

American Is Admitted To Cardinals' College

By FRANK BRUTTO
VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII today elevated 24 prelates of the Roman Catholic church to its College of Cardinals in a secret consistory opening four days of sacred rites here.

Other cardinals silently bowed their heads in agreement and homage to their sovereign Pontiff as the Pope announced his choices at a meeting of the college in the 100-foot-long marbled Consistorial Hall, the largest chamber of the Pope's Vatican apartment.

The historic act brought the enrollment of the college—the church's senate—to its full quota of 70 cardinals for the first time in nearly 200 years.

The new cardinals include the first wearer of the red hat from the United States' Far West, James Francis McIntyre, archbishop of Los Angeles, and two primates of Communist-ruled countries where the Catholic church is under bitter attack.

The latter are Archbishop Alojzije Stepinac, "conditionally" freed from jail in Yugoslavia a year ago, and Archbishop Stefan Wyszynski of Poland. Neither is in Rome for the official notification that they have been made princes of the church.

The secret consistory today was the first of a series of ancient and sacred rites in connection with the elevation of the new cardinals. They will culminate Thursday in a great and colorful public consistory at St. Peter's, at which the Pontiff will confer on the new church princes their galeros, or red hats.

The Pope officially made known his nominations in an address during which he recalled that seven years had passed since the post-war consistory of 1946. At that time he named 32 cardinals—the highest number elevated at one time in the history of the church.

Since then, he said, the college had suffered grave losses of eminent men. The Pope said he was moved to create new cardinals not only to bring the college to its full complement but also by a desire to reward those who had "distinguished themselves in our eyes by their active and prudent conduct and notably contributed to the Christian religion."

Immediately after the Pope announced his nominations and the college nodded assent, messengers working in four teams sped to bring the glad news to 16 of the new cardinals waiting in various Roman seminaries.

In addition to Stepinac and Wyszynski, six others are absent. Four—the apostolic nuncios to Italy, Spain, Portugal and France—will receive their notifications from the Italian, Spanish, Portuguese and French heads of state. Two new Spanish cardinals also will be notified by Generalissimo Francisco Franco.

Cardinal McIntyre received his "billetto" of notification at the historic North American Pontifical College, on Rome's Humility Street. A large throng of friends and fellow clergy applauded as he opened the big white envelope and read the message inside in silence.

McIntyre then handed the billetto to Bishop Martin J. O'Connor, the rector of the North American College, who read the message aloud. The announcement said the Pope had elevated the American prelate.

The same ceremony was enacted with the 15 other cardinals in the city. Here at the Vatican, meanwhile, the Pope was continuing his address to the older cardinals.

Referring to the fact that the new cardinals extend representation in the college to 27 nations—the broadest distribution in the church's nearly 2,000 years of history, the Pontiff said he had aimed in his selection for just such an extension.

The Pope referred briefly, with sorrow, to the missing prelate of Yugoslavia. "We cannot do otherwise than extend our sorrowing affection towards our venerable brother, the Archbishop of Zagreb, who in his present circumstances has not been able to travel freely in order to reach this city and approach the Common Father," the Pope said.

The Pope added: "We strongly desire that everyone should know that when we decided to decorate him with the nobility of the Roman purple, we had nothing else in mind save to reward in a manner befitting his deserving merits, as also to give testimony of our benevolence to his whole nation; and in a particular way to show high praise and offer deep sympathy to our beloved sons and daughters, who with great fortitude of soul in these difficult times make open profession of their Catholic faith."

After the announcement on Dec. 29 that the Pope would include Stepinac among the new cardinals, Yugoslavia broke diplomatic relations with the Vatican—the last diplomatic tie the Vatican had with a Communist-ruled country.

As recently as 10 days ago, the new cardinal was interviewed by Austrian newsmen without a check. In his last interview with this correspondent, he said he had been informed that permission to visit the cardinal must first be obtained from the director of information.

Newly-Activated ROK Unit Holds Against Attack

By JIM BECKER
SEOUL, Jan. 12 (AP)—The heaviest Red assault of the New Year smashed against the lines of a newly-activated South Korean division today. The Allied soldiers held their ground, killed an estimated 213 of the attacking 800 Reds, and forced the Communists into retreat after three hours of savage close-quarter fighting.

Battles flared with renewed bitterness all along the frozen Korean front. Altogether the Reds hurled nearly 1,500 men into the fighting in bloody but futile attempts to dent the U. N. lines in pre-dawn darkness.

The U. S. Eighth Army said the main Red blow fell against the Republic of Korea (ROK) 12th Division on the mountainous eastern front. Gen. James A. Van Fleet announced the activation of the 12th and 15th ROK Divisions only two months ago. This was the first indication that either had seen combat.

In the air war, Allied fighters-bombers roared north in follow-up raids on the vital Sinanju supply center deep in Northwest Korea. Ten U. S. B-29s dropped 10,000 tons of high explosives on rail yards there Sunday night. The trip-bomber blows are part of a concerted effort to smash a main Red supply line from Manchuria to the front lines.

The Eastern Front fighting flared northeast of the Punchbowl. North Korean Reds struck through a snowstorm with 650 men in one attack and 150 more in another assault just to the east. Both battles opened just after midnight.

The Communists stormed forward behind a curtain of blistering artillery and mortar fire. Allied soldiers met their charge with tank fire, rifles, machine guns, mortars and artillery. Both Red forces were hurled back.

At about the same time a heavy Chinese Red attack hit Capital Hill on the East-Central Front. Two full Chinese companies—nearly 400 men Sunday night.

The Chinese also hurled a two-pronged attack by 200 men against the Allied outpost just south of Old Baldy on the Western Front. They struck from two directions behind a curtain of mortar and artillery fire but were hurled back in about 20 minutes.

Ike To Clear Appointive Posts With Legislators

Confusion Prompts Seeking Of Change

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (AP)—Senate GOP leaders said President-elect Eisenhower "fully agreed" today to clear all federal appointive jobs in the future with Republican members of Congress.

Sen. Knowland of California, chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, said after a conference with Eisenhower that the general had "fully agreed to follow the customary practice" of checking appointments with GOP lawmakers.

Sen. Taft of Ohio, the Senate majority leader, said Eisenhower's agreement to do this represented "no reversal" of policy on his part, but the Ohioan added that the arrangement had helped to dispel confusion regarding the handling of job patronage.

There have been recurring complaints by GOP members of Congress that the Eisenhower headquarters was not consulting them in advance regarding federal job appointments.

After today's meeting with Eisenhower, Knowland told a news conference that the session had been "friendly and co-operative" and that there was a genuine effort "to get a meeting of minds."

Knowland said the agreement reached calls for clearing with senators all jobs which require Senate confirmation. In addition, he said, other unspecified appointive jobs would be checked through senatorial channels.

The contact would be made in most cases with the Republican senators from the state in which the appointee resides. Knowland said that in the case of postmasters whose assignment would be in a single congressional area, the clearance would be with the appropriate member of the House of Representatives.

In the case of appointment of postmasters to the larger cities, where more than one congressional district was involved, the clearance would be with senators.

The incoming Cabinet members and other key officials of the new administration were getting together with Eisenhower and Vice President-elect Nixon for a round of global and domestic policy discussions.

The sessions will continue tomorrow, when smaller units of the same group are scheduled to hold a series of separate conferences dealing with problems which will confront Eisenhower and his associates when they take office Jan. 20.

The Eisenhower Cabinet meeting today was bringing together these designees: John Foster Dulles, secretary of state; Charles E. Wilson, secretary of defense; George M. Humphrey, secretary of the Treasury; Herbert Brownell Jr., attorney general; Gov. Douglas McKay of Oregon, secretary of the interior; Sinclair Weeks, secretary of commerce; Arthur E. Summerfield, postmaster general; Ezra Taft Benson, secretary of agriculture.

Group Suggests Red Checkup Of Teachers Go On

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Internal Security Subcommittee today urged further investigation of Red influences in the nation's schools and colleges and said there are "many hundreds of teachers who are Communist."

The subcommittee said it has turned up evidence from all parts of the country on Communist penetration of colleges, high schools and elementary schools.

During its public hearings in New York City last September and October, the group said, it became apparent it could only survive the situation in a broad fashion and submit an interim report to the new Congress.

This it did today, in a 13-page report to its parent body, the Senate Judiciary Committee.

The subcommittee's findings seem certain to spur plans afoot in the new Republican-controlled Congress for an intensive search for subversives in the nation's schools.

Rep. Velde (R-Ill.) already has said the House Un-American Activities Committee, which he is slated to head, is ready to undertake such an investigation. Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) also has called for such a probe.

McCarthy will be chairman of the Senate's permanent investigations subcommittee, but he said it would be willing to turn over its files and co-operate with another congressional unit.

The Internal Security Subcommittee specifically recommended that it continue investigation in the educational field. In addition, it proposed that state legislatures consider legislation to commit state funds to undertake similar probes locally.

It was still not clear how the new Congress will handle its Communist investigations, although Senate Republican Leader Taft of Ohio said last night the lines of jurisdiction will be staked out between committees to prevent overlapping.

Taft told interviewers on an NBC television program that the Senate's GOP Policy Committee will iron out any conflicts in the Senate, then reconcile any differences with the House.

Taft said it has not been decided whether McCarthy will be given the major investigative role. He said he favored a search for subversives in colleges but only where there was evidence of organized Communist groups. He wouldn't investigate individual professors, he said.

AFTER A MIX-UP

Reporters Allowed To Visit Stepinac

By ALEX SINGLETON
ZAGREB, Yugoslavia, Jan. 12 (AP)—Yugoslavia's Communist government first denied and then granted newspapermen permission to see and talk to Cardinal Stepinac today.

Only five hours after militia-men had stopped this correspondent two miles from the village of Krasic where Stepinac lives, the director of information in Zagreb granted permission for me to visit the cardinal.

A spokesman for the director termed the action by the militia "a blunder."

The militia had halted me in an automobile hired from the official government travel agency and told me that under a new regulation official permission must be obtained by any visitor to the spiritual leader of Yugoslavia's approximately seven million Roman Catholics.

Previously, no permission had been required from authorities to see the archbishop. He is now reported recovering from a minor leg operation made necessary by a thrombosis (blood clot) condition.

The mix-up over whether reporters could see him occurred on the day Stepinac and 23 other Catholic prelates were elevated to the college of cardinals at the Vatican.

The soldiers demanded passport and identification cards of the correspondent and his translator, refused to allow them to see the cardinal and then referred them to the local police.

The sergeant in charge of the local station telephoned an official of UDBA, the security police, and then sent the correspondent and his translator to the district police headquarters. There they were

OPEN UP ON TUESDAY

State Legislators Face Lot Of Work

AUSTIN, Jan. 12 (AP)—A huge knotty backlog of ready-made work was dumped on the desks of lawmakers arriving today for tomorrow's opening of the 53d Legislature.

The legislative council's 50-page digest of suggestions including plans to help Texas cities find more operating funds was approved yesterday. Legislators can go to work on it as soon as they organize.

The council report also had a dozen suggestions for boosting state revenue by plugging tax loopholes. It urged the federal government to drop its two-cent gasoline tax, and let that money go to the states.

The 17-member council and its full-time research staff has been at work two years digging up information on water, taxation, local government, highways and other key issues facing the 53d session.

The Senate and House will get down to business simultaneously at noon tomorrow. Many of the 150 House members and 31 Senators were already primed with proposed legislation touching almost every phase of life in Texas.

Gov. Allan Shivers jokingly predicted a mad rush to see who will be first with a bill to repeal the controversial auto inspection law. Sen. Carlos Ashby of Llano has promised to introduce just such a bill. He says tough enforcement of traffic laws will save more lives than a mechanical inspection measure.

CIVIL SUIT IS DUE

Jury Probe Of Oil Cartel Is Dropped

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP)—President Truman today ordered the dropping of criminal anti-monopoly proceedings against five major oil companies — provided the companies produce records for a civil suit.

In a letter to Atty-Gen. McGranery, Truman said he was acting "as a result of factors which have emerged since the institution of the current grand jury investigation of the international activities of the major oil companies."

Truman's letter did not say what these "factors" are. There have been reports, however, that the National Security Council — made up of the government's top policy planners — was concerned that a grand jury investigation would jeopardize U. S. global interests.

Truman directed that McGranery confer with representatives of the companies "to ascertain if they will agree to enter into a stipulation" to make records available for a civil case.

His letter added: "If they will I ask that a civil proceeding be instituted accordingly, and that appropriate steps be taken to cause the termination of the pending grand jury proceedings."

The whole case originated in a Federal Trade Commission report that major U. S. oil companies have worked with foreign companies to divide up the world oil market.

Stephen J. Spiggarn, a member of the commission, called on Truman a few minutes before the announcement of the president's conditional offer to drop the criminal proceedings.

He left the White House with a sharply-worded blast against dropping the criminal proceedings. Spiggarn told reporters it looked to him as if the oil companies had performed "one of the greatest snow jobs (white washes) in history" by convincing the state department and other federal officials that the grand jury probe should be dropped.

To abandon the investigation now, Spiggarn said, would be to play right into the hands of Soviet propagandists.

Marines Open Own Probe Of Air-Strafing

TOKYO (AP)—The U. S. Marines today started their own "new and independent" investigation of a strafing and bombing attack that killed 14 American soldiers and nine on the Korean Central Front last week.

An Air Force statement Sunday indicated Panther jet planes of the type used by Navy and Marine pilots may have been responsible. It further reported Marine pilots were scheduled to attack the Reds north and east of the scene on the day of the mistaken attack.

A Marine spokesman in Tokyo said the Marine air wing in Korea sent its own investigators to the scene to question witnesses and inspect the damage.

"We're starting out from scratch," he said, "with a new and independent inquiry."

The Tokyo announcement was made after an Air Force and Army team surveyed the area, eight miles behind the front line. Orders from the Defense Department in Washington broke four days of official silence on the attack.

The names of killed and wounded have not been disclosed.

The Air Force said investigation established that an unexploded 500-pound bomb at the scene bore the marking, "U. S. Naval Powder Magazine, Japan Bomb Ammo."

It also said experienced witnesses identified the planes as Panther jets.

No spokesmen for any of the three American services suggested the attacking planes might have been Communist. Red jets rarely get south of Pyongyang, which lies about 100 miles north.

Violent Deaths In The State Decline
Violent deaths dropped sharply in Texas as heavy holiday traffic cleared from streets and highways. Of the 12 reported violent deaths during the week end, only six were blamed on traffic mishaps. Three others died in plane crashes and three from other causes.

Dr. James B. Conant Named German High Commissioner

NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (AP)—President-elect Eisenhower today chose Dr. James Bryant Conant, president of Harvard University, as United States High Commissioner for Germany in the new administration.

The high commissioner's post is vacant at this time, due to the retirement of Career Foreign Service Officer Walter J. Donnelly last December 31.

Today's announcement said Eisenhower picked Conant for the post after conferences with John Foster Dulles, secretary of state-designate. The nomination will be submitted to the Senate for confirmation after Eisenhower takes office Jan. 20.

Auto's Health Harland's Aim

Winter or summer, autumn, or spring, the place for the Big Spring motorist to get A-1 service is the Grady Harland Magnolia Service Station, located at 1000 Lamesa Highway.

Personnel of the Harland station tends to all the little needs of the family automobile, from providing all types of fuel to checking the tires, greasing the body of the car, etc. If the family automobile is showing signs of age, Harland offers a polishing service that makes it look as good as new. If it needs nothing more than a good wash job, then the Harland station has all the equipment to do the job without delay. At the time such jobs are undertaken, the vehicle is cleaned on the interior, as well as without.

Mobil-tires and tubes, made to fit any size of automobile, are distributed here through the Harland station. White sidewall tires have returned to the market and can be purchased at the Harland concern.

The establishment is also equipped to fill automobile radiators with antifreeze, which gives the vehicle protection in the coldest kind of weather.

As the name implies, the concern is owned and operated by Grady Harland, a long-time Howard County resident, who boasts years of experience in that line. Business telephone number of Harland's station is 9787. Call it in case of emergency.

Bald Head May Save A 'Convicted' Slayer

OKLAHOMA CITY, (AP)—Convicted slayer Carl Austin DeWolf is waiting today to die in the electric chair Jan. 27, but he hopes his bald head may yet save his life.

DeWolf, convicted of slaying a Tulsa detective in 1946 after a running gun battle, is light complexioned and bald, except for sideburns. New witnesses have testified the man they saw fleeing from the scene of the shooting had bushy hair and a dark complexion.

The conflicting testimony has prompted Gov. Johnston Murray to issue four stays of execution and has provoked an unprecedented review by the State Penal Institutions Committee, which convenes today.

Committee Chairman Sen. Kirksey Nix, a McAlester, Okla., criminal lawyer, says frankly he believes DeWolf has been railroaded. He said he has five new witnesses who will testify the slayer had bushy hair. He said if the committee believes, after the testimony, that DeWolf is not the murderer, it will ask the governor for a fifth stay of execution and start proceedings for a new trial.

The State Pardon and Parole Board has twice refused to commute the death sentence to life imprisonment. After an extensive review of the case the board recently voted unanimously that DeWolf must die, and Gov. Murray announced he had given the doomed man his last stay of execution unless something happens to change the entire complexion of things. The legislative committee may do just that.

These are the events that led to DeWolf's conviction.

Oil Supplies Of Nation Viewed As 'Adequate'

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 12 (AP)—The Petroleum Administration for Defense (PAD) disclosed today it believes the nation's oil supplies are generally adequate for a partial mobilization.

Charles J. Hedlund, director of PAD's Program Division, said a continuing shortage of aviation gasoline is the one exception to the general outlook for an easing of the supply picture.

Hedlund, in a speech prepared for the annual meeting of the National Council of Farmer Co-operators, also said the oil industry should build up its reserves to capacity during peacetime.

Should war come, he said, the industry should maintain "a normally high rate of exploration, drilling, refining construction and related activities."

Hedlund made these other statements:

1. Unless total demand, including export, goes higher than the expected 4 per cent increase over 1953, no boost will be needed in crude oil producing and refining.
 2. Consumption of petroleum in this country, which has gone up 6 per cent annually for the past five years, will continue at about that rate of increase.
- Hedlund said gasoline demand is expected to reach 3,305,000 barrels daily in 1953, compared with 3,146,000 daily in 1952. Distillate demand, he said, will be about 1,460,000 barrels daily, compared with 1,318,000 in 1952.

No. 1 Karachi Red May Be Captured

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—The pro-Red Urdu language newspaper Imroz reported today that Communist boss Aziz Ahmed Khan was caught over the week end in a police dragnet which followed four days of bloody rioting here.

Karachi police declined to deny or confirm the arrest of the local No. 1 Red.

However, City Chief Commissioner A. T. Naqvi earlier had blamed the Communists for spearheading last week's student disorders and said their leaders would be arrested.

Naqvi said 261 "bad characters" had been picked up after the riots, which started as a student demonstration against increased fees Wednesday and finally resulted in 12 deaths and injuries to 256 persons, including 152 policemen.

Overcrowded Schools In Mexico Reported

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 12 (AP)—The Mexican equivalent of the Parent-Teacher Association says about 15,000 children may be crowded out of schools this year unless the government starts night schools for first grades.

The Union of Fathers of Families made the request yesterday. Primary schools in the capital are now working two shifts, morning and afternoon. The Mexican scholastic year starts in February and ends in November.

Services Are Banned

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP)—The Central Mission of the Presbyterian church here reported today that the mayor of Valledupar, in Magdalena district, has banned all religious services, publicity and building of churches by all Protestant denominations in the town.

The measure reportedly applies to United States citizens as well as to Colombians.

THIRD STATION JOINS JAYCEE SAFETY DRIVE

A third service station has taken on the task of selling and placing "Scotchlite" reflecting tape on area autos as part of the Jaycee-sponsored "Lite-A-Bumper" safety campaign.

The Roy Bruce Texaco Service Station, 300 E. Third, joins two Coeden stations, Number 5, State and 11th Place; and Number 7, Fourth and Gregg.

After running out of tape early last week due to an unprecedented high demand, Jaycees finally managed to secure more tape from state headquarters and its distribution has been effected. The club is laying in an extra bath of tape too, in the event demand continues at its present high level.

The tape is highly effective in preventing rear-end collisions by cars and in spotting moving or parked autos at night.

'Sympathetic' Hearing For Budget Is Promised By Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—A "sympathetic" hearing by the Eisenhower administration has been forecast for a five billion dollar, 10-year plan for keeping America's industry always ready for wartime production.

The proposal was filed with the office of Defense Mobilization yesterday by a seven-member advisory committee of industrial leaders.

Harold S. Vance, president of Studebaker Corp. and head of the committee, told a reporter he had not consulted President-elect Eisenhower's representatives.

"I think the new administration will look at these recommendations sympathetically."

The committee, set up at President Truman's request, spent six months studying the question: If all-out war should come, how to avoid tool and equipment bottlenecks that hampered previous industrial conversions from peacetime to wartime production?

The committee's answer: new laws, funds and executive action to provide production facilities standing by and ready for use, rather than amassing costly stockpiles of weapons which may be obsolete before they get to the front.

Such a program, the committee said, would cost about half a billion dollars a year for perhaps 10 years. But, it added, it would (1) save time, months and maybe years, in any switch to all-out war levels (2) save money, costing only a fraction of advance stockpiling, and (3) save lives, by assuring troops a continual flow of modern arms and armor.

By way of example, the committee said a half-billion dollars invested now in production equipment for the Air Force would pay off in 18 billion dollars more of airplanes in the first two years of a war.

New Ford Miracle Ride

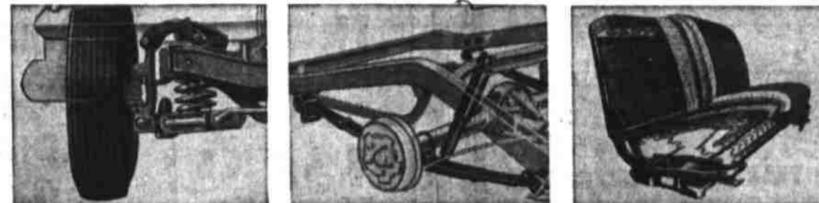

Here's new freedom from bounce, pitch and sway... an entirely new standard of riding comfort!

If you've thought it takes gas-eating weight and hard-to-park length to give real riding comfort you ought to try this '53 Ford. For Ford's new Miracle Ride actually seems to lay a carpet of smoothness even over the roughest roads. There's no bounce, pitch and sway to bother you, no uncomfortable roll on curves. Ford's new Miracle Ride marks a new era of riding comfort and quiet. It's another big reason why Ford is worth more when you buy it... worth more when you sell it!

The New Standard of the American Road

80% less road shock! By increasing front wheel travel and redesigning the rubber, compression bumpers, front end road shock is reduced as much as 80%. Springs are tailored-to-weight of each model, for best riding comfort, whichever model you buy.

Automatic Ride Control! Ford's Variable-Rate rear spring suspension actually makes effective spring "stiffness" vary automatically as road and load conditions change. You get a smooth, level, comfortable ride on boulevard or roughest back road.

All day comfort! Scientifically designed contour seats, both front and rear, have thick foam rubber cushions. Non-sag spring construction is firm yet resilient. Automatic Posture Control provides the most convenient seating position for all drivers.

You've got to Value Check this new Ford's 41 "Worth More" features to know why Ford is worth more when you buy it... worth more when you sell it!

In this new '53 Ford you'll find not only a new concept of riding and driving comfort... you'll find more of the things you want and need than in any other car in the low-price field.

You'll find the "Go" you need, in Ford's high-compression V-8 and Six engines (and both thrive on regular gas). You'll find the great, all-round visibility... the easy handling, braking and parking you need for today's traffic. And you'll appreciate beauty that "belongs," wherever you may drive. No wonder Ford is the New Standard of the American Road.

Mamie's Ball Gown Is From Texas Store

NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (AP)—The gown Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower will wear for the inaugural ball comes from a Texas store.

The New York Herald Tribune said details on Mrs. Eisenhower's inaugural fashions had "finally leaked out."

"Unfitted as yet because of Mrs. Eisenhower's bad cold, the ball gown by Nettie Rosenstein is a deep rose color poult de soie," the newspaper said. "It has a snug top and a big skirt, and is jewel-embroidered to glitter effectively in the big ballroom. The dress comes from the Neiman Marcus store in Dallas, Tex."

The Herald Tribune said Mrs. Eisenhower's inauguration suit, purchased from the Hattie Carnegie store in New York, was "a typical carnage suit of soft, pale gray wool with a short, slightly flared jacket. The skirt is medium full."

New Pastor And Family Are Honored

The Philathea Class of First Methodist Church entertained Sunday evening after church services at an informal reception in honor of their new pastor and his family, the Rev. and Mrs. Jordan Grooms, Barton and Telie.

In the receiving line with the Rev. and Mrs. Grooms were Mrs. B. M. Keese, class president, and the Rev. and Mrs. Walter White, associate pastor of the church.

Presiding at the table were Mrs. J. T. Baird, Mrs. John Stewart, Mrs. Cecil McDonald and Mrs. M. R. Turner.

The table was laid with a white linen cloth and centered with red carnations flanked by red tapers in crystal holders. The red and white class colors were further carried out in the napkins and refreshments.

The committee on arrangements included Mrs. Albert Smith, Mrs. J. D. Jones and Mrs. Harold Parks.

Puerto Rican Dancer Says Men Can Master Rhumba

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 10 (AP)—Rita Moreno, a cute little Puerto Rican, is a girl who could put Arthur Murray out of business.

She argues — and proves to newspapermen, at least — that it takes but one simple trick for bashful men to master the rhumba. Rita, barely old enough to vote, says nothing burns her up more than to see husbands drag their wives off a dance floor as soon as the band starts shaking the rhumba beat.

"One little trick," she expounds, "and these same men could enjoy the greatest public fun in the world."

The Moreno trick is this: "Just place your hands on your partner's hips instead of her waist."

The swaying hips are supposed to lead the way. "Your hands will then tell you which way your partner's hips are going. You make your hips go the same way and you're in business."

She adds that the basic one-two step, common to most any other type of dancing, will take care of your feet.

She demonstrated her theory on a staid, British journalist, who was about as unlikable and as unwilling a guinea pig as she could find at the moment. He was chatting with Miss Moreno at a movie party when the orchestra let loose with a rhumba. The Englishman had never danced a rhumba in his life. In fact, he later admitted that he hadn't danced any kind of a dance in recent years.

"I didn't want to be rude and leave him standing there but I just couldn't do anything but dance when I heard the music," she said.

She grabbed the arm of the protesting Britisher and dragged him onto the floor.

"I just told him to put his hands on my hips and hang on," commented Rita. "He was doing the rhumba before the orchestra had gone through eight bars."

As an interested bystander, I commented that it was evident that the Britisher had gone through a couple of other bars earlier in the evening.

Miss Moreno's dark-eyed beauty has landed her Latin roles in such pictures as "Fort Vengeance" for Allied Artists and "Latin Lovers" for MGM. In the latter she dances a torrid samba with Ricard Montalban.

Pastor Irked By 'Liquor Lounge' Set Up By GOP

By ED CREAGH
WASHINGTON (AP) — Trying to find some Republican in Washington? Well, if he isn't in his usual haunts, you might try a remodeled 150-year-old brick building across the street from the old House office building.

Here, opening its doors today, is located an organization new to the Washington scene—the Capitol Hill Club. Who belongs to it? Rep. James C. Auchincloss of New Jersey, the club's first president, gives these qualifications for membership:

"You must be a gentleman or a lady, you must be a Republican, and you've got to have 50 bucks."

The Rev. Dr. Albert P. Shirkey of the Mt. Vernon Place Methodist Church yesterday termed the club "a sin, a shame and a blight on the country."

"If ever I have been disappointed," he said in a sermon, "it was when I learned that within a stone's throw of the Capitol, there is going to be opened up, by the new leaders of government, a liquor lounge where they may go for cocktails and then into separate rooms for conferences...."

"To have the leadership of this country work out their plans in a liquor lounge is going to be a terrible thing for the country."

Auchincloss and some friends thought up the Club several years ago—soon after the Republicans lost their fifth straight presidential election. They thought there ought to be a place for party stalwarts to nurse their wounds and rally their spirits for the 1952 campaign.

A series of difficulties—finding a suitable headquarters was the principal one—delayed matters until there was no longer a need for a Republican waiting walk. One of the club's first functions, in fact, will be an open house for Washington visitors—Republican ones—during next week's inauguration festivities.

More than 400 persons, including some of the biggest names in the party, already are members of the Capitol Hill Club.

Republicans were reported to have agreed on adding Senators Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, Case of South Dakota, Hendrickson of New Jersey and Potter of Michigan to the armed services group.

The committee will be headed by Sen. Saltonstall of Massachusetts. GOP holdovers are Senators Bridges of New Hampshire, Knowland, and Flanders of Vermont.

Sen. Morse of Oregon, who broke with the GOP during the election campaign, has been a Republican member of the Armed Services Committee. He says he will fight to stay on it, but GOP leaders have reserved no place for him. In his new role as an independent, Morse evidently will be moved to minor committees.

Texas Mayors Favor Four-Point Program

MAYOR JIM WRIGHT

AUSTIN, Jan. 12 — Texas municipalities, which feel they have been by-passed for State tax revenues benefits, are coming out of their corner swinging when the 53rd Legislature gets underway tomorrow.

The League of Texas Municipalities, headed by Mayor Jim Wright of Weatherford as president, has adopted a definite legislative program which was unanimously approved at its annual convention in Dallas last November.

Making it plain that the League recognizes the claims of all other sub-divisions of State government, Mayor Wright and a strong legislative committee, have served notice that the incorporated cities and towns of Texas expect to get a fair share of any new tax revenue measures adopted by the next legislature.

The four-point program, approved by more than 500 Texas mayors, is the legislative objective of the League:

1. Oppose any increase in gasoline or other road-user tax unless a fair share of the increase is allowed Texas cities for construction and maintenance of streets. Also oppose any additional or substitute levy upon natural gas unless a fair share of the proceeds from such levy is apportioned cities and towns for street maintenance and construction.

2. For passage of a constitutional amendment exempting all motor vehicles from payment of ad valorem taxes on all types and requiring each vehicle owner to pay only the annual registration or license plate fee. The proceeds of such fees would be shared in proper proportion by the State, counties and cities.

3. Against the levy by the State of gasoline taxes upon the cities' own vehicles and for passage of a bill to allow the cities to retain all taxes paid by city buses and taxicabs using exclusively city streets which the cities now maintain.

4. Against passage by the legislature of any bill imposing additional financial burden on the cities of Texas or any group of such cities.

Wright said the program was that of five million citizens; the estimated population of Texas, which now is 66 per cent urban. This rapid swing to urban status had created acute problems, he added. The legislature limits cities to only three taxes — ad valorem, gross receipts on certain city franchise, and an occupation tax. Maximum rate of these are prescribed by state law.

Texas ranks third among states in aid to school districts, 22nd in aid to counties, but 44th in aid to cities, he continued. Other states of the nation average $7.08 per capita from state allocations; Texas' munificence to its cities is five cents per capita, and this is largely from federal funds, according to Wright. Time for relief, he thought, was past due.

W. G. Milne, seismologist at the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, said the tremor was recorded at 2:57:37 p.m., Pacific Standard Time, and undoubtedly was the same quake picked up on the University of California seismograph at 2:59:25.

Taft Decides To Take Post On Foreign Relations Group

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Taft (R-Ohio), essaying a stronger role, has decided to take a place on the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and an active hand in shaping foreign policy under the Eisenhower administration.

The Ohio senator, already serving as GOP floor leader, expects to give up his high rank on the tax-handling Senate Finance Committee to become fifth man in the Republican line on foreign relations.

In that place, he will be in a position along with other committee members to get first-hand reports from John Foster Dulles, Eisenhower's secretary of state.

Appearing on an NBC television program yesterday, Taft said he wanted to switch from the finance committee to foreign relations because foreign affairs are affected by all but about 20 billion of the 78½ billion dollars President Truman has proposed to spend in the fiscal year starting July 1.

The solution to every domestic policy is linked to "the tremendous burden of the expenditure for war," Taft said.

Taft may be accompanied to the foreign relations group by three other Republicans who share many of his views on foreign policy issues. They are Senators Langer of North Dakota, Ferguson of Michigan and Knowland of California. Knowland heads the Senate GOP Policy Committee.

Sen. Wiley (R-Wis.) will be chairman of the group. Holdover GOP members are Senators H. Alexander Smith of New Jersey, Hickel of Iowa and Tobey of New Hampshire.

A tentative GOP lineup was reported for another key committee, armed services, which has a hand in the foreign field.

Republicans were reported to have agreed on adding Senators Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, Case of South Dakota, Hendrickson of New Jersey and Potter of Michigan to the armed services group.

The committee will be headed by Sen. Saltonstall of Massachusetts. GOP holdovers are Senators Bridges of New Hampshire, Knowland, and Flanders of Vermont.

Sen. Morse of Oregon, who broke with the GOP during the election campaign, has been a Republican member of the Armed Services Committee. He says he will fight to stay on it, but GOP leaders have reserved no place for him. In his new role as an independent, Morse evidently will be moved to minor committees.

$2,000 Prize Given To Flash Inventor

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Geographic Society today announced award of its Franklin L. Burr Prize, with a check for $2,000, to Dr. Harold Eugene Edgerton, inventor of ultra high speed flash light equipment.

Edgerton, professor at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, developed the stroboscopic lights which make it possible to photograph such things as bullets in flight, the pulse of hummingbirds' wings and the impact of bat baseball.

He is 49 and a native of Fremont, Neb.

Hat Makers Appear Worried As Folks Start Going Bare-Headed

If you're the type that likes to go around bare-headed, you're having a campaign waged against you. The hat makers of America, who war among themselves to control business, are crusading against those care-free and/or hair-conscious individual who won't hide their locks with sky-pieces. In some sections of the country, it's become downright unpatriotic to be seen without a fedora. "Wear a hat! Keep your neighbor working," is the slogan carried in a paper bag East. Uncovered heads, to the hat manufacturers, represents slack business. They lament the fact that more and more Americans across the land have decided to give up that part of their apparel. Some of the hat makers, worried over the trend, are beginning to branch out into other businesses. The Wall Street Journal says Danbury, which is in the Southwestern part of Connecticut, is the most hat-conscious city in the nation. More than a quarter of Danbury's labor force is in some phase of the business. The city turns out an estimated 75 per cent of the rough fur felt men's hat bodies and about 30 per cent of the country's finished hats. Some of the hat makers are blaming themselves for their dilemma. They say they've neglected the children of the last generation, who grew up without the hat habit. "Now, we have a generation of hatless adults," they point out. "Fifteen or 20 years ago, a kid couldn't walk out of his house without some kind of a hat on his head. This hasn't been so in the last decade." The western hat ad, which is so popular in this section of America, no doubt, brings the smiles to the faces of the hat makers. The younger set not only have taken to the millinery again, they're using more of it per purchase. Otherwise, couldn't you call the makers mad hatters? —TOMMY HART.

Washington Due New Experience Watching Dulles Brothers' Act

WASHINGTON.—This capital, which has witnessed so much fierce fighting for power, is soon to see a most-interesting experiment in shared family responsibility. John Foster Dulles, the new secretary of State, is now hard at work putting together his team of assistant secretaries and diplomats, unless there is a last-minute change of plan, John Foster's brother, Allen, will become head of the Central Intelligence Agency. In the five years of its existence the CIA has made a start toward becoming a powerful agency in the field of foreign policy, although its activities are screened by close secrecy. Its primary function is the gathering of military and diplomatic intelligence from every corner of the world and appraising this intelligence for the benefit of top policy-makers. Weekly CIA reports on the situation in the world have been going to President-elect Eisenhower since his nomination. In addition the CIA initiates what is something called "black propaganda." This activity—to throw Communism off balance at strategic points by direct action—is even more hush-hush. The present head of CIA is General Walter Bedell Smith, who is to be under secretary of State. Allen Dulles has been his chief assistant. To this assignment Allen, who is Foster's junior by five years, has brought imagination and zeal plus a willingness to adventure that has made some more conservative men in the government extremely nervous. When Smith moves over to the State Department, Dulles will become acting head of CIA. The present intention of Eisenhower and his planning staff is to appoint him head of that agency at a later date. This should make for the closest cooperation between State, where foreign policy is made, and CIA, which supplies the raw material for policy as well as acting in greatest secrecy as an instrumentality of policy. Both the brothers Dulles might be called activists in foreign policy. They have been skeptical of the passivity of containing Communism. In one of candidate Eisenhower's first speeches last September he spoke of the need to stir resistance in the satellite countries as a preparation for throwing off Soviet Russian control. This produced a strong reaction from many who suggested that it would lead to uprisings doomed to failure, and therefore would be suicidal. This note was not again sounded by Eisenhower in his campaign. John Foster Dulles told associates that the bad reaction had come as a result of "hot language" put into the speech by professional speech writers. Both brothers have had wide experience in the foreign field and their interest derives from the family tradition of a grandfather and an uncle who were both secretaries of State. Allen was an American Foreign Service officer serving in various capacities in Europe until his resignation in 1926. At that time he joined the great international law firm of Sullivan and Cromwell, of which John Foster eventually became senior partner. Allen Dulles spent most of World War II in Switzerland for the Office of Strategic Services. He developed extraordinary channels of information directly into Hitler's chancellery. Intelligence agents all over Europe supplied him with invaluable information which he funneled back to OSS in Washington. Recently he returned from a 10-day visit to Tokyo. There in an American military hospital he saw his only son, Allen Macy Dulles, a young lieutenant in the First Marine Division in Korea, who is slowly recovering from severe head wounds suffered six weeks ago during a patrol action. Another member of this remarkable family is also a specialist in foreign policy. The younger sister of Allen and John Foster, Eleanor Lansing Dulles, has recently been with the National Production Authority as expert on Germany and Austria. She is now in the State Department with the title of special assistant to the director of the German economic affairs office. As have her brothers, she has taken part in international conferences in various parts of the globe. The members of the Dulles family in their biographies in Who's Who all list Watertown, New York, as their birthplace. For 17 years their father was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in that northern New York town. This tradition of responsibility and public service in one family is somewhat unusual for this country. It is more nearly in the tradition of Britain when in the last century the British carried such a heavy burden of order-keeping in various corners of the globe. To watch the two brothers work together in the area where decisions fateful to the whole western world must be made almost daily will be an experience new for Washington.

'Robert E. Lee' Won Boat Race

During the first half of the past century, men kept finding new rivers to test with the steamboat. One of the latest adventures was the opening of steam transport on the Missouri River. This mighty stream, flowing from the Rocky Mountains, drained lands where "wild Indians" roamed at that time. An Army officer, Major Stephen Long, commanded the first steamboat to go up the Missouri. The vessel was called the "Western Engineer," and was 75 feet long. Perhaps never before or since has any steamer had such a strange front part, or prow, as the "Western Engineer." This prow was shaped with the head of a big snake with open jaws! The throat of the snake hid the smokestack, and the "monster" belched smoke as it steamed along. Long's boat was built in that way for the special purpose of giving fright to the Indians. The warriors let it alone while it labored up the Missouri to Council Bluffs, at the rate of three miles an hour. The major and his men then returned safely to St. Louis. Because it was near the junction of the Missouri and the Mississippi, the town of St. Louis became a center for steamboat traffic. This helped it to grow into the important city it is today. There came a time when hundreds of steamboats carried goods and passengers up and down the Mississippi. Largely because they wanted to make their lives more interesting, the steamboat captains often agreed to race one another. The most famous contest of this kind took place 83 years ago, with the "Natchez" opposing the "Robert E. Lee" in a stretch of 1,210 miles. Announced well in advance the race caused widespread excitement, with large sums of money wagered on the outcome. The vessels left New Orleans on the last day of June, late in the afternoon. Four days and one hour later, the "Natchez" reached St. Louis, after having been delayed for about six hours by a fog. That was a fine run, but the "Robert E. Lee" had arrived at St. Louis six hours and 23 minutes before. For HISTORY section of your scrapbook. Tomorrow: First Steamer on the Ocean. THE STORY OF THE ALPHABET is a new leaflet by Uncle Ray. Canada Doesn't Dawdle About Meting Punishment For Crimes

The last chapter in a fantastic murder plot that claimed 26 lives, including those of the three principal plotters, was written in Montreal Friday when a busom 43-year-old widow dropped through a trap door and died at the end of a rope. The plot began when J. Albert Guay fell in love with a 19-year-old French-Canadian waitress. His wife, Mrs. Rita Morel Guay, was in his way. The evidence showed that Guay conspired with Mrs. Arthur Pitre and her brother, a crippled watchmaker named Genevieve Ruest, to make away with Mrs. Guay. Guay took out a $10,000 life insurance policy on his wife, Ruest concocted a dynamite bomb, and Mrs. Pitre placed it on an airplane on which Mrs. Guay was a passenger. In the subsequent explosion Mrs. Guay and 22 other persons died. All three were convicted, and Guay and Ruest were executed first. Mrs. Pitre, who had been cited as the go-between for Guay and his lady love, was the last to go. The Canadians, like their British for-bears, are notably unsentimental about such crimes. It was a dastardly deed that led to the death of 23 persons at a single blow. But if murder can be measured by the number of lives involved, this trio's crime was no worse than that of an atomic spy who hands on U. S. secrets to Russia and thereby becomes a potential murderer of millions. The Rosenbergs, man and wife, who are scheduled to die this week as atomic spies for Russia, are not charged with murder, but their betrayal of their country could conceivably cost millions of American lives eventually. A good many sentimentalists, egged on by Communist propaganda, have engaged in demonstrations in their behalf. They might better employ their time contemplating the enormity of the Rosenbergs' crime in placing the means of wholesale murder in the hands of the Kremlin out-throats.

Security Comes High, So Cuts Must Come From Rest Of Budget

However much excess fat there might be in the $78.6 billion budget handed Congress Friday by President Truman, not much of it can be found in the military section of the outline for the fiscal year starting July 1. That is, there isn't much fat there if the nation expects to achieve even the minimum of security in the shortest possible time. The budget includes $46.3 billion for the military. Among specific items are 5,500 warplanes for the Air Force and a third supercarrier for the Navy. To understand the importance of building national security, consider the part to be played by airpower, a part recognized by the public and by Congress. All evidence indicates we are way behind Russia in air strength, and while Congress long ago authorized a 143-wing force, we are nowhere near achieving that goal as yet and any serious cutback in appropriations would freeze the program in mid-career. As of now we have only about 100 wings toward the goal of 143. On the present building program we would have 106 wings by next June 30, after which the new budget would become operative. Under the Truman military budget, we would still have only 133 wings by June of 1954. It would still be sometime in 1955 before the goal of 143 wings could be reached. And remember that when Congress set that goal of 143 wings, it was considered the minimum that the country could afford for safety's sake. The Truman budget can undoubtedly be cut, and was expected to be cut, in many particulars. But if any major cuts are made in military appropriations it will be done at the expense of national security, and at the risk of encouraging fresh Russian aggressions. Congress had better go slow with the pruning knife where the nation's military strength is concerned. The fact that our Allies are steadily whittling away at their military build-up should be a warning to us, for it leaves the U. S. more and more dependent upon its own strength. To economize too much on the military is to invite disaster.

These Days—George Sokolsky

Retired Generals And Admirals Should Be Of Help To The U.S.

The question of how old is old will not die down in these days when such figures as Winston Churchill and Bernard Baruch continue to play an important role in the affairs of nations. Churchill is 78 years old; Baruch 82. Who is to say that they should be retired for age? Yet, one is constantly reading of comparatively young admirals and generals, at the height of their physical and mental powers, being retired for age in accordance with law. The theory of it is that there must be a flow of promotions; that if the top men remain in their positions too long, younger men cannot be promoted and will not have mature experience when it is needed. This argument is sound from the standpoint of the service; yet this too must be taken into consideration; it has cost the American taxpayer a huge sum to educate and train these top men, from West Point and Annapolis to their retirement. That is lost when at the young age of 62, these experienced and mellowed men are thrown into the discard. A way ought to be found to utilize their experience even if they are in retirement.

from their own services. They could be put into the civilian side of government instead of politicians whose only claim to recognition often is party regularity. When President Truman used military men, he was criticized for "militarizing" the government, which was and is nonsense. The employment of skillful, trained men, of whatever prior occupation, is never wrong. Certainly the engineering skill of many admirals and generals, in retirement, ought not to be lost. Many of them have done the type of work which would be invaluable in our intelligence services. One of the principal problems he intelligence is the evaluation of material received from various sources. In the State Department and the Central Intelligence Agency, evaluation of reports can be critical, because if the evaluation is stupid or the result of inexperience, the decisions made at the top can be incorrect. This is particularly true when important reports are eliminated from consideration because the evaluators do not have sufficient background to understand the reports, or sufficient wisdom to pass judgment upon them. There are men in both the Army and Navy who are so skilled in this work that their services ought to be made available. They are retired for age and pensioned and forgotten. They could continue this type of service, except that they would outrank those who might employ them in government, and rank counts in government.

Gallup Poll

Popularity Of President Has Shifted A Lot

Director, American Institute of Public Opinion PRINCETON, N. J., Jan. 10.—The Institute's final report on President Truman's popularity, as his stormy White House career draws to an end, shows sentiment dividing as follows: "Do you approve or disapprove of the way Truman is handling his job as President?"

JAN., 1953 FINAL REPORT

Approve	31%
Disapprove	56
No opinion	13

Here is the way the public viewed him at the beginning, nearly eight years ago: JULY, 1945

Approve	67%
Disapprove	3
No opinion	10

In the eight years between the first poll and the last, the swings in Truman's popularity have been more pronounced than those of probably any President in history. At his best he was more popular even than Roosevelt. His high point, 87 per cent, compares with a Roosevelt high of 84 per cent in similar polls. But when Truman's popularity started sliding it went far lower than F. D. R.'s ever did. It has been low since the early days of the Korean war. In Roosevelt's case it fell to an all-time low of 23 per cent in November, 1951. In Roosevelt's case the lowest point was 59 per cent in 1953.

One Of Biggest Differences Between Man, Woman Is Lady's Good Memory

NEW YORK (U)—The thing that impresses men most in this world is—women. The thing about women that probably most impresses men is the fact they never have to tie a string around their finger, to remember anything. Whoever heard a man say to a woman, "You'd forget your head if it weren't tied on you? Nobody. The remark is always made by a woman to a man. There never was an absent-minded woman. This power of memory marks one of the greatest differences between men and women. A man's memory is like the eye of a painter, romanticizing the past and glossing over its harsh aspects. A woman's memory, is like the eye of a camera trained through a microscope. It films every event in exact detail—and it preserves it that way forever. Since man is the poet of the two sexes, he requires an imperfect memory so that he can look back at the past in mellow retrospect. His life is thus endurable because he can forget or minimize his disappointments. A perfect memory would destroy him in time. I would match my wife's memory—or any man's wife memory, for that matter—against the combined recollectability of a herd of lady elephants. Last July 4th, Frances asked me, "Do you remember what we did on Independence Day a year ago?" I couldn't. Francis did. Then she recalled, year by year, every July 4th since we were married—where we were, what we ate, who was with us, what we wore, what she said to me, what I said to her. During those 14 days of 14 different years, it turned out, I have said and done some thoughtless and foolish things. "Now do you want me to tell you about each of our wedding anniversaries she asked. That sounded like we might get into even deeper water, so I declined with thanks. The demonstration already had left me depressed enough. "It must be a real burden—to have a woman's memory. I said, "How can a woman live with it? "Oh, it's really rather nice," replied Frances. "It makes a wife feel sorry for her husband because she always remembers how much she has to forgive him for."

World Today—James Marlow

Practical Leadership In World Affairs Is Needed

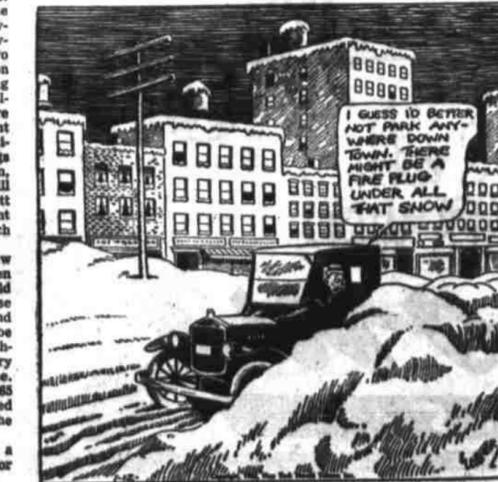

WASHINGTON (U)—The first great challenge to Gen. Eisenhower's presidency is in his ability to provide both spiritual and practical leadership for Western Europe. Spiritual leadership in the sense of inducing the Europeans to rise above their ancient nationalisms and suspicions and to achieve some measure of unity for the common good in the fight with Communism. Practical leadership in the sense of guiding the arrangements—economic, political and military—which will give unity meaning through adequate defense in case of war with Russia or, better, in discouraging such a war. As late as last spring it seemed the unity and the defense might be translated into reality. In the past week hopes for both suffered staggering blows. Several years ago, while dismayed by the uncertainty of Russian intentions, the countries of Western Europe realized the necessity of common defense and began moving in that direction through the Atlantic Pact. What seemed necessary was a new concept: a single army made up of troops from the past partners on the continent, a kind of merged army, under a single leadership. Yet, without troops from West Germany as part of this army it would seem like shadow army since West Germany, severed from Eastern Germany by the Russians, would be in the direct line of attack. But first an important detail had to be taken care of: the big wartime Allies—U. S., Britain, France

This Day In Texas

By CURTIS BISHOP

On this day in 1871 Adjutant General James Davidson left Austin with 50 members of the Texas State Police and very shortly Hill County was under martial law. This was still another incident in the rather sordid story of the state policemen employed by Governor E. J. Davis' carpetbag government. In December, 1870 two Negroes were killed near Clifton in Bosque County and two young men from Hill County, Sol Nicholson and James Gathings, were charged with the crime. Lieutenant W. T. Pritchett searched the residence of Colonel J. J. Gathings without finding the suspect men, and also without a warrant. Hill County citizens arrested Pritchett and his followers but the Lieutenant was released under bond, which he forfeited. Davidson declared martial law and arrested Gathings and seven other men. The Colonel was told that he could secure his release by payment of $3,000 in cash, and that otherwise the troops would be quartered on the county and Gathings himself sent to the penitentiary before he could appeal his case. Gathings was able to raise $2,785 which General Davidson accepted and martial law was lifted in the county. A Waco editor wrote: "... It is a robbery which is not sustained nor covered by racial legislation."

Crucial Games Await Nation's Casaba Giants

By RIP WATSON
NEW YORK, Jan. 12 (AP)—With the basketball season approaching the halfway mark, the various conference championship races are getting warmed up and you can get some idea as to who's going to win what.

Conference championships, of course, mean automatic qualification for the National Collegiate Athletic Association Tournament in March. Four more conference titlists were voted automatic spots by the NCAA convention last week, which means that 14 of the 23 teams in the tourney will be representatives of one group or another. Last year 10 of the 16 teams were conference kings.

A look at the record books emphasizes the importance of the conference entries. Only Holy Cross 1947 and City College of New York's ill-fated Cinderella kids of 1950 have broken the "conference" reign in the tourney's 14-year history.

Kansas, defending national and Big Seven champion, has come along well after a slow start, but the comparatively inexperienced Jayhawkers get the acid test Saturday. Their opponents' None other than Kansas State, top-ranked team in the Associated Press poll with a record of eight victories and only one defeat.

Kansas started its conference play Saturday with a 76-57 trouncing of Iowa State, while Saturday's game will be the first conference tilt for State.

Saturday also is the night for the top contenders in the Big 10. Indiana, national champion back in 1940, has a perfect 5-0 league mark so far this year but Saturday night will meet Illinois, a national semi-finalist last year. Indiana wrapped up No. 5 with a last-minute 66-63 victory over Minnesota, while Illinois made its record 4-1 by beating Wisconsin, 71-61.

Illinois is ranked fourth nationally and Indiana seventh.

North Carolina State, six-time champion of the Southern Conference but never a national titlist, is expected to romp through the conference tournament again, even though the Wolf Pack have a one-point loss to Wake Forest marring their early season record. They're rated ninth.

With Kentucky, a three-time winner of the national crown in the past five years, sidelined by the NCAA this year, there'll be a new Southeastern Conference champion for the first time in years. Most likely it will be Louisiana State, currently leading the circuit with a 3-0 mark and a 75-55 winner over Mississippi State Saturday.

Oklahoma A&M, the only team besides Kentucky to win more than one NCAA title (1945-46), has yet to start Missouri Valley Conference play. The Aggies, rated No. 5 in the country, may get back in contention this year. Defending champion St. Louis was trounced by Tulsa, 86-73, Saturday night.

Washington, ranked a notch below Oklahoma A&M in the poll, is steaming along toward a northern division championship in the Pacific Coast Conference. UCLA, which upset Washington in the coast inter-division playoff last year, will have to struggle to win the southern division crown again.

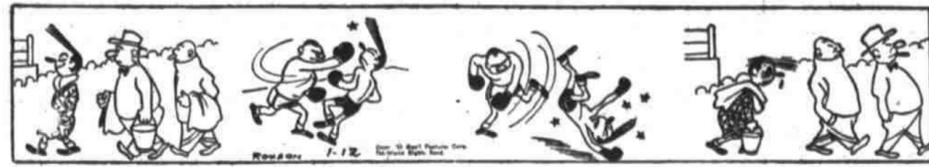

Here's how the leaders stand in the other conferences:
Ivy League: Cornell is in front, unbeaten in three starts, but, outside of Harvard, the other teams haven't played many league games.

North Texas State dominated what little action took place last week in the Gulf Coast basketball conference, clipping Louisiana Tech, 77-58, then knocking off Trinity in a couple of games that opened loop play.

The Eagles hung up 78.66, 73-64 decisions over the Eagles.

The conference's other member, Midwestern, defeated McMurry, 77-50, and Wayland, 71-57, and this week opens play for keeps with two games against Trinity. North Texas' only tilt is with Hardin-Simmons.

Bobby Hayworth, Big Spring, better known for his football prowess, won All-Tournament honors in the Colorado City Basketball Tournament last week end. The Steers went to the semi-finals before losing to the host team, 46-42.

ALL FOULED UP Situation Normal In SW Cage Play

By WILBUR MARTIN
Associated Press Staff
The Southwest Conference basketball race started in upsetting fashion and this week may be even better for confusion.

Monday night, Arkansas — the pre-season people's choice for the championship — takes on the University of Texas and it's almost a last chance affair — for Arkansas.

Three upsets Saturday helped eliminate expectations. Right now Texas, Baylor and Rice boast unbeaten records in conference play — and only Rice was conceded a chance of doing this.

Texas knocked off Texas Christian, 55-48, last week, then turned around and smacked Southern Methodist, 64-53.

Baylor walloped Texas A&M, 60-44, and beat Texas Christian, 70-63.

Rice beat Southern Methodist, 64-54, and A&M came through with a double overtime period 56-48 decision over the towering Arkansas Razorbacks.

The results were a mite upsetting in that Southern Methodist and Texas Christian, both rated high in pre-season figuring, are virtually out of contention.

Rice, which has its smoothest team in several years, could put things aright this week by knocking off Baylor Tuesday night and Arkansas Saturday.

In the only other game, Texas A&M meets Texas Christian Tuesday.

Both Texas and Baylor, figured even by their coaches only rank dark horses, came up with aggressive play to end the first week unbeaten.

For Arkansas, it was a rude jolt received from A&M. The Razorbacks boast the biggest players in the conference and in pre-conference play looked the class of the loop.

Gene Schwinger of Rice added to his season scoring lead with 22 points against SMU, running his total to 191 points. Henry Ohlen of TCU is second with 153.

In conference scoring, John Starkey of Baylor leads with 47 points, 15 more than Sealing has.

Wyatt To Sign Pact Tonight

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Jan. 12 (AP)—Personable young Bowden Wyatt, who has parlayed a wild version of the Tennessee single wing into a winning record at Wyoming, is to sign up tonight as head football coach at the University of Arkansas.

He will meet here with the Arkansas trustees, then return to Wyoming to try to break a 9-year contract binding him to that school.

Wyatt, 36, made no comment about the Wyoming pact when he visited Fayetteville yesterday to inspect Arkansas' athletic facilities. But he indicated he expects to get loose from it.

The Razorback coach-elect, who will succeed the resigned Otis Douglas, said he believes in fitting his system to the available material.

But, he added, he prefers the "Tennessee T"—a single wing variation—on a "wilder" scale than Tennessee itself uses.

Wyatt, who was a star end for the Vols in the late 1930s, said "You have to throw the ball more than Tennessee does."

Wyatt said he would like to bring four of his Wyoming assistants to Arkansas with him. He didn't name them, but they are believed to include line coach Dick Hitt and backfield coach George Catego.

It was reported Wyatt's contract would be for three years at $12,000 annually.

Lloyd Mangrum Crosby Champ

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Slim, trim Lloyd Mangrum, his pockets jingling with a load of fresh dollars, marked up the Bing Crosby 54-hole golf tournament as a personal victory and headed today for new fields to conquer.

The steel-nerved man with the mustache led a powerful array of pros at the finish of the 54-hole pro-amateur event staged annually for charity. His 204, compiled with round of 67-66-71, broke his own record of 205 set in 1948.

Mangrum won $2,000. Aided by his amateur partner Mil Wershow of Los Angeles, he picked up an additional $50 for a sixth place tie in the pro-amateur competition. A week ago the Texas-born sharpshooter bagged first-place money of $2,750 in the Los Angeles Open. His earnings for 1953 in two tournaments total $4,800.

Next stop on the circuit is San Diego this week end.

Present National Champion Julius Boros of Mid Pines, N. C., finished second in the pro division with rounds of 69-67-72-208, worth $1,250. Lawson Little, a resident here and former U. S. Open winner, took third money of $1,000 with scores of 70-70-69-209.

TAUBERT NAMED
DALLAS, Jan. 12 (AP)—The Southwest Outdoor Racing Association elected Henry Taubert Sr. of San Antonio commodore at the close of a two-day meeting here yesterday.

Ten Colleges Await 'Word'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Somewhere in the United States today there are 10 institutions of higher learning nervously waiting for the fist to fall from college athletics' new police force.

Who the "Unholy ten" are remains a well-kept secret but they themselves are aware of a couple of uncomfortable facts:

1. They are in "hot water" because of questionable athletic policies. The National Collegiate Athletic Association says so.

2. If found guilty, they face quick and probably stern punishment, with no immediate recourse, as in other years, to the NCAA membership.

While the 10 schools have not been identified, they are reported to include some big-time universities—a Big Ten member, a strong Eastern independent and an old Southern power.

Their cases are termed "serious" by the immediate past president of the body, Hugh C. Willett. The charges of misconduct are being reviewed by the NCAA Membership Committee. The cases go to the powerful 17-man council with recommendations. Then the council acts.

No Y Cage Games Slated Tonight

No games are carded in YMCA Industrial Basketball League play tonight.

Next round of action will be on Wednesday. Knott tangles with Toby's Medics at 7 p.m., Dibrell's Sporting Goods Company meets Western Auto Supply and Coca-Cola clashes with Phillips Tire Company that evening.

Longhorns Host Kermit Tuesday

One more practice game will serve to condition the Big Spring High School Steers before they plunge into District 1-AA basketball wars on Friday night.

The Longhorns, who made heartening progress last week, host Kermit in a return game Tuesday night. On Friday night, the locals invade Snyder for a 1-AA battle.

The Big Spingers are being picked by most observers to wind up in the league cellar.

Sweetwater and Lamesa are due to fight it out for the top spot but strong opposition is due to come from both Vernon and Plainview.

In other games tomorrow night, Lamesa hosts Odessa. Snyder goes to Levelland. Plainview pops up in Littlefield and Vernon plays host to Quanah.

In league action Friday night, Plainview visits Lamesa while Vernon plays host to Sweetwater.

Lamesa is the defending champion in the league but Sweetwater rules as a co-favorite, largely because the 6-foot-6 Carl Anderson is having his best year. Anderson has scored 379 points this season for an average of about 5 points a game.

Sweetwater has lost twice to San Angelo, once to Lubbock and once to Carter-Riverside.

Ned Underwood will lead the Snyder team against Big Spring. The 6-foot-3 senior has scored more than 200 points this year. He's one of four letterman back with the Bengals.

Series Of Bouts To Decide Champ

NEW YORK (AP)—New York state and the National Boxing Association, working arm in arm in a new era of co-operation, today will set up a nationally recognized tournament to determine an "American" middleweight champion.

The NBA announced its recommendations yesterday for a five-man tournament with the survivor meeting the winner of a European title bout between Randy Turpin and Charles Humer for the world championship.

Bob Christenberry, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission, said he agreed substantially with the NBA list but wanted to be sure no worthy candidate is overlooked.

Christenberry meets today with George Barton, NBA president; Commissioner Abe Greene and John (Ox) Dan Grossa to iron out the final details.

The NBA plans calls for four bouts involving Carl (Bobo) Olson of Honolulu, Norman Hayes of Boston, Rocky Castellani of Luzerne, Pa., Ernie Durando of Bayonne, N. J., and Pierre Langlois of France.

Langlois, a Parisian, was included in the "American" tournament because he already has been matched with Castellani at Madison Square Garden Feb. 6.

"If Langlois should beat Castellani he would have to supersede him in the rankings," explained Commissioner Greene.

Two of the four matches already have been announced. Olson fights Hayes at Boston Feb. 7, the day after the Castellani-Langlois match. After the opening matches, the winner of the Castellani-Langlois bout will meet Durando with the survivor facing the Olson-Hayes victory.

Bartzen To Face Gardner Mulroy

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 12 (AP)—Lanky Gardner Mulroy, the No. 1 ranked tennis player in the country, goes after his first tournament title of the year today when he meets Bernard (Tut) Bartzen, San Angelo, Tex.

Mulroy, from Miami, whipped an old tennis buddy, Blitsy Grant, Atlanta, 6-4, 6-0, 6-1 Sunday to enter the final round of the Dixie Tennis Tournament.

Polson And Blocker Named To All-5-A Grid Elevens

STANTON—Two Stanton High School gridgers, Virgil Polson and Norman Blocker, were named to the All-District 4-A football team selected recently by the coaches.

Polson won honors as a tackle on both the offensive and defensive platoons. Norman was selected as a defensive halfback.

Denver City dominated the teams, with five Mustangs named on the offensive eleven and three on the defensive platoon.

The offensive team:
Roger Doss, O'Donnell, and Bill Waygood, Sundown, ends; Polson and Bailey Cozens, Seagraves, tackles; Clarence Reed and Charles Smith, both of Denver City, guards; D. Lambert, center, Denver City; Benny Clark, O'Donnell; Lamar Burns, Morton; Charles Ward, Denver City; Ed Lenamond, Denver City; and Don Waygood, Sundown, backs.

The defensive team:
Bill Waygood, Sundown; Jim Cain, Seagraves; and Don McDer-

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

The Colorado City coaching job may be a hot potato. Jerome Bukemper, they say, was discouraged from trying for a new pact and it was generally agreed that Bukemper was a fine young coach.

One hears Clark Prather, the school's athletic director, may be planning to move on.

If the weather is good, Big Spring High School stands to 'get well' in its football trip to Pampa next fall. The Harvesters draw well at home.

The Steers have been guaranteed $750 and Coach Tom Tipps told Coach Carl Coleman of Big Spring that, with any sort of luck, Big Spring's 'take' could amount to $2,000.

Not since the Steers played Odessa have they done as handsomely at the gate.

'Incidentally, one of Austin's three new high schools was seeking a game with Big Spring when the Harvesters were signed.

Bill Frank, Big Spring's new baseball boss, says the question he gets asked most often on the street these days is: "Are you going to have any American boys on the team this year?"

Bill's answer is always in the affirmative. Frank says he gets the impression all-Cuban teams have been used all too often here. Frank has no way of knowing how the ratio of Americans and Cubans will stack up but he won't be surprised if it's "about ten to five," if not more predominantly American.

Lamesa was in the WT-NM League 11 seasons and never succeeded in winning a pennant. The Lobos usually had a club well up in the running, however.

The Lobos always drew well at the gate but forever were operating in the red because operating expenses were always so heavy up there.

Gulf Coast League teams will function with ten veterans and six limited service players on a 16-man roster next season. No veterans are required.

It's a B league but its caliber of baseball is way below that of the Big State wheel, the other B league in the state.

When two independent basketball teams, Rotary and Gulf, played a game in Midland recently, Rotary succeeded in scoring 76 points, O' that number, and it was enough to win, only four were the result of free pitches.

Keith Nicolis, the star Midland baseball hurler, is playing with Rotary, by the way.

TUESDAY NIGHT HC Opposes Button Quint

Personnel of the Howard County Junior College basketball team will probably be in better shape than at any time since the HC tourney when the Hawks visit Abilene tomorrow night for a joust with the HSU Buttons at Rose Field House.

Indications are they'll need to be, since, in the Buttons, they'll be meeting an unbeaten quintet, a team said by some to be better than HSU's varsity troops.

HSU's frosh haven't played as many games as the Big Springers but have been impressive in all their starts.

The fur-ridden Hawks upended the powerful Schreiner Mountaineers by a score of 60-50 here Saturday night. Substitutes saw a lot of action during the first half for HCJC and they did a fine job in holding the score to 28-23.

Charley Warren and Bobby Maines entered the game for the first time after the intermission and distinguished themselves as the Hawks went on to win.

It proved a great finish, with the Hawks outscoring the visitors by 15 points in the final two periods.

Coach Harold Davis hopes to have his Big Springers in fairly good physical trim Tuesday night. He figures the Buttons will make them go at top speed from start to finish.

The game will be played preliminary to the Texas Tech-HSU varsity feature, which is down for 8 o'clock. The Hawks and the Buttons figure to get started about 6:15 p.m.

The Hawks can next be seen at home against Clifton JC Friday night. Clifton is of unknown strength. The game winds up pre-conference play for HCJC. They open Western Zone activity against Frank Phillips here Thursday, Jan. 22.

Weather To Blame For Poor Hunting
WASHINGTON, Jan. 12 (AP)—The Fish and Wildlife Service has an explanation for hunters who waited in vain this season for all the ducks and geese they were expecting.

It was the weather. Director Albert M. Day said yesterday the waterfowl migrated south this fall in big numbers, as forecast. But he said they winged in drabs and drabs, rather than in mass formations, because of unseasonably balmy days.

Real blustery weather did not set in until just before Thanksgiving. Mass movement started then, but in many states the shooting seasons were about ended.

North Texas State dominated what little action took place last week in the Gulf Coast basketball conference, clipping Louisiana Tech, 77-58, then knocking off Trinity in a couple of games that opened loop play.

Keith Molesworth May Land Job As Baltimore Mentor
BALTIMORE, Jan. 12 (AP)—After snapping up $250,000 worth of season tickets to get their town back into the National Football League, Baltimoreans expected to learn today who will coach the newly won club.

The name of Keith Molesworth, former Chicago Bears' quarterback and backfield coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers, was most loudly whispered as NFL commissioner Bert Bell called a press conference for this afternoon.

Also invited to the conference were the owners of the new franchise, who were announced only yesterday.

Bell had promised the franchise would be returned if the sale were completed before the league's Jan. 23 meeting.

Among other details to be disclosed at the press conference was the name of the general manager of the new outfit, Don Kellie, who was Molesworth's teammate on the Syracuse baseball club of the International League and also coached at Penn, was most prominently mentioned.

Bell said the five owners will pay $200,000 to the league for operation of the franchise, with payments spread over a ten-year period.

This apparently would offset such loose ends as the territorial rights of the Washington Redskins and an old rental obligation of the Dallas Texans. The Texans folded after operating in the NFL last season with disastrous financial losses and winning only one of 12 games. They had assumed a Yankee Stadium rent bill carried over from their predecessor, the New York Yankees football club.

Up And In
Bobby (Dallas) Williams of HCJC is all by himself as he sinks a shot in the HCJC-Schreiner game here Saturday night, won by the locals, 60-50. Despite illness, Williams was an important factor in the victory.

Dormitory Destroyed

ITASCA, Tex., Jan. 12 (AP)—A dormitory cottage at the Presbyterian Home and School for Children here was destroyed by fire yesterday. No one was injured. The building houses 17 children and four supervisors.

Work Speedup Being Sought By Congress

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON
WASHINGTON (AP)—Plans for "fewer hours and more work" from the Senate are under study by the new Republican leadership.

One GOP senator, who asked that his name not be used, told a reporter today the proposed speedup includes these moves:
1. Trying to hold the usual daily Senate sessions to about five hours.
2. Giving committees more time to do their work by holding fewer daily sessions of the whole Senate.
3. Eliminating the custom of permitting any senator to force a quorum call, delaying action, when it is apparent that 40 or more senators, required to conduct business, are present.

4. Encouraging talkative senators to have their remarks printed in the Congressional Record instead of delivering them on the floor and forcing the Senate to stay in session.

This senator conceded that some of these goals—persuading senators to talk less, for example—may be difficult to achieve. In any event, he said, no test of the plan is likely to be tried until after the inauguration a week from tomorrow. Richard M. Nixon will then be vice president and presiding officer in the Senate.

For that matter, not much congressional work of any sort appeared likely to be undertaken before then. Both the House and the Senate still are involved in organizational details, mainly the formation of the legislative committees. Both are in recess until tomorrow.

Hawthorne Daniel Is K-F Club Speaker

Hawthorne Daniel, author of some 32 books, is to be speaker at the Big Spring Knife & Fork Club at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Settles.

Among his books is the recent publication (Wilfred Funk, Inc.) of Judge Medina, a biography of the federal judge who stepped into international spotlight by sentencing 11 Communist leaders in January 1949.

Daniel was awarded a commendation by the U. S. Navy for outstanding service as a World War II correspondent. His writings cover the fields of law, business, exploration and American democracy.

Man Just Had To Have His Dope

DALLAS, Jan. 12 (AP)—A 64-year-old hotel room clerk skipped with $25 from the till yesterday but he was sorry—he said so in a note to his victimized employer.

"I am a dope fiend (cq) and can't help it. I'm very sorry," he wrote the woman owner of a South Dallas hotel. "I'm taking the money because I got to have dope. You are a fine lady. I am so sorry."
