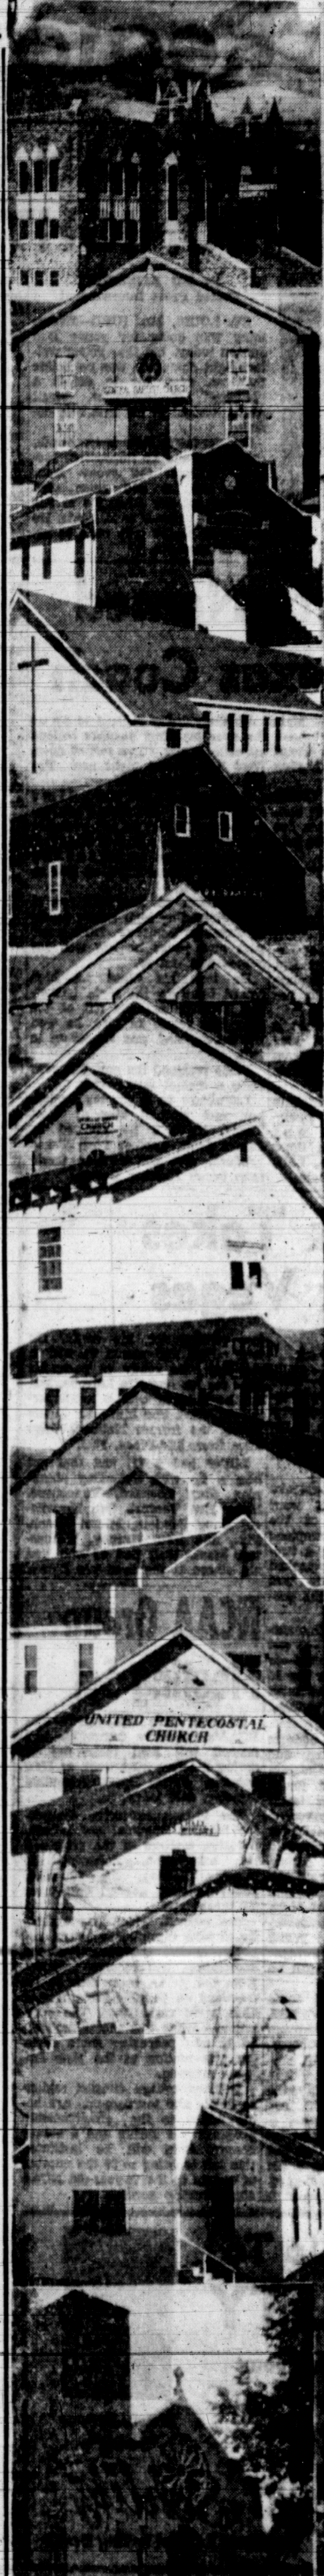

Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows; yet we did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth; he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he opened not his mouth. He was taken from prison and from judgment; and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living; for the transgression of my people was he stricken. And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.

Yet it pleased the Lord to bruise him; he hath put him to grief; when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the Lord shall prosper in his hand. He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied; by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities."
Isaiah 53:3-11

Since reading this scripture, I want to share with you an article that came to my desk recently from the pen of C. C. Gunn.

"The other day I asked a man about his church. He said his wife was a Presbyterian, but he was not a member of any church. I said, 'You have your religion in your wife's name.' He said, 'Yes, the personal tax is too high.' And I have decided that he spoke much more truly than he dreamed. Christ says, 'Come and take up your cross.' But the personal tax is too high. The church says, 'Come, march in the ranks.' But the personal tax is too high. Then I thought—How many calls are coming in every day to everyone in every way! The Vacation Bible School needing helpers; The prayer meeting needing prayers; The Sabbath evening service needing attenders—and boosters; and the Kingdom of God needing dollars; and unsaved souls needing 'carers'; And yet getting no helpers, no prayers, no attenders, no boosters, no dollars, no carers, because the personal tax is too high.

And then it all came over me—What if Christ had refused to die because the personal tax was too high?"

Martin Wants Indians To Get Series Money

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

Billy Martin has collected five World Series checks already and now is working on his sixth one with Cleveland just so he can wave it in front of Casey Stengel this fall.

Impish Billy knows Stengel is a banker but it's doubtful he would ask Casey to cash it. The two haven't exactly been buddy-buddy since the Yankees let Martin go in 1957.

Any time Martin can "show" Stengel, his day is complete. Like he did Thursday when he smashed a three-run homer in leading the Indians to a 10-4 victory over the Tigers.

So what if he only raised his average from .132 to .171? The important thing is his blow burgh, 5-2, and Chicago defeated St. Louis, 6-1. San Francisco and Los Angeles were idle.

Stage Winning Rallies
Bob Turley, a 21-game winner last season, carried a 2-0 lead into the seventh inning when the Senators rallied for all their runs.

Rookie Willie Tasby was the standout as the Orioles, who trailed 4-2 at one point, rallied for three runs in the eighth to

Bell Pleases Both Sides With Benefits

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — It isn't often that a sports official can please both the club owners and the players in money matters, but that's just what National Football League Commissioner Bert Bell has done.

The raspy-voiced, rotund Bell took the owners off the hook by coming up with a benefit plan as an answer to the Players Association demand for pensions. It was a vexing problem which met a cool reception from the owners for three years. The players were insistent.

The benefit plan — Bell skirted the word "pension" as deftly as any end runner — proved such a hit with both sides that the owners adopted it unanimously at a special league meeting Thursday. The players took all of one minute to decide they'd take it with thanks.

And the beauty of it all was it doesn't cost the owners anything, and the players don't have to contribute a nickel themselves.

The Bell plan, to become operative this fall and to grant a monthly pension to players with five years or more league service at the age of 65, first gives the players hospital, medical and life insurance policies.

The financing of the plan will come from the league's championship games, increased television payments beginning in 1961, and half a dozen more money-raising plans stretched over the years.

Junior High District Meet Set Saturday In Amarillo

AMARILLO — Gene Chance's Junior High Meet, the young Reesper squad, loaded with seventh and eighth graders, will be trying for its first victory in varsity competition. They were sixth in the Dumas meet, and fifth in the Pampa meet. However, they scored more total points than any other team in a seventh and eighth grade meet held last week in Pampa.

The meet, which will be held at Dick Bivins Field, will close the season for both the Reaspers and the Rebels. Preliminaries begin Saturday at 9 a.m., and finals follow at approximately 1 p.m.

The Rebels will be shooting for their second meet victory of the year. Two weeks ago, they captured the Dumas Junior High Meet. In their only other competition this season, they tied for third in the first annual Pampa Invitational.

Reed, and Crossland, Gerrel Owens, and Bill Martin will compete in the high jump. Shot putters will be Larry Braly, Jerry Glover, and John Pierce, and discus throwers will be Braly, Owens, and Pierce.

Reesper Entries
Reesper entries in the high hurdles are Eddie Berry and Charles Harper. In the 50-yard dash, Gene Davis, Kenny Hebert, and GUY Cloud; in the 100-yard dash, Davis, Hebert, and Perry Thompson; in the low hurdles, Berry and Harper.

The Pampa Junior High 220-yard dash entries will be Calvin Jones and Jay Wells. Gerald Been, Billy Hughes, and Tony Kirby will compete in the 800-yard run, and the 440-yard relay team will be composed of Riley Walters, Randy Matson, Hebert, and Berry.

Reesper broad jumpers will be Richard Rexroat, Harper, and Wells; and Harper and Berry will go in the high jump. Walters will be the pole vaulter, and Matson, Thompson, and Danny Mathus will put the shot and throw the discus.

Junior High Golfers Win

Pampa junior high golfers won A and B team matches played Thursday at Pampa Country Club. The A squad scored 339, and the B team fired 408.

Also entered in the match were A and B teams from two Berger junior high, Sam Houston, and Stephen F. Austin. The Austin A squad fired 351, and the Houston varsity carded 398. In B team play, Austin scored 417, and Houston shot 431.

Burrows from Stephen F. Austin was medalist with 75. Bobby Howard and Bobby Hatcher were low men for Pampa with 79. Others playing for Pampa were Bryan Prigmore, Johnny Hatcher, Leland Hudson, Fred Howard, Gary Stanfield, Johnny Mack, Greg Dalton, Jim Triplehorn, Jim Thompson, and Don Hines.

capped a decisive five-run rally and increased Cleveland's American League lead to three games over both the Yankees and White Sox. It also insured the fast-breaking Indians their ninth triumph in 10 games this season.

Pitches Scoreless Ball
Rookie Jim Perry, making his major league debut, started for Cleveland but was knocked out in a three-run fifth. Dick Brodowski took over, held the Tigers scoreless the rest of the way — he hasn't been scored on in four appearances yet this season — and earned his second victory. Ray Narleski, who came to Detroit in a deal for Martin this past winter, suffered his fourth straight loss as the Tigers dropped their ninth game in 10 starts.

The Senators nipped the Yankees, 3-2, and the Orioles came from behind to defeat the Red Sox, 8-7, in the only other American League games scheduled.

In the National League, Philadelphia beat Milwaukee, 4-3, to cut the Braves' lead to half a game; Cincinnati topped Pitts-

Frogs Top Houston

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (UPI) — Hunter Enis hit a double and two singles in five times at bat Thursday to lead TCU to a 5-3 victory over Sam Houston. The loss gives Sam Houston a 10-3 record.

Today, TCU moves to Houston for a two-day series with Rice.

Tony Lee Wins In Blue Grass Stakes Race

LEXINGTON, Ky. (UPI) — Tony Lee, who showed spunk to match his speed in winning Thursday's running of the Blue Grass Stakes at Keeneland, headed for Churchill Downs and the Kentucky Derby today posing a problem for jockey Willie Shoemaker.

Shoemaker was impressed by the English-born colt's courage as he turned back a determined drive by Claiborne Farn's Dunce in the stretch to win the $25,000 added Derby prep by little more than a head.

"The horse ran a game race. When that other horse came to him, he went on," Shoemaker said, but quickly added, "I still have not decided on the Derby field here May 28."

Patterson Blasts Civil Rights Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The battle over civil rights stirred up new angry words today.

Gov. John Patterson of Alabama, testifying before a Senate constitutional rights subcommittee, denounced pending civil rights bills as "instruments to force integration of the races upon us and to 'ram integration down our throats.'"

He said they would be as effective as "trying to sweep back the oceans with a broom" because Alabama, for one, would scrap its public school system "rather than submit."

William L. Patterson, a New York Negro Communist leader, fired a countering salvo from the witness stand before the House committee investigating un-American activities.

Called to testify about his writings for the Communist Sunday Worker, William Patterson challenged the committee's right to pry into his political beliefs and said it really ought to be investigating "the murder of Negroes in the South."

Chairman Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.) accused Patterson of shedding "crocodile tears."

Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers told a news conference meantime that recent government setbacks

MOSCOW (UPI) — Western diplomats attended a Hungarian reception Friday night for the first time since the 1956 revolt against the Budapest government. The reception was held on the occasion of the Hungarian national holiday marking the liberation from Germany in World War II.

KLANSMAN SURRENDERS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — Jesse W. Mabry, 47, one of four Klux Klansmen sentenced to 20 years for castrating a Negro, has surrendered to begin serving his term. Officers said Friday that Mabry surrendered within the time limit set after his appeal to the Alabama Supreme Court was turned down.

Wheat: Marvin L. McLain, assistant secretary of agriculture, told the Senate Agriculture Committee a bill to tighten controls on wheat production would not solve the serious surplus problem. He contended the measure "has some features that are better than we have now" but refused to say whether the President would accept or veto the proposal.

Labor Reform: The Kennedy-Ervin labor reform bill faced another assault by amendment in the Senate after coming through its initial test of strength unscathed. Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) planned to call up a far-reaching "bill of rights" for union members in his series of amendments aimed at toughening anti-corruption bills.
