Officers found two bloody butcher knives in the bedroom. They also found a lamp wrapped in a cloth that they believe was used to bludgeon Cross. The cat fancier was an employe of the General Services Administration. Officers said he was believed to be unmarried. He lived alone in the northeast Dallas house.

Burglary was ruled out as a possible motive for the killing when officers found that the house had not been ransacked.

Meet the New-size Ford - the Falcon! Here's a car with plenty of room for six big adults and all their luggage. It's pass and climb like a "big" car . . . and built like no other

It gives you up to 30 miles per gallon on regular gas. Aluminized mufflers normally last twice as long as ordinary kinds. A Full-Flow oil filter lets you go 4,000 miles between oil changes. Even insurance can cost you less! And this Falcon is the world's most experienced new car. It was driven over every mile of numbered Federal Highway in EXPERIENCE RUN, U.S.A.-a grueling demonstration

The Falcon has the features that American car buyers expect. Its gearshift is on the steering column-not on the floor. Its engine is located up front for greater stability and safety. Best news of all is the Falcon's low, low price. See it climaxing Ford's 3 years of development and testing.

3. The 1960 Thunderbird . . . The World's Most Wanted Car! Now you can see them-the Finest Fords of a Lifetime! Economy-minded Fairlanes, Big-value Fairlane 500's. Elegant Galaxies. A breath-taking new Sunliner convertible and a brand-new hardtop model, the flashing Starliner. Then there's a whole new world of Station Wagon Living. too. It all adds up to 15 glittering variations of the world's newest, most elegant styling theme!

And Ford sets the new trend in power. Ford's Thunderbird 292 V-8 and 352 V-8, like the famous Mileage Maker Six, bring a new world of smoother, hotter performance-on regular gas.

priced for savings. Ford is still priced to outvalue all comparable models of its major competitors.

Ford savings, however, only begin with a low price. You save still more with engines that thrive on regular gas and save up to a dollar on every tankful . . . a Full-Flow oil filter that lets you go 4,000 miles between oil changes . . . Diamond Lustre Finish that never needs waxing ... aluminized mufflers that normally last twice as long as conventional types . . . new, safer, Truck-Size brakes that are the biggest ever in Ford's history ... and new soft-tread, Tyrex cord tires that run quieter, last longer.

What Is "Free Collective Bargaining"?

According to a United Press International dispatch, President 11senhower said: "Free collective bargaining - the logical recourse of a free people in settling industial disputes - has apparently broken down."

One wonders what President Eisenhower means by "free col-lective bargaining". That term has been used so often and so erroneously that many people be-

Freedom does not give a man the right, according to the Decato create wealth to benefit mankind, as is the 'aim of laissez faire enterprise, but to conspire to injure the employer, his suppliers and the general public. It is no more free bargaining than a man threatening to stop a man's supplies and preventing customers from entering an employer's place of business is making a free bargain. It is just about the same as a highwayman holding a gun up to a man and saying, your money or your life. Instead of his physical life, it is his economic life, and man cannot live without bread.

Of course, there is bound to be great suffering when the government has passed laws that give one group of people the right to exploit another group, as is the case with the Clayton Amendment crime and subject to imprisonment and punishment as others just right to enter into a conspiracy to refuse to hire an individual of no-man's land, where might makes right and there are no

Of course, there is bound to be suffering and great loss under the present laws. But. it would be much better to suffer this loss than to permit legislation to continue that gives one group of men rights that other groups of men do not have. It is to revert back to a form of slavery. It not only injures the working man and degrades his character to give him this right, but in the long run it hurts him from a material standpoint, because to continue this class legislation means that we'll become so poverty stricken that people will want a dictator and be willing to accept some Caesar or Napoleon or Hitler or DeGaulle in order to relieve the poverty that results from what Eisenhower calls "free collective bargaining" eternal principles to guide human

What Eisenhower calls "free collective bargaining" is nothing but civil war that leads to more and more poverty for everyone. It is a test of character as to whether men will stand it rather than supincly submit to this tyranny. It is a parallel case to what faced Ralph Waldo Emerson in 1862 during the Civil War. In January of 1862 Emerson wrote to his

NEW YORK, N. Y. - The inflexible rule of this reporter is service with a smile, occasionally tinged with bewilderment. This column mentioned Swiss fondue the other day. Nineteen readers have mentioned right back: all right, what is it? A gentleman in Harlingen, Texas, wrote that he certainly didn't know what fondue was, and neither did his good friend, the editor in Harlingen, but both were willing to find out.

The first thing to say is that there seem to be as many variations of fondue as there are of baked beans. Some like molasses with baked beans, some like brown sugar, some like a stroke of lemon, some even like chopped orange peel. The only basic thing about fondue, apparently, is that it must have cheese and liquor in it. The only basic ingredient in baked beans is beans. After that, in efther case, you take your own high, wide, safe and sensational Pierre Bellocq, a Gaul who knows more about cooking than any amateur I know, was somewhat helpful.

"Fondue? Of course," he said. Eminently simple. You take four kinds of cheese, using 100 grams of each. First, emmental, then domestic. What is emmental? Emmental, of course. You could use Bagnes, too. Gruyere, anybody knows. Mountain cheese? Well, it is made in the Swiss mountains. Fat cheese? It has sort of a fat base. Simple. Then you grate each of these into a non-metallic casserole, mixing the gratings thoroughly, after having rubbed the sides of the casserole with a clove of garlic. The casserole is placed over a low flame and one generous glass of white wine, say A Neuchatel or Rhine, is poured over the cheeses. It will all melt Four heads of state. "Let's not down as you stir constantly, and when the fluid is smooth put a pinch of white flour into the bottom of a small cognac glass, fill the glass with kirsch, and pour the cherry brandy and the bit of flour into the fluid. Meanwhile, cut some French or Italian bread into small cubes and divide these onto four plates. Pour the fondue into a small, porcelain tureen set over another go" at the Berlin problem. a low, alcohol flame and provide each of four persons with a fork. They stick the fork into a cube of bread and dip the bread into the fondue in a sort of swirl that gathers up the melted cheese. Then This key question mark is what they transfer the cube to their mouths. Delicious." transpiring between Washington, "How much is 100 grams?" "It is 100 grams, plainly. What else could it be?" Britain is concerned, its answer

Series Must Go, Go Back To Chicago

CHICAGO (UPI) - Chicago's gogo" White Sox, back on their home grounds, vowed today that they'd make their economy-type baseball pay off again to win the World Series in which they trail the Los Angeles Dodgers three games to two.

"We'll win it now," predicted White Sox Manager Al Lopez.

He named Early Wynn as his starting pitcher when the series resumes in brick-walled Comiskey Park on Thursday. He'll be opposed by Johnny Podres, the soreback left-hander who won the second game of the series in Chicago

"We're back in business when we make one run stand up," Lopez chuckled. "That's how we won the American League pennant. That's how we'll win the series."

Wear Black Stockings But he admitted that the White Sox, who went back to their black stockings Tuesday to change their luck, weren't out of baseball's woods.

"We have to get even first," he observed.

He didn't know whether his club would wear the white stockings they started the series with, or the old blackones they switched to Tuesday when they kept their hopes alive with a 1-0 triumph before the largest throng in World Series history - 92,706 in Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum. The White Sox were desperate Tuesday. They made a fourth-inning run - scored on a doubleplay - hold up and withstood a Dodger eighth-inning threat which will go down in series history as one of the most dramatic of all times. Manager Walter Alston of the Dodgers, still confident but lamenting that "we have to go all the way back to Chicago to wrap it up," gave Lopez credit for "putthe right man in the right spot at the right time." Both clubs flew back here after that historic game in the vast Coliseum Tuesday.

Their backs to the wall, the Sox threatened Sandy Koufax, the Dodgers' erratic, fire - throwing southpaw, in the third - and this time they were frustrated because their base stealing shortstop tried to take an extra base.

In the fourth, however, they cashed in on an opportunity-the kind that has been hitting pay dirt for them all year.

Battling Nellie Fox led off the inning with a single and raced to third as Jim Landis followed with a single. As Sherman Lollar hit into a double play, Fox scored with the run that stood up all the threats after that, but the Dodgers did and in the battle of managerial wits that followed, Lopez won out over Alston, thanks to big Dick Donovan.

The White Sox didn't mount any

That was in the story-book

It looked bad for the White Sox when Landis lost Wally Moon's fly ball to center in the sun and it fell in front of him for a single. Winning pitcher Bob Shaw retired Norm Larker on a fly ball, but Gil Hodges rifled a single to, center, sending Moon to third, On the play, trying to get Moon at third, Hodges went on into second.

Now the rival managers started making moves, one counter to the Alston sent up left handed battler Ron Fairly to hit for right hander Don Demeter. Lopez took out Shaw and put in southpaw Billy Pierce. So Alston withdrew Fairly and sent up right-handed hitting Rip Repulski to the plate.

Lopez ordered Pierce to walk Repulski intentionally, filling the bases.

So Alston called on Carl Furillo, his pinch hitter de luxe in the pennant playoff against the Braves and in the series. So Lopez took out Pierce and put in Donovan.

There were pinch runners, pinch hitters and a lot of series records were tied or broken in the inning, but it mattered not to the White Sox for Donovan did the job.

He retired Furillo on a pop fly and Don Zimmer on a fly ball.

As it turned out this time, Lopez made the right moves. He made one an inning earlier when with two men on base, he put Jim Rivera in right field, shifted Al Smith, who had been playing there, to left, with Jim McAnaney going to the bench.

All Rivera did was to haul down Charlie Neal's long drive to deep right center to cut off two Dodger runs.

ALMA MATER EXPRESS — Twenty-three New York City area families have found a way to beat the high cost of a college education—at least partially. The parents, whose children attend Knox College in Galesburg, Ill., chipped in to buy a onetime airport bus for $2,500, then donated it to the school, making their shares tax-deductible. At $10 a one-way trip at the beginning and end of school terms and during vacations, the parents estimate they will save at least $670 over four years on each student's travel expenses. Above, William M. Churchill of Sea Cliff, N.Y., helps daughter Jacqueline stow her luggage shortly before 13 students boarded the bus to make the first 1,200-mile trip to the campus.
