Union Plans To Fight T-H Injunction

Criticism Follows Medaris Resignation

Top Rocket Expert Lashes Out At Nation's New Space Policy

By CHARLES W. CORDDRY
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Missile expert Werner von Braun lashed out at the nation's new space policy today in a growing inter-service uproar following an announcement by Maj. Gen. John B. Medaris that he is retiring.

Von Braun said the decision to give the Air Force full control of the space program indicates lack of confidence "in a proven rocket team," and threatens to put the United States even further behind in the space race.

Von Braun, German-born scientist who led the team that launched the first U.S. satellite, addressed a breakfast meeting of the National Assn. of Food Chains.

His criticism of the policy shift came on the heels of Medaris' announcement that he will step down Jan. 31 as commander of the Army Ordnance Missile Command, which has headquarters at Huntsville, Ala.

Associates said Medaris was not retiring because of his disappointment with the Army's new scaled-down role, but he has spoken out against the move.

Von Braun said constant "re-evaluations and reassessments" also are slowing American progress in space.

"We must carry forward a long range space program if we don't mean to abandon the heavens to the Reds," he said.

Von Braun said the Army agency is twiddling its thumbs, waiting for "someone in Washington" to decide whether to break up its "marital relationship" with the Army and make it the new "bridegroom" of the Air Force.

"We have not sued for this divorce," he said.

America could make a great stride toward matching superior Russian rocket thrusts by speeding development of the Saturn, a 1,500,000-pound thrust rocket, he said. He said the Saturn project is moving ahead "but it could move faster."

Medaris, 57, is retiring after 38 years of service. He scheduled a news conference this afternoon in New York.

The fight over the military space program is one of the major headaches Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy will face when he returns this afternoon from a month-long Pacific tour.

McElroy, who hopes to leave his cabinet post by the end of the year, must decide what to do about the German scientists in Medaris' command at Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Ala.

By a recent decision which appeared to lodge chief responsibility in the Air Force, McElroy took the Army largely out of the space field but left unsettled the future of the 2,100 scientists and technicians at Redstone.

The Huntsville scientists have been developing the giant Saturn rocket, a 1,500,000-pound thrust vehicle, for the Defense Department's Advanced Research Projects Agency (ARPA). But the Army missile men have complained they are getting insufficient funds to speed the development.

Medaris, a native of Milford, Ohio, has been active in missile work since 1955. He supervised the launching of America's first earth satellite in 1958 and has led in development of the Jupiter intermediate range ballistic missile.

Friends said that Medaris has not "entertained any offers" from industry and would not, at least until he leaves the Army. There was speculation he might join some private firm, however.

'Sad Day For Nation,' Ike Declares As U.S. Prepares To Issue Order

PITTSBURGH (UPI)—The government will ask a federal judge today to order an 80-day halt to the marathon steel strike but the United Steelworkers Union said it would fight an injunction because the work stoppage "does not imperil the national health or safety."

Government attorneys, acting under orders of President Eisenhower, were expected to ask for the Taft-Hartley back-to-work injunction this afternoon.

President Eisenhower, saying it was a "sad day for the nation" Monday ordered the Justice Department to seek the injunction. It will be asked of Federal Judge Herbert P. Sog by Asst. Atty. Gen. George C. Doub.

The big steel union's executive board was called to a meeting this afternoon and the wage-policy committee to meet Wednesday morning. The strike is now 98 days old.

"The steel strike does not imperil the national health or safety within the meaning of the Taft-Hartley Act.

"The provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act which have been invoked are unconstitutional."

The spokesman did not elaborate on the union's contention of unconstitutionality.

United Steelworkers President David J. McDonald said his union would try to block the order in district court here and, if unsuccessful, it would carry the fight to the Third Circuit Court of Appeals in Philadelphia and to the United States Supreme Court.

McDonald said the steelworkers would obey a return-to-work injunction but would be free to strike again at the end of 80 days if their demands were not met.

Government lawyers were geared for what was expected to be the first all-out challenge of the government's power to force striking workers back on the job under the 12-year-old Taft-Hartley labor law.

Justice Department lawyers who are torn between duty and honor must resolve a conflicting allegiance.

They feel duty bound to obey the President of the United States and return to work if the Taft-Hartley injunction is issued. But they are honor bound to push the strike towards a satisfactory settlement.

They will obey the law of the land in making their agonizing choice.

"I guess you have to have mixed feelings about something like this," said Charles Matrazzo, a pipe fitter's helper at U.S. Steel's Edgar Thomson works at nearby Braddock, Pa.

"This injunction isn't going to settle anything. If that company keeps on insisting on taking those eight points (local working conditions clause in the contract), we'll be back as soon as the 80 days are up."

Then Matrazzo paused.

"You got principles, but you also got four hungry kids to feed."

Joseph Biref, a U.S. Steel employee who has "two hungry mouths to fill," still held hope.

"Settlement could be reached before an actual back-to-work order is issued."

"When you're faced with something as distasteful as coercion, you just gotta hope," he said.

Nick Popovich, who runs a locomotive at Jones & Laughlin's Aliquippa plant, said President Eisenhower should have sought the injunction immediately after the strike was called July 15.

"But after we've been on

UF Pledges To $27,551

United Fund campaign volunteers reported pledges and gifts totaling $27,551.50 as of early today at a report breakfast at 7:30 a.m. in the Cabot Auditorium. Of this amount, $2,043.50 was new gifts since the last report meeting.

Many workers turned in pledge cards, but the majority are still to be worked, officials said. Attendance, too, was disappointing, with only 11 volunteers present. Total attendance was 24. There are about 300 campaign officials and volunteers.

Test Jet Airliner Breaks Up; 4 Dead

SEATTLE (UPI)—A Boeing 707-220 on a test flight crashed in flames killing four persons Monday following a "violent maneuver" due to misapplication of controls.

The plane, with three of its engines torn off by the maneuver, broke apart on a sandbar 40 miles north of here in a crash landing.

A veteran Boeing test pilot, Russell H. Baum, 32, Bellevue, Wash. had taken over the controls after the engines tore loose and was credited with saving four of the eight persons aboard, although he died in the crash.

The four survivors were riding in the tail section of the plane. It broke free of the burning front section as Baum landed the modified 707 on the sand bar in the Stillaguamish River.

Zoning Board Approves New City Additions

Most of the City Zoning Commission's proposals on the zoning of nine new city additions won approval Monday afternoon at a public hearing in City Hall. Two minor changes were made.

Cop Suspended In Bribe Offer

HOUSTON (UPI)—Police Chief Carl Shuptrine suspended Inspector Foy Melton in a midnight conference Monday night following a three-week probe of a reported bribe offer in a $2,500,000 lawsuit.

Shuptrine and Melton met for about 15 minutes in the inspector's office and when Melton came out just before midnight, he announced, "I have been suspended."

Shuptrine sent a letter to the Civil Service Commission outlining the suspension. The letter, in effect, upheld patrolman Billy D. Snow's testimony that he had received a bribe offer to change his testimony.

The case involved a $2,500,000 lawsuit filed by oilman Robert W. Milner and rancher Bert F. Winston against National Airlines after the two men were arrested following a flight from New Orleans two years ago.

9 Attend RC Meeting

Sam Begert, JRC chairman, presided at the Junior Red Cross principal, teacher sponsors breakfast morning. John Gikas, chapter chairman, gave the invocation.

Thirteen schools were represented with 29 persons attending. Special guests included—Knoxward, superintendent of schools; Marianna Perkins and Jerry Porter who presented the program.

Miss Perkins distributed the JRC journal and called attention to the article in the magazine on the Pampa Junior Red Cross.

Jerry Porter spoke on "How RC Can Serve in Schools and Community." He pointed out that service was on local, national and international levels. He stressed the need of an art exhibit to be sent to the International Red Cross.

He also pointed out that service on the three levels could be accomplished by packing gifts, boxes, making music records and production items for the hospitals and making exhibit albums.

Mrs. Libby Shotwell, executive secretary of Pampa Chapter of American Red Cross, gave the financial report and distributed JRC pins to principals and teacher sponsors. She also distributed enrollment supplies. Enrollment of JRC throughout the school system here will be Nov. 9-13.

Principals and teacher sponsors attending were Howard Graham, representing Pampa High School; Mrs. John Tripplett, Pampa Junior High; Jack W. Nichols, principal, and Mrs. Eugene Olds, Robert E. Lee; John Evans, principal, and Mrs. J. Hamilton, Baker. Also Joe Page, principal, and Mrs. Adelaide Colville, Lamar; D. V. Biggers, principal, and Mrs. Ben Ogden, Stephen F. Austin; L. C. Davis, principal, and Mrs. M. Richey, Sam Houston; Wendell Alt, principal, and Miss Jeanette Turner, Travis; Floyd Smith, principal, and William L. L. Harkins, principal, Lollie Pop School.

Value Days This Week

Shoppers in the Top of Texas area will have the advantage of another series of Pampa Value Days Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, Oct. 22, 23 and 24, according to Lucian Young, chairman of the Merchants Activities Committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce.

All downtown stores will feature outstanding value during the weekend. However, no giveaway programs are included in this month's value days.

All stores in the city are well stocked with fall merchandise in fact, a great deal of Christmas merchandise is already on display and ready for lay-away.

Stores will observe regular hours during the three day Pampa Value Days and the general public is invited and urged to shop in Pampa stores in order to take advantage of the many special values being offered.

bearing on the campaign as a whole. While many pledges ranged from 25 per cent to 50 per cent greater than last year, those who made no gift tend to offset these increases, in part.

The next report session is called for 7:30 a.m. Friday, in the Cabot Auditorium. All workers are urged to complete their contacts, and be present to report their success. Every effort will still be made to conclude the campaign by noon next Tuesday.

It was learned this morning that campaign leaders want to hold a victory luncheon, but only if the goal is reached. The Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce has invited United Fund officers to stage a joint meeting at the regular Jaycee luncheon Oct. 27.

Chairman Watson has not yet announced whether the campaign will close at that hour. The United Fund office is working to keep current totals of all pledges and gifts brought in. When and if, it appears the goal is within sight, final arrangements will be announced concerning the victory celebration.

Watson said "we would have little to celebrate, in my opinion, if we fall short. But, let's not even consider failing. This is one job we must do."

Fighters Gain On Brush Fire

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — More than 2,500 firefighters today were expected to contain the 14,200-acre brush fire that has flamed through Angeles National Forest for a week.

Fire officials remained cautious but said if weather conditions continued favorably they would have the blaze fully encircled during the morning hours.

They began releasing equipment and firefighters Monday night but plan to leave a large complement on hand for weeks to handle mop-up operations.

Some 700 men Monday contained a 3,500-acre fire near Castaic, 40 miles northeast of the central blaze in rugged mountainous territory. The fire started Sunday when a bullet tore through a high-tension power line.

A Long Beach school camp facility had to be evacuated when fire broke through the northeast corner of the Angeles blaze from Bear Canyon. There were 10 adults and three children in the camp.

Christmas Tree Cards Distributed At Optimist Meet

Pampa's Evening Optimist Club distributed Christmas tree cards and heard a brief talk by Harvester football coach, Babe Curfman, at its weekly meeting Monday evening at Poole's Steak House.

Christmas tree cards were distributed to club members for sale to the public. Cards will be sold for $1 each, and one card may be applied to the purchase of a tree from any Optimist Christmas tree lot.

The price of the card will be refunded at any tree lot to anyone desiring a refund, club officials said. Lots will be located at Cuyler and Tyng, and at Hobart and Decatur.

Curfman, in his speech, said that the Harvesters have a good chance of winning their next three games, and that they are still in contention for a high place in district standings.

He added that the Harvesters make up spirit what they lack in size, and that they are, in fact, the most spirited team he has ever coached.

He said that players on this year's squad carry out their blocking and ball-carrying assignments better than any other football team he has ever coached. He predicted that many college coaches will soon be in Pampa looking for football prospects.

Father Of Pampa Woman Dies Sun.

Funeral arrangements are pending in San Antonio for A. C. LeVelle, 90, father of Mrs. J. G. Doggett of Pampa. Mr. LeVelle died Sunday night at his home in San Antonio.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church of Hedley and the Order of Eastern Star.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by the Richerson-Lamb Funeral Home of McLean.

Graveside Rites For Z. Coffey

Funeral services for Z. Coffey, father of Mrs. Boyd A. Stewart, 505 Powell, were to have been held at 2:30 today in Terrell, Okla. Graveside services will be held in Fairview Cemetery, Pampa, at 3:30 this afternoon with Rev. O. M. Butler, pastor of Harrah Methodist Church, officiating.

Mr. Coffey died Saturday night in Terrell.

In addition to Mrs. Stewart, he is survived by his wife of the home in Terrell; one son and two grandchildren, Pat and Parker Stewart.

Warrant Issued In Theft Case

A warrant for the arrest of Joe Ray Walker, 32, of Amarillo, was issued Monday following a complaint that Walker took $56 from a south Pampa home Sunday night.

Mrs. Naomi Neal, 422 Maple, told police that while she was attending church Sunday evening Walker took $56 from a cedar chest in her home. Walker had been visiting the Walker home during the day.

The arrest warrant was issued by District Attorney Bill Waters. Police said Walker fled town Sunday night and is probably headed toward Oklahoma.

Final Rites For Marshall Today

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two U.S. Presidents pay final homage today to Gen. George C. Marshall at simple, touching funeral services for the stately soldier-diplomat they considered one of the greatest Americans.

President Eisenhower and former President Truman, Marshall's comrades in momentous events of war and peace, will lead the small group of government and military leaders at the private ceremony in the chapel of nearby Ft. Myer, Va.

Marshall then will be buried in family-only rites in Arlington National Cemetery. The nation will give its last tribute — a 19-gun salute, three volleys of rifle shots, "the melancholy notes of 'Taps'—when the distinguished old soldier is brought to his final resting place.

Grand Jury Indicts Bowman

District Attorney Bill Waters reported this morning that the Gray County Grand Jury has returned an indictment for theft against E. B. Bowman Jr. of Pampa.

Bowman, former manager of White House Lumber Co., is being held under $5,000 bond, set Friday by Judge Lewis Goodrich.

Bowman is charged with acquiring $35 on a bill on sale for a home sold by White House Lumber. The Pampa man lives at 2136 Aspen.

Driving Offender Has Parole Revoked

Orris Lee Wedge, 31, of 724 S. Sumner, is being held under $2,000 bond today while awaiting transfer to the State Penitentiary at Huntsville, police reported this morning.

Wedge was involved in an accident Friday night on S. Barnes in which Troy C. Guthrie, rural Pampa, was injured.

Police said that at the time of the accident Wedge was on parole from Huntsville after serving 11 months of a five-year term for DWI. Wedge is currently being held in county jail.

Pleads Innocent

Claude H. Casey, 59, of Rt. 2, Pampa, entered a plea of not guilty to drunken driving charges Monday in county court. His bond was set at $500.

L. Harkins, principal, Lollie Pop School.

Value Days This Week

Shoppers in the Top of Texas area will have the advantage of another series of Pampa Value Days Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week, Oct. 22, 23 and 24, according to Lucian Young, chairman of the Merchants Activities Committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce.

All downtown stores will feature outstanding value during the weekend. However, no giveaway programs are included in this month's value days.

All stores in the city are well stocked with fall merchandise in fact, a great deal of Christmas merchandise is already on display and ready for lay-away.

Stores will observe regular hours during the three day Pampa Value Days and the general public is invited and urged to shop in Pampa stores in order to take advantage of the many special values being offered.

bearing on the campaign as a whole. While many pledges ranged from 25 per cent to 50 per cent greater than last year, those who made no gift tend to offset these increases, in part.

The next report session is called for 7:30 a.m. Friday, in the Cabot Auditorium. All workers are urged to complete their contacts, and be present to report their success. Every effort will still be made to conclude the campaign by noon next Tuesday.

It was learned this morning that campaign leaders want to hold a victory luncheon, but only if the goal is reached. The Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce has invited United Fund officers to stage a joint meeting at the regular Jaycee luncheon Oct. 27.

Chairman Watson has not yet announced whether the campaign will close at that hour. The United Fund office is working to keep current totals of all pledges and gifts brought in. When and if, it appears the goal is within sight, final arrangements will be announced concerning the victory celebration.

9 Attend RC Meeting

Sam Begert, JRC chairman, presided at the Junior Red Cross principal, teacher sponsors breakfast morning. John Gikas, chapter chairman, gave the invocation.

Thirteen schools were represented with 29 persons attending. Special guests included—Knoxward, superintendent of schools; Marianna Perkins and Jerry Porter who presented the program.

Miss Perkins distributed the JRC journal and called attention to the article in the magazine on the Pampa Junior Red Cross.

Jerry Porter spoke on "How RC Can Serve in Schools and Community." He pointed out that service was on local, national and international levels. He stressed the need of an art exhibit to be sent to the International Red Cross.

He also pointed out that service on the three levels could be accomplished by packing gifts, boxes, making music records and production items for the hospitals and making exhibit albums.

This I Saw

"This was her first day camp. She was active, alert and excited — a 'model camper.' All day she had tried everything — every game, skill and contest. She was polite, but wide-eyed with wonder. Most of the Girl Scouts with her were accustomed to outings, but not this little girl. When she tried to say 'thank you' her face was flushed, her eyes sparkling, and the words tumbled one over the other.

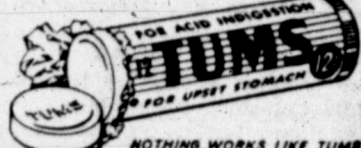

"But, when she said 'I've never been camping before... not even a picnic,' I found it hard to believe, but she went on: 'You see, we don't go on picnics. My Daddy says they are foolish and Mama says we can't afford it. We have to go without a lot of things so Mama and Daddy can have their medicine. It makes them cross when they take it, and I'm not allowed to take for anything... ever. Thanks for the best fun in my life.'"

"She was a lonely little girl who found that Girl Scouts care, and it made her happy, for a few hours. This I Saw."

Texas Restaurant Association Marks 22nd Anniversary

The Texas Restaurant Association was chartered in 1937 as an educational organization, with the major purpose of improving the standards of the industry through a process of education. In the two decades which have followed, steering officials of the association have never lost sight of this original objective, although at times progress has been slow. Under capable leadership, association membership has swelled from a handful to some 2,300 members, the latest in office equipment has been added, the program of activities has been intensified, and the convention and trade shows have grown by leaps and bounds. As the membership grew so did the work load upon the office staff and additions had to be made. Now a full-time staff of eight, headed by W. Price Jr., executive vice president, serves as an assembling and distribution point for ideas, plans and information helpful to restaurant operators. "Service to the public in the interest of the public" has always been the underlying theme behind the association's effort to keep the public informed of restaurant advancement. The association tries to maintain a well-balanced public relations program which will build confidence in the Texas restaurant industry. Standing committees work the year around to cement even stronger the relationships of "Tex" as restaurant operators. Various other committees work equally as hard at planning the association's annual convention, broadening the association's insurance program, increasing membership and developing an extensive long-range educational program. In May, 1957, the National Restaurant Association presented TRA with the Silver Service Award in recognition of TRA's effective membership service to the food service industry. Only six awards have been presented and TRA was the only trade association to receive this honor. Again in May, 1958, NRA paid tribute to TRA by awarding it a plaque in recognition of the outstanding service rendered to its membership through the publication of its general service bulletins. Faced with the problem of finding more office space in which to operate efficiently and render more membership services, TRA officials decided it was time the association built its own headquarters building. Started in the summer of 1957, the modernistic one-story brick structure was completed in January, 1958 on the Interstate Highway, only five minutes from downtown Austin. Designed to meet the expanding needs of the restaurant industry of Texas, the air-conditioned building contains 5,000 square feet of floor space including spacious association offices, library and conference room, production room, and a basement for supply storage and mechanical equipment. Ample off-street parking is available in front and behind the building which has a foundation for a second floor for future expansion. A huge flashing neon sign in front of the building emphasizes TRA's emblem and slogan, "Eating Out Is Fun." Over 50,000 cars pass the new headquarters building daily.

Millions At Stake In Indian Claims

By MARGUERITE DAVIS United Press International WASHINGTON (UPI) - Attorneys for two Indian tribes and the government are studying old documents, trying to determine the value 128 years ago of 4,114,330 acres in Michigan and Indiana. The Potawatomi and Ottawa tribes contend the value ranged upward from $1.25 an acre when tribal chiefs, succumbing to threats and bribes, sold the land to the government for less than three cents an acre. This was under the Treaty of 1821. The sum was "unconscionable," they said, and they have appealed to the Indian Claims Commission to right the alleged wrong. No specific figure was set. The commission ruled June 30, 1958, that the Ottawa tribe and the Potawatomi of St. Joseph, more commonly called the Potawatomi of Indiana and Michigan, proceeded the land to the United States in the 1821 treaty. Lawyers now are studying official documents, journals and newspapers of that day, compiling the price of milk, eggs, timber and land, in an effort to set the 1821 value. Even if it is decided the Indians were cheated, the date of payment will be several years distant. The figure accepted by the commission may be appealed by the government or the Indians to the U.S. Court of Claims. When the sum finally is accepted, payments already made will be deducted from the total, together with any money spent gratuitously on the tribes. Congress then must appropriate the money and, in a second act, authorize its distribution. The latter is a complicated matter. Claims for the payments have been filed by the Citizens Band of Potawatomi Indians of Oklahoma, the prairie band of the Potawatomi tribe, Forest County Potawatomi.

Surgeon Will Attempt Leg Graft On Girl

LONDON (UPI) - The London Daily Herald has reported from Moscow that a Russian surgeon is preparing to graft a new right leg on a 20-year old girl in the first such operation in history. Herald reporter John Mossman identified the surgeon as Dr. Vladimir Demikhov who previously won headlines by successfully grafting the head of a small dog onto another, creating a two-headed animal. He quoted Demikhov as saying: "I can now take the limb from a person who has died and transplant it on to a living person. The girl is my first patient." The girl was described as a typist who recently lost a leg when she was hit by a train. Mossman quoted Demikhov as saying, "She is pretty and when I have patched her up there should be a queue of young men waiting to marry her." Demikhov was quoted as saying he was "ready to operate tomorrow" but there were some "administrative matters" to be cleared first. Mossman, who said he interviewed Demikhov at his Moscow research laboratory, described the grafting procedure as follows: "First the professor has to find a limb from a newly dead person of about the same age as the person undergoing the operation. For up to six months the patient will feel nothing from the limb until the nerves and tiny blood vessels have grown again." The Daily Herald, in an accompanying story, quoted "one of Britain's top surgeons," who was not named, as saying that if the Russians actually could perform a leg-grafting operation as described, "it means they are about 100 years ahead in the field of biology."

Court Rumors Royal Twins

LONDON (UPI) - Court gossip was reported speculating today that the child Queen Elizabeth II expects early next year may turn out to be twins. Twin births are not uncommon in European royal circles. Prince Philip's sister Margaret recently gave birth to twins. A number of the Queen's more or less distant cousins are twins, and she has twin great-aunts on her mother's side of the family. Another factor that tends to weigh in favor of a twin birth is the fact that the Queen is 33. Mothers in their 30s often give birth to more than one child at a time. Although it is fairly well established that a new-prince probably would be named James or Andrew and a new princess would be Mary, court circles are uncertain what names might be given to twins—particularly if both were girls.

Look In The Mirror Advocated By GOP

By GEORGE J. MARDER United Press International WASHINGTON (UPI) - The Republican Party has undertaken a critical self-examination in an effort to work out a pattern of victory for the future. The objective of the study, carried out by a group of 40, was to determine whether the GOP needs merely a face-lifting, a complete change of heart, or a bit of both to meet the demands of the American voter. The special study was prompted by the fact the Republicans lost control of Congress to the Democrats in three straight elections, including ones in which President Eisenhower won a second term by a landslide but couldn't carry the party with him. The results of the study are now being made public. So far, they are remarkable in the extent to which they are in tune with Mr. Republican himself: the late Sen. Robert A. Taft. For-while-looking-ahead many years to what the GOP should be supporting in the future, the study group—in essence—has made a strong defense of the Republican philosophy of conservatism. Conservatism, the study group argues, is the true and only progressive political philosophy for America. That is exactly how Taft argued. The late Ohio senator believed political labels were meaningless. But he was proud to be labeled a conservative because he felt the conservative was the true progressive. He argued that being a conservative did not mean turning back the clock. He felt that conservatism in politics was identical with conservatism in natural resources. In other words, Taft felt that to conserve the nation's wealth and energy, so that it would pay off over the long pull, was the best way to progress as a nation.

Poor Diet Habits Make Trouble For New Moms

ing habits prevalent among today's teenage girls.

Dr. White believes the principal reason for the poor nutritional status of adolescent girls is that they want to stay slim and attractive. "They get ideas that certain foods are taboo because they are fattening," he explains, "and often these are the foods with the highest nutritional value."

For instance, he says, "Girls cannot substitute a soda pop for a glass of milk and still expect to get the same needed nutrients." Anyway, he explains, no food will make you fat unless you eat more of it than your body requires.

The nutrients most lacking in adolescent girls are:

- Vitamin A, found in milk, butter, eggs and vegetables.
- Vitamin C, which comes from fruit juices.
- Iron, found in red meats and eggs.
- Thyamin, which can be obtained by eating meats and enriched bread.

And a Soda Pop: a good social life, but a risky diet.

By JERRY BENNETT
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Girls lunch only on a candy bar soda pop may bear unhealthy effects.

The warning comes from documents which also have found that girls with poor nutrition are likely to lose their babies during pregnancy.

An expectant mother who has observed correct dietary habits over a long period of time builds up a nutrient store. This reserve of vitamins and minerals helps her body meet its additional needs, thereby allowing more nourishment from meals to be used by the child. Without an adequate reserve, both bodies have trouble getting enough nourishment.

"Parents," says Dr. White, "have a responsibility to develop in their children good nutritional habits." He believes they should instill these habits while children are very young and make sure they follow them while growing up.

Otherwise, he contends, youngsters will fall into the bad eating habits prevalent among today's teenage girls.

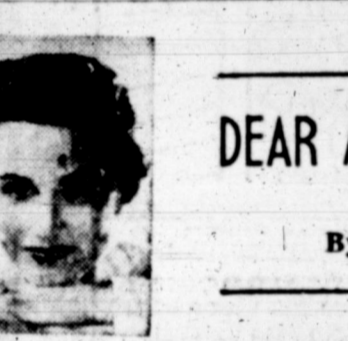

Another reason for girls' poor eating habits is their active social life. White comments:

"They are constantly caught up in a storm of activity and they don't want to cut out anything. They think that the easiest thing to do is to eat a soda pop to sacrifice is proper meals."

Many health experts believe schools can help solve the nutrition problem by teaching correct eating habits. To bring this about, the National Food Conference — an organization of food manufacturers, distributors and farm trade groups — is promoting high school nutritional classes. The conference also sponsors a state youth meetings to discuss dietary problems.

Meanwhile, medical researchers are gathering more information on the effects of diet on an unborn child. One project, considered especially important, is investigating the relationship between poor nutrition and congenital defects such as cleft palate.

Experiments have disclosed that faulty nourishment during pregnancy can cause such defects in animals. Scientists hope to learn if the same thing is true of humans.

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband gives me the silent treatment when I get mad at me. I would much prefer he yell his head off and get it out of his system. He is in the third week of his silence and it is about to kill me. I follow him around and ask him what I did wrong but he doesn't say a word. He just gets up and walks out of the room. No one knows how aggravating this cause is. He gave me the silent treatment for eight weeks once for losing his bank statements. I have no idea what I did wrong this time. Have you any solution? We've been married 32 years.

DEAR PUNISHED: After living with this "silent partner" for 52 years you should know how to pry a little conversation out of him. When he realizes his silence is not producing the desired effect — you'll hear plenty.

DEAR ABBY: I am a boy of 15. My mother drives me to school every morning because I live too far to walk and there is no bus. When I get out of the car I always kiss my mother goodbye. The kids razz me about this. I feel embarrassed but I couldn't leave my mother without kissing her goodbye. Should I stop kissing her or not?

EMBARRASSED: DEAR EMBARRASSED: Continue to kiss her. Pay no attention to the kids.

DEAR ABBY: May I offer a bit of encouragement to the widow whose husband shot himself? You say you are confused because you thought you had a happy marriage, but now there are rumors to the contrary.

Psychiatrists tell us that suicides are people who are emotionally and mentally ill. This suicide need cast no reflection on your marriage. If you "thought" you were happy for 23 years, then you obviously were.

Rumor and gossip will accompany a suicide until we convert the ignorance of our society to understanding. Devote yourself to one other worthy cause beside your children. Try the mental health program. After all, who should help promote this cause but those who know?

And keep your faith in God. His love is broader than the measure of man's mind. Live with the memory of your 23 happy married years. Memory is a gift from God that neither death nor gossip can destroy. Every word that I have written is true because it is the story of my life. I am —

Barrett WMU Installs Officers

Women's Missionary Society of Barrett Baptist Chapel met recently in the church, 903 E. Beryl, for the installation of officers.

Mrs. S. E. Waters of the First Baptist Church conducted the ceremony for Mmes. Paul Miller, president; R. L. Powell, enlistment vice president; Walter Woolley, secretary; treasurer; Frankie Henry, prayer chairman; Ralph McDonald, program chairman; A. V. Burns, community missions; Gene Grace, missions study; Jerry Simpson, social chairman; Mike Porter, GA director; Edna Murray, Sunbeam director.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Porter from a table accented with a bouquet of lavender mums.

The next meeting of the group will be on Oct. 21 at 9:30 a.m. in the church.

FFF Sale Planned By St. Vincent Society

"Food For the Fastidious" will be offered by St. Vincent dePaul Altar Society at a bake sale to be held on Wednesday morning in the lobby of the Hughes Building starting at 7:45 a.m. Ladies of the church are requested to bring their favorite baked food to the sale.

Mrs. R. E. McKernan is chairman of the sale and is assisted by Mrs. Victor Jamieson and Mrs. M. F. Roche.

Proceeds from the sale will go toward the upkeep of the church altars, the Altar Society's project.

Skellytown Scouts Camp Overnight

SKELLYTOWN (Sp) — Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 51 and Senior Girl Scout Troop 48, camped overnight at Camp Mel Davis recently. Each girl took a sack lunch for noon on Saturday. In the evening, a hamburger and vegetable supper was cooked in coffee cans in a trench fire. During the evening, a fire was built in the lounge fireplace and corn was popped and smores were made.

Hiking and exploring was enjoyed by the group and camp skills were taught the younger ones.

Senior Scouts Ann Duncan and Ann Harlan had charge of the flag ceremony and Scouts Own on Sunday morning. Intermediate girl scouts were guests of the senior scouts for the outing.

Attending were leaders, Mmes. Fred Wall and Calvin Duncan; bus driver, Fred Wall; Senior Scouts, Ann Harlan, Rosalie McAllister, Linda Payne; Intermediate Scouts, Becky Durning, Rita McAllister, Linda Green, Carol Ogle, Lillie Hassler, Connie Allan, Sandra Hamlin, Anita Werley, and Patricia Earnest.

SKELLYTOWN (Sp) — Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 48 went in a group to Pampa recently to record a girl scout program at Radio station KHHH, to be presented at a later date.

Following the taping session, the scouts bowled at a local bowling alley and had lunch.

Members of the troop are Mmes. A. W. Shurbing and Roy Burgin, leaders, and Sandra Biggers, Lana Sue Brown, Beverly Harlan, Nan Harman, Janice Greenway, Linda Johnson, Judith McKernan, Linda Pittman, Karen Stevens, Myrna Shurbing, Linda Burgin, Sheila Ernest, Wanda Moore and Paulette Hinton.

Curious children often drink from strange bottles around the house. If a child drinks or eats something poisonous, call a doctor. Until he comes, have the child drink soapy water, mixed with baking soda or mustard. This induces vomiting which helps rid the stomach of the poison.

Your house will be cleaner and less work for you if you use all attachments on a vacuum sweeper. Use the upholstery brush to keep bamboo screens or room dividers free of dust.

What's your problem? For a personal reply write to ABBY, care of this paper. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

A TEMPTING variety of uses for succulent fresh dates: in a salad dressing, a date milk shake and in a sauce for ice cream.

Cook's Nook

Dates Come Into Own With These Tasty Recipes

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

Fresh dates are fine eating. Because the Coachella Valley in California is regarded as the chief date producing area in the United States, we went there for interesting uses of fresh dates.

Cottage-cheese and fruit salads are enhanced by a topping of "date salad dressing." Try it also on Waldorf salad or with finely shredded cabbage instead of the usual sour cream or boiled dressing.

CALIFORNIA DATE SALAD DRESSING (Makes about 2 cups dressing)

One cup fresh dates, 2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice, 1/4 cup fresh orange juice, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup whipping cream, 1/4 cup mayonnaise, 1 tablespoon marshmallow cherry syrup or grenadine.

Cut dates into slivers of small pieces. Add lemon and orange juices and salt; stir to blend, then let stand 1/2 hour or longer. Beat cream until stiff. Fold in mayonnaise. Add all remaining ingredients. Serve on fruit and cottage cheese salads.

COACHELLA DATE MILK SHAKE (Makes about 1 quart)

One cup fresh dates, boiling water, 1 pint vanilla or coffee ice cream, 1-16 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons fresh lime or lemon juice, 1 cup light cream or rich milk.

Let stand a minute or two, drain, slip off and discard skins; pit dates. Combine all ingredients in electric blender and blend until mixture is thick and creamy. If blender is not available cut dates into small pieces and beat mixture with electric or rotary beater until of milk shake consistency. Garnish each milk shake with additional ice cream and pitted dates, if desired.

INDIO DATE SAUCE (Makes about 2 cups sauce)

Two cups fresh dates, 1 cup light corp syrup, 1/2 cup sherry or muscat wine for water, 1/2 teaspoon grated orange rind, 1 or 2 tablespoons chopped candied ginger.

Pit and cut dates into strips. Combine with all remaining ingredients in quart jar; stir lightly

Re-using plastic bags you get at the store or dry cleaners is a money-saver. Store seeds and bulbs in the smaller ones, for example. Large plastic bags can cover stored fans, books and papers that you won't be using but want to keep clean.

Credit Women To Send Delegates To Conference

Pampa Credit Women's Club met Friday evening at 7:30 in the City Club Room with Mrs. Virgil Wesner, president, presiding as a report was given by Mrs. Ruby Crocker, acting secretary, in the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Ruth Marselle.

Mrs. Ethel Stillwell, Virgie Wesner, Ruby Crocker, Vena Riley and Leona Woods will attend the Panhandle and South Plains Regional Consumer's Credit conference, which will be held in the Kemp Hotel, Wichita Falls, on Oct. 24-25.

Following the business meeting, the lesson "Preparing for Progress by Self-Improvement" was studied with Mrs. Virginia McDonald as coordinator.

Door prize was won by Mrs. Ruth McQuary.

Refreshments were served during the social hour by Mmes. Leola Higginbotham and Ruth McQuary.

Attending in addition to those mentioned above were Mmes. Lola Nicholson, Bobby Brummett, Ethel Bryon, Claudia Nees, Elizabeth Lewis, Jerry Hodges, Fay Butler, and two guests, Mmes. Helen Lindsey and Mary Matthews.

WWI Auxiliary Names Officers

Ladies Auxiliary to Veterans of World War One of the United States, Barracks 1952, was organized on Oct. 16 with 15 members signing the charter.

Officers elected at the charter meeting were Mmes. J. E. Beard, president; George Benamm, senior vice president; Clyde Batson, junior vice president; George DeMoss, treasurer; Louise Karlin, chaplain; Joseph Rance, conductor; Cora Yates, guard; Thelma Thompson, Buck Lemons, Etta Crister, trustees; and J. H. Trotter, secretary.

Officers were installed by Mrs. Etta M. Ladd of Amarillo, district president. Other district officers participating were Mmes. Letitia

Suggested Ways To Help Children Read

"Education U.S.A."
By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International

Parents may do more harm than good by trying to give reading lessons at home. But there are many other ways in which they can help their children to become good readers.

This advice comes from reading experts of the National Education Association and the U.S. Office of Education. They were asked to give parents some down-to-earth tips on what they can do to reinforce school programs in reading.

They began with two important don'ts:

1. Don't undertake formal reading instruction at home unless you're a qualified teacher. Few parents are trained in modern methods of developing reading skills. By setting up a conflict of authority "mother says do it this way, but teacher says do it that way," they may confuse the child and make it difficult for him to learn by any method.

2. Don't bring pressure on a

Science Club Names Officers

LEFORS (Spl) — The L. H. S. Science club recently elected officers for the year under the sponsorship of Paul Walden, science teacher.

Winifred Nowlin was elected president; Doug Burreas, vice president; and Jerry Carpenter, secretary-treasurer.

Plans for field trips and photographic study were discussed. Study and experiments of radar sets were started.

It was decided that the club will meet every second Tuesday in the science room.

New Furniture In Lefors Schools

LEFORS (Spl) — The appearance of the classrooms of the Lefors Elementary and Junior High Schools has been greatly improved by the installation of new furniture.

Grades one through six are using desks which have lifting tops. These desks are a modernistic blue-green in color with a blonde wood finish.

Junior High School classrooms have been furnished with chair type desks. These are also modernistic and blue-green in color with blonde wood finish.

from more sophisticated games like "Scrabble" and "hangman."
6. Take advantage of situations in which he needs reading skill in order to do something he wants to do. For example, if he has a build-it-yourself toy, insist that he read the instructions for himself, even if you have to tell him many of the words. If he wants to know what's at the movies, show him the ads and let him figure out as much as he can for himself while you supply the rest.

That's a starter. For parents who want more information on this subject, the National Education Association has two fine little booklets entitled "Sailing Into Reading" and "Janie Learns to Read" (Available from NEA headquarters, 1201 16th St., Washington 6, D.C. for 50 cents each). Also recommended is "a parent's guide to children's reading" by Nancy Larrick, former president of the International Reading Association (Available in bookstores in a 35 cents pocketbook edition).

Queen Candidates Named At Lefors

LEFORS (Spl) — Carnival Queen candidates for the Halloween Carnival were recently chosen by their respective classes in high school and grade school. The reigning queen will be crowned at the Halloween carnival in the high school auditorium, Oct. 31.

The first grade elected Sandra Cain who will be escorted by Timmy Tutor. The second grade candidate is Belinda Cates whose escort will be Terry Dunn. The third grade elected Vicky Cates who will be escorted by David Geyer.

Fourth grade candidate is Sue Thacker. Her escort will be Forest Miller. The fifth grade elected Barbara Awen whose escort will be Raymond Barnett.

The sixth grade's choice is Marcia McDonald, and her escort is to be Dixon Boyd. Seventh grade candidate is Terry Brewer to be escorted by David Roberts. Velda Gifford is the eighth grade candidate. She will be escorted by Donny Fields.

Madonna Jordan was chosen as the freshman candidate for queen with Bobby Gotcher as her escort. Karen Priest was the sophomore's choice to be escorted by Jimmy Fields.

Barbara Halley was chosen as the junior candidate. Clara Williams was elected as senior candidate. Miss Williams has chosen Don Dorsey as her escort.

KEEP THE CHANGE
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Two gunman escaped in a getaway car after a fast-paced hotel holdup during the week end. They took the entire contents of the cash box — 11 cents.

Teenage library Group Entertains

Pampa students entertained from 10:30 a.m. until 11 a.m. to the District One Teenage Library Association meeting at Robert E. Lee Junior High School.

Miss Jane Cheyne's speech class at Robert E. Lee presented a radio skit. Diane and Mike Phillips from Horace Mann Elementary School presented a musical number. A dance routine was performed by Martha Price, Pampa Junior High School student.

A total of 297 persons, representing 25 schools, were present at the meeting. "United Through Books" was the theme.

Pampa Junior High and Robert E. Lee Junior High library assistants and sponsors were hostesses. Mrs. Ruth Watson is sponsor at Pampa and Miss Ila Pool, Robert E. Lee.

Jane Pool of Hereford is president and presided at the meeting. Pat Haley, vice president, a student at Canyon, was in charge of the program.

Pat Haley was elected president of the association during the all day meeting.

Warren Hasse was speaker at the noon luncheon. He used "Old Time Favorites" as his topic for discussion.

The 1960-61 meeting will be held at Monterey High School in Lubbock.

Lewis Elected Band President

LEFORS (Spl) — Betty Sue Lewis has been selected for the 1959-60 president of the Lefors Pirate Band. She will be assisted by Neal Cates, vice president; and Margie Nichols, secretary.

A band council was recently added to the list of officers for the year which included Gary Smith, Everett Smiley, Martha Carter, Jerry Pritch, Johnny Wartner, Penny Boyd, Sherry Archer, and Wilma Carls.

Senior Rings Are Received
 LEFORS (Spl) — The 1960 senior rings have been received by members of the senior class at Lefors High School. This year for the first time the new standardized ring has been awarded to a Lefors senior class.
 The majority of the rings are the recessed stone with a pirate head set in the center. Others received the oval set. Both rings have an engraved picture of the L. H. S. building and oil derrick, wheat stalks, the Alamo and the U.S. and Texas flags.

Latin America Now Backs Stable Money

By HENRY RAYMONT
 United Press International
 WASHINGTON (UPI) — Latin American financial experts have made a dramatic turn-out. They now enthusiastically support anti-inflationary policies preached by the International Monetary Fund.
 They also are applauding the increasing operations of the World Bank in their countries after years of complaint that they were being neglected.
 The switch represents a triumph for advocates of stable monetary policy and orthodox economic theories over those favoring faster economic expansion, even at the risk of inflation.
 This, according to U.S. officials, was the most striking development in the recent annual meeting of the twin 65-nation organizations founded in 1944 at Bretton Woods to help restore order in the free world's economies.
 The meeting, which had a record attendance of finance ministers and central bank directors, also brought out additional points of major importance for Latin America:
 — A growing awareness of the danger posed by declining commodity prices in underdeveloped countries, which depend on primary exports, and a new determination to do something about it.
 — Assurance that the proposed billion-dollar International Development Association, an affiliate of the bank, will not discriminate against Latin America in allocating long-term, low-interest credits despite the forthcoming creation of an Inter-American Development Bank.
 Fund and Bank officials were pleasantly surprised when the week-long meeting went by without the familiar Latin American criticisms.
 For the first time, Latin American delegates were almost unanimous in saying a government can do best for its people only by keeping its budgets in control and its currencies stable.
 Only Brazil still expressed reservations.
 Uruguay was the latest convert. Its delegation told Fund authorities of plans to put the peso on a more realistic basis and ease exchange restrictions.

Football Squad Names Sweetheart
 LEFORS (Spl) — Miss Pat Berry, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Luther Berry, reigned as Football Sweetheart for the 1959-60 season at the homecoming game between the Stinnett Rattlers and the Lefors Pirates.
 She was escorted by the co-captains, Jerry Carpenter and Danny Wileman.
 She circled the football field with her attendants in a convertible donated by the Kisse Ford Company, stopping in the middle of the field where they were met by their escorts.
 The sweetheart was presented with a dozen red roses and a sweetheart locket. Her attendants received chrysanthemums from their escorts. A throne was prepared on the fifty yard line, where the sweetheart sat during the game.
 Attendants were Carolyn Harvey, senior, escorted by Lee Blankenburg; Betty Lewis, junior, escorted by Don Dorsey; Beverly White, sophomore, escorted by Ronnie Lines; and Mary Collins, freshman, escorted by James Coleman.
YOUNG MOTHER.
 TURIN, Italy (UPI) — Fourteen-year-old Maria Grazia Marra gave birth to a seven pound boy Saturday in the Santanns Hospital. The mother, who married a 21-year-old laborer last year when she was 13, and child were reported well.

were able to report that the stabilization programs worked out with the fund were already showing signs of success — stronger monetary reserves and greater foreign willingness to invest.
 Ecuador, the oldest follower of the Fund's advice, has had a revenue surplus for the past 10 years.

Peru, which saw its economy go downhill after it abandoned certain fiscal measures, is hastily adopting sounder practices.
 Speaking for the Latin American delegations at the closing session, Chilean Central Bank Director Eduardo Figueroa called monetary stability "the safest means toward encouraging growth of our economies."
 This position is still disputed by a minority of economists, some of them working for the United Nations, who believe that stopping inflation at all costs is likely to harm the economies of the underdeveloped nations.
 They share the belief of Brazilian President Juscelino Kubitschek that it is politically and socially hazardous to arrest the rate of growth of nations depending in need of better living standards.
 No one disputes the view that a healthy rate of growth is a desirable goal. Orthodox economists, rather, stress the argument that there will be no steady and sustained growth unless inflation is stopped first.

Red Griggs ★ the pipeline

After Saturday night, I felt for a while like the Las Vegas gambler who put one coin in the slot machine and the jackpot.

Never before, in more than a full season of trying to pick football winners, had I attempted to pick a tie. But for last week's Pick-it Line, I decided I'd try it, just for kicks.

The SMU-Rice game looked about the closest to the week's schedule. The Southwest Conference always has at least one tie game, and I had a feeling this might just be it. Figuring it was probably a pick thrown away, but what the heck, I marked "Rice 14, SMU 14."

I heard the last minute of that game, which was tied 13-13. SMU was inside the Rice 20, and Don Meredith was watching for the Ponies. I begged and pleaded with Rice to please intercept a pass, and sure enough they did. Rice had moral victory, and I had picked a tie in my first try.

The Las Vegas gambler, if he's smart, will quit when he hits the jackpot so quickly — So I don't think I'll be trying to pick any more ties. A fool and his luck are soon parted, to paraphrase an old saying of Confucius (or maybe Mave-tick's old pappy.)

Overall, I hit 23 and missed five, with two ties which didn't pick. Marvin Olsen had a streak of bad luck, with 16 hits, 11 misses, and three ties (which was not, however, as bad as some of my worst weeks).

Bucks Make 333 Yards Per Game

The White Deer Bucks aren't winning yardage this year at the rate of 1954, when they won the state class A championship. However, they're still doing well, with an average of 333 for six games.

Jackie Burns, a tackle completely as a runner, is the Bucks' leading ground gainer, with 897 yards on 89 carries. Burns, now a fullback, is a converted quarterback. Other White Deer ball carriers with credit for 200 or more yards rushing are Don Carter, with 354 yards on 47 carries. Bryan Coday, with 282 yards on 47 carries, and Tommy Lester, with 112 yards on 41 attempts.

Dickie Hanna, who became starting quarterback when Burns moved to fullback, has been doing quite well in the passing department. He's completed 15 of 29 for 241 yards. Burns connected on nine of 22 for 213 yards, while quarterbacking.

The versatile Burns also has a 34.0 average on 15 punts, has caught one pass for nine yards, and has intercepted three enemy passes.

Joe Grange has snagged 13 passes — 11 of White Deer's and two of its opponents'. On his 11 catches of the Bucks' passes, he's made 175 yards. Other top receivers are Lester, with four catches for 128 yards, and Jerry Bradford, with five catches for 83 yards.

On defense, the Bucks have been doing quite well as a team. They've allowed only 1158 yards to the opposition while making 1960. They've scored 159 points, while allowing 41.

Bill Brown of Pampa will be one of the basketball players Texas University is depending on this year. He will have four letters to help improve the Longhorns' record. Brown, a former all-star for the Harvesters, was the leading scorer last year for the Texas freshmen, as he led them to an 11-1 season.

Brown will be working under a new coach, Harold Bradley. Marshall Hughes resigned last year after Texas won only four of 24 games. Bradley is the former cage coach of Duke University.

The new coach will have a good nucleus to build his team around. In addition to Brown, he will have the two leading scorers from last year's squad — Albert Almanza and Jay Arnette — and a third starter from last year's team, Wayne Clark. Other top prospects include Brenton Hughes, a senior who was ineligible last year; junior college transfer Donny Lassiter, and sophomores Jimmy Brown and Butch Skeete.

Nine of Texas' top ten varsity scorers are back, and nine of the 11 lettermen are returning. The Longhorns open their season Dec. 1 when they host the McMurry Indians.

West Texas State also has a new coach, and several lettermen around which to build its basketball team. Metz LaFollette, a former

Quail Hunt Slated For Howe Area

AUSTIN — Another quail hunt is scheduled for the Panhandle this year on the Gene Howe Wildlife Management area, according to the Director of Wildlife Restoration, Texas Game and Fish Commission.

Dates for the hunt are Dec. 5, Dec. 19, Jan. 2, and Jan. 18. Applications now are being received for these hunts and permits will be issued after a public drawing to be held at 8 a.m. Nov. 13.

No preference can be given as to dates. All hunters will be required to hunt in pairs, with 104 pair each day, for a total of 104 hunters. Only persons 17 years of age or older can be considered in the drawings for these hunts.

According to all reports, hunting will be good on the area this year. The quail population is high and hunting success should be very good, if dogs are used.

Those receiving permits are urged to take their dogs to the hunt, to prevent loss of birds. Because of the heavy vegetation this year, the loss of cripples and dead birds will probably be high, unless dogs are used.

Each man whose name is drawn will be permitted to hunt on one day and will be entitled to the maximum of one day's limit, 12 quail.

Applications for the permits should be mailed to the Texas Game and Fish Commission, Walton State Bldg., Austin, in time to be there by the Nov. 13 deadline.

Scott KO's Hart In Welter Bout

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Young Charley Scott rested securely on the top of the welterweight contender today after his sensational ninth-round TKO victory over first-ranked Garnet (Sugar) Hart in a bruising battle of Philadelphia.

Sturdy Scott, unranked less than a year ago, climaxed his meteoric rise among the 147-pound contenders for Don Jordan's title, Monday night, when he outboxed, out-maneuvered and floored the scheduled 12-rounder after 28 seconds of the ninth.

Charley took command after the opening session and proceeded to bull Hart all over the ring, never taking a backward step in the face of Sugar's best punches.

Films of the 14-16 tie last week with the Amarillo Sandies will be shown at tonight's meeting. Refreshments will be served afterward.

ACES FULL — Harold Bradley (right), new Texas basketball coach, has three scoring aces with which to build the Longhorn cage team. They are, from left to right, Bill Brown former Pampa all-star who led the 1958-59 Texas freshmen to an 11-1 record with 197 points; Al Almanza, junior letterman who scored 262 points his freshman year, for a record; and Jay Arnette, who held the old freshman scoring record of 260.

DALLAS, HOUSTON CONSIDERED

NFL Expansion Scheduled

By ED SAINSBURY
United Press International

CHICAGO (UPI) — Expansion of the National Football League to 14 teams has been unofficially approved by 11 of the 12 club owners, George Halas said today, and Dallas, Tex., and possibly Houston, Tex., will begin play in 1960.

Halas, owner-coach of the Chicago Bears, kicked off a bitter intra-league scrap Monday in announcing the expansion. In addition two more teams will be added in 1961 or 1962 under terms of a proposal approved by every owner except George P. Marshall, of the Washington Redskins.

Halas introduced the owners of the Dallas franchise, Clint Murchison Jr., and Bedford Wynne, both 38, Monday night, and said that the major shareholder applying for the Houston franchise was Craig Cullinan Jr.

The Houston franchise is contingent upon the franchise applicants finding a stadium "satisfactory" for National League play. Halas said, and if the stadium cannot be obtained, then the 14th franchise will go to another city. He could not suggest which other cities might be considered.

Murchison and Wynne in a joint statement expressed their pleasure at obtaining the franchise. "We understand that this expansion will be dealt with to the regular league meeting in January," it read, "and that it is the present intention of the owners to grant the Dallas franchise Cotton Bowl on an alternate basis with the Dallas team owned by Lamar Hunt in the recently organized American Football League.

They said, "We have no coach or general manager in mind." Murchison said he felt that the National League would see that both new franchises would have players representative of the league, and "we hope to have some of the good players."

Wynne said the club anticipated playing its home games in the Cotton Bowl on an alternate basis with the Dallas team owned by Lamar Hunt in the recently organized American Football League.

Official's Call May Have Hurt Ponies

DALLAS (UPI) — An official's call on a crucial play in the SMU-Rice football game at Houston Saturday night may have cost the Ponies a touchdown and the victory, officials said today.

Abb Curtis, supervisor of Southwest Conference officials, voiced that opinion today after viewing films of the game.

"From evidence in the film it looked like there is a strong possibility he missed the play," Curtis said.

Curtis hinted that SMU might have won the game except for a 5-yard penalty assessed against the Mustangs on a touchdown pass play with only a minute and 17 seconds left.

Babe Says Pampa Still a Contender

Pampa football coach Babe Curfman told members of the Evening Optimist Club Monday that the Harvesters have a good chance of winning their next three games, and that Pampa is still in contention for a high place in district standings.

Curfman would not predict the outcome of the next three games—against Palo Duro, Lubbock, and Plainview—but he did say that Pampa has a good chance against all three, if the team continues to play as it has been playing.

Curfman said that the Harvesters are carrying out their blocking and ball-carrying assignments better than any team he has ever coached before. "When I saw the films of the Amarillo game," he said, "I was amazed at how well they carried out their assignments."

Curfman also said that the Harvesters make up in spirit what they lack in size. "They're small, as football players go," he continued, "but I've never coached a team with as much spirit."

The Pampa mentor concluded his talk by predicting that college football coaches will soon be visiting Pampa to look for prospects. He said that they will be interested in more players on this year's squad, than on any team in recent years.

Pampa has an open date this week, in which to get ready for its next three games. In last week's game, there were few individual stars, because it was a team effort in which all of them played well.

Mert Cooper boosted his rushing total to 303 yards, by gaining 72, and Terry Haralson gained 61, to up his runner total to 266. Lucky Dunham moved into third place by making 42 yards, to give him a total of 158.

Bobby Stephens boosted his passing leadership by completing one pass for 16 yards. He has now completed five for 68 yards. Jimmy Storms moved into a tie with Cooper as the second-leading receiver by snagging his third pass.

Outstanding individual defensive plays were made by Charles Geise, who blocked an extra point attempt; by Duke Garren, who intercepted a pass; and by Harold Stokes, who threw an Amarillo ball carrier for a 10-yard loss near the Sandie goal line.

Defensive end Benny Stout, cornerback Charles Warren, a cornerback Terry Rexroad were probably the defensive standouts, although all of the players who saw much defensive action played well. Tackle Jim Scott played one of his better defensive games.

Tackle Rowland Stone, center Butch Dunham, end Lynn McGee, and halfbacks Bobby Stephens and Roy Stephens all made some good tackles.

Free Deer Hunts Set In 5 Areas

AUSTIN — Applications now are being received by the Game and Fish Commission for free deer hunts on five management areas in Texas. However, only two weeks remain before the 8 a.m. October 30 deadline for the entries.

Requests for application blanks for the hunt should be sent immediately to the Commission offices at the Walton State Building in Austin. Approximately 2,000 permits will be issued by the Commission this year, but to be eligible for one of these permits applications must be in Austin in time for the public drawing following the deadline.

The areas to be hunted are the Kerr, Engeling, Angelina, Black Gap, and Sierra Diablo. All permits issued will be for 2-day hunts except for the Angelina area where 1-day permits will be issued.

A total 380 permits for a desired kill of 160 deer will be issued for the Kerr area; 150 permits for the Engeling area for 75 deer; 700 permits for 110 deer on the Angelina area; 400 permits for 160 deer on the Black Gap area; and 80 permits for 40 deer on the Sierra Diablo area.

Only persons 17 years of age or older will be permitted to hunt on these areas, according to the Director of Wildlife Restoration, Texas Game and Fish Commission. Applications can be filed on a party system, with not more than four persons in the party.

Doby Sent Down By White Sox

United Press International
Larry Doby, the first Negro to wear an American League uniform, apparently has reached the end of the trail as a major league baseball player.

The one-time slugging outfielder, who spent the last three seasons shuttling back and forth between the Cleveland Indians, Detroit Tigers and Chicago White Sox, was assigned to San Diego of the Pacific Coast League Monday for the second time in three months by the White Sox.

Clubs Won't Let Senators Move

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Refusal of American League club owners to approve a shift of the Washington Senators to Minneapolis today assured the team of at least another year in the nation's capital.

Owner Calvin Griffith announced late Monday that the Senators would stay in Washington because he was unable to get the votes of five other club owners necessary to make the move.

LSU, NW, Texas Stay 1-2-3 in Poll

NEW YORK (UPI) — Louisiana State, Northwestern and Texas slipped from fourth to ninth in the wake of its 7-6 loss to Auburn. Wisconsin was the other newcomer in the select group, advancing to 10th after ranking 21st last week.

Purdue skidded from 5th to 14th in the wake of a 15-0 loss to Ohio State. Iowa, ninth last week, dropped into a three-way tie with UCLA and Ohio and Ohio State for 17th following a 25-16 loss to Wisconsin.

Oregon was 11th and Illinois 12th. Arkansas, Purdue, Oklahoma, Clemson, Iowa, UCLA, Ohio State, Texas Christian, Washington and Tennessee completed the top 20 in that order. TCU, Washington and Tennessee tied for 20th; Indiana was the only other team mentioned on this week's ballots.

Requests for application blanks for the hunt should be sent immediately to the Commission offices at the Walton State Building in Austin. Approximately 2,000 permits will be issued by the Commission this year, but to be eligible for one of these permits applications must be in Austin in time for the public drawing following the deadline.

The areas to be hunted are the Kerr, Engeling, Angelina, Black Gap, and Sierra Diablo. All permits issued will be for 2-day hunts except for the Angelina area where 1-day permits will be issued.

A total 380 permits for a desired kill of 160 deer will be issued for the Kerr area; 150 permits for the Engeling area for 75 deer; 700 permits for 110 deer on the Angelina area; 400 permits for 160 deer on the Black Gap area; and 80 permits for 40 deer on the Sierra Diablo area.

Only persons 17 years of age or older will be permitted to hunt on these areas, according to the Director of Wildlife Restoration, Texas Game and Fish Commission. Applications can be filed on a party system, with not more than four persons in the party.

Doby Sent Down By White Sox

United Press International
Larry Doby, the first Negro to wear an American League uniform, apparently has reached the end of the trail as a major league baseball player.

The one-time slugging outfielder, who spent the last three seasons shuttling back and forth between the Cleveland Indians, Detroit Tigers and Chicago White Sox, was assigned to San Diego of the Pacific Coast League Monday for the second time in three months by the White Sox.

Clubs Won't Let Senators Move

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Refusal of American League club owners to approve a shift of the Washington Senators to Minneapolis today assured the team of at least another year in the nation's capital.

Owner Calvin Griffith announced late Monday that the Senators would stay in Washington because he was unable to get the votes of five other club owners necessary to make the move.

Official's Call May Have Hurt Ponies

DALLAS (UPI) — An official's call on a crucial play in the SMU-Rice football game at Houston Saturday night may have cost the Ponies a touchdown and the victory, officials said today.

Abb Curtis, supervisor of Southwest Conference officials, voiced that opinion today after viewing films of the game.

"From evidence in the film it looked like there is a strong possibility he missed the play," Curtis said.

Curtis hinted that SMU might have won the game except for a 5-yard penalty assessed against the Mustangs on a touchdown pass play with only a minute and 17 seconds left.

Ten-Pin Tales

BY MARVIN OLSEN

We are hoping to make this column a Tuesday rather than a Monday feature during the next few months. Before moving into the past week's bowling events we want to express our thanks to our "reporters," Red Watson, Howard Musgrave and Jessie Smartt of Harvester Bowl, and Gil Burgund of Garden Lanes.

Father-Son League

Red Watson informs us that a new Father and Son League is being formed at Harvester Bowl, and a meeting to elect officers and establish a league is set for later this month.

The league — sanctioned and handicapped — will be bowled Friday night, and Saturday afternoon and night. Persons interested are requested to call Watson for information.

$7,900 Prize

Wheaties and AMF are offering a $7,900 prize for the persons who can best finish the last line of bowling jingle. Entry blanks must be sent to Wheaties, Box 118, Minneapolis. The jingle, with last line missing, is: "America's favorite family sport — Is Bowling for fitness and fun — And the AMF 'Magic Triangle' means — (line missing).

Garden Lanes

Gil Burgund reports that scoring was a little higher than average the past seven days at Garden, but there were no big scores. The highest was Bob Armstrong's 693 in the North Crest League.

Mary Parker of Panhandle Insurance rolled a 197 for the women's high single game. Pampa Paint and Glass took high team honors (with handicap) by notching a 1118-3052 series.

Moving away from high games for a moment, it was reported that Proprietor Burgund fired a nice 413 Wednesday night. Gil notified friends he "had a cold," and his back wasn't feeling too well, and so on.

Harvester Happenings

Bob Baker broke and early season slump with a 616 in City League action for a "bowler of the week" award. Della McGonigal, bowling in the Harvester Housewives League, smashed a 517 for women's honors.

Harvester's highest game of the week, however, was rolled by Howard Musgrave, a fine 285-638 for Dunlap's in the Classic League.

Other big games were Jessie Smartt's 224-622 for Malcolm-Hinkle, and Dale Haynes, 246-621 for Pampa Warehouse.

Pampa Warehouse — Betty Stephens of Cabot-Franks, picked the 8-10; Doc Zachrey of Duessel-Carmichael, rolled an all-star game for a 185; Edna King picked up the 3-6-7-10; Elina McCray picked up 4-7-10; Dorothy Davis carried the 8-10 and 4-10; Margaret Avinger picked up 4-7-10.

In the oddities department, Lorene McCathern of Southland Life rolled a stair-step series of 120-121 and 122. Ray Bookout of KPDM, carrying a 140 average, rolled a 205, and Russ Holloway of Texas Pipe and Metal (147 average) shot a 237, and a 590 series.

In the "hard things to do" department the Crptney team of the Industrial League, rolled a 748-748-749.

less she happened to be working in an authentic scene for an authentic movie requiring her to wear blue jeans, and although I know her to be able to cook a formidable meal, I defy anyone to find a picture of her struggling with pots and pans. Actually, I can't even remember any blue jean movie scene unless it was in "Johnny Concho" or something like that, in which she was momentarily a Western heroine.
