

Rain Fall Plagues Texas Hills

United Press International

SAN ANTONIO (UPI)—Rain continued to plague the already-soaked Texas Hill Country today and swelled the Guadalupe River to near flood stage at Comfort, 40 miles northwest of San Antonio.

Scattered thundershowers during Thursday night and early today added to the runoff from earlier downpours to push the Guadalupe to a 22.7 foot rise.

Kendall County Sheriff Lee D-Spain said there is no immediate danger of families in the area being flooded. He said the river is not out of its banks at Comfort yet but will be if the rains continue.

The Nueces River had risen three feet at Uvalde this morning, and several highways were still flooded.

Rains Measure 7.8 Inches

Rains as heavy as seven and eight inches drenched parts of Gillespie and Kerr counties Thursday and today. Kerrville reported 3.51 inches, and a 7.34 inch reading was reported upstream from flood-threatened Comfort.

Fredericksburg had a 4.38 inch downpour, which will drain into the Pedernales River. Smaller amounts were reported by the weather bureau at Luckin, with 2.6; Palacios, 3.8; Beeville, .66; Corpus Christi, .33.

Also Cotulla, .44; Junction, .76; College Station, .82; Mineral Wells, .11; Van Horn, .02; Perrin AFB (Sherman), .11; Big Spring, a trace; Gray AFB (Killeen), .63; Crandall, .08; Trinidad, .74; Corsicana, .54.

Moist air moving across the state from the south dumped 3.02 inches of rain on Laredo in the six hours prior to midnight.

Cloudbursts of up to six inches drenched the soggy Hill Country Thursday, sending the Guadalupe out of its banks up stream from Comfort. The flooding Sabinal River went out of its banks Thursday, isolating the town of Utopia.

A severe electrical storm knocked out telephone lines leading to a girl scout camp about 70 miles west of San Antonio, and the rising Guadalupe isolated a Boy Scout camp at Ingram.

Flood waters as high as eight inches covered at least seven Texas highways Thursday night, but were expected to recede quickly.

Eight inches of water flooded Farm Road 470 between Bandera and Utopia and U. S. Highway 83 was under three to four inches of water early Thursday.

Other roads inundated by heavy downpours were Farm Road 187 between Utopia and Sabinal; Farm Road 1050 between Utopia and Garner State Park; State 127 between Sabinal and Con-Can, a resort, State 377 between Del Rio and Rocksprings; State 55, 32 miles north of Uvalde and State 277 six miles south of Sonora.

Today was the eighth day of moderate to heavy rains in scattered parts of the state. Del Rio reported 1.16 inches at 6 a. m. today; San Antonio 1.10; Houston 1.18; Victoria 1.60 and Fort Worth, where almost 10 inches flooded streets earlier in the week, had a 20 inch reading.

West's Fastest Guns To Gather

A Pampa High School youth, who has been practicing fast gun draws for eight years, has challenged six professionals to a fast draw contest, beginning Monday as part of Amarillo's Waddy Week celebration.

The boy, Gary Don Bennett, 16, E. Christy, has never drawn against a timer but he is prepared to draw on some of the fastest men in the Southwest and match his holster-clearing time with theirs.

Satchmo On Recovery Road

SPOLETO, Italy (UPI)—Louis Armstrong appeared to be responding to treatment today and his doctor said the best thing would be to get him back to New York as soon as possible.

The 59-year-old jazz king, hospitalized with bronchial pneumonia, heart trouble and body swelling, flashed his famous smile and was as cheery as he could be Thursday night.

A reporter had told his physician, Dr. Alexander Schiff, that it had been rumored the famed trumpet player had died.

"Well, come take a look," said Schiff.

Mrs. Armstrong woke her sleeping husband with a gentle kiss. "How do you feel, honey?" she asked as she propped him up on two pillows.

"I feel just dandy, just dandy," flashed Satchmo.

The doctor said Armstrong was "getting better. His temperature is slightly above normal."

It had shot up to 102 Thursday after a relapse but he responded to treatment later in the day.

"We would like to get him back to New York as soon as possible," said the doctor. "We will watch him closely for the next few days and when he is better he will go back to Rome and then hop on a fast jet for New York."

Calm Long Is Granted Freedom

By JACK V. FOX
United Press International

COVINGTON, La. (UPI)—Gov. Earl K. Long got himself released from a mental hospital today by firing the two men who ran the hospital.

The case to keep Long in the southeastern Louisiana mental hospital was quickly dropped and District Judge Robert D. Jones let Long go. An aide said Long was going to a hotel.

Long sat quietly holding an unlighted cigarette while Atty. Gen. Jack Gremlion joined a motion of Long's lawyers to drop the commitment order which put him into the hospital eight days ago.

Judge Jones then said there was no case; Long was free.

Spectators jamming the sweltering courtroom—actually a junior high school gymnasium—broke into thunderous applause.

Long leaped up and waved his hands triumphantly above his head.

Back in Control

There was no doubt that Long was once more in control of the state. He personally signed the papers that fired Jesse Bankston, state director of hospitals, and Dr. Charles Belcher, superintendent of the hospital where he had been held.

Since May 30, Long has been in three hospitals. His wife, who this week fled Louisiana, had him dragged to a stretcher and flown to John Sealy Hospital in Galveston.

He got out of John Sealy in a little more than two weeks by promising to enter Ochsner Foundation Clinic in New Orleans if (See LONG, Page 3)

SCOUT POST TO HUDSON

Don Cain, President of the Adobe Walls Council, Boy Scouts of America, announced today that the Executive Committee has selected Brantly Hudson of Albuquerque, N.M., to succeed Yorel Harris as Scout Executive.

Hudson was born and reared in Dallas and attended the University of Texas. He is married and has three girls. He is a member of the Methodist Church.

Hudson started his professional Scouting career as a District Executive in Brownwood. From Brownwood, he was promoted to District Executive in Lubbock. After serving in the Lubbock Council for three and one-half years, he was promoted to Field Director of the Kit Carson Council in Albuquerque, N.M., in which capacity he has served for the past three and one half years.

Hudson is to assume his new duties Aug. 1, but plans to report to the Council before the Executive Board meeting on July 23.

Discoverer IV 'Flop' Might Be Explained

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (UPI)—Air Force scientists may disclose today why Discoverer IV failed to place in orbit a satellite which its launchers hoped to recover from space for the first time.

Scientists presume that after no radio signals had been picked up by tracking stations, Discoverer IV burned up as it hit the dense atmosphere. A similar fate occurred June 3 to Discoverer III, which carried mice in its capsule.

(At Cape Canaveral Thursday night the Air Force sent an intermediate range Thor ballistic missile on a blazing flight toward a target area in the Atlantic 1,500 miles away. Unlike the Discoverer launched at Vandenberg, which failed in its objective of orbiting the earth, the Canaveral Thor was a single-stage vehicle which was supposed to hurtle its nose cone 1,500 miles across the Atlantic. The target was a circular area of ocean near Antigua Island in the West Indies. The Air Force did not disclose results of the test.)

The seven-story high rocket rose slowly from its pad at 6:47 p.m. e.d.t., and then gathered speed. It looked like a vanishing, upside-down Roman candle as flame roared from its tail and it headed southward into an intended polar orbit.

"The main thing we want to do is recover one of these things," a spokesman said. "It's strictly a hardware test."

Two previous Discoverer shots failed to return so-called life capsules to earth.

If it comes from a hardware store we have it, Lewis Howe. (Adv.)

ROUGH FLIGHT MAY HAVE SAVED TOT, 3

By KYLE THOMPSON
United Press International

HOUSTON (UPI)—A thunderstorm pounded an air force plane on a 1600 mile race with death so violently Thursday night it made Randa Wimberly, 3, a sick and may have saved her life.

The little girl did what came naturally. She threw up. And it popped a grape—a large purple one—that apparently had been choking her for nearly two days.

Her parents thought the trouble was a recurrence of a chronic throat condition.

The storm, spiked with hail sleet and lightning, tossed the four-engine turbo-prop transport about like a tin can in a typhoon. But after nature dislodged the grape, Randa started breathing better for the first time since Wednesday—and look a nap.

By the time the plane landed at Houston, where doctors from the Texas Children's Hospital waited, Randa was feeling pretty chipper and walked by herself from the plane.

The girl's father, Maurice Wimberly of Yuma, Ariz., asked the Air Force to rush his daughter to the Houston hospital when the looking started growing steadily worse. He feared if she didn't get relief, she might die.

Routed Crew From Pool

The Air Force moved quickly. It rounded up a crew for the emergency flight from the swimming pool at the Marine Corps Auxiliary Air Station officers club in Yuma. Within two hours the red tape had been cleared and the plane was in the air.

Wimberly, a loan company employee, said Randa was born with a throat obstruction, and underwent an operation before she was 24 hours old. That operation was performed by Dr. Luke Able at the Texas Children's Hospital.

When she started choking, her father feared something had gone wrong with the surgery, and the same old trouble was starting up again.

Mrs. Phyllis Hansenburg, supervisor of the children's hospital, said a preliminary examination indicated Randa was breathing normally, but she was hospitalized for observation.

The plane was piloted by Capt. Donald P. Wagner of Salem, Ore. The plane, a C-130 from Seward Air Force Base at Nashville, Tenn., had been temporarily assigned to the Marine Base.

Other crewmen were Capt. Frank Farthing of Camby, Ore., second pilot; Navy Lt. Thomas Atchison of Mitchellville, Tenn.; Sgt. Ted Hart of Checotah, Okla.; engineer; and Sgt. Don Clontz of Wichita Falls, Tex., crew chief.

Mary Ann Duray of Memphis, a Navy WAVE, was hitchhiking east and accompanied the girl.

House Debates; Senate Rests

By LLOYD LARRABEE
United Press International

AUSTIN (UPI)—A "compromise" 168 million dollar tax bill which could solve the state's financial crisis, cleared a House committee and headed onto the floor of the lower chamber today for action.

The House went in session today to debate the bill while the Senate went home for a long weekend recess. The upper chamber has little work to do until the House whips out some sort of money measure.

The bill that won 12-6 approval in the House Revenue and Taxation Committee Thursday night is based heavily on a luxury sales and use tax. It is one sponsored by Rep. Frates Seeligson of San Antonio.

The committee stalled another compromise measure, one sponsored by Gov. Price Daniel, by sending it to a subcommittee for further study, and rejecting a move 13-4 to report it out of subcommittee immediately.

Seeligson's bill would raise an estimated 168 million dollars over the next two fiscal years to support state money needs. Of this total, 72 million dollars would come from a "luxury sales and use tax," of two per cent on all sales over 50 dollars.

The bill incorporates several features of Daniel's proposal.

Action came on the report of a subcommittee headed by Rep. Pete Matthew of Yoakum. It had received the bill only some five hours earlier, at the conclusion of three days of public hearings on both Seeligson's bill and the administration measure.

Cigarette Tax Halved

Committee members cut in half Seeligson's proposal to boost the cigarette tax two cents a pack. The one-cent increase is in line with Daniel's suggestion.

The committee also adopted an amendment by Rep. Joe Burkett of Kerrville raising the level of a new tax on cigars to 25 per cent in the original bill—but leaving a new levy on other tobacco products at 12½ per cent.

Also approved was an amendment by Rep. Sam Bass of Freestone providing a one-factor formula in computing the corporation franchise tax. It would apply on gross receipts. Bass' amendment also deletes debt-as-factor in the computation.

The bill was originally designed to produce some 184 million dollars. But the potential new money was slashed in part by an amendment by Rep. Richard Slack of Pecos, striking out a provision which would triple the wine and beer retailers' permits.

The committee killed 14-2 a move by Rep. Jim Cotten of Weatherford to remove a provision slashing the sulphur production tax from $1.40 per ton to $1.00.

Girl Scouts Leave Tuesday For Colorado

Eight girls from the Top O' Texas Girl Scout Council will leave Tuesday evening on a special train for Colorado Springs, Colo., to attend the National Girl Scout Round-up. Approximately 8,000 Round Scouts and 2,000 adults from every state and some foreign countries are expected to attend.

The eight girls from the Top O' Texas Council are Miss JoAnn Thompson, patrol leader; Miss Sylvia Grider, assistant patrol leader; Misses Linda Barker, Linda Belmont, Martha Lou Kelley, Kay Layne and Nora Wells, all of Pampa; and Miss Ann Duncan of Skellytown.

This patrol of eight girls will form a troop along with patrols from New York, Massachusetts and Ohio. The troop leader will be a woman from Iowa.

Going with the Scouts are numerous "swap items" depicting this area which they will trade with girls from other parts of the country. They include miniature cowboy hat lapel pins, ceramic boots and other ceramic Western charms, key chains, matchbooks and postcards and brochures about Pampa.

At designated times, each patrol at the Round-up will give a demonstration depicting something typical of its part of the country. The Top O' Texas patrol's demonstration will be "popping the bull whip."

The Round-up program will follow a frontier theme, including the four phases of "Frontiers of Home," "The Western Frontier," "The World Frontier" and "Widening Frontiers."

A Round-up highlight will be a special Fourth of July flag ceremony dedicating the new 49-star flag. The Scouts will also tour the Air Force Academy and other points of interest in the area.

News of happenings at the Round-up will be sent back to Pampa by Miss JoAnn Thompson, correspondent for the "Daily News and Miss Kay Layne, correspondent for radio stations KPND and KHII.

The eight girls in the Top O' Texas patrol have been training for the event since September, with Mrs. Marian Osborne of Pampa as trainer. The girls were chosen by a special local committee on preparation. (See SCOUTS, Page 3)

President, Queen Open St. Lawrence Seaway

By BERT L. MARSH
United Press International

MONTREAL (UPI)—Queen Elizabeth and President Eisenhower formally opened the St. Lawrence Seaway to shipping today. They hailed it as a new wonder of the world and an example of international cooperation.

The waterway is "a magnificent monument to the enduring friendship of our two nations and to their partnership in the development of North America," the Queen told the President in a speech carried throughout the world by radio and into millions of homes by television.

"That partnership is most agreeably symbolized, Mr. President, in the fact that you and I have joined together to perform this ceremony today."

The President said the seaway, a 2,300-mile waterway of locks, lakes and man-made channels from the Atlantic Ocean to the Great Lakes, was an example of the way other nations should work together.

"But the seaway is far more than a technical and a commercial triumph," he said in a speech heard by an estimated 50,000 persons by public address system.

In a way, today's hands-across-the-border gesture by the Queen and President was an anti-climax. The seaway opened for business nearly two months ago, just after the last ice from the winter freeze-up disappeared from Montreal harbor.

Ted Gikas Elected Restaurant Prexy

HOUSTON (UPI)—Ted Gikas of Pampa has been elected president of the Panhandle Restaurant Association. The election took place at the Texas Restaurant Association Convention here.

Gikas is a partner in the Coney Island restaurant on W. Foster.

An honor guest at the convention was Malcolm Stewart of San Francisco, Calif. Stewart is the new president of the National Restaurant Association.

Members and rushees of the recent Sigma Delta Sub Deb rush party in the Country Club pool were, back row, Miss Nancy Williams, historian and Miss Linda Skewes, vice president; front row, Misses Janice Giddens, Gail Culpepper, and Sandra Welchel, rushees.

Mature Parent

One weekend when Ted was about 3, he suddenly became aware of visitors.

His Uncle Bob arrived, and after greeting the grownups sat down on the davenport in his overcoat. Feeling in his pockets, he said as though to himself, "Now what's all this stuff in here?"

Shrieking with delight, Ted's sister flung herself on Uncle Bob's right overcoat pocket and emerged with a toy watch, soap in the form of a black kitten, some peppermints and a little vial of perfume.

Ted had started shrieking, too, because it seemed the thing to do. But when he discovered a whale for his bathtub in Uncle Bob's left pocket, he stopped yelling. As the pocket disgorged a whistle, his own bag of peppermints and a clockwork bus, he was too gratefully astounded to even say "Thank you." Right then and there visitors and presents became mixed up in his mind.

So he's become something of a problem to his parents. Whenever a friend or relative comes to visit, Ted shouts with happy expectation, "What did you bring me?"

Many of the visitors resent this greeting. They want to be loved for themselves alone and feel uneasy when Ted demands presents from them, especially when they haven't brought him any. His Aunt Mable, for instance, is convinced that he's being trained to rudeness and materialism.

I think she's mistaken. A child's "What did you bring me?" is his innocent certainty that all grownups love him and are interested in giving him pleasure.

Usually, like Uncle Bob, some visitor has demonstrated this interest so impressively that the child expects it from all subsequent visitors just as we expect water from faucets because the first one we ever turned on delivered it.

REFRESHING way to cool off a sizzling Fourth—all glasses of soft drinks combined with strained fruit and lots of ice cream.

COOK'S NOOK

Cool Frothy Flips Help Celebrate Festive Fourth

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor
All day long on the Fourth of July pop go the soft drink bottles. That's part of the patriotic fun. So check your beverage supply for picnics, barbecues and porch parties and have plenty of cool and bubbly drinks in the refrigerator.

Stock up, too, on the makings for special bubbly drinks. Get ice cream in several flavors, heavy cream and a variety of strained fruit baby foods needed to concoct frothy flips to suit all tastes and ages.

The procedure is simple: Put two or three tablespoons of strained or pureed fruit in the bottom of a tall glass; blend in any other flavoring desired and one tablespoon of cream; stir in a little chilled carbonated soft drink, then fill up the glass to within about an inch from the top with same soft drink. Add ice cream—a heaping tablespoon or a scoop—stir slightly, pop a maraschino cherry on top and serve.

You'll find that teen-agers will make up their own flavor combinations, but for a starter, try some of these. Each makes one serving.

FRUIT FLIP
Two tablespoons strained pears-and-pineapple, 1 tablespoon cream, orange carbonated beverage, chilled; strawberry ice cream or lemon sherbet.
Blend pears-and-pineapple with cream in tall glass. Stir in a little orange carbonated beverage, then fill glass with it. Add ice cream or sherbet, stir slightly and serve.

MUMBO JUMBO
"rude" when we tell Ted that Aunt Mable is not Uncle Bob and feels unhappy when he yells "What did you bring me?"
As children grow, they may begin to welcome our friends and relatives for their beautiful souls. Right now they are fascinated by Uncle Bob's capacity to turn his coat pockets into a source of wonder and delight.

Two tablespoons strained prunes, powdered cloves, pinch; 1 tablespoon cream, cola, chilled; vanilla ice cream.
Blend as in above.

DREAMY PEACH
Three tablespoons strained peaches, nutmeg, pinch; 1 tablespoon cream, lemon-lime carbonated beverage, chilled; vanilla ice cream.
Blend as in above.

BANANA BOAT BEER
Three tablespoons strained bananas, 1 tablespoon cream, root beer, chilled; vanilla ice cream.
Blend as in above.

TOMORROW'S DINNER
Hot chicken noodle soup or clam chowder, tuna and celery salad with lettuce, sliced tomatoes and pimento-stuffed olives, potato chips, crisp rolls, butter or margarine, sliced peaches, lady fingers, coffee, tea, milk.

Mopsy
Salad dressings can be elegant but simple. To make a honey lemon dressing combine equal parts of honey, lemon juice, and salad oil blended and salted to taste.

Sub Debs Have Splash Shindig

Sigma Delta Sub Deb Club entertained at a second Rush Party recently with a "Splash Shindig" in the Country Club and a patio party in the home of Miss Nancy Williams, 1330 Williston.

Floating balloons in the club pool provided entertainment and decorations for the Splash Shindig. Following the swimming, guests and members adjourned to the home of Miss Williams, where the backyard was decorated as the USS Sub Deb with green and white flags and life preservers. Refreshments of charcoal grilled hamburgers, Cokes and homemade ice cream were served.

Miss Betty Lou Smith, president, extended a welcome to the guests and Miss Linda Skewes, vice president, outlined the club's general activities. Miss Jan Hall, treasurer, gave a talk on the club's winter trip to Austin. Movies of the club's annual Holiday Presentation Dances for the past three years were shown.

Rock and Roll music was provided by Pat Carter, Larry Hendricks, Bill Byers and Jerry Teed.

Sponsors attending were Mrs. Leonard Hudson and Miss Jo Ann Jones, junior sponsor. Special guests were Mrs. Ham Luna and Mrs. Annie Loftus, past sponsors; Miss Pat Kline, new Pampa resident; Miss Kay Curfman, out-of-town guest; Miss Diane Zachry and Miss Maynette Loftus, honorary members; Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Williams, parents of the hostess; Mmes. Bob Miller, Scott Hall and Wilbur Waggoner. Approximately 75 guests attended.

Eddie Rose Feted On 5th Birthday

LEFORS (Sp) — Eddie Rose was honored on his fifth birthday with a party given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Rose in their home west of Lefors.

Lawn games were played and refreshments of ice cream-bars, cake, and punch were served. Favorites of huge balloons and blowers were given.

Guests were Vickie and Mike

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for 36 years and I have never had any trouble like what I'm having now. My husband recently spent five weeks in the hospital. Being a very friendly gent, he made friends with everybody there. He said he got such good service from one of the nurses that he promised to buy her a chicken dinner when he got out. I told him if he wanted to buy her a chicken dinner it was all right with me but I liked chicken, too, and we could all go together. He said no, he wanted to take her alone. I said it was out of the question. Am I right or is he?

OVER SIXTY
Dear Over: Henpeck the old-rooster until he includes you in the chicken dinner. If you let him take her alone, you're a dumb cluck.

DEAR ABBY: When I call my mother after nine o'clock at night I can't understand a word she says because she doesn't have her teeth in. Now, I have heard that some people sleep all night with their dentures in and take them out only to clean them. As a child I recall seeing my father's false teeth in a glass in the bathroom soaking all night. Do people still do this or does it mean it's a poor fit when they take them out at night?

BERTHA
Dear Bertha: This question is something for more experienced folks to sink their teeth into. My dentist says that dentures, if properly fitted, can remain comfortably in the mouth all night.

DEAR ABBY: Why is it that fathers and mothers can't sleep with their children any more? It burns me up how people put little children off in rooms by themselves and then go to bed and cuddle up in one another's arms. I raised only one child. When she got too big for all three of us to get in bed together, she and I slept in one bed and my husband in another. We slept that way until she got married. Children are little just once and I believe in enjoying them as long as possible. Don't you agree?

A GOOD MOTHER
Dear Mother: Children can be cuddled during the daytime but when bedtime comes, a "good mother" teaches her daughter, by example that a woman's place is with her husband. The world is full of lonely wives who have "cuddled" their children instead of their husbands.

DEAR ABBY: I live in a rural community where it's nice to be friendly with everybody. But this one neighbor will be the death of me. She comes over right after breakfast and stays all day. She is a nut on religion and carries her Bible around in her purse. She will follow me around the house reading out of the Bible. I don't want to get her mad at me but, Abby, how can I get rid of her?

BUSY
Dear Busy: Ask her to turn to PROVERBS 25:17 where she will find: "Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbor's house; lest he become weary of thee..."

RUTH MILLETT

Memo to the sweet girl graduates who plan to enter college this fall:

Many of you, perhaps the majority, are going to college to major in husband hunting. You're pretty vague about what you want to take in college, because, after all, you plan to get married. If you ever work at all, you figure it will be for a year or two.

While marriage is a fine goal for a girl and a college campus is hard to beat as a place to look for a husband, maybe you'd better just minor in husband hunting and major in something else.

Why? Because that rosy dream of yours about getting a husband and letting him support you for the rest of your life isn't very realistic.

Chances are that instead of working for just a year or two, you'll be working for years. First you'll have to help your husband while he gets a start.

But for most of you, your working days won't end there. Some of you will work for years trying to keep up with the standard set by two-income families. Others of you will stay home while your children are small, but go back to work when the last one enters school so that you can give them the "advantages" you want them to have.

Some of you will marry men who will expect you to help earn the living. Lots of men do these days.

And some of you will one day be job-hunting widows—since women today are outliving their husbands. It is hard for a man to leave his widow with enough income so that she doesn't have to worry about money.

Then there will be those of you who want to go to work when you have reared your families because you feel useless sitting around an empty house.

Since the chances are that you'll spend a good many of your adult years holding down a job, you'd better prepare yourselves for a good one while you have the chance.

That rosy dream of working "a year or two" doesn't add up to the present statistics on working wives.

For instance, why spread your bread with just butter? Why not use honey butter? By combining equal parts of honey and butter and creaming them well, you have a sandwich spread all by itself that does not need the help of other ingredients.

Lions District First In Nation

District 2T-1 ranks first in the nation, Pampa Lions were told at their noon luncheon Thursday. The Rev. Woodrow Adcock, who presided, also stated that Bill Hunter of Amarillo has been named the nation's outstanding district governor.

Adcock said that the rating is based on new members and new clubs taken in during the past year.

A club with 44 charter members was organized in Stinnett Friday, bringing the number of Texas Lions Clubs to 800, only 20 behind Pennsylvania. Texas is out to get Pennsylvania, the state with the most Lions Clubs in the country.

Two new members, R. A. Wyckoff and Bill Wilshire, received their credentials at the meeting. The presentation was made by the Rev. Richard Crews.

Edwin Flood introduced Elmer Pillars, a milk manager from Amarillo, who showed a 25 minute film on the story of milk.

Three Lions, Joe Tooley, Bunny Shultz and Ralph Thomas, are on their way to New York, N.Y., where they will attend the International Convention, Tuesday through Friday.

Rev. Adcock presided in the absence of President Shultz. The family requests that memorials be donated to their favorite charitable organizations.

Earl J. New Rites Saturday

Funeral services for Earl J. New Sr. will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday in the Duenkel-Carmichael Chapel with Hubert Bratcher, district superintendent of the Methodist Church, and Dewey Godwin of the Community Church in Skellytown officiating.

Mr. New died Thursday morning in the Veterans' Hospital, Amarillo, where he had been a patient for 52 days.

TAX

Rep. Mauro Rossar of El Pasoable capital boost in the rate which becomes a permanent 50-cent hike after this year, a one-cent severance beneficiary tax on natural gas, and a 28-cent per gallon increase in the liquor tax.

The committee action came on the heels of an announcement by an unofficial 16-man compromise committee meeting with Speaker Waggoner Carr that it could reach no agreement on what constitutes a compatible tax bill.

Seeligson said his measure represented an attempt to reach a compromise.

Other items in the bill include an increase in the motor vehicle sales tax from 11 per cent to 15 per cent, the corporation franchise tax formula adjustment plus a temporary 75-cent per $1000 tax, tried to ram through a resolution instructing the sub-committee to report back immediately on Daniel's bill, but it was voted down 13-4.

Three Damage Suits Filed On Motorist

Three damage suits totaling $37,650 were filed late Thursday in district court against a Groom motorist who June 14 was involved in a four-car collision at the intersection of Barnes and Frederic streets.

The motorist, Voda Davis McKee, 42, faces suits for damages brought by Donald Dorsett et al, Russell Beckwith, and T. C. and Dorothy Dorsett. Dorsett et al is asking $3,800. Beckwith is asking for $2,450, while the suit brought by T. C. and Dorothy Dorsett is for a total of $30,000 for mental anguish, and $1400 for present and future medical expenses.

McKee, shortly after the mishap, was charged by Pampa police with driving while intoxicated.

His car allegedly struck the rear of the T. C. Dorsett car, starting a chain reaction of two other rear end collisions.

A crowd expected to be as big as 30,000 began forming at 10 a.m. to watch the ceremonies.

Gladewater Lady Tells How She Lost Weight Easily
The following letter from Mrs. Prince Ella Hooper, Box 1134, Gladewater, Texas, tells the story of easy weight reduction when the Barcontrate plan is used.

Mrs. Hooper wrote as follows: "Barcontrate is a wonderful discovery to those who need a good weight reducer and tonic. Busy people engaged in various vocations need extra energy. After taking Barcontrate, I now have that extra energy. Being a mother, teacher and housewife, Barcontrate has been a saviour."

I have used three bottles of Barcontrate and to my surprise, when I got on the scales, I had lost on an average, five pounds per bottle, a total of 15 pounds. I am happy to recommend Barcontrate to persons needing a tonic as well as weight reducer. Barcontrate may be obtained from any Texas druggist.

Texas Lutherans Receive Boost From Caravaners

By WALLACE TRUESDELL, Daily News Church Editor

Neal Named To Spot In TCU History Dept.

FORT WORTH (Sp1) — Dr. Nevin E. Neal, biographer of Arkansas Senator Joseph T. Robinson, has been named associate professor of history at Texas Christian University effective in September.

Now 43, Dr. Neal was born in Arkansas and took his B.A. degree from Hendrix College in Conway in 1937.

He received his M.A. degree from Vanderbilt two years later and completed his Ph.D. at the University of Oklahoma last year. He also did graduate work at Arkansas State College and the University of Missouri.

He has taught at Conway Junior High, Hendrix College and the University of Tulsa. Also experienced in business, he has served as an accounts executive with a Tulsa firm the last two years.

The new TCU staff member has a long record of service with the Army Reserve Forces and holds the rank of lieutenant-colonel. He is a Methodist, member of the Kiwanis and Elks Clubs and of the Alpha Chi, Phi Alpha Theta and Delta Sigma Pi scholastic fraternities.

Dr. Neal wrote his Ph.D. dissertation on Senator Robinson, published by the University of Oklahoma Press and in the "Dictionary of American Biography."

The Neals have three sons, ages 2, 7 and 14. The family will move here late in the summer.

Knight, a sophomore at Valparaiso (Ind.) University, Judith Schmitz, an incoming Valparaiso freshman; and Karen Rosenquist, a fall freshman at Concordia Teachers College, River Forest, Ill.

Valparaiso and Concordia are Lutheran colleges. The Caravaners made their first stop in Amarillo where they were bowled over by Texas exhibitors. They will fly to Clifton Saturday and that will be their last stop in Texas. Eleven more stops are scheduled in Oklahoma and Arkansas.

The tour will end in August. All programs are set up for four days, with four free days in between. The students, who want to be professional youth leaders, are gaining experience and supplying leadership to local churches. They share the responsibilities of producing recreation and worship for the young people of the Walther League.

Tonight at 7:30 they will begin church and community service projects. Recreation and a buzz session are set for 8:30, with a closing devotion at 9:30.

The Walther League, named after the first president of the Missouri Synod, is made up of young people aged 12-24. Its purpose is to keep youth in the church and keep them close to Christ in recreation and fellowship.

Founded in 1893, the league has grown to 4,300 societies with 100,000 members in the United States, Canada, Mexico, China, Nigeria and New Guinea.

The youth leaders arrived here Wednesday morning and went to work Wednesday afternoon. Two-thirds of the team is from Illinois. Miss Rosenquist from Hoffman, Miss Schmitz from Skokie, Knight hails from Saginaw, Mich. He is the oldest member of the troupe.

Dr. Douglas Carver, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will speak at both services next Sunday. The sermon topic for the 11 a.m. worship hour will be the second in a series from the book of James, "God, The Giver of All Gifts." The church choir will sing the anthem, "Go Not Far From Me, O God."

Miss Eloise Lane, organist, will play for the offertory, "Melody In G" by Gullmatt. At the 7:30 evening worship hour, the sermon topic will be the third in a series on "Sevens In The Bible." The special music by the church choir will be "His Cross And Mine." Miss Lane will play "Andantino" by Martin for the offertory number.

The Training Union will have its Council Meeting at 5:30 in the lower auditorium. This will be followed by the regular Training Union session at 6:30.

The WMU will meet at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, July 1, for the Executive Board meeting; Royal Service Program at 10. The program subject is "Songs Of Deliverance."

On Wednesday evening the Sunday School superintendents of the church will meet at 6:30 in the library. This meeting is in preparation for the summer revival which begins July 12. Two of the nation's outstanding evangelists will be leading during the revival. Angel Martinez from Arkansas is considered one of the outstanding Southern Baptist evangelists. Frank Boggs of Tallahassee, Fla., is a church musician of great ability. These two will be leading the church in revival services each morning and evening during the week of July 12 to 19.

FORT WORTH (Sp1) — Registration for the annual Texas Christian University Summer Session in Mexico, to be held July 15 - Aug. 25 on the campus of the Monterrey Institute of Technology, has been extended to July 1, according to John H. Hammond, chairman of the department of foreign languages at TCU.

An open house will be held on the Monterrey campus July 14 to honor arriving students with music furnished by a mariachi band. A reception for new students is also scheduled the evening of July 15 on the roof - garden of the Monterrey Tech library building.

During the summer session, excursions will be made to Saltillo, Horse Tail Falls, Garcia Caverns and industrial installations near Monterrey. Several picnics are planned at the country homes of prominent Monterrey business men and weekly dances are scheduled on campus.

A special feature of the 1959 summer session will be a series of workshops in arts and crafts, including drawing, photography, painting, ceramics and weaving. Fee for the workshops is $24. Fifteen students have already registered for the session, including six from Fort Worth: Frank R. Graves, Sheila Estes, Rachel Ramirez, Robert Wharton, Anne Walker, and Sylvia Pylant.

Evening Service To Be Conducted By Gideons At First Methodist

"Who's To Blame?" will be the sermon topic discussed by the Rev. Woodrow Adcock at the two Sunday morning services of the Pampa First Methodist Church. The 8:30 service is broadcast over Radio Station KPDM. The special anthem for this service will be the anthem, "Can You Count The Stars?" by Williams, sung by the Carol and Wesley Choirs. The special music for the 10:35 service will be the anthem, "Let All Mortal Flesh" by Holst, sung by the Sanctuary Singers.

Sunday Evening Fellowship will begin at 6 with a light supper for the entire family in Fellowship Hall. At 6:30 children, youth and adults will separate for one hour of planned activities according to interest and needs. The Sunday night service at 7:30 will be conducted by the Gideons. The special music for the evening service will be the anthem, "Offertory" sung by the MYF Singers.

Two adult courses are "God In My Life" taught by the Rev. P. E. Yarborough and "Know Your Bible" taught by the pastor, R. E. Adcock.

DANNY FITZGERALD TCU junior

Fitzgerald Named Activities Head

FORT WORTH (Sp1) — Danny Fitzgerald of Pampa has been elected director of the summer Student Activities Council of Texas Christian University. The Council plans all social events given for the entire student body.

A junior at TCU, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fitzgerald, 912 Christine, Pampa.

Four other leaders were elected. Richard Walsh of Fort Worth was named president of the Student Association Congress for the summer, with Kenneth Holder, Amarillo, as vice president; Miss Anna Jean King, Cleburne, secretary, and John Kolman, Taylor, treasurer.

Capt. Warren C. Albert, assistant professor of air science at the university, is Congress sponsor for the first six-week term of the summer.

Fitzgerald is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity and served as president of the Interfraternity Council on campus. He was deputy commander of the Arnold Air Society, Air Force honor organization, and treasurer of the TCU ROTC Flying Club.

Foreign News Commentary By PHIL NEWSOM UPI Foreign Editor

Under communism in Poland, the horse has remained a symbol both of the Polish peasant's independence and his anti-communism. Now the government proposes to remove the horse.

First Secretary Wladyslaw Gomułka disclosed the plan to a special meeting of the Communist Party Central Committee.

Under Poland's seven-year plan, the state would put 122,000 tractors into the fields by 1965 instead of the 80,000 previously planned, and at the same time would reduce the number of horses by 300,000.

The Polish peasant always has been cool toward communism and he has been especially cool toward any plan which would deprive him of ownership of his land, and force him into collectivization.

The new plan is both a gimmick to overcome his opposition and a signpost along the precarious road Gomułka has had to travel to preserve the delicate balance between his own and the Moscow governments on the one hand and the explosive sentiments of the Russian-hating Polish people on the other.

Gomułka, as avowed a Communist as Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev, took over his post Oct. 21, 1956, on a wave of anti-Stalin sentiment which for a time endorsed a loosening of satellite control from Moscow and permitted some slight independence in the march of each individual nation toward socialism (communism).

In the nearly three years which have intervened since that time, Gomułka has managed to retain a bit of that independence but at the price of a steady succession of one-sided compromises. Gomułka had helped set up the Communist Polish state, but, along with leaders of other satellite states, came under Stalin's suspicions as a Titoist. He was luckier than some, for instead of being hanged he was let off with a prison sentence.

Deepest Hole Will Be Dug Under Ocean

The Lighter Side By FRANK ELEAZER United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The only scientists you hear much about these days are the space men. But a House Merchant Marine subcommittee the other day turned up some earth men, and it was sad to see how low they've been feeling.

"We've been scouting around for something exciting for earth scientists to do — to attract attention, attract money, and at the same time something that will be worthwhile scientifically," reported Gordon G. Lill, a Navy geophysicist.

So what have they come up with? The world's deepest hole in the ground to be dug in the ocean. They already have named it the Mohole.

To practice for this historic submarine effort the earth men must first dig a hole that isn't the world's deepest.

The estimated price for both holes — Mo and less — is 15 million dollars. We taxpayers will probably have to pay only half. Committee members agreed this was a bargain. Rep. Thomas M. Pelly (R-Wash.) said a moon rocket or two can cost more, and a lot of these don't even work.

Lill and Willard Bascom, officials of a whimsical scientific group known as AMSOC (for the American Miscellaneous Society) which fathered the Mohole, said it's awful how little we know about earth. Much of what we do know, they said, is based on deduction.

What they plan to do is punch man's first hole in the earth's crust, to see for sure what's really inside. By sampling the strata as they drill into the floor of the ocean they hope to confirm what are only theories now. Through sediment laid down over the last two billion years they hope to get a new look at the past.

They will drill in the ocean because that's where the earth's crust is thinnest. They have their eye on two possible spots — one in the Atlantic 200 miles north of Puerto Rico and the other in the Pacific near the equator due south of San Diego.

They figure to drill in water maybe 14,000 feet deep, to a total depth, water and earth, of about 31,000 feet. The deepest hole dug to date is an oil well in West Texas, which goes down 25,340 feet.

Unlike others currently engaged in poking holes in the ground, the Moholeers hope the worst way not to hit any oil. Unplugging a gusher into the ocean could be mighty messy.

How about the Russians? Committee members wanted to know. Are they trying to beat us into the earth? They probably are, said the earth men. It is known anyway that the Russians have their own Mohole committee, and that they claim they are ready to drill.

The subcommittee seemed to think the hole thing was pretty exciting. Chairman George P. Miller (D-Calif.) was so carried away he spoke of "new vistas" to be opened up by our hole.

PLUMBER FATALLY SHOCKED DALLAS (UPI)—Lee W. Bartlett, 50, died underneath a north Dallas house Wednesday as he tried to fix a water leak. An extension cord apparently shorted against a pipe and electrocuted the Farmer's Branch plumber.

CHILD KILLED BY CAR GARLAND, Tex. (UPI)—Michael Dean Brown, 7, darted out of a roadside ditch Wednesday and was killed by an oncoming car. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Brown.

TEXANS RATE HIGH AUSTIN (UPI)—The Texas Army Reserve Division of the 90th Infantry has proof today it is good. After two weeks of active duty training at Fort Polk, La., not a single unit received a mark below satisfactory, and there were few of these. Maj. Gen. Earl Rudder, division commander, said an Army evaluation team gave the division 1,752 superior marks, 3,796 excellent, 781 very satisfactory and 233 satisfactory ratings.

NEWSMEN MEET BROWNSVILLE (UPI)—Some 350 newsmen are expected to register today for the eighth annual summer convention of the Texas Press Association at the Fort Brown Memorial Center in Brownsville. The convention ends Saturday with the annual awards presentation.

News In Brief

CHUCKLES GARDEN VARIETY THIEF MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI)—Police said today they're looking for a garden variety thief. He stole a potted fern and four philodendron plants from a florist.

EMBARRASSED OFFICER CLEARWATER, Fla. (UPI)—The defendant was embarrassed, but his blush couldn't hold a candle to that of the arresting officer. Terry Clark, 17, allegedly ran his car into a lamp pole because he took his eyes off the road to watch a pretty girl walk by. Officer Bernard Mengelheit, who arrested him for damaging city property, acknowledged he hadn't actually seen the accident—he was watching the pretty girl, too.

HOPE

In these troublesome days, we need to abide in hope. In living "the more excellent way" of Christian life, we must abide in faith, hope, and charity. To abide in these is to promote the best Christian way of Life possible on earth.

Let us listen to the great Apostle Paul: "Abide in hope." (1 Cor. 13:13) Let us heed the words of the Psalmist as he declares: "Why art thou Disquieted within me? Hope thou God." (Psalm 42:5) Our hope is in God. Our hope is in Christ and His Church.

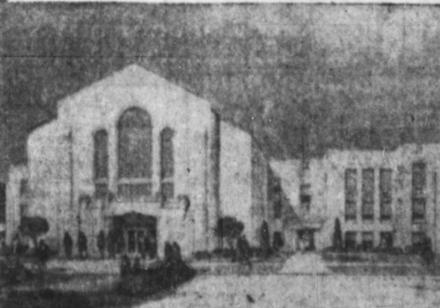

The child of God needs to abide in hope because of a world of despair. We must be strengthened and comforted by hope in divine power and resources.

Hope is a saving and satisfying element of this present life. Hope sustains us in the frailties and weakness of life. Hope and rejoicing in God makes our life purposeful and worthwhile. When trials and test come our way, hope comforts us, and shows us a door of escape.

Abraham, father of the faithful, staggered not at the promise of God, but he hoped and trusted in God and journeyed on with God to the land of promise. He has set an example for every believer to hope and trust in Christ in our day.

Yes, we need to abide in hope. Paul says, "We stand and rejoice in hope of the glory of God." Again he says "not slothful in business, fervent in Spirit, Serving the Lord, rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing instant in prayer."

Hope will make one wise unto salvation, delivering us from the foolishness of trusting in worldly goods. Hope is a satisfying element of a human sole.

Rick Pezdirtz purely paydirt

New York rain drops may have washed out the scheduled Thursday night heavyweight title bout between Floyd Patterson and this Swedish swat-guy, Ingemar Johansson, but they didn't dampen the boxfight interest of two continents.

The big, Big, BIG "shew," to steal a slur from Ed Sullivan was only put under wraps for a 24-hour period. Unlike the Geneva Conference recess, no "cooling off" was anticipated. Quite the contrary. Enthusiasm and mass hysteria over the championship clash has now been allowed to bubble to a bursting point.

More yelling Yankee Stadium fans than ever are expected for the fistcuff festivities tonight. A second moisture-caused postponement would probably plop the title event in a Monday night lap with still more citizens catching the fight fever, or whatever it is that makes people plead for blood or a knockout when two press-guided gladiators strap on the leather mittens.

If you were so kind as to peer quickly at last Sunday's Paydirt, you might recall (trusting your memory is better than ours) some mention of the challenger, young Ingo, curling his foreign lip and sneering smartly in Mr. Patterson's direction.

The invader made some small talk about Patterson's lack of impressiveness in the 1952 Olympics, in which both men partook.

We were slightly shocked that Ingo would bring up the '52 Olympics at all prior to this fight. They must have been an embarrassing chapter in his life.

However, now that the subject has been brought up, let us open the closet door once more. Everone stouten up their stomachs.

Contrasting Stories

The date was August 2, seven years ago, in a Helsinki auditorium.

Patterson, then a mere urchin with lightning fists, had just won the middleweight title. He edged Pampa's Eugene Cooper earlier in the Kansas City Olympic tryouts to secure the Helsinki trip.

The presence of both Patterson and Johansson at the 1952 Olympics and their respective showings is a story of extremes.

You're familiar with Patterson's Olympic career. He wasn't old enough to cross the street by himself when he went to Helsinki with a pocket full of Golden Glove medals.

He won his three Olympic fights, one by a decision, one by a disqualification and one by a knockout. He totaled home the 165-pound title and was voted the most outstanding boxer in the Olympics.

Johansson likewise had a glittering Golden Glove background. In fact he came to America in 1951 as a member of the European team which met the U.S.A. team in Chicago. He won his fight, knocking out a lad named Ernest Fann in the second round.

But as an Olympic heavyweight in '52 his history wasn't nearly so gloomy.

Three times in the first round the referee warned Ingemar to fight or else.

In the second round Johansson ventures a light jab, but gets a mouthful of moist leather in return. So again, he turns for home. This time, he draws one knee up to protect his stomach. In addition to the leather helmet he hurriedly fashions.

The referee snorted and halted the bout. He disqualified the Swede for refusing to fight.

There was no second place medal awarded in the heavyweight division that year. Sanders took the gold prize, but the runner-up bangle was withheld because of Johansson's disqualification.

Since, however, the big Swede has somehow found himself, or that is to say maybe took stock and regrouped his internal arrangements (picked up some guts to those who don't understand) and has climbed up in heavyweight ranks.

There has been little mention of that August 2, 1952, Ingemar has shrugged it off by saying he was "confused."

Perhaps so. He wasn't the only one.

Maybe he's not confused now. Maybe, with 21 straight pro victories and a spooky right arm which he claims "just rises up by itself" and smites the opposition, he will knock Mr. Patterson out tonight.

The odds are 3 to 1 he won't. We'd bet our next twelve months pocket allowance he won't. But that'd only be the pocket jingling stuff, and who cares for silver these days of the folding long green?

with its big sixth, then in the bottom of the sixth Keller threatened seriously by scoring two runs and leading the bases with two out. However, Ronnie Pierce got the next man to ground out, ending the threat and the game.

Steve Molberg led Kissee's attack with his sixth homer of the year. He also had a double and single. Teddy Bird had two singles and a double, and Ken Davis three singles. For Keller, Luedecel had two doubles, McCampbell two singles, and Frasher a double and single.

Ronnie Oler led Duncan's big hitting barrage with a grand-slam homer and two doubles. Garland Godwyn and Parker Stewart both had doubles for Sealest. Jerry Parker and Jim Arthur shared the pitching duties for Duncan, Lucky Dunham pitched for the Optimists, and Tom Foster was the Furr hurler. The Optimists collected four runs in five hits and one error, and Furr's got 4 runs on three hits and one error. The game was called after six innings because of the 9:30 curfew.

Leroy Watson of the Optimists clubbed a home run, and George Duke of the Optimists was 2 for 2. In the Little League, Kissee used a five-run sixth inning to edge Keller, 8-7; Duncan blanked Sealest, 14-0; and Cabot stopped Celanese, 5-1.

Kissee erased a 5-3 Keller lead

Promoter, Commission Feud Over Early Ticket Refunds

By JACK CUDDY
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI) — Wet-weather forecasts today threatened the unlikely Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight with another postponement.

The weather bureau said there were chances of thundershowers tonight and Saturday night. Promoter Bill Rosenzohn already at odds with the New York State Athletic Commission over ticket refunds after the first 24-hour postponement said he would decide "early" whether another shift to Saturday or Monday was necessary.

Thursday's postponement of the 15-round bout between champion Patterson and Swedish Johansson, champion of Europe, was caused by rain and wet grounds at Yankee Stadium.

Chairman Melvin L. Krulwich of the Athletic Commission notified Rosenzohn's secretary, Mrs. Doris Carnot, "the box office would have to refund," — she said.

Buxom Mrs. Carnot said that innocently and sweetly Thursday night at a press conference, much to Rosenzohn's surprise, after Krulwich's visit.

Rosenzohn said the fight is held tonight, there'll be refunds only in hardship cases—where out-of-town visitors have airplane tickets and must return immediately to their homes.

Meanwhile, Patterson and Johansson remained at their hotels, where they limbering exercises late Thursday. They need not weigh-in again unless the bout is shifted to next week. At Thursday's ceremonies in the Commodore Hotel, Ingemar weighed 196 pounds to Floyd's 182, for an advantage of 14.

Rebs, Play Amarillo Here Saturday, Borger Sun.

The Pampa American Legion

Rebels shoot for their fourth and fifth straight district wins at Pampa League Park Saturday night and Sunday afternoon, against Amarillo and Borger.

The Rebels play Amarillo at 8:15 p.m. Saturday, and Borger at 3 p.m. Sunday. They have not played Amarillo before this season, but they lost a non-district contest to Borger here, 5-4.

Wing in both the Amarillo and Borger games would give the Rebels a 5-0 record for the first half of district play, and leave them as the only undefeated squad in the loop. The Rebels are now 3-0 in district and 4-2 for the season.

The big bat of Larry Stroud and the pitching of Kippy Williams and Mike Clark have been mainly responsible for putting Pampa into its good contending position.

Stroud has 11 RBIs, three home runs, a .320 batting average, a .540 slugging percentage, and has scored nine runs. Williams has fanned 42 batters in only 27 innings — 32 of them in his two district wins. He has a respectable 2.66 earned run average and has a 2-1 season mark.

Clark has won only one game, but that was in district play last week. He took the victory by turning in a good relief job against Palo Duro. His season record is 1-1.

The Rebels have three .300 hitting regulars, and three pitchers and reserves in the charmed circle. Gary Hill leads the regulars with .333, followed by Stroud with .320 and Wendell Ridgway with .317. Kitcher Jimmy Walker and utility man Jimmy Cross are the team's leading batters, with .400 each, and Williams has a .333 average.

Next to Stroud in the RBI department are Terry Haralson, with six, and Bobby Stephens, with five. Haralson and Hill are the only Rebs, besides Stroud, to hit a home run. Hill also has a .576 slugging percentage.

Stroud and Stephens have scored the most runs among the Rebels, nine each.

Walker (1-1) will be the probable starting pitcher for Saturday night's game. Williams (2-1) will probably go on the mound for Lloyd Summers and Bill Ridgway's crew in the Sunday game.

The probable batting order for the two games will be Bob Stephens, centerfield (.227); Ridgway, shortstop (.317); Roy Stephens, left field (.260); Stroud, first base (.320); Hill, third base (.333); Jim Scott, right field (.166); Haralson, catcher (.222); Ruben Strickland, second base (.200), and pitchers Walker (.400) and Williams (.333).

Card Runs Unearned
All of the Cardinals' runs against the Braves were unearned. Second baseman Felix Mantilla set up the first two runs with an error in the sixth and an error by right fielder Hank Aaron figured in the Cards' third run. Aaron hit his 21st homer in the third.

Ernie Banks hit his 20th homer with the bases empty in the sixth inning to put the Cubs ahead, 2-1, and they clinched the game when they hopped on Cincinnati relievers Orlando Pena and Wildard Schmidt for four more runs in the eighth.

Don Drysdale pitched a three-hitter and also hit a home run against the Phillies as the Dodgers moved to within one percentage point of the second-place Giants.

Francosa Hits Two Homers
The Francosa hit two homers against his former Orioles teammates to lead the Indians to victory. He hit his first homer of the game off starter Hoyt Wilhelm and his second off rookie Jack Fisher, lefty.

Barry Latman, making his first start for the White Sox since May 9, set the Senators down on five hits for his first victory of the season.

Rocky Bridges hit the first grand-slam homer of his career in a five-run third inning that sent the Tigers on their way to victory over the Red Sox.

Home runs by Elton Howard and Norm Siebern helped the Yankees to their victory over the A's. Siebern's homer, off reliever Russ Meyer in the eighth, proved to be the winning run. Duke Maas picked up his sixth victory.

Held Giants Scoreless
Face entered Thursday's game with the Giants in the 10th and held them scoreless on two hits over the last three innings after starter Harvey Haddix had yielded a third-inning homer to Ed Bressoud over the first nine. The loser was rookie Eddie Fisher, who relieved starter Stu Miller in the 12th.

The defeat left the second-place Giants two games behind the league-leading Braves, who lost to the Cardinals, 5-2. The Cubs downed the Reds, 6-2, and the Dodgers made it four in a row over the Phillies, 5-2.

Cleveland widened its American League lead to a full game by defeating Baltimore, 3 - 2; the White Sox bounced back into second place by beating the Senawere Marvin Olsen in the first consolation fight; Frank Dial in the second fight and H. Meador in the second consolation; Rose and Prigmore in the third fight; Bob Prichard and H. L. Pitts in the sixth fight and Floyd Imel in the sixth consolation; Jones and Welch in the seventh fight, and Marvin Cornette and Don Rosenbach in the seventh consolation.

All unplayed semifinal matches must be played by Saturday night, and finals must be completed by Sunday night. In championship semifinals, defending champ Harry Wilbur will meet Don Prigmore, and Tom Cox will meet Malcolm Douglas.

In the championship consolation fight, Henry Rose is slated to play Weldon (Bird-Dog) Trice, and Max Hickey is scheduled to tangle with Foster Elder.

Dallas Bowsher earned a spot in the fourth fight consolation finals with a win over John Hatcher. Other semifinals winners, in matches played before this week.

Lions Rout Kist, 17-8

The Pampa Lions used a big 10-run sixth inning Thursday to come from behind and wallop the Kist team in Pony League play, 17-8. Kist had gone into the inning leading 8-7.

The Lions collected 17 hits off three Kist pitchers, most of them in the final inning. Chase had a three-run homer and two singles; Jerry Stroud a homer and a double; Randy Matson a two-run homer; Charles Wood a triple, single and double; Lollar three singles, and Miller two singles.

For Kist, Cash was 4-for-4, including a triple, and Archibald was 2-for-3. It was Robbie Robison, however, who provided the most spectacular play of the game, by stealing home for Kist in the fifth inning.

Jerry Stroud was the winning hurler for the Lions, giving up two hits and three runs before being relieved by Dee Wright in the fifth inning. Stroud fanned three batters, Jim Cook, Bobby Price, and Jesse Washington all worked on the mound for Kist, and Cook was charged with the loss.

There will be a doubleheader tonight at Pony League Park. The Bankers will play Cree in the regularly scheduled game at 5:45, and the Lions go against Cree in a makeup game at 8. A 7:45 time limit will be put on all Pony League day games from now on.

Score by innings:
Kist 102 050 — 8 8
Lions 213 01(10) — 17 11

The socialist mind is a most intriguing instrument. It has been the writer's privilege to test and examine scores of minds at least partly oriented to socialist thinking. Occasionally I have come across a person whose mind is so thoroughly committed to socialist ideas and ideals that it is virtually impossible to introduce a different and contrary idea.

Govt. As Customer

It is the business of any producer to look after the demands of his customers. But, herein lies a major area of ignorance of misformation. Economically speaking, the producer is unconcerned about the character of his customer. It is his function to produce what his customers want and will pay for.

The Pampa Daily News

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is not license. It must be consistent with the truths expressed in such great moral guides as the Golden Rule, The Ten Commandments and the Declaration of Independence.

BETTER JOBS

Moral Basis Of A Free Society III. I am continuing to quote from Howard E. Kershner's commencement address before the Grove City College on "The Moral Basis of a Free Society."

It seems to me that a free society means, of course, one with freedom of religion, freedom of speech and press, freedom to exchange goods and services with anyone who wants to exchange without interference by the government or any other group.

The socialist does not wish to see the exploitation of the poor. He ends by advocating the very service which will invariably exploit the poor. He imagines that producers who create wealth are exploiting the poor, when in fact they are working for the day when a distribution of wealth might be possible.

George Patton. I was accredited to the AEF in France, then consisting of the First Division, drafted largely from the recruits and guardsmen of the old Regular Army. I reported at Gondrecourt to Captain George Marshall, adjutant to General Sibert, and formed a hostile admiration for a cavalry captain who became by common recognition of his profession the greatest soldier of World War II.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

The trump coup consists of shortening yourself in trumps so that you won't have to lead up to an opponent. There are all sorts of trump coups but this one as played by Ginna (Mrs. William) Potts of Midland, Tex., is most unusual.

My only comment on the bidding is that it was interesting and that the final contract was a good one.

Opening lead—♠K.

West opened ♠ and continued diamonds. East discarded a heart on the second diamond and Ginna ruffed. She continued with a club to dummy and a successful spade finesse followed. The hand would have been easy if she had simply gone back to dummy for another finesse but she was afraid that the second club would be ruffed. So, Ginna played the ace of spades and East was left with the ace of hearts and two apparent spade tricks.

They were only apparent; the coup took care of one of them. All Ginna did was to run dummy's clubs and discard a heart on the fourth lead of that suit. On the fifth club lead East had three losing choices; he could ruff high, ruff low or discard. He chose to discard.

Ginna discarded another heart and led a diamond. Again East had three losing choices. He discarded again. Ginna ruffed and threw East in with the king of hearts to force him to play spades to her.
