Battle of Palestine Worsens

BULLETIN
LONDON—(AP)— Britain is working out a detailed alternative to the United Nations plan for splitting Palestine and will submit it to the Security Council, a Foreign Office spokesman said today.

BULLETIN
AMMAN, Trans-Jordan—(AP)—It was announced officially here today that the Jewish quarter of the Old City of Jerusalem has surrendered to King Abdullah's Arab Legion.

CAIRO—(AP)—The Jewish Army announced its forces seized two Arab villages in the blazing battle for Itrun, which advices from Jerusalem indicated today might be the decisive fight for Palestine.

The battle rose in intensity. Thousands of Arabs and Jews are reported engaged in the struggle to control the key road from Tel Aviv to Jerusalem.

The Jews said they captured Beit Jiz and Beit Sasun, just south of the highway, and Latrun, which is 15 miles west of Jerusalem. In Tel Aviv, Jewish military security guarded the details of the battle.

The Arab Legion is reported to have drawn troops even out of embattled Jerusalem and rushed them through the Bab El Wad Gorge in an attempt to stem a Jewish attack.

To the north, Jewish sources said Haganah troops captured the Arab village of Zirin, midway between Nazareth and the Arab city of Jenin, pivot of the Jenin-Nablus-Tulkarm triangle.

The village lies on the Arab-Jewish border as planned by the United Nations. Its capture strengthened the Jewish flank in the north, the informants said.

Jerusalem's fighting continued unabated. New plans of the United Nations to halt the combat appeared headed for failure.

The British Near East radio quoted a correspondent as describing the Latrun battle as one of the biggest ever fought in Palestine.

Poppy Sales Tomorrow, Flags to Fly

Hugh Peoples chairman of the Retail Trade Committee, and Lieb Langston, chairman of the Goodwill Committee, both of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, have asked all stores and business houses in Pampa to display their American flags all day tomorrow.

The display of the flags will aid the American Legion Auxiliary in their Poppy Day campaign, Peoples said, "by reminding them of their obligations to disabled veterans, and will also lend a festive air to the city to show its cooperation with the Pampa Roping Club's Rodeo." (See separate story on radio, this page.)

The Poppy Day plans are under the direction of Mrs. D. L. Lhuillier, who said today that teams of volunteer workers were assigned to various locations throughout Pampa, where they will offer poppies to be worn in honor of the dead of both world wars.

The poppies were made by disabled veterans at Texas veterans hospitals under the direction of the Texas Department of the Auxiliary. They are crepe paper replicas of the wild flowers of France and Belgium that blossomed in cemeteries and battlefields of Europe and that have been the symbol of remembrance since World War I.

Contributions made for the poppies will be used in the rehabilitation and child welfare work of the Legion and the Auxiliary.

65 Attend API Meeting

Sixty-five members of the Panhandle chapter of the API held a regular meeting last night in the Palm Room.

F. F. Kennedy, president, called the meeting to order about 8 p. m. and turned the program to Ralph O'Neal, of Borger, who is program chairman.

Three speakers appeared on the program—Harvey Longren, Frank Lee, Phillips Company engineer; and Max Harbison, Kewanee Company engineer. All three spoke on paraffin and paraffin problems, with discussion on best known means of combating the paraffin problem. Following the talks the floor was open to a forum type of questioning.

F. F. Kennedy later gave a report on the District API Convention, recently held in Wichita Falls.

Refreshments were served. The next scheduled meeting is for sometime in September.

Condition Report In 'Several Days'
ROCHESTER, Minn.—(AP)—Rep. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.), a candidate for the U. S. Senate, was under observation in Colonial Hospital here today, and a hospital spokesman said it probably would be several days before any bulletins on his condition are issued.

Railway Court Battle Is Set For June 10

WASHINGTON—(AP)— Judge T. Alan Goldsborough today postponed until June 10, a legal battle between the government and three railroad unions over whether a ban against a threatened rail strike should be continued.

Goldsborough at the same time extended until June 11, a temporary order preventing the unions from walking out.

Yesterday the Locomotive Engineers, Locomotive Firemen & Enginemen, and Switchmen's Union hit back with a motion to kill the present order on the ground that Goldsborough had no right to issue it and President Truman had no right to seize the railroads.

The Supreme Court has ruled that federal judges have the legal authority to issue anti-strike orders when they are sought by the government against its own employees.

But the lawyers for the unions contended in their motion: 1. That the 1916 law under which seizure was made did not in fact give the President this right, and that the seizure did not in fact make the railworkers federal employees.

2. That the Railway Labor Act unions not to strike after all the act's procedures have been followed.

3. That the restraining order gives no authority to compel should not have been issued in the District of Columbia, since the three unions have their headquarters elsewhere.

May 10 order forced the unions to cancel the strike they had set for May 11, without a court order they consider themselves legally free to strike.

Members of the Gray County Advisory Committee on Education will meet in the county superintendent's office in the Court House at 3 p. m. today to evaluate opinionnaires put out by the Gilmer-Aikin Committee.

Eleven members of the Gray County Advisory Committee on Education will meet in the county superintendent's office in the Court House at 3 p. m. today to evaluate opinionnaires put out by the Gilmer-Aikin Committee.

Two opinionnaires will be studied at tonight's meeting. The school district organization opinionnaire for citizens that has been circulated in Pampa during the past three weeks will be studied.

The results of the high school opinionnaires special opinionnaires have been tabulated and also will be discussed at tonight's meeting.

Members of the Gray County Advisory Committee on Education from Pampa are: Hueylyn Laycock, W. B. Weathered, postmaster; Gene Green, of Cabot Carbon Company; Knox Kinard, school superintendent; Margaret Jones, teacher; E. R. Nuckols, grade school principal and Boy Scout worker; and Dr. Douglas Nelson, minister.

Out-of-town members on the committee are: Arlie Carpenter, Lefors stockman; Pete Fields, Groom farmer; Jake Hess, McLean rancher and banker; L. R. Reeves, Lefors school superintendent; and Logan Cummings, McLean superintendent.

Head of School For Deaf Quits
AUSTIN—(AP) Roger Powell had resigned today as superintendent of the Texas School for the Deaf here.

Hall Logan, chairman of the Board of Controls, said that Powell would be succeeded by Roy M. Stille, 35, assistant superintendent of the Illinois School for the Deaf at Jacksonville, Ill.

Powell, storm center of a student protest of the school's administration, notified the board yesterday he was resigning.

YIPPEE-YIP!
Boys Ranch Plays Big Part In Annual Club Show

About 25 boys from Boys Ranch at Old Tascosa, near Amarillo, arrived here today to take part in the second annual Pampa Roping Club Rodeo.

In addition to the parade at 10:30 a. m. tomorrow, the club has scheduled two rodeo shows for Saturday afternoon and evening, and one on Sunday afternoon at Recreation Park.

There will be six events with two go-rounds at each of the shows, consisting of bullriding, broncriding, bulldogging, calfroping, double-muscling, and the girls' sponsor contest. One-half of the entry fees will be added to the prizes.

Features of the shows will be trick riding and roping performed by trained members of the Boys Ranch teams.

The boys, coached and trained by Leonard Stroud, world champion cowboy, will be housed in the Jury Room at the Courthouse during their stay, and will take their meals at the Courthouse Cafe as guests of the club.

It was announced that the public is invited to participate in the parade, scheduled to begin from Ward and W. Foster, near Sun Shine Dairy Foods, at 10:30 a. m. tomorrow. Anyone on horseback, boys and girls on bicycles, and commercial floats are invited to join.

The parade will go east of Pampa, Russell, north on Russell to Francis, east on Francis to Cuyler, and south on Cuyler to Brown, where it will disband.

Following the afternoon show tomorrow, there will be a chuck wagon barbecue at Recreation Park, H. B. Taylor, Jr., one of the organizers of this year's show, said today.

One-half of all the proceeds from the rodeo will go to the Boys Ranch at Old Tascosa.

S. AFRICA DROPS SMUTS

JOHANNESBURG, Union of South Africa—(AP)— Prime Minister Jan Christiaan Smuts resigned today and Dr. Daniel Francois Malan, victor in Tuesday's elections, was called to form a new South African government.

Malan is an outspoken isolationist and his Nationalist Party advocates segregation of the natives. Smuts lost his own seat in Parliament in the balloting Tuesday and his party lost its parliamentary majority to the coalition of the Nationalists and the Afrikaners.

The 78-year-old statesman had only this to say: "These things happen. What is to be will be."

With unofficial results of Tuesday's balloting complete in 152 of 153 parliamentary races, Smuts' party—the United Party—got 65 seats in the Assembly, the lower house of Parliament, to 69 for Malan's Nationalist Party. The Afrikaner Party, linked closely with the Nationalist, won nine; the pro-government Labor Party six; and Natives favorable to the government, three.

That would give a Nationalist-Afrikaner coalition 78 seats, to 74 for the United Party, the Labor Party and the Natives.

Announcement of the defeat of Smuts by 224 votes in his own district came with startling suddenness last night and was followed swiftly by a swelling of the antigovernment trend in other districts. Smuts, 78, has been prime minister since 1939 and also served in that post from 1912 to 1924.

Dr. Malan is a 74-year-old former clerkman of the Dutch Reformed Church.

Political sources said many crosscurrents and factors entered the election campaign, but the issue principally fought was the color question.

Overseas criticism of South Africa's treatment of its nonEuropeans, particularly in the United Nations, set up a strong reaction inside the country.

Far from yielding to this world criticism, the attitude of the Nationalists on the issue hardened; and this is said to have won them many votes.

It was a bitter blow for Smuts, one of the powerful figures of the British Empire for decades. He became a field marshal in 1941, after overcoming powerful opposition to take the leadership of his country through the World War II.

(In London, the Conservative Graphic commented that the action of the Standerton (his own district) voters "will stand in history as one of the classic examples of the fickleness and ingratitude of democracy.")

General Wary of Politics

WASHINGTON—(AP)— Gen. Douglas MacArthur said today he does not want to return to the United States until after the Republican National Convention.

The Allied Supreme Commander in Japan so advised Chairman Bridges (R-NH) of the Senate Appropriations Committee in a cablegram.

The committee had voted 17-2 to ask him to return from Tokyo and testify on economic matters in the Pacific area.

MacArthur told Bridges "my return at this time, however sincere its purpose, would be many as politically inspired."

MacArthur added: "On the other hand, following settlement of the political issues to be resolved next month, I should feel free to place myself fully at your disposal if you still desire clarification of my views on this or any other matter affecting the understanding and condemned by public interest."

Bridges said "I can see his point of view on this thing." He will place MacArthur's reply before the full appropriations committee as soon as possible.

The general has long been mentioned as a possible Republican presidential nominee. The boom for him grew louder after the Senate committee's vote yesterday.

Both of those who voted against asking the occupation commander of Japan to come home after more than 10 years in the Philippines and points west said they did so because of the political atmosphere.

Senator Saltonstall (R-Me.) said he fears the visit would be "bound to have political implications."

He added: "I want to keep the ECA as free from politics as I can."

One of the topics MacArthur will be questioned about if he comes home is the foreign aid program being carried out under the Economic Cooperation Administration—better known as Senator Reed (R-Kan.), who cast the other "no" vote, commented: "I think General MacArthur is a great man, has done a great job and deserves a great reception when he gets home. But I don't want to get it mixed up with politics."

Many Offices To Be Closed Memorial Day

Business offices of the city, county, state, federal and public utilities will observe Memorial Day Monday by closing Saturday night and remaining closed until Tuesday morning.

While these offices get one holiday next week, Pampa's two banks, the Citizens Bank & Trust Company and the First National Bank, will have two—Memorial Day and Thursday, June 3, Jefferson Davis' birthday. Local bankers are planning to attend a Bankers Association convention in Amarillo on that date.

The closing on Memorial Day will not affect a store, cafes, movies, Sheriff's Office, Police Department or The News and Radio Station KPDM.

Listed as closing on Memorial Day besides the banks are all city Hall and Gray County Courthouse offices, Texas State Employment Commission, business offices of the Southwestern Bell Telephone, Southwestern Public Service, and Texas Power and Gas, the Postoffice and other federal agencies.

A meeting of the Retail Trade Committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce voted this week to keep all stores open on Memorial Day.

Native Reds Will Not Obey Mundt Bill

WASHINGTON—(AP)—William Z. Foster, American Communist Party leader, said today the party will not comply with the House-approved Communist-control bill if it becomes law.

Foster told the Senate Judiciary Committee that the Mundt-Nixon Bill would create a "fascist police state" in this country. He said his party could not comply with provisions requiring Communist groups to register with the government.

"If the Mundt-Nixon bill were to pass, the Communist Party would not perjure itself by admitting any resemblance to the monstrous caricature of its nature and purposes drawn in this bill," he said.

"It would not dishonor the 15,000 members of our party who fought against fascism in World War II by giving de facto sanction to Hitler's big lie," he said. "That is one reason why we would resist to register."

Foster's statement was read by John Gates, who accompanied him. "As a party of patriotic and loyal Americans, we could not and would not become complacent in the murder of the Bill of Rights," Foster said, adding:

"That is another reason why we would not register. And finally we would never expose our members to persecution, ostracism and blacklisting in employment."

Rep. Vito Marcantonio, American Labor Party member from New York, also opposed the measure.

Both had a rough time of it. Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) suggested Marcantonio was following the Communist Party line in his arguments.

Marcantonio denied it. He contended he was only saying what other liberal Americans say.

The bill would force Communist groups to register with the government. It also provides heavy penalties for persons advocating a foreign-control dictatorship in this country.

Man Is Charged As Liberator
TYLER—(AP)—Formal charges of aiding a prisoner to escape were filed here yesterday against James Walton Calloway.

Calloway is accused of forcing Jailor Homer Wood to release James Echols, 23, and William Summings, 23, from the County Jail shortly before midnight Wednesday.

All three were still at large. Calloway was released from jail last night.

Saul Smith, senior engineer of the Railroad Commission in Austin, is in charge of the work. He and four other graduate engineers arrived in Pampa yesterday. On the day the testing is to start, 20 additional graduate engineers will arrive to assist Smith.

Burglary Suspect Taken to Amarillo
Deputy Sheriff Lem Founds of Potter County arrived here yesterday afternoon with a warrant for a man who gave his name to Pampa police as James Porter Bell.

He took Bell to Amarillo for questioning about a burglary of the Bivins Barber Shop there Monday night.

Bell was arrested in the Flats Wednesday evening when police received a complaint that a white man was attempting to sell narcotics.

When Bell was arrested, he was found carrying a leather bag containing 82 pieces of barber's tools and a table model radio, which were later identified by Amarillo barbers, who came here yesterday noon as part of the goods taken in Monday's burglary.

There were no narcotics found on him, but he is reported to have told the complainant that he "knew where he could get them."

'Voice' Broadcast Gets Going Over

WASHINGTON—(AP)— Four investigating groups—one ordered into action by President Truman—were already today to get to the bottom of the Voice of America rumpus.

The drive to pin the blame for shortwave broadcasts which lawmakers blasted as sabotage and slander shaped up this way:

1. Mr. Truman said at his news conference late yesterday that he had ordered an inquiry into the radio programs. The President said he wants to find out who was at fault for the type of broadcast blamed to Latin America. But he noted the programs were not handled by the State Department. They had been "farmed out" by the department to the National Broadcasting Company.

2. A House Expenditures Subcommittee headed by Rep. Chas. McNair (R-Colo.) scheduled a public hearing today. The group called as its first witness George V. Allen, assistant secretary of state in charge of the Voice of America broadcasts. These programs are intended to tell the world of the democratic way of life in this country.

3. The Senate, where the fireworks started, two groups decided to pool their efforts and conduct a joint investigation.

One of these, an Expenditures Subcommittee, already has laid out its groundwork and has questioned NBC officials.

The other Senate group is a Foreign Relations Subcommittee. The furor over the program was touched off when Senator Caphart (R-Ind.) read to the Senate excerpts of broadcasts beamed in 1947 and early this year to South and Central America.

Intended to portray life and history in the United States and seen by two travelers, they went like this: "New England was founded by hypocrisy and Texas by sin."

"Utah, that's where men have as many wives as they can support!"

"In no other part of the United States has the colored race struggled and suffered so much as here (in Alabama)."

All of that and more about other states made senators seethe. They called the programs "slandering, malicious, and derogatory to the foreign policy and prestige of the United States."

Allen, for the State Department, wrote the Foreign Relations Subcommittee yesterday that Voice of America officials are acting to make sure there is no repetition of the episode.

"We all make mistakes," Allen said, but added the department felt it was carrying out the "clear intent of Congress" in farming out the programs to private broadcasters.

Wm. H. Tuck Dies From Heart Attack

William Henry Tuck, 111 N. Gillespie, died at 8 p. m. yesterday as a result of a heart attack.

A resident of Pampa since 1942, Mr. Tuck had been employed as a butcher at the J and J Grocery and Market. He was born in Vista, Mo., in 1883, and has been a member of the Odd Fellow Lodge while in Pampa.

His wife, Mrs. Tuck, are his wife, Ola Tuck, four daughters, Mrs. Hazel Bonham and Mrs. Doris Holbrook of Bristow, Okla., Mrs. Opal Alexander, Oklahoma City and Miss Beverly Jeanne Tuck, of Pampa, one son, Clifford Tuck, of Bristow, Okla., two brothers, Frank, of Quincy, Mo., Roy, of Kansas City, Mo.; three sisters, Mrs. Lennie Pakker, Warsaw, Mo.; Mrs. Florence Brashear, Quincy, and Mrs. Neila Allen, Miller, Mo.

Funeral services will be held in the Duemel-Carmichael Chapel at 3 p. m. tomorrow. His body will be taken to Bristow, Okla. for burial.

GOPsters Hit Pace to Fill June 21 Date

WASHINGTON—(AP)— Republican leaders today asked Senate committees to abandon all except "emergency" meetings in a drive for a June 19 adjournment of Congress.

The idea is that with fewer committee meetings senators can give more time to legislation already on the Senate's calendar, and so speed action.

Chairman Taft (R-Ohio) announced the GOP Policy Committee's decision.

Taft said the committee laid down this immediate legislative schedule for the Senate:

It will complete action on the bill, now under debate, to admit 200,000 displaced persons to this country.

Next, it will take up the proposed revival of the draft law.

After that will come a resolution by Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) to aid any Western European defense alliance that might be formed.

Whether Congress can quit finally before the Republican National Convention opens June 21 in Philadelphia depends largely on whether regular government Monday bills can be passed before that time, Taft said.

He said that beyond the draft committee made no decisions on bills to be taken up during scheduled seven-hour daily sessions.

If the money bills aren't passed by June 19, Taft said, Congress may have to meet in the period between the Republican and Democratic conventions.

The schedule threw in doubt whether Congress will enact new reciprocal trade legislation before the present law expires June 12. That situation is complicated by a split between Taft and Vandenberg over the law.

Taft said he can't agree with Vandenberg's proposal to give President Truman broad authority to put into effect trade agreements which the rates involved might be damaging to American business.

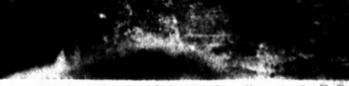

Vandenberg said he won't support a provision in a House-approved bill giving Congress a veto on such agreements.

Driggers Paces Oilers to 5-1 Win

Faced by the lethal southpaw offerings of Ace Avon Driggers, the Pampa Oilers swept through the Amarillo Gold Sox 5-1 last night in Oiler Park as Driggers pitched his eighth consecutive win as compared with no losses.

Despite the muddy playing field the league-leading Oilers played good ball all the way, committing only two errors and allowing the Amarillos to go only as far as third base. The Oilers also had a fairly good night at the plate, touching Right-hander Jimmy Heller for nine hits, with four of them going for extra bases. With the mud-infested base paths, the base running was slowed down considerably, thus making it necessary to connect for a triple in order to get credit for a double. Amarillo failed to get a single extra base knock.

The contest started out to be a close pitching duel between Driggers and Heller, with neither hurler allowing a hit until the third inning. At this point, Doug Lewis, Sox first baseman, took advantage of the muddy field by slipping a slow roller out to Range, playing at short in the absence of Earl Harriman, which was too slow to make a play, so Lewis was credited with the first hit of the ball game. Not to be outdone, Avon Driggers stepped to the plate in the bottom of the second and rapped a clean single to leftfield which was quickly followed by another single by Centerfielder Bob Bartholomew.

The Oilers first scored in the fourth inning when Tony Range picked out one he liked and placed it over the leftfield fence with the bases empty. This was Range's sixth home run of the season.

As the game progressed and assumed the aspects of a 1-0 affair, the Oilers soon dispersed with this idea when they scored four runs in the sixth inning.

Roy Parker, left handed pitcher who was playing in left field to help fill the slot left by Earl Harriman, started the sixth inning when he pounded out a double to left centerfield. Riley then got on base by an overthrow, as Parker scored. Range got on by error and then Joe Fortin and Bob Belford each bounced one off the fence for successive doubles.

Samek grounded out, pitcher to was not in uniform last night, due to illness. Harriman's absence necessitated the changing of Jack Riley to third base and Roy Parker, a regular pitcher, moving into left field in place of Riley.

At the plate last night, Avon Driggers helped his cause by collecting two singles in three official trips to the plate. Joe Fortin and Roy Parker both got two for four, both getting a single and a double.

For the Gold Sox, Jimmy Heller also provided needed help for his cause, as he got two hits in four official times at the plate. Doug Lewis also got two for four, two singles.

Lubbock's twin win over Albuquerque Oilers last night, which was a 5-1 victory, was a 2-0 one-half game margin over the Oilers. Tonight the Oilers will invade the park of the cellar dwelling Oilers.

The three day rainy spell which postponed three Oiler games provided the needed rest for Grover Seitz's pitching staff, so it is not

Third Series Of Mat Bouts Set Tonight

Tonight's wrestling matches at the Sportatorium are the third in a series of elimination bouts to pick the contender for the Southwestern Junior Heavyweight Championship.

Beginning tonight, the weekly matches will be staged on Friday instead of Thursday evening.

Sammy Cohen of New York City, and Dr. Gil Knutson of Des Moines, Iowa, the winners of last week's bouts, are scheduled to meet in the main event; Billy Hickson of Knoxville, Tenn., and Walter Stratton of Youngstown, Ohio, will wrestle for the best semi-final.

Cohen, making his first appearance in the local arena, defeated Cowboy Ace Abbott in 31 minutes of their scheduled hour match last week. Knutson won over Jack Wentworth of Toronto, Canada, in 46 minutes for his second victory over the stocky Canadian.

Knutson entered the elimination contests when Ray "Big Train" Clements was prevented by an injury from appearing last week. Clements received an ankle injury in a "rassie royal" in Lubbock last Wednesday, and according to the rules of the contests, was automatically disqualified.

League Sees Close Games

By the Associated Press

The free-hitting West Texas-New Mexico League saw some extremely close baseball last night. Three shutouts were recorded in three double-headers and a single game.

Lamesa swept two from Clovis, 9-0, 8-7; Abilene took a 4-0 decision from Borger after losing the opener, 1-0, and Lubbock won two from Albuquerque, 2-0, 9-2. League-leading Pampa defeated Amarillo, 5-1.

Avon Driggers notched his eighth straight victory in holding Amarillo to six hits. His mates collected nine, including Tony Range's fourth-inning homer.

Sid Jamison held Abilene to one hit as Borger took the opener, Frank Means single in the first inning spoiled Jamison's no-hitter. In the nightcap, Fred Fazio scattered six hits as Abilene won its first shutout of the year.

Bob Coldfelter chalked up his second shutout of the year as Lubbock won the opener, scoring both runs on Charles Scarborough's single.

A four-run rally in the fifth inning gave Lamesa the first game, and a walk, single and error accounted for the winning run in the second.

Athletics Smear Washington 7-3; Slide Into First Place

By the Associated Press

Connie Mack's Athletics are safely home in first place, fooling the visitors who said Philadelphia would fade in the west. Winners eight times in 13 starts since leaving Shibe Park, the Mackmen now must be considered bona fide pennant contenders.

It looked bad when their 10-game streak was snapped in New York the first day out of Philadelphia, but they rallied and swept a double-header the next day in Cleveland and Detroit. Freddie Hutchinson handed them a third straight loss before injured Elmer Valo rejoined his mates.

The A's split the next two with the Tigers, swept a pair at St. Louis, two more in Chicago, and then smeared Washington last night, 7-3.

Cleveland's ally in the percentage point columns couldn't stop the A's from regaining the lead in the first game of the full game in front of the idle Indians, and more important, nine percentage points to the good.

With the New York Yankees coming in tonight a new Shibe Park attendance record may be set.

Umpire Red Jones found himself in the midst of a shower of bottles, beer cans and other debris at Washington in the ninth inning. He was in the path of a ball thrown to the plate by Mickey Vernon of Washington. Vernon scooped up Pete Suder's grounder and tried to catch Sam Chapman at the plate but the ball struck Jones' chest protector as he stood in the base line.

Stan Musial polished off his sensational Eastern swing with two hits, including his 16th homer, in the St. Louis Cards' 9-6 victory over the New York Giants.

Red Schoendienst's bases-loaded single was the big blow for the Cards as they scored four runs in the ninth to top the stubborn Giants, 9-6.

The Brooklyn Dodgers ended a one-day stay in the National cellar, climbing to sixth place by shading Chicago, 4-2.

Curt Simmons, the Phillies' $80,000 bonus lefthander, finally hit his stride with a fancy three-hit win over Pittsburgh, 2-1.

Cincinnati and Boston were idle in the National as were Boston, New York, Cleveland, Chicago, Detroit and St. Louis in the American.

Heafner Leads in Colonial Tournament by One Stroke

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

FORT WORTH (AP)—The $15,000 Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament moved into its second round today with the select field chasing Clayton Heafner of Charlotte, N. C.

Heafner held a one-stroke lead at the start of his third round par 67 in yesterday's opening 18 holes. It came through some of the best putting ever seen on Colonial Country Club's sweeping 6,635-yard course.

He was one of six who bettered par for the day. Heavy rain made the fairways and greens soggy and cut down the carry on drives and aggravated things with the clip shots.

A stroke behind Heafner were Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va.; Herman Kaiser of Akron, Ohio; and George Schoux of Mammoth, N. Y. The latter missed a hole-in-one on no. 16 by a fraction of an inch as his tee shot edged past the cup. Heafner's luck was better. At no. 4 he had scooped up Pete Suder's grounder and the ball hung on the edge for what he estimated to be at least two minutes before falling in.

Three times Big Clayton rammed in 30-footers for birdies and he had a 16-footer and a 10-footer in his assortment of putts that ranged downward to a couple of 18-inches, one of which he missed.

Four strokes back was Ben Hogan, from Hershey, Pa., who won both of the previous Colonial Tournaments and who was the general favorite this time.

Kluzewski Found By Groundskeeper

NEW YORK (NEA)—Ted Kluzewski was discovered on the Indiana campus by the Reds' groundskeeper Lenny Schwab when the Cincinnati club made its wartime spring training camp at Bloomington in 1944. The Rhinelanders' prize recruit first baseman had never played baseball before he went to college.

Americans in Finals Of British Tourney

SANDWICH, England (AP)—Willie Turnesa of White Plains, N. Y., and Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, advanced into the semifinal round of the British Amateur golf tourney today.

Turnesa, defending champion, subdued Sam Roberts of Wales, 4 and 2, Stranahan, runner up in the British Open a year ago, mastered Mario Gonzalez of Brazil, 4 and 2.

The semifinal rounds will be played this afternoon with Stranahan paired against D. H. R. Martin, a sandwich golfer, who eliminated John Campbell by a 2 and 1 count this morning.

Turnesa has Charlie Stowe, British Walker Cupper, as his opponent. Stowe stopped Charles Lawrie, 6 and 5, today after Lawrie had ousted Chapman yesterday.

Writers Favor Champ in Zale, Graziano Bout

NEW YORK (AP)—Sports writers seem to be generally agreed on one point about the third Rocky Graziano-Tony Zale Middleweight Championship Fight June 9—it'll be another knockdown, drag-out scrap, and Graziano is a heavy favorite.

The two previous meetings resulted in bitter, toe-to-toe battles and sixth round knockouts. Zale won in New York in 1946, successfully defending his title. He lost the championship to Graziano last year in Chicago.

A large majority of the editors expressing an opinion favor Graziano to keep his title. The Brooklyn Ringer received 221 of the 262 votes. Zale got 41.

The poll reflected prevailing respect for the punching ability of both gladiators.

One hundred and twenty-seven writers from throughout the country, said they believed Graziano would score Zale away between the fourth and eighth rounds.

Only 41 of the 221 who lined up with the champion said the bout should go all the way. Thirty who picked Graziano didn't name the round.

Promoter Strauss Loses Count on His Fight Headquarters

POMPTON LAKES, N. J. (NEA)—Sounding off at the Pompton Lakes Chamber of Commerce's dinner to Joe Louis, Sol Strauss went into a plug for the Jersey Joe Walcott return at Yankee Stadium, June 23, saying: "Tickets are now on sale at the Broadway."

Compact Approved By Representatives To Regulate Fishing

BILOXI, Miss (AP)—A marine fisheries compact to regulate the fishing industry in nearby waters of the Gulf of Mexico has been approved by representatives of five gulf states.

The representatives met here yesterday prior to the opening today of the Southern Regional Conference of the Council of State Governments.

The compact, drawn at recent meetings of coast states representatives in New Orleans, would operate under a gulf states marine fisheries commission.

It is now ready for adoption by the Legislatures of Alabama, Florida, Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas, the states represented here yesterday.

The regional meeting opening today is to discuss an interstate parole and probation compact and federal aid to education.

The parole and probation compact would allow any participating state to return from another state without extradition any person on parole or probation who violated the conditions of his freedom.

Making Ends Meet Is Major Problem

By JOHN L. SPRINGER
 AP Newsfeatures Writer
NEW YORK—Most business prophets say the high cost of living will be with us for a long time. Some think more inflation may be on the way.
 "Making ends meet" will continue indefinitely as a major problem for millions of Americans.
 Shopping experts say low-income groups can offset high prices partially if they take care on how, what, when and where they buy. An alert consumer may save up to 20 percent on purchases by following a few simple rules.
 A survey of spokesmen for leading retailing groups, government agencies and business research organizations suggests it is possible for the average family to buy ordinary necessities at lower than the customary prices. But, these men warn, you may have to spend its equivalent in time, thought or work.
 Here are some of the general ways experts say you can cut costs:
 Carefully compare values of competing products and competing stores. Some stores feature one brand of products at prices much lower than their competitors. Many stores which are high-priced on most things may feature some at cost or less, just to lure new trade. You will have to seek out the facts for yourself, remembering that a store's reputation for backing its claims and for making good on items that prove unsatisfactory—also is important. Study specifications and standards. Sometimes high-priced clothes are made to look good, but wear poorly.
 Plan purchases in advance so that you can act when special sale offers are made. For example, prices of clothing at end-of-season clearances may be as much as 50 percent lower.
 Buy in quantity the goods you use often. Large sizes of most foodstuffs are often cheaper per ounce of contents than small sizes.
 Do things yourself. In many cases you may be paying for services you can perform yourself. For instance, unpainted furniture which you can finish at home usually is much cheaper than the same article already painted.
 Make things yourself. Often clothes, baked goods and other foods that need processing can be made at home at much less than their "processed" prices at the store.
 The National Better Business Bureau warns price-conscious shoppers to beware of rackets, however. It says that shoddy merchandise bought for a small amount may prove more costly than quality goods for which you pay more. It urges you to suspect "bait advertising," where some things are advertised at prices the advertiser never intends to follow. The idea is to lure the customer into the store and sell him something inferior at a higher price.

Tea and Shower Honor Miss See

SHAMROCK—(Special)—Miss Media Mae See, popular bride-elect of Bob Dawson, whose wedding is scheduled to take place this evening at the Church of Christ, was complimented with a tea and shower Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. S. P. Beasley. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Beasley were Mrs. Eugene Byars, Mrs. Acie Henderson, Mrs. Don Rives, Mrs. G. L. Dodgen, and Mrs. Ernest Lasater.

White snapdragons arranged with fern made lovely decorations throughout the entertaining rooms. In the dining room the table was laid with a cloth of hand-crocheted lace and centered with a low bowl of white snapdragons with blue and white tapers illuminating the setting. In the receiving line were: Mrs. Beasley, Miss See and her mother, Mrs. Lorin See. Mrs. Lasater presided at the bride's book and Mrs. Henderson, Rives, and Dodgen were in the gift room, where many attractive gifts were on display. Miss Wanda Fern See, sister of the guest of honor, poured. She was assisted with the serving by Clara Jo Westmoreland, Mrs. Byars, and Mrs. Avery Miller. During the receiving hours Miss Martha Lou Setzler favored the group with a number of piano selections. Guests called between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock.

Temple Schoolboy Wins Poster Prize

AUSTIN—A third-grader in Dickson School at Temple won first prize in the primary division in the annual Fire Prevention Poster Contest. State Fire Insurance Commissioner Marvin Hall has announced.

The winner, Elmo Staley, drew a large pointer dog and captioned it: "Take a pointer from me and prevent fires."
 First place winners in three other divisions were Jackie Bralley or San Antonio, Intermediate, Jose Pena of El Paso, Junior High; and Buddy McDowell, of Fort Worth (Riverside), High School.
 The four best posters brought prizes of $7.50 each.
 "The excellent quality of the posters was as high as the quantity," Hall observed.

Brooklyn is often called the City of Churches.
 "Wholesale houses" with retail showrooms. The Better Business Bureau says "it is impracticable to maintain a policy of selling retail at wholesale prices."
 Fake "Selling Out" or "Going Out of Business" sales.
 "Money Back Guarantee." A guarantee, the bureau says, is only as good as the person who gives it and the promises of a swindler are worthless.
 Smuggled goods. Peddlers often give this description to all kinds of trashy stuff which seems cheap but really is greatly over-priced.

Hopkins HD Club Has Program on Milk

Mrs. Vern Savage was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the Hopkins Home Demonstration Club. Mrs. F. F. Rice was in charge of the business session.
 Mrs. R. W. Orr directed the recreation and each member answered roll call by naming her family's favorite milk dish.
 Mrs. W. E. Melton prepared a milk pudding dish and explained the nutritional value of serving milk regularly.
 Mrs. Savage gave a report on the Recreation School and announced plans for the all-club picnic to be held July 29 at 6 p. m.
 Refreshments of rolled sandwiches, coffee, and cookies were served at the close of the meeting to Mrs. Doris Zuppan and Jerry of Amarillo, Mrs. Joe Stone and Mary Jo and Mrs. M. D. Gish, visitors, and seven members.
 It was announced that the next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. R. A. Irwin on June 8.

Teens' Togs Can Round Out Figure

By ALICIA HART
 NEA Staff Writer
 A "slim jim" teen-ager should stop envying the lissome lines of curvier girls and start choosing clothes that will round out her angular figure. She'll find a plentiful choice in "new look" fashions.
 Best choices for a "slim jim" are clothes that nip in to accent her tiny waistline and puff out above and below it at bosom and hips. She can wear full ballerina-styled skirts or skirts with pleats or gores that swing out from a rib-hugging waistband. Ideal for her are many of fashion's pre-fabricated curves: hipline drapery, bustle bows, peplums, tiers, bow-tied sashes.
 A sketchy bosom gains curves from bodices strategically shirred or darted to release fabric fullness over the bustline. High necklines that sport chin-chucking collars, ruffs or stand-up collars are dainty foils for a long slender neck.
 Togs a "slim jim" should rule out of her wardrobe because they accentuate her boyish figure are straight skirts, severely tailored suits, long-fitted coats, tight sweaters, knitted suits. Also taboo are dresses made of clinging fabrics such as jersey.

 WE, THE WOMEN

BY RUTH MILLETT
 NEA Staff Writer

It's a wise woman who can steer a straight course between the extremes of being a doormat for her husband or a bossy woman who wears the family pants.
 In order to keep to the middle road show has to know:
 How to plant the seed of an idea in a man's mind so that it develops as his idea instead of her own.
 Just how much to build a man up—so that he reaches the point where he is sure of himself without going beyond it to the point of being arrogant.
 How to put the idea across that she is an individual entitled to her own ideas, opinions, and beliefs and still maintain a feminine personality that doesn't antagonize her husband.
 When to give in gracefully and when to stand up for her rights.
A LIFE APART
 How to have some life and interests apart from her husband, without neglecting him.
 How to get her husband to do his share of the home-making job without nagging him.
 How to develop a serenity of mind and spirit so that she doesn't lean on her husband.
 How to avoid jealousy. A man has no respect for a jealous woman.
 The woman who is wise enough to manage all that will never be a doormat, nor will she ever turn into a bossy woman married to a hen-pecked man.

Brethren Announce Evangelistic Services

Beginning on Monday evening, May 31, and continuing through Sunday evening, June 13, the local Church of the Brethren will conduct a series of evangelistic services. According to Rev. Russell G. West, pastor, the guest speaker will be the Rev. Wayne H. Dick, pastor of the Church of the Brethren in Lancaster, Pa. Rev. Dick is a graduate of Elizabethtown College in Pennsylvania and Bethany Biblical Seminary of Chicago. He holds a responsible position as pastor and youth worker in and around the city of Lancaster.

Rev. Dick is on his way to the Brethren General Conference which will be held in Colorado Springs June 15 to 20. Following the morning sermon in Lancaster on Sunday he will fly to Chicago and attend the graduating exercises in Bethany Biblical Seminary. From there he will fly to Amarillo, arriving in time to open the evangelistic services in Pampa on Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Lancaster County, Pa., is considered one of the most prosperous agricultural sections in America. The city of Lancaster is a prosperous city of around one hundred thousand people.

This will be the first visit of the guest minister to Texas. The people of Pampa are invited to come down to 600 North Frost Street and hear him. The time of evening service has been set for 8 o'clock.

On Sunday morning the pastor will preach at 11 o'clock on the

2-Way Radios Are Installed

Two of Pampa's taxi companies have recently installed two-way radio communicating systems between their cabs and the dispatchers' offices.

The Yellow Cab Company, 221 S. Cuyler, has had its Motorola equipment in operation in its five cabs for about two weeks.

Peg's Cab Company, 207 N. Frost, began using its Bendix transmitting and receiving equipment in six of its twelve cabs Wednesday evening.

C. M. "Peg" Whittle said he has had the necessary equipment for about a month, but, because he moved from 221 N. Cuyler to his present location, a new permit had to be obtained.

The proprietors of both companies say the communicating system allows them to give better and quicker service and cuts down considerably on operating expenses.

more telephone calls

More and more calls from more and more telephones have taxed the capacity of switchboards and operators alike during these days of equipment shortages. Even so, most calls at most times go through promptly.

If, at times, you do not hear "Number, please?" immediately, it's because hundreds of other people are calling at the same time and operators are doing their best to answer each call in turn. This is especially true during the busiest hours of the day—midmorning and early evening.

We're putting in more equipment as fast as we can get it. Our aim is to eliminate delays and answer every call promptly.

On Government's 'Buying' Rails

Maybe the people were supposed to be surprised when a group representing 20 railroads, including other day-commenced the government "begin preparations" to buy the nation's railroads. But we weren't. Maybe the people were supposed to say "That's a good idea!" But we didn't. Now, we weren't and we didn't. Some of the clearer thinking and honest leaders of our country have been saying for something that union action is a more and more toward nationalizing the industries that support our economic structure.

The trend from representatively democracy toward any "ism" is by degrees. The change is never made in one broad stroke. A few years ago no one would ever have thought of an American, or a group of Americans, advocating the government's "buying" an industry. But in this time and day, it came as a matter of course for the union a few years—or month—hence, the idea may be put forward again—this time in more token coin of sincerity.

Such step one day may be forced upon the people. The government according to the best patois of authority, is "forced" in the interest of "national welfare" to assume control of such important industry as the railroad companies. Why?

The reason is that the unions have such untoward power and monopoly that they can demand by law—beyond the power to pay of course, when the government takes over—even on a temporary basis—the unions get a better deal. This so-called better deal is taken from the pockets of the taxpayers—yours and you, and all the rest. When this happens, we see—a case of borrowing from Peter to pay Paul—but a robbing of Peter to give to Paul.

Gracie Reports

By GRACIE ALLEN Good old vaudeville! That was show business back in the days when they didn't have to give away half the city of Indianapolis or hand out Cadillac cars to get people to look at entertainment. And now, goodie, I see where the television authorities have sent out an "S O S" and all the wonderful old jugglers, tightrope walkers, chalk-talkers and paper-tearing going on there at the vaudeville was where I met my husband. At that time, George was considered by all the young ladies in vaudeville as a great "catch." In fact, he was always catching the bird and sometimes even a few vegetables.

Our success in stopping the infiltration of Communists in this country may be an important factor in preventing World War III. —Harold E. Stassen.

PLAYING WITH FIRE by Upton Close

WASHINGTON — The situation in the Middle East is so complex, with so much at stake, that anything can happen. Israel has put itself in the center of a four-way tug-of-war between the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and the Arabs. Prizes are oil, military beachheads, financial and political power. Mr. Truman clearly has made up his mind not to offend the pro-Israel vote in the United States, at least not before the elections. As mentioned previously in this column, the minority vote of which the Jewish vote is a part and for which it furnishes leadership, has exercised the balance of power in the seven industrial states in recent national elections. This minority strength in these states has almost doubled since 1940 and has become so regimented that it may be voted virtually as a captive bloc for the party which offers it most nearly what it demands. Truman could not be reelected without it, for the seven key states represent 195 of the 266 electoral votes which constitute a majority in the electoral college and the regular Democrats cannot swing these states. Only such a personality as MacArthur might be able to win them without minority support.

Fair Enough... by Westbrook Pegler

JACKSON, Miss. — On a beautiful Sabbath morning a few weeks ago the Hon. Fielding Wright, Governor of Mississippi, broadcast an oration on interracial relations which expressed with benign hypocrisy the attitude of the Southern white man toward the Negro. He did not express the hypocrisy of the Northern white man toward the Negro. He did not even mention the sacred name of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, that valiant fighter for civic equality and against discrimination, segregation and ostracism. Never in all his twelve years and a bit in the White House did Roosevelt appoint any Negro to any superior political job in the South and he did sign his name to a property deed at his real estate promotion at Warm Springs, Ga., forbidding forever the sale of his land to any Negro, or its rental or occupancy by any such. In so doing the old jester showed his true attitude. In spite of these facts well known to all his twelve years and a bit in the White House did Roosevelt appoint any Negro to any superior political job in the South and he did sign his name to a property deed at his real estate promotion at Warm Springs, Ga., forbidding forever the sale of his land to any Negro, or its rental or occupancy by any such.

Roosevelt's program now thrust upon Truman would forbid discrimination against Negroes in employment, forbid impairment of the Negro's right to vote, which is no more than a wraith of a theory in the battleground states, compel the Southern white to admit Negroes to the public schools of all degrees and to churches and movies and other resorts, and penalize white communities, even down to little unpainted, dirt-road villages, for any informal violence offered any Negro accused or suspected of any rudeness.

Some of these penalties of the antilynching proposals are ingeniously ruinous. All this is offered in Truman's name, although Mr. Truman, as a gang or machine politician, is not known to have any Negroes in his cabinet, and as a child of unconstructed Missouri rebels of the Civil War, never had a word to say on the subject until the presidency came for him to run for the Democratic Party this year. Until he was picked by Roosevelt with the advice and consent of Sidney Hillman in 1944 to be the Democratic candidate for vice president, Mr. Truman's social and political attitude toward Negroes was the conventional racial superiority of "national welfare" in the interest of "national welfare" to assume control of such important industry as the railroad companies. Why?

The American people are accustomed to think of war as fought only with military weapons—armies and ships and planes and shooting. But there is a phase of war other than shooting, and this is now in progress. —Maj.-Gen. William J. Donovan, former head of OSS.

The domestic price structure in the U. S. will not be measurably affected by the European Recovery Program. —Willard L. Thorp, assistant secretary of state.

Children and dogs are as necessary to the welfare of this country as is Wall Street and the railroad, or any other thing. —President Truman, urging passage of the housing bill.

Truman has appeared that vote and a civil rights program and with recognition of Israel and has now only to work out a temporary peace with Stalin in order to regain the full minority support. Henry Wallace may be expected to withdraw if Truman and Stalin get chummy again. Stalin is giving the President a pre-emption chance, because the Kremlin would rather keep the minorities can use than to risk getting MacArthur. SOVIET BEACHHEAD? All these maneuvers have direct bearing on the Middle East mud. Truman's problem is to hold both the Jewish vote and the oil of Arab. A truce between Jews and Arabs would serve this end and a beachhead would be acceptable to everybody with the possible exception of the Arabs. Short of a truce, there is no way Truman can have both without forcibly taking the oil, or backing Israel in taking it. Persuade Israel or Truman does not want to start a campaign, but that is the logical end of Truman's moves under present circumstances, and lifting the arms embargo will advance this objective.

That would be a dangerous course for the United States to follow, entirely aside from principal — which does not appear to enter into the activities of this administration. The Arabs might counter the invasion by negotiating with the U. S. S. R. for support in exchange for oil and beachheads. Any such intervention by the Soviets would precipitate a showdown. On the other hand, Stalin might eventually get the oil the other way — that is, if Israel took it. For he has sent a constant stream of Communist immigrants into Jewish Palestine for a long time, and now reportedly has 50,000 Red Army officers and men at Beal Sea ports from which they are being slowly fed into the new state of Israel as refugees. Many are believed to have been in displaced persons camps. Israel is playing a double game, getting support and aid from both the U. S. and the U. S. S. R., but Truman might be fooled if Israel ever got complete possession of Middle East oilfields, for Israel would have to repay its obligation to Russia by negotiating some oil contracts eastward. And if it was between the East and the West, Mr. Truman might be fooled again, for Communist influence presently will be so strong in Israel, if it is not already, that the West cannot afford to count on its cooperation against Russia.

THAT BOGOTA AFFAIR The bloody uprising which almost wrecked the Inter-American Conference at Bogota recently was headlined in the American press. Most observers thought it was just another South American political upheaval. Yet, when the smoke of pillaging, the looting, and the dynamiting had ceased, it was evident that this rebellion had something different. The new ingredient was the amazing precision of timing and the speed with which the events moved.

When American newspaper men who were in Bogota had time to think about it, they discovered that this "revolution" was pulled off with the same practiced technique that European Communists have been known to use. It was also discovered, after the haze cleared, that our own State Department, including our Bogota foreign office, had received warnings out of Chile that something was afoot. Yet, nothing prevented the uprising.

Amazing speed and clocklike technique marked this April 9 adventure which set a whole country ablaze. Experienced newsmen report it was unlike other South American revolutions in this regard. Events took place as if by prearrangement. The various gangs which participated were so well organized and supplied, and "arrangements" so well made, that the government was virtually powerless for a whole day to take any action.

First a liberal party leader was shot down on the street under circumstances that indicate the Communists may have killed one of their own, just to get things started. The assassin was stomped to death and mutilated so that identification was impossible. After that, just like clockwork, mobs in widely scattered areas got busy. They grabbed radio stations and asked the "masses" to go forward to the attack. Soapboxes and Gasoline The Communists then really took to their soap-boxes. They openly identified themselves as Communists and called for comrades to aid and assist. They had weapons. Other mobs attacked public buildings, including the Inter-American Conference was being held. Yet another mob dragged the Communist corpse to the Colombian president's mansion, where it was flung across the doorstep for the rest of the afternoon.

What happened to the police? They had disappeared. Nor did the army show up. The mob, therefore, were busy burning, looting and wrecking buildings. The army was said to be critically short of gasoline, yet plenty was available for the gangs. Plenty of dynamite also. While these things were happening in Bogota, key centers elsewhere were being bombed and pillaged in the same manner. Lawless Fanaticism Why am I recounting all this? I want to demonstrate that Communism is not a law-abiding political party. It is a lawless fanaticism. It is a demonstration of the kind of terrorism which shows the type of terrorism and force made use of by Communists to gain political power. What Communists have done in Russia and Europe, riots and uprisings, they will do again wherever they can, in whatever countries they find sleeping on the job.

America must not be lulled to sleep by the sweet words of misguided idealists who are being used by revolutionists the world over. There are few real Communists in America. There are not many Americans that desire to join lawless mobs. But Communists will stop at nothing which will cause strife and division among our people. We must know the methods of Communists, for if we do not anticipate the harm that even a few of them can do, we stand to lose what is America.

GAMBLED AND LOST The bill for his lunch in the dining car was $1.45, and my boss pulled out two one-dollar bills. The waiter brought in change a 50-cent piece and a nickel. My boss looked up at the waiter, who gazed solemnly at the change tray. With a grunt of annoyance, my boss pocketed the half-dollar and, to his astonishment the waiter grinned widely. "That's all right, sir," he chuckled. "I just gambled and lost. Just gambled and lost!" —Reader's Digest.

FUNNY BUSINESS BY HERSHBERGER

What's This? Another U.S. Walkout?

MELEE — In view of this pre-convention alignment, it is extremely probable that Senator Taft will start the march toward the Dewey camp. Such a swing should lead to the nomination of the New Yorker. But if it does not, then the favorite sons, the dot, horses and the unknown will have their chance. In such a melee the outstanding candidate will be Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan. No far behind him will be Speaker Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts, Governor Earl Warren of California, Senator Edward Brooke of Pennsylvania and a man rarely mentioned in the public prints but frequently suggested as a possibility—Senator Taft's colleague, John W. Bricker who was Mr. Dewey's running mate in 1944.

ATONE — Should it appear from the balloting, from signs of sentiment among the delegates and from last-minute reports around the countryside that Mr. Taft's unfortunate personality and labor's enmity make him the weakest candidate, it will be his responsibility to decide where he will throw his delegates. And a Taft switch at this particular moment, if he can carry even 200 of his supporters with him, could start the bandwagon rolling for the man of his choice.

TO SPECIFIC — If the stalemate outlined above develops, the shift of 200 Taft men to the 250 or 300 which Mr. Stassen or Mr. Dewey might have would virtually clinch the nomination for the lucky beneficiary. Unpledged and favorite son delegations, which will number about 500, will be quick to swing along with the Taft parade.

LEFTISH — The oversuspicious John Taber, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, though that he had caught Paul Hoffman and Roving European Ambassador W. Averell Harriman "playing fast and loose" with the leftists when they selected a Washington Post reporter, Al Friendly, as Mr. Harriman's publicity agent at Paris. As a Washington Post man covering national affairs, Mr. Friendly's stories usually had a Southern flavor. Although the newspaper is owned by Eugene Meyer, Herbert Hoover's chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, it has been so leftist that Capitol Hill Republicans refer to it as "the Washington edition of the People's Daily Worker."

Mr. Taber has learned since that he should have saved his breath. Mr. Friendly is an extremely wealthy person, a believer in the capitalistic system that helped to build his inheritance, and is on terms of economic and social intimacy with a multi-millionaire, Harriman. In fact, there are more millionaires—Hoffman, Harriman Ambassador Douglas etc.—in E.R.C. than in any other agency of the government.

MISTAKE — Senator Taft must speak quickly, however, to avoid the 1940 blunder which permitted Mr. Stassen's political godfather, Wendell Willkie, to steal the first prize from the "regulars." Incidentally, that sensational convention stampede is still fresh in the minds of Mr. Taft and Mr. Dewey, and it is a sore subject with the political bosses. It is also Mr. Stassen's chief handicap, for preparations have been made against a repetition. It is certain that the Ohioan will not swing his support to the Minnesota, whose personality and policies are anathema to the son of the former president. In view of his Senate fight for federal aid to health, housing and education, he regards Harold as a "fake liberal" and an "utter opportunist." He and the New York Governor present, personally well politically, the insider's desperate last-minute assertion in the Oregon primary that they had formed a heavily financed coalition against him. Aside from his daring a Dewey debate, that seemingly cry baby charge was the worst mistake Mr. Stassen has made since he began to run, not walk, for the nearest White House gateway.

"GOOD afternoon, Charlotte," said Miss Helen. "I'm very relieved to see you. Your Aunt Alice and I have been waiting here for some time." Charlotte tossed off her hat and coat, and flung them at Elizabeth as she entered the room with another cup and saucer. "Put those away for me, Elizabeth, and put out my black dress, will you? I've exactly a quarter-of-an-hour Aunt Helen, Aunt Alice—I'm so terribly sorry to be in this rush." "Charlotte, where's Patience?" demanded Miss Helen. "Excuse me one moment, Aunt Helen," Charlotte tore open the telegram, read it quickly, and then looked up at her aunt with an apologetic smile. "I'm so sorry, Aunt Helen, what were you saying?" "I asked you where Patience was. I want to know why she didn't go as usual to the Academy."

Charlotte looked at them unflinchingly. She hadn't Patience's scruples regarding speaking the truth. Roger had wired her to hold the fort as best she could and, angry though she was with both him and Patience, she'd do the best she could under the circumstances. She dropped down on a chair and poured herself some tea. She said silyly that they'd decided—well, it was she, of course, who'd really decided—that London was no place for the week-end. It was far too hot. She smiled from one lady to the other and said she was sure they would both agree with her. "And then some friends of mine who've got a houseboat between Oxford and Henley rang me up and asked me to take Patience down. I thought it was a wonderful idea for us to go. They're very charming people, Aunt Helen. You'd like them, and approve of them, I feel sure." "THAT is something of which you couldn't possibly be a judge, Charlotte. And if you went down to this houseboat—may I say why Patience didn't return this morning to go to her dressmaking classes as usual?" Charlotte smiled disarmingly. "I'm afraid that was entirely my fault. You see, I wasn't coming back till later in the day. And Patsey—she's one of the daughters—has a birthday. There were a lot of people staying there for it, and tonight she's having a party. Patience and she got on so well together I just insisted Patience should stay on for it. She's returning first thing in the morning." Miss Helen rose to her feet. "I'm sorry, Charlotte, to have to say this, but after what has happened I shall have to forbid Patience to come and stay with you here any more. Naturally if you care to come and visit her in the country that's another matter. But it seems to me that when she is with you she loses all sense of duty." Charlotte felt a sudden anger surge through her. For a long while she'd been wishing Patience would stand up to Aunt Helen. And thinking how singularly spineless she was not to do so. Well, if Patience wouldn't tell her aunt what she thought of her, here at least was her own opportunity. "I resent your saying that, Aunt Helen. I consider it most unfair." "I'm not interested in your opinion, Charlotte. Alice, we'll be leaving."

But Charlotte barred their way. "It doesn't occur to you both that Patience needs a little fun occasionally? That it's quite absurd the way you try and restrict her? God heavens, she might be living in the 1890's!" "I think you forget yourself, Charlotte," said Miss Helen in a frozen voice. "I DON'T. I think you're a selfish old woman, and you're trying to make Aunt Alice as bad. I'm heartily sorry for Patience for having to live with you. If I could have my way I'd have her here with me in London. And I'd see she enjoyed herself. You know what's going to happen if you continue to keep her under lock and key?" "What, Charlotte?" asked Miss Alice tremulously. "Why, she'll probably run off with some man about whom you know nothing. It's only natural one day she's going to want to. You'll bring about the one thing you're so degrading may happen. She'll be just like Mother—"

"I see we have a customer—we are using News Want Ads again!"

The Innocent Impostor By Renee Shann

COPYRIGHT BY RENEE SHANN; DISTRIBUTED BY NEA SERVICE, INC. full idea for us to go. They're very charming people, Aunt Helen. You'd like them, and approve of them, I feel sure. "THAT is something of which you couldn't possibly be a judge, Charlotte. And if you went down to this houseboat—may I say why Patience didn't return this morning to go to her dressmaking classes as usual?" Charlotte smiled disarmingly. "I'm afraid that was entirely my fault. You see, I wasn't coming back till later in the day. And Patsey—she's one of the daughters—has a birthday. There were a lot of people staying there for it, and tonight she's having a party. Patience and she got on so well together I just insisted Patience should stay on for it. She's returning first thing in the morning." Miss Helen rose to her feet. "I'm sorry, Charlotte, to have to say this, but after what has happened I shall have to forbid Patience to come and stay with you here any more. Naturally if you care to come and visit her in the country that's another matter. But it seems to me that when she is with you she loses all sense of duty." Charlotte felt a sudden anger surge through her. For a long while she'd been wishing Patience would stand up to Aunt Helen. And thinking how singularly spineless she was not to do so. Well, if Patience wouldn't tell her aunt what she thought of her, here at least was her own opportunity. "I resent your saying that, Aunt Helen. I consider it most unfair." "I'm not interested in your opinion, Charlotte. Alice, we'll be leaving."

Market Briefs

WALL STREET
NEW YORK, May 27—(AP)—The stock market went into a long slow decline today after an early short-lived burst of demand.

The market closed with losses of fractions to a point or so in the majority. In the morning the industrial group had hit a new peak since activity slackened soon after the opening but expanded a bit later in the session when selling pressure became more aggressive.

Sales were credited mainly to profit-taking operations, rather than to change in the opinion held by many investors and speculators that the basic trend of the market is upward.

Turnover was at the rate of about 1,800,000 shares.

Taking the worst beating—off a point or more—were Nickel Plate Railroad, U. S. Steel, and U. S. Rubber.

Among the gainers were General Motors, Chrysler, Studebaker, Montgomery Ward, J. I. Case, Cerro de Pasco, American Smelting, Union Pacific, Eastman Kodak, U. S. Gypsum, Virginia-Carolina Chemical, Standard Oil (N.J.), and Electric Power.

Overland (after reaching 1948 high) and Douglas Aircraft, Northern Pacific, Southern Railway, Munson Corp., Allied Chemical, Owens Illinois, Schenley, and Packard.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, May 27—(AP)—Soybeans spotted as much as the eight cent daily limit in an otherwise quiet and lower market on the Board of Trade today.

The buying in soybeans followed action of the Senate Finance Committee in approving unanimously a bill to repeal federal taxes on oleomargarine. The bill already has passed the House. Prices in soybeans were accompanied by soybeans advancing cottonseed oil gains in New York.
