

4 States, U.S. Capital Vote Today

By United Press International

Voters in four states and the nation's capital ballot today in a series of primaries highlighted by a presidential popularity contest in Indiana between Sen. John F. Kennedy and Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The presidential races are the main contests in Indiana, Ohio and the District of Columbia.

Alabama chooses between Democratic electors pledged to support the party's presidential and vice presidential nominees, and states rights electors who have promised to vote only for candidates they consider sympathetic to the South.

In Florida, voters will indicate their choices for governor, two members of the U.S. House of Representatives, six state officers and a flock of local officials.

Kennedy seeking 34 Democratic convention delegate votes, and Nixon, after 22 GOP votes, had only taken opposition in their separate party races in Indiana. The big question was who would draw the most votes. Delegates were pledged to support the winners on the first ballot at the conventions.

Kennedy predicted he would roll up the highest total. Nixon said he would consider he did well if he polled half the votes. He conceded he might receive as few as 42 per cent.

The Democratic and Republican state chairmen each predicted the opposition candidate would win. Most political observers felt Kennedy would come out ahead because local contests would bring more Democrats to the polls. In Ohio, Kennedy was assured of the state's 63 Democratic convention votes. Voters will choose between rival delegates states headed by Gov. Michael V. DeSalle and Cuyahoga County Democratic Chairman Ray T. Miller Sr. Both states were pledged to Kennedy.

Nixon had no major opposition for the 36 Ohio GOP convention votes.

Ohio voters also will pick nominees for 23 seats in the U.S. House of Representatives, three places on the state Supreme Court, state auditor and a number of local jobs.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (Minn.) and Wayne Morse (Ore.) waged a spirited campaign for the District of Columbia's nine Democratic convention votes. A state pledged to Adlai E. Stevenson also was on the ballot but he has asked citizens not to vote for him.

Republican voters will choose eight convention delegates. Nixon was not on the ballot.

The Alabama loyalist vs. states rights electors contest will provide a test of Southern sentiment for bolting the Democratic Party should the presidential nominee be someone Dixie considers unacceptable.

Alabama also will select nominees for one Senate and nine House seats. The Democratic nomination normally is tantamount to election.

Sen. John Sparkman was expected to be re-nominated for a fourth term over two rivals. Two House members were opposed for re-nomination. Seven others were unopposed.

'Give And Take' Bills Sought By Ike In Appeal To Congress

Cox Friends Hit By Daniel

United Press International

Texas politics picked up steam today as candidates headed into the home stretch hurling charges and counter charges at each other with only five days left before the state Democratic primary election.

Gov. Pries Daniel accused Jack Cox of being used by "a few gas pipeline lobbyists" who are angry with Daniel's administration because it passed a pipeline tax in the last session of the Legislature.

Cox said Daniel was a professional politician and told a Dallas audience that Texas must get rid of Daniel in Saturday's election or be prepared to "put up with him" indefinitely.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said if his opponent, House Speaker Waggoner Carr, is elected he will "open up Galveston again" and allow gambling to flourish.

Jerry Sadler, candidate for land commissioner, said in Austin he has received five threats of death if he doesn't quit what he termed investigations of land scandals. Sadler said, however, that he has not reported the threats to authorities and refused to name the persons who threatened him.

Daniel was scheduled to speak before the state convention of Knights of Columbus in Austin today. Cox planned to tour the San Antonio area. Carr stumped in Fort Worth and Wilson was scheduled to campaign in Houston, Tyler and Texarkana.

Daniel spoke Monday night to the 63rd annual convention of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs in Austin and said the process of good government in Texas is directly related to the increasing participation by women in politics.

In a statewide television appeal, Daniel pictured Cox as a candidate in a "highly financed campaign of vengeance which is being passed on to the people."

Foreign Aid Program Due Reductions

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower says that major cuts in his $4,175,000,000 foreign aid program would deal a "crushing defeat" to the free world and lead to grave new international tensions.

But Eisenhower's appeal Monday night for his aid program failed to stem strong opposition among some members of Congress demanding reductions of up to 40 per cent.

Chairman Otto Passman (D-La.) of a House Appropriations subcommittee handling aid funds predicted the House would slash $1,500,000,000 in the cash asked for the year starting July 1. Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) forecast a cut of 300 million to 400 million dollars.

The President's speech came shortly after the Senate passed a $4,125,000,000 foreign aid authorization bill. But the measure would only place a limit on spending and would not provide the actual money, which must be appropriated in subsequent legislation.

The Senate approved bill now goes to a Senate-House conference committee where a compromise will be worked out with a House-passed bill authorizing a 40 per cent cut.

Nation's Leaders To Secret Hideaways

Civil Defense Practice Alert

WASHINGTON (UPI) — All radio and TV programs will go off the air and key government officials will leave the capital for secret hideaways today in a nationwide test of civil defense preparations.

Warning signals opening "Operation Alert 1960" will sound at 2 p.m. e.d.t. Federal officials left it up to each city to determine how they would participate in the test. The exercise continues until 4 p.m. e.d.t. Thursday.

At least one protest was planned on grounds that civil defense is "futile and misleading" and the only real defense in the nuclear age is peace.

All regular radio and television programs will go off the air from 2 to 2:30 p.m. e.d.t. as part of the seventh annual test. The airwaves will be taken over by Conelrad, the radio system over

York City.

When the three-minute takeover siren sounds at 2:35 p.m. e.d.t., plans called for persons to clear the streets in the nation's largest city, thousands of office workers to seek shelter in their buildings and passengers to leave their buses for cover.

A group called the "civil defense analysis committee" planned a sitdown strike in New York's City Hall Park. The group said mothers, children and others would not move to shelter unless ordered by police.

Some protesters promised not to move even under police order. They said they would subject themselves to arrest and a penalty of up to a year in prison and a $500 fine under the state Emergency Defense Act.

In Washington, many federal agencies arranged to send teams of key officials to "emergency hideaways" outside the capital. The men would operate from these centers, up to 200 miles from Washington, in case of an enemy attack.

Chessman Just Missed His Ninth Reprieve

SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (UPI) — Caryl Chessman, who ended his 12-year battle for life with a spade and a wink Monday in the gas chamber at San Quentin Prison, will be cremated today without ceremony just 24 hours after his execution.

The 38-year-old red light bandit died without knowing that he missed his ninth reprieve from death by seconds.

Except for a late appeal and a misdialed telephone the life of Chessman might have been spared again, at least for an hour.

But hydrocyanic gas doesn't wait for error. It goes to work immediately — as it did on the man "who never killed anyone," but was convicted on 17 counts of kidnap, robbery and forced sex perversion against two women.

Federal Judge Louis E. Goodman in San Francisco was trying to reach San Quentin to grant a one-hour stay when the cyanide pellets splashed into a vat of sulphuric acid.

Attorneys George T. Davis and Rosalie Asher reached Goodman just moments before the scheduled execution at 10 a.m. p.d.t. (1 p.m. e.d.t.).

Miss Celeste Hickey, Goodman's secretary, got the number of the prison from the judge's law clerk. She copied it wrong, getting only four digits instead of five.

At 10:01 a.m. she dialed the wrong number. She then got the correct one and reached San Quentin at 10:03 a.m.—the minute the pellets dropped.

Goodman said the call was "just too late," but he indicated that Chessman would have been getting only an extra hour of life because there was "no merit" in the last-second plea.

Notes Short Time Remaining To Act

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower today called upon Congress to avoid "electioneering" and give swift approval to his foreign aid program, new farm legislation, gas tax and postal increases and other priority matters.

The chief executive said in a special message that amounted to mid-session State of the Union report that the administration's new proposal on health care for the aged will be sent to Congress this week.

He urged Congress to exercise restraint and prudence in examining programs designed to provide benefits for large groups of Americans or sections of the country.

"Noting that there are only about two months left in this session of Congress," the President said:

"We should jointly resolve that the shortness of time and political rivalries will not be allowed to prevent us from serving the American people effectively.

"Matters are still pending that are vital to the health of our economy and to the nation's security and world peace; none of us can afford to electioneer at the expense of these."

In his two-paragraph remarks on health care, the President said the administration program will take advantage of and support progress made by private plans and "enable older people truly in need of help to meet the calamity of catastrophic illness."

He said it would recognize traditional federal-state relations in such benefit programs and be far superior to what he termed "compulsory schemes which over a period of years would blight America's unexcelled medical standards."

The President has vigorously opposed Democratic proposals for compulsory medical insurance as (See IKE, Page 7)

Pulitzer Winners Announced Today

NEW YORK (UPI) — Fourteen winners of Pulitzer prizes for 1960 were announced Monday in the fields of journalism, music and letters.

Andrew Lopez, 50, veteran photographer of United Press International, won the news photography prize for a series of pictures on the Cuban revolt.

Lopez's photographs showed Cuban Army Cpl. Jose Rodriguez receiving the last rites from a priest at Matanzas, Cuba, on Jan. 17, 1959, after being sentenced to death by a Fidel Castro tribunal for war crimes.

Immediately after Lopez's series of four pictures was taken, Rodriguez was placed against a wall in the courtyard of San Severino Castle, but received a 24-hour reprieve before the firing squad shot him. He was executed on Jan. 18.

The Broadway musical, "Floriola," based on the life of the late New York Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia, won the drama prize. It was the third time in the history of the Pulitzer prizes that a musical won. "Of Thee I Sing" in 1932; and "South Pacific" in 1959, were the previous named musicals.

The fiction award was won by Allen Drury for his best-selling novel, "Advise and Consent." The honors in music went to Elliott Carter for his second string quartet.

Other awards in journalism included: National Affairs—Vance Trimble, of the Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance, for a series of articles exposing nepotism in Congress.

Public service—The Los Angeles Times for a series by Gene Sherman on narcotics traffic between the United States and Mexico.

International reporting — A. M. Rosenthal of the New York Times for "perceptive and authoritative" reporting from Poland.

Local reporting under pressure of a deadline—Jack Nelson of the Atlanta Constitution for a series on mental institutions in Georgia.

Local reporting not under pressure — Miriam Ottenberg of the Washington Evening Star for a series exposing a used car racket in Washington, D. C.

Editorial writing—Lenora Chambers, editor of the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot, for his editorials on Virginia school integration.

If it comes from a hardware store we have it. Lewis Hildebrand.

STRONG MAN—What happens when this man goes out to lunch? The construction worker isn't really holding up the huge column by himself. It's fastened at the top. He's working on a new Armco steel-refining mill in Butler County, Pa.

Shout At Premier Angry Students Demand Ouster

ISTANBUL, Turkey (UPI) — An estimated 2,000 students staged a new demonstration against Premier Adnan Menderes' government today by marching down Istanbul's main street singing the national anthem and shouting "murder Menderes."

The students moved along Istiklal Street while the 15 NATO foreign ministers met in a building several blocks away discussing pre-summit strategy for the West.

The new demonstration began when the students missed on the opposite side of the city from the NATO conference site. Shouting "liberty" and "murderer Menderes," they began their march toward the center of the city.

But the demonstrators dispersed peacefully at the request of army officers.

Armed troops backed by tanks sealed off streets leading to the place where the NATO conference was in session to head off any move by the demonstrators to converge there again and bring about a re-election of Monday's Turkish air force planes circled overhead to keep an eye on the demonstrators.

The students shouted repeated cries of "liberty" and yelled "viva NATO" to show support for the Western alliance.

Couple Survives Jungle Dangers

BOGOTA, Colombia (UPI) — An American couple, half-starved and sitting after being lost for 32 days in the jungles of south-eastern Colombia, were near rescue today.

Mark and Mary Sue Castrell of St. Louis, already had received aidrops of food and medical supplies. A rescue party was on the way to their makeshift camp from the village of the party with which the Castrells entered the jungles, reached Puerto Rico with 6 of the 19 Colombian guides and bearers making up the original party.

Yates said the party, which was surveying possible routes for roads in the trackless wilds of southeastern Colombia, lost its way five days after leaving the town of Gigante.

ABC Officials Called

Probers Want To Check Clark Story

WASHINGTON (UPI) — House investigators called on ABC network officials today to answer charges they allowed disc jockey Dick Clark to sign an "easy" affidavit swearing he never took payola.

Leonard P. Goldenson, president of ABC's parent firm of American Broadcasting-Paramount Theaters Inc., was stated to be questioned about whether ABC had a "double standard" when it came to payola.

This charge was made by Alan Freed, a former disc jockey for ABC's WABC radio station in New York, in closed-door testimony. Part of his testimony was made public Monday by the subcommittee investigating payola.

Freed complained that ABC fired him when he said he could not sign an affidavit which he felt contained a too-broad definition of payola. But he contended Clark was allowed to sign an affidavit with a strict definition of payola which narrowed the practice almost to outright bribery.

Freed said that if ABC had given him the same affidavit as Clark signed, he could have signed it and remained "clean as snow."

Goldenson also was expected to be questioned about Clark's admission that American Airlines paid him $7,000 for plugs on his show. Clark said this was a common TV practice and he had cleared it with ABC officials in advance.

In addition to Goldenson the subcommittee planned to call Ben Hoberman, former manager of WABC. Chairman Gren Harris (D-Ark.) said he hoped to complete the subcommittee's public hearings today.

Stations Silent

Pampa's two radio stations went off the air today at 12 noon and resumed regular broadcasting at 12:30 during the nationwide CONELRAD defense test.

Purpose of the civil defense alert was to familiarize the public with procedures to be used in the event of a nuclear attack. In the event of an enemy attack, all radio and television stations — with the exception of radios on the 640 and 1240 dial band — would go off the air.

which instructions would be broadcast in a national emergency.

President Eisenhower, Defense Secretary Thomas S. Gates Jr. and Civil and Defense Mobilization Director Leo A. Hoegh arranged to make recorded speeches over the special Conelrad frequencies, 640 and 1240 kilocycles.

One of the most elaborate local tests was planned in New

Severe Storm Front Due Here

A severe weather warning was issued at noon today by the Amarillo Weather Bureau telling of approaching heavy thunderstorms in the Texas and Oklahoma Panhandles.

The storm line, which will arrive at 3 p.m. and last until 9 p.m., was described as an eastward moving front with boundary lines 20 miles south of Pampa and a northern point near Enid, Okla.

Walter Rogers Reports

Class Visits To Capital Remind Rogers Of Home

Commencement
In only a few weeks over 3,000 young Americans will graduate from High Schools in the 18th Congressional District. Some of them will begin careers immediately while others continue their education at colleges and universities all over the nation. But whatever their future plans and ambitions, the day when these young men and women are handed their diplomas is a proud one not only for the students themselves, but for the parents and teachers who have done so much to ensure that an education means understanding as well as knowledge.

Here in Washington, I am always reminded of our High School graduations as thousands of students from across the United States arrive for class visits. As they walk through the Capitol building and see the Congress in session, it will be only a few months until they begin to accept the responsibility for furthering the heritage which was in considerable part forged in that very building.

I trust that none of them ever ignores the fact that this heritage, which has made America so strong and free, is not something which was laid almost 200 years ago and that significant advances have been made since. Nevertheless, the opportunities and even the necessities for building the American ideal are just as demanding in 1960 as they were in 1776.

After receiving their High School diplomas, our young people will confront a world which demands the utmost in precise thinking and resolute action. While our forefathers began a nation with the powderhorn, plow and axe, people of today and tomorrow will continue the process with tools a thousand times more complex. This complexity should not frighten these young people, for within it lies the potential for great good. They should be aware that the potential for great harm is also there, and that their efforts can be directed against that harm.

In addition to this, I hope that the prospective graduates will remember that democracy is the most difficult of all possible forms of government. There is a trend in our nation to leisure and comfort, and it makes us all happy that more and more are respecting the benefits of our phenomenal advances. But the processes of our government can never become as simple and as carefree as many other facets of life. The leadership in the United States cannot summarily carry out this or that measure without taking into account the interests of millions.

This usually requires time, and even the revolution which has occurred in our communications system has not overcome the lengthy consideration which must be applied to most of our decisions. Many of us become impatient with the delays which surround much governmental action. A smoother-running and more responsive government depends to a great extent upon a well-informed people, and I think the students who are about to graduate from High Schools all over the Panhandle will play a major role in this regard. With twelve years of a fine education behind them, these youngsters are well prepared to grapple with the far-reaching and often confusing problems of an adult democratic society and sound government.

The graduation exercises will mean a fine reward to those who have worked and studied for what to them seems so long a time. To me, however, commencement always symbolizes the constant striving of people for a better understanding of our world—a striving which is the hallmark of a democratic government.

Visitors
Several distinguished visitors from the Panhandle were Washington visitors last week and we appreciated seeing them.

Mrs. Henry Ford from Matador was visiting friends in the area and came by the office, as did Clay Cooper of Canyon and Russell Porter from Dalhart, who were in town on business.

The annual National 4-H Club Conference was held in the Nation's Capitol last week for which the State of Texas sent four delegates. To be selected is a great honor and we were mighty proud of the fact that two of the four were from the 18th Congressional District. Miss Judy Dawson of Tulia and Pete Plank from Dawn were wonderful emissaries of the Panhandle and for Texas, and we certainly appreciated them and their outstanding records.

N. F. Renner of Spearman, Mrs. Doris Vaughn and George W. Jones from Amarillo, Emory Elkins from Tulia, Horace Smith from Miami, and Frank Weill of Hale Center were here attending the National Federation of Grain Cooperatives and thoughtfully dropped by the office for a visit.

R. B. Norman, principal of Amarillo High School came by the office and we appreciated seeing and visiting with him.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Hon. Timothy Tugbuton came banging into the office today loudly proclaiming that it was his intention to hurry up to Capitol Hill and to tell the U. S. Supreme Court what-for.

"Those justices!" the Hon. Tugbuton exclaimed.

"What those justices need," he continued, "is a real good doping of common sense.

"Lawyers!" the old man snapped. "Lawyers never was any good and justices is worse. Much worse. I'll get that young woman from Philadelphia, that's what I'll do, and we'll take a taxicab auto up there to that Supreme Court chamber and we'll tell 'em off."

"Just send up a reporter with us, bub, (this to news editor Julius Frandsen) and you'll get a story."

Banging his walking stick on the news desk as is his habit, Tugbuton declaimed his indictment of the U. S. Supreme Court.

"Technicalities!" he shouted. "That's what they make of the law. Technicalities! Now you take this fellow Andrew Mallory..."

The old man was off on a typical Tugbuton tirade. He related that he just had read about a 25-year-old Washingtonian named Andrew Mallory who last previously had been in the news along about 1957. On that occasion the Supreme Court set aside a death sentence, imposed upon Mallory on his conviction on charges of rape.

The Supreme Court's decision was based on a technicality—that too much time (7 1/2 hours) had elapsed between Mallory's arrest and his arraignment before a judge. The decision was not based on any assumption that Mallory was innocent nor that his confession (the confessed prior to his arraignment) had been extorted by third degree methods. A convicted and unquestionably guilty rapist was released free and clear on a technicality, nothing more.

"Oh, yes," Tugbuton continued, "Mallory had his rights but what about the rights of the public to be protected against such persons as Mallory?"

"What about the public's rights? That's what I'd like to know. What about the rights of that young woman in Philadelphia?"

Tugbuton was brandishing a newspaper clipping by now. It related that Mallory now is under arrest in Philadelphia on charges of rape. He is charged with raping a 21-year-old mother who surprised him in the act of burglary in the second floor of her home.

"Those Philadelphia cops are all right," Tugbuton conceded. "They got this Mallory right away, this fellow whose rights were so important that the Supreme Court had to turn him loose after one rape so that he could be charged with another.

"Charged with another? Glory be! Look what this Mallory is charged with this time: Rape, burglary, indecent assault, assault with intent to ravish and aggravated assault and battery.

"Him and his rights! I'll tell you what I plan to do. (The old man's stick went bang-bang-bang on the news desk.) I plan to get one of those tee-vee networks to give me some time. I'm gonna get that young Philadelphia woman and those justices in a studio somewhere and I'm gonna ask 'em to explain to me, to the young woman and to the people of the United States and Andrew Mallory and his all-fired rights. Those justices will have a hard time with that young woman."

Telegraphing a Punch:

East German Communists are "leaking" reports that West Berlin will face trouble after the summit meeting, no matter what decisions are reached by President Eisenhower, Prime Minister Macmillan, President de Gaulle and Premier Khrushchev. All of West Berlin's supply routes lie through or over East German territory, and the Communists now are promising a "very hard" life.

South African Segregation:

The South African race issue will be one of the most controversial questions before the Commonwealth Prime Ministers' conference in London this week—but only behind the scenes. Britain, Canada, Australia and New Zealand will veto any attempt to make it a formal subject of discussion. However, they will be unable to prevent private discussions among others who feel strongly on the subject, such as Malaya, Ghana, Pakistan and India. Some of the latter would like to see South Africa ousted from the Commonwealth. However, there is no such machinery for such action.

American Symbol:

At the peak of anti-government rioting in Korea last week, a wreath and banner appeared on the statue of Gen. Douglas MacArthur which stands in front of what was the government anti-Communist center. Student rioters burned the center but the statue was undamaged. Who placed the wreath and banner on the statue is not known, but it was taken as proof that the rioters were not anti-American.

DEAR ABBY

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am tired of hearing mothers complain about how "commercialized" Mother's Day has become.

LIKES PRESENTS DEAR LIKES: When a mother says she doesn't "NEED" a gift, she does not mean to be "ungracious".

DEAR ABBY: I am ten and I can't figure this out. How come there is a Mother's Day and everybody buys gifts and makes a big fuss over mothers and the same thing happens to fathers on Father's Day?

WONDERING DEAR WONDERING: Children's Day is the longest celebration of the year. It begins January 1st and ends December 31st.

SHORE, N. Y. (UPI) — A fire that gutted the 16-room home of a prominent Long Island family while he was away at a Catholic retreat claimed its victim early Monday — his year-old son.

Killed in the blaze early Monday were Emmet, 11, and his wife, two others of his children and a house guest. On and a second house were injured, neither critically.

Emmet McNamara, 7, youngest of four McNamara sons, died at Southside Hospital of that covered most of his body.

Paul, 11, was reported in good condition with burns. McNamara's eldest daughter, Anne, 20, led her five-year-old sisters to safety before engulfed the 2½-story house.

About 200 firemen fought the fire but it raged out of control for more than two hours.

Other victims were identified as McNamara's wife, Mary, 38, sons Emmet Jr., 18, and Ed, 15, and Miss Clyde, 12, 21, of Keyport, N. J. McNamara, a former FBI agent and former special assistant to U.S. attorney general, fled to his burned-out home from the retreat at Sagaponk, N. Y. He was placed in a hospital.

Wall Street
In Review

NEW YORK (UPI) — The value of the stock market next year is expected to rise with output of perhaps $5,000,000,000.

Investment Service said although a repetition of the 1958 setback is not expected, the stimulus of inventory build-up will be absent.

A few all-new or extensively redesigned models in the works, and the impetus to buy will be led if an economic recession countered next year, a lively market.

In the years ahead, the survey indicates, the industry is likely to have greater stability but less production averaging 7,500,000 units in the mid-1950s.

Looking for financial independence, believes that Federal Paper Co. is an attractive addition to a conservative investment account. The stock is down about 30 percent from its 1959 highs and is currently available at a "realistic" 10 times earnings. The purchaser should be amply rewarded, the report says.

Windsor & Co. recommends the case of Potomac Electric Power Co. for liberal income and the prospect of appreciation over the long term. Revenues increased year 15 per cent over 1958 earnings up to $1.79 a share $1.57 despite an increase of 10 per cent in the number of shares outstanding. The dividend raised to 33 cents from 30 in the last quarter of 1959.

Young Mother Held In Post Office Robbery

FORT WORTH (UPI) — Mrs. Elaine Mansfield, a 28-year-old mother, has been charged with the armed robbery of a post office at Newark in Wise County staged on April 25.

She was arraigned Monday before U.S. Commissioner R. C. Van Ordon on a complaint filed by Postal Inspector L. H. Powell. The complaint also named her husband, Robert Richard Mansfield, 36, who is being sought.

Bandits took $305 in cash, 10 money order blanks, and a $100 validating stamp for the money order blanks in the daylight robbery.

Mrs. Mansfield was arrested Monday at the bus station, where she had bought a ticket for Houston. When arrested, she was carrying her two-month-old daughter in her arms.

Detectives said a porter at the bus station said her husband had left the station 15 minutes earlier.

waged against me by a few gas pipeline lobbyists because of my fight to make their companies pay a fair share of the tax burden in this state."

He said lobbyists know that he is "not going to stand by and let them saddle all the tax burden on Texas people and Texas industries."

Cox said that if Daniel is elected to a third term, he will run for a fourth term in 1962 and then try for another term in the U.S. Senate in 1964.

The fourth term prediction is based upon Price Daniel's well-known yen to serve as Gov. longer than Allan Shivers and the senatorial prediction is based on his ambition to become the first Texan to go to the Senate a second time.

Cox said.

In Austin, Carr said that if he is elected attorney general it will "restore the office... to the people and take it out of the hands of those who would use it as the headquarters for a political machine."

He said he is confident the people will reject "Wilson's feeble rearguard."

Wilson called attention to a speech by Carr in Arlington, in which he said he would let the local authorities handle their own problems, and said this would reopen gambling in Galveston.

"Ministers of churches in the Galveston area called on Carr to late voters in this year's Democratic primary."

Eisenhower, noting that congression had talked of cuts of more than a billion dollars in his program, said such a slash "would mean, within a matter of months, new international tensions and new national defense problems of the utmost gravity for every one of our citizens."

"Unless an alert citizenry takes effective action to support those in the Congress who champion the cause of mutual security," he said, "it could well result in jeopardizing an important part of the nation's defense."

Aiming his verbal attack at "groups strategically situated in Congress," the President said these critics based their opposition on what he called "isolated instances of malfunctioning" by foreign aid employees overseas.

He declared that slashing the program would mean "virtual abandonment of an effort that has yielded greater benefits in security, good neighbors and profitable trade than any other comparable federal outlay."

Eisenhower said the amount he had requested was the "minimum required to meet the basic necessities of sheer defense and to keep alive a glimmer of hope in hundreds of millions of people arrayed with us on the side of

Repercussions Widespread After Chessman Execution

By United Press International

The death of the convicted kidnaper-pervert was headline news around the world, largely as a result of the wide circulation on books he wrote in the death house.

Protests were inspired in some measure by opposition to capital punishment, but for the most part what horrified foreigners was the judicial delay that kept Chessman in freedom.

The Chief Executive spoke at a dinner given by two groups supporting foreign aid — the Committee for International Economic Growth and the Committee to Strengthen the Frontiers of Freedom. His speech was televised and broadcast to the nation.

U.S. embassies have been mobbed and American tourists threatened and insulted by foreigners agitated by the execution of Cary Chessman.

The mobs in Montevideo picketed not only the embassy offices but the ambassador's residence, shouting "murderers" and "assassins!"

(Chessman's final stay of execution was the result of a State Department report to California's Gov. Edmund Brown that Uruguayan opposition to the execution might erupt into anti-Eisenhower riots if the kidnaper were killed before the President visited that country.)

Approximately $7 spent for Phillips 66 Ammonia returned $22.20 extra maize profit per acre, after deducting the cost of ammonia, for one leading Texas farmer. He reported 2100 pounds per acre yield increase. You can expect extra net profit from every acre when you include Phillips Ammonia in a good management program. # 90 Grid Candidates Answer Spring Call

Canadian Pro Grid Recruits Lack Quality

King Football

The major league baseball races are swinging into high gear, the Olympic games in Rome are just around the corner, but nothing can top football from muscling into the spring sports picture.

With spring drills under way or completed by most of the major colleges, Texas schoolboy elevens are taking the fields for their annual seasonal tune-ups.

Coach Babe Curfman has almost 90 candidates going through the paces at Harvester Stadium as he gets out on the tremendous rebuilding job forced by the graduation of 18 seniors from the '59 squad.

My first glimpse at Curfman's brand of football convinced me of one thing... win or lose, the Harvesters are going to play interesting football.

Babe faces almost hopeless task in replacing the likes of Benny Stout, All-State tackle last season, Terry Joe Haralson, Charles Warren and many others, but I have a feeling the big, likeable fellow will come up with something good.

Whatever happens, I'm behind him all the way... win or tie.

Putt's At It Again

Putt Powell, Amarillo Globe Times sports columnist, obviously delights in putting coaches out on the limb and then saving the limb out from under them.

His column in yesterday's paper gave a run-down on the outcome of the District 3-AAAA baseball race, complete with Putt's personal views on each team.

He calls the Harvesters "the most disappointing team" but in view of the pre-season poll I can't see how Putt justifies the "most disappointing" tag. Monterey, unanimous choice of the coaches in the poll, followed the chart and took the title.

Pampa was picked to finish in a tie for second. So okay, they finished in a tie for third. That's hardly far enough off form to earn Putt's label. In the full season

Lacking the big "animal" who can play one entire side of the line, the Harvesters will have to make it go on sheer determination.

The current crop of candidates appear to be small for the most part but they are scrappy and alert. Football history is filled with the feats of small, scrappy men who played circles around their big, lumbering opponents simply because they refused to believe that size has anything to do with football.

If there's one man who can put that idea across to a boy-it's Curfman. It only takes a few minutes of observation to determine what relationship exists between a coach and his boys and after watching Babe, I'm convinced the Harvesters will go the whole route for him.

After years of playing, coaching, and just watching Eastern football with the old "three yards and a cloud of dust" approach, I'm looking forward to seeing the Southwest brand which has earned a reputation as the best in the nation in the past decade.

Line coaches Dwaine Lyon and Weldon Trice have a little bigger material to work with and should come up with a good, hard-nosed forward wall.

Jim Storms and Ray Dyer are the top candidates for the flanks. The backfield corps show Sherill Miller at fullback, Steve Dobbin at fullback, and Billy Cooper at the wing to work with Stephens.

The Harvesters are two-deep at every position except strongside, and wide ends with boys who had game experience last year.

The only reason the versatile youngster didn't compete in more events was a scholastic ruling limiting events to five for one individual.

In racking up his four firsts, Matson was credited with two new records in the annual event. His 57 ft. 8 1/2 inches in the shot put and a heave of 169 ft. 10 1/2 inches in the discus are new standards for future junior high trackmen to shoot at.

Here's One To Watch

Ninth Grader Randy Matson, at all points, among the 90 candidates who turned out yesterday for spring football drills. The 6-3, 190 pound 15-year-old has all the tools to be a great one, provided of course he has that little thing called desire.

Matson clocked up four first places for Coach Earl Peeler's track team at the Panhandle JHS meet last Saturday. He finished second in the 200-yd. dash to personally account for 24 of his team's points.

Palmer, Collins Meet In Playoff

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—Masters champion Arnold Palmer was sure of at least $3,400 more to add to his $44,000-plus bankroll today as he and Bill Collins got set to tee-off for an extra 18 holes to decide the winner of the $25,000 Houston Classic golf tournament.

Palmer and Collins wound up the fourth round of the tournament the same way they ended the first round—in a deadlock. They began Thursday by burning up the 7,122-yard Memorial Park course with six-under par 66's.

But the strain of competition was beginning to tell Monday in what was to have been the final round. Collins, of Crystal River, Fla., shot a three-over-par 75 and Palmer, who plays out of Ligonier, Pa., carded a 73, one over par.

For each it was the worst round of the tourney, and each ended the regulation distance with 280's for the 72 holes.

Today's playoff will decide who gets the coveted trophy and first prize money of $5,300. The playoff loser will get $3,400.

When the deadlock for first place was announced, both Palmer and Collins agreed there was too much at stake for a sudden death playoff, but they left it up to tourney officials.

Collins clinging to a slim two-stroke lead going into Monday's round, but said he "felt terrible all day" and had trouble with his drives. He bogeyed the third, seventh and ninth holes and went into the back nine only a stroke ahead.

Curfman Rebuilds Graduation Losses

By BOB DUNBAR
Daily News Sports Editor

Under ideal weather conditions, head football coach Babe Curfman put 90 boys through a stiff two and a half hour workout at the Harvester practice field as Pampa High School opened 20 days of spring football drills Monday.

With little time and much to do, Curfman had the boys "knocking heads" in a half-hour scrimmage session after the opening hours were spent drilling fundamentals.

Hit hard by the loss of 18 lettermen from last season the Harvesters are relying on a number of returning lettermen to hit their peaks this year. If they don't, it promises to be a long season for Babe and his staff of assistants.

Roy Don Stephens has been switched from a halfback spot to quarterback to take advantage of his running pass ability.

The backfield candidates are generally small and not exactly diseased with speed so Curfman is planning new offensive wrinkles to offset the disadvantages.

Running on the customary unbalanced Wing T, the Harvesters in 1960 will show fans a few refinements like split ends, slot backs, and ends over when they tackle their rough 10-game schedule next fall.

Line coaches Dwaine Lyon and Weldon Trice have a little bigger material to work with and should come up with a good, hard-nosed forward wall.

Captain Charley Giese at guard, Duke Garren at center, Bryan Speck at strongside guard, and Jim Webb at strongside tackle, and Jim Boyles at strongside end presently make up what appears to be a tough interior line.

The Harvesters are two-deep at every position except strongside, and wide ends with boys who had game experience last year.

Defensively, Speck, Giese, Dyer, and Webb are being counted on to go both ways on the line while Garren will move back to a line backer post.

Curfman hopes the 1960 Harvesters will be able to overcome any disadvantage they may have in size and speed with spirit and desire.

Practice sessions start daily at 3 p.m. and will run through May 20 when the traditional Future-Exes game will be held.

The varsity candidates number 43 with Norman Phillips and Deck Wold's Shockers rounding out the squad.

The complete varsity roster by offensive position:

ENDS: Jim Storms, Corky Godfrey, Randy Cross, Jerry Glover.

GUARDS: Charley Giese, Dicky Wills, Jimmy Boyler, Dean Henderson.

CLATTERS: Duke Garren, Jackie Bromlow, Van Melton, Billy Hughes.

HALF: Bryan Speck, Lynn Schmitt, Dan Mattus, John Hubbard.

S. TACKLES: Jim Webb, Larry Braly, Wendell Winkleblack, Jim Walls.

S. ENDS: Jim Boyles, Bob Follwell, John Arthur, Tony Kirby.

WIDE ENDS: Roy Dyer, Wayne Butler, Randy Matson, Gerald Been.

QUARTER: Roy Don Stephens, Butch Crossland, Jim Berry.

HALF: Sherrell Miller, Lucky Dunham, Robby Robinson, Riley Walters.

FULL: Steve Dobbin, Larry Taylor, Dennis Mills, Ken Combs.

WING: Billy Cooper, Randy Haralson, Jimmy Crouch, Eugene Flimney.

NEW YORK (UPI)—With New York making a steady run at the American League lead, and showing no signs of predicted hard kari, Yankee fans across the land are writing poetic retraction today on a recent "epic" in this corner entitled "mighty Casey might strike out."

Some of them, like the original parody, would give Longfellow, shin splints. But Sally Twaddle of Colorado College has put pen to parody quite aptly.

She calls it "Casey's Revenge" and it goes like this:

There's been saddened hearts in Bronxville six months or even more.

The fans, without exception, to

Weiss make one appeal: "Call Frankie Lane, for heaven's sake, and try to make a deal."

"The lane is long," someone has said, "that never seems to bend."

And fate, though fickle, often gives another chance to men.

So Casey smiles, his rugged face no longer wears a frown.

For the teams that caused the trouble soon must come to town.

The last day of the season comes, the U.S. holds its breath; The White Sox and the Yankees play, both faced with sudden death.

The score is tied, then comes the ninth, the baseball world is shocked.

Those Sox now lead by three big runs, on a blow by Nellie Fox.

From the stands there comes a groaning chorus, a seowl is on each face.

But the Yanks come up, grim bats in hand, and three men get on base.

Now Casey smiles and gladly gives his slumping Mick the nod.

The fans all hoot to "take him out. He's but a crippled clod."

Zip! Twice, like shots, two curves break low, in fact below Mick's knees.

MAN WITH A PROBLEM — Pampa High School head football coach Babe Curfman eyes the 18 pair of empty shoes left by graduating lettermen from last year's squad and ponders over what to do about them. The Harvesters face a complete rebuilding job after losing the entire offensive eleven from 1959 but Babe has hopes he will find capable replacements among the 90 boys who answered the call for spring drills yesterday. OTTAWA, Ont. (UPI)—Suffering competition from United States professional leagues has failed to cut the quantity of recruiting by Canada's Big Four Football League clubs but may have hurt the quality.

A United Press International survey showed today that the four Canadian Big Four teams have announced the signing of 57 new United States players for the coming season. A similar review a year ago turned up 48 signings.

Compared with a year ago, however, the rosters appear a bit bare of "name" U.S. college stars. They list primarily "dark horses" candidates from a variety of smaller American colleges with a sprinkling of National Football League draft choices from the larger schools.

More of these may come, however, in subsequent announcements before training camps open in June. The Big Four clubs should have about 100 U.S. newcomers on hand by then.

Most of Canada's professional clubs admit that emergence of the new American Football League has placed strains on their recruiting programs. An exception is the defending champion Hamilton Tigercats. Their general manager, Jake Gaudaur, reported "no undue difficulty" in signing new U.S. players.

Sandlot Ball

Workouts started last night at the high school baseball field for a semi-pro ball team organizing in Pampa.

The workouts will continue daily starting at 6 p.m. in hopes to attract enough players to form a league with teams in Texas and Oklahoma.

Players interested in trying out for the team should report to either Bud Stephens or New Secrest at the field. Several games have already been lined up in the Tri-State area with hopes that a complete home-and-home schedule can be arranged.

U.S. Decathlon Hopes Are Bolstered

By ALEX KAHN
United Press International

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Fears that the United States might not be well represented in decathlon competition at the Rome Olympic Games were dispelled today as Rafer Johnson neared top form for the 10-event competition.

Johnson, holder of the U.S. record of 8302 points, has recovered from a back injury suffered last fall in an automobile accident and is gradually increasing his work in decathlon events.

Two of the world's three top decathlon men Monday appeared before the Southern California Track and Field Writers and Coaches Assn. Joining Johnson, who ranks second in the world to Russia's Vasily Kuznetsov, was Nationalist China's C. K. Yang. Both Johnson and Yang are coached by UCLA's Elvin Ducky Drake.

The modest Chinese athlete let Johnson and Drake talk about how he would be expected to do, Johnson and only expressed the hope that son told of his progress this season and said he had tried all events except the broad jump and 1500 meters in practice.

"I think Yang is capable of beating Kuznetsov's best mark (8357 points), and also beating him," Johnson said. "It will take around 8300 points, possibly 8000, to win at Rome."

Bucs Lose, Giants Close In

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

That $60,000 bonus the Giants gave teen-ager Mike McCormick is paying off four years later and 3,000 miles away.

It was back in 1956 that the Giants signed the 18-year-old high school and American Legion ace from Arcadia, Calif., who had been groomed to be a big league star since he was seven years old. At the time, they predicted he would some day become a major league star.

It took four years but all the signs today are that the 6-foot, 195-pound left-hander has come into his own. He turned in a third straight victory Monday night when he pitched the Giants to a 5-0 win that snapped the Milwaukee Braves' four-game winning streak.

A crowd of 41,943 saw McCormick turn in his third brilliant effort at Candlestick Park. In three victories there the California kid has pitched two shutouts and yielded a total of one run and one hit.

The victory moved the second-place Giants to within one game of the league-leading Pittsburgh Pirates, whose nine-game winning streak was ended, 4-3, by the St. Louis Cardinals. The Cincinnati Reds beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 6-5, and the Chicago Cubs defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 7-1, in other National League games.

The Cleveland Indians scored a 2-1 victory over the Washington the Reds with their second win in 10 games. Jim O'Toole received credit for the triumph although Raul Sanchez and Bill Henry succeeded him. Jim Gilliam and Charlie Neal homered for the Dodgers and Billy Martin connected for the Reds.

Don Zimmer singled with two out and the bases filled in the ninth inning to cap a three-run rally. The Phillies had gone ahead with a three-run ninth-inning burst of their own, highlighted by rookie Frank Herrera's two-run single.

The Indians moved into a first place American League tie with the White Sox on the strength of Gary Bell's six hit and a run scoring single by Johnny Temple in the seventh inning. Vic Power's blood single had scored the first two Cleveland runs of the inning but Temple's RBI negated a two-run single by Julio Bequer in the bottom of the frame.

The Orioles turned 7 of 10 walks by 6 White Sox pitchers into runs to win their seventh game in eight starts. Herb Score started for the White Sox but was tagged for three runs in one inning, two scoring on a bases filled single by Gus Triandos. The White Sox rallied to go ahead, 5-3, but the Orioles scored five runs in the fourth with the aid of key hits by Mary Breeding and Ron Hansen.

Reporting News

It should be kept in mind that newspapers report the news, they do not create it. Also, a newspaper with a vigorous policy will comment on the news, and do it in a manner related to fundamental principles.

Liberty & Progress

The philosophy of human liberty which this paper espouses is a philosophy based wholly upon the progress of the human race. Why is it, then, that on occasion the cry is raised that those who believe in human liberty are "reactionary," "against progress," "non-cooperative"?

The Pampa Daily News

YOUR FREEDOM NEWSPAPER We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from the government. Freedom is not license. It must be consistent with the truths expressed in such great moral guides as the Golden Rule, The Ten Commandments and the Declaration of Independence.

Better Jobs

Something-For-Nothing "Education" Before we can correct things that are causing us trouble, we must find out the beliefs that caused the trouble and how these beliefs were fostered.

You Can't Count On Being Counted

Census takers to the right of us, census takers to the left of us, but none at our door. We've been left out. Deliberately. There's no use in trying to console ourselves by saying it was an oversight. Not even the most exact census taker could overlook a house that has an iron door in the yard, a wood-cut out of Uncle Sam holding the mail box, and lightning rods on all four corners of the roof.

Our Military Men Can Use Your Ideas

By RAY CROMLEY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The Army, the Navy and the Air Force have some problems they can't solve.

They want your help, providing you're not a crackpot and especially if you are a scientist with original ideas.

The military men want ideas on how to use gravity and anti-gravity in trick warfare methods.

A method to control the mysterious cosmic rays so they can be used for sending messages, for navigation, or both.

A better "glue" for new-type parachutes.

Disposable clothing for troops made of paper. Paper tents that can be used for a while and thrown away. Some method of washing clothes efficiently in cold water. Or, better yet, some type of field laundry equipment which uses little or no water.

Some sort of a "formula" for predicting — from a man's individual personality — how he will react to extreme cold.

Methods of building spare parts right into all sorts of equipment so when a part wears out the spare will immediately spring into operation, and the equipment keep right on working.

A type of dual-purpose sleeping gear that could also serve as part of the G.I.'s uniform by day, thus cutting down sharply on the load that must be taken into battle for every soldier.

A way in which the Army, Navy and Air Force can, collectively, psychologically change the attitudes of officers and G.I.s so that they will like their rations better.

The military men are especially anxious to find what kind of food a man should eat when he's under a bomb or on the way to target. The Defense researchers are also trying to find out how often they can serve the same food and still have the G.I.s eat it. They're doing experiments on how good and the way men are fed affect loyalty, morale, and the efficiency of small groups in the field.

Urges Mother Exchange

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. David S. King (D-Utah) has called on Congress to "launch a new peace offensive by women and mothers." He urged passage of his resolution to authorize an annual "exchange of mothers" between this country and Russia.
