

The Rains Came And Stayed

Panhandle Gets Record Rainfall For December

United Press International
Texas continued to get a soaking today from the heaviest rains in many weeks.
Rivers in East and South Central Texas were running bankfull and the Panhandle has received record rainfall for December. Between three and five inches of moisture, including snow, ice and rain, has fallen over the Panhandle since Monday.
The Panhandle averages about 47 of an inch of rain during December.
A Fort Worth and Denver Railroad tunnel near Quitaque — between Childress and Lubbock — closed in because of heavy rain. The cave-in blocked the line and rains were being rerouted through Amarillo.
Five inches of rain had fallen in Quitaque up to Wednesday night. This was the heaviest amount reported in the Panhandle, but four inches of rain had fallen at several places.

An estimated 200 miles of telephone line was down around Hereford and muddy roads kept repair crews from fixing it.
Light rain or drizzle was falling over most of the Panhandle, South Plains and southward through the Waco-Austin area. Skies were generally fair over South Texas and in far Southwest Texas.

Rainfall Of 5.5 Inches In 3 Days

The rain gauge atop the Daily News building registered 5.5 inches of moisture for a 72-hour total in Pampa. For the period beginning at 11 a. m. yesterday and ending at 11 a. m. today, 2.23 inches of the wet stuff had come our way.

Utilities and communications report very little trouble over the area. Southwestern Public Service Co. still has a crew in Amarillo to assist with repairs there and telephone service has not been restored to Perryton. Joe McDonnell, manager of Southwestern Bell, said poles are down in the General Telephone Co. area near Perryton, and he could not say when service will be restored.
Some rainfall totals around the area include: Wheeler, 4 inches; Shamrock, 4 inches; Canadian, 3 inches; McLean, 3.10 inches; Groom, 3.80 inches, and Borger, 3.06 inches.
This week's rain was the first of this size since last September, when 5.62 inches fell in Pampa in a two hour period. Flooding of underpasses and streets experienced then have been absent in this week's fall, since the current wet season has been distributed over a three-day period.
City Engineer Monroe Moore said sewers and gutters have carried the runoff without difficulty, although a great deal of water has been carried by the facilities.
No roads have been closed and no washouts have occurred in the 9-county area of the Pampa office of the highway patrol, but Sgt. E. G. Albers said country roads are slick and boggy.
Soil conservation officials said the rain has been worth "millions of dollars" to farmers and ranchers.

and rain will spread back over the remainder of North Central and northeast Texas during the day. Clearing occurring over South and Southwest Texas will progress slowly northeastward Friday, forecasters said. No important temperature changes were indicated.
Official rain measurements for the 24-hour period ended at 4 a. m. today, included: Dalhart, 4.5; Lubbock, 2.8; Midland, 2.1; Presidio, .05; Houston and Galveston, .01; Beaumont, .10; Austin, .22; Waco, .23; Dallas, .2; Fort Worth, .23; Abilene, .60; San Angelo, .92; Brownwood, .92; Wichita Falls, .53; Childress, .64; Mineral Wells, .38; Junction, .76; Lufkin, .34; Longview, .49; Valley View, .28; Sherman, .30; Crandall, .17.
The Trinity, Sulphure and Sabine rivers inched to flood stage from heavy rains the past two days. Whatever damage the high water might do likely would be more than offset by the beneficial aspects of the moisture.

RED DEER CREEK which normally flows at little more than a trickle was a mighty torrent of water this morning on the third straight day of steady rain. Five and one-half inches of rain have so far done little property damage in contrast to the four and one-half inch rain Sept. 22 which flooded numerous homes and three city underpasses. Touhy Slain By Gunmen

CHICAGO (UPI) — Roger Touhy, int-sized Prohibition era beer baron who ended a 25-year-prison term only 23 days ago, was shot to death Wednesday night in a last of gangland-style shotgun re.
Touhy, 61, died in the emergency room of a hospital a little more than an hour after two gunmen stalked and shot him and a bodyguard as they stepped from a car in front of a West Side home where Touhy lived.

Touhy's bodyguard was Walter Miller, 62, a retired police sergeant who was a star defense witness at Touhy's kidnaping trial 35 years ago. Both men collapsed on the front stoop of the home of Touhy's sister, Mrs. Ethel Alessia.
Touhy, who had aged and wasted during 25 years behind bars after conviction for the kidnaping of John (Jake the Barber) Factor, was shot only in the left leg but lost his life blood before reaching a hospital.
Factor, in perhaps a strange twist of fate, was in Chicago at the time Touhy was gunned down. He said he was here in connection with a libel suit he had filed against Touhy.
"I'm heartily sorry for what happened," Factor told United Press International reporter Richard McCormick in a hotel room interview early today.
Factor said he first heard of the shooting while in a nightclub on Chicago's near North Side with a traveling companion. Detectives obtained a minute-by-minute account of Factor's stay in Chicago. One remained through the night in Factor's hotel room.
Factor, a convicted swindler but now a wealthy Beverly Hills, Calif., real estate dealer, had accused Touhy of libeling him in an autobiography entitled, "The Stolen Years," published last month.
The book, written by Chicago Sun-Times reporter Ray Brennan, repeated Touhy's claim of 25 years in prison.

Due to weather conditions, however, changes have been made in the schedule. The program usually held will be presented as scheduled, but from the auditorium of the Pampa Junior High School.
The public is invited to attend the lighting ceremonies, but will have to listen to the program on car or transistor radios, since park grounds are too wet to enable people to move about in the park to hear the ceremonies.
Mrs. Lynn Boyd, general chairman of the lighting, said workers will carry transistor radios into the park to coordinate the lighting of the scenes, and they will be lighted in sequence, as in the past. She also said since the auditorium at the school will be set up as a workshop for the evening, people are requested not to come to the building, but may park their automobiles around the park in order to view the scenes.

PARIS (UPI) — NATO'S 15 foreign ministers today shelved for the moment the French-American dispute over defense policy and adopted a four-point agenda for next spring's summit meeting with Russia. Disarmament led the list.

Wrights Made First Flight 56 Years Ago

KILL DEVIL HILLS, N. C. (UPI) — It was on a bluff here 56 years ago today that Orville and Wilbur Wright made their first successful airplane flight.
The 12-second flight was the beginning of modern aviation. Aviation leaders and air enthusiasts celebrate the flight's anniversary here today.
The brothers from Dayton, Ohio, had failed to become airborne on their first try Dec. 14, 1903, but succeeded three days later. Orville was stretched flat on the lower wing beside the homemade engine during the flight.
An armada of Air Force jets will be joined by piston-driven planes and the "Spirit of Kitty Hawk," a gyrocopter designed to replace the computer's automobile, in a fly-over the monument here to the pioneer aviators, who chose their test flight because of steady winds and soft sand for landing.
Approximately 115 rolling toys including wagons, tricycles, scooters and tractors will be presented to the veterans of Foreign Wars Sunday by Pampa firemen.
Assistant Chief Vernon Pirkle said firemen completed their Christmas toy repairing today, and will accept nothing but new toys between now and Sunday.
The toys will be presented to Pampa underprivileged children at the annual party in the V. F. W. hall Sunday.
Firemen repair wheel toys each year in their spare time.
Also to be presented at the party will be approximately 150 toys from the Pampa Junior Red Cross, contributed at a toy dance last Saturday night at the Episcopal Parish Hall.

1040W Will Be Popular Mailing Piece Dec. 26

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government is getting set to send out 59,300,000 reminders that the best things in life are not free.
Starting Dec. 26, postmen throughout the country will begin delivering federal income tax forms to people who filed returns for 1958. The deadline for reporting 1959 income is next April 15.
This year the Internal Revenue Service is mailing out about 700,000 fewer than in 1958. Officials explained that the number of people filing declined last year, probably because of the 1958 business recession.
About 17,490,000 taxpayers will find that their envelope from the IRS contains the new buff-colored Form 1040W, in use for the first time.
Form 1040W, the so-called middle form, is being introduced as an economy move. Consisting of two pages, it may be used by some taxpayers instead of the four-page Form 1040.

Ike Returns To Invasion Site—Tunisia

TUNIS (UPI) — President Eisenhower returned today to Tunisia from where he directed the invasion of Sicily 16 years ago and promised President Habib Bourguiba to help raise the living standards of this impoverished nation.
From Bourguiba he got a reminder that Africa contained the "last outposts of stubborn colonialism." The Tunisian president, who led the nation's fight for independence from France in 1956, said these remnants must be eliminated before there can be a lasting peace.
The President left Tunis by helicopter at 5:38 a. m. e. s. t., and landed aboard the Cruiser U. S. S. Des Moines nine minutes later. The ship already was underway toward Toulon, France, when the President's helicopter touched down.
Eisenhower, who received an other tumultuous welcome here, spent four hours in Tunisia where he scored one of his great and early victories of World War II. After talks with Bourguiba he was driven 10 miles into Tunis to visit the graves of American war dead before flying back to his ship.
Eisenhower flew from the Cruiser U. S. S. Des Moines by helicopter to an impromptu clearing 400 yards from Dar El Ha Saada (House of Happiness) Palace, his old wartime headquarters, to be greeted by Bourguiba. The downdraft from the rotor blades scattered specially spread Persian rugs like leaves.

Apalachin Conspirators Case To Jury

NEW YORK (UPI) — The federal government's most massive effort to break the rackete syndicate since the days of Al Capone goes to the jury today in the trial of 20 accused conspirators at the notorious Apalachin, N. Y., meeting of 1957.
U. S. District Judge Irving Kaufman was to instruct the eight men and four women jurors before they receive the case.
Prosecutor Milton Wessel wound up his case Wednesday night with the charge that the defendants were so bound in silence that "grown men cry" rather than reveal what happened at the Apalachin home of the late Joseph Barbara two years ago.
Most of the defendants have criminal records ranging from narcotics and illegal gambling to white slavery and suspicion of

4 Fires In 24 Hours

Continuous rains in Pampa apparently have done little to quiet the fire situation. Four home and building fires have been fought by Pampa firemen in the past 24 hours.
Heaviest damages were at Frank Dittmeyer's Spring Shop at 228 W. Brown Wednesday afternoon. A fire which broke out at 4:25 damaged the interior of the wood and sheet metal building before the blaze was under control. Fire Chief Ernest Winborne said the fire started from cardboard scattered behind a cook stove.
Three minor house fires today, all since 6:55 a. m., were confined to floor type furnaces. The fires were at the G. L. Sheehan home, 217 N. Houston, the A. W. Fry home, 1045 S. Farley, and an apartment at 110 W. Gillespie.

Central Park Yule Program Tonight At 7

Pampa's scenes telling the story of Christmas will be lighted tonight in Central Park at 7 o'clock as scheduled.
Due to weather conditions, however, changes have been made in the schedule. The program usually held will be presented as scheduled, but from the auditorium of the Pampa Junior High School.
The public is invited to attend the lighting ceremonies, but will have to listen to the program on car or transistor radios, since park grounds are too wet to enable people to move about in the park to hear the ceremonies.
Mrs. Lynn Boyd, general chairman of the lighting, said workers will carry transistor radios into the park to coordinate the lighting of the scenes, and they will be lighted in sequence, as in the past. She also said since the auditorium at the school will be set up as a workshop for the evening, people are requested not to come to the building, but may park their automobiles around the park in order to view the scenes.

Toy Repair Job Ended

Train-Truck Crash Kills Higgins Man

HIGGINS — A retired Higgins rancher, G. C. (Cleve) Higgins, 71, was killed about 4 p. m. yesterday at the stockyards railroad crossing at the city limits here, when his pickup truck was struck broadside by a west-bound Santa Fe freight train.
Sgt. E. G. Albers, of the Pampa office of the Department of Public Safety, said Higgins pulled onto the crossing apparently without seeing the oncoming locomotive. The pickup was demolished. The locomotive suffered only minor damage. None of the train crew was injured.
Albers said visibility had been reduced because of fog and drizzle in the area.
Survivors include his wife, Bell, of the home; two daughters, Mrs. Juanita Byron of Austin, Mrs. Irene Harris of Follie; one son, Ray, of Higgins, and five grandchildren.
Services are pending in Duenkel-Jarmichael Funeral Home in Pampa and will be announced later.

Sewer Project At Standstill

Pampa's multi - thousand dollar sewer line project has come to a standstill temporarily while rain continues to fall. City Engineer Monroe Moore reported today.
Workers for the Walter D. Bellamy Co. stopped work Monday when water began to rush into many of the already completed trenches.
Moore said work probably will not begin for "several more days." He added that at present the city has suffered no damages or serious flooding from this week's rain.

DIGGING OUT — New Mexico is still digging out this week of the nation's deepest snowfall, 10 inches. A section of U. S. 60 between Clines Corner and Santa Rosa has been closed, and ranchers are having difficulty reaching cattle because of high drifts. At Albuquerque, 16-year-old Linda Forrest tries out a burro-drawn Indian travois as the heavy snow blankets the patient animal.

Progress Reported At Water Meeting

Many of the difficulties connected with the Canadian River Water Authority project may be ironed out late in January when the city commissions of Amarillo and Lubbock meet in a joint conference. City Manager John Koonz reported this morning.
Koonz along with Fred Thompson were Pampa's representatives at a water authority meeting in Plainview Wednesday afternoon. The meeting broke up two hours after it was agreed to let Lubbock and Amarillo come to some agreement on water rates.
Each city at Wednesday's meeting presented figures showing its anticipated future population, water needs and water rates. Figures shown for Pampa disclosed the city will likely have a 1980 population of 47,790.
By 1980, Koonz said, the city will have to obtain the greatest part of its water supply from

Hotel Board To Discuss Inn Opening

The board of directors of the Community Hotel Corp. will meet tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the chamber of commerce conference room.
George B. Cree, Jr., president, said directors will hear reports and coordinate plans for the opening of the Coronado Inn Jan. 18 and 19.
Les Hart, chairman of the ticket sales committee, said tickets are "going fast" for the opening banquet and dance. A few tickets still are available. Anyone wishing reservations may contact the chamber of commerce.
Hart said "plenty of tickets are still available for the worker's buffet dinner" Jan. 18.

X-15 Flight Cancelled

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (UPI) — A powered flight of manned rocket ship X-15 was abruptly called off Wednesday when test pilot Scott Crossfield discovered the craft's radio wasn't working.

'Parking Hogs' Warned By Chief

Doubleparkers on traffic - clogged downtown streets were asked today to show "some consideration for other motorists" by Police Chief Jim Conner.
Conner said that the rain is making conditions hard for drivers and shoppers, but double parking is not legal and it is seriously holding up downtown traffic. He said some tickets had been issued.
Chief Conner also noted that many drivers are straddling lanes on city streets. He urged that motorists drive in one lane and that lane changes be made carefully.

USAF Plane Forced Down

MIAMI (UPI) — The Miami Herald reported today that Dominican Air Force fighter planes forced down an unarmed U. S. Air Force passenger plane Wednesday by firing a burst of machine-gun bullets in front of it.
In a copyright dispatch, the Herald said the incident occurred over Dominican territory and the plane, a C47, landed in Dominican for inspection.
Lt. Col. Robert Foley, air attaché in the U. S. embassy at Caracas, Venezuela, was piloting the plane on a flight from Ramey Air Force Base, Puerto Rico to Fort au Prince, Haiti, the Herald said.
The Herald said Foley broadcast details of the incident and was picked up at Fort au Prince and by a number of pilots in the area.

Oil Industry In Good Shape

DALLAS (UPI) — Ernest O. Thompson, chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission, said Wednesday night the situation in the Texas oil industry has "never been in better shape statistically."
He said there is no cause for gloom about profits.
Thompson spoke at a dinner in his honor.
"Of a total of 31 larger companies, the first nine months' net earnings were up 15.6 per cent over 1958," he said. "The 20 integrated companies showed a gain of 23.9 per cent. I would call that a good substantial gain."

IT'S THE LAW in Texas
A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

Double Jeopardy
Most likely you can't picture yourself being brought into court in anything worse than a speeding violation. Nearly everyone feels that way. Even so, it is good to know that in this country you can't be made to stand trial twice for the same offense.

We have a provision in the U.S. constitution against "double jeopardy." That's one of the important safeguards in our system of law which makes it certain that once a court has reached a verdict of "innocent," the acquitted person may not be put on trial again for the same offense.

To add to the protection, if a person has been acquitted, the prosecution cannot appeal the case to a higher court. The constitution states specifically: "Nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life and limb."

This right holds good, however, only if a full trial is held and a verdict is reached. It is possible to face another trial on the same charge if the first trial ends with a "hung jury" or a "mistrial," or if a new trial is requested.

A classic example comes from the "Wild West" in the late 1800's. A man named Ball was charged with murder, along with two others. Ball was acquitted, but the others were found guilty. The guilty pair appealed to a higher court, and their original indictment was found to be faulty.

Once again the government accused all three men. Ball claimed his right against double jeopardy had been invaded, and the U.S. Supreme Court agreed. He didn't have to stand trial again. The other two did, and paid the penalty for their guilt.

The reason for the "double jeopardy" provision is to protect the individual from being hounded all his life. In old England, where the fear of tyranny first prompted safeguards for personal freedom, one court said: "Were it not for this rule, anyone obnoxious to the government might be run down by repeated attempts to carry on a prosecution against him."

Christmas Tree Sales Booming, Say Optimists

Optimist Club Christmas tree sales have been successful so far, it was reported this morning at the Optimist Breakfast Club meeting.

Ham Hamilton, Christmas tree sales chairman, said that less than 100 trees are left at each of the two lots, near Wilson's Drug on Cuyler and near Furr Food on Houston.

Hamilton urged club members to help sell trees in an effort to "sell out."

In other business this morning, Homar Hollars of the Evening Club explained the operation of the "800 Club" in which individuals or businesses contribute a certain amount of money monthly, semi-annually, or annually to the club.

The Breakfast Club will discuss the expansion of the "800 Club" program after the first of the year when it resumes meeting. The next meeting will be Jan. 7.

An application for membership from Forrest E. Cloyd was read to the club by secretary Vincent Simon. The application will be acted on at a later date. Guests this morning were Hollars, Clifford Hill, John Schofield, Newt Secrest and Bill Dodd.

Christmas Program In Wheeler Monday

WHEELER — A Christmas program will be presented in the Wheeler High School Gymnasium Monday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Participating will be the elementary grades, followed by the elementary Colt Band. The junior high chorus and the high school girls chorus of Kelton High School will present Christmas selections, both secular and religious. The Wheeler Mustangs Band will conclude the program.

Guest soloist for the evening will be Mrs. Patricia Pierce, a senior music student at West Texas State College. The Mustang Band and Sylvia Lee will accompany Mrs. Pierce.

The public is invited. There will be no admission charge.

Lefors School Play Tonight

LEFORS (Sp.) — "Barretts of Wimpole Street," all-school play, will be presented in the Lefors High School Auditorium tonight and tomorrow night, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Kay Brown, speech and English teacher, is the director of the production.

Supposedly a true story of the lives of Robert Browning and Elizabeth Barrett, English poets, the play has its setting in 1845.

Elizabeth Barrett is played by Sharon Hines; Edward Barrett by Bill Phillips, and Robert Browning is portrayed by Mickey Archer.

Others in the cast are Margie Nichols, Linda Porsch, Bobby Gotcher, James Coleman, Ronny McCarthy, Winfred Nowlin, Paula Cumberledge, Joe Clarke, Mary Collins, Junior Taylor, Arthur Trapp and Butch Northcott.

Rotary To Move Meeting Place

The Pampa Rotary Club yesterday was entertained by the senior high school a capella choir. The choir sang several numbers in keeping with Christmas and received a standing ovation at the conclusion of the program.

The club voted to move its meeting place from the Palm Room to the ballroom of the Coronado Inn beginning Jan. 27.

Funds were collected from the members to handle the Christmas activities for underprivileged families. A report will be made to the club after Christmas of the disposition of these funds.

Club visitors and guests were Jim Brown, George King, Lester Wilde and Jerry Walsh.

Suit Asks $14,035

An employe of the Pampa Foundry, Gordon Mills, filed a $14,035 compensation suit this morning against the Traders and General Insurance Co.

Mills, a Pampa resident, alleged he suffered back and hip injuries May 23 while turning over a heavy piece of metal. Mills is seeking $35 a week for 401 consecutive weeks.

Salvation Army Booth Collections Need A Boost

The "million-dollar rain" in Pampa and vicinity may be good for farmers and ranchers, but it has hampered collections at the two downtown Salvation Army booths, Kirk Duncan, Salvation Army board chairman reported today.

"If collections do not increase soon many needy families will not receive yearly Christmas baskets, and other winter relief programs will suffer," Duncan said.

Persons who wish to make contributions to this annual solicitation of funds are asked to mail donations to The Salvation Army, Box 158, Pampa.

The booths are located on the corner of Foster and Cuyler at the First National Bank and at the J. C. Penney corner, Kingsmill and Cuyler.

Monies collected at the booths goes toward providing Christmas baskets for deserving families in the Pampa area and for other winter relief.

Accidents On Slippery Streets

One person suffered minor injuries Wednesday in one of six car accidents on rain-slick city streets. Two additional collisions had been reported to police during this morning's rain.

Suffering scratches and bruises Wednesday morning was Virginia Ann Worrell, 1707 Christine, when her 1953 pickup struck a parked car at 7:15 a.m.

The parked car, owned by Leroy McBride, had damages set at $225. Police said the collision occurred in the 300 block of E. 18th St. The Pampa woman was tagged for driving at an unsafe speed.

In four of Wednesday's collisions the cars involved were driven away under their own power. Damages were light in each case.

Weapons Charge, Dwi Charged To Pampan

Charges of driving while intoxicated and unlawfully carrying a concealed weapon were filed this morning in county court against Kenneth Ray Beezley, 32, of 1132 Terrace Drive.

Beezley was apprehended at 5 p.m. Wednesday in the 1000 block of Neel Rd. after his car ran onto a lawn. The arresting officer, Texas Ranger Bill Hensley, said Beezley was carrying a knife concealed under his shirt.

Polio Board To Meet

The Gray County Polio Board will meet tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock in the chamber of commerce offices.

Board Chairman Art Smalley said the meeting will be held to pay bills and discuss routine business matters.

The elevator now used in buildings all over the world was invented by Elisha Graves Otis in 1852.

Grandmother, 3 Children Burn To Death

HOUSTON (UPI) — Three young Negro children and their grandmother burned to death Wednesday night as their mother stood screaming outside.

District Fire Chief C. A. Adams said their five room home was enveloped in flames when the fire department arrived.

"The bodies were badly burned, but we think they were asphyxiated," Adams said. "There is no way to tell immediately how the fire started. The home was completely gutted."

Adams identified the victims as Mrs. Hattie Hardy, 70, Anthony Yarbrough, 5, Denise Yarbrough, 3, and Darrell Yarbrough, 13 months.

He said the children's mother was not at home at the time the fire broke out. He said she arrived on the scene shortly after the fire department and had to be restrained from rushing inside.

Nike Fizzles Third Time

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Army has failed again to test successfully its Nike-Zeus rocket, designed as this country's major defense against Russian ballistic missiles.

The Army launched the mighty anti-missile missile Wednesday at the White Sands, N.M., proving grounds. The second stage did not fire.

Two previous firings of the two-stage rocket also were less than full successes.

The Army said radio telemetry messages from the latest shot indicated that the first and second stages successfully separated. But it said the sustainer motor of the upper rocket did not ignite.

APALACHIN

(Continued from Page 1) murder. It is widely believed that Apalachin was a meeting of the "board of directors" of the racketeers to discuss national problems.

Charged With Conspiracy

But the federal government charged them only with conspiracy to obstruct justice by lying about what did occur. The offense carries a maximum penalty of five years imprisonment.

"We have not, cannot and do not prove what was going on at the Apalachin meeting," Wessel said. "The conspiracy was successful."

"People may ask, 'what kind of conspiracy can't be beaten by the federal government, by the FBI?'"

"It is the kind that binds these people together so tightly in silence that grown men cry. They are bound by hands so strong to lie that it will take a verdict of guilty to break those hands."

Let Deluxe Holiday Turnovers Say Merry Christmas To Someone Special

There's a bit of "you" in the gift you've made, doubling the joy of giving. It's too late in the year to start in on a pair of argyle socks, but if you have a free afternoon ahead you can make Deluxe Holiday Turnovers for someone special.

These turnovers were suggested to us by Martha Logan, well known home economist. She says it's the rich, "flavor-baked" pastry that makes them irresistibly good. A pure white shortening with a meat fat base will produce a wonderfully flaky pastry. Sour cream adds an intriguing nuance in taste. "Flavor baked" is the best way to describe these pastry squares, folded to enclose a tart fruit filling.

Because the turnover pastry is so rich, it is important to let it "rest" before rolling. A 15 to 20 minute wait after cutting in the shortening will make the pastry easier to handle.

Use a variety of fillings in these deluxe turnovers. They make a delightful showcase for last summer's preserves and jams.

When baked a delicate golden brown, arrange the turnovers on a pretty tray, add gay wrappings, and learn the fun of playing Santa with a gift from your kitchen.

DELUXE HOLIDAY TURNSOVERS

(Yield: about 25)
 2-3 cup shortening
 2 cups sifted flour
 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
 1/4 cup dairy soured cream
 1 egg, separated
 1/2 to 3/4 cup fruit fillings

Sift flour and salt together into a bowl. Cut in shortening with a pastry blender until it is the size of small peas and corn meal. Beat together sour cream and egg yolk. Add to the flour mixture, one tablespoonful at a time. Toas the mixture together lightly. Place the dough on waxed paper and knead three times. Press the dough gently into a ball. Let it "rest" at room temperature for 15 to 20 minutes.

Roll the dough, on a lightly floured pastry cloth, into a square approximately 15 by 15 by 1/4 inches. Cut in 3 inches squares. Spread about 1 teaspoon of filling on each square. Fold two corners of each square to the center and overlap them slightly. Press gently to seal. Place the turnovers on a cookie sheet. Brush with egg white. Bake in a hot oven (425 degrees F.) for 15 minutes.

This recipe was developed using Swift's Shortening. Canned prepared fruit filling or fruit preserves may be used.

Gala Menu For Tree Trimming Celebration

It's a handsome tree — all done up in its shiny red and green and gold baubles, its shimmering tinsel, its striding of glowing colored lights. And now for the final touch — the silver star for the tip — top branch. Steady now! We don't want an evening's work to come tumbling down because of one quick misstep.

Tree-trimming is so much fun! So why not invite some of your closest friends to help decorate your evergreen this Christmas eve. Then wind up the evening with a buffet supper. Here's a suggested menu galia enough for this special night.

HAM POULET ON TOAST
 Olives, Pickles, Radishes
 Celery Stuffed With Creamy Roquefort
 Crismon Fruit Cake
 Coffee

HAM POULET is an easy — doesn't require that can be made in a double boiler, or if you please, in a chafing dish. (If you don't have one of these handy gadgets for buffet serving, maybe you can drop Dad a hint to play Santa a little early.) Julienne ham is heated in a cream sauce rich with chicken flavor and generously studded with mushrooms. The chicken flavor comes from, believe it or not, cream of chicken soup. This canned condensed variety, made with thick country cream, glistening, golden chicken broth and chunks of tender chicken is the perfect answer to a satiny-smooth cream base. There's no need to need to fix one's own temperamental white sauce when you have a can of this soup on hand. It's beautifully spiced and blended and provides the ideal background flavor for the ham.

HAM POULET
 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 2 tablespoons flour
 1/4 cup milk
 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) Heinz Condensed Cream of Chicken Soup, undiluted
 1/4 pound (1 cup) julienne cooked ham
 1 can (4 ounces) sliced mushrooms, drained

Melt butter in saucepan; blend in flour. Gradually stir in milk. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Stir in remaining ingredients; heat. Serve over waffles or toast. Makes 4 servings.

Variation: 1 tablespoon sherry may be added before serving.

To make 12 servings or 8 cups:
 8 tablespoons butter or margarine
 6 tablespoons flour
 2 1/2 cups milk
 3 cans (10 1/2 ounces) Heinz Condensed Cream of Chicken Soup, undiluted
 1/2 pound julienne cooked ham
 3 cans (4 ounces) sliced mushrooms, drained
 Follow directions above. Makes 12 servings or 8 cups.

For the celery stuffing, combine equal parts of pasteurized cream cheese and roquefort. Use a pastry tube with a fluted opening for picture-pretty results.

Dessert is in the Christmas mood — a fragrant, spicy Crismon Fruit Cake.

CRISMON FRUIT CAKE
 1/2 teaspoon baking soda
 1/2 cup Heinz Tomato Ketchup
 2 1/2 cups sifted flour
 1 1/2 teaspoons ground cinnamon
 1 1/2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
 1/2 cup shortening
 1 cup sugar
 3 eggs
 1 cup seedless raisins
 1 cup chopped pitted dates
 1/2 cup glazed mixed fruit
 1/2 cup currants
 1 1/2 cups chopped walnuts or pecans
 1/4 cup flour

Heat oven to 350 degrees F. (moderate). Combine soda and ketchup. Sift together flour, cinnamon and baking powder. Cream shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in eggs one at a time. Add sifted dry ingredients alter-

Sophisticated Palates Pleased With Spring Sweetness Of Frozen Peas

Refreshingly different is the use of leftover roast chicken or turkey in a hot baked salad. The usual mayonnaise, celery, and diced poultry mixture is not only baked, but livened with the spring sweetness of frozen green peas, then topped with bread cubes and grated cheese before baking.

Serve Baked Chicken Salad from a big casserole for a buffet supper men will enjoy, or as individual hot salads in smart little covered ramekins for a ladies' luncheon. They'll delight coeds home for the holidays, and get the New Year's first bride or committee meeting off to a good start.

Crunchy sliced almonds, minced onion and scarlet pimiento give extra flavor and color to the baked salad. For sophisticated parties, lemon juice provides a still further accent, but to preserve the newly-shelled glowing green color of the frozen peas, omit the lemon juice, which tends to dim it. Either way, the peas keep the vine-fresh taste which distinguishes the frozen variety.

BUFFT SUPPER MENU
 Hot Tomato Juice
 Baked Chicken Salad with Frozen Green Peas
 Watercress Finger Sandwiches
 Centerpiece Tray of Fresh Fruits, Camembert, Caraway Cheese, Crackers
 Coffee Tea

BAKED CHICKEN SALAD WITH FROZEN PEAS
 (6 servings)
 2 cups cooked chicken, cubed
 2 cups celery, sliced
 1 10-ounce package frozen green peas, cooked

1/2 up salted sliced almonds (optional)
 2 tablespoons green pepper, diced
 1 tablespoon grated onion
 2 tablespoons pimiento, diced
 2 tablespoons lemon juice
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cups mayonnaise
 1 cup grated American Cheese
 2 slices bread, cut in 1/4-inch cubes
 Combine all ingredients thoroughly except bread and cheese. Sprinkle with cheese and bread cubes. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 25 minutes or until cheese is melted.

Letters to Santa

Dear Santa, I am nine years old, and I want a doll and dresser set, riding pants, shirt to go with them, and Santa I hope your reindeer aren't sick. Come and knock on our door because we do not have a chimney. I do hope you come to see us. All of our family wish you a very, very merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Your friend,
Pat Prescott

Dear Santa, I am a little girl 8 months old. Mommy thinks I am a very sweet and good baby.

Please send me for Christmas a doll, stuffed toy, a sucker and anything you think I might need.

Please don't forget my cousins and all the other girls and boys. I love you.

Shannon Darlene Rexroat

Dear St. Nick, I have been a good boy and I would like these things for Christmas this year.

A wind-up tank, a boxer dog that is alive, an eskimo set, a water proof watch, a play air rifle, an army truck, and the gray and and have been a good girl.

Love,
Joan Ellison

Dear Santa, I am a little girl almost three. I would like to have a baby doll, a bed, wardrobe for the doll,

Foreign News

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

President Eisenhower's 11-nation tour is giving him a close-up view of the little quarrels that stand in the way of the big peace.

They are the quarrels among neighboring nations, small in comparison to the global struggle between Democratic and communist ideologies, but looming so large in the eyes of the participants the ymay be blind to all else.

In some cases communism has helped to keep the ferment going but mostly they are strictly local.

A) the President travelled along the perimeter of the Iron Curtain from Turkey to India and then doubled back for his Western summit meeting in Paris, here are some he has encountered:

Turkey: Within the last year, Turkey has been at the brink of war with the United Arab Republic, has normally strained relations with Russia and, despite settlement of the Cyprus question and the fact that both are NATO nations, is only friendly on the surface toward Greece. The two are ancient enemies and seem unlikely to change.

Pakistan-India: The two are bitterly at odds over Kashmir, claimed by both and now split along an uneasy cease-fire line. Earlier plans to let Kashmir decide for itself in a plebiscite have gone by the boards and no settlement is in sight. The two also have quarrelled over water rights.

Afghanistan: Relations with Pakistan are normal on the surface but irritated by Afghanistan's claims to a portion of Pakistan's northwest territory and by Afghan support for an independent Pathan state which would slice off some Pakistan territory.

Iran: Involved in a border dispute with neighboring Iraq and a dispute over use of inland waters which both use to get their oil to the Persian Gulf. Iran also is suspicious of both U.A.R. and Russian influence among Kurdish tribesmen who spread along the borders from Iraq, through Syria, Iran and into Turkey. Kurdish demands for an independent state have been supported by Russia.

Greece: Still suspicious of Turkey.

Tunisia: Maintains close ties with France but at odds with the

Quotes In The News

United Press International

WASHINGTON — State Department spokesman Lincoln White, announcing that Communist Czechoslovakia has not answered an American protest against an exhibit at Prague calling Gen. Douglas MacArthur a "mass murderer":

"One can only assume that this is in furtherance of the spirit of Camp David."

CHICAGO — Donald Hanson, a Kaycee, Wyo. rancher, backing a proposal tentatively accepted by the 41st convention of the American Farm Bureau Federation calling for repeal of the federal individual income tax:

"It wouldn't impoverish the government one bit."

WASHINGTON — Cal Griffith, owner of the Washington Senators, explaining why he turned down a $500,000 offer for third baseman and home run slugger Harmon Killebrew:

"You can't play money at third base."

French over Tunisian support of the Algerian rebels. French warplanes have bombed Tunisian soil on charges that Tunisia provides a sanctuary for hit-run attacks on French troops in Algeria.

Morocco: Also at odds with France over the Algerian issue and with Spain over Spanish-held territory inside Moroccan boundaries. U.S. air bases in Morocco, which cost millions to build, will be abandoned at Morocco's request.

Spain: Last of the Fascist dictatorships and outside the Western family of nations for most of the years since World War II. Relations with the U.S. good, improving with France and West Germany, chilly in most other places.

France - England - Germany: Currently Eisenhower's biggest problem. France annoyed with the United States, Britain annoyed with France, and West Germany suspicious of Britain.

DEAR ABBY: I have a question to ask you. If I have to do with a girl who is good for nothing, I have not been able to find it in an etiquette book. When a person has lost a loved one and friends express their sympathy, what is the correct thing to say to a woman? Not "Thank you!" I am sure.

DEAR ABBY: I have a question to ask you. If I have to do with a girl who is good for nothing, I have not been able to find it in an etiquette book. When a person has lost a loved one and friends express their sympathy, what is the correct thing to say to a woman? Not "Thank you!" I am sure.

Following 35 Operation In 16 Years Song In Heart Licks Jinx For Singer

By JACK P. GABRIEL
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK (NEA) — It's taken her the astonishing number of 35 operations in 16 years to do it, but it looks like singing star Jane Froman has finally exercised the jinx that's pursued her relentlessly since 1945.

Jane Froman

It began during World War II when a plane carrying a USO troupe to entertain GIs overseas crashed in the Tagus River, at Lisbon. Badly hurt, Jane was rescued from the water by the plane's pilot, John C. Burns, and thus began a romance between them which became a marriage, but ended in divorce in 1956.

The tall, stately burnette, with the rich, warm voice, started a long and painful series of operations on her spine and on her right leg. She will always wear a small leg brace. Despite it, she walks with all the grace and ease of a dancer.

"But my back is perfect at long last," she smiles. "It's straight and strong, and doctors assure me that I should have no trouble with it."

To illustrate how she's feeling, she bends easily down to touch the floor with her hands without bending her knees.

About two years ago, after a short period of feeling "pretty good," her spine sent her back to a hospital. She's been in and out of hospitals ever since, enduring five more operations to bring the total up to that impressive number, 35. During that time, her complete disappearance from the entertainment world remained a mystery to the public.

Then, last spring, the Burke Foundation in White Plains, N.Y., gave Jane a gift — among other treatments, a rigorous system of calisthenics.

"It hurt terribly to do them at first," she says. "But now I can do them every hour on the hour." She says now with a little giggle at the painful memory. "But I guess it was worth while. Now I do them with no pain and I'm as good as new."

Her happy appearance these days comes from good health, she recently regained and cherished, and a new burst of professional activity. She has engagements booked at the Chez Paree in Chicago and the Hotel Plaza in New York. TV and radio spots are being lined up, too, and the 1960 schedule is always becoming crowded.

"This is the first time I've had any fun in years," says the lovely singer. "Since 1943, I've either been flat on my back at home or in a hospital or working. For the past two months I've just been enjoying myself and it's been heavenly to go out socially and have some fun."

But fun has been put aside for business, and now she's rehearsing a new act. "I'm not even going to sing 'With a Song in My Heart,'" she claims, but whether audiences will let her leave the floor without hearing the song with which she's identified is something for the future to disclose.

Meanwhile, a recent hobby — Sunday painting — has become too important to remain the usual "sometime thing."

Jane took it up while in a hospital and found she had talent for it. She holds up her first painting for inspection, then displays four subsequent works.

"You can see how I've improved," she laughs. "This first one is pretty bad."

After a showing of her work in a hospital, an art school offered her a scholarship, and Jane's rightfully proud of that.

Looking radiant and feeling better than she has in many years, Jane Froman may not sing her old theme song in the new act, but she'll be trying again to put a song in the hearts of others.

Suddenly Its Fashionable To Be Square As Hairdos Take On Box-Carton Look

"Fashions" By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor
NEW YORK (UPI) — If your friends call you a blockhead in the months ahead, you're in chic company.

For suddenly it's high fashion for women to look like "squares," with hairdos so boxy looking they resemble a carton with the sides tipped out.

The Litz Reference Department, which keeps tabs on the newest in coiffures, said the boxy look was inevitable. Stylists tried the rounded look, the bubble cut, the bouffant do. Only the cube had escaped.

The service, researching how styles evolve, found that most grow out of a look just passed; that each is a modification of last season's line.

Season by season, said the researchers, the line turns, twists, and curls, but seldom breaks. "Go back 30 years or so to the chorus girls who wore long, Mary

Yule Workshop Held By Club
LEFORS (Sp) — Lefors Home Demonstration Club held an all-day Christmas workshop recently in civic center. Preceding luncheon, members worked on Christmas decorations.

In the afternoon, Miss Lou Ella Patterson, Gray County Home Demonstration agent, gave a demonstration of covering shoes with fabric.

During a gift exchange by members, gifts of appreciation were presented to the president, Mrs. O. O. Bishop and to Miss Patterson. Surprise gifts were also presented to each member by Mrs. Bishop.

New HD club officers were installed by Miss Patterson. Assuming office at the next meeting on Jan. 14 are Mrs. Bishop, re-elected for a second term as president; Mmes. Charles Roberts, vice president; B. J. Thacker, secretary; Ted Kindall, corresponding secretary; B. J. Diehl, treasurer; B. B. Vaughn council delegate and A. M. Dickerson, parliamentarian.

Committee chairmen appointed by the president were Mmes. H. L. Braly, yearbook; A. T. Cobb, program chairman; B. H. Bradford, education expansion; A. J. Rollings, finance; A. M. Dickerson and D. T. Pfeil, recreation; Charles Roberts, reporter; Carl Barber, homestead improvement; R. W. Beck, bedroom improvement; and M. L. Rippey, family economics.

Mrs. Thelma Adkins of Corsicana was welcomed as a guest. Mrs. W. G. Hughes and Mrs. Bill Oslin were named to membership.

Members present in addition to those mentioned above were Mmes. Jeff Davis, Ted Kendall, H. J. Leininger, and L. D. Rider.

Grace Class Has Yule Salad Supper

CANADIAN (Sp) — The Grace Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Hugh Wilson recently for its annual Christmas party.

Mrs. Paul Read read the Christmas story, Mrs. A. B. Talley and Mrs. Jack King presented "Christmas thoughts."

Following a salad supper, the members exchanged Christmas gifts.

Those attending were Mmes. L. B. Owens, Jack King, A. B. Talley,

Tuesday Club With Mrs. E. C. Shuman

WHITE DEER — Mrs. E. C. Shuman entertained the Tuesday Bridge Club recently, with two tables of players present.

Those attending were Mmes. T. Dickens, Alvin Williams, B. R. Weeks, B. O. Bentley, George Coffee, Russell McConnell, Frank Kuns, and E. E. Foose.

Mrs. Dickens held high score for the afternoon, and Mrs. Foose held low.

Cub Shortstop Ernie Banks Set Two Records in 1959

CINCINNATI, Ohio (UPI)—Ernie Banks, Chicago Cubs shortstop, broke two major league fielding records today revealed him to be the No. 1 defensive man in the National League.

The slugging Chicago Cubs shortstop broke two major league fielding records last season and both marks may stand for a long time. Banks' .985 fielding average was the highest ever compiled by a major league shortstop and the 12 errors he committed were the fewest ever made during a single season by a regular major league shortstop. Closest one to Banks in the field was Milwaukee shortstop Johnny Logan, who had a .975 average and 18 miscues. Gil Hodges of the Dodgers led the league's first basemen in fielding for the third time in his career with a .992 average and teammate Charley Neal was high man among the second basemen with a .989 percentage.

BOBBY WILHELM
... '58 state welter champ

Wilhelm Fights Here Saturday

Bobby Wilhelm, Pampa's former state welterweight champion, will be one of the 10 University of Corpus Christi boxers arriving here early Friday morning, for a Saturday night match with Pampa boxers.

Wilhelm, son of Pampa boxing coach Ollie Wilhelm and 1958 state welterweight titlist, will meet Amarillo's Manny Perez in a fight which was matched at the request of Perez. This will be the feature fight of Saturday's card, which begins at 7:30 p.m. at Pampa Optimist Boys Club.

Perez, an extremely aggressive fighter, beat Pampa's Gary Willis last year for the regional lightweight title. His aggressive tactics, pitted against Wilhelm's counter-punching style, are expected to result in an action-packed bout.

The Corpus Christi squad, coached by former Borger boxing coach Lee Palmer, includes two other state champions besides Wilhelm, plus two state runners-up and four other open class fighters. Pampa matchmaker Oran James and head coach Wilhelm describe it as "the best squad ever brought here for a match."

Wayne Tedder of Borger is one of the other state champs. He won the lightweight title last year, beating Perez in his toughest fight along the way. He will probably be matched against Jim Murray Saturday night.

The other state champ is Billy Pine of Andrews, who took the featherweight crown. He is expected to go against Dickie Willis. Richard Marquer, a 144-pounder, has moved up a class since winning state lightweight runnerup honors last year. His probable opponent is Charles Snider.

Eco Gonzales was state bantamweight runnerup last year, but has moved up two classes to the lightweight division. He is expected to meet Ronnie Morgan. "It will take a hard hitter to beat this boy," James explained, "and Morgan is in that class."

Other probable open fighters will be featherweight Johnny Lynch vs. Pampa's Dickie James, middleweight Joe Tom Powell vs. Gary Willis, and heavyweight Benton Gary vs. Pampa's Wesley Critch.

James is thought to have drawn the roughest opponent among these three Corpus Christi fighters. Lynch is a 23-year-old senior and has more ring experience than James. However, James is far from a novice, having fought more than a hundred bouts.

In addition to the open fighters, Corpus Christi is also bringing three novices — welterweight Edgar Johnson, middleweight Kenneth Corse, and middleweight Bill Brasler. Jim Snider will probably fight one of the three. Opponents for the other two have not yet been determined. Tickets to Saturday's fights are on sale at James Feed Store, Ring-side seats are $2.00, bleachers $1.25, and student tickets $1.00. Tickets will be on sale at the door, unless the match is a sellout before Saturday night.

NEA All-Pro Team Picked

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK (NEA) — Championship teams reflect championship performance.

So it's no accident that the Baltimore Colts and the New York Giants dominate the All-Pro Players' All-Pro team, named by NEA Service.

The Colts and Giants each placed five men, and they put them where they figure to do the most good. Baltimore, with the most explosive attack in football, is represented by four men on the All-Pro offensive platoon.

Johnny Unitas, their tremendous quarterback, and Ray Berry, the premier pass-catcher in the National Football League, were runway choices at their positions. Berry was on 94 per cent of the ballots sent in by the players of the 12 teams.

The Giants, featuring the greatest defense in football, have three men on that platoon, with linebacker Sam Huff and safety Jim Patton topping all the defensive votes.

Another landslide choice was Jim Brown of Cleveland, who now has made the all-pro selections at full-back in all three of his years with the money men.

There are few surprises on this year's team, since eight men of the offense and seven of the defense are repeaters from 1958. Guard Jim Ringo of Cleveland, center Jim Ringo of Green Bay and halfback Frank Gifford of New York, all second team selections a year ago, jumped up a notch.

So did defensive end Andy Robustelli of the Giants and tackle Ernie Stautner of Pittsburgh. Newcomers to the all-pro ranks are

White Deer B Falls to Rebs

WHITE DEER — The Lee Junior High Rebels of Pampa in their last game before the Christmas holidays came from behind here Wednesday to whip the White Deer B team, 57-42.

Wayne Kries led the Rebel comeback with the highest individual point production of the year — 25. Following him in scoring for the Rebs were Gordon Balch with 10, Jon Pijts with 7, Ronnie Chase with 7, Darrell Doss with 4, Jerry Glover with 3, and Mike Schalo with 2.

Lee trailed 29-28 at halftime, but came on strong in the third quarter to go ahead, the Rebels led by 12 points going into the final period.

defensive halfback Tom Brookshier of Philadelphia and veteran tackle Leo Nomellini of San Francisco, experiencing a comeback.

The second team, however, indicates the arrival of a new crop of stars. Tommy McDonald of the Eagles, tackle Forest Gregg of Green Bay and halfbacks J. D.

Smith, San Francisco, and John David Crow, Cardinals, are the coming offensive standouts.

Offensive Teams

First Team

Second Team
Ends Billy Wilson, 49ers and Tommy McDonald, Eagles; tackles Forest Gregg, Packers and Mike McCormack, Browns; guards Art Spinney, Colts and John Nisby, Steelers; center Ray Wietecha, Giants; quarterback Charley Connerly, Giants; halfbacks J. D. Smith, 49ers and John Crow, Cardinals; fullback Rick Casares, Bears.

Defensive Teams

First Team
Ends Gino Marchetti, Colts and Andy Robustelli, Giants; tackles Leo Nomellini, 49ers and Ernie Stautner, Steelers; linebackers Sam Huff, Giants, Joe Schmidt, Lions and Bill George, Bears; halfbacks Yale Lary, Lions and Tom Brookshier, Eagles; safeties Jim Patton, Giants and Jack Butler, Steelers.

Second Team

SET DERBY DATE

LEXINGTON, Ky. (UPI) — Churchill Downs directors have voted to stage the 1960 running of the Kentucky Derby on May 7. The date is the traditional first Saturday in May and technically is subject to approval by the Kentucky State Racing Commission.

Cross-Fire And Backlashes

BY CHARLIE CROSS

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is an introductory column on hunting and fishing in the Pampa area by Daily News Staff Writer Charlie Cross. This column will be published each Thursday.

Anyone having an item of interest to report on hunting or fishing should call Charlie Cross at MO 4-2525 by 1 p.m. Tuesday, or write him at Box 901 in time for the information to be received by noon Tuesday. If it's possible to get the item to him earlier it will be appreciated.

UPI writer Bill Clayton, writing in "Texas Outdoors," said farmers who once sent a charge of buckshot after hunters who trespassed on their lands are beginning to welcome them as a potential supplement to a sagging income.

In several areas of East and Northeast Texas where farmers have not been able to make a financial success of farming alone, landowners have pooled their property into large game and fish resort areas.

Here in the Panhandle there is very little financial problem, but farmers and ranchers are doing the same thing. I know of two ranchers in this area who sell head-rights on their property for $10 a person during deer season, and charge as much as $25 for quail hunting. Frankly, I see nothing wrong with the practice, except that a working boy like me can't afford it, and sometimes has to hunt in a less thickly populated game area because of it.

Tall Sherman Squad Will Play PHS This Weekend

The Harvesters will take on a tall and fairly experienced, but losing team when they meet the Sherman basketball squad in a two game series this weekend at Harvester Field House.

Pampa will be shooting for its 51st and (if successful) 52nd straight victories against Sherman. The first game will be played Friday, the second Saturday. Both start at 8 p.m., and both will be preceded by B games at 6:30 p.m. These will be the last games before the Christmas holidays. The next scheduled game for the Harvesters will be against Quanah here Dec. 29.

The Sherman squad has only a 2-5 record for the season, despite having three returning starters and an average height of more than 6 feet, 1 inch. However, the losses have been to tough opposition — two to Paris and one each to Bowie, Dallas Jefferson, and Fort Worth Paschal. Sherman defeated Greenville twice.

Sherman, which uses both the double-post and single-post offensive patterns has scored an average of 48.1 points per game. With their man-to-man defense, they have allowed 56.7 points per game.

Sherman is doing a great deal of experimenting at this stage of the season, switching both offensive patterns and players. They have no really stable starting lineup.

However, the five who have seen the most action are center Robert Higginbotham, 6-2, guard Mike Nelson, 6-1, guard Joe Graves, 6-1, forward Bob Roper, 6-2, and forward Travis Brock, 6-1.

Higginbotham is the top scorer, with a 14.1 average, and Nelson is next with a 12.7 average. The other scoring is about equally distributed.

In the double-post offensive pattern, in which for all practical purposes there are two centers and three guards, Brock and Higginbotham are the centers. Higginbotham and Nelson are returning regulars, while Graves let-tered on last year's Sherman team.

Harvester Coach Clifton McNeely considers Sherman a dangerous foe, despite its record. He points out that Sherman's opposition has been first class. The Harvesters will be at full strength for the weekend series, barring last-minute injuries or illness.

Insolence Of Office

A property owner and taxpayer recently showed up at a district school board meeting and voiced an objection respecting the unbridled spending being promoted. Courteously, the official in charge of the meeting inquired: "Harden, Mrs. but do you have a child attending the public schools at this time?" "No, I do not."

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI) — Investors befuddled by academic jousting can steer a middle course—defying both the bulls and the bears, according to inside Wall Street.

Simply buy convertible bonds, the firm tells its readers. The dual nature of these securities offers a comparatively safe depository for his funds, it notes.

Conservative or high tax bracket investors—with second thoughts about buying common stocks on margin will find the purchase of sound convertible bonds on small margin an ideal speculative medium, it adds.

"Of immediate interest are depressed oil, aircraft, textile and rail convertibles."

Eldon A. Grimm of Walston & Co., appeals to the patient investor: It's quite obvious, he notes, that Kaiser industries has good speculative potential. "One source has estimated... the stock at 15 is priced at a discount of about 30 per cent from total present-day values."

Gersen of Wall Street comments on the business outlook: "... It is not the immediate rally (stock market) that counts, but the extent of the follow-through to determine just how the market appraises the business scene. The market has a way of looking many months ahead and discounting the future—that is the reason it is such a good business barometer."
