Tops On Ike, Macmillan Agenda:

Counter Proposal To Russ Test Ban Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan begin talks today at secluded Camp David, Md., on a counter proposal to Russia's plan for banning nuclear weapons tests.

The two leaders were reported willing to accept on a limited basis Russia's demand for an unpoliced moratorium on small test blasts to be linked with a formal ban on larger explosions.

But Eisenhower was said to be ready to agree to the moratorium for the remainder of his term in office — about 10 months while Macmillan wants one of at least 18 months. Russia demanded a moratorium of four or five years.

The President and the prime minister planned to fly to the Presidential retreat in the Catskill Mountains by helicopter for a few days of discussions. Macmillan flew here from London Saturday, especially for the conference.

Prior to his departure for Camp David, Macmillan scheduled a meeting with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and other American officials at the British Embassy.

They will meet at 9:30 a.m. Saturday.

Eisenhower and Macmillan also expected to discuss a variety of critical cold war issues they will take up with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev at the summit meeting in Paris in mid-May.

Their immediate problem, however, is to find a compromise between the risks in Khrushchev's nuclear test ban formula, which calls for good faith in a detection system to prevent small bootleg blasts.

The President begins his talks with Macmillan under heavy and conflicting pressures at home and abroad. His decision to seek some compromise went against the advice of Pentagon and Atomic Energy Commission officials who

Warm Future for Texans

United Press International
Sunny skies and warm temperatures were forecast for Texas today and extended forecasts called for more of the same during the week.

Fog developed in wide areas of Texas early today, but the weather Bureau at Fort Worth said it would dissipate by mid-morning. Visibility was reduced to less than a mile at many points.

Fog reports came from the Texas coast, the Austin-San Antonio area and sections of North Central Texas.

The five-day forecast called for temperatures 1 to 3 degrees above normal for the entire state and the possibility of light precipitation in widely scattered areas.

By United Press International
Ku Klux Klansmen in Alabama and South Carolina burned scores of crosses over the weekend in acts of defiance against Negro demonstrations protesting segregation in the South.

Dozens of flaming crosses were seen along highways in the Amitee, Ala., area Saturday night, and a fire bomb was thrown into the yard of a Negro home.

Witnesses reported seeing a man throw the home-made bomb into the yard, but no damage resulted because the bomb failed to ignite.

Police said they received at least 100 complaints about the cross burnings in Alabama. Five men were picked up by police in connection with the incidents. Five were charged with obstructing a highway and later

Shift Coming In Legislative Control

United Press International
The indignant urban resident who finds his state controlled by rural legislators may have relief in sight. A United Press International survey of all state capitals today showed a strong, if still inconclusive, trend to put power back in the hands of the population majority — which by now has switched to the cities.

The fight for proportional representation is an old one, but in recent weeks it has gained impetus from well-organized battles to force change via federal and state courts.

For years most of the nation's state legislatures have ignored their own constitutional provisions to reapportion themselves every ten years. Consequently in many cases the farmers who were in a majority when the state constitutions were adopted still control the legislatures even though they now are in a minority.

For example, Alabama has not affected reapportionment since 1901; Iowa since 1904; Indiana, 1921; Nebraska, 1937; Oklahoma, 1910; North Dakota, 1931; Mississippi, 1890 — Vermont not for at least 40 years.

However, current action, sometimes by civic groups, sometimes by popular initiative, sometimes by new power groups within the state.

Klansmen Burn Crosses In South

United Press International
The cross-burnings coincided with a huge Ku Klux Klan meeting in Monroeville, Ala. Hundreds of klansmen, many of them robed and hooded, held a rally at the regional Coliseum. Then they formed a motorcade to a home where a 20-foot cross was burned and new members were initiated.

Approximately 50 crosses were burned in a six-county area of South Carolina Saturday night, with as many as 40 reported burning at one time.

State law enforcement division chief J. P. Strom said most of the incidents were investigated by his agents, but it was determined that all had leased the property on which the demonstrations were staged. ## Boy Killed As Passengers Panic In Fleeing Boat

BRADENTON, Fla. (UPI) — An 8-year-old boy died in the rush of 19 persons to flee a burning charter boat at the docks here Saturday.

Nine persons were injured in the panic, three of them seriously enough to be hospitalized.

When cabin returned, Donald Little, 8, was missing. A diver found his body in 20 feet of water near the dock where the boat was tied. He probably was knocked overboard in the rush to abandon the boat.

Three families, including eight children, were aboard the boat preparing to leave for a fishing trip.

Owner Jerry Chapman touched the starter button and fire started below the deck. The fire spread quickly and the party began diving over the side or jumping to the dock.

Meet On Problems Of Youth

Viewpoints Vary On Opening Day

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — America's young people were described today as pampered, self-indulgent, materialistic, uncommitted, milling about without a sense of direction and lacking in high ideals.

Before the same gathering, the same young people also were described as sincere, intelligent, unpretentious, ambitious for achievement and hungry for firm and forthright parental guidance.

These widely varying appraisals of the younger generation emerged from the first round of speeches before the White House conference on children and youth.

Some 7,000 delegates from all parts of the nation are attending the week-long conference, which opened Sunday night with an address by President Eisenhower.

The President lined up squarely with the defenders of modern youth. He acknowledged concern about juvenile delinquency which "has increased each year for the past 10 years." But he warned against pessimistic generalizations which "attribute to the many the failures of the few."

"I have an unshakable faith in the overwhelming majority of fine, earnest, high-spirited youngsters who comprise this rising generation of Americans," Eisenhower said.

His optimistic view was seconded by one of the nation's foremost racial scientists when the conference split up today into five separate and concurrent "theme assemblies."

Dr. Talcott Parsons, professor of sociology at Harvard University, said today's young people are "understandably hesitant and uncertain" about some aspects of life. But on the whole, he added, they are "active, eager and ambitious and are undertaking very great efforts to secure training for worthwhile achievement."

"I would think it very difficult indeed to prove that any previous American generation has had higher ideals," he said.

Dr. Abram L. Sachar, president of Brandeis University, was considerably less sanguine. He said the outstanding characteristics of modern youth are "lack of concern, and lack of commitment to (See MEET, Page 3)

Underworld Grip On U.S. Tightens

Hoffa Rule Also Hit In Senate Report

Senate Report

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate Rackets Committee warned today that a "criminal syndicate" of underworld hoodlums has strengthened its grip on the U.S. economy.

Its findings were unanimous, but the committee split 4 to 4 along strict party lines over proposed establishment of a national crime commission to help combat the growing menace.

The committee, in another report on its investigation of infiltration of management and labor by racketeers, accused Teamster President James R. Hoffa again of "gross abuses" of union power and an "unconscionable betrayal" of union members.

The new attack on Hoffa said he gained power with the help of "racketeers and hoodlums" and despite a promised clean-up drive, has shown "no inclination to move against a variety of thieves, robbers, burglars, arsonists, white slavers, extortionists, dope peddlers, and even murderers who are holding office in teamster affiliates."

The suggested crime commission would have served as a federal clearing house for nationwide data on crime. Unable to agree on the proposal, the committee voted instead to recommend immediate study by an "appropriate" congressional committee on how to best cope with the problem of syndicated crime.

The committee split over the proposed crime commission had more than the usual partisan overtones.

Four May File For Randall Judge Post

AMARILLO (UPI) — The resignation of Judge Roy Joe Stevens was to be formally presented to the County Commissioners Court today at 10 a.m.

Stevens turned in his resignation Saturday after a barrage of charges made during a three day vice hearing by the General Investigating Committee of the Texas House of Representatives.

County Commissioner C. Y. Johnson was to turn the resignation over to the court for action today, and there was no doubt it would be accepted effective April 1.

The Commissioners Court will have to appoint another judge to fill the post until the end of the year, and about four men are expected to apply. Stevens' term did not expire this election and the Randall County Democratic Executive Committee chairman, David Matthis, said the filing deadline would be extended to allow candidates to get their names on the primary ballot.

Stevens, 37, and the father of five children, was accused last week of intimacies with teen-aged girls in his Amarillo law office, indirectly threatening the life of an employee, plotting a bombing, and financial interests in gambling and prostitution.

He can still legally practice law, and has been an attorney in Amarillo while serving as judge in Randall County. A grievance committee of the State Bar Association plans to meet soon to study charges made against Stevens.

Cops Nab Sitdowners At Marshall Eateries

MARSHALL, Tex. (UPI) — Sixteen college-age Negro students resumed attempts to integrate Marshall lunch counters today and cops immediately took six of them into custody.

Police said the Negroes entered two stores at 10:15 a.m. and began the sitdown at lunch counters. Six Negroes entered the Fry-Hodge drugstore and seated themselves at the counter. Police immediately took them into custody.

A larger group of 10 students, entered the F. W. Woolworth dime store at the same time and systematically seated themselves on every other stool, dominating the entire counter. Police did not take these into immediate custody, but questioned them at the store.

The first sitdowns in Marshall, farthest east thus far in Texas, started Saturday. Thirteen Negroes entered Woolworth's and staged a sitdown. Police questioned them but made no arrests.

That same day a group of Negroes attempted to integrate the bus station in Marshall. Both the bus station and the dime store immediately closed their counters Saturday.

Flooding Threats In Thaw

Alarm Spread In Four States

CHICAGO (UPI) — Flood swollen rivers surged over their banks in four states today, driving hundreds of persons from their homes and isolating several communities.

The Weather Bureau blamed a fast spring thaw which melted mountains of snow accumulated by record breaking winter storms.

Snow-fed rivers washed over their banks in Missouri, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska.

Countless roads were closed by the rising water. Police urged motorists driving in the four-state area to be on the lookout for washed out highways.

National guardsmen helped police in rescuing stranded families. This was the state-by-state picture.

Nebraska: At least three communities remained virtual islands; 60 families were driven from their homes; authorities said the worst was yet to come.

Iowa: The Nodaway River was expected to crest four feet above flood stage at Clarinda this morning, causing some flooding.

Kansas: The Highway Patrol reported many roads closed or soon to be closed; flood waters were two feet deep at Frankfort and coming in fast.

Missouri: The Weldon River went on a rampage with a six-foot rise in one hour at Mercer; the Chariton River was expected to crest at seven feet above flood stage by evening.

Cuba Protests Statements By Herter

HAVANA (UPI) — A formal protest accusing Secretary of State Christian A. Herter of making an "unfriendly" statement about the Fidel Castro regime threatened today to trigger another round of sharp diplomatic exchanges between Cuba and the United States.

The Cuban protest, delivered to Ambassador Philip W. Bonsal Sunday night, denounced as "far from true" Herter's recent statement that Communist sympathizers hold high positions in the Castro government.

Castro himself, in two major speeches Sunday, renewed charges of open aggression against Cuba by the U.S. government.

As he has done repeatedly in past weeks, Castro hinted that an outright military invasion of Cuba may be in the planning. But he said Cuba was strong enough to defeat invaders "from abroad."

resignation is not to be construed as an admission of guilt of any of the charges, allegations and insinuations that have been made against me," Stevens said.

He indicated that he decided to quit as county judge because he would not be effective after charges at the hearings, which were carried over to Amarillo television stations widely publicized in the area.

Stevens complained about not being able to cross-examine witnesses at the hearings which involved him in gambling and a divorce. He was expected to fight a disbarment move, and would have a chance to cross-examine witnesses in any court trial.

The Potter county grand jury scheduled to meet Tuesday may also consider an indictment against Stevens. Tom Pursley, foreman of the grand jury, indicated that the group would file charges made against Stevens.

James L. Miller of Hereford, chairman of a five-man state bar grievance committee, said his group had been investigating Stevens for some time, but that the hearings turned up new evidence.

At the conclusion of the investigation, the five members of the investigating committee headed by H. J. (Doc) Blanchard of Abilene concluded that there is no doubt that Stevens was guilty of misconduct and of being guilty of misconduct and of being guilty of misconduct.

The report also branded Amarillo as a city where gambling went on unchecked for 10 years and named Lester Davis, the kingpin gambler. Mrs. Davis testified at the hearings that her husband made payoffs to certain law enforcement officers.

Other witnesses implicated Stevens and four sheriff's officers at a district attorney in the gambling activities in the Amarillo area.

Gov. Price Daniel and Atty. Gen. Will Wilson indicated that county grand jury would have set crack at bringing charges as the result of testimony at the hearings, but the state could move in later if it felt the situation was not checked.

Copter Crash Kills Demolition Experts

LAWTON, Okla. (UPI)—Army authorities probed for tiny pieces of a giant helicopter today in an effort to determine whether the aircraft exploded before or after it crashed, killing all five crew members.

The Army airmen died five miles south of their base at Fort Sill, near here. They were returning from Oklahoma City, where the helicopter had taken demolition experts to investigate three bombings believed linked with a newspaper strike in Portland, Ore.

The million-dollar R-37 Skorsky crashed in wind and fog early Sunday, digging a crater about two feet deep and 12 feet in diameter. Wreckage was scattered over a radius of about 500 feet.

Police did not believe sabotage was involved.

The victims were Chief W. O. Dewey L. Seliger, 32, Waltham, S. C., pilot; Chief W. O. Carl Tex., co-pilot; Sgt. Raymond D. W. Ayers, 32, Carrizo Springs, Tex., co-pilot; Sgt. Raymond D. cratic presidential nomination, spearheaded the drive for its adoption. He drew support from the other three committee Democrats—Chairman John F. McClellan (Ark.) and Sens. Frank Church (Idaho) and Sam J. Ervin Jr. (N.C.).

All four Republicans — Sens. Karl E. Mundt (S.D.), Barry Goldwater (Ariz.), Carl T. Curtis (Neb.) and Homer E. Capehart (Ind.)—were opposed.

Kennedy said the commission could "gather information on the top criminal leaders in the country, keep a close surveillance on their activities, and disseminate their information to local and state law enforcement agencies."

The Republicans opposed the commission as a costly and unnecessary accessory to such existing agencies as the FBI. They said it could be "construed as an attempt on the part of the government to inject itself into local and state police affairs."

The committee said Hoffa and Benjamin Dragan, a close ally in financial dealings, "obviously contemplated long-range, systematic exploitation" of Teamsters members.

The report said the magnitude of the operation was apparent by the fact that two Detroit locals spent more than $325,000 for the purchase of some 26,000 jackets with union insignia for the combined membership of the two locals.

Dragan, who acted as middleman in the jacket deal, realized a profit of more than $70,000 "on commissions and loans which were never repaid," according to the report.

Joey Gimco, head of the Chicago taxi drivers' union, spent $40,000 of union money on a love nest for himself and his secretary, the committee said.

Blue Lustre Answer To Home Carpet Cleaning Problem

American traditions as old as the hills are still as popular today as when they were first introduced. This is the case with the home put on her apron to dress up the house.

Blue Lustre is a special concentrate that is mixed with water to create a billowy foam. This foam is then applied to rugs or carpets with an inexpensive long handled brush or it can also be used in any type of rug shampoo applicator.

The action of Blue Lustre foam makes original colors spring back to life like new again — leaves pile open and fluffy and carpets stay cleaner longer because there is no oily, gummy residue to cause rapid resoling. It's safe to use on the finest oriental rugs and cleans upholstery beautifully.

Housewives have found that Blue Lustre makes it possible to clean soiled spots and pathways as they appear without going over the entire carpet. Blue Lustre is a safe and handy to keep around the house because it is completely odorless and nonflammable. It is economical to use for one half gallon of concentrate is sufficient to clean three 9 x 12 rugs or several pieces of upholstery. Also available in quarts and gallon sizes. Blue Lustre is handled locally by the Pampa Hardware Co.

EASY TO CLEAN — Blue Lustre is the inexpensive method of cleaning finest rugs and upholstery. This housewife is pleased with the big difference Blue Lustre is making the appearance of her rug. Blue Lustre is available at the Pampa Hardware Co., 120 Cuyler.

Which Is Better: Raise Taxes Or Debase Currency?

BY ELMER C. WALZER
UPI Financial Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—A banking industry spokesman today warned that we'd better get a bit of modern-day money, rather than an attack of morbus sicca.

It means it's better to raise taxes than to debase the currency.

Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia is the author of a book on money which uses these words. It has done a job of explaining the story of money, using the words and ideas that have grown with money development and explaining all in simple, understandable language.

The story of money is done in the title, "Henry VIII Revisited—The Problems and Temporalities of Money Creation." It is set up in an attractive 20-page pamphlet, illustrated with drawings and charts. The title is unnamed.

King Henry, the Eighth, in an illustration of debasement that was as common as a prerogative of kings by divine right.

Henry was a spender.

Savings Bond Sales Growing

An increase of four per cent in February marked the second time this year that U.S. Savings Bond sales in Texas have been greater than sales in the same month in 1959, according to George B. Cree, Jr., chairman of the Gray County Savings Bond Committee.

February sales in Texas totaled $15,596,998. Total bond purchases in Gray County for January and February were $119,184 which represents 18.8 per cent of the 1960 county goal.

"We are most encouraged by Cree's report. More and more people are purchasing Series E and H Bonds because they realize that in doing so they are making a direct contribution to the economic stability of this nation and to the future security of their own families. The savings bonds being purchased now earn a three and three-fourths per cent interest compounded semi-annually when held to maturity," Cree it added.

Given Latitude
Limitations were placed on currency issuance, but the Federal Reserve was given latitude to maintain an elastic currency.

The Philadelphia bank's story reveals several things that haven't been explained too carefully by politicians.

For example, to bring interest rates down, the only thing the Federal Reserve could do would be to expand the currency. That inflationary move would result in higher prices.

Deficit spending likewise involves creation of money with its inflationary potential.

Lenten Devotion

By Bishop Johannes E. R. Lilje, President Lutheran World Federation
Written For UPI

That power can be gained through suffering is, of course, one of those paradoxical statements. As in most cases, we may have our serious doubts whether a statement of that sort can really be true. If you want power, it is certainly more effective to beat than to be beaten. And wasn't Nietzsche right when he told the Christians that their theology was that of the underdogs and that they just made a pious philosophy out of the simple fact that they were unable to gain power and did not know how to do it?

Locomotives In Last Run With Payload

DETROIT (UPI)—Bells tolled the requiem of the era of steam locomotive passenger trains but burial of the giant engines may never occur.

The last regularly scheduled passenger runs by two giant steam locomotives—engines 6319 and 6322 of the Grand Trunk and Western Railroad—Sunday carried some 2,012 persons on a trip from here to Durand, Mich., and back into at least semi-retirement.

In Chicago, James Shea, president of the Railroad Public Relations Association and general manager of the Southern Pacific, said the Association of American Railroads probably would recognize the 120-mile round trip as the last major, regular run in the country.

But from Denver came word that the Denver & Rio Grand Western Railroad uses steam engines on its regular freight runs on narrow gage track, because no diesels are built which will run on the narrow track.

The railroad said the narrow track was a necessity in the mountains.

Denver & Rio Grand officials also said several steamers were still running on freight lines they serve and a passenger run was planned for "tourists" this summer—which could be a key to revival of the old-timers in other areas.

The future of the steam locomotives that forged a nation and dissolved a wilderness is uncertain. Some of them are still in service in the United States, aside from those used by Denver & Rio Grand Western.

Some of them sit on sidings awaiting the "call"—when their diesel kith brothers can't stand the gaff. Still others earn their keep by laboring on some of the small roads scattered throughout the nation.

And perhaps others of them will be forced out of retirement by railroad enthusiasts such as the overflow which flooded Grand Trunk offices recently and required a second set of coaches in Sunday's historic run.

In a generation like ours, which had to bear a heavier burden of sufferings than many a generation before, we should help each other to understand that sufferings can become the source of inner strength if only we are prepared to discover the blessings which are hidden in them.

It is a period of special training so that we may pray and worship and practice our Christianity more acceptably, not simply for forty days and forty nights but for many months to come. ### Transients To Be Counted In '60 Census

Special steps are being taken in the 1960 census of population and housing, which starts April 1, to make sure that all transients are counted, District Supervisor Clyde Cook said today.

Places such as large hotels, motels and other accommodations for transient guests will be canvassed under a different procedure than the one used for regular household dwelling units. Prior to March 31, census takers will visit each of them and make a complete record of the rental units in these special dwelling places. At the same time, they will determine which of these units are occupied by permanent residents and which are for transients.

Transients will be counted on the night of March 31. This census operation is known as "T-night." A supply of individual census report forms will be left at hotels, motels and other large transient places to be distributed to transient guests staying at these places during the night of March 31. Census bureau employees will be on hand during that evening to assist transients in filling out the forms. The purpose of the special canvass is to account for every person staying in such places on the census date.

After the individual report forms have been collected, they will be screened to determine what names of our trivial observations are of little use.

I do not know who wrote the following lines, but they suggest how we can make our Lenten observance an offering to God.

Political Eye On Vote In Wisconsin

EDITOR'S NOTE — Results of the Wisconsin primary next to the leaders of both parties but will be of special significance to the Democrats. Here is a report in depth from two United Press International correspondents who know the stars...

By RAYDOHERTY and FRED LINDECKE United Press International

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Sena Hubert Humphrey and John Kennedy headed into the home stretch today for the Wisconsin presidential primary, regarded as perhaps the most significant of the pre-convention balloting this year.

Cuban Attache Seeks Asylum

LAREDO, Tex. (UPI) — Lt. Comdr. Jaime Varela Canosa, Cuban naval attache in Mexico City who charged that Communists are now controlling his country, was in the United States today on "parole status."

"But I have paroled them into the U.S. under my discretionary authority," Skinner said. The whereabouts of the three men after they entered the U.S. Sunday had not been learned.

Varela Canosa charged in Mexico City Friday that "the revolution has been betrayed. In Cuba, there exists a dictatorship of Communist inspiration which has resulted in the negation of all liberties."

Most Cities Have Hiked Transit Fares

By United Press International The cost of getting to jobs, school or shopping centers is climbing in many United States cities.

Transit fares have been boosted in at least 10 cities in the last four months, a United Press International survey showed today.

Since 1955, fare boosts went into effect in at least 20 other cities. Petitions for transit fare increases are pending in New Orleans, Philadelphia and Newark, N. J.

The once-common dime streetcar ride is almost a thing of the past. So is the streetcar itself in most of the nation. It's giving way to buses.

Of all the major transit systems in the country, only the New Orleans Public Service, Inc. will transport passengers for less than a dime.

The company hasn't had a fare increase within memory. In its last change, back in 1922, the New Orleans firm lowered its fare from 4 to 7 cents.

The most recent increases were in Washington, where the basic fare was boosted from 20 cents to 25 cents, and San Diego, Calif., where a similar boost was ordered to become effective March 28.

Fare boosts that followed recent strikes gave Des Moines, Iowa, and Pittsburgh fares that rate among the highest in the nation.

A ride costs at least a quarter in 13 cities checked in the UPI survey. They include Chicago, Los Angeles last month boosted its basic zone fare from 17 to 20 cents.

Denver fares went up from 15 to 20 cents on March 1. Zone fares were eliminated in Indianapolis in January and the flat fare was boosted from 15 cents to 20 cents.

Fares were boosted from 15 to 20 cents at Jackson, Miss., on Feb. 15 and from 20 cents to 25 cents during the winter at Springfield and Peoria, Ill.

last to abandon it were Mobile, Ala., and Jackson, Miss., in 1958, and Roanoke, Va., and Newark, N. J., in 1955.

The New Orleans Public Service proposes to switch from streetcars to buses on its Canal Street line if it wins a fare increase, but would retain trolley cars on the St. Charles Street line.

Washington is phasing out its unique third-rail streetcars and St. Louis eliminated a trolley line a few weeks ago.

The Pittsburgh Railway Co. has gradually converted some of its routes to buses but still has the nation's most comprehensive streetcar system.

Talk of a complete switchover has been vetoed several times on the grounds it would be too costly.

Man, Child Wounded As Gangs Battle

EL PASO, Tex. (UPI) — Police said today they expected to make "several" arrests in connection with wounding of a 4-year-old girl and a 52-year-old man — both innocent bystanders — during a fight between two rival juvenile gangs Sunday.

Linda Saucedo, 4, and Gabriel Riviera, 52, were both shot when a carload of members of one of the gangs sped by and opened fire with a rifle, intending to hit other gang members brawling in the street.

The child was hit in the left shoulder. Riviera was shot in the stomach. Police took them and Joe Genera, 25, a member of one of the gangs, to a hospital. Genera was stabbed in the back and his face beaten with a hammer in the melee.

Police questioned 13 suspects late Sunday.

WASHINGTON-LONDON AXIS:

London observers expect Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's hurry-up trip to Washington to result in a new Western offer designed to keep the nuclear weapons-ban talks in Geneva going at least until the summit meeting in May. These observers say the Western proposal will be a compromise suggestion, countering a Soviet Union plan banning all above-ground nuclear tests providing at the same time the West agrees to a long-time moratorium on underground tests as well. No final agreement is expected in the Geneva talks but they might progress to the point where agreement could be reached at the summit.

FRANCO-RUSSIAN ACCORD?

Experts on the sidelines of the main Khrushchev-de Gaulle talks in Paris have been conducting separate negotiations in a number of different fields where closer Franco-Russian relations may be expected. There is said to be likelihood of a renewal of the Franco-Soviet "friendship" treaty renounced by the Russians in 1955. Pope John XXIII will announce a successor to Domenico Cardinal Tardini as Vatican secretary of state during the coming Consistory ceremonies. Tardini caused a sensation in the Vatican recently when he apparently went over the Pope's head to tell newsmen he wanted to retire because of illness. The 72-year-old Tardini hinted he already had asked the Pontiff to let him go but the Pope would not. "No one is irreplaceable," said Tardini of his own job.

Lands On Highway

DALLAS (UPI) — Jack Busch of Denver landed his single-engine light plane on the north section of the Central Expressway near Plano, Tex. Sunday night after running out of fuel.

Busch brought the Money Mark 20 plane down in the south traffic lane and walked away unharmed, although one wing was torn when it hit a highway marker.

Pope Names 3 Cardinals

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope John XXIII named three more cardinals of the Roman Catholic Church today but kept their identities secret from the public.

Vatican sources said the Pope told the College of Cardinals of the appointments at a secret consistory called to approve the designation of seven previously announced cardinals, including two Asians and a Negro.

The sources said the three new names would be announced at a future consistory.

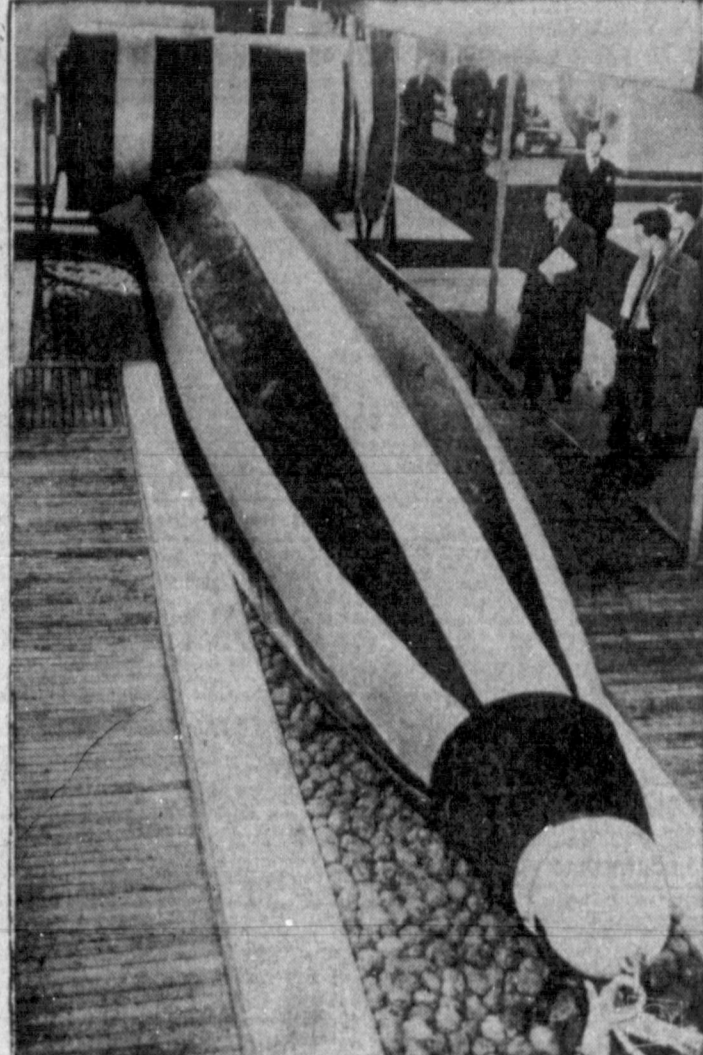

The disclosure was a surprise. It means the College of Cardinals will be raised to an unprecedented 88. This tended to support speculation that Pope John may increase its size to as much as 100 in line with the growing membership of the Roman Catholic Church.

The Vatican estimates there now are more than half a billion Roman Catholics in the world and that this figure is growing at the rate of 15 million a year.

Today's consistory began four days of solemn ceremonies installing the seven named earlier.

The 87-year-old Pontiff met with cardinals of previous creation in the Vatican Palace to ask their formal approval of the seven.

Rescue From Drowning Futile

SAN ANTONIO (UPI) — Daniel Duenas, 12, of San Antonio, drowned in the Medina River Sunday after two Lackland Air Force Base airmen thought they had saved his life.

The boy was pulled from the stream by Staff Sgt. Alberto F. Gonzales, 29, of Youngstown, Ohio and A-1-C Guy Leech, 23, of Dowagiac, Mich.

The airmen said the boy was in shallow water next to the bank and on his feet but apparently fell back into deep water and drowned after the two airmen went to the aid of the boy's father and two brothers who nearly drowned in trying to save the youth.
