U. S. Election System Likely To Be Analyzed

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Congress appears likely to take a fresh look at the electoral college system for electing presidents in view of the close race between Sen. John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The narrow margin of Kennedy's victory dramatized the "winner take all" aspect of the system whereby the winning candidate gets all of a state's electoral votes no matter how small his majority of the popular vote.

Sens. Mike A. Mansfield, D-Mont., slated to succeed Vice and George A. Smathers, D-Fla., both said they would push for the abolishment of the electoral col-

HAMMOND ORGAN

Owning and playing a Hammond Organ is an experience your whole family can enjoy together. It becomes the center of family entertainment. All can play it, too, (even the youngest) because the organ is the easiest of all keyboard instruments to play. Your family grows closer as they entertain each other, grow in skill together, enjoy together.

Hammond Home Model. Available n walnut and provincial finishes.

BUT THIS ISN'T THE WHOLE STORY... A HAMMOND ORGAN HAS:

Harmonic Drawbars -- Lets you obtain tones exactly the way you like them. Thousands of tones are at your fingertips: basic instrumental effects, flutes, strings, brasses and woodwinds.

Selective Vibrato - Adds flavorful richness and depth to music played on either manual or both.

"Touch Response" Percussion - Gives you dazzling effects like the harp, chimes, bells and marimba. Reverberation Control - Creates a beautiful three-dimensional flow of music around you.

No Tuning Expense"- Hammond is the only organ that never gets out of tune.

DANIEL KATSANIS, MINISTER JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES

What is Your future? What is my future? What, with the world hatred and bias, is the future of this world? Even world leaders wonder what may set off the powder keg we live in.

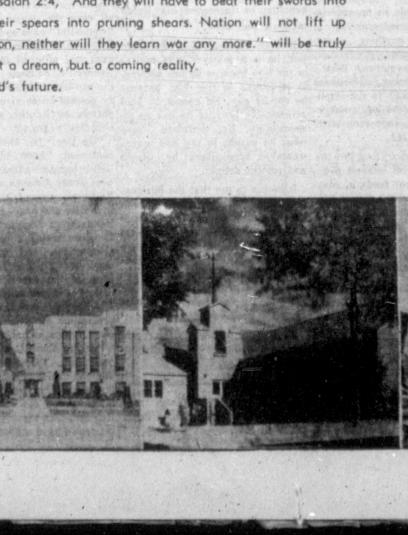

Surely, we do exist and our existance was accomplished by God's power. If HE does have that ability to create man of which we are living proof, HE would also have the ability and power to care for us and inform us of HIS purposes regarding us.

When Jesus was here, close to two thousand years ago, and taught his apostles and subsequently us the Model, Lord's or Our Father Prayer—in which we ask, "Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as in heaven"—what did he mean by "thy kingdom? but God's kingdom. What did he mean by "thy will be done on earth"? but God's will. And how was God's will to be done on earth? Yes, as is was in heaven. Would we expect to see our present worries of war, sickness, finances, etc., in heaven? No!

This agrees with God's purpose for man when he first placed him upon the earth as found in Gen. 1:28. How can we bring these conditions to the earth? That's the part we often forget. WE cannot do this. Only one, Jehovah God, can and will shortly, as prophesied in Daniel 2:44 "And in the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be brought to ruin, . . . It will crush and put an end to all these kingdoms."

What are the causes of the world's hatred and bias? Nothing but the national, racial and political differences. In a government ruled by Jesus (Isaiah 9:6, 7) and without national boundaries (Psalm 72:8) promises like the one found at Isaiah 2:4, "And they will have to beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning shears. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, neither will they learn war any more." will be truly realized, and is not a dream, but a coming reality.

This is the world's future.

Looking Sideways

NEW YORK - It is never too easy to look down one's nose at the business habits of a man earning $75,000 a year by his own hard work and brains. But I visited with such a man the other day, on an errand as aimless as dropping in to say hello to him because one day in the street he asked me to drop in and say hello the next time I passed his building. He didn't want anything from me and I didn't want anything from him, which worked

While we sat there talking he asked if he might take a moment to dictate a short, imperative note to a manufacturer in Minneapolis because it was his turn to write.

"What do you mean it is your turn?" I said. "It's got to a rather complex plateau," he said, using the kind of words that infest Madison Avenue like the virus of the common cold "This man wrote me once that he was coming to New York soon, no date specified, and said he'd like to drop in and see me. I wrote back and said that would be fine, any time. My pleasure. He then wrote and said he'd be here on June 15 and I wrote back and said I was terribly sorry but I was going to be in Hawaii on June 15 but would be back by June 21. He wrote and said that he'd take a few extra days on his own time and wait for me to return. I didn't get back, could not get back, until June 26, and of course he'd gone home by then, so I wrote to say how regretful I was and he wrote back to say that was all right, and he'd be in New York on July 17, anyway. Well, on July 17 I was in Omaha and when I got back there was a note from him saying he was sorry I'd had to be out of town but he was leaving this note at my office. Now, naturally, I had to answer that, Only courtesy. So I wrote and said I'd read his note and it was kind of him to take the trouble and how sorry I was I'd been in Omaha and when was he coming

"He answered, of course?" "Naturally, My letter asked him a question. He had to answer it. He answered by saying he would be in New York again on Aug. 30, and how was that? So I answered and said that was just great, bully, looked forward to seeing him. He wrote back to thank me for my reply. I answered that by writing that it was my pleasure. But on August 30 I was in Los Angeles, had to be. sudden thing came up, so I wrote him that from the plane, mailed it from L.A. and when I got back there was another note he'd left here at the office saying how he regretted our not meeting. It happened three times again is September and several times this month I'm now writing to tell him I'll definitely be here the week-end before election and certainly through Wednesday, the day after. He'll write and tell me that it is convenient for him, or

The Doctor Says:

DR. HAROLD T. HYMAN

In 1935, Dr. Domagk came across sulfanilamide in the course of a search for an anilin dye that had a stronger action on skin bacteria than the gentian violet he and other doctors had used for many years to paint boils and related infections. Ou: of Domagk's rediscovery of the forgotten dye, the whole ment was born. But that's only the beginning of the story. With recognition of the lifesaving properties of the violet dye, chemists all over the world began making (synthesizing) other sulfa preparations. Among these sulfas was one calied tolbutamide.

That brings us up to 1959 when a pair of Canadian physicians, Drs. J. L. and A. D. Cohen, found a high concentration of sugar (Glucose) in the tissues of patients with severe acne. Since these patients had normal levels of blood & sugar, the Cohens suggested that acne might be a manifestation of a "skin diabetes."

They cautiously administered tolbutamide to some of their patients with severe acne who had failed to respond to conventional methods of treatment, And they noted gratifying results Dr. Glen Thomas Sawyer of
