Headquarters Of Kennedy Campaign Very Businesslike

The Lighter Side By DICK WEST United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Dial National 8-8206 in Washington and your ear will be caressed by a dulcet female voice purring "Kennedy for president."

"This is the way the switchboard operator answers incoming calls at the national campaign headquarters of Sen. John F. Kennedy. It sounds more like an invitation than a greeting.

At any rate, the telephone con-

High Water Threat In Deep South

By United Press International

Floodwaters rolled across parts of Dixie today and the Weather Bureau said another round of thunderstorms could make matters worse.

Rivers from Alabama to the Carolinas, swollen by a week of heavy rains, broke from their banks Tuesday and swept across thousands of acres of bottomland. No towns were affected, but officials at Columbia, S.C., said the Congaree River there rose to the top of its banks.

In the lowlands below Columbia, the Congaree flood was described as the worst in years. In addition, the Cape Fear and Neuse rivers went out in Eastern North Carolina and the Wateree flooded near Camden, S.C.

Swamp flooding was reported on the Santee in South Carolina and the Tombigbee, Warrior and Chattahoochee rivers were on the rise in the Tennessee Valley, eastern Mississippi, north Alabama and Georgia.

More thunderstorms were forecast for the Southeast today.

The Weather Bureau said a heavy snow storm predicted for Kansas and Nebraska failed to materialize.

The storm swept across the Rockies from New Mexico to northwest Wyoming Tuesday and dumped 10 inches of snow at Durango, Colo., but petered out just as the weathermen warned plains states residents to brace for four inches or more.

Instead, the storm was expected to drop light snow on Kansas, the Oklahoma panhandle and northwestern New Mexico.

Snow mixed with freezing drizzles was forecast for the Dakotas with rain from Iowa across Illinois and the Tennessee Valley into the Appalachians.

A dense dust storm near El Paso, Tex., caused three deaths Tuesday when three cars and a truck loaded with sulphuric acid washed in the blinding dust. Two other persons were injured.

Social Security Information

By DAN JOLLIE, Field Representative, Amarillo Social Security Office

Q: When do you start figuring the $1200.00 yearly earnings? I didn't start getting benefits (111) September, 1959.

A: The annual earnings test is applied as of the first day of the year in every case.

Q: My son reached age 18 in March. After the date he went to work and made over $2,000.00. Since I received social security benefits on his behalf do I have to file an annual report on his behalf?

A: Yes, because the earnings for the total year were over $1200.00.

Q: Although I made over $1200.00 in 1959 I worked only a few months do I have to file an annual report?

A: Yes, because you may be entitled to checks for some of those months that you did not work.

Q: Are all household workers covered by social security?

A: Household workers are covered by social security only if they are paid cash wages of $50.00 or more in a calendar quarter by the same employer.

Q: How can I be sure my earnings have been properly credited to my social security account?

A: Contact your Amarillo Social Security District Office and tell them you want to check your earnings record. You will be furnished a special postcard with which you can request a statement of earnings. If you believe that there are any errors, take the statement and your records to your social security office.

Q: Do I have to file an annual report for last year even though I was 72 in May.

A: Yes, you do. — If your total earnings for the year were over $1200.00.

SECRET SERVICE—A hand is all this customer sees of the sleight of hand from whom he is buying a book in a shop at Dacca, East Pakistan. Except for the small opening, the lady proprietor is completely screened. The picture shows a curious compromise between the modern idea of feminine equality in business and the ancient tradition of "purdah," in which women must conceal themselves from men.

Wall Street In Review

NEW YORK (UPI) — Has the bull market ended? Hayden Stone & Co. thinks not. "Apparently," it points out, "there are quite a few who believe so and there is more caution and real pessimism now than there has been for some time."

At present there are no real signs of a big decline in business, the firm adds, "and the only thing that is very worrisome is that a declining stock market more often than not influences future business and consumer decisions adversely and brings on a recession."

The firm says a lot depends on how soon and in what area the market is able to reform a new base of support and especially how it performs on any rally from its recently oversold position.

Inside Wall Street, publication of Investor's Union Inc., notes that Deere & Co. is available at six times earnings, and that Dynex, an exciting though extremely risky issue, is in midst of mergers that could conceivably double its earning power.

Lucien O. Hooper of W. E. Hutton & Co. says "we have not had a clear cut selling climax with high volume, a late tape, and a heavy preponderance of declines over advances, and perhaps we won't have one right now."

Good Guys Act Like Bad Guys

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — An off-camera range war has sprung up between a pair of horse operas that makes an oldtime Indian raid look like a tea party.

Taking pot shots at one another are "Wagon Train's" Ward Bond and Bob Horton on one side of the firing line, and crusty William Bendix standing them off as best he can.

There differences have blazed into a full-scale feud.

Horton and Bond fired the first shots, publicly upbraiding Bendix for starting a "new series" titled "Overland Trail." Both stars accused old Bill of stealing their stuff, copying their show, imitating their format, and wearing the same kind of costumes.

The only thing they haven't accused him of being is a horse thief.

"How can they say I'm copying them?" Bendix demanded.

Both of those bums have been attacking me unmercifully and unfairly. What are they worried about? Every Western is a copy of every other Western. There hasn't been anything new in a Western since Bronco Billy Anderson.

"I don't know this Horton kid, and I don't want to. But I sure am surprised at Ward Bond. He's knocking my show before it ever gets on the air. I remember his bit-playing days."

In all fairness, there are similarities between the shows.

Both are hour-long Western series. Both are produced by Revue Productions. Both are filmed on the Universal-International lot. Both are stories of cross-country treks to the Pacific.

"My series is about a stage coach line," Bendix said defensively. "But they seem to think anything that looks like a wagon train belongs to them."

Two Killed When Struck By Train

TEMPLE, Tex. (UPI) — A freight train crushed a car at a crossing near the Missouri-Kansas-Texas railroad depot Monday, killing two Belton men.

They were Clarence Lee Fuller, driver of the car, and R. E. Quinn, 66.

Fuller, a retired Santa Fe employe, lived about five minutes after he reached a hospital. Quinn was killed instantly. He was thrown from the car by the impact.

Wreckage of the car was carried 150 feet down the track.

WRITES OFF TRIP

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower said Tuesday she was sorry she couldn't go with the President on his South American tour later this month. But she said such trips are "awfully strenuous."

Fire Sweeps Town

ROYSE CITY, Tex. (UPI) — A raging fire swept through this small Texas town early today, destroying or heavily damaging five business buildings.

One volunteer fireman, a Baptist preacher named the Rev. Carroll Cole, broke his ankle helping fight the flames.

Sheriff W. J. Price of Rockwall County said the flames gutted a tailor shop, a cafe, one of the plants owned by the Davis Manufacturing Co., and the Cookston Hotel.

Pitfalls Of Teenage Marriages Discussed

NEW YORK — Forty-seven per cent of all first brides in the United States today are under eighteen.

Twenty-six per cent are under eighteen.

Yet according to the Census Bureau, teen-age marriages are three times more liable to end in divorce than marriages involving brides in their twenties.

Then why do high school students continue to rush into quick marriages, regardless of the risks involved?

Primarily to seek escape from their parents, satisfaction of physical desire, security, or a sense of belonging to the crowd, reveals the February issue of Seventeen Magazine in a report entitled, "What Love is Not."

To probe the modern phenomenon of the rapidly rising teen marriage merry-go-round, Seventeen consulted prominent authorities in the fields of marriage and guidance counseling.

According to Dr. Rebecca Liswood, Executive Director of the Marriage Counseling Service of Greater New York, the immaturity of teen-agers underlies their inability to cope with the demands of marriage.

"Marriage is for grownups," says Dr. Liswood. "Teen-agers literally have not lived long enough to develop the basic maturity that marriage demands. And this goes for love, too." Dr. Liswood cites as an example the number of couples in their thirties who come to see her saying, "We got married when we were much too young, and now we're outgrown each other."

Dr. Liswood also encourages the "convenient" outlet for their needs. Dr. Esther Lloyd Jones, head of the Department of Guidance and Personnel Administration at Teachers College, Columbia University, believes that today there exists "an easy acceptance of next steps without necessarily weighing them in terms of foresight, caution, a long view of life. This permits and encourages young people to take the line of least resistance."

Still another explanation for the rapid rise in the number of teen-age marriages comes from Dr. Nathan Ackerman, director of research for the Psychiatric Clinic of the Jewish Family Service in New York.

"Baptist Work in Cuba" was the mission study taught. On the program were Mmes. Johnny Taylor, R. L. Chance, Joe McCartney, Everett Fitch, H. L. Harrington, O. C. Mills and L. M. Berry. Prayer calendar was read by Mrs. Ira Rogers. Mrs. B. J. Spradlin led the opening prayer.

Present other than those mentioned were Mmes. J. D. Halley, Clara Blythe, Robert McGill, Bill Ripplow, N. Coyert, Roy Howard, C. H. Buttram, A. L. Michael, and J. F. Morris.

Present other than those mentioned were Mmes. J. D. Halley, Clara Blythe, Robert McGill, Bill Ripplow, N. Coyert, Roy Howard, C. H. Buttram, A. L. Michael, and J. F. Morris.

How then can the teen girl learn to distinguish love from intellectual attraction between two people?

Seventeen lists seven rules which will help her determine what love is not, and which in turn can aid her in deciding what love is:

1. Love is not physical attraction alone. It must involve a last-lingering physical, emotional and intellectual attraction between two people.
2. Love is not the magic of the moment. Love endures and is nourished by the most commonplace or unexciting situations.
3. Love is not all sweetness and light. The loving couple must be able to cope with both large and small conflicts.
4. Love is not absolute possession. It demands a sharing with and of the loved one.
5. Love is not a big compromise. Love must successfully surmount an unending daily series of small compromises.
6. Love is not an escape. Marriage does not automatically free a girl from her problems; instead, it creates new problems to be overcome.
7. Love is not infatuation. Love depends upon continuously shared experiences, upon a two-part relationship based on affection and thoughtfulness.

Seventeen concludes "What Love is Not," by offering teens this advice from Dr. Ackerman: "Love is a tender sentiment that provides for a growing experience of sharing and maturity. Each partner, ultimately, is as much concerned with the welfare and development of the other partner as with his own."

DEAR ABBY....

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter is 17 and, believe me, we are not square parents. But how can we convince her that we put down certain rules for her own good?

For instance, her father absolutely forbids her to park on a lonely road. She says all the kids do it and she is hurt because it looks like we don't trust her. We DO trust her, Abby. She has never given us reason to worry. But so many young people have been victims of sex maniacs and robbers who look for kids in isolated places. Do I dare frighten her with these facts? Can you put some advice into words to help us, Abby? I'm sure other parents have this problem.

DEAR MOM: If awakening her to reality is "frightening" — then I say, frighten her. Young couples parked in deserted places are setups for all kinds of criminals. ALL parents should alert their children to this growing danger.

DEAR ABBY: For nine years I have been married to a man who grinds his teeth in his sleep. I have been putting up with this like a good soul. But sometimes it gets so unbearable that I have to go to sleep on the couch. He claims it is my imagination, but I know it isn't. Is there any cure for this? Maybe a dentist could help. Am I alone in my problem? Can't someone help me?

DEAR WIFE: I don't know what a dentist could do, short of pulling all his teeth. Your only solution is to sleep apart or get used to the same-old-grind.

DEAR ABBY: A 11 winter I bought bird seed and corn for the birds and squirrels. The people across the street have three big cats. These cats are always in my yard after the robins and baby squirrels. The cats have already killed two baby squirrels.

I told these people to keep their cats in their own yard, but they laugh in my face. They even watched their cat kill a baby robin and they thought it was a joke. Is there any protection for wild life or is it just for domestic pets?

DEAR CITIZEN: Your local S.P.C.A. should be notified. If there is none, call the police.

DEAR ABBY: Can a child born out of wedlock be christened?

MATURE PARENT

By MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

Recently, Bob G. suffered a nasty disappointment. The girl he'd been dating broke a special date and announced her engagement to an out-of-town stranger.

Bob's appetite fell off. He gloomed around the house so dully that his mother got very depressed. Anxiously she pressed his favorite deserts on him. She kept reminding him that there were other fish in the sea.

Finally, she canceled her own plans to attend a special celebration at a neighbor's house. When Mr. G. objected, she burst into reproaches, crying:

"How can you be so un sympathetic? How can you expect me to go out for a good time when Bob is feeling so awful?"

Mr. G., ashamed of his inferior sensitivity to their son's suffering, retreated, shaking his head, to his basement workshop.

But Mrs. G.'s sympathetic suffering wasn't all beautiful sensitivity. Mostly, it was rage at her lack of power to change Bob's unhappy situation into a happy one.

A person who feels she's obliged to solve everybody's problems for them, Mrs. G. always gets depressed when she comes up against one that resists her.

Now I'm not against a certain amount of sympathy with children's troubles. None of us enjoy unhappiness of people we love. But we can't always control what happens to them. We can't force children's teachers to be nice to them or their employers to retain them. We can't compel the fidelity of our friends. We can't command virus infections to leave them alone.

So when we find ourselves unduly depressed by their troubles, our sympathetic suffering is not necessarily beautiful sensitivity. Nine times out of 10, it is rage at our inability to control uncontrollable circumstances.

We develop this secret sense of blame for other people's troubles in childhood. Somehow, when mommy had a headache, she conveyed the impression that we had given it to her. When papa was out of sorts, he gave us the feeling that we'd been guilty of some mysteriously disappointing behavior. Gradually, without knowing it, we began to feel responsible for keeping everyone around us happy, satisfied and uncomplicated.

It was an idiotic assignment we took on. We are not lords of the universe and cannot order the sun to shine perpetually on anyone.

Nuclear Gifts To Allies Eyed Warily

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower's proposal for giving nuclear arms to trusted allies drew a cautious reaction today from congressional atomic energy experts.

Declaring that Allies should be treated "not as junior members of the firm," the President urged a broader atom-sharing policy at his news conference Wednesday. Later, White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the administration might recommend a change in the Atomic Energy Act.

Such a proposal probably would touch off congressional controversy and, perhaps, even provide the raw material for a major legislative battle.

The administration won liberalized atom-sharing provisions in 1958 but only after a fight with senators who feared leakage of nuclear secrets to Russia and others who opposed the spread of nuclear weapons and nuclear know-how as a threat to world peace.

One leader in that fight, declining the use of his name for the present, said he expected to oppose again any easing restrictions.

Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn.) said the President's recommendations "if indeed they materialize in a request," would involve "the gravest of problems and require the most serious and non-partisan consideration."

Chairman Clinton P. Anderson (D-N.M.) of the Senate Atomic Energy Committee stressed in a statement that the President's proposal must be "understood by Congress and the American people."

He recalled that revisions in the Atomic Energy Act were approved in 1958 after proponents declared that no assembled nu-

MKT Prexy In Texas Court Battle

AUSTIN (UPI) — W. N. Deramus III of Kansas City, Mo., president of the Katy Railroad, carried his fight to avoid a 240-day jail sentence to the Supreme Court of Texas Wednesday.

Deramus' attorneys asked the high court to reverse a Dallas court's decision in finding Deramus guilty of contempt of court.

Dallas District Judge W. L. (Jack) Thornton held that Missouri-Kansas-Texas trains were blocking a street in front of a Dallas packing plant for long periods of time.

He issued an injunction limiting the trains to five-minute stops.

Then on April 13, 1959 he held Deramus in contempt of court because the trains were still lingering too long.

He found Deramus and the railroad guilty of 80 separate violations of the 1956 injunction.

Sentence for each violation was three days in jail and a fine of $50—which totaled 240 days and $4,000. The Supreme Court later granted a motion barring Thornton from enforcing his court order pending the outcome of Wednesday's mandamus hearing.

Austin attorneys M. E. Clinton and Jake Jacobsen sought the mandamus writ.

Clinton told the court there was "no evidence that Deramus had anything to do with the blocking and there was no evidence that Deramus even knew an injunction had been issued before the alleged violations."

"Does a man have to go to jail in order to get out under a habeas corpus writ?" Clinton asked.

Jacobsen contended Thornton had agreed to reverse his judgment if the railroad built an underpass at the crossing, and said it was already under construction.

But James R. Rodgers, a Dallas attorney representing Thornton, denied Thornton ever made such an agreement.

"They are putting words into the trial court's mouth," he charged.

He said Deramus' attorneys are "here on a mandamus writ when they should be here on a habeas corpus."

"It's always embarrassing to be jailed, but all they are doing is arguing a habeas corpus and that is premature."

The Supreme Court took the case under advisement.

PTA Observes 63rd Year

Local units of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers are observing the 63rd anniversary of the parent-teacher movement this month.

The founders of PTA, Mrs. Alice McLellan Birney and Mrs. Phoebe Apperson Hearst, are being honored as are local workers who have contributed to the success of the work in Pampa.

The association was founded Feb. 17, 1897, and objectives outlined, still in use today, are to promote the welfare of children in home, school, church and community; to raise the standards of home life and to secure adequate laws for the care and protection of children.

Other objectives include bringing into closer relationship the home and school, and secure for every child the highest advantages in physical, mental, social and spiritual education.

According to Mrs. James E. Lewis, 121 N. Faulkner, president of Dist. 19, Texas Congress of PTA, local groups are sending monetary gifts to the state office for extension work in remembrance of founder's day. Mrs. Lewis emphasized that the custom is for each unit to send two cents per member, but the contributions are entirely voluntary.

Big Showoff For Visiting Soviet Brass

MIAMI (UPI) — Twelve top Russian officials get a look today at two capitalistic developments: Miami Beach resort hotel and rush-hour traffic scene.

The hotel, the 750-room Americana, is treating the visitors to a dinner which begins with hors d'oeuvres and goes on to such fancy fare as boneless breast of duck Montmarney and croquette of wild rice Mignon.

The delegation is led by Dmitry Polyanaki, a member of the presidium of the Supreme Soviet. His 11 companions include five premiers of republics and seven governors of provinces.

The Russians, whose ranks correspond to governors here, are returning a visit by nine American governors to Russia last summer. They are in the first week of a 21-day nationwide tour.

For a while Wednesday, the Russian visit looked like a protocol problem. The fancy menu at the Americana was all planned, but no one was around to pick up the check.

County Commissioner Arthur H. Patten Jr., said he didn't like the idea of $1,000 in county money being spent to feed 12 Russians and duck. Metro Commission Chairman Ben C. McGahey chimed in with a statement that the commission would be delighted to foot the bill for the Communists but didn't have the money available. A spokesman for the city said it wasn't paying either.

So Hotel President Preston R. Beach announced that the whole thing, including dessert of Ambrosial Coupe Americana with petit fours glace, would be on the house. Nobody would have to pay.

Judge Not Moved By Histrionics

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (UPI) — Gov. LeRoy Collins is expected to decide within a day or two whether Robert Tomarchin will be extradited to Missouri to stand trial for stealing his former pet chimpanzee, Mr. Moke, from the St. Louis zoo.

The 27-year-old animal trainer's extradition hearing before William Durden, a assistant to Collins, closed Wednesday.

Mr. Moke, wearing a little boy's blue overalls and T-shirt, dived through most of the hearing. Efforts to make him appear as human as his clothes apparently failed to move Durden.

"I am unable to think of this chimp as a child," said Durden. "You can add all kinds of frills and lace and sympathy, but it's still a clear-cut case of a man stealing the property of another."

Tomarchin, who reared Moke from infancy and appeared with him on a Miami television show, sold the chimp to the St. Louis zoo for $1,575.

Saddened by his appearance behind bars, he broke into the monkey house one night, took him back, and left a check for $1,000 and a promissory note for $2,000 more.

Durden's comments on what he thinks of Moke came after Tomarchin's lawyer, John B. Orr of Miami, told him:

"He (Tomarchin) never loved a human being until Mr. Moke. This chimp has changed his whole outlook toward humanity."

"If more parents were as attentive to their children as Tomarchin is to this chimpanzee," Orr continued, "there would be less juvenile delinquency."

If Tomarchin is sent back to Missouri, Moke is expected to be returned to the zoo. If Collins decides in his favor, he and Moke plan to live in Miami.

Civil Rights Arguments Winding Up

By STEVE GERSTEL
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Southern witnesses finished their next-to-last verbal assault today on federal supervision of Negro registration in the South.

The final test will come when a Senate Rules Committee bill on federal registrars or federal referees, or a combination of both, reaches the Senate floor.

Sen. Thomas C. Hennings (D-Mo.), committee chairman, has said he will have a bill ready Feb. 15, the date set for the start of the civil rights debate.

The South saved one of its key witnesses, former Virginia Gov. John S. Battle, for the final day reserved for opponents of the bill. Battle was the only Civil Rights Commission member who refused to sign a recommendation that federal registrars be appointed to enforce registration rights for southern Negroes. He since has resigned from the commission.

Five senators and three attorneys general from southern states were scheduled to testify.

They include Sen. Willis A. Robertson (D-Va.), John L. McClellan (D-Ark.), Olin D. Johnston (D-S.C.), Strom Thurmond (D-S.C.) and Spessard Holland (D-Fla.).

The attorneys general are Dan McLeod of South Carolina, Bruce Bennett of Arkansas and Ralph Odom of Florida.

Giant Plant Plans Unveiled

HOUSTON (UPI) — Sinclair Oil Corp. and Koppers Co. Inc., announced plans Wednesday to build a 10- to 12-million-dollar petrochemicals plant in Houston.

The plant will manufacture styrene, a basic ingredient in the manufacture of plastics, synthetic rubber, latex and other related products.

Spokesmen for the two firms said they would form a jointly-owned corporation to own and operate the plant. Construction will get under way immediately and is scheduled for completion in mid-1961.

Sinclair plans to supply raw materials for the new corporation and Koppers will either use or market the styrene. Output is estimated at about 70 million pounds a year.

The new plant will be located near the Sinclair refinery on the Houston Ship Channel.

Pampa Cagers At Lubbock Friday

Harvesters Trying To Stay In Fourth

LUBBOCK — Pampa's Harvesters, back in the win column after Monday's 83-66 triumph over the Monterey Plainsmen, take on the Lubbock Westerners here Friday night at the Tom S. Lubbock High School gymnasium.

Pampa's win over Monterey, which gave them their highest point total of the year, boosted the Harvesters into undisputed fourth place in District 3-4A, with a 4-5 record.

By beating Lubbock Friday, the Harvesters could even their district record at 5-5 and increase their season record to 10-4.

If they get past the hot-cold Westerners Friday, Clifton McNeely's Harvesters should stand a good chance of winning the majority, if not all, of their remaining games. Their next three after Lubbock will be at home, but against teams that have beaten them — Tascoosa, Palo Duro and Plainview. The final game of the season will be at Amarillo against the Sandies.

Lubbock also has a stake in the outcome of Friday's contest. The Westerners moved out of the district cellar Tuesday by beating the Sandies, 47-39, and would like to stay out. Lubbock is 2-7 for the season, and cellar-dwelling Monterey is 1-8.

Although Lubbock has a poor district record, the Westerners are winning for the season, with a 13-11 mark, and have taken two of their last three.

In the last Pampa-Lubbock game the Harvesters were ice cold in their shooting, and were fortunate to come through with a 50-47 victory.

Mike Farley, a 6-1 sharpshooter, is expected to pace Lubbock's attack. Mike Webb, 6-0, Larry Mitchell, 6-2, and Russell Graham, 6-1, will probably start for Lubbock. The fifth starter may be picked from Jimmy Oldham, 6-3, Royal Furgerson, 6-0, and Roy Gibson, 5-10.

Starting for the Harvesters will be Craig Winborn, 6-2, who has a 19.9 scoring average for the season; Pat Carter, 5-10, with a 12.3 average; Joe Timms, 5-11, with a 7.1 points per game mark; Allen Wise, 6-2, hitting 6.4 points per contest; and Phillip Gist, 5-11, with a 5.3 average.

The Shockers, trying to halt a streak in which they have lost six of the last eight, play the Lubbock B team in a preliminary game at 6:15 p.m. Lubbock won the previous game between the two squads, 48-47.

Starters for the Shockers, who have an 11-8 record for the year, will be Jim Crinklaw, Jim Stearnson, Charlie Fant, Lloyd Ball, and either Mike Stewart or George Simmons. Two Shockers reserves, Jim Story and Harold Burgess, were out with the flu Wednesday and may not be able to play Friday night.

SMU Captures Share Of 1st In Cage Race

United Press International

Southern Methodist grabbed a share of the lead in the Southwest Conference race Wednesday night with a 79-73 victory over low-pressure Texas Christian.

The win gave the Methodists a tie with Texas A&M, a team that is ninth-ranked nationally. Each has a 4-1 league mark.

In the only other action involving a SWC team, Texas stepped outside the conference to whip North Texas State, 89-78.

SMU's triumph Wednesday night and Arkansas' 79-82 loss to Texas Tech the night before left five teams within shooting distance of the title—provided someone can knock off the Aggies.

Tech is in undisputed second place with a 4-2 record, and Arkansas and Texas are running third, each with 3-2 marks.

The Methodists, with Max Williams' 19-point effort showing the way, overcame a first-half deficit of as much as 11 points and pulled into a one-point lead at halftime, 34-33.

Williams hit 14 points in a spurt right after the intermission, which gave SMU a 17-point edge midway in the second half.

Jan Loudermilk added 18 for the Ponies and Tommy Meacham of TCU took game scoring honors with 20 points.

Texas had a comfortable 18-point cushion going into the second half of its non-conference tilt, but the Eagles rallied to pull within six points with six minutes left.

The Steers went into a stall and forced North Texas to commit costly fouls, however, and Texas' last 10 points came from the free throw line.

Five Texas players hit in double figures, with Jay Arnette's 21 points spearheading the attack. The Eagles' Jim Mudd, the Missouri Valley Conference's No. 2 scorer, hit 36 points and came down with 13 rebounds.

Southwest Conference teams are idle tonight and Thursday night, but all eight teams swing into action again Saturday.

Arkansas goes against SMU at Fayetteville, Texas A&M takes on Texas Tech at College Station, Texas plays TCU at Austin, and Rice battles Baylor at Houston.

Ciesla Sparks Rochester Bid

United Press International

Bank Ciesla, who was pro hockey "driftwood" earlier in the season, is helping spark the Rochester Americans in their bid to over haul the first-place Springfield Indians in the American Hockey League pennant race.

Ciesla scored his 14th, 15th, and 16th goals of the season Wednesday night as the American smothered the Hershey Bears, 5-1 at Hershey.

The victory left the second-place Americans just five points behind the Indians, who appeared out of reach of the rest of the league earlier in the campaign.

The Cleveland Barons rallied for four goals in the final period to nip the Providence Reds, 4-3, at Providence in Wednesday's only other AHL game.

Texans Sign Hunter Enis

DALLAS (UPI) — The Dallas Texans of the American Football League have signed Hunter Enis, a quarterback who led Texas Christian to the Southwest Conference championship in 1958.

Enis was the second quarterback signed by the Texans in two days. Don Flynn, former University of Houston quarterback and a two-year veteran of Canadian League football, was signed Tuesday.

Hall Of Fame Stays Same

By MILTON RICHMAN United Press International

The voting for baseball's Hall of Fame drew a big blank again today — meaning no one was elected for the second straight time — and Commissioner Ford Frick says it may be high time to change the system of balloting.

President Joe Cronin of the American League agreed with Frick that "some new procedure should be adopted," although National League President Warren Giles said the latest failure to elect anyone to the shrine at Cooperstown, N.Y., "doesn't necessarily indict the whole system."

Not only wasn't anyone elected this time, but no one even came close despite the fact a record number of 269 members of the Baseball Writer's Assn. of America took part in the balloting.

Ed Roush, former Cincinnati outfielder, polled the best among the 129 players receiving votes. He got 146 votes, still far short of the necessary 202 minimum needed for election. Sam Rice, one-time Washington and Cleveland outfielder, was runner-up with 143 votes, followed by former Philadelphia and Cincinnati pitcher Eppa Rixey with 142 votes.

Unless the rules are changed, the balloting marked Roush's last chance at the Hall of Fame in a vote by the writers although he still may be enshrined by a special old-timers committee. Only those players active for at least 10 seasons between 1930 and 1954 were eligible in the latest voting.

Roush completed his 17-season National League career in 1931 and the last active player date in the next election will be 1932.

Under the present system, in which votes are cast every two years, a player must be named on 75 per cent of the ballots. Some feel the system is too stringent, others feel it keeps out the undeserving.

"I was disappointed that no one was elected," Frick declared. "I don't want to criticize the writers but we may have to re-survey the method and come up with something else."

The latest voting results were announced in Boston by Secretary Hy Hurwitz of the writers' association. After Rixey, Buriel Grimes finished fourth with 92 votes and Jim Bottomley fifth with 89 votes. Rounding out the top 10 were Charley Ruffing, with 88; Urban Faber, with 83, and Hack Wilson, Kiki Cuyler and Luke Appling with 72 votes apiece.

Celts Have Good Scoring 'Combo'

By United Press International

The Boston Celtics, with only Tommy Heinsohn in the top 10, have the most potent scoring punch in the National Basketball Association.

Boston, the leading team scorer in the circuit, boasted six players in double figures Wednesday night as the Celtics whipped the Minneapolis Lakers, 123-108.

Bill Sharman led the Celtic slaughter with 26 points, Heinsohn had 23 and Bill Russell 20. Elgin Baylor topped the Lakers with 24 points.

In other games, the St. Louis Hawks defeated New York, 123-115, and Detroit beat Cincinnati, 117-105.

St. Louis slammed back from an eight-point deficit early in the fourth period to trip the Knickerbockers.

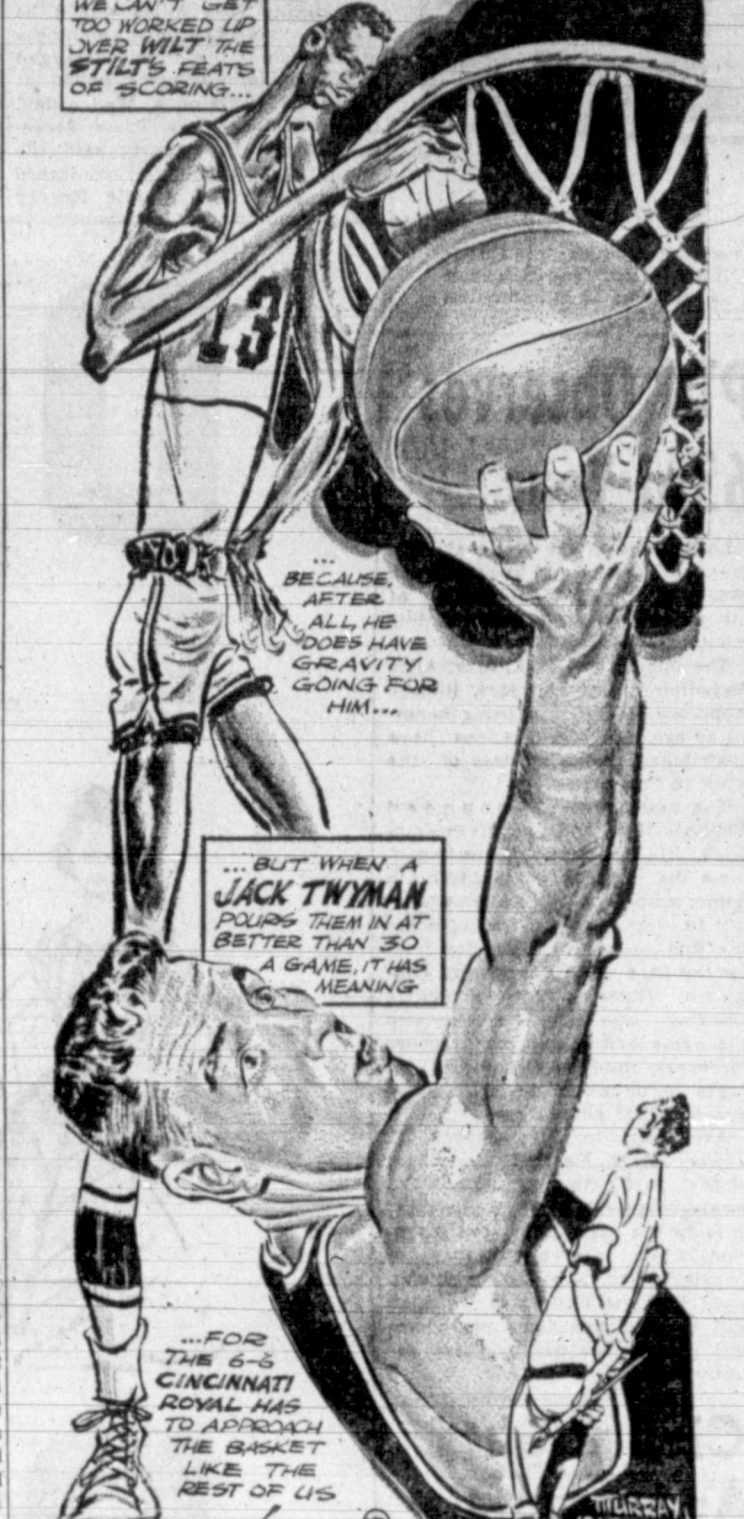

Gene Shue scored 20 of 28 points in the first half for Detroit as Cincinnati suffered its 10th straight defeat.

India, China Are Still In Games

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (UPI) — Another snow blizzard swept through Squaw Valley during the night—but it was nothing compared with the controversy raging over India and Nationalist China in the Olympic Games set here Feb. 18.

The latest on the controversy is that both India and China will be allowed to keep their competitors in the games by merely sending in the proper credentials to the International Ski Federation.

Pampa Boxers Capture Three Bouts At Amarillo

By RED GRIGGS Daily News Sports Editor

AMARILLO — Three Pampa fighters came through with victories in the Regional Gloves boxing tournament Wednesday night at the Sports Arena.

About 700 fans who braved the snow to see the 16-fight card were rewarded with two knockouts (one by Pampa's Ronnie Morgan) and five TKOs. There were a total of eight knockdowns during the night.

Pampa boxers, with their 3-0 record for the card, had the best mark Wednesday night. Dumas also had a perfect record, winning his only bout, Plainview, by a 3-0 even at 4:45 and Berger at 3:3.

Next were Amarillo Boxing Club, 3-4, Hereford, 1-2, D&D Pharmacy of Amarillo 1-2, and Amarillo unattached 0-1.

Morgan, Pampa 135-pound high school entry, decked James Rouse of Berger in the second round for an eight count, then knocked him out in 1:37 of the third.

After a slow first round, Morgan took charge from the start of the second, driving Rouse against the ropes and hitting him with several good flurries. The powerful Pampa puncher floored Rouse about midway in the round, but the Berger fighter managed to get back on his feet and last out the round. However, Morgan again went after Rouse in the third, and when he connected this time, the Bergerite did not get up.

Landro Martinez, Pampa's classy 112-pound open entry, played cat-and-mouse with Lupo Rodriguez of Plainview, and took a decision despite some bad moments in the third round.

Martinez deliberately backed into the ropes time and again and let Rodriguez move in on him. Then he slid off the ropes, hit Martinez with several fast jabs, and moved away. When Martinez wasn't luring Rodriguez into the ropes, he was moving in, hitting his opponent with fast flurries, and dancing away before Rodriguez could do any damage.

Martinez' strategy backfired in the third round, when Rodriguez kept him against the ropes a couple of times and hit him with some hard punches. However, Martinez had already built up enough points to win the bout.

In the third Pampa fight Lucky Dunham, 128-pound open entry, landed one good series of punches in the third round against Jimmy Tijerina of Plainview to cop the decision. There was almost no action in the bout except for Dunham's brief third-round flurry.

The other boxer, besides Morgan, to score a knockout was 126-lb. open boxer Robert Viaille of the Plainview team. Viaille kayoed Eddie Ramirez of the Amarillo Boxing Club in 22 seconds of the third round, with a left-right combination, to end a fight which had been fairly even.

Six Pampa boxers will fight in four semifinals bouts Friday beginning at 7:30 p.m. There will be no fights Thursday because of wrestling matches scheduled at the arena.

In Friday's fights Kenny Powell and Gary Smith, two Pampa team boxers, meet in a 126-pound high school battle; Ronnie Morgan takes on Melvin Wilkinson of Berger in a 135-pound high school clash; two Pampans, Lucky Dunham and Ramirez, clash in a 126-pound open fight; and James Morse meets Robert Viaille of the Plainview team in another 126-pound open clash.

Lawton Cowboy In Top Performance

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UPI) — Lawton, Okla., cowboy named Freckles Brown stole the show Wednesday night at the Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show Rodeo.

Brown, an old hand around a rodeo circuit, twisted a Mexican longhorn down in 7.4 seconds to take the lead in average times for steer wrestling.

Then he made the top ride of the night in saddle bronc riding on a horse aptly named "Zero Hour" and rated third best in bareback riding on a bronc called "Susie Q."

Bob Amz of Waco, Tex., had the night's best time in steer wrestling with 5.9 seconds.

Another Sooner cowboy, shoat Webster of Lenapah, roped and tied a calf in 12.4 seconds to take the lead in that event Wednesday afternoon, and his mark easily survived the night performance.

Best time in calf roping Wednesday night was 19.8 seconds, by Olin Young of Lovington, N. M.

Webster's 12.4-second effort also gave him the lead for average time in the first and second rounds. His time in the first go-round was 21.9 seconds.

Other results Wednesday night: Bareback bronc riding—1. J. T. Smith, Jona, Idaho, and Louis Davenport, Three Rivers, Tex. (tie); 3. Brown.

Saddle bronc riding—1. Brown; 2. Duane Bruce, Calgary, Alta., Canada; 3. Don L. Wilson, Buffalo, Wyo.

Calf roping—1. Young; 2. Jim Bob Allizer, Del Rio, Tex.; 25.0 seconds; 3. Lee Cockrell, Panhandle, Tex., 27.0 seconds.

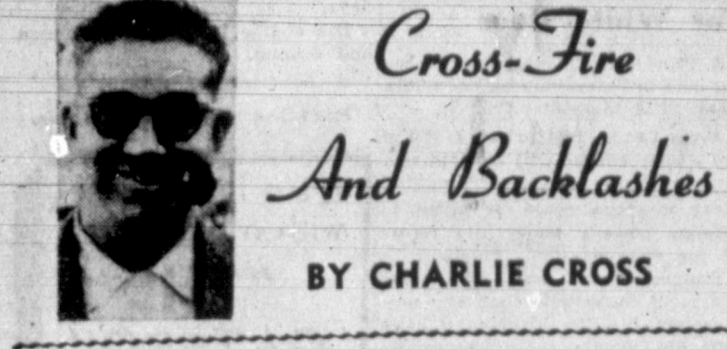

Steer wrestling—1. Amz; 2. Jack Woods, Holliday, N. D.; 6.0 seconds; 3. Jack Favor, Arlington, Tex., 8.0 seconds.

GOODWIN-PHILLIPS WIN

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (UPI) — Joanne Goodwin and Doris Phillips held the Women's International Four-Ball golf championship today and for Miss Goodwin the victory was doubly sweet.

Two Title Fights Set Tonite In LA

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Southern California, land of superlatives, tonight stages the biggest fight program in California history — two 15 round world championship fights — in the biggest stadium in the west, the 105,000-seat Coliseum.

The principals are bantamweight champion Jose Becerra of Mexico, who gives Alphonse Halimi of France a chance to regain his crown, and junior welterweight champion Carlos Ortiz of New York meeting undefeated Raymundo (Battling) Torres of Mexico.

The four boxers meet at noon today for the weigh-in two miles from the Coliseum at the home arena of the sponsoring Olympic Boxing Club. None of the fighters anticipated any problem meeting the weights.

The dual fight has broken the California gate record on advance sales alone thanks to the tremendous interest of Mexican fans, some 15,000 of whom will be at ringside. Even the threat of rain Wednesday night and early today did not dampen the enthusiasm.

Sandy Koufax Inks With LA Dodgers

By United Press International

The world champion Los Angeles Dodgers gave Sandy Koufax a $3,000 raise today for his pitching, not his hitting.

Rivals laugh whenever Koufax steps into the batter's box and his .111 average last season indicates why, but the smiles disappear from their faces when the 24-year-old southpaw moves onto the pitching mound.

Koufax averaged better than 10 strikeouts per game last season, fanning 173 batters in 153 innings, and for that the Dodgers boosted his salary from an estimated $14,000 to $17,000 this year.

The Cardinals announced the signings of four players, chief of whom was Ken Boyer. The 28-year-old third baseman, who batted .309 last season, was given a "substantial increase" and is believed to be making $25,000 now. Infielders Dick Gray and Joe Wooten and outfielder Duke

Carmel were the other St. Louis signees.

Outfielder Roman Mejias and first baseman R. C. Stevens agreed to terms with the Pirates, while the Braves announced the signing of outfielder Lee Maye, who batted .300 in 51 games for them last year.

Shortstop Joe DeMaestri, obtained in a multi-player deal with the Athletics during the winter, became the 10th member of the Yankees to okay terms, and Kansas City announced the signing of rookie shortstop Ken Hamlin.

The Reds pulled the signing coup of the day, however, satisfying two brothers at the same time. Catcher Dutch Dotterer and his brother, Tom, a third baseman, both okayed Cincinnati contracts.

Tarheels Making Poor, Happy Prophet Out Of Cage Coach

By United Press International

The North Carolina Tarheels are making a poor—but happy—prophet out of Coach Frank McGuire.

"We'll be lucky if we don't have six losses when we start the new year," said McGuire at the start of the season. "The situation really looks black."

Well, here it is heading into the home stretch of the season and McGuire's Tarheels lead the Atlantic Coast Conference with a 5-0 slate and have an overall 10-3 mark. They're rated 11th in the country and look like they're headed on the way up.

North Carolina passed another stern test Wednesday night when it scored a 75-66 victory over Maryland at College Park, Md. With only a few minutes left in the first half the score was tied at 24-24. But then York Larese broke in for a three-point play that put the Tarheels ahead, 27-24, and they left the court with a 31-26 truce at halftime. North Carolina quickly widened the gap in the second half and Maryland never was closer than six points.

The University of Detroit scored its 15th victory in 17 games with a 65-58 win over Marquette and Loyola of the South downed Loyola of Chicago in the first integrated sports contest held in Louisiana in four years.

Detroit led by only two points with 22 seconds left in the game but a free throw by Charley North and a tip-in by Larry Hughes enabled it to pull away. Marquette's Walt Mangham scored 22 points in the first half but was held to only four points in the second half.

Larry Trunk tossed in a last-second basket to give Loyola of the South its triumph at New Orleans. Clarence Red, a 6-foot, 8-inch Negro star for the visiting Ramblers, led a rally that gained a 64-64 tie with 16 seconds remaining. There were no incidents during the first racially mixed sports contest in Louisiana since 1856.

Southern Methodist downed Texas Christian, 79-73. Texas beat North Texas State, 89-78. Toledo romped over Western Michigan, 67-48. Wake Forest toppled Duke, 80-65, and Fordham defeated Wagner, 85-80, in other games.

Favorites Advance In '40' Tourney

HARLINGEN, Tex. (UPI)—The favorites and the darkhorses had little trouble advancing into today's quarterfinals of the eighth annual "Life Begins at 40" Golf Tournament.

Cast in the favorites' roles are defending champion David (Spec) Goldman of Dallas, medalist Phil Powell of Wichita Falls and McAllen's Lonnie Wendland, the local favorite.

All three easily handled their opponents in second round play Wednesday.

Among the darkhorses were Leroy Brannon and Agon Occhialini, both of San Antonio.

Brannon was to go against Goldman today and Occhialini drew Wendland as a quarterfinal opponent. A third golfer tabbed as an outside contender is Derald Lehman of Fort Worth, who is to play Powell.

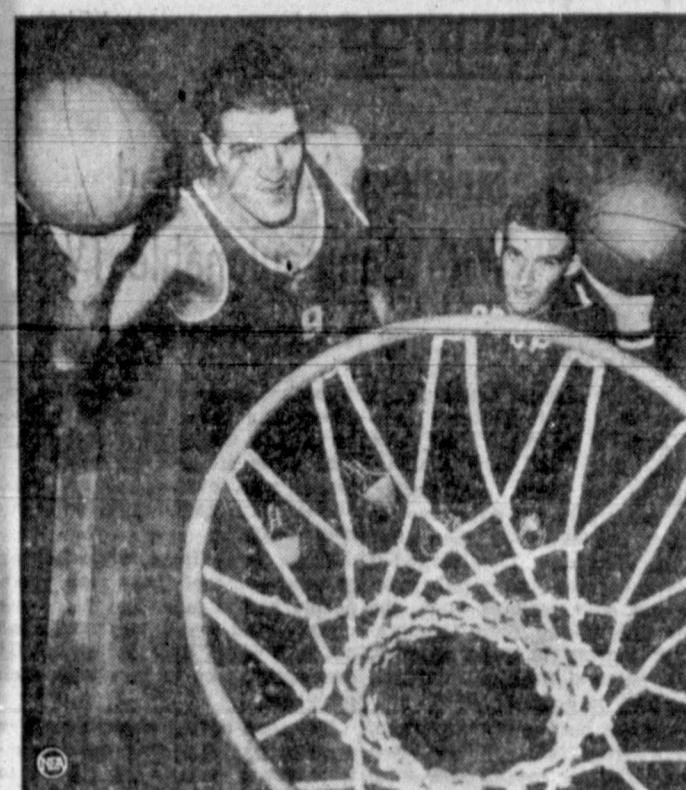

Goldman Wednesday ousted Eli Rubin of Hallettsville, 4 and 3, and grudgingly admitted he was back in form and "hitting well" after two days of less-than-satisfactory play.

Powell, expecting trouble from Brownsville golfer 4 and 3, while Wendland bested Bob Hogan of Houston by the same score.

Brannon won his quarterfinal spot with a 3 and 2 victory over John Garvey of Texas.

Occhialini remembered for the extra-hole score he threw at Powell in 1958, eliminated Daniel Gallegos of Guadalupe, Mexico, 4 and 3.

Experiment Of Tennis Pros Puts More Bounce Into Game

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—The car hummed through the Carolina night and the two men spoke but little. Then the short, dark-haired one sat up straight and his voice was decisive as it broke the silence.

"It's so," said little Pancho Segura excitedly, "could be the greatest tennis player in the world—if the big men couldn't go right to the net behind their service."

"You're nuts," replied Jack Kramer as he steered the car around a curve.

"It's so," stoutly asserted the tiny South American. "It's just that I am too small."

They lapsed back into silence, each of them considering Segura's words. But that was the manner, on a night in 1951 when they were driving from Tuscaloosa, Ala., to Philadelphia for a pro tennis match, when the idea was born for the new "three bounce" rule which the pro tennis troupe currently is trying.

Under the "three bounce" rule the server cannot wallop his service and charge the net right behind it for a killing volley. The ball must bounce in the service court and then be allowed to bounce once on each side of the net—two returns—before either player can go to the net.

It has slowed down the serve-and-smash pro game—to the point where, finally, the customers can see some tennis. And it only came about even at this belated date because Pancho-Gonzales, the five-time pro champion, agreed to the experiment.

"I didn't think, until now, that I should have to give up the service and net game advantage I had developed over the years," Gonzales explained. "But this probably will be my last year of competition and it has had a fair effect on the public. They get to see more strategy and tactics instead of the points ending so quickly."

Gonzales hasn't played the three-bounce rule yet, because it is used only in the pro's preliminary match.

But the preliminary battlers find the three-bounce rule well to their liking.

It figures to give the big men their troubles—and put the little fellows back in the game. Segura obviously knew what he was talking about that night in North Carolina.

Marathon Bowlers Into Sixth Day

AUSTIN (UPI)—Two weary legions, almost too weak to lift a bowling ball, went into their sixth day today in a marathon designed to benefit the March of Dimes and, incidentally, to set a new record for non-stop bowling.

John DeLoach and Cecil Johnson were the only survivors of the original six bowlers who started the marathon.

Johnson lasted this long only with the use of an artificial aid—a leather thumb protector. DeLoach had knocked over 24,008 pins by 4 p.m. Wednesday and Johnson had 20,620.

They passed the 92-hour mark at 4 p.m. and announced they were going to try for 120 hours. Masseurs had been giving them rubdowns each hour during their 10-minute rest stops.

Greaves Pulls Tiger's Claws

CHICAGO (UPI)—Willy Greaves, the Canadian middleweight champion, conquered Ralph "Tiger" Jones, but the vanquished boxer declared today "he's still not a good fighter."

"He's too easy to hit," Jones said. "I think I fought pretty good considering my long layoff (seven months), and he didn't hurt me, even if he hit me."

But Judge Harold Marovitz gave Greaves a 30-44 edge. Judge John Bray scored 48-44 for Greaves, and Referee Joey White, 48-43 for card was 48-45 for Greaves.

him. United Press International card was 48-45 for Greaves.

Five Golfers Tie For Desert Lead

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI)—Five golfers were bunched for the lead today, neck-and-neck, going into the second round of the $100,000-added 90-hole Desert Classic.

This monumental tournament, richest in the nation this year, got off to a grinding start Wednesday with 332 pros and 398 amateurs and it produced some good golf—but nary a hole-in-one for which the sponsors will pay an added $50,000. Four courses were put into play.

Among the five first round leaders, Mason Rudolph, the soft-spoken Clarksville, Tenn., pro, came closest. He put his tee shot to within three feet of the pin on the 206-yard sixth hole at the Thunderbird course. He sank the putt for a birdie.

Rudolph almost became the leader with 68 but he missed a six-foot putt on the 18th green to go into the second round of the course.

Tied with Rudolph at 67 in the initial round were Arnold Palmer, Ligonier, Pa., who won this tournament last year before it became a $100,000 event; Tony LeMa, San Leandro, Calif.; Bob Goalby, from Crystal River, Fla.; and Johnny Palmer, 41-year-old pro from Tulsa, Okla.

Speedie Named To Coaches Staff Of Houston Oilers

HOUSTON (UPI)—K. S. (Bud) Adams, owner of the Houston Oilers of the American Football League, today announced the hiring of Mac Speedie, six-times all-pro, to end with the Cleveland Browns, as a member of the Oilers' coaching staff.

Speedie, 40, will join head coach Lou Rymkus' staff late next week, coming here from Encino, Calif., where he has been in the investment business since leaving pro football in 1956.

Speedie was the fourth assistant selected by Rymkus, who indicated he probably would pick a fifth aid in the near future.

A native of Odell, Ill., who grew up in Salt Lake City, Speedie first attracted attention at the University of Utah where he was three times All-Skyline Conference. He also was an outstanding hurdler at Utah for three years and set the conference record in both the high and low hurdles in 1941.

Foreign News

By PHIL NEWSOM UPI Foreign Editor

The barricades in the center of Algiers came down this week and President Charles de Gaulle's prestige went up.

There was a revival of hope that the five-year-old Moslem revolt in Algeria finally could be settled.

But de Gaulle's unquestioned victory over the dissident French settlers in Algeria and over the French army officers and men who passively sided with the right-wing settlers, also revived doubts about France itself.

De Gaulle's victory in Algeria was strictly a personal one. It therefore raised the question of the real strength of the new French Fifth Republic. What would happen to it with de Gaulle's passing and whether in reality the Fifth Republic actually was not a "de Gaulle republic."

There also was the question of France's place in the North Atlantic Alliance, and her reliability as a partner.

Last week, as the threat of civil war hung over France, worried NATO members conferred on what their action should be in the event the threat became a reality. Presumably, the United States was a participant in these talks because of the 75,000 men and the millions of dollars in equipment it maintains in France as part of NATO.

Closely related to the same problem would be the influence the French might or might not be able to wield in a summit meeting with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

And finally, there was the question of Algeria itself.

De Gaulle's victory in Algeria apparently was clear cut. He had granted the dissidents nothing and he had made clear his determination to push ahead with the self-determination plan. He also had made clear his confidence that, under the proper conditions, the vast majority of Moslems in Algeria would vote to continue a close association with France. But when, lose or draw, the Algerian uprising once more had put world attention on the issue of colonialism when that form of civilization was becoming increasingly unpopular.

It was tailor-made for Communist propaganda. De Gaulle's problem in Algeria was three-fold:

He had dealt firmly with the "Colons," the right-wing settlers who had tumbled nearly a dozen French governments and who by their pressure tactics had raised the very real question as to whether the French capital lay in Paris or Algiers.

When he fired Maj. Gen. Jacques Massu, hero of the Algerian rightists, he began dealing with the army as a political force and turning it back to its real job—suppression of the Moslem rebellion.

He still had left the rebellion itself, led by a government-in-exile whose influence has been waning but which still insists that it will negotiate as the voice of Moslem Algeria. That problem, de Gaulle still has.

Mother Kills 2 Children, Self

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—A 35-year-old divorcee fatally stabbed her two children, and then took her own life here Tuesday, police said.

The bodies of Mrs. Alice Elaine Wineske Hardin, her son Craig, 9, and daughter, Dianne, 5 months, were found in puddles of blood by a fuel oil serviceman.

Police Lt. H.L. Sands said there was little doubt that Mrs. Hardin, who quit her law practice about a year ago and began taking psychiatric treatment, stabbed Craig, Dianne and herself with a butcher knife.
