Five Negro Youths Slay Houston Boy

HOUSTON (UPI)—Five teenage Negro boys today confessed they slayed a 12-year-old white boy in an abandoned shack where they sexually abused and then locked him in an old box to suffocate.

Homicide Capt. Weldon Waycott of the five all signed confessions in the attack and murder of William M. Bodenheimer III, whose nude body was found Tuesday crumpled inside the closed box in the old shack.

Waycott said murder charges would be filed against two of the boys, both 17 years old. They are identified as Joe Edward Smith, described by officers as a ringleader of the gang, and Brian Johnson.

The other three were identified as Charles Archer, 15, named along with Smith and Johnson as the three who attacked the boy and stuffed him in the box; Ira Lee Sadler, 14, Smith's 11-brother; and David Clemons, 14, who gave police the most complete account of the spur-of-the-moment killing.

Officers said Sadler, large and muscular for his age, maintained a half-brother in the role of leader because he "could whip up the others."

More than a dozen detectives worked through the night to solve a senseless killing which came about because the boy happened to ride past on his bicycle as the gang walked down the street looking for something to do.

Sadler was located at a hospital early today where he had gone complaining of having "pains in his stomach." He was the first to speak while being questioned by police and implicated the others. After all five signed confessions.

An autopsy by Dr. Joseph Jachymczyk, county pathologist, showed the boy died of asphyxiation. His body was discovered by an uncle, H. R. Baughin, the boy's father, Mrs. Doris Bodenheimer, and two others who were searching for him.

Red Paper Sharply Attacks U. S. Policy

By HENRY SHAPIRO
United Press International

MOSCOW (UPI)—The Communist Party newspaper Pravda today attacked a new and provocative anti-Soviet campaign. The charges—cast as a shadow on the forthcoming visit of Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

A three-column article in the party newspaper asked how President Eisenhower recognized his professions of friendship with the Soviet Union with the congressional resolution July 17 asking prayer for "enslaved nations."

It was one of the sharper attacks on U. S. policy in recent months. Because it came on the eve of Nixon's arrival and the opening of the American Exhibition here, observers believed it might have some effect on the reception of the vice president.

Pravda itself pointed up the connection.

"This week the American Exhibition to Moscow will be opened and—as public opinion in the U. S. S. R. and the U. S. hope—it should serve to consolidate mutual understanding and peace between the great powers," Pravda said.

Questions Eisenhower Message

"But the question naturally arises how to reconcile the message from President Eisenhower to Soviet First Deputy Premier Enol Kozlov of July 14, in which he 'voiced the hope for a considerable improvement of mutual understanding between our nations and his declaration of July 18 which contradicts that hope?'"

"It is possible that certain American leaders would like to include the American exposition in Moscow among the 'enslaved nations' of their propaganda week?"

What specifically aroused the newspaper's ire was the congressional resolution calling for an "enslaved nations week."

Premier Nikita Khrushchev mentioned the resolution Tuesday night in Warsaw and said, "we think the only enslaved countries are the capitalist ones."

Khrushchev Mentions Nixon

Khrushchev also said of the Nixon visit, "I suppose he has good intentions. I cannot understand one thing. What is his aim?"

Pravda bitterly denounced "posterior public declarations about 'freedom' in the United States" and said the United States is a "paradise only for the capitalists and 'enslavement for the working people.'"

"One cannot help but laugh at the vain attempts of American officials to find 'enslaved' people in the genuinely free socialist countries while about 20 million Negroes and other 'colored' people are virtually enslaved in the United States itself," Pravda said.

Pravda said the congressional resolution was part of a "new provocative anti-Soviet campaign."

"It is quite clear that to fan an anti-Soviet campaign can be done only by those who do not think the only enslaved countries are the capitalist ones."

Khrushchev also told newsmen he postponed his trip to the Scandinavian countries because "I only want to go to places where it is helpful," but he feared the visit would increase tensions.

"I may go there later," he said. "I think well of the Swedes."

But he blasted the Swedish "government newspaper" for being against the visit.

NIKITA UNCERTAIN OF NIXON'S VISIT

By EDWARD J. SHIELDS
United Press International

WARSAW (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will see U. S. Vice President Richard M. Nixon in Moscow at least three times this weekend but he is still uncertain about Nixon's visit.

"I suppose he has good intentions," Khrushchev told Western newsmen at a reception Tuesday night. "I cannot understand one thing. What is his aim?"

"Congress has decreed a week of prayer for the liberation of the so-called enslaved countries. We think the only enslaved countries are the capitalist ones."

Khrushchev also told newsmen he postponed his trip to the Scandinavian countries because "I only want to go to places where it is helpful," but he feared the visit would increase tensions.

Russian Press Distorts Facts

By ERNEST BARCELLA
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Eisenhower said today the Russian press is giving a distorted and untrue picture of "captive nations" in the Soviet sphere.

He fired back at Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, who criticized the President's proclamation of "Captive Nations Week" calling for prayer on behalf of captive peoples.

Eisenhower said he saw no connection, however, between attacks in the Moscow newspapers in the past 24 hours and Vice President Richard M. Nixon's visit to Russia.

The President said he hoped Nixon will be able to convey the temper and the feeling of the American people to Khrushchev during his visit.

The vice president leaves for Moscow tonight after holding a final conference with the President on his plans for a "little summit" meeting with Khrushchev and a scheduled goodwill tour deep into Siberia.

American Feelings

Eisenhower said that since Khrushchev would be host to Nixon, he assumed the Soviet leader would set the tone of the talks.

But he said that Nixon would be able to express the feelings of the American people better than anyone else.

Nixon is not part of this country's diplomatic machinery and "all as a good thing for you because when I uphold you, your editors are pleased with you," he said smiling.

Pravda said the congressional resolution was part of a "new provocative anti-Soviet campaign."

Steel Talks Begin Again

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—Chief Federal Mediator Joseph P. Mitchell resumed talks with steel industry and labor leaders today in a new dual capacity—as a conciliator seeking to end the seven-day strike and as a reporter for Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell who Tuesday declared himself a one-man fact-finder in the dispute.

Both union and management announced Tuesday night that they would cooperate with Mitchell in his unexpected attempt to investigate the causes and facts pertaining to the strike which has shut down 85 per cent of the nation's steel production.

A half million members of the United Steelworkers of America (USW) are walking picket lines in 24 states and more than 30,000 miners, truckers, railroad workers and Great Lakes seamen already have been laid off as a result of the steel stoppage.

To Seek Other Help

Mitchell said Tuesday he would consult with Finnegan and would also seek help from the secretary of commerce and the chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers in gathering facts on the situation which he said tends to "interfere with the welfare of the people of the United States."

But he said he would operate "from the seat of my pants" without a committee and without the aid of the secretary of commerce and the chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers in gathering facts on the situation which he said tends to "interfere with the welfare of the people of the United States."

RODEO TO OPEN ITS 'QUARTERS'

Headquarters for the Top O' Texas Rodeo will open Monday at the Pampa Hotel, Jake Osborne, president of the ToT Rodeo Association, announced this morning. Tickets will go on sale at this time and entries will be accepted for all events.

General admission prices are $1.50, adults, and 75 cents, children. Reserved seats are priced at 50 cents, above the general admission cost. Merchants' complimentary tickets are now available in the Rodeo office, located in the Chamber of Commerce suite.

The 15th annual Top O' Texas World's Championship Rodeo and Kid Pony Show is set for Aug. 23 in Recreation Park. The Kid Pony Show will take place the afternoon and evening of Aug. 3, paying the way for five night rodeo performances.

planned to make no recommendation for settlement of the dispute.

Mitchell told a news conference that he will report to President Eisenhower and that some of those reports might be made public if circumstances so warrant.

He said he presumed Eisenhower would use his reports as a basis in deciding whether to invoke the Taft-Hartley Law in the dispute.

The President has said he has no intention of doing so at this stage of the strike.

A government official said Tuesday that the strike will not affect vital defense production until September, if then.

Inventories Not Balanced

But the industry magazine Iron Age said today that the nation's economy can be seriously affected by a strike lasting as long as six weeks. The magazine said inventories are high but are "not in balance and...not evenly distributed." Some steel users will be short of necessary items in less than a month, the magazine said, and "after six weeks, the effect on the economy would verge on the serious."

Mitchell said that reports he has already received from Finnegan indicated "the parties are not so close together as to indicate a short strike."

Union President David J. McDonald announced immediately that he would cooperate with Mitchell. McDonald had suggested before the strike began, July 14, that the union and industry set up a fact-finding committee to explore the issues.

R. Conrad Cooper, chief spokesman for the 32 largest steel producers and head of the industry negotiating team, had turned down McDonald's proposal for the industry. He said Tuesday night "we, of course, will supply the secretary of labor with such information as may be relevant."

McDonald Tuesday met with union representatives who have been bargaining for two weeks with three top aluminum producers, who normally follow the steel industry wage pattern. Aluminum contracts, which presently provide wages ranging from $2.75 to $2.91 an hour as compared with a $3.10 steel average, expire on July 31.

Week Long Revolt In Kirkuk Ends

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI)—The Iraqi government announced today that a week-long revolt in the southern oil center of Kirkuk had ended. It said government officials there were investigating the Communist-inspired uprising.

The announcement was issued in the name of Maj. Gen. Ahmad al-Abadi, military governor general of the Kirkuk region. It followed a report by Egypt's semi-official Middle East News Agency that the revolt had spread to Baghdad and other cities.

Baghdad radio also announced that Maj. Mustafa Sulayman, new commander of the Kirkuk regiment, "has expressed his loyalty" to Premier Abdel Karim Kassem.

Troops of the Kirkuk regiment at one time were reported to have joined the Communists in the rebellion against the Kassem regime.

Except for an occasional Baghdad broadcast the Egyptian agency was almost the only source of news from Iraq. Today's Middle East report said "disturbances are still taking place in most Iraqi towns."

It reported "several persons wounded" in a clash between nationalists and Communists in Baghdad but did not give a date.

MENA reports told of a police chief being beaten by Communists at Anech, six Communists killed in a clash at Alhindiya, four killed and 60 wounded in a Communist attack on the government house at Hilla and another battle at Ramadi.

Kassem has accepted support from Communists in his country but recent reports indicate he is growing disenchanted with the arrangement.

Probable K-F Speakers Set

A tentative speaker schedule for the 1959-60 season has been released by the Top O' Texas Rodeo and Kid Pony Show. The speakers for the season Oct. 13, according to McHenry Lane, president.

Dr. Stanley Jaks, a psychologist is down for the Nov. 10 meeting. Ogden Nash of light verse fame will appear Jan. 28, followed on Feb. 22 by Glibb Pasha, former British commander of the Arab Legion in Transjordan.

The club will bring Col. Robert Lee Scott, author of "God Is My Co-Pilot," to Pampa for the last meeting, April 7.

PLANS FOR HOME TO BE PRESENTED THURSDAY

Building plans for the proposed Barrett Memorial Convalescent Home will be presented at a Thursday board meeting of the Top O' Texas Foundation, Arthur T. Sed, president, has announced.

The plans will be shown for the benefit of a 13-member advisory board that has recently been appointed. Gene Holliar of Moore & Holliar, a local engineering and architectural company, will explain the plans to the group.

Dr. M. C. Overton will discuss an application for aid from the Hill-Burton Fund. This application will be acted on at a Hill-Burton meeting in Austin Sept. 14.

The appointment of standing committee chairman for the coming year will be announced at this meeting, set for 4 p. m. in the Chamber of Commerce conference room.

FOUR THEATER BIDS OPENED

Four bids were opened Tuesday for the construction of the new Capri Theatre, Theatre Manager Paul West reported today. The bid will be awarded at the end of a 10-day acceptance period.

"Construction on the Capri will begin immediately thereafter," West said.

Bids were opened in the lounge at the LaVista Theatre Tuesday forenoon. West and a delegation from Video Theatre Inc. of Oklahoma City, Okla., was present.

Six Youths In Court Here Today

An outbreak Monday night between two groups of Negro and white boys landed six youths in county court this morning.

Four youths have been charged with disturbing the peace. Two were charged with willful destruction of property and six others have been brought before juvenile authorities.

Charged with disturbing the peace were Early Jackson, Jr., 18, a Negro; Max Stanley, 21, L. H. Edwards Jr., 20, and Jimmy Dale Allen, 19, all whites. Stanley and Edwards were also cited for willful destruction of property.

Hearings began in county court this morning for all the youths charged.

The melee, police said, began when a car with six Negro boys drove past the Steer Inn on Brown St. at about 11 p. m. Monday. Their car, a 1950 Chevrolet, was reportedly hit by some object, and they stopped to check for damage.

As they pulled to a stop two white boys approached the car and battered it with two front windows with coke bottles. The two groups of boys engaged in a loud argument, and shortly before a patrol car reached the scene, both groups fled the scene.

The Negroes reported the incident to police officers shortly thereafter and then reportedly drove home and "rounded up" about 20 other Negro youths. They again engaged the white boys—which had grown from a group of three to six—in a Kasse Ford Co. used car lot, but before a blow was struck police officers were again on the scene.

Chief Jim Conner said that both gangs scattered for places

25 DAYS, AND NO FIRE

The Pampa Fire Department shift headed by Capt. Paul Skidmore is in its 25th day without a fire. It was reported this morning Skidmore's shift alternates with another headed by Capt. Bob Young.

It was also reported today that Pampa is now in its eighth day without a reported fire. The city record remains at 14 days.

LITTLE ROCK'S CENTRAL HOLDS REGISTRATION

By JOHN HASLAM
United Press International

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)—An 18-year-old Negro boy registered at Central High today, minutes after the doors opened for the second day of integrated registration for the fall semester.

He gave his name as Elbert Johnson. He attended Horace Mann Negro High School here during the 1957-58 school year.

Johnson was accompanied by a friend who said he was a student at Southern State College at Magnolia.

Pre-registration of white and Negro students at Little Rock's four high schools entered its second day today with five Negro students already registered at Central High school.

Central High was the site of the first Arkansas Division's 1957 invasion—which allowed nine Negro students to attend classes. Four of the original nine have registered this week with a fifth Negro girl.

Junior students line up today to apply for admission to the four schools. The final decision on who goes to school where under the Arkansas student placement law will come later.

A girl crippled by tuberculosis of the spine at birth was the only Negro student to register in person. She gave her name to reporters as Gloria Gail.

The parents of Elizabeth Eckford, Thelma Mothershead, Melba Pattillo and Jefferson Thomas registered for them. All four students were veterans of the 1957 school opening which put pictures of riots and bayonets on front pages of the nation's newspapers.

The mailing through of September, 1957, did not show up Tuesday, and the only incident marking the solemnity of the scene was a small clash between newsmen and police.

The newsmen were ordered to the campus of Hall High School shortly after registration began. A few minutes later, reporters were ejected from the Central High campus.

STUDENTS GREETED

Jessie Matthews, right, principal of Little Rock Central High School, was on hand Tuesday to greet the first students to register at the school since it was closed last year on the orders of Governor Orval Faubus. He greeted the first students with "it's good to have customers again." Newsmen were later ordered from the school grounds.

WOMAN BEHIND FRACAS
IN INDONESIAN FORCES

Foreign News Commentary
By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

From the foreign editor's notebook:
Cherchez La Femme:
Look for more trouble within the Indonesian military—at least part of it caused by a woman. Army Chief of Staff Lt. Gen. Abdul Harris Nasution, finally has gotten control of the entire armed forces as defense chief in President Sukarno's new cabinet. But

Air Force Chief of Staff Vipe Marsha Suryadarma is fighting hard to maintain the whip hand over his service, and, it is said, he is being pushed strongly by his wife who is said to be friendly to the Communists.
The U.S. And Friends:
General elections are in the offing for both Japan and Great Britain—both staunch friends of the United States, and key issues for both will revolve around relations with the U.S. in Japan, the

JONES-LAUGHLIN MAN,
PRISONER BY CHOICE

ALBUQUERQUE, Pa. (UPI) — Rudolph Vogel, a Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. employe, is a "prisoner by choice" in the mill at which he has worked since 1937.

He is one of about 500 supervisory personnel who have stayed in the big plant here since Tuesday, a day before the nationwide strike began. They have the alternative of remaining in the mill or going out and being refused re-entrance by pickets of the United Steelworkers Union.

Most of the men have chosen to stay in the plant to maintain blast furnaces and other equipment during the length of the strike. J&L has begun court action to guarantee "prisoners" here and at two other mills free access to their jobs.

Vogel, a machine shop foreman, told United Press International by telephone that he has only one gripe about remaining in the mill for the past seven days.
"There's nothing more dreary to an old-time steel man than an idle mill at night," he said, "and you feel it all the more when you have to remain here."

The steel veteran added, however, that it is "not too tough on us old-timers."

"We've gone through this before—I guess you can say we're used to it. But the younger fellows, those guys that never did it before—some of them are taking it pretty rough," he said. "Especially those with small kids."

"But even some of the old-timers are nervous. I guess it's the kind of temperament you have," he said.

Vogel said that the men in the mill range in age "all the way from about 23 to 65."

"Expected to Stay"
The steel foreman, who lives in Albuquerque, said the men expected to stay "when we came to work on Tuesday." They brought along extra clothes.

The men are sleeping on cots in their offices or in their shops, he said. He explained that the steel company has these "on hand all the time for emergencies."

They have been eating their meals in the plant restaurant. Vogel has no gripes about this.

"I can't complain about the food," he said. "They always have plenty of it here. They keep it in the freezer."

Vogel said that the men have "plenty to keep us occupied. There's always something to do."

His wife recalled that when he left home last Tuesday, he told her, "Well, expect me when you see me."

How does she feel about his not having been home for six days?

Tax Bill May Be Reported To State Lower Chamber Today

By LLOYD LARRABEE
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House Revenue and Taxation Committee is expected to report a tax bill to the lower chamber today.

The main committee was to meet at 9:30 a.m. today on the bill of chairman Rep. V. L. (Bo) Casey of Beckville.

The bill was supposed to have been reported yesterday, but Casey said members ran into trouble in a subcommittee meeting Monday.

Casey said the subcommittee "has been working on it for a week and a half, but we haven't been able to get it together."

He said the subcommittee "has been working on it for a week and a half, but we haven't been able to get it together."

However, it ran into trouble in the Senate.

The $2,400,000 program for state government spending ran into trouble when senators deferred action until it could be studied by the Senate Finance Committee today. That group was scheduled to take the measure into consideration at 9 a.m.

Spending Bill OKed

Under customary legislative procedure, the Senate was expected to reject the bill and substitute its own version of state spending.

The measure will eventually go to a joint House-Senate conference committee. There members of both houses will be expected to iron out differences. The Senate referred the bill to committee and adjourned until today's session.

House members had approved the appropriations bill by voice vote after refusing to delay action on it until next week. The bill calls for spending some $322 million dollars from the deficit-fallen general revenue fund. The Senate's past spending bills have been some $7 million dollars less than that figure during the regular and two preceding special sessions.

Wants To See Tax Bill

Dallas Rep. Bill Jones asked his fellow House members to delay passing the big spending bill until "we can find out where the money is coming from." His plea was overwhelmingly rejected, 12-10.

Jones said he wanted to wait until lawmakers could see a tax bill before deciding on spending. "Why rush into spending when there is no money in sight?"

Rep. Scott McDonald of Fort Worth was defeated on an amendment to cut the farm-to-market road program 15 million dollars a year.

McDonald called the program a "subsidy to rural economy... and I think the taxpayers are tired of it."

Area Organists Sign Charter Of Organ Guild Chapter Here

Pampa, Perryton, Lefors and Miami organists met recently in the First Methodist Church for the organizational meeting of the Pampa Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

Tracy D. Cary, sub-dean of the Fort Worth Chapter of the A.G.O. presided at the business session and Thomas Atkin, minister of music of the First Methodist Church was host to the group. A charter was signed which will be submitted to the national organization for approval of the new chapter, and plans were formulated for the next meeting which will be announced at a later date. A steering committee composed of Mrs. John Gill, Miss Eloise Lane, and Tom Atkin was appointed to supervise further organization until approval of the charter has been secured.

The American Guild of Organists was founded on April 13, 1896 in New York by 145 forward-looking musicians throughout the United States who were inspired by the remarkable achievements of the Royal College of Organists in England. The Guild is chartered by the Board of Regents of the University of New York, which authorizes it to conduct examinations in practical organ playing, theory, general musical knowledge, and choir training at such places or centers as will best accommodate candidates in all parts of the United States.

Farmers To Vot On Referendum

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Wheat farmers in 39 states will vote today in a national referendum to determine whether their crop will be grown under the government marketing conditions that have been in effect for several years.

Under the existing program, wheat surpluses have grown until it is enough wheat on hand to eat all domestic and foreign requirements for more than two years.

Key persons like the existing program, but it probably will get necessary two-thirds majority cause growers regard it as better than nothing.

The program provides for plantings allotments totaling $5 million, marketing quotas based on allotments, and price supports the present minimum level of per cent of parity or not less than $1.77 per bushel.

The program has received much criticism from President Eisenhower, Congress, the Agriculture Department, and growers mainly because it has failed to prevent overproduction.

If the existing controls are approved, producers will get a price support guarantee of not less than 77 per cent of parity. If controls are not approved, growers will get price supports of 30 per cent of parity, or about $1.18 per bushel. The American Farm Bureau Federation said "it is a foregone conclusion that farmers will vote $1.77 instead of $1.18."

Long Rests Up For Day At Race Track

DENVER (UPI) — Gov. Earl Long, still a bit dizzy from the high altitude, made a comparatively quiet entrance into Denver early today and went immediately to bed to rest up for a day at the race track.

He plans to spend at least three days at his mile-high capital of Colorado, and spend a good deal of that time at a horse track 12 miles southwest of town.

Long 63, and suffering from a heart ailment, was dog-tired and irritable when he breezed into town. He nearly didn't have a place to stay.

His reservations for a suite at the Brown Palace, the Denver home of President Eisenhower, were for tonight. The hotel was booked solid.

J. N. Menefee, Long's travelling companion, asked newsmen with the party to drive him ahead to see if he could get a room. Menefee made arrangements with the Brown Palace for temporary quarters 15 minutes before Long arrived in his sleek $10,000 Cadillac, loaded with Indian corn he wants to plant on his hog farm at Winfield, La.

The corn was a present from the management of the Sagebrush Inn at Taos, N.M., where the governor lunched Tuesday.

Long drove 400 miles from Santa Fe, N.M., where his heart kicked up such a fuss Menefee called in a nurse and she demanded a local heart specialist.

He called Gov. John Burroughs of New Mexico and asked to see him. They chatted for over an hour, and Long said he would come down to the governor's office.

He got involved in so many long distance telephone calls he kept Burroughs cooling his heels for over two hours and never did keep the appointment. Long's telephone bill runs up to $300 per day.

Rites Pending For Miami Settler

MIAMI (Sp) — Services for Mrs. Noah Coffee, an early settler, are pending in Miami. Mrs. Coffee died at 10 p.m. Tuesday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Ada Buchanan, Amarillo.

Mrs. Coffee was born on Dec. 15, 1871. She moved to Borger from Miami in 1927. Her husband died in 1929 and she later moved to Amarillo.

She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star of Miami.

Her survivors include three sons, Norman Coffee, Hutchinson County judge, Stinnett; Floyd Coffee, Pampa; and William Coffee, Mojave, Calif.; and three daughters, Mrs. Bessie Bryant, Hartley; Mrs. Bessie Bear, Greeley, Colo.; and Mrs. Buchanan.

DOG HITCHING POSTS

LEICESTER, England (UPI) — A local firm said it had received an order from a pet food firm in Pennsylvania, Pa., for 250,000 hitching posts for dogs.

The manufacturer said the purchaser plans to give the posts to stores selling his products, so customers can tie their dogs outside while shopping.

Boy Scouts On Bike Trip

Fifteen Boy Scouts from Treop, sponsored by the First Presbyterian Church, were expected to start into Pampa with a Sheriff's court this afternoon.

This will be their third stop on their left Guymon, Okla. Sunday. Their plans were to camp at City Park tonight and continue to Wellington Thursday.

The boys and their bicycles were taken to Guymon by truck Sunday, sending Monday night in Spearman and Tuesday night in Borger. Their meals have been provided by various service clubs. Pampa motorists will host them at Poole's steak house tonight.

They plan to leave Pampa at 3 p.m. for Shamrock, arriving at Wellington Friday.

Killebrew Rites Planned Friday

Funeral services for Jack Killebrew, 66, will be held Friday at 10 a.m. in the Duemel-Carmichael Funeral Chapel with John Jones, minister of the Harvesters and Mary Ellen Church of Christ officiating.

Mr. Killebrew, who resided at 519 S. Somerville, was pronounced dead on arrival at 11 p.m. Monday in a local hospital. He had been in ill health for some time.

Mr. Killebrew, born in Chillicothe on Mar. 23, 1893, had resided in Pampa since 1922, coming here from Canadian.

Survivors are three daughters, Mrs. Sue Pardue of Albuquerque, N.M.; Mrs. Clea Mae Williams of Porterville, Calif.; Mrs. Clara Lee Thomassey of Bakersfield, Calif.; one son, J. L. of San Bernardino, Calif.; three brothers, Fred of Arnett, Jim of Canadian, Elvis of Amarillo; three sisters, America Harrison of Hugins, Okla.; Luta Downs of Wichita, Kan.; Polly Taylor of Conrow; 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Pampans Asked To Sack Cuttings

Jiggs Cook, Pampa director of public works, this morning asked for the cooperation of residents in putting their grass cuttings in sacks or boxes for the city to pick up.

Cook said his department has had numerous phone calls the past few days complaining of grass cuttings being dumped in alleys and streets. On most days, Cook added, the cuttings tend to sour and give off unpleasant odors.

to impart valuable information to Soviet leaders.

Before meeting with the President to discuss the substance of his talks with the Russians, Nixon declined to comment on Khrushchev's statement in Warsaw that he is puzzled about one thing concerning the vice president's visit: "What is his aim?"

But it was known that Nixon, in his meeting with Khrushchev, expects to scan the entire spectrum of cold war problems—the Berlin crisis, the German situation, the atomic tests stalemate, disarmament, trade and a variety of other subjects. He probably also will touch on the question of a Big Four summit meeting.

While he will speak with full authority, Nixon will not be empowered to negotiate any cold war problems with Khrushchev. Rather, he will reaffirm U. S. policy so that the Soviet leader will know first-hand where this government stands and whp.

RUTH MILLETT

I read an article the other day that made me and I imagine a lot of other parents—fighting mad. The gist of the article was that expecting young people to wait for marriage until they are self-supporting is an old-fashioned notion.

DEAR ABBY: I have read of we shorted it, it would be worse. I feel like I am not subjected to being teased or teased by my husband. I feel like I am not subjected to being teased or teased by my husband.

Rebs Host Lubbock In Bi-District Opener

Rick Pezdirtz

purely paydirt

There are not figures kept on this particular category that we know of.

One of these days, we shall look it up, as soon as we get this barge toted and this bale lifted and a few more payments on the car.

But right now, let us take a chance and say that Lubbock's Donnie Bumpass surely must be one of the most dangerous pitcher-batsman combinations in captivity. Leastways, the Monterey High junior is the most dangerous hurling-and-hitting combo in the Texas Junior American Legion baseball program and its environs.

At this stage of the season, Donnie, who toes the Optimist Park slab in a bi-district series opener against Pampa's Rebels here tonight, has decorated his diamond record with such gaudy trimmings as an 8-0 pitching mark and a sizzling .538 batting average.

Bumpass who helped fire the Lubbock Red Cheks into last year's state American Legion Tournament at San Antonio has worked 56 and one-third innings on the hill this season and allowed only:

- 1) Seventeen hits.
- 2) One earned run.
- 3) Thirteen walks while whiffing 77.

After hearing of those almost unbelievable statistics one Rebel player offered . . . "they oughta keep that guy caged up. He ain't half human."

Members of the Lubbock Auto Legion team (Tom S. Lubbock High) were willing to wager Bumpass wasn't even a fraction human after a recent conference game when Donnie threw 23 consecutive strikes.

Hisey Picks Pampa

Human or not, Bumpass will be out there blasting his bullets toward tonight, and it'll be up to Pampa's Rebels to do what no other team has been able to do this summer . . . make like young barbers and trim him.

A loss here tonight would put Pampa in serious jeopardy of being cooled for the season when the series shifts to Lubbock's Hodges Park Thursday night. Should a rubber game be needed, however, a Friday night tilt would be staged in Lubbock.

Despite the tremendous Mr. Bumpass, one non-partisan observer, P. G. Hisey, coach of

Taking Only on 3-0 Count

Like Pampa, the Red Cheks have three regulars socking the ole pellet at a better than .300 clip.

Besides the astronomical .538 average being carried about by Bumpass, shortstop Jim Harris has a sweet .426 mark and centerfielder Ronald Bandy has a solid .393 average.

Harris fattened up his average in the week-long Levelland District Tournament last week by collecting ten singles in 15 official plate appearances.

Rebel coach Bill Ridgway sees the formula for the local champs' success this season has lain in the simple fact: "We're not taking any pitches, except on a 3-0 count. We feel those kids need all three swings and we've never even bothered to make up a

Pumpsie Green Is Recalled By Bosox

CHICAGO (UPI) — Elijah (Pumpsie) Green, 24-year-old shortstop, took the field for the Boston Red Sox Tuesday night and finished what Jackie Robinson and Larry Doby started 12 years ago.

It was in 1947 that Robinson, now retired, became the first of his race ever to play with a major league team when the old Brooklyn Dodgers called him up from the minors. He subsequently became one of the National League's finest players.

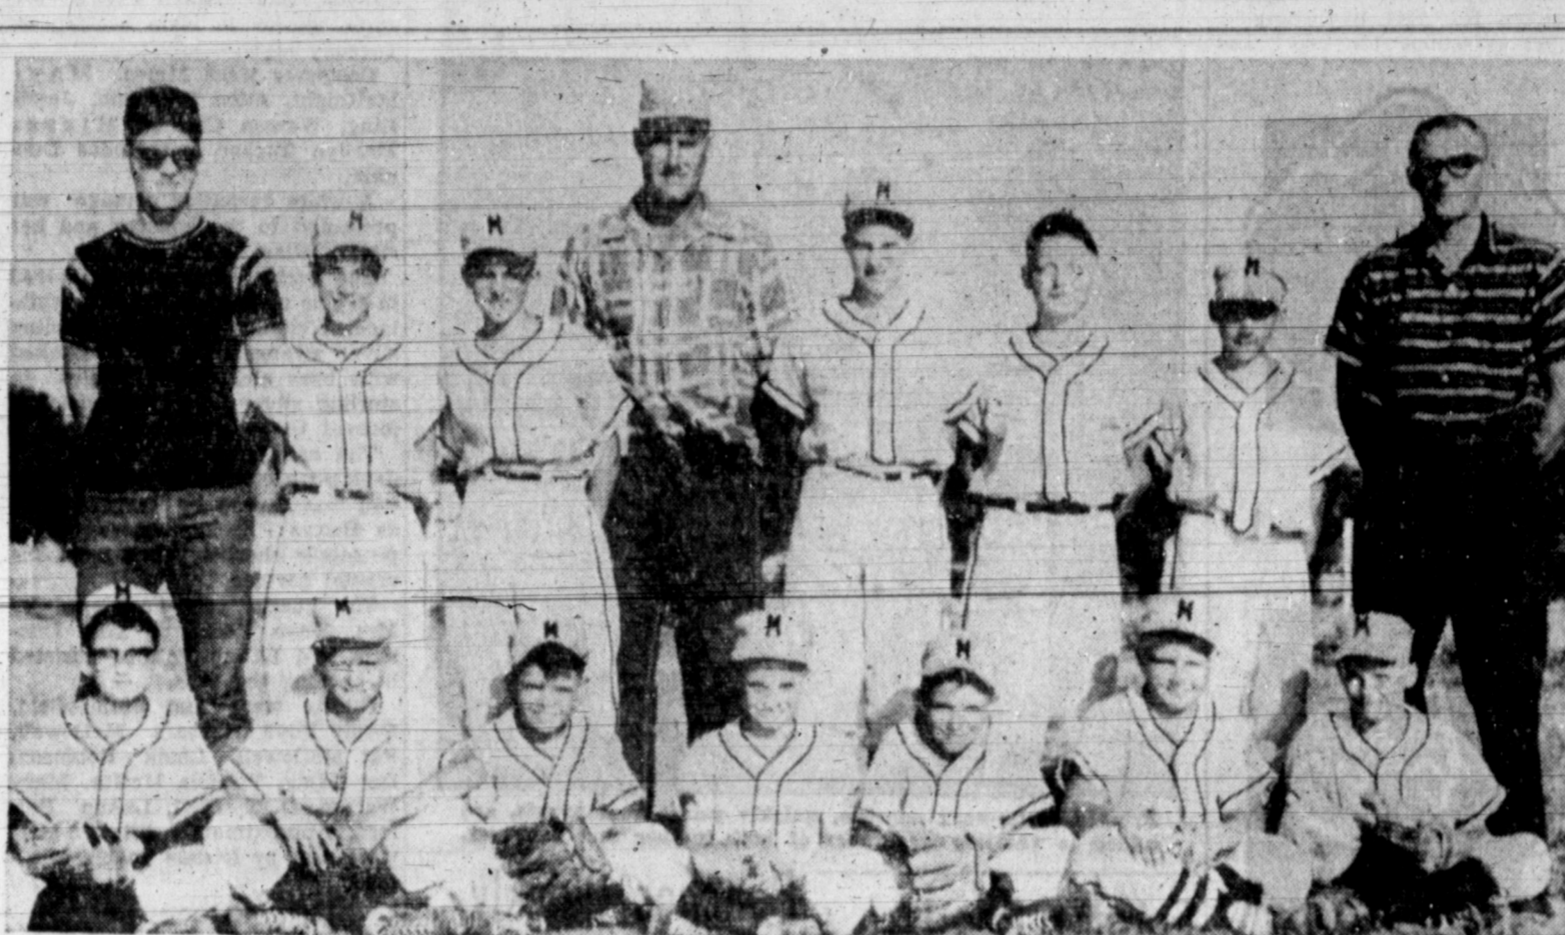

That same year, Cleveland of the American League summoned Larry Doby who soon became a regular for the Indians.

All-America Bowl Slated Friday

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI) — Sixty-seven of the nation's top high school football players are working out twice daily in preparation for the 11th annual prep All-America Bowl Friday night.

Moss Simms, director of the classic, predicted 17,000 fans will pack Baton Rouge Memorial Stadium.

The players, representing 28 states, are divided into Rebel and Yankee squads and have been working out since Monday.

Childress Cracks Pony Stars, 13-12

BORGER — The Childress Pony League All-Stars abused home plate with seven fifth-frame tallies and then staved off a pair of Pampa four-run rallies in the sixth and seventh frames here Tuesday night to post a wild and woolly, 13-12, decision, and earn the tab of district tournament favorite.

Pampa's loss shoves them in a 6-p.m. tilt tonight against the Borger All-Stars who ousted Hereford from the tourney Tuesday night, 3-1. Winner of the 6 p.m. tilt will then meet Childress in an 8 p.m. game.

A victory for Childress in the 8 p.m. game will give them the tourney championship and the right to advance into bi-district

Meads Grabs Eastern Title

Darrell Henson, a fire-balling 11-year-old, pitched Meads Bread to a brilliant three-hit 8-0 shut-out win over Duncan Insurance here Tuesday night. The timely triumph unlocked the door to the Eastern Little League crown room for Meads.

The two clubs had tied for the regular season top spot with 11-4 records after Duncan tripped Meads Monday night, forcing a playoff for the title.

Henson walked only one and whiffed five while Jerry Parker, the loser, was tagged for eight hits by Meads. The Breadmen took a 1-0 lead in the first frame and then sewed it up with a seven-run outburst in the second. There was no scoring in the last four innings.

Lanny Lewis and Robert Howard, both with 2-for-3, paced the winner's assault. Lewis had a double as did team-mate Troy Edwards and Larry Flippo. Ronnie Oler doubled for the loser's lone extra-base blast.

The Eastern-Western Little League All-Stars collide here at 8 p.m. Thursday night with the winner advancing to the district tournament at Memphis Friday.

Showdown Set In Industrial

Like the song sez, "Something's Gotta Give," and that's just what will happen Thursday night when the Sinclair Oilers and Somerville 66 tangle in a 9 p.m. Pampa Industrial Softball League game at Lons Park.

Sinclair posted its 12th win in 13 games Tuesday night without even picking up a hit. The Oilers grabbed a 7-0 forfeit win over Phillips to maintain a slim half-game lead in the three-team pennant race. Kempa/Humble, the defending champs, nicked Electric Supply, 6-4, and Somerville 66 swept a pair of 18-1 tilts from Panhandle Packing Tuesday night.

The Kempa-and-Somerville clubs are knotted in second place with identical 12-5 marks, only a half game behind pace-setting Sinclair.

13 FILLIES READY TO GO

CHICAGO (UPI) — Unbeaten Heavenly Body and Make Sail, both owned by Cain Hoy Stables, were 2-to-1 top favorites today for the $101,500 Arlington Lassie for two-year-old fillies with a field of 13 slated to run in the six-furlong stake.

Should all 13 go to the post, the winner will net $62,300, close to the record payoff for the stake of $6,565 to Queen Hopeful, owned by Hasty House Farm, in 1958.

Heavenly Body, winning its only start by 15 lengths with a time of :59.2-5 for five furlongs, will be ridden by Johnny Sellers and share the top weight of 119 pounds with 10 other horses.

Make Sail, which also won its only start, will be ridden by Llois C. Cook, the leading Arlington rider, and also will carry 119 pounds.

BRITISH PGA ELECTS REES — LONGON (UPI) — The British Professional Golfers Ass. has elected Dai Rees of Wales as captain of the British team which will defend the Ryder Cup against the United States at Palm Desert, Calif., Nov. 7-8.

Childrens tied it at 3-3 in the bottom of the 3rd on Mitchell's homer, but Pampa used back-to-back two-baggers by Robison and Chase to recapture the lead, 4-3, in the top of the 4th.

Childrens spiked home three markers in the last of the 4th for a 6-4 advantage. They never gave up the lead after that. The score slipped to 13-4 in the fifth as Childrens ran wild with seven runs scored.

Pampa began chopping back in the sixth with four runs as four walks, a single by Chase and doubles by Hebert and Matson whittled the gap to 13-8. Then in the top of the seventh, Pampa almost overhauled the Childrens outfit.

Williams Starts On Hill at 8 p.m.

BY RICK PEZDIRTZ Daily News Editor

It's blue-chip time and the table stakes are mighty high for Pampa's American Legion Rebels who roll out the come mat to the Lubbock Red Cheks here tonight.

First pitch in a best 2-of-3 bi-district series opener due to be rifled homeward by Rebel left-hander Kippy Williams at 8:15 p.m.

Williams, with a fine 4-2 won-lost record, will have hurl his young heart out tonight, however, as he'll be matting pitches with one of the state's foremost teen-age mount men, Lubbock's Donnie Bumpass, who worked for Monterey High this spring and helped the Red Cheks into the st American Legion meet last summer, will be gunning for a 9 straight win here tonight.

Bumpass, with an 8-0 record, is also the Chek's most prolific hitter, sporting an envious .538 plate mark.

Winner of tonight's bi-district opener will be the odds-on favorite to advance into the quarter-final round of the state playoffs. The series shifts to Lubbock Thursday night. A third game, if needed, will be unraveled in Lubbock Friday night.

The Red Cheks put a fancy 17-3 record on the line against Pampa's 10-4 mark here tonight.

Both clubs have three regulars hitting over the magical .300 mark. Besides Bumpass, shortstop Jim Harris at .426 and centerfielder Ronald Bandy at .393 are the leading Lubbock stickmen.

First-sacker Larry Strode is the front-running Pampa hitter with a sweet .380 average, which include seven homers, four doubles, one triple, and 26 runs-batted-in.

Centerfielder Bobby Stephens, on a hitting rampage of late, has a boosted his average to .359 and owns three-triples and two-homers, plus 15 RBI's. Little Wendell Ridgway, who collected a homer in Pampa's 12-6 district playoff win over Palo Duro at Amarillo Sunday, is the third top Pampa batter with a neat .310 average.

The little shortstop has three doubles and a triple, plus 11 runs-batted-in.

Catcher Terry Haralson isn't far off the 300 level. In fact only one hit off. The hero of Pampa's 7-4 last inning win at Borger last week with a two-run homer, has a good .296 which includes four homers, two doubles, two triples and 20 RBI's.

Pampa coaches Lloyd Summers and Bill Ridgway will string along with the same lineup they've used to topple Palo Duro in Sunday's playoff, with the exception of Williams who'll pitch instead of Mike Clark.

Clark (4-0) will face the Red Cheks in Lubbock Thursday night. PAMPA BATTING ORDER: Jim Harris, (.426) at first; Ronald Bandy, (.393) in center; G. Ald. Mowery, (.284) in right; D. Williams, (.258) pitching; M. Stephens, (.288) at first; Jim Ellis, (.215) at second; Ron Ayers, (.250) in left; and D. del Ridgway, shortstop; Bobby Harris, (.175) catching.

Viva Tito, Booms Indians War Cry!

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
Viva Tito!
That's the rallying cry in Cleveland where they're all hepped up about pennants, not politics.
Object of this noisy fanfare is quiet, sleepy-eyed John (Tito) Francona, whose crackling bat is keeping the Indians on top and the Yankees down under.

The Yankees have tried a dozen different ways of pitching to the Cleveland center fielder but nothing helps. Francona slammed a two-run homer and a double against the Yankees Tuesday night to pace the Indians to a 5-1 victory that kept them in first place by two percentage points over the second-place White Sox.

McLish Stellar On Mound

While Francona was furnishing the hitting Tuesday night, Cal McLish provided the pitching. He stopped the Yankees on three hits to drop them 6½ games off the pace. It was McLish's seventh straight victory and 12th of the season against only three defeats.

The White Sox edged the Red Sox, 2-1, the Tigers defeated the Senators, 8-1, and the Athletics downed the Orioles, 8-1, in other American League games.

In the National League, the Dodgers climbed to within a half game of the first-place Giants by beating them, 1-0, the Reds handed the Braves their seventh straight loss, 12-2, and the Cubs topped the Cardinals, 8-2, and the Phillies defeated the Pirates, 4-2, after Pittsburgh scored a 14th decision in the completion of a game suspended on May 10.

Jim Landis' seventh inning single scored Luis Aparicio from second base with the run that gave the White Sox their win over the Red Sox. Dick Donovan, who registered his seventh victory, allowed six hits, including a homer by Don Buddin.

Homers Sink Senators

Home runs by Harvey Kuenn, Lou Berberet and Charley Maxwell enabled the Tigers to make a runaway of their game with the Senators. Paul Foytack fired a six-hitter for his ninth victory, yielding Washington's only run on Roy Sievers' 13th homer.

Bud Daley of the A's limited the Orioles to five hits in registering his 10th victory. The only run he allowed was Walt Droop's homer in the ninth. Dick Williams homered for Kansas City and drove in three runs. Bob Cery also drove in three.

The Dodgers handed the Giants their third straight setback when Gil Hodges scored Charley Neal with a double in the ninth inning. Loser Sam Jones had a one-hitter until the ninth but wound up with a three-hitter and his 10th defeat.

Roger Craig also hurled a three-hitter in bringing his record to 5-1. Cincinnati scored six unearned runs on three Milwaukee errors as the Braves dropped to fourth place with their longest losing streak since 1953. Big Don Newcombe scattered eight hits for his 10th victory in 15 decisions while Lew Burdette dropped his 10th game against 12 victories.

Four U.S. Davis Cuppers To Compete in 60th Penn. Meet

HAVRFORD, Pa. (UPI)—Four U.S. Davis Cup players, including Wimbledon titleholder Alex Olmedo, were scheduled to compete today in the third round of the 60th Pennsylvania Lawn Tennis Championship.

Olmedo, accused of ladsalistical play in the National Clay Court quarter finals last week, came back with a serious attack Tuesday to advance through the first two rounds of the Pennsylvania tourney.

He scored a 6-1, 6-1 victory over Mac White, Austin, Tex., in the opening round and then downed Alan Roberts, Brooklyn, N.Y., 6-2, 6-2, in the second round.

Olmedo has been threatened with suspension because of his play against South Africa's Abe Segal in the Clay Court tournament last week but Perry Jones, of Los Angeles, captain of the Davis Cup team, said he was against such action.

Jones, speaking at the annual banquet at the Merion Cricket Club Tuesday night, said he opposed any suspension of Olmedo from further tourney play. He blamed the incident on "battle fatigue" on the part of the Peruvian player.

Olmedo told the gathering that he was sorry for the incident.

Jones, who is 71, said he might give up the captaincy of the Davis Cup team.

CRAFT'S HEART ACTING UP ON HIM

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—Manger Harry Craft of the Kansas City Athletics undergoes thorough examination today to see if he suffered any damage to his heart.

The 44-year-old Craft was taken to a hospital Tuesday after suffering from overwork, fatigue and a slight heart ailment. There were earlier fears of a coronary attack but late word from the hospital indicated Craft was suffering more from exhaustion than anything else. He was reported in satisfactory condition today and resting comfortably. Coach Bob Swift filled in at Craft's managerial spot.

"I wouldn't call it a coronary or anything serious," Dr. D. M. Nigro said. "The electrocardiogram came back practically negative, but he did have a little flare up."

overwork and fatigue. Dr. Nigro said, however, that heart specialists, Dr. E. R. Nigro, his son, and Dr. D. J. Cutliff, would examine Craft thoroughly today.

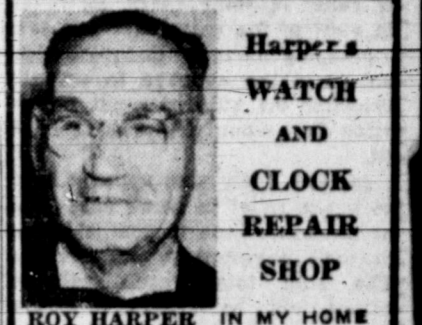

Regardless, the doctor said, Craft will remain in the hospital at least several days for observation and rest. Read The News Classified Ads.

Amarillo Raps Rose Buds, 4-2

United Press International
Top place Victoria dropped one to cellar dweller Amarillo Tuesday but the 4-2 score still could dislodge either team from their standings categories.

The loss leaves Victoria with 60 and 44 in the win-loss column and .577 under percentages. Bottom team Amarillo can only claim 47 wins to 54 losses for .465. The Panthers group is 12 games behind the leader.

In other action, Corpus Christi beefed up its hold on number three spot by taking San Antonio to a 4-2 cleaning. The Missions are only one slot above low-ranked Amarillo.

Archie's Wife Resting Easy

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)—Mrs. Joan Moore, wife of world light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, was reported in good condition at Sharp Memorial hospital at Sharp Memorial Tuesday in a five-hour operation. Monday night for removal of a non-malignant tumor which had been pressing against her brain.

Moore, whose title defense against Yvon Durelle in Montreal has now been postponed until Aug. 12, arrived from the Canadian city early Tuesday and spent the morning at the hospital. The champion spoke by telephone to promoter Eddie Quinn in Montreal Tuesday to arrange for the postponement. It was the second in the rematch, which had been set back from July 15 to July 29 when Moore suffered a bruised heel.

Tax-Shift Proposal

Taxpayers have been wondering in a sort of stupefied way, whether or not they are ever going to get any tax relief. There is an interesting story unfolding in Congress which is deserving of some analysis.

Foreign Aid Folly

Some of our economic commentators to beguile the American people by insisting that foreign aid is "good" for American business.

BETTER JOBS

By R. C. HOBBS

The Free Will And The Market Place

Frank Chodorov originally wrote an article for "The Freeman" magazine which was reproduced in "The Indian Libertarian" published in Bombay, India.

I am under great obligation to Frank Chodorov because he pointed out one of my contradictions. I used to say I believed in voluntary taxation and he pointed out that that was a contradiction of terms because if you did not pay taxes, the sheriff would make you pay if you had any property.

I am also interested in Frank Chodorov because he's able to write and explain things so clearly that we once tried to hire him to be editor of one of Freedom Newspapers. He said he was too old to move and change. He still writes some very interesting and informative articles.

This was the second part of the article. In the first one he referred to Madison, Wisconsin, as being a place where the pioneers first settled. That explains why he refers to Madison what he meant. Here is the way he explains "The Free Will and The Market Place":

"The possibility of specialization as population increases is enhanced by another peculiar human characteristic—the trading instinct. A trader is the giving up of something one has in order to acquire something he wants. The trader puts less worth on what he possesses than what he desires. This is what we call evaluation."

"It is not necessary here to go into theory, or theories, of value except to point out that evaluation is a psychological process. It springs from the human capacity to judge the intensity of various desires. The fisherman has more fish than he cares to eat but would like to add potatoes to his menu; he puts a lower value on fish than on potatoes; the farmer is in the opposite position, his barn being full of potatoes and his plate devoid of fish. If an exchange can be effected, both will profit, both will acquire a desired satisfaction. In every trade—provided neither force nor fraud is involved—seller and buyer both profit."

"Only man is a trader. No other creature is capable of estimating the intensity of its desire and of giving up what it has in order to get something it wants. Man alone has the gift of free will. To be sure, he may go wrong in his estimate, and may make a trade that is to his disadvantage. In his moral life, too, he may err. But when he makes the wrong moral choice he holds that he should suffer the consequences, and hope that he will learn from the unpleasant experience."

"So it must be, in his search for a more abundant life. If in his search for a good life the human must be allowed to make use of his free will, why should he not be accorded the same right in the search for a more abundant life? Many of the persons who would abolish free choice in the market place logically conclude that man is not endowed with free will, that free will is a fiction, that man is merely a product of his environment. This premise, ineluctably leads them to the denial of the soul and, of course, the denial of God."

"Those who rail against the market place as if it were a den of iniquity or against its techniques as being founded in man's inhumanity, overlook the function of the market place in bringing people into closer contact with one another. Remember, the market place makes specialization possible, but specialization makes men interdependent. The first pioneer somebody or other made his cabin; but his son, having accustomed himself to hiring a professional carpenter, can hardly put up a single shelf in a cabin. And today, if some catastrophe should cut off Madison from the surrounding farms, the citizens of the city would starve. If the market place were abolished, people would still pass the time of day or exchange recipes or bits of news; but they would no longer be dependent on one another, and their self-sufficiency would tend to break down their society. For that reason we can say that society and the market place are two sides of the same coin. If God intended man to be a social animal, he intended him to have a market place."

Traders Serve One Another "But, let me return to our imaginary experiment. We found that as the pioneer colony grew in numbers, a tendency toward specialization arose. It was found that by this division of labor more could be produced. But this production from specialization would serve no purpose unless some way were found to distribute it. The way is to trade. The shoe-maker, for instance, makes a lot of shoes of various sizes, but he is not interested in shoes per se; after all, he can wear but one pair and of one particular size. He makes the other shoes because other people want them and will give him in return for what we are or what we do. How is it possible that other governments will love or respect us by this display of our criminal ineptitude in this field? We are incurring no friendship but enmity; not prosperity, but poverty. But politicians seem never to learn."

When They Pass Out Medals

Robert Allen Reports:

Butler Up Against Fight Of His Life

WASHINGTON — National Chairman Paul Butler is outwitting professional concern about his future, but privately he is fully aware that he is up against the fight of his life to hold on to his $25,000-plus-expense job.

The Democratic congressional leaders he has been clouding are irately determined to get rid of him, and are getting a lot of help from other party notables.

Foremost among them are: Former President Truman, Pennsylvania's Governor David L. Lawrence, Ohio's Governor Michael DiSalle, Maryland's Governor Millard Tawes, Illinois National Committeeman Jacob Arvey, and National Treasurer Matthew McCloskey, Philadelphia contractor who has long been feuding with Butler.

For a week now they have been busy conferring throughout the country by long-distance phone and emissaries, on how and when to crack down on him.

What these backstage efforts will lead to remains to be seen. It's still too early to judge how far they will get. But their extent and vigor greatly exceed previous similar attempts, and for that reason, alone are portentously significant.

For example: For the first time, Speaker Sam Rayburn and Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson are actively against Butler. In the past, they have either been friendly or neutral. At the National Committee meeting in New Orleans, it was Rayburn's support that largely saved Butler from being booted out.

But the two Texans don't feel that way toward him now. They've seen after his scalp and mean business. So do the other party leaders working closely with them.

So far they have done the following: Agreed they will have a pool of funds to put over a "strong" choice to replace Butler. For this purpose they are taking soundings on Senator Clair Engle, California's Charles Murphy, member of Truman's White House staff; Joseph Donohue, Washington, D.C. attorney; and 1948 campaign manager for Senator Estes Kefauver; and National Treasurer McCloskey.

Canvassed the prospect of "buying out" Butler; that is, opening the way for him to get a big-name private connection.

Discussed "drying up" the funds of the already hard-pressed National Committee, and thus "quiescing" him out of the chairmanship.

The Doctor Says:

Several of the brothers and sisters of my own grandparents died of tuberculosis, or what was then called consumption. No doubt a similar situation could be made by virtually every living person over the age of 40.

Since the turn of the century, however, the death rate from tuberculosis has dropped lower and lower.

There are many reasons. But before listing a few I should like to say something in reply to Mrs. F. who asks: "What are the symptoms of tuberculosis?"

Tuberculosis is a germ disease. The symptoms depend on what particular tissues of the body are invaded by the germs. The most common location is in the lungs.

Most of us have had some tubercle bacilli, or germs, in our lung tissues but in most instances we have been able to wall them off and make them inactive. Thus we do not show any of the active symptoms of the disease.

When there are symptoms, the most frequent are cough with expectation, fever, loss of weight and night sweats. However, the diagnosis is made primarily by means of an X-ray film of the lungs and by finding the germs of tuberculosis in the sputum.

Naturally, the symptoms of tuberculosis elsewhere, such as invasion of the bone, produce different symptoms. But in almost all instances either the X-ray or the identification of the germ by suitable laboratory methods are more accurate than the symptoms alone.

The germs are spread from a person or animal who harbors them to a well person. Hence the improvement of sanitation and such measures as the prohibition of public spitting have undoubtedly served to lessen the dangers of catching the disease.

The general improvement in diet and the lessening of extreme poverty and overcrowding are other factors which are partly responsible for the improvement.

Furthermore, many patients with tuberculosis are spotted relatively early, treated and thus kept from infecting others.

Looking Sideways

By WHITNEY BOLTON

NEW YORK — If this country is flooded by anything except its occasionally sportive rivers, it is flooded by beer. There must be 1,000 brands and 4,000 square miles of advertising space to promote them. If you backed me to a statement about beer I'd have to say that they all seem about alike to me, except that some are dark and some are light.

The most beautiful building I have ever seen in Italy is a motel. It has nothing of the Bramante about it, being brand, spanking new, of bright red brick, and festooned here and there with neon signs.

It is four stories high, has two elevator shafts, 30 rooms, and is generously carpeted with 1959 linoleum.

I came upon it — as you will if you cross the Brenner Pass and take the route that leads through Vipiteno, Bressanone, Trento, Bassano and Verona — just as darkness came.

All day I had driven through the Alps, twisting, turning, shifting, holding my breath and praying softly.

Nightfall found me completely beat. I was ready to get from behind the wheel and hit the sack. But where? In what hotel? An old one, that was built 400 years ago, or what the Italians consider a new one, meaning it was built later than 1750?

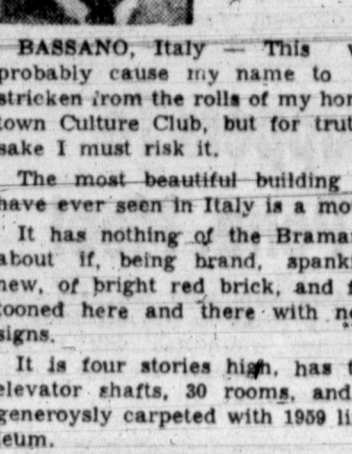

The thought of searching for a hotel in a strange town, and lugging the luggage up two, three or four flights of stairs, and then walking down a mile-long corridor for a bath, intensified my weariness.

Then, just on the outskirts of Trento, a flicking, flashing neon sign lit me in the eye.

Whazzis, A Motel Is Most Beautiful Building

By HENRY MCLEMORE

"Motel! Motel! Motel! It flicked and flashed. When I saw it, I couldn't believe my eyes. I thought I was back home again. It didn't have a swimming pool, but it had everything else — restaurant, bar, car shelter, energetic car hops to handle luggage, television, radio and every room with bath."

I made for it like a desert wanderer for a mirage. Until I was registered and in my room, I was afraid it was going to be a mirage. This heaven-sent stopping place is one of many motels built in the last two years by Agip, a gasoline company. They have a score or so of them in Italy, and are adding one or so a month.

Never did a country need anything more than Italy needs these motels. Reasonable, clean, comfortable lodging along the highways. They're the best thing that has happened to Italy since Vesuvius quit spouting.

My room was a big double one, with balcony, and it had a handsome crib for the baby. The restaurant was spotless and featured local specialties, simply served but wonderfully cooked.

The room was just under three dollars a night, and a good meal cost just shy of a dollar. I was tempted to stay right there and set up right housekeeping.

It boasted superb scenery, too, for Trento is in the Dolomites, and they're as fine a set of mountains as a man could ask for.

The thought of searching for a hotel in a strange town, and lugging the luggage up two, three or four flights of stairs, and then walking down a mile-long corridor for a bath, intensified my weariness.

The Nation's Press

MR. WARREN'S MISERIES MULTIPLY (Chicago Tribune) The humiliation recently visited upon the old Warren majority of the Supreme court, which we have been recounting in editorials describing how the court has been skinned back from positions previously assumed, has been compounded by a blunder pulled by the chief justice.

Last week's court was driven to reconsider a case which it decided a year ago. The reason was that Earl Warren, who wrote the opinion, announced as a fact something that did not happen to be true.

The issue in the case, brought by Walter W. Flora of Wyoming, is whether a taxpayer who pays only part of a deficiency income tax assessment levied by the government can test the tax claim by suing for a refund. The government contended that the taxpayer must pay everything before he can sue for a refund, and this met $1 to 1 agreement from the Supreme court on June 16, 1958.

Warren said in his opinion, "There does not seem to be a single case before 1940 in which a taxpayer attempted a suit for refund of income taxes without paying the full amount the government alleged to be due."

Flora's lawyers promptly petitioned for a rehearing, citing a large number of cases in which the government had not challenged suits for refund of partial payments. The decision was also criticized by tax lawyers on the ground that it would enable the government to strip a taxpayer of all or more than he possessed before allowing him to challenge the justice of the tax claim.

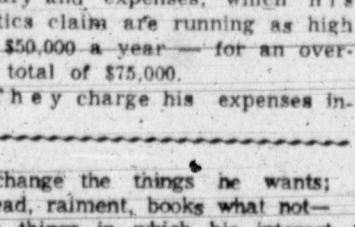

Mr. Warren and his associates may have been wrong before, but this time they are obliged to make the embarrassing admission in so many words.

CAR SICK?

Engine sluggish?
 Burning oil?
 Leaky transmission?
CURE IT FAST!

With These New Pyroil Rx Products

Pyroil Rx-1 for sluggish motors.
 Purges engines in 30 minutes. Brings back pep and power. Add to gas or thru carburetor. Cleans out power-robbing engine deposits (the main cause of pre-ignition and engine knock). Loosens the carbon holding carbon to metal, so carbon is blown out with exhaust gases. Cleans out fuel lines, pumps and carburetor jets.
 Add to oil and clean out the lower engine, too. Purges out sludge, gum and goo. Frees sticky rings, valve lifters. Flushes out impurities.
 Contains a magnetic oil film that plates metal. Protects from rust and corrosion. Buy a can today, for top performance and wonderful gas savings. Only $1.50 for a treatment.

Pyroil Rx-2 for worn motors.
 Stops oil burning fast, because it forms a compression seal and prevents blow-by. Reduces exhaust smoke, keeps power in the engine instead of having it trail behind your car in the form of smoke. Miracle two-way formula, stays thin for easy starting, keeps its body as motor heat increases. Contains CGA (Cam Guard Additive). Reduces engine wear and noise. Cures oil pumping and worn motors, gives them a new lease on life. $2.00 per quart, saves you oil and repair bills.

Pyroil Rx-3 for leaky transmissions.
 Works two ways... 1. Stops leaks caused by drying, shrinking and hardening of transmission seals. Keeps new life into oil seals, brings them soft and pliable.
 2. Cleans and lubricates transmissions, reduces gear and bearing wear and noise. Eliminates sluggish uneven shifting. Saves on expensive repair bills. Every auto with automatic transmission needs this conditioner. Only $1.00 per can.
