

Five Dead, Over 125 Injured As Train Derailed

By LATHAN MIMS and ALLEN ALEXANDER DILLON, S. C. — A 17-car streamliner, bound for Miami from New York, careened off the rails near here last night and piled up a mass of twisted wreckage.

At least five persons died. More than 125 injured were rushed to hospitals, many of them in critical condition. Rescue workers continued to probe the wreckage and officials said more bodies may be found.

Some of the injured lay for hours pinned in the shattered cars of the Atlantic Coast line's fast passenger train, the East Coast Champion. Skilled rescue workers, called from their beds, used acetylene torches to reach the victims. Doctors crawled after them, giving first aid and sometimes operating on the spot to free the injured.

More than 25 ambulances, recruited from far and wide in this Northeast South Carolina tobacco section, maintained a steady parade and from half a dozen swamped community hospitals.

Part of the train caught fire and the burning oil, emergency lights and cutting torches cast a weird glow.

The wreck occurred shortly before midnight, 2 1/2 miles south of Dillon, 12 miles south of the North Carolina line and only about 25 miles from Rennett, N. C., where two ACL passenger trains crashed Dec. 16, 1943, killing 72 persons and injuring 187.

Roaring northward through the night, the train sagged an estimated 300 passengers, many of them vacationers returning from a winter in Florida.

The seriously injured engineer, B. B. Sweeney of Rocky Mount, N. C., told Sheriff Pete Rogers he didn't know what happened. He said a freight train covered the same stretch only 10 minutes before the Champion derailed.

The train's fireman, Charlie Hunt, also of Rocky Mount, died in his flaming locomotive. His body was cut out with torches.

Five coaches, seven Pullmans, two diners, two lounge cars and a baggage car comprised the streamliner. Eleven overturned and six remained upright.

Dozens of passengers were trapped in the overturned cars. Joe Dabney of the Florence Morning News, one of the first reporters at the scene, said the five day coaches on their sides "apparently are full of passengers unable to get out."

Mrs. Frank Hicken of Springfield, Mass., lay pinned in the wreckage for nearly five hours. She joked with her rescuers until a doctor reached her with a hypodermic. She was dug out from beneath a car at 4:12 a.m. and taken to a hospital.

A surgeon was lowered into one of the telescoped coaches to cut off the left leg of a woman in an effort to free her.

Dabney said: "In one coach I saw three people pleading for help. It seemed impossible that anything could be left of the legs of any of them."

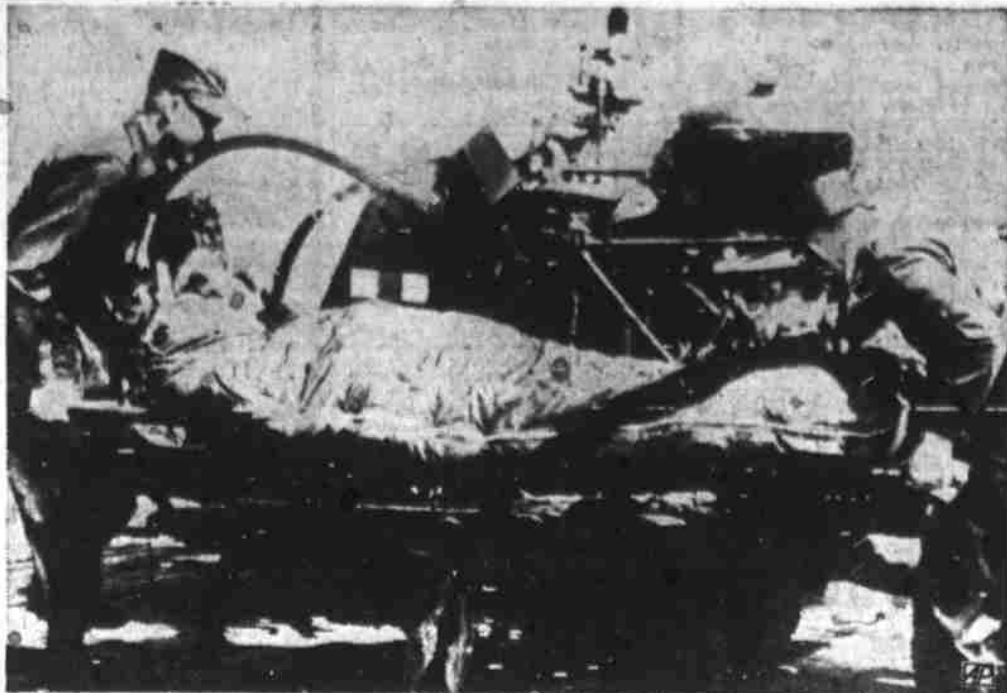

"Wonderful first aid assistance was given by several sailors who were in the seven passenger cars behind the locomotives."

Darwin Gardner of Boston who was in the last car, said: "There were three bumps and then it sounded like an earthquake just before we left the track."

Philip McCabe, sailor from the Parris Island, S. C., Marine recruit depot, reported there were four dead in his Pullman.

Dabney said he counted six dead, one of them a Negro porter whose body was removed only after two men worked 30 minutes with axes.

Freed Prisoners Say Many UN Sick, Wounded Remain

By ROBERT EUNSON — Accounts of Bataan-style death marches, semi-starvation and calculated brutality came today from the second handful of Allied soldiers returned from Communist prison camps.

And stories of many more dangerously ill Allied soldiers still in Red captivity indicated the Communists do not plan to free all sick and wounded as they had agreed to do.

Today's reports recalled the shocked words "incredibly small" uttered two weeks ago by Rear Adm. John C. Daniel, the U. N. truce delegate, when the Reds told him 600 sick and wounded would be repatriated. The new development suggested that the Communists were falling once again on a solemn agreement.

Sgt. Walter H. Mitchell of Greenville, Tenn., said, "There were quite a few left in the hospital at the Pyoktong camp. . . . I would rather they had come than me. . . . They needed medical attention more."

The returned prisoners said treatment improved after the truce talks started in July, 1951, but varied since with the ups and downs of the negotiations.

Death marches over frozen highways in bitter winter weather were reported by two American soldiers.

Pfc. Roger Herndon of Jacksonville, Fla., and Cpl. Orville R. Mullins of Covington, Ky., told of separate agonies in 1950 and 1951. Herndon was captured in the frigid winter of 1950. He said some 40 American and Turkish soldiers perished in a nine-day forced march north from Kunu, where the U. S. 2nd Division met disaster in November, 1950.

Of 100 men who started, only 60 arrived at the Red prison, he said, and related: "We were not allowed to stop for any cause—not even to go to the latrine. If you did, you would have to look out for yourself."

"One night 17 of us were put in a small room. Next morning when I woke up there were only two living."

Herndon, who had a wounded hand amputated by Chinese doctors eight days before the march, said many died from pneumonia. He said all they had to eat on the march was "millet and cracked corn. . . . one bowl a day."

Herndon just laughed when asked if attempts to indoctrinate him in communism had worked. "I've never been so happy as to reach freedom today," he said.

Mullins told of a march north from Pyongyang in August, 1951, just as the truce talks were beginning. "We passed two jeepsloads of Russian soldiers," he said. "They stopped us on the road and tried to get our guards drunk so they would shoot us."

Mullins said the Russians were armed and in uniform. He said he knew the Russians wanted the guards to shoot because "they made motions."

Sgt. Mitchell said about 200 serious hospital cases were left behind. "Medical attention was no good at all. Very few guys got any."

His story was confirmed by Pvt. See POWs, Pg. 6, Col. 3

Trash Collections In Cleanup Is Thursday

Big Springers have one more day in which to clean up premises and get rubbish ready for free removal by city trash trucks. Sam McComb, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce clean-up and Fire Prevention Committee, today urged everyone to complete spring clean-up activities and have waste ready for loading when trucks arrive. The trash removal trucks will start making the rounds Thursday morning.

R. V. (Skip) Pearsyth, superintendent of the city street department, said volume of trash being put out has increased sharply in the past few days as some residents got their spring housecleaning operations underway early.

McComb has circulated letters urging residents to clean up vacant lots as well as their own premises. Persons living adjacent to vacant property are requested to cooperate in cleaning off the lots.

Two additional radio programs are scheduled, one at 8:15 p.m. Wednesday to urge thoroughness in the clean-up campaign and a program Friday, evening to promote "follow-up" with year-round efforts to keep homes and businesses free of accumulations of refuse. Lige Fox is in charge of arrangements for the programs to be aired over Radio Station KTXX.

AUSTIN (U. N. — A proposed constitutional amendment to do away with local property taxes on autos suffered a setback in the House today.

It mustered an 87-47 vote on second reading, enough to advance it to third and final reading, but it needed 100 votes to send it to the Senate. The author can try again on another day to move it further forward.

Debate on the amendment on auto taxes took the spotlight from the teachers pay issue in the House.

The stage was set there for a last-ditch battle on whether to boost teachers pay $300 or $500 a year, and where to raise the millions to foot the bill.

Mechanics of preparing the amended teacher pay bill for study by members will hold up debate on it until tomorrow at the earliest and more likely until later in the week. It might go over to next week.

Rep. Douglas Bergman of Dallas sponsored the proposed constitutional amendment to abolish the auto property tax which some cities and counties try to collect and which others don't. He would substitute an increase in the registration fee on cars with the income going to cities and counties.

The House Appropriations Committee by a one-vote margin last night recommended passage of a bill boosting teachers pay $500 a year. A strong opposing faction wanted a $600 raise.

In the Senate, opponents of a House committee is working on several tax increase proposals. The $300 teachers pay increase measure that will touch off a torrid fight on the floor was estimated to cost a little more than 15 million dollars a year.

The teachers pay bills and other appropriations measures had been dormant in the House committees for many weeks pending final action on the general spending bill.

35 Are Repatriated In Latest Exchange

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN — PANMUNJOM, Korea (U. N. — A substantial group of 100 disabled but jubilant Allied prisoners came back from North Korean prison stockpiles today as some of the 30 Americans exchanged yesterday landed in Japan on their way home.

Many of the American and other United Nations prisoners who rolled through Freedom Gate today were laughing and joking, in sharp contrast to the solemn air of those freed at the exchange of sick and wounded began yesterday.

But today's group of 35 Americans, 12 British, 3 Turks and 50 South Koreans told also of seriously sick and wounded comrades still in Red prison camps and of death marches over frozen highways during the bitter winters of 1950, 1951 and 1952.

The Reds have said they would exchange 100 South Koreans for 350 North Koreans and 150 Chinese Communists tomorrow, leaving 55 Americans the Reds have promised to free still in Communist hands.

All of the 605 disabled United Nations and South Korean captives to be freed by the Reds are to be exchanged by Saturday, the day full-scale armistice negotiations are to be resumed.

Some 5,500 North Korean and Chinese sick and wounded will be taken in Communist hands by May 1.

Allied reconnaissance planes today spotted a convoy of Communist trucks and ambulances carrying more sick and wounded prisoners toward Panmunjom. Shortly after noon it was moving between Sariwon and Sohung, 50 to 75 miles north of Kaesong.

A plane carrying 36 Americans and other Allied sick and wounded from Korea landed Tuesday at Tachikawa airbase, near Tokyo. Air Force officials said there will be daily flights until all U. S. prisoners are in Japan on their way home.

Twelve of the Americans flown to Japan Tuesday were carried from the big transport on litter. Newsmen at the airbase were not permitted to interview them.

In the Panmunjom neutral zone between two warring armies even the exchange of sick and wounded captives went through the second day.

The second batch of 500 disabled Chinese and North Koreans appeared a little less grumpy than yesterday's 500 as they headed north through a brand new arch erected by the Reds to match the Allies' Freedom Gate.

The Communist arch was emblazoned with Chinese characters proclaiming "Long Live the Chinese Peoples' Republic! Long Live the Korean Peoples Democratic Government!"

The smaller U. N. gate bears the simple slogan: "Welcome—Gate to Freedom."

United Nations prisoners who came back Tuesday, while jubilant over their release, told soberly of pain and suffering among comrades left behind.

Marine Pvt. Lione E. Peterson of Black River Falls, Wis.; Army Pvt. Charles Sacco of Ontario, Canada; Puerto Rican Pvt. Juan Onorio-Melendez, and Army Pvt. Roger Herndon of Jacksonville, Fla., told of friends who died on 50-day marches. . . . of men who died of disease and of hunger.

Another told of unformed Russian soldiers who tried to get Communist guards drunk so they would shoot the American prisoners.

The first ambulance to pull into the neutral zone Tuesday was loaded with Allied prisoners shouting and wisecracking. The first man out was Pfc. Paul O. Blanton of Broadhead, Ky. The second was Pvt. John M. Jankovits Jr. of Philadelphia.

Paving Program Starts July 1 As City, Contractor OK Pact

H. B. Zachry Company expects to "start moving dirt" about July 1 on the extensive paving program in Big Spring.

About seven months—until Feb. 1—will be required to complete the 183-block project, Delbert Ward, president of the company, estimated Monday.

Ward said he hopes the paving program can be enlarged during the period the initial 183 blocks of pavement are being put down.

Details of a contract for the paving program were worked out Monday afternoon at a conference between city commissioners, Ward and the Zachry Company attorney and vice president, Chester Johnson.

The firm agreed to put down asphalt concrete (hot mix) pavement at a total price of $554,706.34—$41,000 less than had been asked for the job in the company's first bid last week.

Zachry officials agreed to the lower price in order to encourage the city commission to accept hot mix paving in lieu of quadruple penetration pavement. The firm also had submitted low bid for the quadruple paving, but the proposal contained an error which would have taken all profit out of the job, Ward said.

Reduction in the hot mix bid included deduction of $28,000 for engineering, which also had been included by error, and lowering of charges for installing curb and gutter by $13,000.

Paving still will cost the property owner 17 or 18 cents per front foot more than the quadruple penetration pavement. However, some commissioners expressed belief that hot mix is a superior type of surfacing. Also, the hot mix can be installed in winter as well as summer and the project can be carried to completion without a halt during the winter months.

Work on the installation of the quadruple penetration asphalt would have to be suspended in October, had commissioners insisted on holding Zachry to that bid. As soon as contract details were ironed out Monday commissioners passed an ordinance ratifying the agreement and providing for issuance of $100,000 in paving warrants to finance the city's share of paving costs. First National Bank of Big Spring has agreed to purchase the warrants.

Johnson estimated it will be July 1 before actual work on the paving program can get underway. Sign-up of property owners, assessments, public hearings and other preliminary arrangements will be made in the next 10 weeks.

The Zachry officials Monday asked the commission to agree to accept paving certificates, in the amount of about $30,000, as payment for engineering the city will do in connection with the paving program. Commissioners declined, pointing out that the city is not in financial condition to handle the "paper" as all available funds will be needed to finance city's share of the cost and, if possible, enlarge the paving program.

The men wore dark blue bathrobes, light blue pajamas and most of them white slippers. A few wore combat boots.

One doctor, three nurses and three medical aid men were aboard the plane which brought American prisoners here.

"The nurses gave some medicines—stimulants, and oxygen in a few cases," said Capt. A. G. Thompson. "They got hot broth and milk on the way over."

Thompson said another plane will bring more prisoners to Japan from Korea tomorrow and every day after that until all are evacuated.

Union Boss Indicted On Red Oath Charge

SILVER CITY, N. M.—Union leader Clinton Jencks was arrested by the FBI last night after a federal grand jury indicted him on charges he lied about whether he was a Communist.

James C. Ellsworth, agent in charge of the Albuquerque FBI office, said Jencks is charged with violating provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act requiring union officers to swear they are not Communists.

Jencks is an international representative here for the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers, which was expelled from the CIO in 1950 for alleged Communist domination.

The indictment accuses Jencks of making a false statement to the National Labor Relations Board April 28, 1950, that he was not a Communist and making a false affidavit the same date that he was not affiliated with the Communist party.

Spokesmen for the union here and at its Denver, Colo., headquarters declined comment.

Jencks, 35, held in lieu of $5,000 bond in the Grant County Jail, was not available for comment.

Last October, Jencks refused to tell the McCarran committee at a hearing in Salt Lake City if he was a Communist.

Jencks was arrested at his home in nearby Bayard and given a hearing before U. S. Commissioner George H. Keene here.

The FBI began checking into the activities of Jencks and the Mine-Mill union locally recently when production was started here on a controversial movie depicting the life of local miners. The film was branded as Communist-inspired on the floor of Congress.

Jencks was the spokesman for a group of blacklisted Hollywood figures who were producing the picture jointly with the union. The leaders of the movie group had been barred from major Hollywood studios for refusing to tell congressional committees if they were Communists.

The U. S. Reclamation Bureau estimates it developed a water supply for 6,713,015 acres in the Western States in its first half century.

Appropriations Bill Faces Test In House Today

WASHINGTON—A Republican drive to cut as much as 10 billion dollars from former President Truman's 1954 federal budget faces its first test today in the House.

The initial regular appropriations bill of the 83rd Congress, an omnibus measure carrying $451,020,493 to finance 23 agencies for the fiscal year starting July 1, provides the test.

Crucial voting probably won't come until tomorrow. Today's session was set aside to give Appropriations Committee members a chance to explain why they cut 61 per cent from the funds Truman requested last January.

The committee cut $721,423,697 from the Truman figures. Some Democrats have called many of the reductions phony.

Its money recommendations were expected to stick, although some members, Republicans as well as Democrats, are unhappy over refusal to recommend the normal annual federal contribution to the civil service retirement fund.

The over-all money requests for the Civil Service Commission were slashed from $450,041,000 to $49,961,323. The committee report said that it wasn't good practice to put tax revenues into the retirement fund at a time when the money isn't needed. The fund already has a substantial surplus built up from past contributions of federal employees and the government. The effect of the committee's recommendation, if sustained, would be to defer until some later year the normal federal contribution.

Major controversies shaped up over the committee's proposal to halt the public housing program, as far as new housing units are concerned, on July 1 and to take the government out of the home mortgage business.

The Appropriations Committee said the program isn't justified.

HS Band Concert Date Now May 4

Date for the high school band spring concert has been changed to May 4.

J. W. King Jr., director, said that the change would help fit into the school programs better on the new date, and also it would avoid conflict with two other concerts scheduled for the previous dates.

At the same time, the May 4 date will permit the band to present its concert as part of the traditional National Music Week observance.

Tickets for the concert will go on sale sometime this week and will be 50 cents for students and 75 for adults. Proceeds will go to the fund out of which the band hopes to make a trip to the Tri-State Music Festival in Enid, Okla. May 7-9.

As has been announced, Toots Mansfield will be one of 16 ropers contesting in a two-day show at Bandera, May 1 and 2.

He is also entered in the third annual championship calf roping contest sponsored by the Curry County Mounted Patrol which is scheduled to be held at Clovis, N. M., at 2 p. m., Sunday, May 17, and for which a $10,000 purse has been announced.

Other ropers lined up for the Clovis exhibition are Gordon Davis of Templeton, Calif.; Fred Darnell of Rodeo, N. M.; Buddy Neal of Fort Stockton, Texas; Troy Fort of Lovington, N. M.; Doyle Riley of Ballinger, Texas; Lanham Riley of Fort Worth; Ray Wharton of Bandera; Buddy Griffin of Hondo, Texas; Jack Shaw of Buidoso, N. M.; B. J. Pierce of Clovis; I. B. Porter of Leesville, Louisiana; John D. Holleyman of Ysleta, Texas; John Dalton of Brownfield; Don McLaughlin of Smithfield, Texas; and Junior Vaughn of Elida, N. M.

Present arrangements call for each of the ropers to take four calves in this event. A Calcutta Pool is scheduled for 1:15 p. m. that day.

If the approval of the Dawson County Fair Association can be obtained for the proposition, the Dawson - Borden County Junior Boys' Livestock Association plans to landscape and make more attractive the Fair Grounds in Lamesa.

The association has named a committee to look into the matter the members of which are DeWayne Davis, Chamber of Commerce manager; Lee Roy Colgan, county agricultural agent; Clemon Montgomery, A. J. Essary, Bill Atwood, Ross Woodson, Jack Burkhalter and Guy Orr.

Our Dawson County neighbors are going to let the world have a double-barreled charge of top entertainment in one big blast this year. They're staging the Dawson County Fair and their colorful and spectacular Fiesta at the same time. The dates (and mark your calendars) are Sept. 17-18-19.

Last year the Fiesta followed the Fair by one week. This year, they say, by holding them together they're going to make both of them bigger and better. And if we may express an opinion—while the Dawson County Fair will always be a good one, the Fiesta is destined to become one of the truly great events on the South Plains in the next few years. In a little more time it will be one of the big events in Texas. Lamesa certainly got the drop on other West Texas towns with this program.

Committees for the big combined programs are:
General superintendents, Lee Roy Colgan and Clemon Montgomery; Grounds, C. A. Ellard and George Norman; Publicity, DeWayne Davis, Colgan, Bob Bradbury and Montgomery; Finance, Connelly Baldwin, C. A. Hollingsworth, and W. K. Crawley; Catalogue, Colgan and Montgomery; Commercial exhibits, Ben Allen and Homer Simpson; Concessions, W. J. Beckham, Ben Allen and Edwin Matthews. Arrangements for the parade will be in charge of C. V. Ball.

General superintendents of the different divisions of the Fair itself are: Livestock, Bill Atwood; Agriculture, F. J. McCauley, and the Women's Department will be under the supervision of Miss Gay Lancaster.

The number of cattle on feed for market in the 11 Corn Belt states on April 1 was 19 per cent more than a year earlier and this 19 per cent is estimated at 570,000 head.

Of the cattle on feed on April 1, steers accounted for 68 per cent, heifers 15 per cent and calves 17 per cent. All the Corn Belt states except Kansas had more cattle on feed this past April 1 than on the same date one year ago.

Fixing the cattle on feed for the market on April 1, 1952, as a 100 per cent basis, the number on feed on April 1 this year in these states is as follows:

Ohio 115 per cent; Indiana 120 per cent; Illinois 112 per cent; Michigan 115 per cent; Wisconsin 110 per cent; Iowa 120 per cent; Minnesota 111 per cent; Missouri 120 per cent; South Dakota 122 per cent; Nebraska (highest) 135 per cent, and Kansas (lowest) 96 per cent.

The corn supply has apparently been better this year than last year, and weather conditions, in these feeder states, were very favorable for feeding operations for the period of January through March. Cattle made good gains. The feeders estimate they will market 46 per cent of these cattle before July 1.

In California on April 1 there were 21,000 head of cattle on feed for the market as compared with 327,000 head on January 1 this year.

In the 11 Corn Belt states about 76 per cent of the cattle on feed on April 1 had been on feed longer than three months. In California 43 per cent of the cattle on feed had been on feed longer than three months.

California feeders reported that 77 per cent of their cattle on feed were steers; 15 per cent heifers; six per cent calves and two per cent cows.

C-City Rancher Gets Partial Land Payment

COLORADO CITY — The Colorado City council reached an agreement to pay rancher-attorney Dell Barber $12,975 after a four-hour called session Monday night.

The money was a down payment on 519 acres purchased more than a year ago for use by the government as a touch and go air strip. The government has paid $2,000 in rentals but had made no move to begin construction. At a council meeting on April 13, Barber had appeared before the council asking it to make some provision to pay for the land. City Manager Roy Dowler told councilmen that it had been difficult to finance bonds until the government made a definite commitment on building the strip.

According to Mayor R. B. Baker, the agreement reached Monday night would make the balance of the $25,950 fall due after construction began on the airport.

In the contract signed by city officials, the city acquired surface rights to the 519 acres for the purpose of building an airport; if the city or the government fails to build the proposed strip, the land can be returned to Barber without the city being required to make the final payment.

The council also passed a resolution, Monday night, expressing their appreciation for Barber's cooperation in dealing with the city.

Basis Of Resuming Truce Talks Gives Rise To Some Settlement

Actual progress on the exchange of sick and wounded prisoners, plus the announcement that truce talks would be resumed, has put a new face on the prospects of a Korean armistice. Not only the fact acceptance by the North Koreans and Chinese Reds of U. N. warnings against stalling on the exchange, but their acceptance of U. N. terms for resuming the truce talks gives rise to hopes. In substance, the Reds were told that U. N. was ready to resume discussion of final armistice terms only if the principle and practice of voluntary repatriation is maintained. Granted that, U. N. would agree to hand over to neutral custody, preferably Switzerland, those prisoners who did not wish repatriation. For a period of 60 days, the Communist governments of China and North Korea would be permitted to interview these anti-Communist hold-outs and try to convince them they should return home. After the sixty-day grace period, so to speak, the chosen neutral power would proceed to find refuge for the non-returning prisoners wherever they would be welcomed.

Legislation Needed Curbing Loan Shark Activities Within Texas

Among pending legislation which needs attention and action during the current session of the legislature is that pertaining to "loan sharks." This is a term loosely used. Under a measure proposed by Rep. Regan Huffman, Marshall, a "shark" is anyone who charges more than 36 per cent per annum—and that means all charges. Other measures have been introduced, one fixing the maximum commission on credit insurance at 25 per cent. Still another would knock out credit insurance as a condition for loans of less than $50 and less than six months tenure. Studies have revealed that some firms have ranged from 120 to 540 per cent per annum in their charges to small borrow-

Today And Tomorrow - Walter Lippman

Eisenhower's Speech Liquidates Unconditional Surrender Idea

It is well known that the President and his advisers began working on his address shortly after Stalin's death. But the hard core of it is much older than that. For it announces a decision of the highest consequence, distilled from the President's experience in the war and matured in the aftermath. The hard core of the speech is the conviction that great conflicts must be ended by negotiation and not fought out for an unconditional surrender. In this deepest sense this is the speech which, alas, was not made in 1944 when the Germans, who were rising against Hitler, put out the feelers asking us to re-assure them that if they made peace, the vital interests of Germany would be secure. This is the speech, alas, which was not made to the Japanese before the atom bombs were dropped on Hiroshima and Nagasaki. That is, I believe, the historic significance of this speech, that it liquidates the doctrine of unconditional surrender. It is fitting that Eisenhower should do that. We have learned to realize in two world wars that the doctrine of unconditional surrender makes wars infinitely destructive and peace virtually impossible. The President told the Communist governments that he was not challenging their existence but their imperial expansion, that the fundamental condition of an accommodation between the two worlds was not a counter-revolution but a withdrawal from the new empire to their legitimate national limits. The President did not deliver an ultimatum demanding this withdrawal of empire. He did say, as he was bound to say, that without the withdrawal, a general accommodation cannot be worked out. At the worst this must mean, he said, atomic war. At the best it can mean only the indefinite continuation of a cruel and destructive cold war.

A good general, it was said long ago, when he lays siege to a town, should not invest so tightly that the garrison within the walls could not come out some dark night and march away. This wise and worldly rule is just about the essential idea of what is now called political warfare, of what formerly was known as statesmanship.

Woman Usually Packs For The Smallest Journey As If She's Bound For Moon

NEW YORK (AP)—Now is the time for all wise husbands planning a vacation trip to do a little hard thinking. Millions of American couples soon will be hitting the open road for a carefree jaunt together in the old family bus. Did I say carefree? For the first 50 miles nine out of 10 of these couples will be barking at each other like strange dogs. "What did I marry—a woman or a department store?" growls the husband. "Oh, shut up," snaps the wife. "I only packed the things I really need." But the luggage compartment is so stuffed with bags the door pops open whenever the car hits a bump. The back seat looks like a rummage sale. Every time the husband puts on the brakes a cascade of clothing, boxes and sacks bangs against his head and floods into his lap. "Is this trip really necessary?" he whimpers. "Oh, dry up," snarls his dear one. "If you had your way, we'd travel in overalls."

Once Cease-Fire Reached Final Peace Talks Begin

WASHINGTON (AP)—This is a brief rundown on what lies ahead in the Korean War. Next step, now that wounded prisoners are being exchanged, is resumption of the truce talks this week between the U. S., representing the United Nations, and the Communists. Once the two sides agree on a cease-fire, if they do, talks to reach a permanent peace begin. No one predicts how long they would last. If in the end the peace talks break down, presumably fighting starts again. The truce talks started in the summer of 1951, one year after the war started. They continued until October, 1952. In that time the two sides agreed on about 60 points that must precede any truce at all. But last October the U. S. broke off the talks on a cease-fire on one major point which had been a stumbling block all the way through: the voluntary exchange of prisoners. The Communists insisted all prisoners must be returned to their original side, whether they wanted to return or not. The U. S. said prisoners must be returned only if they wished to return or not at all. The U. S. claims that 50,000 out of 132,000 Communist prisoners it holds do not want to return to Communist control. In the period of the long-drawn-out peace talks, the Communists built up their strength. The U. S. agreeing now to resumption of the talks, isn't going to let the Communists stall again for more building. It served notice the Communists must get down to business. If there is a truce, both armies withdraw from the battleline one mile, setting up between them a two-mile demilitarized zone. There they would sit, facing each other, to be sure neither tries an attack again. Within three months after the agreement on a truce, high officials would sit down together to work out a permanent peace agreement. While they talk the troops sit on opposite sides of the demilitarized zone. Since the peace talks might go

This Day In Texas

By CURTIS BISHOP The city of Houston could point with pride on this day in 1869 to its possession of the first "baseball championship" of Texas. For at the San Jacinto battlefield near the Houston "Stonewalls" had met and defeated the Galveston "Robert E. Lee's." In the first baseball game ever played to determine a Texas champion, the Houston team and its backers had boarded the steamer "Whitelaw" in the city for the trip up the bayou to the site of the game. Galveston rooters and their team also made the journey by steamer. Perhaps also for the first time in Texas, a band furnished lively music to boost the morale of the Houston heroes. It must have helped, for at the end of eight innings "the Lee's, disheartened by the success of their antagonists, gave up the game and acknowledged themselves beaten, fairly and squarely." The Houston team did indeed have an impressive advantage—a 34-5 score. W. J. McKernan, an umpire imported from St. Louis, proclaimed the "Stonewalls" Texas champions. Despite the enthusiasm created by this game, it was another eight years before an attempt was made to organize professional baseball in the state. The first Texas League season began in 1887, but not until 1901 was that organization able to stay alive.

Color Blind Friend Makes A Mistake

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Because her friend urged her to buy it, a young woman purchased a rust-colored spring coat recently although she herself thought it a little "loud." Now she thinks maybe she made a mistake. She discovered her boy friend is color blind and had bought the coat was an ordinary shade of brown.

People Today Seem To Be Losing Individuality In Their Thinking

The opinions contained in this and other articles in this column are solely those of the writers who sign them. They are not to be interpreted as necessarily reflecting the opinions of The Herald.—Editor's Note.

There are times when I can't escape the conclusion that most people are afraid of themselves, afraid to be found alone with themselves, perhaps because they fear the thoughts they may think when alone. The drift is toward crowds and mass thinking. There aren't enough "bone wolves" in the field of meditation. And just as people show a preference for life in the center of the herd, they pay for it with a loss of courage. It takes less courage to stampede with the mass than to range alone even in the field of thought. People are losing the talent of entertaining themselves, although it is an instinct with which they are born. Small children find ways to entertain themselves, but by the time they enter into upon the "teen-years they appear to lose this fine quality form which the world's great philosophers have been born. Even as they become fully mature adults the urge for companionship and noise seems to grow greater and greater. There are actually people who can't tolerate a silent radio although they may not be conscious of just what is included in a radio program. They have so accustomed themselves to noise that, quiet and peace almost drives them crazy. I often wonder if such people could stand a two hundred mile saddle ride across the desert without seeing another human all the way. And whenever I get to thinking along these lines I recall a point once made by Judge Otha F. Dent of Littlefield, a deeply philosophical man. I mentioned this thought in this same column more than a year ago. Said Judge Dent in substance: "The world is better off when people built front porches on their houses and then put rocking chairs on those porches so they could sit there and rock and think." In those days people thought as individuals. They thought out their problems with sound thoughts and rocked their troubles away and there wasn't as much heart disease and not as many nervous disorders and no radios at all. In those days people weren't afraid to be alone, they weren't afraid of themselves, they weren't afraid to think for themselves, and above all they didn't lack the courage to give voice to the opinions that grew out of those thoughts. They weren't afraid to

These Days - George Sokolsky

If British And Canadians Need Tax Cut, Incentives, Don't We

An old conundrum which no one has yet answered, not even the scientists or the theologians who have an answer for everything, is which came first, the chicken or the egg? I am minded of this in the discussion concerning budgets and taxes. Some very wise men say that there can be no tax cut until the budget is balanced. Other equally great minds say that governments are like sponges; they can absorb all the money that is given to them; they swell up on the additional revenue, growing even larger. Therefore, a ceiling must be put on governmental income; otherwise, expenditures will not be cut. The Republicans are in the awkward position that having promised a tax cut in the course of the campaign, they are unwilling to be pushed into what they regard as precipitous action. The President and his Secretary of the Treasury prefer to balance the budget before they announce a tax cut. On the other hand, members of Congress who will be up for reelection in 1954 realize they must have a cut if they are to win. Some strategists hold that the tax cut can be delayed until next January, with perhaps a retroactive period so that the cut will be felt by March 15, 1954 and will help to win in November, 1954. Other equally competent strategists hold that such action will be too late and too small in amount to make much difference. They want a tax cut announced during the present session of the 83rd Congress. This situation is complicated by the actual tax cuts in Canada and Great Britain during the year 1953. The British cut is particularly embarrassing because that country is able to do it while it is receiving substantial American aid — an aid which is one reason why it is so difficult to reduce American taxes. In a word, we subsidize a British tax cut by avoiding an American tax cut. This is actually what the British did: 1. Income taxes have been reduced between 5 and 17 per cent, with the greatest relief to smaller incomes. 2. The purchase tax (sales tax to us) has been cut by a minimum of 23 per cent. 3. The 30 per cent excess profits tax will end next January. 4. Incentives in tax reductions will be arranged to stimulate production. The Canadians have announced an 11 per cent cut. Both countries stipulate that the cuts are incentives to production. If they need incentives, why do we not need incentives? It is a very curious situation because what it amounts to is that the Canadians and the British are acting with fiscal wisdom in a postwar situation, while the United States maintains a wartime economy. Yet, American aid continues to go to Great Britain. Furthermore, the American Congress is being asked to reduce its tariffs even to the point of free trade in order to stimulate European production while this country maintains an excess profits tax which keeps American prices high. This particular issue is the most important before Congress and is being fought over among Republicans with greater vigor than appears in the press. Those Senators who do not come up for election in 1954 are willing to go along with the President's slow-motion program which they feel will come out all right in the end. Those Senators who face an election in 1954, and all Representatives, cannot wait that long. When they go home in August, they want to be able to say that the U. S. Congress will do as well as the British Parliament. Few of them will be able to use the alibi that it will cheer the American heart to get a tax cut in time for the November, 1954 election. The Democrats never promised a tax cut and therefore can evade the issue. The danger for the Republicans is that the Democrats might take advantage of the situation to advocate a tax reduction. No one questions the intent or purpose of President Eisenhower or of Secretary of the Treasury George Humphrey. It is a political matter of timing that is at issue. Unless there is a world war, a tax cut is bound to come, but will it affect earnings in 1953, in 1954 or in 1955? Politically, the sooner the better.

Uranus Facts Puzzling To Class

A question in regard to the size of the planet Uranus, in comparison with the earth, is brought up in a letter from Joseph Rizzo, who writes: "One day I was giving a topic at school about an article which you wrote on 'Frozen Uranus,' and the teacher did not understand something I said. If Uranus has only four times the diameter of the earth, how can it be about 14 and a half times as heavy? The class and I would be happy if you would explain this problem for us." Uranus has a little more than four times the diameter of the earth. A late measurement gives the diameter as above 33,000 miles, making it four and one fifth times the earth's diameter. The diameter of a sphere is the distance from side to side, measured through the center. It is a very different thing than volume. We find the volume of a sphere by multiplying the cube of the radius by what is called "pi." This "pi" is a number, roughly, of three and one seventh. I have spent some time using the late figures for the diameter of Uranus to discover the volume of that planet. When we must get the cube of a large number, we are likely to use up a bit of paper! My figuring shows that Uranus has about 74 times the volume of the earth. In other words, 74 balls of clay the size of the earth—pressed together—would make one ball of clay about the size of Uranus. That may seem to make the question still harder. If Uranus has 74 times the volume, or bulk, of the earth, why is it only 14 and a half times as heavy? The average weight of the material in Uranus is hardly more than the weight of an equal amount of water. The material in the earth, on the other hand, is more than five times as heavy as water, on the average. When all the facts are considered, we see the reason to figure the weight of Uranus at about 14 and a half times the weight of the earth. For SCIENCE section of your scrapbook. Cancer Crusade In State Moves Fast Vigorous local Cancer Crusades over the state have helped Texas score a new record this year for passing the half-way point of the Crusade financial goal. More than half the state goal had been achieved by April 13. As of that date a total of $325,750.52 was either pledged or in the bank. This is 54.29 per cent of the 1953 state goal of $600,000. While an extensive program of educational work has been done here in the local Cancer Crusade, Howard County citizens have not been asked for a donation during April. The local Cancer Crusade is being incorporated into the new United Fund Drive, and contributors to that Fund this fall will be making their gift to the Cancer Crusade.

Indictments Returned In Theft Of Cattle

GARDEN CITY — Indictments charging felony theft and theft of cattle were returned here Monday by a 118th District Court grand jury. Named in the bills were James A. Walker, 27, Big Spring, Dwayne Myrick, 22, Big Spring, and William McNew. Walker's bond was fixed at $3,000, Myrick's at $1,500 and McNew's at $1,000. Late Monday the three were being held in lieu of bond. The case may be called for trial on Thursday of this week. It arose out of the shooting of a cow in a pasture south of here, and the slaughtering and removal of the animal's carcass.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

By Lydia Lane

HOLLYWOOD — In these days of quick divorces, it is nice to find a girl who found the right mate the first time. Harriet Hilliard and Ozzie Nelson have had nineteen years of happy collaboration in the theatrical field as well as matrimony. Their radio show, "The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet" made its radio debut in 1944 and now, nine years later, it is still going strong on a combination radio and television arrangement.

"What is the secret of your success?" I asked this likeable couple one day at lunch.

Harriet and Ozzie exchanged glances. "Getting the right girl," Mr. Nelson said affectionately.

Harriet smiled her appreciation. "I think Ozzie's right. Being in love brings out the best in you just as the lack of it will arouse the worst. But I feel that because we have seen so much of each other at work and at home—that maybe we worked harder at getting along."

Ozzie winked at me. "Is getting along with me such hard work?" "What I'm trying to say," Harriet insisted, "is that there is bound to be the minimum of friction in a family when all parties concerned make a point of trying to see the others' point of view. If something aggravates you, don't jump to conclusions and let your blood boil—be calm and try to find out the other person's motives. When you uncover all the facts, perhaps you'll discover that it was all a big misunderstanding."

"That's an admirable approach but unfortunately it's easier said than done," I commented.

Harriet smiled. "That's just what I mean about having to WORK at getting along."

"What is your top beauty secret?" I asked.

"Don't look at me," Ozzie said. "Why not? Tell me what you do to have such a healthy head of hair. You have the hairline of a collegian."

"You tell her, Harriet," Ozzie suggested.

"I think men are too careless about their hair. They use just any old shampoo, don't brush enough or keep their scalp stimulated with massage. So both Ozzie and I use the same shampoo and I wash Ozzie's brush regularly and when I notice the bristles are not stiff anymore, I buy a new one."

"What kind of shampoo do you use?" I wanted to know.

"As a matter of fact, we use two," Harriet said. "I like the way my hair looks best when I alternate a cream type with a shampoo containing egg."

Jimmie Lee Pitts To Sing Here April 28

Back of the concert Jimmie Lee Pitts, young Negro contralto, will give April 28 at 8 p. m. in the Municipal Auditorium, is a heart-warming story of people who cared.

Today Miss Pitts is working toward her Master of Arts degree at Westminister Choir College in Princeton, N. J. She has, according to Dr. J. F. Williamson, Westminister president, a "big, full, resonant voice... and is just coming into her own as a singer."

Yet, were it not for people right here in her home town who heard her and had faith in her, she might today be just another good voice in some choir. Mrs. George O'Brien, who has done considerable mission work, was impressed when she heard Jimmie Lee sing at a church function.

Mrs. O'Brien began to insist that others hear her, and one by one they were convinced. Mary Lou Hendricks, then music instructor at Howard County Junior College and a graduate of Westminister, wrote to Dr. Williamson and asked for an audition.

Teh American Business Club financed transportation from Marshall, where Miss Pitts was attending Bishop College, to Abilene, where Dr. Williamson was conducting classes. After the audition, Dr. Williamson said: "I believe we have a great voice here."

This was the signal for Mrs. O'Brien to really go to work. The Business & Professional Women's Club became interested, and so did Cosden Petroleum Corp. through its president, R. L. Tollett. Numbers of individuals rallied to the movement to send Jimmie Lee to Westminister. Out of those individual contributions and some aid from the state Negro student fund, Jimmie Lee made it through the initial year.

"She made the progress in four months that I expected her to make in nine months," commented Dr. Williamson.

After her initial year at Westminister, the B&PW club presented Miss Pitts in her first concert. Response to her voice was matched by generosity of Big Spring people. Proceeds from the concert, which have been repeated each year, plus that from Cosden and the state student aid fund, have made it possible for her to continue her studies.

She has been presented in a number of other concerts, too, including a recital at Westminister College and the lyceum program of the Texas Southern University. This spring, she will sing some 35 concerts with the college group as soloist. One of her recent appearances was on a program at Fort Dix, N. J. in a number written especially for her voice.

Her itinerary in this area will include Midland, Abilene and Fort Worth. The Lakeview Chamber of Commerce will sponsor her concert in Big Spring.

Big Spring people believe they have more than provincial pride in contending that Miss Pitts has great possibilities.

Dr. Williamson said that "if Jimmie Lee keeps up the kind of work she is now doing, she has a chance of becoming a great individual in the world of singing. Her voice has grown immeasurably through this year. It is now a rich, full voice and she has grown in her grasp and understanding of style and in her creative power."

Lasso Club To Model In Style Show

Members of the Lasso Club of Howard County Junior College will model in a style show Tuesday at the HJCJ auditorium at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. Harold Davis will be commentator. Nan McCabe and Pat Dillon will furnish continuity. Zack's of Margo's will provide the fashions.

Models will be Virginia Davenport, Diana Farquhar, Vesta Harrison, Frances King, Sue Love, Sue Lauderdale, Lynn Mitchell, Lou Ann Nall, Cecil Niblett, Marie Petty, Voncell Rhuton, Jonel West, Darlene Sneed and Sue White.

Elizabeth Cope will play background music and lighting will be furnished by the speech department at the college.

Clothes will be shown in groups, sports, morning, afternoon and after five.

Immediately following the program, the club will serve refreshments.

Former Cosden Employee Wins Scholarship

Jack Reynolds, former Cosden faculty member and later an employe of Cosden Petroleum Corp., is one of the Lion Oil Company scholarship winners.

He was announced last week in Springdale, Ark., where he is a social science instructor in the junior high school, as recipient of a $1,500 award.

Reynolds was one of three chosen for the grants for graduate study. The award was based on his essay: "Why My Profession Is Important to the Future of the South."

Previously, he had made plans to work toward his Masters degree at the University of Arkansas. The scholarship fit perfectly into his plans.

He spent more than a decade in this area. He was director of the Cosden High School band and a member of the faculty there after graduation from Abilene Christian College. Then he joined the Cosden staff and worked for 10 years in the laboratory.

Last autumn, however, he decided to return to the teaching profession and took the position at Springdale. He and his wife live at 1608 Sisco Ave. in Springdale. They have three children.

Presentation of the scholarship was made in special ceremonies by R. M. Springer, representative of Lion Oil.

In his essay, Reynolds said that "the South has been a sleeping giant; a Phoenix that rose slowly from the ashes of the Civil War... industry has 'discovered' the South... With development of industry and agriculture, great impetus will be given to our industry... Education will find a way to make the land support more people, and to utilize the new ideas being brought in."

Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y Clubs Select New Officers

Officers for the 1953-54 school year were chosen by the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs at the YMCA Monday evening.

The selection came after an appeal by Grover Good for deliberation in the selection, and of acceptance only with the intention to work hard at the job.

Robert Angel was elected president of the Hi-Y group and Ann Gray was named head of the Tri-Hi-Y Club.

The boys voted to apply a $50 balance in the treasurer to the World Service fund after a ringing plea by Steve Kornfeld. David Read, treasurer, asked that the balance from a recent father-son banquet be similarly applied. Club members accepted their recommendation unanimously and set the funds up to be delivered next autumn.

Besides Angel, others elected by the boys were Glen Rogers, vice president; Dick Kincaid, secretary; David Read, treasurer; Kim Milling, chaplain; Wade Simpson, historian; Robert Brown, vice president, presided at the meeting, and Keith Odom, sponsor, attended.

Elected with Miss Gray were Libby Jones, vice president; Peggy Hogan, secretary; Nancy Smith, treasurer; Lila Turner, historian; Janice Anderson, chaplain; Anna Mae Tharp, parliamentarian. Mrs. Clyde E. Thomas Jr., sponsor, was with the group. Members told what they had gotten out of Tri-Hi-Y activities the past year and what they hoped to give and get next year. They also had a group discussion on prejudices and dealing with them.

Dr. Hunt Returns From Amarillo Meet

Dr. W. A. Hunt, president of Howard County Junior College, has returned from a moral and spiritual values conference at Amarillo.

Administrators from public supported schools over the state took part in the YMCA-sponsored party, he said.

"I was heartened by what is taking place in higher education with reference to emphasis of higher morality and spirituality," said Dr. Hunt. "Those attending were from state schools but you would have thought it was a group of denominational institutions based on the feeling of the leaders."

Parents Urged To Be At Troop 2 Meeting

All parents of Boy Scouts in Big Spring have been urged to attend a meeting tonight at the First Methodist Church.

POWs

Louis Kerckstra of Byron Center, Mich., who contracted tuberculosis.

"Some of the TB patients in my hospital were in worse condition than I was," he said.

"The way I see it, they took me because I was in a little better shape and knew we would hit the press first."

Treatment of the prisoners varied widely from place to place and time to time.

Pfc. Tibor Rubin of Long Beach, Calif., a Hungarian who spent 14 months in a Nazi prison camp in World War II, said Red treatment was better than the Nazis gave him.

"The Chinese treated us much better—I'm not Communist, but they did treat me better than the Germans," he said.

Cpl. Pedro Herrera of Manadara, N. M., said he was bayoneted in the head by a prison guard but blamed it on a misunderstanding caused by the language barrier.

He was captured in November, 1950. On an eight-day march north, he said, "the wounded died from lack of medical treatment."

"The guards would take them off and give them hot water, about all the medicine they had."

He said that after the initial atrocity stages, conditions in some of the camps improved.

Sgt. Albert L. Howard of Nashville, Tenn., said life in the camps "was pretty rough at first but later on it got pretty good when the peace talks started." However, the medical treatment was still "only fair."

Howard and Cpl. Harry Purvis of York, S. C., agreed that more sick and wounded remain in prison camps.

"I guess it's because of the ride. They were too sick to come," Purvis said.

Purvis had a chest and stomach ailment. Howard had been wounded in the hand and shoulder when captured.

Traffic Fines Heavy In City Court Today

Traffic fines were heavy in city court this morning.

Four assessments amounted to $170. One driver, 14 years of age, was fined $85 when he pleaded guilty to charges of driving without license and "negligent collision."

Another was fined $50 for driving without license. The same charge resulted in a $35 fine against a third motorist.

Three drunkenness fines, all following guilty pleas, amounted to $57.

AMERICANS

degimented Gloucestershire Regiment yelled:

"Any scotch out there?"

There was no burr in his voice, so his meaning was plain.

From another ambulance there came the muffled voice of an American:

"Hubba hubba!"

Two Turks saluted smartly as they stepped down from the ambulance. They were greeted by the Turkish liaison officer on hand to speed them to Freedom Village, a tent city erected to give first attention to the warped bodies of the men on the road back.

The first 50 of the Allied trickle of 100 moved out fast. By a little after 11 a. m. the second 50 were emptying out of the Communist vehicles and stepping on free ground again.

They moved slower and were less jocular. All were given speedy medical care, food, cigarettes and a warm welcome.

Many of the returning prisoners showed few signs of wounds or illness. Some spoke bitterly of friends left behind who, they said, were hurt far worse but for some reason did not make the Communist repatriation list.

All wore the blue cotton uniform, peaked cap and tennis shoes the Reds gave them just six miles up the road that rubbed Kaesong, the Communists' true headquarters.

Allied officers reported the Reds were carrying out a strange procedure at their receiving point. Chinese and North Korean prisoners returned from Allied camps were dusted with insecticide—even their rations and personal possessions were sprayed.

The Allied officers said Red spokesmen explained that it was all a precaution against Allied germ warfare.

Civil Anti-Trust Suit Filed On Five Oil Firms

WASHINGTON (AP) — Attorney General Brownell filed a civil anti-trust suit today against five major American oil companies, charging they had participated in an international oil cartel.

The action is a substitute for the criminal anti-trust investigation involving these five companies and others which former Attorney General McGranery put before a grand jury here last fall.

Brownell proposes to drop the criminal inquiry for "national security" reasons.

The grand jury proceeding involved more than a score of companies here and abroad.

The civil action named as defendants Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, Standard of California, Socony-Vacuum Oil Company Inc., the Texas Company, and the Gulf Oil Corp.

The attorney general said the defendant list may be expanded at some later date to include other oil corporations, both domestic and foreign. Such action, he said, will depend on what the government discovers in records of the five original defendants, which Brownell asked Federal Court to order produced for inspection.

Water Consumption Average Daily Set At 3,000,000 Gallons

Water consumption has averaged about 3,000,000 gallons per day in Big Spring, despite cold weather of the past week.

Average for the first 26 days of April also is up, amounting to almost 3,000,000 gallons a day, city officials report.

Water usage is expected to increase steadily for the next few weeks with the peak to be reached sometime during the summer. Heaviest volume for one day this far was 3,984,000, metered a week ago Monday.

Chamber Delegation Expected At Meeting Of City Commission

A Chamber of Commerce delegation is expected to request this evening that commissioners look into the possibility of opening Second Street through Big Spring.

Damage Are Slight In Traffic Mishaps

Four traffic mishaps resulted in minor property damage but no personal injuries Monday, police reported.

Ridgway Rejected Korea Sea Attack

By DON WHITEHEAD
 WASHINGTON — Senators have been told that Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway turned down Gen. James A. Van Fleet's plan for an Allied seaborne strike against the Communists in Korea in June, 1951.

Van Fleet, then commander of the U. S. Eighth Army in Korea, recently told a Senate Armed Services Subcommittee he was "trying to turn me loose" for such an assault, but that higher authority would not approve it.

Van Fleet, now retired, said he felt he could have destroyed the Chinese armies with the blow.

At the time Van Fleet gave that testimony, Ridgway said in Paris he had "absolutely no comment."

In June, 1951, he was Far Eastern commander; he is now commander of Western European defense forces.

Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Army

Chief of Staff, testified behind closed doors yesterday afternoon to the Armed Services Subcommittee, which has been investigating reported ammunition shortages.

Later, a senator who asked that his name not be used told reporters:

"Collins said the Van Fleet recommendation never reached the Joint Chiefs of Staff for a decision. He said Ridgway turned it down because he felt it was too much of a gamble. And, too, there was a lot of talk about a truce at the time which probably had an effect."

This development came after the subcommittee, headed by Sen. Margaret Chase Smith (R-Me.), called at least a temporary halt in its inquiry.

Last night Gen. George C. Marshall confirmed testimony given the subcommittee last week that he had signed a controversial directive.

This directive, issued Sept. 27, 1950, about three months after the Korean fighting began, instructed the armed services to "assume for budgetary purposes" that the war would be ended by June 30, 1951. Marshall had taken office as secretary of defense six days earlier.

Marshall said he had signed the directive at the recommendation of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and that this recommendation was signed by Gen. Omar Bradley, Marshall's aide.

"Also on Sept. 25, 1950, I placed the credit of the Army about $1,176,000,000 for immediate use x x x I obtained this money from the foreign military assistance funds already appropriated, with the agreement of the secretary of state who allocated those funds."

"Of this sum, 663 million dollars was intended for new ammunition and 48 million dollars for renovation of reserve stocks."

San Jacinto Battle Is Recalled By Texans

HOUSTON — Texans are observing today the 177th anniversary of the battle of San Jacinto. On April 21, 1836, the outnumbered forces of Gen. Sam Houston, in a surprise attack against Santa Anna, won their independence from Mexico.

The brief battle was fought at the junction of the San Jacinto River and Buffalo Bayou, an area now in the heart of the Texas Gulf Coast industrial belt.

Ceremonies sponsored annually by the sons and daughters of the Republic of Texas were held today at the battle site, near Houston, now the San Jacinto Battleground State Park.

Vice Admiral Harold Martin, who commanded the carrier San Jacinto during the war, was the main speaker.

The ceremonies were at the base of the 570-foot San Jacinto monument.

The monument and its reflection pool separate the camp sites used by Houston and Santa Anna.

Crushing Texas defeats, including the fall of the Alamo, by early April had caused Santa Anna to sense complete victory. He took his main forces and headed toward Harrisburg (now part of Houston), where provisional President David Burnet had established the young republic's headquarters.

Houston had started falling back toward the coast after learning of the defeats at Gonzales and at the Alamo.

Burnet moved his civil government to Galveston and Santa Anna found Harrisburg deserted. The Mexican general continued about 20 miles east to the San Jacinto River and the bayou which now forms the Houston ship channel.

Houston, with 700 to 800 men, travelled from Hempstead to Harrisburg between April 14 and 18 and took up a position near Santa Anna's camp April 20.

The next day, April 21, Santa Anna was reinforced by about 400 men, bringing his forces to about 1,600.

At mid-afternoon on the 21st, with many Mexicans taking their afternoon siesta, the Texans attacked suddenly and gained a quick victory.

Houston reported 630 Mexicans killed, 200 wounded and 730 captured. Among those captured was Santa Anna.

The Texans' losses: two killed and 23 wounded.

Twenty-three days later, May 14, representatives of Mexico and Texas signed a treaty at Velasco.

Broncs, San Angelo Colts Launch Season At 8:15

Oscar Reguera To Take Mound

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Strange, to be discussing football when the boys with the cut-gut and the tattooed lemons have moved in amongst us, but this high school football team that is now conditioning here inspires me to additional comments. Besides, there'll be plenty of space devoted to the national pastime on these pages for the next several days.

Football season is still five or six months removed but the enthusiasm to make like champions has manifested itself in the local camp. One can almost feel it, if he goes to the trouble of venturing to the arena for a gander.

If the boys maintain that burning ambition—well, there'll be few teams that can keep up with them.

In the words of Coach Carl Coleman, "the size of this squad is the kind that can get a coach fired," meaning the left is there but goilathis aren't always the best football players going.

Truly, this must be one of the biggest high school football teams in the state. With a stretch of the imagination, Coleman could field a team averaging 200 pounds per man! That, of course, would include some of the young men who age a year or two away from being regulars.

Jimmy Ellison, at about 270, is the biggest of the lot and, surprisingly, one of the fastest Coleman has. Norman Dudley, Buddy Cosby, Bob Jones, Dean Porter, Billy Earley, Jimmy Slate, Pete Rasmussen, Carlisle Robison—all are lads who are over or approaching the 200-pound mark.

COACH STILL HAS PLENTY OF WORRIES

Coleman still doesn't know where he's going to get halfbacks who can pass, but he's giving all his backs a chance to show what they can do. He still needs speed. And the downhill blocking and his defense are a cause for concern.

But, balancing all that are such things as the brilliant all-around play of Buddy Cosby, who is becoming a brutal, pit-driving offensive back; the enduring, inspiring hustle of Brick Johnson, who is out to become the best all-around back in camp; the bruising line play of such stalwarts as Ellison, Jimmy Porter, Slate, Jackie Milam and others; and the fine spirit of the team as a whole.

Cosby, who was used sparingly on offense last year, appears to be the boy who can pick up three or four yards 'down the middle' when the team sorely needs it. He hasn't eased up a bit in his defensive play, either. When he backs a line, one can hear the leather pop way up in the stands.

J. C. Armistead, the Steers' most dangerous runner, has missed most of the drills because of the flu. Billy Martin, another splendid back, has been there every day, though, and has been a most willing and able worker.

JAMES ROLLINS COULD BE A REGULAR

Coleman gets a look of longing in his eyes every time he glances in the direction of the Steer B team, working under Max Alexander.

Over there is a young man who could 'make' the Steer attack; were he eligible, that would be James Rollins, a halfback with speed to burn, a boy who seems to do everything right. Though only a Ninth Grader, he probably would be a regular were he eligible to play varsity ball next fall. He's that promising.

Another young fellow who blossomed all of a sudden on the B team is Charles Saunders, the Yearling basketball flash, who didn't report for football drills until half the 1952 season was gone. Charles appears big enough, fast enough and ambitious enough to become a varsity stand-out in a couple of years.

All in all, the football program is looking up here as it hasn't in years and years.

Prosperous Days Ahead For Loop

ABILENE, Tex. (AP)—The blustery Longhorn League, with five clubs in Texas and three in New Mexico, opens a 140-game schedule tonight. Midland will be at Odessa, Big Spring at San Angelo, Artesia at Carlsbad and Roswell at Lamesa. Carlsbad and Lamesa are newcomers. The former replaced Vernon and Lamesa took the place of Sweetwater. Lamesa left the state in a nationally televised bout here May 13.

Cook's Defeats Col-Tex, 11-5

COLORADO CITY — Cook's Appliance Store of Big Spring, which has entered the Colorado City Jaycee Softball League, warmed up for the race by defeating the Col-Tex team, 11-5, here Monday night.

Speck Kinnick went all the way on the mound for the team while James Hollis caught.

James Wait hit a fourth inning home run for the Big Springers with two mates aboard.

Col-Tex went two runs ahead early in the game but Cook's wasted no time in catching up.

Pete Cook, manager of the team, contributed to his team's efforts with two safeties.

The Colorado City League opens play May 4. This will mark the first year Big Spring has been represented in the circuit, although Coahoma has competed in recent years.

Railway Employees Field Fourth Team

The Pony League today is a going organization. Just when it appeared the young baseball circuit was going to have to give up the ghost because it could not find a sponsor for a fourth team, employees of the T&P Railroad stepped in.

Money for uniforms, bats and balls, have been raised among the railroaders.

It appears now R. E. Gregory, J. H. Eastham and Walter Schatell will divide managerial duties. The team will henceforth be identified as the Rails.

Still in need of help but determined to get a running start in the seventh Longhorn League race, the Big Spring Broncs left today for San Angelo where at 8:15 p.m. they open against the resident Colts.

Oscar Reguera, limited service hurler from Cuba, probably will go moundward for the Broncs. Reguera won nine and lost three games for the Steeds after joining them in mid-season last year.

For San Angelo, it is apt to be Ben Bonine, a limited service left-hander who has been very impressive in spring exhibition games.

The two teams switch the scenes of their operations to Big Spring over Thursday for another game before closing out their series in San Angelo on Friday evening.

Big Spring wound up second under Pat Stacey last year. San Angelo was fifth in the standings.

Hack Miller, veteran minor league player and manager, will be making his debut as boss of the local team in this one. He's counting on holding down first base for the Steeds, too.

Rudy Briner has succeeded Mark Christian as pilot of the Colts. He moved over to the Concho City from Artesia and will don the catching harness this evening.

Al Valdes, despite the fact that he suffered a spike wound on the forefinger on his throwing hand Sunday, will receive Reguera's slants.

Back of Reguera will be Miller at first, Jess Jacinto at second, Al Costa at short, Joe Riney at third, Gib Phillips in left, Mandy Diaz in center and Jerry Fetrow in right.

The only hold-overs from the 1952 Bronco team are Reguera, Valdes and Costa.

Starting for San Angelo, in addition to the battery, will be Charley Gahna at first base, Andy Morales at second, Johnny Jeandron at third, John Hargraves at fourth, and Glenn Burns, Harold Bateman and Steve Follett on the picket line.

Pre-game ceremonies at the Angelo park will begin at 7:35 p.m. A number of fans will attend from here.

Jayhawks Play Bulldogs Nine

The Howard County Junior College Jayhawks, once again in charge of Coach Harold Davis, left this morning for Clarendon where today they play a baseball twin bill with the Clarendon Bulldogs.

The Hawks boast a 2-2 win-loss record in Zone play and need two victories in this season to retain their slim chance at the top spot.

Borger leads the race with a 5-0 win-loss mark. Borger thrashed the Big Springers twice last week despite the fact that Casey Jones threw a one-hitter at them in the second game.

Indications were that Jones and Tommy Randolph will mount the knob in today's games. Randolph still has sore feet. In event he isn't ready, Lonnie Muse will be called upon to hurl.

The Jayhawks are short-handed for today's action.

Jones, Randolph and Bobby Maines are alling. Calvert and Larry Shortes will see much action for the locals. Calvert in right field and Shortes at first base.

Former Resident Gets Irving Post

John S. Stiff, who was reared in Big Spring, has been appointed as first city manager of Irving.

Since Jan. 1, Stiff has served as city engineer at Irving. Prior to that he was city engineer at Abilene and was in the city engineering department here.

In his new position, Stiff will have several major projects to supervise. Included are a $79,000 water and sewer extension job; doubling the disposal plant at $117,766; extension of water lines to Hines City $119,000; supervising contract for two 100,000-gallon storage tanks at $52,000.

He will play a key role, too, in shaping of the first master plan for the City of Irving. The firm of Fowler and Koch has contract for presenting such a plan within 90 days.

A native of McKinney, Stiff came here as a small boy with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stiff. He is a graduate of Big Spring High School and attended Texas A&M. While in service, he attended Yale University and later was graduated from that institution.

He worked under B. J. McDaniel here when McDaniel was city manager, and when McDaniel moved to Abilene, Stiff later became city engineer there.

Discussion of this action brought on comments from Mayor G. W. Dabney, who said that Big Spring is going to have to face up to a large bond issue if it accomplishes all the developments that need to be completed.

"We've almost outgrown our breeches," said Dabney. "And there are a lot of things that have to be done to get the city up to par with its recent growth. We need paving, we need these streets open, we need parks, we need swimming pools. But there is no way to get these things except to spend money. And I believe a bond issue—maybe a million or a million and a half dollars—will be the only answer. I don't know whether the people are ready for this. But we have got to raise the money to get all these things we want."
