But Most Merchants Won't Sell Them

Cranberry Rhubarb May Be Plain Old Applesauce

By MARVIN OLSEN
Daily News Staff Writer

Despite a cranberry industry statement Wednesday that "people could eat tons of this stuff" without being harmed by it, Pampa shoppers are apparently finding substitutes for cranberry sauce.

Most city supermarkets have piled cranberries, both fresh and canned, off their shelves.

"We won't sell a thing," Ideal manager Hugh Peoples said this morning, "until this silly thing is cleared up. Most people are scared to death."

Cranberries were taken off the shelves Wednesday at Furr's Market, 1420 N. Hobart, and at the city's three Ideal stores.

Furr's, in their advertising today, announced: "In the interest of our customers: Although Furr's has knowledge that its cranberry supplies come from a supposedly safe area, the management has decided that all fresh and canned products be taken from the shelves."

Earl Barnett, manager at Furr's, said a shipment of fresh cranberries was received Monday, but it was sent back to the warehouse. He added his doubts that the store could have sold cranberries even if they had been for sale.

CRANBERRIES, ANYONE? — IGA Foodliner Manager Elmer Fisher is in the same predicament as most Pampa grocers: they have cranberries for sale but few buyers. "People think there is no sense taking a chance. We might as well use apples with turkeys," Fisher said. Most stores are stocking cranberries, and like the sign says, their "cranberries come from Wisconsin."

Contamination Report Coming

CHICAGO (UPI) — Arthur S. Flemming, secretary of health, education and welfare, expects to have a report late next week on possible contamination of cranberry crops in six states.

Flemming told a news conference Wednesday night his inspectors should complete their reports on crops in Washington, Oregon, Michigan, Massachusetts, Wisconsin and New Jersey by Nov. 21.

This would allow housewives five days to buy cranberries in time for the Thanksgiving holiday Nov. 26.

Flemming also defended his statement Monday in which he warned that a portion of the cranberry crop in Washington and Oregon had been contaminated by a weed-killer that caused cancer in rats.

It Tuesday that it believes its cranberries are "perfectly safe." "The only cranberries in question were from a small section of Washington and Oregon. All berries in this market have been shipped from Wisconsin."

Comments from other stores in the Pampa area were:

Buddy's Market, 318 N. Cuyler—Manager Albert Thompson reports the store has cranberries for sale, "but no one is buying any."

Thompson said the cranberry scare is "just a lot of hokum and a little misleading." Buddy's has both fresh and canned cranberries for sale.

Fyle's Market, 1333 N. Hobart—Owner Elmer Fite said his store sold 35 cases of cranberries during a promotion the past two weeks. He has both fresh and canned berries for sale.

Fite said "it's a shame to give those cranberry boys a hard time since most cranberries are from Wisconsin and the east anyway."

Ideal No. 1—Manager Hugh Peoples said all Ideal stores are pulling their cranberries off the market. "I'm going to have some with my turkey," he added. "I think they're all right." Peoples said cranberries "aren't" selling very good, and won't until the government takes steps to clear up the situation.

IGA — "All the cranberries we have at present are from Wisconsin," Manager Elmer Fisher said. "But you can forget about the cranberry business. People figure there is no sense taking a chance. We might as well use apples with our turkeys."

END ITALY VISIT
ROME (UPI) — Greek Premier Constantine Karamanlis and Foreign Minister Evangelos Averoff ended an official three-day visit to Italy Wednesday night and agreed to increase economic and technical cooperation between the two countries.

Overcome By Fumes In Church

DALLAS (UPI) — Twenty-five persons were overcome by carbon monoxide poisoning while attending prayer meeting at the Hillcrest Baptist Church Wednesday night.

Twenty three of the 25 were released after treatment at hospitals. Two others, Mrs. J. D. Crow, 21, and Mrs. W. W. Airhart, 29, remained hospitalized today but were in satisfactory condition.

Dallas Health Department officials checked the church and said they found evidence of carbon monoxide still in the building.

A janitor, not identified, said the church had been having difficulty with a burner in the central heating system, but it had been repaired.

A fire department spokesman said the poisoning was probably caused by improper ventilation of a burner in the central heating system, which was in operation.

Man Slays Wife, Children With Hammer

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (UPI) — Authorities sought today to determine why a talented and well-educated father would calmly crush the heads of his wife and two children with a sledge hammer — and then take his own life.

The tragedy was discovered late Wednesday by a 12-year-old neighbor girl, Patricia McCraig, who went to the home of the victims to feed their hungry pets.

Police identified the dead as Charles Richard Gardner, 38, his wife, Betty, also 38, and their children, Randy Lee, 12, and Diane, 8.

Investigating officers said Gardner apparently went to the rooms of each of the three while they were sleeping Tuesday night and killed them with a single blow of a two-pound sledge hammer.

There was no indication that any of the victims was awakened. All were clad in their night clothes. The two children were clutching teddy bears.

Gardner was found shot to death, with a .45 caliber pistol at his side.

Police said effects found in the house showed that Gardner was educated at Whittier College and Woodbury Business College, and the University of Southern California.

He was a founder of Junior Toastmasters of America and did political writing in Washington in 1952.

Police found a manuscript which Gardner had written on the life of Richard Nixon, together with a letter of appreciation from the vice president.

They also found the only clue to the motive for the triple murder and suicide. Some family correspondence indicated that Gardner suffered from severe headaches.

Mrs. Concetta Giaretta, 41, was blasted by a hand grenade as she opened the garage door for her husband, Frank, 50. She took the full force of the blast and apparently shielded him from injury.

Union Check In Labor Act

Changes In Taft-Hartley Law Go Into Effect Friday

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Six major changes in U.S. labor law sharply curtailing union's rights to picket and conduct boycotts against employers go into effect Friday.

Attorneys for organized labor, business groups and government agencies differ widely on the precise impact of the changes in the Taft-Hartley Act.

But they do agree that it will be years before the courts and administrative rulings spell out exactly what a union can and cannot do under the new statute.

The new amendments occupy less than five printed pages but seldom has legislation packed so many apparently close and difficult questions into such a small amount of type.

One member of the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) said recently. Unions did win some concessions in the new law they have generally condemned as anti-labor. The building trades will benefit by revisions to permit greater union control over hiring. All unions won a point in another section authorizing discharged strikers to vote in representation elections within limits.

But most of the changes appear certain to hamper union activity. The major revisions include:

—Abolition of the so-called "no-man's land" by allowing state courts and agencies to handle labor-management disputes where the NLRB declines to assert jurisdiction.

—Broadening the present ban on secondary boycotts and outlawing "hot cargo" clauses whereby an employer agrees to stop doing business with another firm having union troubles.

—Banning picketing for recognition or in organizing drives at plants by unions not certified as bargaining agents for the workers, except under limited conditions.

—Permitting unions in the garment and construction industries to protect union standards by making contracts which restrict subcontracting despite the general ban on secondary boycotts.

—Giving replaced economic strikers the right to vote in NLRB elections if they are held within one year after the strike began.

—Allowing pre-hire contracts, hiring halls and agreements providing a worker must join a union within a week after he's hired in the construction industry.

Fidel To Answer Charges

U.S. May Learn How Relations Are With Cuba

HAVANA, Cuba (UPI) — Premier Fidel Castro makes another of his marathon television speeches tonight and was reported ready to answer U.S. charges that he is deliberately leading Cuba away from its traditional friendship with America.

It will be his first speech since Oct. 28 when he told a crowd of 250,000 before the presidential palace that the United States was guilty of "shameless neglect" in permitting Miami-based planes to "bomb and machinegun" Havana.

The next day U.S. Ambassador Philip Bonsal presented a diplomatic memorandum to President Osvaldo Dorticos asking the revolutionary government to "earnly review its position in order that traditional friendship of the two countries might be restored before further damage is done."

Dorticos said he "categorically rejected" parts of the note but would study others. Neither that U.S. note nor another of Monday has been answered.

The U.S. statement Monday described as "inaccurate, misleading and malicious" a pamphlet issued by Cuba's State Department on the recent "bombing" of Havana. The U.S. position is that only pamphlets were dropped and that casualties were caused by anti-aircraft fire.

Chemist Declares Berries Not Harmful To Humans

By BART KINCH
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — The chemist whose laboratory experiments disclosed that a weed killer used on some cranberry crops produced cancer in rats said Wednesday night the tainted berries were not dangerous to humans.

Dr. Boyd Shaffer, a toxicologist for the American Cyanamid Co., said his experiments with aminotriazole produced cancer in rats only after "continued administration" over the lifetime of the rats at a relatively high dosage.

He said similar experiments with dogs produced no cancer. "If you ask me whether the very small amount of residue presented in the tainted cranberries is dangerous to people, I steadfastly maintain the answer is no," he said.

Shaffer said a human "would have to eat 15,000 pounds of cranberries a day for many years" before he would suffer any ill effect from consumption of the chemical residue.

The McGraw-Hill Chemical Week in an editorial prepared for the Nov. 28 issue supported Shaffer's view.

The magazine said a person would have to eat large amounts of the berries every day for more than 20 years to reach the feeding-test levels at which the weed killer first proved harmful.

"And nobody, but nobody, eats that many cranberries," Chemical Week added.

Professor Robert D. Sweet of Cornell University also debunked reports that the tainted berries might be dangerous to humans.

"As far as the danger is concerned," Sweet said, "I would rather take my chances with (See CHEMIST, Page 6)

Farm Bureau Vetoes Sales Tax To Finance Education

By BART KINCH
United Press International

SAN ANTONIO (UPI) — The Texas Farm Bureau has gone on record as opposing a consumers' sales tax to finance education. The Texas farmers turned down a similar resolution last year.

The action came Wednesday at the concluding session of the TFB's annual convention.

The 728 voting delegates, largest number ever to attend the convention, also went on record opposing direct production payments in agriculture.

The consumer sales tax failed to carry by a vote of 550 to 165. U. E. Ray, of San Patricio county, was one of those favoring a sales tax. He argued that farm people pay taxes on their home, equipment and land while laboring groups enjoy educational facilities without paying taxes to support them.

W. A. Jones, of Zavala county, also urged that the tax would put a "fair share of the tax load" on all people.

Army Wife Is Slasher Victim

LAWTON, Okla. (UPI) — Local officers and Army criminal investigators searched today for clues of the killer who slashed the throat of an Army captain's young wife and left her two small children to suffer for 25 hours in an unheated house.

The victim was Mrs. Lewis J. Romero, wife of a Fort Sill, Okla. captain who has been in special Nike anti-aircraft training at Fort Bliss, Tex.

The body of Mrs. Romero, a slender, attractive woman, was found lying on the floor in a downstairs bedroom in the couple's frame house in one of Lawton's nicer residential sections.

Her 27-month-old son was found lying on the bed, where he had apparently crawled, and a six-month-old son was upstairs in his crib. Both were rushed to the Fort Sill hospital where they were treated for exposure. The conditions of both were described as good.

Detective Capt. Cleo Stout said Mrs. Romero had been dead since about 12:30 a.m. Tuesday. Her body was found at 11:40 a.m. Wednesday by neighbors who became disturbed when they saw no activity around the house.

Stout said the front door had been smashed open and was left ajar. There was no heat in the house.

State Rep. Bill Pieratt, of Lee county, opposed the tax and said it was "class legislation." And Ed Hornbeck, of Deatur, Wisconsin, pointed out that farmers are among the large producers of goods in Texas and therefore would pay a greater share of sales taxes.

'Booby Trap' Victim Dies

NEW YORK (UPI) — A Staten Island housewife without "an enemy in the world" died today, her legs blown off and her body riddled with shrapnel from a booby-trap explosion Tuesday night.

Mrs. Concetta Giaretta, 41, was blasted by a hand grenade as she opened the garage door for her husband, Frank, 50. She took the full force of the blast and apparently shielded him from injury.

Police found a manuscript which Gardner had written on the life of Richard Nixon, together with a letter of appreciation from the vice president.

They also found the only clue to the motive for the triple murder and suicide. Some family correspondence indicated that Gardner suffered from severe headaches.

Spain Cheers Impending Visit Of Ike

MADRID (UPI) — Spaniards today cheered the news of President Eisenhower's impending visit as proof positive that Spain has found acceptance in the Western family of nations.

Not since Generalissimo Francisco Franco held border talks with Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini in 1941 has Spain been approached by a world leader of Eisenhower's stature.

The announcement Wednesday that the President would visit Spain to his itinerary on his December European and Asian tour came as a surprise to Spaniards. But it was a welcome surprise.

"I am most delighted with the news of the Eisenhower visit," Finance Minister Mariano Navarro Rubio told United Press International.

"I am sure the Spanish people will offer him the warm welcome to which he is entitled," he added.

Only in the past few years, partly due to Spain's unswerving anti-Communism and the aid of the United States, has Spain begun to return to the inner circle of Western nations.

Future Of Films Depends On Super Colossal' Productions

HOLLYWOOD
By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — King Vidor, who has the distinction of having refused to direct "Ben-Hur," says the future of motion pictures lies in the multi-million-dollar super-colossal if films are to survive at all.

Vidor's paradoxical point of view stems from his own particular objection to the "Ben-Hur" script. He first rejected the picture in 1924, and again two years ago in the modern version.

"My reasons were personal," he said, "and I'd rather not discuss them. I think it will be a very fine film."

"It is exactly the type of movie that must be made to combat television. We have to produce movies that are spectacles, entertainment that cannot possibly be seen on television."

To entice viewers from the hearthside, Vidor prescribes wide-screen color epics filled with masses of people and spectacular scenery.

His own newest picture, "Solomon and Sheba," fits the description.

Costing six million dollars, the epic is made in "Super Technirama-70," a new large-screen process that dwarfs present big-screen operations.

"The 'drama' movie is a thing of the past," Vidor went on. "The cost of going out to a theater has made movie-going a special event that must be planned in advance. It usually means dinner out, a baby sitter and a group of friends."

"There are so many old and wonderful films on TV, people won't go out to see new ones," Vidor pointed out spectacles are as old as movies.

"D. W. Griffith began the epic film with 'Birth of a Nation.' Cecil B. DeMille carried on the tradition of giving motion pictures the symphonic treatment—themes and movements within the scope of a story."

"I never want to make a picture with only two or three people up on the big screen. You must fill it with thousands of performers and action."

In support of his thesis, Vidor said the biggest box office hits in history were jumbo productions—"Gone With the Wind," "Ten Commandments," "The Robe," "Duel in the Sun," "Covered Wagon" and "The Big Parade."

"Once it was possible to fill the big screen in Hollywood," he said. "Not now. You must go on location to be able to afford the extras. And shoot at actual sites. It is too expensive to reproduce them in Hollywood." The demands of TV and movies are absolutely different," he concluded. "And movie-makers must discover this before it is too late."

LIFE SPAN DOUBLED

MOSCOW (UPI) — The average Russian's life expectancy has more than doubled since the Communists took over, according to an article by minister of Health Nikolai Vinogradov.

Food Writers Find Substitutes For Traditional Turkey Relish

By BARBARA BUNDSCHU United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — The nation's food writers wailed briefly at the thought there might not be a cranberry for every Thanksgiving turkey, and then perked up. "Here are substitutes for the tart and brilliant traditional turkey relish."

"Swedish lingonberries would be wonderful," said Ann Seranne, former editor of Gourmet Magazine, "if you can get them."

"A lot of people love to have sauerkraut with turkey," said Katherine Pinkerton, author of "Cooking Afloat."

"But isn't it tragic. My family loves cranberry — whole berry jelly."

"Spiced peaches, plums, nectarines, any spiced or pickled fruit," suggested Claude C. Philippe, long of the Waldorf, now executive consultant to the Zerkendorf Hotels Corp.

Most had second thoughts as well.

"I should think sour cherries would make a wonderful relish, and good color, too," said Miss Seranne. "It might be fun to candy them. Cook very slowly in syrup for a couple of hours."

"Or poach apple slices in syrup with vanilla. You could add some cinnamon candy for color."

Mrs. Pinkerton liked lingonberries, too, or pineapple.

"People who like that raw cranberry relish put through the grinder could substitute pineapple and add mandarin oranges and a little ginger," she suggested.

"Out in Canada and Minnesota there's a wild high-bush cranberry that's perfectly magnificent," Mrs. Pinkerton said. "I don't know if there are any on the market, but I'd rather have that than anything."

"Or what about wild gooseberry jam? That has a tang."

"Or currants. Maybe that's the best of all. I think maybe I'd just go buy the very best currant jelly I could buy and let it go at that."

Early American Apples Garnish Golden Bird

Our national day of Thanksgiving finds grateful families gathered together to share a bountiful table. Tradition plays an important part in the holiday. There's a church in the morning followed by a family feast which centers around a plump juicy turkey roasted to a golden brown.

Turkey roasting these days is as simple as transferring a frozen turkey which was purchased already stuffed, from the freezer to the oven. Directions and suggested time schedule are printed on the wrapper. The frozen ready-to-stuff bird, selected by the home-maker who has a treasured stuffing recipe is also cleaned, pin-feathered and has the major leg tendons removed.

In both the ready-to-stuff and the already stuffed turkeys bearing a well-known brand name, the drumsticks are tucked into a slit of skin at the base of the breastbone. This eliminates the need for trussing and provides easy access to the body cavity for the drumsticks slip in and out of the tuck with ease. The drumsticks held close to the body remain juicy during roasting and make a more attractive appearance too.

1/4 teaspoon rubbed sage
1/2 pound pork sausage meat
1 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon peel

Combine sugar, water, allspice, and 1/2 teaspoon sage in a small saucepan. Bring to a boil and heat 10 minutes.

Wash and core apples. From stem end, pare half of the skin from the apples. Place apples in a glass baking dish and pour sugar syrup over the top. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 35 to 40 minutes or until apples are

American Version Of Egg Nog Pancake As Spectacular As Crepe Suzettes

Say, have you ever served pancakes for dessert? The French love them, as you know. Crepe Suzette are probably the most spectacular of their pancake desserts.

Although we American cooks consider them primarily as a breakfast dish, gradually we are learning of the enormous versatility of the pancake. And so, now we often see them served for luncheon or dinner.

Here is a recipe for an American dessert pancake which is just as spectacular as the French version. The little cakes are prepared with dairy egg nog which makes them especially tender and light.

Most of us know dairy egg nog as a holiday convenience food that helps us keep our punch bowls filled. However, the commercial egg nog which dairies make nowadays is a highly nutritious food which is excellent for cooking purposes.

But let me give you this dessert pancake recipe which Beatrice Cooke of Meadow Gold developed for us. The batter calls for only five ingredients.

Combine two beaten eggs (and one and one-fourth cups of egg nog.

Now sift together one cup of sifted flour, one-fourth teaspoon of salt and one-fourth teaspoon of nutmeg. Add the flour mixture to the egg nog mixture. Beat with a rotary beater until smooth. The batter should be thin.

Use two tablespoons of batter for each pancake. Bake the cakes in a lightly buttered hot, 2-inch fry pan or on a hot griddle. Bake until tops appear dry; then turn and brown on the other side.

RETAIL SALES UP

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A surge in new car buying in October caused the first increase in retail sales across the nation in three months, the Commerce Department said Tuesday.

Retail sales of all goods last month totaled $19,024,000,000, up 2.7 per cent from September and 7.8 per cent from a year ago, the department said. New car purchases jumped 17 per cent.

Landis was appointed the first so-called " czar " of baseball. In 1927, Joseph Stalin became the undisputed dictator of Russia's Communist Party with the expulsion of one of the party's founders, Leon Trotsky.

In 1941, stiff Russian resistance stopped the march of Nazi soldiers at the outskirts of Moscow.

In 1948, an 11-nation tribunal in Japan sentenced former Premier Tojo to death by hanging.

A thought for today: American man of letters Ralph Waldo Emerson said: "Every hero becomes a bore at last."

Boys Chained to Floor at ID School

LONDON, N. J. (UPI) — A state official declared an earlier hearing would be held into charges four unclad teen-agers were chained to the floor of North Dakota Training School.

Board of Administration, Herman Joos, chairman of the Board of Administration, an earlier hearing held this week was inconclusive since the school's superintendent, Thomas use, did not testify.

Joos said the four youths, ranging from 14 to 16 years old, were chained in one room without furniture and only a pair of sanitary napkins because they had escaped from the institution several times.

Joos said the boys were ordered chained by Crouse during a riot when carpenters were repairing wire mesh screening on windows of their room.

They were left without clothes during the night, Joos said, but during the day were given bathing privileges and taken to the canteen to eat.

It was not disclosed how long punishment continued.

Late Sen. Ralph Ericstad said and several other lawmakers argued about the incident through confidential sources and led for the investigation.

"This type of treatment has no rehabilitative effect," he said. Ericstad said Crouse was offered an opportunity to testify before the board but that he preferred to have legal counsel before making any statement for the record.

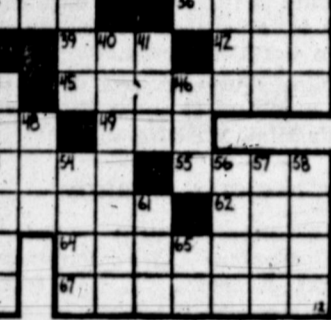

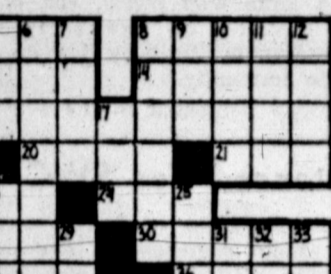

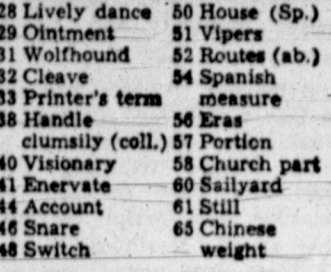

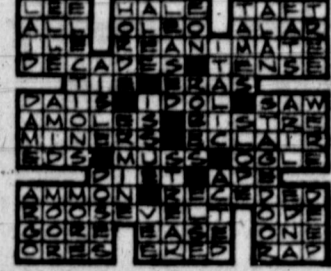

NOTES UNCHANGED

LONDON (UPI) — Some people watch television operations for "same motives that draw people to a bullfight or, in earlier days (drew them) to a pub hanging," the magazine media press said today.

Theft Suspects To Face Court

Gary Granthill, 17, and William Garnett Morse, 18, were charged by police this morning with theft over $50 after they admitted taking two watches Monday from Willie's Stores, 109 S. Cuyler.

Granthill, 704 1/2 N. Somerville, and Morse, 400 Hughes, said they took the watches from a glass showcase while a clerk thought they were examining a display of guns. The two Pampa youths are expected to be brought into county court later today.

Leaving Accident Scene Charged

A rural Pampa motorist involved in a car-trailer collision early Tuesday morning was arrested by Pampa police this morning for leaving the scene of an accident and driving on the left.

Mrs. Gaylon Lard Simpson, Rt. 1, was charged by police with ramming a parked trailer in front of the J. I. Deaton home, 1332 Terrace about 2:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Police said Mrs. Simpson's car went out of control on a curve, hit the trailer and then traveled into a hedge near the Marvin Harris home, 1329 Terrace. Mrs. Simpson was thrown from her 1959 Austin and suffered minor cuts.

Damages to the car, trailer and hedge totaled $410.

Diplomat's Son Claims Immunity After Accident

WASHINGTON (UPI) — An automobile driven by the son of Ireland's ambassador struck and killed a pedestrian Wednesday night but the youth invoked his diplomatic immunity and police set him free.

Young Hearne has been in repeated jams with police. But on each occasion he has escaped punishment by invoking his diplomatic immunity.

50 Upland Cotton Quota And Acreage Allotment Set

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson, Oct. 14 proclaimed a national marketing quota for upland cotton of 13,133,000 bales (standard bales of 500 pounds gross weight) and a national acreage allotment of 16 million acres for the 1960 crop of upland cotton.

Dec. 15 was set as the date for referendum on 1960 upland cotton marketing quotas, which must be approved by at least two-thirds of the upland cotton farmers voting if the quotas are to be effective.

The Secretary also proclaimed a determination that alternative choice (B) — farm allotments for 1960 crop of upland cotton will be 40 percent larger than the "regular" Choice (A) allotments on the same farms.

This determination is made under Section 101 of the Agricultural Act of 1938, which authorized the Secretary of Agriculture to increase regular upland cotton farm acreage allotments for 1959 and 1960 by "not to exceed 40 percent" for those operators who elect choice (B) under the cotton allotment program. The 40 percent increase in upland cotton acreage allotted for 1960 — providing marketing quotas are in effect for a crop — is the same as was in effect in 1959.

The national acreage allotment for 1960 has been set at the level required under Section 342 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and the national marketing quotas have been set at the number of bales required to provide an acreage allotment of 16 million acres.

Under the second provision, the national marketing quota for the 1960 crop of upland cotton has been determined to be 13,133,000 bales (500 pounds gross weight).

The national acreage allotment for the 1960-crop upland cotton will be apportioned to States, the State allotments to counties, and the county allotment to farms according to provisions of law.

In 1960, if marketing quotas are approved in the December 15 referendum, each farmer operator as in 1959 — will have an opportunity to choose the kind of allotment-price support program he will comply with — Choice (A) or Choice (B).

Choice (A) includes "regular" farm allotments, with price support available to growers who comply with their regular allotments at not less than 75 percent of parity.

Choice (B) includes 40-percent larger farm allotments and price support to growers who comply with their Choice (B) allotments at 15 percent of parity less than under Choice (A).

Individual farm allotments under both Choice (A) and Choice (B) will be made available to producers prior to the referendum.

If marketing quotas are not in effect for the 1960 upland cotton crop, only the "regular" allotment program will be in effect, and price support will be available to cooperators at 50 percent of parity, as provided by law.

Under the 1960 quota program, growers who exceed their chosen farm allotments will be subject to penalties of 5 percent of the cotton parity price as of June 15, 1960 on the farm's excess production of the crop. In addition, none of the upland cotton produced on the farm will be eligible for price support.

Marketing quotas are in effect for the 1960 crop of upland cotton, having been approved by 92.2 percent of the growers voting in a referendum on Dec. 15, 1958.

DEAR ABBY....

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am an old woman who is married to an old man with young ideas. He is 73 and has three women on the string. He went to a doctor and the doctor said he had the constitution of a horse. He has his sweethearts in the girl next door. She is 50 and has no brains.

We have children and grandchildren and I am too old to start over. How old does a man have to be before he is too old to be wicker? I am tired of waiting for him to settle down.

DEAR ABBY: I am at Fort Leonard Wood taking my basic training. As if that weren't bad enough, I have an aunt who keeps giving my address to strangers. She does this because she thinks I am lonely. I am NOT lonely. They get us up at 5:00 a.m. and by the end of the day I am so tired I have all I can do to get my shoes off and hit the sack. I know it's rude to ignore letters written by people who want to "cheer up" a serviceman. But, Abby, I don't even know these people and I haven't the time to correspond with them. How can I get my aunt to quit digging up "pen pals" for me without hurting her feelings?

DEAR BEAT: Where did you get the time to write to me? Dash off a "thank you" post card and tell them you'll write when you have more time. Save those addresses, Buster. You might find yourself on the Isle of NOTHINGSVILLE, and a letter will look awfully good to you.

DEAR ABBY: I went out with a guy last Saturday night. He is 18 and I am 16. My mother says she doesn't want me going out with him any more. She has never met him, but she says he can't be much good because she knows his family and they are no good.

When this guy took me out, he was very polite and didn't try any funny stuff. In fact, he acted a lot nicer than some boys I know who come from better families. My mother won't listen to me. She won't even meet this fellow. Don't you think she is being unfair to judge him by his family's reputation?

DEAR STUMPED: It is unfair to judge a person on anything other than his own conduct and record. But no mother can be blamed for trying to keep her daughter away from a boy whose family has a bad reputation. With two strikes against him, this boy will along with your mother's decision have to work doubly hard to establish himself as a solid citizen. Go along with your mother's decision (prejudiced as it is) until the lad proves by his own achievements that a rose can bloom in an onion patch.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MRS. J. O'B.: One of the hardest things in the world to teach a child is that "Truth is more important than the consequences."

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY, care of this paper. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Mrs. Joe M. Daniels Jr. reported that 209 pies have been donated by mothers.

Signs will be ready to help visitors identify food and tables, according to Mrs. Gene Barber, table chairman.

Mrs. C. R. Howard reported that the menu will consist of ham, sweet potatoes, green beans, cole slaw, or sliced turkey, dressing, green beans and will be served with a choice of milk or coffee and pie. Ticket prices at $1; adults; students 75 cents; and pre-school, 50 cents.

Mrs. John M. Dodson reported that posters were made by her committee and announcements have been given to the local paper, radio stations and KFDD television in Amarillo.

An invitation is extended by the board to attend the pre-Thanksgiving Dinner and to tour the new school.

Berlin Commander In Precarious Spot

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following memo was written by a newsman who has covered Berlin since four-power occupation began in 1945. He saw growing East-West friction, the blockade, the airlift, West Berlin reconstruction and the East-West struggle for the city. He has known five Berlin commanders. The memo is to the sixth, Maj. Gen. Ralph M. Osborne.

By JOSEPH B. FLEMING
—United Press International

BERLIN (UPI) — Memo to new American commandant: You have 4,000 American troops and 100 State Department diplomats isolated 110 miles deep in Communist territory.

You are surrounded by 30 Soviet divisions of more than 300,000 men. If war breaks out your position is untenable. You will not be relieved. You will be expected to fight courageously to the end as American soldiers did at Bataan with the hope of eventual victory. You might not live to see that victory.

It is a grim thought. The 7,000 American Army wives and children—"dependents" in Army jargon—will share your fate.

You are coming to Berlin at the most critical time the city has seen since the Soviets cut all land routes to the city in 1948 and began the one-year Berlin blockade.

An Anglo-American airlift beat that blockade but the future is uncertain.

The situation is fairly quiet now. Things have calmed down since the Berlin crisis began just one year ago with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev's demand that your troops and the 7,000 British and French troops get out of the city.

He said the Western Allies must end their occupation of West Berlin and make it what he called a "free, demilitarized city."

The West saw this proposal as a Soviet plot to get the West out so they could swallow the city and make it a part of the "German Democratic Republic"—the surrounding Soviet Zone of Germany.

The United States, Britain and France rejected Khrushchev's free city proposal and said they would fight to hold West Berlin.

You are coming here to make good that pledge, if necessary. Khrushchev's proposal and the Western rejection of it led to talks at Geneva of the Big Four foreign ministers. The conference ended in a deadlock.

But the Soviets made no move to take over the Western sectors because it was agreed that the world's top men, President Eisenhower, Khrushchev, the British and French leaders would meet at a so-called summit conference to try and settle the East-West clash that has raged since World War II ended.

No one knows what will happen at that conference. Perhaps agreement will be reached and your stay here will be as peaceful as your tour of duty was in 1955 at Ft. Bragg, N.C., where you commanded airborne artillery.

But Berlin is marking time. The city has been given what

Harvesters Clash With Plainview Friday

Powell to Fight Tonight; Twenty Bouts Scheduled

The biggest fight card of the season is under way tonight at 7:30 p.m. at Pampa Optimist Boys Club. About 20 fights will be scheduled, most of them featuring boys of high school age or above.

Larry Foster of Borger, Bob Bailey of Amarillo, and Ben White of Lefors will each bring over a number of fighters, for tonight's bouts. Most of them will be high school boys.

Match maker Oran James said that despite the full card of fights, every effort will be made to end the night's bouts by 10 p.m. He said that little time will be taken between fights, and that Optimist Club members will help "speed things up" by having each fighter ready on time.

Only a few fights have been scheduled, so far, since it will be impossible to match Amarillo's fighters until they arrive tonight. However, three feature bouts have been carded, all of them pitting Pampa boxers against Borger fighters.

In the top bout of the night,

Pampa's Kenny Powell will go against Borger's Charles Moore in a bantamweight scrap featuring two sluggers. Powell is one of Pampa's most highly regarded scrappers, while Moore is defending district champion of both the Borger and Pampa district tournaments.

In another top bout, Pampa's Rabbit Ramirez will continue his comeback attempt against a Borger fighter with a famous boxing name — Joe Johansson. Although no relation to the heavyweight champion, Johansson was good enough to take runnerup honors at last year's regional tournament. This will be a lightweight match.

The third feature bout will pit lightweight Ronnie Morgan of Pampa against Doc Wilkerson of Borger. Morgan, who was New Mexico high school champion before returning to Pampa, has made a slow start this year. However, Pampa coaches say that he is beginning to "find the range" and is but a hair's-breadth from his first few bouts.

Jerry Lane of Lefors will fight a top Amarillo pee-wee biffer in tonight's best pee-wee attraction. Lane is described by match maker James as "the hardest hitting beginner, for his weight, of any boy that I have ever seen."

Admission prices for tonight's fights are 75 cents for adults, 50 cents for students, and 25 cents for children under 12.

Red Griggs
the pipeline

The Plainview Bulldogs, according to official District 3-4A statistics, have a better offense than the Harvesters, but a poorer defense.

In total offense, the Bulldogs are fifth in the district, with a 234 yards per game average. Pampa is a distant sixth with 184 yards. In total defense, however, Pampa is in third place, with an average yield of 186.6 yards, and Pampa is seventh with an average yield of 270.8 yards.

Plainview leads Pampa in rushing, with an average of 210, compared to Pampa's 154, but trails in passing, 30.2 to 25.8. Pampa continues to lead the district in pass defense, with a 16.4 average, while second place Palo Duro has yielded 36.6 yards per game through the air. Plainview ranks seventh in pass defense, yielding 58.4 yards per game.

Jimmy Carter and Eddie Clark, Plainview's tailbacks, are versatile players. Carter is fourth in total offense, with 420 yards; fifth in rushing, with 331 yards; seventh in passing with 119 yards; ninth in kicking, with 30.4 average, and fourth in scoring, with 24 points. Clark is eighth in total offense, with 331 yards, and sixth in rushing, with 300 yards.

The only Pampans ranking in the top ten in any individual statistics are Ronnie Smith, third in punting with a 32.2 yard average, and Bobby Stephens, ninth in passing with six completions on 17 tries for 76 yards. Geary Taylor of Tascosa and Ricky Nix of Palo Duro are tied for the punting lead, with averages of 34.1 yards.

Dawson Leading Buff Attack

Pampa fans may remember (to their sorrow) Borger's Jim Dawson. He was the quarterback who engineered the worst defeat in Pampa's history last year.

Dawson, only a freshman, is now dealing misery to opponents of the West Texas State Buffaloes. Dawson engineered all three of the Buffs' touchdown drives last week in a narrow 28-21 loss to Virginia Tech. He connected on four of eight passes for 59 yards and one touchdown. The Buff offense, under the Borger player, was considered to be at its highest point of the season.

West Texas plays Trinity this week. Trinity has won two of eight games. West Texas one of eight. Clark Jarnigan, Buff coach, reports no new injuries, and says that his team will be in pretty good physical shape for the game.

Skiers may be interested in a recently issued booklet, "The Colorado Ski Manual." It gives complete information on skiing and other winter sports in Colorado, including such things as accommodations at ski resorts. It can be obtained by writing: the Colorado Ski Information Center, 225 West Colfax Ave., Denver 2, Colo.

Ronnie Rice of Lefors is fifth on the Texas Tech team in rushing and fifth in pass receiving, according to official Red Raider statistics. He has made 81 yards in 20 carries, and has caught five passes for 22 yards. He is also number two man in kickoff returns, with four for 79 yards.

When the NCAA Rules Committee widened the goal posts last January, the idea was to encourage field goal kicking. The rule change was certainly successful in its objective, because more field goals are being kicked than ever before.

The nation's leading field goal kicker is a tackle, Karl Holzwarth of Wisconsin. He tied the modern major-college record last Saturday, when he kicked his sixth field goal of the season. Holzwarth has also kicked 10 straight points after touchdowns, so he's scored 28 points without every carrying the ball.

Another tackle, Bob Khayat of Mississippi has kicked four field goals and 14 extra points for 29 points. Several other players also have credit for four field goals, but the number two field goal kicker has been LSU's Wendell Harris, with five. Eddie Beach, a New Mexico back who hasn't carried the ball yet, has scored 28 points on two field goals and 22 points after. Shades of Lou Groza!

Coach Babe Curfman of the Harvesters considers defensive end Benny Stout as one of the finest players who has ever played for him. In fact, he flatly declares that Stout is "the best high school football player in the state of Texas."

Players and coaches of eight teams (especially Amarillo) would probably tell you that Curfman isn't far wrong. The big 197-pounder has been all over the field for tackles throughout the season, and has been one of the big reasons for Pampa's greatly improved defense.

Foul Play Charged After U.S. Captures International

LAUREL, Md. (UPI)—Recreations echoed throughout the world today following Bald Eagle's victory for the United States in the eighth running of the Washington D.C. International.

The Venezuelan and Australian horses lost their jockeys and charges of rough riding were made by several jockeys in the race — excepting victorious Manny Yeasa who guided Bald Eagle to an easy two and one-half length triumph.

The New Zealanders from one side of the globe were seeing and the Russians from the other half of the world were equally hot.

The spill occurred after the had gone half a mile in the mile and one-half race. Penalties from Venezuela crossed over in front of Australia's Vogel. Jockey William Camer on Vogel couldn't check his horse and they collided. Both animals almost went to their knees. Camer and Gustavo Avila slammed to the turf.

Up and Coming from New Zealand almost crashed into the thrown jockeys but missed them. Then he too scraped the fence.

Bald Eagle was up-front trailing Tudor Era, the pace maker, with France's Midnight Sun third. They missed the fireworks with Bald Eagle and then Midnight Sun passing Tudor Era on the turn into the homestretch and finishing one-two. Tudor Era, the eighth straight favorite, to fall, pulled in a third third.

Nelson Fox Named American Loop's Most Valuable Player

NELSON FOX
First Sox MVP

BOSTON (UPI) — Nelson FOX, White Sox made it a Chicago tri-umvirate by finishing third with 123 points. Wynn compiled a 22-10 record last season.

Slugging Rocky Colavito of the second-place Cleveland Indians was fourth with 117 points. Indians centerfielder Tito Francona, who won himself a starting position after the campaign got underway, finished fifth with 102 points.

Jackie Jensen of the Boston Red Sox last year's winner, finished 10th in the voting.

Only Fox and Aparicio were considered worthy of first-place votes. A total of 29 players were named in the balloting, announced here by Hy Hurwitz of the Boston Globe, secretary-treasurer of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

The selection of Fox made it an all-Chicago year in the MVP voting. Shortstop Ernie Banks of the Cubs won the National League MVP honor last week.

Winner Will Climb To Fifth; Loser Will Drop To Seventh

PLAINVIEW — The Pampa Harvesters meet the Plainview Bulldogs here Friday at 4 p.m. in a football game which will decide (at least temporarily) fifth place in District 3-4A.

The Harvesters and the Bulldogs are now tied for sixth place, with 1-1 records. The winner of Friday's game will go ahead of Palo Duro (2-4) into fifth place. The loser will drop below Palo Duro, to seventh place.

Both Pampa and Plainview have been surprise teams this year. The Harvesters were picked for seventh place, in a pre-season poll, and Plainview was picked for the cellar. Both have improved as the season progressed, and both made good showings in their last game.

Pampa lost three close district games, to Tascosa, Monterey, and Palo Duro and tied Amarillo, before a whipping Lubbock last week, 12-0.

Plainview lost its first three district games to Borger, Palo Duro, and Amarillo; but then suddenly came to life to beat Lubbock, 41-0, and the powerful Monterey, 27-27.

Despite their similar records, the two teams are almost exact opposites. Plainview is an inexperienced team, with a strong offense, based on the single wing and double wing formations. The Bulldogs have a weak, though somewhat improved defense.

The Harvesters, on the other hand, are an experienced squad with a strong defense (including the district's best pass defense). They run strictly from the T formation, and have only an average offense.

The Plainview squad, though "loaded" with sophomores and juniors, has improved greatly during the last two games. Pampa coaches say that they seem to have learned from their mistakes.

Pampa Coach Babe Curfman described Plainview's single wing and double wing formations as "very hard to stop." He said however, that "we can probably stop the single wing, but I'm not too sure about the double wing." Curfman is especially afraid of the running of Plainview's two tailbacks, Jimmy Carter and Eddie Clark.

The Pampa coach added, however, that the Harvesters have been looking very good both offensively and defensively in this week's workouts. "They've been running well, blocking well, tackling well, and haven't been making

TCU Boys Win Battle of Sexes In Football

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UPI) — The battle of the sexes has spread to the intramural football field at Texas Christian University. A determined fraternity team used an ambidextrous quarterback Wednesday to squeak by a sorority eleven 12-8.

Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity students, trying hard to be gentlemanly, took the victory despite an early scoring lead by the girls of Delta Gamma Sorority. The teams were governed by two different sets of regulations. The men used their opposite passing. (If a passer was right handed, he used his left.) Male defensive players could not break from a walk until they were past the line of scrimmage and into the Delta Gamma backfield, and they had to keep their hands to themselves. That is, down to their sides.

The girls observed these rules: No flirting with players during game time. No unladylike conduct. No use of feminine charms to confuse male players. The fraternity scores both came off the passing arm of Lowell Adams of Crane, Tex., who being ambidextrous, was not affected by the opposite hand passing rule.

position on defense. Otherwise, the starting lineup will remain about the same as it has been.

Pampa defensive starters will be ends Benny Stout, 197 and Ken Mitchell, 151; tackles Rowland Stone, 170 and Jim Scott, 160; middle guard Harold Stokes, 170; line backers Duke Garren, 175 and Terry Rexroad, 163; cornermen Charles Geise, 175 and Charles Warren, 158; halfbacks Budd Rawls, 165 and Bobby Stephens 140.

Wilt Chamberlain 'Stopped' After Scoring Only 41 Points

United Press International

What are you going to tell a man after you've pitted him against Wilt Chamberlain, except that you're sorry?

Walt Dukes of Detroit, who said he could stop the Philadelphia flipper, was the latest National Basketball Association giant to test Chamberlain's massive scoring strength Wednesday night as Wilt the Stilt tallied 41 points and grabbed 17 rebounds in the Warriors' 119-105 victory over the Pistons for a quarter at the Garden with a 48-point spree in the third period.

Boston now has won eight of nine games this season. Philadelphia has taken six of seven contests.

Rags To Riches Is Story Of New U.S. Steel Prexy

Personality Spotlight
United Press International
Leslie B. Worthington was an immigrant boy who first tasted hard work in the grimy coal mines of southern Illinois.

Worthington's presidential office in Pittsburgh is a far cry from the paintless family home in tiny Witt, Ill., where he spent his boyhood.

Worthington, now 57, was 5 years old when his coal miner father brought his family from England to the United States.

The boy worked in the town's general store during his grammar school days and joined the union during high school to help his father eke out a meager living from the dirty, dangerous coal mines.

Worthington worked his way to a bachelor's degree from the University of Illinois in 1923, then began his 36-year trip to the presidency by joining a U.S. Steel subsidiary in Chicago as a sales apprentice.

He became assistant manager of sale for the subsidiary in 1933, was appointed manager of the St. Paul district sales office in 1935, spent five years at the Detroit sales office and went to Pittsburgh as sales manager for bar strip and semi-finished materials for Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corp.

Worthington came back to Chicago in 1942 as vice president of U.S. Steel's supply division. He became division president in 1946, a job he held until 1957, when he was appointed president of the firm's Columbia-Geneva Steel Division in San Francisco.

His appointment Tuesday marked the first time a president
