

Russian Embassy Drawn Into Red Spy Ring Probe

Some Sloppy Spying Carried On by Soviets

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Russians have been clumsy in their spying, or they're unlucky. In some of it, anyway.
Look at what's happened in Canada, in this country and in Yugoslavia.

Igor Gouzenko, a lieutenant in the Red Army, received special training for work in Canada. His job was to code messages sent to Russia, uncoded those from Russia.

In two years he found out:
1. The Russian secret police had a spy ring in Canada.
2. His boss, the military attaché, was head of a separate spy ring gathering Canadian military information for Russia.

This spy ring was made up of some important Canadian government employees, one a member of Parliament.

Gouzenko, instead of burning a lot of secret documents as he had been ordered to, turned over the batch to the Canadian police. At least 11 of the Canadians pleaded guilty or were convicted.

Now take Yugoslavia. That Communist country, under the dictatorship of Marshal Tito, a long-time Communist, had worked with Russia like a twin brother.

Some weeks ago the two countries split.
Pieces of the story have leaked out. This week Tito said the Russians, while they still were bosom pals of the Yugoslavs, had tried to entice some of them to become spies for Russia.

Now turn to this country. In 1947, Elizabeth T. Bentley went to the FBI in this country and told them this story:

She had been a member of the American Communist Party and had acted as messenger for a Soviet spy ring here.

In the ring, there was a number of (See SPYING, Page 8)

City Names Sept. 8 for Bond Vote

The city's proposed $550,000 water and sewer bond election was set for Sept. 8 at the City Commission meeting yesterday.

The money will be used to develop a new water supply located south of town and to expand the sewage disposal plant.

Breaking down the items within the bond issue, the commission found $462,000 will be needed for the water supply. The cost of developing the new well field three miles south of town on the Clarendon highway will amount to $272,108.75.

Improvements within the city will take $78,000 for a 500,000 gallon elevated tank, $75,000 for extension of water mains and fire hydrants as a part of the city's fire protection measures and $12,000 for chlorinators at the present pumping stations.

Other expenses within the city will be for engineering, inspection, land and water rights.

The sewerage system will need $112,000 to be completed. However, $25,000 is available in present funds so that $87,000 will be the total needed for the sewerage disposal system.

Remodeling and enlarging the present sewerage system will come to $107,000 and the sewage treatment plant engineering and inspection will amount to $4,280.

Also at yesterday's commission meeting, Jake Garman, manager of Texas Gas and Power Company, requested permission to raise the minimum gas charge from $1 per 3,000 cubic feet to $1.50 per 5,000 cubic feet.

Garman reported some instances showing the company's materials and labor costs increases. One example given was for 1 1/4 inch pipe per hundred feet. In 1941 it was purchased for $11.41. However, the price of the same today is $16.25, a 43 percent increase.

Residential size meters cost $9.70 in 1941 as compared to $14.44 today.

SOVIETS PUT NEW SQUEEZE ON PUBLICATIONS FROM WEST ZONE

BERLIN—(AP)—Western Allied officials charged today a Russian distribution setup designed to kill free exchange of information by squeezing Western-licensed publications out of the Soviet Zone of Germany.

The Russians had subscribed to the free interzonal exchange of printed matter under four-power agreements.

A month ago the Russians confiscated Western-licensed printed matter in their zone. The Western Allies protested and the Americans imposed a ban against Russian-sponsored publications in the U. S. Zone. The ban was lifted after the Russians promised to correct the situation. Now the Western monopoly is reported to be just as effective as the confiscation measure.

The Russians have set up offices in the Russian sector of Berlin and in each of the five states of their zone to license dealers. Checks proved that in about 90 percent of the cases, only reliable Communists were licensed as dealers.

The Russians also are boasting that they have accumulated enough food here to feed all Berlin for 40 days. But complaints of hunger are coming from the Soviet Zone.

There have been repeated reports not denied by the Russians—that food shortages in their zone have become aggravated. The major cause for this is believed to have been the requisitioning of Soviet foodstuffs to support the zonal project to feed all Berlin, including the blockaded Western sectors.

The Russians had said they would import this supplemental food from the Soviet Union.

The Soviet-licensed news agency, ADN, today accused the anti-Communist city government of hampering Russian efforts to feed Berlin. The agency charged the city food administration with "making insufficient preparations" for handling the unloading of trains and barges carrying Soviet grain to Berlin.

It claimed that the trainloads of grain were standing idle in the city environs.

The Russians have set up a special staff of picked German Communists inside the city's food administration to administer their feeding project.

As a result the city has two ration administrations. British authorities announced they planned a formal protest to the Russians against a flight of 12 Soviet Yak fighter planes over Western Berlin last night.

The flight caused considerable excitement among Western residents.

Officers at Gatow said the planes, flying in two formations, were flying at 4,000 feet and that there was no question of "buzzing" the area.

American authorities had no comment.

Demos Pick Nominees

By the Associated Press
South Carolina, Arkansas and Idaho Democrats appeared to have their nominees all picked today for major November political contests.

Candidates for at least one of South Carolina's three contested Congressional posts seemed headed for runoff elections, but Senator Burnett R. Maybank held a clear 10,000-vote majority over four competitors for his Senate seat, with returns almost complete.

In Arkansas—where, as in South Carolina, Democratic nomination means almost certain election in November—Hot Springs Prosecutor Sidney S. McMath, 36, took lead over former Attorney General Jack Holt in the race for governor.

In all three primaries, the other major ballot battles concerned House seats.

The South Carolina primary was highlighted by the heaviest Negro voting in years, as the result of a recent federal court decision which admitted Negroes to membership in the Democratic Party.

Rifle shots and automatic fire broke out by the thousand, artillery, seemingly from a distance, was audible throughout the city. White and green flares lit up the night sky.

Official Jewish sources said Arabs "who continue to violate the truce" attacked Jewish positions on Mt. Zion from the old walled city.

Bernadotte expressed concern over the shooting.

"I want this shooting stopped," he told a news conference yesterday. "My position is going to be tougher and tougher. I want to show both parties that I can be serious."

At 8 p.m. Ken Bennett and his orchestra will start the program and continue to play throughout the evening. At 8:30 a special broadcast description of the event will be made over radio station KPDN.

Bill Hood, White's own "Original Man on the Street," of Wichita Falls will be on hand to direct the grand opening broadcast. He will use tactics similar to his broadcast.

Meaders, who has been manager of White's Auto Stores in Pampa for a little more than a year, has been working at White's Stores for eight years, interrupted only by the time he spent in the services.

Mental Experts Seek to Treat 'Sick' Nations

LONDON—(AP)—Two thousand specialists met here today to consider the state of the world's mental health. They would like to find some way to treat "sick" nations so as to "cure" the disease of war.

Psychologists, psychotherapists, psychiatrists and representatives of all professions concerned with the study and betterment of human relations convened for an 11-day international congress on mental health. There are to be three separate, but related, conferences.

"We shall try to get away from individual cases and think instead of groups and communities and nations who are sick," said the congress president, Dr. J. R. Rees of London.

"The fact there always have been wars doesn't mean there always will be wars," said Dr. N. Ridenour of New York, executive officer of the International Committee for Mental Hygiene. "We are opposed to that old chestnut that you can't change human nature. We think you can change human nature."

The way to begin, she suggested, is by showing mothers and teachers how to handle children properly. She said policy makers in foreign relations and government perhaps should be advised by psychologists.

"Sometimes," Dr. Ridenour added, "they will make policies which fail to take account of the cultural characteristics of various nations."

Dr. Frank Fromont-Smith of New York commented that appeasement of a potential aggressor is not a cure, because:

"Appeasement to an adolescent who has grown beyond his propensities is not going to make a good world citizen."

Record Crop May Provide Price Cure

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Farmers are well on their way today toward supplying a cure for high prices for their own products.

Aided by very favorable weather, they are headed for a crop harvest which is expected not only to break all production records but to end food shortages and, in time, bring lower prices in the corner stores.

An Agriculture Department report yesterday forecast this year's grain production as the largest ever by a wide margin. No longer is there a grain shortage. In fact there will be a surplus if latest estimates are borne out.

This bountiful prospect already has led to a sharp decline in grain prices from the post war peak of last January.

Officials said a similar decline in prices of meats, dairy and poultry products will follow as soon as farmers can convert the break and herd's enough to use all the feeds that are forecast.

As a result, much corn and (See PRICES, Page 8)

County Drops Tax Rate 2c

The County Commissioners Court this week lowered the overall ad valorem tax rate from 93 to 91 cents per hundred dollars valuation—a drop of two cents.

The 91 cents was divided by the court into five funds with the following rates: general fund, 26 cents; road and bridge, 21 cents; Court House, jail and interest and sinking, 11 cents; hospital interest and sinking, 10 cents; permanent improvements, eight cents. No levy was made for the jury fund this year because funds now on hand are sufficient to care for the ensuing year, Judge Sherman White explained.

The Court canvassed the small vote cast on August 7 in the Farrington School District authorizing the school tax levy to be increased from one dollar to $1.50.

Other school tax levies approved by the Commissioners Court were: Davis No. 1, $1; Lakota No. 4, $1; Brook No. 9, $1; Schafer No. 10, $1.50; Bell No. 11, $1; Huntsman No. 12, $1.25; Kiplinger No. 15, $1; Grandview No. 17, $1.50; Hopkins No. 18, $1.25; White No. 21, 75 cents; County Line No. 4, $1.

The bid of $25 of Thomas O. Kirby for a team mower was accepted as low bid by the Court. The mower is to be stripped and used for parts.

All current bills were approved and paid during the meeting.

New, Larger White's Auto Store to Hold 'Open House' Tomorrow Night

Pampa's branch of White's Auto Stores, expanded, modernized and redecorated during the past two months, will hold an "open house" tomorrow from 8 to 11 p.m. Ken Bennett, manager, announced today.

During the middle of June work was begun on the new White's store at 109 S. Cuyler, just across the street from its old location. Final touches have been added to the building so it will be ready for the public reception tomorrow night.

Favors will be presented to every man, woman and child attending the gala opening. Meaders said.

At 8 p.m. Ken Bennett and his orchestra will start the program and continue to play throughout the evening. At 8:30 a special broadcast description of the event will be made over radio station KPDN.

Witness Testifies She Received Pay

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Russian Embassy today was drawn directly into Congressional hearings of alleged Communist wartime spying.

Elizabeth T. Bentley, who says she is a former Red spy, returned to the witness chair of the House un-American Activities Committee and testified that Anatol Gromov, first secretary of the embassy, paid her $2,000 in October, 1945.

She also said he told her the Soviet Supreme Council had awarded her a medal.

Her story of the medal and the medal had been disclosed by committee members earlier, but she pointed for the first time to the embassy as the source.

Miss Bentley, who says she gave her story to the FBI in August, 1945, also told the committee:

"The FBI has told me that in checking all of the evidence I have given them they never have found any major discrepancy."

The committee put Miss Bentley back on the stand after hearing Henry H. Collins, Jr., a former military government officer, deny that he was ever a spy for a foreign country, but refuse to say whether he is or has been a Communist.

Before he took the stand, Chairman Thomas (R-N.J.) announced that a special subcommittee will go to New York tomorrow to take testimony in closed session from Michael Ivanovitch Samarin, former Russian schoolteacher.

Other members said there are plans also to send a subcommittee to Canada to get a statement from Igor Gouzenko, the former Russian clerk who was responsible for breaking the Canadian atom bomb spy case.

It was disclosed, too, that the committee contemplates a recess of the hearings here.

Rep. McDowell (R-Pa.) told reporters the committee will be in recess "all next week" at least.

Moscow Radio Calls for Soviet-U.S. Collaboration

Moscow can secure real collaboration to abandon world revolution. That would mean calling off all phases of the "cold war," including bolshevist propaganda and the underground activities of Red agents.

That gets us back to our question of why Moscow suggests collaboration now. Judging from current developments the proposal was "for the record," and perhaps to encourage concessions by the democracies in the German crisis.

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst
The Moscow radio laid aside its customary attacks on the democracies yesterday and for a change urged closer collaboration between Russia and the United States to assure lasting peace.

The commentator declared that "just as it was collaboration of the great powers that made possible complete victory over the forces of fascism and militarism, so collaboration can assure a lasting peace at the present time."

Since all broadcasts in Russia are government controlled, we can be sure that this extraordinary statement had official approval.

There is just one way, as I see it, in which full collaboration can be secured with the United States. That is for Moscow to abandon its project of world revolution for the establishment of Communist governments by force.

America never has challenged Russia on what the latter was doing within Soviet borders. However, the United States has made it quite clear that she will not stand idly by while communism is thrust upon small nations which lack the strength to defend themselves.

The United States will not collaborate with an ideology which says that the world isn't big enough to hold both "capitalism" and communism, and that "capitalist" countries must be destroyed. She will not tolerate subversive activities by Communists within her own borders.

Shift Would Make Guard Part of Army

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A drastic revision of the nation's traditional military policy was urged today to permit the Army to annex the National Guard.

This politically explosive recommendation by a special Defense Department advisory committee would double the Army's current strength of about 600,000. It would, in effect, serve as a short-term manpower substitute for universal military training.

The suggested change was part of a general recommendation that each of the armed services should have a single federal reserve force on which to draw as needed in event of a national emergency.

The board headed by Assistant Army Secretary Gordon Gray reported that, judged on the tests of national security, the National Guard and other reserve groups "are not now capable of participating effectively in major combat operations." The report said it took two years to prepare guard units for combat service in the last war.

Secretary of Defense Forrestal appointed the six-man study commission last November. He said the report at present does not represent the Defense Department's views and he turned it over to three civilian chiefs of the armed forces for further study.

Opposition to the annexation proposal followed quickly after release of the report.

"We of the National Guard... will fight to the last ditch," Brig. Gen. Charles H. Grahl said. Grahl, the adjutant general for Iowa, told a reporter in Cedar Rapids:

"We will fight the plan through Congress. I think there are enough former governors in Congress to defeat it. I am confident all the states will join hands in fighting this thing."

Smith Fined in Assault Case

Junior Smith of the Hillson Hotel Annex was released from the County Jail yesterday after he pleaded guilty to charges of simple assault before County Judge Sherman White and was fined the maximum of $25 and costs.

Smith was apprehended by City Police Monday night following a fight in front of the Main Street Bar involving Smith and Dan Harp.

Smith is now under $2,500 bond in connection with the robbery of Harp July 9 in City Park.

Jaycees to Attend Regional Meeting

Seven Jaycees indicated at yesterday's regular weekly meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in the Palm Room of the City Hall they will attend the regional convention of Jaycees Regions 1 and 2, to be held in Amarillo Aug. 21 and 22.

The convention will open with registration Saturday afternoon, followed by a banquet and dance in Amarillo's Herring Hotel. Breakfast Sunday will precede a business meeting. Speakers for the meeting have not yet been announced.

Those from Pampa who will attend are: Mr. and Mrs. Murray Sealey, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Seal, Young, Mr. and Mrs. Zeldo Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. John King, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Boyles, and Charles Roberts and Ken Hues.

OILERS LOSE THIRD STRAIGHT TO SOX; RETURN HOME AGAINST BORGER TONITE

U.S. vs. Mexico in Olympic Basketball

LONDON (AP)—Basketball bounced into the Olympic spotlight today on a program that included eight minor sports from canoe racing to weight lifting.

The United States meets Mexico and Brazil plays France in the basketball semi-finals.

The Yank skycrappers are expected to sweep past the Mexicans, the second tallest team in the tournament. Brazil is favored over France. The winners meet in the finals Friday night.

Basketball, a U.S.-invented sport, is the Americans' main hope of adding to the host of gold medals won in track, swimming and rowing.

There are only modest expectations that the Yank canoe paddlers can do as well as their rowing brothers.

The U.S. boxing team, which has lost only one of its eight scrapers so far, continued battling in eliminating rounds at Wembley's Empire Arena.

Sweden defeated Denmark 4 to 2 last night in the first soccer semi-final and qualified to oppose the winners of tonight's Britain-Yugoslav match for the Olympic championship.

The other sports in session are cycling, equestrian, fencing, weightlifting and vaulting.

Babe Ruth Is Critically Ill In New York

NEW YORK (AP)—Babe Ruth, baseball's aging home-run king, was reported in critical condition today at Memorial Hospital.

The hospital said Ruth had developed a higher temperature and that there were pulmonary complications.

On Monday he was reported as having a cold. Yesterday the hospital said his condition seemed improved and the temperature had gone down.

The hospital bulletin said: "Babe Ruth's temperature again has risen. There are pulmonary complications. Condition critical."

Ruth has been undergoing a series of treatments in the hospital.

He has been ill for nearly two years. Late in 1946 he entered French Hospital, where he underwent a delicate peck operation. He left the hospital last year, and was seen in public on a few occasions shortly in connection with activities for the Babe Ruth foundation.

He has spent vacations in Florida and in the past few months has attended baseball games where he received tributes from fans, old and young. His New York Yankees uniform, bearing No. 3, was retired recently.

But he and his teammates then got their big bats working and pounded out the decision James McCloud paced the rally with a two-run grand slam. James Shaw received credit for the Phillips win and added his cause when he pitched a home winning Skelly team, and found himself trailing until the fifth

GOLD SOX STADIUM, Amarillo — After losing their third consecutive game to the Amarillo Gold Sox, and their 10th of the season to the Soxers, the Pampa Oilers were back in Pampa today for the first of a two-game series with the Borger Gassers. The Gold Sox trounced the Oilers 13-1 last night in Gold Sox Park to go two full games ahead of the Pampans.

The Oilers ran into Cheektowaga Joe Bodny at his best in the Amarillo closeout and went down by the lop-sided count as the Sox hurler shacked them on seven hits, three of them decidedly scratchy.

Pampa's lone tally, achieved in the eighth inning, was unearned. Manager Buck Fausett's error of Bob Belford opened the door as the Pampa first sacker pilfered second. After Roy Parker, a pinch batsman, had whiffed and R. C. Oley had lifted to left field, Bob then Grover Seitz elected to pitch the ninth.

Jerry Folkman, Doug Lewis and Paul Halter greeted him with two-base swats, then the Pampa pilot fanned Cruces, caused Dick Gentzkow to ground out and got Buck Fausett to offer at a bloop pitch and lift to Joe Fortin, in rightfield.

Of the seven hits Pampa registered against Bodny, one was a bunt by Bartholomew, one an infield scratch to deep short by Fortin and one a blooper from the bat of John Bottarini.

Bodny whiffed Jack Riley twice, Bottarini twice, Tony R. E. Dave Teyema, Belford, Hubbard and Parker once each.

Manager Grover Seitz announced this morning that Lefty Roy Parker would start on the mound for the Oilers but Gassers' pilot Eddie Carnell has not yet announced who his starter would be. Game time has been changed from 8:30 to 8:15, effective tonight.

Bob Cruces and Doug Lewis struck the big blows of that round, Cruces getting his 55th homer of the season and Lewis thumping a bases-full double. He hit two more before the game was over, running his season total to 50, far ahead of the rest of the league.

Ted Clawitter also homered for the Gold Sox, pounding one over the right field fence in the Amarillo seventh with a mate ahead. Bass was lifted after the fourth in favor of Merlin Hubbard, the boyish Oiler righthander. The Sox nipped Merlin for four hits and as many tallies in three chapters.

But Dallas hasn't done well enough with the others so the Rebs are in sixth place and considered out of the running for a play-off berth.

Another point of note established last night was that Harry Perkowski of second-place Tulsa is just about the most valuable player in the league. Not only is he the leading pitcher but he stepped in as a pinch hitter last evening and hit a home run with a mate on board with two out in the ninth to give Tulsa a 3-2 victory over Oklahoma City.

Houston battered Beaumont, 11-2, while San Antonio moved a game and a half ahead of Shreveport in the battle for fourth by trimming the Sports 7-5.

Lefty Quentin Altizer was the man of the hour in Dallas' decision over Fort Worth. He beat the Panthers for the fifth straight time by hurling a neat seven-hitter.

9 Teams Are Still Trying for Pennants

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
Nine teams are still in the running for the major league flags today as the greatest of all baseball campaigns roars past the two-thirds mark.

The list includes Cleveland, Philadelphia, Boston and New York in the American League, and Boston, Brooklyn, St. Louis, New York and Pittsburgh in the National.

Only two and a half games separate the first four clubs in the American, while six and a half games separate the first five teams in the senior circuit.

By splitting a doubleheader with Washington, while the Tigers were defeating the Indians, 7-3, the A's tied Cleveland for first in games won and lost. However, since they've played six more games, the A's trail the Tribe by six percentage points. After the Senators won yesterday's opener, 8-2, the A's came back to win, 11-2.

The Red Sox moved past New York into third place, two games off the pace, by downing the Yankees, 9-6.

The Braves lost ground to their pursuers when they were beaten by the Giants, 6-5. The Dodgers whipped the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-2, to take second place from the idle Cardinals by a fraction of a point. The fourth place Giants are five games behind and the fifth place Pirates, who trounced Chicago, 5-1, in Pittsburgh, are six and a half games off the pace. In the only other game yesterday, the St. Louis Browns advanced within a game of sixth place by vanquishing the last place Chicago White Sox, 3-1.

Bobby Feller, trying for his 12th victory, went down to his 13th defeat instead when he was clubbed for eight hits and five runs in the six innings he worked. Young Ted Gray of the Tigers struck out 10 in the 7-and-a-half innings he pitched to rack up his second victory in as many starts. Pat Mullin's 15th home run in the fifth produced three runs and pinned the loss on Feller.

The Cardinals and Cincinnati Reds were not scheduled.

SOFTBALL MEET IS SET TONIGHT
A meeting of all managers of teams in the Industrial Softball League will be held tonight at 6 o'clock in the Corporation Court Room at the City Hall. The meeting is being held to make some sort of a definite ruling on what constitutes legal and illegal pitching. An election of someone to fill Elton Lathrop's position will also be held. Lathrop was league president before moving to Guymon, Okla.

There has never been a scoreless first half in an Orange Bowl football game.
Tom Tatum, ex-Brooklyn Dodger dealt to Cincinnati, is hitting hard for Tulsa in the Texas League.

"The Story of Shirley" Is Read at Shower Honoring Miss Shirley Evans

WHITE DEER —(Special)—To honor Miss Shirley Evans, whose marriage to Clifton Kelly will take place Aug. 12, Mesdames W. W. Simmons, E. F. Tubbs, B. O. Bentley, and Winfield Powers entertained with a seated tea and shower Friday afternoon at the Cargray Recreation Hall.

The program, directed by Mrs. R. Y. Corder, related "The Story of Shirley" with Jane Powers as narrator. Shirley was first presented as a baby in the arms of her mother, played by Guyda Eaton, who sang "Sweet and Low." Linda Olson, "Shirley at age five," read "A Cake for Santa Claus." Barbara Bentley, carrying a "Him" book, represented the teen-ager.

Five girls then depicted incidents in the life of Miss Evans as a student at Mary Hardin-Baylor College. Sue Skaggs, carrying a U. S. flag and singing "America the Beautiful," portrayed her as color-bearer; Frances Freeman, as a member of the Bluebonnet staff; Vernele Crumpacker, as vice president of the Future Teachers of America; Carolyn Evans, as president of the Royal Academia Literary Society; Nancy Evans, as state president of the Home Economics clubs; and Frances Freeman again, as leader of the vesper services.

In the next episode, as Sue Skaggs sang "Some Sunday Morning," substituting "next Thursday morning," a bridal party appeared, with Betty Jo Freeman as flower girl, Dorothy Nell Minter as the bride, and Betty Jane Powers as the bridesmaid.

Roberta Corder concluded the "story" with a reading presenting scenes at the breakfast table two weeks after the marriage, twenty years after, and fifty years after. The refreshment table was covered with a lace cloth over blue and decorated with white candles wreathed with dainty blue and white flowers arranged on a reflector. Above the table hung a large white satin heart on which was a ring tied with a blue bow and the inscription "Shirley-Kelly, August 12." Identical hearts in miniature were used as plate favors. Blue and white "ribbon" sandwiches, cookies, and mints, and golden punch were served by Mrs. Winfield Powers.

A rolling pin served as a guest book for the registration of guests.

Participating in the shower were friends of the honoree from Amarillo, Skellytown, Clovis, N. M., Pampa, Panhandle, Borger and the state of California.

Mrs. Dunn Observes Her 79th Birthday

Mrs. J. P. Dunn celebrated her 79th birthday last Sunday, Aug. 8, in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ray Flue, 933 S. Nelson.

Taking part in the celebration were Cartie Dunn, Lakeview, Tex.; Dusty Dunn, Pliska, Tex.; Messrs. and Mrs. Troy Dunn, Memphis, Tex.; Luther Byars, Gene Collins and their daughter, Cassie, Clarendon; Forrest Ritter and children, Erma Lee, Ina Ree, Billie, Lilburn, and Norma Jean, Groom; Maron Baxter and son, Maron Green, Borger; Lee Roy Jones and son, Jerry, Skellytown.

Dozen Friends Help Donna Pumphrey Observe Birthday

Donna Lynn Pumphrey was a honored on her sixth birthday last Friday, Aug. 6, with a party in the back yard at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Pumphrey, 316 N. Somerville.

Games were played and the children were given favors of metal "snapping" crickets and frogs and rubber balloons.

Ice cream cones and cake were served to the honoree and a dozen little guests, Martha Jane Marsh, Rita and Nita Cartwright, Jimmie Nation, Virginia Hopkins, Mike Vantine, Donnie Walsh, Quilla Sue and Ola Ruth Beavers, Linda Sue Arey, Jerry Pumphrey, and Clo Ann Johnson.

BGK Club Has Evening Picnic

The BGK Club had a picnic at Lake McClellan last Sunday with their husbands and dates as guests.

After a supper of fried chicken and all the usual accompaniments the group played games. Between 20 and 30 were present.

Mrs. Jolly Is Shower Honoree

SHAMROCK —(Special)—Mrs. Alois Jolly was complimented with a pink and blue shower Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 3, at the home of Mrs. Matthew Cantrell. Mrs. Claude Pillers was co-hostess with Mrs. Cantrell.

Vases of colorful sinias and cosmos arranged with fern were used throughout the entertaining rooms. Pink and blue bands of ruffled crepe paper, tied in huge bows and a stately stork completed the decorations.

Guests were greeted and directed to the register by Mrs. Clois Jolly. Mrs. Claude Pillers and Mrs. Matthew Cantrell presided in the gift room where many lovely gifts were displayed.

In the dining room the table was laid with a lace cloth and centered with a crystal punch bowl, flanked with tall pink and blue tapers in crystal candelabra. Miniature dolls in blue baskets were the favors. Cakes decorated in pink and blue were served with punch. Mrs. Kenneth Rascoe and Mrs. W. L. Jolly, Jr., poured.

The honoree was presented with a corsage of pink carnations by Mrs. Kenneth Rascoe.

More than 30 friends of the honoree shared in the courtesy.

Family Reunion Is Held for Guests

Mrs. J. D. Kinnison and daughter, Mrs. Eddie Moore, entertained with a picnic supper in the back yard at 121 N. Wynne last Sunday evening in honor of relatives from other states.

The honored guests were Dr. and Mrs. Henry Carlock, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McDowell, and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Walters from Missouri and Mr. and Mrs. John Lawler and children, Louise and David, from California.

Most of their relatives from in and near Pampa also attended the social affair. There were 46 present.

and trumped another heart. On the third heart East let go the eight of clubs.

Now Jaeger cashed the ace and king of diamonds from dummy, deliberately setting up the diamond queen. He returned to his hand by playing a spade and ran the balance of the spades, discarding from dummy the jack and ten of diamonds. You see, the nine and eight of diamonds had fallen on the ace and king.

He finally got his own hand down to the seven of diamonds and the two small clubs. In dummy he had the ace, king and ten of clubs. East had to hold the queen of diamonds, otherwise Jaeger's seven would be good. Therefore, he had to blank down to the queen and jack of clubs.

Jaeger then led his club over to dummy's king, cashed the ace of clubs, and the ten-spot was good for the 13th trick.

Mrs. Stamps Is Honored at Garden Party and Shower

Mrs. Eugene Stamps, the former Mary Frances Gurley, was complimented recently at a lovely garden party and miscellaneous shower. The Friday evening affair was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Purviance, 802 W. Francis. Mrs. Emmer D. Young, sister of the guest of honor, was co-hostess with Mrs. Purviance.

The receiving line at the garden entrance was composed of Mrs. Purviance, the honoree, and Mrs. M. K. Gurley, the honoree's mother.

The honor guest was presented with a corsage of pink carnations tied with silver ribbon and her mother was presented with a corsage of white carnations tied with pink ribbon.

The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of mixed summer flowers. Mrs. Young poured punch which was served with ice box cookies and

CHANGE of LIFE?

Are you going through the functional "middle age" period peculiar to women (35 to 55 years)? Does this make you suffer from hot flashes, feel so nervous, high-strung, tired? Then try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. Pinkham's Compound also has what Doctors call a stomachic tonic effect!

When you buy Barconate, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for any printed diet nor for vitamins to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while taking this preparation. Barconate is the original grapefruit pills recipe to take off ugly fat.

Just go to your drugist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barconate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to take off ugly fat, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Pink Smoke, But Where's the Fire?

The investigations currently being conducted by the House American Activities Committee have run the gamut from hysterical, screaming persecution to back-fence name-calling.

Neither extreme is desirable. Neither extreme represents what Americans for years fondly hoped was the intellectual level of their representatives in Washington.

Nor does either extreme represent the true picture of what may, through carelessness and inefficiency, have taken place in our federal government during wartime.

The FBI testified to the House committee just a week or so ago, that it has spent a half a million dollars and a year or more in investigating the very people now appearing before the committee.

Only once it found sufficient cause against to indict were those men accepted as members of the Communist Party.

Official committees are not act-finding bodies. There is no necessary for the mass of incontrovertible facts which the FBI must amass.

There has been a breath of suspicion in start a Congressional determine the facts; the other hand, must almost fool-proof evidence in an indictment.

Hoover, chief of the Congress to call off dogs because they are already barking.

These Congressional in can uncover anything a man might be doing. There has been a amount of pink smoke so far, there has been little fire.

Accie Reports

By GRACIE ALLEN grding to a German broad the problem of rationing is digniting the pedigrees of all before issuing ration cards them, because they say capitalists are coming in from West.

I don't see why they want to go to Ohio to get when it's so easy to tell a capitalist dog. He's the one who digs a hole in the lawn and banks his bone.

And I should think the Russian dog-rationing board would be enough grief to him, even dealing with talking dogs or Lassie. I know that when I try to explain the meat shortage to our dog, she doesn't blame anything like the packers or inflation. She holds me responsible.

But the Russians are lucky their rationing board is a dog and not a cat. Tabbies simply won't line up with ration cards they'd sooner patronize black-cat markets!

Fair Enough... by Westbrook Pegler

WASHINGTON — The sensational spy plot by which a daring band planted pro-American secret agents in the White House and key government departments continued to unfold today before the House Committee to Investigate Pro-American Activities. Official Washington reeled as George Spelvin, American, the arch-conspirator, flippantly sneered, "We even had a pro-American hidden in the Supreme Court!"

Mr. Spelvin, seemingly mild and harmless, was brought back to the witness stand under military guard. His examination under a hot glare of spotlights by Commissioner Boris Slupp, the lend-lease inquisitor from Moscow. Under the Marcantonio-Taylor Act, Mr. Spelvin faces probable indictment on charges of criminal patriotism. The maximum penalty is 50 years.

Commissioner Slupp reviewed Mr. Spelvin's tale that his neighbor, Charlie Dunno, of suburban Dugan Heights, simply walked into the White House by joining a parade of Communist youth marching in for lunch with Eleanor Roosevelt in 1940. According to Mr. Spelvin's story, Ivan Bogus, the famous Bulgarian movie producer, was on the main gate that day as captain of the White House guard.

He said Mr. Bogus passed Dunno into the mansion when Mr. Dunno held the password, "The United States she stinks." Thereafter, Mr. Spelvin had testified, Mr. Dunno just hung around the White House for more than six years. He slept "in the Lincoln bed or any old bed" and passed the word to a member of the confidential palace staff by adopting "a Harvard accent."

"Now, Mr. Spelvin," Commissioner Slupp asked, "tell the committee how Mr. Dunno managed to subvert the head of the state?" "That was the worst of it all," Mr. Spelvin said sadly. "Personally, I don't see how the poor fellow stuck it out. He told me he used to lie awake in the Lincoln bed and almost go crazy thinking of those little rancid hamburgers with little pickle and shredded onion in the little all-night grease joints around Washington. There was a grease joint within sight of the apartment. He said he was so hungry that some nights when the wind was right he would sit there at the window in the dark and sniff the breeze of those onion hamburgers and just how like a dog."

"That awful chicken salad," Mr. Spelvin said. "Mr. Dunno said they had it for breakfast. They had it on ice cream. Saturday, Day, D-Day, V-E Day, May Day, Lenin's birthday—all the great holidays, they had chicken salad. Just like caviar in Moscow, except the Russians get you atinko on vodka with it. The White House, even Old Moosejaw had to hide his gin in a hollow can. That was why he always carried such a big can. Twelve-gauge.

"He said after four days on chicken salad he had to go to the clinic they slung at people. Madam Chiang woke up General Watson in the middle of the night and sent him down to Ruby Foo's for a bucket of yucker-mein fungung with nutmeg and black pepper. Charlie said he begged Madam Chiang for a little of this yucker-mein fungung and she made him trade her 150 of our new B-29's, 100 locomotives and a million dollars, cash, just for a little cold leftover. About 35 cents worth of cold fungung."

"Ridiculous!" Commissioner Slupp exploded. "He had no authority!" "Well, you are just nuts," Mr. Spelvin said. "Charlie tossed back to me that you accept his lies. He used to bet his head off on the races, by long-distance phone to Belmont and Hialeah, all on the President's emergency fund. He would have been a rich man, but he always followed Harry Hopkins' advice. He was always betting Herbie Swopes' tips or Laz Whitney's. Oh, the beetles that they gave Harry! So Mr. Dunno wound up back of the eight-hall, but of course the emergency fund paid the losses."

"But how could this stranger spend six years in the White House undetected?" "Easy," Mr. Spelvin answered. "The White House got to dinner and they would sweep the house and the joint to get him out. Look at old Louie Howe. A homesteader!

"If you handle tax matters, did not meet to consider President Truman's suggestions for the return of excess corporations profits taxes. The House Banking and Currency Committee went through the motion of holding hearings on the bill. But this committee, under Chairman Jesse Wolcott of Michigan, refused to receive testimony from Secretary of Agriculture Brannan, Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, Secretary of Interior Krug.

Wolcott completely dominating his committee, went ahead with his own way to introduce his own version of a credit-control bill. But do some good over the long haul? But don't expect to take a copy home, hand it to your wife and expect that she will ever buy with it any more groceries for any less money.

On the other side of the Capitol, Chairman Charles W. Tobey's Senate Banking and Currency Committee turned in the only praiseworthy record of the special Congress, not only on inflation, but in Tobey's effort to save the Taft-Elliender-Wagner housing bill.

From Brannan the Agriculture Committee heard that further increases in food prices—particularly meat prices which have already more than doubled in the last two years—are due this year. The time to have started holding meat prices in line was six months ago, he said.

From Sawyer the committee heard that the problem confronting the country was of the utmost seriousness. It cannot be met by increased production, which is already at capacity levels. What is needed, said Sawyer, is limited control to hold abnormal factors of demand in check, and priorities to channel scarce goods to essential production.

OLD PATTERN APPEARS From Keyserling the committee heard that inflation is now working hardship on millions of families. Industrial prices are being pushed to such heights that goods cannot be disposed of. There is danger of an economic explosion. The race upward between prices and wages is unsettling all business conditions. All such spiraling booms have in the past ended in busts.

To those congressmen and others who maintain that this is just a lot of scare stuff, the best answer was given by Secretary of Agriculture Brannan, who cited what had happened to potatoes.

Common Ground

By R. C. HOLLES Who Pays for Mistakes? A newspaper the writer is associated with was faced with a charge of $700 a day if it failed to remove a press from a building by a certain day. This led the writer to consider who pays for mistakes. It was very plain to me that if the business firm who had a certain period of time didn't get it out the owners of the business would pay for the mistake and they couldn't pass it on to their customers.

It also led to the conclusion that the mistakes made by governments which increase the cost of private business are mistakes that the individual or the business firm that makes too many mistakes has to pay them out of his own capital and cannot pass them to the customer and thus eventually becomes a business. On the other hand, the state when it makes mistakes, the individual employed by the state who makes the mistake does not suffer. The mistake that are made by the state are passed on to the consumer. Private enterprise is thus always constantly eliminating its entrepreneurs, its businessmen, its professional men who make too many mistakes.

But that is not the case in institutions such as public education or public libraries or where the government makes class legislation and gives subsidies and special privileges to groups. The mistakes of those people are paid by every consumer—the G's, the widows, the orphans, the humble worker, the well-to-do and the rich. But since the number of the rich is very small and consequently consumes less compared to those who are not rich, or the widows, the orphans, the humble worker, the well-to-do and the rich, his father, mother and wife were born in the "old country."

Governor Warren has never used his parentage to win votes in his California contests. He did not need to, for the fact is fairly well known in the coastal state. But the Republican strategists expect to capitalize on the question. It is counted on to win many votes for the Dewey-Warren ticket, not only in states with a good representation of voters of Swedish, Norwegian, Finnish, Danish and other racial groups which trace their ancestry to other countries.

In their platform and in President Truman's speech before the Philadelphia convention, the Democrats made clear that they will go all out for the support of racial and religious elements of the electorate. But the GOP expects to counter this thrust with quiet references to the handsome Californian's ancestral background.

AGREEMENT — Now it develops that McCabe and Eccles are in general agreement with respect to mopping up bank's lending resources, which contribute to the inflationary spiral, by the imposition of drastic federal controls. McCabe, for instance, favors his colleague's proposal for a curb on consumer credit, which would require an original down payment of one-third and liquidation of the balance in fifteen months.

He advocates the Eccles suggestion for a breakup of bank holding companies such as that which A. P. Giannini has built up in the West.

In fact, it has been charged that Giannini was partially responsible for Eccles' demotion and his replacement by McCabe.

SUGGESTIONS — Although the Pennsylvania did not commit itself for the Eccles demand for legislation requiring federal reserve banks to maintain a "special reserve" of funds, thereby reducing their lending authority, did tell the Senate Banking and Currency Committee that the proposition "deserved serious consideration."

And only recently Eugene Meyer, former head of the Federal Reserve Board, a personal friend of Herbert Hoover and publisher of the Washington Post, declared editorially that Eccles was a good man and that his anti-inflation program ought to be adopted.

Insomuch as Secretary Snyder is one of President Truman's closest personal and official advisers, his misjudgment with respect to McCabe may explain why so many other suggestions he has made to the White House have gone sour.

SIZE — The size of Henry A. Wallace's presidential vote has become the principal topic of conversation and speculation at Washington political gatherings in view of the Commie investigations on Capitol Hill and the growing belief that the Iowan's third party has been kidnapped by Moscow Reds and their agents in the United States.

Before these revelations, it was thought by the smarter politicians that Wallace would roll up a vote of about 7,000,000—some estimated it at 10,000,000. It was also believed that at least seventy-five percent of his support would come from people who might otherwise cast their ballots for Truman.

The Wallace strategists figured, and so did the Democrats, that he would run especially strong in such electorally important states as New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan and California. Should he make good showing in those areas, it would be especially strong in such electorally important states as New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan and California. Should he make good showing in those areas, it would be especially strong in such electorally important states as New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan and California.

Now, however, in view of McClellan's behavior and the obvious fact that Henry is Stalin's favorite, the impression prevails that the boy from the corn belt may not amass more than the total given to the 1924 rebels, possibly even a diminution in the third party's vote-getting appeal will be a gain for President Truman. But nobody figures that it will be enough of a gain to elect him.

news behind the news

By RAY TUCKER WASHINGTON — The Republicans believe that they have a powerful asset, hitherto unpublished generally, in the fact that their vice presidential nominee, Gov. Earl Warren of California, is the first son of immigrant parents to be named to such a high office by either major party. He is of Scandinavian descent, and his father, mother and wife were born in the "old country."

Governor Warren has never used his parentage to win votes in his California contests. He did not need to, for the fact is fairly well known in the coastal state. But the Republican strategists expect to capitalize on the question.

It is counted on to win many votes for the Dewey-Warren ticket, not only in states with a good representation of voters of Swedish, Norwegian, Finnish, Danish and other racial groups which trace their ancestry to other countries.

In their platform and in President Truman's speech before the Philadelphia convention, the Democrats made clear that they will go all out for the support of racial and religious elements of the electorate. But the GOP expects to counter this thrust with quiet references to the handsome Californian's ancestral background.

AGREEMENT — Now it develops that McCabe and Eccles are in general agreement with respect to mopping up bank's lending resources, which contribute to the inflationary spiral, by the imposition of drastic federal controls.

McCabe, for instance, favors his colleague's proposal for a curb on consumer credit, which would require an original down payment of one-third and liquidation of the balance in fifteen months.

He advocates the Eccles suggestion for a breakup of bank holding companies such as that which A. P. Giannini has built up in the West.

In fact, it has been charged that Giannini was partially responsible for Eccles' demotion and his replacement by McCabe.

SUGGESTIONS — Although the Pennsylvania did not commit itself for the Eccles demand for legislation requiring federal reserve banks to maintain a "special reserve" of funds, thereby reducing their lending authority, did tell the Senate Banking and Currency Committee that the proposition "deserved serious consideration."

Dear Editor: As President of the Top of Texas Rodeo and Horse Show, I would like to take this method of expressing the sincere thanks and appreciation of the Association to the general public, and every citizen of the country, in making this year's show the best in the history of the organization. We feel that the Top of Texas Rodeo and Horse Show is making consistent progress in bringing this section of the country, each year, a clean and wholesome week of entertainment. Without the complete cooperation of everyone, it would be impossible to make the progress we have made.

Special recognition and thanks go to: Governor Beauford H. Jester who honored us Friday night with his presence; the State Highway Patrol; City, County and School Officials; all committee chairmen and hundreds of volunteering workers; the Harvester Band; visiting delegations; Pampa Rodeo Club; the Boy and Girl Scouts; civic and service organizations; and other parade participants; all Booster trip participants; The Pampa News; KFDN; Fort Worth Star-Telegram; Amarillo Globe News; Amarillo Times; and all neighboring weekly newspapers for splendid publicity and news coverage before and during the show; the Griffith Theaters in arranging for the use of the appearance of Monte Hale, Republic Pictures cowboy; and all contestants who conducted themselves as real sports; to all special attractions for their fine cooperation.

And last but not least, we wish to thank my many customers who obviously contribute to the successful culmination of any show by providing the necessary "where-with-all" to meet the expenses occasioned by producing a show of the type just completed.

Aug. 7, 1948 To the Editor: In the recent order the Health Department gave to the people that have livestock, to move out, was an order that should have been carried out long ago, with this awful polio epidemic.

The health inspector said livestock draws files, and files were known carriers of polio germs; the issue I want the Health Department to elaborate on is if a man has a milk cow in order to cut down on the high cost of living, and for his children to have milk to drink, and has that cow tubercular tested, has screens on his cow and no person or DDT in his cow lot, has this man violated the law?

If the Chamber of Commerce gets up a commercial show and gets all the worn out rodeo livestock from the surrounding states that have been exposed to every known disease, and brings them up on main street with no disinfectant facilities, and entices all the children out to be "exposed, carry these same children out to see a filthy stock pen, any fifty ever put foot in. Do these rodeo files carry polio germs? Can the Chamber of Commerce disregard the health laws, jeopardize every child's health in town, in order to stimulate a fortune in trade, and run a man out of town for trying to feed his family?

Bid For A Smile GREAT EXPECTATIONS Will Regain, who is nothing if not bighearted, is in a quandary. In fact, he is in a fix, and it all came about through his generosity. He has a beautiful Persian cat that was expecting a blessed event. Numbers of his friends asked for a kitten, and before he knew it he had promised about 40 of his friends a white kitten a piece. The other day the mother cat was in the house, proudly bearing her new family by the nose of its neck. The lone kitten evidently looks like papa, and papa must be a very handsome fellow. -Elmer (Ga.) Largest oil painting in the world is Titoretto's "Paradise" in the ducal palace at Venice, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

No writer can forever blame his second-hand work on the people he works for and those who pay to see it. Did Shakespeare, who didn't work for Sam Goldwyn, complain that "His name" would've been better if he didn't have to write it for Queen Elizabeth and the London mob? Dr. Johnson said "he who pleases many must have some species of merit" and "no man but a block-head ever wrote except for money." He didn't mention the odd people who write for money and pretend they don't.

SECURITY CAN BECOME A MIRAGE (Victoria Daily Colonist) People who look to Governments for "security" and administrations which promise it alike are seeking that which never has been granted to human kind. Man was promised his living by the sweat of his brow, and where he wastes his substance he will want and what all human devices to render it otherwise. Nowhere in her system does nature offer security to any one or to anything. Her way is the law of change and succession, or replacement and displacement. It is not the individual, the fixed or the guaranteed. It is defeatism in the individual to seek "security" in living, a misunderstanding of the function of life itself.

It was not so that the pioneers of this land lived, when there were few Governments to do things for them. They met the wilderness on its own terms, and pushed it back. Men and women worked together to found their homes, raise their children, and wrest a competence from what the land had to offer them. That was much. A hundred years ago the pioneers of Canada had their roots in the soil. They tilled the land and gathered its increase. They helped one another. They improved their condition, and laid the foundation of the nation. They had time for the Sabbath, and man knew there was God.

Something happens to the human ear when "security" becomes such a constant cry in men's throats. It is a second-rate vision, a turning away from the challenge which is life. To each was given various talents, but to all the right to use them. It is a neglect of their talents. Society takes a step in the wrong direction when it turns its back upon that. Each age is a pioneering one, and to each is offered widening chances of development. It is not security without having earned it, to attempt to reap without having sown. No Government can produce what people do not in themselves create.

THE DECISION ON COURT BROADCASTING (The Los Angeles Times) Another hangover from the Overell trial at Santa Ana has recently been disposed of by Federal Judge H. H. Harrison, holding that the question of who may, and who may not, broadcast proceedings in a State court is not a Federal matter.

Who? State Senator KFI brought suit in Federal court against Supervisor Judge Kenneth E. Morrison of Orange County claiming to have suffered an infringement of civil rights because a rival concern was allowed to broadcast parts of the Gollum-Overell case tried May to October of 1947.

Judge Harrison considered the question raised by the plaintiff concerning the right of a judge to grant special privileges in his courtroom to certain news-gathering agencies to the exclusion of others. He held that under California law Judge Morrison had control of his courtroom and that it was a matter of discretion whether he would permit broadcasting from that courtroom.

Looking into the future, Judge Harrison said that someday broadcasting and television may be considered a vested interest in news-gathering agencies, but he does not "comprehend that such unusual privileges have thus far jelled into a right."

Whether or not broadcasting will become a recognized phase of reporting court procedure is a question to be determined. But in his obiter dictum, Judge Harrison poses a question of public interest that goes beyond the jurisdictional issue. The right or power of discretion of a judge to grant news reporting privileges to any particular agency or to the exclusion of similar agencies. Certainly a court has no right to say that one newspaper or news agency should be permitted to cover his court proceedings to the exclusion of others and no infringement of the basic principle should be permitted that other news disseminating agencies such as radio and television are involved. There may be technical problems and limitations of courtroom space where broadcasting and television are concerned but such should be resolved without any implication of court favoritism.

Too frequently judges are prone to forget that like other public officials they are servants of the public and that the public interest and not their personal predilections or idiosyncrasies come first. Responsible citizens do not wish their courts turned into circuses. They will support the dignity and decorum of the courts but they also will insist on the open character of court proceedings as a safeguard of liberty and justice.

National Derby Entrants To Stay at 'Derbytown'

Soap Box Derby champions from all corners of North America, who come to Akron for the 1948 national Derby championship race, will sleep, eat and be entertained over the weekend at "Derbytown," a boys' camp nine miles from the city.

Walter Colwell, Pampa entrant, is now enroute to Akron with J. L. Swindle, editor of The Pampa Daily News.

The new feature of Derby arrangements was announced by Myron E. Scott, general manager of the Ak-American Soap Box Derby and assistant advertising manager of the Chevrolet Motor Division, co-sponsor of the Derby.

During the entire weekend, the 150 champions will be entertained on a scale befitting their championship position. A round of amusements, tryouts on Derby Downs, planned recreation and plenty of rest will be arranged for the boys from the minute they reach Akron on the Thursday before the race until they leave Sunday or Monday.

The boys will be taken, with a police escort, from the airport or railway station to registration headquarters at a downtown Akron hotel. They then will go to "Derbytown," a beautiful location beside a lake, which they will occupy exclusively during the weekend.

The camp, use of which has been arranged by the Akron Y.M.C.A., is one of the finest of its kind in the country. Besides the lake, which affords supervised swimming and boating, the camp is equipped with tennis courts, baseball diamonds, a recreation hall with a stage, a modern mess hall, a "Post Exchange," and a fully staffed medical unit.

The boys will sleep in groups of 10 in modern cabins and at all times will be under the supervision and guidance of experienced counselors. Special dieticians and chefs will be on hand to prepare the wholesome food that is to be served to the boys.

"Derbytown" will be the boys' headquarters at all times, and they will be taken from the camp by buses to meet the various engagements on their busy calendar of fun and play in and about Akron. Parents may visit the boys at camp at specified hours. Motion picture and still cameramen will be at the camp at all times to record highlights of the boys' stay in Akron.

Professional entertainers and men trained in organized sports will help direct activities and provide amusement. Some of the many features of the champions' entertainment may include trips to rubber laboratories and plants, "Akron Day" at an amusement park and special dinners with local industry executives as hosts.

The champions will have ample opportunity to service their racing cars, and to test them on the championship course at Derby Downs before the big race Sunday, Aug. 16.

They all will participate in the huge parade Derby Downs before the start of the first heat, and seats for eliminated contestants will be provided near the finish line.

Climax of the celebration is the Champions' Banquet Sunday night, which is to be held in the Good-year Gym, the largest hall of its kind in Akron. The champions are guests of honor at the dinner, which is attended by civic leaders, race officials, industrial executives, parents, friends, representatives of the press and of the Chevrolet Motor Division. All prizes and a trophies are awarded the champions at this banquet.

Bitter Reprieve

By Drexel Drake

THE STORY: Sterling tells Talent his wife's diamond necklace was probably stolen from her safe. When Talent asks him if she might also have had a large sum of money, Sterling realizes the policeman knows about the theft through a rival. Sterling says his wife's death leaves him a poor man. Her large income was to keep with her secret. He suggests Talent see her lawyer, T. Bryan Steadman.

LEUTENANT TALENT relaxed into an armchair beside the desk of Iverson Sanders, manager of the Fifty-Seventh Street branch of Central National Bank. Sanders had a long, lined face. His thin brows formed arcs in his narrow forehead at Talent's question about Miriam Sterling's $10,000 withdrawal.

"Has that become a police matter?" the bank manager asked. "If not, I shouldn't be here asking about it," Talent said. "I'm sorry, but of course. It's only that Mrs. Sterling attached such secrecy to the transaction."

"Was it unusual?" "It was unusual that Mrs. Sterling should send the sum entirely in $100 bills... and of course, keeping a record of the numbers. The only recourse was to give her all new bills of the same serial number."

Talent swallowed that huge surprise quietly. "You took steps, did you, to check reappearance of the bills through other banks?" "Discreetly."

"I'm afraid you'll have to be considerably less discreet about it," Talent said. "I don't understand. Shouldn't any further request be authorized by Mrs. Sterling?"

"That's impossible, Mr. Sanders. Mrs. Sterling was murdered some time last night in her home."

"The bank manager's professional self-command just barely sufficed to absorb the shock. "That's staggering news, Lieutenant," he said.

Talent sketched detail...

enough to fill in the picture. "You said Mrs. Sterling visited you yesterday?" Talent asked. "Yes. She came in after eleven-thirty... she was here... we must have chatted half an hour."

"Was there anything connected with her visit that would be helpful to the police?" Talent asked. "Anything she said?" "How could anything she said to me help explain a burglary she couldn't possibly have anticipated? We had such chats frequently, intimate family chats."

"Steadman put that quietly, yet to Talent it seemed pointed. He decided to change his tack. "There's the usual formal question in a case of this kind, Mr. Steadman," he said. "The will... the beneficiaries... you would know about that?"

"Naturally. Of course, Miriam Sterling had no estate to bequeath, I mean, nothing of the estate left by her father. Her income ceases with her death, and there being no children, the principal goes to charitable foundations. But Miriam did execute a will immediately after her marriage, and whatever she has will pass on to Marcus."

"And that won't amount to much?" "Whatever money she has in the bank... a few bonds, perhaps... the house in Clifton."

"Her diamond necklace?" "Yes. That would be included in the legacy... her personal property, naturally."

"That probably was taken from her safe, Mr. Steadman. Do you know if it was insured?" "Yes, I handled that for her. It's insured for $100,000."

Talent got up. It was dawn on him that Marcus Sterling was not quite the poor man he had pictured himself. After he shook hands with Steadman, he said, "I have a request to make. Mrs. Sterling's room is locked. There are papers scattered on the floor beneath her wall safe, and there is her desk. I'd like for you to be out there with me this evening to go through things."

Texas Prohibition Party Makes Plans for November

HOUSTON—(AP)—The Texas Prohibition Party yesterday adopted a slate of six candidates for the November general election and promised a "real campaign" in their behalf.

Heading the slate are the Rev. Sam Morris, San Antonio Baptist minister and radio "Voice of Temperance" there for 12 years, named as a candidate for the U. S. Senate, and the Rev. Gerald Overholt, pastor of the Free Methodist Church, Houston, candidate for governor.

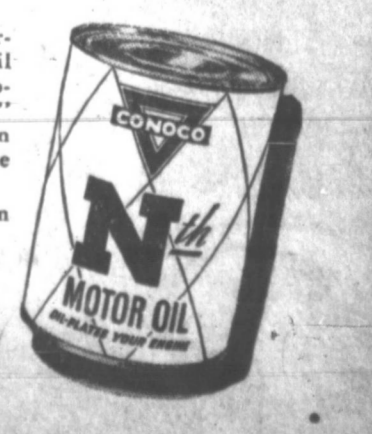

Overholt also was named chairman of the party's State Executive Committee. Other candidates named at the state convention were: Lieutenant governor—Rev. Ira R. Lowe, Dallas Methodist minister.

Attorney general—C. V. Compton, Dallas. State treasurer—Dr. Lucille Dickson, Corsicana. State commissioner of agriculture—W. H. Lawrence, Kemah.

"We are going to make a real campaign in Texas this year," Overholt said after a convention party has just named electors for our national candidates but this year we are naming candidates for six state offices and will make a strong campaign."

It is the first time in 30 years for the party to name a slate of candidates in Texas. Overholt said another convention will be held in September and that state campaign headquarters will be opened soon either in Houston or Dallas.

Health Office Has 150 Complaints on City Livestock

The City Health Department at present has approximately 150 livestock complaints to untangle, Ray Salmon, city health inspector, said this morning.

"It will take us several days to get to all of the different places," Salmon continued. "However, we will get ground to them all sooner or later."

Reminding Pampans that both flies and chicken mites are probable polio transmitters, Salmon said most residents who own livestock are cooperating nicely.

The Health Department is requiring that all horses, cows and chickens be removed from the city limits, at least for the summer, in order to help rid the city of flies.

"The only way persons within the city limits may keep their chickens is by putting them in a screened-in garage and keeping the surrounding area clean," Salmon concluded.

Special Plea Exempts Men From Citation

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON—(AP)—Two men are called as witnesses before the House Un-American Activities Committee.

One of the committee members asks the first witness a question. The man says "I refuse to answer."

When the second man takes the stand, the committee member asks him a question. The second witness says "I refuse to answer on the ground that it might incriminate or degrade me."

Can both men get away with refusing to answer the committee's questions? No. One can, the other can't.

The first witness who simply says "I refuse to answer" can be cited for contempt of Congress, tried in federal court, and, if found guilty, can be sentenced to jail.

A law says a witness before a Congressional investigating committee—the Un-American Activities Committee—is one—can be cited for contempt of Congress, tried in federal court, and, if found guilty, can be sentenced to jail.

But what of the second witness, the one who said "I refuse to answer on the ground that it might incriminate or degrade me?" It's different in this case. He can't be cited for contempt because by explaining why he refuses to answer—"on the ground that it might incriminate or degrade me"—he is standing on his Constitutional right not to testify against himself.

The Fifth Amendment to the Constitution says "no persons... shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself."
Monday two men—Victor Perlo and Alexander Korol—refused to answer the committee's questions by saying their answers might incriminate or degrade them.
Both men were called for questioning concerning an alleged Soviet spy ring.
And last week Gregory Silvermaster, formerly with the government's board of economic warfare, refused to answer on the same grounds.
Several members of the committee would—or could—try to get those three men cited for contempt of Congress.
They said "no." They said the three men were standing on their Constitutional right not to answer and therefore could not be cited for contempt.

Man Jailed on Assault Charge

Junior Smith, of the Hillison Hotel Annex, now under $2,500 bond in connection with the July 9 beating and robbery of Dan Harp, Pampa, was lodged in the County Jail yesterday for a second attack on Harp.

Smith was picked up Monday by City Police after he again jumped Harp and beat him in front of the Main Street Bar.

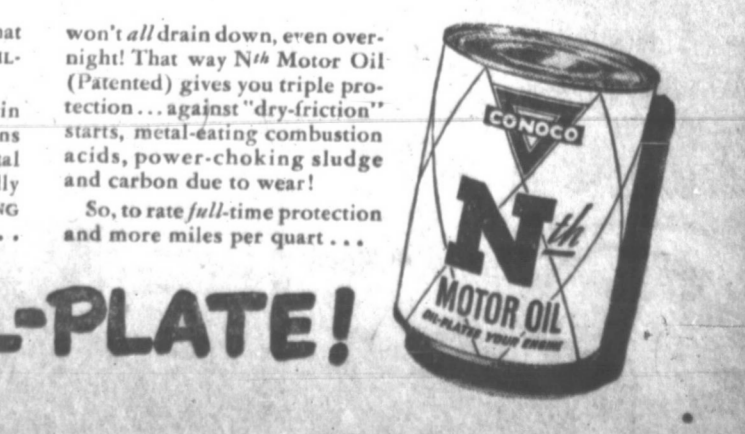

Haled before the County Court on charges of simple assault, Smith pleaded guilty and was fined $25 plus costs by Judge Sherman White. He was taken to the sheriff's office later to wait for trial Attorney Tom Braly, for his mother to come over and pay his fine, officers said. Still later he was jailed on orders of District investigation.

Want to rate?...
For winning performance that rates a prize, wise motorists OIL-PLATE with Conoco N^o.
A special added ingredient in Conoco N^o Motor Oil fastens extra lubricants so closely to metal that working parts are actually OIL-PLATED! This OIL-PLATING stays up on cylinder walls... won't drain down, even overnight! That way N^o Motor Oil (Patented) gives you triple protection... against "dry-friction" starts, metal-eating combustion acids, power-choking sludge and carbon due to wear!
So, to rate full-time protection and more miles per quart...

BUSINESS IS GOOD

WE NEED YOUR LISTINGS

One of the best small groceries in Pampa—up to date fixtures—full line of meats and groceries—big business in an ideal location—netting the owner now around 400 per month—long lease on building, and the rent is reasonable—let to live in or rent out—man and wife can easily run it—take 2500 for fixtures, and involve the stock, and this is one of the best buys in Pampa if you want to get in business for yourself.

A beautiful brick home on the hill—120x125 ft. frontage—3 large bedrooms—two baths—living room—dining room—kitchen—laundry room—pantry—large closets—built-in—large garage—2 floor furnaces—venetian blinds—beautiful lighting—rock wool insulation thru-out—immediate possession—carries large F.I.A. loan—cost $20,000 to build—take 20,000 for quick sale.

Two four room modern houses on 3 1/2 acres of land in city limits—water—sewer—gas—electricity—less than 4% block off pavement—now for 40.00 per month—other vacant—take 2000 for this property—4 down, balance in monthly payments, 4 1/2% interest—this is a buy.

A bargain in White Deer—2 bed rooms—living room—kitchen—garage—wash house—a good home worth the money—take 4750.

Big 5 room modern home on corner lot well located—lots of trees, lawn, shrubs—good garage—chicken house—garden spot—$7500.

3 bed room brick on the pavement, close in to the Woodrow Wilson school, immediate possession—$8000, and this is a bargain.

A nice home on North Year for 7900—3 bedrooms on N. Banks for $9000, and it has a 4000 F.I.A. loan—5 room and acreage for 7850—3 bed room and basement on Duncan for $9000—another on Duncan, 3 bed room for $9000—Large home on Fisher for $7500—A bargain in a 3 bed room in N. Hazel for $5000—5 room and bath on N. Sumner located on large lot $8000—One of the best bricks in Pampa, 3 bed rooms for 12,500.

100 head of the best WF Hereford Heifers—these cattle are past yearlings—100 head of these heifers are from registered cows—will deliver Nov. 1st, and figure they will weigh around 550—take 25 cents per lb. and guarantee them to be mud fat.

Are you looking for something that is a show place—have 160 acres with 3 irrigation wells—well improved with plenty of barns and sheds—beautiful brick home—2 car garage—55 acres of alfalfa, that cut 15,000 tons last year—want to sell this place and the price is very reasonable—its considered the best quarter section in this Panhandle—its located in Deaf Smith County, close to Hereford.

We're breaking all records on Polio Insurance—you can't afford to do without this policy, for no more than it costs—$5.00 insures your whole family up to $5000.00—and this $500 for each member—its good insurance or we wouldn't be selling it—its in effect when you fill out the application—don't wait—take out a policy now while you've got it on your mind—it might be too late tomorrow.

Smith Rites Set For Tomorrow

SHAMROCK —(Special)— Funeral services for Josiah Smith, 42, Wheeler County resident since 1916, will be held at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow at the First Baptist Church in Wheeler, with the Rev. M. B. Smith, pastor, officiating.

Burial will be in the Wheeler Cemetery under the direction of the Kirk Funeral Home.

Short services were also held at the Smith Kern Funeral Home in Shamrock this morning.

Mr. Smith died Monday in Edmond, Okla., after an illness of about three weeks.

He is survived by three sons, Fred A. Smith, Yukon, Okla., Allen I. and J. Everett, both of Shamrock; three daughters, Mrs. Shiria Williams, Oklahoma City, with whom he lived for the past two years; Mrs. Odessa McKay, Pampa, and Mrs. Pernia Hill, Los Angeles; by three brothers and three sisters and also by 19 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren.

Water Need Causes Trouble At City Wells

Pumping facilities at two of the city's water wells have broken down in the past few weeks, due largely to the fact that, to meet the summer demand for water, the wells are being pumped at full capacity, the city engineer's office announced today.

Only the rain that was caught in reservoirs during the month has saved the Water Department from ordering a curtailment of service, it was said.

Wells 1 and 2, located on Hobart, just south of the Santa Fe tracks, were the ones affected by the temporary breakdown in equipment. Pumps and engines from Well Number 5, that sanded up the early part of the summer and is not in operation, were removed to Well Number 1, and both wells are expected to be back in operation before the end of the week.

The new water supply discovered about three miles south of town on the Clarendon highway will provide an almost unlimited supply of sweet water that will be more than sufficient for the city's normal needs and will also permit a considerable expansion of the city's present system for its increased population, the city engineer's office said.

If the water development bond issue election, set for Sept. 8, passes, City Manager Steve Matthews said, this new supply can be developed to give the city a year-round supply of state-approved water. The present wells, that do not meet state standards for mineral content, can be held for emergencies.

The average mineral content of Flushed and panting, Mary Lou Miller threw open her door as the policemen charged up.

"It's all over . . ." she gasped. "I screamed . . . then I killed it with a broom."

Whole Town to Be Sprayed

Pampa will be DDT sprayed for the seventh time this summer during the present week, not in just the alleys, but in the streets as well, Ray Salmon, city health inspector, said this morning.

More garbage trucks and crews are being employed at the present time in Pampa than ever before. They will attempt to collect garbage twice a week in residential sections during the summer months.

During the past two weeks one of the crews has used the county DDT hand sprayer on garbage cans. The extra garbage precaution is one of the measures taken by the Health Department to rid the city of flies by destroying their breeding places.

"Since flies have been definitely proved to be polio carriers," Salmon said, "we are doing our utmost to remove them from Pampa."

The present wells is a little over 950 parts per million, the new wells south of town tested about 200 parts per million, below the state minimum.

The new wells will also be one-third softer than the ones now in use, testing 200 parts per million as compared with the average 300 from the present wells.

Yessir, That's The New Magic Word They Use When They Call for Phillips 66 Premium Motor Oil

"LUBRI-TECTION!" It's a word worth remembering. Why? Because it means lubrication plus protection for your car's engine.

You get the fine lubricating qualities of excellent base stocks, expertly refined. You get inhibiting additives which help cut down varnish, reduce sludge formations, guard against ring sticking and minimize engine deposits in your motor.

So remember "Lubri-tection"—benefit from it by using the great new Phillips 66 Premium Motor Oil. Why not switch today?

PUBLIC INVITED TO WHITE'S STORE GALA OPENING

Redecoration Sets New Trend In Auto Store Arrangement

With the recently-completed expansion, redecoration and complete modernization of Pampa's big new White's Auto Store, in its new location at 109 S. Cuyler, Pampa can now boast of having one of the most outstanding and most beautifully appointed shopping centers for the home and automobile in the Southwest.

The formal presentation of the greatly enlarged new store has been set for tomorrow night, with a gala Grand Opening Party, complete with music, entertainment, special gifts for all who attend, an on-the-spot radio broadcast and all the bright lights and gaiety which are so much a part of a big special occasion.

Ken Bennett and his orchestra will strike up the band promptly at 8 p. m. when the doors swing open for the Grand Opening. Music and entertainment will be continuous throughout the evening. At 8:30 p. m. over KPDM, a special broadcast description of the event will begin. Microphones will be located at strategic points throughout the store, to give radio listeners a complete picture of the Grand Opening from all floors of White's big new store.

ORIGINAL MAN ON STREET

Bill Hood, White's famous "Original Man on the Street," familiar to thousands of listeners to his daily program over KWPT from Wichita Falls, will direct the Grand Opening broadcast in person and interview many of the visitors in the store. True Texas hospitality will be extended to all guests at the opening by White's courteous attendants in every department and section of the new store. Special gifts will be presented to every visitor during the evening, to the ladies, the men, and to the children. No gifts will be distributed at three different points in the store, for the convenience of White's guests and to avoid congestion at any one point. Thursday evening's visitors to the store will see a completely different type of interior design, marking a bold step toward the establishment of an entirely new modern trend in home and auto store arrangement. New techniques for the effective use of fluorescent lighting give a delightful color-visibility to all parts of the store, enhancing the vivid freshness of new merchandise, colorfully displayed, and bring out the eye-pleasing natural wood tones of the new shelves, counters and display islands. Aluminum is also effectively used to combine attractive display with smart modernistic appearance. All fixtures and interior decoration were designed and built exclusively for White's Auto Stores.

In every respect, the completely redesigned Pampa store becomes not only the most advanced unit of the far-flung White's organization, but also the most modern shopping center of its kind in this part of the nation. It represents the modern culmination of an exciting and colorful history which centers here in our own vital and vigorous young Southwest. In the relatively short span of 18 years, White's has grown from a tiny two-man firm to an organization of 26 company-owned stores and more than 150 authorized dealer stores, operating in four states, with a tremendous annual volume of business. White's Auto Stores were born of the depression in a small building in Clinton, Okla., with scarcely a truckload of merchandise.

Ex-Pampa Manager Is Real Daddy of White Auto Stores

Tom C. White, vice president of White's Auto Stores is the actual "father" of the organization. Tom, who is now only 37 years old, established White's Auto Store No. 1 at Clinton, Okla., shortly after leaving college in June of 1930. From this tiny 12-foot-front building the present grand organization has grown. When the second store was opened, Tom moved to Elk City, Okla., to manage it. Subsequently, he came to Pampa to take charge of White's new store here. Eventually, he moved to Wichita Falls to take charge of the store which was established there in 1936. He has lived in Wichita Falls ever since, where the company's main offices and warehouses are now located. Throughout the entire 18 years of White's Auto Stores' history, Tom has remained in the forefront of all its activities and has played a major role in shaping the policies and growth of the organization. NATIVE OKLAHOMAN He is a brother of Erle White, who is now president of the company, and a son of W. A. White, who is treasurer. Tom was born at Stidham, Okla., in January of 1911. The family was living at Henryetta, Okla., in 1929 when Tom was graduated from high school. He entered the University of Oklahoma the following year. Not long after leaving the university, he decided upon the business and wished to enter and moved to Clinton, where he opened an

White's Assistant Manager 17-Year Resident of Pampa

Emil B. Stuebgen, 501 N. Davis, is your White's Auto Store assistant manager, and though originally from Muskogee, Okla., has hung his hat on the Top o' Texas long enough to be out of the "furriner" classification and into the category of the elect—"A Texan."

Stuebgen was graduated from White Deer High School in 1930 and moved to Pampa the next year. During the years from '31 until now, he had also spent some time in Berger.

"Stuege" is his nickname, but where he got that anyone can plainly see. At least, we think it should be plain enough that it is derived directly from his name and not from elsewhere. WINNER IN SALES CONTEST Emil's record at White's might not quite approach the Horatio Alger legend but when you consider that three and one half years ago he started as a White's salesman and today has reached the position of Assistant Manager, you see an accomplishment anyone can take their hat off to. Beside this record, Emil recently won first place in a tire and seal cover contest. The competing group consisted of 21 of the White's Auto Stores. First place gave Emil a cash prize, plus an all expense paid trip to Lake Erie, Cleveland, Fremont, and Dayton, Ohio. Emil modestly says this trip was made possible only by the purchases of his many customers from Pampa and surrounding towns.

PHOTOGRAPHY IS HOBBY Emil, active in Knights of Pythias and the American Legion, still finds time to be a "shutter bug" and a good one at that. He has been "involved" with his hobby of photography for over four years. He does his own developing and enlarging and has had samples of his art used in various Texas newspapers. He is a member of the EMIL B. STUEBGEN First Christian Church. During the war, Emil went through corps school at Farragut, Idaho, and from there to a Seattle naval hospital. "Stuege" married a Pampa girl whose maiden name was Josephine Ganiz. They have four children, Joan, 15; Julia Dean, 9; Sandra Sue, 8; and Eddie Lee, 3.

Meaders Manages New Store Has Made Host of Friends

Good Paint and Varnish Selection

One of the most important departments at White's Auto Store is the paint and varnish section, where there are the finest quality Majestic varnishes, stains, house paints, enamels, and brushes for every requirement, in addition to thinners, paint and varnish remover, polishes and cleaners, shellac, and other related items. White's also carry in stock a complete line of household hardware items, tools for every purpose, tool boxes, electrical parts and supplies, lighting fixtures for every room, and numerous other items in this general department.

Texas Falling Behind In Population Race

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Texas may be a booming state but it is losing in the population race on the basis of increase since 1940. The Lone Star State has gained only 10.7 percent population since the 1940 census. Far in the lead in percentage gains are California with 42.1 percent, Oregon at 41.8 and Washington at 35.8. The figures are based on July 1 estimates. Texas now ranks sixth in the nation, behind fourth place Illinois and Ohio.

Wells Are Drilled In Upton County

SAN ANGELO—(AP)—Five new wells are being drilled in the much-publicized Benedum field in Eastern Upton County of West Texas. Four tests have been made since Slick-Urschel and Plymouth Oil announced opening of the field with its discovery No. 1 Alford. Three of the tests showed water in the Ellenburger. But oil men pointed out that the discovery Alford recovered water from 11,857,684 feet, below and above zones in which oil and gas were encountered. Slick-Urschel and Plymouth No. 1 Gordon, a three-quarter mile northwest out to the discovery well, has shown an estimated 10 to 15 million cubic feet of gas daily, and flowed distillate at a rate estimated

LOVER OF SPORTS

An admirer of all kinds of sports, Ken especially likes to participate in golf, tennis and baseball. A special hobby of Ken's is boys. While at Clinton, he was Scoutmaster of one of the local troops. A member of the local post of the American Legion, Ken is also a member of the Methodist Church. A little more than a year seems like a very short time to make many friends. However, not so with Ken. It may partially be the fault of "The Friendly City," but we're sure Ken did his share to accumulate his large number of friends.

Periodic Meetings to Keep White's Salesmen Posted

In order to improve its service to customers and maintain the spirit of helpfulness which characterizes its assistance to shoppers, White's Auto Stores hold periodic sales meetings designed to keep salesmen posted on the latest methods and advancements in the products which they sell. Every customer is benefited by a salesman's intelligent explanation and demonstration of the operation and usefulness of any item in which the shopper is interested. Problems about the automobile or about the home, can be easily and quickly solved if the customer knows that the salesman waiting on him is thoroughly familiar with the things he sells and can give a simple, effective explanation of their uses.

Proof of the value of these sales meetings is found in the concrete results in monthly sales by White's 26 stores and 150 affiliated stores. The organization devotes careful study to sales methods followed not only within the company but by other stores as well. The results of these studies and observations are reported and discussed in the meetings, which has the effect of making the meet-

White's Provide Advanced System Employee Benefits

The success of any business enterprise depends in large measure upon the attitude manifested by its employees, the degree of their feelings of loyalty to the company and the amount of satisfaction they derive from the conditions of their employment.

If an employee can feel secure so long as he performs his duties well, if he knows that the rewards for his efforts are in line with the nature of his job, if he knows that he has ample opportunity for advancement within the organization, and if he is aware of the fact that his company encourages him to progress, and at the same time makes generous provision for his own and his family's future security—then that employee becomes an asset to his employer. As an individual, he will contribute everything in his power to the success of his company.

Much of the success of White's Auto Stores can be accounted for by reason of the company's recognition of these essential factors. The public at large has witnessed the remarkable growth and accomplishment of White's Auto Stores and may have wondered just what specific things could account for this success.

A large part of the answer could be supplied by those customers who have made their White's Auto Stores a shopping center and have seen and felt the pleasant atmosphere created by White's employees. A salesman's enthusiasm for his job, his confidence in and devotion to the organization he represents and the principles for which he stands—these things inevitably reflect in greater satisfaction for the customer, and in turn, greater success for the store.

EMPLOYEE-RELATION

A number of employee-relations principles have become firmly established as basic in the operation of White's Auto Stores. One of these was splendidly illustrated immediately upon the outbreak of World War Two.

Even before the federal government had taken steps to protect the job-standing of men and women who were called into service, White's had officially announced to all its employees that if they entered any branch of the service, their present jobs—or an advancement—would be awaiting them upon their return to civilian life. Proof of this benefit effects of this forward-looking guarantee in the minds of the employees was demonstrated when, at the end of the war, they returned to their positions almost to a man.

No publicity has heretofore been given to an even more significant action on the part of White's toward its employees during the war. This was an unprecedented decision on the part of the company to continue paying every employee his full salary, less his army or navy base pay, during the entire time he was in service.

Without fanfare, and without making any public announcement or seeking any sort of commendation for its action, the company quietly informed each employee, as he entered the service, that his pay check would continue without interruption as long as he served his country, just as though he were still at work with White's Auto Stores.

FULL SALARY TO SERVICEMEN

In a manner of speaking, White's Auto Stores simply granted each employee a war-time leave of absence with full salary. This extraordinary policy was extended not only to employees of long standing with the company, but to every employee who had been with the company for as long as six months. In many cases, as a result, young men and women who had been with White's only a short time returned from the war to find that their seniority with the company was well established.

The importance of this fact to each employee goes beyond the obvious benefits of job security, in view of still another established policy in White's well-planned program of employee-relations.

On Dec. 31, 1942, the directors of White's Auto Stores established White's Employee Profit-Sharing Trust. The purpose of the Trust is to provide an income for salaried employees in case of disability or for those who have reached the age of retirement. Under the terms of the Trust, the cost of the contributions to this fund is borne by the company itself, so that each employee actually shares in the net profits of the business.

Every White's employee automatically becomes a member of the Trust upon the completion of three years of continuous service as a full time salaried employee. Thus, the eligibility of those employees who entered the armed forces during the war was in any way affected by their absence, since they were considered as full time White's employees while they were in service—and for six months thereafter, so that their status under the Profit-Sharing Trust was unimpaired.

PROFITS IN TRUST FUND
Under present conditions, according to the terms of the Trust, twenty percent of the entire net profits of White's Auto Stores, before deducting Federal Taxes, are made available to the fund, and each eligible employee is credited with an interest in the Trust amounting to fifteen percent of his total compensation for the year.

At the present time the Trust Funds amount to more than $200,000, and this figure will be greatly increased when the employees' share of the company's profits for 1943 are added to the fund.

Each employee member of the Trust may avail himself of the retirement benefits at age sixty, if he chooses, and he may elect to receive his share in annual cash payments or the entire amount in a lump sum instead of in installments.

Adequate provisions are made for payment to designated beneficiaries of all sums credited to any employee in the event of his death. The terms of the Trust also protect each employee's share in the fund against encumbrances or attachments by creditors of any kind.

Payment of benefits in the event of an employee's illness or disability are provided for in the same manner as in the case of retirement, and provision is also made for Trust members to receive any amounts credited to them in the event of termination of employment before retirement age.

MERIT SYSTEM

Advancement within the organization upon a merit basis has become another of the firmly established principles of employee-relations in White's Auto Stores. Key positions in both the individual stores and in the company's general offices are all held by men who have worked their way up in the organization.

The rapid expansion and growth of the company in recent years has presented an ever-widening field of opportunity for young men and women whose ambition and ability is in tempo with the progress of the company. They have the added security of knowing that when better positions become available, they are first in line to grasp the opportunity.

Based on such employment policies as these, assuring the inner integrity of White's Auto Stores as an institution, the outward, visible success of the company becomes understandable.

Furniture Department Head Has 8 Years Experience

Though Charles M. Tingle, affable manager of the furniture department, has been with White's stores only 11 months, he has had eight years' experience in the furniture department of a large mail-order firm.

Tingle came to Pampa three months ago to head the furniture department. He had been in the appliance department in Amarillo for eight months.

He is called "Charlie" or "Chuck" as the preference may be, and like all good Texans is a hunting fan. Born at Big Spring, Texas, in 1922, Chuck said he has been deer hunting every year since he was 15, with the exception of last year. Deer and game birds, especially quail and dove, are what he likes to go after.

Chuck boasts he is one of the few unmarried men at the store—the age of 26.

During the war, Chuck served three-and-one-half years in the Field Artillery, where he attained the rank of T/5.

With his more than ample experience in the field of furniture merchandising, Chuck is well qualified to assist anyone in making furniture selections, and his gracious manner also assists people in making such selections pleasant.

CHARLES M. TINGLE

At Forty, W. Erle White Is President of Auto Stores

W. Erle White, president of White's Auto Stores, is in every sense of the word "head of the organization."

To his ability as an executive, to his keen business judgment and organizational capability can be attributed, in large measure, the amazing progress and expansion of this concern which he has guided to its present position of largest of its kind in the Southwest.

This accomplishment is made even more amazing by the fact that Erle White is still a young man, only 40 years old. But into those 40 years he has packed a wealth of experience and a tremendous amount of just plain hard work.

His first experience in the automotive supply business was changing the old size 30x3 1/2 tires on Model T Fords. He hasn't lost the knack, even today, and can still compete with the best of them in changing tires or performing any of the older more prosaic tasks connected with the automotive business.

WICHITA FALLS OFFICE
Erle's office in White's new three-story office building in Wichita Falls is the heart and brain of the organization. From it he directs the purchasing, policies, merchandising, and general business affairs of the company as a whole and of each individual store. The fact that there are a score of large ware-houses, a furniture and mattress factory, 26 company-owned stores, and more than 150 Authorized Dealer stores, plus a huge wholesale division, will give a fair idea as to the volume of work that must be accomplished in that office every day, even including nights much of the time.

Born in that part of Indian Territory which later became Haskell County when Oklahoma became a state, Erle White spent the first 15 years of his life on a farm. As a result, he is fully aware of the ups and downs of farming and very definitely knows which is the business end of a cotton chopping hoe.

Erle attended school at Henryetta, Okla., where he moved in 1922 with his family, and was graduated from high school there in 1926. In between times during his high school career and during vacation periods, he worked in a garage, thus gaining the first experience for the position he now holds.

WORKED IN GARAGE
After his graduation he continued to work in the garage in Henryetta, selling gasoline, handling parts and doing what he describes as "just general work."

Erle White's first actual experience in the automotive supply business came in 1928 when he became an assistant in the Oklahoma Tire and Supply Co. in their Okmulgee store. A few months later he was assigned to their Henryetta store where he remained a year. After that he was transferred to Tulsa, one of the company's largest stores.

After a few months in Tulsa the Oklahoma Tire and Supply sent him to El Reno in 1929 to manage the company's store there. He remained in El Reno until he became affiliated with the White's Auto Stores in 1933. His first position with White's was that of organization manager. His deep interest in the success of White's Auto Stores was immediately manifest and he rose rapidly in the company as the organization grew and expanded under his guidance.

taught hard work as a youngster, and he advocates hard work and "stickability" along with patience as fundamentals of individual success. In actual fact he practices what he preaches, following his own principles of hard work and encouraging and inspiring others to do the same.

In addition to his responsibilities as president of White's Auto Stores, Erle is a director in the Wichita National Bank and a member of the board of directors of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce. He has an active interest in the civic affairs of his home town, but it is without doubt true to say that his only hobby is his sincere love of his company and his job.

Erle is married and has two young daughters, Marilyn, age 15, and Carolyn, age 12. He unashamedly attributes no little part of the success he has attained to his wife, Emma, who for many years was also active in the operation of White's Auto Stores as assistant secretary and head of the accounting department.

Erle, with his brother, Tom, and with George Adams comprise a team which an attentive branch of White's Auto Stores would be fortunate to have at its head. The amazing success of White's Auto Stores is ample evidence of that fact.

Lubbock Furniture Salesman Now Employed by White's

N. L. GRAVES

The newest addition to the Pampa White's Auto Store staff is N. L. Graves, who has been in town just 12 days.

He brought his family from Lubbock where he was a furniture salesman in the Lubbock branch of White's Auto Stores. He will also serve in the furniture department of the Pampa store.

Graves, a young family man, spent four years in the Navy and attained the position of AMM1 First Class.

He married a Dallas girl, Bernice Pollock. They have two children, N. L. Graves, Jr., age three, and Elizabeth Ann, age one.

"What's your nickname, N. L.?" the recent White's addition was asked. "Everyone around here seems to have some sort of a pet name they go by."

To this question N. L. said he has never been called anything but "N. L." or "Graves" with the exception of a name or two that he said were not for publication. No doubt he won't be around long until he has received an alias.

Though they have been in Pampa so short a time, the Graves family is looking forward to becoming a part of the community, which they have found to be so friendly and to their liking.

Adams Devotes Much Time to Installation

The White's Auto Stores executive most closely associated with the planning and installation of the company's new Pampa store is George G. Adams, whose duties, in addition to his position as vice president of the organization and a member of the board of directors, are devoted largely to supervision of new store installation and designing of the fixtures and physical appearance of each store.

Mr. Adams has been associated with White's since the early years of the company's history, having joined the organization in May of 1933, at the same time that Erle White, who is now president, also became a member of the firm. His first assignment with the company was the management of the then newly-established store at Hobart, Okla., which soon became one of the leading outlets of the company under his guidance.

When a new store was established at Altus, Okla., Adams was transferred there as manager, remaining for several years until he assumed his position in the general offices of the company. Since 1937 he has been one of the three key men of the organization and has played a leading role in the progress and expansion of the concern.

PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE

Prior to his association with White's Auto Stores, Mr. Adams had developed a background of practical experience in the automotive store business during three years affiliation with the Oklahoma Tire and Supply Co. He was manager of their Shawnee store at the time he joined White's.

The exceptionally attractive appearance of the new Pampa store, particularly the advanced design of the interior displays, fixtures and lighting, attest to his ability in planning and executing new stores and modernizing of the company's existing stores.

Although his duties take him away from home a large part of the time, George finds time for a considerable amount of civic and church work, in addition to his extensive activities around his farm and ranch home near Wichita Falls.

He is an active member of the Kiwanis Club and of the First Methodist Church, in which he is a member of the Board of Stewards and of the church's finance committee.

OWNS SMALL RANCH
Mr. Adams' interest in horses and cattle led him to move away from the urban areas in Wichita Falls last year, to establish his residence a few miles west of Wichita Falls, where he now lives with his family on a small ranch on which he keeps about 70 head of cattle in addition to several horses and ponies for the children.

Outside of his interest in this ranch home, perhaps his principal hobby is hunting.

George is married and the father of two young sons, Reggie and Richard, who are rapidly becoming accomplished horsemen and enjoying the pleasant task of adapting themselves to ranch life.

Mr. Adams predicts a highly successful business for White's new Pampa store and is enthusiastic about the reception already accorded the company here, as evidenced by the interest which has been shown both by individuals and organizations in the city.

Versatile Bookkeeper Is Employed

Mrs. W. A. Spoonmore, 617 N. Gray, resident of Pampa for the past 15 years, has spent 20 months engaged in the position of bookkeeper at White's.

However, she is a most versatile woman. Some of the civic organization honors she has held include Past Noble Grand of Rebekah Lodge and past president of the Home Mann P-T-A. She is a member of the VFW Auxiliary and First Methodist Church.

As if that, with her bookkeeping job were not enough, Mrs. Spoonmore takes on interior decorating and gardening "just to keep busy" and for hobbies.

Better known as Nina, Mrs. Spoonmore spent a year-and-a-half as chief clerk on a board of the Office of Price Administration. She also worked at the White's desk that for a period of two-and-a-half years. Besides being the wife of Walter A. Spoonmore, Nina is also the

Sporting Goods Dept. On Top

One of the most interesting departments in White's Auto Stores' big new Pampa store is the sporting goods section, where every sports lover will find every type of equipment desired.

The fisherman will find everything for every type of fishing, tackle boxes, reels, rods, casting and fly lines, leaders, hooks, flies, plugs, spinners, trot lines, bait, seines and the scores of other things needed to "hook the big ones."

For the hunter, White's will carry ammunition, guns, cases, hunting caps, knives, and all the other requisites for the hunting trip, such as outing jugs, camp stoves, folding cots, gasoline lanterns, flashlights, and so on.

For the golfer there is a selection of golf clubs, golf bags, golf shoes, and golf tees. During the past two years, Pampa has become so accustomed to seeing Mrs. Spoonmore's courteous smile at the White's desk that the office just would not seem the same without her.

Everything for Car at White's

The basic department of the new White's Auto Store is of course the automotive department, where every kind of repair or replacement part and all types of accessories are carried for the automobile.

White's famous seat covers, custom tailored and installed free of charge in the store's service department, are a popular item. Especially made for White's Auto Stores, to their own rigid specifications, are their custom-built batteries, guaranteed in writing up to 36 months; White's Standard sparkplugs, guaranteed for 15,000 miles; White's Super Deluxe Premium Quality tires, with a written unconditional 25,000-mile guarantee against all road hazards, and several other automotive needs and parts made for and guaranteed by White's.

Among the other items in sporting goods are a complete selection of football equipment, baseball and softball needs, croquet sets, roller skates, grandstand sport seats, archery sets and outing goods of every kind, for the car, the individual, the camping trip, picnic, vacation or outing.

For the lawn and garden, White's have an unusually complete stock of every type of tool required: rakes, weed cutters, hoes, spades and shovels, turf edgers, cultivators, lawn mowers, garden hose, sprinklers and lawn supplies, shears, insect sprayers and the like. There is also an attractive selection of porch and lawn furniture of all types.

Jean Nicolet, who arrived at the mouth of the Fox River in 1834, was the first known white man to set foot on Wisconsin soil.

Easy-Payment Plan Adopted by White's

One of the outstanding features of Pampa's new White's Auto Store will be its easy payment credit plan for the convenience of customers.

Throughout its entire history, White's has combined the distinct appeal of its lower prices with the added advantage of its weekly or monthly budget method of paying for purchases, with payments adjusted to the convenience of the purchaser.

Much of White's success in the retail field can be directly attributed to this plan, because by means of it, the customer need not do without essential items nor deny himself the comfort and pleasure of desired merchandise.

The fact, too, that so many of the needed and wanted things for the home, the car, or the individual can be purchased all in this one great store adds measurably to the convenience of the easy payment plan.

White's has pledged itself not only to provide better quality merchandise, but also to make purchases more attractive through this easy payment plan, but also to handle every transaction with fairness and courtesy to every customer.

Another convenient method of purchasing wanted and needed items is the lay-away plan.

The combination of the lay-away with the easy payment plan will become increasingly attractive as the Christmas gift season approaches.

White's Auto Store in Pampa are sure to appreciate the ease of shopping with these more convenient methods of payment.

White's Have Batteries of Fine Quality

A good battery is essential to the proper operation of any automobile. Regardless of how perfectly every other part of the car may operate, there is certain to be trouble and difficulty in delivering the steady flow of power the car requires.

The determination that the customer must be satisfied was the policy established more than 18 years ago, when the first White's Auto Store opened for business.

Instances of White's loyalty to their established principles are bright spots in the colorful history of the company.

White's Auto Stores famous batteries have long given such outstanding service that literally thousands are sold each month.

The four classifications are White's "Standard," the economical quality battery guaranteed for 12 months.

Among the special features of these various types are the hard-rubber over-size cases, super-process "tempered" plates, double insulation, patented envelope rubber separators.

White's batteries provide higher ampere-hour capacity, which insures quicker starting, frequent recharging, with consequent less drain on the battery.

For the convenience of customers, White's provides free battery checking and servicing facilities, and if the battery is in need of recharging, the store will provide this service at a nominal cost.

White's Policy Designed for Really Satisfied Customers

One of the principal factors in the success of White's Auto Stores has been the company's strict adherence to tested and proven policies in its relationships with both customers and employees.

Without delay or red tape, a new battery was immediately sent to the man. Similar instances have occurred from time to time in the case of White's tires, which are unconditionally guaranteed in writing to give satisfactory service for 25,000 miles.

Others, too, stand as examples of how conscientiously White's has stood by its guarantee of satisfaction to every customer.

The organization insists that its employees meet every customer, young or old, rich or poor, with courtesy, genuine friendliness and a desire to be helpful.

Our policy has always been to endeavor to train and develop our employees to make them good business men, good salesmen, and good citizens.

Former Miami Youth Employed

Canara Carruth, 510 W. Francis, appliance salesman at White's, has been with the Pampa branch for nearly two years, giving him an excellent working knowledge of the stock and making him an extremely able assistant to appliance purchasers.

He is a Miami youth, who began his White's experience in Pampa. Before joining the staff here, Canara served as a Corporal in the USMC for 30 months.

His nickname is "Primo," by which he prefers to be known by his friends. Like so many of the other White's staff, he shows a decided preference in hobbies for hunting—the Texan in him cropping out again, no doubt.

He is married to the former Vontell Alexander, a Pampa girl. They have no children.

Our Man Godfrey Employed As Automotive Salesman

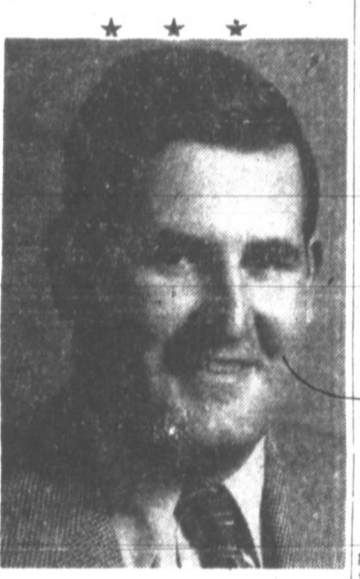

A Yankee by birth, C. H. "Bob" Godfrey, during his past four months at White's, already acts like one of the Top o' Texans.

In fact, Bob has that easy-going friendly manner which is found so often in "The Friendly City." Until four months ago, Bob was employed at the Police Department Motorcycle Patrol, both of Fairfield, Conn.

Employed as an automotive salesman at the local store, "our man Godfrey" spent four years in the Air Corps.

In 1945 he married Jean Bond of Pampa. They now have one son, Larry Lynn, 18 months old. Their Pampa residence is 641 N. Wells.

Born at Fairfield in 1922, Bob spent many of his early years fishing and hunting in Maine and New Hampshire. With his pleasing personality, Godfrey is expected to go far in the White's Auto Stores as a salesman.

You've Found Your Store When You Enter White's

In addition to its complete line of automotive supplies, parts and accessories, the White's Auto Store here carries a complete line of everything for the home and scores of items for the individual, young or old.

It is virtually a complete department store for your car, your home, and your family.

Everything required for a completely furnished home, inside and out, can be found in White's spacious new Pampa store.

Furniture for every room of the home, from kitchen to living room, and ranging all the way from small occasional pieces and floor coverings to full room groups, can be inspected in the cool, comfortable, conveniently-arranged furniture department.

Pure Oil Reports $4.93 Dividends

CHICAGO (AP)—The Pure Oil Company reported a net profit for the first six months of $20,753,000, equal to $4.93 a share of common stock.

This compared with $8,161,908 and $1.77 a share in the first half of last year.

The company's interim report said the "unusually large refinery construction program and exploratory work have required heavy expenditures," but that these were met "from current resources without borrowing or outside financing."

In development work, seven wells have been completed in the Worland field in Wyoming and 10 wells drilled in West Texas.

Demand Tops Meat Supply Says Official

"The supply of meat, while greater than before the war, is far below what the consuming public desires," W. S. Shafer, vice president and general sales manager of Armour's meat packing company in Chicago, said today in a statement issued to regional salesmen.

Shafer stated that "the combination of strong demand and short supply is the basic reason for high prices."

Present meat prices seem very high as compared to prewar, Shafer said, but they are about on a par with other principal food items. Butter, beans, salmon, and numerous vegetables are much higher relatively than is meat, he said.

"It must be remembered," Shafer asserted, "that prices are made by the law of supply and demand and not by any of the men or companies in the livestock or meat business. Always, all the meat that is produced is offered on the market. It is erroneous to assert that 'people cannot afford meat at present prices.' Actually, people are buying all the meat produced and are seeking more."

Man Acquitted Of Murder Shot

LA GRULLA, Tex. (AP)—Tomas Rivera, 32, was shot to death near his home here yesterday.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Octavio Sanchez said Rivera's assailant escaped.

Rivera was acquitted several months ago in the murder of Amado Vera, Jr., longtime Starr County politico.

Neutrality Won't Save Any Nation From Red Aggression

By DEWITT MACKENZIE, AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Sweden's declaration that she intends to maintain "armed neutrality" in a third world war and her efforts to persuade Norway to join her in this stand have been causing the Western powers much concern—a concern which has been conveyed repeatedly, though informally, to Stockholm.

Norway has been anxious to keep her doors open to military cooperation with the Western powers.

Swedish sources say the British believe the Western powers are so strong in the Mediterranean that the Russians couldn't make a move there. Thus the only feasible place for the Muscovites to open a front would be Scandinavia. Hence the desire to see those Northern nations in the Democratic bloc.

Of course the crux of the matter is that there isn't a ghost of a chance for Scandinavia to remain neutral in a war between the Communist bloc and the De-mocracies.

That is true not only of Scandinavia but of every other country in Europe—true of most nations in the world.

As a matter of fact the "cold" war between the bolshewiks and the democracies is a third world war. In some places, like China and Greece, it actually is a shooting war.

The old wars were destructive of life, property and resources. But this new world revolution for the spread of communism aims at destroying the freedom of nations and depriving their citizens of man's bill of rights.

That's a type of aggression that neither Sweden nor any other nation can hope to escape by neutrality. It's an aggression that destroys by treachery and by the creation of fifth columns among gullible citizens who are flattered to play the roles of "liberals" and "intellectuals" and are bamboozled by Moscow-directed Reds into thinking that they are doing something grand for mankind.

Automotive Dept. Salesman More Texan Than Oklahoman

Donald E. Spradlin, 509 Texas, is blond and curly headed, a likable newcomer to White's staff of salesmen.

Most people find the "Donald" a little too formal, and soon find themselves yelling for "Don"—a nickname which is, of course, a natural and has long stuck with him.

Don is another of the White Store staff who was born in Oklahoma—Durant to be exact, but he too, has been a Texan for some time.

He has been with White's in Pampa for 10 months now as an automotive department salesman. He came to Pampa from Borger where he had been a butcher. Before that he was with the Post Office Department in Phillips, Texas.

Don served in the Navy as a Master Aviation Mechanist 2/c for about two-and-one-half years. In September 1945, he went overseas for nine months duty on Guam.

In Sept. 1947, Don and Joyce Parker of Pampa were married in Borger. In his spare time, Don likes to dabble with amateur photography, and an outdoor man to the end, jumps at the chance to hunt and fish.

RYTES HELD FOR SHERIFF
BOERNE, Tex. (AP)—Funeral services were held Monday for Sheriff Sidney Franklin Edge of Kemball County. The 57-year-old peace officer, who had been sheriff for 12 years, suffered a fatal heart attack Saturday.

Tourist Runs Into Relatives—Literally

IOLA, Kans. (AP)—Roy E. McGuire of Follett, Texas, came here to visit relatives. He met them, all right.

His car and one driven by Leonard A. Wood of Savonburg, Kans., collided yesterday. Wood, who suffered three broken ribs, is a relative of McGuire.

Then Judge J. D. Bennett in justice of the peace court fined McGuire $10 for failure to yield the right of way.

The judge is another relative of McGuire.

Pampa's Kiddies Will Discover Utopia at White's

The youngsters will find Pampa's big new White's Auto Store a veritable paradise. A splendid selection of the finest bicycles and bicycle parts and accessories will attract the older children, while tricycles, scooters and wagons will catch the eye of the younger boys and girls.

In White's big toy department, soon to be ready for the holiday season, the children will walk into a wonderland of every conceivable kind of plaything: dolls of every description, doll furniture, houses, buggies, cradles, table and chair sets, children's rockers and chairs, gliders, swings and, of course, the lovable stuffed toys and animals the little ones love. Too, there is every possible kind of construction set, blocks, building bricks, logs, tinkers' building sets, all-metal sets.

There are also wind-up toys of every kind, pull toys, mechanical and action toys, miniature automobiles, trucks, fire engines, airplanes, electric and wind-up trains and the scores of other playthings in this category.

For the little girls, White's has play irons, ironing boards, washing machines and laundry sets, little kitchen ranges, sewing sets, tea sets, cooking and baking sets, carpet sweepers, sewing machines that rally work, nurses kits, children's luggage and the like.

For little boys, there are doctor's kits, junior golfer's sets, tops costume sets of all kinds, tool chests, target sets, several sizes in junior pool tables with balls and cues, microscope and chemistry sets, radio building sets, steam engines, and a host of wind-up toys.

There are toy replicas of all the musical instruments in the band, cap guns and holster sets that look like the real thing, machine guns, water- and pop guns, rocking horses, garden sets, and so many toys there.

White's Appliance Salesman

FRED R. SLOAN, JR.

The head of the Appliance Department, Fred R. Sloan, Jr., 1007 E. Browning, should be a familiar figure to many townspeople, since he is a Pampa, born and reared.

Fred was born a short distance from Pampa in 1921 and was graduated from Pampa High School, class of '39. His father, Fred Sloan, Sr. owns a farm eight miles north of Pampa.

He recently proved his salesmanship prowess when he won a contest held among 21 White's stores in the appliance division. For this demonstration of his ability, he will receive a trip to Chicago in the near future. While there, he will visit the stores and radio division of White's in Chicago.

In the service for almost three years, Fred served in so many different places, he can scarcely recall all of them. All he can remember is that there were 24 and that they included Lubbock, Ft. Sill, Miami Beach, Carbondale, Ill., San Antonio, Amarillo, Las Vegas, St. Louis, Kingman, Ariz., Lincoln, Neb., Yucca, Ariz., Memphis, Tenn., West Palm Beach and El Paso, where he was discharged. He was a Sergeant in the Air Corps ATC.

Hunting, fishing, and motor boating are the things he best likes to be caught doing.

In 1941, he was married to Leona Mae Parks, a Pampa girl. They have one boy, Larry H., age five.
