

Divers Probe Lake Depths Where 53 Die

HADERSLEV, Denmark (UPI)—The death toll in the explosion and sinking of an overcrowded sightseeing boat rose to 53 today. Police feared frogmen would bring up even more bodies from the bottom of the artificial lake on which the tragedy occurred.

At least 30 of the dead had been identified and it was established six were foreigners. Police said "it was believed" there were 45 or "perhaps more" survivors of the sinking Wednesday. At least 35 persons were injured.

The sightseeing boat Dam Ende was raked by flames following an explosion below decks. Men, women and children fell into screaming panic and the crew was unable to get to life preservers stored under seats.

Nearly every citizen in this town was touched by the tragedy. Bakery owner H. H. Jensen and his wife, for instance, lost their two little daughters, Mrs. Jensen's parents, her brother and sister-in-law and their 12-year-old daughter.

It was believed no Americans were aboard the gaily painted leisure craft but several German, Swedish and Belgian tourists were aboard with their children.

Some were hit by the explosion and flaming gasoline, others were burned when the gaily striped canvas awnings covering the deck burst into flames and collapsed on them.

The boat blew up Wednesday afternoon while cruising on the artificial lake, formed by Haderslev dam in South Jutland near the German border. Crew members said the blast was caused by gasoline from a leaking fuel line dripping onto the hot engine.

Authorities said the boat was slightly overcrowded. They said it had at least 90 persons on board. Capt. Hans Ristofte, the boat's owner, tried to head it to shore but it sank less than 15 yards from shallow water.

Jens Jensen, one of the survivors, gave this account:

"I know a little about engines and heard how it mis-fired a couple of times, but I did not actually think anything serious was going to happen. Then suddenly a yellow spittle leaked out from the engine and Hans Ristofte . . . sounded the alarm."

"The panic cannot be described. Ristofte tried in vain to reach the lifebelts which were stored in benches and boxes. The passengers got in his way all the time.

Several of them jumped into the water and I did the same thing myself."

"A screaming woman with a baby was swimming beside me in the water. I grabbed the child and calmed the mother, and a rowboat came toward us and we were picked up together with a few others."

Aboard the burning boat the panic was still spreading. It was awful to hear the screams for help while we were rowed away."

Persons living nearby sped to the scene in rowboats to pick up what survivors they could. One of these was Carl Engel who told how he had to make the awful choice of whom to pick up.

"I kept a distance of a few meters from the dam end and picked up a man who was swimming with a small child in his arms," he said. "They were all more or less burned."

"I refused to pick up anybody who was able to swim and was unharmed."

"It was terrible to say no."

CHARLESTON, S.C. (UPI)—Tropical storm Cindy moved inland today, leaving behind at least one dead but only minor property damage in a half hearted blow at the South Carolina coast.

The storm, whose peak winds barely reached 75 miles an hour—74 is the minimum for hurricane classification—diminished before moving inland in the Bull Bay McClellanville area north of Charleston late Wednesday night.

A special weather advisory issued by the Miami Weather Bureau said rough seas with tides two to three feet above normal from Georgetown to Cape Fear are gradually subsiding.

Breeders To Hold Summer Meeting Here

Top O' Texas Hereford Breeders will hold their annual summer meeting in Recreation Park this August. Wayne Maddox, ToT Hereford Breeders Association president, announced this morning.

A barbecue is set for 6 p.m. Aug. 27 in the sales pavilion of Recreation Park. It will be followed by a clinic type program.

Several out-of-town speakers will be on hand and papers will be presented on matters of current interest to cattlemen. An exhibit of breeding cattle and fat pigs is planned. An unofficial judging contest will precede the barbecue.

Plans for the event were made at a directors meeting Wednesday. The breeders also set their annual show and sale for March 7, 8, 1960, coinciding with the ToT Junior Livestock Show.

Col. Walter Britten, College Station, was again named the auctioneer. This will be his 15th year to work the sale.

Hereford breeders and their guests will attend the barbecue.

Ike Taking Direct Hand Planning U. S. Strategy

By STEWART HENSLEY, United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower is taking a direct hand in planning U.S. strategy for resumption of the Geneva foreign ministers' conference next week.

The President scheduled a morning meeting with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter at the White House to discuss major cold war issues.

Today's conference was their second in two days and followed a lengthy discussion of East-West issues Wednesday night between Herter and Vice President Richard M. Nixon at the secretary's home. Nixon also discussed his forthcoming trip to Russia.

Eisenhower and Herter, according to their aides, are discussing policy and tactics to be employed in Geneva when the deadlocked Big Four talks resume Monday.

They also were understood to be assessing the entire international situation in the light of the tough talk from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchey.

Herter was expected to discuss some of the major points at issue this afternoon at his first news conference since being sworn in April 22 as secretary of state.

The President and Herter were said to hold some hope that Russia might be willing to reach an interim agreement on an interim status for Berlin, pending the unification of Germany, when the Geneva talks resume after a three-week recess.

Hope Deadline Lifted

Some state department officials cling to the hope that Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko may be authorized to lift the Russian 18-month deadline for the Allies to get out of Berlin. This ultimatum so far has barred all efforts to reach a Berlin agreement.

However, other veteran diplomats think there is no real hope that Russia will make any concessions which could lead to agreement with the British, French and Americans.

Eisenhower made it clear at his news conference Wednesday that the United States has no intention of abandoning its rights of responsibilities in Berlin.

The President also accused Khrushchey, in effect, of responsibility for threatening the possibility of war in a recent interview with former New York Gov. Averell Harriman.

Pampa Population Up 22 Families in 15 Days

Twenty-two families have moved into Pampa during the past 15 days, City Manager John Kooztz reported this morning. That figure is slightly above the average number of 41 new families per month.

Fourteen families moved here from other points in Texas and two arrived from Oklahoma. Other families moved to Pampa from California, Ohio, Kansas, Nevada and Colorado.

Figures on new families are compiled by a local hostess service which submits reports every 15 days. It was noted that new families here the past 15 days numbered 82 persons.

By EUGENE V. KNISPEL, United Press International

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI)—A high state official reported Wednesday night Gov. Earl K. Long was "failing rapidly." A team of six doctors "seems more fatigued than he has been prior to this time."

On the other hand, a state legislator said "he's not as bad off as reports say."

The conflicting reports on the 65-year-old governor's condition were made at the executive mansion in the capital.

Long, who stayed up past midnight before an aide dimmed lights in his room, announced through his office Wednesday he plans to take a vacation beginning Friday. It will last for several weeks.

Local Women Win $9,801 Tax Battle

Two daughters of Pampa auto dealer Frank Culbertson have won a four-year running battle with the Internal Revenue Service over a tax claim of $9,801.

The tax was paid twice to the tax department after the revenue service disallowed a partnership of Culbertson and his daughters, formed in 1954 for tax purposes.

The women are Mrs. Betty Ann Culbertson Cain (wife of City Attorney Don Cain) and Mrs. Catherine Culbertson Brown, now of California.

The money was ordered refunded to the two women by Federal Judge T. Whitfield Davidson following an appeal hearing in Dallas. He ruled, in effect, that Uncle Sam cannot collect the same set of taxes twice.

Attorneys for the sisters said the wrangle began in 1945 when Culbertson formed a partnership with his daughters.

An Internal Revenue Service audit in 1949 disallowed the partnership and held that Culbertson owned all the taxes on the business. The tax commissioners also ordered the $9,801 in taxes—his daughters had already paid be refunded on their premises, to apply to their father's unpaid taxes.

But in 1954 Federal Judge Whitfield Davidson ruled that the two daughters were partners in the business. The first Federal tax return (See BATTLE, Page 4)

Castro Regime Eyes Two Big US Ranches

By FRANCIS L. MCCARTHY
United Press International

HAVANA (UPI)—Premier Fidel Castro's revolutionary regime plunged today with plans to swallow up two big American ranches at the risk of losing United States foreign aid.

Announcement that the two ranches were being taken over in Oriente Province coincided with reports that armed soldiers had been stationed at key buildings in Santiago, Oriente's capital, birthplace of the Castro revolution.

Although a number of alleged "counter-revolutionaries" have been arrested in Oriente recently, the reports said the guards were placed on the alert against the possibility of an armed invasion from the Dominican Republic.

(The Dominican Republic has put its armed forces on an alert against the possibility of an invasion from Cuba.)

The two ranches involved in the takeover were the 20,000-acre owned by Lykes Bros. Inc. of Tampa, Fla., and 66,300 acres operated by Sumner Pingree, of Hamilton, Mass.

Cuban authorities moved onto the Pingree ranch Wednesday and notified the Lykes ranch manager they would move in there Aug. 1.

In Washington Wednesday, the Senate voted 89-32 to cut off aid to countries which in the future expropriate American-owned property without "fair compensation. The measure was an amendment to the foreign aid bill.

The extent of the Lykes and Pingree takeovers was not defined. A Lykes official in Tampa said the Cuban government apparently intended to assume full management of the ranch land without actually seizing it.

Both the ranches have been held under Spanish royal grants dating back to the turn of the century.

Just what compensation might be involved was not clear. The government has said in the past it would issue bonds for seized land payable in 20 years at 4 percent interest.

About 96 percent of the farms in the United States are family-operated.

Lefors Votes 20 Percent Valuation

LEFORS (Sp.)—The percentage of valuation on property here now stands at between 10 and 12 percent. This percentage was voted to be raised to 20 percent by the city council meeting this week effective the next time taxes are paid.

Citizens were reminded that this is not to be confused with the tax rate which is $1.25 per $100. The valuation on all property in the city now stands at almost $200 million and this amount is to be raised to $300 million to be divided equally among all tax payers of the city, in order to meet the budget.

Mrs. O. O. Bishop, representing the Home Demonstration Club, and Mrs. Ray Boyd, representing the Council of Clubs, were present to discuss the possibility of getting moving equipment for the city park and cemetery. The council agreed to study such equipment and purchase what is needed.

Present were Mayor Frank Wall, H. R. Cates, L. R. Cain, F. C. Jones, Ed Radabaugh, councilmen, and Mrs. R. H. Barron, secretary.

$181 Million Tax Bill Is Approved

By LLOYD LARRABEE
United Press International

AUSTIN (UPI)—A 10-member House-Senate Conference Committee today approved a $181 million dollar tax bill leveled almost one-half on cigars and tobacco, in the effort to solve the state's mounting financial crisis without a third special session.

The conferees reported their recommendations to lawmakers after seven days of secret deliberations — and only a week before the second special session of the Legislature ends automatically at midnight July 16.

Speaker Waggoner Carr praised action of the conferees and pointed out that all 10 members signed the report. "This is the best bill they can get for the moment," Carr told newsmen.

Carr said the bill could be considered by the House at a Saturday session if members desired, leaving time for lawmakers to work next week on a spending program for state government.

Committee members proposed a three-cent per pack hike on cigars — two cents of that amount temporary for two years. They recommended a 12½ percent tax on cigars and smoking tobacco but exempting snuff.

The cigarette increase was estimated to bring in 50 million dollars, plus $2,400,000 on current stock in warehouses. The cigar and tobacco levy was estimated to raise $13,800,000.

Committee members said the complete bill was estimated by State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert to raise $181,878,000.

The measure includes a one percent increase on natural gas production, a gross receipts tax on gas and electric utilities, and a temporary increase in corporation franchise taxes.

The automobile sales tax would be boosted from 1.1 percent to 1.6 percent. A new tax on private clubs would levy a 10 percent excise tax on commercial clubs and 2 percent on country clubs. Air conditioning would be taxed at

House May Debate Measure To Keep Texas Beaches Open

By LLOYD LARRABEE
United Press International

AUSTIN (UPI)—House members, patiently awaiting a conference committee's report on a tax bill, may debate a controversial measure today that would keep Texas beaches from being closed to the public.

The House, by a whopping 111 to 15 vote, denounced Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler Wednesday.

Members passed a resolution citing Butler's criticism of Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson and Speaker Sam Rayburn, as well as statements that the South should "stay home from the next Democratic National Convention, in spite of the fact that the Democratic Party originated in the minds and hearts of southern leaders."

The tax bill is keeping lawmakers from going home. A Senate-House Conference Committee has been secretly debating a measure estimated to raise 180 million dollars for the past eight days, but they are no closer to agreement than the day they started as far as anyone knows.

If the tax bill is not reported soon, a third special session of the Legislature will be necessary. The current second special session ends at midnight July 16.

The open beach bill, sponsored in the House by Rep. Bob Eckhardt of Houston, would guarantee public access to beaches on the Gulf Coast.

Kozlov Greeted At Chicago City Hall Before Farm Visit

By LARRY MORRONE
United Press International

CHICAGO (UPI)—Soviet First Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov gets an official greeting at City Hall today and spends the rest of the day seeing how American farmers live and work.

Russia's No. 3 man got a routine handshake from Mayor Richard J. Daley's representative Jack Reilly when he arrived at Midway Airport Wednesday. He was scheduled to receive an official welcome from the mayor today.

Then Kozlov and his party were to go by automobile to Grundy County, southwest of Chicago, for a tour of a half-dozen dairy, grain and livestock farms.

The Russian leader ended a 14-day tour of the Great Lakes-Caribbean area, including steel mill area Wednesday night by telling a group of American steel executives that the Soviet Union does not want to "impose its social structure on any people or nation."

He said he believed the United States, "also," was not trying to force others to accept its way of doing things.

Kozlov compared U.S. Russian relations to an ingot of steel. Just as an ingot often has imperfections that must be "leached away," he said, so will there be disagreements between the Americans and Russians.

He said a steel ingot sometimes must be discarded entirely if it has too many imperfections. It would be a "catastrophe," he said, to allow the "ingot" of American-Russian relations to be thrown away.

Kozlov made the comments during a 10-minute, off-the-cuff speech before 25 of the nation's top steel officials and 50 hand-picked guests at a dinner in the plush South Shore Country Club in Chicago.

While waiters served a dinner of jellied consommé, roast beef, baked potatoes, avocado salad, grapefruit and orange supreme, three pickets stood outside the door handing out pamphlets, telling of the "starvation of Hungary."

Hayes Dies Of Heart Ailment At Baylor

DALLAS (UPI)—Jere R. Hayes, one of the most widely read sports writers in the Southwest, died of a heart ailment Wednesday night at Baylor Hospital. He was 60.

For more than 40 years Hayes had been a sports writer for the Dallas Times-Herald. He was sports director on the paper at the time of his death.

Since his first major heart attack Dec. 27, 1957 while covering the Gator Bowl in Florida, he limited his activities to writing a daily column.

His last one appeared Tuesday afternoon in the Times-Herald.

The veteran sports writer was the oldest in point of service in the state. He started to work for the Dallas newspaper 43 years ago as a carrier boy. In turn came full time positions in the circulation department, then in the city room as a reporter.

He joined the sports staff on Jan. 8, 1918.

Hayes might have been a professional baseball player. He excelled in baseball, football and basketball at the old Bryan High School in Dallas, now Crozier Tech. And a year before he started his career as a sports writer, he turned down a professional baseball contract with a Western League team. His father advised it.

After his first heart attack at Jacksonville, Fla., while covering the Gator Bowl football game, he spent several months away from work, then returned and resumed his daily sports column.

He became ill again Monday night, and was stricken with a second major heart attack several hours later.

Hayes was born at Grand Prairie on Oct. 16, 1898 to Mr. and Mrs. Mason P. Hayes, a pioneer Dallas county couple. He married Miss Gladys Smith in 1921.

Other survivors include a daughter, Mrs. W. K. Edwards of Dallas, a sister, Mrs. H. C. Wain of Dallas; a brother, Robert M. Hayes of Tyler, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were not immediately announced.

partnership was good for tax purposes. The tax commissioner told him that the daughters owed the IRS another $9,801 because of the judge's ruling.

The daughters paid again and then appealed to Judge Davidson who has ruled in their favor.

VICTORY—Rep. Olin E. Teague (D-Tex.) scored a victory when the House passed legislation to modernize the veterans' pension system. Teague heads the House Veterans' Affairs Committee.

Prospects Of Veteran Home Plans Brighter

By EDWARD COWAN
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Veter- prospects for getting home have brightened since a piece of housing legislation begun to take hold.

The bill, signed by President Eisenhower June 30, authorized a lower interest rate on loans guaranteed by the Veterans Administration and gave the agency 100 million dollars for direct home loans.

A boss Sumner G. Whitaker, receiving the bill's authority on June 2, lifted the maximum allowable interest rate from 4% per cent to 3 1/2 per cent. It was expected that this would make GI loans more attractive to lenders, hence make it easier for the buying veterans to get them.

Whitaker, who was named to the job in 1955, accounted for 8 per cent of a record number of new houses. By the first four months of 1959 it accounted for 8 per cent.

Discounts Had Swollen
Discounts, which vary directly with tightness in money markets, had swollen to nearly 10 per cent in some areas. This meant that lenders were forced to trim their profits or to pack their prices. Or they did both.

With the 4 1/2 per cent interest rate, discounts are expected to shrink. Both builders and home buyers should benefit.

Some observers pointed out that a higher interest rate did not mean that what may be a major problem later this year—too much competition for housing funds in other sectors of the economy. Business, consumer and local government borrowing is picking up, and the pressure on credit markets is mounting.

VA officials expect the guarantee program to bring in enough new business to require expansion of staff in some of the agency's 65 offices.

former servicemen about to buy a house, however, it meant an end to stalling by lenders who wanted to close the loan at the higher rate.
These veterans presumably got their loans. But they also will be paying more in monthly charges. For a veteran, buying a home with a 25-year, $15,000 mortgage, monthly costs will go up $4.25 by virtue of the half-point interest rate hike.

The 100 million dollars for the direct loan program is expected to help the VA whittle down a backlog of 55,000 applications. The loans are available only to persons living in rural and farm areas where it is especially difficult to get private financing.

Of 3,075 counties in the United States, 2,466 are fully eligible for the direct loans and 271 are partly eligible.

But VA officials will try to help applicants find private lenders before they agree to a direct loan. The loans run for a maximum of 30 years and up to $13,500.

The Almanac

Today is Thursday, July 9, the 191st day of the year, with 173 more days to follow in 1959. The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The evening stars are Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter and Saturn. On this date in history:

In 1755, French and Indians defeated British and Americans under Gen. William Braddock near the present site of Pittsburgh.

In 1816, Argentina formally declared itself independent of Spain.

In 1819, Elias Howe, later to invent the sewing machine, was born.

In 1850, President Zachary Taylor died in the White House.

In 1924, Democrats nominated John W. Davis for the presidency in the 103rd ballot, breaking all records for the length of time taken to decide a political candidate.

In 1943, Allied forces invaded Italy.

Thought for today: The British statesman William Pitt said, "Where law ends, tyranny begins."

FRANCE REJECTS PROTEST

PARIS (UPI)—France Wednesday rejected Ghana's demand that she abandon her plan to conduct nuclear weapons tests in the Sahara Desert. Authorized sources replied that Sahara is French territory and also questioned Ghana's right to speak for the other African states.

PICTURE NEWS

REASON TO SMILE—General Randolph McC. Pate, commandant of the U. S. Marine Corps, smiled happily as he stood beside a 67-pound, 4-ounce kingfish he caught off Old Fort, New Providence Island, in the Bahamas. He caught it with medium tackle, and the kingfish has been entered in the Bahamas winter fishing tournament.

COMMAND PERFORMANCE—Portraits of ancient German emperors look down from their painted niches on a group of upside-down visitors in the city hall of Frankfurt, Germany. The performers are members of the Arabian gymnastics group, practicing walking on their hands for an appearance with a traveling circus. Many emperors were crowned in this room.

SITTING PRETTY—A girl who's really on the ball is shapely Sharon Kaplan, who's brightening the landscape at Miami Beach, Fla. Sharon's straw skimmer tilted at a rakish angle adds to the snappy effect of the local scenery.

SHAPE AHOY—Playing the part of a pirate looks like a great idea as long as Martha Rae Williams is around in her buccaneer costume. A belle from Myrtle Beach, S. C., Martha's already captured a slew of assorted beauty titles. Here, she adds to the scenic quality of Greenfield Lake, Wilmington, N.C.

WHOLE IN ONE—Unlimbering a new one-pound idea in golf "bags," Cheri Kirk is getting on the ball at a course in Queens, N. Y. The carrier is simply an aluminum shaft with shepherd's crook handle and two discs of plastic. A flexible type, the discs hold eight clubs and three balls without rattling. The lightweight device can be "parked" upright by sticking its pointed end in the ground.

BEATING RECORD—University of Southern California freshman Dallas Long puts the shot 63 feet, 7 inches during a meet with UCLA in Westwood, Calif. Long's mark exceeded the existing world record of 63 feet, 2 inches held by Parry O'Brien. Long made throws of better than 61 feet in seven of his attempts at the meet.

STILL HUNGRY—After he won the title of "Northwest Grand Champion Smelt Eater" in Troutdale, Ore., Wilbur M. Mackey tackled a hot dog and some coffee. The 27-year-old eating champ, from Kelso, Wash., ate 84 of the small fish, but even they amounted to seven pounds.

GOOD FUN—Indian manager Joe Gordon (center) is rushing past an umpire in pursuit of Pedro Ramos, who's being pushed back by teammate Julio Becquer (29). The seventh inning of a Washington-Cleveland game was broken up in Cleveland, Ohio, when Indian centerfielder Jim Piersall and Ramos got into a fight that resulted in both teams mixing it up.

COASTING—Youngsters at the famed resort of Cortina D'Ampezzo, Italy, don't seem to need skis or sleds to enjoy that snow. They're frolicking at the end of a school day, and taking advantage of all the snow still on the ground.

BIG TRIP IN SMALL BOAT—While en route to the Gulf of Mexico in a small German-made boat with an outboard motor, U. S. Air Force Lt. Col. Leonard S. Flo docked at La Crosse, Wis. On a 33-day leave from Biggs Air Force Base in Texas, Flo started from St. Paul, Minn.

TOO LATE NOW—British heavyweight Brian London (left) is getting some good but late advice from former champ Jack Dempsey in New York. London's try for the heavyweight crown of Floyd Patterson was halted by the champ via kayo on May 1 in Indianapolis, Ind.

OFF THEY GO!—Small craft of every kind made this pretty picture on San Francisco Bay as they paraded before a backdrop of the Golden Gate Bridge on the opening day of the local yachting season. More than 100 vessels participated in this parade.

GOOD TURN—National water-ski champion Nancie Ridgout, 20, is throwing up a wall of spray as she goes into a tight turn on a single ski at Laguna Beach, Calif. She's on a nationwide sports show tour to demonstrate and explain her specialty in this manner.

Don't Ban Oven Meals In Hot Weather: Plan Wisely During Cool Early Hours

There's no need to ban oven meals during warm weather. With wise selection and good planning, your family's favorite oven entrees can be ideal choices for summer dining.

Another rapid baking main dish is Smoky Cheese and Rice Bake. Smoky link sausages in this case

Meats that can be prepared ahead are also a good idea for summer cooking. Spicy Meat Loaves, elongated loaves to be sliced and served on rolls or party rye bread, fall into this group. Serve the sliced meat loaf cold, or quickly reheat the loaves just before serving. Spaghetti sauce mix is the surprise ingredient that favors the loaves so tastefully.

Out On Trail Ham-Pineapple Pancakes Are Camp Cook's Pride And Joy

Out on the trail the first meal of the day must keep campers on the go until noon. Ham Quick Pineapple Pancakes are a camp cook's pride and joy. They are easy to prepare, satisfying and delicious.

The tasty canned ham sticks are fully cooked just as they come from the can. They must be put into the skillet to heat and brown while the hot cakes are cooking. The pancakes, whether made yourself or prepared from a package, should contain pineapple juice as part of the liquid for full flavor. Warm, crushed pineapple makes a delightful topping for the meat and pancakes.

Whether the outing is just overnight or for a week at a time, canned foods, especially canned meats, solve many a family's real-time problem. The handy cans are compact to carry and the food requires little campsite preparation. Refrigeration is not necessary as long as the containers are unopened.

Canned meats also may be used as the basis for hearty and delicious main dish meals in the woods. A Ham Quick-Potato Scramble is one such dish. The potatoes are cooked with condensed cream of mushroom soup, onion, seasonings and pickle relish. The meat is added during the last five minutes of cooking. Roughing it is a pleasure when good food is in sight.

While you're out on the beach (left) or at the pool or in the back yard getting a beautiful tan, remember that your hair is exposed to the sun, too. It needs daily care if it is not to become dry and brittle. This girl (center) uses a shampoo that contains lanolin. It's also designed to encourage the hair to curl. Once it's shampooed in, it's left on the hair for five minutes before rinsing. This girl uses a touch of cologne in her final rinse water so that when she combs out her hair (right), it has a lovely scent as well as soft and natural wave. From time to time she will also brush a greaseless cream into hair.

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Would you let a daughter of yours marry a truck driver? My daughter has a weakness for truck drivers but I want her to find a nice local boy. This is the third truck driver she has gone with and this time she wants to get married. This coming and going and sleeping days and driving nights doesn't strike me as much of a life. Will you please help me decide if I should let her marry this guy? As long as she is living under my roof she has to do as I say. She is 27 years old.

MRS. D.
DEAR MRS. D.: Truck drivers as a rule are a responsible, sober, hard working lot. If your daughter knows him and his background well enough there's no reason why they can't be very happy.

DEAR ABBY: I am in a terrible mess. When I was six months pregnant (unmarried) I went to my sister's house and stayed with her and my brother-in-law as I was desperate. No one knew of my condition but then, I went to the hospital and used her name and had my baby. I told my sister she could have my baby (she can't have any of her own) but now the baby's father has come around and he wants to marry me and we want our baby. My sister and brother-in-law say they will fight me in court. Since I used her name in the hospital can she keep my baby?

DESPERATE
DEAR DESPERATE: If you cannot afford to hire a lawyer, go to your local LEGAL AID SOCIETY. They will help you.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 28-year-old man who is married to a girl who is "married" to her mother. We've been married three years, but I am afraid unless she quits running to her mother we won't stay married much longer. She was born with a silver spoon in her mouth and her mother gives her everything she wants. Her mother is a widow and my wife is the only child. She tells her mother everything (and I do mean everything). When my wife gets the blues she'll go spend the night with her mother. Please tell me what to do.

ANDY
DEAR ANDY: It's not the "silver spoon" you have to worry about. It's the "silver cord". Your wife is immature, and her mother hasn't encouraged her to grow up. She should leave her mother long enough to visit a marriage counselor with you.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a great one for noticing the good points of all the other girls he sees. He notices in one minute if

JUST one appetizing way to take advantage of a market full of turkeys: Brunswick robbie stew; served with hot garlic bread.

For That Special Turkey Feast, Try Gobble Stew

By GAYNOR MADDOX NEA Food and Markets Editor

According to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, turkeys in the size best suited for home consumption will be in plentiful supply for many months. The small, tender-meated, fryer-roaster type turkeys, ideal for barbecuing, ranging in size from 4 1/2 to 9 pounds will be the most plentiful of all.

The larger, new crop birds, ranging from 10 to 14 pounds, also will be in plentiful supply. Although the supply of large turkeys is not large right now, it will be later in the summer.

Quarter turkey roasts are now available and will be even more plentiful as larger turkeys mature. The housewife may select either a leg or breast quarter, ranging from 4 to 6 pounds. These provide a one-meal portion of turkey meat, at an economy price, that can be roasted or used in other ways. Also packaged turkey parts, such as legs, wings, etc., are becoming popular as consumers learn how convenient, practical and economical they are.

BRUNSWICK GOBBLE STEW (Makes 4 quarts or 16 8-ounce cups)

One fryer-roaster turkey, about 6 pounds, ready-to-cook, weight, whole or cut up; 4 cups (1 quart) water; 4 teaspoons salt; 1 can (10 ounces) cream style corn; 2 medium onions, cut in quarters; 1 package (10 ounces) frozen okra, or 2 1/2 cups fresh; 1 package (10 ounces) frozen lima beans, or 2 cups fresh; 1 can (No. 2 1/2) tomatoes (about 3 1/2 cups); 1/2 pound bacon, ham or salt pork, cut in cubes; 1/2 teaspoon ground pepper; 1/2 teaspoon ground thyme; 1 can (4 ounces) mushrooms with juice or 1/2 pound fresh mushrooms, sliced and sauteed.

Place turkey, breast down, in large kettle. Add water and salt. Bring to a boil. Skim any broth from surface. Reduce heat, cover and simmer until meat is ready to come off the bones, about 2 hours. Discard bones and skin. Add remaining ingredients except mushrooms and simmer about 30 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add mushrooms (and juice if canned) are used about 5 minutes before serving. Allow just enough time to heat thoroughly. If necessary, add additional seasoning. Serve in hot bowls or soup plates.

Note: A large turkey may be cut up and cooked as directed. When white meat (breast section) is just fork-tender, remove and set aside for other menu items (cold meat platter, salad, sandwiches, a la king, etc.). Proceed to completed the gobbie stew with the remaining turkey meat as directed above.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Brunswick gobble stew, whole tomatoes, hot garlic bread, apple pie with cheese, coffee, tea, milk.

Pamper Hair To Sink Summer's Woes, Special Shampoo Locks In Waves

By ALICIA HART NEA Beauty Editor

For every beauty-conscious gal, dreams of summer pleasure are with nightmares of what to do about her hair.

Salt air and water, pool chemicals and overexposure to the sun often cause brittleness. And if you're the one out of every three American women who uses a tint or dye, you may find that discoloration has ten places, too.

Here are some tips from a leading authority on hair care that will help keep your hair healthy, shiny and manageable during the hot months.

It's preferable to cover your hair while in the sun or water, but if you don't want to do it, daily brush strokes should be used faithfully to control brittleness. Brushing brings the natural oils down to the hair tips and stimulates the scalp.

Daily massage with the fingertips will bring out the hair oils that give tone and luster to the hair.

Never let salt water or chlorinated water dry on the hair. They should be thoroughly washed out as soon as possible. Don't worry about frequent washings. They are not harmful to the hair.

Select a shampoo that is rich in lanolin to combat dryness. And for most efficient results, use a spray attachment for rinsing.

Among the many shampoos containing lanolin, this year there's a new one available that is claimed by the makers to contain special proteins that hold hair in place.

Bulletins Available At County Office

Free bulletins are now available at the County Extension Office, Pampa. The office is in Pampa giving detailed instructions on the latest methods of preserving foods.

County Agent Lou Ella Patterson said persons may call, write or come by the office for bulletins on Frozen Foods, How to Freeze, How to Cook, Pickles and Relishes, Home Canning, Freezing Poultry, Canning Poultry, and How to Make Jams, Jellies and Preserves at home.

"Freezing is easier than canning," Miss Patterson said, "and frozen products are more like the fresh in many instances if properly done. But food gathered fresh and canned while at the peak of quality is excellent."

Simplicity is still the secret of a well-dressed woman. Even touches such as flowers must be controlled or they tend to overpower the wearer. Experiment to see where a simple bunch of flowers or artificial fruit will look best. If you have a pointed or squarish chin, place the piece slightly to one side.

A Night headpiece for summer evenings is a little tulle-like affair covered in green velvet and trimmed with red rosebuds. Most hair bars have them.

Couple May Chuck Acting To Settle Down In New England

HOLLYWOOD
By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Irrepressible Mike O'Shea and his wife, Virginia Mayo, are on the verge of foregoing their acting careers to settle down in New England.

"We're gonna do the Diane Varsi bit," Mike announced during lunch.

"Maybe she'll ask us to join her out in Vermont. We're fed up with Hollywood and everything about it."

Blonde Virginia nodded agreement. "Southern California has changed," she said. "It's hotter out here than it used to be and the traffic is terrible, not to mention smog."

"Show business and the movies have gone to pot, too," Mike added. "We both want out. Everyone in this town is afraid, I want to go into a business where you don't have to knuckle down to anyone and where you can speak the truth."

Like To Be Cop
"I'd like to become a cop on the rockbound coast of Maine," O'Shea reached over and pinched his wife on the nose.

"That Varsi girl is no fool," he continued. "She wants her baby to grow up in a healthy atmosphere."

"Look at our kid, Mary. She's only 5½ and already she's talking show biz all the time. She'll probably change her name to Tony Seven or something by the time she's six. The kid is already topping my jokes. If she doesn't cut it out I'll send her to military school."

Virginia, who recently completed a starring role in "Jet Over The Atlantic," broke in to say the couple will barnstorm through the straw hat circuit this summer in Ohio, Michigan, Pennsylvania and Rhode Island.

Couple Co-Starring
"We're co-starring in 'Tunnel of Love,'" Mike explained, cutting his wife short. "She talked me into it against my better judgment. Now I find I have 50 pages to memorize and all she does is change costumes."

"Once we get back to the east coast we'll start looking around for a place to live," Virginia managed to say.

"Yeah," Mike filled in. "Someplace with lots of cool weather. I never could figure out why I lived in California. Every time I go out into the sun I break out in skin cancer."

"My doctor told me Irishmen can't live in sunny climates. He said we should all live in caves."

"If we don't find a nice place in New England we may go to Ireland."

People Pestering
"But no matter what, we gotta get out of Hollywood. For every actor in town there are 92 other people to drive you crazy while you're working. I used to hide out in my dressing room, but I was called a snob."

"So I tried to be friendly with the common people around the studios. But I don't like 'em—they're common. If you talk to women you're a wolf. If you talk to men you're a pansy. No sir, this is no place for the likes of O'Shea. Right?" he asked Virginia.

"Right," Virginia sighed.

CONT'NING—Mrs. Helen Lescher Besolo, mother of the late actor, George Reeves, is in Los Angeles to contest her son's will which left most of his estate to Toni Mannix, a woman Reeves accused of annoying him. Reeves, who played Superman on TV, apparently committed suicide.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas
A public service of the State Bar of Texas

No Will? Who Inherits Property?
What will happen if you should die without executing a legal and proper will? Who will inherit your property? Your husband, wife, mother, father, children, your wife's relatives? The best way you can say who will have it is to provide a will which will protect your rightful beneficiaries and dispose of your property in accordance with your wishes.

When a deceased has no will, or dies "intestate" as the law calls it, the property of that person is distributed according to a detailed formula fixed by law. In some cases this may be the way you yourself would divide it—but in many cases it is not.

The provisions of the law concerning the distribution of the property of a person who dies without a will are rather complicated, and all of the possibilities cannot be covered by a general statement.

There are different rules for real estate and for personal property, for community property and for separate property, for homestead property, and for all of the many possible combinations of surviving relatives. Each situation must be carefully studied to determine the correct distribution of the property.

For example, here is a general idea of how the community property which you and your spouse have accumulated will be divided if you do not make a will prior to your death.

If your husband or wife survives and there are no children, the surviving spouse receives all of the property.

If, in addition, there are surviving children or descendants of deceased children, they would divide one-half of the property, while the surviving spouse would receive the other one-half.

Of course, grandchildren do not share in the estate unless their parent who would inherit is deceased. And when descendants of previously deceased children do inherit, they receive only the portion that the child would have received, regardless of the number of such descendants.

An odd note, perhaps, is that the surviving spouse already owns one-half of the community estate prior to your death, and the law adds nothing to this share where there are children surviving.

When there are only children and their descendants surviving, they divide the entire community estate between them.

This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.

HELLISH GREETING
BAYTOWN, Tex. (UPI)—A neighbor presumed today that a slip of the pen accounted for the message she received from Mrs. Jack Bridges, who is attending a Baptist church meeting in New Mexico. The postcard read: "Everybody says hell. We miss you."

HOPES THEY'RE WRONG
MOBILE, Ala. (UPI)—Today is the Mobile Weather Bureau's annual picnic. The forecast is for scattered showers. "We'll hold it anyway and hope we're wrong," said Chief Forecaster Billy Tilson.

Here we go again... To believe or not to believe, that's the question. Yesterday morning we were guests along with a cluster of other local citizens at a sneak showing of the fine Patterson-Johansson fight films which our good friend Paul West has playing today through Saturday at the LaVista Theater.

The film puts you right between John Wayne and Bill Holden at ringside and the slow-motion close-ups of all seven third round knockdowns by the Swede in a mighty bewildered looking colored boy are something to behold.

Only once in the first round and twice in the second did Ingo sweep around with his high, right thunderbolt. But during the fatal third he rained both rights and lefts with cement-like solidness to the head of the former champion. There were no clinches in the short fight.

We have read with much blinking of eyeballs that Patterson has already been rated an 8-5 favorite by the bookies for a Sept. return engagement. Local boxing coach, Ollie Wilhelm, is convinced Patterson will reshape his style and whip the Swede in September.

After viewing the LaVista fight films, we'll have to shudder away from any bets on the Ingo-Floyd September Song.

Once through the wringer is quite enough. Thank you!

Alton Burns European Cinders

Pampa's Alton Thygeron, the little fellow who held a monopoly on the 1958 District 3 AAAA sprint events and was a state champ in both the 100 and 220 dashes, is currently in the midst of a dozen track meet European schedule with his Brigham Young University teammates.

In his first two meets in Sweden, the human blur won the 100 meter race and ran a leg on the medley relay BYU team that snatched a pair of firsts.

In Oslo, Norway, Monday night on the Olympic Biulet Stadium a sophomore at the famed Mormon school in Utah finished third in the 200 meter race behind teammate Dick Millet's 21.9 timing. Norway's Carl Bung was second.

Other places Alton will pick 'em up and put 'em down include Finland, Germany, France, Switzerland, England and Denmark. He'll return the first of August.

Brigham Young track coach Clarence Robinson thinks this of the Pampa whirlwind: His style is so faultlessly smooth, it looks as if he's just coasting down to the center drug to get a sand-with. Never a facial expression, no puffing nor gasping. It almost gives the impression he's loafing, but the stop watch always argues strongly against it. More over Mr. Morrow, another bright Texas track star from the Utah horizon.

Three Remain For Rebels

Pampa's American Legion Rebels, conference kingspin at the moment with a sparkling 6-1 record, have three games remaining in loop play and two are with troublesome Berger and dangerous Palo Duro, both knotted with 5-2 marks in second place.

The Rebs tackle Palo Duro in the 8 p.m. nightcap of a Saturday double-bill in Amarillo's spacious Potter County 8 x 4 d m. Berger goes against Amarillo in a 5 p.m. twilight affair.

The Palo Duro outfit clubbed Pampa, 13-8, in Amarillo earlier while losing twice here, 7-5 and 7-6. Berger, which holds two lopsided wins over the locals one in exhibition, dropped a pair in Amarillo last weekend, 10-4 to Tascosa and 7-4 to Palo Duro, despite committing the Duro 12-6 and making three errors in the winner's five.

Ollie Norris of Cactus writes asking for Pampa softball teams interested in competing in the Aug. 3-8 Men's Invitational Tournament to write him quick; Box 432 in Cactus. First 12 teams to enter will be accepted for the single elimination (will play consolation round) affair. Entrance fee of $12, with not over 35-man roster accepted.

Lemme tell ya for the last time, put that long green on them-Pampa-owned bantails at Raton's La Mesa Park.

Last weekend, two more finished first. Friday it was Leo Me, a 7-year-old gelding of the C. E. Sarvis stable doing a neat 1:27 and two-fifths in the seven-furlong No. 7 race and returning a handsome $20.40, $8.40 and $4.10 at the pay window.

Sunday it was an old favorite of ours, Chester Salern of the E. L. Holmes stable finishing first in the 400-yard No. 3 race in 20.9 seconds. The 5-year-old mare paid its backers a tidy $14.50, $6.80 and $5.00.

Happy Gil Burgund has beautifully redone his Garden Lanes and is holding open house on Saturdays with 100-silver-dollar and free bowling from 3:30 p.m. beneath 15-ton of air conditioning being offered.

And then there's the common sense penalty for bigamy: two mothers-in-law.

BY BASEBALL MEN

THIRD LEAGUE FAVORED

By OSCAR FRALEY United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—Baseball's brightest brains seemed to agree today with less than the expected number of dissenters that a third major league is inevitable—but is farther away than the current 1961 target date.

There are, according to those most interested, two major hurdles which must be surmounted. One is obtaining the talent to staff another major league and the second is the building of suitable stadiums.

It is generally agreed that for a period of several years the new "major league" simply will be a triple A league masquerading as a fit companion for the American and National Leagues.

Baseball men attending the major league All-Star game made it clear that they aren't greeting the third loop with the sneering disdain which led to the pro football war a few years back between the established National League and the upstart All-America conference. The NFL arrogantly told the AAC to "go get a football." It was war to the hilt which cost everybody money before the final absorption.

Time For Expansion Major leaguers agree that it is time for expansion. They would prefer to add two clubs to both leagues and yet flinch from this, too, because of the general overall lessening in the quality of their product.

There can be no question but what the new teams are going to be inferior, even if the current leagues reduce the number of players on their rosters and on their reserve lists. There are plenty of ball players but there aren't plenty of big leaguers.

You don't have to go any farther than such places as Washington, Philadelphia or Kansas City to name a few "major league" teams, to prove the point. If the players were available, these teams would be stronger. Call them "pinch penny" and other miserly adjectives, but even the most avicious owners know that they can make more money by fielding a winner.

Hutchinson In As Reds' Manager

Mayo Smith Ousted; Has No Comment

FREDDIE HUTCHINSON ... In there swinging as Reds' Pilot

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI) Lantern-jawed Freddie Hutchinson, who thinks the Cincinnati Reds are a "good" team that "hasn't jelled," replaced Mayo Smith as manager of the Reds today in a move that everybody been expecting for days.

The "open secret" that Smith was out and Hutchinson in was officially confirmed Wednesday night when general manager Cobe Paul of the Reds announced the switch.

The change had been widely predicted for days and became virtual certainty when the mannered Smith, who had been the Reds' pilot only since Sept. 29, failed to show up at meetings of big league officials that accompanied Tuesday's Star game.

"There's nothing to say," commented Smith when he got bad news in nearby Fort Thomas, Ky. "That's the way baseball is."

Hutchinson, who formerly managed the Detroit Tigers and St. Louis Cardinals, left his post as manager of the last-place Atlanta Braves of the Pacific Coast League but took over the seven place Reds. He was due to arrive here by plane early today and to be at the helm when the Reds clash with the San Francisco Giants tonight.

"I know the ball club," Hutchinson in Seattle, recall that he had been manager of the Cardinals for three years until the end of last season and therefore was familiar with most National League players.

"I would like to see it for a few days before making any statements," Hutchinson added. "I'm a good club, but it hasn't got its pitching and hitting together in short, it hasn't jelled."

Hutchinson said he "hated" to leave the Seattle club in mid-June, but said the Cincinnati job was a break he couldn't pass up. "Once you've been in the leagues," he said, "it's a lure of a challenge you always want."

Hutchinson, now 40, was a star pitcher with the Detroit Tigers his heyday and became known as an astute handler of pitchers to the end of 1954 (highest finish place) and as a pilot of Cards from 1956 until replaced by Solly Hemus last Sept. 17 (highest finish second place).

Pitching is one of the reasons for the Reds' current low estate. Logan Due Back MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI) Milwaukee manager Fred Hanan said Wednesday he expected to stop Johnny Logan back in the lineup within a week. Logan was spiked on the right ankle during a game with the Chicago Cubs June 23.

'Steamboat' Wrestles Here Saturday Night

Sam Steamboat, a protege of world champion Lou Thesz, will make his first appearance in Pampa Saturday, at Top of Texas Sportsmen's Club.

The colorful wrestler with the flashy name will have a tough opponent to make his Pampa debut against—Doug (Iron Jaw) Donovan. This match will be half a double main event, which also includes a return match between Nick Roberts and Sonny Myers.

The Steamboat will have to go full steam ahead, using every bit of savvy and ring knowledge he learned from the mighty Thesz, to stop the rugged Donovan.

Plenty of steam will also probably be generated in the other half of the main event, when the popular Myers clashes with "Wild Man" Roberts, in a return bout.

Neither wrestler was entirely satisfied with the results last night (Roberts is never satisfied if his opponent walks out of the ring). Both would like to take a decisive, clear-cut decision this time.

Myers is one of the ring's foremost tilters of "wild men" and other wrestlers who like to win by hook or crook—monthly crooked as Art Nelson can testify. The Bury and unscrupulous Canadian recently lost three out of four matches to Myers.

Roberts, though, is determined that no such thing will happen to him. The Roberts - Myers match and the Steamboat - Donovan bout will both be two out of three falls, one hour time limit. The first match begins at 8:30 p.m. Since this is a double main event, there will be no preliminaries.

The matches are promoted by Doc Miller and sponsored by Pampa Shrine Club. Advance tickets are on sale at Levine's Department Store. Prices are $1.00 for ringside, $1.25 for reserved seats, and $1.00 for general admission.

KNICKS SIGN GREEN NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Knickerbockers have signed Johnny Green, Michigan State scoring and rebounding star, to a 1959-60 National Basketball Assn. contract. Green was the Knicks' top draft choice this year.

Los Angeles (UPI)—Jose Becerra, 23-year-old two-handed puncher from Guadalajara, today was Mexico's authentic hero for his eighth round knockout Wednesday night over Alphonse Halimi of France that brought him and his country the bantamweight championship.

Mexican pride had been injured by the defeat of its former bantamweight idol, Raul (Raton) Macias in Halimi's first title defense here 18 months ago. But Becerra avenged that defeat by knocking out the champion in 2:02 of the eighth round.

It was a clear-cut, clean victory in which Halimi was flat on his back, face up, as referee Tommy Hart tolled the full count. Earlier in the round the French Algerian had gone down for a four count that signaled the end was near.

Halimi went in at 117, and Becerra at 117 1/2 for the title bout in the new Los Angeles Memorial Sports Arena.

It was sweet revenge for Becerra. The bronzed challenger had fought on the same Halimi-Macias card and suffered a knockout by Dwight Hawkins after having been plunged into despair by the defeat of his idol.

Becerra recovered and went on to score 11 knockout victories for the right to challenge Halimi for the title. He did what Macias, now retired, could not do—nor any other boxer—the knockout Halimi—down and then put him out for the count.

"I hit him with a good right to the body in the seventh," Becerra revealed after the bout. "And I could see his legs were folding. I knew I had him then."

It was a right and left hook combination that finally put Halimi away in the eighth.

The dethroned French Algerian champion, who earned $65,000, was assured of a rematch within 90 days—either in Paris or in Los Angeles. But for the time Becerra basked in the glory of the championship, although he earned only a "paltry" $20,000 for taking the title.

The bout officially opened the new Sports Arena before a crowd of 13,110 and a national television audience. The gate was $181,151.

BECERRA KO'ES HALIMI FOR BANTAM CROWN

CLUB OWNERS TO DISCUSS AID TO MINOR LEAGUES

CHICAGO (UPI)—American and National League club owners will discuss two major problems, aid to the minor leagues and inter-league trades, today prior to a joint meeting in an attempt to settle both issues Friday.

Inter-league trades without approvals already has been approved for a one-year trial period, from Nov. 23 to Dec. 15 this year, but Commissioner Ford Frick has expressed disapproval of the idea and requested reconsideration of the matter.

It appeared that the only concrete action which might come out of the joint meeting would be to repeat or reapprove the trading issue. Approval of the proposal at the winter meeting was by a close margin and a shift in position by two or three clubs could bring about repeal.

National League sentiment, it was believed, favored repeal of the plan on the grounds that "we ought to keep our own strength in our own league," while American League owners were believed to favor the new plan as "worth a try."

Baseball rules in the past have prohibited inter-league trading of any player unless all clubs in the league from which he was being traded agreed on him. The new rule would allow trades without such waivers.

Aid to the minor leagues will get a thorough going-over, but probably the joint meeting will appoint a committee to study the matter and recommend future legislation.

Currently there are two funds to aid the minors, one of $500,000 under the administration of former club executive Bill De Witt and the second administered by George Trautman, president of the National Assn. of Professional Baseball Leagues. The latter fund, however, can be expended only upon application on the basis of need by a minor league team.

There was sure to be discussion of the third major league, but the subject was not on the agenda of either league meeting or the joint meeting, and representatives of the new group were not expected to make an official appearance.

Jordan, Moyer In Title Bout

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI)—Welterweight champion, Don Jerdah, was a 12-4 favorite today to whip 19-year-old Danny Moyer in their scheduled 15-round scrap in the great outdoors here Friday at sundown.

Jordan, putting his title on the line against a youngster who never has known defeat, is the solid choice in the nationally televised bout which will attract 8,000 fans to Portland Meadows race track.

Because Portland is on standard time, the fight will get under way at 6 p.m. in daylight.

The two fighters wound up their training Wednesday and today just went through light limbering up exercises.

Jordan, who successfully defended his crown against former champion Virgil Atkins in his last outing, has been sharp in training and his punching has been stiffer than that of young Moyer.

Moyer, managed by Sid Flaherty, is unbeaten in 20 fights, all except one in the West—in a big TV conquest in New York City, he whipped Gaspar Ortega to win the shot at the crown.

Both are confident of victory—without being boastful.

Baytown Net Star Leads Jaycee Meet

MIDLAND (UPI)—Top-seeded Jerry Walters of Baytown, runner up last year in the AAAA division, led the way into the second round of the State Jaycee Tennis tournament today.

Most seeded players and favorites eased their way through the first round of the four-day double elimination classic. There were over 60 singles matches. The only upset, although it was by no means a major one, was the defeat of Kenny Gledewater, AAA doubles champ last year. He lost to Geiler Kaufman of Junction, singles champ last year in U.S.A. division.

MAY BE SOME TRUTH IN STORY OF TUGBUTTON

WASHINGTON WINDOW
By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Coat tails flying and hat askew, the Hon. Timothy Tugbutton stormed into the office this week in no uncertain mood.

The Hon. Timothy was angry, almost mad. He kicked a copy boy, broke a chair and when he spat he missed on purpose the office spittoon.

This unusual behavior was accompanied by an arm-waving harangue spiced with cuss words and considerable stamping of the feet.

"It ain't fair," Tugbutton shouted. "It ain't honest. That's what it ain't," he continued, "and all them bums ought to be put in jail. That's where they ought to be put."

By now the office beauty, a Miss Ohliger, was up and ministering to the harried man, she being a sympathetic type woman who should have calmed Tugbutton on her looks alone.

"Bums!" Tugbutton persisted. "What bums?" an old timer interceded.

"What bums?" screamed Tugbutton. "What other bums are there except the politicians?"

Political Bums
"Well, since you ask," the old timer replied, "there are the Los Angeles Dodgers and, of course, until recently, the Yankees."

"Mebbe so," Tugbutton conceded. "But the bums I have in mind are the political bums who have scammed the people out of their honest money and who will scam them some more if they ain't put in jail."

Miss Ohliger whomped up black coffee in this time of crisis and Tugbutton paused to gulp. The coffee had a calming effect. The old gentleman ruffled his white fringes of hair, sweetened the atmosphere with an embarrassed little smile and began to explain.

"I was just to the bank," said Tugbutton, and he was about to proceed with a calm exposition of his woes when they again overcame him. Kicking the shin of a passing copy reader, Tugbutton knotted his fists, became red and proceeded with a calm exposition of his woes when they again overcame him. Kicking the shin of a passing copy reader, Tugbutton knotted his fists, became red in the face and shouted:

"Bums."

Finally unfolded, it was a sorry tale. The Hon. Timothy Tugbutton as befits his years and his position in the community, is blessed with a clutch of grandchildren, a runny nose lot, of whom he is very fond. Back there during the war and after, Tugbutton had regularly set aside a small chunk of his pension for U.S. savings bonds for the grandbabies' benefit.

Solemn Promise
The bonds were pretty things on pretty paper and they bore the solemn pledge of the government of the United States that they were good and sound. At the bank this week, Tugbutton had chased a Series 'E' bond of the face value of $100 for which he had laid out in the year 1945 precisely $75.

The bank gave him in exchange for his bond $112.40, that being the principal and interest accumulated in 14 years.

But inflation had been gnawing

Quotes In The News

United Press International

NEW YORK — Nobel prize winner Ralph Bunche, on the refusal by an all-white tennis club in Forest Hills, N.Y., to admit him and his son to membership because they are Negroes:

"Neither I nor my son regard it as a hardship or a humiliation. Rather, it is a discredit to the club itself."

HAMMOND, Ind. — Russian First Deputy Premier Frol Kozlov, on the dimensions of the American airfoil steak:

"I know you are a hospitable people, but I have one request. Could you please reduce the size of the beefsteaks? The helpings are too big."

at the U.S. dollar. Official government figures show that the dollar had bought 100 cents worth of groceries in 1945 now buys only 70 cents worth.

What set Tugbutton on fire was this: The $112.40 he got back was worth only $78.68 by 1945 standards. This means that, in terms of purchasing power, Uncle Sam short-changed him $33.72 on his promised return. It also means that Uncle Sam paid Tugbutton only $3.88 for, using his original $75 for 14 years.

That figures out a little more than 26 cents a year interest—or about one-third of one percent!

But inflation had been gnawing

MARGARET TRUMAN HASN'T SETTLED BACK

WOMAN'S VIEW
By GAY PAULEY,
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — Margaret Truman says she has "settled down, but not settled back."

The daughter of former President Harry Truman sat down to bring herself up to date for this reporter, six weeks after the birth of her second son, William Wallace.

"I asked her whether she was going to call quite to her acting and singing career, now that she and husband Clifton Daniel, Jr., have two small sons underfoot.

"Certainly not," said the 35-year-old Miss Truman. "I have not settled down, but I have not settled back. I start a tour in summer stock next month."

Some TV Work
"My career philosophy hasn't changed in the three years we've been married. I take things as they come... accept jobs if my husband approves. My husband and children come first."

She has done some television appearances since the second baby arrived, and August 3, at Nyack, N.Y., she will open a four-weeks tour of the straw hat circuit in the play, "The Happy Time."

"My cook and nurse can run things at the apartment," she said. "Clifton will be home at nights and I will be home on weekends."

Miss Truman proudly announced that older son Clifton two, named for his father, a New York Times news executive, "is talking a blue streak. He uses whole sentences. The other night I was fixing his supper and he kept yelling 'where's my scrambled egg?'"

Beats Time to Music
The older boy also shows some of the musical ability of his mama, a soprano, and his maternal grandfather, a piano player.

"He already beats time to music," said his mother. "Preferably hand music. New York is a wonderful place for him to grow up... there's at least one parade a week."

The younger boy, blond haired like his mother, now weighs nearly 10 pounds. Said Mrs. Truman: "if he's going to look like his father or baby arrived, and August 3, at Nyack, N.Y., she will open a four-

ONE OF THE 7 BIG BESTS CHEVROLET GIVES YOU OVER ANY CAR IN ITS FIELD

Take it, not from us, but from official results of this year's Mobilgas Economy Run: Chevy's pennypinching 6 delivers the most miles per gallon in its field. For a pair of these Chevrolet sixes with Powerglide walked away with the first two places in their class, getting the best mpg figure—a whopping 22.38—of any full-size car. And here are more expert, impartial opinions and on-the-record facts backing us up on Chevy's other six bests:

BEST BRAKES
In direct competitive tests of repeated stops from highway speeds, conducted by N.A.S.C.A.R., Chevrolet out-stopped both of the other leading low-priced cars—and why not? Chevy brakes are far larger, built with bonded linings, to help lengthen brake life by as much as 66%.

BEST ROOM
Official dimensions reported to A.M.A.I. make this clear. For example, Chevy front seat hip room is up to 5.9 inches wider than comparable cars.

BEST ENGINE
Every motor-magazine has given Chevrolet's standard and Corvette V8's unstinted praise. As SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED puts it: "Indeed this device is surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

BEST RIDE
MOTOR TREND magazine calls Chevy "the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." You'll be able to tell this yourself, instantly. And your Chevrolet dealer can tell you about a long list of other advantages besides these 7 big ones!

BEST TRADE-IN
Check the figures in any N.A.D.A.* Guide-Book. Chevrolet used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two."

BEST STYLE
It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, "a new high in daring styling."

Make sure you get the most for your money—visit your local authorized Chevrolet dealer!

Vanishing Dollar Power

The Census Bureau of the United States government is an agency full of confidence. Next year, this bureau is going to count up the number of people in the United States as required by the Constitution. At that time, we'll probably be able to put aside some of our present guests work on the numbers of persons who live in this community and the nation at large.

There is left about $2.72 per year for the family to spend. Now to get to the HIDDEN tax which we call inflation. In the past several years inflation has robbed us of about 45 percent of the purchasing power of every dollar. Therefore, the family that has left about $2.72, only has the purchasing power it would have had with about $1.92 real dollars.

Biblical Lessons Should Be Lessons For Today

Since we are so rapidly departing from virtue and integrity, it occurred to me that the warnings in Genesis 18:20-32 should be applicable to our condition today. Remember it reads: "And the Lord said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous; I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will not."

Fair Enough

Long's Cussin' Doesn't Mean That He's Crazy!

by WESTBROOK PEGLER

Governor Earl Long's uproarious retirement into a Calveston retreat for the ill-ease has been seized upon by his adversaries, even, apparently, by his nephew, Senator Russell Long, the son of the Kingfish, as proof of incapacity to rule the sovereign state of Louisiana.

Natural Law

In general, there are two types of laws. One is natural and evolved. The other is artificial and at best, questionable. Natural law inevitably relates to the principles of life as it is. It is not only important that we come to understand natural law, it is mandatory that we understand and live in accordance with it.

Artificial law appears to ignore individuals. Its area of operation is inevitably the group. It is not content with natural selection, natural processes in which persons in harmony with nature may thrive. Instead, artificial law pits itself against such individuals demanding conformity and even docility before its august pronouncements.

Lesson For Today

If we are to apply this lesson to our present society, it seems to me to mean that if we have a few men of integrity and righteousness we can still greatly reduce the misery and suffering that must follow violating God's laws as expressed in the Ten Commandments.

Socialite To Star In Jerry Lewis Movie

Woman To Woman
By MARY PRIME
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Dina Merrill is known around town as a socialite and member of the "best-dressed" list, but she is known to herself as a dramatic actress.

Born Nedenia Hutton, she is the daughter of a stockbroker, E. F. Hutton, and Mrs. Herbert S. May, formerly Merrifield. Post of the breakfast cereal family, Miss Merrill's stage name came from her nickname, "Denise," and a brother-in-law's first name.

He's Enthusiastic
"He's really — thank goodness — very enthusiastic," said "He grabs the theatrical section of the paper, before I do. And he sank his $300 savings in a play, 'Bonanza' when we were engaged."

FORMOSA STRAIT WAR, PUSH BUTTON AFFAIR

Foreign News Commentary
By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

The not war that breaks out from time to time over the Formosa Strait seems to be sort of a push-button affair, dependent during certain seasons of the year on whims of the weather and at others on the whims of the Communists.

Red Chinese mainland, and clashed over the Matsu islands with Nationalist pilots flying American-built Sabrejets.

The Nationalist report said it was a one-sided 3-0 victory for the Sabres.

ministers met in Geneva this year, there were predictions that the Reds would stage a diversionary maneuver somewhere. The Formosa area was one of the sites mentioned.

Present Red intentions still are vague. Last year's diversionary attacks against the Nationalist island outposts resulted in Oriental loss of face for the Reds because of decisive action by the U.S. Seventh Fleet. The Reds have no reason to believe the Seventh Fleet would not act just as decisively again.

The steel union was reported unwilling to agree to another strike. This report grew out of a meeting between David J. McDonald, United Steelworkers president, and Vice President Richard Nixon, McDonald said he told Nixon the negotiations have "gotten nowhere."

Pressure Suspected

Shortly after that Khrushchev's desire for a summit meeting chilled, and the speculation then being that he did so under pressure of the Chinese Reds who were irked because they had not been included in the summit invitation.

New Crash Pad Will Cushion Egg Traveling 55 MPH

The Lighter Side
By FRANK FLEAZER
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — They've got a crash pad now so absorbent it will stop an egg traveling 55 miles an hour without cracking it. And the question was, why won't this pad do the same thing for our skulls?

subcommittee said some of its members nearly got wrecked once in a test car equipped with a governor, when they needed some power and couldn't find it.

Rep. Kenneth A. Roberts (D-Aia.), the subcommittee chairman proposed to let the Bureau of Standards set up federal safety requirements for cars, covering such things as seat belts and padded instrument panels. And that's the direction in which the subcommittee seemed to be driving.

Suggests Road Tests

Rep. Abraham Miller (D-N.Y.) said he's heard of cases where a wheel fell off a new car, or the steering gear pulled out by the roots. His prescription was a law under which, as I got it, new cars couldn't be driven until road tested 100 miles. The subcommittee seemed to think Miller's law might be hard to apply.

Research Shows Effectiveness

Dr. Campbell, who comes from Denver, said AMA research shows that seat belts and safety padding in cars would prevent many of the 38,000 deaths and 5,000,000 injuries suffered each year.
