County Returns Complete; Vote Total Is Record

Gray County finally made it — the final ballot box has been turned in to the office of Gray County Clerk Charlie Thut.

The unofficial count put the Republicans far ahead of the Democrats in the presidential and senatorial races, but it will make no difference in the outcome in the state and national races.

Cold Front Will Remain Until Friday

By United Press International

A fast-moving Canadian cold front that swept the Panhandle with its first real snow, spread a frigid blanket that tumbled temperatures to freezing or below over much of North Texas today and shoved fingers of icy air into southern sections.

It triggered light rain showers along the Rio Grande from Cotulla southward today. Skies were cloudy over South Texas and the western part of the Panhandle. Elsewhere, it was clear and crisp. The arctic air skidded temperatures to freezing or below as far south as Fort Worth, Abilene and Wink. The coldest early today was 23 at Childress, and the highest in the state was a moderate 54 at Brownsville, deep in South Texas.

The chill over Texas was expected to hold through the day and tonight in most parts, then start warming up a bit Friday and Friday night as winds shifted out of the north to bring gulf moisture from the south on gentle breezes. The weather bureau warned, however, freezing temperatures would extend into the southern half of Texas tonight.

Snow up to one-inch deep fell at Perryton Wednesday afternoon, but it was dry and brisk winds kept it swept from most roads and all major highways. Lesser amounts fell in other parts of the Panhandle.

President Offers To Aid Kennedy

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UPI) — President Eisenhower today offered to meet with President-elect John F. Kennedy "at any mutually convenient time" to ease the transition from Republican to Democratic control of the government.

The President also invited Kennedy to designate representatives to work with his top White House aide, Wilton B. Parsons, and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, to assure continuity in U.S. foreign policy.

Vice-President Richard Nixon and Henry Cabot Lodge soundly trounced President-elect John Fitzgerald Kennedy and Sen. Lyndon Johnson, his running mate, and John Tower easily bested Johnson, the re-elected Texas senator.

In the race for the governorship it was no contest. Gov. Price Daniel ran away from his Republican opponent, William M. Steger, and it was the same situation in the race for other state posts — the Republican, Constitution, Prohibition and Independent parties were far outdistanced.

The four state constitutional amendments, as far as Gray County voters were concerned, were split, two passing and two being rejected.

The following figures, taken from the records of the county clerk, are unofficial, since the canvass of the ballots will not take place until Monday.

For President: Kennedy-Johnson, 2,841; Nixon-Lodge, 8,279, and Sullivan (C) 1.

For Governor: Daniel, 5,844; Steger, 3,428.

For Lieutenant-Governor: Ramsey, 5,858; Harrison, 3,375, and Eubanks (C) 6.

For Attorney-General: Wilson, 5,810; Treadway, 2,943; McDonnold, (C) 7.

For United States Senator: Johnson, 3,906; Tower, 5,044, and Logan (C) 10.

For Chief Justice, State Supreme Court: R. W. Calvert, 6,627; Tower, 1.

For Associate Justice, Place 1: Smith, 6,855.

For Associate Justice, Place 2: Greenhill, 6,658.

For State Comptroller of Public Accounts: R. S. Calvert, 6,162; Smith, 2,597; Rummel (C) 9.

For Railroad Commissioner: Thompson, 6,123; Ewing, 2,615; Jarman (C) 9.

For Court of Criminal Appeals: McDonald, 6,531; Lozano, 23.

For Land Office Commissioner: Sadler, 6,118; Byles, 2,581; Miller (C) 10.

For Commissioner of Agriculture: White, 6,249; Danklefs, 2,585; Peters (C) 11.

For State Treasurer: James, 6,189; Lacy, 2,561; Ellis, 7.

In the election of Gray County officials, balloting was mere formality since the candidates were unopposed. The results were:

For Chief Justice, Court of Civil Appeals, Seventh District: Denton, 6,828.

For U.S. Representative, 18th Congressional District: Rogers, 6,952.

For State Board of Education, 18th District: Willborn, 7,943.

For State Senator: Hazlewood, 7,077.

Odd Ball Ballots

Tuesday some 10,000 persons trudged to the polls in Gray County, "sweated out" lines, and finally moved into the balloting booths to have their say in the election of individuals whom they hoped to have run their national, state and county offices. Some, though, must have had their minds on other things, for these people posted some "odd ball" ballots.

These persons, nationally and locally known, were placed on the ballots as added starters, as it were, by those who thought they would fit such posts as president, representative, vice-president, and the like.

Scanning the tabulation sheets in Gray County Court-house yesterday, these names were observed:

Flood Of Best Wishes

World Leaders Anxious To Meet With Kennedy

LONDON (UPI)—Leaders of East and West smothered President-elect John F. Kennedy with congratulations today and Allied chiefs looked forward to talking his measure in personal meetings.

Diplomatic sources said British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan may fly to Washington after the inauguration to get Anglo-American cooperation off to a good start in the new administration.

Macmillan believes this partnership eventually will be the salvation of world peace and the future of mankind.

Other Allied leaders, particularly West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, also were reported anxious for an early get-together.

French President Charles de Gaulle and Macmillan are in their 60s and Adenauer is 84. They are more than intrigued at the prospect of dealing with a new world leader only 43 years old.

De Gaulle, uncertain just what Kennedy's election will mean in regard to the U.S. attitude on Algeria, nevertheless was warm in his message to Kennedy.

"I greet you, my dear partner, with my heartfelt congratulations," he said. "I send you in the name of France all my wishes for the United States."

Other messages of good wishes flooded in from Macmillan, Adenauer, Italian President Giovanni Gronchi, Greek Premier Constantine Karamanlis, the Spanish government, Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev, Prime Minister Robert Menzies of Australia, and President Carlos P. Garcia of the Philippines.

Most, like De Gaulle's, were simple expressions of good will toward the new president-elect. But Khrushchev could not refrain from injecting some propaganda.

In an obvious slap at the Eisenhower administration, Khrushchev wrote that "We hope that while you are at this post the relations of our countries would again follow the line along which they were developing in Franklin Roosevelt's time."

Newspaper reaction, both in Asia and Europe, was largely favorable. The general tone was that Kennedy at least would bring a fresh approach to the cold war problems which have become increasingly more knotty in the waning months of the Eisenhower administration.

Campaign director Robert Finch said, "I don't think the shock has really hit him yet."

"For a guy who's supposed to be cold-blooded, he's been gracious and philosophical. He and Pat have spent their time cheering up disconsolate staff members."

"Mr. Nixon obviously will be a great force in American political life. That's indicated by the tremendous popular vote he received. I think he polled more votes in losing that I did in winning."

"I never saw a fellow so philosophical," said campaign chairman Leonard Hall. "To him it is all part of the game. Frankly, I can't imagine Dick Nixon not in politics."

Nixon looked tired as he left the plane, but managed to keep his sense of humor. When Kentucky Sen. John Sherman Cooper whispered consoling words, he laughed. "Yes, but you won! Cooper was re-elected to the Senate from Kentucky Tuesday."

Vote Count Questioned

HOUSTON (UPI)—Republican State Chairman Thad Hutcheson said today a recount "possibly will be requested" as the result of alleged voting irregularities in Tuesday's general election.

"We are collecting information from our poll-watcher teams all over the state and we have some very disturbing reports of irregularities in San Antonio, Fort Worth, Houston, Tyler and Goliad," Hutcheson said.

He said there were still 55,000 votes uncounted by the Texas Election Bureau.

"We have already presented some of these reports to the attorney general, he said. 'There may be recounts requested on some district or state races.'"

Hutcheson said he had asked Fort Worth party workers, lawyers and other agencies to investigate 30,000 unreported votes from Tarrant county.

"They stopped counting the votes in many Fort Worth boxes at an early hour, and dismissed all of the poll watchers," Hutcheson said.

"Some 50 or 60 ballot boxes are unaccounted for—the judges may have taken the boxes home with them," Hutcheson said. Fort Worth is the largest city in Texas which does not use voting machines.

One report said Hutcheson had told Thruston B. Morton, national Republican committee chairman in Washington, that some 225,000 votes had not been counted in Texas. Morton reportedly asked the Texas Republicans to report their allegations to the U. S. Justice Department.

Hutcheson said he also had received "disturbing reports of various irregularities in many areas of the state." He said he was particularly concerned about a breakdown of voting machines on San Antonio's north side, and about alleged irregularities in Bee county, Goliad and Tyler, and even in parts of Dallas.

"It is too soon for me to outline a course of action, but I invite all citizens to come forward with any evidence of voting irregularities which they may possess," he said.

United Nations, N.Y. (UPI)—Western diplomats predicted President Joseph Kasavubu's delegation from the Congo would win recognition from the Credentials Committee today unless Russia came up with a new angle to block it.

The nine-member committee met Wednesday to decide whether to seat Kasavubu's delegation or one sent by Patrice Lumumba, the pro-Soviet premier he ousted, but the Soviets forced a 24-hour adjournment.

Wednesday night, over strong Western opposition led by the United States, the General Assembly, by a 48 to 30 vote, adjourned indefinitely its general debate on the Congo.

EASY THERE, MR. PRESIDENT — President-elect John F. Kennedy gives his two-year-old daughter Caroline a piggy-back ride at their home in Hyannis Port, Mass., where he is resting after victory in the presidential election.

Orderly Transition Is Sought

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President-elect John F. Kennedy won pledges of Democratic congressional leaders' support for his "new frontiers" legislative program today as he prepared an orderly takeover of the national administration.

At his Hyannis Port, Mass., summer home where he was resting after his suspense-laden victory in Tuesday's election, the nation's first Roman Catholic president promised to name liaison agents today to work with the Eisenhower administration. They will try to insure a smooth transition when the new administration takes over after Kennedy's inauguration Jan. 20.

He also must prepare a legislative program, including an enlarged defense budget and domestic economic legislation, on which he wants action during his first three months in office.

Speaker Sam Rayburn and Assistant Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield both told UPI they would do their utmost to pass a Kennedy legislative program.

Mansfield is heir apparent to Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson, who was elected vice president with Kennedy. Johnson probably will be Kennedy's chief lieutenant in working with Congress.

No Republican voices had been raised — yet at least — to question what kind of a mandate Kennedy won in polling a paper-thin plurality over Vice President Richard M. Nixon in the presidential election.

Kennedy carried 22 states with 334 electoral votes and led in an undecided state with three votes for an indicated total of 337. He needed 289 to win.

Nixon took 25 states with 188 electoral votes and led in an undecided state with one vote. (See KENNEDY, Page 4)

Cabinet Makeup Guessing Begins

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Republican Sen. J. William Fulbright and ex-ambassador David Bruce were reported today to be leading possibilities for secretary of state in the Kennedy administration.

Although President-elect John F. Kennedy doesn't plan to announce his cabinet selections until after Thanksgiving or later, speculation was widespread on his probable choices for top government posts.

Bowles, who is retiring from Congress, was a foreign policy adviser to Kennedy in the presidential campaign. Fulbright is chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and Bruce is a former ambassador to Germany.

Adlai E. Stevenson, often mentioned as a possible secretary of state, is believed to be out of the running now. But he is reported to be under consideration as U.S. ambassador to the United Nations.

Here is the speculation of other cabinet posts:

Defense — Speculation centers around Thomas K. Finletter, former Air Force secretary; Dan Kimball, former Navy secretary; Frank Pace, former Army secretary, and Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., another former Air Force secretary.

Treasury — Names being mentioned include Jesse W. Tapp, chairman of the Bank of America in San Francisco, and George W. Mitchell, vice president, Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago.

Commerce — Gov. Luther Hodges of North Carolina is a possibility.

Health, education and welfare — G. Mennen Williams, outgoing governor of Michigan, apparently is a leading candidate.

Finch-Tregoff Verdict Studied

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The district attorney's office today probed a report that jurors in the Finch-Tregoff murder retrial reached a verdict to convict the surgeon of second degree murder but were ordered by the judge to continue their deliberations.

Dist. Atty. William B. McKesson said Superior Judge Leroy Dawson has denied ever hearing a verdict was reached during the near three-weeks the 11 women and one man deliberated before being discharged Monday as hopelessly deadlocked.

All 12 jurors were in agreement that Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 43, was guilty of murdering his wife on July 18, 1959, but they split at the end 9-3 on the degree of the crime. Nine voted to convict him of first degree murder and three of second degree.

"These three holdout jurors have made the statement that the jury arrived at a verdict in its 10th day of deliberations and that it was mentioned to the judge," said McKesson.

Eisenhower flew here Wednesday to start a lengthy golfing vacation that may extend through Thanksgiving weekend.

He made a bee-line for the Augusta National Golf Club immediately after his personal plane, Columbine III, landed in mid-afternoon.

Eisenhower dispatched a telegram to Kennedy concerning the shift in administrations and his suggestion for a "break-in" period shortly after his arrival.

This was similar to former President Harry S. Truman's offer to let the President's representatives have a seat inside high government circles to simplify the changeover in 1953.

Washington Gives Nixon Warm Welcome Back After Campaign

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Vice President Richard Nixon, smiling in defeat, returned to his home early today cheered by some 500 partisans waving placards reading, "Nixon in 1964."

Included in the enthusiastic crowd, which braved cold and damp weather, were a sprinkling of cabinet members and other GOP officials at Andrews Air Force Base in nearby Maryland.

"This is the nicest thing that has happened to me during the entire campaign," he said. "But slow we are going to get some sleep for the first time in a few nights—and I hope you do the same."

He was accompanied by his wife Pat, and their two daughters.

Nixon remained in the forward compartment of the plane during the entire trip from Los Angeles, avoiding newsmen and conferring with his staff.

He appeared untroubled, but refused to discuss his plans for next year. Members of his entourage did not openly discuss his future, but when questioned by United Press International, they gave a variety of answers.

Herbert G. Klein, his press secretary, said, "The vice president has had many offers today from universities, law firms and large corporations."

Another worker said, "He has an opening waiting in Tom Dewey's law office any time he wants it."

Some of Nixon's close friends and supporters felt the Republican standard bearer was still in a state of shock resulting from the final election returns. He was described as being numb.

Few would guess whether he would remain in politics.

County 'Distinction' In Tardy Tallies

Gray County gained a dubious distinction in the election results — it was the last county of the 254 in Texas to file its report.

This morning, Charlie Thut, county clerk, reported the final box had been brought to his office from Grandview. Thut said its return was delayed since the residents of that farming area were striving to save their milo crop.

This delay, though, is a violation of the law governing return of ballot boxes, according to officials of the Texas Election Return Bureau at Dallas.

The TEB officials spelled out the law for the Daily News this morning, stating that election officials have 24 hours in which to turn in their ballot boxes.

Nicaragua Sets Troops For Invaders

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (UPI)—Nicaragua is deploying troops along the Costa Rican border to meet the threat of invasion by Cuban-armed refugees and "mercenaries," it was reported today.

The government press office said the potential invaders, wearing green fatigue clothes like those of Fidel Castro's rebels, captured one of a group of Costa Rican officers sent to the border this week to verify reports they were massing there.

The Costa Rican government rushed reinforcements into the area, the press statement said, and the sound of gunfire along the border Wednesday indicated they may be locked in battle with the "mercenaries."

The press office also said that four leading Nicaraguan refugees have been jailed in Costa Rica as a precautionary measure and that authorities there are keeping a close watch on other refugees.

On another front said to be threatened with Cuban-organized attack, it was reported that the Mexican air force is flying regular patrols along the Guatemalan border as a precaution against any attempt to use Mexican soil as a base for invasion of Guatemala.

Pair Burned To Death In Parked Auto

DALLAS (UPI)—An "intensely hot" fire in a battered old automobile parked in a dump burned two men beyond recognition late Wednesday night as they slept.

The victims were identified as R. L. Shavers, 28, and Andrew Leon Watts, 19. Both worked at the dump, located just outside the Carrollton city limits, about 15 miles north of Dallas.

"We don't know exactly what happened yet," Sgt. T. H. Campbell of the Dallas County sheriff's office said. "The justice of the peace ordered the bodies to Parkland Hospital for an autopsy. We don't know whether there was any foul play involved."

"But it was an extremely intense fire for an automobile fire. Both bodies were burned to a crisp."

Campbell said it was impossible to tell whether the men had been killed or wounded in any way before the fire. He said it appeared, through, that they had been drinking with two other men and crawled into the car to sleep. He said they seemed to have been trapped, and one of them tried to escape through the trunk.

The car was parked near a small building where the companions of the two victims were asleep. The building was partially burned.

The fire was discovered by C. E. Daniels, fire chief at Coppell, Tex.

STUDENT EATS EVIDENCE

LONDON (UPI)—Student Ivan Green decided if he couldn't have his cake, he might as well eat it, a court was told Wednesday.

The proprietor of a shop said that when Green was cornered stealing some buns, he calmly started to eat them. Then, according to the proprietor, the trapped student said, "If they arrest me, I'll have some milk, too."

The proprietor gave him some because, "I so admired his cheek (nerve)."

Mobutu Attempting To Maintain Peace In Congo

By ARTHUR HIGBEE
United Press International
LEOPOLDVILLE (UPI) — Strongman Col. Joseph Mobutu fought today to keep pro-Soviet Premier Patrice Lumumba from staging a power comeback while President Joseph Kasavubu is out of the country.

Mobutu declared flatly Tuesday night he would not permit Parliament to meet unless Moise Tshombe, secessionist-minded president of Katanga province and arch-foe of Lumumba, agrees to participate.

Tshombe already has declared he will not take part in any government in which Lumumba is involved.

Lumumba told United Press International in an interview in his heavily guarded home that he was confident he would be restored to power. He scoffed at reports he would bring the Communists with him.

When Mobutu seized power Sept. 14 he expelled from the country all Communist diplomats and "technicians on grounds they had been spreading Red propaganda.

Mobutu's public declarations have placed him between Kasavubu and Lumumba—as sort of a third force—but his actions have favored the pro-Western policies of Kasavubu.

At a press conference Tuesday night Mobutu claimed he had foiled an attempt by Lumumba supporters to take over the Parliament building before dawn.

"The plot was aimed at discrediting the Congolese national army and giving the United Nations an excuse to disarm it," he said. A U.N. spokesman said it would be "beneath our dignity" to comment.

Victory Party Was A Study In Reverse

The Lighter Side
By DICK WEST
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Celebrants at the Democratic "victory party" here consumed, either by pippage or spillage, an estimated 20 cases of hooch. It had a strange effect.

This was the only party I ever attended which started out in an intoxicated condition and wound up in complete sobriety. I don't know what brand they were drinking but it must have been distilled by a prohibitionist.

The party was proceeding normally when I arrived on the scene. By "normal" I mean that people were wearing funny hats, there was a lot of boozing singing and some of the women had their shoes off.

But as more liquor was poured out, and more election returns poured in, heads began to clear and the place finally became almost as calm as a temperance meeting. It was all sort of weird. This, however, was by no means the most interesting phenomenon of the evening, or rather the morning. The most interesting phenomenon was Sen. Henry M. Jackson's "elastic electorate."

As chairman of the Democratic National Committee, Jackson undertook the assignment of descending into the multitude at intervals to interpret and "project" the voting trends. The trends, to say the least, were plastic, and sometimes even spastic.

Consequently, when the first returns did come in, Jackson, who bears the nickname of "Scoop," was able to stretch the figures to more than 400 electoral votes. The crowd cheered and everyone had another drink.

Since Jackson seemed to have the situation well in hand, I ducked out for a few minutes to drop in on the Republican "victory party." The gang there looked rather crestfallen. By midnight, crests were falling like confetti.

The GOP had an organizer who played "smiles" and other cheery tunes. A more appropriate selection would have been "music to cry into, your beer by."

By the time I got back to the Democratic party, Jackson's electoral vote count had dropped to 250 and the party was going downhill fast. "This looks like the Arlington Cemetery," I hear one late arrival say.

The next time Jackson appeared his count had contracted to 265 "sure" votes and the crowd had contracted to a small band of mostly teen-agers. They tried to sing "Happy Days are Here Again" but nobody was old enough to remember the words.

It was getting on toward dawn when Jackson made his last visitation. This time he reverted to his original prediction of at least 300 votes. Then the prophet went to bed and so did I.

Party-wise, I reached one firm conclusion: When Democrats get together to hoist a few, they have more fun if they don't have Richard Nixon for a "chaser."

Kennedy Not Youngest Chief

WASHINGTON (UPI) — John F. Kennedy, aged 43 years and nine months, is the youngest man ever elected president but he is not the youngest to ever hold that office.

Theodore Roosevelt was the youngest chief executive. He moved up to the White House from vice president 43 days short of his 43rd birthday on Sept. 14, 1901, after President William McKinley was assassinated.

 Agriculture — Gov. Herschel C. Loveless of Iowa, Gov. Orville Freeman of Minnesota, Gov. Gaylord Nelson of Wisconsin. Loveless lost in his attempt to become senator from Iowa, and Freeman was defeated for re-election as Minnesota governor. Nelson was re-elected in Wisconsin.
 Interior — Gov. Stephen L. McNichols of Colorado. Other possibilities are Rep. Stewart L. Udall, D-Ariz., and Sen. Clair Engle, D-Calif.
 Labor — Some speculation says a major political figure may get the job, such as New York Mayor Robert F. Wagner. Another possibility is Archibald Cox, a Harvard law professor and Kennedy's "braintrust" adviser on labor matters. A labor name being mentioned is Arthur J. Goldberg, special AFL-CIO counsel.

 Still incomplete returns showed that Kennedy had polled 33,330,889 popular votes to 33,005,051 for Nixon. Kennedy's percentage of the two-party vote total was only 50.25. Counting ballots cast for minor party candidates and for independent electors in Mississippi, he received less than 50 percent of the vote.
 Nixon and his running mate, Henry Cabot Lodge, Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Johnson also called for national unity behind a Kennedy administration in post-election statements Wednesday. President Eisenhower wired congratulations and promised cooperation in the transition period.
 Kennedy himself said he thought everyone agreed that "a supreme national effort" would be needed to carry the United

 For vice-president: Orville (Phobus) He must have meant Faubus).
 For 18th District Representative: Gray County Judge Bill Craig and City Commissioner James L. Crawford Jr.
 But even with these "suggested" entries Alford E. Neuman didn't post a single vote in Gray County, and that's something, you know.

Democrats Have 50,000 Vote Margin

DALLAS (UPI)—President-elect Lyndon Johnson and vice-president-elect Hubert H. Humphrey won a 50,000-vote majority in Texas, the best returns of the Texas Election Bureau showed today. The TEB said the Kennedy-Johnson ticket got 1,103,617 votes in the general election, compared with 1,053,469 for Nixon-Lodge. The new figure showed a record of 2,176,212, compared with the previous record of 2,073,000, in the 1952 general election. Robert E. Johnson, TEB director, estimated that 55,000 to 60,000 votes were still unreported from 254 counties still incomplete. But the votes still out are not enough to change the result of any race. A final report will be issued late Saturday. Sen. Johnson was re-elected to the U.S. Senate by more than 6,000 votes over his GOP opponent, John G. Tower of Wichita Falls. Johnson polled 1,210,386 votes to

Bandits Rob Grocery Clerk

FORT WORTH (UPI)—It was her second day on the job, and more than Mrs. Velma Winders counted on.
Mrs. Winders, 40, was the only one in the front of a Worth Food Market Wednesday night when a nattily dressed man wheeled a shopping basket over to her checking stand, and pulled out a pistol. "I looked at him and at that ugly gun, and did just what he said," Mrs. Winders, badly shaken, said.
She said the man ordered her to take all of the cash out of her drawer, without counting it, and hand it over. As he calmly walked to the door, he turned and said: "Don't scream, don't move."
She didn't. How much did he get? Mrs. Winders said she didn't know, but her drawer was "pretty full."

Dope Theft Suspect Held

SAN ANTONIO (UPI)—San Antonio police arrested a 38-year-old man today in connection with a Tyler drug store narcotics burglary in which a pharmacist is missing.

Police Inspector L. G. Dunaway spotted a car today that was seen near the drug store when it was burglarized early Wednesday. He stopped the car and arrested Dennis Woodbury, whom police said is a police character with a record of narcotics arrests.
With Woodbury was a woman who identified herself as Jo Ann Ranklin. She was held on suspicion of burglary and theft. Woodbury was charged with burglary and theft and held for Tyler police.
The Tyler drug store was rated a "mystery job" by police, who said a key was found in the door of the place after $300 in narcotics and $100 in cash was taken. W. S. Carpenter, a pharmacist at the store, is missing. His automobile was found a few blocks from the store with blood on the floor.

For Holiday Pleasure Bake Tasty Fruitcake

Of all the festive fragrances floating around this time of year, probably most tempting is that of fruitcake baking slowly in the oven. Warm, spicy aromas that tease appetites, hinting of enjoyment in days to come.

Now is the time to begin baking because several weeks should be allowed to let fruitcake mellow. Time develops its flavor.

Cordial Fruitcake is a recipe from Imperial Sugar Company. It's easy to follow and produces a moist, flavorful cake that wins compliments wherever it's served. Whether intended for friendly gifts or holiday entertaining, this homemade fruitcake adds a personal touch to the festivities.

At first glance, the recipe looks long to those who have never bak-

3/4 pound candied pineapple
3/4 pound candied cherries
3 cups dates, pitted and sliced
1 cup molasses or corn syrup
1 cup honey
1/2 cup cider
 Grease three 10" x 5" x 3" loaf pans; line with heavy paper; grease again. Combine flour, baking powder and spices; sift to gether three times. Cream butter; add Imperial Brown Sugar gradually; beat till light and fluffy. Add eggs, nuts, peel, fruits, molasses, honey and cider. Gradually add dry ingredients; beat well after each addition till blended. Fill pans 2-3 full. Bake slowly at 250 degrees F., 2 1/2 to 4 hours. For moist texture, place shallow pan of water on lowest rack of oven; remove the last 15 minutes. To store, cool cake; wrap with cloth dampened in cider or grape juice. Overwrap with aluminum foil. Store in airtight container in cool, dry place for several weeks; re-moisten once a week with cider or juice.

CORDIAL FRUITCAKE
4 cups sifted flour
1 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 pound candied orange and lemon peel
1/2 pound citron, thinly sliced
1 pound raisins
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1 pound butter or margarine
1 pound Imperial Brown Sugar
10 eggs, well beaten
1/2 pound nuts, chopped

Festive Apple Punch Cups Eliminate Dish-Washing Chore When Party's Over

Apple mincing really gets underway in the autumn, when days are shorter and nights very cool. That's when the weather is ideal for developing the best flavor in apples.

Everyone likes Virginia apples to munch just as they are, — cherished by gourmets the world around for fresh out-of-hand eating.

Their lovely color and juicy, tart-sweet flavor are the product of an environment in the Appalachian Mountains that is duplicated nowhere else in the world. Growing conditions are just right to produce the distinctive texture and fragrance that distinguish these apples, now coming into local markets.

If your planning a Teenage party, Virginia apples will make the most attractive punch cups you ever saw! Cut the tops from big red apples, using a scalloped design, if desired. Scoop out the fruit, leaving a shell about half an inch thick. Cut out funny faces, making sure not to cut through the shell too far. Sprinkle all cut surfaces with lemon juice to prevent darkening; or with the ascorbic acid powder used in preparing fruit for freezing.

Use these pretty apple cups for serving punch, which might be a spiced apple cider, or the "Witches Brew" suggested below.

If your guests eat the apple cups after they drink the punch, you eliminate the dish-washing problem!

TEENAGE WITCHES' BREW
2 cups granulated sugar
4 quarts water
2 6-oz. cans lemon juice
2 quarts apple juice
1 quart cranberry juice
1 pint orange juice
1 pint strong black tea
1 tablespoon honey
 Mix sugar and water and bring to a boil. Add remaining ingredients. Chill thoroughly before serving time. This makes about 40 apple-cup servings.

Broiled Grapefruit Is Done In Jiffy
 This may sound like a hour's work to you, but it can all be done in a jiffy.

Broiled Grapefruit
Grapefruit halves
Butter
Honey
 1. Core, cut around sections of each grapefruit half.
 2. Spread each half with 1 tablespoon honey.
 3. Place 2 or 3 dots butter on each half.
 4. Place each half in center of square of Alcoa Wrap; bring up sides; press together over grapefruit.
 5. Place in refrigerator overnight.

Golden, Honey-Glazed Vegetables Have Eye And Palate Appeal

In the fall when cooler weather demands more substantial cooked vegetables for the dinner-time menu, grace your table with golden honey-glazed carrots and other honey-glazed vegetables.

Try these suggestions for honey-glazed vegetables that the family will want often.

CITRUS HONEY CARROTS
1 bunch carrots
1/4 cup melted butter
1/4 cup honey
1 1/2 teaspoons grated orange peel
1 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon peel
 Wash and scrape carrots; cook in 1 inch of boiling salted water until crispy-tender; about 15 to 20 minutes. Drain. Blend melted butter, honey and citrus peels. Pour over cooked carrots and place over low heat until carrots are thoroughly glazed. Makes 4 servings.

HONEY CRUSTED YAMS
6 medium-sized sweet potatoes, boiled
1/2 cup honey, warmed
2 tablespoons butter
1 1/4 teaspoons salt
1 cup crushed corn flakes
 Cut potatoes in 2-inch slices dip in honey, then in salted corn flakes. Place in a greased baking pan, dot with butter and bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) for 30 minutes or until brown. Serves 6.

GLAZED ONIONS
3 small white onions or carrots
20 to 30 minutes, or until tender.
 Drain. Let stand a few minutes to dry. Melt four tablespoons butter in pan. Add 1/4 cup honey. When well blended, add onions or carrots and cook slowly until browned and well glazed. Turn vegetables occasionally for an even glaze.

CANDIED TOMATOES
1 can tomatoes
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter
 Pour off juice from one can of tomatoes. Place tomatoes in a baking dish. Mix juice, honey and salt and pour over tomatoes. Top with crushed crackers and dot with butter. Bake at 350 degrees F. about 15 to 20 minutes.

Bakerydom Delves Into Archives To Determine Who Invented The Doughnut

This is Annual Donut Month and to add a pinch of historical flavor to the occasion, Wesson delved into the archives of bakerydom to uncover the inventor of this tasty morsel.

His name was Sebastian Krol, according to Wesson researchers, and at the time of his unprecedented discovery he was Vice Director of New Amsterdam, known today as New York City. In other words, he was Mayor Wagner's counterpart prior to the population spurt.

One winter, as the story goes, when provisions were scarce, Krol put together a batter of flour and honey, spooned it into some fat, and out came nourishing and palatable fried cakes. These delights soon became known as Krollers — later, crullers.

The dictionary still describes Krol's invention as "fried cakes." The name Donut evolved from the original shape — it was a piece of dough shaped like a nut.

They were not only nourishing but good to eat and easy to prepare as judged by the standards of the time — when nothing was really easy to prepare.

STIR-N-DROP DONUTS
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
3/4 cups sugar
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/4 cup Wesson (poly-unsaturated pure vegetable oil)
3/4 cup milk
1 egg
 Wesson for frying (poly-unsaturated pure vegetable oil)
 Sift dry ingredients into bowl. Pour Wesson and milk into one

US Chefs Win First Place In Culinary Olympics

A team of expert American chefs cooked their way to five gold medals and the Grand Prize for overall excellence in the 10th Culinary International Olympics just concluded in Frankfurt, Germany.

Denmark and Austria won second and third place, respectively. Germany, Belgium, Finland, Italy, Sweden, Hungary, Great Britain, Holland and Switzerland were the other countries entered.

The recipe for the U.S. top award Fried Chicken Maryland which follows, was served in Frankfurt with country gravy, corn fritters, bacon, maple syrup, banana fritters, green peas and grilled tomatoes.

FRIED CHICKEN MARYLAND
3 broiler-fryers (2 1/2 lbs. each) disjointed
2 1/4 teaspoons salt
3/4 teaspoon pepper
1 cup flour
1 egg, beaten
2 1/2 cups bread crumbs
 Wesson (poly-unsaturated pure vegetable oil) for deep frying (about 1 quart)
 Before frying, remove breast bones from chickens. Then season the chicken pieces with salt and pepper and roll in flour. Next dip in beaten eggs and bread crumbs. Fry in deep, hot Wesson (poly-unsaturated pure vegetable oil) for 5 minutes at 375 degrees. Remove and bake in oven for 10 minutes. Serves 6.

Guests Will Rave Over Eggs Benedict

When company is invited for brunch, the occasion calls for eggs benedict in patty shells. Frozen patty shells may be baked the night before and reheated just before serving.

EGG BENEDICT
6 baked patty shells
1 cup shredded cooked ham
6 fresh eggs
Hollandaise sauce
Parsley
 Fill baked shells loosely with ham and heat in a 350-degree F. oven for 10 minutes. Poach eggs in a frying pan in enough salted water to cover. When done, cut out eggs with a 2-inch cooky cutter. Place an egg on top of the ham inside each shell and cover with sauce. Replace cap and garnish with parsley.

Knead Dough
 Kneading the dough for a half minute after mixing improves the texture of baking powder biscuits.

Utilize Leftovers

Leftover slices of meat can be used for cold plates, cold sandwiches, in gravy for hot sandwiches, or heated in a barbecue sauce or brown gravy.

Use cubed leftover beef in cream sauce over toast or biscuits; in curry sauce over rice; in casseroles with rice or noodles. Or you can serve leftover meat loaf cold or reheated with canned mushroom soup or tomato soup poured over the top.

measuring cup. Then add with egg to dry ingredients. Stir with fork until thoroughly mixed. Drop by teaspoonfuls (too large puffs will not cook through) into deep hot oil (375 degrees). Fry until golden brown — about 3 minutes. Drain on paper towels. Roll warm puffs in cinnamon sugar. Makes about 2 dozen.

SUCCESS TIPS:
 1. For uniform shapes, when dropping batter into hot oil pour batter from teaspoon with another teaspoon.
 2. For crisp puffs, do not cook to moxy at a time.

South Still To Press Fight On Rights Laws

ATLANTA (UPI)—The South's political leaders made it clear today they do not regard the heavy Deep South vote for John F. Kennedy a mandate to slow down their fight against civil rights laws.

But just what their influence will be nationally as an aftermath of the crazy-quilt pattern of the southern vote remains to be seen. Some refused to endorse Kennedy, others held back until the last minute before making a lukewarm endorsement.

Almost all assured southern Democrats that a vote for Kennedy was not a vote for the national Democratic Party's civil rights platform that endorses Negro sit-in demonstrations and calls on each school district to submit a "first step" desegregation plan by 1963.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., leader of the southern bloc in Congress, was out of the country during much of the presidential campaign. He said Wednesday that southern congressmen "never have failed" to produce an effective plan in the civil rights battles of the past.

Sen. Herman Talmadge, D-Ga., clearly separated his support of Kennedy from the platform and promised to work in Congress for measures to "return control of the public schools" to the states.

Alabama Gov. John Patterson, who got in political trouble at home by an early and enthusiastic endorsement of Kennedy, would say only that current civil rights suits came under the Republican administration. He added that "I won't say the Democrats won't (bring similar suits), but they aren't right here doing it now."

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., refused to endorse, support or campaign for anyone. Virginia Gov. J. Lindsay Almond backed Kennedy but said he hopes the election

'Town Hall' Meet Set On CRMWA

Three Town Hall meetings have been scheduled by the Speaker's Bureau of the Canadian River Dam Project locally to inform the public on the issues to be voted on Nov. 22, Melvin Jayroe, chairman of the bureau, said.

The first meeting will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday in the Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn which is designed primarily for housewives, however, men also are invited.

The second meeting will be held the same day, at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of the Southwestern Public Service Company, and a third meeting is scheduled for 10 a.m. Friday in the I.O.O.F. Hall on W. Brown which is another meeting set to accommodate the housewives who is not able to attend night meetings.

A panel of local business people will be on hand to answer any questions that might arise. Coffee will be served at all meetings and the public is invited to attend all of these sessions.

COMPLETE ECONOMIC TALKS

CAIRO (UPI) — United Arab Republic President Gamal Abdel Nasser and Pakistani President Mohammed Ayub Khan Wednesday night completed their formal talks on strengthening economic relations between their countries.

Financial Review

NEW YORK (UPI) — To the victor belongs the spoils. But in this case a sagging economy is among the spoils and our new president's first big task will be to give it a shot in the arm.

The present administration has been trying for the past six months to bring the economy back to life — through easier money conditions and, more recently, increased spending — but business has not responded.

The two candidates continually argued about whether or not the nation was in a recession, and apparently Sen. Kennedy was more convincing with his recession talk.

Now the business world will anxiously wait to see what measures he will take to back up his campaign promises.

There is no doubt he will take some anti-recession steps, but they will not help the economy over the near-term. Anti-recession moves take from three to nine months to become effective, and by that time, Tom Campbell, editor-in-chief of Iron Age Magazine, says business will have started moving upward on its own.

Dr. Marcus Nadler, economist of the Hanover Bank, believes that the Democrats, not being able to claim a popular mandate, will be forced to go slow in taking any drastic measures.

One thing is sure, there will be an increase in spending. Kennedy has been emphatic on that point. This also would have been the case if Vice President Nixon had won.

A. W. Zelomek of the International Statistical Bureau says there is no doubt that the new Congress also will pay greater attention to the Full Employment Act of 1946. (This is a mandate about unemployment when it reaches about six or seven per cent. It presently is above five per cent.)

Meanwhile, the economy continues to drag along. Production is now about 4 per cent below last January; steel mills still are operating only slightly above 50 per cent of capacity; housing starts are running well below last year; business investment in plant and equipment has leveled off; and corporate profits are down.

Campbell said the steel consuming industries — railroads, machinery makers, appliance manufacturers, and others — now are really beginning to feel the effects of this business decline.

He calls it a "mild correction" in which the durable goods industries will be hit hardest, and looks for it to be reversed by about mid-1961.

He sees the steel industry making its upward move around March when new orders start to roll in, and expects a steady up-trend into 1962.

Retail trade, the minstay of the economy this year, is expected to continue higher in 1961. The apparent good reception of the 1961 model automobiles indicates a better year for that industry.

Other favorable signs are that housing starts are expected to increase shortly; farm income will be appreciably better, personal income continues to rise; exports are rising more rapidly than imports; and the federal reserve is following a policy of relatively easy money.

The consensus among economists is for a revival in business sometime next year, but there is a handful of these experts who see the slowdown continuing until 1962.

This teen-ager (left) checks skirt length before she joins her date. She wears shoes with moderately high heels and a dress with full skirt so that she can move with ease. Her date (center) is also dressed for the part. As they stop at checkroom, she approves his well-pressed jacket and slacks. His jacket is buttoned and he wears a tie, of course. His shoes are well-shined leather loafers. They're all set (right) to have fun. Both of them are neatly and comfortably dressed for the evening.

Dear Abby...

Out Of Sight Out Of Mind

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: How can I stop loving someone who is on my mind night and day? I must forget him because I have no right to love him. I have tried everything. Please, can you help me?

"GUILTY CONSCIENCE"

DEAR "GUILTY": If you see this person at work — change jobs. Avoid all contact with him even if it means moving to another neighborhood or town. Keep busy doing things that will give you satisfaction. Don't allow yourself time to brood or dwell on old memories. Force yourself to meet others. Good luck!

DEAR ABBY: I am 15 and a junior in high school. When I was a small child I liked to collect junk. That's my problem — I still do. I keep some of my school papers, projects and football pictures that I cut from the paper.

Abby, do you think it's fair for my family to go through my drawers and throw away my junk? The sneaky thing about it is that they do it when I am in school.

JUNK COLLECTOR

DEAR JUNK COLLECTOR: Not if you keep it neatly stashed away in your own tidy dresser drawers.

DEAR ABBY: How much does it cost to rent a movie camera for one night? Maybe if I took pictures of my husband eating his supper he would realize that something has to be done about the way he eats.

I know it isn't right to correct him in front of the children, but he eats like a pig and I can't stand it much longer. (Maybe just a tape recorder would help; he makes noise, too.)

END OF ROPE

DEAR END: Save this discussion for a time when your husband is well-fed and in his most receptive mood. Use your gentlest tone and most persuasive powers (and be sure the children aren't listening) — but give it to him with both barrels. Love can work wonders with Pygmalion and a pig.

DEAR ABBY: What is the proper procedure when friends adopt a baby? Should baby gifts be sent to the baby just as though the new "mother" gave birth to the child?

A FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: Yes, send the baby a gift.

If you want a personal reply from Abby, write to her in care of this paper and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. She answers ALL letters.

Picket Line Prognostication

Mrs. Libby Shotwell, executive secretary of the Pampa Red Cross, and "Doc" Kitchings, a barber in the Hughes Building, gather on the Picket Line fence this week in an attempt to dislodge the "expert" who gleefully won last week—for the first time.

Last week's tally gave Sports Editor Arthur Mayhew a .676 percentage with 23 of 34 right and one tie. Herb Lotz, of H&M Liquor Store, was second with 22 right (.646) and Fred Helms, of Helms Gulf Service, was third with 19 right (.558).

Lotz, however, picked the upsets, choosing Minnesota over Iowa, Arkansas over Rice and Georgia Tech over Tennessee. Helms hit on Florida's upset of Georgia and Mayhew predicted Texas' demise of Baylor.

In this week's upenders, Mrs. Shotwell sees TCU downing Baylor, Kitchings, with the aid of Elzie Berry likes Oklahoma over Missouri and Mayhew feels safe in picking Plainview over Pampa.

Picket Line Prognostication

Mrs. Libby Shotwell, executive secretary of the Pampa Red Cross, and "Doc" Kitchings, a barber in the Hughes Building, gather on the Picket Line fence this week in an attempt to dislodge the "expert" who gleefully won last week—for the first time.

Last week's tally gave Sports

Editor Arthur Mayhew a 576 percentage with 23 of 34 right and one tie. Herb Lotz, of H&M Liquor Store, was second with 22 right (546) and Fred Helms, of Helms Gulf Service, was third with 19 right (538).

Lotz, however, picked the upsets, choosing Minnesota over Iowa, Arkansas over Rice and Georgia Tech over Tennessee. Helms hit on Florida's upset of Georgia and Mayhew predicted Texas' demise of Baylor.

In this week's upenders, Mrs. Shotwell sees TCU downing Baylor, Kitchings, with the aid of Elzie Berry likes Oklahoma over Missouri and Mayhew feels safe in picking Plainview over Pampa.

Optimist Boxers, Perryton Tangle Here Tonight

Three feature fights, pitting Pampa and Perryton pugilists, will highlight tonight's boxing card at the Optimist Club Boys Building, when Perryton brings its well-rounded team to town.

The expected crowd-pleasing matches will send Heavyweight Harold Hugg of Pampa against George Eke, Light Heavy Glen Ward of Pampa against Gary Taylor and Middleweight Gary Wills of Pampa against George Casey.

In all, Coach Ollie Wilhelm of the Pampa Optimists hopes to book at least 20 fights for the evening's card.

Perryton, in its first competition last weekend at Liberal, Kan., walked off with 10 individual trophies and the team trophy in competition with teams from Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas.

For the Optimist boxers, they split even with Lefors last Thursday, winning seven and losing seven, but none of the bigger boys saw much action.

Wilhelm will pit his heavier fighters this week, including Hugg and Ward, both of whom Wilhelm feels can hold their own with anyone their weight in the area.

Larry Brawley, a promising high school heavyweight, was hit in the eye on Halloween night with a thrown egg, and probably will start working out again soon, according to Wilhelm. Brawley was coming along strong until the accident but should return once he receives the doctor's clearance.

The Pampa team will return the match with Perryton Saturday night in Perryton. Starting time will be 8 p.m.

Perryton Bowling

PERRYTON—The Perryton Woman's Bowling Association will hold a "candy sale" in the near future, it was decided at the meeting of the Executive Board Wednesday night at the Ranger Bowling Lanes.

Board members present at the meeting were Dee Miller, Jewel Symons, Pat Workman, Ruth Bowman, Mae Williams, Carolyn Strawn, Nell Rodermund, Lela Posey and Raye Trapp.

Plans for the Second Annual City Association Tournament, to be held January 21 and 22, were also discussed.

President Dee Miller announced that in the future the Executive Board will meet on the fourth Wednesday of each month.

Perryton Bowlers who qualified during September and October for membership in the newly organized '200' and '500' clubs of the Perryton Woman's Bowling Association were announced recently.

'200' club members and their high scores are: Peggy Hodges, 210; Pat Workman, 208; and Wanda Burt, 205.

Small College Leaders Tangle In Big Contest

NEW YORK (UPI)—The stage was set today for a "clash of the little giants" this Saturday when rivals Ohio University and Bowling Green of Ohio were rated 1-2 in the weekly small college football ratings by the United Press International board of coaches.

Ohio U. retained the No. 1 spot in the rankings for that fifth straight week, but by a margin even closer than that enjoyed by Sen. John Kennedy in the national election, Ohio received just one point more than Bowling Green—327 to 326—in the voting.

This hairline victory by the Bobcats cleared the way for their battle this weekend at Bowling Green with both the top position and the Mid-American Conference championship at stake.

Bowling Green took part in a

Red Wings Burn Up Ice

By United Press International
The Detroit Red Wings, riding a four-game winning streak, are the hottest skaters in the National Hockey League.

And, take it from coach Sid Abel, they're also "pretty lucky." Abel was about to yank a tired Pete Goegan off the ice at Madison Square Garden Wednesday night when the young defenseman scored with less than two minutes remaining to earn the Red Wings an uphill 4-3 victory over the New York Rangers.

Ten Pin Tales

Dale Hynes, with a 672 scratch series and Mary Pryor with a 541 scratch, were named "Bowlers of the Week" for last week's play at Harvester Bowl.

Other high averages among the men were Bob Gault, 651, Joe Wells, 631, and Manny Holden, 623. Gault also rolled a 278 game to aid his average.

NMSU Star Hogs Major Scoring Lead

NEW YORK (UPI)—Although idle last week, New Mexico State's Bob Gaithers continues to hold a firm grip on the national scoring leadership among the major college football performers.

The NCAA Service Bureau statistics released today show Gaithers with a 13-point lead over Arizona State's Nolan Jones and an 18-point margin over Navy's Joe Bellino.

Gaithers seems to have a good chance to win the title since he has three games left to play while Jones and Bellino have only two remaining.

The New Mexico State star has scored 16 touchdowns and two extra points for a 98-point total. Jones, with 22 extra points and eight touchdowns has 85 points after touchdowns for 80 points.

International Field Is Ready

LAUREL, Md. (UPI)—America's Bald Eagle loomed the probable favorite today to win Friday's renewal of the $100,000 Washington D.C. International and become the first horse in history to win the global classic twice.

Eleven horses from six countries have gathered at Laurel race course for the mile and one-half gallop over the grass course with Italy represented in the horse Olympics for the first time.

Also slated to run were Harminizing from the U.S., France's Puissant Chef and Hautain, Apostle 2nd and Prolific from England, Zabeg and Zadorny from Russia with Zadorny carrying the silks of the Ukraine, Ireland's Farnley Fox, and the Italians, Rio Marin and Santa Severa, a filly.

Surprise! Borger Tops 3-4A Grid Statistics

Borger's Bulldogs (8-1) stood atop the District 3-4A standings and likewise held the lion's share of the district statistics, according to official figures released today.

The Bulldogs, who all but wrapped up the district title last weekend with a 27-11 victory over Amarillo, lead the conference in total offense with 1,843 yards or 310.5 yards per game in six district games; rushing with 1,593 yards (265.5) and are third in total defense and punting.

Individually, Borger's Glenn Woolley is the total offense leader (501 yards) and Phillip Kidd and Woolley are 1-2 in rushing. Kidd, Phillip Hardin and Woolley are second, third and fourth in scoring.

Pampa's winless Harvesters continue to have the stingiest pass defense, having allowed only 28 yards per game against them in the airlines in five district contests.

Butch Crossland, thanks to some 40 yards-plus boots in last week's Lubbock game, moved all the way up from fifth to first place in punting while Roy Don Stephens claimed seventh place.

Fullback Steve Dobbin, who gained

39 yards against Lubbock, was tenth in rushing and tenth in passing while Crossland moved into ninth place in passing.

Sun Bowl Assn. Plans Stadium

EL PASO (UPI)—The Southwestern Sun Carnival Association announced Wednesday construction of a new 30,000-seat Sun Bowl Stadium will start early in 1961.

The association said the new stadium will be ready for use by the fall of 1962, and that there is a remote possibility it will be complete enough for use in the Dec. 31, 1961 Sun Bowl game.

El Paso County voters approved a $1,750,000 bond issue Tuesday to build the new structure. It will be located on the campus of Texas Western College.

Curfman Sounds Storm Warning On Bulldog '11'

By ARTHUR MAYHEW
Daily News Sports Editor

Coach Babe Curfman suppressed any notions today that Plainview, winless this season in eight starts, will be a "weak sister" when it comes to Pampa Saturday afternoon for a District 3-4A game with the Harvesters, also 0-8.

"They've (Plainview) moved the ball well against every team they've played," Curfman said. "Against Monterey, Plainview moved the ball 72 yards against their first unit."

"Kiser (Roy, the fullback) is a real good boy, especially on plays up the middle. And Plainview's roll-out pass has been one of their most effective plays."

Plainview, riddled with early-season injuries, probably will bring only a 19-man squad to Pampa for the game, which is also homecoming for former PHS students. Nine of the offensive starters also play defense.

Curfman said that he might try platooning the Harvesters against Plainview in an effort to wear them down and aid the Green and Gold to its first win of the season.

However, all is not well in the Pampa camp. Curfman said this morning that at least 13 Harvesters were injured, sick or unable to go full speed. Among that group is Quarterback Roy Don Stephens, who injured his shoulder in the Lubbock loss.

"We'll have to move Mike Stewart back into quarterback behind Butch Grossland. Grossland is looking better this week and we can only hope he doesn't get hurt Saturday," Curfman stated.

Robbie Robison, sidelined since the Monterey game with a broken hand, was back out yesterday and, according to Curfman, "was taped up like a mummy."

The crew-cut head coach said that End Keith Cable and Wingback Jimmy Crouch, both seniors, had looked real good in practice this week and both were expected to see extended action Saturday. The Harvesters worked out about an hour and 45 minutes yesterday.

attired in sweat suits regular football equipment over them to keep out the biting cold.

Curfman planned to send his troops through a limited contact drill today and then brush up on his offensive game tomorrow afternoon.

Game time is 2 p.m. Saturday at Harvester Field. Plainview will be the last home opponent of the year for Pampa, as the Harvesters wind up the season Nov. 19 in Berger.

AL's 'Most Valuable' Award Goes To Maris

BOSTON (UPI)— Outfielder Roger Maris of the New York Yankees today wearily adjusted his crown for winning the American League's Most Valuable Player award after the closest finish in 13 years.

Maris, who helped the Yankees to their tenth pennant in 13 years by leading the league in runs batted in, squeezed through the winner over teammate Mickey Mantle Wednesday, polling 225 points to Mantle's 222. Brooks Robinson, Baltimore's fine young third baseman, finished in a close third with 211 points in balloting by the nation's baseball writers.

The only closer finish in 30 years of voting by the writers was in 1947 when Joe Di Maggio of the Yankees nipped Boston's Ted Williams by one vote, 202 to 201. This year was the first time that three players ever received 200 or more points.

Maris compiled a .383 batting average while topping the loop in RBI's and trailing league leader Mantle by one in home runs—39 to 40. It was Roger's torrid bat over the first half the season, plus Mantle's hitting over the second half, that lifted the Yankees into the pennant despite their mediocre pitching.

"I thought it was possible but I wasn't expecting to win it," said a surprised Maris from his Raytown, Mo., home. This certainly is a happy feeling. Every player in the American League likes to win this at least once before he retires. It's the greatest award that comes out of the league.

Maris was a prize package picked up from the Kansas City Athletics last winter, coming to the Yankees along with infielders Joe DeMaestri and Kent Handley in exchange for pitcher Don Lauen and outfielders Hank Bauer, Norm Siebern and Marv Throneberry.

"That trade was the turning point in my career, and without it I could never have received the Most Valuable Player award."

"I'm the same player I was with the Athletics in 1955, but it always helps to play for a pennant winner," the 28-year-old Maris said.

Bears, Tech Share Saturday Spotlight

By BRYCE MILLER
United Press International

With a guy like E. J. (The Beast) Holub around, it's tough for a little man to grab the limelight. But Pappy is getting his share.

Both of these stalwarts in the Texas Tech forward wall have their work cut out for them when the Raiders take a break from the Southwest Conference wars this weekend to tangle with Wyoming, ranked first in the nation on defense, and ninth on offense.

They call him Pappy because at 24, Don Waygood is the oldest man on the team. But with him on one flank, and Holub backing the line, Wyoming is going to have to hump to maintain its average of nearly 338 yards of offense per game, 253 yards of it on the ground.

The game is one of two top intersectional battles on tap this week. Baylor plays Southern California at Waco in the other, while Texas tangles with Texas Christian in the top league scrap, and in the other two Rice hosts Texas A&M and Arkansas, practically assured of part of the crown and the Cotton Bowl berth, plays Southern Methodist.

Take the Tulane upset last week when Tech whipped the Green Wave 28-14. On the first play of from scrimmage Waygood broke into the open and scored on a 27-yard pass play from quarterback Glen Amerson, and over the distance nabbed four for 90 yards, the top mark in the conference this season for yardage.

On defense, he intercepted two passes—one off the fingers of Tulane's Tommy Mason, a likely All-American—broke up two others, made five clear tackles and helped on four others.

DeWitt Weaver, the Tech coach, cut the Raiders' practice short with an abbreviated dummy offensive and defensive scrimmage. He had Dan Gursley, a defensive specialist, running the offensive post of halfback Dick Poisson, who is on the doubtful list because of a leg injury against Tulane.

Baylor polished its potent passing attack with Ronnie Stanley and Bobby Ply connecting well against Trojan defenses, and Coach John Bridgers said he was pleased with several long gainers halfbacks Ronnie Bull and Ronnie Goodwin made against Southern Cal Patterson.

The frigid weather, which dipped to 31 degrees in Fayetteville by 6 p.m., forced Arkansas to work indoors and Coach Frank Broyles said it hampered his passing preparations for the Mustangs. He warned the Porkers not to take the Ponies lightly even though SMU lost its first six games. Four of them were to nationally ranked teams, and last week's tie was against the Aggies, beaten only 7-3 by Arkansas the week before.

It was a frisky drill in brisk weather for SMU, but still on the sideline and out of heavy contact work were four regulars—halfback Glynn Gregory, fullback Gene Sherman, tackle Bobby Hunt and end Pat Neill.

The rash of injuries to Texas A&M's Cadets forced Coach Jim Myers to cancel a contact session Wednesday. Four regulars and two others missed the workout and their status for the Rice game was doubtful.

Rice had its troubles, too. Fullback Roland Jackson, who hurt his knee in practice Tuesday, was still limping and sidelined as the Owls scrimmaged against the Aggie ground attack. Tackle George Karam and end Billy Simmons also sat it out.

Chamberlain, Baylor Fight For NBA Crown

By United Press International

Wilt Chamberlain is approaching his league-leading 37.6 average of last season, but Los Angeles' Elgin Baylor continues to top the National Basketball Association in the total points column.

Chamberlain scored 46 points Wednesday night to boost his average this year to 36.0 in the Philadelphia Warriors' 125-118 victory over the Lakers. Wilt's point-production was the highest single game score in the NBA this season.

Baylor, who tossed in 40 points for the Lakers, ran his point total to 310 points for a 30-game average of 31.8. The victory was the seventh straight for the Warriors, who lead the Eastern Division with a 7-0 mark.

Rice 'Midgets' Play Allen '11'

HOUSTON (UPI)— The Rice University "lightweights" take on the Allen Academy Junior College team Friday night at the Bryan High School field.

The "lightweight" team is a new experiment at Rice, providing regular football—not the intramural "touch-steele" variety—for students not big enough to try for the regular varsity squad. The team weight average is 155.

CANADIAN SWAP GRIDDERS

MONTREAL (UPI)— The Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League have traded quarterback Sam Etcheverry and end Hal Patterson to the Hamilton Tigercats for quarterback Bernie Faloney and defensive end Don Paquette.

If you don't think scrapping the front axle has made a world of difference, you haven't driven a Chevy in a while. A few minutes behind the wheel and you can feel why drivers are happier and breakable loads are better protected. But the biggest advantage of all, you'll realize, is that the truck itself (sheet metal, tires, chassis components, everything) takes less abuse. With independent front suspension soaking up road shock and vibration, the truck lasts longer, goes extra thousands of miles before trade-in time. Add that to what everybody's always known about Chevy dependability and you find yourself looking at the soundest truck investment you could bet your business on.

Professor And 'Rights'

The distinguished novelist, Taylor Caldwell, made these comments in the Oct. 1960 "forum" of the American Mercury magazine. "Recently we attended a house party where, among the guests, was a most distinguished professor who teaches history and economics in one of America's largest universities. All the guests except my husband and me were 'liberal' intelligentsia, good people but adamant in their belief that our schools and colleges were institutions of real learning and that treason alleged against teachers was pure 'McCarthyism.' (The professor was the only stranger there that night, and we had had arguments with these people before on the subject of subversion in our 'houses of learning.')

"The professor's opening statement that evening was to the effect that there was no communism in America, or that if there were it was harmless, and that our real danger was 'fascism.' Our friends nodded soberly while listening. Then I withdrew a little plastic-coated card of articles from my purse and quoted eight of the ten to him. After each he explained, 'Fascism! Nazism!' He shook his finger in my face and shouted, 'If you believe those things then you are a neo-Fascist!' He added that 'your sentiments are unconstitutional.'

"Our friends were extremely uncomfortable for I had been quoting eight of the first ten amendments to the Constitution, our famous and noble Bill of Rights. I had carefully not quoted the first and fifth amendments which he no doubt knew only too well, and possibly had used, himself. That

Looking Sideways

NEW YORK—There is no doubt about it, if you put your mind to it you can lose friends and roll people at a dinner party merely by selecting one or two other guests as targets and lashing out at whatever professions they may represent. I used to be militant when doctors were around and imply that they were hand-in-glove with the vitamin pill manufacturers, saying with cool detachment: "There never has been an accurate gauge of how much in vitamins a given patient can or can't absorb without damage to the system." This enraged the doctors and most of them told me there was no such thing as a dangerous overdose; the system merely did not use what it did not need. It turns out, now, that they were wrong and overindulgence in vitamins can damage the kidneys and, possibly, the liver. I wasn't seeking to destroy the boys, just to annoy them.

There was a dinner the other night and two architects were on hand. One specialized in private houses running between $40,000 and $85,000 each to build, the other in apartment houses. In the latter case, there was no point in tilting a lance at too much expensive glass, since most apartment houses don't have it. In the former case, I knew the man liked Colonial and Georgian design and "rural", as a consequence, guilty of using too much glass in outside walls. It seemed reasonable to let them furnish their own annoyance gambit. The way to do that is to look terribly simple and naive and ask a question bordering on the idiotic. This sucks them in.

"I know this will sound foolish," I said, "but what is your major problem in design today?" They looked at each other, shared a conspiratorial smile, and replied almost together: "Allotting dining space."

"Oh?" I said. "Really? That seems to me very odd."

"Why so?" said the house designer in a somewhat chilly way. "Meals, commonly," I said, "in the average family, are three-times-a-day events. You sleep once, you loaf around a living room at the most twice, usually just before and after dinner at night, you do not use a dining room at all. Dining is at least three times a day and sometimes four, if you stay up late enough. Do you mean to say that you have a problem juggling a dining space into your houses when it is the thing the dwellers in them do most often?"

"Well, tastes change..." he began.

"You mean people are contented to make a cold sandwich at the sink in the kitchen? Come, you can't mean that. It is doubly odd in your particular case, since Georgian and Colonial, even Federal, houses made a big thing of the dining room and I know you are noted as an accurate and careful designer for those periods. The dining room was always well, always THERE. If you mean your clients want an authentic house of either period but with the dining room eliminated in favor of a corner otherwise empty, I would doubt it."

"What he means," said the apartment house architect with asperity, "is that people want the outside in period but the inside gaited to today's way of life in which the dining room as such is almost an anachronism."

"I know you do have a problem," I said. "Apartment house builders want to give the least space for the most income from the property and by eliminating a dining room they can squeeze in that many more suites in given cubic footage. You have convinced young people into a 'dining area' illusion which usually is nothing but one end of a living room with a barrier of some kind: bead portiers, raised wall, room divider, or some other counterfeiter. You still, if you ever have cabbage and thousands do, pollute the living room with the cooking and serving odors from it."

"That is not true..." he began with heat.

"What is not true? That you give dining areas instead of dining rooms?"

The hostess broke it up, tactfully, at that point.

ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

NIXON ADVISORS SPLIT ON FIFTH DEBATE; INSIDE STORY OF PRO AND CON DISCUSSION TOLD

WASHINGTON—Vice President Nixon got directly opposite advice from President Eisenhower and a former President Hoover on that bitterly controversial fifth debate that didn't take place.

President Eisenhower emphatically opposed it; Hoover equally strongly urged Nixon to again tangle with his Democratic opponent.

The two Presidents were among a number of Republican chiefs whom Nixon consulted on this thorny problem and who split squarely down the middle on it. A New York group vigorously offered a fifth debate. But Nixon's campaign strategy board in Washington was unanimously against it.

This significant backstage lineup was as follows: For the debate were former Governor Thomas Dewey; Roy Howard, board chairman of the Scripps-Howard newspapers; Richard Berlin, president of the Hearst newspapers; Walter Thayer, New York Herald Tribune executive and a member of the United States Finance Committee of New York; Earl ("Red") Blaik, noted former West Point football coach.

Against were: National Chairman Thurston Morton; Leonard Hall, Nixon's personal campaign manager; Attorney General William Rogers; Interior Secretary Fred Seaton; Treasury Undersecretary Fred Scribner; Senator Hugh Scott, former National Chairman.

Scribner participated in both the New York and Washington deliberations. In the former, he was the only one who spoke against another TV encounter with Senator Kennedy.

Highlights of this intriguing inside story are as follows: PROS AND CONS—The New York discussion took place in Nixon's hotel suite early in the evening of the day after he and Kennedy had addressed the Alfred E. Smith memorial dinner.

Present were former President Hoover, Dewey, Howard, Berlin, Thayer and Blaik. They had been invited by Scribner, at Nixon's request, without being told the exact purpose of the meeting.

Nixon opened the discussion with the cheerful announcement: "Gentlemen, I have some very good news to report. Our surveys in California indicate that I am definitely gaining there, and all our reports from Kentucky and Tennessee indicate I will carry those states. Also, we are either ahead or closing up fast in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois. We are really on the move, and the outlook is very heartening."

"But I didn't ask you to come here to report on the campaign. My purpose is to get from each of you a frank opinion on what I should do about a fifth debate with Kennedy. As you know, he is doing a lot of talking about that, and I'd like to have your candid judgment on what course to pursue."

Veteran publisher Howard was the first to speak up.

"You should accept that challenge," he declared firmly. "But insist on it being a man-to-man encounter; a real face-to-face debate. Get rid of those reporters and their questions. That format helps Kennedy. Also, most of those reporters are for him."

Ex-coach Blaik heartily agreed with that view.

"Yes, you should accept," he said. "If you don't, that will be hard to explain to the man-in-the-street. I get the impression that people generally feel these debates are a good thing."

New York Herald Tribune executive Thayer also agreed, but counseled a change in format.

"Take him on again," he advised. "But insist on a different format. Cut out the questions and confine the debate strictly to yourself and Kennedy. As Roy (Howard) says, most of the reporters are pro-Kennedy."

The Doctor Says:

DR. HAROLD T. HYMAN

The first episode in this medical "fairy tale" told how a forgotten dye for textiles became the first of the miracle anti-infectives.

Then the source of a mouth drug that could replace insulin injections in certain diabetics.

Then a new and effective tool for the control of severe acne.

And then an apparent cause for the temporary relief of the symptoms of multiple sclerosis in a young man who was being given the drug merely to clear his skin condition.

Being a well-trained and cautious physician, Dr. Glen Thomas Sawyer, who treated the young man with acne and multiple sclerosis, repeated the experiment on a young other multiple sclerosis. "Definite improvement in symptoms and signs was seen in all patients except when a high carbohydrate diet was suddenly started. Deterioration was always seen when placebo capsules (for sham treatment) were substituted for the tobitamide."

Dr. Sawyer reports in the Journal of the American Medical Assn. But that's not the end of the story. For Drs. E. W. Gates and I. Hyman, after giving the drug to patients with shaking palsy (parkinsonism), describe a reduction in the tremor and rigidity of the disease although the blood sugar level remained constant throughout the course of treatment.

Nor is the end in sight. For we shall undoubtedly see a flood of reports in the near future detailing the effects of tobitamide on other mysterious diseases, hitherto resistant to treatment.

Now while I feel an impending obligation to report these observations, especially to the many disheartened readers who've written for helpful suggestions in the conditions referred to, I beg you to use this information with care and discretion.

Please remember that these preliminary reports of drug effects in conditions that pursue a variable course. Do not let your expectations soar too rapidly despite the fact that these observations have been made by competent and reliable physicians.

Please don't try to obtain the drug without your doctor's knowledge and consent. Please don't attempt self-treatment without constant medical supervision of drug dosages and drug effects. Please bear in mind that the drug is not curative even if it does relieve symptoms.

If you are fortunate enough to get a good effect, don't reduce the dose or stop taking your medicine altogether unless you're told to do so by your doctor.

And, if you're one of the less fortunate ones who fails to get a sustained good effect, don't go into a nose dive. Who would have believed that a textile dye could accomplish the miracles to which we've already been witness? And who can deny that another medical fairy tale is in the making at this very moment?

Bermuda was named after Juan de Bermudez, 16th century Spanish explorer.

Earth, Stars and Man (15) Ape Men and Giants

by Don Oakley and John Lane

APE MAN OF JAVA — ONE OF THE EARLIEST KNOWN MEN

SKULL OF JAVA APE MAN WAS RESTORED BY FRANZ WEIDENREICH. PEKING MAN IS QUITE SIMILAR AND PROBABLY CLOSELY RELATED.

PEKING MAN USED FIRE

GIANT'S JAW OF JAVA AND CHINA
MODERN MAN'S JAW WERE THERE GIANTS IN THOSE DAYS?

Near the end of the 19th century, a young Dutch doctor, Eugene Dubois, had a hunch. Java might be the place to look for the original man, for that land had once been connected to the Asiatic mainland and had escaped the ice ages.

Amazingly enough, in 1891, Dubois actually found the fossil he had dreamed of—the skullcap of a manlike creature never before seen. A year later he found a complete human thigh-bone near the original find. On the basis of this, he named it Pithecanthropus erectus—the erect ape man.

It was the same old story: scientists were skeptical. What did this amateur know? The skull and thigh obviously did not belong together. As a result, Dubois put his ape man away in a strongbox. It was not until 1923, when opinions had changed, that he allowed him to be viewed again.

The Java man was eventually redeemed by discovery of a related type near Peking, China. From 1929 until World War II, an international team carried out excavations. Tragically, except for plaster casts, all the remains of this vastly important Sinanthropus pekinensis—China Man of Peking—were lost during the evacuation after Pearl Harbor.

One of the strangest mysteries in the whole story of man concerns giants. In 1935, a young paleontologist, G. H. R. von Koenigswald, purchased three gigantic humanlike teeth in a Chinese drug store in Hong Kong. (The Chinese had used powdered fossil bones as medicine for generations.) Hesitantly, he coined the name Gigantopithecus—giant ape.

Later in Java, von Koenigswald found a skull identical to Dubois' original ape man, further strengthening that creature's place in history (now dated as living 500,000 years ago). But he also unearthed several jaw fragments of two different, huge beings which he called "Robust Ape Man" and "Big Man of Old Java." The latter apparently had twice the bulk of a gorilla. There was no longer any doubt that giants—of some kind—had once walked the earth.

The matter is still not settled as to whether these giants were the ancestors of the Java and China ape men, or whether they were strange, freakish side branches. Only continued digging by new generations of scientific detectives can throw new light on this intriguing riddle or, perhaps, unearth something even stranger.

Sen. Stennis Closer To Chairmanship

By STEVE GERSTEL
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. John F. Kennedy's election as president may give Sen. B. Everett Jordan, D-N.C., a committee chairmanship after less than three years in the Senate.

The chairmanship was left vacant by the recent death of Sen. Thomas C. Hennings Jr. of Missouri. The next ranking Democrat, Sen. Carl Hayden of Arizona, already has a chairmanship and the second Democrat in the line of succession, Sen. Theodore F. Green of Rhode Island, will retire at the end of this term.

That leaves only Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, between Jordan and the chairmanship; and Mansfield is the odds-on favorite to replace Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson as majority leader.

If Mansfield does become the floor leader he may turn down the committee chairmanship and let Jordan have it. However, Mansfield could decide to hold both jobs.

The Rules Committee, one of the 18 major ones in the Senate, is frequently referred to as the "housekeeping committee." But it also handles election disputes and last year held extensive hearings on civil rights.

World Commies Begin Summit Meeting Today

MOSCOW (UPI)—Leaders of the Communist world were reported starting a week long summit meeting today.

There was no public announcement and the arrangements were shrouded in secrecy but reliable sources said a major aim will be to draft a document saying the Communist nations, including Red China, are united under Moscow's leadership.

There was no indication what specific items would be on the agenda but it seemed certain the election of John F. Kennedy as president of the United States would command some attention.

Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev cabled his congratulations to Kennedy Wednesday, urging him to follow in the footsteps of Franklin D. Roosevelt on international cooperation.

The Soviet press and radio pounced on the defeat of Vice President Richard M. Nixon as justification of previous Red denunciations of the Eisenhower administration.

Communist leaders on hand for the celebration of the 43rd anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution took all this in before the start of the summit meeting.

The two main figures in Moscow are Khrushchev and Communist Chinese Chairman (president) Liu Shao-chi. Communist China's top man, Mao Tse-tung, did not come but he sent a message Monday acknowledging Soviet leadership of the Communist world.

Observers said this would enable the Communist leaders to draft a pledge of solidarity that would help heal the ideological rift between the Soviet Union and Communist China.

"It was sweet of you to call me long distance Roger, but I wouldn't promise to marry you even if you were sending your NEXT week's allowance, too!"

Alger Pledges To 'Protect' Dallas Voters

DALLAS (UPI)—Congressman Bruce Alger said Wednesday he would fight any attempt by a Democratic Congress to punish Dallas County for its solid Republican vote in the presidential election.

Alger, re-elected as the only Republican congressman in Texas, said he doesn't anticipate a reprisal.

"I will not hesitate, however, to call on all the rules of the House available to me, as well as on the entire strength of the Republican party to block any such reprisals on the people of Dallas," he said.

He said he didn't think the Democrats would hold up the proposed federal building in Dallas for instance, because he has commitments on record that the project will come up for consideration this session.
