4,000 Poles Cheer and Weep While Nixon Decorates Grave

Veep Gets Greatest Reception

By ERNEST BARCELLA
United Press International

WARSAW (UPI) — Four thousand cheering, weeping Poles all but mobbed Vice President Richard M. Nixon at the tomb of Poland's Unknown Soldier today.

The crowd burst into a spontaneous demonstration of friendship when Nixon was leaving the tomb after laying a wreath on it. He was on his way to keep an appointment with Polish Communist leaders.

The demonstration at the tomb was a repetition on a smaller scale of the roaring welcome Nixon got from a quarter of a million Poles on his arrival Sunday night.

"The greatest reception of my whole life," he told U.S. Ambassador Jacob Beam.

Although there had been no advance announcement in the Polish press that Nixon would lay a wreath on the tomb, the word got around and thousands were waiting when he arrived.

As Nixon walked across an open expanse of concrete to the tomb, a workman in a brown sweater shouted "Long Live Nixon!" The crowd took up the cry, shouting also "Long live the President of the United States" and "Long live America!"

Tribute from America

The crowd fell silent as Nixon placed his wreath of red, white and blue roses with a card reading "In memory of Polish war heroes, from the people of the United States," on the tomb.

As he turned away, applause and shouts of "May he live 100 years" rang out from the crowd, which broke through police lines and surged around him.

One huge man in a blue jacket seized Nixon around the knees in a mighty bear hug, almost lifting him off the ground.

After one startled glance, Nixon realized it was an affectionate gesture. He patted the Pole's shoulder while police squeezed in to pry him loose.

Another man held up his 5-year-old daughter to the vice president, who took her in his arms.

IN NEW YORK

Steel Leaders Meet Again

NEW YORK (UPI) — Steel industry and union representatives meet here today for the second time since the beginning of a nation-wide strike 20 days ago.

Hanging over their conference table are a sharp rebuke for both sides from Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell and a slap at the steel industry from Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.).

At San Juan, Puerto Rico, Massachusetts Gov. Foster Furcolo proposed that the governors' conference take up the strike which he said calls for "positive action on the part of the governors of the states, all of which are very much affected by this strike."

New Jersey Gov. Robert R. Meyner called for the Eisenhower

Double Visits Are Planned

By THOMAS J. FOLEY
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A dramatic exchange of visits between President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to "further the cause of peace" was announced today.

Khrushchev will come to the United States in September. Eisenhower will go to Russia in the fall, probably in October.

Announcement of the major cold war development was made simultaneously by the Soviet Foreign Ministry in Moscow.

Khrushchev's trip—two or three days in Washington and a 10-day tour of other parts of the United States—will be his first visit to this country. The President may accompany him on part of his trip outside of Washington.

Eisenhower told a hastily arranged press conference his stay in Russia may be a little shorter than Khrushchev's here.

Going to Europe

Before these visits take place, the President will go to Europe late this month to confer with the heads of the three Allied governments — British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, French President Charles de Gaulle and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

Eisenhower said he and Khrushchev will "exchange views about problems of mutual interest" but on a non-official basis.

See Related Story on Page 3

Good Expectations

The exchange of visits has been agreed to by the President said, by the other Western heads of government. He said they have informed him that it should produce results on the plus rather than the minus side.

He emphasized that while he and Khrushchev will discuss East-West cold war tensions, he by no means considers himself as the single spokesman for the West.

He said the visits will have no direct connection with a summit meeting. He added that he hoped that today's announcement of the visits will spur the foreign ministers in Geneva to make some progress before they recess on Wednesday.

The President opened the press conference by saying he had invited it to announce an impending exchange of visits between himself and Khrushchev.

He called his announcement one of the worst-kept secrets in a long time.

Ten-Day U. S. Tour

A simultaneous announcement in Moscow said Khrushchev's visit to Washington will last two or three days and he will make a ten-day tour of other parts of the United States.

An official Soviet announcement said both governments expressed the hope that the forthcoming visit will promote the establishment of better understanding between the United States and the U. S. S. R. and will further the cause of peace.

In a formal statement which he read, Eisenhower indicated that he may accompany Khrushchev during a small part of the tour.

His own visit to Moscow, he said, will come later in the fall and will give him the opportunity to see first-hand the country, its people and how they live.

The President said in his statement, "Both governments expressed the hope that the forthcoming visits will help create better understanding between the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and will promote the cause of peace."

NEW GIRL SCOUT EXEC — Miss Kay Howell of Spearman assumed her new duties today as district director of the Top O' Texas Girl Scout Council in the Girl Scout office, City Hall, Miss Howell, a graduate of North Texas State College, Denton, has just completed two years of teaching fourth grade students in Andrews, and has been active in organizations relating to young people.

'Rock' Won't Seek Veep Job

SAN JUAN, P.R. (UPI) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York Sunday emphatically said himself out as a Republican candidate for vice president in 1960.

Rockefeller's removal of himself as a vice presidential possibility all but killed Republican dreams of a Nixon-Rockefeller ticket.

While eliminating himself as a potential vice presidential nominee, Rockefeller continued to leave the door open to the possibility he might be available for the Republican presidential nomination.

He reiterated he had no plans to become a presidential candidate, but said he would not preclude the possibility of completely changed circumstances which might change his mind.

"I don't want to preclude the possibility of a complete change in circumstances in which I would want to reappraise the situation," he told a news conference on the opening day of the (See SEEK, Page 3)

Big Cowboys' Parade, Rodeo Set Tomorrow

Kid's Parade, Pony Show Open To Rodeo

Some 130 Western togged boys and girls clopped through downtown Pampa this morning to officially open the 15th annual Top O' Texas Rodeo week. The Kid Pony Show parade is the forerunner of the Top World's Championship Rodeo parade Tuesday.

By noon today about 150 young buckaroos had registered for the two performances of the Kid Pony Show. Prizes will be awarded tonight, following the last performance at 8 p.m. An afternoon show was held at 2 p.m. today.

Admission prices for the Kid Pony Show are 50 cents, adults; and 25 cents, children. All tickets are sold at Rodeo headquarters in the Pampa Hotel.

As of this morning, 50 cowboys had registered for events of the main rodeo which starts a five night run at 8 p.m. Tuesday. Rodeo ticket prices are $1.50, adults; 75 cents, children; and 50 cents, reserved seats.

The big Top O' Texas Rodeo Parade will roll through Pampa at 3 p.m. Tuesday with the Amador Air Force Band leading the procession, according to Bill Tidwell, chairman of the parade committee.

Four Divisions will compete for the trophies.

1. Organization Entries.
2. Riding Clubs.
3. Commercial Entries.
4. Ranch Entries.

All organizations and commercial firms are invited and urged to place entries in the parade which will form on W. Foster at 2:30 p.m. and move out promptly at 3.

The route of the parade will be East on Foster to Frost, North on Frost to Browning, East on Browning to Cuyler, South on Cuyler to Brown, and East on Brown.

Several riding clubs from neighboring cities plus several hundred cowboys and cowgirls entered in the show will furnish a lot of horse power for one of the biggest Rodeo parades in this section of the country. The Ruby Nance Rodeo Band of Oklahoma City and other musical organization entries will round out the parade.

An official American Quarter Horse Show will be held here Thursday and Friday in connection with the Top O' Texas Rodeo.

Wiley Reynolds, chairman of the show, is expecting a record number of entries in all divisions. The show will get underway Thursday at noon in the main arena of the Rodeo grounds.

There will be "no admission charge for the Hoops Show," Reynolds said. Hughie Long of Creston, a long time breeder of good quarter horses will serve as official judge of the show. The winners will be exhibited at the Thursday and Friday-night Rodeo performances.

Halter classes will be judged at noon Thursday and all performance classes will be run at noon Friday. The performance classes consist of reining and cutting cattle.

Firemen Answer Pair Of Calls

Pampa firemen responded to two calls Sunday morning. The first was to a mattress fire at the Pale Hotel.

Later a carburetor overflow caused very light damage to a motor vehicle.

The mattress fire was reported at 2:09 a.m. The mattress was the only loss.

The second call of the day was received at 10:44 a.m.

LEFORS HAS $15,000 FIRE

LEFORS (Sp) — A fire at a Texas Company cleanup here Saturday caused $15,000 damage, it was reported by Asst. Chief J. C. (Red) Jernigan of the Lefors volunteer fire department this morning.

The fire alarm for the rig, on the J. B. Bowers lease west of Lefors, was answered at 11:45 a.m. Saturday by the Lefors volunteer fire department. The machine was in operation when the fire started.

The blaze was put out at 1:15 p.m. by the firemen, using a 250 pound dry chemical gun. Two fire trucks manned by eight firemen, along with a water truck and the chemical gun, answered the call.

East-West May Yet Hold Meet

By JOSEPH W. GRIGG
United Press International

GENEVA (UPI) — The Western Allies now believe there will be an East-West summit meeting late this year—probably in December—as a sequel to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's expected visit to the United States, reliable diplomatic sources said today.

They did not rule out the possibility that a summit meeting might be held within the next two months, during or immediately after Khrushchev's probable U.S. tour.

The sources said the United States has advised Britain, France and West Germany that it plans to invite Khrushchev to come to America next month. There is every expectation the premier will accept.

America's British and German Allies were said to be enthusiastic about the idea. The French were reported resentful because President Charles de Gaulle was "informed" rather than "consulted" about the invitation.

Paris also was believed to be displeased because it appears that Khrushchev will be asked to visit the United States before a similar invitation is extended to De Gaulle.

The general expectation appeared to be that at least a month would be allowed to elapse after Khrushchev's U.S. visit before the calling of a summit meeting, if only to give Prime Minister Harold Macmillan time to hold the parliamentary election he is expected to call in November.

Meanwhile, the Big Four foreign ministers proceeded with the task of winding up their deadlocked conference here. It appeared likely that the breakup of the conference this week would be formally labeled a "recess" rather than an "adjournment."

Whatever terminology is used, it appeared certain that Secretary of State Dean Rusk would be in Paris (See MEET, Page 3)

KRISTIANSDAND, Norway (UPI)

Pretty Anne Marie Rasmussen faces a lot of problems. Cinderella never dreamed of when, on Aug. 22, she becomes a Rockefeller.

She already has had a taste of one problem—the publicity that accompanied her romance with Steven Rockefeller and, by her own admission, she was "scared stiff." More problems are on the way when Anne Marie leaves her home in the quiet town of Sorge to set up housekeeping in a New York apartment.

But friends will tell you she is a stable, well-adjusted girl with old-fashioned—though by no

MATURE PARENT

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

The late Dr. Lawson G. Lowrey was a leader in child psychiatry and an especially creative human being. One day he said to me:

"Writing to parents as you do, why don't you suggest a moratorium on the word 'love'? Folks have stripped it of meaning. But they've not touched the word 'respect'. Why don't you suggest that parents respect kids instead of trying so hard to love them?"

The word "respect" comes from the Latin verb meaning to look at again.

To look again at the untidy mess Eddie has left in the bathroom may be to respect him. Our first look at it will just make us resent him.

It shows us only his destruction of the order we've created; the sodden towel bundled together with his soiled clothes on the floor. It shows us only one meaning in his action: disregard of us.

But with respect's second look we recall that Eddie was afraid of being late to cub scout meeting. In his hasty disregard of us, we now see regard for his friends and for cub scout rules. The second look gives a second meaning to his untidiness so that when he comes home we can say without rancor, "Go upstairs to the bathroom and put your soiled clothes in the hamper."

Respect's second look at a child's objectionable action comes easier if we're used to looking twice at our own.

Just as Eddie's had two meanings, so has ours. When we snap at a relative who's criticized us for extravagance, we may become frightened at our rudeness. A second look at it will show it to us as something besides rudeness: our belief in our own capacity to judge the usefulness of the new nylon carpet we've bought.

And like our resentment at Eddie, our self-accusation leaves its heat so that we can say to the critical relative, "I'm sorry I snapped at you. But I can't let you tell me that I'm incapable of knowing the kind of carpet I need."

Dr. Lowrey was for the second look because, like all psychiatrists, he knew that much of our trouble derives from our failures to see second meanings in the "bad" things we do. He knew that respect for ourselves, like respect for children, is freedom from prejudice.

Those notions we inherited from other people that told us everything we do is either all good or all bad. He knew that our inherited prejudice against untidiness commands it blindly refusing us the second look we must always take to see reality for ourselves.

on Dec. 1, and Mrs. Burnett, who will be 82 on Dec. 29, were married on July 28, 1894.

Children of the Burnett's attending the picnic were, a son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Burnett of Tyler; daughters and families, Mrs. Effie Faulkintury of Texarkana, Ark., Mr. and Mrs. J. R. their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Griffin, 547 West members of the Fellowship and TEL Classes of the Central Baptist Church as hostesses.

Many nice gifts were received by the honorees. Punch and cherry pudding were served to the following, Rev. T. O. Upshaw, Messrs. and Mrs. Robert Callahan; O. P. Holigan; L. O. Roenfelt; W. E. DEAR ABBY: I am in love with a boy the same age as I, which is 14. We have been going steady for two years. We have it all planned to get married when we get out of school in four years. He kissed me last Saturday night for the first time. It was just a peck on the cheek. Don't you think that after waiting for two years I deserved at least a kiss on the lips?

DEAR DISAPPOINTED: You had better slow down, honey! Get the hands off your teeth before you start thinking about a band on your finger. A peck on the cheek is quite enough for two fourteen-year-olds.

DEAR ABBY: A certain married couple who used to be in our crowd suddenly gave us all the cold shoulder. It seems that a rumor got started that they were being divorced. They denied it and tried to find out who started the gossip, but so many people repeated it that it was impossible to pin it on anyone. Now they refuse to associate with any of us. I say, if there were no truth to the rumor they would have laughed it off in the first place. Or don't you believe, Abby, that "where there's smoke - there's fire"?

DEAR EX FRIENDS: Where there's smoke there is not always fire. Could be just someone smoking the peace pipe. Those who repeat gossip are as guilty, in my opinion, as those who start it.

Busy Girls Use Spray Scents

By ALICIA HART NEA Beauty Editor

American women, attractive, efficient and busy, are taking in great numbers to the mist spray scents. Their favorite scents, thus packaged, spray on a mist that's both economical and efficient because it's quick and easy to apply.

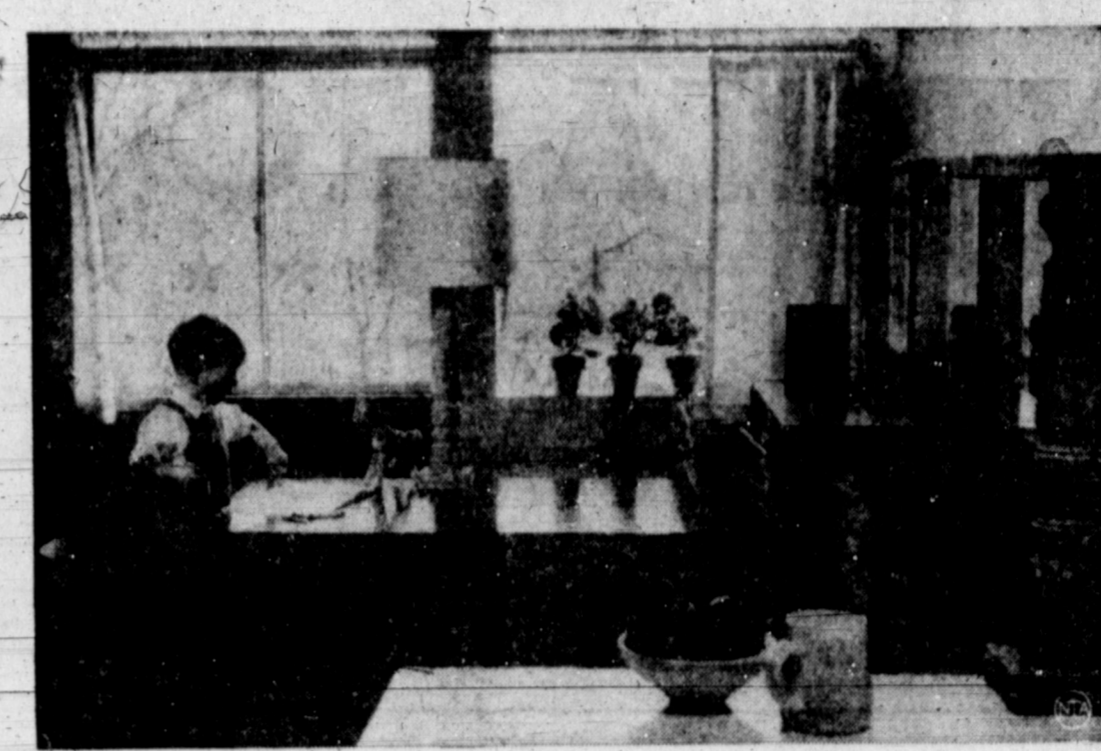

Newest sprays available come in a whole series of well-loved fragrances from one famous perfume house. These rainbow mist scents are color-coded to the scents they contain. There are five in the series: aquamarine, forest green, yellow, white, black.

The scents contained in these new fragrances range from a tweedy country scent to a very sophisticated fragrance intended chiefly for evening wear. Every one in the series has earned its way as a long-time favorite with American women. The only new thing

New Furnishings Used To Aid Allergy Sufferers

By KAY SHERWOOD NEA Staff Writer

When tests for allergic reactions show certain housefurnishings to be the culprits, these must be banished if possible. But that needn't leave a room as sterile as a laboratory, thanks to the wide-range of modern materials.

Instead of feathers, for example, there are sneeze-free foams and downy synthetic fillers for pillows and comforters. House dust, a notorious offender, can't find a hiding place on the slick surfaces of plastic laminates that top tables and chests.

Tiled floors are mopped dust-free in minutes. Synthetic fiber floor coverings often substitute for wool, if that's an offender.

When children are the allergy sufferers, attention must be paid to toys as well as furnishings and the more of both that are washable the easier it is to keep their rooms comfortable.

The virtues of such a room are apparent to mothers of nonallergic children, too. Some of the ideas used in a small boy's room by a mother I know would be as useful if he weren't subject to sneezes and sniffles.

High legs, attached to the top raised it to a comfortable level for diapering and bathing the baby. Now that he's two years old, the lower legs have been substituted and the sturdy table makes a surface for playing and climbing. Later, the legs will be screwed on once more to provide a desk when he's older.

Chests and bookcases are unpainted but finished with a walnut stain and topped with white plastic with matching white porcelain pulls. One of the chests is set at right angles to the wall to create a built-in bed effect.

His bed is mounted on a low frame which adds just the three-inch height required for casters or rug rollers. This keeps the bed low enough for a child. It is easily rolled in and out.

Entire Rockefeller Family To Attend Wedding Of Ex Maid

KRISTIANSDAND, Norway (UPI) — Steven Rockefeller expects his "whole family" to attend his Aug. 22 wedding to pretty Anne Marie Rasmussen, the Rockefellers' former maid.

That included the prospective father-in-law, New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, who said he and his wife were "delighted" with the match. The governor, who is attending a governors' conference in San Juan, Puerto Rico, smilingly told a news conference he soon might be making a non-political trip to Scandinavia.

In announcing their engagement, Steven, 23, and Anne Marie, 21, said they planned to be married in the rustic, wooden church in Miss Rasmussen's nearby hometown of Sogne, take a brief honeymoon, and then set up housekeeping in a New York apartment.

Steven said Sunday he expects the "whole Rockefeller family" to be on hand for his wedding if it is at all possible.

Steven said that after the marriage and honeymoon he plans to go into "the family business" which gave him a rather wide choice of job possibilities.

Although Anne Marie once worked as a maid in the Rockefeller home while visiting the United States to learn English, her marriage to a Rockefeller did not exactly depict a rags-to-riches romance. Her father, now retired, was a well-to-do grocer in Sogne. However, the marriage does mean a drastic change for blonde-haired, blue-eyed Anne Marie. It will take her from Norway to the United States, and from one of the world's smaller communities to its largest.

Anne Marie said she is aware that her life will be changed when she marries Steven, but she added, "Whatever happens and whatever my station in life will be, I will never forget the heritage I bring with me from my father and mother."

The couple said they would start off simply, they will have no maid and "Anne Marie shall do all the housework and cooking herself."

Anne Marie, a quiet girl, with little formal education, comes from a religious, Lutheran family. But she described herself as a "natural Norwegian girl, and I like to have fun."

The couple announced their engagement at a press conference at the Ernst Hotel in Kristiansand—the nearest large city to Sogne—to put an end to days of intense speculation about the romance.

Khrushchev Gets Invitation To Visit U.S.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Text of President Eisenhower's announcement of his exchange of visits with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

The President of the United States has invited Nikita S. Khrushchev, chairman of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, to pay an official visit to the United States in September. Mr. Khrushchev has accepted with pleasure.

The President has also accepted with pleasure Mr. Khrushchev's invitation to pay an official visit to the U.S.S.R. later this fall.

Mr. Khrushchev will visit Washington for two or three days and will also spend 10 days or so traveling in the United States. He will have informal talks with the President, which will afford an opportunity for an exchange of views about problems of mutual interest.

On his tour of the United States, Mr. Khrushchev will be able, first hand, to see the country, its people, and to acquaint himself with their life.

President Eisenhower will visit Moscow and will also spend some days traveling in the Soviet Union. This will provide further opportunity for informal talks and exchange of views about problems of mutual interest with the chairman of the Council of Ministers of the U.S.S.R.

On his tour of the Soviet Union, President Eisenhower likewise will be able at first hand, to see the country, its people, and to acquaint himself with their life.

Both governments expressed the hope that the forthcoming visits will help create better understanding between the United States and the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and will promote the cause of peace.

Legislature Works On Big Spending Bill

By LLOYD LARRAHEE, United Press International

AUSTIN (UPI)—House and Senate conferees worked on the giant spending bill Sunday but were unable to reach an agreement and called another session for 9 a.m. today.

Sen. Crawford Martin of Hillboro, a member of the committee named to work out details of the bill, said everything had been worked out except for two or three items.

The sole remaining obstacle to final adjournment of the third called session was agreement on a general appropriation bill of some $2,400,000,000 for operation of state government in the coming biennium starting Sept. 1.

A 10-member House-Senate Conference Committee which has worked on the spending bill during each of the three overtime sessions held week-end meetings in an effort to make appropriations match anticipated revenue, and report a bill to the floor for debate.

Income Gets Boost

The tax bill, estimated to raise 185 million dollars during the next two fiscal years, cleared the legislature last Thursday when House members agreed to a Senate-approved substitute measure.

State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert has estimated that existing tax sources will yield some 143 million dollars to the depleted general revenue fund during the next two years.

The tax bill thus will boost to about 328 million dollars the amount Calvert will certify as available for spending from the general revenue in the next two years.

A House spending plan calls for appropriation of about 337 million dollars, while the Senate version is some 30 million dollars less.

Conferees were expected to make their report on the spending bill early in the week.

Some legislators spoke of the possibility of final adjournment of the third special session by Wednesday, or at least by the end of the week.

If so, it would end a long and bitter legislative struggle which began with the opening of the regular session last Jan. 13. Today marks the 198th day the legislature has been in session this year.

Anne Marie has had comparatively little formal education. She attended a rural elementary school for seven years. In 1956 she went to New York to study English, spending two years at a supplementary school.

Her quest for work to pay for her studies took her into the Rockefeller home as a maid.

There she had her first introduction to a department store and an insurance company returning home last April.

"She did not know much," Steven recalls. "But she took special lessons each night and was rather good after eight months."

Anne Marie knows what drastic changes face her in marriage to a Rockefeller, but she doesn't intend to let her new life affect her sense of values or her appreciation of where she got them.

"Whatever happens and whatever my station in life will be, I will never forget the heritage I bring with me from my father and mother," she said.

Crosby Grandfather Sees Boys Debut In Dice Town

By VERNON SCOTT, UPI Hollywood Correspondent

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—Patriarch of the Crosby clan is the septuagenarian grandfather of Bing's four boisterous boys who glowed with pride as his grandsons made their nightclub debut here in dice town.

Robust and pink-cheeked at 74, Evan Wyatt—Dixie Lee Crosby's father—looks like a benevolent Bulgarian.

He sports a white Van Dyke beard, mustache and steel-rimmed spectacles. Throughout the boys' performance at the Sahara he nodded approval and waved encouragement when they chanced to glance down at him.

Mr. Wyatt filled in for Bing who was too busy to attend.

After the show the kindly older beamed happily, saying he knew the Crosby sprouts would be a hit.

Proud Of Boys

"First time I ever saw the boys perform together," he said, the barest trace of his Tennessee accent discernible. "I'm certainly proud of them, but that doesn't necessarily mean they're good. I don't qualify as a critic, but I have to give them credit for courage."

The older tugged at his beard merrily as he added, "Course I don't see much if them anymore now that they're traipsin' all over the country—but they're mighty good boys."

"My wife and I live out on a ranch in Camarillo (Calif.) about 40 miles from Hollywood. Usually it's the twins, Dennis and Phil who come to visit us. Gary and Lindsay aren't as settled down."

Wyatt said he thought the boys resemble their late mother as much as they do the Groaner.

"Each one is very different from the others," he said.

"Gary is the leader. Always will be. The younger ones look up to him for leadership, and he's more than happy to take charge."

"Lenny, the youngest, was babied all his life. He's the most lovable I think, and the twins are different. Dennis is the most affectionate of all of them. He's a real softy. Phil is the biggest of the boys and something of a philosopher."

Stuck Together

"Different as they are, they're all close friends. When they were kids they didn't have many playmates so they stuck close together."

Grandfather Wyatt said he rarely sees Bing since Dixie's death. He visits the Groaner every Christmas to exchange gifts. Retired now, he was in the insurance business for 25 years in Los Angeles.

SOX GOING FOR BROKE

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

Thirty shapes up today as the "magic number" which could give the Chicago White Sox their first pennant in 40 years.

That National League race is still as tight as a can of sardines but 11 victories in their last 12 games have the White Sox going...going...and perhaps very soon "gone" in the American League race.

The red-hot White Sox stretched their latest winning streak to six games and opened up a three-game lead Sunday when they swept a doubleheader from the Washington Senators, 3-2 and 9-3. The losses stretched the Senators' losing streak to 18 games—two short of their club record and four shy of a league mark shared by three teams.

With 52 games left, the White Sox can reach the 92-victory mark by winning 30 games and losing 22 for a .577 pace. The second-place Cleveland Indians then would have to go to a .640 pace to tie. The New York Yankees? A mere 42 out of 52 or .808 would be enough to tie.

No Break in NL

There's no sign of a major break in the National League where the San Francisco Giants retained their half-game lead with a 5-3 win over Pittsburgh Sunday. The Los Angeles Dodgers moved back into second with a 4-3 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies and the Milwaukee Braves are only a game behind San Francisco despite their split with the St. Louis Cardinals. The Cardinals won the first triumph.

The Indians bounced back from a 5-4 10-inning loss to beat the Baltimore Orioles, 6-3, the Yankees downed the Kansas City Athletics, 7-3, and the Boston Red Sox scored a 5-4 win over the Detroit Tigers in other AL games. The Cincinnati Reds beat the Chicago Cubs, 2-0, in the other NL game.

The White Sox scored their 26th one-run victory of the season when they tallied two runs in the ninth inning of their opener and then breezed to an easy win in the nightcap with the help of key doubles by John Romano and Bubba Phillips.

Rookie sensation Willie McCovey did it again with a two-run homer and Willie Mays did it for a change with a clutch double as the Giants handed the Pirates their 12th setback in 14 games.

Homers by Duke Snider and Charlie Neal were the big blows for the Dodgers who rallied for three runs in the fifth to give reliever Larry Sherry his second win.

Ken Boyer singled for his fourth hit and then went the rest of the way around the bases on errors by Hank Aaron and pitcher Don McMahon as the Cardinals pulled out a ninth-inning win over Milwaukee. The Braves came back in the nightcap with a 12-hit attack.

Tito Francona, who went 7-for-5 and rals-d his average to .418 during the doubleheader, hit a three-run ninth-inning homer to give Cleveland's Gary Bell his 11th win in the nightcap. The Orioles won the first game in 10 innings when rookie Barry Shetters tallied from third on a "Baltimore chop" single by Willie Miranda.

Elston Howard drove in four runs with a double and two singles and Yogi Berra had three singles to lead the Yankees' 11-hit attack.

Jackie Jensen's three-run eighth-inning homer brought the Red Sox from behind and gave the DeLoach his seventh win after Paul Foytack carried a five-hitter into the ninth.

Rookie Jay Hook and veteran Brooks Lawrence combined in a five-hitter as the Reds won their sixth game in seven starts.

Bob Rosburg Finally Wins 'Big One' --PGA Tourney

Jerry Barber Blows Crown With Bogeys On 17th, 18th

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

MINNEAPOLIS (UPI) — Bob Rosburg, the new PGA champion who finally won "the big one" I've been looking for," wasn't sure today whether his triumph came on merit or "little Jerry's" mistakes.

Little Jerry is the 43-year-old, five-foot, five-inch, 185-pound Jerry Barber, who blew the PGA championship Sunday when he bogeyed the last two holes.

"I gave the tournament away," Barber said. "When I put my approaches on the last two holes in sand traps, I blew it."

But he didn't take anything away from the bespectacled Rosburg, who with three children, ages eight, seven and six, wanted to win "a big one" in the hope he will get a good job with a golf club so he will be able to spend more time at home, rather than travel the tournament golfing trail.

"When you shoot a 68 like Bob did, you deserve to win," Barber said. "But when it looked like I had frosting on the cake going to the 17th hole, it turned out to be only dough."

Started 6 Strokes Behind Rosburg, who has been making his living playing golf since he turned professional in 1953, was hit six strokes behind the leading Barber going into Sunday's final round. But that four-under-par 66 gave him a 72-hole total of 277, one stroke better than Barber and Doug Sanders. Sanders, one stroke behind Barber going into the final round, carried a two-over-par 72 for the second place tie.

Defending champion Dow Finsterwald was fourth at 280. He shot a fourth round par 70. Tied for fifth at 281 were the favored Mike Souchak, whose putter failed him again, Bob Goaly and Ken Venturi. Next at 282 came Sammy Sneed and Cary Middlecoff.

Souchak came in with a two-over-par 74 and, with only six players left in the field, there were only three golfers in the running — Rosburg, Barber and Sanders.

Sanders, who was in the tournament on a pass, shot a final round 72. He lost his chance when he three-putted from 22 feet on the 17th hole.

Souchak went out of the running when he bogeyed three of the first four holes.

Closed Gap Early At the nine hole turn, Rosburg had picked up those six strokes on Barber by going out in 30 against Little Jerry's 36.

So going to the 10th Rosburg and Barber were all even. Rosburg was in the clubhouse when he heard that Barber had parred the 16th. It looked like Tiny Jerry was home free. He needed only two pars to win. But he took two bogeys instead.

Reminded that he still won $3,562.50, Barber remarked: "Well, that will buy a lot of groceries. But to hell with those groceries — I like money, who doesn't? — but I wanted to win for more than money."

Rosburg's victory was worth $8,250, giving him a total money winning purse for the year of $28,098.

Back of Sneed and Middlecoff came Gene Littler at 284. Doug Ford, Porky Oliver and Billy Maxwell were at 285 with Arnold Palmer, Paul Harney and Tommy Jacobs at 286.

Aussies Prep For Italians

MONTREAL (UPI) — Australia's rookie Davis Cup team, which has blasted its way through three easy serves, today prepared to meet a "very difficult" Italian team in its next test toward reaching the challenge round against the United States.

"If we get by Italy we will have a very good chance of beating the United States and winning the Davis Cup. The Americans have Alex Olmedo who they say is ranked No. 1 in the world among amateurs. But after him they haven't got much," team captain Harry Hopman said.

Australia spent two highly successful weeks ends in Montreal where it registered two crushing 6-0 triumphs over Canada and Cuba on the grass courts of the Mount Royal Tennis Club. Sunday the Aussies completed their second straight rout as substitute Bob May and lefty Neale Frazer-Gerrido-brother team in straight set disposed of Cuba's two-man sets.

Football Takes Over Here In Wrestling Ring

Football season is still a good five or six weeks away, but you'd never have known it around the Top O' Texas Sportsmen's Club here Saturday night.

A pair of "flying tackles" figured heavily in the main attraction, a mixed tag team event which pitted Doug Donovan and Lorraine Johnson against Joe Hamilton and Kay Noble.

The treacherous tandem of Hamilton and Johnson captured the main event in two straight falls after a wild match from outset to climax.

Just over 14 minutes deep in the first round of the best two-of-three event, Kay Noble was being held in a corner with Donovan on the outside of the ring making sure she stayed put by means of keeping her neck clamped tight between the ropes.

Shooting for the pin, Donovan's partner, Johnson, made a flying tackle at the "trapped" Noble, but referee Billy Widener happened to be in the way as he tried to release the ropes from Noble's neck, and was hit right in the head by Johnson's flying tackle. Widener decided that the best way to a referee's heart, isn't through his stomach, and realizing things were really getting out of hand, managed to step in and declare the team of Noble and Hamilton winners of the first round by disqualification.

Naturally, Donovan and Johnson didn't appreciate this decision and Miss Johnson, forgetting herself to be a lady (?) drew back and clobbered the ref, Widener, with a doubled fist. But the burly arbitrator ward off the She Demon, cleared the ring, and pleaded with all four grapplers to make sure they kept things on the up-and-up in the second round, lest he be forced to tattle to the Wrestling Commissioner.

Another "accident" happened in the second round, however, despite Widener's warning. It didn't involve a referee, however. Almost 12 minutes deep in the round, Donovan worked his way to a side headlock advantage over Hamilton. But Hamilton, escaped, off he held by bouncing Donovan, off one of the ring posts, but then Donovan tried to land a flying tackle and a pin on Hamilton, but instead accidentally smashed into his own partner, Miss Johnson, knocking her from the apron of the ring, and onto the floor. Donovan collapsed back into the ring and it was an easy task for Hamilton to flop on him for the pin and the match.

The opener and semi-final bouts were much more tame. Donovan and Hamilton scrapped to a 20-minute draw in the lid-lifter and Noble took 14:18 in the semi-final to pin Johnson with a body press after much hair pulling and eye-gouging.

Pampa promoter Doc Miller has announced no wrestling will be held here this week so as to allow ring fans to attend the 15th annual Top O' Texas Rodeo. A solid card will be here, however, on Saturday, Aug. 15.

PANTON WINS WOODLAWN

RAMSTEIN, Germany (UPI) — John Panton of Scotland successfully defended his title in the Woodlawn Open golf tournament Sunday when he shot a final round 68 for a 72-hole total of 267. C. Davisson of Riverside, Calif., was low amateur with a 281. Anthony Cullinane of Washington and John Garrett of Houston, Tex., had 286's.

Casey-Stengel bagged nine championships in 10 years by shuffling New York players, the last three with the catchers, Yogi Berra and Elston Howard, alternating in the outfield. So, with the Lollar move, senior Lopez is beating Professor Stengel at his own game.

Lopez calls Aparicio the slickest shortstop doing everything he has ever seen and Alphonso Barron has watched a lot of them since he broke in with the Brooklyn Dodgers 29 years ago.

"I'd pay my way into the park to see this fellow play," enthused the first citizen of Tampa. "He makes my eyes pop every day."

With the allover speed of a prairie wind, the Sox are an old-fashioned base-stealing club. Aparicio already has swiped 31 bases to give the club a total of 73, which leads the majors. Fox, Landis, Bubba Phillips, Al Smith, Jim Rivera, cash and Torgeson scoot down the baselines.

The White Sox, with a team batting average of no more than .255, have copped 23 games by one run, leading Lopez to observe, "We may not hit the ball far, but we hit it in the clutch."

Fox and his claw of tobacco are having their biggest year, leading the league in number of hits and batting .333. While he is batting no more than .252, Alphonse Smith is now the player Lopez believed he was getting when the Sox traded

2nd All-Star Game Slated For Today

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The second All-Star classic of 1959 will be played in the Los Angeles Coliseum today — but just who will be playing is a mystery.

One thing for certain: Don Drysdale, speed-ball merchant of the Los Angeles Dodgers, will be on the mound for the National League.

Eddie Mathews of the Milwaukee Braves will sit this one out and Ken Boyer of the St. Louis Cardinals will play third base for the Nationals. Mathews has a hip injury.

Ryne Duren, scheduled to start on the mound for the Americans, is a "very doubtful" starter according to manager Casey Stengel, because he pitched three and two-thirds innings Sunday for the Yankees against Kansas City.

Injury Sidelines Cepeda
Orlando Cepeda, first baseman in the first All-Star clash won by the Nationals at Pittsburgh, 5-4, withdrew because of a wrist injury.

Starting Lineups
LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Here is the batting order and probable starting lineups for today's All-Star game, with latest official batting averages.

American League
1b-Pete Runnels, Wash. (.321)
2b-Nellie Fox, Chi. (.334)
LF-Ted Williams, Bos. (.240)
C-Yogi Berra, New York (.287)
RF-Roger Maris, Kan City (.335)
3B-Frank Malzone, Bos. (.276)
SS-Luis Aparicio, Chi. (.277)
P-Ryne Duren, N.Y. (W.L. L-3)

National League
2B-Johnny Temple, Cin. (.328)
2B-Ed Mathews, Milw. (.302)
RF-Henry Aaron, Milw. (.362)
CF-Willie Mays, S. F. (.293)
SS-Ernie Banks, Chi. (.310)
1B-Stan Musial, St. L. (.265)
LF-Wally Moon, L. A. (.297)
C-Del Crandall, Milw. (.288)
P-Don Drysdale, L.A. (W-L-14-6)

Players — Starting players on each team selected by vote of league players; reserves and pitchers picked by All-Star managers.

Rival managers — American League: Casey Stengel, New York Yankees; National League: Fred Haney, Milwaukee Braves.

Series standings — American League leads, 15 games to 11.

Starting pitchers — American League: Ryne Duren, New York Yankees; National League: Don Drysdale, Los Angeles Dodgers.

Rules — Starting players must play at least three innings; pitchers may not pitch more than three innings except in case of extra-inning game.

Starting time — 7 p.m. e.d.t. Radio and television — National Broadcasting Company, 6:45 p.m. e.d.t.

Gus Triandos, Baltimore catcher, withdrew because of an injured hand.

Sunday the American League squad lost Harvey Kuenn of Detroit and Gil McDougald of New York, scratched because of ailments, and they were replaced by Tony Kubek and Bobby Richardson, both of the Yankees. Earlier, the Yankees' Phil Skowron injured his hand and was replaced by Elston Howard.

But there will be stars galore, headed by ageless Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox and Stan Musial of the St. Louis Cardinals on the field.

Manager Fred Haney of the National League, which whipped the Americans, 5-4, earlier this year, will return with just about the same line-up that he used in Pittsburgh.

National Lineup Same
Haney is using Johnny Temple at second; Boyer at third; Hank Aaron, right field; Willie Mays, center field; Ernie Banks, shortstop; Musial, first base; Wally Moon left field; Del Crandall, catcher. And they'll bat in that order.

This is the first All-Star game since the American League and National League All-Stars vs National League All-Stars.

in history ever to be played in the West — but the fans didn't take to it the way it had been hoped. The heat wave plus television will be keeping many of them at home — possibly leaving at least 40,000 seats empty in the Giant Stadium.

And some of the players don't care for the show, either. Temple said Sunday in Cincinnati that the players had "voted against holding a second All-Star game," but they had been forced to go through with it when it was found that radio and television contracts already had been made.

WHITE SOX FLAG DRIVE

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

CHICAGO (NEA) — The best White Sox were the notorious Black Sox. Chicago hasn't won an American League pennant since they bounced down in front and threw the World Series of 1919.

The most famous White Sox were Fielder Jones' Hitless Wonders of 1905-08. The current edition might well be called the Singles Wonders, for it usually requires three hits to get a run around. Yet the Singles Wonders could well win the South Side's first flag in 40 years.

"All games are won on defense," said Al Lopez, watching the Singles Wonders in batting practice at Comiskey Park. "We are so straight through the middle where it counts most. The pitching and catching is excellent. Luis Aparicio and Nellie Fox are a tremendous double-play combination. Jim Landis covers center field like a Jimmy Hoffa contract."

Senior Lopez might have stressed the point by pointing out that the Yankees are now beating themselves for a change.

"If I had to put a finger on the one thing that lifted this club it would be the switching of Sherm Lollar from catching to first base against left-hand pitching," continued the soft-spoken manager. "Johnny Romano handles pitchers well and has batted .329 in the games he has been in, and behind him is Earl Battey, another right-hander. With Lollar replacing Earl Torgeson or Norm Cash at first base, our attack has more balance against left-hand pitching."

Roach Turns Up At Circle Tea

A local woman was having the neighborhood circle into tea for the first time. Imagine her horror when a roach crawled across the coffee table! This unpleasant situation could have been avoided if she had known about No Roach.

- (a) Effective against all crawling insects, including the new resistant roaches.
  - (b) Easy to use.
  - (c) Safe to use around children and pets.
  - (d) Stays effective for months with only one application.
- It's called Johnston's No Roach. When you use No Roach, there's no need to move dishes, or to breathe harmful sprays. Just brush this odorless, colorless liquid on cabinets, baseboards, windowsills, doorsteps, cracks, drainpipes — wherever roaches and ants may enter. It dries quickly to form an invisible Death Zone for all crawling insects. They walk across it... and die within minutes! Brush on No Roach and forget it for months! It stays effective 24 hours a day.

Stevens Shoots Movie On Location In Own Home

By VERNON SCOTT

UPI HOLLYWOOD Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Home movies are an abomination to everyone save the amateur cameraman and his proud family, but

Leslie Stevens, an easy-going character with an abhorrence of studios, turned his house into a makeshift set and started the cameras whirring.

Utilizing his living room, den, patio and swimming pool, he saved a fortune in studio rental space, overhead production costs and excess crew requirements.

"I figure I've saved at least half a million dollars," Stevens said with satisfaction. "I'm not allowed to say how much my picture cost me, but we brought it in for very little compared with the average picture."

Neighbors Unaware
"More than 80 per cent of the film was shot right here in the house, and in the vacant house, next door. Our schedule was a mere 2 1/2 weeks, and things went so smoothly our neighbors were unaware that a movie was being made."

Stevens' home is a rambling ranch-style place perched atop the Hollywood hills overlooking the Sunset Strip. Only a few scenes were shot away from home-base, but none was filmed on a soundstage.

"I think more movies should be made entirely on location," Stevens said. "Few stories really need to be shot on soundstages."

"My picture, 'Private Property,' is a dramatic story about a pair of things who move into an abandoned house in an exclusive neighborhood. Right from the beginning I decided to shoot the story in my house."

"Why not? This is an exclusive neighborhood. I have a very nice house, and the place next door is empty. So why bother with a studio?"

Kate Makes Entrance
Stevens was interrupted by the entrance of his dazzling blonde wife, Kate Manx, logged in form-fitting white slacks and an air-conditioned blouse. For some reason the subject changed abruptly.

"This is my first movie," Kate said, stretching out on a couch.
