

U.S. Satellite Into Orbit Around Sun

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI)—A near perfect space shot today sent a beachball-sized American satellite into orbit around the sun.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said in Washington the 94.8-pound aluminum sphere was on a path around the sun inside the orbits of Venus and the earth.

A jubilant scientist here said the launch by a three-stage Thor Able rocket was "as close to perfect as anyone could expect."

The satellite, Pioneer V, was designed to radio back to earth a wealth of information on radiation, cosmic dust and magnetic fields to be found in deep space.

The silvery globe reached a velocity of 24,869 miles an hour to escape the earth's gravitational pull, within 150 m.p.h. of the planned speed and 375 m.p.h. above the speed needed.

The trip to the sun and the orbit of Venus will take several months.

Pioneer V's orbit is inclined toward Venus and will carry it 18 million miles closer to the sun than the orbit of the earth, NASA's Dr. Abe Silverstein said.

At its nearest approach, the sphere will be 74,700,000 miles from the sun. It will reach the distance about 151 days from now.

scope triggered the release of the 90-pound instrument - carrying capsule from the carrier rocket.

Payloads of earlier U. S. probes have been separated from the last stages of their carrier rockets either automatically or by signals from U. S. launching sites.

Radio signals from the intricate package were being received "loud and clear" at tracking stations around the world.

Scientists at the Jodrell Bank radio telescope in England said the rocket is "on course toward the sun."

Professor A.C.B. Lovell, director of the station, said a signal from Jodrell Bank released the third stage of the carrier rocket and later turned off the satellite's radio transmitter to "rest it."

Lovell said this was how the last stage of the rocket was released: A button was pushed, sending a signal through space which set off an electric current, which melted a bolt, which released a powerful spring, which propelled the 90-pound space vehicle into an independent course.

The space vehicle's journey to the orbit of Venus is expected to take several months and it was believed it would eventually be out of range of all tracking stations on earth except Jodrell Bank.

The ambitious, but oft-delayed probe into deep space was launched only a few hundred yards from the pad where an Atlas Intercontinental ballistic missile blew up Thursday night. The space shot had been postponed earlier Thursday because of rocket trouble.

The slender, white rocket broke loose from its pad clamps and rose slowly into the air, ice which had formed on its liquid oxygen cooled hull fell from the booster in a brilliant shower.

It plunged behind low-hanging clouds about 20 seconds later as it soared into the sky.

The 90-foot-tall rocket, one of the nation's most reliable but a failure in all three previous attempts to launch space probes, appeared to be functioning well as it climbed steeply and disappeared.

The new space probe was to conduct technical studies of gaseous "clouds" of plasma floating through space, the sun, micrometeorite activity, effects of solar flares in space, and radiation and magnetic fields.

Trapped Since Tuesday

Final Drive To Rescue Miners

LOGAN, W. Va. (UPI)—Rescue workers early today prepared a final drive they hoped would get them through a fire-ravaged mine blockade to reach 18 trapped men.

The crews battled throughout the night to subside a smoldering fire that stood between the entrapped men and themselves, and to cool the area to enable them to continue the operation.

Faint optimism was expressed that the imprisoned miners might be reached this morning barring any additional unforeseen accidents.

Manual Controversy 'Blowing Self Out'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House in Congress over an Air Force manual linking some churches with Communism appeared to be blowing itself out today in the wake of two congressional inquiries.

Dr. Hampton States Views

Dr. R. M. Hampton, candidate for a position on the Pampa School Board, released his views and opinions today.

"I am interested in seeking the position of trustee on the Pampa School Board because I will have children in school at the beginning of the fall term," he said.

"I look upon this as an opportunity to make a contribution in my own way to the furtherance of the educational development of all children."

He stated: "My platform consists of:

1. Endeavoring to build a balanced school program in every one of the word — one in which athletics and other extra-curricular activities are worked into the curriculum.
2. All scholastic curriculum teachers should be commended.

Hit-And-Run Cold Front Through State

By United Press International

A new cold front-carrying more than 100 mph strength raced through Texas today and left icy skies and drizzle in its wake.

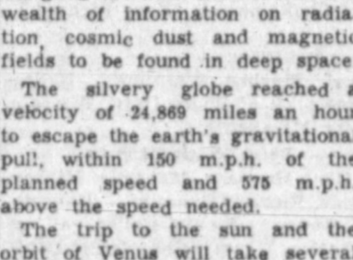

The only sub-freezing temperatures behind the front were in the band and South Plains. The chilly dropped to 20 degrees at Hartlow for the state—21 degrees at Amarillo and 30 at Lubbock.

The lower Rio Grande Valley was the only part of Texas still affected by the front early today.

"Mild Gulf air and a thick blanket covered the Valley," said the weather bureau at Brownsville, where the temperature at Brownsville was 63 degrees and it was foggy.

It was also foggy at Galveston, where the overnight low temperature was a mild 57 degrees. Light drizzle fell at Laredo and Abilene.

Low pressure system in North Texas brought a tornado and severe thunderstorm warning in parts of East Texas Thursday and Friday night, but the warning ended with no tornadoes or se-

Jobless Stars Can Draw Aid

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—The actors strike has thrown thousands of film folk out of work and even wealthy stars like Clark Gable, John Wayne, Jayne Mansfield and Kim Novak may be eligible for weekly unemployment checks of $55 from the state.

Although the Screen Actors Guild represents 14,000 members, a union spokesman said approximately 9,000 members live in the Hollywood area, 3,000 in New York and the rest are scattered throughout the nation.

Of the thousands who live here, many are only part-time actors who hold other jobs.

But another 12,000 workers are threatened with loss of employment now that Hollywood's studios are only operating at a small percentage of capacity.

Most of that group are full-time employees.

Mass Meeting May Produce Blast At U.S.

HAVANA (UPI)—Premier Fidel Castro today summoned thousands of his civilian soldiers to the capital Sunday for a meeting expected to produce another mass forum for denouncing the United States.

About 100,000 members of the student, worker and farmer militia in the Havana area are expected to converge on the city.

The official reason for the assembly is to commemorate the 3rd anniversary of a student assault on the presidential palace in which more than 50 youths were killed in an unsuccessful attempt to overthrow former dictator Fulgencio Batista.

But the Castro regime has taken every public opportunity recently to berate the United States on such charges as "economic enslavement," "Yankee imperialism" and "insults."

Batista finally fled the country Jan. 1, 1959, but the recent trend in Cuba is to link the United States to crimes laid to him.

Castro's revolutionary militia now encompasses all walks of life in Cuba. Every occupation and profession has its branch. Elementary school students too young to shoulder arms have "youth patrols" and learn to drill at the age of 10.

Dixie States Act To Punish 'Sitdowners'

By United Press International

Segregation forces sought legal measures today to combat the wave of sitdown demonstrations that have spread to Little Rock, Ark., scene of school integration violence two years ago.

Thirty-seven Negroes arrested during an anti-segregation demonstration at Alabama State College in Montgomery, Ala., last Tuesday were scheduled to go on trial today.

In Little Rock, a number of Negro lunch counter demonstrators who refused orders to leave a Woolworth store were promptly arrested by police Thursday. As the 20 to 25 demonstrators approached, the store closed its lunch counters.

The Mississippi House of Representatives approved three bills Thursday setting punishment for similar "sitdowns" in the state. The bills would provide a maximum $500 fine and six months jail sentence for anti-segregation demonstrators.

Alabama Gov. John Patterson ordered an investigation into the possibility of closing the Negro college in Montgomery because of racial tension.

Montgomery Police Commissioner L. B. Sullivan requested the action shortly after some 60 students marched around the campus several times Thursday with signs protesting the expulsion of nine classmates.

The Montgomery City Commission said no spectators would be permitted at the trial of the 35 Negro students, a faculty member and her physician husband. They were charged with disorderly conduct and disobeying an officer.

Another demonstration was held Thursday in Huntsville, Ala., where some 60 young Negro men paraded through the 10-block downtown area carrying signs which read: "Alabama, Heart of Dixie, House of Tyrants."

North Carolina Gov. Luther H. Hodges predicted Thursday that sitdown demonstrations against segregated eating facilities will not produce the results that Negroes are seeking. The governor admitted he was concerned about the demonstrations.

In Atlanta, six Negroes took seats in the front center section intended for white occupants at the matinee performance of "My Fair Lady" at the Municipal Auditorium.

The presence of the Negroes did not cause any disturbance, but there were some complaints from some white patrons.

Gov. Ernest F. Hollings announced Thursday that South Carolina would "not tolerate" a proposed Saturday pilgrimage to the state Capitol by Negro students protesting racial segregation.

Chairman Of FCC Quits Under Fire

WASHINGTON (UPI)—John C. Doerfer's resignation under fire as chairman of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) appeared today to portend tougher government action against payola and other radio-TV deceptions.

Frederick W. Ford, named to the top FCC post after Doerfer quit Thursday "to avoid possible embarrassment" to President Eisenhower, said the FCC must issue a clear definition of payola and then crack down on the practice.

Debate Gag Defeated

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congress settled down today to grind out a moderate voting rights bill after the Senate decisively slapped down liberal attempts to gag debate and broaden its civil rights measure.

The Senate Thursday rejected 53-42 a cloture motion to choke off the four-week-old Southern filibuster against civil rights legislation. The vote was 22 short of the two-thirds majority needed to curb the debate.

It then turned down 55-38 the so-called "part three" proposal to give the attorney general authority to seek injunctions in civil rights cases. The liberals vowed to try again later. The same proposal was defeated when it was offered as part three of the 1957 civil rights bill.

The House meantime continued its debate on a less stringent civil rights proposal. There were broad hints that whatever measure (See BILL, Page 3)

School Bully Tamed By Court

FORT WORTH (UPI)—A 19-year-old youth today was under a court order to stop bullying a younger and smaller schoolmate.

Judge Robert B. Young Thursday issued the injunction against Thomas Carroll Pettit, 19. Young acted at the request of the parents of Danny Lowrance, 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil E. Lowrance testified their son was confined to bed for two weeks after Pettit kneed him in the groin.

"I have nothing but contempt for a bully," Young said. He told Pettit he would be put in jail and fined if he violated the order.

Finch-Tregoff Jury Still Out

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Dr. R. Bernard Finch and his young partner, Carol Tregoff, returned to a court ante room today to take up their tense wait while a murder trial jury decides their fate.

The panel of seven women and five men remained out for its seventh day today deliberating whether the Ellet lovers were criminally responsible for the July 18 gunshot death of Finch's wife, Barbara Jean, 33.

The strain of the 13-week trial plus the past week's waiting for a verdict cracked the 23-year-old couple's composure Thursday.

The red-haired former model broke down and openly cried in a police car returning her to jail for lunch.

Finch, 42, who testified he still hoped one day to marry his former receptionist, reached over the back seat of the auto and consolingly patted Carol's shoulder.

More Survive Agadir Quake

RABAT, Morocco (UPI)—Two more survivors of the Agadir earthquake were rescued from the city's ruins today, 12 days after the rubble had entombed them.

Their rescue brought to 12 the number of persons pulled out of the wreckage after virtually all hope had been given up. Eight were rescued Thursday and two the day before.

The two survivors brought out by search crews today both were Moroccan men, but they were too weakened by their ordeal even to give their names.

American, Moroccan, French, and other nations' rescue workers kept up the search. Most of their efforts yielded only bodies to add to the more than 4,000 already recovered. Moroccan officials estimate that at least 9,000 more are under the wreckage left by the Feb. 29 quake.

Officials said it would be "amazing if any more survivors were found, but the amazing has now happened three days in a row.

All the survivors have been taken to hospitals for treatment for exhaustion and lack of food and water.

With faint hopes remaining for still more rescues, Moroccan Prince Moulay Hassan accepted a West German offer to send a team of engineers to aid in the search. Hassan is in charge of rescue and rehabilitation efforts.

Wall Street In Review

NEW YORK (UPI) — Investors tend to become too pessimistic during market reactions and thus force prices much lower than business conditions warrant, says Amott, Baker and Co.

And sometimes in periods of rising markets stock prices have outpaced business indicators, the brokerage firm notes in its monthly investment letter.

The firm believes the pessimistic view held away over the past few weeks.

Purcell & Co. recommends United States Plywood Corp. This company is firmly entrenched in the competitive but, nevertheless, fast growing plywood segment of the "highly cyclical" building industry, the firm notes in its investment advisory digest. "The stock, selling at around 9 1/2 times earnings and yielding 4.8 percent on the indicated dividend, looks attractive for purchase for both income and potential long range capital gain."

Stevenson's Chances For Nomination Seen Fading

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

NEW YORK (NEA) — Sudden collapse has hit Adlai Stevenson's 1960 presidential prospects and many leaders from coast to coast now put him practically out of the race.

In mid-January his name still was on many tongues and signs of major interest persisted. These signs have since largely evaporated. Professionals who see him winning a late ballot compromise at Los Angeles are fast dwindling in number.

Hardheaded appraisers argue that his support for a third nomination never was so broad and deep as surface indications had it. They label the recent evident drop in his fortunes illusory. They say an underlying "negative" Stevenson situation long has existed, and only recognition of it is new.

This has come with a rush as more and more politicians and observers loudly or quietly pronounce virtual benediction over his chances.

For many the topoff was this: Declarations by Wisconsin's Gov. Gaylord Nelson and by California's Gov. Edmund (Pat) Brown and National Committeeman Paul Ziffren, leaders in states with strong Stevenson sympathies, which sharply downgraded his prospects unless he should move vigorously into the fight.

(Off on a two months' tour of Latin America, he repeatedly has said he will not make the slightest move to gain another nomination.)

Underscoring these declarations, even California's fiery liberals have found a new love in Chester Bowles of Connecticut. New York's militant liberal reformists have yielded all but the thinnest hope. Once devoted Michigan leaders don't even trouble to drop Stevenson's name.

Top union officials dispersing from a Miami meeting let the word go out that Stevenson is near the foot of their 1960 list.

Only his two earlier nominations lead the careful to hedge. But even they detect in his present chances only faint pulse beats.

What wrought the seeming change, when just weeks ago many still forecast "Stevenson-Kennedy" as the ultimate Democratic ticket?

1. The battle for the 1960 prize is out of the stage of wishful yearning after old loves. The country is alive with the bustle of active pressing their case on voters and bidders, avowed and unavowed, pressing their case on voters and delegates-to-be.

Amid the rising clamor Stevenson's voice is heard only to reaffirm disinterest. By contrast the actives on the trail are winning commitments and warming all comers with engaging proof of their availability.

This mood of hard choosing is a transition inevitable in any campaign. When it comes, sentimental attachments are tested for convertibility into votes at the convention. By that test, Stevenson in 1960 is not holding up.

For more than a few professionals, reports suggest the attachment was less a real thing than a refuge in which to hide indecision. A good number fidget nervously, feeling they must move soon toward one camp or another. But not many care to hang their hats on the frail peg of Stevenson's fading chances of a late ballot draft. Other candidates threaten to go all the way.

2. Jolted by this reality, the politicians are looking hard at the underlying situation so long obscured. This is it:

Democrats in countless places, including many officeholders facing the polls this year, brand Stevenson a proven loser, a tired face, a drag on the tickets. A Western governor spoke for most last summer: "I don't want him headed any slate I'm on."

This tough resistance to a new Stevenson try shows prominently in some of the biggest states. Ohio, quickly was lured to Sen. John Kennedy. Illinois, Stevenson's home state, is firmly set against him — except in Cook County. Many of New York's 62 county chairmen not only oppose him but would move to block a third nomination.

Even Pennsylvania's Gov. David Lawrence, a devoted admirer, all ways questioned whether Stevenson could win wide professional backing again, and has kept himself free of any 1960 commitment. Stevenson's availability has recently been built upon as his active rivals' supporters have drummed out "Adlai can't win." Their biggest drumstick: an excerpted report from a University of Michigan survey, which the beaters say proves Stevenson is non-electable. It suggests his appeal weakened badly from 1952 to 1956. Its impact has been severe in New York and elsewhere.

Almost a year ago Stevenson himself predicted his dimming out when the campaign waxed hot. The prophecy now looks accurate.

IT'S THE LAW

Property Rendering Deadlines Near

April 1 will be the deadline for most Texans to render their property to certain taxing agencies. State laws require all real and personal property to be rendered for taxes on or before prescribed dates. Those who fail to comply can blame only themselves for the money loss they can consequently suffer.

Some Texas cities set their own tax deadlines. These are the cities of more than 5,000 population which have incorporated under the "Home Rule" provisions of our statutes. All other cities are governed by the general laws of Texas.

In towns operating under the general laws property must be rendered for taxes between January 1 and April 1 each year. A number of home rule cities set up the same requirements in their ordinances, while others prescribe different periods.

For state and county tax purposes, property must be rendered to the County Tax Assessor by April 30, and homestead exemptions must be claimed by the same time.

In some localities a third taxing unit is involved — the independent school district. In other places school taxes are collected by the city or county. In addition, some localities have water, irrigation, or levee districts which assess and collect taxes. Make inquiry as to where these various taxes are assessed, and as to applicable deadlines for rendition.

What property must be rendered or taxes? If Texas laws were strictly enforced, we would be required to render to all taxing units nearly every piece of real and personal property which we own, down to the very clothing on our backs. An exception is the constitutional exemption of $250 worth of household furniture. However, no taxing unit carries their requirements this far, and it will be necessary to inquire of each tax assessor when rendering your property whether specific types of property are ordinarily rendered in that locality. Some cities and counties collect ad valorem taxes on automobiles, television sets and other personal items, while others ignore practically all personal property. Business and professional men are generally required to render all merchandise, furnishings, fixtures, business automobiles and equipment.

If property is not rendered by the tax payer, it may then be placed upon the unrendered tax poll, and the taxing agency places such valuation thereon as it considers fair. One advantage of rendering your property is that you can set your own valuation. Then, if the county or city decides a higher valuation is in order, you will be given an opportunity to appear before a board to explain why the higher figure should not be used in computing your taxes.

Thereafter, an appeal to the courts is possible in some instances. Generally speaking, however, the courts are unable to strike out a valuation unless the agency or board has acted arbitrarily, and placed on the property a valuation higher than that placed on comparable property owned by others. If you do not render, the valuation set by the taxing agency is final.

Remember these facts: You may need to render your property at three or more different tax offices. Ask each tax assessor if in doubt concerning the deadline or the rendering of specific personal items.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

To Be Rich
Greatest Moral Challenge

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International

To be rich, according to Judeo-Christian teaching, is the greatest moral challenge a man or a nation can face.

How are Americans responding to this challenge? Blessed with the greatest wealth that any people have ever possessed, are they living as "good stewards" of God's bounty? Or has prosperity made them short-sighted, self-indulgent, preoccupied with their own comfort?

As a contribution to national self-examination, United Press International sought the views of leading clergymen on these questions.

Participating in the symposium were: The Rev. Dr. Franklin Park Fry, president of the United Methodist Church in America; Rabbi Maurice N. Eisendrath, president of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations; the Rev. Dr. Arthur L. Miller, moderator of the United Presbyterian Church; the Rev. John B. Sheer, C.S.P., editor of the Catholic World; and Methodist Bishop Gertrude Kennedy of Los Angeles.

Their replies add up to a sharp indictment of the way Americans are using their unprecedented affluence.

"I think the basic difficulty with Americans is that they have no clear purpose," said Bishop Kennedy. "We have the money and we have the resources, but beyond making countermeasures against the Russians, we really do not know where we are going."

"I was in Russia last summer and I have come home scared with those people," he described and have great faith in their future. They do believe that the future belongs to them. We do not know where we are going, what we are supposed to believe. The American dream of the dignity of all men and the ultimate worth of freedom seems to be dim."

"I think we have grown selfish and self-indulgent."

Rabbi Eisendrath expressed a similar view.

"We talk of God," he said, "but the American people now worship pagan idols of money, success, and comfort."

"We seem somehow to have lost a sense of positive, dynamic mission in the world—the mission of changing the world in the distinction of God's kingdom, of eliminating poverty and sickness and of translating our religious principles into broad-based action throughout the earth, here and abroad."

"We have grown flabby, unwilling to make sacrifices, afraid of discipline, wary of the demands of a frightening and swiftly changing world."

The most optimistic appraisal came from Dr. Fry.

"No country on earth," he said, "has more generous impulses than the United States. Americans with few exceptions are humanitarians at heart."

But he too expressed concern that "materialism" is sapping the strength of national character, and that self-interest is gradually becoming the dominant motive even in those programs—such as foreign aid—which may appear to be generous.

"The reason why God has given us unparalleled wealth and power must be because he trusts us. Americans," he said, "He expects us to be wise dispensers of his bounty and to live for more than food and drink, stocks and bonds, ermine capes and sailing boats for ourselves."

"Americans are generous," said Father Sheridan, "but not quite generous enough."

"With our 6 per cent of the world's population, we have 40 per cent of the world's income. Yet our total expenditure for the relief of poverty and hunger in India, Indonesia, South America and Africa comes to little more than one-tenth of one per cent of our gross national product. "This is a ridiculously insignificant contribution."

Dr. Miller also scored Americans "self-indulgent."

"One of the basic troubles," he said, "is that we devote too much of our resources to increasing our already affluent level of private consumption, and too little to public services of all kinds."

Girl Fridays Can Write Own Job Ticket As Demand Exceeds Supply

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor
NEW YORK (UPI)—Memo to every boss: Better give your secretary a raise before she reads this column.

Otherwise you may lose her when she learns what a valuable commodity she has become.

The publication "Today's Secretary," in its March issue out this week, reported on a study of job opportunities and salaries in seven leading industrial areas in the United States. It found that the Girl Friday can type her own job ticket.

"In almost every corner of the United States the demands for secretarial help exceeds the supply," said the publication. "Secretaries are experiencing a seller's market, the like of which never has been seen before."

The seven areas surveyed were New York, Atlanta, Miami, Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

"New York City remains the Mecca for secretaries," said the publication.

RECIPES for a sturdy, cold-weather main dish: Beef stew with fluffy corn meal dumplings flavored with caraway seeds.

Beef Stew With Caraway Dumplings Is Winter Treat

By GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Food and Markets Editor

Corn meal dumplings lightly flavored with caraway seeds! How does that sound when the north winds blow? With beef stew, of course, perfectly seasoned with vegetables.

BEEF STEW—CARAWAY DUMPLINGS (Makes 8 servings)
Stew: Two pounds beef stew meat, cut in 1½-inch cubes; 2 tablespoons shortening, 2 teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1 clove garlic, minced; 1 cup coarsely chopped onion, 1 bouillon cube, 3 cups water, 10 medium carrots, cut in half; one 10½-ounce package frozen peas.

Dumplings: One package easy corn bread mix, 1 tablespoon caraway seed, 1 egg, unbeaten; 1½ cup milk.

For stew, brown beef in shortening in large kettle or Dutch oven. Pour off drippings. Add salt, pepper, garlic, onion, bouillon cube and water. Cover and simmer 1½ hours. Add carrots; cover and simmer 10 minutes longer. While carrots are cooking, prepare dumplings. Put caraway seed, egg and milk into bag of mix. Squeeze upper part of bag to force air out. Close top of bag by holding tightly between thumb and index finger. With bag resting on table, mix by working bag vigorously with fingers. (Mix about 40 seconds or until egg is completely blended.) Add peas to stew. For each dumpling, squeeze bag to empty ¼ of batter (about 3 tablespoons) onto boiling stew. Repeat squeezing bag to form 8 dumplings. Cover tightly and simmer 18 minutes. Do not remove cover during cooking. Serve immediately.

The unusual, not the freakish, is always worth searching for in fashion. This does not mean "amusing" hats or outlandish shoes. It means lovely fabrics in shades you don't see on every other woman. It means a touch of imagination that lifts a dress, coat or handbag out of the ordinary.

DEAR ABBY....

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband is 29, handsome and makes a lot of money. He owns his own business. We've been married four years (no children) and I am 27.

Last night he got a telephone call (at dinnertime) from a young woman who works in his office. She asked if she could come over and talk to him. He said "yes" and she said she didn't want to talk in the house. So he asked if I'd excuse them while he took her for a little drive.

He came back (alone) in an hour. He said she had been having trouble with her boyfriend. She had been intimate with him and now he was stalling the marriage. She asked my husband to advise her.

Abby, when he told me this, I got sick inside. What right has she discussing such things with my husband? He says she is a "good kid" but very mixed-up. My intuition tells me she is after my husband. I am so upset I can't think straight. How should I handle this?

SICK INSIDE
DEAR SICK: Make it plain that you do not want any other woman crying on your husband's shoulder. From what you say this young lady has nerve she hasn't used yet. Tell your husband that he should keep his relationship with his employees on an impersonal basis. Tell him you think this kind of goings-on is a threat to your marriage and you want it nipped in the bud. Your intuition is probably correct. Speak your piece and put no punches. And close with lots of love and plenty of kisses.

DEAR ABBY: My fiance and I are having an argument. Should a gentleman carry a lady's bowling ball or not?

I say he should. My fiance says that if a woman is strong enough to bowl six lines in an evening she is strong enough to carry her own bowling ball.

Fingernails may have a rough time when you houseclean. Although you may prefer them long and tapered, there is less likelihood of chipping and breaking nails if you keep them even with the tips of your fingers. Well-manicured nails at this length are just as flattering to your hands as a longer length.

Read The News Classified Ads.

LADY BOWLER
DEAR LADY: It's not a matter of who has strength for what. It is a matter of courtesy. Think twice before marrying this man. Seems to me you could find someone more "up your alley".

DEAR ABBY: How much do you think a 15-year-old girl should know about sex? All my friends know all there is to know about this subject and I don't. I am just wondering if I am slow or are they fast?

SOPHOMORE
DEAR SOPHOMORE: Nobody knows ALL there is to know about any subject, though they may boast that they do. If there are questions in your mind concerning sex, ask any authority (you mother, your doctor, your school nurse, or a mature intelligent adult.) A girl who is old enough to ask is old enough to know.

DEAR ABBY: Why is it that a dozen children are not too much for two parents, but two parents are too much for a dozen children?

FORGOTTEN FATHER
DEAR FORGOTTEN: This is not always the case. But when it is, the children have many years in which to regret their selfishness.

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to Abby in care of this paper and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Send for Abby's pamphlet, WHAT EVERY TEEN-AGER WANTS TO KNOW, in care of this paper. Enclose a large, stamped, self-addressed envelope and 25 cents in coin.

ENTOMOLOGICAL NOTE

I have a bug collector,
He's a busy little man
Who keeps his squirming trophies
In an old spaghetti can.
He spends each waking moment
In continuous pursuit
Of worms and ants and spiders
Or most any substitute.
And when he's loaded up the can
With every bug or other
He very proudly brings them in—
To feed his baby brother.

The Weekly Message Of Inspiration

Come to Church

Written By Woodrow Adcock, Pastor
First Methodist Church

INDIFFERENCE

"I know your works: you are neither cold nor hot. Would that you were cold or hot! So, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spew you out of my mouth." Revelation 3:15-16.

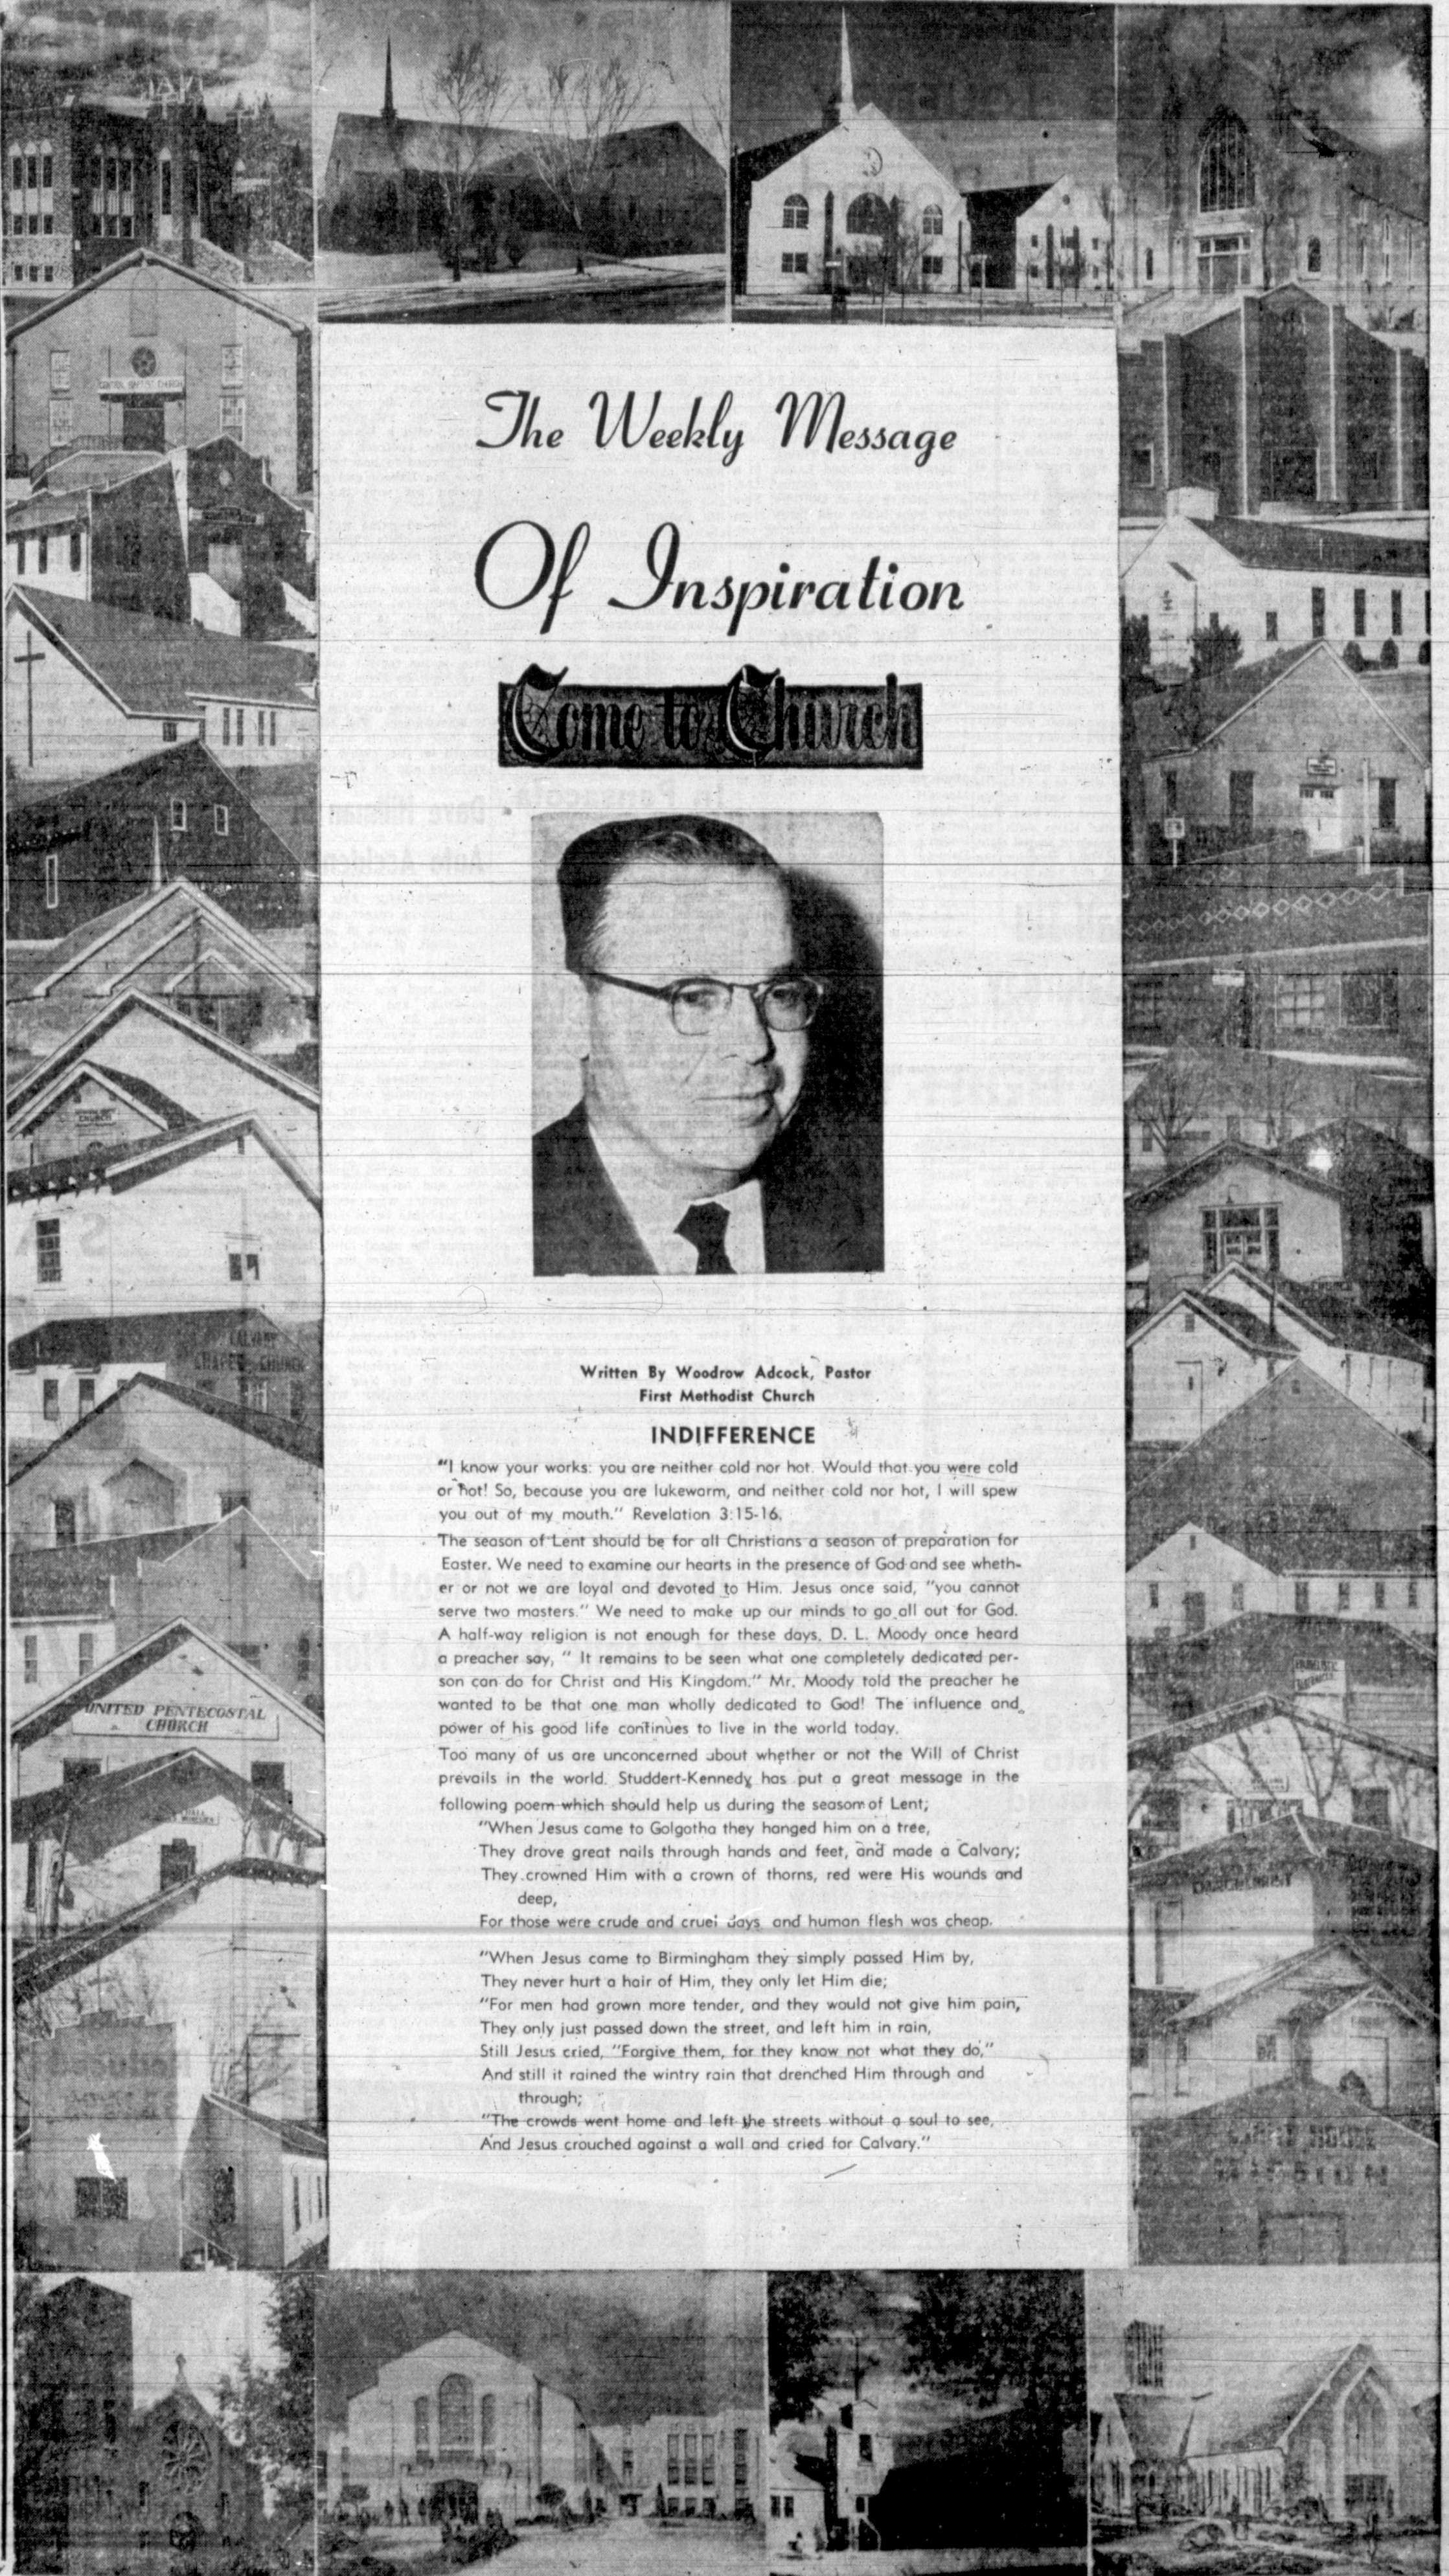

The season of Lent should be for all Christians a season of preparation for Easter. We need to examine our hearts in the presence of God and see whether or not we are loyal and devoted to Him. Jesus once said, "you cannot serve two masters." We need to make up our minds to go all out for God. A half-way religion is not enough for these days, D. L. Moody once heard a preacher say, "It remains to be seen what one completely dedicated person can do for Christ and His Kingdom." Mr. Moody told the preacher he wanted to be that one man wholly dedicated to God! The influence and power of his good life continues to live in the world today.

Too many of us are unconcerned about whether or not the Will of Christ prevails in the world. Studdert-Kennedy has put a great message in the following poem—which should help us during the season of Lent;

"When Jesus came to Golgotha they hanged him on a tree,
They drove great nails through hands and feet, and made a Calvary;
They crowned Him with a crown of thorns, red were His wounds and deep,
For those were crude and cruel days, and human flesh was cheap.

"When Jesus came to Birmingham they simply passed Him by,
They never hurt a hair of Him, they only let Him die;
"For men had grown more tender, and they would not give him pain,
They only just passed down the street, and left him in rain,
Still Jesus cried, "Forgive them, for they know not what they do,"
And still it rained the wintry rain that drenched Him through and through;

"The crowds went home and left the streets without a soul to see,
And Jesus crouched against a wall and cried for Calvary."

BRADENTON, Fla. (UPI)—Charlie Dressen blasted the Milwaukee Braves today as a team "that has learned little about baseball under their two previous managers."

McWilliams of Houston sixth grabbed high individual honors with 19 points, in leading his team to a 27-21 win over Baker. For Baker, Donny Bennett scored nine and Quarrels eight.

Loland Ellis tallied nine points to lead Wilson sixth to a 17-13 triumph over Lamar sixth. Larbin was high for Lamar with nine. Travis sixth defeated Mann sixth, 22-13, as Garry Crossland scored eight points and Ted Bird nine for the winners. Barnes' five was tops for the losers.

Houston fifth scored the most one-sided victory of the night, a 29-14 triumph over Austin. Pacing the winners' attack were Dee Cornutt with 14 points and Thompson with 11. Porter tallied nine for Austin. This was Houston's 13th straight win of the year.

Baker fifth overcame an 8 1/2 half-time deficit, then took an 18-15 overtime win over Travis. Baker's scoring was well spread, with no one getting more than five points. Mann fifth stopped Lamar in a low-scoring defensive contest, 12-8, after leading 5-3 at halftime. Five boys from Mann and three from Lamar broke into the scoring column. Rangers Show Good Strength

Even without Olympic hero Jack McCartan in the nets, the New York Rangers are showing surprising strength in the waning weeks of the National Hockey League season.

At Rollins turned in a neat performance as McCartan's road substitute by holding Boston to a 3-2 tie Thursday night, virtually closing the door on the Bruins' playoff hopes.

New York went through its third straight game without a defeat by coming from behind twice in the third period to deadlock the contest. The H-bosses, Andy Hebertson and Harry Powell, provided the Rangers with decisive goals in the final stanza.

She was the night's top scorer, hitting 30 points, while Mary Chapman led Hale-Centee with 22. Dixie Mendonhall hit 24 for Cooper and Barbara Young had 23 for Pollok Central.

Tracksters Going To 2 Meets

Warriors To Meet Syracuse Tonight

By GARY KALE United Press International Will Chamberlain, who parlayed a rags-to-riches dream into the greatest scoring performance in professional basketball history, opens Philadelphia's quest for its Baker fifth overcame an 8 1/2 half-time deficit, then took an 18-15 overtime win over Travis. Baker's scoring was well spread, with no one getting more than five points.

The fabulous flipper with the devastating fall-away shot set the NBA's all-time scoring record of 2,707 points in his rookie season and out-rebounded Boston's great Bill Russell to take the coronation championship with a record high of 1,941 retrieves.

Will is up against a Syracuse team that boasts such stars as former scoring champion George Yardley and all-time scoring leader Dolph Schayes. The Warriors hold an 8-5 series edge over the Pistons and are favored as favorites for the opening game of the Eastern Division playoffs at Philadelphia.

Gieberger In Pensacola Links Lead

PENSACOLA, Fla. (UPI)—Showers and cooler weather are expected to slow down the youngsters driving to break all records in today's second round of the $15,000 Pensacola Open golf tournament.

Al Gieberger, 22-year-old newcomer to the pro golf ranks from Studio City, Calif., took advantage of ideal golfing weather Thursday to knock eight strokes off par and take the first round lead with a 64.

Gieberger, fresh out of the University of Southern California, carded nine birdies and bogied only one hole to take the early lead. The field will be cut after today's round to the 60 low pros and ties and 10 amateurs.

Don Bisplinghoff of Longwood, Fla.; Dave Ragan of Orlando, Fla.; and Bruce Crampton of Sydney, Australia, were bunched in second place behind Gieberger with 67s. Six others followed with identical scores of 68.

Records fell all over the 6,392-yard Pensacola Country Club course Thursday as 84 of the 150 golfers bodied the par 72 layout and 19 others came in with even par scores. Defending champion Paul Harney of Worcester, Mass., was one of those with 72.

The six bunched at 68 were Ken Venturi, Palo Alto, Calif.; Roland Stafford-Umatilla, Fla.; George Bayer, Glenageles, Ill.; Arnold Palmer, Ligonier, Pa.; Julius Boros, Midlpinx N. C.; and Joe Campbell, New York City.

Warriors To Meet Syracuse Tonight

The series switches to Syracuse for a Sunday televised game and if a third game is necessary it will be played in Philadelphia, Monday, March 14. The winner then faces the Boston Celtics in the division finals.

On the Western Division front, Detroit opens first round play by hosting the Minneapolis Lakers in a Saturday TV game. Dick McGuire, with a brand new Piston coaching contract, will have a rough road to hoe before he can pass the Lakers and go on to a section set with the St. Louis Hawks.

A second game will be played at Minneapolis Sunday and a third, if necessary, at Detroit on Monday.

The division champions will host the semi-final rounds on Wednesday, March 16, in the start of best-of-seven series tests.

Minneapolis ran down the curtain on the regular season Thursday night as Elgin Baylor scored 37 points to lead the Lakers to a 133-108 victory over the New York Knicks. The Knicks ended their schedule with the worst record in the club's history, 27 victories and 48 defeats.

Dave Hillman In Auto Accident

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (UPI)—The pitching career of Dave Hillman was feared in jeopardy as the result of auto accident injuries.

Hillman, 32, obtained by the Boston Red Sox from the Chicago Cubs, and outfielder Marty Keough, 25, were hurt early Thursday when their car left the road and overturned.

Hillman, in addition to a scalp wound, suffered a severe bruise on his pitching arm. He has the right arm in a sling and doctors say it will be a week or so before he can try any pitching. Keough was the driver of the car and suffered bruises, contusions and back injuries. None of the injuries were serious and he will probably be in uniform today or Saturday. He was cited for exceeding the speed limit, however, and must answer the charge in court.

NEWELL HONORED AGAIN

NEW YORK (UPI)—Pete Newell of California, United Press International's coach of the year, has been accorded a similar honor by the New York Metropolitan Basketball Writers Assn.

Newell, who steps up to the post of athletic director after the Golden Bears' complete their NCAA tournament competition, guided California to a 24-1 record during the regular season.

Quarterfinals Set In NIT

NEW YORK (UPI)—Villanova and Providence, a couple of spendthrifts, were safely berthed in the quarter-finals of the National Invitation Basketball Tournament and their coaches were of the same opinion—"it shouldn't have been so close."

Villanova almost blew an 18-point lead before nipping Detroit, 88-86, and Providence tossed away a 14-point margin before downing Memphis State, 71-70, in the twin bid that opened the carnival at Madison Square Garden Thursday night.

That sets up Villanova for a clash with second-seeded Utah in a quarter-final game Saturday afternoon, and Providence for a rematch with third-seeded St. Louis, which beat the Friars, 65-61, in a regular season game in St. Louis Saturday night.

Also Saturday, St. Bonaventure will face Holy Cross in the afternoon and Dayton meets Temple at night in first-rounders.

Top-seeded Bradley and St. John's, fourth-seeded defending champion, don't begin action until next Tuesday night.

Top Nine To Snyder Relays; Others To Enter At Gruver

Pampa track coach Dwaine Lyon is splitting his forces Saturday, taking his top nine men to the Canyon Reef Relays at Snyder, and sending the rest to the Gruver B team track meet.

The tracksters, because of continuous cold weather and a wet track, have gotten off to a slow start this year. The team withdrew from a Fort Stockton meet two weeks ago and last week only Charles Warren's second place finish in the low hurdles prevented a complete shutout at the Possum Kingdom Relays in Graham.

The squad has been working under almost impossible conditions. Until this week, they had been inside for almost two weeks straight because of snow and cold weather. When the snow melted, the track was so wet they have been unable to do much.

Only about 200 yards of the track is usable. Because of that, all running has been limited to that distance. The weather has not warmed up to the point where the tracksters have been able to get out of their sweat clothes.

"We still haven't been able to conduct any real time trials," Lyon said. "They've done a little running in their sweat clothes, but not enough to give us any idea of what they can do. It has been mostly against the wind, and on a muddy track."

Lyon expects some improvement this week, but is not overly optimistic. In addition to weather-caused difficulties, the squad will be without the services this week of one of its top sprinters, Tommy Locke. Locke is taking a college admission test Saturday.

Those going to the Canyon Reef meet will be Steve Dobbins, 440, 880 and mile relays; Roy Dyer, 440, 880 and mile relays; Billy Hughes, mile run; Kent Mitchell, pole vault; Buddy Rawls, broad jump and 440, 880 and mile relays; Chico Ramirez, 880-yard run; Harold Stokes, shot, discus and 440 relay; Dwan Urbanczyk, 880 and mile relays; and Charles Warren, high and low hurdles.

Going to Gruver with Coach Frank Craig will be 13 boys. They are Eddie Berry, low hurdles and 440-yard dash; Gerald Bean, mile relay and 440-yard dash; Larry Braly, shot and discus; Jimmy Boyles, high and low hurdles; Billy Cooper, pole vault, low hurdles, 440 and mile relays; Charles Geise, shot, discus and 440 relay; Randy

Barons Grab Third Place

Buc Pitcher Looks Like Real Friend

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

Danny Murtaugh is wearin' his St. Patrick's Day grin early today because it looks like Bob Friend is ready for a comeback. "Now that's what I was hoping to see," said the jolly Irishman from Chester, Pa., after Friend's first competitive pitching of the spring Thursday. "He looked as good as gold."

Friend was the National League's leading winner in 1955 when he had a 22-14 record for the Pittsburgh Pirates but did an almost complete turnabout last season when his record was 8-19. He is the key man in the Pirates' plans to make a season-long challenge for the pennant this year.

The 200-pound right-hander was in great form Thursday when he struck out four batters and faced only 12 in a perfect four-inning stint that featured the Pirates' final intra-squad game. The Pirates, along with the other major league teams, begin their Grapefruit League exhibition schedule Saturday.

Sammy Esposito of the American League champion White Sox, Bill White of the St. Louis Cardinals and Felipe Alou of the San Francisco Giants continued their heavy spring slugging in other intra-squad games.

Southwestern Recreation Meet Opens

FORT WORTH (UPI)—The annual Southwestern Recreation Track and Field Meet opens in Fort Worth today minus one of the defending championship teams.

That, plus the effect of recent weather on the track and the athletes' training schedules, leaves little hope that many existing records will be broken.

The meet saw 20 new records set last year, but no more than half-and-maybe none are seriously endangered this time around.

Texas had to pass up this meet to take part in a four-way meet at Houston involving Rice, Lamar Tech and Texas A&I. The Harrington Field track is rather rough and mushy because of recent rains, freezes and thaws, and inclement weather has kept many of the athletes indoors and unable to work into even acceptable early-season form.

Schoolboy preliminaries were to begin this afternoon and the other three divisions join the preppers in a four-division finale Saturday.

With Texas out of the running, the university division favorite's role falls on Abilene Christian, even though Bobby Morrow and Bill Woodhouse are no longer eligible.

Morrow and Woodhouse will be around, however, to run in a pair of special events—100 and 220 yard dashes—against North Texas' Jimmy Weaver and Texas' Eddie Southern. Weaver and Southern also have completed their eligibility, but are tuning up for a crack at the U.S. Olympic team tryouts this summer.

Northeast Louisiana, led by win sprint and hurdle stars Don and Dave Styron, is favored to repeat as college division champion, although East Texas State may cause trouble as it did last year. The Indiana took the division title then by only one point.

Baylor and Abilene High School are back to defend their titles in the freshman-junior college class and the high school division, respectively.

In the schoolboy division, big things are expected from Columbus High School flash Pat Mitchell. He took the 100, 220 and low hurdles championships running for Gainesville last year when his dad was track coach there.

Andrews, winner of the Class AA state laurels last year when Abilene took Class AAAA honors, will furnish the chief competition for Abilene.

Some 275 individuals representing 50 schools will compete in the old meet held in conjunction with the track and field meet.

Aggies Close Grid Practice

COLLEGE STATION (UPI)—The Texas Aggies ring down the curtain on spring football practice 7 p.m. Saturday with the usual Maroon and White intra-squad game.

The only veteran who will miss the game is junior halfback Bob Maskey of Gonzales, who broke his hand Thursday.

Each team's starting lineup will be evenly divided between starters from last fall's team and freshmen lettermen. Coach Jim Myers assigned assistant coaches Willie Zapalac to pilot the Maroons and Elmer Smith to handle the Whites.

California, Cincinnati and Ohio State are heavy favorites to zoom to victory tonight in regional eliminations in the NCAA college basketball tournament.

Cincinnati, led by all-time scoring champion Oscar Robertson, and Ohio State's Big Ten champions will be making their first appearance in this year's jamboree and, on the basis of their regular-season exploits, rank as defending champion California's strongest challengers.

California, voted the nation's top team by the United Press International Board of Coaches at the completion of the regular season, opened the defense of its NCAA crown by clobbering Idaho State, 71-44, in a Far West match Tuesday night.

Second-ranked Cincinnati and third-ranked Ohio State drew first round byes.

Here are the pairings for tonight's regional games, with won-lost records in parentheses:

East at Charlotte, N.C.—West Virginia (25-4) vs. New York University (20-3); St. Joseph's (Pa.) (20-5) vs. Duke (16-10).

Midwest at Louisville, Ky.—Ohio State (21-3) vs. Western Kentucky (20-5); Ohio University (17-7) vs. Georgia Tech (21-5).

Midwest at Manhattan, Kan.—Cincinnati (25-1) vs. DePaul (16-6); Texas (18-6) vs. Kansas (18-6); West at Seattle, Wash.—California (25-1) vs. Santa Clara (21-5); Utah (25-2) vs. Oregon (18-9).

The winners of the regionals will advance to the national semifinals at San Francisco next weekend.

Thomas Favored In Track Meet

CHICAGO (UPI)—World record-holder John Thomas was a lopsided choice to win the high jump event and Phil Coleman, indoor AAU champion, was favored to capture the featured Bankers Mile tonight in the 24th Chicago Daily News Relays.

Eight other high jumpers posed no serious threat to Thomas. The only question for an expected international amphitheatre crowd of 10,000 was whether the Boston University sophomore will match or surpass the 7 feet 2 inch jump he established as a world record Feb. 20.

George Dennis, the Philadelphia who has cleared 6 feet 11 inches, was expected to provide Thomas' strongest challenge.

NFL Teams Will Stock Dallas Club With Players

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A formula to give their club enough strength to both the old and established clubs.

The NFL Miami meeting established the basic principle that each club would be permitted to set up a list of "untouchables" which would not be subject to draft by Dallas. The new club then would be permitted to tap each of the 12 existing clubs for three players, giving Dallas a list of 36 veterans to start operations with, in addition to any rookies or free agents it might pick.

While there were other items on the NFL meeting agenda, the Dallas formula was the big one. Such expansionists as George Halas of the Chicago Bears were determined the new club should get enough players not only to be a worthy rival but to attract the affections of Dallas fans.

With the NFL clubs bucking an American Football League team at present is the route from Buenos Aires, Argentina, to Valparaiso in Chile.

Fearless Fraley Picks 1960 Baseball Pennant Winners

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — After a rigorous bit of spring training consisting of two hot lobbies, a steam bath and an interview with an Austrian skier, Fearless Fraley can tell you unequivocally today that it will be Chicago and Milwaukee in the major league races this season.

My harried compatriots, during the dangers of sunburn, falling palm fronds and over-acidity from too much citrus among other juices, are doing it the hard way in the Southland. All they will learn from 16 optimistic managers is that each expects to win.

This is known as being so close to the palms that you can't see the coconuts.

Avoiding these pitfalls, old Fearless can tell you without further to-do that the White Sox and the Braves will meet in the World Series, and, under extreme pressure, will also reveal that one of them will win in six games. This exclusive information is being withheld pending conclusion of the season formalities of clinching the flag.

If the White Sox lose, it says here, it would be a bigger scandal than either (A) 1919 or (B) 1959. They won 35 games by one run last season and, having added power, should win 35 by two runs.

Behind them, the also-rans should be: 2, New York Yankees; 3, Cleveland Indians; 4, Detroit Tigers; 5, Baltimore Orioles; 6, Kansas City A's; 7, Boston Red Sox; and 8, Washington Senators.

The Yankees were on the anemic side last year and, while Mickey Mantle should have a better year even without spring training, the deficit still appears too great. These are not the old powerhouse Yankees as evidenced by the fact that most of the infielders wait in the on-deck circle swinging only one bat.

Cleveland's pitching is fair enough to threaten but doesn't seem sturdy enough for a dash down to the wire while Detroit, with good front line pitching, still doesn't have enough power even with such as Al Kaline and Harvey Kuenn on hand.

From there down it's for laughs land.

Debate on Morality

What happens that we have been conducting a somewhat lengthy debate by mail with a pair of college students in different parts of a country. Our editorials appear to be circulating rather widely and as a consequence we are now involved with a discussion with these two students on the concept of morality.

Scientific Morality

To approach the subject of morality in an objective rather than a dogmatic manner, we must first decide on certain definitions and make use of them. This is not to suggest that other definitions might not be employed. We merely seek to establish a method for conveying and understanding ideas.

The Pampa Daily News

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from the government. Freedom is not license. It must be consistent with the truths expressed in such great moral guides as the Golden Rule, The Ten Commandments and the Declaration of Independence.

Better Jobs

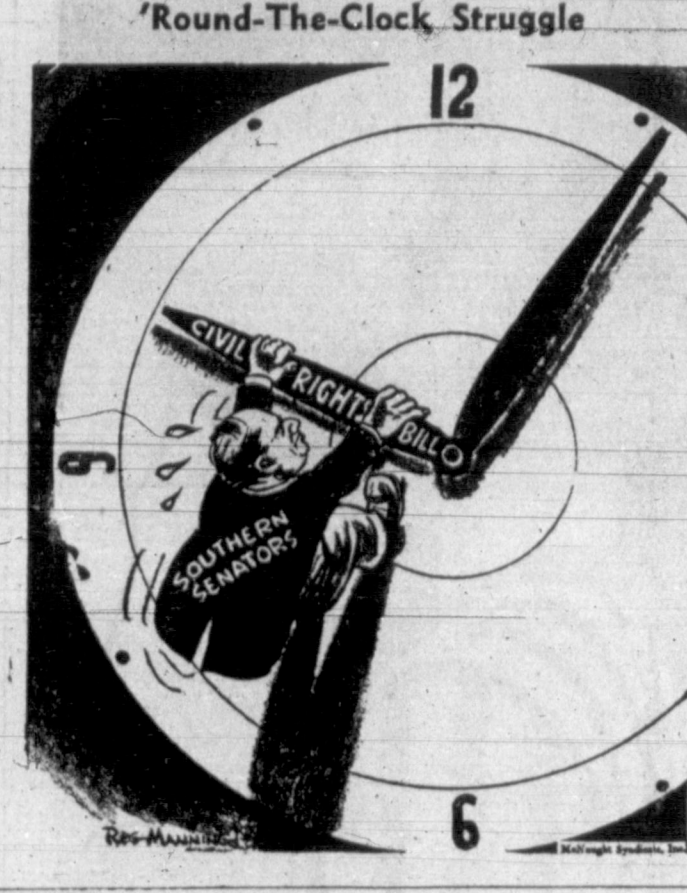

by R. C. HOLLES

Some Modern Monsters, Bugaboos, Dragons, Idols Down through the ages people in their imaginations, have created in our story, dragons, bugaboos, witches, demons, that have kept them constantly in fear and in many cases under great servitude.

A few years ago our government was scaring us into believing that our modern monsters were Japan and Germany, and now it is Russia. Now they say: "If we do not let the bureaucrats control us and take as much of what we produce as they see fit, we'll be under the control of this modern monster, Russia."

The Employer A Monster And when you listen to and read the literature of the labor unions, you see that the union leaders use every tactic to get the employe to believe that his employer is a monster if he does not grant every demand that the laborer makes.

Parents Are Monsters And the tax-supported school bureaucracy headed by the Communist Education Assn. has taught the people to believe that the parents are monsters when they want to have the right to educate their own children.

NEW YORK — If you know anything better to do when the snow is pelted down hard than the measles, you do it. I'm too old to get the measles and not old enough to be out alone in the snow.

The measles momentarily disconcerted her. The doctor was with her for 15 minutes. After he'd gone, she twisted her crimson lips into control, put on a dazzling sort of pajama-dressing gown job through which green and blue ran riot like Pickett's Charge and, barefooted as the day she was born, began holding a salon in her hotel suite.

Oh, sure, why not? You can only look awful, you aren't really sick. To relieve her own guilt, she wrote a check for $50.00 to the Write Credit Manager, Box 2541, Amarillo, Texas.

Why Is There No Greeting Between Persons For Lent?

By The Rev. Philip S. Krug, Rector, St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Weston, Mass.

Written for UPI
How surprised we would be to hear a friend say, "happy lent!" to us. Even so, it would be a greeting in keeping with the first uses of this holy season. Lent, we must remind ourselves, points directly toward Easter. This is really how Lent began — as an instruction period for baptismal candidates prior to Easter. Any self-denial, prayer or discipline they undertook was in anticipation of celebrating the Lord's triumphal resurrection. They were spiritual athletes in training for the great battle of self-mastery. How could a disciple of Christ be gloomy? Had not the Lord himself said, "When ye fast, be not as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance. . . . But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face." Church scholars, both Protestant and Catholic, are recalling us to this earliest understanding of Lent which reaches back to the 2nd Century Christians. The English historian, Bury, once wrote that "the cheerful virtue of the Christian life" was, in his opinion, the great influence for converting the ancient world. May you find an inward radiance as you prepare for the festival of Easter.

Deductible Items Allowed

Under one of two conditions, direct costs of education and necessary expenses for travel, meals and lodging while taking education courses away from home overnight are deductible on the 1959 Federal income tax return.

Wiley E. Davis, Internal Revenue Service, Pampa, revealed the two conditions:
(1) If the education was undertaken primarily to maintain or improve the skill of a taxpayer required in the performance of "his employment duties when the education expense was incurred; or,
(2) If the education was undertaken primarily to meet the express requirements of a taxpayer's employer, or the requirements of applicable law or regulations imposed as a condition for retaining the taxpayer's present employment, salary or position.

Davis added:
"You may NOT deduct expenses for education if the primary purpose for which the education was undertaken was any of the following:
"(1) To obtain a new position or a substantial advancement in your position.
"(2) To fulfill your general educational aspirations or any other personal purpose.
"(3) To meet the minimum requirements for qualification or establishment of your intended trade, business, or specialty.

"Direct costs of education such as books, tuition, laboratory fees, etc., are deductible only when you itemize your deductions on your return Form 1040. You may NOT deduct these if you take the standard deduction, use the tax table, or use the simple card Form 1040A.

"Travel expense and the cost of meals and lodging while away from home overnight pursuing qualifying educational activities are also deductible on Form 1040."
Taxpayers with other questions about this subject may get Document No. 5014, "Education, Travel and Employee Expenses," by contacting the local IRS office in the Camborley Bldg., or by telephoning MO 4-2131.

Does life make sense? Surely not, we would respond, when viewed against the background of our personal problems and the world's larger moral tragedies. Above all, life seems meaningless in the shadow of Christ's cross, for here all that was finest in life was done to death cruelly and wastefully.

Yet, strangely enough, this cross gives meaning to life. It is "the wisdom of God," as Paul declared. We might well use Lent to ponder the way in which Christ's death takes the absurdities out of life.
How clear the predicament of man appears when his nature is exposed by the light of the cross! How obvious becomes his need for God's forgiving and transforming life. Even personal tragedy and death are robbed of their futility when viewed against this symbol of victory.

The late Albert Camus, famed French writer who was dismayed by life's absurdities, once confessed: "In the midst of winter

Seven File For Lefors City Council

LEFORS (SpI) — Seven men have filed for the office of city councilman in the April 5 election. They are Ray Chastain, Fred W. Calton, Billy E. Kindie, Bill Teel, Leland Fedler, Jimmy Hannon and Wayne E. Wall.

Three councilmen are to be elected from the group.
Seeking the office of mayor is W. F. Wall, present mayor, Fred Blackwell, L. R. Cain and Chester Hill.

I finally learned that there was in me an invincible summer. We all need the inner warmth and light of faith. Lent can indeed become our spring, if we let Christ make life meaningful for us!

Disarmament Delegates In Agreement

PARIS (UPI)—The West's five disarmament delegates have reached agreement on a "common plan" to present to the Soviet Union at Geneva next week, it was announced Thursday.

The announcement came after a long period of haggling during which it appeared France would not go along with the United States, Britain, Canada and Italy.

Western officials were reported to have all but given up hope before a "last chance" meeting today.
U.S. disarmament delegate Frederick Eaton made the announcement to a meeting of the permanent council of NATO. France had been insisting that the destruction of nuclear stockpiles be one of the first steps in any multi-step disarmament plan.

HONOR MASARYK
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Post Office issued a new stamp Monday honoring Thomas G. Masaryk, founder of the Czech republic after World War I, as a "champion of liberty." The stamp was issued in four and eight-cent denominations.

WOULD BE CHARGED
NEW YORK (UPI) — James R. Bedell Jr., 23, awaiting arraignment as a probationary policeman was arrested Wednesday and charged with a $280 station robbery.
An alert detective spotted Bedell's photograph on the would-be policeman's application and noted the similarity of the crew-cut young father with the description of the holdup man. Bedell pleaded innocent and was held in $5,000 bail.
