POLICE PROBE $1,000 THEFT

One of the largest burglaries here in over a year netted an unknown burglar $1,000 in cash overnight Saturday or Sunday at the De Luxe Dry Cleaners, 315 W. Kingmill.

Police Lt. Denny Roan said this morning the large cache of currency and coins was taken from a safe that was either left unlocked or opened by someone who mastered its combination. There was no evidence of the safe being forced open.

De Luxe Manager Morris

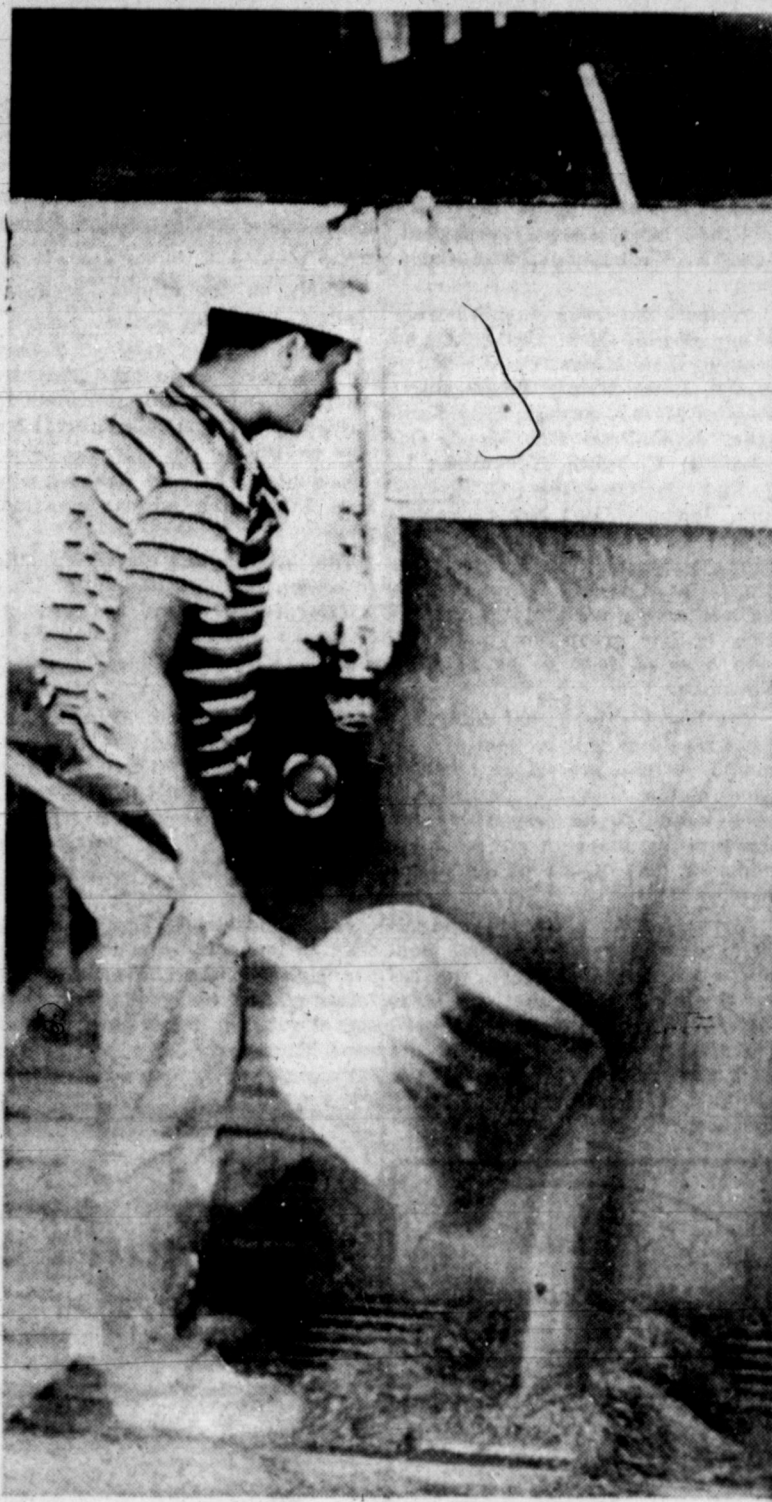

Enloe discovered the burglary at 7:15 a.m. today. He said it must have happened between 6:30 p.m. Saturday and the time he opened the cleaners this morning.

Roan reported that his investigation today showed that the burglar entered by breaking a rear window, reaching inside and opening a backdoor latch.

He apparently opened an unlocked soft drink machine first and pocketed about $1.50 in small coins. The $1,000 in the safe was made up largely of currency and a few dollars in coins.

The burglary, first reported here since the 13-burglary spree of Jerry Wayne Huff, was followed up Sunday by an unsuccessful break-in at the Fisher Panhandle Grain Co., 600 S. West.

Lt. Roan said a screwdriver was forced into a door lock, but the attempt to enter was unsuccessful. The attempt was reported at 8 a.m. today by Manager Charlie Robinson.

GOLDEN HARVEST

The golden flow of wheat into area elevators began over the weekend at a number of area elevators. Standing by at the Laketon Elevator, where the first truckload was delivered this spring in Gray County, was Buster Baird, son of Laketon elevator manager "Tots" Baird. Elsewhere in the area the Barnett Elevator at Kingsmill reported a few "pickup" loads Saturday for the purposes of testing moisture.

U.S. & France Yield To British Pressure

By STEWART HENSLEY
United Press International

GENEVA (UPI) — The United States and France were reported to have yielded today to British pressure not to break off the East-West negotiations while a Soviet ultimatum still perils West Berlin.

The Western powers had been reported ready to ask for a recess in the deadlocked talks but Britain pressed for another chance at making enough progress to warrant a summit meeting.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd received instructions from the British Cabinet to make a final effort to save the conference but without yielding on Berlin. Lloyd said in London that the talks "cannot be indefinitely protracted."

"The weekend will have provided an opportunity for reflection upon the situation by all the parties at Geneva," Lloyd said. "Our purposes are still to preserve the freedom of West Berliners to choose their own way of life and the freedom of access to the outside world which is necessary for that purpose."

"I still believe that acceptable arrangements can be found to achieve it. Although the talks cannot be indefinitely protracted, I still hope for agreement and will try to play my part in seeking to achieve it."

Had Planned Recess

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter paid a surprise call today on French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville while waiting the return of Lloyd. It was believed they were bracing for an approach from Lloyd not to be too hasty.

Until today's developments the Allies were reported ready to recess the talks for four weeks or more should Russia refuse to back down on its new ultimatum to the Allies to get out of West Berlin within a year.

The Western foreign ministers postponed their secret meeting with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko for two hours today to give them time to consult on the latest developments.

The East-West conference entered its sixth week today with Western delegates convinced that only a major concession by the Russians on Berlin could prevent collapse of the talks.

In the meantime a high official said the West had prepared a formal plan on Berlin they hoped would sidetrack the Russian ultimatum. It was a proposal that tied in the loose ends of Allied suggestions—and would be useful as a matter of record should the talks fail.

An Allied spokesman said after Friday's no progress session that today and Tuesday would be crucial in the East-West talks, and that the world would know this week whether the talks will fail, be recessed or drag on indefinitely.

Acting Secretary of State C. Douglas Dillon said in Washington Sunday the United States and the other Western powers were "ready and willing" to continue the talks as long as there is some chance of progress.

But he said there was no point in talking indefinitely. Already there was formal talk of calling a recess of four or five weeks as suggested this week end by West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in an interview with UPI President Frank H. Bartholomew.

Meanwhile there were new signs of a split in Allied solidarity with Britain wanting to continue the Geneva talks indefinitely and the United States and France anxious to avoid wasting time.

French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville, after conferring with Gen. Charles de Gaulle, skipped an emergency cabinet meeting today and hurried back for talks with the Americans before British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd returned from Britain.

Two Charged With DWI After Wrecks

Two men were charged with drunken driving the past weekend following a pair of high damage crashes on Pampa streets, acting Police Chief J. O. Dumas reported today.

Charged were Voda Davis McKee, 42, of Groom, and Joseph Franklin McDaniel, 36, of 600 N. Sumner in Pampa.

McKee, filed on for DWI four times previously, was involved in a four-car entanglement Sunday night at a traffic light in the 600 block on Frederic St. Officers said McKee's 1958 Ford hit the rear of one of three cars stopped at a traffic sign, forcing all three cars together and causing high damages.

Two persons, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Dorsett of Borger, were hospitalized, but are not believed seriously hurt. Police said that McKee struck the rear of the Dorsett car, which in turn rammed the rear of a car driven by Donald Wayne Dorsett, 32, of Pampa which then hit the rear of a third car driven by Juanell Ellis Garrett, 18, 315 E. Francis.

McKee, who will be charged in just of peace court today had damages to his car set at $300, while damages to the first Dorsett car were $1,000, and damages to the second car were $500.

In a second accident, Joseph McDaniel was involved in a two-car collision Saturday night at 11:04 at the intersection of N. Hobart and Foster Streets. Police said McDaniel attempted a left turn onto Foster and rammed a 1958 Pontiac driven by Wallace Clark, 54, Oklahoma.

McDaniel's 1945 Chevrolet was described as a total wreck. Damage to Clark's car were set at $800.

Auto Almost Goes for 'Dip'

A 1953 Oldsmobile Holiday sedan tried to "go swimming" Saturday night in McClellan Lake south of Pampa, but ended up on a pile of rocks short of the water.

State Patrol Sgt. E. G. Albers said today he still hasn't talked with the car's owner, Jim Turlington of Pampa, but as far as can be determined the car took its "leap" with no persons near the scene.

Albers said the car began rolling from a cliff some 60 feet over the lake when its brakes failed. It dropped and rolled to the rocks near the lakeshore and was badly damaged. An investigation was undertaken Sunday morning by Albers and Sheriff Rufe Jordan.

School Board Hears Petition

The Pampa School Board met today with Sup't. Knox Kinard came under fire this morning from a four-member delegation from the Woodrow Wilson PTA which stated its objection to the appointment of Floyd Smith as Wilson principal.

The delegation, armed with a petition signed by some 130 Wilson area residents, said it favored the appointment of Alex Swann, acting principal at Wilson the past six months.

Kinard and the board said it appointed Smith because of his capabilities as an administrator and added that it heard no opposition to Smith prior to his appointment.

The board turned down the petition since a decision had already been made and announced, and it felt the right decision had been made.

Pampa's School Board, which met today at the Junior High School, also heard assurances from the C. S. Lambie Construction Co. of Amarillo that construction of Travis Elementary school and the addition onto the high school would be completed by September.

The board showed some concern over both projects at a meeting Wednesday.

Gov. Long Pleads For Release From Hospital

By BRYCE MILLER
United Press International

GALVESTON, Tex. (UPI) — Gov. Earl Long of Louisiana, stumbling, walked into a district court today to plead for his release from a Texas mental hospital.

He was surrounded by state troopers, and a white-coated attendant and Dr. Daniel Bobbitt, director of hospitals for the University of Texas, were with him. Long, since May 30, has been in John Sealy Hospital's mental ward. John Sealy is operated by the University of Texas.

Long is appearing today on his petition for a writ of habeas corpus. He wants District Judge L. D. Goddard to order him released so he can go back to Louisiana. He charges he was drugged and brought to Galveston tied hand and foot.

His wife, Blanche, and other relatives are fighting his attempt to get out of the hospital. They want him committed for 90 days and another hearing is scheduled Tuesday on his sanity.

Floppy Straw Hat

Long was dressed in an old gray suit and a straw hat with a floppy brim that he usually wears on campaigns, when he walked into court today.

Police were unable to hold newspaper, radio and television reporters and cameramen back. They thrust microphones under his chin and Long tried to stop and talk.

He smiled weakly a couple of times, nodded and said, "Fine, Fine."

Long was brought the seven miles from the hospital to the Galveston County courthouse in a cream colored unmarked automobile (Oldsmobile). The car was flanked by two police cars.

It pulled up at the front door of the courthouse and Long stayed inside for two or three minutes while two policemen got out to clear a path through newsmen and about 100 spectators.

Appears Need Shave

Long looked as if he could use a shave.

A friend of Long said that he has hopes that Long may be able to get out of the Galveston hospital if he promises to enter Ochsner's clinic in New Orleans.

He asked J. O. Bankston, director of institutions in Louisiana, to be at today's hearing as a personal friend. Mrs. Long asked him officially to come.

Although the hearing today was not intended to be a sanity hearing, it could develop into one.

If Long testifies that he is sane and if one of the lawyers retained by Mrs. Long attacks his credibility, it would, in effect, become that.

The hearing also challenges Texas jurisdiction to have him committed to the University of Texas hospital.

If Long wins release in the hearing today, he will be a full-scale sanity hearing scheduled for Tuesday in Probate Court.

The fiery, 63-year-old governor has been held in the hospital since he was flown here in a hush-hush, flight in a Louisiana National Guard plane on May 20.

He charged in his writ for habeas corpus petition filed Friday that he was drugged, tied hand and foot and brought to the hospital "forcibly, unwittingly and unwillingly." He signed the petition: "Earl Long, governor in exile by force in kidnaping."

98 Escape From Burning Vessel

LONDON (UPI) — Ninety-eight men, including 10 American telephone engineers, abandoned the burning cable ship Ocean-Laver about 500 miles off the French coast early today and were taken safely aboard a German boat.

The 4,534-ton British vessel was laying the west-to-east section of the first telephone cable between North America and the European mainland.

Fire broke out shortly before 3 a.m. and Capt. A. MacPherson Ross ordered all hands into lifeboats at 3:15 a.m.

He radioed three hours later that all were safely aboard the German freighter Flavia, en route to Hamburg.

The British owners of the vessel, on charter to AT&T, said the cause of the fire was not known. There was an unconfirmed report that it had started in the ship's engine room.

Monitors on the Newfoundland end of the cable were immediately aware that something had gone wrong with the ship, the AT&T reported in New York. The cable carries one-way voice circuits, operating from Newfoundland to the ship only, but an automatic alarm system was activated by the fire.

The ship was within 33 miles of completing the third section of cable, about 500 miles west of Ushant, France. The cable remained attached to the burning ship when it was abandoned. Telephone officials said it presumably will have to be fished up from the ocean floor if the ship sinks.

Native Texan Rescued Off Cable Ship

SHERMAN (UPI) — One of 10 Americans taken off a burning cable ship in the Atlantic Ocean today is a native of Sherman.

Charles Calhoun, 40, was one of 100 American Telephone and Telegraph Co. engineers rescued from the ocean cable-laying ship about 500 miles off the French coast.

Calhoun was born and raised in Sherman, and attended Austin College in Sherman, Princeton and Harvard. He and his wife live now in New Jersey. He is a telephone company engineer in New York.

Calhoun's mother told Sherman radio newsmen Tom Perryman that her daughter-in-law telephoned her from New Jersey, with the news of her son's rescue.

Four Youths Found Guilty

By JACK V. FOX
United Press International

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — Negroes and whites alike generally hailed today the conviction of four white youths for the rape of a Negro coed as a victory for justice in the South.

The opinion regarding the jury's recommendation of mercy—saving the youths from the electric chair—was not so unanimous, however. Several prominent leaders of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People were critical of the move.

The guilty verdict was returned early Sunday by the all-male, all-white jury.

Only 42 days has elapsed between the mass attack on the 19-year-old Negro freshman coed and the guilty sentence.

The jury left the length of the prison sentences up to Judge W. May Walker. He will not pass sentence for at least two weeks. The sentences could range from a few years to life.

Voice Approval Of Verdict

Of 10 white Tallahassee residents stopped on the street by this correspondent Sunday, eight approved the verdict. Two declined to discuss it. Of the eight, three said they thought one or two of the boys should have gotten death.

The four, Wilton Collinsworth, 23; Patrick Scarborough, 20; David Beagles, 18, and Ollie Soutamire, 16, were whisked off to the state penitentiary at Raiford, Fla. directly from the courthouse.

There was no sign of a demonstration then. The crowd of more than 100 persons waiting on the sidewalk took the verdict in silence. Most of them were white. A number of Negroes grinned widely.

Penitentiary Warden Dewitt Sinclair said the three younger boys were put in a section with other youths and Collinsworth, with the men. Both Collinsworth and the child-like Soutamire cried during the testimony but all four took the verdict without showing emotion.

Judge, Prosecutor Praised

The Rev. A. J. Reddick, pastor of the Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church and past Florida president of the NAACP, said the judge and prosecutor had conducted the case in an exemplary manner.

But Florida has maintained its excellent record of not veering from the precedent that no white man has ever been executed for the rape of a Negro. Had it been the other way around, Negro would have been given the death penalty," he said.

Jury foreman A. H. King, a wealthy Florida farmer, told United Press International that had the girl been beaten, the jury would have been inclined to inflict the death penalty.

King said the jury at no time discussed the racial question in reaching its verdict.

Lawmakers In Huge Quandry

AUSTIN (UPI) — Texas lawmakers, at odds on how to collect and apportion money for the next two years and how to reduce the state deficit, came back to work today as time runs out on the first special session.

Gov. Price Daniel pleaded with the legislators to be reasonable and try to solve as many of their difficulties as possible before a second special session is called.

The deadline on the first session is midnight Tuesday.

Lawmakers still have to figure out how to reinforce the sagging general revenue fund, how to collect new taxes and how to set up a state schedule for appropriations.

Deficit Plan Blocked

The spending and taxing bills are tied up in joint Senate-House conference committees and Gov. Daniel's deficit retirement program was practically blocked in the two houses with the exception of the comptroller "bookkeeping" bill.

Daniel sounded a weak note of optimism when he asked "reasonable men in both houses" to solve "the differences between House and Senate tax and appropriations bills."

He said with cooperation "there is still time to break the apparent deadlock."

The governor added that a partial solution "might at least prevent the necessity for a third special session."

The bookkeeping bill is now pending on the Senate floor. It would allow the comptroller to transfer about 28 million dollars in priority funds to the general revenue fund.

If it comes from a hardware store we have it, Lewis Hyde.

"No more pencils, no more books..." the old rhyme goes. That's the way these three youngsters (above and below) are feeling these hot summer days as they enjoy their vacations from school. Above is freckle-face Donnie Atkinson of Great Falls, Mont., looking like the very personification of boyhood and summertime. Below Fort Worth schoolers, Cindy Nemitz, left, and Debbie Stout, give their feet a summertime breather.

The joint conference committee which is writing the appropriations bill was reported split, but continued working toward agreement through the weekend.

Baseball Mishap Hospitalizes Man

Johany Cowan, a coach for the Windsor farm team of the Little League, remained in Amarillo's St. Anthony hospital today after being struck in the eye by a thrown baseball during a weekend game at Little League Park.

Cowan's wife said this morning her husband is being treated for a blood clot in one eye, but should be back home in two or three days. Cowan is a driver's license inspector at the County Courthouse.

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Does a Sixth Grade teacher in a country school have the right to take a student home with her and have her yard-man give him a bath? This is what happened to my son!

He said his ankles were a little dirty and when his teacher asked him when he had a bath last he told her it had been three months. Now you know as well as I do that kids eleven years old can't keep track of time.

slap in the face. He is still pretty mad at us. Should we re-wrap them and give them to him for Father's Day?

HURT CHILDREN

DEAR HURT: Re-wrap the gifts and give them to your father for Father's Day. But make no mention of the fact that they are the rejected Christmas gifts.

DEAR ABBY: I am going steady with a wonderful guy and we love each other terribly. Our problem is we love each other so much we can hardly control ourselves. We haven't gone all the way yet but I am afraid we will. We are trying very hard to be good. We have even prayed. We can't afford to get into trouble because we can't afford to get married. What can we do?

TWO IN LOVE

DEAR TWO: Young people "in love" are playing with dynamite when they "pet" for hours in parked cars or dark corners, or any place that offers them opportunities to go "a. t. w." Double-date, stick with the crowd, and lead yourselves away from temptation.

DEAR ABBY: Seven years ago I married a girl with a one-year-old son. She told me her husband was a no-good drunkard and she divorced him before their baby was born. I adopted her son. I found out recently that she was never married. She promised me when I married her that we would have children of our own, but now she refuses. I have begged and pleaded but she says that one is enough and she is too old now. (She is 26.) Should I go on working for a woman who cares only for the security of herself and another man's child?

HOOKED

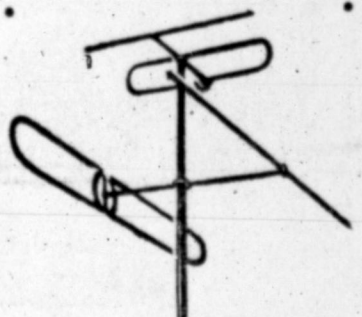

DEAR HOOKED: If what you said is true, this woman married you under a false pretense. Talk to your clergyman or an attorney.

CONFIDENTIAL TO NELL: When your old man starts feeling his horns instead of his oats—he's over the hill.

Holy Souls Altar Society Outlines Meeting Plans For Coming Year

Plans for the coming year were outlined at a special meeting of the executive board of the Altar Society of Holy Souls Parish held Wednesday morning in the home of the newly-elected president, Mrs. R. W. Laycock, 2018 Christine.

Prefects for each month were announced by Mrs. Laycock and they include: Mrs. C. M. Blymiller, June; Stanley Brake, July; Eugene Marak, August; E. J. Dunigan, September; Ben Wood, October; E. C. The board agreed that Altar Society meetings will be held at 9:30 month which prefect he or she each month to be responsible for the meeting place in either her home or that of one of the members.

Instead of contacting the members personally for Spiritual Bouquets for ill parishioners, the Altar Society decided that the Mass and Holy Communion on Communion Sunday will be offered for the sick as well as a rosary by the group at each of the monthly meetings.

Programs for the year will pertain to Altar Society duties, designed to inform the new members and refresh the duties in the minds of members of long standing. The group plans also to have a course of study on the Monologue Mass conducted by the pastor.

Various ways of raising money for the year were discussed by the group, which will contribute in furnishing altar supplies for the new church.

"Let's talk dry cleaning"

By FRED MALONE

FATHER'S DAY is one day of the year that's heartily welcomed by tired Dads. There isn't one of us who doesn't like the idea of being paid a special tribute. Maybe it's a little sentimental, but an annual day for pampering Pop and treating him like the proverbial lord of the manor seems only fitting. After all, he is the breadwinner! Clothes are always among the most popular gifts for Fathers, which makes us think of past centuries when men went around in much fancier plumage than they do today, with satin waistcoats and ruffled sleeves and powdered wigs. Time was when you could give Dad a lace handkerchief or some black silk stockings as a gift... but not today! We can hear some Dad's breathing a sigh of relief.

Of course, such things as elegant vests and sweaters are back in vogue for men... and Dads are wearing gayer colors today. And why not? In the bird and animal kingdoms it's often the male who wears the brightest colors. Even if Dad's clothes don't go to ruffles and satin, they still need regular care to have him look his best. To keep his suits and slacks, his new vests and sweaters and ties always looking smart and new... send them to us for careful, thorough cleaning.

Shark Kills Skin Diver

LA JOLLA, Calif. (UPI)—A 20-foot-long killer shark dragged an experienced skin diver under water and killed him Sunday off a crowded beach.

The victim's wife and best friend witnessed the swift attack on Robert L. Pamperin, 33, of nearby Pacific Beach. Pamperin, the father of two children and an aircraft engineer, was diving off the beach at the popular La Jolla cove at the time.

The cove was crowded with sunbathers and swimmers.

"We were diving off the cove," said the friend, Gerald Lehrer, 30. "I guess we were about 120 feet out when Bob yelled, 'Help me.'"

"I swam over. I adjusted my mask so I could see under water and I saw an enormous shark holding Bob in the mid-section. There was blood all over."

Pamperin's wife Carolyn witnessed the tragedy from shore. During a vain search for his body, she collapsed and was placed under sedation.

"The shark was easily more than 20 feet long," Lehrer said. "I wasn't able to do anything any more. So I swam to shore to warn the other swimmers."

It was the second such incident off California beaches in recent weeks. The earlier attack, by a huge gray shark in San Francisco Bay, resulted in death for a college youth.

Pampa Guard Will Train At Ft. Hood

Summer camp will begin June 28 for the 92 enlisted men and five officers of the Pampa National Guard. An advance detachment will leave June 24, according to Chief Warrant Officer Wesley Langham.

The groups will return to Pampa July 12, following 15 days of infantry training. The Pampa Guard was formerly the headquarters unit of the 47th Field Artillery Battalion.

The designation was changed March 15 to Company B of the First Battle Group, 142nd Infantry, with headquarters in Amarillo. Officers will have until March 15, 1959 to transfer to the Army Reserve. The largest part of the unit is transferring to headquarters in Amarillo.

The Pampa Guard unit is now commanded by Capt. Lawrence W. Hurdle.

Those leaving June 24 are Sgt. Curtis E. Prescott, Sp-4 Finley D. Schlumbohm and Pfc. Morris M. Enlose.

First Methodist WSCS Meets

CANADIAN (Sp) — Circle 1 of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church met with Mrs. F. D. Teas in her home recently.

Mrs. R. H. Cowan, chairman, presided at the business meeting and new officers for the coming year were elected. They are Mrs. Ralph Freeman, chairman; Mrs. W. H. Stroud, vice-chairman; and Mrs. Eddie Ereman, secretary-treasurer.

Those attending were Meses Cowan, Ereman, Freeman, Stroud, W. D. Fisher, A. R. King, W. W. Owens, Van Petree, and James Price.

Light Damage

Light damages were reported Sunday evening when shingles on the F. L. Owens home, 228 W. Craven, caught fire. Pampa firemen said this morning. The blaze, reported at 6:14 p.m., was blamed on overhead guy wires rubbing against electrical wires.

Erhard Says He's As Qualified As Adenauer To Lead People

Foreign News Commentary
 By PHIL NEWSOM
 UPI Foreign Editor

Man-of-the-week: West German Economics Minister Ludwig Erhard.

The place: Bonn, Germany.

The quote: "I will in no circumstances tolerate the continued existence of the historical lie that I am less qualified than the chancellor to guide" the German people.

The story: Erhard, the tilted cigar and the jowls that wrap from ear to ear are the signs of Ludwig Erhard's perpetual good nature and optimism.

But the good nature underwent considerable strain this week as Erhard hurried home to Bonn from the United States to salvage what he could of his ambitions to become chancellor of West Germany and to learn the reasons for incumbent Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's last-minute refusal to step down.

Attributed to Adenauer were these charges against Erhard: That he opposed West European unity.

That he could not maintain the continuity of West German policy.

At 52, Erhard is more than 20 years Adenauer's junior. The differences between the two are those of day and night, but each in his own way has been the indispensable man to a resurgent West Germany.

Adenauer, the autocrat, was teaching the Germans democracy. Erhard, the dry-goods merchant's son, was teaching them the way to prosperity.

A World War I wound at Ypres prevented Erhard from following in his father's steps as a merchant, and instead led him to a doctor's degree in economics from Frankfurt University.

In 1947, partly because he had no Hitler ties, he became economic chief for the U. S. and British occupation zones of Germany.

Quotes In The News

United Press International
 TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — The Rev. A. J. Reddick, past Florida president of the NAACP, on the conviction with a recommendation of mercy of four white youths for the rape of a Negro coed: "Florida has maintained its excellent record of not veering from the precedent that no white man has ever been executed for the rape of a Negro. Had it been the other way around, Negroes would have been given the death penalty."

WASHINGTON — Gov. G. Menen Williams of Michigan, conceding that New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller might be more liberal than some Democratic hopefuls: "If the Democrats should nominate (Sen.) Lyndon Johnson (D. Tex.), for example, and the Republicans nominate Rockefeller, where do you think the liberal Democrats will turn? Whom could they vote for in all good conscience?"

Right About Prices
 Erhard leaped to prominence in 1948 when, consulting the Allies, he went to the radio and announced the end of rationing controls.

The next day he was summoned to the office of American military commander Lucius Clay, who warned him:

"All my advisers are against this."

Unperturbed, Erhard replied: "All my advisers are against it, too."

For a while it looked as if the resulting price spiral would cost Erhard both his job and reputation. But, true to his predictions, prices fell and production rose.

Erhard is not a backroom politician but rather one who believes in going to the people. He deals in broad horizons and dislikes the European common market plan only because he believes it limits the horizon and may result in other restrictions later. For him, the whole world is a free trade area.

Remain At Odds

Erhard is a man who believes in negotiation and persuasion. He would like to see an atmosphere of free movement between East and West but he says:

"There is no middle ground between freedom and slavery, our system and their system. These things cannot be mixed."

He would give the Communists no chance for any control over West German life.

There seems no real divergence of views between Adenauer and Erhard.

But meanwhile, despite public apologies, the two men most responsible for present-day Germany remain at odds. The results could reach beyond West German borders.

Kiwanians Hear of Code

DALLAS (UPI)—The first major speaker at the International Kiwanis Convention in Dallas said Sunday night that codes of ethics should apply to a man's entire life.

The Rt. Rev. James A. Pike, Episcopal bishop of California, told delegates that ethical conduct should govern the whole life, not just the business or professional career.

The point is to "function as a whole person, dealing with people as whole persons," he said.

The noted clergyman spoke to hundreds of assembled delegates in the Memorial Auditorium in Dallas. He was the first of several well known speakers scheduled to address the convention.

Approximately 12,000 Kiwanians and their families crowded into the downtown Dallas area Sunday as registration for the 44th annual meeting got under way.

Delegates from the 49 states, Canada and Hawaii are expected to swell convention attendance to a record high of 15,000.

Texas governor Price Daniel and Dallas Mayor R. L. Thornton will officially welcome the throngs of conventionaires today.

Mainly About People

Mr. and Mrs. Don Cain, 3904 Williston, have returned from New York City, N.Y., where they attended the Rotary International Convention. They also visited Washington, D.C. and met with Congressman Walter Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gikas and family, 1322 Mary Ellen, have completed a two-week vacation in which they toured National Parks and points of historic interest in Utah, Colorado and New Mexico.

E. O. Wedgeworth, manager of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, is back in Pampa after attending the Texas Chamber Managers Convention in Austin last week.

Anita Wedgeworth and Jeannine Leith, Pampa students at Stephen F. Austin College, Nacogdoches, are back in town for the summer. Miss Wedgeworth is working in the Chamber of Commerce office in City Hall.

Rebels Stagger Childress, 10-6

CHILDRESS — Pampa's American Legion Rebels got away from the post slow but made a brilliant stretch-run here Sunday afternoon to throttle Childress, 10-6, in the opening district engagement for both clubs.

Veteran lefthander Kippy Williams checked Childress with a neat six-hitter and registered a sparkling 16 strikeouts while walking seven in hurling the distance for the visitors.

The win squared the Rebs season record at 2-2 after a split with Palo Duro, 7-5 and 9-14; and a close 3-4 loss to Borger.

Only in the fourth frame was Williams shelled hard. Childress shoved across four runs while nicking the little lefty for three hits to leap ahead, 5-2.

Pampa, however, wasn't long in knotting the score as the Rebs tallied three runs of their own in the fifth to tie the game at 5-5.

It was still a nip-and-tuck affair going into the 9th as Pampa notched a single score in the 4th for a 6-5 edge. However, in the top of the 9th the Rebels broke loose with four hits for as many runs and coasted into the final half of the last stanza with a comfortable 10-5 advantage. Childress picked up a single run in the 9th but Williams was too tough for the home-owners to rally against for enough runs to overhaul the Pampans.

First-sacker Larry Stroud continued his blistering June slugger for the winners with 3-for-5, including a triple while sub left-fielder Roy Don Stephens doubled and singled in three official trips.

All told, the Rebels enjoyed their most productive afternoon of the current campaign with 11 base-hits. Catcher Terry Haralson and third-sacker Gary Hill both blossomed out with 2-for-5 afternoons; Hill hammering a two-run homer and Haralson pounding out a three-bagger.

Wendell Ridgway with a double and Williams with a single in the fruitful 9th rounded-out Pampa hitting.

The Rebels grabbed a quick 2-0 lead in the 2nd as Stroud, Hill and Haralson sandwiched singles around a walk to Don Cross.

A pair of doubles and a single netted Childress its four runs in the 4th after the home kids had managed one in the third for their 5-2 lead.

In Pampa's 5th, Haralson walked, Ridgway socked his double, Bob Stephens was hit by a pitch, and both Stroud and Hill were safe on errors to chase over three markers which locked the contest at 5-5.

Haralson slammed out a long triple with one down in the 8th and galloped home on a ground-out to second by Williams for a 6-5 Pampa edge.

Both clubs failed to score in the 7th or 8th but Pampa went wild with four in the 9th to sew it up. Williams opened the frame with a single, Ruben Strickland walked, Ridgway popped out to third, Stephens was safe on a fielder's choice that forced Williams at third and Stroud loaded his triple.

Then, Hill unloaded his homer off losing pitcher Paul Tucker who went the route for the losers. Hill's two-ply poke sailed over the leftfield fence with plenty of room to spare.

The Rebs are ticketed for more action this week against teams to be announced after a second district meeting in Amarillo Wednesday night. The district schedule is due to be revamped Wednesday night after Canyon notified officials Saturday night they would be unable to field a team and were dropping from the loop.

Let's 'Face' It, Bucs Have Flag Fever

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

Deal the Pirates in for a possible pennant jockey as long as they keep coming up with that same ace in the hole.

His name is Elroy Face, his record is 10-0 and he now has won 15 straight games in relief dating back to May, 1958.

Face, a tireless, 150-pounder, stands only five feet, eight inches but he has been standing the hitters on their heads so effectively that the Pirates now are only 3 1/2 games removed from the National League lead and are hopeful of landing in their first World Series since 1927.

Face throws a fork ball and it's turning out to be a meat-and-potatoes pitch for the Pirates, who swept a doubleheader from the Dodgers Sunday, 6-3, and 5-2, with a big assist from their pint-sized relief ace.

Face Fans Four

Making his fourth appearance in five days and sixth in eight games, Face entered the opener in the eighth inning with the score tied 3-3. He struck out one batter in the eighth, then fanned the side in the ninth to earn a standing ovation from 30,082 fans at Forbes Field.

The Pirates won the game by rallying for three runs in the bottom of the eighth, scoring the tie-breaking run on Gil Hodges' error. Dick Stuart drove in three runs in the nightcap with his 11th and 12th homers to help Vernon Law to his sixth triumph.

The Chicago Cubs blanked first-place Milwaukee, 6-0, but the Braves actually increased their lead to 1 1/2 games over the second-place Giants, who dropped a twin-bill to the Phillies, 7-5 and 6-3. The Cardinals won their clincher from the Reds, 5-4, but Cincinnati took the nightcap, 3-2.

In the American League, the White Sox retained their half-game lead by sweeping a pair from the Orioles, 9-5 and 9-2 in 10 innings; the Indians beat the Senators twice, 9-5 and 12-4; the Tigers won both ends of a double-header from the Yankees, 3-2 and 5-2, and the Red Sox emerged from the cellar with a 6-1 triumph over the Athletics. A scheduled second game between Boston and Kansas City was postponed because of rain.

Dick Drott of the Cubs, fresh off the disabled list, held the Braves to seven hits in winning his first game of the year. Lee Walls drove in three of Chicago's runs and Ernie Banks another pair.

Giegel, Funk Keep Paws on 'Tag' Title

Saturday night wasn't a night for challengers to make hay at the Top O' Texas Sportsmen Club here.

In a Southwest Championship brawl popular favorites Dory Funk and Bob Geigel, Umbarger ranchers, pboxed under Art Nelson and Doug Donovan when the latter two were disqualified for over eagerness.

In a second Southwest title fight, the Fabulous Moolah won in two quick falls from Pat Sherry. Moolah muscled her way to the final round decision with a snappy slam and half-nelson and moments later raked up the second round and the match to retain her crown with a back-breaker and an ensuing body press.

In an exciting opening card bout, Giegel, fresh from a successful tour of Washington, D.C. and Madison Square Garden where he pocketed some of the big money, dropped a decision to Nelson on a disqualification. "All I did was a little choking in self defense," whelped Giegel after the match. "He (referee Billy Widener) said I was choking Nelson, and man I wouldn't do a thing like that, unless he did the same to me first which he did, so I guess maybe I did too."

In the night's featured attraction, Donovan used a knee lift and a slam to whip Giegel in the first round before Giegel rebounded to best Donovan with a neck drop to level the match at 1-fall apiece.

Then, in the third and deciding round, Donovan and Nelson saw victory just around the corner but walked down the wrong side of the street in an effort to obtain it. Both beat up on Funk while Giegel was out of the ring and when those monkey-shines grew boring the two challengers turned on Widener, the ref, and commenced to club him with everything but the box office door. This, of course, brought about the disqualification and meant Funk and Giegel remain as the Southwest tag-team champs.

A repeat performance of the main event is in store for Pampa and Top O' Texas grappling fans this week, although a title may not be at stake this time.

Big Bill Bags U.S. Open

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

MAMARONECK, N.Y. (UPI)—There are two things U.S. Open champion Billy Casper likes to do—eat and play golf.

He did both of them mighty well Sunday.

Rotund Billy, a 29-year-old pro playing out of Apple Valley, Calif., ate a hearty lunch at the Winged Foot Golf Club and three hours later teed off with Lionel Hebert, leading the Open field by three strokes.

He wound up winning it by only one. Bob Rosburg, who uses a baseball grip, and burly Mike Souchak, the former football great at Duke, both made a run at Billy. Both came close but not close enough.

Rosburg, who wears glasses "because it helps to see that little white pill" (a golf ball), and Souchak needed birdies on the par four 18th 424-yard hole to tie Casper.

Sweated It Out

Billy was sweating it out in the club house. He was having a sandwich—he had eaten a full course that most people would call a dinner five hours before. A lot of golf writers were grouped around him at that breakfast and the good-looking carefree Casper commented:

"I hope I'll be seeing all of you guys five hours from now." He did—as the new U.S. Open champion.

But in those five hours there was not only his game—a four over par 36-38-74 which gave him a total of 282—but Rosburg and Souchak as well standing between him and victory.

First it was Souchak who had a chance to tie him. But burly Mike, needing a birdie, pushed his drive on the last hole off into the rough behind a tree, played a miracle shot to hit the green and then watched stupidly as the ball rolled into the back fringe. From 50 feet he chipped weakly and the ball was 10 feet short. He even missed that putt.

Iron Sinks Rosburg

Then it was Rosburg, also needing a birdie on that 18th to tie. His tee shot was straight, but his approach iron was weak. It hit 60 feet short of the pin on the lower sloping level of the green and died there.

"That's when I knew I had it," said Casper, watching the play on television.

Casper's victory put $12,000 in his pocket. Rosburg, who got down in two for a par four on that 18th, wound up second, winning $6,000.

Souchak earned $3,600 for tying with home pro Claude Harmon for third place at 284. Former Masters champions Doug Ford and Arnold Palmer, along with Ernie Vossler, were next in line at 286.

Then came the two greatest names in golf—Ben Hogan and Sammy Snead, both at 287.

Hogan was three strokes behind Casper going into the fourth round Sunday—but blew to a 37-39-76, six over par. Ben Hogan was seeking his fifth Open title and now at 46, it looks like he won't make it.

As for Snead—this is the only big one in golf he never has won—and he was four strokes behind Casper going into Sunday's windy round.

After Hogan shot that 76, the 47-year-old Snead wound up with a 37-38-75. He lost his chance with a double bogey on the third hole.

Orioles Swap Harshman For Bosox' Hoefft

By JOHN GRIFFIN
United Press International

The Baltimore Orioles traded southpaw pitcher Jack Harshman to the Boston Red Sox for another lefthander, Billy Hoefft, Monday as big-league teams broke into a flurry of player-swapping to beat the trading deadline that goes into effect at midnight.

And the emphasis was on pitching talent with the clubs heading into summer days that will put hurling staffs to the test.

The Orioles and Red Sox had high hopes that the two lefties they swapped would at last live up to their promise. A year ago at this time Harshman ranked as the ace of the Baltimore staff with a record of 19 and the converted first baseman appeared to be at the peak of his career.

Harshman slips badly

But he slipped badly after that and wound up at 12-17 for the season. This year he has an 0-8 record, has failed to finish any of his eight starts and has a 7.42 earned run average. Hoefft, whom Boston obtained from Detroit earlier this year, has a 1-4 mark and a 6.23 e.r.a.

On other action on the player mart this week and:

The Red Sox and Washington Senators called off their trade in which the Senators gave Boston relief pitcher Dick Hyde in exchange for Murray Wall. Hyde complained of a sore arm when he reported to Boston and the two clubs agreed to cancel the swap. Left intact, however, was the part of the deal in which Washington gave infielder Herb Plews to Boston for infielder Billy Consolo.

The St. Louis Cardinals purchased third baseman Dick Gray from Los Angeles.

Philis sell Hegan

The Philadelphia Phillies sold 35-year-old catcher Jim Hegan to the San Francisco Giants and recalled pitcher Dick Farrell from Buffalo of the International League. Farrell, a relief ace last season who went sour late in the year, was recalled because of several injuries on the Philis' pitching staff.

Los Angeles recalled outfielder Frank Howard from Victoria of the Texas League, where he was hitting .370 with 27 homers.

The Pittsburgh Pirates bought veteran right-hander Bob Porterfield from the Chicago Cubs and sold pitcher R. G. Smith to the Detroit Tigers.

WHOOPS, DEPT.

In Saturday's 20-5 Little Farm League game won by Parrish Construction over Radcliff Supply, Mike Wise was the winning hurler and Mike Carter, the loser.

Sunday's Daily News had the two Mike's listed in reverse order. Wise posted nine strikeouts while allowing only five hits and five bases on balls for manager Kendall Green's winners.

BARON'S HALFWAY WINNERS

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)—The Birmingham Baron seeded Nashville by a half-game to cop the first half of the Southern Assn.'s split baseball season. A run in the 11th inning Sunday gave the Barons a 5-4 decision over Chattanooga and the first half flag.

Prigmores Hot; Don Fires 65, Mick Wins

By MARVIN OLSEN
Daily News Staff Writer

Max Hickey, a prime favorite to win the City Golf Tournament championship, suffered a stunning defeat Sunday, 3 and 2, to deadly accurate, left-hander Mickey Prigmore.

Hickey's defeat left the door open for a number of players, overlooked by pre-tournament dopsters, most notably Don Prigmore who under sunny skies Sunday fired a superb 65 — one bogie and seven birds!

Prigmore's great round — more or less a tuneup since his opponent, Grover Austin, defaulted — overshadowed a number of other fine performances in the championship fight. For example:

C. F. (Mac) McGinnis' one under par 70 in his 2 and 1 victory over Foster Elder; Jim Deaton's 72 in another "warmup" — his opponent, Larry Tarvin, defaulted after suffering a broken foot Saturday; and defending champion Harry Wilbur's close 2 and 1 win over Weldon (Birdog) Trice.

In other championship flight matches a faltering Les Howard nipped Henry Rose at the wire 1-up, Tommy Cox upset Grover Lee Heiskell, 1-up, and Malcolm Douglas squeaked past Tommy Adkins 1-up.

But most of Sunday's locker room talk centered around the Hickey-Prigmore match. Both men fired great rounds, particularly Prigmore who most golfers nearly forgot as he did battle with little Max, the man who won medalist honors a week ago and had been putting opponents to shame in the past two months.

In the First Flight, a field loaded with fine shotmakers, the number of contenders was pared to seven men — Duane Blake (winner of two matches), Sammy Holchun, J. (Clobber) Hollingsworth, A. D. Pritchard, Chunky Leonard, Rule Samples and Jack Foster.

Samples was the big winner Sunday with a 6 and 5 decision over Gene Groom, while Blake made it two in a row with a quarterfinal win over M. L. (Smoothy) Hall, 1-up. The Blake-Hall match saw-sawed to the last hole where Hall drove well but overshot the green with an 80-yard approach.

Leonard gave Marvin Olsen a putting lesson with a 3 and 2 win,

Houchin toppled Buster Carter, 4 a hot contender, Haskell Maguire, and 3. Hollingsworth nipped Scotty Hall 2 and 1, Pritchard dropped R. D. Dunham, and in an important match, Jack Foster got past

ARCARO IS UP, AROUND AFTER SPILL

By JOE SARGIS
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—Eddie Arcaro, racing's No. 1 jockey who suffered a near fatal spill Saturday, was back up on his feet again today, looking hopefully to an early hospital discharge—probably within a few days.

The 43-year-old Arcaro, thrown from his mount, Black Hills, in the Belmont Stakes, was allowed to take a few steps today in his room at Physicians Hospital, and he told friends that he expected to continue riding.

However, he was a bit wobbly and dizzy from the after effects of a mild concussion suffered in his spectacular spill, and his personal physician, Dr. Alexander Kaye, said that he would not discharge Arcaro until he was sure the famed jockey was over his dizziness.

"Eddie is still dizzy when he gets up on his feet," Mrs. Arcaro said after spending most of Sunday with her husband. "Dr. Kaye told me that Eddie was going to be all right but he won't be coming home until the dizziness leaves him."

A crowd of 38,105 and a national television audience thought Arcaro was killed when Black Hills broke his right shin bone while battling for the lead in the Triple Crown classic at Belmont Park won by the Brookmeade Stable's Sword Dancer.

KANSAS WEARS NCAA CINDER CROWN; BIG 8 DOMINATES

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—The Big Eight Conference today boasted of 161 points and its first team title in the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. track and field championships.

The team trophy went to Kansas, whose sprinters and hurdlers gathered 73 points in the NCAA meet that ended Saturday night in Nebraska's Memorial Stadium.

The old Pacific Coast Conference and the Big Ten long had dominated the NCAA competition. The University of Southern California had won 20 team championships since the meet was inaugurated in 1921. Illinois, with five titles, was ranked second.

In taking the unofficial inter-conference title at the Lincoln meet, Kansas' winning points were added to 31 for Oklahoma, 22 for Oklahoma State, 19 for Missouri, eight for Colorado, five for Kansas State and three for Nebraska.

Members of the now-disbanded PCC—even with USC and UCLA out—scored a total of 56.7 points. Big Ten teams totaled 54.8.

The top independent, and second place team in the meet, was San Jose State, with 48.1.

Two new NCAA records were posted during the two days of competition at Lincoln. John Lawlor of Boston University threw the hammer 207 feet 3 inches, and Dick Howard of New Mexico cleared the 400 meter hurdles in 50.6 seconds.

Patterson Throws Lethal Bombs; Six Knockdowns

By JACK CUDDY
United Press International

CHATHAM, N.J. (UPI)—Floyd Patterson is throwing bombs all over the ring here to make certain he won't be trapped by Ingemar Johansson's reported secret workouts.

Champion Patterson, whose six knockdowns in three rounds Sunday probably set an all-time training camp record, declared today: "I won't be fooled by the Swede's Falooka showings in public."

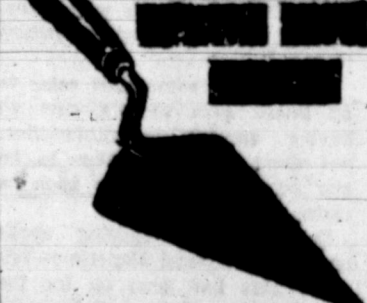

No one should know more about secret workouts than young Patterson and his cloak-and-dagger manager, Gus D'Amato, who admittedly staged secret sparring sessions before fights with Archie Moore and Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson.

Johansson, training at Grossin-ger, N.Y., hasn't scored a single legitimate knockdown in his 144 rounds of sparring in preparation for next week's heavyweight title fight. He has looked like a "nothing" fighter.

Yet, the unbeaten Swede — champion of Europe — is reputedly the most deadly right-hand puncher in the heavy division. He knocked out top contender Eddie Machen of Redding, Calif., in the first round last September. Machen was on the deck three times.

Pilot D'Amato said today, "I have a spy at Johansson's camp — and I don't mean Harry Davidson (Johansson's rejected American manager). My spy tells me trainer Whitey Bimstein has been hiring top-flight sparring partners in New York for Johansson; but those guys never show up at Grossin-

The Trail Is Cold

(Continued from yesterday) I'm Sam Optic, a private investigator. I had taken a case for Mrs. N. E. Body, who claimed she was being robbed out of thirteen cents every time she bought a loaf of bread. My first spot for investigation was a farm. I was questioning the owner of the land.

This fellow raised the basic ingredient for bread. By his own figures he was getting about two and a half cents a loaf. Obviously, he wasn't getting rich. As a matter of fact, he had that pinched look I had observed on the face of Mrs. Body.

The Case Builds

(Continued From preceding episode) On the way back to my office I took a detour and pulled up at a supermarket. If the farmer was right, the boys who ran these grocery emporiums were having as tough a job of making ends meet as anyone else.

Corduroy say my face as I came in the door. "What is it, chief?" she asked. "You look worried."

BETTER JOBS

By R. C. HOLES Coveting Commandment Weofully Misunderstood In the last issue I was trying to point out the importance of better understanding the meaning of the Coveting Commandment.

A Master Key To Life The late Emmet Fox has a very enlightening book on "The Ten Commandments." In his opening chapter on what Moses means today, he points out that the Ten Commandments are taught everywhere but they are woefully misunderstood.

There is not any nation, at least not one of the big ones, which coveted other people's possessions and helped itself to them when it could. The tragedy is that the little fellows, little countries like Holland, Belgium, and Finland, who have never threatened anybody, or been any danger — quite decent, clean, orderly, honest, God-loving people — are brought into trouble which has been brought about by the covetousness of other nations.

Corduroy has a pretty level head on her shoulders. She was absolutely right. I could see that what I had taken to be an easy case was going to have lots of ramifications.

Fair Enough

A First Nodding Of Amen To Dubinsky

by WESTBROOK PEGLER

For the first time I find myself nodding amen to a proposal to Dave Dubinsky. Apropos a slap in the snoot incurred by his henchman, Charles G. Zimmerman, better known as Sacha, an old Trotsky Bolshevik, Dubinsky emitted a shrill squawk for "immediate action by the FBI."

Berger was boss of the notorious Truckers' Union, which, by an oddity of jurisdiction, belongs to the Garment Workers, not the Teamsters. There is sworn testimony that Berger obtained two or three charters for local "paper" unions in New York for Johnny Dio, the criminal who is widely supposed to have induced a third party to destroy the sight of Dubinsky's friend, Victor Riesel, with acid.

Anybody know the address of a good little restaurant where they take any kind of food, getting tired of this Diner's Club bit? A lady I greatly admire, as has been established here long and often, is Joan Crawford. ... Joan Crawford is alleged to have made it public that she is "broke."

Q — I have been using saccharin tablets for years, but just recently have been told that this could cause cancer. Is this true? — Mrs. F. W.

The lady is Mrs. Salvatore Falcone, a lawyer herself, a graduate of Fordham Law, the wife of a reputable young attorney but the cousin of one or more tough Italo in a region where Italian laborers put their roots down 60 years ago. One of them did attend the Apalachin attack, and Mrs. Falcone, also known as Dolly, has been his counsel in certain proceedings.

However, her own reputation is spotless whereas Min Mathieson's is not. Moreover, if cousinship conveys guilt, then Dubinsky's plentiful is the sister of two habitual criminals one of whom was murdered in New York for letting hot cargo through a picket line of Dubinsky's union. For Lagnipape, their father, was shot in a union racket in Chicago long ago and Min, herself, had a pinch in Chicago for a fracas of the Loveston communist branch which she followed out of Stalin's party in a typical Communist end-run long ago.

because of the sudden, untimely death of her beloved husband, finds that compense destroyed by the need to pay new, unforeseen taxes of heavy calibre. ... A widow I know in Texas was appalled when she found out what estate and other hefty taxes would do to the reasonably comfortable sum left by her husband. ... There is one way out, fair to all, and that of course is a national lottery which would make income and estate taxes unnecessary. ... But morality groups fight it as contrary to ethical practice by a government. ... I must move in raffish, amoral circles because no man or woman I know, rich or poor, would be against a national lottery. ... To work one's entire adult life with no more goal than the ability to keep up with taxes without getting into debt is to lack any incentive whatsoever. ... The tragedy in owing taxes is that it is almost impossible ever to get even. ... The money you earn in the hope of paying off is itself so taxed that the arrears can't be met. ... And no tax system of that nature can be enduring. ... It has to crack at some time or create a nation of cheats.

Executives' Cars Show Accessories

By JACK VANDERBERG, UPI Automotive Editor

DETROIT (UPI)—Some ideas of the accessories which will be on the cars of the future can be gained from looking at the cars top officials of General Motors technical center are driving today.

I drove in several of these cars recently when I toured the tech center. They are standard production cars in every respect except for futuristic accessories which have been installed in them for testing by the executives during their driving.

Probably the most interesting innovation I saw was a new type of seat which has been installed on the Pontiac driven by William L. Mitchell head of GM's styling office.

The seat covering is made of two separate layers of leather, the top one perforated with series of small holes arranged in a decorative fashion.

A steady stream of air is forced between the two layers of leather. This air seeps out of the small perforations, keeping the passenger comfortable by allowing his body to "breathe" all over.

Helps Cool Passenger

Because it also serves to cool the passenger in hot weather, it could be offered as a replacement for air conditioning in cars of the future.

The front passenger's seat also can be flipped over so the back rest becomes the seat cushion and vice versa, leaving the seat facing the rear instead of the front of the car.

As a precaution against the seat flipping accidentally, it has to be lifted slightly before its position can be changed.

The seat facing the rear not only makes it more convenient for the front seat passenger to converse with those in the rear, it is a safety measure. Safety experts say a person facing the rear is not as likely to be injured in an accident, especially one involving the front of the car, as a passenger facing the front.

Devices Still Experimental

One of the annoyances in current cars is stretching all the way across the driver's seat to unlock the door on the passenger's side.

An electronic device being tested by GM controls the locking and unlocking of the doors through the ignition key.

All the doors can be unlocked merely by inserting the key in the ignition. When the key is taken out of the ignition, none of the doors can be opened from the outside without a key.

This prevents locking the keys inside the car and also makes it easier to remember to lock the doors when you leave the car. Of course, you still can forget and leave the keys in the ignition.

All of these things are still experimental and, cost is no factor in their use on the executives' cars. Before they will be made available to the public they will have to be proven of enough interest to the public, capable of production at a reasonable cost, and tested to iron out any possible defects which might develop.

SHE USES NO ROACH

Gaston Johnston's No Roach is the most effective insecticide to use against troublesome cockroaches. When a housewife uses No Roach she does not have to move dishes or breathe harmful sprays and in using No Roach she is much more likely to get results.

FATHER'S DAY TIME

B & B Pharmacy, Ballard at Browning, has everything that it takes to delight your father or husband on his special day Sunday. Among the Father's Day items are musical tie clasps and cuff links, home bar supplies, watches, cameras, pipes and smoking supplies and electric razors. (Daily News Photo)

Roach Season To Begin Early This Summer

The weatherman says that summer will come early this year. That means the roaches and ants will be around sooner than ever... and the time to protect with No Roach is right now!

Scientists have discovered a new roach control formula that is:

- (a) Effective against all crawling insects, including the new resistant roaches.
- (b) Easy to use.
- (c) Safe to use around children and pets.
- (d) Stays effective for months with only one application.

It's called Johnston's No Roach. When you use No Roach, there's no need to move dishes, or to breathe harmful sprays. Just brush this odorless, colorless liquid on cabinets, baseboards, windowsills, doorsteps, cracks, drainpipes... wherever roaches and ants may enter. It dries quickly to form an invisible Death Zone for all crawling insects. They walk across it... and die within minutes! Brush on No Roach and forget it for months! It stays effective 24 hours a day.

No Roach works against roaches, ants, waterbugs, spiders, silverfish, and all crawling insects in the eight ounce bottle only 89 cents, pint $1.69.

No Roach is available at Furr Food, Buddy's Super Market, Ideal Food Stores, Fite's, Creney's, Clyde's, Perkins' and other food and drug stores.

Brighten Father's Day With Gifts From B&B

Every taste for Father's Day can be met at B&B Pharmacy, Ballard and Browning. Dad's Day is Sunday and with gifts from B&B you can make your husband or father feel like a king.

Musical tie clasps and cuff links are ideal for the best dressed, musical male. For the man with many cuff links, get a St. Thomas men's jewelry box. Other welcome accessories are cigarette lighters and Timex watches, and pocket watches.

B&B has some original items in home bar supplies. See the book-end and picture frame bars, the liquor bottle holders and the portable bar with an all-leather carrying case.

Take your pick of Kaywoodie and Yellow-Bole pipes. Then cast your eyes on the pipe racks, humidors, and tobacco pouches. Other or candy.

Shop here for masculine stationery, two-view shaving mirrors, Paper Mate pens, billfolds, key chains and electric clocks.

For the outdoorsman, particularly the one who likes to take his family along, there are Ray-O-Vac sportsman lanterns, flashlights, sun glasses, Plastone hot-and-cold king size jugs, charcoal buckets and picnic baskets. B&B has an interesting line of patio supplies.

Most men like to fool with cameras so try a Bell and Howell movie camera or a Kodak, Brownie or Argus camera.

It is in its line of men's shaving lotions that B&B really excels. After shave lotion, talcum powder and cologne are available in Charbert boxes. Old Spice has after shave lotion, and spray deodorant, cologne and electric shave lotion. King's Men also has these items.

Of course, B&B is well stocked with electric shavers — Schick, Remington and Norelco.
