Steel Strike Looms As Negotiations Bog Down

Midnight Walkout Slated For U.S.

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Steel wage negotiators, facing the prospect of a nationwide strike at midnight, reconvened today in an atmosphere steeped in gloom.

Negotiations had reached a stalemate, with both sides blaming each other for the impasse.

The last ditch bargaining session began at 11:15 a.m. in the presidential suite at the Roosevelt Hotel. Earlier this morning, David J. McDonald, president of the United Steel workers of America, made a report to the union's 171 member wage policy committee, bringing them up to the minute on the bleak strike situation.

R. Conrad Cooper, industry's chief negotiator, told newsmen that the situation had not changed since Monday night.

Would you be willing to negotiate Wednesday if they pass the deadline tonight? Cooper was asked.

"Yes," he replied.

Thousands already have been laid off. Supply lines to the mills have been cut and fires being banked in preparation for the scheduled walkout by 500,000 basic steel workers who awaited only a formal strike call from a union committee assembled here.

Contract talks Monday were fruitless.

Industry and union negotiators planned further talks this morning in deference to a presidential request, but statements made when they reconvened Monday night indicated no change in their deadlocked positions and no hope of agreement.

Direct intervention by President Eisenhower seemed the only possibility of averting a strike, and there was no indication the President, who has twice forced resumption of the stalemate talks, planned such a move.

Stocks Reflect Pessimism

The general pessimism was reflected in the New York stock market. U.S. Steel shares fell 2 1/2 points Monday. Republic Steel was off 2 points and most other steel stocks fell a point or more.

The 500,000 steel workers affected would lose an estimated $2 million dollars a week in wages during a strike. Industry losses are estimated at 248 million dollars for each week.

United Steelworkers of America (USWA) President David J. McDonald said after Monday night's meeting that the industry "has refused even to consider" the union's proposal for contract settlement "and has made no counter offers."

He disclosed officially for the first time that the union is asking for a 15-cent-an-hour package increase for each year of a one, two or three year contract, with a continuation of its present cost-of-living "escalator" clause.

McDonald said such an increase "can be paid by the industry without any price increase. It would leave the wage cost of producing a ton of steel in 1959 below the level of 1957 or 1958."

ASC Explains Farmers' Loans

Gray county's ASC office reminded farmers today that their names must be shown correctly on warehouse receipts if they plan to obtain a Commodity Credit Corporation loan on their grain.

ASC Manager Evelyn Mason said the rancher's name must be entered on the receipt in the same way it is carried on ASC office records.

She added that lien waivers are required to be signed by all landlords, including cash leases, and by all persons having a recorded lien on the wheat crop.

Loan rates for commodities stored in Gray county are currently $1.82 per bushel of wheat, 80 cents per bushel of barley, 58 cents per bushel of oats, and $1.45 per hundredweight of grain sorghum.

The rate listed for wheat is the interim loan rate; the final rate will be announced later this month.

SENATOR HUBERT HUMPHREY
... eyeing presidency

Humphrey Seeks Demo Nomination

By WILLIAM THEIS
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota formally put himself in the contest for the Democratic presidential nomination today.

His entry came in simultaneous news conferences by Gov. Orville F. Freeman of Minnesota at St. Paul and Sen. Eugene F. McCarthy (D-Minn.) here. It was the first announced campaign for the presidency.

Although Humphrey was not present, McCarthy told newsmen that "he knows we are making the announcement and, of course, approves it." Freeman and McCarthy will be co-chairmen of the campaign organization.

McCarthy said Humphrey was ready to begin campaigning now to the extent that Senate duties permit and also was ready to compete in state presidential primaries.

Asked who appeared to be the toughest candidate to beat for the nomination, McCarthy said that now the pace is undoubtedly being set by Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.).

To a question about Humphrey's showing far back in public opinion polls, McCarthy conceded that his candidate has "got a long way to go" and said this was one of the reasons for the early start.

Asked how the campaign would be financed, McCarthy said it would be like previous campaigns. Then in a backhanded slap at Kennedy, son of a wealthy family, he said:

"I suppose I could be mean and say it will not be financed by his father."

McCarthy expressed the belief that Humphrey would "inherit much of the support of Adlai E. Stevenson if the 1952 and 1956 nominees would make himself entirely out" of the 1960 picture.

Id. Gov. Karl E. Rolness of Minnesota was named executive vice-chairman of the Humphrey movement. Campaign offices will be opened in St. Paul this week and later in other cities, the co-chairmen said.

The announcement came as no surprise and started no splurges by other Democratic presidential contenders. The 48-year-old Humphrey had indicated months ago he would make his decision on whether to become an active candidate about mid-summer.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), a front-runner among potential Democratic nominees, told a reporter the Humphrey camp's announcement would make no change in his plans to defer any formal declaration until about the end of the year.

McCarthy called a news conference in his Washington office with Freeman linked in by telephone to answer questions from his office in St. Paul.

"I believe, as does the governor," said McCarthy, "that Senator Humphrey is the best qualified candidate among the leaders of our party, and that he can most effectively carry the Democratic party position through the campaign to victory."

McCarthy said Humphrey's record on civil rights, agriculture, labor, small business, immigration and foreign affairs is "clear and candid."

Steel Industry, A Crippled Giant

By J. ROBERT SHUBERT
United Press International

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The nation's steel industry became a crippled giant today.

Across the country, mills which a month ago had reached post recession production peaks were engaged in the tedious and costly process of shutting down.

Only a break in deadlocked contract negotiations in New York could give steel makers a last minute reprieve from a nation-wide strike scheduled for midnight.

From Gary, Ind., East Chicago, Morrisville, Pa., Birmingham, Ala., as well as this steel capital, came reports of banking blast furnaces, sealing of coke ovens and cooling of open hearths. The skip cars which normally dump ore, limestone and coke into the top of blast furnaces were dumping only coke today. The coke will smolder under reduced heat until a contract settlement is reached.

A too-rapid shutdown could cost millions of dollars in damage. Too fast banking of blast furnaces, some of which cost as much as 45 million dollars each, could cause the brick linings to crack and crumble.

Thousands of miners who work in the captive pits for steel companies or in independent mines to supply the coal for coke were told to take "an extra week's vacation" without pay, or were furloughed.

Trainsmen who man the small connecting railroads also came under the shutdown orders, as did seamen on Great Lakes ore boats.

And with steel — the nation's economic lifeline — not flowing, practically all other business and industry sooner or later would be affected.

The effects of the impending strike became evident on the faces of merchants and city officials in the steel-making districts and, probably more than any others, the steel workers, themselves.

Business Slack Noted. Store owners and bartenders throughout Gary, East Chicago and South Chicago reported that their business volume had begun to feel the impact.

At the gates of U.S. Steel's Gary Works and South Works, Republic's South Chicago Works and at Youngstown Sheet and Tube's Indiana Harbor Works at East Chicago, anger and depression were reflected in workers' faces.

"What are we striking for?" one young worker asked. "We don't know what we're asking for and what we'll get." He asked not to be identified.

"Whatever the union asks for is all right with me," an older worker said.

Frustration and disgust were voiced by another worker.

PRESIDENT MANUEL URRUTIA
... raps Red Treason plot

Cuban Chiefs Point Finger At Commies

By FRANCIS L. MCCARTHY
United Press International

HAVAN (UPI) — President Manuel Urrutia Monday night accused the Communists of plotting "treason" in Cuba. The charge set the stage for an internal power struggle between right and left in Fidel Castro's revolutionary government.

It added up to new trouble for the regime already beset by disension in the armed forces and "national police and threatened by "counter-revolutionary" conspiracies being uncovered throughout the country.

Urrutia, who has been seething quietly at Communist tactics since the Castro revolution succeeded Jan. 1, went on television to denounce the Communist newspaper Hoy which had criticized him. He labeled it a "Soviet instrument in the cold war."

Urrutia said the Communists were doing "horrible damage to Cuba" by trying to create a second front against the United States and in favor of Russia.

His words were by far the harshest anyone in the Castro regime has used against the Communists. Premier Castro himself has refused to condemn them, saying only that he welcomed anyone who worked for his revolution.

But Urrutia insisted for the second time in two days, there were no differences between Castro and him. He said such reports were "counter-revolutionary."

Castro reserved his harshest words for the U.S. senators who have been taking information from Maj. Emilio Diaz Lans, former chief of the air force, who fled to the United States after charging there were Communists in the Cuban government.

Castro called the senators "political simpletons... who seek to put a premium on treason."

Urrutia agreed with Castro that Diaz Lans should be returned here for trial. He called the former air force chief a "despicable traitor." Diaz Lans was one of Castro's strongest supporters during the revolution.

The regime has launched an intensive campaign against what appears to be either a concerted nationwide plot or a series of conspiracies to overthrow the government.

Mattias Rodriguez Rivil, a lieutenant in the army of ousted Dictator Fulgencio Batista, was arrested with three other former soldiers in Pinal del Rio Monday on charges of counter-revolutionary activities.

Demand That Interest Ceiling Be Lifted Evokes Controversy

The demand of the Administration that the interest rate ceiling on long-term marketable government bonds be lifted has caused one of the most bitter, behind-the-scenes debates in many years. The President wants the authority to ignore the interest rate ceiling fixed by law and permit the interest rate on these long-term government bonds to be determined by whatever the money markets require. An indication of what will happen can be seen in the disclosure by the Treasury last week that it would pay an interest rate of 4.728 percent on a two billion dollar issue of one-year bills. This is the highest interest rate on any Treasury issue since 1920.

As most of you know, money is a very complex subject. One fellow said he could never keep any of it long enough to really study it. But, complex or non-complex, the fact remains that continued tampering with the interest rates as has been done by this Administration, will produce more inflation and more burden on the already sorely pressed taxpayers of this nation. There has been a great hue and cry about the devaluation of the dollar because of inflationary practices; yet, those who decry the inflationary trends support the proposed interest rate increases.

The fact of the matter is that money is like any other commodity. Those who are producing the daily needs of the citizens of this country utilize money in carrying on their businesses. When the price for that money is increased, it simply means that the producer of the products sold to the general public must, in turn, increase the price of the products he sells in order to absorb the additional cost of the money he has had to borrow.

This is inflation at work. Not only must the individual pay more for the products he needs in his daily living, but he must also assume a larger tax burden because of interest to be paid on the national debt increase. Between the years 1955 and 1958 the amount of money required from the taxpayers as interest on the public debt increased by several billions of dollars, simply because of increased interest rates.

Should the President be granted the authority to pay higher interest on long-term government obligations, it will follow as a matter of course that all interest rates will be increased on all transactions in lending agencies from the smallest to the largest. This could mean an accelerated period of curtailed activities, insofar as the expansion of the economy is concerned, and the complete control of the economy of this nation by those who control the big money. If this continues, the chances are the government will be called upon to step in and force the lowering of interest rates. Should the government do that, it would mean the listed personnel.

In fact, arguments have been made on the floor of the House that good retirement programs and higher salaries were necessary in order to retain military personnel. These retirement payments and the salaries are paid by the taxpayers of this nation. It does not seem quite "cricket" for those who have requested these additional benefits to utilize the information, the knowledge, and the friendships they have acquired during their service, to aid in the procurement of contracts — the cost of which must also be borne by the taxpayers.

Retired Military Personnel
You may watch for some fireworks in the present Committee investigation of the activities of certain retired military personnel presently employed by business concerns doing business with the government. The people generally are heartened by the long-needed investigation of the practices of military personnel who, upon retirement, obtain fat paying jobs with corporations and groups transacting business with the government. Some of the business runs into the billions of dollars.

Corporations feeding at this lush taxpayers' trough are headed, in some instances, by former high-ranking military personnel. In other instances, retired generals, admirals, colonels and others are employed by these corporations primarily because of their knowledge of how these government contracts are handled, their friends located in strategic positions, and their abilities to open doors that are closed to others. This nation has been very generous with the officers in the military — a great deal more generous than with en-

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Everyone is so sympathetic to innocent girls whose lives have been ruined by selfish no-good boys. What about innocent boys whose lives have been ruined by trampy, scheming girls?

Our son was an 18-year-old honor student who went to college on a scholarship. He was devoted in his religion and admired by all who knew him.

He had only one date (and he does not lie) with a girl of loose morals. She tricked him into marrying her by saying she was pregnant. Being an honorable boy, he married her. Our religion does not permit divorce. Is there any hope for him, or must he pay all his life for one foolish mistake?

HIS MOTHER: Your son paid dearly for one (if he does not lie) "foolish mistake." It is unfortunate that most modern parents impress on their daughters but not their sons the high price of low morals. If your son feels that he was "tricked" into marriage, he should not hesitate to take the matter to his clergyman.

DEAR ABBY: I was the hostess at a luncheon recently. One of my guests spoke out very strongly against our former president, Franklin Roosevelt.

I loved and respected this man. Should I have come out and defended him? I felt that since I was the hostess I should not have involved myself in an argument with one of my guests. But I felt like a hypocrite keeping quiet.

DEAR ABBY: I recently suggested to my husband that for some future anniversary gift I would like a larger diamond for my engagement ring and he hit the roof! He has a fit if I remove my ring for ten minutes to clean them. He figures once an engagement ring is put on a finger it should stay there forever. And the same goes for the wedding ring. Don't some people get bigger diamonds for their engagement rings later on? Or are they supposed to wear the ones their struggling husbands paid twenty dollars down and a dollar a week for until they die?

DEAR ABBY: Many husbands replace their wives' engagement diamonds with a larger one, but if your husband figures like I figure he figures, this won't cut any ice with him.

DEAR ABBY: When I was first married, six years ago I used to come home at night and my little dog would bark at me and my wife would bring me my slippers. Now, just six years later, when I come home at night, my dog brings me my slippers and my wife barks at me.

DEAR FRANK: What are you complaining about? You're still getting the same service.

CONFIDENTIAL TO ELSIE: A little "horse sense" can prevent many divorces; also some marriages. What's your hurry?

HERE'S a cool idea for hot weather from California, where they serve luscious Bartlett pears in delicately sliced wine.

Pears Prepared In Wine Make Cool Summer Dessert

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

As we drove by miles of Bartlett pear orchards in California, we stopped at ranch houses to ask for recipes for this creamy-fleshed fruit. They are in the national market from mid-July well into October. So have fun.

PEARS IN PORT
Peel ripe pears and put them into cold water to which you have added a little lemon juice. This keeps them from turning brown. Do not core them or remove the stems. Poach them in a syrup made of 3 cups water, 2 cups sugar and 1 cinnamon stick. Cool only until tender. Remove from the poaching liquid, place in a bowl and cool. Mash 2 boxes of thawed frozen raspberries and strain. Add 1/2 cup red port wine and pour over the pears. Place the pears in the refrigerator (add the cinnamon stick from the sugar syrup) and turn them occasionally so they become rosy. This may be done the day before. When ready to serve, whip cream and add enough port wine to color delicately pink. Pass pink whipped cream separately.

SUMMER ANTIPASTO
Serve Bartletts on a salad plate with a tart grapefruit dressing (use grapefruit juice with oil and seasonings), a few bits of meat and cheese, an olive or two. Call it a summer antipasto, a salad, a snack, or a lunch-in-itself.

TOMORROW'S DINNER: Broiled steak, scalloped potatoes and onions, corn and lima beans, enriched bread, butter or margarine, radishes and celery. California Bartletts in port, coffee, tea, milk.

Amuse You Club With Mrs. P. D. Moseley

Attending were Misses E. H. Snyder, John Jones, H. S. Wilbur Sr., Leslie Ward, J. L. Cleveland, J. M. Lindley, Helen Tepe, Charles Teas, Cecilia Hest, George Tubbs, Chas. Tubbs and guests Mrs. F. D. Teas and Mrs. L. S. Hardage.

Grandmother knew what she was doing when she used a foot bath of salts or baking soda. The warm water solution brings relief to tired, aching feet and also helps soften any rough spots. Keep your feet immersed for about three minutes.

McNEELY SPEAKS AT RED CROSS BREAKFAST

Water Safety is one of the big programs put on in Pampa, which Clifton McNeely, Summer Recreation and Water Safety Coordinator, told directors of the Pampa Red Cross Chapter this morning.

The 1959 program is the biggest yet, with 1,200 persons enrolled, according to McNeely. Water safety instruction is being offered by the Municipal, Marcus Sand-Country Club and Lefors.

McNeely commented that such training will cut down on accidents in tanks and other places where kids go to swim. "The fear of water is the main thing to be conquered in learning to swim," he added.

Board members viewed a film made by Clyde Dickerson, Water Safety chairman, at the Municipal Pool.

In other business, the board named James Massa chairman of a committee to work with the three local chapters of the American Contract Bridge League in a Red Cross fund raising. The League has set a $150,000 national goal for the Red Cross. The funds will be earmarked for disaster purposes.

Mrs. Frank W. Shotwell, executive secretary, discussed the Red Cross budget as submitted to the Ways and Means Committee of the United Fund.

E. B. Pemberton, First Aid chairman, reported that the Chapter has 24 First Aid instructors, all of whom have been equipped with mobile units for their cars.

John Gikas, Chapter chairman, announced that Euna Lee Moores has been nominated as secretary of the Panhandle Association of Red Cross Chapters.

Gikas also set up the program of board meetings for the coming year. The following assignments were made:

August - Association of Chapters, Bob Blackburn, Amarillo, guest speaker, Kay Fancher and Horace Prince in charge.

October - Fund, A. J. Carrubi Jr.

November - Junior Red Cross, Sam Beget.

December - Public Relations, Melvin T. Mumford, Amarillo.

January - Home Service, Euna Lee Moores.

February - First Aid, E. B. Pemberton.

Progress Being Made In Texas Session

By LOYD LARNABEE
United Press International
USTIN (UPI) - There was no break in the rock-solid outlook between the House and Senate over the 182 million dollar bill as the Texas Legislature got back in session today with a running out in its second special session.

Neither house was expected to vote in the session ends at midnight Thursday, and there is still appropriations bill to be passed out after the legislature adjourns on how much money it can spend.

The stalemate developed when the House killed the tax bill and the Senate appointed a conference committee to work out another agreement.

The Senate declined to do so, indicating the matter would be right where it is until the House decides to reverse its stand and reconsider the vote by which it killed the bill.

Rep. W. N. Woolsey of Corpus Christi said he planned to ask the speaker to give in today, the hostile House was not expected to grant his request.

The bill is unpopular because about 70 per cent of its potential revenue would come from selected sales taxes.

Temper Flare
Temper flared on the House on Monday and two lawmakers launched a bitter trade against Speaker Waggoner Carr, L. Gov. Ben Ramsey, president of the Senate, accusing them of blocking efforts to write an anti-tax measure.

Rep. Charles Hughes of Sherman said he learned through reliable sources that the Senate did appoint a conference committee as the house asked "at the best of Speaker Waggoner's ability."

The House voted $184 to kill the bill.

Jerry Sandler of Palestine said the Speaker saw fit to head off the 80 members of the House obstructionists because we did agree with him.

Whether a third special session necessary depends on the Senate, the Lieutenant-Governor and Speaker.

Hughes said "it is also obvious to the Speaker intends to fight a conference committee which he appointed. The only conclusion that I can draw is that he intends to obstruct any effort to write a tax bill this session."

5,500 Damage Suit Filed Here

A suit for $5,500 was filed today in district court by Alma Haynes, Pampa, against Mrs. T. T. McQuaid, Pampa, for damages arising out of a two-car accident here on Feb. 27.

Hot Box Discovered

A "hot box" on a Santa Fe freight car did no damage 1 1/2 miles from a railroad property, Pampa firemen reported. The hot box was discovered at 6:45 a.m. on a freight car stopped near the 1500 block on Ripley St.

Convicts

Two other demands reported made by the convicts included a protest against working with Negroes in the integrated mine and having to work on a Tennessee state holiday.

Food consisting of ham, eggs, cheese, fried pies and coffee was sent to the convicts and hostages on a coal car at the guarded entrance of the mine, where prison officials and state troopers, some armed with sub-machine guns, were standing.

Sending down the supper to the convicts "was one of the concessions I made, if you want to call it a concession," Patterson said.

The rest of the prison, which has a population of 704 convicts, was under tight guard. Two similar and adjacent mines, which also operate on a 24-hour shift, were closed because of the uprising.

It was the second major prison uprising in two months in Tennessee and the second here in 18 months.

YOU ARE SEEING DOUBLE—This is the way it looks when you pass a "double-bottom," two trailers hitched to a single tractor. In use in Western states for some time, the double units are being tried out on the New York Thruway, the first time they have been allowed on any of the East's toll roads. Specially equipped tractors hauling two trailers double payloads and cut expenses. Thruway authorities report few difficulties with the huge units and only scattered complaints from motorists.

INEXHAUSTIBLE CURIOSITY—Nine-year-old Clive Hall is half in and half out of a Hunter Mark I jet at Hove, England. A guard had to pull the adventurous youngster out of the exhaust vent. The plane was displayed for public inspection.

THE BIG PICTURE—This is an imaginary weather picture of the world, but the real thing may be hanging on classroom walls in the not-too-distant future. Prepared by the U.S. Weather Bureau, it is an artist's conception of how the world would look from a rocket 4,000 miles above Texas, showing various storm and cloud patterns over North America.

BRAZIL BEAUTY—Teresa Perseira, 18, is the daughter of a Brazilian diplomat stationed in Paris, France. She's playing the lead in a new movie, "Gypsy, My Love."

ON THE ROCKS—Dolores Michaels, leading lady in "War-1958," claims to be one of the last colorful figures in Hollywood. She and her husband were married on some rocks at Laguna Beach, Calif.

SOLID GOLD SARDINE—Famed French author-artist Jean Cocteau presented him by fishermen in Villefranche-Sur-Mer, France. Cocteau was given the memento for decorating the fishermen's chapel in the town.

HOTTER THAN THE REAL THING—James Stewart, center, and "interpreter" Glenn Corbett, right, sweat-out inspection of credentials in Arizona's Superstition mountains during filming of "The Mountain Road." Temperatures sizzle at 119 degrees as the wartime tale of a Chinese road is filmed. Men on the scene who "fought" the real road say movie is even tougher.

TOMORROW'S OCEAN LINER?—A giant helicopter, 300 feet long, powered by nuclear energy, may dash from the drawing board in artist's conception above. It's more than a flight of fancy, however. Preliminary studies for such a craft have just been completed for the Air Force by Bell Helicopter Corp., though there are no plans at present to build it. The projected behemoth would weigh half a million pounds, comes more than any copter in existence—and be able to carry troops, passengers or cargo on its many decks at over 200 miles per hour. Atom power could keep it aloft indefinitely, giving it virtually unlimited range.

READY FOR PLANTING—Testing uranium ore with a geiger counter, secretary Helen McCord plays rock gardener at the American Society for Metals, Cleveland, Ohio. The uranium is one of hundreds of specimens forming a novel "mineral garden" at the society's new offices.

BRINKMANSHIP—The first step would have been a long one if Charles Ziebarth, 40, Michigantown, Ind., had stepped out the left hand door instead of the right as his truck perched on the edge of the old Erie stone quarry following an accident. Ziebarth's truck collided with a car just west of Wabash, then skidded out of control to the edge of the quarry. The bottom is 80 feet straight down. Three outcroppings of rock, conveniently located, kept the truck from tumbling into the pit.

HUNDRED-TON SYMBOL—Representing man's mastery over metal, this lattice-like aluminum dome will cap the new offices of the American Society for Metals near Cleveland, Ohio. No covering will be laid on the 200,000 pounds of tubing. A "garden" of hundreds of mineral specimens will be the central feature of the piazza beneath the dome.

LOOKER—Oversized, square-shaped "stadium" sunglasses were designed to call attention to wearer's face and give extra face protection. They're shown in New York.

HIS MONTH TO HOWL—Kuchen von Joco ("Cookie") acts out National Hot Dog Month, July, in Santa Ana, Calif. The 2 1/2-month-old dachshund belongs to Jo and Colleen McCloskey of Balboa, Calif.

You poor citizens who've had the proboscis pressed lightly to the grind-stone all summer with nary a week in the mountains or visit to Aunt Matilda in Terre Haute, probably haven't even had time to notice that it's open season now on sports year books, brochures, pamphlets and their such worthy items.

If you'll just fear that well-sanded snout away from the front page headlines about Louisiana's aging Tarzan... Wild Man Earl Long, we'd like to impose on your kind hospitality to make mention of the first annual Pampa Baseball Year Book.

This is a dandy little blue-and-white covered book with red-and-white inside cover and the old standard black-and-white insides which offers in some 70 pages, fine five-by-line team pictures of all 27 Pampa boys baseball clubs, with names and positions of hundreds upon hundreds of players, plus an open letter on the local diamond program governed by the Pampa-Optimist Club. There's also pictures of all the league presidents, Optimist directors and of the unsung Opti Mrs. chiefs.

The '59 Pampa Baseball Year Book, should be a must for every local player and his parents. Distribution of copies began over the weekend by the Optimists. We might be prejudiced toward the book, having compiled and published it with our sidekick, Red Griggs.

Sweat may be dripping from your little red beak these humid July days, but already many little hands are busy putting together football magazines and brochures. It's less than two months you know until Babe Curfman's Harvesters pen their hoped-for comeback campaign in Wichita Falls against the defending state champs.

Ouch, ruined another perfect day with that reminder didn't we!

Langford, Lightest Aggie

At the moment we're laboring on a feature article for Ray Frank's sixth annual Panhandle Pigskin Preview. The West Texas State fireplug requested a story on the future for White Deer's defending Class A state championship team and a few side notes on last autumn's powerhouse.

Our Amarillo associates, Puff Powell and Eddie Mullins are authoring a High Plains Football Forecast Book, for which they asked both ours and stablemate Red Griggs' biographies. Man, they must really be aching for filler material.

Mr. Griggs, by the by, will be missing from these pages until July 27 or thereabouts. His nose was so grind-stone worn we had to allow him a couple weeks off. Wife Mary Ann and son Eddie, are trying to get Old Dad's nose back in shape in Indiana.

ROBERT LANGFORD
New Mexico griddler

You knew, of course, last fall Baylor was first again with its annual fall grid brochure. It is the desk a couple weeks ago, and like all the other Southwest conference Football Outlook pamphlets - released by each school, it is a splendid packet of eye-opening information.

The New Mexico State Football Guide side-stepped its way through the mails yesterday with Pampa's fine 1957 griddler, Robert Langford, listed as the No. 1 right halfback for the Aggies.

Listed at 160 pounds and standing 5-8 (the must be taller than that) Langford is one of 18 sophomores on the Aggie varsity and ranks as the lightest player among a 37-man roster. Average weight of the Las Cruces school's backfield is 201.1 while the line averages 201.5. Just how close can you get?

Of the 37 New Mexico State University players, 19 hail from Texas. Okay, Wilkinson, the governor grants you a pardon as the sole Texas football talent pot-raiser.

The guilty printer, of course, could only grin sheepishly. Anyway, it didn't look so bad in the middle of all that latin.

(Note: TCU's class of '59 will hold its 40th annual reunion next year. Time and place to be announced.)

There's much to be said for Lloyd Summers, Bill Ridgway and Deck-Woldt and the way they've brought their Pampa American Legion Rebels along in first place entering what could well be the title tilt at Berger Wednesday night. And, we'll have much more to say, if those hustling Rebs can shake the Berger jinx and bump off the Stars in Huber Park.

And then there was the guy who tried to pull the wool over his wife's eyes, but he used the wrong yarn.

Texan, Dentist Leading As Publix Meet Into 2nd Day

By GENE MEARINS
United Press International

DENVER (UPI) — Young Hal McCommas, short Texan with a long drawl, and Dr. Donald Keith, dentist from San Diego, Calif., were the surprise leaders today at the National Public Links golf tournament after the first 18 holes.

They toured the 6,617-yard course with 675 Monday, and figured to be among the leaders after today's final 18 holes of medal play. Par for the course is 71.

The 64 low scorers among the 60 entrants after today's rounds will qualify for match play, beginning Wednesday. The tournament ends Saturday.

McCommas, a petroleum engineer just out of the Army, was linked on a golf course in Dallas. His father, Harry, owns the Publix layout there and also a club pro.

Maguire, Samples In Top Flight

AMARILLO — Pampa golfers Hank Maguire and Rulo Samples shot their way into the championship flight of the Tri-State Senior Golf Tournament Monday at the Amarillo Country Club.

Maguire, the 30-man flight was Amarillo's J. R. Brown who carded a two-under par 68. Maguire with a 77 and Samples with a 78, both just made it under the wire.

Match play begins today and runs through Friday. At least one other local golfer, Mark Heath, entered in the annual Tri-State classic.

Kissee Ford Lays Claim To WL Crown

Kissee Ford wrapped up the Western Little League pennant in a neat package Monday night by sweeping both ends of a split double-header from Rotary Club, 15-6, and C. R. Hoover, 7-5.

Ronnie Pierce scattered nine hits for the win, his 4th in five decisions, while Roger Owens was shelled for 13 safeties to absorb the loss for Rotary. Pierce fanned eight and only walked one and aided his own cause with a solo homer, double and single. Owens also posted eight whiffs and walked five.

Leading hitters in the opener for Kissee Ford besides Pierce were Steve Molberg with a pair of two-baggers, Harlon Fesce and Gary Molberg, two singles each, and Johnny Curtis with a single.

For Rotary, Larry Daniels had a double and two singles while Jerry Garrison, J. Clark, Larry Stephens, Elinda and James Matheny all had singles.

Gary Molberg, a ten-year-old ace, fired a five-hitter for the nightcap win and his 4th tilt of the season.

The two wins gave Kissee Ford a fancy 11-2 record and cinched the flag as they have only to play Utility Oil Wednesday night and own a fat four game lead over second place One Bull Ranch and E. M. Keller, both with 6-3 records.

Kenneth Davis socked a homer, double and single to spark Kissee hitting in the late game while David Maker had a double and Johnny Curtis and Robert Dudley both had singles.

Brown was the losing hurler for Hoover despite helping his own cause with a long home run.

WHAZZIS, SATCHEL IS STILL PITCHING!

By JIM BROOKS
United Press International

BELOIT, Wis. (UPI) — The oldest active player in baseball-pitcher Satchel Paige — is dreaming of another shot at the major leagues.

That old black magician-of-the-mound, who has been pitching for more years than anyone can accurately estimate, is in fact playing more now than he did during the two preceding seasons when he worked for the Miami Marlins of the International League.

Satchel is barnstorming with a semi-pro outfit called the Cuban Giants. Dempsey Howland, owner of the 20th Century Enterprises in Beloit and Paige's manager, says the Giants have already played 53 games this year and that Satchel has played in all but two or three. The group has 120 games slated.

For Satchel it's a business, but not a happy one. He would rather be in the major leagues, where he tasted briefly some of the glory that could have been his in the 1920s and '30s had there been no color bars.

Paige thinks about another crack at the big time. "But if they want me," he says, "they'd have to pay me big money. I ain't going back for nothing."

He claims one American League team has been in touch with him and there's a chance he might be back up there before the season is out. And he can prove that they remember him "up there." Bill Veck, his old friend from Cleveland and later St. Louis, has sent Paige two new Chicago White Sox uniforms.

The old master, who reached the major leagues with Cleveland at a time when most baseball players are retiring, does not, of course, pitch full games.

But for two or three innings every night in "disorganized" baseball, Satchel is on the hill, mowing the fans and making good money.

"On base he is as much of a clown as he is on the mound," he talks to his coach, the umpire, the opposing ball players and the fans and still finds time to take giant strides down the path when he leads away from the bag.

As a pitcher, Paige still has talent. He uses a fast ball about one out of eight pitches. The remainder of the time he tosses one so slow that the umpire could go out to lunch on it — and changeups. The curves seem to baffie the boys in the small towns.

Off the field Satchel is a glum man. He sits quietly in the dug-out, talking to no one unless they ask him a question. Occasionally he wanders out to get a sip of water and then is often mobbed by fans from the old days who invariably ask, "Satchel, you remember me, don't you?"

Woodruff was the losing hurler and the top hitter for G-K Trucking with a perfect three-for-three plate performance.

Mike Wise limited Windsor to only one hit, a single by Coble, in hurling Paris to an 11-3 victory. Wise racked up 13 strikeouts along the way.

Larry Veale with a double and single and Prater, Wise and Gary Parrish with singles helped the onslaught.

ARMSTEAD FACES VAQUEZ
LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Paulie Armstead, California state lightweight champion, has agreed to meet Mauro Vazquez of Mexico in the feature bout of the annual fight for Lavea charity boxing show Thursday night. Armstead will replace Johnny Busso of New York, who suffered a back injury in training.

Braves 1-2 Punch KO's Failing Giants

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

That was the Braves' famed 1-2 punch that hit the Giants but even Casey Stengel can't tell you what hit the Yankees.

It was Lew Burdette Sunday and Warren Spahn Monday night as the Braves cooled off San Francisco's "golden boys" with a pair of victories that suggest Milwaukee may be ready to stage its "annual" July-August pennant push.

But there were just too many tormentors to count over Stengel's extra-long, lost week end and the Red Sox cleaned up the Yankees five straight times and bettered no less than 20 New York pitchers for a total of 50 runs.

Braves 1, Game Out
Spahn, following up Burdette's 4-2 Sunday triumph with a six-hit, 9-0 victory Monday night pitched the Braves to within a half game of the Giants. The Cincinnati Reds bashed the Los Angeles Dodgers, 13-5, in the only other game and dropped the losers into third place one game behind the Giants.

The Red Sox, who staggered the Yankees with consecutive 14-3, 8-5, 8-4 and 7-3 drubbings in the first four games of the series in Boston, "buried" the floundering world champions with a 13-3 shelling that dropped them two games under .500, 7½ games behind the idle first-place Cleveland Indians. The Yankees hadn't lost a five-game series to the Red Sox in 20 years and never had lost one at Fenway Park.

Spahn had a worthy opponent in hard-throwing Sam Jones but Ed Mathews gave the brilliant lefty a 2-0 lead with his 27th homer of the year after Johnny O'Brien walked in the third inning. The Braves added their third run off Stu Miller when Mathews walked. Gene Stephens climaxed the sixth, Hank Aaron and scored on Frank Torre's sacrifice fly.

The Red Sox, who have won seven of nine games under new manager Billy Jurges, took a 4-2 lead over the Yankees in the first inning and then humiliated them with a nine-run sixth-inning rally. Jackie Jensen smashed a three-run homer in the first inning and Gene Stephens climaxed the sixth, inning shindig with a grand slam homer.

Frank Sullivan, who won the first game of the four-day series, was tapped for 10 hits, including Yogi Berra's homer, but went the distance to win his sixth game of the year against five defeats. Don Larsen, who was invited to leave after pitching the first inning, suffered his fourth setback compared to six wins.

Frank Robinson drove in three runs with two homers, a double and a single and Gus Bell knocked in four with a homer and a single to lead the Reds' 15-hit attack on six Dodger pitchers. Brooks Lawrence went the last 2½ innings to win his fourth game and end an eight-game losing streak. Clem Labine dropped his eighth decision against only three wins.

Women Golfers Will Count Putts

No planned foursomes have been set for this Thursday — Ladies Day — at the Pampa Country Club. Instead fem members who wish to play on Thursday have been asked to organize their own foursomes at the pro shop with Hart Warren, local pro, at 9:30 a.m. Thursday.

The Ladies Golf Association will hold its monthly luncheon meeting at 12:45 Thursday at the Country Club with all fem golfers asked to make their reservations by not later than noon Wednesday.

Golf balls will be presented to winners of ladies play for the past month at the luncheon. In Thursday's play the fem golfers will count putts with golf ball prizes going to the low score winners.

Rebs To Borger For Big Battle

"If they only play against Borger, like they did Sunday against Amarillo, we're in," exclaimed a happy Bill Ridgway Monday as he and Pampa American Legion manager Lloyd Summers began to map final strategy for their biggest game of the season.

Both Pampa and Borger are currently tied for first place in the district Legion race with identical 7-2 records. Thus, their 8 p.m. game in Borger's Huber Park could well decide the championship.

Nothing clear-cut about the Wednesday night tilt can be banked on, however, since Palo Duro can jump into the first place deadlock with a 7-2 record too, by toppling a stubborn Tascosa outfit tonight. In Amarillo, Tascosa with a 4-4 record was the team that handed Borger its first loss of the season in loop play, 10-4, nine days ago after the Stars had copped five straight.

Veteran lefthander Kippy Williams (3-2) is ticketed for starting mound chores for Pampa's Rebels. Borger is expected to counter with their ace, Bob Connelly, who has twice stopped Pampa and only last Saturday night spun a no-hitter in whipping Amarillo.

After making eight errors in a 13-6 loss to Palo Duro Saturday night, the Rebels returned Sunday to commit but one bobbie and paste Amarillo, 11-0, behind young Mike Clark's brilliant three-hit performance.

Olmedo Expected to Have Easy Time With 1st Clay Court Foe

RIVER FOREST, Ill. (UPI) — Against Gordon Fleming of Flint, Mich., a virtual tennis unknown, Olmedo drew a first-round bye in the 50th annual tourney. But his No. 2 seed, Barry MacKay, of Dayton, Ohio, had a first-round match with Dave Nelson of Skokie, Ill.

Both Olmedo and MacKay were expected to be the center attractions of today's action, which also includes the opening of women's singles competition.

Meanwhile defending champion Bernard Borison of Dallas, Tex., and a number of other seeded men players advanced through the first and second rounds Monday with ease.

MAXIMUM GROSS WEIGHT—370,000 POUNDS

PASSENGER CAPACITY: LONG RANGE—120 SHORT HOP—220

RUSSIA HAS LARGEST PASSENGER PLANE—Compared above are the largest passenger planes in the world, Russia's TU-114, and the biggest U.S. commercial plane, the Boeing 707. The American plane, being pure jet, is faster than the Russian turboprop. Turboprops and jet engines are internally similar, except that the turboprop harnesses most of the rearward-gushing gases to a propeller. The Soviet plane was designed by Andrei Tupolev. It dwarfs the TU-104, a twin-jet medium transport that Russia now flies into six European capitals on regular service. Larger, intercontinental versions of the Boeing 707 will be delivered to airlines shortly. But they, too, are smaller than the TU-114.

Eisenhower May Settle In Washington

By MERRIMAN SMITH
UPI White House Reporter

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Back stairs at the White House: After President Eisenhower leaves office in 1961, he might live in Washington a good part of each year.

In fact, there are some well-founded rumors to this effect: several persons normally quite familiar with the activities of the Eisenhower family have been talking guardedly about essentially the same story.

Generally, their version is this: The President and his wife will take an apartment in one of Washington's leading hotels and live there on a more or less permanent basis. This would not mean their being in actual residence all of the time in Washington, but their apartment would be headquarters.

Naturally, they're expected to spend some time at their farm in Gettysburg, but somewhat as they do now—frequent week ends and more protracted periods several times a year.

A 12-month-a-year diet of Gettysburg could be quite lonely for the Eisenhowers, and being gregarious people they're not expected to go into hibernation on the farm come Jan. 20, 1961.

Quotes In The News

United Press International

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla.—The Defense Department, on the present status of the Jupiter missile: "Jupiter has attained an unusual degree of reliability and accuracy and is ready for operational use."

WASHINGTON — Former Republican Sen. George Bender of Ohio, now anti-corruption clean-up man for the Teamsters Union, describing the union's headquarters in the capital: "It reminds me of a church office. There is no gambling, no liquor drinking of any kind going on there. It is run very efficiently."

WASHINGTON — Rear Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, after revealing that some retired military officers had tried to pressure him on government contracts: "No officer, no retired officer, no member of Congress has ever had any influence on me."

On the other hand, it could mean nothing more than a sensible preparation to cope with the flood of mail that follows a chief executive long after he departs from 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue.

Here in Washington, the Eisenhowers would be close to a number of old friends. They could make trips to New York and Augusta, Ga., directly from the nation's capital without the slight, but added detail of having to travel first from Gettysburg which has no air or railroad passenger service.

This could be more than a casual consideration, because after January, 1961, there'll be no fleet of limousines and helicopters at the disposal of the family except what they provide for themselves.

If the President continues to play golf a good bit after he leaves office, he'd undoubtedly prefer the nearby Burning Tree

The Almanac

Today is Tuesday, July 14, the 195th day of the year, with 170 more days to follow in 1959.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

The evening stars are Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn and Mercury.

On this date in history:
In 1789, citizens of Paris stormed the Bastille prison and released the king's political prisoners.
In 1858, President Franklin Pierce opened the world's fair in New York City.

In 1870, Congress granted a pension of $1,000 dollars to President Lincoln's widow.

In 1921, the anarchists Nic Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti were convicted of murder in one of the nation's most controversial cases.

In 1940, Russia annexed Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

In 1945, Supreme Headquarters of the Allied Expeditionary Forces, also known as SHAEF, went out of existence at Frankfurt, Germany, 17 months after one day after it was organized.

Thought for today: Mark Twain said, "Loyalty to petrified opinion never yet broke a chain or freed a human soul."
