POLL TAX TALKATHON OPENS—Well armed with material for what Southerners refer to as a "prolonged debate," Senator John Stennis (D-Miss.) headed for the Senate where the anti-poll tax bill came up for discussion. Stennis was nominated by Southern Democrats to lead off the filibuster against the bill outlawing poll taxes in federal elections.

COUNTY CONVENTION GOES DIXIECRATIC

Demos Fight In County Conventions
By HENRY S. GORDON
Pampa News Staff
The Gray County Democratic Convention Saturday afternoon went Dixiecratic, passed a resolution calling for a Truman-Thurmond referendum on the August ballot and elected an instructed delegation to the state convention in Fort Worth on Sept. 11.

Early reports from Saturday's county convention battles showed Democrats loyal to national party nominees controlling 27 delegations to the Sept. 11 state meeting in Fort Worth.

The fight, bitter in some places, ignored in others, boiled down to a struggle for control of the state's presidential electoral vote. It was particularly sharp in the big counties with heavy voting strength in the state convention.

Loyalist factions walked out to hold separate conventions in Harris and Tarrant counties, where states' rights Democrats sympathizers held control of regular meetings.

Fist fights broke out in the Dallas convention as it still struggled to organize late in the day. There Dixiecrats bid against tough party loyalist opposition.

The Harris County Democratic Committee controlled by states' rights fighters voted to submit a presidential referendum to voters of that county Aug. 28. Midland County's convention took a similar stand.

Early reports showed Gregg, Wilbarger, Bowie, Cass, Gray, Upshur and Limonstone in the states' rights Democrats column. Dallas, Hartley, Hunt, Brazos, Victoria, Houston, Smith, and Midland Counties sent unopposed delegations to the Fort Worth meeting.

In the loyalist column were Wichita, Kaufman, Orange, Mitchell, Travis, Navarro, Hill, Jefferson, Kaufman, Howard, Childress, Hale, El Paso, Fannin, Red River, Potter, Tom Green, McLennan, Cherokee, Angelina, Taylor, Denton, Ector, Bell, Lamar, Cameron and Lubbock.

Those named as delegates to the state convention were: John V. Andrews, Clinton Henry, Curtis Douglas, William Jarrell Smith, Arthur Teed, John Vantine, E. L. Green, Jr., Mrs. Siler Faulkner, Walter Rogers, W. J. Ball, Boyd Meador, and Charlie Cousins. Alternates are: Mrs. Finis Jordan, Mrs. Tommy Stone, Mrs. W. J. (See CONVENTION, Page 2)

West Ready to Negotiate Dual Currency Situation
BERLIN (AP)—Gen. Lucius D. Clay said the Western Powers are prepared to negotiate with the Russians on the chaotic dual currency situation in Berlin. The Russians have used the money issue as one excuse for blockading the city.

Clay said the Western Allies attempted to negotiate the money question with the Russians before the new currency was issued more than a month ago. The Russians broke off negotiations and attempted to introduce Soviet Zone currency in all Berlin. The Western Powers then brought their own West German mark into Berlin and distributed it in the western sectors, a step Clay termed "politically necessary."

The events which have taken place would have taken place regardless of currency reforms. Clay said he referred to the Soviet blockade of traffic between Berlin and the Western zones and the cutting off of power in the western sectors of the city by the Russians.

The Soviet effort to take over the currency in Berlin is interpreted as a move to include the four-power city in the economy of the Soviet Zone.

Clay said that with the new airport being built in the French sector, it was planned to reach a daily capacity of 8000 tons for the aerial supply line.

Coal would be supplied to hospitals and other important centers but not for heating homes.

The U. S. Air Force and the RAF brought new high tonnage of coal and supplies into the city Saturday. The Americans landed 2,927 tons in 379 flights, and the RAF made 233 flights.

Airport Is Dedicated as Peace Symbol

NEW YORK (AP)—With a backdrop of the nation's mightiest peacetime display of airpower, President Truman declared yesterday that America was determined to remain strong in the cause of peace.

The President made his statement as he joined Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, his Republican rival, in dedicating the 5,000-acre New York International Airport at Idlewild.

Mr. Truman termed the field "the front door of the United Nations," while Dewey described it as a symbol and "a powerful implement for peace."

A crowd officially estimated at 215,000 with members of the Presidential cabinet, large congressional delegation, and representatives of 30 nations, witnessed the history-making get-together of the presidential candidates.

The occasion marked the first time in modern American political annals that candidates for the presidency of the two major parties had met publicly and spoke from the same platform.

When Mr. Truman arrived at the stand after a 52-minute flight from Washington, he was greeted by his rival for the White House.

"It is nice to see you again," replied Mr. Truman.

Both candidates smiled cordially. Despite the awesome array of military might assembled on the field and gathered in the grey-laden skies, the President's speech stressed peace and the nation's determination to back the United Nations as the instrument for the settlement of all international disputes.

Asserting the airport "is both peace and progress," he said.

Ex-Communist Spy Names Informers

WASHINGTON (AP)—A woman who confessed she spied for Russia told amazed congressmen Saturday that one of the late President Roosevelt's aides and a former assistant secretary of the Treasury gave wartime secrets which reached the Soviets.

She named them as: Lauc Lin Currie, Nova Scotia-born, assistant to Roosevelt from 1938 to 1945, and Harry Dexter White, former assistant secretary of the Treasury.

The testimony came from Elizabeth T. Bentley, 36-year-old Vassar graduate, who appeared before the House Committee on Un-American Activities.

Simultaneously, a Senate subcommittee headed by Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) was questioning William W. Remington, 30-year-old Commerce Department official, whom Miss Bentley named Friday as a Communist who supplied her with secret information.

Remington denied that he ever belonged to the Communist Party, or that he ever gave Miss Bentley secret or confidential information.

Chairman J. Parnell Thomas (R-N.J.) of the House Committee demanded that a grand jury be summoned in Washington to look into "suspects in government."

Miss Bentley told the committee that although Currie was not a Communist, he gave her some information on government policies.

Due to Currie, she said, information reached the Russians that the United States was about to decipher the Russian code.

She testified that White, the Treasury official, gave information to one N. Gregory Silvermaster which was relayed to her and then to the Russians. She described Silvermaster as a Communist and agent of the Russian secret police who was employed at the time by the U. S. Farm Security Administration. He no longer is with the government.

Currie issued the following statement from his home at Scarsdale, N. Y.:

"To the best of my knowledge I have never known nor associated in any way directly or indirectly with either a Communist or a Communist agent. I never met Miss Bentley nor knew of her existence. If any government employe conveyed information to Communist quarters and gave my name as a source it was most certainly not done with my knowledge. My work never brought me in contact with military codes. I was never told anything about them so I obviously could not pass on information about them. I am at a loss to understand why my name was brought into this unless somebody wanted to smear me."

Ministers of West Meet With Molotov

MOSCOW (AP)—Envoys of the three big Western powers were granted unexpected interviews with Russian Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov last night, and gave him their latest proposals for settling East-West differences.

The American Embassy announced officially that U. S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith saw Molotov for over an hour. Russian authorities said Friday Molotov was "not in Moscow" and the speed with which he returned to the Russian capital surprised U. S. spokesmen.

Frank Roberts, Britain's special envoy, said he also had been granted a separate interview with the Soviet foreign minister, and French sources indicated that their representative, Ambassador Yves Chateaugay, likewise had conferred with Molotov.

Neither Smith nor Roberts would comment on the nature of the conversations.

It was considered probable that following the talks, there would be no new developments in the latest approach of the Western powers to Russia on the German and Berlin questions until early next week.

In London, a responsible British diplomat said the U. S. British delegation, headed by Andrei Vishinsky, Soviet delegate, challenged the Western Powers Saturday to accept Eastern Bloc decisions in the Danube conference or take a walk.

"The door (to the conference) was open for you to come in. The door is open for you to go out," Vishinsky said.

That was his defiant answer to the stand taken by France against committing herself to any recommendations which disregard her existing and "acquired" rights in the Danube.

Adrien Thierry, chief of the French delegation, declared his country intended to reserve all its rights under past Danubian conventions and "will not consider herself bound by any recommendations" at this point.

The French position was supported by Britain and Austria, Russia, and her six satellites, Yugoslavia, Romania, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Bulgaria and Soviet Ukraine—have the power in the conference to vote anything they want as long as they stick together. Austria, the 11th member of the conference, lost her fight for voting rights yesterday and is only an observer.

Schedule for County X-Ray Survey Set

The hours of Gray County's mass X-ray service to be located in McLean Aug. 24 and Pampa Aug. 25-28 were announced yesterday by Clifford Ausmus, chairman of the Gray County Steering Committee.

The location of the service has not yet been decided, but the hours that county residents may be X-rayed are: McLean, Aug. 24, 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.; Pampa, Aug. 25, 10 a. m. to 8 p. m.; Aug. 26, 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.; Aug. 27, 8 a. m. to 5 p. m.; and Aug. 28, 10 a. m. to 2 p. m.

The object of this mass chest X-raying is to locate hidden cases of tuberculosis. More than a half-million people in the United States have the disease. Tuberculosis Association reports that only about 250,000 of the estimated half-million have come under any sort of treatment. The other 250,000 are walking, working and moving freely about.

The association discloses instances whereby TB germs can be spread unnoticed, sneezes, coughing, soiled things that have been used by someone with TB, unpasteurized milk, food handled or prepared by a person with the disease or an improperly washed dish, glasses and silverware.

Tuberculosis in the lung can be found long before the person with the disease may notice it. An X-ray picture of the chest will disclose whether or not the individual has the disease. Early discovery makes early recovery the association concluded.

The mass chest X-ray service will be without cost to the Gray County residents. However, the service will not be free since it has already been paid for out of taxes.

Two Additions to Have Water Cut Off Temporarily
Water service will be temporarily suspended in the Emily-Lowry and Vicars additions tomorrow morning while connections are made in laying the new sewer main. E. Lowry, water superintendent, said yesterday.

Water in those two sections will be shut off at about 8:30 a. m. and service will be cut off for from one to three hours while water connections are made.

These two sections will be the only ones affected by the temporary suspension of service, Lowry said.

Services Monday For Hogan Infant
Graveside services will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Baby Gardens, Fairview Cemetery, for Walter Earl Hogan, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Hogan, 606 N. Nelson. The child died yesterday in a local hospital only a few hours after birth.

Besides the parents, also surviving are the grandparents, Mrs. Muriel Hogan and Mr. and Mrs. Ruppert Orr, all of Pampa.

Switzerland Celebrates Her 657th Anniversary

By DEWITT MACKENZIE, AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Here's wishing many happy returns to little Switzerland who as this is written is scurrying about in eager preparation for today's 657th anniversary of the greatest moment in her long life—Independence Day.

This also is the centennial year of Switzerland's Constitution, which in 1848 consolidated the 22 cantons and unified the nation. That instrument modeled in considerable degree on the U.S. Constitution and has stood the test of time under trying circumstances.

Tiny Switzerland sits serenely on her mountain peaks and looks down upon a world which is torn with hatred and strife and aggression. While many other European countries have lost their independence or have been compelled to expend blood and wealth in self-defense, this Alpine state (only half the size of Maine and with a population about half that of New York City) not only has managed to keep clear of entanglements but is one of the few really prosperous countries of the world.

What's the answer to this astonishing achievement? Well, there are several reasons. Not the least of these is the fact that Switzerland for more than half a century has managed to maintain strict neutrality in times of stress—namely the two world wars.

Switzerland's neutrality is strongly backed. Every able-bodied male between the ages of 20 and 45 is subject to military service. There is universal military training, and each reservist keeps his rifle and other equipment with him to his home, ready for instant mobilization.

Moreover the Swiss have bored into the hearts of their great mountains and created a vast network of forts and tunnels. They thus have created a national reputation which would be a fierce challenge to any invading army.

Firestone in New Location

The new building affords 3,750 square feet of floor space for Firestone.

In announcing the new location, Minnick also announced a reopening sale, which also begins tomorrow.

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Note Book

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK —(AP)—Okay, ladies. I give up. Wear any face you want—even that great American female face.
But to say that this blank expression women wear in public is a refuge from "the great American male ego"—well really, girls, that's going too far.
You'll never get me or any other self-respecting prisoner of the male to admit that men are responsible for the great American female face.
I brought up the question of this expression a week or so ago—the question of why so many warm, kind and personable women go about with the same set look, noses high, features as frozen and similar as a row of ice cream cones.

In asking why this was so, I generously omitted to mention the explanation given me by a crusty old bachelor:
"Most women wear the cold look today because they all have cold hearts."
But I find equally hard to believe the thesis advanced to me in a number of stormy letters from the ladies themselves, that the great glazed American female face is caused by men. Men just aren't that important.
As I say, however, most women clamped the blame on men.
"The deadpan, as you quaintly call it, is a defense against the colossal American male ego," wrote a spirited Irish colleen from Baldwin, N. Y. "A woman who doesn't want to be continually annoyed soon learns to assume the deadpan frozen stare."

A critic who signed herself "a dear old lady" from Portland, Me., "Because of the race of wolves now roaming at large through this country, every attractive woman must don some protective mask. Her only desire is to hold these wolves at bay."
This is a romantic picture, and could be construed as flattering to the American caveman. But I can't believe the great American

Skelton Reviews Texas Oil News

By MAX B. SKELTON
Houston, Tex. (AP)—Old headaches are reappearing among the petroleum industry's supply and demand problems.

Last spring there were predictions there would be severe fuel shortages for mechanized farm equipment and of gasoline for summer vacationists.

The first problem eased by without alarming incident and the second appears to be all but whipped.

But the national petroleum council has received this warning from the nation's armed services—

Supply 1,700,000 barrels of motor gasoline within one week of the military, as authorized under the new peacetime draft law, will recommend mandatory action.

Lesser shortages of aviation gasoline and oil also were cited by Rear Admiral E. D. Foster, director of the Armed Services' Petroleum Purchasing Agency.

Meanwhile, the American Petroleum Institute reported that gasoline stocks, for the week ending July 24, continued to decline although production for the week totaled 17,879,000 barrels as compared with 15,824,000 a week earlier.

Gasoline stocks were placed at 100,841,000 as compared with 101,000 barrels the week ending July 17.

Crude oil production, however, increased 3350 barrels to a daily average of 5,447,800. The increase came after a three-week decline.

Unprecedented operations within the industry however, are reflected in APTIS figures, despite the decreases.

A year ago the daily crude oil production rate was 5,083,650 barrels, while gasoline stocks totaled 85,965,000 barrels.

The Interstate Oil Compact Commission last week reported that oil well drilling and explorations throughout the nation set a new all-time record during June.

A commission report said 2314 rotary drilling rigs were active (See SKELTON, page 6)

Permit Objects Location of Movie Company

GRIMY, Tex. —(P)—Kermit covered last week that it was theme city of a moving picture now being made on the opposite side of the state. And the permit is on the barren, rolling dunes of West Texas. It has a lot of oil wells, so does Lindale, the East Texas town where the movie "Strike It Rich," is made. Lindale is called Kermit in the picture.

The Kermit Chamber of Commerce, backed by the Winkler City News, wired producer Jack Warner they do not even the other picture industry could make an East Texas pine tree look anything like one of Kermit's scrub mesquite bushes.

"Everything you needed in the way of props would have been right handy," the telegram said, "except the model A's and T's from East Texas.

"They don't let our oil wells gush any more, but some driller could have been persuaded, for such a special occasion, to let one 'get loose' and you could have seen the day and hour for this scene.

"The picture is probably almost finished, so all we can do now is extend an invitation for the premiere showing of 'Strike It Rich' to be held in Kermit. It would draw much larger crowds than in Dallas, and besides, we're all agog to see the movie's picture of Kermit in the 30's as it was then picture industry could

Cancer Society Commends Gray In Fund Drive

J. Ray Martin, county chairman of the recent drive for funds for the American Cancer Society, has received a letter of thanks from Frank C. Smith, Houston, president of the Texas Division.

The letter, in addition to thanking Martin for his part in raising $2,022 of a goal of $2,181, stated: "I will be grateful if you will express to those who have worked with you the thanks and appreciation of the Executive Committee and the officers of the Texas Division, and my own personal word of appreciation as well."

Chairman Martin said he was grateful for the work of those who helped in this county, citing the following: Bryant Caraway, J. C. McWilliams, Joe Fischer, R. M. Samples, Floyd Yeager, Frank Leder, Pat Patrick, H. D. Foster, Louie Allen, and Arthur Rankin for their part in the business districts.

Bob Sidwell and Frank Yealy, in the industrial area.

Mrs. W. R. Campbell and Mrs. R. E. McKernan, in the residential areas.

B. D. Robison, as treasurer of the local organization.

He said some firms have not been contacted for contributions. "Anyone wishing to make a donation in order to reach our quota may do so," he stated. The money should be sent to B. D. Robison at the First National Bank.

Oil Industry Called on to Meet Army Needs

WASHINGTON —(P)—The armed services has called upon the oil industry to meet increasing military fuel needs fully and promptly.

Rear Admiral E. D. Foster, director of the Petroleum Purchasing Agency, told the National Petroleum Council the situation is serious and if needs are not met quickly, mandatory action duty he has performed since February, 1945, in Mexico City.

will be necessary. Foster and other Army and Navy officers made it plain that the Berlin crisis is forcing the armed services to stiffen their attitude toward the petroleum industry. Foster said the primary shortage is 1,700,000 barrels of motor gasoline. There also are shortages in aviation gasoline and certain types of oils.

"It is not apparent within a week that the needs are going to be met, the military will be compelled to recommend that military will be taken," Mas Ball, director of the Interior Department's oil and gas division, told reporters at a news conference.

Ball said the amended draft act gives the military authority not only to take supplies and to require the manufacture of supplies, but to do so immediately and negotiate payments later.

Walter S. Hallieman, council chairman, said he is confident the industry is not going to let the armed services down in seeing that relief reaches Berlin.

Pampa News, Sunday, August 1, 1948 PAGE 5

Hallanan said the general outlook for heating oils next winter has improved considerably, and under normal conditions no serious fuel oil shortages are likely.

and 623 geophysical and core drill crews were working at the end of June.

A year earlier there were 1873 rigs active and 35 crews engaged in exploratory work.

Tidelands: After receiving reports on the actions of Congress during the first three days of its special session, Governor Beauford Jester of Texas said he saw little hope of action on a bill calling for state ownership of submerged tidelands.

Jester had conferred by telephone with persons in Washington connected with tidelands legislation.

Meanwhile, there were tidelands developments in Texas, Louisiana and California.

Standard Oil and Gas Company announced construction is under way on its Shore Base at Sabine, Tex., for use in operations off the Texas Coast.

Humble Oil was operating on two fronts. It applied to Army engineers for a work permit on a block of 10,720 acres about 24 miles southwest of Galveston, Tex. 2. Casing is being set for a completion attempt at Humble No. 1—A state wildcat off Grande Isle, La., with a directional hole 8950 feet deep and with oil sand showings between 8500 and 8730.

U. S. Attorney General Tom Clark, Interior Secretary Krug and California Attorney General Fred Hauser have filed an agreement with the Supreme Court whereby tidelands operations off that state will go forward without disturbance pending a final decision on the boundary dividing federal and state property.

The agreement provides that rentals, royalties and other payments from operations in the vicinity of the prospective boundary line should be deposited in a special fund for ultimate distribution to rightful recipients.

State notes: Three Midwest farm cooperatives, the Illinois Farm Supply Company, Chicago, Farmers Union Central Exchange, St. Paul, Minn., and Midland Cooperative Wholesale, Minneapolis, have purchased all stock of the Premier Oil Refining Company, Longview, Tex., owners of refineries at Fort Worth, Longview and Arp, Tex., and at Cotton Valley, La., a cash consideration was listed at $8,500,000. Also purchased and the Octane Oil Refining Company, operators of small plants at Baird, Tex.

The Texas Company claims the deepest producing well in Louisiana with completion of its no. 111 L. L. & E. well in the Leesville Area, LaFourche Parish. The well flowed 303 barrels daily at 14,074-14,473 feet.

Oklahoma's August production allowable has been placed at 428,500 barrels daily and September at 432,000.

Hubbard Hurls 3 Hitter As Oilers Whip Loboes, 10-1

Oilers Nudge Loboes 13-12 In 12 Innings

Paced by the booming bat of first baseman Bob Belford and the relief pitching of Howard Bass, the Pampa Oilers edged the Lamessa Loboes 13-12 in a 12-inning thriller Friday night in Oiler Park.

The rookie first baseman from Parkin, Ark., blasted four hits in four trips to the plate and forced in the winning run in the 12th frame when he walked with the bases loaded. Despite the fact that he batted 1.000, Belford was the only man on the complete team who did not score. He was forced at second twice and died on base twice.

Howard Bass, the righthanded tosser who is a high school coach in Eldorado, Okla., came in to relieve Roy Parker in the ninth and allowed only one hit in the three and one-third innings he pitched. The Loboes were unable to get a single tally off the reliever who was credited with the victory.

Lefty Avon Driggers started on the mound for the locals, striving to gain his 15th victory of the season. After allowing 14 hits and 12 runs in eight and one-third innings, Driggers went to the showers and Roy Parker assumed his chores. Parker came in with the bases loaded and one man away. Lobo Centerfielder, Dan Pinto, greeted the Oiler portlander with a single to right center to drive in two runs and move Pitcher Chet Zara to third. Parker then let fly with a wild pitch and Zara scored with the tying run. After Melvica forced Pinto and Schabaz, intentionally walked, Bass took to the mound for the remainder of the contest.

Until the ninth inning, the game was not so close as the score might indicate. The locals scored in all of the first four innings while Driggers limited the downstate visitors to four runs while he and his teammates built up a 9-4 lead.

In the fifth frame, the Loboes got two tallies on one hit. Manager Tony Florio's homer over the left centerfield boards after Buckel had walked. The Oilers then completed their regular inning scoring with three runs on five hits off starting Lobo hurler Stan Graywacz. Graywacz retired with two men out in this inning and Zara took over.

The Loboes touched Driggers for four more hits and two runs in the seventh to make the score 12-8, as many fans, thinking the game almost over, went home. In the ninth, Driggers allowed singles to Palmer and Zara, and a double to Skidgel, before Parker came in and allowed another hit to Pinto, as the Loboes tied the score with four runs on four hits. The only hit off Bass in the overtime period was by Pitcher Zara in the eleventh. Only four men reached base while the reliever was doing his stint.

It seemed to be an exclusive pitchers duel when Bass got the first extra inning hit off Zara. The Pampa chucker doubled to right centerfield to lead off the Oiler portion of the 11th. He was then permitted to die on base as the next three men were retired in order.

In the 12th, all three Loboes grounded out from Range to Belford. He was unintentionally walked full steps at the initial sack. To start the Oiler 12th, Joe Fortin led off with a double against the centerfield wall. It seems ironic that had it not been for Manager Florio of the Loboes, the game would have probably ended one inning sooner. In the 11th, with Bass on second, Zara started to intentionally walk Jack Rickey, hard-hitting Oiler first baseman. With two intentional balls already thrown, Florio burst from the dugout and told Zara to pitch to Rickey since Fortin was the next man up. On the first real pitch, Rickey popped out to the shortstop, and then in the 12th, on the first pitch, Fortin doubled against the centerfield wall which would have ended the game in the 11th, had Zara walked Rickey. Range then followed Jolten Teyema with a single. Teyema was then intentionally passed and Belford was unintentionally walked to force in the winning run.

Coaches Leave Today to Attend Annual Texas Coaches Meeting

Coaches Tom Tipps, Pampa High School, and Pernal Scoggins, Junior High School, left at 7:30 a.m. today to attend the annual meeting of Texas coaches in Abilene. Also making the trip was Carl "Red" Mayes, last year's Harvester football and track standout, who will participate in the high school All-Star football game next Friday night. The two coaches and Mayes will be joined later by Coaches Aubra Noemaster, Clifton McNeely, and John Bond, all of the High School, and Dwayne Lyons of Junior High. The sextet of athletic mentors will return from the seven-day school next Saturday and open "spring" training August 16. Mayes, outstanding athletic figure for the past three years while participating in District 1.

DEWS RELEASED

Bobby Dewes, recently acquired catcher from Chattanooga of the Southern Association, has been released by the Pampa Oilers and has been returned to Anniston Ala., of the Southeastern League. Dewes was with the Oilers, indirectly from Anniston, on a 30-day loan. He was associated with the Chattanooga farm chain and will soon join the Anniston club, at present a second division club. The Southeastern League play is rapidly drawing to a close, and in an effort to strengthen their club, the Anniston owners have recalled Outfielder George Stasi from Gladewater and have returned Pitcher Fred Baczewski to Shreveport and Outfielder John Geandron to El Dorado. Dewes had played in 33 games for the Oilers and was currently hitting at a .336 clip.

Meeting of Managers Set For Monday

A meeting of all softball managers of teams in the Industrial League is slated for tomorrow beginning at 6:30 p. m. in the Corporation Courtroom. The meeting has been called to make a definite ruling on legal and illegal pitching and other pertinent subjects influencing remainder of the schedule. It is very important that all managers attend this meeting. Elv Lathrop, league president, said.

NEW YORK (NEA)—Shanon II, winner of the $100,000 Hollywood Gold Cup, was sold at Randwick, Sydney, Australia, for $1400, as a yearling. In the same sales ring last August, W. J. Smith paid $104,000 to obtain the horse which now is owned by Neil S. McCarty. Sixteen U.S. states prohibit marriage between white persons and an "Oriental or Mongolian," and six won't issue a license to a white person and an Indian.

Hubbard retired the first sixteen men to face him in the ball game pitching beautiful ball. His curve ball was hopping nicely and his fast ball had lots of steam. Throughout the contest he failed to give up a single charity base and the Lobo tally was unearned. Bob Bartholomew hit safely in his 18th consecutive game in the first inning and Dick Samek got a double in the second, but both men were not allowed to cross home plate. In the second inning, Range led off with a single, went to third on Dave Teyema's double and scored on Dick Samek's blooping ball to short left field. I. B. Palmer managed a single in the second frame off Hubbard but was thrown out at second on Dave Teyema's double. In the sixth, Haynes went to pieces. His control was gone, his steam was gone, and the Oilers took advantage of the fact by shoving in six runs. He walked three men, allowed three hits, and an error by shortstop Buckel aided the Oilers cause. Stan Graywacz played fireman and retired the Oilers without a single run being charged against him in this frame. Graywacz ran into his share of trouble in the eighth where the Oilers got three more runs on three hits. The Lobo tally came in the ninth when, with two men out, Sam Melvica doubled to centerfield, scoring Graywacz who had reached first on an error by first baseman Bob Bailey. Bailey was in the contest replacing Bob Belford, who was out due to a charleyhorse. The Oilers and Loboes meet in the final game of the three tonight in the local park beginning at 9. Lefty Bill Jones will probably start for the Loboes while George Payte is the most likely to hurt for the Oilers.

Oilers Are Club Guests

The Pampa Oilers, their president, manager and business manager were guests of the Kiwanis Club on Friday. K. L. Edmondson, the president, expressed thanks to the club for their successful sponsorship of a game last week between the Oilers and the Dukes of Albuquerque. W. D. Price, president of the Top o' Texas Rodeo and Horse Show Association, lauded the work of the boosters who have been

Americans Surge to Lead With 5 Firsts in Olympics

LONDON — (AP) — America's track and swim specialists snapped out Saturday with a surge that brought them five gold medals and a tremendous lead in the unofficial standings of the 14th Olympic Games.

Almost shut out in Friday's events, Uncle Sam's men and women made up for it yesterday. Besides taking five first places, the Americans broke three Olympic records and tied another. Foreign athletes accounted for two more Olympic marks in the standard-smashing spree.

All told, 47 individual finals in track and field and in swimming were held yesterday. The U. S. scored in seven, very heavily in six, to run up a huge total of 101 points.

In second place came France with 28, followed by Sweden 25, Australia 17, Hungary 14, the host British 12, and Czechoslovakia, Austria, and Norway, 10 each.

The first American to have the Stars and Stripes hoisted on the victory platform was Harlan of Ohio State. He captured the springboard diving gold medal to pace a one-two-three U. S. sweep of the event.

The other swimming final almost brought another American sweep. Ris of Iowa won the 100-meter free style followed by Alan Ford of Yale, second; Keith Carter of Purdue, fourth; Alex Jany, French champion, was fifth. Ris was clocked in 57.3 seconds, two-tenths of a second better than the existing standard.

Cochran, of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, captured the first American gold medal in track and field. He won the 400 meter hurdles by five yards in 51.1 seconds, eight-tenths of a second under the standard he and Rune Larsson of Sweden set Friday.

Larsson ran third, leading Duncan White, from Ceylon.

Dick Ault of Missouri gave the U. S. an unexpected three points by nabbing fourth.

Then came the most dramatic moment so far. Dillard, the great Negro hurdler from Baldwin-Walace who couldn't make the team in his specialty, equaled Eddie Tolian's Olympic record of 10.3 seconds to win the 100 meter dash by a nose over Barney Ewell of Lancaster, Pa. Mel Patton, the Southern California flash, came in fifth behind Panama's Lloyd Labach and Great Britain's Alan McQuoddale.

Another Negro, Steele of San Diego State, came home with the last gold medal by taking the broad jump with a leap of 25 feet 10 inches. Herby Douglas of Pittsburgh and Lorenzo Wright of Wayne finished third and fourth behind T. Bruce of Australia to help the U. S. rack up 17 points in the event.

The final record-breaking performance by an American, was by Jimmy McLane, 37-year-old distance swimmer from Andover Academy and Akron, O. McLane clipped 2.3 seconds off the Olympic mark to win his heat of the 400 meter free style swim in 4 minutes, 42.2 seconds.

Austria, Hungary and Sweden annexed the other three gold medals today while Holland expected one as a result of Neel Van Vliet's record-shattering performance in the semi-finals of the 200-meter breast stroke.

DETROIT — (AP) — Lefty Lou Brissie pitched brilliantly in relief Saturday as the Philadelphia Athletics pasted the Detroit Tigers 8-3, sending Art Houtteman to his 13th defeat. Brissie gave just four hits in seven innings to take credit for the victory—his 11th.

Philadelphia 130 003 001-8

Santa Clara Teams Lose Ten Athletes

SANTA CLARA, Calif. — (AP) — Varsity coaches in football, basketball and baseball at Santa Clara University had little reason to be unhappy at the Mission school's 97th commencement exercise.

Only 10 varsity athletes in the three sports will not return for another crack at Bronco opposition. Varsity Grid Mentor Len Casanova lost seven lettermen —Bill Crowley, Denver; Guy Giacopuzzi, Los Angeles; Dick McConville, Knoxville, Ia.; Gil McDermid, Union, Wash.; Val Molkenbuh, San Francisco; Bill Prentice, Samoa, Calif.; and Cy Smith of Burlingame. Twenty-five lettermen will return.

Basketball boss Ray Pesco will miss two Bronco court stars in Frank Loney, Spokane, Wash., and Dave Mariani of Kentfield. Diamond director Patty Cottrell loses only Captain Bill Prentice

Hogan Finishes With Third Sub-Par Round

BUFFALO, N. Y. — (AP) — The 45th Western Open Golf Championship became another "Hogan Benefit" Saturday.

Bantam Ben, the hot-shot from Hershey, Pa., wheeled in with his third straight sub-par round, from his speedy nine, rumpers-up in '48 conference play.

a 36-34-70 for a 34-hole total of 207, nine under par and three ahead of the field.

Back of the National Open and PGA Champion, also with a 34-36-70 was Porky Ed Oliver, Seattle, Wash., fat man, with a 210 total.

Various remains of prehistoric man found in Europe are estimated to date as far back as 280,000 years ago.

Pirates Explode in Ninth for 5-2 Win Over Skidding Brooks

BROOKLYN — (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates exploded for four runs in the ninth inning Saturday to overcome the Brooklyn Dodgers, 5-2, before a crowd of 15,633.

Bank Behrman's wildness along with the batting of former Dodgers Eddie Stevens and Stan Rojek cost the Dodgers the game.

The Dodgers threatened in the last of the ninth, getting the first two runners aboard off Elmer Singleton. Vic Lombardi, another ex-Dodger, came in to retire three batters in a row, two on strikeouts.

Kirby Higbe, still another ex-Dodger, held his former teammates scoreless in the seventh and eighth to gain credit for his fifth triumph.

Pittsburgh 100 000 004-5
Brooklyn 001 001 000-2

York Giants took both ends of a doubleheader from the Chicago Cubs 14-9 and 6-3 Saturday to sweep past the Brooklyn Dodgers into second place in the National League. It was their sixth and seventh win in a row. Whitley Lockman's home run with two on in the sixth broke a 3-3 dead lock in the second game. Larry Jansen, aided by a 19-hit attack which included home runs by Johnny Mize, Willard Marshall and Lockman, gained his 14th victory in the opener.

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Cincinnati Reds twice yesterday, scoring 4-3 on Johnny Blatnik's two-on eighth inning homer in the opener and 4-1 with Kenny Heintzelman fashioning a neat five-hitter in the nightcap. The twin triumphs stretched the Phils' winning streak to five games.

Big Question Of Poll Tax Is Reviewed

WASHINGTON —(AP)— This is an ABC on the poll tax argument. That argument revolves around Negroes' states' rights, the U. S. Constitution, and free elections. Seven Southern states have the tax: Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia. New Hampshire requires it too. In those states would-be voters have to pay a poll tax before they can vote. Bills to outlaw the tax have been passed repeatedly in the House, where there's a limit on debate and Southerners can't talk endlessly to block the will of the majority. But those House-passed bills have never been permitted to reach the voting stage in the Senate. There's no limit on debate there. And Southern senators have blocked the bills by filibustering—talking endlessly. Right now 21 Southern Democratic senators, headed by Senator Russell of Georgia, are lined up to filibuster and prevent action on the anti-poll tax bill passed by the House in 1947. Yet, Senator Russell says only one of the 21 Southern senators really favors having a poll tax at all. Why, then, would they want to prevent Congress from outlawing the tax? The Southern position goes like this— States have the right to pass laws governing their own elec-

Council Tax Service

MUGGED— Since they couldn't build a racer, Paul Brown, Culberson Chevrolet official who helped conduct the local Derby race last Sunday, and Joe Tooley, of the Lions Club, get behind the champ's car for a "mug" from the cameraman. (Photo by Richard's Drug).

Because members of Congress, where Southerners are in a minority, have a right to wipe out any law interfering with voting in a federal election. But does a poll tax interfere in a federal election? Its enemies say it does. They argue: By comparison with the rest of the country, wages and income in the South are low. For that reason paying even a small poll tax is a hardship on poor whites and the poorly paid Negroes. It actually prevents their voting because they can't afford the tax. (Southerners protest that this claim is wrong, that the poll tax is low and can be afforded by practically everyone.) But the enemies of the tax argue that its chief purpose—when all talk of the Constitution and States' rights is swept aside—is to keep Negroes, who are notoriously poor in the South, from voting.

Gumbin in Pershing Road, said the gunmen drove to the left of Gumbin's machine as he stopped for the red light. One of the killers poked a shotgun through the side window and fired. The blast shattered Gumbin's head. The killers sped north on Wallace Street as young Gumbin leaped from his father's car and shouted for help. As police hunted the assassins, they said members of the victim's family could give no motive for the slaying. Gumbin was part owner and president of the General Fibre Company and its subsidiary the General Carton Company, which employs about 60 workers. Gumbin and his brother, Herman, of Grand Rapids, Mich., also were co-owners of the Rockford Paper Mills in Rockford, Mich. The slaying occurred a few hours before Nathan Gumbin, who was 56 Wednesday, was to have been guest of honor at a birthday party at a nightclub. The party was to have been attended by his brother, his sons, Owen and Jack, 23, his wife, Blossom, 53, and other relatives. Mrs. Gumbin is a former Marshall, Tex., resident. Other relatives live at Henderson, Tex.

IMPORTANT FACTS ABOUT

VOLUNTEERING and the DRAFT

EVERY able-bodied young American who did not bear arms in World War II has a direct, personal interest in the new Selective Service Law. Here are the facts:

The most important thing to remember is that the U. S. Army will continue to rely on voluntary enlistments as its primary source of manpower.

Selective Service will be used only to make up the difference between authorized strength and the number of volunteers. If there are not enough volunteers to do the job, young men of 19 to 25 will be subject to call for 21 months of service, with an additional 5 years in inactive reserve status.

You may prefer to choose from a number of other courses open to you.

First, if you are 18 you may volunteer within limited monthly quotas, for one year's training with the Army of the United States. Up to 110,000 men, in monthly increments of 10,000, in this classification can be accepted. Following active duty you must, if offered the assignment, serve 4 years in an organized unit of the Reserve or National Guard; or, if not offered such assignment, serve 6 years in the inactive reserve. Either of these requirements may be met by enlisting for 2 or more years in the Regular Army.

Second, if you are 19 to 25 you may volunteer for 21 months in the Regular Army. Upon completion of this service you must serve for 3 years with an organized reserve unit or National Guard, or serve 5 years in the inactive reserve. Either requirement may be met by extending your Regular Army enlistment 12 months.

Third—and best, you may enlist in the Regular Army for 3 or more years. There are many advantages to this course. Men of 17 to 34 who measure up to high Regular Army standards can enter on a professional career that has few equals in civilian life. Here are the important facts about these opportunities:

CHOICES OPEN TO 3-YEAR VOLUNTEERS

THE ARMY TECHNICAL SCHOOL PROGRAM permits any young man with a high school education, or the equivalent, between 17 and 34, who enlists for 3 years, to apply for and qualify for one of more than 60 splendid technical school courses taught by the Army, before he enlists. And he can be sure of attending that course after enlistment. If he wins promotion to a technical grade, he can earn the net equivalent of $4000 to $5000 a year in civilian pay.

OVERSEAS SERVICE IN JAPAN OR KOREA is open to any 3-year volunteer who selects it. Famous combat divisions now in the Far East are doing a magnificent job for democracy and world peace. Men who serve with them will have the advantages of travel and 20% increase for overseas pay.

CONTINUED EDUCATION is offered Army volunteers through the hundreds of high school and college courses provided by the U. S. Armed Forces Institute. Most colleges and universities grant credits for courses completed under this educational program.

OFFICER CANDIDATE SCHOOL, leading to a reserve commission in the Army, is open to high school graduates, 20½ to 28, who can qualify. Distinguished OCS graduates are commissioned in the Regular Army.

VETERANS have special choices open to them, depending on their experience and the Military Occupational Specialties they held previously. With the expanded training program, advancement opportunities will be excellent.

Man Killed in Daylight Ambush On Chicago Street

CHICAGO —(AP)— A single-shotgun blast killed Nathan Gumbin, 56, wealthy paper carton manufacturer, in a daylight ambush in a busy southside street Wednesday. Gumbin's son, Owen, 19, who was riding in his father's car to his home, was not hit by the shot. It was fired by one of two men in a car which pulled up alongside Gumbin's sedan as he slowed for a traffic light at Pershing Road and Wallace Street. FROM Atlantic to Pacific, it's simply terrific.

Not in a generation—maybe not in two—has any single improvement in automobiles caused the talk or met the instant approval that has greeted this new drive.

You see the reason in your first five minutes behind a Dynaflo® wheel.

You sense that this is not merely an improvement on old ways, but a whole new system of transferring power from your engine to the rear wheels.

For the first time, oil does everything—replaces the friction clutch, eliminates the usual forward gears, even actuates the mechanism by which you change from Driving range to emergency Low and Reverse.

You feel the result in new smoothness that's like riding a mighty tide of flowing oil.

You move from standstill to road speed in one smooth unbroken sweep of power, quick and effortless in getaway and instantly responsive at speed.

You stop by pressing the foot-brake—go again by feeding gas. Once you've set the selector lever, you need not touch it again in normal driving until you're ready to park or back up.

Outside engineers look at Dynaflo and say, "Now you've got something!"

You'll say so too—once you handle a Buick ROADMASTER with this new driving magic.

Try it, first chance you get—and we think you'll want to see your Buick dealer at once to get an order in—with or without a car to trade.

the symbol of our faith that we shall have peace and a contribution toward lasting peace." President Truman called the display of military planes "convincing evidence of our determination to remain strong in the cause of peace."

Dewey pointed out that the world's largest air terminal was the combined results of cooperation by the states of New York, New Jersey and New York City.

With the end of the President's speech, the mighty air show in which 1000 planes participated got underway.

Thirty F-60 Shooting Stars of the 4th Fighting Wing, regularly stationed at Camp Springs, Md., zoomed across the field with a deafening roar, marking the beginning of the "fly by."

Mr. Truman and Gov. Dewey kept their eyes skyward as the bombers and jets swept overhead in perfect formation.

Three B-36 six-engine bombers which flew non-stop from Fort Worth, Texas, dominated the skies afterwards as they passed the field in state majesty. Then a wave of jets and other aircraft passed in review on a clockwork schedule which gave the various units one-minute headway over the field.

NOT ACCUSTOMED

A cowboy boarded our air liner at Santa Fe on a day when gusty mountain winds made flying pretty rough. In spite of the hostess's numerous requests, he refused to fasten his seat belt.

"Young lady," he snorted, "for thirty years I've rode everything I ever mounted, and I ain't about to be saddle tied now. Let'er buck! I'll ride'er."

hance the importance or authenticity of alleged information by attributing it to sources close to the President."

White, who also lives in New York, could not be reached for immediate comment.

Miss Bentley named several other former government employees. She said there were two principal "groups" in the government: the Silvermaster group and the Perlo group. The latter, she said, was headed by Victor Perlo, formerly employed by the War Production Board, and included:

Allen Rosenberg of the Foreign Economic Administration, Donald Wheeler of the Office of Strategic Services, Edward Fitzgerald of the War Production Board, Harry Magidoff of the Commerce Department, and Charles Cramer, a former employee of a Senate education and labor subcommittee.

The witness testified that John Abt of the CIO-PAC was in charge of "the Perlo group" before she came in contact with it.

Miss Bentley concentrated Friday on her asserted dealings with Remington early in the war. It was only before the House group, however, that she began reciting off names of other government officials who served, she testified, as sources of information sought by the Kremlin.

Remington, who has been drawing $8,975 a year from the Commerce Department until placed on "indefinite leave" a month ago by Secretary Sawyer, has held several other positions with the government.

He started the Senate subcommittee yesterday by testifying that he was offered a post with the Atomic Energy Commission at the very time the FBI was investigating his associations with Miss Bentley.

While Remington has denied turning over wartime secrets to Miss Bentley for the Russians, he acknowledged that he was associated with Communist sympathizers while attending Columbia University, after graduating from Dartmouth.

He also testified that he believes his mother-in-law, Mrs. Elizabeth Moos of Croton-on-Hudson, N. Y., to be a Communist, and that through her he became acquainted with Miss Bentley.

Mrs. Moos, he said, was director of the Hessian Hill School at Croton-on-Hudson.

Certain Trends Still Apparent in Transportation

AUSTIN —(AP)— Certain trends in traffic, rates and costs still are apparent in transportation, but there have been no unusual developments during the last two months.

The railroads were unable to supply all the cars required recently to handle all of the grain crop of the Southwest, but considering the deluge of wheat, the space of time during which it was offered and the shortage of elevator space in many places, the carriers performed excellently in most cases and better than in some previous years.

The aforementioned trends, according to statistics issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission, are chiefly concerned with the steadily rising curves of cost and diminishing net revenues of the railroads. Despite the fact that total operating revenues of class I railroads for the 12 months ending with April 1948 were almost one billion dollars more than the comparable period a year ago, net income after the deduction of federal income taxes was almost exactly the same as the previous year.

If much higher wages and costs of supplies, materials, and equipment are considered, the carriers may be said to be losing ground financially. They are also now facing an unsettled operating union wage and rules dispute, which keeps them technically under Army control, and a third round of wage increase demands from other unions.

Inevitably, of course, such increases, if granted, will reflect in higher rates, passenger and freight, and that in turn will cause more business either to be diverted to other carriers or to diminish in movement.

Already such results are being experienced, until, in our judgment, the point of diminishing returns from wage and rate increase is close at hand if not actually passed, particularly in passenger traffic.

The much debated Bulwinkle Bill passed Congress over presidential veto. The measure was supported by most shippers' organizations and exempts from anti-trust laws conferences between carriers dealing with rates, classifications, fares, and allowances, providing such instrumentalities and decisions are approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission. This measure may take some of the semi-persecution tactics of the Department of Justice off the carriers and will not affect to any noticeable extent present rate-making practices.

Tom and Ora Rose Memorial Organ Will Be Dedicated at First Baptist Church

This is a big day in the life of the First Baptist Church of Pampa. Not only is it Homecoming Day for members and former members of the church, but it is also the day for the dedication of the Tom and Ora Rose Memorial Organ, an event which the pastor, the Rev. E. Douglas Carver, says the people have looked forward to for about six years.

The organ will be dedicated at services this evening at 8. An announcement on today's event says: "For many years the late Mr. Tom E. Rose, prominent business man in Pampa, planned a memorial for his wife, Mrs. Ora Rose. Realizing that the greatest tribute would be to the honor and glory of God, the inspiration of a memorial organ in the First Baptist Church was decided upon."

Since Mr. Rose's death, the original idea has been implemented by his children, Mrs. Virginia Turner, Rex Rose and Tom E. Rose, Jr. Plans for the instrument were placed in the hands of the Kilgen Organ Co., St. Louis, the same family it is said, having made such organs for seven generations.

The statement on the organ's manufacture said: "The ordering of an organ is not as simple an affair as it might appear to be."

Factory engineers must make a survey of the building, not only to provide a proper space for the organ, but must take into consideration the size of the auditorium, as well as its shape, contour and acoustics. Then must be considered the type of service, the size of the choir and other pertinent details.

More than 250 draftsmen, skilled in different branches of work, were involved during the months this particular organ was under construction. Many types of metal are used in the construction—pure silver for the electrical contacts; brass, copper aluminum and steel for various parts of the action; tin, lead and zinc for the pipes; thousands of electro-magnets; the finest of leathers; many kinds of wood, all hand-picked and specially treated.

The organ at the local church is a three-manual organ. There are three keyboards for the hands and one for the feet, called the pedal clavier—thus making four complete organs in one.

The program for this evening's services reads:

John Josey of Amarillo at the console of the Tom and Ora Rose Memorial Organ.

Organ: "Prelude C Sharp Minor," Rachmaninoff; "Morning Mood," Grieg; "Liebestraum," Liszt.

Hymn: By choir and congregation—Coronation Hymn, No. 1.

Prayer, Choir Number: "Oh God, Our Help in Ages Past," Croft.

Scripture, Offertory: "Grande Offertoire" (S. Clement), Filby.

Appreciation: Rev. E. Douglas Carver.

Organ: "Kamennoi Ostrów," Rubinstein; "Clair de Lune," Debussy; "The Bells of Aberdovey," Stewart.

Solo: R. Virgil Mott—"The Holy City," Adams.

Organ: First movement of "The Unfinished Symphony," Schubert; "Caprice-Viennois," Kreisler; "Valse Caprice," Bialistok medley of Negro spirituals, arranged; "The Lord's Prayer," Malotte.

Dedictory prayer: Dr. C. E. Lancaster, San Saba. Doxology, Benediction.

Suit Filed in Texas City Death

GALVESTON—(AP)—A LaPorte, Tex., father is seeking $18,000 damages from the operators of the Texas City Airport for the death of his 16-year-old son, who was killed in an air crash when the S.S. Grandcamp exploded in April, 1947.

The suit was filed in 10th District Court here.

The plaintiff, J. F. Brumley, alleges that the Texas City Airport solicited his son to buy a $2.50 ticket to fly in a plane over the burning vessel and that "when the plane was directly over the ship, the Grandcamp exploded, causing the plane to fold up and crash several hundred yards from the Monsanto plant."

The population of Liberia in Western Africa includes about 12,000 descendants of freed slaves from the United States.

New Operator Of Concessions To Be Chosen

The Soil Conservation Service will circulate invitations within the next few weeks to bid on the operation of the concession privileges at Lake McClellan.

This action is necessary and required under policy and procedure of the Department of Agriculture. All persons and firms who are interested in bidding on the operation of these facilities should write the Supervisor of Lake Projects, Postoffice Box 2298, Amarillo, giving their name and mailing address. Invitations will be mailed as soon as printed. Full instructions and additional information as to the facilities and services required will be furnished.

Bert A. Howell, who has been

Lake McClellan concessionaire for the past eight years, has informed the Soil Conservation District of his intention to terminate his concession agreement for the lake. Howell realizes the only way the public can best be served is by the concessionaire residing on the project devoting his full time. Consequently rather than to allow the public to suffer for his numerous business ventures, Howell has decided to terminate his concession agreement.

Grapefruit Growers Gathering Crops

McAlLEN—(AP)—Texas grapefruit growers are rushing the last carlots of their 1947-48 crop to market this week.

Under regulations of the federal fruit fly control project, all grapefruit must be off the trees by Saturday midnight.

Bees in Texas Have Bad Year

AUSTIN—(AP)—It was a bad year for Texas bees. The United States Department of Agriculture reported that 233,500 colonies on hand July 1 were 3 percent less than a year ago.

New spring colonies were less than half those of a year ago. Losses were attributed to queenlessness, poisoning, winter starvation and drought.

Condition of colonies on July 1 was 82 percent down 8 percent from a year ago.

Nectar plants on July 1 were at 72 percent of normal condition, down 13 percent from a year ago.

The late freeze in March and spring drought reduced the early flow of honey.

Ducks have an almost telescopic eyesight. They can focus their eyes for near or far vision.

WHAT PRICE DISCIPLINE—Noticed in the paper the other day where a psychiatrist blamed the old-fashioned form of discipline for the thwarted personalities of today . . . said you could bet that the sneaks, thieves, and shuffling impostors in today's society were the products of too-frequent "whuppings" behind the old wood shed. It sure makes present day parents wonder which way to turn next . . . with progressive education, the kids tear the house apart and the parents go nuts, and with the old-fashioned methods the parents stay sane and the kids go nuts . . . quiet sane? . . . all of which brings to mind a story that Papa used to tell. It seems that Papa's father was an undertaker (they call 'em morticians now) and a hardware merchant . . . (brother of nothing whatever, it is not unusual to find a combination undertaking parlor-furniture store in most Midwest small towns, at it is uncommon to find an undertaker in the hardware business). Anyhow, the funeral parlors occupied the basement and the hardware store and living quarters were on the first floor . . . Papa had reached an age where staying out after ten at night was a thrill . . . now, Grandpa was not an indulgent parent and disapproved highly of his son's conduct, so he laid down the dictum that the doors would be closed at 10 p. m. nightly, and "if you want to sleep under your own roof, you'd better be in by that time." Contrary to what older folks might think, human nature hasn't changed, and Papa, like any youngster today, took the remark with a large grain of salt. But, sure enough, when he returned to find the doors were locked fast, Papa wasn't to be outfoxed, so he dashed to enter through the basement . . . this took courage and no looking back. He crawled through the window, and held his breath while his eyes became accustomed to the gloom . . . he stealthily edged his way toward the stairs . . . the coffins, standing row on row, seemed to keep pace with his faltering footsteps . . . his straining eyes discerned a body rising slowly, slowly, slightly, by from one of the caskets. Papa was not a nightmarish effort to urge his legs to faster speed, the body spoke: "Young man, as you pass yon window, will you close it? There's a draft in here." Papa said he lost all consciousness until he reached his room and was huddled under the covers vibrating with fear. Then he thought he heard the door to his father's room open quietly, and the springs groan slightly as his father lowered himself into bed . . . there may have been a soft chuckle. Anyhow, for Papa there were no more evenings out after curfew, and this was definitely of his own choosing.

PAMPA PANORAMA—In honor of Doris Shackelford, Joe Lacombe's bride-to-be, the Texas Company employes held a watermelon party Friday . . . saw Libby and Sturgeon Roland are back to stay in Pampa, and we say welcome, we're glad you're back . . . the proudest person in town—Dr. Ashby—over losing 20 pounds . . . May I please have the formula? . . . envy the George Scotts, touring Colorado these days . . . one of the nicest persons—Mrs. Bus Baldridge . . . OVERHEARD Bill Fraser telling that when Clyde Katherese sold to Tom Perkins, it made him the oldest man in business in Pampa.

IMPERSONATION—when Pampa boosters tried to pull a fast one on Jimmy McCune this week by introducing him as Monte Hale (Western movie star to be here Rodeo Week) the joke boomeranged when Jimmy walked up to the mike, tipped his wide hat, and said: "Howdy, folks, and loved away . . . striking similarity—father and daughter Harry and Virginia Kelley—even to the Irish wit . . . glad to hear Betty Juillard's at home now recuperating from a recent operation and doing nicely . . . "Blackie," pet dog and constant companion, now has a new rick . . . the Ted Eds are the proud parents of an heir . . . surprise for the Pampa boosters to find the smiles of Mrs. Red Wedgworth and Mrs. Fred Thompson waiting in Amarillo to greet them . . . rumor has it that Cliff Braly has purchased a new house on Christine . . . out swimming recently were two cute Carols—Carol Hughes and Carol Miller—being properly chaperoned by Louise Dunn . . . Pampa horse show enthusiasts went over to Amarillo this weekend—getting in the mood for our own show, I guess . . . H. L. Ledrick told Rotary this week about E. A. Norris' nine-year stay in Pampa—"He must be a good man," H. L. said, "to be able to think up something good about every one that dies." . . . saw Frank Vineyard introducing his son, Howard, around town . . . Howard will work with Papa in the Sunshine Dairy . . . golly, if they could bottle that personality they'd sell it out in no time . . . the Raymond Harrahs, with Raymond, Jr., are celebrating their silver wedding anniversary in Colorado Springs today.

FIESTA TIME—Been in the back of the closet all week digging out faded shirts over-sized blouses and red bandanas trying to rig up an outfit for next week . . . with all those flags up, and the stores loaded with Western regalia, I'm ready to unlimber Ol' Paint and get in trim . . . already I've noticed several in Western garb, and they look simply wonderful . . . was telling Jane and Jack Benton the same, and Jane informed me that theirs is no costume . . . they're one of the few that was such rigging every day . . . I'd do it too, if I looked as cute as Jane . . . speaking of festive costumes, I was down on the street Tuesday when the boosters came in . . . the square dance team has gray skirts and skirts to match, and it seems that each girl made her partner's skirt . . . that's pretty good sewin' . . . now, if I can only get my feet in last year's boots.

POESY—
Love is like an onion
You taste it with delight,
And when it's gone, you wonder
Whatever made you bite.

FAITH, HOPE, CHARITY—A kiss is a peculiar proposition. Of no use to one, yet absolute bliss to two. The small boy gets it for nothing, the young man has to lie for it, and the old man has to buy it; the baby's right; the lover's privilege; and the hypocrite's mask. To a young girl, faith; to a married woman, hope; and to an old maid, charity.
Charitably, hopefully, and faithfully yours,

Let's Plan a Bedroom Around You, Suggests Furniture Style Consultant, Mary Adam

Why the bedroom should be the most neglected room in the house has been a mystery for years. Other rooms have, in far too many homes, received all the attention—the living room, inviting and comfortable; the dining room glowing with hospitality; even the kitchen, spotlessly modern. But the bedroom—most intimate room in the house—has all too often been neglected, a catch-all for cast-off furnishings from other rooms in the house; a room so lacking in cheer and comfort that subconsciously we stay out of it except during those hours actually required for sleep.

And yet, according to Mary Adam, well-known style consultant, there is no fundamental reason for this neglect. Your bedroom, says Miss Adam, is the most intimate room in your house. A room in which the cares of the day are laid aside, a room where confidences are exchanged and quarrels washed away, a haven of solitude where you want to be alone. Such a room, says Miss Adam, should be planned around your own personality. Your bedroom is your background and should reflect your own activities, your particular enthusiasms and good taste.

The practical way to plan your bedroom is to start with your floor plan. Decide upon the number of pieces you can place in your room most conveniently. A crowded room never gives the feeling of serenity and leisure which a bedroom should have. Consider your activities. Do you like to read and study? To sew? Or just relax and dream? Do you have the space necessary for that prized desk, the antique sewing table, the chaise longue? What can you do with a tiny room? The right floor plan will guide you in solving your particular problem.

In starting your decorating scheme, it is well to consider your exposure to sunlight. Does the sun stream in your windows in the morning, or glow softly in the late afternoon? Do you like bright cheerful colors or more subdued cool ones? Some start

Mrs. Leon Meason Is the Former Patsy Ruth Wright

Miss Patsy Ruth Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton C. Wright, Phillips Camp, was married on July 18 to Leon Meason, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Burgess, also of Phillips Camp. The wedding took place in Lefors at the residence of the Rev. Dan Beltz, who performed the single-ring ceremony. The attendants were the parents of the bride and the bridegroom. The bride wore a street-length dress of gray with red accessories and her corsage was of red carnations. The young couple will be at home at Phillips Camp, Pampa, where he is employed with Phillips Petroleum Company. The bride attended school in Pampa and was a member of the Glee Club and School Band. The bridegroom is a graduate of Pampa High School.

★ WE, THE WOMEN
BY RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

Mrs. Thomas E. Dewey has let it be known that she will travel with her husband during his campaign. But she won't do any speech-making or answer any political questions. She is going to leave the job of going after the highest position in the country up to her husband, giving him only the quiet support of her presence.

That kind of choice doesn't come only to women married to men in public life. It comes to every wife. Every wife has to decide whether she is going to be a silent or an active partner in her husband's affairs.

Is she going to get behind her man and push—or is she going to stand quietly at his side?

It is one of those questions to which there is no right answer. It all depends on the individual woman and on her particular man.

HOW TO GET ANSWER
In order to get her answer, a woman has to know herself and her husband.

She has to know what kind of support he needs most.

If she understands both herself and him, she'll make no mistake.

STETTIN MAKES A COMEBACK PACK CLOTHES DRY
SZCZECIN, Poland —(AP)— This Oder river port which under the Germans was called Stettin is doing a rapidly increasing business. Cargo loadings in the first five months of 1948 totaled 1,000,000 tons. That compares with 728,000 tons loaded during all of 1947.

Clothes will come out of a suitcase with fewer wrinkles if they are entirely dry when packed. If even slightly damp from a last-minute pressing job or laundering, logs will create badly when folded away in luggage.

Parent Education Club Announces 1948-49 Theme

The Parent Education Club which, like most of the women's clubs of Pampa, is inactive this summer has announced its plan for next club year. The theme of study will be "The Challenge of Parenthood."

This is the only federated child-study club in Pampa. It was organized in January, 1940, under sponsorship of the American Association of University Women. The club is affiliated with the Pampa Council of Clubs and the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, Seventh District.

When a young mother was asked what she liked best about the club, she answered, "I like the club because we all have so much in common. You can talk as much as you like about your child, and no one else seems to mind." The subject of the club's study last year was "Better Homes for Better Children."

Some of the subjects studied in past years have pertained to problems of adolescence, the importance of a balanced diet for families, scouting, nursery school and preparing the child for public school, clothes, fine arts for children, holiday preparations, books, home-making, health, and a program on federation and one on Texas. These are just a few of the problems of family life the club has endeavored to study in the past.

Each season guest speakers have been invited to the club and a program on religion has been featured every year.

Twenty active members and three inactive members belong to the club. Members who served as officers last season are: president Mrs. Ed Weiss, Jr., vice president, Mrs. E. E. Shelhamer; secretary, Mrs. Gene Fatheree; treasurer, Mrs. E. L. Biggerstaff; parliamentarian, Mrs. Joe Key; reporter, Mrs. Steve Matthews; Council of Clubs delegate, Mrs. Charles Cook.

Incoming officers for the year 1948-49 are president, Mrs. N. Dudley Steele; vice president, Mrs. Leib Langston; secretary, Mrs. Steve Matthews; treasurer, Mrs. John Hines; reporter, Mrs. Albert Reynolds; parliamentarian, Mrs. E. Weiss, Jr.; delegate to the Council of Clubs, Mrs. Joe Tooley. The club activities for 1948-49 will open with a breakfast September 21.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority
Written for NEA Service
Tournament players throughout the country were deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Evelyn Lebar, wife of Bertram Lebar, Jr., of New Rochelle, N. Y. Lebar is director of sales at Station WHN in New York, and is known to New York sport fans as Bert Lee, WHN's sports announcer. For several years he served the League as treasurer. He is one of the League's Life Masters.

Taking care of the Lebar family of five children did not leave Evelyn much time to play tournament bridge, but when she did play, she usually came in with a good score. I recall playing with her in a mixed pair event, and she got all of the tricks possible out of the hand shown today.

She won the opening lead of the four of spades with the ace when East put up the king. Next she cashed the ace of clubs and led the three-spot, winning in dummy with the queen. She led the deuce of diamonds from dummy and when East played low, Mrs. Lebar won with the diamond queen. Then she led the jack of clubs and overtook it with the king. She wanted to create an extra entry into dummy.

The five of diamonds was led. East went up with the ace, declarer played the eight-spot, saving the four for an entry into dummy. East came back with the six of spades and Mrs. Lebar played the jack. West, having no entries, thought for a moment and then played low, hoping that his partner could get in and lead another spade.

Now Mrs. Lebar cashed the king of diamonds and led the four spot over to dummy. This made it possible for her to take the heart finesse. She was sure that West did not have the king of hearts. When her jack of hearts held, she had the club for an entry to dummy to take another heart finesse, making six-odd and a top score on the hand.

Summer Formula For Hair Glamor

By BETTY CLARKE
AP Newfeatures Beauty Editor

Blessed is the summer which is so kind to girls who seek charm. The formula for beauty is free for the taking during the warmer months. Air, sunshine, cleanliness and exercise are right at your doorstep.

Get your outdoor complexion by carefully acquiring a healthful suntan without a painful burn. Keep your figure lithe and lovely by swimming, hiking, golfing, tennis, bicycling and other exercise.

Make your hair shine. Wash it every day if you like, set it in pincurls, dry it in a jiffy under the sun or sunlamp. Since hair is said to grow faster in summer than any other time, it will need more special care.

Brush it before you wash it. If you have a backyard, do your brushing outdoors and let the hair fly. A good method is to sit on the end of a chair and bend from the waist, then brush hair up and away from the scalp.

Two brushes can do a very efficient job. Use a pocket bristle comb brush for thoroughly cleansing your scalp. Roll the bristle comb through the hair, twist and describe a half circle with each brushing stroke to remove dust and dandruff.

A professional style hairbrush with widely spaced bristles will reach down to the scalp and cover a good-sized section of it with each stroke. Use it after your bristle comb.

During the summer your hair will need more frequent washings. You'll have to judge whether you can take it several times a week or twice a month. It all depends on how dusty, oily or how dry it is.

If you are blonde, don't hesitate to dry your hair in the sun.

shine. But if you are brunette and want to avoid sun bleach, don't make a habit of drying it in the sun.

You can learn how to set your hair in pincurls by watching your hairdresser next time you pay a visit to the beauty salon. Notice particularly whether she makes the pincurls in rings or sixes or both. The direction of the wave determines which way your wave will go, so setting the pincurl in the right direction will make a smoother coiffure.

-H Clubbers Open Camp

The annual District One 4-H club camp will be held at Lake McClellan tomorrow through Wednesday, Ralph Thomas, Gray County agent, said yesterday.

Campers will include boys from Panhandle counties, Thomas said. Twenty Gray County boys attend.

Thomas has been appointed chairman of the General Committee as well as Purchasing Committee chairman. Vic Joyner, assistant Gray County agent and director of the county 4-H Clubs, has been appointed to head the shooting.

District One has held annual camp at Lake McClellan's Scout camp for the past seven years. Annual 4-H camping began in Hutchinson County in 1938. The following two years the camp was held at Lake Marvin and at Lake McClellan since.

In charge of the camp will be Knox Parr, district agent, and J. W. Potts, state club boys agent.

Chairmen will include W. K. Frey, Wheeler County agent, Sub-committee; Hugh Clearman, Hereford County agent, First Aid and Safety Committee; Ralph Jones, assistant Wheeler County agent, Grounds Committee; Ernest Goule, of Stratford, Finance Committee; Martin Gossett, Lipscomb County agent, Swimming Committee, and H. E. Shahan of Canyon, Recreation Committee.

While attending the camp the 4-H Club boys always work on some phase of 4-H Club work. This year they will hold a rifle match.

Boom-Day Sheriff Dies in Arkansas

B. Allen Hancock, 76, veteran South Arkansas peace officer and boom-time sheriff of Union County, died in a fire that ravaged his home in El Dorado, Ark., last week, relatives here learned.

Mrs. Hancock, clad only in her night clothes, was able to escape through a window. They were alone in the house at the time.

Firemen found the body of the former sheriff on the floor of his bedroom and believed he may have suffered a heart attack or was overcome by smoke in attempting to escape the flames.

Born at Marysville in 1872, Hancock, uncle of Mrs. John Evans, 228 N. Nelson, spent his entire life in Union County. He spent more than 40 years as El Dorado city marshal, Union County sheriff and deputy during the most lurid period in Union County history.

He was serving as sheriff in 1921 when oil was discovered in El Dorado and the city and county were overrun with boom followers, vagrants, slick promoters, and seasoned criminals, the El Dorado Times reported.

When his term as sheriff expired in 1924, he became a teaming contractor. Then he returned as deputy sheriff and served from 1929 until 1946, when he retired.

Funeral services were held in El Dorado last Sunday.

Paris Slates Cotton Day

PARIS, Tex. —(AP)— In honor of its biggest single money crop, Lamar County will have a Cotton Day this year in Paris.

The county grower who delivers the first bale from the current crop in front of the Paris Chamber of Commerce office will receive a substantial premium from contributors, plus a championship cotton belt from The Paris News.

Cotton Day, with merchants cooperating, will be on the second day following receipt of the first bale. The bale will be auctioned off on the plaza.

The event is planned as an annual celebration, with the championship belt to be passed on to the first bale winner each year.

A. G. (Pat) Mayo, Paris News publisher, winner of the 1947 save the soil and save Texas plague for outstanding non-farmer, and chairman of the agricultural division of The Paris and Lamar County Chamber of Commerce, suggested the championship belt with The Paris News as sponsor.

Lamar County produced more than 40,000 bales of cotton last year, valued at around $5,000,000. Production this year is estimated at 60,000 bales, and the first bale is expected by Aug. 10. First bale last year was Aug. 14.

Let's All Take Part in Big Show
This week is one of the most important weeks of the year in the life of Pampa. It is the week for which weeks of time is spent preparing for many hundreds of visitors—both sightseers and contestants—that converge at the Top of Texas from Colorado, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and the far reaches of Texas itself.

The Top of Texas Rodeo and Horse Show Association has grown from a small event into a big undertaking, and it has grown from an event preparation for which could be handled by a few men into an event requiring the efforts of the city and much of the county.

The enthusiasm has been better this year; the largest order of decorations has already been sold; more people took part in the booster trips; and a wider range of contestants has already been indicated. These are some of the signposts pointing to the success of the Top of Texas extravaganza.

Aside from a few problems like taking care of the visitors in private homes, the plans for the five-day event are being worked out as fast as possible. These have taken a lot of work, by a lot of people.

About the housing accommodations. The association officials say that, due to the growth of Pampa, this year's need for accommodations is about as bad as it has ever been. They have been in former years, therefore, an effort is being made to get rooms located in private homes, so that the visitors won't have to drive to other towns to stay overnight.

This job is being handled by the Business and Professional Women, and anyone who has a room to rent for the night has been asked to call Florence Morrison, telephone 772, or the Chamber of Commerce, telephone 285. This would be your way of taking a part in the event.

Officials are watching with interest this year's effort to revive the Old Timers portion of such festivities. The idea has not been tried since the day of the old Top of Texas Festival, which went with the war. Old timers are urged to take part this year, the first year of revival of the Old Timers events.

Tomorrow morning, think Western; wear your clothes Western; let's make it the best show the Top of Texas has ever had. When the curtain is rung down on this year's acts, we can all be proud to point with pride at the event and say "That's ours" and really be proud.

SOCIALIZED MEDICINE by Upton Close

WASHINGTON — One of Harry Truman's demands of the special session Congress is a federal medicine bill.
It is easy to brush off this demand with the statement that it is just one more of Mr. Truman's numerous bids for the radical minority vote.

1. That the medicine is not free, every man and woman who works would pay. The working people are to foot the bill.
2. The deductions from their pay checks, both direct and indirect, would be higher than the cost of good voluntary insurance in America today. Hundreds of

Fair Enough.... by Westbrook Pegler

NEW YORK — As Henry Wallace continues on his lucrative way passing the hat and raising enormous sums for a program largely consistent with the political purposes of the Communist treasury, the collection for the so-called Murerly fund stands at about $5,000. That is enough and, for the second time, I am trying to turn it off and close the account. This collection was started by an essay depicting the condition of James and Katherine Murerly who live in a little fourth-floor walkup in an apartment at 316 East 19th Street, New York. They are, to the luckless, poor American common man and his wife for whom Wallace has waived his journalistic concern up and down the country. The Murerlys and all their like are, in fact, old Ebbie's head's principal means of political support and it was ironic that the Murerlys proved to be victims of the shakeout whereby the great 26-story lamasery of the Eberich cull on Riverside Drive was re-located to the private ownership of Wallace's rich friend, Louis L. Hurch.

In a mess of those mysterious court proceedings which were known by the euphemistic name of "reorganization" or "refinancing" Hurch got possession of the big building which is now one of the most profitable apartment houses on the Drive. Originally, Hurch and the members of the court had publicly proclaimed that it was their gift to the people of the United States. However, this appears to have been one of those publicity stunts whereby a few people get credit for a fine act of public generosity, but first makes sure that he can't be taken up. At the time of the "reorganization" you couldn't find tenants for the over-financed apartment houses in New York. Now the houses, in a gold mine and the suckers are out.

A few weeks ago, following receipt of a letter from Mrs. Murerly describing the condition of her invalid husband, a tubercular veteran of the First World War, and their hand-to-mouth financial condition, I reported what also included a $1,000 bond for the Eberich museum. Although I called on them personally, I may have been guilty of careless reporting, for I identified them as James and Katherine Murerly. The reasons are that Mrs. Murerly thought her maiden name was in October, 1928, and, in depicting herself to me as a creditor of a typical bond promotion of those days, she used the name that appeared in the deal on the books. They were married on August 2, 1929. During the long absence of Mr. Murerly, she continued on the payroll of the Consolidated Edison Company, where she worked as a scrubwoman, as Katherine Murerly. She is now retired on a small Consolidated pension in her name, which also appears on her letterbox along with "Murerly." The pension is not enough for a living, even added to Mr. Murerly's $60 a month from the Veterans Administration. Therefore Mrs. Murerly has continued work as a hotel chambermaid.

They are members of the parish of St. Boniface at Second Avenue and 47th Street and the Rev. Joseph Urbanowski, an assistant pastor, has so certified.
How many other Jim and Katherine Murerlys are shaken loose in some of the monkish laundery bond job I do not know. Mrs. Murerly's bond is a beautiful banknote job, but in the fine print you discover that she bought a $1,000 interest in an issue of $150,000 "secured by a second and subordinate lien" trailing behind U. S. railroad bonds at $1.25 on the dollar. There is also an "unconditional guarantee" of principal and interest signed by Hurch. By reading the long and complex legal record you might discover why this did not protect the common man. One reason would be the Den lawyers. For no frivolous reason did they make this record so long and complex.

In September, 1932, Mrs. Murerly, having heard rumors, got on a bus and rode up to the Eberich museum to see her invalid husband. The big shots of culture were throwing a reception for the common man and Louis Hurch was trying to get them to trust and love him. Mrs. Murerly thought the place was real pretty and someone told her there were six million of them in the monkish cells. She saw old Nick Roerich, the guru who had Biblehanded Wallace flapping around in space, but, of course, she did not presume to speak to him. Actually, hell was popping among the directors and bondholders, but a poor Irish scrubwoman, working nights to support a consumptive husband, couldn't be expected to know that a first mortgage of $1,925,000 stood ahead of her $1,000 bond. Hurch knew it, but she didn't.

The response of the readers of this column began slowly over the Fourth of July holiday. In a few days, however, Miss Maud Towart, who handles the mail, was snowed under. Each check bill and letter had to be listed, at least, and she had some little else to do. We can't answer or even acknowledge them all.

Some of the letters were slightly political and contemptuous of Wallace's attitude toward the common man. Many were religious, covering donations in memory of dear departed. There was a $10 check from James K. McGuinness, of Hollywood, a New York Irisher who fought with the 77th Division in France and may like to know that James Murerly was in the same outfit. The largest single gift was a check for $1,000 from a man, a Jew, if that is pertinent, whose condition was that his name should not be published.

"Christianity and Planned Economy"
Since this column has had so much to say concerning people who profess to be Christians and profess to be the leaders of Christianity advocating zoning and planning, public education, minimum wages, and one thing and another to be done by the state, I want to quote some timely comments on the subject "Christianity and Planned Economy" published by Human Events and written by Frank Chodorov who is editor of Analysis magazine. Complete copies of this article "Christianity and Planned Economy" can be obtained from Human Events, 1323 M Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. Single copies 15 cents or eight copies for $1.00. I quote from this article:

"There must be a quality in Christianity which the non-Christian, untaught in esoteric interpretations of the Gospel, cannot grasp. Or so it seems to me, when I measure the preachments of many of its current professors with what I have always considered the yardstick of Christianity—the life and teaching of Jesus Christ. But, then, I know nothing of Christianity except what I have learned from the Gospels. So it may be that the present exegesis will state truths over-simplification."

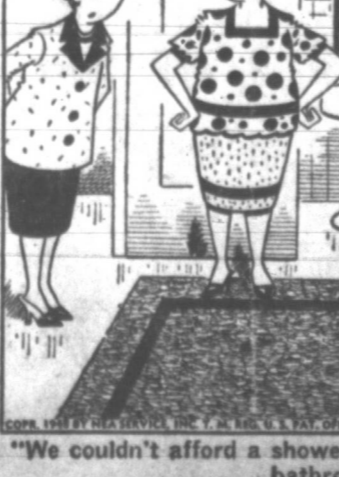

"I refer to the enthusiasm of a considerable segment of the ministry for the doctrine of human improvement by means of political formulae, more particularly those which are being advanced by the pulpits come utterances that seem to identify the brotherhood of man with the police-state, the Kingdom of Heaven with the Levitical of Hobbes.

VIEWPOINT — Like Treasury Secretary John W. Snyder, the Federal Reserve chairman has a more faith in "voluntary" restraint on the part of the individual than he has in the kind of compulsion and regimentation required by the men in the White House. Incidentally, neither of these financial and fiscal authorities were consulted by the President about calling a special session or about the remedies to be proposed.

NON-POLITICAL — Mr. McCabe expressed these anti-White House views in an exclusive interview with Harkey Reiter, an old Delaware County neighbor and correspondent for the Chester (Pa.) Times and a score of other newspapers in the Keystone State.

"Charity is, and can only be, a personal matter—as to give and receive. It is not charity when the recipient lays claim to aid by law and an application blank, and the giver is a reluctant and impersonal 'public.' The State cannot be charitable for it has nothing to give except that which it has taken from producers by compulsion. That is to say, the State gives taxes. And taxation is referred to in the Gospels as 'tribute,' while the tax-collector is designated as a person of low degree.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG news behind the news

WASHINGTON — President Truman's special session program for combating high prices and extending additional federal financial aid for housing, education and other social programs, is being met by the man he personally picked to handle these problems—Thomas B. McCabe, the Pennsylvania Republican who heads the Federal Reserve Board.

VIEWPOINT — Like Treasury Secretary John W. Snyder, the Federal Reserve chairman has a more faith in "voluntary" restraint on the part of the individual than he has in the kind of compulsion and regimentation required by the men in the White House. Incidentally, neither of these financial and fiscal authorities were consulted by the President about calling a special session or about the remedies to be proposed.

WARNING — The nation's fiscal and banking boss then issued the same warning which he and Secretary Snyder were making to bankers with respect to excessive grants of commercial and real estate loans—a warning which has begun to have its effect in the tightening of money advances and interest rates.

ECONOMY — Mr. McCabe clashed directly with the Truman program for new spending by the federal government. He said: "What I have said about the wage earner and farmer is true also of those in business. No capital expenditure that can be deferred should be incurred at this time unless such expenditure breaks a bottleneck in essential production."

WADE'S MADE UP HIS MIND

After two weeks of hard and deliberate thinking ole Wade has finally made up his mind on the Presidential Election - He has decided to write in a very noble character on the ballot this year—After due consideration to all of the candidates that are seeking Harry's job he has come to the conclusion that John Hudson will make the best man for the job—Here is the reason—The first day that Wade fished at Creed this ole boy took him out on the Rio Grande and showed him where to fish and Wade caught his limit including a 2 1/2 pound Rainbow—So Wade says that anyone that can show a feller where the big Rainbows hang out ought to be the President of the United States. We want everyone to understand that this is just Wade's opinion because all of us that work with him know that there is just one thing that Wade had rather do than fish and that is to sell Real Estate - - -

And Speaking of Real Estate

we have some good buys that we are going to list for you right now - - -
Good two bedroom home with hardwood floors with $4000 loan on it now, payments $35.65 $5900

6 room and bath with hardwood floors throughout, basement $9500

Ole Wade should be home by Monday so anyone that doesn't agree with his selection in the forthcoming elections can come by and argue with him - - -

Here is a Special Buy that We Just Got in

- - - 8 rooms with hardwood floors throughout, two baths, double garage, 100x140 lot, and the old boy will take a car or a house, or some lots or most anything in on the down payment. He is a good trader, so some of you people that are looking for a good big house had better call us.
