Air Force Secretary Selected By Kennedy

Fort Worth Attorney Is Chosen As Navy Head; Army Choice Due

By MERRIMAN SMITH

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI) — President-elect John F. Kennedy moved rapidly today toward completion of the Defense Department's upper structure by naming Eugene Zuckert, former atomic energy commissioner, as secretary of the Air Force.

Workers Riot In Belgium

BRUSSELS (UPI) — More than 10,000 Socialist-led strikers surged through the streets here today, smashing the windows of buses, trolleys and office buildings and scuffling with police.

No casualties were reported here, Government spokesman Pierre Harmel announced, however, that a railway official in Liege had been so seriously injured by strikers that he had been taken to a hospital. He gave no details.

The mob, shouting demands for the resignation of Premier Gaston Eyskens, attacked several street cars and buses manned by non-strikers and smashed their windows. Passengers in the assaulted vehicles escaped injury.

Swift intervention by military police restored order without major trouble.

Elsewhere in the city, strikers booted non-strikers working in offices and in some cases stoned the buildings. The windows of government newspaper offices were favorite targets.

Army tommygunners and riot police were standing by, ready for action in case of an outbreak of major violence. Armed police escorted garbage trucks and a few postmen who continued working in defiance of the strikers.

Tens of thousands of Belgians were forced to walk, bicycle or hitch rides to work when trolley and bus workers in the capital joined the strike.

Paratroopers in full battle kit, rushed back from NATO duty in West Germany, guarded government buildings and main railroad stations.

The eight-day strike, in protest against the planned austerity program aimed at recouping economic losses as a result of granting independence to the Congo, has virtually immobilized Belgium.

More than half a million workers were out and the strike was still spreading. The small but militant Communist party joined the Socialists in backing the walkout, protested the recall of Belgian paratroop contingents from NATO (See WORKERS, Page 3)

40 Traffic Deaths

Texas Violence Toll Totals 89

By United Press International

"Operation Deathwatch" moved past the midway point today with holiday deaths from violence running ahead of estimates for the Christmas-New Year period. Safety officials feared bad weather sweeping Texas may make the grim toll climb even faster.

Already traffic accidents and other forms of violence were killing people at a rate of at least 18 per day. And the traffic record in Texas for the Christmas weekend was one of the worst in the nation, second only to California.

Two Soldiers Finish Hike For Orphans

TOKYO (UPI) — Two American soldiers have completed an 825-mile "Christmas Hike" designed to help raise $10,000 for a Japanese orphanage.

Capt. John O. Arnn, Carmel, Calif., and Spec. 4 Jimmie Dexter, Dallas, Tex., arrived in Beppu, on the southernmost island of Kyushu, in mid-afternoon Tuesday, 13 days, 14 hours and 15 minutes after they left the foothills of Mt. Fuji, near Tokyo.

So far, the two soldiers have collected about $1,000 for the Garden of Light Orphanage in Beppu. The orphanage needs the money to build a new wing.

A count by United Press International and the Department of Public Safety early today showed that no less than 89 persons have died since the tabulation began last Friday, 40 of them in automobile accidents.

The DPS warned drivers to be particularly careful during the next few days because of rain and drizzle that covers Central, East and South Texas, and snow and ice that is glazing highways in the Northwest and Western sections.

Safety officials predicted that 178 persons would die violently in the state during the 10-day period that ends on Jan. 1.

Among the more recent deaths were: —Lester Lee Roy, 17, Overton, killed when a car he was driving was struck from behind by a car driven by his brother, sending it crashing into a ditch.

—Miss Lily E. Bauer, 64, and Miss Hathie L. Bauer, 71, found shot to death in their farm home near Groveton.

—Aubrey Wilburn Burrows, 34, Canton, shot to death at his home.

—Dennis Larry McClaim, 2, of Kennard, accidentally shot at his Harris County home.

—George A. Wilder, 31, shot to death in a Freeport tavern during an argument over whether or not he could buy more beer.

—Robert L. Rivera, 4, Port Lavaca, died from a rattlesnake bite he received Christmas Eve. He was the second youngster to die from a rattlesnake bite during the holidays.

—Eben L. Shippey, 38, Athens druggist, accidentally killed himself cleaning a shotgun.

Zuckert, assistant Air Force secretary when Sen. Stuart Symington, D-Mo., was civilian head of the Air Force in the Truman administration, was named to succeed James H. Douglas. Connally will take over the post currently occupied by Navy Secretary William B. Franke.

Kennedy's headquarters here announced that Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, was flying to Palm Beach tonight for a meeting Thursday with the President-elect.

The incoming Chief Executive also arranged a conference at his seaside villa Friday with Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., a former congressman from New York and currently a foreign automobile distributor. Roosevelt worked in the Kennedy campaign and had been mentioned for the Navy post that went to Connally.

The two defense posts were filled by Kennedy in consultation with the new Defense Secretary-designate, Robert S. McNamara, and, of course, Johnson and Symington, both close friends of Connally and Zuckert.

Connally, 43, has served Johnson twice on Capitol Hill—as the first administrative assistant to Johnson when the Texan first went to the House in 1939; was first administrative assistant when Johnson went to the Senate in 1949. Connally directed Johnson's bid for the Democratic presidential nomination this year, and after Johnson settled for the second spot on the ticket, Connally then went to work for the Kennedy-Johnson slate.

Zuckert had a somewhat similar close tie to Symington. The new Air Force secretary was a Navy lieutenant (j.g.) late in World War II when he became assistant to Symington, then head of the Surplus Property Administration.

Gal's False Fire Reports Fluster Pampa Firemen

Pampa firemen would like to invoke the aid of all professional and amateur private eyes in town to track down a mystery girl or woman who has been turning in false alarms.

Three times in the past six months she has called the fire department and in a soft and sweet voice, with just a bit of excitement in it, reported a fire.

The latest call came at 8:15 last night. "There's a fire in my bedroom at 2118 N. Charles," she said. And then added, "hurry."

Three pieces of equipment were dispatched to the address which turned out to be a vacant lot. "This is a serious offense," Fire Chief Ernest Winborne said today, "and we'll catch her if she keeps it up."

U.S. Seeks Cash Saved By Prisoner

NEW YORK (UPI)—The federal government today sought to obtain the $1,348 saved by a "model prisoner" who worked for $35 a month in the penitentiary and went without cigarettes or candy so he could have money when he was released.

Ramon Rosario, who served nine and a half years in Leavenworth (Kan.) Penitentiary, on a narcotics conviction, ironically had socked the money away in U.S. savings bonds.

Rosario had been sentenced in New York in 1951 to 15 years in prison and fined $11,000 for selling and possessing narcotics. Shortly after he was jailed, the government seized his assets on a tax lien, leaving him virtually penniless.

Rosario became a model prisoner. He worked in the penitentiary shoe factory and was paid $35 a month.

To provide for the day when he would get out, he started investing almost $15 a month of his pay in U.S. savings bonds, depriving himself of most of the things he could buy in the prison commissary, such as cigarettes and candy.

Rosario, now 60 years old, was ordered released a month ago with time off from his sentence for good behavior and another year off for working in the prison shoeshop.

He knew, however, he could not pay the $11,000 fine still standing against him, so he served another 30 days in jail to qualify for a pauper's oath.

But when he appeared last Thursday to take the oath, Asst. U.S. Atty. Stanley Schlesinger demanded that Rosario's bonds be turned over to the government.

Rosario refused and was returned to the Federal House of Detention here. A Legal Aid Society attorney, Barnard Moldow, heard of the ex-convict's plight, however, and obtained Rosario's release in time for Christmas by cashing over $1,348 from the cashed-in bonds to be held in escrow until the case is decided.

"He could have spent the money or sent it home," Moldow said. "Instead he chose to buy government savings bonds and he should be allowed to keep them. He served his time in good faith."

Haggard Resigns As Chief Deputy; Day Due Post

Deputy Sheriff E. B. (Buck) Haggard, head of the Criminal Department in the Gray County Sheriff's office for the past 10 years has resigned. He will be replaced Jan. 1 by Lieut. D. L. Day of the Pampa Police Department.

The announcement was made this forenoon by Sheriff Rufe Jordan who expressed regret at Deputy Haggard's resignation and praised him as one of the best law officers ever to serve Gray county.

Deputy Haggard was out of the city today but Sheriff Jordan said he talked with him yesterday and learned that Haggard's plans for the future still are indefinite and that he is considering several possibilities.

The sheriff said Haggard's resignation was first submitted Dec. 15.

Lieut. Day has been officer in charge of the Pampa Police Department at night for the past several years. Police Chief James Conner said his successor probably will be announced within a few days.

Lieut. Day has been a resident of Gray County for 34 years. Until he went into the service in 1943 he resided in Lefors. When he left the service in 1945 he came to Pampa and joined the police force and has been a member of the department for the past 15 years.

When residing in Lefors Day was employed by the Lefors Independent School System.

Proposed City Charter Copies Mailed To Voters

Pampa voters today were getting a chance to study the proposed city charter which will be submitted to them for approval or disapproval on Saturday, Jan. 31.

City Manager John Kooz said some 8,000 copies of the new charter proposal have been placed in the mails.

Principal change in the proposed charter would do away with the present ward system of electing the four city commissioners.

Under the present charter one commissioner is elected from each of the city's four wards. Only the mayor is elected at large. Under the proposed charter the mayor and all four commissioners would be elected at large.

Another provision which does not exist in the present charter would allow extending the city limits upon petition of a majority of qualified voters in the area affected, or in case where there are no qualified voters, then by petition of a majority of the land owners in the territory.

City Manager Kooz said these are the two principal changes in the proposed charter.

Pampa's present city charter was first adopted in 1927 and throughout the years there have been some changes and revisions.

The ward system of selecting city commissioners first was placed in operation in December of 1946.

If the proposed charter is adopted by Pampa voters next month it would go into effect as soon as it is filed with the Secretary of State, possibly within 10 days after the Jan. 31 election date.

$1 Million Robbery Pulled In Florida City

TAMPA, Fla. (UPI)—The FBI reported today that the vault of an armored car service containing more than $1 million in cash and checks had been burglarized.

Tampa police, who called the FBI into the case, said someone either worked the combination or found the vault unlocked.

Law enforcement agencies and officials of the Rasdale Armored Car Service said it would be impossible to disclose how much money was taken until a count is made.

The funds represented two days receipts from Tampa's greyhound race track and Christmas receipts from a number of department stores.

Opening of the vault followed more than a day of suspenseful waiting.

A burglar alarm sounded at 12:30 a.m. Tuesday and when police investigated they found the vault locked. It was supposed to open by means of the time lock at 6:30 a.m.

But it didn't, and a locksmith advised against forcing it open. He said the lock could not be set to stay closed more than 72 hours.

French Plan To Continue Nuclear Tests

PARIS (UPI) — The French government shrugged off protests over its third nuclear explosion in the Sahara Desert and moved ahead today with plans to harness the atom for defense and peace.

A French Foreign Ministry spokesman made clear that Moscow Radio's denunciation of the atomic test as a "monstrous challenge to world opinion," and angry reaction from African and other countries would not stop the French test series.

Informed sources said a fourth explosion at the desert testing center of Reggane, 800 miles south of Oran, Algeria, could be expected in a "relatively short time" — perhaps in a few weeks.

France is the only country known to be conducting atomic tests. The United States, Britain and Russia have suspended their tests while attempting to negotiate a test ban in Geneva. However, American officials have claimed Russia has been carrying on underground tests which can not be detected with available monitoring equipment.

French scientists Tuesday expected to complete the test series. (See FRENCH, Page 3)

Work On Pampa Youth Center On Schedule

Construction work on Pampa's new Youth and Community Center is progressing on schedule and if the weather doesn't interfere the $160,000 project should be completed by Mar. 1, 1961.

Fred Nestlage, vice president for the Youth Center, said today that if good weather prevails all exterior work would be finished within three weeks.

When completed the center will provide one of the finest community recreational facilities in the Panhandle. It is being made possible through donations by civic minded residents of Pampa, and much effort has been contributed by members of various city, veterans, and church groups to make the project possible.

Two recent contributions to the Youth Center were made by the Celanese Corp. for $1,500 towards building expense, and $20,000 from Mrs. Inez Carter. The donation from Mrs. Carter is being used for operational expenses.

A furnishing committee has been formed with two Pampa High School student council members two youth directors, and Asst. Principal Weldon Trice.

Pledgers who are finishing up payments to the program are urged to do so by the end of February. Outside work on the 10,000 square foot brick, concrete block and prestressed steel building now is complete except the top wall of cement haydite blocks being placed around the swimming pool.

The heated swimming pool, 30 by 75 feet, with one and three meter diving boards is the focal point of the Youth Center.

All water, electric, and heating units have been installed. The structure, located on the north east corner of a 10 acre lot between Harvester and Kentucky streets, will house a 20 by 60 foot recreation room, girls and boys shower and locker rooms, conference room, craft room, and manager's quarters.

Funny Get-Well Cards
Just Aren't Funny

A friend just out of the hospital has a stack of the sick, sick, sick type of "funny" get-well cards to remember the experience by. He says there ought to be a printed warning on the envelopes of such cards:

"Do not open until after recovery."

He claims there is nothing funny about a broken leg, or an operation, or a serious illness to the person who is smack dab in the middle of it.

Such cards, he says, probably seem hilarious to the writer who thinks them up and a riot to the hale and hearty friends who buy and send them. But they don't seem funny to the one who gets them — not that is until he has recovered his sense of humor along with his health.

He has another suggestion in case the makers of the funny get-well cards don't take to his first idea. In that case, he hopes they will put another line of cards on the market — a type of card to be sent to the sender of the isn't-it-hilarious-that-you're-in-the-hospital type of card.

This return card could be as insulting as a comic valentine and would give the patient a way of getting even with his healthy, funny friends.

If the makers of funny cards accept either suggestion it will probably be the second. It seems to be about the only kind of funny card they haven't thought up, themselves.

Dear Abby... Correspondents Differ ... On Abby's Sex!!!

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have had an argument going on about you for several years. I say you are a man and that picture and pen name you use is all a front. You always seem to take the man's part, and never give us women a break. Come clean. You are a man, aren't you?

JANET
DEAR JANET: Please read the letter below.

DEAR ABBY: Just what have you got against men? I'll bet some guy dumped you over years ago and you've hated men ever since. I'd like to see you side with a man once and admit that some of these problems can be the woman's fault. But of course you never will, because all you dames stick together.

BRUCE
DEAR BRUCE: Please read the letter above.

DEAR ABBY: I have been married only a year and my husband can't keep his eyes off other women. He says he just "likes people" — but they are always female. I have bewitched him out, acted hurt and even tried to make him jealous. Nothing works.

He gets plenty of affection at home and I am considered a good-looking woman myself, so what makes him act like this, and what can I do about it?

DISTURBED
DEAR DISTURBED: His male hormones make him act like this and there is nothing you can do about it. Some men just like to "look" — which is harmless. (It could be a holdover from the days when a man stops appreciating a woman when she stops appreciating a good-looking woman, he will stop

DEAR ABBY: I started going steady with Wayne after knowing him three weeks. He doesn't go to my school so I really don't know him very well. I received a phone call from a girl who said she had gone steady with Wayne for a year and that I broke them up.

I never met this girl but I hear she doesn't have a very good reputation. Wayne says to forget it, as he hardly knows her, but she had had a crush on him for years. Who should I believe? She keeps calling me and I am getting nervous. I am only 17 and have never fought over a boy and don't want to fight over this one. I am inexperienced in such matters. Can you help me?

BOTHERED
DEAR BOTHERED: You shouldn't go steady with a boy you know as slightly as Wayne. If he proves to be trustworthy in other situations, then believe him. Refuse to talk to the girl on the phone. She sounds like a bitter little trouble-maker.

Good Food Will Never Go Out Of Style In United States: Swiss Chef

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor
NEW YORK (UPI) — A famous chef says that good eating is here to stay, even though we cook spend fewer hours in the kitchen than ever before.

Swiss-born Charles P. Finance, a chef since 1925, isn't worried that the increased use of frozen, dehydrated or heat-and-serve foods will eventually end creativity in the kitchen.

"Good eating will never get lost," said Finance in an interview. "This country has the very best in the raw materials; and the food industry has geared to make preparation easier for the housewife. Spinach comes washed and the heavy stems removed. Shrimp, peeled, ready to cook. Is it creative when the housewife has to do this No."

"Granted," he added, "she pays more for the food prepared."

Finance, 51, a native of St. Gall, Switzerland, was the son of a chef and innkeeper. He has cooked in hostels in 15 European countries and was head chef for the Caribe Hilton and Greenbrier hotels until two and one-half years ago when he joined the Sheraton Palace Hotel in San Francisco as executive chef.

Finance headed the four-member team of U.S. chefs who recently took first prize at the "Culinary Olympics" among 11 nations at Frankfurt, Germany.

"We served some 250 guests food pretty typical of America," he said — chicken, rock cornish game hen, roast beef and ham, steam. "I think," he added, "that it was a combination of our skill of preparation plus the quality of those raw materials I spoke of earlier which won the prize."

Finance came to New York this week to supervise the first formal dinner of the California Wine and Food Society.

TIME FOR VIOLENCE

By Noel M. Loomis

THE STORY: Remnants of the Panhandle, where there is no law, intend to bring two cattle thieves to trial. Outlaws are equally determined that the trial will not be held.

XIV

Judge Willis seemed to find it incredible. "Do you mean they will actually try to intimidate the court?"

"Try!" Goodnight roared. He pointed the table. "Judge, they have the gall to intimidate the court if they can. If they can't intimidate the court, they will intimidate the witnesses. And if they cannot intimidate the witnesses—all of whom will be members of the association—they will intimidate the jury."

"That is not possible," said Willis. "No court would allow its jury to be threatened."

Willis began to look worried. "If the situation is as bad as you say, I will not even hold court; it would be a travesty of justice under conditions of implied threat and intimidation."

Charlie, you have convinced me you're not ready for civilized law. You'd better forget it until the percentage of outlaws goes down."

"How is it going to be lowered," Goodnight demanded, "when there is no law?"

"I don't know, Charlie."

"If we had things under control the way you think they should be, we wouldn't need a judge," Goodnight said scornfully. "So go on back to Austin and tell the governor to send us a man with guts!"

Willis seemed unmoved by that outburst, but he studied Goodnight soberly. Finally he said, "All right, Charlie. I'll hold court, but I'm warning you: if this develops into an open gunfight and spectators get killed, it will hurt the Panhandle for a hundred years. Goodnight slapped him on the shoulder with a blow that rocked him in his chair. "You would if I needed you!" he roared. "How about a drink?"

Willis smiled. "You said something, Charlie."

"Mix Lewis, old Ben have any Cedar Valley left?"

Catherine brought the bottle about half full. She set it on the table and gave them tin cups.

Goodnight looked sharply at her. "I was in Myers's when he bought that case. . . He must have hit it pretty hard."

She said nothing.

"Nobody else had any?" Goodnight insisted. Perhaps he was trying to find out how close Ben Lewis had been to Xenophon Jones.

Catherine said hastily, "Mr. Wagner had to have something while I took the bullet out of his arm." Then she bit her lip, and Bart felt sorry for her. She had known better than to tell a thing like that, but the unusual amount of company and the prominence of men like Goodnight and Willis, and the sharp-pointed questions of Goodnight, had upset her.

Bart finished his drink. The eyes of Hector Johnson were on him, suspicious; those of Judge Willis were inquiring. Stella's were excited in their black depths; Catherine's brown eyes were troubled; Goodnight was alert.

"I picked it up near Tascosa," Bart said, "from one of your outlaws. Matter of fact, I saw him in Clarendon two days ago."

Goodnight's eyes narrowed. "Who?"

"Stud Murphy."

"Did you have a shoot-out with him?"

"No. He wanted my horse, but I persuaded him not to take it; then he shot me in the left arm as he got up off the ground."

"Looks all right," said Goodnight. "You swing it good." He turned. "You ready, judge?"

Bart followed them out. Catherine went toward the woodpile near the shed.

Bart stood just outside the door, in the shade, and silently watched Goodnight and Willis mount and ride off across the creek. They raised their hands as they looked back, and Bart waved in return. Then he stood for a moment, finishing his cigarette.

Stella's voice was low but clear, and filled with contempt. "Hector Johnson, I want no more talk from you. You're a ranch foreman, and that's all, and you never will be anything else. I told you six months ago I didn't want you to bother me any more."

There was no answer. Bart guessed that Hector was accepting her verdict. Bart felt sorry for him, because he had recognized in Hector's voice the acid-jealousy of a man inexperienced with women and perhaps almost wholly ignorant of them.

Hector Johnson clumped heavily out the back door and around the side of the house. Bart dropped his cigarette on the hard ground. "You didn't hold your voice down," Hector stalked up to him. "I'm going to give you a licking."

"I don't want to argue," Bart said suddenly, impatient with him. "Nobody could take Stella away from anybody, because she wouldn't be loyal to anybody in the first place."

Hector's eyes blazed. "I ought to gun you for saying that."

"Save your lead for men like Xenophon Jones and Piggie Benson."

Huge Project Set To Aid Unemployed

WASHINGTON (UPI) — John F. Kennedy's special task force mapping aid to economically distressed areas, will recommend to the President-elect a massive program designed to create jobs and ease the hardship of the unemployed.

The plan will call for increased unemployment compensation, doubling of surplus food distribution to the needy, a bill to help depressed areas attract new industry and retrain unemployed workers and eventual establishment of a regional development commission in the East to coordinate aid at the state and community level. Kennedy's 21-man committee, headed Sen. Paul H. Douglas, D-Ill., met for nearly seven hours Tuesday night to study subcommittee reports and draft its recommendations. The task force plans to hand its proposals to Kennedy next Monday.

TELLS OFF GUNMAN

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (UPI) — A woman cashier in a pharmacy Monday told gunman to get out and he got. When the bandit told cashier Caroline Covar to hand over the money in the register, Miss Covar slammed and locked the register drawer and told the gunman to beat it. The intruder pocketed his gun and fled.

Cold Front Traveling Slowly Across Texas

By United Press International
A sluggish cold front pushed slowly across Texas today, but it longer packed the threat of snow and bitter cold.

Instead, much of the state was developed in a chilly drizzle and fog situation intermixed with rain showers.

The long-range forecast called for temperatures to range from 10 to 12 degrees below normal over the north half of the state and 5 to 8 degrees below normal in the southern sections with a warming trend by the New Year's holiday weekend.

Precipitation was expected to be light except moderately heavy in some localities.

The only snow mentioned in the latest forecasts called for intermittent light flurries in Northwest Texas and extreme Southwestern Texas.

Minimum temperatures were to be no lower than 22 degrees in the mountains of far West Texas and 25 in the Panhandle, where a high recorded a low of 21 degrees early today.

The only other freezing readings reported by U.S. Weather Bureau stations this morning included 24 at Amarillo, 29 at Lubbock and at El Paso.

Skies were partly cloudy at daybreak, but cloudy elsewhere. Some scattered coastal sectors.

Drunken Driver Wrecks Cars, Hits Traffic Standard

Two cars collided, one hit a traffic light standard, the lights went out, but nobody was hurt.

It all happened at the intersection of Cuyler and Brown streets shortly after last midnight. Somebody called police and minutes later Patrolmen Charles Matson and Gerold Clark arrested one of the drivers, Carl W. Moore, 33, 1012 E. Foster, on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Police said Moore ran into a car driven by Burley C. Prater, 631 Yeager, who was stopped at the traffic light, and then banged into the light pole.

Moore entered a plea of guilty to driving while intoxicated when arraigned in County Court this forenoon. Judge William J. Craig fined him $100 and costs and sentence him to three days in jail.

There were reports that King Baudouin might cut short his honeymoon in southern Spain with Queen Fabiola to fly back to Brussels if the situation worsened. The royal palace refused to confirm the reports. ## Warriors Cool Off Hot Celts

By United Press International
The Philadelphia Warriors are clinging to the heels of the Boston Celtics in the Eastern Division race because of their unique ability to beat the National Basketball Association champs.

The Warriors downed the Celtics for the third time in five meetings Tuesday night, 116-101, and moved to within one game of the first-place Boston juggernaut. The Warriors are the only NBA team with a season edge over the Celtics and have handed them three of their 10 losses.

Wilt Chamberlain scored 39 points and Paul Arizin scored 34 for the Warriors who out-scored the Celtics in every period for a relatively easy victory. The Warriors "went cold" early in the third period and their lead dwindled to 59-58 after missing 16 shots in a row from the field. But Chamberlain, Arizin and Ed Conlin sparked a burst that produced an 83-71 edge and Boston never came closer than seven points again.

Tom Heinsohn led the Celtics with 30 points and Sam Jones had 20.

Oscar Robertson staged the greatest performance of his rookie pro season when he led the Cincinnati Royals to a 129-124 win over the Syracuse Nationals in Tuesday night's other action. Robertson scored 45 points, including 26 in the first half, and was credited with 13 assists and 12 rebounds.

In Holiday Tourney Lucas Paces Buckeyes By Seion Hall, 97-57

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International

The boys in the Big Town were wondering today—if Jerry Lucas of Ohio State can play THAT well when he's ill, what'll he do when he's feeling better?

They should find out Thursday night when top-ranked Ohio State plays St. John's of New York, the nation's No. 3 team, in the semifinals of the Holiday Basketball Festival at Madison Square Garden.

Ohio State and St. John's were two among seven of the teams in this week's top 10 which won Tuesday night as the holiday tournament season moved into full swing. There was scarcely an upset on the program.

The other winners were Bradley (ranked second), St. Bonaventure (8th), St. Louis (6th), Detroit (8th) and Louisville (9th).

All-America Lucas, complaining of a sore throat and slight fever, scored only 16 points during a 27-minute performance Tuesday night, but it was enough to start Ohio State off to a 97-57 romp against Seton Hall. Utah, ranked 18th, defeated Pennsylvania, 72-60, in the first game of the evening doubleheader.

In the afternoon, St. John's knocked Providence College from the unbeaten ranks, 76-54, and St. Bonaventure whipped St. Joseph's (Pa.), 83-70.

Kansas (ranked 13th) and Iowa State advanced to the semifinals of the Big Eight Tournament at Kansas City. The Jayhawks trounced Nebraska, 78-53 and Iowa State eliminated Missouri, 72-68.

Kansas meets Oklahoma tonight and Kansas State (ranked 12th) plays Iowa State, the tourney defending champion. Oklahoma and K-State advanced Monday night.

Wise, Carter Spark PHS To 65-44 Margin

By ARTHUR MAYHEW
Daily News Sports Editor

Pampa's Harvesters today possess the longest non-conference winning streak of the year among District 3-4A schools and are within one game of playing 500 per cent basketball after skinning Childress' Bobcats, 65-44, at Harvester Gym last night.

The Green and Gold (5-6), winners of four straight and hungry for more, will have a chance to add to that string tomorrow and Friday when Seminole's Indians come to town for a two-game p.w. - wow that will wrap up Pampa's non-district play for the year.

In the preliminary game, Pampa's Shockers ran their record to 8-3 — the last five wins coming in a row — with a resounding 76-36 margin over Childress' 'B.'

For the Harvesters, last night's game perhaps was their best team effort to date as four Pampans hit in double figures, paced by Allen Wise's 16, and followed by Pat Carter, 15, Randy Matson, 14, and Gordon Balch, 12.

Jimmy Hamm, a 6-7 lad, and Travis McCain paced the losers with 14 tallies each.

Pampa wasted little time getting the show on the road as Balch hit a jumper at 6:46 for a 2-0 lead but McCain meshed a free throw to cut the margin to 2-1, the closest Childress was to be the rest of the night. Matson took a good feed from Carter and roared in for a layup and hit a foul shot on the same play and Pampa was off and running with a 5-1 lead.

While Childress could only manage a scant bucket here and there, Bill Neslage scored on two good drives and a free throw. Carter tallied on a jump and a drive, Balch pulled off a rebound and hit for two and Wise scored a layup on a beautiful pass from Matson to give the Harvesters an 18-9 first quarter lead.

Although the Bobcats outscored Pampa in the second period, 14-13, the closest the Childress invaders could come was eight points, 18-10 early in the second quarter and 31-23 at halftime.

Pampa really exploded in the third quarter. Leading 39-31 midway in the quarter, the Harvesters racked up seven quick points in a row as Balch hit a jump, Carter pumped in a jumper and free throw on the same play and Wise meshed another jump to give PHS a tension-easing 46-31 lead which they increased to 51-36 going into the last period.

After Wise plunked in a free throw to up the tally to 52-36, Childress made one final bid to get back into the game as McCain and Hamm scored on jumps to cut the gap to 52-40.

However, Matson grabbed off a rebound — one of the 11 he took during the game — after he missed a free throw attempt and scored. Balch tallied on a nice jumper and — after the Cats James Beal hit a field goal — Carter pumped in a free throw and Wise hit a field goal in between four free tosses to give Pampa a 63-42 lead.

Then, with 2:07 left, Coach Terry Culley sent in a stream of reserves after Carter meshed two charity pitches and the quarter of Jim Crinklaw, Bob Neslage, Mike Stewart, Lloyd Balch and Doug Burreas held Childress to one field goal to close out the evening with a 65-44 victory.

Pampa, despite two 6-7 boys in Childress' lineup, out-rebounded the visitors, 30-23, with Matson (11) and Wise (6) doing the heavy work.

The Harvesters continued to boost their free throw shooting percentage with a highly-respectable 83 per cent total, meshing 19 of 23 while hitting 23 of 54 from the field for 43 per cent, although Pampa hit 11 of 22 field goals in the second half for an excellent 50 per cent shooting mean.

In the Shocker game, Dwight Thompson had 19, Ronnie Chase 18, Bob Neslage 15 and Wayne Kries 13 to spark the junior varsity. The Shockers erupted for 22 points in the second quarter to lead at half, 39-16, then boomed for 20 in the last period while holding Childress' 'B' to a meager seven to win handily.

Williams Swaps Bat For Fish Rod

CHICAGO (UPI) — Ted Williams, who retired from baseball at the end of the 1960 season, has signed a contract to help develop, test and promote outdoor sports equipment for a Chicago mail order house.

The lanky Boston Red Sox outfielder, who built a lifetime batting average of .344, signed a contract for "more than five years" on a salary basis with the Sears Roebuck and Co.

"This job's right down my alley," Williams said. "I've been hunting and fishing all my life."

Williams, 42, said he will help design, field test and promote outdoor and sporting goods and would travel widely in this country and Canada, appearing at sports shows and camps.

Williams said Sears would become the biggest customer of his own company, Ted Williams, Inc., a fishing tackle firm in which golfer Sam Snead holds a part interest.

"Of course I'll miss playing baseball," he said. "I owe more to baseball than anything else."

Williams said he will help as a coach at the Red Sox spring training camp in 1961, but beyond that didn't know what connections he might have with the game.

NFL Works To Finish Annual College Draft

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The National Football League went back to the task of completing its player draft today after a long drawn-out opening day session in which the 14 clubs selected only 9 of the 20 rounds.

It took more than 15 hours to complete the nine rounds on Tuesday — five hours for the first round and four hours for the second — with the tempo increasing only after Commissioner Pete Rozelle ruled that each team complete its upcoming choice in 10 minutes.

A "two-minute warning," an NFL feature just before the end of each half of a game, was sounded when teams lagged under the 10-minute rule.

The delay was caused for a variety of reasons — the most important that the teams were cautious in selecting a player already signed by the rival American Football League and the Canadian League. They thus contacted selectees first. A series of on-the-floor trades by the teams also slowed the proceedings.

One such first round trade, involving Cleveland and Dallas, took more than two hours to complete. When it was settled finally, the Cowboys wound up with the draft rights to All American tackle Bob Lilly of Texas Christian.

Dallas, drafting second, previously had traded its choice to Washington, completing a year-old trade for quarterback Eddie LeBaron. Cleveland, drafting 13th according to final league standings, traded its selection rights to the Cowboys first choice in 1961.

Dallas then selected Lilly and laid the groundwork for a private Texas money war by picking All-American center E. J. Holub of Texas Tech in the second round. Both previously were drafted by the Dallas Texans of the AFL and it now becomes a range war for their services.

Another trade involved New York, Baltimore and San Francisco. The Giants had traded their first round choice to Baltimore which in turn traded it to the 49ers and received Dee Mackey, a San Francisco offensive end as their share of the swap. The 49ers selected Bill Gilmer, UCLA back who led the nation in total offense in 1960.

Still another floor trade saw Washington hand over its second choice rights to the Giants for center Fred Hageman of Kansas whom New York selected last year.

Youths Star In Keg Play

Mike Schale walked off with the lion's share of honors at the recently-concluded third annual Christmas Junior Bowling Tournament at Garden Lanes.

Schale had a 592 scratch series and teamed with Mike Miguire to win the junior doubles crown with a 1,048 total.

Winners of the senior doubles division were Wayne Matney and Jimmy Jamieson with 1,205 pins while Matney had a 600 handicap series.

Bantam champions were Rick Branson and Clifton, 622; James Matney was singles winner with 316. Bantams bowled only two lines as compared to three for the other two age groups.

A total of 84 entered doubles play and 55 competed in the singles.

Enjoyed Best Season In 31 Years

'Bet' Sparked Florida

(The following is the 9th of 10 dispatches on the teams appearing in the major bowl games—the Rose, Cotton, Sugar, Orange, and Gator).

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (UPI) — A mixture of gambling and grit turned the Florida Gators into a game-winning combination this year which earned them their best season in 31 years and a third appearance in the Gator Bowl classic at Jacksonville New Year's Eve.

Ranked as a second division team before the season opened, the surprising Gators roared through a tough 10-game schedule in a way that delighted Florida fans and had new coach Ray Graves beaming with pride.

A Gator Bowl victory, against Baylor of the Southwest Conference, would make the year complete for Graves, wrapping up his first season as a head coach on his 42nd birthday, Dec. 31.

Florida finished its regular season with an 8-2 record, the best since 1929, and a 5-1 mark in the Southeastern Conference — putting the Gators in second place in final SEC standings behind mighty Mississippi.

Although this was Graves' first year on his own, he is no stranger to bowl action. During a 13-year span as assistant to Georgia Tech Coach Bobby Dodd, Graves helped direct several teams which saw post-season duty.

To Florida he brought a wide-open pro-type offense which didn't hesitate to gamble when the situation demanded taking a risk.

This became apparent early in the season when the Gators went for two points — and made them — for an 18-17 upset over Georgia Tech in the final seconds of the game.

Florida also scored upsets against Georgia and Louisiana State, with losses to Auburn and Rice. The Gators' other wins came against George Washington, Florida State, Vanderbilt, Tulane and arch-rival Miami.

The gambling paid off — but Graves said it was the grit which really gave Florida its winning ways.

The players themselves "believe they can win any game they enter," he said recently. How could they lose with that kind of determination, he asked.

Sophomore Larry Libertore, a bantam-sized quarterback at 138 pounds, is an expert ball-handler, good runner and Florida's most consistent threat. But by no means is he the only one.

He shares signal-calling chores with sophomore Bobby Dodd Jr., son of the famed Georgia Tech coach. Young Dodd is an excellent passer.

Don Goodman and Jon MacBeth share the fullback job, and there are a flock of talented halfbacks, including veteran Don Deal and rookies Bob Hoover, Lindy Infante and Dick Skelly.

Cotton Bowl Briefs

SAN ANTONIO (UPI) — Coach Bill Murray and his Duke Blue Devils went to the movies Tuesday night and saw John Wayne's spectacular "The Alamo" as guests of the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce.

During the morning and afternoon, the Duke football team is working out for its Cotton Bowl date with Arkansas in Dallas on Jan. 2.

Two practice sessions were scheduled again today, then one Thursday before the team flies to Dallas for its final tuneup.

Murray worked his club behind closed gates Tuesday and said he was pleased with the practice.

Lil' Abner Haynes Tops First AFL All Star '11'

NEW YORK (UPI) — Abner Haynes, the Dallas Texans' versatile 185-pound halfback, was the outstanding choice today on the first American Football League All-Star team selected by United Press International.

The Houston Oilers, who won the Eastern Division title, placed five players on the 22-man two-division squad selected for UPI by the votes of 24 writers — three from each league city.

The Los Angeles Chargers, whom the Oilers meet in the championship playoff at Houston next Sunday, were represented by four players.

Haynes, who led the AFL in rushing and in punt returns and also ranked among the top 10 players in pass receiving, kickoff returns and scoring, polled 23 of a possible 24 votes.

Ron Mix of the Chargers, a rookie offensive tackle from Southern California, was the second highest vote-getter with 18, while the next most popular choice was Bud McFadin, the Denver Broncos' 290-pound defensive tackle playing his fifth season of pro football. McFadin polled 17 votes and offensive end Lionel Taylor of Denver had 15.

The teams lined up as follows:

Offense: Ends, Taylor and Gro-man; tackles, Mix and Michael; guards, Davis and Bob Michak; New York Titans; center, Walt Cudzik, Boston; quarterback, Jack Kemp, Los Angeles; halfbacks, Defense: Ends, Branch and Laverne Torczon, Buffalo Bills; tackles, McFadin and Sid Youngelman, New York; middle linebacker, Archie Matsos, Buffalo; outside linebackers, McGuire and Mike Dukes, Houston; halfbacks, Eddie Macon, Oakland Raiders, and Julian Spence, Houston; Safeties, John Bookman, Dallas, and Fred Bruney, Boston.

Duke Goes To Show; Hogs Stay In Houston

"The boys are getting their timing back after the holiday lay-off," the coach said.

Duke has two teams of about equal strength. Running on the first unit were quarterback Don Altman, halfbacks Dean Wright and Jack Wilson, and fullback Jerry McGee. On the second unit were quarterback Walter Rappold, halfbacks Bob Guarda and Mark Leggett, and fullback Don Pinnell.

Cogdill Named NFL 'Rookie'

NEW YORK (UPI) — Gail Cogdill, a 6-foot-2, 190-pound offensive end who caught 43 passes for the Detroit Lions, today was named the 1960 National Football League Rookie-of-the-year by United Press International.

The 23-year-old former Washington State star, who possesses all the qualities for becoming a star end in the NFL received 17 votes in a poll of 39 writers — three from each city — who covered league games.

Halfback Tom Moore of the Green Bay Packers, and fullback Ted Dean and linebacker Maxie Baughan, key operatives in the Philadelphia Eagles' march to the Eastern Division title, each received four votes.

TCU Coliseum Plans Okayed

FORT WORTH (SpI) — Final plans for the new coliseum on the campus of Texas Christian University have been approved and bids for its construction will be opened in about 30 days, Chancellor M. E. Sadler has announced.

Work on the long-awaited building, to be used for basketball, commencement exercises and other large functions, will start immediately afterwards. It is hoped it will be ready for a part of the 1961-1962 basketball season.

The total cost will be around $1,600,000. The plans call for a total seating capacity of some 9,500 and a normal capacity of 7,500 for basketball.

It will be fully air-conditioned. Ample parking will be available on nearby lots of the football stadium.

As finally approved, the new building will be located on the TCU-Amon Carter Stadium grounds directly south of the east stands. It will face northeast, fronting on the access road from Stadium Drive which will be extended south through the "long" parking lot along the drive.

The location will necessitate a complete revision of the university's athletic facilities in the vicinity. The track will be moved westward to the site of the present baseball diamond which will be relocated in the southwest corner of the stadium grounds.

New York Drops Birth Certificate Racial Reference

NEW YORK (UPI)—Birth certificates issued to babies born here starting in 1961 no longer will contain reference to race or color.

New York will be the first community in the nation to eliminate racial information from birth documents, according to health commissioner Leona Baumgartner, who announced the change Monday.

The action resulted from protests by minority groups, including the National Association of Colored People and the Urban League. They held that such information tended to promote discrimination.

Publisher Dies

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (UPI)—Tracy S. McCracken, a hustling newspaperman who built a publishing empire and dominated the Democratic party in Wyoming for two decades, died Monday night—less than a month after he turned down an appointment to the U.S. Senate because he loved his state and his profession. He was 66.

The handsome, gruff-voiced McCracken was the victim of an intestinal attack that struck Christmas Day.

New Year's Roads Toll Set At 340

CHICAGO (UPI) — The National Safety Council has estimated that traffic accidents over the New Year's holiday would kill 340 persons and injure another 14,000.

But the council said the toll "can be far lower if drivers and pedestrians exercise extra caution and common sense on the streets and highways."

The council said virtually every one of the nation's 74 million motor vehicles will be on the road sometime during the three-day holiday and will travel about 3.5 million miles.

The traffic toll for a nonholiday three-day period this time of year would be 310 deaths, the council said. The record toll for a three-day New Year's holiday is 374 deaths set last year.

Howard Pyle, president of the Safety Council, said speed and drink are the main factors in New Year's holiday deaths.

Boat in for Dinner DENISON, Tex. (UPI) — Drive-in food service will soon take on a new dimension at Lake Texoma State Park. A million-dollar marina under construction at the lake includes plans for a dining room with hostesses to provide boat-side service from "grill to gunwale."

Financial Review

NEW YORK (UPI) — The New York Stock Exchange today released the second part of its tenth public transaction study which documents the key role of institutional investors in the stock market.

This special five-day analysis in institutional transactions from Sept. 26-30 revealed that institutions held approximately $50 billion worth of listed stocks, representing about 17 per cent of the value of the entire exchange list.

Institutions and intermediaries accounted for about 24 per cent of total volume in that period. In actual share volume this is double the number of shares they bought and sold when the exchange made its first such study in 1952, and when volume in general was lower.

Commercial banks and trust companies were responsible for a far larger proportion of institutional volume—40.1 per cent—than any other single group. This compares with the previous high of 38.8 per cent in June, 1959, and 33.4 per cent in the special 1955 report.

Mutual funds were next in importance, accounting for a new high of 17.5 per cent of the institutional volume—more than double the June, 1955 percentage, and compared with the previous high of 16 per cent eight years ago.
