

Cost Of Living Index Climbs To All-Time High

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Living costs climbed to an all-time high in September, the government reported today.

Consumer prices rose for all major groups of goods and services except transportation. Food, housing, medical care and personal services all cost more.

The Labor Department's consumer price index rose four-tenths of a point from August to a September level of 125.2. The index is based on a 1947-1949 average of prices taken as 100.

The September index meant that a market basket of goods and services costing $10 a decade ago cost $12.52 last month.

The index has gone up in five of the past six months. It dipped slightly in August after setting a record of 124.9 in July.

The Labor Department's price chief, H. E. Riley, pointed out that some of the increase in recent months was a seasonal thing.

He said the outlook for October and November was for declines in food prices, possibly including big reductions in meat costs.

Today's report means 1,236,000 workers whose wages are tied by contract to the price index, will get a pay boost.

The index dropped fractionally in August to 124.8 per cent of 1947-49 prices. This means it cost $12.48 in that month to buy the same goods and services available for $10 about 10 years ago.

Records were established by the price index in May, June and July following a year of comparative stability.

The department, striving to keep its barometer of inflation as accurate as possible, is now embarked on a multi-million dollar program to modernize the index.

It plans to substitute frozen foods, "miracle" fabrics and other recently popularized items for some of the old standbys in its market basket.

MIAMI (UPI) — The former commander of Fidel Castro's air force said Thursday an anti-Castro underground has been formed by former comrades-in-arms of the Cuban revolutionary leader.

The ex-officer also blamed Cuban government anti-aircraft fire for the death of two persons during a leaflet-dropping air raid on Havana Wednesday. He said the government attempted to make it appear the leaflet airplanes caused the deaths by dropping bombs.

Pedro Diaz Lanz, who quit Castro because he said Communists were taking over the revolution, said the object of the new organization was to "bring democracy to Cuba."

Diaz Lanz, in a gesture sure to draw the special ire of Castro supporters, said the name of the underground is "the 26th of July Anti-Communist Movement." Castro's own revolutionary party is named "the 26th of July," from the date Castro landed in Cuba several years ago.

Diaz Lanz said it was made up of "thousands" like himself who fought with Castro but became disillusioned because of Red influence.

AMARILLO, Tex. (UPI) — The Potter county sheriff's office reported today that two convicted prisoners who escaped from the Hale county jail and terrorized a ranch family for eight hours Thursday have been captured.

The escapees — both convicted robbers, are Jackie Tarlton, 25, of Tulsa, Tex., and Jess Owens Hughes, 24, of Plainview. Pursuers spotted Tarlton in a pasture and caught him.

Hughes ran to a brick home 300-400 yards from the pasture and entered it. The home was owned by Lawson Stephens, who works for the First National Bank of Amarillo.

Police surrounded the house, according to the Potter county sheriff's office, and seized Hughes.

Committees To Be Picked By Chamber

The new executive board of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce and Board of City Development met this morning at the Pampa Hotel for the purpose of giving consideration to the appointment of committee chairmen for the coming year.

Executive committee members attending were H. V. Wilks, president; E. Roy Smith, vice president; Cameron Marsh, finance director; and E. O. Wedgeworth, general manager.

A list of committee chairmen will be announced within the next 10 days as chairmen have been contacted and accept their positions, according to Wilks.

Two new committees will be added this year. They are the industrial contact, which will supplement the local industrial services committee, and the convention.

Other committees are agriculture and livestock, aviation, fire prevention, highways and transportation, legislative and national affairs, merchants activities, business greeters, oil and gas, public improvements, public relations, publicity, sports and tourist development.

A bulletin issued by the Texas Highway Patrol today said the men were "very heavily armed and considered extremely dangerous. They would not hesitate to shoot an officer."

They held Mr. and Mrs. Ora Ralston and their children, Selma, 3, and Lillian Sue, 4, captive in their home seven miles west of Spearman and then escaped with Ralston's car and two guns.

They stole one gun — a .38-caliber revolver — from a jailer's desk at the Hale county jail Wednesday when they overpowered two jailers, a porter and a trusty and locked all four in cells.

Later Wednesday, they stole a .22-caliber rifle and ammunition from Ben Rentfro, 65, who farms 11 miles east of Tulsa, Tex., Tarlton's home town.

Thursday, they took a .38-caliber automatic pistol, a .22-caliber automatic rifle and ammunition from Ralston.

The bandits forced Mrs. Ralston to cook their lunch, then sat down at a table to map out a route to Oklahoma City, holding the Ralstons at gunpoint all the while.

When they got ready to leave, they tied Mrs. Ralston in a chair on the first floor and took Ralston upstairs, where they spread-eagled him on a bed and tied him down.

Ralston worked his hands free about an hour later. He walked to a neighbor's house two miles away this morning, where he telephoned Hansford county sheriff J. B. Cooke to report the incident.

The Ralstons had no phone, and Tarlton and Hughes rendered all aid.

Army Drops Project As Dangerous

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Army has dropped a $7,500,000 food preservative project after experiments with animals showed the new high-energy atomic process resulted in possible radiation damage.

Some congressmen and newsmen had eaten food subjected to the process but they were assured they were in no danger.

The action halted construction of a four million dollar plant at Stockton, Calif., which was to have used the high-energy irradiation process to kill germs and preserve foods for lengthy periods.

Richard S. Morse, Army research director, told a news conference Thursday that results of the animal experiments were inconclusive. But he said sufficient doubt existed to call a halt to the construction phase of the project.

He said some animals put on a diet of the irradiated food showed loss of fertility, a shortened life span, bleeding, blindness and heart damage.

HAVANA (UPI) — Premier Fidel Castro said today Cuba had been bombed three times within the past 10 days by planes from the United States and compared the leaflet dropping attack on Havana with the Japanese bombing of Pearl Harbor.

Castro called a huge rally for 4 p.m. Monday in Havana to protest what he called the economic and military threats of the United States against his revolutionary government. He said details of the rally would be carried out by the Cuban Confederation of Workers.

Castro, in a marathon television and radio broadcast that lasted until the early hours today, spoke after a drink-crazed Cuban was accused of trying to assassinate him with a knife Thursday afternoon during a general strike.

The Cuban, identified as Roberto Salas Hernandez, was captured before he could get near Castro, Castro and Police Chief Maj. Etegenio Almeida escorted him to a police station. He was removed from the jail to safety when a crowd gathered and threatened to lynch him.

Throughout his long speech Castro castigated the United States for permitting Florida-based planes to "bomb" Cuba and asked what would the U.S. reaction be if Canadian planes bombed automobile plants in the United States and the capital city of Washington.

"Remember Pearl Harbor!" Castro shouted into the microphone. "What a difference between what happened in Havana yesterday (Wednesday night) and the reaction of the United States to the bombing attack at Pearl Harbor."

He also reached farther back in history with a cry of "Remember the Marine!" The sinking of the battleship Maine in Havana Harbor was an incident which provoked the United States to intervene in Cuba against Spain.

"What would be thought if the same sort of action had been taken here yesterday (Wednesday)?" he said. "Remember the 47 victims. Young people. Old people. Workers and others. What would have happened in the United States if it had been a bombing by Canadian planes?"

"What is the thinking of public opinion in the United States?" he asked. "Why are we subjected to this punishment?"

The streets of Havana were quiet early today as Castro spoke on. There were no particular precautions taken at the modernistic, "U.N. style" American Embassy where small groups demonstrated.

Steel Strike Pinch Becomes A Squeeze

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Shortages of steel dug more deeply into the nation's economy today with the immediate end of the 101-day steel strike in sight.

The third U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals said it would not reach a decision on whether a Taft-Hartley law injunction to end the walkout of 500,000 steelworkers was necessary and constitutional until early next week.

Steel industry executives gathered at the opening of a three-million-dollar Jessop Steel Co. warehouse opening in Broadview, Ill., Thursday said the pressure from steel consumers was on and the strike had to end soon.

The Circuit Court of Appeals heard arguments here Thursday on the appeal of the United Steel workers Union from the injunction issued earlier in the week in Pittsburgh. The strike will continue until the court reaches a decision expected early next week.

President Eisenhower, blocked at least temporarily in his efforts to end the strike by the injunctive process, issued another appeal to negotiators for management and the union to settle their differences voluntarily for the good of the country.

The President, painting a grim economic picture if the strike continues, called an unusual news conference at his vacation White House at Augusta, Ga., to discuss the situation.

"If we can't settle our economic differences by truly free economic bargaining without damaging seriously and threatening to damage seriously the United States, we have come to a pretty pass," he said.

The President said shortages of steel were delaying and will further delay space activities, missile programs and all other defense programs. He said steel "is at the very base of any industrial economy," necessary for repairs and maintenance and essential for defense production.

A STICK DOWN
BIRKENHEAD, England (UPI) — No disrespect was intended by William Woodward and three other witnesses who failed to rise Thursday when the judge entered the courtroom here.

Their clothes had stuck fast to the newly-varnished benches.

Russ Envoy Is Leaving

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov was on his way home today and diplomats asked how long he would stay.

An embassy official said "smiling Mike's" trip was a vacation and probably would last a month. But the diplomatic corps couldn't help speculate about Menshikov's sudden departure.

The Soviet envoy told Undersecretary of State Robert Murphy of his intentions in a hastily-scheduled appointment late Wednesday.

Early Thursday, he left Washington for New York where he is expected to take off Saturday for Moscow.

Menshikov, who won his nickname because of his ever-ready smile since his arrival in Washington in February 1958, has not been seen in the past two weeks except for his trip Wednesday to meet Murphy.

Congress May Inherit Steel Dispute

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government's Taft-Hartley cooling-off timetable threatens to dump the steel wage dispute into the lap of the returning Congress in January.

If the strike is not settled during an 80-day breather provided by a government-requested court injunction, Congress will move into the picture. Even if a settlement is reached, the bitterness produced by the dispute may bring congressional action.

In either event, Congress probably would try to write a new and improved national emergency section for the Taft-Hartley Act. There is no dearth of suggestions for such a new clause.

President Eisenhower, Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell and congressional labor experts all have come out in favor of various proposals to modify the present national emergency procedures.

Under these procedures, which were used in the steel strike and 15 times previously, the President may appoint a fact-finding board to determine the issues in a strike only when a walkout appears to threaten national welfare and safety.

A Pittsburgh judge granted a President may sign a court order to send the strikers back to work for 80 days. If the dispute is not settled during the 80 days, the strikers may walk out again.

If the stay is lifted and the injunction takes effect soon, the 80-day no-strike-period would expire early in January, soon after Congress reconvenes.

Tighter Curbs On Hiring Of Braceros Studied By Mitchell

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Closer curbs on hiring Mexican braceros was urged Thursday by a Labor Department study committee.

The panel said employment in this country of braceros (migrant farm laborers) has adversely affected U.S. workers and job opportunities.

The committee urged Congress to give the government greater powers to protect U.S. farmhands' interests if the program is continued.

An estimated 500,000 Mexicans are brought into the United States each year under terms of the program set by Public Law 78.

Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell made the report public without comment. He named the four-man committee last May to study the impact of the law and advise him on whether it should be extended when it expires in 1961.

The committee urged a temporary renewal if Congress enacted legislation to:

— Confine the use of Mexicans to "necessary crops" if there is a shortage of American workers and restrict them to unskilled jobs not including machines. This would advise the Labor Department on tractor, irrigation equipment and packing machines.

— Give the labor secretary more authority to set wage rates for Mexicans at "prevailing levels" for farm work in the area to avoid undercutting American pay standards.

— Authorize the labor secretary to set standards for U.S. employ-

UF OFFERING — James Gallimore, one of the city's 300 volunteer United Fund workers, used the personal approach this morning on prospective donor Julia Poote, 316 Anne. The donation helped the United Fund to the $31,787 mark as of this morning. The drive has been extended one week and is scheduled to end Nov. 3. (Daily News Photo)

Fund Drive Extended

The Pampa-Lefors United Fund campaign had to be extended one more week today after a morning showed barely half of the area's goal had been reached.

Campaign Chairman Floyd Watson reported at today's report breakfast that pledges and gifts now total $31,789.40. The goal set was $63,900.

Watson noted that only 137 of some 600 worker kits have been turned in to date. At this morning's report in the Cabot Auditorium, only 17 of the area's 300 volunteer workers were in attendance. They reported pledges totaling $906.10.

The campaign, now in its 10th day, will end Tuesday, Nov. 3.

Networks Policing Program Practices

NEW YORK (UPI) — Fears of a federal crackdown on TV quiz shows spurred major networks today to police their programming practices.

President Eisenhower got the clean-up operation into high gear Thursday after he ordered the Justice Department to investigate the rigging of television shows.

The President, at his vacation retreat in Atlanta, Ga., said that if true, the practice was deplorable and "a terrible thing to do to the American public."

The Justice Department in Washington announced immediately that "appropriate action will be taken."

The Columbia Broadcasting System, first of the major networks to voluntarily police its programming practices, already has dropped quiz shows and giveaway programs.

John A. Aaron and Jesse Zoumer, co-producers of the popular interview program, "Person-to-Person," resigned Thursday after CBS President Frank Stanton revealed the program was rigged.

Aaron and Zoumer accused Stanton of making an "unwarranted slur" about the program and requested release from their contracts. Stanton agreed and accepted their resignations.

"All I have asked you is that you inform the viewing public of the production practices on 'Person-to-Person' so that the program can be exactly what it purports to be," Stanton said in a letter to the co-producers.

The National Broadcasting Company, whose quiz shows have been the chief targets of congressional investigators, pledged its full cooperation to the attorney general in his investigation.

Brown Rites Slated Today

Funeral services for Mrs. M. K. Brown, prominent pioneer woman who died Thursday, were to have been held at 3 p.m. today in St. Matthew's Episcopal Church with the Rev. William E. West officiating.

Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery.

Fallbearers named are Clyde Pattee, Lynn Boyd, Gene Green, R. G. Allen, William J. Smith, Hugh Burdette, DeLoe Vicars and Jim Thompson.

The body lay in state at Duell-Carmichael Funeral Home until 2:30 p.m. today.

Fire In Closet
Clothes inside a closet were burned this morning when flames broke out at the Mrs. Annie Hollis home at 1112 S. Wells.

Pampa firemen, called at 10:21 a.m., said the fire probably started from a nearby heater. Damages were confined to the closet interior.

Baby Sitter Tells Harrowing Tale Of Abduction, Assault

LYNDONVILLE, Vt. (UPI) — A long-missing 14-year-old baby-sitter was found today and told a harrowing tale of being kidnaped and raped repeatedly by an ex-convict in a six-day nightmare.

Maine state police sought kidnap and rape warrants against Rodney Austin, 44, of Newcastle, Maine, who left the terror-stricken girl at his brother's home here early today and fled.

The girl, Sharon Simmons, told a hair-raising tale of being dragged from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil A. Hallowell of Damariscotta Mills, Maine, late Saturday. She said Austin never gave her food.

Sharon told State Detective Carmille Carrier at the police barracks in nearby St. Johnsbury that Austin vowed he would not be captured alive.

She said he told her he was going to an abandoned camp at Lake Carmi where he had a gun "stashed away."

"If they want me they can come and get me, but they're not going to take me alive," she quoted Austin.

Carrier said, "There is no doubt in my mind that she left the Hallowell home against her will." He pointed out that she left behind her hat and coat and the three Hallowell children. The parents returned at 1 a.m. Sunday and found she was gone.

At 1 a.m., today, the nightmare ride that had taken Sharon across two state borders and the wild northern New England landscape ended at the home of Albert Austin here.

He fled after talking briefly with his mother, whom he recently brought here from Maine to spend the winter at Albert's home.

Sharon said Austin banged on the Hallowell's door. An old acquaintance of the Simmons family in Nobleboro, Maine, near Damariscotta Mills, he told her that her parents had a fight and he wanted her to come and "try to fix it up."

"He was very drunk," Sharon said, "and I started to shut the door. Then he shoved the door open and entered the house."

"He grabbed me by the throat and shoved me on the divan. I started to scream and holler and he told me, 'You keep quiet, or I'll choke you to death.'"

She said she "froze" and he took her in a bedroom, and "played with me and I wanted to scream but every time I started to scream he put more pressure on my throat."

From the house he dragged her to his car and they drove to a clearing where he undressed her and raped her twice, she said.

She told Carrier she passed out after he dragged her back in his car and the next thing she knew she was in Berlin, N.H., where he stopped for gasoline. She said she remembered almost nothing of later events.

Here's How To Costume Your Halloween Spooks

By KAY SHERWOOD
NEA Staff Writer

Halloween goblins will soon start their courses, and it will be up to mom to supply suitable masquerade.

Although there is no lack of fancy, ready-made costumes, the homemade outfit will rate high with the hep costumer.

These can be less expensive than the store-bought ones — a point the mother of two or three goblins doesn't forget — and they can show greater imagination of design. For little children, the simple costumes they help make are part of the excitement of Halloween.

RUTH MILLETT

"Why is it that fat wives are so much easier to live with than skinny wives?" asks a man reader. (He fails to disclose whether his wife is overweight, underweight or if he has been married to both types.)

Without being at all sure that fat wives do actually have better dispositions than skinny wives, I can advance several reasons why they might have:

ONE. When a calorie-counting wife has a misunderstanding with her husband all she can do is brood about it. But a wife who eats when she pleases and as much as she pleases can always sit down to a nice big snack and eat her way out of her resentment.

TWO. Women themselves set such store by a trim figure that the wife who doesn't have one is bound to feel guilty about "letting herself go." Therefore, she may try to make up to her husband for the loss of her girlish figure by being pleasant and easygoing and by being a good sport.

THREE. Overweight women don't tell as attractive to other men as slender women, so the overweight wife may think she had better do her best to hold onto the husband she has for fear she might not get another if she should ever lose him.

FOUR. Perhaps the fat wife is just so plain grateful to her husband for loving her "as is" that she is willing to accept him "as is" instead of nagging at him or being hard to please.

Just a moment, you skinny wives, before you start hurling bricks in my direction. I didn't SAY fat wives are easier to live with than skinny wives. I just said IF they are this may be why.

One basic design which calls for flameproofed crepe paper and colored plastic tape works out into a variety of costumes, all easily made for small fry.

The design combines a head-covering mask with a fringed cape; colors and mask features denote the character; gray and black for witches, orange for Jack-o'-Lanterns, white for spooks, brown for owls.

To make the mask, cut a wide strip of crepe paper. Decorate one side with plastic-tape features and cut circles in the center for eyes and mouth.

Seam the two edges together with cellulose tape to make a cylinder; fringe one end and gather together, holding with a circlet of tape.

The cape can be decorated along one edge with a strip of colored plastic tape and deeply fringed.

Gather under the fringe, fitting it snugly around child's neck. Older children who "haunt" escorted will be safer with funny faces painted on, rather than with concealing masks which may obscure vision.

Material and ideas for their costumes can sometimes be pulled from common household equipment. Clean, fluffy mop heads can make hilarious wigs. A new round mop with a nylon yarn head seems almost made-to-order for the part of wig for a marionette or clown costume.

Fabric scraps, old pillowcases and trimmings can be based into costumes, and a heavy hand with the make-up will help the masquerade along.

DEAR ABBY....

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our ten-year-old son has a very bad habit of exaggerating. We have tried every way we know to break him of it, but nothing seems to work. Some of his exaggerations are fantastic and we are afraid he will turn into a terrible liar. Have you any suggestions?

CONCERNED PARENTS
DEAR CONCERNED: All ten-year-olds are inclined to exaggerate. They do this for "effect." Pay no attention to it. And be sure you don't say, "I have told you SIX MILLION TIMES to stop exaggerating!"

DEAR ABBY: My daughter was married two months ago. She and her husband made plans to rent an apartment and buy furniture on time. Now her mother-in-law forced a lot of old broken-down furniture on her that she had stored in her attic for 25 years. It is nothing but junk. It makes me sick to go over there. My daughter doesn't want to hurt her mother-in-law's feelings so she says it is fine and she acts glad to have it.

I told my daughter if she doesn't speak up now she will have her mother-in-law running her life until the day she dies.

How can I get my daughter to speak her mind without making her think I am a trouble-maker?

MOTHER:
DEAR MOTHER: If you don't behave like a trouble-maker, nobody will take you for one. If your daughter wants to "act" glad to have the furniture and stay on good terms with her mother-in-law, I think it is her business. It is my opinion that your daughter

New Churches Are Increasing

By LOUIS CASSELL
 United Press International

In 1958, Americans invested $1 billion dollars in new churches. By 1960, the annual outlay on church buildings had climbed to $21 million dollars. In 1958, it reached an all-time record of $63 million dollars.

So far this year, church building expenditures are running about 10 per cent ahead of 1958. The total could top one billion dollars before the year is out.

These figures are encouraging to many churchmen, who see in them clear evidence of America's growing interest in religion.

But some church leaders are beginning to take a second look at the building boom. They are asking two questions:

1. Are churches piling up a dangerous load of debt through over-ambitious building programs?
2. Are local congregations spending so much on plush facilities for their own use that they are unable to give as generously as they should to missions, welfare programs and other benevolences?

Neither question can be answered with sweeping generality since the situation varies widely from one church to another.

One major denomination, the Methodist Church, recently made a survey which sheds some light on the first question. It showed that the total debt carried by Methodist churches throughout the country increased by 35 million dollars in 1958 to $224,014,000. The debt figure represents about 10 per cent of the total value of church property owned by Methodists.

Methodist leaders concluded that this debt ratio "is not excessive." But they noted, with some concern, that the ratio has been growing steadily since World War II. In 1948, it was only three per cent; in 1942, five per cent; and in 1935, seven per cent.

An individual church may, of course, be able to carry a somewhat heavier debt ratio than would be prudent for an entire denomination.

Church financial experts have worked out a formula for determining the maximum amount of debt that any local congregation should undertake. It is based on the following three factors:

- (1) One third the value of the church property; (2) $200 per family of active membership; and (3) five times the annual budget for current expenses.

Take the average of these three figures, the experts say, and you have the top limit of "safe debt" for your church.

THE ONE LOW-PRICE WAGON THAT'S ALWAYS BEEN FIRST WITH NEW IDEAS CAN NOW GIVE YOU A SOLIDER AND QUIETER RIDE THAN ANY WAGON COULD POSSIBLY GIVE YOU BEFORE. BECAUSE NO WAGON EVER HAD A DURA-QUIET UNIBODY BEFORE.

The Solid Plymouth wagons for 1960 are built a new way by Chrysler engineers. Body and underparts are joined in one enormously strong steel unit, locked by over 5000 precise welds. Plymouth's nine new suburban models are tighter, quider, smoother than ever. They're roomier, too.

It took ten solid years of development to create this new kind of wagon... and after two minutes behind the wheel, we're pretty sure you'll say it's worth it.

Unibody construction is made for wagons. Doors, windows and tailgate fit better and stay tight. You save on maintenance because welded construction stands up.

Pastor of church of GOD.

GOD WILL FOR GODS PEOPLE

I Thessalonians 4:3
For this is the will of God, Even your sanctification, That ye should abstain from fornication:

The clarion call of the Bible rings forth with the call to holiness. From Genesis to Revelation GOD demands HOLINESS. To Abraham GOD said, I am the almighty GOD; Walk before me, And be thou perfect. Gen. 17:1. Abraham, The great spiritual giant of the OLD TESTAMENT, had many years before this even stepped out by faith to conquer for the Lord, BY FAITH. Heb. 11:8. By faith Abraham, When he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, OBEYED: And he went out, Not knowing whither he went.

Notice Abraham went out by FAITH; Accounting that GOD was able, In Heb 11:19 We notice the fact that Abraham had already begun his faithful walk with GOD and was certainly justified before GOD; GEN 17:10 Institutes the covenant which hinges on the act of circumcision at a token of a further work GOD has wrought. Circumcision itself is a symbolical representation of the clean heart and its allegorical interpretation is significant for the doctrine of HOLINESS. The result of Abrahams perfection was an exceeding fruitfulness. Gen 17:6 Which is indicative of those who are sanctified, In truth the law was but A shadow of good things to come, And now we enjoy the circumcision made without hands in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh, Col.2:11.

Deuteronomy 6:4-5 The writer says, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord; And thou shalt love the lord thy GOD with all thine heart, And with all thy soul, And with all thy might.

The instantaneous nature of circumcision is the crucial point that enables a man to live a perfect life of love in GOD.

Turning to the new testament our great exemplar of living spoke these words. Matt. 22:37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the lord thy GOD with all thy heart, And with all thy soul, And with all thy mind, Agine Luke 10:27. JESUS said in Matt 5:48 Be ye therefore perfect, Even as your father which is in heaven is perfect.

In paul letter to the romans EPHESIANS 4:22-24 That ye put off concerning he former conversation the old man, Which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts, And be renewed in the spirit of your mind and that ye put on the new man, Which after GOD is created in righteousness and true HOLINESS.

How timely is the exhortation to christians today, And may God bless these words to your heart,

White Deer, Canadian Clash In Crucial Game

The White Deer Bucks travel to Canadian tonight for a game which could make or break their attempt to win their third straight District 2-A title.

White Deer is tied for the district lead with McLean; both have 2-0 loop records. Canadian and Clarendon are tied for third with 2-1 marks.

Tonight's game will pit the Bucks' great backfield speed, powerful offense, and tough defense against the Wildcats big line (180 pounds per man) and all-around rugged defense.

The Bucks, led by fullback Jack Burns—a converted quarterback—have compiled the best record in the district, both on offense and defense. In winning five and losing to top-ranked Stinnett, White Deer has scored 159 points while yielding 51. Canadian ranks second in total defense, having yielded 50 points; but the Wildcats have been able to muster only 88 points on a just-fair offense.

Clarendon's Bronchos, fighting to stay in contention in 2-A after last week's 39-6 loss to White Deer, rates, who have been hard-hit this season by injuries. Lefors has an 0-5-1 season record.

McLean, seeking an opportunity to grab the district lead, hosts the Memphis Cyclones, who have won only one game out of seven this season. The Tigers can grab a half game lead if they win, as expected, over Memphis; and if Canadian upsets White Deer.

Shockers evened their season record at 3-3 here Thursday night, as they edged the Palo Duro B team, 14-8. The Shockers played their last home game next Thursday night, against the Tascosa B squad.

The game started badly for the Shockers, as the Chicos took the opening kickoff at their 25—and marched downfield into Pampa territory. The Chicos got to the Shockers' 14, and were apparently on their way to a touchdown. However, they fumbled, and Lynn Schoolfield pounced on the ball for the Shockers.

The Shockers then took charge of the game, and dominated play for the first three quarters. The first quarter was scoreless, but Pampa marched 73 yards for a touchdown in the second period.

Palo Duro took the kickoff following the touchdown, and marched 70 yards for their own tally. They used the passing of quarterback Randy Clark and the running of fullback Suttner to make most of their yardage. Clark scored two plays deep in the fourth quarter, on a three yard keeper around right end. Clark passed to Byrd for the conversion.

Pampa reached the Palo Duro 30 once, for their only thrust which did not pay off. They lost the ball on a fumble. Palo Duro's only threats were its touchdown drive and the game-opening march.

The Shockers made almost all their yardage on the ground, while Palo Duro used Clark's passing and the running of fullback Suttner to equal advantage.

The Shocker defense was excellent, according to Coach Norman Phillips and Assistant Coach Deek Woldt. Many Harvester reserves were used, in addition to the regular Shocker players, and almost all of them made a fine defensive showing.

Defensive players were halfbacks Miller, Crossland, and Robinson; middle guard Schoolfield; linebackers Dickie Willis, Billy Cooper, Danny Mahaney, and Jimmy Hoyer; cornermen Larry Taylor and Mills; tackles Larry Braly, Dennis Duncan, James Webb, Wendell Winkieback, and G. M. Walls; and ends Roy Dyer, Jimmy Boyles, Bob Followell, Corky Godfrey, and Butler.

White completed nine of 11 passes for Clemson, two for touchdowns, and sub Lowndes Shingler hit on two of six as the Tigers swapped their usual reliance on rushing for a pass attack because of a muddy field.

Austin Romps Over Lee Rebels, 36-0

BORGER — The fired-up Austin Junior High squad romped over Lee Junior High of Pampa here Thursday, 36-0. The loss gave Lee a season record of 4-3.

Lee Coach Ramsey said that this was the worst game of the year for his squad. "We were way down for this game," he said, "and they were up for us. Our blocking was not good, and our runners were too slow."

Lee drove inside the Austin 20 three times, but was stopped by fumbles and pass interceptions. Austin scored twice in the first quarter, once in the third, and three times in the fourth. Ramsey cleared his bench during the second half, as nearly all the Rebels saw some action.

Austin, thanks to a boy whom Ramsey described as "the greatest ninth grade quarterback I've ever seen," drove 65 yards and 35 yards to score their first quarter touchdowns. The quarterback did some brilliant ball handling, and the Austin backs went for good yardage through the line.

Lee held during the second quarter, but Austin drove 60 yards to a touchdown in the third. Austin scored three times in the fourth quarter on sustained drives, which started as a result of fumbles and pass interceptions.

Austin did almost all its damage on the ground. They made little of their yardage on passes. Despite the Austin ground attack, Lee cornerman Gordon Balch and end Jerry Glover did a pretty job on defense, according to Ramsey. Balch also made some good yardage carrying the ball.

Pirates Rehire Dan Murtaugh

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Danny Murtaugh, who regained respectability for the Pittsburgh Pirates, will manage the team in 1960 although he has not formally signed a contract.

"While there has been no official announcement, Danny will return as manager next year," said Pirate General Manager Joe L. Brown. "He has not signed but that's only a technicality." In two full years as manager, Murtaugh guided the team to a first division finish. In 1958 the Pirates finished second—the highest since 1941—when Danny was second baseman for the team which finished fourth.

The Pirates finished fourth this past season but Brown was satisfied Murtaugh had turned in a "commendable job."

Lee Eighth Wins Fourth Straight

Robert E. Lee's eighth graders extended their winning streak to four games Thursday, at Harvester Park, with a 26-0 rout of Austin of Berger.

Bill Kennedy's eighth graders remain the only undefeated football team in Pampa.

Lee started the game with a long touchdown run, finished it the same way, and played plenty of fine football in the 30 minutes in between (8 minute quarters).

Halfback Jimmy Lollar took the opening kickoff for Lee at his own 20, followed a wave of good blocking until he was shaken loose from his pursuers, then scampered down the right sidelines for an 80-yard touchdown run.

Robin Vail set up Lee's second touchdown, by intercepting a pass at his own 45-yard line. Several running plays carried the ball to the 20-yard line, early in the second quarter. Then quarterback Ricky Stewart missed an attempted handoff, kept the ball himself, and raced off tackle for 20 yards and another touchdown. Stewart passed to Mike Bridges for the conversion.

Fullback Don Rexroad clinaxed Lee's third touchdown drive, in third quarter, by going 35 yards off tackle for the score. The touchdown drive covered 70 yards. Kennedy praised Rexroad for playing a fine game, despite the fact that he had an upset stomach just before the game, and was not expected to play.

Pampa Tops Lefors, 5 to 1; Morse Gets TKO in Second

Corky Morse of Citizens Bank scored a second round TKO over Lynn Tibbets of Lefors in the feature bout of Thursday's fight night at the Pampa Optimist Boys Club.

A crowd of about 200 watched Morse wear Tibbets down in the second round with a series of punches to the face and mouth. Referee Ronnie James stopped it at 1:09 as Tibbets began to bleed from the mouth. He was not seriously hurt. This was a lightweight scrap.

THE DIARY OF ANNE FRANK

Six of the 11 matches were between Pampa fighters and Ben Johnson's Lefors team. Pampa was victorious in five of the six scraps. Gary Smith, a 70-pounder, was the only Lefors winner, with a decision over Danny Boyd of Richard Drug. Ten of the 11 fights went the distance.

The Boys Club will fight its first inter-city match of the season tonight at Hereford. Boys making the trip will be Charles Snider, middleweight; Jim Murray, welterweight; Ronnie Morgan, lightweight; Dennis Combs, featherweight; Werner Brantwin, light-Danny Merfield, 85; Danny Boyd, 70; Jimmy Watson, 75; David Steele, 120; Ronald Dunn, 70; Donald Dunn, 75; Ronnie Bennett, 80; Loland Ellis, 80.

In three of the best bouts, the smaller fighter beat a rangier opponent with courageous and clever in-fighting.

Peanut Bennett of Citizens Bank, outweighed from five to 10 pounds and giving away at least four inches reach, took several good punches to move inside on Johnny Brown of First National Bank, and land his own punches. Bennett won a close decision in this 95-pound bout.

Bill Matthews of Parsley roofing scored the only knockdown of the night when he decked Lewis Gibson of Lefors for a count of three, in their 110-pound bout. Matthews fought in close and kept Gibson from landing many damaging punches.

Jimmy Watson, Parsley 75-pounder, lost the first round, but did some stubborn in-fighting in the second and third to rally for a decision over Rennie Berry of Lefors.

In a couple of other good fights, Donnie Merfield, 85, of Richard Drug slugged his way to a decision over Jerry Lane of Lefors; and Ronald Dunn of Citizens Bank won a hard-fought, aggressive victory over Loland Ellis of Parsley Roofing.

In the final match of the night, Ronnie Morgan of Richard Drug won a conservatively fought decision over Clyde Steele of Citizens Bank. Neither fighter landed a damaging punch. Morgan is the former New Mexico lightweight high school champion.

By R. C. HOILES

Getting Rid Of Depressions. In the last issue I was quoting Frederick Nymeyer's essay on sound money. It ended with this statement: "The depression would not have occurred if there had not been the boom. The way to get rid of depressions is to insist on removing the cause of the boom."

Then, under the heading of "Escaping Moses?", Nymeyer writes: "There is no more chance of escaping the penalty of fraud in the foregoing illustration than there is a chance of escaping from mathematics. It literally cannot be done. The reduction in purchasing power is as inescapable as the expansion in purchasing power."

Therefore, Moses' statement, your sins will find you out, is true whether you sin a little or whether you sin much. The universal idea seems to be that you can 'get away' with small sins. You retreat before your sins catch up with you. If that really works, Moses was mistaken.

Another Solution. Worse Than A Depression. There are many people, including orthodox capitalists, who are genuine optimists. They believe that they can 'beat the game' and really engage in sin without penalty. They say: steadily increase the fiduciary media. Never pay off debts created by fiduciary media. Always increase them, but not too fast, of course.

This is the route of inflation which the country is presently following. The basic idea underlying this is that Moses was wholly wrong about sins catching up with a sinner. This idea is that the longer and more steadily you sin the surer you will not be caught.

The Contribution of Great Economists to Folly. "Gold is not perfect as money. But is the closest thing to perfect money that we presently know. Money should be something the quantity of which cannot be manipulated. Although the quantity of gold cannot be manipulated, there have been gold discoveries which have had a big effect on price-making power, go up and in that way unexpectedly affecting economic affairs; for example, the discovery of the Western Hemisphere by Columbus making available gold from Peru and elsewhere; the California gold rush; the discovery of gold in the Klondike in Alaska; and gold in South Africa.

But the quantity of gold is, everything considered, very stable. The quantity depends on how profitable it is to mine for gold. The cost of mining being controlled by the current costs, the result is that only so much gold is mined as is profitable. On this basis, the production of gold decreases when gold is not needed in order to keep prices stable, and increases when gold is needed in order to keep prices stable.

The production of gold is usually more profitable than any other business and so it is a humdrum, close margin business. (Presently it is generally unprofitable.) "Some of the world's greatest economists have been conspicuously wrong in some of their ideas regarding money. This is true of both Adam Smith and David Ricardo.

Smith, for example, expressed the opinion that gold was an expensive form of money; a paper currency would cost society less than gold. Then, so he argued, it should be possible to transfer labor from costly gold mining — the gold being used for money — to 'productive' purposes; he argued that low-cost paper money would be a genuine social saving.

Smith was friendly to 'Capitalism', but he might well have accepted a basic idea of 'Capitalism', namely, that man is totally depraved. On the basis of that premise, Smith would have concluded that paper money would eventually certainly be increased practically without limit — if there was no high cost restraining it — as the high cost of mining gold restrains the production of too much gold.

Ricardo had similar ideas. He considered gold coins to be an extravagance. It would be better to keep the gold in bullion form and issue only money certificates. He did not realize that the money certificates would be restricted to agree with the amount of gold on hand only if the public could demand the gold and use the gold in place of gold certificates; whenever they wished. If coins were not available, the public could not possibly know whether the gold was there or not. Free redemption.

of gold by surrender of certificates is a vital part of a sound money system.

"The Logic of Smith and Ricardo was correct in the abstract. They failed to take into account human weakness and depravity. Hence, they were really grossly wrong. The ideas of Smith and Ricardo indirectly lulled men into complacency about expansions of fiduciary media as part of the monetary structure. They made men unduly trusting in regard to paper money."

"Those who have argued from the viewpoint of 'social efficiency' have been right that there is less cost in creating a nongold monetary media. But the trifling savings, accomplished (1) by not having a 100 per cent reserve of gold behind paper money, and (2) by using only paper money rather than gold coins as well, does not compare with the staggering penalty of creating monetary dishonesty — by issuing fiduciary media — that is, by issuing paper money not 'covered' by gold coins or gold bullion. It is a colossal error to have a monetary structure based on anything except gold and on certificates interchangeable for gold — on demand."

Khrushchev An Enigma

By RUTHERFORD POATS United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—U.S. officials said today that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has raised serious doubts about his peaceful intentions by endorsing Red China's military designs on Formosa.

In a letter to President Eisenhower written after four days of Communist summit talks in Peiping, Khrushchev has declared Russia's unqualified support for Communist China's threats to "liberate" the Nationalist-held island.

Contents of the letter which have not yet been made public were disclosed by responsible officials Wednesday.

"It raises serious doubt about the reality of the so-called Camp David deal," one official said.

Marchers in New York City demanded the right to vote in all 48 states.

In 1943, the British Eighth Army launched a huge offensive against Axis forces at El Alamein, Egypt.

In 1955, Ngo Dinh Diem was elected president in the first election ever to take place in South Viet Nam.

A thought for today: English novelist George Meredith said: "A witty woman is a treasure."
