City Development Board Has Six New Faces Today

By WALLACE TRUESDELL
Daily News Staff Writer

Five Pampa business men were elected to three year terms on the Board of City Development at a City Commission meeting this morning. A sixth man was named to fill the unexpired term of board member Don Cain.

The five new men are Gene Holzar, D. V. Burton, Gordon Lyons, Johnny Watson and B. M. Rehman. E. Roy Smith will serve the two remaining years of Cain's term.

Five members of the 15-man board are elected annually to serve for three years. Hold-over directors are Ray Duncan, C. R. Hoover, H. O. Darby, Jake Osborne, H. V. Wilks, Warren Hasse, Calvin Whitley, Johnny Gikas and Crawford Atkinson.

The Chamber of Commerce will elect five men this month to serve as an advisory board to the City group.

Commissioners rushed through Ordinance 531, providing for the emergency installation of an electrical signaling device on Duncan at the intersection of 19, 20 and 21st Avenues. The procedure which calls for the passage of an ordinance on three separate readings over a period of three weeks was waived for this ordinance.

An ordinance to extend the City limits of Pampa, numbered 532, was passed on first reading. This ordinance would take in four blocks of the Jarvis - Some Addition, extending one-half block from either side of N. Christy from 18th to 23rd Avenues.

Passed on the third and final reading was Ordinance 528, creating a fire zone along F r e e d e r i c, Brown and Wilks. This action amended Ordinances 277 and 520, which specified fire zoning for other areas.

A bid date for ten 12-yard Dumpster Dumpsters was set for Sept. 29. The City now has 52 of these dump boxes.

In other business, commissioners approved monthly bills of $26,643.02, with $12,758.67 from the general fund and $13,784.40 from the water and sewer fund. Library bills, included in the total, amounted to $120.17.

Texas Municipal League activities will begin Wednesday for commissioners and City officials. Eight men will attend the Region 2 meeting Wednesday night in Dumas.

Pampa will be represented by Mayor Ed Myatt, Commissioner H. V. Wilks, City Engineer Monroe Moore, Director of Public Works R. B. Cooke, Tax Assessor Aubrey Jones, Real Estate Appraiser Bill Waggoner, City Secretary Ed Vicars and City Manager John Koonitz.

Some of these same men will attend the annual meeting of the Texas Municipal League Sept. 20-22 in Dallas — Myatt, Koonitz, Vicars and Wilks. Commissioners Leon Holmes, James Crawford and Jack Vaughn will attend, as well as City Attorney Bob Gorton.

W. H. Butterfield, business letter writing specialist of Lubbock, will conduct the two- and one-half hour course. Reservations are being taken in the Chamber office.

C-C Groups Will Study Plans For Air Service

A Joint Meeting of the Aviation Committee with Directors of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce and Board of City Development will be held Wednesday in the Chamber offices.

The two groups will study applications submitted recently by the Dallas and Amarillo Chambers of Commerce asking the Civil Aeronautics Board's consideration of airline service between Amarillo and Dallas via Pampa. Chairmen, Vernon and Wichita Falls.

After reviewing contents of the applications, the groups will decide whether or not Pampa will join Dallas and Amarillo in their requests for this particular airline service as shown in applications submitted.

Woodrow Adcock, chairman of the local Aviation Committee, will present details of the briefs submitted by the Amarillo and Dallas Chambers of Commerce. The Amarillo application also requests service between Amarillo and Oklahoma City via Pampa and Clinton, Okla.

The Pampa Chamber is also preparing for a Business Letter Clinic Sept. 24. Fifty-two reservations have been made for the clinic, which will be held in the Palm Room of City Hall.

W. H. Butterfield, business letter writing specialist of Lubbock, will conduct the two- and one-half hour course. Reservations are being taken in the Chamber office.

Security Council To Send Investigation Into Laos

Blasts Rock Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI) — Explosions Monday night wrecked an unoccupied office in the Little Rock School Board building, damaged a building housing the private offices of the mayor, and demolished the fire chief's city-owned station wagon.

No one was hurt. Ass't. Police Chief R. E. Glasscock did not know if the explosives, possibly dynamite, were set or thrown.

The blasts, on the eve of the opening of the city's grade and junior high schools, came minutes apart.

The first was to Fire Chief Gann Nalley's car, parked in front of his residence at 10:20 p.m.

The second was at the modernistic building where Mayor Werner Knoop has his private construction firm offices at 10:53.

The third was at the School Board office, just off the downtown section, at 10:58.

Police Chief Gene Smith, who turned back a demonstration marching on Central High School when it opened integrated Aug. 12, immediately called all men to duty.

He ordered lights turned on in all the city's school buildings for the remainder of the night.

Smith ordered his men to check every drive-in theater in the city and examine all outgoing cars. He surrounded the city's four high schools with blockades and men. Police stopped and examined every car driving in the vicinity of the schools.

School officials said the office in its building was being remodeled, and had not been occupied for several months. It contained no furniture or records.

The blast knocked out windows, ripped plaster from the walls, and loosened boards on the ceiling and floor. The walls were blackened, but the room did not catch fire.

Knoop's office was in a new building eight blocks away. The front of the two-story modernistic glass and aluminum structure was badly damaged. The street was littered with broken glass, aluminum strips and pieces of ornamental louvers.

Nalley said he and his wife were awakened by the explosion in his city-owned station wagon, parked in front of their house. The concussion knocked out a light globe on the front porch. The house had no other damage.

Nalley drew criticism from segregationists for turning high pressure fire hoses on the demonstrators marching on Central High last month.

'50 TRUCK IS STOLEN

A 1950 model Chevrolet pickup truck was either dragged or carried away sometime early this morning from the Billy Daniel's Garage, 112 E. Craven police reported today.

Daniels, who reported the theft this morning, said the truck was not in operating condition and must have been dragged away.

The dark green colored truck bears license plates number 10 6979. Police fear the truck may be towed out of Pampa and stripped.

HAIR-RAID WARNING — King, an English sheep dog sits forlornly outside a barber shop in Denver, Colo., that closed up in a hurry when he ambled up for a haircut. That "On Vacation" sign came out of the window when King left to get his shearing from a veterinarian.

Nation Won't Record New Death Toll

The nation's motorists slowed down enough Monday to escape setting an all-time traffic death record for the Labor Day week-end.

Drivers heeded the pleas of police and safety officials and cut down the highway slaughter which had been averaging five an hour until late in the holiday period.

Reports of traffic accidents continued to trickle in today, but the National Safety Council said the all-time traffic toll of 433 deaths in Labor Day, 1951, would not be exceeded.

"The chances are we will go over last year's mark of 432," the council said. The council predicted 450 deaths this Labor Day.

A United Press International column showed 421 traffic deaths, 77 drownings, 14 deaths in plane crashes and 73 in miscellaneous accidents for an overall toll of 585.

California led the nation with 29 traffic fatalities, followed by Ohio, New York and Texas with 29, Pennsylvania with 20, Iowa with 19, Minnesota with 18, Missouri with 16, Virginia and Illinois with 14 and Michigan, Georgia and Wisconsin with 13.

Alabama, Nevada and New Hampshire were without a highway fatality during summer's last holiday.

Head-on collisions accounted for many of the Labor Day victims. Five persons were killed Monday when a speeding car loaded with teen-agers veered into the path of another auto near St. Louis.

Despite Red Veto, 4-Nation Committee Will Probe Crisis

By BRUCE W. MUNN
United Press International

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) — The Security Council, overriding Russia's veto, voted early today to send a four-nation committee to investigate the situation in Communist-threatened Laos.

The vote in the 11-member council was 10-1 against the Russians.

The negative Soviet vote ordinarily would have killed the measure, but the council had ruled in a previous 10-1 vote that the creation of the investigating committee was a procedural matter, not subject to the veto.

The four nations making up the committee are Argentina, Italy, Japan and Tunisia, all members of the council. They scheduled a meeting at noon e.d.t. today, and it appeared likely investigators would be on the way to Laos by the end of the week.

Red Ambassador Protests

Soviet Ambassador Arkady A. Sobolev protested the council decision bitterly, charging that the majority was in effect rewriting the U.N. charter when it overrode his veto.

The delegation of the U.S.S.R. regards the action as non-existent, illegal and not binding on anyone to whom it is addressed, Sobolev said.

U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge and other spokesmen for the Western Big Three rejected the Soviet charge, pointing out that the Charter specifically exempts procedural matters from the big-power veto.

The council debate focused on the resolution creating the investigating committee. Neither Laos' request for U.N. troops to expel Communist invaders from its territory nor the U.S. charge that Russia is cooperating with the attackers was mentioned.

The situation in Laos itself was obscure. A government spokesman in the nation's capital said Monday the Red invaders from North Viet Nam have withdrawn from northern Laos, leaving only native Communist guerrillas to face loyal troops in the area.

Tried 'Double Veto'

In Bangkok, however, Laos' Foreign Minister Khampani Panha told officials of the Southeast Asian Treaty Organization that "conditions are deteriorating in his red-ravaged country."

Panha is on his way to New York to attend the meeting of the U.N. General Assembly that opens a week from today.

Sobolev used every means at his disposal to block the resolution.

Red Troops Prepping For Big Assault?

VIENTIANE, LAOS (UPI) — The government today reported widespread Communist troop movements across northern Laos and speculated the rebels may be ready for a concerted assault on Samneua, capital of the province with the same name.

The United States, meanwhile, was airlifting munitions to the royal Laotian army to help its defense. Two planeloads of grenades were flown in Monday. Several additional loads were due today. Observers thought some of these latter might include small arms ammunition.

Acting Foreign Minister Siouk Nhemmakasak told his news conference that Samneua village, southeast of Samneua city was surrounded by a three-pronged enemy attack with forces converging on the village.

"Samneua probably will be attacked in the near future," he said.

Government troops, he said, have already evacuated Samneua and are positioned in the jungle to conduct guerrilla warfare should the enemy attack further.

Siouk said a buildup of rebel forces near the villages of Muangphet, Samneua and Xiengko indicated they will be used as staging areas for the attack on the provincial capital.

New York Police Hold Teen Suspect After Man Chased, Knifed to Death

NEW YORK (UPI) — Police questioned a 17-year-old suspect today in their city's latest case of teen-age murder.

The victim was tentatively identified as Thomas Jordan, 28, who was chased about four blocks, to meet today here Gov. Nelson Rockefeller. Mayor Robert F. Wagner and 24 officials and civic and religious leaders.

Police, meanwhile, pressed a stepped-up campaign of arrests that has netted at least 300 youths since last Tuesday. They also moved to expand their information on the city's street gangs.

Roman denied the slaying. He told police he came here from Puerto Rico three months ago and has been employed as a delivery boy. Police said the crime apparently had no teen gang connection.

Roman was arrested on the eve of a top-level conference on the growing juvenile crisis. Scheduled to meet today here Gov. Nelson Rockefeller. Mayor Robert F. Wagner and 24 officials and civic and religious leaders.

South Stirred Over 'Voting' Interference

By LEON BURNETT
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Civil Rights Commission proposal that the federal government take over local voter registration when necessary to halt discrimination stirred up angry southern reaction today.

Three of the six commission members also urged a constitutional amendment designed to guarantee voting rights. They further suggested steps to combat discrimination in education and housing.

Southern senators and House members promptly denounced the recommendations as "unconstitutional." They pledged to do everything possible to prevent them from being put into effect.

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) leader of the southern congressional bloc, declared, "If the Congress does its duty to the American people it will put this commission out of business." Other Southerners echoed his statement.

Two Months Left
The commission will cease to exist 60 days from today unless Congress votes to extend its life. The bitter southern reaction threatened congressional plans to vote a one-year extension.

The group issued its report for publication in newspapers after 12 noon e.d.t. today. But Sen. James O. Eastland (D-Miss.) jumped the gun by inserting it in the congressional record Monday night.

The commission included 12 spokesmen from 11 states. It was set up by President Eisenhower in 1957.

Member John S. Battle, former governor of Virginia, dissented to several of the proposals, and in a brief accompanying statement expressed disagreement with "the nature and tenor" of the entire report.

The proposed constitutional amendment would limit the requirements states can make for voter registration. Two members dissented in a special statement, and Battle endorsed their objections.

Battle was the only dissenter on the federal registration proposal.

The report voiced particular concern over discrimination against non-white voters. "Our investigations have revealed that many Negro American citizens find it difficult, and often impossible, to vote," it said.

In the field of education, the commission urged that it be allowed to function as a clearing house and advisory agency on school integration — provided Congress keeps it in existence. It also called for improved methods of gathering statistics on the number and race of students.

Taking note of the major role the federal government plays in public housing, the report asks that the President order all departments dealing in this field to reshape their policy to guard against discrimination.

Vice Chairman Robert G. Storey, dean of Southern Methodist University law school, dissent to this and other statements in the report with regard to housing. Battle and former Florida Gov. Doyle E. Carlton shared his views.

The commissioners reported extensively on their study of voter registration procedures, particularly in Alabama and Louisiana. Those two states "led in the number of voting complaints received," they said, and gave the least cooperation.

"It has become apparent," the law is inadequate to assure that all our qualified citizens shall enjoy the right to vote."

Under the key voter proposal machinery for federal intervention could be set in motion by nine for more persons complaining of having been denied the right to vote on a discriminatory basis. The complainants would submit affidavits to the President, who in turn would refer them to the Civil Rights Commission. If the commission found the complaints to be valid, the President then would appoint any local federal official in the affected county or district to step in as registrar.

The federal official would handle these duties until the President saw fit to return registration to local control.

Other proposals on voting: Compilation by the Census Bureau of nationwide figures on registration and voting, including race, color and national origin of all individuals.

A law requiring states to preserve registration records for five years, during which time they would be subject to public inspection.

An amendment to the section of the Civil Rights Act which forbids action designed to deprive anyone of voting rights. It would extend the provision to cover discrimination through failure to "carry out a public duty."

Authorization for the commission to apply directly to a federal court for aid in enforcing a subpoena, rather than making such application of those qualifications.

A literacy test, one of a number of requirements imposed by the various states, apparently now provides the chief means of barring voters "where there is a will to discriminate," the report said.

Demos Ready to Challenge Ike And His Veto Record

By VINCENT J. BURKE United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Democrats were ready today to challenge President Eisenhower to risk once more his record of never having had a law enacted over his veto. They planned to push through the House by nightfall a new $1,185,309,093 public works appropriation bill carrying funds for all of the 67 projects which impelled him to veto the first bill 11 days ago. Republicans said they didn't see how they could muster enough votes to knock out disputed funds on the House floor. They had even less hope the Senate would delete them. The bill carries money to finance flood-control and navigation projects throughout the country and reclamation projects in the West. The projects are dear to the hearts of many congressmen. Six days ago, the House failed by only one vote to muster the two-thirds margin needed to enact the first bill over the President's veto. The new bill is identical except for an across-the-board cut of 2.5 per cent for all projects. This trimmed the measure 30 million dollars below the first bill and $97,166 below the amount requested by Eisenhower. But it did not meet his objections to start.

Damage Light In Lefors Fire

LEFORS (Sp.) — A fire-call was answered at about 10 a.m. Monday by the Lefors Volunteer Fire Department at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Carruth here. A hot-water tank had ignited and set fire to a bathroom in the house. Only 11 minutes expired from the time the siren blew until the first was put out, according to Fire Chief J. J. Archer. A damage of $25 was reported. Citizens of Lefors, who persist in dashing to fires, were warned by the Fire Chief to wait at least five minutes before going to the scene of the fire, in order that the firemen may get the fire-fighting equipment in a position to fight the fire.

The City Council granted the fire department permission to build a 42x42 brick building in a meeting held Monday night by the council. Enough money is on hand, it is reported, for the floor of the new building. The new building will be an addition to the present building, thus providing office space and room for a radio equipment. Chief Archer has announced that birthday calendars are now being sold. He said that the department will receive one, should place in order with any one of the firemen.

COUNCIL

(Continued from Page 1) command to block council action, including the "double veto" with which Russia has prevented procedural actions in the past, but the majority overruled all of his maneuvers.

"We have just witnessed the beginning of the revision of the U.N. Charter . . . the Russian snapped angrily after his defeat. This resolution cannot be regarded as adopted because one of the (big five) permanent members of the council vetoed against it. The resolution does not have validity for anyone . . ." he said.

Withdrawal Reported The resolution instructed U.N. investigators to report their findings to the council "as soon as possible," leaving the question of effective action against the Reds to be considered later.

The trouble in Laos centers in the provinces of Sam Neua and Phong Saly, bordering on both Red Viet Nam and Red China.

A week ago, the loyal commander reported that two Communist columns were converging on Sam Neua, capital of the province of the same name, and said he doubted that the city could hold out for more than two weeks.

However, information Minister Sissouk Nachmakasak told newsmen Monday the invaders from Viet Nam had pulled back across the border, perhaps because of the government's appeal to the U.N.

The United States is flying arms to Laos to bolster the government's effort to repel the attackers.

Red Cross Chapters Pull Together In Association

"Red Cross responsibility does not end at the county line," Bob Blackburn, field representative from Amarillo, told a local Red Cross group this morning.

Blackburn spoke in behalf of the Panhandle Association of Red Cross Chapters. He said that cooperation across Chapter lines can lead to an "improvement in the knowledge of various Red Cross services."

The chapter organization also provides better service to the Veterans Administration and Air Force Base hospitals in Amarillo, Blackburn said.

Service chairmen who have learned to do a good job in their chapters can help other chapters to get their programs off the ground, he suggested.

The next Association of Chapters meeting will be held Sept. 29 in Wellington.

Blackburn, who spoke at a Red Cross board meeting, told directors and committee chairmen that the Pampa Chapter has two new distinctions: It has been asked to supply a speaker for the Junior Red Cross program of the State Conference, and M. S. Euna Lee Moores has been named regional field chairman.

E. B. Pemberton, First A.I.D. chairman, announced that an instructor refresher course will be held here Sept. 15.

The group voted to send the executive secretary, Libby Shotwell, to a fund raising training center in Midland Sept. 15.

Ike Copes With Home Problems

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower put aside his role of far-ranging diplomat today to cope with some pressing problems on the home front—the steel strike and the state of his legislative program.

The President, still somewhat fatigued from his grueling European peace mission, flew back from Scotland Monday to report proudly that "everything is going splendidly" among the big Western Allies in the united approach to peace.

Today he called in his Republican House and Senate leaders for an early morning report on the legislative situation and prospects for congressional adjournment.

He also scheduled a meeting with Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell, a conference that might bear heavily on when and if the government will invoke the Taft-Hartley Law to get the steel mills of the nation back into production.

Eisenhower was elated when he stepped from his big jet transport at National Airport Monday afternoon following a transatlantic flight.

The cabinet, GOP congressional leaders and members of the White House staff swarmed around him to congratulate the beaming President on his rigorous personal diplomatic mission in West Germany, France and Britain.

Just a week before his talks with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, Eisenhower told his airport audience that "every troublesome little problem" between the major Western Allies "has been talked out."

"I am quite certain that for the moment at least, everything is going splendidly," he said.

SOUTH

(Continued from Page 1) the amendment proposal, Storey and Carlton expressed belief that the other recommendations would be sufficient to enforce equal treatment, and that such an amendment would create problems in federal-state relations. The members were evenly split on a proposal that the federal government require guarantees of equal opportunity before granting money to institutions of higher learning. This was suggested by Chairman John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State University; the Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, president of Notre Dame University; and George M. Johnson, law professor at Howard University. Storey, Battle and Carlton objected on grounds that education might suffer, and that guarantees of equal protection under law should remain solely a judicial function. Recommendations on housing primarily concerned a change of federal policy designed to guarantee equal opportunity for all races, and suggestions that local authorities set up bi-racial panels to work out housing problems. Storey, Battle and Carlton expressed the view that the recommendations were keyed to integration, rather than housing, and if carried out might result in "dissension, strife, and even violence."

Pampa News Women's Editor

(Editor's Note: This is the second in a series of articles prepared to assist publicity chairman in covering the news of their club, church and PTA groups.)

When you hand a legitimate news story to an editor, he appreciates its complexity of covering all of the women's organizations in Pampa, your editor relies on the volunteer such as yourself for news.

That's all very nice, you say, but will she use all of my stories?

Well, let's see what happens to your story when you hand it to the editor. First, it will be read with strict regard to whether it will be of interest to readers.

If, for example, the President of the United States is coming to town to talk to your organization, it is safe to say that the editor will print the story.

On the other hand, if you give the news that Mrs. Jones has been appointed second assistant secretary of your Committee on the Perpetuation of Duplicate Bridge on Wednesday Afternoons, don't be disappointed if it doesn't get into print.

Chances are that your story will fall somewhere in the middle of these extremes, and we'll assume that the editor decides it has a enough news value to start it on its way to print.

If poorly written, it will be held up while it is re-written according to newspaper style. Or, it may be delayed, because you gave it to the editor too close to the time the paper must go to press, and another story of equal importance—but well-written and easily processed—got in ahead of yours to the typesetter.

TIMELINESS IS IMPORTANT. In fact, it is one of the most important factors in news stories. It is the whole structure upon which a newspaper is built.

Try to adopt a simple pattern for writing your stories. Imitation can aid you greatly in developing skill in presenting the facts with a minimum of effort and training. Follow the style and construction of articles that have already appeared in your paper.

It might be helpful to cut out examples of various types of stories from the paper and follow their pattern when a similar situation arises for which you must prepare a story.

Items for the MAINLY ABOUT PEOPLE column, may be phoned in to the woman's editor because they are brief and take little time to write up. We invite you to call about your out-of-town guests, special meeting notices, and trips or vacations.

The "Mainly About People" column is a personal news item space, but due to its popularity, advertisers often request that their ads be placed in that spot, so you will be sure to see them. These are usually recognized by an asterisk which follows the ad.

Being a publicity chairman, can be one of the most exciting and rewarding jobs in your club. (Tomorrow: TELL IT HONESTLY)

RUTH MILLETT

Today's bouquet of compliments comes under the department of giving the devil his due.

When the fashion designers had us in sack dresses and trapeze skirts and wobbling along in shoes with needle thin heels and pointed toes, the columns I wrote in protest brought in a lot of "Amen" letters from women readers.

Apparently we made our feelings known — for it's a joy for a woman to go shopping again. And this fall no man will have to cover his mouth to hide an incredulous smile when he sees a woman dressed in the latest fashion.

The dresses are designed to bring forth the compliment, "how pretty you look." You can even bend over, sit down, or cross your legs while wearing them. They are as easy and comfortable as they are flattering.

The pointed toe is being rounded off — to give the feet a chance to look like feet instead of flat boats.

Fur trim, so flattering to a woman's face, is back in style. Crazy pants — which aptly described the way women looked in them — are out.

Even hair styles are soft and fluffy and designed to frame the face — making girls and women look pretty and feminine once more.

So thanks to all the designers who this year have not only tolerated and permitted women to look like women — but have gone even further to make it possible for women to look their prettiest and most feminine.

Just one further request of the designers. Now that you've given us what we want and shopping for clothes is an exciting adventure again, how about letting us keep these styles long enough to wear out the clothes on which we are eager to splurge.

Shampoo, packaged in a tiny plastic pillow, is a brand new aid for the gal who travels. Each miniature pillow holds enough liquid for two washings.

Shampoo Travels With More Ease

By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

The latest good thing to come in a small package is a simple application of shampoo. If you've ever tried to squeeze just one more cosmetic bottle into make-up case or suitcase, you'll welcome this new idea.

It comes in the form of a small plastic pillow, small enough to fit into the palm of your hand. The pillow is filled with a yellow egg shampoo, enough for two washings. You can put the pillow into your handbag, the top of a shoe you're packing or in the corner of a cosmetic case. It takes up next to no space.

Since the plastic is both soft and clear, it won't break and it won't leak. It's completely sealed and to open the pillow, you rip enough for the first shampoo; the balance of the liquid remains safely in the pillow until you're ready for it.

The shampoo itself is a rich one, containing egg, which will give your hair shining clean and leave it easy to handle.

DEAR ABBY....

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am writing in hopes that you can help my kid sister. She is 13 and has the prettiest face you ever saw. She looks just like an angel. There is just one thing that spoils her looks and it's her teeth. They are growing in so crooked it is a shame.

I begged my parents to get her braces but they say Nature will straighten her teeth in time. I act like she lives there. I would like to enjoy the children. Am I wrong? Please print this as a boy (15) and not very good looking anyway.

I wish you'd say in your column that it's important for a girl to have nice teeth. If you help my sister, I'll pray for you. Thank you. BIG BROTHER

DEAR BROTHER: Proper dental care is important (for girls AND boys) for the sake of good health as well as good looks. The self-confidence of a pretty smile is worth all the time and money invested. Urge your parents to take this little doll to a dentist at once. If they can't afford it, have them is an "art" in being a good guest — of your facts, young fellow. If you just as there is an art in being a good hostess.

Now knees are in for a much-ignored beauty treat. The reason — shorter hemlines this season. Just like elbows, knees get rough and red, especially after a summer of gardening. To get them in shape again, use a complexion brush while bathing. Then massage in a softening cream, but don't stop with the knees. Keep your legs smooth and neat, too.

DEAR ABBY: About six months ago I opened my big mouth and told my boyfriend's mother I could give her a good home-permanent. She bought the kit and I gave her one.

When her sisters saw it, they asked if I'd give them one. She has three sisters. I agreed.

Ever since that time, my boyfriend's mother and her sisters get together every Sunday. They send my boyfriend after me so I can fix their hair. How can I get out of setting hair every Sunday without hurting any feelings?

STUCK

DEAR STUCK: If you want to keep these women out of your hair — stay out of theirs. Tell your boyfriend you'd rather not spend your Sundays playing Beauty Operator. Repeat the speech every Sunday, if necessary. They'll soon catch on.

'Hold That Line' In Skirt To Score Touchdown In High Fashion Field

A full lining gives beautiful body to a skirt. And it is often advisable, particularly if cloth is loosely woven or the least big transparent.

Lining should be cut full length, identical to your skirt, including any kick pleats of slits at the sides. You may sew your lining in with your skirt — at sides, top and hem, or treat it as a separate unit — sew it separately everywhere except at the top. Here the lining and skirt should be incorporated into the waistband stitching. Then hem each separately, with the lining just a trifle shorter than the skirt.

If you want to line the skirt section of a dress without a waistline seam, run a row of machine stitching along top of lining, then pink it. Catch-stitch lining by hand to the waistline darts and any seams. Machine-stitch sides of the lining into side seams of the dress.

When both back and front of a dress are lined, the lining can be either stitched with the sides, which holds better, or sewn independently with the tacking at the waistline darts holding them together.

When a dress or skirt is made of a washable fabric, it is wise to keep lining separate at the sides, because it will make ironing easier. "Hold that line" in your skirt with a lining.

You sewers who belong to the home-sewing skirt set, do "hold that line" with a lining. Soft, loose-textured fabrics so in fashion in tweeds and plaids must be lined in the latest fashion.

No need to take for granted. "If winter comes, can that spring sag be far behind?"

And don't think a lining is too tough to "tackle." It's a cinch. You may do a partial lining or a full lining.

You can make lining of taffeta, a firmly woven crepe or of any lightweight, firm-textured fabric.

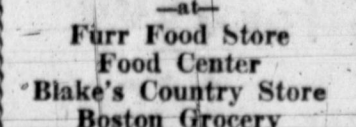

For a partial lining — using the pattern of your skirt back — cut lining long enough to cover full part of hips when sitting. Cut it to the exact width and shape of skirt, omitting pleats, but including darts. Stitch the darts in lining, and turn up a narrow hem or pink the lower edge.

After you have stitched the skirt back, pin lining to inside of the skirt back at top and sides with the lining darts and hem facing inside. This prevents marks from showing through on the right side. Now stitch tops and sides together. And there you are! From here on, continue with your sewing, treating lining and skirt as one.

Adams Wins ToT Meet With 2 Sensational '68's

WINNER AND RUNNERUP — Don Massengale, the state's 1958 amateur champion (top) wonders how a man beats a golfer like Adams as he awaits his turn on the 13th tee. At that point he was still three strokes down. In photo below Massengale, with head bowed, chats with the new champion Roland Adams. Adams, with an eight-under par total of 276, beat Massengale by two strokes. The new champion's total was nine off the tournament record set a year ago by Pampa's Don Prigmore. Roland Adams of Lubbock, a keg of dynamite off the tee, carried away the championship of the 1959 Top O' Texas Invitational Monday afternoon at the Pampa Country Club with an eight under par 276.

Three tournament-toughened golf stars, Don Massengale of Jacksboro, Max Hickey and defending champion Don Prigmore, made stretch drives to catch the champ but none could get those all-important last-second birds.

Adams, with a pair of 68's in his two Labor Day rounds, won by two strokes over state amateur champ Massengale, and by three over Prigmore and Hickey.

Massengale and Prigmore both went into Monday's 36-hole final with five stroke margins over Adams and four stroke leads on Hickey.

But a superb morning round by Adams — a three-under par 68 — closed the gap with something to spare. With 18 holes remaining Adams held a one stroke lead on Massengale and a two stroke lead on Prigmore.

After 54 holes the four leaders stood:

Adams — 140-68-208
Massengale — 135-74-209
Prigmore — 135-75-210
Hickey — 139-72-211

Trailing Adams and Co. with 213's after 54 holes were Amarillo City Champ Jim Owens and Lubbock Invitational winner Bud Abbott.

In the final holes Adams kept the pressure strong on his three hottest contenders. The gamest try to catch the Lubbock star was made by Max Hickey, who went out with a blazing 33 to cut Adams' margin to two strokes.

Prigmore, with bogies on two of the first three holes, fell four strokes behind.

When the smoke had cleared the final standings were:

276 — Roland Adams, Lubbock (70-70-68-68)
278 — Don Massengale, Jacksboro (66-69-74-69)
279 — Don Prigmore, Pampa (69-66-75-69); and Max Hickey (69-70-72-68)

281 — Jim Owens, Amarillo (70-70-73-68)
284 — Bud Abbott, Borger (72-71-70-71)

288 — Jim Bob Campbell, Amarillo (67-74-74-70)
288 — Bill Ford Jr., Amarillo (76-71-72-69)

288 — Elgie Seamster, Borger (72-68-76-72); Vance Moxom, Borger (72-74-69-74); Melvin Chisum, Pampa (73-72-70-74)

290 — Don Seamster, Borger (74-68-72-76)
301 — Harry Wilbur, Canadian (71-74-74-81)

302 — Grover Lee Heiskell, Pampa (73-74-75-80)
308 — C. F. McGinnis, Pampa (73-74-82-79)

Withdrew — Don Prichard, Pampa (71-71-79-79)

Adams, just a shade taller than Pampa's little guy, Max Hickey, must be considered one of the longest hitters in the Panhandle area.

In his morning round Monday, Adams drove the 365-yard fifth hole. His ball, with a big assist from a brisk wind, rolled five feet from the hole, but he missed his putt.

Bill Garrett, the George Bayer-like giant from Amarillo, was another of the tourney's long-hitters. Garrett, with the aid of king-size drives birdied four and five and eagled the 293-yard sixth hole in a fine afternoon stretch drive.

Another long hitter was Amarillo's Jim Owens. His drive on the 405-yard 12th hole trickled to the front edge of the green.

With nine holes remaining Monday afternoon it looked for a time as if Max Hickey might finally win.

After a 33 on the front side Hickey had chances on at least three holes on the back side to catch Adams. A brilliant long iron against the wind on 15 put him six feet from the hole, but his putt turned away from the hole.

On 16, after landing over the green, Hickey rolled down within three feet of the hole, then missed again and had to settle for a bogie five.

On 17, after Jim Owens had put his ball one foot from the hole, Hickey rolled an iron two feet away. This time the putt dropped for a birdie putt.

In the 18-man President's flight Burt Watkins, after a disastrous 81 Sunday, won all the honors with two fine rounds Monday, a 69 and a 70.

Borger's Cameron Roach fell three strokes behind with a 70 and 72 for second place.

President's Flight standings: 139 — Burt Watkins, Pampa (69-70); 142 — Cameron Roach, Borger (70-72)

146 — Charles Douglas, Amarillo (72-74)

148 — Malcolm Douglass, Pampa (70-78); Larry Tarvin, Pampa (73-75)

149 — Jack Foster, Pampa (72-77)

153 — Jim Haren, Pampa (73-80)

Withdrew — M. T. Johnson (83-WD)

In the lower flights Monday's vigorous south wind was more than some golfers could handle. The best single round was Gene Tisaworth's 74 in the first flight. Tisaworth saved his best shot for last Hart Warren.

when he dropped a 20-yard chip on 18.

In the third flight Ralph McKinney and Adrian Johnson tied with 81's and gave themselves the choice of the prizes.

Flight winners each received sets of irons, while runnerups won sets of woods. Consolation winners took home gift certificates.

Prizes for this year's Top O' Texas tournament totaled $2,800. Thurmond Fain served as tournament chairman. Ham Luna was this year's tournament director, and the man in charge of rulings and chief scorer was host pro worth saved his best shot for last Hart Warren.

Shy and soft-spoken Roland Adams, the long-long driving Lubbock linkster who dark-horsed his way from five-strokes behind to the 23rd annual Top O' Texas golf title yesterday evening, admitted in front of the press tent after collecting an arm load of prizes: "This really makes me happy. It's the 6th tournament I've managed to win this year, and no where have I been treated any nicer than here in Pampa. I hope to come back and defend my title next year." Adams strolled away with top honors at Littlefield, Muleshoe, Lamesa, Monahans and Jai, N.M. in past months.

There were two main factors the gallery could finger as wedges Adams used to pry open the crown round door. Those tape-measure wood shots and just plain old CONSISTENCY.

Trodding over the well-kept Pampa Country Club course for the first time in his young (25-years-old) career, Adams blazed the fairways with 68's three times — during his 1st, 3rd and 4th rounds. A second round 72 on Sunday left the Lubbock plumber hanging eight-under par with a 276 at the finish, two strokes better than Don Massengale, the Texas Amateur champ from Jacksboro (Abbe Martin's hometown).

MOST COACHES IN SWC PLEASED BY WORKOUTS

United Press International
Southwest Conference football coaches were well into their second week of pre-season practice today.

Some of the coaches shed their usual mantles of pessimism and expressed pleasure with their teams' workouts. But not A&M Coach Jim Myers.

He labeled Monday's Aggie workout a "lousy" one, although he admitted his team looked good in a conditioning test.

"It was a good drill from that standpoint," Myers said. "In fact, it was the best workout of that type we've had."

Myers' squad is still riddled with injuries, but he expected most of his ailing players back in the lineup soon. Halfback Jon Fey and Richard Love missed Monday's session because of injuries.

Few are nursing a bad ankle and Love has back trouble that has kept him out several days. Halfback Jesse McQuire also was sidelined, but hoped to be back for limited work in a few days.

At Dallas, SMU's potent Ponies stressed their running game in Monday's workouts.

Passing ace Don Meredith was calling the plays behind the No. 1 line. Alternate deep back units were made up of Billy Polk, Newell McCullum, Frank Jackson, T. W. Wilmon, Mike Hackney and Glenn Gregory. Coach Bill Meek said he planned twice-daily sessions through Saturday.

Texas Coach Darrell Royal, leaving back to re-assess his available talent, moved starting end Maurice Duke in to guard Monday to strengthen a position made weak by injuries.

Three Guards Injured
It was one of four changes made by Royal during the day.

Duke took over the left guard slot because John Seals and H. G. Anderson were sidelined indefinitely last week with injuries. Royal said. A third guard, Bob Harwood, suffered a slight injury early Monday.

In other changes Royal moved left tackle George Blanch from left to right halfback; switched sophomore Bart Shirley from left to left halfback; and shifted sophomore Kay Brockmeyer from right tackle to right guard.

Baylor Coach John Bridgers shuffled his backfield prospects in an effort to find a workable combination for his Sept. 26 opener against Colorado.

Passing Gets Emphasis
Dean Blair, a junior halfback, moved up to the starting unit, while junior quarterback Bill McMillen and Marion Fallwell won assignments on the No. 1 and 2 units, respectively. In all Bridgers has five quarterbacks competing for the Colorado assignment.

"I don't know how long Bill and Marion will stay ahead," he said. "This battle among five quarterback candidates has been a day-to-day thing."

Blair won the starting job largely because of his defensive work. Rice's Ows worked on their passing attack in Monday's drills, and Coach Jess Neely commented that the team had "a long way to go" before they will be in shape for Paul Dietzel's powerful LSU Tigers.

Neely had two players, sophomore tackle Delbert Wilky and

AFTER NEAR RIOT

Six-Man Tag Match Slated

A six-man tag team match will be held here next Monday, wrestling commissioner Doc Miller announced last night after one of the wildest and bloodiest wrestling cards Pampa fans have ever seen.

Miller said that three of the six men on the card would be Ripper Leone, Tough Tony Morelli, and Art Nelson, probably the three meanest and roughest grapplers in the area. Miller also said that there will also be a special mystery attraction between the two main events next week.

Monday night, two of the three "buddies" on next week's card almost caused a full-scale riot, as they used every dirty trick in the book to take victories over popular favorites Dory Funk and Tommy Phelps. The winners, and objects of the fans' ire, were Morelli and Leone.

Morelli won the final event from Funk in two out of three falls, but most of the excitement came after the end of the match.

About a minute deep in the third fall, Funk got a toe-hold on Morelli. But Ripper Leone, winner of the night's first match, moved into the ring illegally and hit Funk in the back of the head.

Morelli took advantage of Leone's treachery to pin Funk with a smother hold, actually a combination of choking and holding Funk's nose.

Funk, enraged by Leone's interference, followed both wrestlers to their dressing room and challenged them to come out and fight. Both came out, but instead of fighting, they hit Funk on the head with chairs.

After that, it took the efforts of police to keep enraged fans from taking on the two big Italians, who are friends outside the ring as well as partners inside (and it's reported each is the only friend the other man has).

As for the almost forgotten first two falls, Funk took the first at 7:02 with a steppover toe-hold, and Morelli copped the second in 14 minutes with his smother hold.

In the opening match of the double main event, veteran Tommy Phelps was savagely beaten by Leone. In the second fall, Leone knocked Phelps out of the ring, then proceeded to kick, stomp, and hit him every time he tried to get back in. Though bleeding profusely from the forehead, he finally made it back into the ring, only to be pinned and lose the match.

Phelps had lost the first fall by disqualification, when Leone pushed the referee at him and Phelps hit the official with a punch he had intended for Leone. There was much hitting, choking, biting, and other illegal rough stuff by both men all through the first fall.

Dawson, a 200-pounder, is currently leading the Frog quarter-back race, but Martin also likes George's talent for signal-calling.

Frank Broyles, Arkansas' youthful coach, moved a Texas man to fullback Monday. He is 190-pound right end Leslie Letsinger of Big Sandy, Tex.

"We put Les in there for defensive purposes and we know he'll suit us fine defensively," Broyles said, but added that the shift may be temporary. Four other fullbacks will alternate for the No. 1 unit while he makes adjustments in his backfield.

Nolan's Return To Help Giants

United Press International
Dick Nolan, an experienced defensive halfback, has returned to the New York Giants and they figure he'll boost their chances of retaining the National Football League's Eastern Division title.

The Giants reacquired Nolan, a former Maryland star with five years of NFL experience, from the Green Bay Packers Monday in a straight cash deal. The amount was not announced.

Nolan played for the Giants from 1954 through 1957. They traded him to the Chicago Cardinals before the 1958 campaign began in return for Lindon Crow, a defensive halfback, and Pat Sumner, a place-kicker. The Cardinals recently sent Nolan to the Packers.

The Packers, who dropped a 14-0 decision to the Giants Saturday night at Bangor, Me., announced that George Dixon of Bridgeport (Conn.) College has been released and that Ray Nitschke of Illinois has rejoined the team. Dixon is a defensive back and Nitschke is a 225-pound linebacker.

Only 2 Have Defended Titles

Massengale, pride of TCU's golf squad, was the first day pace-setter after a blistering 66. He "slipped" to 69, still two under par, on the second day (Sunday) and Pampa's defending champ, Don Prigmore, who had an opening 69 rushed into the clubhouse with a 66 to knott the standings at 135 apiece.

Adams, the eventual winner, was hanging in a three-way tie for fourth with Amarillo's Jim Owens and Borger's Elgie Seamster, five strokes off the lead at 140. Max Hickey of Pampa was third going into Monday's 36-hole grind, with a 139.

Prigmore, the defending champ, had only a few days ago been presented with a new future, champ by his wife. The blessed event appeared to have no effects on the Baylor golfer's game. He was sharp all the way. Only two other golfers had ever successfully defended their Top O' Texas title: Rex Baxter of Amarillo in 1954 and Don Kaplan of Borger in 1956. Prigmore finished third this year, nicking Max Hickey in a one-hole playoff off after the two locals tied with 279's, only 3 shots back.

If your creaky old memory fails, just for the record, Baxter won over Pampa's Grover Austin, 4-3, in 1953; and over Kaplan, 4-3, in 1954. Kaplan won over Pampa's Malcolm Douglas, by 277 to 280 in 1955 and over Prigmore by 274 to 284 in 1956.

Last year, of course, young Prigmore shattered all existing Top O' Texas records when he carded a terrific 17-under-par 267 to win by 11 strokes over Kaplan.

All A Matter Of 'Time-ing'

We picked up one funny story for our files during the 23rd annual Top O' Texas meet.

A meticulous Fifth Flighter spent 15 minutes studying the texture of the grass on one green before making an important putt. Finally he bit his lip thoughtfully and asked his caddy when the grass had last been mowed.

"This morning," the caddy said.

The fussy golfer went back into his putting crouch. Then he looked up again.

"What time this morning?" he asked.

Ode passed on by one of the galleries in yesterday's final Top O' Texas round:

"Here's to the chigger
That's not much bigger
Than the head of a very small pin.

It's the bump that he raises
Hikes like hares
And that's where the rub comes in.

Vic Seixas Pulls Big Upset In Amateur Tennis Tourney

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (UPI)—Veteran Vic Seixas, an "old man" of the courts, who plays only week-end tennis, today sought to follow in the title footsteps of Big Bill Tilden after scoring the biggest upset of the U.S. amateur tennis championships.

Tilden, at 36, was the oldest winner of the Nationals. But Seixas, as the same age showed he might be ready and able—as well as willing—to match that feat when he blasted aside fifth-seeded Ramanathan Krishnan of India Monday.

It was the biggest of three upsets—two seeded foreign women also biting the dusty turf at Forest Hills—as the handsome Philadelphia native scored a smashing 6-3, 6-4, 6-2 victory over the classy Indian whose titles include the U.S. hard court championship.

Bowing out with Krishnan went fifth-seeded Angela Mortimer of England and seventh-seeded Renee Schuurman of South Africa. Sixteen-year-old Karen Hantze of San Diego, protegee of Maureen Connolly, scored over Miss Mortimer, 6-4, 6-4 and Shirley Bloomer Brasher of England eliminated Miss Schuurman, 6-3, 6-4.

Aside from those casualties, the seeded stars moved along as expected. These included Perry's Alex Olmedo, Uncle Sam's Barry MacKay and Butch Buchholz and such foreign threats as Chile's Luis Ayala and Australian Davis Cuppers Neale Fraser, Roy Emerson and Rod Laver.

Maria Bueno, the 19-year-old Wimbledon champion from Sao Paulo, Brazil, who is the favorite to capture the women's crown, edged off Janet Howe of Seattle, 4-6, 6-4, to show the way into the third round.

Tradition Favors Sox, Giants To Win Flags

By TIM MORIARTY United Press International
The Chicago White Sox and San Francisco Giants, frisky front-runners in the major league pennant race, galloped past the Labor Day marker with history and the makings on their side.

In the N.L. the odds against the Dodgers and Braves catching Bill Rigney's sluggers are 5-1. The White Sox maintained the 4 1/2 game lead over Cleveland Monday by downing the Kansas City Athletics twice, 2-1 and 13-7, while the Indians swept their holiday twinnbill with the Detroit Tigers, 15-14 and 6-5. The Washington Senators clubbed the Baltimore Orioles, 8-1, in 10 innings after dropping the opener, 7-0, and the Boston Red Sox whipped the New York Yankees in a single game, 12-4.

Ted Kluzewski had a big hand in both White Sox triumphs. The husky National League castoff singled home a key run in the opening and then drove in five runs with two homers and a sacrifice fly in the nightcap. The Indians won both their games with three-run, ninth-inning rallies. In the opener, Jim Piersall singled home the tying and winning runs off Jim Bunning after dropping the opener, 7-0, and the Boston Red Sox whipped the New York Yankees in a single game, 12-4.

PHS Scores 4 Times In Scrimmage at Perryton

PERRYTON — The Pampa Harvesters and the Perryton Rangers collided here Labor Day and labor-ed through a rugged, two-hour scrimmage. The Harvesters scored four times, Perryton twice. Both of the Rangers' touchdowns came on passes, while Pampa scored all its TD's on runs — two each by Steve Dobbin and Terry Joe Haralson, the fullbacks.

While Curfman felt the Harvesters should have done better against the AA squad, he did think Pampa looked good in many phases of its game, and he praised many of its players. "The linemen were hitting pretty good," he said. "There's one thing you can say for them: they may be outweighed, but they're certainly not afraid to get in there and hit hard."

On the receiving end of the passes, backs Mert Cooper, and Roy Stephens, and ends Charles Warren, Kent Mitchell, and Roy Dyer all snagged their share. Curfman was especially encouraged about the pass-catching of Roy Stephens. "He really looked good," Curfman said. "He's only a junior, but he has a fine pair of hands, and could develop into a really fine receiver."

Pan-Am Games Were Failure As Olympic Testing Ground

CHICAGO (UPI) — The third Pan American Games turned out to be an overwhelming triumph for the United States, but didn't turn out to be much of a testing ground for its 1960 Olympic chances. Piling up 121 gold medals of the 344 up for decision, the U.S. crushed the opposition from 23 other nations from the Western Hemisphere in the games which closed Monday. It wasn't as glittering a triumph as the final count indicated.

It was the only gold medal decided on the final day—and by winning it the U.S. finished as it started—a victor. That was back on Friday, Aug. 28 when Albert Hall of Southington, Conn., won the hammer throw, hours after it was over because of one of the many disputes which marked the games. The U.S. final victory came easily. It had wrapped up the Grand Prix before its final rider got on his horse.

Only one other team received serious consideration (100 points or more) as a rival to Wichita Falls in AAAA Perennial contender Abilene got the three first-place ballots Wichita Falls missed (91 points). San Antonio Jefferson (89), Corpus Christi Ray (84) and Port Arthur (70). From there the points dropped to 33 for Waco in the No. 7 spot, 23 for Dallas, South Oak Cliff, 23 for Amarillo, Tascosa and 22 for Baytown.

WICHITA FALLS RATED TOPS AMONG 4A TEAMS

DALLAS (UPI) — There is practically no disagreement among the 22 coaches making up the United Press International's Texas High School Football Ratings boards as to the No. 1 Class AAAA and AAA teams in the state. Defending champions Wichita Falls and Breckenridge monopolized the first-place votes on each 16-member board as the UPI polled the coaches on their pre-season thoughts.

There was a 32-point gap between Sweetwater's third-place total and the 66 earned by Nederland, one of four closely-bunched contenders. Andrews got 63 points, Levelland 60 and Kingsville 58. Rounding out the top-10 were...

Several of the top-tenners were in that select group at the close of last season when Abilene and Breckenridge were voted the No. 1 teams. Wichita Falls was ranked No. 2, Highland Park No. 3, San Antonio Jefferson No. 4 and Waco No. 8. Sweetwater was No. 2 in AAA, Levelland No. 4, Cleburne No. 5, Nacogdoches No. 6, McKinney No. 8 and Nederland No. 9.

Wins Horse Event Charles McCaffree, coach of the U.S. men's swimming team summed it up when he said: "There was so little real competition that I had a terrific time keeping our boys in top shape. Sure, we set a lot of records, but we're still behind the Japanese and Australians."

That's how it was all along. When it was all over in Soldier Field, before a crowd of 50,000 on a sweltering day, Mayor Richard J. Daley officially proclaimed the games ended. In addition to its 121 gold medals, the U.S. picked up 73 silver (second place) medals and 32 bronze (third place) medals. Argentina with nine gold medals was next in line.

But, on the heels of a "give-away" defeat which brought official wrath down on his head for acting like an amateur in the U.S. clay court championships, he blew a singles match and the doubles as Australia regained the Davis Cup. There was an evident feeling that he should be voted against a wall and shot.

Vega, Texas, Man Reports— 42-bushel Average on 165 Acres of Wheat
Kenneth Robinson, successful young West Texas farmer, says: "I have been using Phillips 66 Ammonia for three years on wheat, and for that period my average is 42 bushels per acre. I've watched these yields carefully, checking each year's yield against the amount of ammonia applied. I'm raising my rate of application from 65 pounds to 100 pounds of Phillips 66 Ammonia on my wheat, in order to further increase my yields." "My grain sorghum has responded profitably to Phillips 66 Ammonia, too. Last year, my yield average was 4,800 pounds per acre, with one field running 6,000 pounds."
