

20 Convicts Make Mass Escape

Break From North Carolina Prison, Take Many Weapons

YANCEYVILLE, N.C. (UPI)—Twenty incorrigible convicts took over the maximum security Ivy Bluff prison camp early today and escaped with an arsenal of pistols, rifles and a sub-machine gun.

Fifteen of the 35 prisoners at Ivy Bluff chose to stay behind but the rest followed the lead of Charles (Yank) Stewart, a long term convict whose father and brother were executed in the 1920s for murdering a policeman. The fugitives included six life termers convicted of robbery, murder, rape or kidnaping.

Col. William F. Bailey, state prison director, termed "inexcusable" the break from Ivy Bluff, scene of a number of prisoner self-maimings.

The prisoners took over the prison by a series of ruses. They slugged one guard and raced away from the camp shortly after midnight in a stolen truck and car. They later wrecked the car and all 20 climbed into the pick-up truck, which has benches and a wire-cage door for transporting prisoners.

The escape was well planned, apparently by Stewart, who once said he would do anything to get out of Ivy Bluff.

"They had plenty of time," said one of the guards, "and they took their time about it. The whole prison could have gotten out if they wanted to. They were in complete control."

The break was discovered several hours later when a day-shift guard, coming on duty at 4:30 a.m., discovered the night guards locked in cells.

Officers reported at least two car thefts in the area, lending support to a theory that the prisoners had abandoned their truck and split up. The truck had not been sighted by mid-morning.

At one point the normal prison situation was ironically reversed. The guards were locked up and the prisoners were running the prison.

Officials said there were no injuries in the escape except for one guard, knocked unconscious by a prisoner. Fifteen of the escapees are white and five are Negroes.

The escape began in the camp's solitary confinement section, or segregation unit, where Stewart had been placed after returning to Ivy Bluff a few weeks ago following an escape from Central Prison in Raleigh.

Stewart saw a bar on guard to bring him some tissue paper. When the guard reached his cell, Stewart grabbed him and threatened him with the sawed-off bar.

Another prisoner broke out of his cell about the same time, prison officials said, and the two held the guard captive. They forced him to call another guard from the control room by asking for a relief.

More Aid Slated For Pakistan

Ike Promises New Military, Economic Help To U.S. Ally

By MERRIMAN SMITH
UPI White House Reporter

KARACHI, Pakistan (UPI)—President Eisenhower promised new military and economic aid to Communist-threatened Pakistan to bolster "a loyal people who love peace but put justice and freedom above all."

He had conferred for 80 minutes this morning on diplomatic matters with Pakistani President Mohammed Ayub Khan, and he held a cheering crowd jammed on sunbaked polo field.

"My conversations with President Ayub are on the basis that we are two nations with common interests and goals and the desire to cooperate for mutual security."

A 400-word communique summarizing talks between the two presidents said they "reviewed generally world wide political questions and in particular the problems of relations between the free world and the Sino-Soviet bloc."

"They were in full agreement as to the essentiality of cooperation among members of the family of free nations in the interests of their mutual security," the communique said.

Tonight Eisenhower honored Ayub at a dinner at the residence of U.S. Ambassador William M. Boardman and a reception in the residence garden.

Wednesday morning the two presidents got together by helicopter to Mauritipur airport where, after brief ceremonies, Eisenhower is scheduled to depart for Kabul, Afghanistan, next stop on his 11-nation world peace tour.

at an official welcome by the citizens of Karachi who gave him another of the tumultuous "I like Ike" receptions that have marked every stop on his 11-nation peace mission.

He hailed Pakistan as a courageous ally and thanked the crowd of 15,000 for the great reception Monday when more than a million persons thronged the streets to greet him with shouts of "Zindabad Ike"—long live Ike.

The President appeared deeply moved as he told the Pakistanis, "I never in the world received a warmer or more hospitable greeting."

Eisenhower's brief speech under a canopy that sheltered him from a blazing December sun was the highlight of one of his busiest days. He held diplomatic talks with Ayub, greeted the Americans living here, watched a display of brilliant horsemanship and laid a wreath on the tomb of Mohammed Ali Jinnah, the founder of Pakistan.

Everywhere he went he was greeted with more cheers and applause—as he drove through the streets, as he paused to take in a cricket match, and as he entered and left various public places.

He said Americans feel "a close spirit of kinship" with Pakistan people who like them, "believe in human dignity and the brotherhood of man under God."

"Both of us are determined to be strong, both spiritually and militarily, in order to assist in the preservation of peace," he said. Throughout his speech ran the thread of his entire mission—a quest for peace and human dignity in freedom.

Eisenhower began his day with an early morning visit to the U.S. Embassy where he spoke informally to a cheering group of 2,000 Americans, many of them children. He urged all fellow countrymen overseas to work diligently at getting the people of other countries to "understand that America wants to be friends."

The President directed his remarks largely to the children, cautioning all Americans working abroad not to fight and argue with foreigners because they are different and to labor unceasingly at understanding others.

He appeared chipper as he spoke, refreshed by a good night's sleep after a lavish dinner party given in his honor by Ayub and a reception at which there was a wild sword dance by Pathan and Khattack tribesmen, staged by torchlight.

The two presidents, in an exchange of toasts at the dinner Monday night, followed the same theme—the need for closer understanding among free nations. Eisenhower repeated this theme today at his chat at the embassy.

He said America was frequently misunderstood and "it was to remove this misunderstanding and to promote peace" that he undertook his 11-nation tour which takes him Wednesday to Afghanistan and India.

Ike's Visit Wasn't Cricket!

KARACHI, Pakistan (UPI)—President Eisenhower's visit to the cricket test matches between Pakistan and Australia may have proved disastrous to the Pakistanis.

Play, now in the fourth day of the current match, was halted when Eisenhower and President Mohammed Ayub Khan entered the jammed stadium to a tremendous ovation.

Eisenhower was presented to both teams and play resumed. The Pakistanis were so rattled they promptly lost two wickets and now stand to lose their third straight test.

Democrats Can't Count Adlai Out

NEW YORK (UPI)—The Democratic Party had a message for itself today—don't count Adlai out by a long shot.

The Advisory Council of the party wound up three days of policy-making, politicking and speechmaking with a $100-a-plate banquet of 1,500 party leaders Monday night, featuring a 1960 "style show" of new presidential talent.

But it was two-time loser Stevenson who got by far the warmest reception of the night when a bouncy Harry Truman introduced seven top Democrats and predicted one of them would be the next president of the United States.

Stevenson pretended astonishment that he was even in the category and said he was grateful "people still consider me alive." It may have been out of sentiment, but his ovation considerably topped those of the next two—Sen. John F. Kennedy and Sen. Hubert Humphrey who came out about even.

The occasion was a tribute to 75-year-old Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.

But the evening's highlight were the six-minute speeches by the presidential contenders, also including Gov. Edmund Brown of California, Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, Gov. Robert Meyner of New Jersey and Gov. George Romney of Michigan.

Truman made the main address of the evening. He ripped into President Eisenhower as thwarting the will of the people with

Senate Continues Drug Price Probe

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate investigators today sought a fuller explanation of how three big drug companies could sell more medicine than their competitors at prices nearly four times higher.

The Senate anti-trust subcommittee Monday said it opened an extensive investigation on pricing policies in the drug industry. Figures collected by staff investigators showed that the Schering, Upjohn and Merck companies dominate the market for two "miracle drugs"—prednisone and prednisolone—used in the treatment of arthritis.

These firms sell the two products for 17.9 cents a tablet to druggists who in turn charge their customers 29.8 cents. Five smaller firms market the same drugs at wholesale prices ranging from 4.8 to 13.4 cents a tablet.

The basic cost of the tablets is about 2 cents, the subcommittee said.

John M. Blair, a staff economist, said the Schering Corp. also hiked its price of another product, a "female disorder" remedy, more than 7,000 per cent above the basic cost.

Mexico Nabs Venezuelans In Conspiracy

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—Mexican authorities admitted Monday night that they have arrested five Venezuelan refugees and questioned a sixth in connection with an alleged plot to overthrow that country's government.

The five prisoners were said to have confessed that they were preparing for a Christmas Eve attack on the leftist government of Venezuela's President Romulo Betancourt. The sixth refugee, Gen. Oscar Mazzei, has been cleared of suspicion.

Federal security director Manuel R. Escamilla said the five prisoners will be expelled from Mexico. He did not say where they will be sent, except to indicate that their request to be resettled in the Dominican Republic probably will not be granted.

The five alleged conspirators were all army officers—Lt. Col. Juan D. Moncada Vidal and Maj. Luis A. Vivas Ramirez, Rafael M. Pacheco Garcia, Jose I. Gutierrez Rodriguez and Edgar E. Trujillo Echevarria. Informal sources said they (See CONSPIRACY, Page 3)

Altitude Mark Set

EDWARDS AFB, Calif. (UPI)—The Navy said today one of its jet planes has regained the world altitude record for aircraft, from Russia by flying to an unofficial height of 98,550 feet.

Vice Adm. Clarence E. Ekstrom, commander of the air forces of the Pacific Fleet, said Cmdr. Lawrence E. Flint, Jr., 39, made the flight Sunday in a McDonnell Phantom II jet. The Russian mark was 94,658 feet.

Flint was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross by Ekstrom for his record flight. Flint said he flew to 47,000 feet, opened up the throttle all the way, jet plane was going 1,550 miles an hour and then pulled the craft into a 45-degree climb.

Stranded Blimp Lands Safely

LAKEHURST, N. J. (UPI)—A Navy blimp with 19 airmen aboard landed safely today after being forced by high winds to remain aloft for nearly two days.

The blimp was moored to its mast after failing in two earlier attempts when ground escort vehicles failed to catch her trailing cables.

The third and successful try was made despite continued high winds.

In attempting a landing, the blimp trails two cables from its nose section. Two ground vehicles try to catch the cables and hold the blimp steady until the mooring mast can be put into place.

The mooring mast comes to the airship rather than the blimp to the mast. It's a tricky operation even under ideal conditions.

Huge bags of aviation gasoline were hoisted to the blimp by cable earlier, giving it enough fuel to remain aloft until tonight.

One ground crewman received a superficial electric shock during a refueling operation, but the Navy said the in-flight refueling was routine and the big ZPG-2 blimp was in no danger.

It had taken off Sunday morning on a routine patrol flight over the Atlantic. On its return flight, heavy winds at first prevented it from crossing the shoreline near Seaside Heights. The 350-foot airship took on fuel over the shore and then flew to the naval air station at Lakehurst, its home base.

But officials refused to let it land for fear the winds would push it into buildings near the landing area.

A naval spokesman estimated that 27-mile per hour winds were about the highest the ship could buck to land with some degree of safety. The winds were averaging five to 10 miles an hour above that safety borderline. Throughout the cold, startle night the buoyant airship cruised above the Lakehurst base, with lights blinking on its nose, tail, topside and underside.

The gondola where eight officers and 11 crewmen waited for the signal to land also was lit.

During the refueling operation, the blimp hovered about 400 feet above the concrete landing area. It was not moored, but the pilot, Lt. C. N. Davis, of Lakehurst, N. J., held it steady by nosing it into the wind.

United Fund Drive Goes Over Quota

United Fund campaign chairman Floyd Watson said the drive is over the top today, with receipts of $61,967 reported by secretary Elsie Gee.

Watson said, however, there are still a number of cards in the hands of campaign workers, and he expects an even larger total when those cards have been completed.

Watson expressed his appreciation to the people of the Pampa-Lefors community, and especially the workers in the campaign, "because they are certainly the ones who made the drive a success." The campaign goal this year was $68,900.

For Transmitters

City Commission Takes Radio Bids

Bids were opened this morning by the City Commission on nine radio transmitters and one base station, but a decision on who gets the bid will be held up one week.

The two bidders were Motorola and General Electric. GE's bid was approximately $700 lower than Motorola's, but the commission decided to withhold a contract until the relative merits of each bid are given further study.

The GE bid called for a unit price of $350 on nine receivers, and $940 for a base station. Motorola offered nine receivers at $409 each, with a base station costing $1,004. On an alternate bid for transistorized receivers GE bid $370 per receiver, and Motorola bid $448.

Turning to other business the commission indicated that attempts are still being made to adopt the Southern Standards Building Code. City Attorney Bob Gordon reported that he has been at work studying the codes of other Texas cities with a view toward rewriting Pampa's code.

Mayor Ed Myatt said the city is currently at work attempting to "justify" the code's acceptance here. Efforts two months ago to acquaint the city's builders with the code bogged down after two meetings.

The commission today also held a short (seven minutes) public hearing on zoning recommendations. No persons appeared to contest recommendations on two minor changes and an ordinance, No. 533, was passed on first reading.

Commissioners also approved monthly bills for November totaling $27,729.66. City Secretary Ed Vickers was also given authority to transfer $260.60 from the gravel fund to the general fund.

Two letters were read to the commission during Tuesday noon's meeting in the Pampa Hotel. One, from Joe Wells, urged that downtown traffic lights be synchronized.

The other, from Coy Palmer, contained two main suggestions: that right turns be allowed after stopping at a red light, and that the last parking spaces be taken out near intersections to allow easier right turns.

Wells letter was written before he was appointed to the board last Thursday. Commission Chairman James Hart said that Wells' suggestions were in part, the reason he was named to fill an open position on the commission.

President Tells Turks

West Must Stay Strong

ANKARA, Turkey (UPI)—Informed sources said today President Eisenhower told Turkish leaders he believes the West must remain strong until Russia agrees to controlled disarmament.

They said Premier Adnan Menekes and his advisers found themselves so completely in agreement with Eisenhower that one 30-minute session of talks sufficed to cover the points they wanted to take up with him.

Turkish leaders were said to have expressed concern over recent hassles among members of the Western alliance and — to Eisenhower's surprise — about reports the United States might turn to aiding Russia instead of its needy Allies if international tension were relaxed.

The sources said the Turks emphasized the need for harmony among Western nations, criticizing recent wrangles over Western strategy involving Britain, France and Germany.

American officials said Eisenhower's week end visit scored a "marked success" here. Informed sources gave this version of the talks:

Eisenhower began by telling the Turks the West could not afford to relax until the Russians agree to accept effective controls on armaments. He said the Kremlin may now be willing to negotiate sincerely because of the increasingly high cost of modern weapons.

The President said the West should always be ready to negotiate but should never lose sight of its basic objectives, such as controlled disarmament.

Eisenhower also stressed the importance of increased aid to underdeveloped nations.

In reply, Foreign Minister Fatih Rustu Zorlu emphasized the importance of Turkey's economic development program, saying that it needs more capital support from the "have" nations.

Zorlu was also said to have urged increased U. S. aid to Afghanistan, the nation Eisenhower is scheduled to visit Tuesday. He said the Afghans are taking aid from Russia because they cannot get it elsewhere.

Nativity Scene To Be Lighted December 17

Nativity scenes in Central Park will be lighted at 7 p.m., Thursday, December 17 under the general direction of Mrs. Lynn Boyd.

All 8 scenes will be lighted individually, in sequence, with the Pampa High School speech and music departments telling the Christmas story as it happens with music and dialogue accompaniment.

Lighting of the nativity scenes began in 1948 by a group of local artists under the direction of Charles Thomas, and has become traditional in the past years. Mrs. Claudine Vail, Florence Jackson, Mrs. A. D. Hills, Roger Long, Nancy Davis and other local artists have contributed in the original production of the scenes, and assist in touch-up painting each year to keep the scenes in perfect condition.

Park superintendent, Les Roberts, and his assistants have prepared the scenes for the past several years, under the direction of Director of Public Works, Jiggs Cooke.

Agriculture Census Nearing Finish

The 1959 Census of Agriculture is expected to be completed within the next two weeks, according to crew leader Mrs. Vera W. Morgan, of Shamrock.

Mrs. Morgan said today, the thirteen enumerators in Gray, Wheeler, and Collinsworth counties, will complete the counts in from ten days to two weeks. She said quick completion of the census will not only help in keeping costs down but will aid in prompt publication of results.

Mrs. Morgan urged local farmers who have not already done so to complete the census questionnaire and have it ready when the census taker calls. She pointed out that the field canvass of farms is one of the larger costs of the census and cooperation of farmers in completing questionnaires promptly will be a vital factor in keeping down the final cost of the undertaking.

The census was begun on November 19th, of this year.

Brochures To Advertise Pilgrimage

The Pampa Key Club public relations committee will present a brochure to Pampa residents Saturday containing complete information on the Pampa Pilgrimage, a program designed to fill every seat in every Pampa church at a certain hour Dec. 20.

John Wagoner, co-chairman of the committee, said the brochure will also contain a map with explanation of pilgrimage routes, and a story of the purposes and objectives of the pilgrimage.

The pilgrimage will gather people into churches in the early evening of the designated Sunday in time for separate services, to begin at 6 p.m.

Robbie Robison, chairman of the Church Relations Committee, said a common meeting point has been chosen for four major pilgrimage routes in downtown Pampa before moving out to downtown churches.

Chairman Robison's committee has chosen the parking lot of Ideal Food Store, Ballard and Browning. Other gathering points will include Pampa senior high school on the north, Woodrow Wilson Elementary School on the east, B. M. Baker Elementary School on the south, and Horace Mann Elementary School on the west.

From the gathering points, persons participating in the pilgrimage will walk to neighborhood churches, unless they attend downtown churches, in which case, they will walk to the gathering place at Ballard and Browning.

Developed by the Key Club of Pampa High School, the plan has been adopted by various organizations and groups.

Funeral services for Louis E. Graphenthien will be held at 3 p.m. tomorrow in the Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home. Interment will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Mr. Graphenthien, 45, former vice president of the Borger First National Bank and former employee of Citizens Bank and Trust Co. here, died Saturday at 4:30 p.m. in Denver, Colo., where he had been living for the past 4 1/2 months.

Unflattened Boxes Causing Trouble

Residents who use the city's Dumpster Dumpsters today were urged to break up boxes into "as small a chunk as possible" by Dr. Dan Cameron, Pastor, First Baptist Church, Borger. Jiggs said that the Dumpsters are filling up sooner than they should because large boxes are not being flattened. He added that there are only two city trucks handling the city's 64 Dumpsters and the problem will be greater during the holiday season.

Cook also noted that a great deal of trash is blowing around shown when trash is dumped.

Nineteen members of the Pampa Red Cross chapter attended the board meeting at 7 a.m., today, in Johnson's Cafe.

Marianna Perkins, Junior Red Cross representative presented the invocation, with reports being presented by Bert Pemberton on first aid, Mrs. James Allen, chairman of nursing service, and Junior Red Cross chairman, Sam Begert. Begert told the group the Junior Red Cross enrollment is now the largest in the history of the Pampa chapter, with 90 per cent of all Pampa high school students enrolled. Begert said the high school enrollment amounted to $208.95, and is the 7th largest enrollment, moneywise, in the United States.

The Junior Red Cross chapter will have several Christmas projects, including a toy dance at the Episcopal parish hall, where a toy will be the price of admittance. The toys will then be contributed to the city because it is not being properly emptied into the Dumpsters. He urged that care be taken that no trash is blown around when trash is dumped.

Munn To Speak At Scouters Banquet

Pampa insurance man Melvin Munn will be the principal speaker at tomorrow night's annual meeting and banquet of the Adobe Walls Scout council in Phillips.

The subject of Munn's address will be "five million bits of gold". The event will be held in the Phillips Grade School Cafeteria at 7 p.m., with a business meeting at 6:15 p.m.

Munn is well known as a public speaker throughout the southwest. He is perhaps best known for his presentation from memory of Christ's "Sermon on the Mount" which he has made well over a thousand times since 1952.

Officers and board members will be elected and installed at tomorrow night's meeting, and Charles S. Griffin, Assistant National Director of the Rural-Scouting Service will be a special guest at the affair.

CHILDREN expect cookies for Christmas, and they won't be disappointed by Gumdrops, Kringles and Walnut Yule Logs.

Cook's Nook

Tots Can Help Mother Make These Christmas Cookies

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor
Christmas cookies are always part of the family holiday fun. Every child anticipates seeing his mother bake and decorate them. Often the older children help in the making and send boxes to their schoolmates and teachers.

These Gumdrops, Kringles and Walnut Yule Logs are wonderful for family making and giving. They contain little flakes of rolled oats to add a crunchy, nutlike flavor and inspire tender crumbs. Dropping Gumdrops Kringles onto a cookie sheet and placing a gumdrop carefully on each one is family fun. Walnut Yule Logs are also fun to do. Even the little members of the family can help mother shape the dough into small logs before popping them into the oven. After baking, the logs are topped with a bit of frosting and a sprinkling of chopped nuts.

GUMDROP KRINGLES (Makes 4 dozen cookies)

Two-thirds cup butter or margarine, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 cups sifted enriched flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1-3/4 cups milk, 1 1/2 cups rolled oats (quick or old-fashioned, uncooked) 1/2 up chopped gumdrops, whole gumdrops.

Beat butter until creamy. Add sugar and beat well. Add egg and vanilla. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Add to butter mixture and blend well. Add milk. Stir in oats and chopped gumdrops. Chill dough thoroughly, about 2 hours or overnight, in refrigerator. With floured hands, shape dough into small balls; place on greased cookie sheets. Flatten cookies with bottom of a glass dipped in flour, then place a whole gumdrop in the center of each. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 13 to 15 minutes.

WALNUT YULE LOGS (Makes 4 1/2 dozen cookies)

One cup butter or margarine, 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar, 2 teaspoons vanilla, 1 egg, 2 cups sifted enriched flour, 1 cup chopped black walnuts, 1 1/2 cups rolled oats (quick or old-fashioned, uncooked), confectioners' sugar frosting, finely chopped black walnuts.

Heat oven to slow (325 degrees F.). Beat butter and sugar until creamy. Add vanilla and egg and beat until fluffy. Add flour; mix thoroughly. Stir in nuts and oats. (Dough will be quite stiff.) Shape into logs and place on ungreased cookie sheets. Bake in preheated oven (325 degrees F.) about 20 minutes. Cool. Frost cookies with thin confectioners' sugar frosting and sprinkle with nuts.

Tomorrow's (Thanksgiving) dinner: Roast turkey, oyster stuffing, giblet gravy, raw cranberry and orange relish, sweet potato soufflé, succotash, buttered small white onions, corn sticks and seeded rolls, butter or margarine, celery, radishes, olives, pum pkin pie, mixed fruit compote, walnut logs, coffee, tea, milk, sweet cider, nuts and raisins.

Top your favorite spicy apple crisp dessert with wedges of Baby Gouda cheese as it comes from the oven. Serve while warm. You'll like the mild nutlike flavor of the Baby Gouda cheese with the spicy apple mixture.

The United States averages 173,000 forest fires annually.

DEAR ABBY....

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our granddaughter, 21, has made her home with us for years. She is a good, sincere, intelligent girl who has a fine position. She is saving her money. She's deeply in love with a man, 24, who has been home from the Navy for three years. He hasn't worked three months in all that time. We see his mother pulling weeds and mowing the lawn. He sleeps until noon, drives the family car around and doesn't look for a job.

So far, even my granddaughter's best friends have been unable to make her see this man for what he is. I am afraid she will marry him and support him unless we can change her mind. Can't you offer some advice, Abby?

CONCERNED GRANDMOTHER: DEAR CONCERNED: I could offer much advice, but it wouldn't help a bit. When a girl is "in love" she isn't thinking — she's feeling. While the opinions of well-meaning friends may reach her ears, they will never penetrate her brain, because her brains are trapped in her heart. Let her alone. Grandmother, and pray she comes to her senses before it's too late.

DEAR ABBY: Regarding the rural mailman who wanted all the mailboxes on his route lowered:

Puerto Rico Is Unique As Political Subdivision Of U.S.

Legislation is currently pending in the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, on which I serve in the House, which would considerably alter the status of part of America. I speak of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, about which the history, political evolution and status are hazy to many people. The Committee has recently conducted a survey of the historical, economic and political affairs of Puerto Rico and is currently holding hearings in an effort to determine proper legislative moves in many areas concerning our Caribbean possession.

Naturally, the entire subject could not be covered in the brief span of this newsletter, but it occurred to me you might be interested in some of the facts current which are pertinent.

When Christopher Columbus landed on the island in 1493, the Spanish anticipated great mineral wealth — hence, the name Porto offices to be appointed by the President. It was recognized even at that time that the island's status was unique in the American political system. Historically and constitutionally the U.S. has always provided for the greatest degree of self determination in government. This has been achieved by the granting of statehood, territorial status, or outright independence as was the case of the Philippine Islands.

The Jones Act of 1917 granted collective citizenship to the people to elect certain of their own governing officials, but retained strong veto power with the President and the Congress. Many benefits were extended to the people of Puerto Rico during the next 30 years including those of the Smith-Hughes Act, the creation of the Puerto Rican Reconstruction Administration and the right to elect their own governor. In 1950 Congress passed legislation which would allow the people of Puerto Rico to draw up their own constitution, but did not abdicate Congressional responsibility for the island. Under the terms of Public Law 600 "in the nature of a compact so that the people of Puerto Rico may organize a government pursuant to a constitution of their own adoption", only two stipulations were included with respect to the content of that constitution.

Bottle Clubs Target Of Texas Agents

AUSTIN (UPI) — District and county attorneys throughout Texas were warned Saturday they can expect more work in connection with an intensive drive to stop violations of liquor laws by "bottle clubs."

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson sent a letter today to all district and county attorneys saying:

"Widespread reports of increasing violations of the state liquor laws occurring in so-called 'bottle clubs' which are operated as subterfuges for profit have

The bill required "that the constitution shall provide a republican form of government and shall include a bill of rights." It provided for a Puerto Rican referendum on the acceptance or rejection of Public Law 600, which referendum supported it overwhelmingly. The constitution was subsequently adopted by the people of Puerto Rico and ratified by the Congress and the new government thus constituted was referred to as a Commonwealth in English while in Spanish it became Estado Libre Asociado, or Free Associated State.

Thus, a political subdivision of the U.S. exists which is unlike any other part of America. This booming, burgeoning Caribbean island enjoys a great degree of self government, although it bears the title Commonwealth rather than state or territory. Many questions have been raised as to the position of the island as regards the authority of Congress. Several factions in Puerto Rico seek a change in status, and bills have been introduced in the 86th Congress which would (1) provide for extensive amendments to the "compact" between the people of Puerto Rico and the U.S. (2) grant outright independence to Puerto Rico or (3) grant statehood to the island. I have heard many of these proposals discussed. From the expressions of the Puerto Rican people which have come to me, it would appear the majority of them are conscious of their democratic growth and development in their present status, and foresee no immediate change.

Red Griggs the pipeline

The Harvester basketball team will be shooting for its 49th and possibly 50th straight wins here this weekend against Hobbs.

The two-game series with Hobbs could be every bit as rough as the recently completed Bowie series.

Sherman, a fine basketball team, will be here Jan. 1 and 2. After the Sherman series, district play will begin, and its unlikely if there'll be any easy games in District 3-4A.

Despite the tough schedule, the Harvesters could, with luck and plenty of hustle, keep their winning streak intact at least until the start of district play.

Good Shooting in Bowie Game

The two Bowie wins were among Pampa's best "clutch" victories in the past two years.

Actually, the Harvesters' field goal shooting, as good as it was, wouldn't have been enough by itself to beat Bowie.

Carter, Crinklaw, Gist, Stroud Hit

The Harvester basketball team got past one threat last weekend, the Bowie Jackrabbits.

Two Harvesters and a Shocker were hit Monday by the flu bug. They were Pat Carter, the Harvesters' second leading scorer; Larry Stroud, a reserve forward; and Jim Crinklaw, the Shockers' leading scorer.

Another Harvester, Phillip Gist, had a minor back injury but was able to work out, using special protective equipment.

The entire Harvester and Shocker squads took flu shots Monday before practice in an effort to keep the flu from spreading.

Carter, Stroud, and Crinklaw are in a weakened condition, but may be able to play this weekend against Hobbs if their condition improves.

Monday's illness brought to five the number of Harvesters and Shockers who have suffered illness of injury during this young season.

Pampa's cagers have hit the basket well this season, both from the floor and from the free throw line.

Allen Wise is the leader in free throw percentage, with 19 of 22 for .864. The 19 free throws are second only to Winborn's 26, on 32 tries.

Phillip Gist, the fifth regular, has made a respectable showing in all departments, although he doesn't lead any of them.

Other players who have scored include Hershel Terrell with 9 points, Larry Stroud with 5, and Bill Neslage with 2.

'Pep Pills' Being Sold To Gullible Night Drivers

By JERRY BENNETT
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) — A hoped-up highway menace threatens to make this year's Christmas-New Year's traffic rush more dangerous than usual. It's a nationwide boom in the bootlegging of pep pills to drivers.

Officials of the U.S. Food and Drug Administration say a growing blackmarket in these drugs has made them easier to buy. Thus, chances of colliding with doped-up drivers have become greater.

Doctors call the pills amphetamines. To the layman, they're usually known as "beensies," "goof balls" and "co-pilots." They're extremely valuable in the treatment of obesity and mental depression. They can be sold legally only by prescription.

Unscrupulous peddlers, however, are capitalizing on the drug-stimulating powers by selling them to drivers who use them to stay awake. Their biggest customers are long-haul truck drivers.

What motorists don't realize, FDA experts say, is that the pills give them a false feeling of alertness. Staying awake when you're fatigued can cause poor judgment and loss of coordination.

The pills' biggest hazard is their power to trigger hallucinations. A driver under their influence may see a mirage of the oncoming vehicle and swerve off the road or into another car. The pills also may cause motorists to black-out.

FDA agents believe the surge in the pep pill blackmarket is due to their crackdown on illegal sales of barbiturates. These high-powered sleeping pills formerly were the top bootleg drug money-maker.

Because of the difficulty in obtaining large supplies of these drugs today, peddlers have switched to pushing pep pills. They have switched in a big way, too.

FDA undercover agents recently found 200 motels, gasoline stations and truck stops that were selling the pills. FDA Chief George P. Larrick says that so far his men have only "scratched the surface."

In the round-up of peddlers, FDA agents caught one wholesaler who had 625,000 tablets stored in his home. A pusher arrested in Charleston, Mo., had concealed 171,000 amphetamines in his car.

Profits that can be made from the pill blackmarket are tremendous.

An FDA official says amphetamine tablets can be manufactured for as little as 50 cents per thousand. Their price on the blackmarket, however, ranges from 10 to 50 cents a piece. One peddler told undercover agents that he could make a thousand dollars a week if he were willing to quit his regular job to push pills full time.

FDA officials explain that their hardest problem involved in combating the illegal pill sales is finding out how the pills get on the blackmarket. Being able to shut off sources of supply would soon enable them to drive peddlers out of business, agents say.

That's why they are enthusiastic about a bill which Congress is expected to take up at its next session. It would require drug manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers to open their records for FDA inspection at any time. The bill is opposed by drug industry members who fear it might lead to too-much government control over their business.

FDA officials also are in favor of making amphetamine bootlegging a Federal offense regardless of whether pills are transported across a state line. Present law requires that a violation of interstate commerce must be proved.

Postmaster Pleased With Early Mailing

Commenting on the excellent response to his "mail early" for Christmas campaign, Postmaster O. K. Gaylor said today, "A great deal depends on the cooperation of our patrons during the next ten days if we are to reach our goal of having every Christmas gift package and card delivered before Christmas Eve."

He continued, "If you will take just a little extra care with your Christmas mailings right now, you'll avoid disappointing friends and loved ones." He said further that the post office is well prepared for the big Christmas mail load, but unless everyone steps up the mailing of Christmas cards and gift packages immediately, some of them may not be delivered before Christmas.

The postmaster also emphasized the need for your special cooperation in making sure that your return address and the recipient's address are plainly written on all Christmas cards—envelopes and package labels. Be sure to use zone numbers, and it's always a good idea to include an extra label inside your packages carrying your name and address and that of the recipient.

Because parcel post size and weight limitations vary according to destination, be sure to ask about them when you go to the post office to buy stamps. Speaking of stamps, the postmaster pointed out that if you always use your cent first class postage on your Christmas cards they will be delivered promptly and forwarded, if returned, if necessary, providing you include your name and address on the Christmas card envelope.

When you call at the post office be sure to ask for free labels which read, "all for out of town delivery" and "all for local delivery". Place these labels on bundles of Christmas cards for local addresses and those for out-of-town destinations. It will help, too, if you will mail your out-of-town Christmas cards several days in advance of those intended for delivery to nearby points.

Postmaster Gaylor said, "I'll especially appreciate the cooperation of all business firms to postpone the mailing of circulars and catalogs until after Dec. 25 to keep the mails clear for the Christmas rush."

The postmaster especially urges you to get your out-of-state pack-

Unwed Moms Bilked County

MARTINEZ, Calif. (UPI) — Two unwed mothers were ordered back to jail Friday for violating a judge's order not to get pregnant.

Lucy Martinez, 24, and Lucy Turrieta, 24, both of Pittsburg, Calif., had been found guilty of fraudulently accepting county aid to needy children. They were charged with having collected more than $21,000 in support of their 10 illegitimate children in 10 years.

Judge Michael J. Gatto of the Pittsburg Judicial Court granted probation more than a year ago. One of the conditions was that the two women refrain from sexual relations until they were married.

On Nov. 10, the two women were jailed here after the judge learned that they had violated probation — Miss Turrieta gave birth to a girl and Miss Martinez was pregnant with twins.

On Thursday the State District Court of Appeals in San Francisco granted a petition of habeas corpus filed by the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU). It ordered the mothers freed on $1,000 bail pending hearing the case. But Friday the court reversed its stand without comment and ordered the women back to jail.

The sheriff's office here said Saturday the women had not yet been returned to jail, however.

West led a second trump. South won with dummy's king and still could make the hand by leading a diamond and guessing the location of the ace but now South played a heart. East was allowed to hold the trick with the ten and played a third trump.

By this time night had fallen but South made it easy for East and West by cashing his last trump and high club and leading the ace and another heart. He had some idea of making his king of diamonds but unfortunately for him East was able to discard his low diamonds on West's hearts.

YOUR FREEDOM NEWSPAPER. We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from the government. Freedom is not license. It must be consistent with the truths expressed in such great moral guides as the Golden Rule, The Ten Commandments and the Declaration of Independence.

BETTER JOBS

By R. C. HOLLES "Free" Schools, "Free" Parks, "Free" Libraries, Etc. The critics of Freedom Newspapers contend that Freedom Newspapers are against "free" schools, "free" parks, "free" libraries, "free" hospitals, etc.

The only possible way that public schools could be called "free" is that one does not DIRECTLY pay for sending children to "free" schools. They are supported on the Karl Marx basis: "From each according to his ability, to each according to his needs."

Advocates of "free" schools who believe schools are paid for only from direct taxes fail to see that everything that the needy, as well as the well-to-do, buy that is produced any place in the United States is loaded with school taxes.

And the reason people believe there is such a thing as "free" schools and "free" libraries and "free" parks is that they think that the only taxes the taxpayer pays are what he pays directly.

Worst Part of "Free" Schools And the worst part of "free" schools is that those who believe in "free" schools cannot define what they mean by freedom, nor what they mean by justice, or by what is fair, or what is equity, unless they use the Karl Marx dream.

There are many kinds of opportunities. And there appear to be some which, if not grasped, carry some kind of public disapproval.

But public approval or popularity has nothing to do with the case. Mr. A has an opportunity respecting the adoption of the orphan, but he has NO responsibility unless or until he assumes it.

It seems reasonable to believe that the predicament we are in today, with crime increasing, with the failure of more people to believe in individual responsibility and liberty and self-derived truths and axioms and maxims, is largely due to the instruction they are bound to get in "free" schools.

In short "free" instruction causes those instructed to believe the majority has a right to do things that no individual can fairly do.

We are in serious difficulties, semantic and otherwise, unless we recognize that opportunity is not responsibility. And a right is neither one nor the other. Rights are inherent functions of each human being and exist universally for all, irrespective of opportunities, responsibilities or privileges.

Disalle Spearheading Democrats' Fight Against Butler's Convention Crackdown WASHINGTON—Governor Michael Disalle is winning powerful Democratic backing in his fight against National Chairman Paul Butler's threat to penalize states that are refusing to contribute what he thinks they should to his debt-plagued headquarters.

National Committeemen and State Chairmen from every section of the country have sent word to the Ohio Governor that they are going to make it their business to block such a crackdown.

Truman addressed the Young Democrats, and reputedly put in some quiet licks for Schafer.

Schafer, in addition to being legislative assistant to Pennsylvania's Governor, David Lawrence, who has long been anti-Butler, had the backing of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Ohio, Missouri and most of the Southern states.

The Young Democrats adopted a liberal platform with pro-labor and civil rights planks. Also Schafer is an avowed liberal. But in the balloting, he got most of the big states, the South and Missouri—whose presidential candidate is Senator Stuart Symington.

Senator Hubert Humphrey has made one definite and one tentative decision in his presidential plans. The Minnesota has decided not to enter New Hampshire's March 8 primary, the first in the country, and in which Senator John Kennedy is certain to run.

Looking Sideways

By WHITNEY BOLTON NEW YORK—In a way, Lucy Herndon Crockett, a lovely woman and superb novelist who lives in a dream of an old house not far from Roanoke at Seven Mile Ford, Va., is responsible for this.

Because of this I came to know Dona Maria. This was a witch. She was so much a witch that even her brother was a warlock. He was an Otomi, as she, and in Valle de Bravo, the remote little Otomi village we came to love so deeply and still love, we found Pedrocito, who knew Dona Maria and, in turn, her brother Fidelio. It was Pedrocito who refined things for us: Fidelio was not exactly a warlock. He was a wizard. There was a major distinction and he laid it all out in the clear one day with a little stick he used to draw symbols in the damp earth at our feet.

The wizards are ancient in their lore. Before Cortez, the little firebag from Spain who wiffully burned all that was fascinating and useful, the wizards operated among the Aztecs, the Otomi, the Chichimecas, the Toltecs, the Zapotecs and so on down the tribal line. They worked the dolls, they too, coarse fibres and made crude paper and with their deft fingers tore the ragged little sheets of primitive paper into the rough semblance of human figures, Paper dolls. But each doll had a function. Were you the victim of incessant, almost maddening headaches? You went to see the wizard and he would tear a paper doll just so the magic worked into the doll's head and in time, your headaches vanished.

And what has Lucy Herndon Crockett to do with all this? Well, the telephone rang the other day and Chucho Fuentes was in town and in a skylarking mood.

Quotes In The News

United Press International NEW YORK—Adlai E. Stevenson, expressing concern that President Eisenhower's current 11-city tour might establish a precedent: "I think it would be a great mistake if we converted the office of the president... into a traveling salesman."

WASHINGTON—Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.), dismissing fears that President Eisenhower's strenuous trip might endanger his health: "You know, getting away from conditions in this country may be a real health tonic."

NEW YORK—Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler, stating that no discussions of personalities in the coming campaign went on during the week-end meetings of the Democratic Advisory Council: "Of course, I suppose there may have been just a little politicking over cups of coffee and a beverage which was made legal under a Democratic administration and Congress."

Crockett to do with all this? Well, the telephone rang the other day and Chucho Fuentes was in town and in a skylarking mood. "Ola, garbled and grizzled friend," he cried into the phone. "I am here. I have a message for you. Dona Maria sent it to my servant and my servant to you. She says to tell you that Fidelio, her brother, says that he has worked the dolls and your shoulder will be better and 1960 will be a fruitful year for you. What are they talking about?"

I told Chucho what they were talking about and expressed surprise that he, a Mexican, was so ignorant of these things.

"You people of the United States kill me," he cried. "You fall for anything. Paper dolls, for Heaven's sake!" But Lucy did tell us about the brujas and that led to Maria and she to Fidelio and the good tidings for 1960.

Steel Demand Favorable For Next Quarter

CLEVELAND (UPI) — A record 21 million tons of steel will be used by the metalworking industry during the first quarter, Steel Magazine said today.

The metalworking weekly said the outlook for the first three months of 1960 is good, barring a resumption of the steel strike.

Chief reason for the optimistic prediction is the fact that auto-makers are planning to produce 2.24 million cars during this period.

The magazine said that steel inventories in the nation's metalworking plants are on the upswing after hitting a low of 8 million tons, the lowest level since 1946.

Since the back to work movement began, inventories have climbed to 8.5 million tons and are expected to reach 10-million tons by Dec. 31. The replenishing of inventories means that plants are beginning to recall some of the 450,000 to 500,000 workers laid off because of steel shortages created by the strike.

Steel said that even though mills are shipping steel at about 90 per cent of capacity, metalworking plants will not be run at capacity until they've balanced their inventories and accumulated enough steel for uninterrupted operations. The lack of vital parts is restricting operations in automotive, construction, railroad car and farm equipment industries.

The magazine predicts that production will continue to climb with producers expecting to clean up most of the orders placed in the third quarter of 1959 during the first two months of next year. Steel operations last week hit 92.5 per cent of capacity, showing a 2.5 per cent jump from the previous week. Output was an estimated 2,619,000 ingot tons.

District rates ranged from no change at 98 at Youngstown to a 10 point jump to 92 at western Buffalo, however, was operating at the highest rate—107.5 per cent of capacity.

The price composite on heavy melting steel scrap dipped 83 cents a gross ton to $42.67 last week, compared with $39.67 a gross ton paid during the comparable period last year.

Steel predicts that labor peace is near in the copper industry, hit by strikes since mid-August. Kennecott Copper Corp.'s settlement with the United Steelworkers of America locals is expected to set the pace. Most contracts are expected to be signed by Christmas.

The magazine reports that industrial building will bounce 25 per cent in 1960 and be the number one element of strength in the nation's construction activity next year.

The over-all construction is

Safety Meet In Amarillo

Amarillo today is the scene of one of the state's largest safety meetings.

Sponsored by TSA and the Pampa Chapter of the American Society of Safety Engineers, the one-day meeting at the Herring Hotel is expected to attract 400 persons.

"With more than 5,500 Texans being killed in accidents of all types, each year, and over 620,000 being injured, Governor Price Daniel has emphatically stated, 'accidents pose one of Texas' greatest domestic problems,'" said J. O. Musick, Austin, general manager of the Texas Safety Ass'n.

"The purpose of this conference is to help reduce this appalling accident record. By revitalizing our interest and energy through an exchange of ideas concerning accident prevention, we believe we can do much toward lowering the accident toll in Texas," Musick said.

Sessions will include discussions of accident prevention in the home, industry, on the farm or ranch, at school and in traffic.
