"DAPPER DAN the Minstrel Man," played by Max Presnell, executes a fast step dance in last night's "Dixieland Jamboree." Presnell was one of 15 specialty acts in the 24th annual minstrel which opened for a two-day run.

The "Dixie Jamboree," produced by the Noon Lions Club, got off to a rousing start before a near-capacity crowd last night in its two-day run.

The final two-hour show will begin at 8 o'clock tonight in the Pampa Junior High School auditorium.

The production, staged annually by the club, includes specialty acts by "Big Rufus," "Dapper Dan the Minstrel Man," "The Delta Dolls," "Louie the Lip," "Miss Sissy Lee," "Bones R. Akin," "Singing Sam" and the "Basin Street Four."

"Big Rufus" is played by Sheriff Rufe Jordan, "Dapper Dan" by Max Presnell, "The Delta Dolls" by Diane Phillips, Mary Shewmaker and Karen Copenaver, "Miss Sissy Lee" is Sissy Milliron, "Bones R. Akin" is Dr. Joe Donaldson, "Singing Sam" is Ed Dudley and "The Basin Street Four" is Vernon Camp, Ben Gallehon, Bunny Shultz and Howard Buckingham.

Other acts include the "Dixieland Band," Linda Moore, Paula Sealy and Judy Robinson, Martha Price and Susie Filman and Charles Roberts, Hank Gruben and Charles Ryan.

End men are Harold Weidner, Wynn Veale, Joe Donaldson, John

New Orleans Hails DeGaulle

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — French President Charles de Gaulle received a noisy welcome from 100,000 persons in a Mardi Gras mood Thursday night and got his lapels yanked by Gov. Earl K. Long, an uninvited greeter.

Before de Gaulle departs at 9:30 p.m. e.d.t. he will lay a wreath at the statue of the French founder of New Orleans, take a boat trip on the Mississippi River, make a speech and attend several social functions.

Hubert Raymond Eddins of 525 S. Cuyler was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to 90 days in jail today after entering a plea of guilty to a charge of negligent homicide in the first degree.

Eddins was charged with the offense after two lie detector tests showed he had guilty knowledge of a fire that took the life of one man and gutted the Alamo Hotel April 22.

Bill Strange of Pampa suffered fatal burns in the early morning blaze that was whipped by 30-mile-an-hour winds.

Eddins was missing for a time after the fire and it was at first feared he had lost his life. He was discovered in a local hotel about noon April 22.

Eddins told police he returned from an all-night cafe about 12:45 a.m. the day of the fire and went to bed. He said he later woke up and discovered his bed was ablaze. After throwing some water on the fire he left the Alamo Hotel and

Near Freezing Seen Tonight In Panhandle

Near freezing weather was forecast for the Texas Panhandle tonight on the heels of a pounding hail storm in South Texas and flash floods at San Antonio and a cloudburst in the Seguin area.

The Weather Bureau reported thunderstorms were sweeping along an area from San Antonio northwestward toward San Angelo and Abilene, at Tyler and southwestward toward Waco.

The bureau forecast thunderstorms for East Texas, South Central Texas and North Central Texas through tomorrow with highs in the 80's. But no showers were predicted for Northwest and Southwest Texas, where the mercury was expected to reach the low 80's.

The high for the Panhandle was expected to range between 65 and 75 and the low tonight was forecast to be 35 to 45 degrees.

Skies were clear over much of extreme West Texas and most of the Panhandle but a cover of clouds lay over most of the rest of Texas.

Presidio reported Thursday's high of 94 degrees. Today's morning lows ranged from 43 at Dalt to 75 at Brownsville. Winds were expected to be from the south at from 20 to 30 miles per hour in central and north portions of the state and shifting to the north over Northwest Texas.

Seven inches of rain fell in less than three hours in the Galle community north of Seguin and some hail was reported along with the three and a half inches at nearby Zorn and four and a half inches at Geronimo.

The storm that hit San Antonio (See PANHANDLE, Page 3)

checked into another under an assumed name. Firemen searched the burning building for his body until late in the morning of April 22.

Sixteen guests, in addition to owner H. C. Hall and his wife, were in the hotel, but all escaped without injury.

The first alarm in the three alarm blaze came into the fire station at 3:40 a.m., and firemen had the fire under control about 45 minutes later.

Only 100 employees are working through the temporary Pampa office, but their monthly payroll is $75,000.

"We just have a very few local people working for us," Rushing said. "Most of the people working on this project have been with us for a number of years."

"We're just the consulting engineer firm. When we're through with this job, we'll move to another location."

When the network is completed it will be turned over to a new firm in Houston, the Trans Western Pipeline Co.

It will service 100 oil wells in the Panhandle and 30 to 40 more in West Texas.

Feed-in lines will vary from four to 30 inches in size. The main line, which begins in Roswell, N.M., is a 30-inch affair, and will feature five completely automatic compressor stations along its route.

Company officials won't know the cost of rights-of-way until the network is completed and the construction price is broken down.

SEUL (UPI) — The chief of staff of the Republic of Korea's army said today "unusual" activity among Communist troops north of the 38th Parallel accompanied recent disorders here.

Li Gen Song Yo Chan said also that the Reds had seized on South Korea's political crisis as an occasion for increased espionage and subversive activities.

Approximately 3,000 employees are working on the construction, 450 of them in the general Pampa area.

President Syngman Rhee, who handed in his resignation earlier this week and moved out of the presidential mansion Thursday, spent today in solitude at his home in northeastern Seoul. He was said to be in mourning for his adopted son, Lee Kang-Suk, son of Vice President-elect Lee Ki Poong, who killed himself and his family Thursday in a mass suicide pact.

Alleged brutality by South Korea's nationally appointed police, more than any other single factor, triggered the bloody rioting that overthrew 85-year-old President Syngman Rhee.

Ass. Secretary of State J. Graham Parsons said in Washington Thursday that the forces holding the truce line are on a "super alert."

Acting President Huh Chung and his caretaker cabinet met today to discuss means of straightening out the tangled situation in South Korea, and decided immediately to fire all of the nation's nine provincial governors.

The cabinet also ordered a reshuffle of police chiefs throughout the nation.

ISTANBUL, Turkey (UPI) — Violent street fighting broke out today in Ankara between police and enraged students demanding the resignation of Premier Aqnan Menderes. Unofficial reports said the death toll had climbed to 14 in two days of rioting.

Rumors swept the capital that Menderes was about to resign but there was no official confirmation.

Radio Ankara announced Menderes would broadcast a statement later today.

Instead, Menderes issued a statement promising "swift punishment" for what he called a small group of partisans responsible for the rioting. He said they "will soon understand what it is to go against the power of the state."

The Interior Ministry said a parliamentary committee has issued an order forbidding all public gatherings.

Three thousand students armed with chair legs and pieces of desks roared out of the university in Ankara and attacked police guarding the school under martial law imposed in major cities Thursday.

Police fired toward the students but it was not known immediately whether they shot above or into the mob. Witnesses reported many students bleeding profusely were carried away in ambulances. Girl students were mixed up in the battle and some were seen weeping on the sidelines.

Turkish officials admitted only that one student was killed in Thursday's rioting, but unofficial estimates put the figure as high as 11. Three more students were reported killed today.

The riots recalled the Korean student demonstrations which forced the resignation of President Syngman Rhee. The rioting here was directed against government attempts to muzzle the political opposition.

The Ankara riots began in the morning and continued through the day despite mass arrests by police who took away hundreds of students. Mounted troops cordoned off the whole university area but (See OUSTER, Page 3)

Suspects Checked

Several Firms Burglar Victims

Pampa police are checking out "a number" of suspects this morning in a series of burglaries in Pampa Wednesday night.

Chief of Police Jim Conner said, "We are talking to several suspects that could have committed the break-ins."

At Henderson-Wilson Auto Center, 226 N. Somerville, burglars smashed a window and took $74. A safe containing approximately $150 to $200 in checks was taken from the Motor Supply of Texas, 118 N. Frost, and Ward's Mini Mart in Prairie Village was burglarized of about $200 in cash, pens, cigarettes, beer and gum.

Chief Conner said officers are also searching for a man who is a "good suspect" in last Friday's safe burglary of the Sealtest Dairy, 125 S. Houston.

Burglars entered through an air conditioner shaft in the roof of the Sealtest building and "pried" the safe to obtain approximately $1,000. Conner said one suspect in the safe cracking was cleared by a lie detector test in Amarillo Tuesday.

10 Die When Crazed Man Bombs Plane

CARACAS, Venezuela (UPI) — A crazed Russian who said he was a "space explorer" bombed a Venezuelan airliner Thursday and died in the crash with nine other passengers and crew members.

The Venezuelan Communications Ministry said the three survivors of the crash at Calabozo, 100 miles southeast of Caracas, told how the Russian terrorized the cabin before pulling the pin on a hand grenade and throwing it against the wall.

A witness on the ground said the twin-engine American-built DC-3 exploded "like a thunder-bomb" in the air and crashed.

The bomber was identified as Vlaschayev Lavinski, a Russian, but it was not immediately known if he was a Soviet citizen or an exile. All other persons aboard the plane were Venezuelans.

The survivors said Lavinski jumped to his feet during the flight from Caracas to Puerto Ayacucho and shouted: "I'm a space explorer. I want to experience great emotion."

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UPI)—The Santa Clara County sheriff's office received a letter Wednesday telling deputies to investigate "the station wagon abandoned above Almaden (dam) and you will find the owner straight down the hill."
 When officers found the vehicle, a note was pinned on the sun visor. It said: "Correction: Uphill."
 About 1,000 yards up the hill they found the body of George Martindale, 44, of Sarasota. He had been shot in the head with a rifle that lay nearby.
 Also beside the body was a third note, which said: "Sorry to have made you climb way up here."

Wall Street In Review

NEW YORK (UPI)—In the opinion of Sidney B. Lurie of Josephthal & Co., this is a good time to consider strengthening one's position by making switches to more immediately favored issues.
 If current downtrends (such as in steel and oil) are later reversed, the market reflection could be quite dynamic, he said, although a testing period is required before the evidence becomes positive.
 Meanwhile, Lurie says he'd rather have, for example, General Motors than Standard Oil of New Jersey or Bethlehem Steel; Cluett, Peabody, rather than Chrysler; Rayonier rather than Case; Burroughs rather than Diners' Club; and Radio Corp. rather than Ampex.
 Reynolds & Co. reports that the growth of the utility industry provides Sangamo Electric Co. with expanding markets for its output of electric meters. Considering the quality of its operations, Reynolds says, the stock seems reasonably priced in relation to fundamentals.

 Walston & Co. comments on the R. H. Macy & Co. of 1977. This debt, quoted around 122, is convertible into stock at $2. Macy stock is priced at about 39 and earned a good $4.05 last year, up from $3.76 in 1958. An "interesting situation," Walston believes.

Becky Mills Feted On Sixth Birthday

Becky Mills, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. David Mills, celebrated her sixth birthday recently with a party during her Music Kindergarten Class.

Mrs. Lois Fagan, class teacher, directed songs, musical games and then presented the honoree with a musical gift.

Birthday cake, made by Mrs. Mills, honoree's mother, was topped with a miniature merry-go-round, six candles and was served with green punch.

Attending were class members Terrie Lee Baker, Kim Cooper, Guyia James, Cindy Gill, Kristie Lammam, Ricky Wyman and Richard Kelly; the honoree's grand mother, Mrs. M. E. Livesay of Fort Worth; Rev. Mills and Mark Mills.

Winners in Poster Contest Proclaiming National Music Week Are Announced

Throughout the past few weeks, Treble Clef Club, in observance of National Music Week, May 1-7, has conducted a Music Poster Contest in Pampa's elementary schools. Local music students were invited by the club to submit posters proclaiming National Music Week.

Poster art was judged by Mmes. Bob Curry, Raymond Harnah, Howard Johnson, Fred Sloan and Miss Ruth Huff. Five-dollar and $2.50 gift certificates were awarded first and second place winners by Tarpley's Music Co.

First prize in Senior High division was awarded Carver High School music class; second prize to Miss Judi Vail, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robin Vail, 2016 Mary Ellen.

In the Junior High division, first prize was presented to Charlotte Newton, daughter of Mrs. Lillian Brooks, 840 1/2 Beryl; second prize to Curtis Judkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stone, W. R. Whitesell, Ray Mason, Adrian York, Harold Starbuck and Edwin East.

Posters will be placed on display in downtown stores and in Lovett Memorial Library during National Music Week, May 1-7.

Exceptional Children

The Rev. Richard W. Crews of First Christian Church had this to say with regard to Parent Education Club's project of providing equipment for the exceptional children's program in Pampa:

"According to an old statement, 'The test of any civilization is the point below which the weakest and most unfortunate members are permitted to fall.' Our civilization permits some to fall pretty low. Many times exceptional children... those who are physically or mentally handicapped... are treated with less understanding, less respect and greater rejection than any others. One of the greatest problems of these children is the lack of public sympathy and understanding."

A recent statement from the National Association for Exceptional Children points out that many of them can find a place in society and make a contribution if... if the community in which they live demonstrates intelligent and sympathetic understanding of their needs. Our public school system, the Parent Education Club and other groups are seeking to express the intelligent and sympathetic understanding of the needs of the exceptional children in our community. But the support of each one of us is needed to help provide adequate materials and special equipment for use in training these children.

May each of us do all we can in the spirit of Him who said "inasmuch as ye did unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye did it unto me."

The Tour of Homes is slated for May 7 from one to 5 p.m. Tickets are available to Pampa Club Women and their guests and may be purchased from members of Parent Education Club.

Monthly Social Held By Class

TEL Sunday School Class of Central Baptist Church met recently for its monthly social in the home of Mrs. R. E. Warren Sr., 420 Dobcette.

Opening prayer was led by Mrs. W. O. Grace. Devotional, taken from St. Mark's gospel, was given by Mrs. H. H. Greenhouse.

Mrs. E. O. Etheredge, president, presided during the meeting as secretary's report was given by Mrs. W. G. Gooding.

Mrs. E. G. Miller gave closing prayer.

A social hour was held with Mrs. Myrtle Enloe as hostess.

Parish Ladies Attend Meet of Diocesan Council

GROOM (Sp) — Sixth annual meeting of Diocesan Council of Catholic Women was held recently in Borger Hotel with St. John's Parish members as hostesses.

The meeting theme, "The Dignity of Womanhood" was keynoteed in an address, "Get Out of the Fog" by Mrs. C. H. Mihm, vice-president of DCCW.

MATURE PARENT

By MRS. MUREL LAWRENCE
I arrived at the White House Youth Conference as a work group "participant." But I left it as myself.

On the first day of my group's deliberations, its leaders asked for comment on the causes of the alarming rise in juvenile emotional disturbance. I said:

"Children can no longer respect parents as they are because we have so weakened parents' ability to respect themselves as they are. In a society where a manufacturer of facial tissue enjoys more honor than the plumber who keeps your house warm or the taxi driver who conveyed you to this hotel, parents cannot judge their social usefulness — and demand respect for it."

No, said my group leaders, the causes are too complex to be so simplified.

Then they asked, "Why are we failing to make early detection of emotional disturbances in children?" I said:

"Because parents have become so used to disrespect from everyone from employers to summer camp directors that they just don't know any more when they are receiving disrespect from their children."

No, said my group leaders, the failure in early detection is due to the lack of psychiatrically-oriented obstetricians, pediatricians, teachers, church workers and other community agents.

Then they asked, "How can we prevent emotional disturbances in children?" I said:

"By making parents conscious of their pain as their children withdraw from them, treat them contemptuously and otherwise protest their weakened self-respect. What we must have is some new plan that will reach our disturbed children through their disturbed, self-doubting parents."

"We need a national campaign that will arouse fathers and mothers to ask themselves: 'Is perpetual humiliation an essential parental experience?' And we must find some new way to support parents' resistance to perpetual humiliation."

No, said the leaders, what we need is better interdisciplinary liaison between existing social agencies.

When you purchase a robe, buy it with as much care as you would a dress. Remember that other people will see you in it. Don't pick the first wadded robe you can find, just for warmth and comfort. Have your comfort and, with it, a little charm.

DEAR ABBY....

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Perhaps you can settle a family controversy. My uncle, who lay unconscious for 22 days from a mining accident, passed away the morning of the day my sister was to be married. She was his eldest and favorite niece. Although she was truly heart-broken, she went ahead with the wedding.

Many relatives thought she should have called it off until a later date. The church was full of flowers and all the out-of-town guests were here and she didn't feel like sending them home and changing her plans. Do you think my sister did the right thing? Or should she have called off the wedding until a future date?

SISTER OF THE BRIDE
DEAR SISTER: I think your sister did the right thing. And I'll wager if her uncle could have whispered into her ear, he would have told her to go ahead with the wedding as scheduled.

DEAR ABBY: Are we raising a bunch of cream puffs? I read that in different parts of the country they closed the schools because of snow. Honestly, when I was a girl (some fifty years ago) I walked three miles to school every day. I had to cross an icy creek and railroad tracks and go through woods. The snow was waist-deep and I really knew what cold was.

Today you hear youngsters say that if they can't get a ride to school, they will just have to stay home. Isn't it pitiful? Maybe if you print this, Abby, our young people would thank God for their strong legs and use them.

DEAR ABBY: I am the wife of a career Army officer. It has taken me almost 20 years to accumulate nice china, silver and household appliances. Some of our Army friends have spent their money on expensive vacations and heavy drinking, but I did without temporary pleasures because I wanted nice things. My problem is that I have been asked for the loan of everything from my crystal globe to my electric mixer. Some people don't care what they ask for. (I have false teeth, too, but I've never told anyone for fear they'd ask to borrow them.) Inva-

Christian Temperance

"And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things." I Corinthians 9:25.

In his second letter to the church Peter sets forth the development of Christian character. Writing he says: Where by are given us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. II Peter 1; 4.

The Apostle then places temperance in its proper place on the ladder of Christian growth and experience: after knowledge and before patience. Knowledge is a prerequisite to temperance and temperance to patience.

This Christian virtue does not come to any person by wishing or even by earnest effort on his part, but is a gift from God. Temperance is one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit (Galatians 5:23), and is bestowed only to those who surrendered their lives to the Lord.

One time the Apostle Paul stood before Felix, the governor of Judea to witness for his faith. Realizing the great need of this ruler and his people Paul talked to him about righteousness, temperance and a judgement to come. Acts 24:25. The governor as a result of Paul's earnest appeal thought seriously for a few moments about his own life, how unholy and intemperate it was, and the dire results of facing a judgement in his spiritual condition. This caused him to tremble.

Isn't it true that there are many today who like the governor of Judea would do well to stop and think about the terrible results to those who indulge in unrighteous and intemperate living.

Right Or Harmonious

One of the constant efforts made by many politicians is to promote harmony. The idea of harmony is quite naturally, filled with merit. We are interested in living in harmony with all the nations on earth.

Oil And Water

According to best advices, there is a possibility that a national crisis in water may be just ahead for the American people. This crisis could come suddenly or it could come gradually.

More On "Our Enemy The State"

In the last issue I was commenting on the fourth reprinting of "Our Enemy The State" by Albert Jay Nock. The article explained how he differentiated between the State and government.

When Mr. Nock was living I had some correspondence with him and could never find out what he really stood for.

Spencer sees no reason to expect that State power will be more efficiently applied to secondary social purposes. Had we, in short, proved its efficiency as judge and defender, instead of having found it treacherous, cruel, and anxiously to be shunned.

Spencer does not discuss what he calls the "perennial faith of mankind" in State action, but contents himself with elaborating the "sententious observation of Guizot, that a belief in the sovereign power of political machinery is nothing less than a gross delusion."

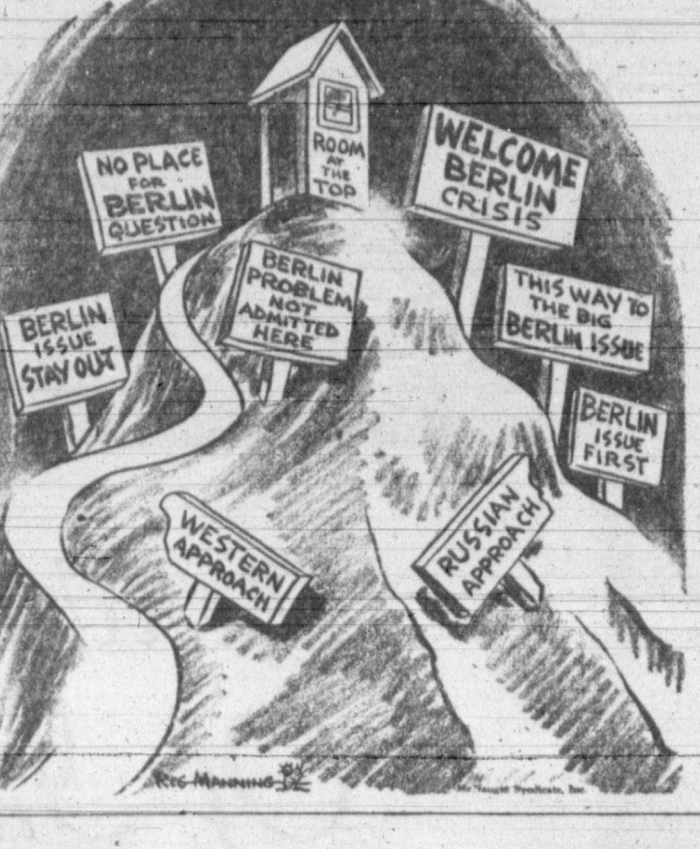

Lincoln's phrase, "of the people, by the people, for the people" was probably the most effective single stroke of propaganda ever made in behalf of republican State prestige.

Of course, Lincoln never said what he meant "of the people, by the people, for the people," whether he meant "of the majority, by the majority, for the majority," or "of the minority, by the minority, for the minority."

It is a commonplace that the persistence of an institution is due solely to the state of mind that prevails towards it.

It is a commonplace that the persistence of an institution is due solely to the state of mind that prevails towards it. The state of terms in which men habitually think about it. So long, and only so long, as those terms are favorable, the institution lives and maintains its power.

TRUMAN PONDERING JOINING MISSOURI DELEGATION AND ANNOUNCING FOR SYMINGTON MAY 1 WASHINGTON — Former President Truman is weighing two moves that would throw him smack into the middle of the stormy Democratic presidential race.

Fair Enough

Never-Never Land Of High Placed Few

by WESTBROOK PEGLER

When I write about the obliteration of moral standards and the secret repudiation of the whole Constitution, I mean literally that we have rejected virtue and shrunk the Constitution to the narrow, mocking fraud of the constitutions of the AFL-CIO.

Young, unmarried people just beginning to experiment in their emotions are hearing that desire justifies surrender. Never before have Catholic priests had to speak so frankly against "going steady" among teenagers.

Patriotism is waning. Hollywood slackers become millionaires and sleep in Lincoln's bed. But in 1920 Jack Dempsey was piloried for much less. Four years ago, A. A. Berle, a precious double-dome of the Roosevelt regime, discovered that nationality and nationalism were a cause of war.

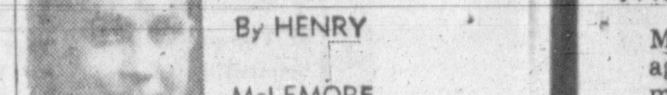

After Bullitt's intimate confidant, Carmel Offie, was picked up by the Pansy bed of Lafayette Park, Washington, and defaulted his bond, leaving implications, which Offie slyly accepted, Bullitt told Roy Howard with great bluster that he wanted to meet Pegler.

Uncomfortable Rule In Johannesburg

The first time I ever saw a ridge hound — and the last, for that matter — was in Johannesburg. When I did something I had dreamed of doing since I was a boy, I went to South Africa to visit Kruger National Park, the great wild game preserve.

The ridge hound gets its name from a ridge of fur that runs along the back from its neck to its tail. The ridge never flattens, and when the dog is aroused the fur becomes as rigid as the bristles of a brush.

The Boers didn't like the British. The British didn't like the Boers. And the Boers and the British didn't like the Africans, nor the Indians, and treated them in a manner hard to believe in the twentieth century.

What was true of his home was true of thousands of others. Another acquaintance, who lived in a suburb, told me that his wife would not think of walking to the mail box once evening had set in.

Only men. There were no women and children; for all men had been brought in from all parts of the country, placed in a compound, and lived for two or three years. It was prison exercise on a vast scale.

Heavy precipitation is in store for the Northwest and Great Lakes, subnormal in South and Southwest, normal elsewhere.

England Intent On Currying Favor With American Buyer

By LEROY POPE
 United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) — Now that he has at last succeeded in making Americans his best customers again, John Bull is determined to keep us satisfied with his wares, British auto magnate Lord Rootes said today.

Lord Rootes is here as co-chairman of the huge British Trade Exposition in New York's Coliseum opening in June. His lordship is also chairman of Rootes Motors, which makes Hillmans, Sunbeams, Humbers and several other British cars. He also is chairman of Britain's Dollar Export Council, which, by patient work, has succeeded in 10 years in balancing Britain's trade with the U.S. and making us Britain's biggest single customer.

"Our aim from now on is to expand the trade both ways and keep it balanced," he told United Press International. "We don't hope for a substantial British advantage."

Researchers Find Unlapped Tax Sources

By AL KUETTNER
 United Press International

ATLANTA (UPI) — A University of Kentucky research team has looked into a somewhat unpopular subject—sources of tax revenue—and has advised southern states they could pick up another one and one-half billion dollars a year.

The reason given for the study was to determine whether there are "legal opportunities" for raising additional state and local revenues in the South to pay for the burgeoning needs of higher education.

The Southern Regional Education Board reported recently that it cost $300,000,000 in 1955-56 to educate 10 million children in the South. It would require 750 million a year by 1960.

James W. Martin, director, and Kenneth E. Quindry, research assistant, of the University of Kentucky Bureau of Business Research, have some ideas about where the states can find the money by tapping "new potentials" of existing tax structures.

The Martin report said the states raised more than six billion dollars in taxes in 1957, the latest year for which full statistics are available, but could hike that by 25 per cent.

The report centers on four sources of added revenue—sales and gross receipts, property, individual income and corporate income taxes.

The greatest unrealized potential in the South is the sales tax, the report said. Next in line is personal income revenue.

It lists eight southern states that "impose less than the average tax load" as measured against income: Alabama, Delaware, Florida, Kentucky, Maryland, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

Arkansas and Mississippi were named as the leading states of Dixie in "high tax burden."

"It will be very difficult to find additional state revenue for higher education or other purposes" in Mississippi, the report said.

Other highlights: Texas has a half-billion dollar new revenue potential since it uses neither sales nor income taxes. Maryland, Delaware, Kentucky, Virginia and Florida are other states that could pick up much revenue from this source.

State and property taxes provide more than any other source of revenue in the South. Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, South Carolina and Tennessee have no state property levy.

There is a potential for collecting 300 million in additional individual income taxes, particularly in Florida, Texas and West Virginia which now have no such taxes. There is a 170 million dollar potential in corporate levies.

The Martin report sums up its findings with a pertinent question: "Do people want higher education supported from state tax money at a more adequate level and are they willing to levy additional taxes?"

In a paper going into the report, the SREB said, it could "help guide a search for the best possible decision but the answers to the question must come from the legislators and ultimately from the public."

A smiling Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai left New Delhi like a conquering hero this week, leaving a definitely chilly prime minister Jawaharlal Nehru behind.

Whereas Chou managed to wave several times before the door of his airliner closed behind him, Nehru confined himself to a single wave at the last moment.

Furthermore Chou insisted that friendship between Red China and India was "immortal."

It appeared Nehru was not so sure.

These were surface results of Chou's week in New Delhi, during which he and Nehru spent more than 17 hours in consultation over the border dispute which has disrupted seriously relations between their two countries.

Both were committed to a policy of no retreat and both held to it.

The territory involved covers 51,000 square miles along the Sino-Indian frontier which India considers hers by treaty and tradition. It runs along the so-called McMahon Line which follows the Himalaya Mountains and the watershed of the Karakoram and the Ladakh Range.

Two areas were in specific dispute. One was the Ladakh Region of Kashmir bordering Tibet. Here the Chinese have built a strategic road linking Tibet with the province of Sinkiang.

Sports Echoes

by LEE GRIMSLEY
10 Years Ago — 1950

Pampa Manager Grover Selts named Roy Parker, who had compiled a 23-10 record in '49, to oppose Lubbock in the season opener. The Hubbers shelled Parker, 10-1, and went on to blast Pampa a second time before Parker returned to pitch and bat the Oilers to a 17-5 win over the Hubbers. In Brooklyn, the Red Cross warned women not to wear girdles to ball games at Ebbetts Field because they "strangle the emotions." This tidbit appeared in a Red Cross pamphlet entitled "The Care and Protection of Dodger Fans' Species Fautrix Loecum Brooklynensis."

The Boston Braves were boasting of having the youngest catchers in the major leagues — Del Crandall (20), Walter Linden (24) and Paul Burris (25). The Chicago Cubs staked claim to the youngest infield — Preston Ward (22) Wayne Terwilliger (23), Bill Serena (23) and Roy Smalley (23).

At cut-down time in New York Yankees' "decided" Whittney Fryd wasn't yet big league material and optioned him to Kansas City of the American Association. The St. Louis Browns at the same time, were adding to their roster. The Browns' front office hired hypnotist Dr. David Tracy with instructions to snap the Browns out of their losing attitude.

25 Years Ago — 1935 — The Yankees were booming George Selkirk as the next Babe Ruth. Meanwhile, the Babe, who had been dealt to the Boston Braves, was saying: "I've never felt better. I'll be disappointed if I don't play at least 100 games."

Cardinal Manager Frankie Frisch fined his ace hurler, Dizzy Dean, $100 for missing a train at Dublin, Ga. "This year's Yankees will be the best ever," boasted Joe McCarthy, the Bronx Bombers broke camp and headed north. Elsewhere around the league came the cry: "Break up the Yankees."

And the first story of a major league club moving to Milwaukee appeared in print. In a fantasy-type article, Associated Press Scribe Paul Mickelson wrote that the Chicago White Sox had been purchased by a national syndicate and would be moved to the Wisconsin city.

50 Years Ago — 1910 — The book on golfiness didn't at all ways belong to the Dodgers — the Giants once had a part interest in it. In an exhibition game with the Carolina League champs at Greenville, S.C., Giant Skipper John McGraw decided to steal home. The throw had him beat all the way, so McGraw turned just before he reached the plate and sprinted toward right field.

A frustrated Greenville catcher finally tagged him out near the right field fence as 8,000 fans howled with laughter. Two days later the Giants did it again. In a game with Jersey City of the Eastern League, Fred Merkel started a double steal. Protecting the runner, McGraw laid down a perfect bunt and when the dust settled the Giants had scored twice.

McCovey's Home Run Edges Dodgers, 7-6

Pirates Register 7th Straight Win

Sweet swinger Willie McCovey is still playing those game-winning tunes for the San Francisco Giants. They sang the sophomore blues for the 354 hitting rookie sensation of the National League when he proved something of a bust during spring training but you can take it from the world champion Los Angeles Dodgers that Willie can still "boom em."

McCovey demonstrated that Thursday night when his three-run eighth-inning homer and four runs batted in carried the Giants to a 7-5 victory over the Dodgers and into a second-place tie behind the streaking Pittsburgh Pirates, who chalked up their seventh straight win, 3-0, over the Philadelphia Phillies.

McCovey's game-winning blow came off Ed Roebuck, who had just replaced World Series star Larry Sherry after the Giants took a 3-2 lead. A crowd of 33,313 saw Sherry tagged with his third defeat of the year while Jack Sanford won his second game.

Bob Friend, one of the Pirates' biggest disappointments of 1959, turned in his third straight victory of the new season as the Pirates equalled the longest winning streak any NL team was able to achieve in '59. Friend struck out 11 batters, only one short of the club record set by Babe Adams in 1909, in a neat four-hitter.

Friend, who fell to an 8-19 season in '59 after a 22-victory campaign in 1958, struck out rookies Pancho Herrera and Joe Koppe three times each in registering his second shutout of the year. The other National League clubs were idle.

The American League champion Chicago White Sox got a heartening pitching effort from Billy Pierce to beat the Cleveland Indians, 2-1. The Kansas City Athletics downed the Detroit Tigers, 2-1, and the Baltimore Orioles scored a 6-1 decision over the Boston Red Sox in American League action.

Pierce, who had only a 14-15 record last season, limited the Indians to three hits until the ninth inning when Woody Held tripled and Bubba Phillips singled. Rookie Dick Hall pitched a four-hitter, including a homer by Lou Berberet, to hand the Tigers their third straight loss and drop them into a first-place tie with the idle New York Yankees. The Athletics scored the decisive run in the sixth inning when Bill Tuttle doubled and scored on a single by Jerry Lumpe.

Steve Barber, 21-year-old rookie speedballer, scattered six hits for the Orioles, who scored their fourth straight victory. Gene Woodling's two-run single and Brooks Robinson's two-run double produced four runs in the first inning and paved the way for the easy Baltimore triumph.

Ring Results — TIJUANA, Mexico — Cisco Andrade, 139, Compton, Calif., stopped Kildo Nunez, 140, Tijuana, (4).

Wisconsin Ring Deaths

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (UPI) — The coroner of Brown County paralleled the death of a Green Bay Reformatory inmate to that of collegiate boxer Charles Mohr, on the eve of a meeting that may decide whether the ring sport continues at the University of Wisconsin.

Dr. Cletus Belise officially linked the two boxing deaths that have occurred in Wisconsin in the past two weeks when he said Michael Golubiff's accident "was probably much the same as happened in the Mohr case."

Gary Wilhelm, Pampa welterweight, is a member of the University of Wisconsin boxing team which may be dropped as a varsity sport.

U.S. Olympic Hopefuls At Drake Relays

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI) — Some of the United States' best Olympic hopefuls will display their track and field talent in the 51st Drake Relays, but today's competition will feature only one potential international runner, and he'll probably be with Australia in the Rome games.

Finals will be held today in only seven events in the two-day carnival, only four of them for individuals, and at Lawrence, representing the University of Houston should be the standout, in the two-mile run.

Lawrence, an Australian who undoubtedly will compete for his nation in the Olympics, was given a good chance to surpass the Drake record of 8:51.3 set by Alex Henderson of Arizona State two years ago, however, an unfavorable weather prediction calling for scattered showers and a wet track could hamper him.

Finals will be held in the 440-yard hurdles, the broad jump and the discus today, but some of the competitors was rated a challenger for the relays records, led alone the American or world marks.

Competition will be far more rugged Saturday when most of the stars get into action. Then probably United States Olympic entrants in the shot put, javelin, pole vault and sprints will be on display with emphasis on the shot put where the field includes a trio who might make up the U.S.

Chennie Cops Pony Contest

Chennie outlasted First National Bank in a wild and woolly slugfest at Pony Park last night, 19-15 in a game which lasted more than three hours.

The Bankers blew a 10-4 lead they held in the top of the fourth inning. Chennie scored 14 times in the fourth, fifth, and sixth innings to take the win.

Langwell and Jim Strickland bore the brunt of the Chennie attack, Langwell being touched for seven runs while Strickland was tagged for eight markers.

Cantrill was the winning Chennie pitcher and hit a home run to aid his own cause. Strickland, the losing hurler, was the Bank's top sticker with three hits in three trips to the plate and three runs scored. He also drew a pair of walks.

Rotary, Kissee Take LL Wins

HOUSTON, TEX. (UPI) — Arnold Palmer, the favorite, and Bill Collins led the pack into the second round of the $35,000 Houston Classic golf tournament today, but only because Dave Ragan Jr. had a bit of trouble.

Palmer and Collins carved out first round six-under-par 66's to break in front of the field of 139 golfers, while Ragan and Billy Maxwell of Oceanside, Calif., were right behind with 67's.

Ragan, 21, who plays out of Orlando, Fla., has won only one tournament in his career — the Eastern Open last year. It hadn't been for "tough luck" he may have been in front today.

The bad break came on the first hole — a 350-yard par five. Ragan was 10 inches away for a par putt, but "fanned" two strokes before tapping the ball in. He was charged with three strokes and wound up with a double bogey for the hole.

Ragan took his stance, addressed the ball, and started his stroke, then changed his mind and tried to stop the swing, but his reflexes weren't fast enough.

It happened the same way again before he finally touched the ball into the cup.

Palmer, the Masters champion from Tigeron, Pa., who is 126 ahead of the money winners this year with $44,257 in the bank, shot a 30-36-66. His front nine score tied the record on this 7,122-yard layout.

Collins, from Crystal River, Fla., birdied the first three holes, the fifth and eighth, three-putted the 10th for his only bogey, and tacked on two more birdies on the back nine.

Six players were in reach of the leaders with four-under-par 68's. They are Dave Hill of Detroit; Mason Rudolph of Clarksville, Tenn.; George Bayer of Glendale, Ill.; Jack Fleck of Los Angeles; Henry Ransom of St. Andrews, Ill.; and Don January of Dallas.

Seaway Shippers Have High Hopes For A Second Season

By AL OSTROW
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
CLEVELAND (NEA) — The glitter and glamour are gone as the St. Lawrence Seaway is in a daze ready for its second navigation season.

As the sun melts the winter ice of the broad St. Lawrence River, permitting the first freighters to open the 1960 navigation season by nosing into St. Lambert Lock at Montreal, most Great Lakes shipping men and city officials have come to accept Jean-Claude Lessard as an accurate prophet.

As the sun melts the winter ice of the broad St. Lawrence River, permitting the first freighters to open the 1960 navigation season by nosing into St. Lambert Lock at Montreal, most Great Lakes shipping men and city officials have come to accept Jean-Claude Lessard as an accurate prophet.

THE FIRST FREIGHTERS to pass through the St. Lambert Lock at Montreal in 1960 will usher in the second season of operation without the fanfare which apparently oversold the Seaway at the grand opening last year.

Negroes May Try Again At Joske's

By United Press International
A group of Negroes rallied in an attempt to integrate lunch counters at Joske's Department Store in San Antonio promised to return again today.

He is the one who accompanied a Negro minister to three Dallas lunch counters earlier this week. Joske's, one of the largest department stores in San Antonio, closed two of its three lunch counters Thursday when Negroes blocked the doors and refused to let white patrons in or out.

Foreign flag lines, which have lower operating costs, propose to gradually build up their Seaway operations, but plan to divert some new vessels designed for the inland seas to other areas if last year's St. Lawrence traffic tie-ups are repeated in 1960.

Washington Window

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press International
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon's decision to avoid trouble in North Dakota looks much better today than it did, for example, a week ago.

More than 20 million tons of cargo were carried through the Seaway last year, a 71 per cent increase above the amount which passed through the smaller canal system in 1958.

That will come later, is one argument. "These are long range investments." The cities are gambling on the accuracy of the statement by planning to invest considerably more in new port facilities during 1960 and the years ahead.

House Passes Billion-Dollar Housing Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A House - passed billion-dollar housing bill got a lukewarm reception in the Senate today in advance of what was certain to be a cold greeting if it ever reached the White House.

Curfew On Points Along Gulf Coast

By United Press International
Gulf Coast officials kept a close watch on the tense racial situation in Mississippi today to prevent a recurrence of the riots that broke out last weekend in Biloxi.

Republican trouble in North Dakota boiled over Tuesday in a public demand by Gov. John E. Davis for removal of Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson.

When Rev. Jones came out Thursday, the two deputy sheriffs Franklin had watching arrested him. The preacher lay down on the grass. The two deputies picked him up and carried him toward their car. They denied that they deliberately dropped him in a ditch.

Seaway tolls didn't meet the project's operating costs and interest on indebtedness during its first season.

President Eisenhower half opposed any major spending for housing this year as unnecessary and a threat to the budget.

The sheriff's office reported that a white man in a car fired a pistol shot at the Negro, but missed. The crowd was dispersed quickly, and no blows were struck, officers said.

North Dakota's special senatorial election will take place June 28, shortly before the Republican and Democratic presidential nominating conventions.

When they got to the sheriff's office, Constable Buck Little took him from the car where he was public demand by Gov. John E. Davis for removal of Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson.

Despite this, both Canadian and American shipping interests are pressing their drive to make the canal toll-free. Their argument is that a booming Great Lakes ship trade would bring both Canada and the United States greater benefits than the Seaway revenues which the neighbor nations share.

San Homer F. Capehart (R-Ind.), ranking GOP subcommittee member, said he did not think that as much federal money as the House voted was needed at present to stimulate housing.

The House bill would provide one billion dollars of federal money to help finance sale of new houses. The money would be used to purchase GI and FHA mortgages costing $13,800 or less.

Nixon was aware of this situation. When invited to accept speaking engagements in North Dakota in Davis' behalf, the vice president declined. This was unusual, Nixon's chief claim to loyalty of local Republican leaders throughout the United States and the best guarantee he has of obtaining this year's presidential nomination is his record of aiding candidates in distress.

State Republican leaders generally are obligated to the vice president for past favors. It was not in character for Nixon to ignore a cry for help from North Dakota. Moreover, Nelson A. Rockefeller was as quick to accept an invitation to speak in North Dakota as Nixon was to refuse.

The St. Lawrence Seaway, no longer a glamour girl, but still possessing some of the globe's most unforgettable scenic splendor, is settling down to its mission as one of the world's work-horse waterways.

The amendment which would have barred racial discrimination among buyers of the estimated 70,000 new houses the bill would finance - would have alienated the bill's southern Democratic supporters.

White House said Thursday the nature of the gift would not be disclosed because the Eisenhowers regard it as a personal matter.

UPI Enters Decade Serving 6,208 Clients

NEW YORK (UPI) — United Press International enters the decade of the sixties reporting the world news for more readers and listeners than ever before. Frank H. Bartholomew, president of the news agency, told UPI executives at their annual meeting in New York Tuesday.

Bartholomew, beginning his sixth year as president and general manager, said UPI today delivers its services directly to 6,208 clients, the largest clientele in its 53-year history, in 92 countries and territories.

"Improvements in facilities and equipment have been important to UPI's continued progress," he said, "but even more important has been the improvement in the material they deliver — the news itself, in text and pictorial form."

"What UPI has achieved in all phases of its news operations reflects great credit on our reporters at the scene of the story and their editors processing the flow of news to clients."

Bartholomew said UPI now maintains 234 news and picture bureaus in 57 countries, including 140 offices in the United States, more than 10,000 full and part-time employees are involved in these world-wide operations.

Sims Thomson, first vice-president and general business manager called the past 12-month period one of "spectacular" growth and achievement. He referred to new wire alignments, letting of contracts for new equipment and facilities, and personnel shifts designed to give the news report a "fresh look."

"As if this were not enough," he said, "we are now nearing the end of a two-year moving program here in the home office and bringing our news picture operation from its cross-town location into our headquarters in the daily news building."

"Even with the strictest cost control measures now in effect," he said, "we now find ourselves operating on a $34,000,000 yearly budget. Presidential tours and political campaigns, for instance, have a way of having to be covered, and they come high.

"We suffered a sharp rise in the cost of leased lines and equipment in late 1958, and this continues as an expense. But the increase represented only about one-third of the amount the ATT had requested and which UPI fought before the Federal Communications Commission. I mention this now because our attorneys still are fighting this increase before the commission."

"We accept without question our responsibility to cover the news comprehensively no matter where it breaks, and we also recognize a corollary responsibility to utilize every means of increasing efficiency and to fight rising costs within the industry."

Innovation — both in reporting and distributing the news — has been the order of the day, said Earl J. Johnson, vice president and editor in discussing activities under his direction. He said:

"The outstanding development was seven years in planning. It was the inauguration of UPI's new transcontinental teletype network on September 20."

"This new 120-word a minute double-track system streamlines our domestic news gathering and distribution channels."

"The 'A' wire, operating 24 hours a day, seven days a week, is the only press association wire carrying all major news without any relay points. This means we catch editions we otherwise would miss. The 'B' wire carries world news hand-in-hand with the 'A' wire, splits into regional circuits, and carries inter-bureau traffic without interrupting this flow."

In regard to the content of the UPI news report, Johnson drew attention to the expansion of regional news coverage, including the addition of division reporters in Washington.

A nationwide study was made of UPI style and wire procedures and new methods were instituted for filing copy. These drew much favorable reaction from editors.

NOVEL ARTISTIC METHOD

LONDON (UPI) — Sir Charles Wheeler told the Royal Academy of Art Wednesday night that some modern painters are resorting to "ridiculous tricks."

DILUTED EVIDENCE

GREENSBORO, N.C. (UPI) — County Prosecutor Horace Korgay said Wednesday that from now on, confiscated moonshine will be kept in the basement vault of the courthouse.

JACK PLEADS INNOCENT

NEW YORK (UPI) — Manhattan Borough President Hulan E. Jack pleaded innocent Wednesday at his arraignment on a reinstated four-count indictment charging him with conspiracy and conflict of interest.

Jack, who for the second time voluntarily suspended himself from the $25,000-a-year job which made him the highest paid Negro elected official in the country, was continued in-bail. He was accused of accepting illegal gratuities for allowing reator Sidney Ungar to pay for a $4,400 remodeling job on his apartment.

Addison Penalized By Court

DALLAS (UPI) — John Milton Addison, uranium promoter who wants to be governor of Texas, faced possible more trouble from federal authorities today.

Elmore Whitehurst, federal bankruptcy referee, jarred the stocky 31-year-old Addison Wednesday by naming a receiver to take charge of his assets and slapping a stiff injunction against him.

He brought an abrupt end to three days of hearings during which Addison steadfastly refused to answer questions about his financial dealings. He invoked the Fifth Amendment, explaining that in view of the fact he is currently under investigation by a federal grand jury in Fort Worth, some of his answers might tend to incriminate him.

Whitehurst said he plans to refer the record of the hearing and Addison's refusal to answer questions to Federal Dist. Judge T. Whitfield Davidson for possible contempt action.

Lester May, one of Addison's four attorneys, said a petition for review would probably be filed today. Under the order handed down by Whitehurst, it must be accompanied by a $50,000 bond pending Judge Davidson's decision.

Addison recently announced he is a candidate for governor, and is forming his own third party. He said his platform will be to take state government out of politics.

The bankruptcy proceedings against Addison were filed originally by Alan J. Fox of Raymondville and Victor H. Tumlinson of Cameron. Later, they were joined by Richard P. Koplitz, operator of the Denver Air Taxi Service, who claimed Addison owed him $347.75 for air transportation.

Addison denied that he owed Koplitz money, but refused to answer all other questions so Whitehurst threw out this part of his testimony and named William J. Rochelle Jr., Dallas attorney, as receiver.

Under the injunction handed down, Addison is prohibited from disposing of any of his assets under penalty of contempt of court citation.

AIR DATES

New York — First broadcast of a presidential inauguration was that of Calvin Coolidge in 1925. The first telecast of such an event was Harry Truman's inauguration that occurred in 1949.
