Eye On Junket Expense

Solons Will Be Held Liable

By FRANK ELEAZER
United Press International

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The chairman of a House watchdog committee proposed today that junketing congressmen be required to account publicly for their government-paid expenses so taxpayers can be sure their money doesn't go for whiskey, night clubs, and other high living.

Rep. Omar Burleson (D-Tex.), who heads the Committee on House Administration, said he believed prompt reporting on outlays for official travel in and out of the country would safeguard the Treasury against abuses. He said he doubted that abuses were common anyway.

There was no immediate rush among his fellow lawmakers to get behind Burleson's proposal. Many members felt they had been treated unfairly in published charges of legislative hi-jinks on investigative missions in the U.S. and abroad.

In similar copyrighted accounts by a team of two reporters, the Knight newspapers and Life magazine said a look at 25,529 vouchers filed by House members prior to last June 30 revealed some "shocking" abuses of the congressional expense account.

Burleson, one of the targets of the charges, was directed immediately by his committee to "reiterate in the strongest terms" to other House members the ground rules on what they may and may not charge off to the taxpayers for official travels.

He also announced plans to confer with House leaders on what else could be done to tighten up the admittedly "rather loose" arrangement by which his committee approves congressional expense sheets.

"I think we'll have to get tougher with them," Burleson said.

He told United Press International one good way to do this would be to require that each member on his return from a trip file for publication in the congressional record a full account of his outlays.

The coordinating committee and the board of directors of the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority will meet Monday at the Hilton Hotel in Plainview to determine future courses of action the authority will follow.

Fred Thompson and Clinton Evans of Pampa are members of the board of directors.

The board also will receive a progress report from the coordinating committee, which will meet at 10 a.m. The board's session will begin at 1 p.m.

TEXAS WINS TIDELANDS — Louisiana was defeated along with Alabama and Mississippi when the U.S. won title to the oil-rich off-shore areas beyond the traditional three-mile limit. The federal government lost to Florida and Texas when the Supreme Court found these two states were entitled to a coastal belt 10 1/2 miles wide. Louisiana, whose immediate financial stake was highest, promised to continue fighting for the vast income from the Gulf oil royalties.

Victory Surpasses All Expectations

AUSTIN (UPI)—The U.S. Supreme Court decision giving Texas its tidelands victory over the federal government was even better than state officials had hoped for.

"We have won here a victory of more magnitude than I thought possible," Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said Wednesday after reading the 80-page opinion of the high court.

He pointed out the effect of the decision gives Texas not only the mineral rights on submerged lands three leagues, or 10 1/2 miles seaward, but also the right to govern those lands.

"I feel there is no danger of losing the tidelands by Congressional action on the Submerged Lands Act of 1953," Wilson said. "The act gave Texas the tidelands and the claim was disputed by the federal government in the case before the Supreme Court."

"We hoped to establish the historical boundary at three leagues for the recovery of minerals, but this opinion says the boundary goes out three leagues for all governmental purposes."

Wilson said he had expected a decision giving Texas the mineral rights to three leagues, but expected government control to end at three miles, the boundary for the high seas.

It means that Texas can levy a production tax on gas and oil taken from the submerged lands. Also, game and fish laws and criminal law can be extended to the three league limit, and workers' compensation laws would be extended to employees of the offshore drilling rigs.

Congo Voters Offered Payola - White Wives

LEOPOLDVILLE, Belgian Congo (UPI)—Reports that African extremist politicians were promising native voters the women and property of white men spurred a mass movement of white settlers from the sprawling Belgian Congo today.

The reports, made grimmer by news of the first murder of a European settler by a Negro in more than 19 months, brought the exodus to near panic pitch.

The whites were trying to get out before the Belgian Congo gains independence June 30.

The National Congolese movement and its radical allies have been making sweeping election gains.

Reports from the interior said African national leaders have been telling their followers they would take over white men's houses, cars, "and even women" on independence day.

A Greek planter was hacked to death by one of his native workers in the district of Manjema Wednesday.

Travel agents and airlines are booked solid by air and sea in all directions for the next two months. Many families were leaving with a minimum of possessions and without proper travel documents.

With poll returns in for 94 of the 137 seats in the new Congo Chamber of Deputies, extremist parties accounted for at least 46 seats. Although they probably will not obtain a clear majority, the returns indicated their combined strength would leave them in control of a coalition government.

Sheriff's Office Hires Bookkeeper

Ed Schneider, 601 E. Kingmill, is now associated with the Gray County sheriff's office. Sheriff Rufe Jordan announced today.

Schneider, who has lived here for seven years, will be the head bookkeeper, and will be in charge of the office.

Previously he has worked in the newspaper and advertising fields.

"Ed is a welcome addition to this office," Jordan said. "He's highly qualified for the job and we're glad to have him with us."

Rules Change Would Permit Election Debate

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate Commerce Committee has approved legislation designed to pave the way for a great election-year radio-TV debate between the Republican and Democratic presidential nominees.

The resolution would suspend a section of the Federal Communications Act requiring radio and TV stations and networks to give "equal time" to rival political candidates.

Stations say they sometimes have been reluctant to grant free air time to any candidate for fear they will be flooded with demands for time from minor party candidates.

The proposed bill would suspend this provision for the 1960 election, thus allowing the networks to set up a debate between the two major party presidential nominees.

Only nominees for the offices of president and vice president would be exempt from the equal time provision, and then only for the campaign period preceding election day.

U-2 Flights Provided U.S. With Vital Data

Disclosure By Gates To Foreign Relations Group

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Defense Secretary Thomas S. Gates, Jr., disclosed today that U-2 spy plane flights provided the United States with secret data about Soviet atomic weapons, missiles, submarines, planes and airfields.

He said the information brought back by the planes was "vital information" which was used by the Defense Department.

Gates described the military value of the flights in closed door testimony before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee which is conducting an inquiry into the U-2 episode and the subsequent failure of the summit meeting.

Gates testified that the espionage flights, directed by the Central Intelligence Agency, produced "information on airfields, aircraft, missiles, missile testing and training, special weapons storage, submarine production, atomic production and aircraft deployments" and similar secrets.

"These were all types of vital information," he said. "These results were considered in formulating our military programs. We obviously were the prime customer and ours is the major interest."

A censored transcript of Gates' testimony was made public.

Gates also testified about his action ordering a worldwide alert of all U.S. military services on the eve of the Paris summit crisis.

Gates said the May 15 alert with special emphasis on communications was issued as a "quiet increase in command readiness" and was to have been carried out "without public notice, if possible." Word of the alert leaked out, however.

"This communications alert was not an act that was either offensive or defensive in character," he said. "It was a sound precautionary measure. It did not recall Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine personnel from leave. There was no movement of forces involved."

"However, I want to emphasize that it did make certain that if subsequent developments made necessary a higher state of readiness, such action could be taken promptly and convincingly."

The defense chief said U.S. military forces are "always on some degree of alert." On May 15, he said, American officials in Paris were "already aware of the sense of the statement" that Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev was going to make the following day.

Gates said it was evident that Khrushchev "deliberately intended to wreck the conference."

Of the spy plane missions, Gates explained that Defense Department personnel gave "technical advice to the U-2 project." But he said "no military aircraft were used for these flights nor were the pilots military personnel."

He said CIA Director Allen W. Dulles said "I am sure you will find this information of great interest." (See FLIGHTS, Page 4)

Baptists Face Big Decision At Convention

By MARTIN GLEASON
United Press International

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (UPI)—The American Baptist Convention opens its 33rd annual meeting tonight faced with a decision on a controversial move to withdraw its 1,500,000-member denomination from the National Council of Churches.

The first Baptist Church of Wichita, Kans., has asked northern Baptists to withdraw from the National Council, the largest cooperative church body in America. The Kansas church delegation, which has the largest congregation in the denomination with 4,300 members, requested the break because it feels the National Council is "too liberal."

The request heads the list of items presented at pre-convention meetings Wednesday of the General Council, policy-making staff of the denomination.

The Wichita proposal was instituted in March, when the congregation voted to withhold financial support to the American Baptist Convention pending a decision at this meeting. A convention spokesman said several member churches were "interested" in the outcome of the issue.

None has openly taken a positive stand on the proposal, but denominational leaders have indicated that the convention will back a resolution to remain allied with the National Council of Churches.

The convention proper starts today in the Rochester Community War Memorial and will run through next Tuesday. More than 10,000 delegates and visitors were expected to hear the presidential address by the Rev. Dr. Herbert Gezork, who heads the Andover Newton Theological School, Newton Center, Mass.

Uprising Reported In Western Tibet

The following dispatch comes from a veteran UPI correspondent who has just completed a three-week tour of Tibetan border areas by horse and mule-back.

By A. K. DAS
United Press International

PARO, Bhutan (UPI)—A furious new uprising has broken out against the Chinese Communists in western Tibet, informed sources reported today.

The revolt is so serious that thousands of Red Army troops have been withdrawn from the borders of India, Sikkim and Bhutan to cope with it, the sources said.

The reports, collected here from both official and Tibetan refugee sources, said the new uprising started in the Seekhar Dzong area of western Tibet about the middle of May and was taking a heavy toll of Red Chinese.

Several refugees recently arrived in this tiny Himalayan state on the southern border of Tibet said they had seen 10 to 15 trucks loaded with the bodies of Communist soldiers pass through the trading town of Gyantse.

It was believed here that Nationalist Chinese elements had helped spark the outbreak of fighting.

Johnson Has All Earmarks Of A Candidate

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson is out of the presidential starting gate and running with the sure-footedness of a Texas quarter horse.

But after a six-state Western campaign swing, Johnson still is withholding an announcement of his candidacy.

There is at least a good chance he will say nothing formally about being a candidate until just before the Democratic convention opens in Los Angeles on July 11—if then.

The Texas Democrat returned to the Senate last Wednesday, tired from his six-day Western trip but obviously pleased with what he found.

During his absence, his presidential hopes were given a lift by two developments.

One was a full-page advertisement carried in 18 major newspapers across the country, urging Johnson to "become an active candidate for the nomination."

The other was an editorial endorsement by the Scripps-Howard newspapers, whose 19 editors joined in calling him the "ablest and strongest Democrat available" for the presidency.

Johnson is known to feel that the delegate claims of the Democratic presidential "front-runner," Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), are somewhat inflated.

Turkey Promises Elections

Former Premier To Face Tribunal

ANKARA, Turkey (UPI) — The ruling National Unity Committee announced today that leaders of the deposed Menderes regime will go on trial within a month, and that elections for a new Parliament will be held "in the shortest possible time."

Observers here speculated that the elections would not take place until the trials of ex-Premier Adnan Menderes and other deposed leaders have been completed—perhaps several months from now.

The discovery here and in Istanbul of the graves of a number of young Turks believed to have been killed by police during anti-Menderes riots increased speculation that the ex-premier and some of his aides might face the death penalty.

Col. Ertugrul Alatli, spokesman for the committee, said it has assumed the full powers of Parliament. He said it will pass laws and hold the old government responsible for its actions.

Alatli confirmed that number of bodies have been found in Ankara and Istanbul, but gave no further details.

There were reports as many as 70 bodies had been found—some of them in refrigerator boxes—but the new government of Gen. Cemal Gursel declined to disclose the exact figure.

It was becoming more clear by the hour that the 20-man military junta headed by Gursel—formed the Committee of National Unity (See TURKEY, Page 4)

May Rainfall Shows Drop

Rainfall for the month of May dropped 1.47 inches below the total for the same period a year ago.

This year 1.32 inches fell during May as compared to 2.79 inches in 1959.

The largest rainfall here last month measured 62 inches May 4. Tuesday night's total was .42 inches.

Only one other rain was recorded during the month, measuring .62.

In comparison, the largest rainfall of May, 1959 totaled 1.22 inches.

Gift Package Blast Injures Housewife

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — A hand-delivered package exploded in the face of a woman and her two daughters early today, critically injuring the woman and knocking the children off the back porch.

Mrs. Francis Binkley Tate and her two daughters, aged 8 and 10, were rushed to a hospital where a spokesman said Mrs. Tate was in "very critical" condition.

"Her hands are gone. She's just completely blown up," the spokesman said.

Police said the two girls were "freaked out" when they were tossed from the back porch by the explosion. The hospital listed them as in fair condition.

Police were at a loss to explain why the family, which lived in a suburban Inglewood, was singled out for what appeared to be a bomb attack.

"Somebody came up to the back door and handed the package to them," said a Madison-Inglewood police officer. "Evidently it was someone who knew them. The people opened it up and it blew up."

Police Lt. Jack DeWitt said the woman took the brunt of the explosion. An infant in the house was not harmed.

An explosion rocked the home of Negro City Councilman Z. Alexander Looby April 19 during the course of lunch counter protests here.

Mrs. Tate is white. Police said they did not believe the bombing today had anything to do with the race.

June 5 will be promotion day for Bible classes at the Church of Christ.

Clemmon Muse of Henryetta will be here June 6 at 7:30 p.m. to begin a series of gospel meetings at the Lefors Church of Christ. A one-week vacation Bible school will also be held the same week, June 6 through 10. Classes for all ages will be available, and a picnic will conclude the meeting and school.

Wall Street In Review

NEW YORK (UPI)—Recent efforts to reduce inventories to minimum levels may contribute to unusually sharp rebounds in building up stocks in the future, according to C. F. Childs & Co. In the pre-computer era, Childs points out, inventory levels were less precisely calculated and there was a margin cut out of which rising demand could be met out of stocks. Now that such calculations can be narrowed down to a matter of decimal places, any considerable expansion of final sales must be felt all down the line almost instantly.

Childs notes that this point is touched on by the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago in its "business conditions" for May: "Many users of steel, copper and aluminum," the article says, "are reported to be operating with relatively small inventories, counting heavily upon prompt delivery to maintain production schedules. Should an appreciable rise in consumer spending occur in the second quarter, it is possible that stocks of some users would not be sufficient to support desired levels of operation and new orders would rise."

First Charter Financial appears to have excellent prospects for further appreciation, according to Spear & Staff. Indications point to steady gains in population with an accompanying need for additional housing, Spear says. It advises purchase of first charter as an unusual growth situation for those who are in a position to forego cash dividends in the immediate future.

Admittance Of Red China To UN On SEATO Agenda Today

By RUTHERFORD POATS United Press International. WASHINGTON (UPI)—The U.S. stand against admitting Communist China to the United Nations might come up today for further discussion at a closed meeting of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) foreign ministers.

Despite Secretary of State Christian A. Herter's vigorous defense of this country's China policy at Wednesday's SEATO session, high diplomatic sources said Herter had been told the question would be reopened.

Which country might press the issue was not disclosed. Two SEATO members, Britain and Pakistan, diplomatically recognize Red China. But sources had not challenged the U.S. policy.

New Zealand's Prime Minister Walter Nash has described recognition of the Peiping regime as "expedient." He has not yet spoken on future policy toward China in the current SEATO strategy session.

Pakistan Foreign Minister Manzur Quadri was said to be ready, "if asked," to defend his nation's stand that the United Nations as a world organization should not exclude the most populous country.

But Quadri did not hold out the hope that Communist China would be any less belligerent or expansionist.

June Value Days Set By Chamber

The Merchant Activities Committee of the chamber of commerce voted to sponsor a Vacation Values Day in Pampa June 23-25 at its meeting Wednesday.

Vacation Values Days will be promoted through a special tabloid section which will be published in the Daily News June 22. An additional 6,000 copies of the tabloid will be printed and mailed to families in the Pampa area.

Special promotions will be carried over both local radio stations also.

The group also discussed the parking problem in downtown Pampa and urged business and professional people to park their cars on side streets, leaving the main streets open for customers.

A committee composed of Lucian Young, Bill McComas and Travis Lively, Jr. was named to work with the city commission on the traffic problems.

FLIGHTS

Dulles, whose secret testimony before the committee has not been made public, recommended operations to the President after getting concurrence from the secretaries of defense and state.

"More specifically," he said, "I reviewed program proposals embracing several priority missions, one or more of which it was proposed to execute in the near future. Responsibility for the operational conduct of the program rested with the CIA."

Gates' opening statement took less than three pages and was not released before its release to the press.

Gates ordered the alert from Paris the day before summit session was to begin. The alert sent servicemen scurrying to duty stations around the world but caused concern in many localities.

President Eisenhower said he approved of the alert, which came about a week after the United States admitted that the U-2 plane downed in Russia was on an intelligence-gathering mission.

The committee questioned Deputy Administrator Hugh A. Dryden of the National Aeronautics and Space Agency for two hours Wednesday about NASA's role in the U-2 incident. The spy plane bore NASA markings.

Dryden's testimony was heavily censured and Fulbright said the committee had approved of the deletions.

It was understood that the committee wanted to help NASA before its shaken reputation as a scientific organization and not further damage its status in working with other nations on space projects.

Dryden told the senators that a "high level decision" authorizing the State Department to explain the U-2 spy plane incident was not transmitted to his agency for at least one day.

He also said that information contained in a May 5 NASA statement about the downed high-altitude reconnaissance plane was furnished by the super-secret Central Intelligence Agency.

Pair Fined For Taking Gasoline

Thomas Brady Kirby, 20, of 835 Malone, and Jimmy Wayne Mayberry, 19, of 1128 S. Dwight were fined $25 each in Corporation Court today for stealing gasoline at the Goldsmith Dairy Wednesday night.

The pair was arrested shortly after they were observed taking gas from one of the dairy's pumps and putting it in their 1953 Mercury.

tion-minded if it were given a seat on the U.N. Security Council. Herter contended Wednesday that giving Communist China the prestige of U.N. membership would only strengthen Peiping's campaign to neutralize Japan and install Communist governments in small nations around the China border.

Tidelands To Hurt Fishing, Wilson Says

AUSTIN (UPI)—While state officials lauded the U.S. Supreme Court decision giving Texas control of its tidelands, it appeared the same decision might harm the Texas fishing industry.

The high court ruled that Texas has control of the tidelands to the three league limit, or 10 1/2 miles seaward as contended by the federal government.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson, after reading the court's lengthy opinion, said it appears to him the Supreme Court also held that Mexico's boundary also extends three leagues seaward.

Texas shrimpers caught fishing in Mexican territorial waters have contended that Mexico's boundary extends only three miles out. But Mexico has enforced restrictions to the three league limit, and at times fired upon and seized boats and crews.

New Sign Over Cemetery's Gate

LEFORS (SpI) — A new sign, "Lefors-Memorial Heights," now adorns the entrance to the Lefors cemetery, over a gate flanked by brick pillars.

Most of the work was completed for Memorial Day by the Lefors Art and Civic Club, sponsors of the project, and other members of the community.

In addition to the sign, graves were cleaned and mounded, and the cemetery was cleaned, mowed and watered.

Those working were Mmes. Bill Watson, Keith Geister, Floyd Hines, Messrs. and Mmes. Walter Elliott and Don E. J. Thacker, James Jinks, Boyd Beck, O. O. Bishop, J. J. Jackson, and Miss Sharon Hines.

Youth Center Project Discussed

The Pampa Rotary club yesterday heard a talk by Fred Neslage and Gene Hollar on the history and plans for the development of the youth and community center.

Neslage reviewed the background of the effort to raise funds for the project and Hollar, project architect, explained the layout of the physical plant.

It was announced that Gene Groom will serve as secretary of the organization for the coming year.

President Jack Edmondson reminded the members of the installation meeting the evening of June 21 at the Coronado Inn.

Visitors and guests were Paul Payne, Hal Rice, Vic Perrino, L. B. Nicholson, Jerry Walsh, Bill Thomas and Lester Wild.

UPRISING

Lama also were understood to be encouraging the freedom fight, the refugees said.

The Panchem Lama himself, installed in power by the Chinese after the flight to India of the god-king Dalai Lama, was reported under deep suspicion by the Communists although they were not known to have taken any steps against him.

Guerrilla fighting has existed year-long in the eastern section of the captive nation, but the western portion previously was believed to have been "pacified" by Red occupation troops.

Chinese forces stationed in frontier areas to back up the Peiping regime's various territorial claims now are considerably reduced as the Communists attempt to reinforce the troops engaged against guerrillas, the report said.

At least 150 Tibetan refugees entered Bhutan last month—the largest number in many months—and more than 300 were reported to have sought refuge in North Sikkim.

The two states are unable to accommodate more than a few hundred displaced persons. There is also the fear that the influx of refugees may give the Peiping regime an excuse for an attack on its tiny neighbors.

Brotherly Love Wins Big Test

FORT WORTH (UPI)—What does brotherly love mean? Well, in the case of Dale Douglas Carter, 10, it means taking a poisonous snake bite intended for his three-year-old brother, Marty.

Dale was recovering in Children's Hospital today, and his parents are bursting with pride. The boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas R. Carter.

It happened Wednesday in the front yard of the Carter home. Dale and his sister, Trudy, 11, were playing ball. They kept Marty on the sidelines because he was too little.

Suddenly, the ball rolled near a tree, and Marty dashed for it. He didn't see the copperhead snake near its ugly head, ready to strike. But Dale did.

He snatched the snake away from his brother. It turned and bit him on the hand.

Carter, attracted by screams, and another brother, Jerry, 12, killed the snake with a hatchet and a hoe. Police gave Dale emergency treatment and rushed him to the hospital.

Marty was unconcerned about the whole incident. He says just one thing: "A great big alligator bit my brother's finger."

Youth Problems Discussed At Kiwanis Meeting

"The problems of delinquency and teen-agers going astray was discussed at this week's meeting of the Top O' Texas Kiwanis Club in the Coronado Inn."

Sam Begert, principal of Horace Mann Elementary School, was the featured speaker. Begert is the immediate past president of the noon Kiwanis Club.

"For every child who goes astray," Begert told his audience, "there is a reason; and the majority of delinquents comes from broken homes and where drinking is involved."

The speaker cited figures, noting that during 1959, 120,000 youths were arrested in the United States and that 30,000 of them were under 15 years of age. He said that 28 out of every 1,000 children in the United States will be involved with the law this year.

Begert encouraged more understanding between teachers and parents and stated that the type of child who is allowed to miss school is reared in a home where there is a lack of parent-teacher understanding.

He called for support to organize an agency in Pampa that will offer youth employment, similar to those organizations successfully active in other cities. He also urged that youngsters be made to entertain themselves, instead of having entertainment "laid on a plate" for them.

Guests at the meeting were a delegation from the noon Kiwanis Club and Miss Marilyn Smith, club pianist.

National Debt Talk By Beamon

Approximately 47 persons heard Don Beamon trace the history of the current national debt at the Chamber of Commerce Congressional Action Committee breakfast this morning in the Coronado Inn.

Floyd Watson also joined the discussion with a breakdown of the 1960 federal budget. Both talks were illustrated with posters and charts.

The next meeting of the committee will be at 7 a.m. June 16 in the Coronado Inn.

Band To Man Concession Stand

The Pampa High School band has been awarded the concession rights at this year's July 4 community celebration.

A. A. Schuneman and Floyd Imel, co-chairmen of the Chamber of Commerce July 4 Celebration Committee, awarded the concession rights to the group.

Proceeds from the concession stands will be used to help finance the band's trip to Chicago this winter for a national band festival.

Investigation Of Delay In Search For Hurt Boy Asked

CORPUS CHRISTI (UPI)—State Sen. Bruce Reagan said Wednesday night he has asked for a "full report" from the State Parks Board, and asked for the investigation because he wanted to make sure park authorities were not responsible for the delay.

But if any park employees were involved, I want corrective measures taken," Reagan added.

He said an article in the Corpus Christi Caller-Times Wednesday morning was highly critical of the Garner Park authorities, and several persons in Corpus Christi had called him about the incident.

Mrs. Smith said no one connected with the park notified her that Buddy was missing. The first she heard of it was a call from the Richtie Clifton. Richtie had called Mrs. Clifton from the park.

Consable Lonnie Schaefer of Utopia, who shares jurisdiction over the park with Sheriff N. L. Stark, said "nobody wanted to call the boy's mother and get her all upset."

What Did He Expect From The Yankees

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI)—Gov. John Patterson, who is suing the New York Times for one million dollars, said Wednesday the newspaper apparently does not know where Alabama is located.

"If we are to believe the New York Times, all Alabamians are residents of Mississippi," Patterson said. "I am amazed the all-knowing Times doesn't seem to know the location of Alabama."

A map in Wednesday's Times, which referred to the tidelands case, had Mississippi and Alabama reversed.

Dr. Nicholson Services Today

WHEELER (SpI) — Funeral services for Dr. Harold E. Nicholson were held at the First Methodist Church in Wheeler today.

Dr. Nicholson, 43, died at his home Tuesday.

He was valedictorian of the Wheeler High School senior class in 1933, and attended Texas A&M where he also was an honor graduate.

From there he went to Baylor Medical School, where he was graduated in 1942. He served as an intern at Shreveport, La.

After serving in the armed services during World War II, Dr. Nicholson returned to Wheeler and was associated with his father in the operation of Wheeler Hospital.

In 1954 he was married to Miss Dean Walton.

Dr. Nicholson was a member of the First Methodist Church, the Masonic Lodge and the American Legion.

Survivors include a wife; one son, Nickie; and his father and mother, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Nicholson.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Wheeler Funeral Home of Nichols.

Mrs. Eula Glenn Services Friday

McLEAN (SpI) — Funeral services for Mrs. Eula Ann Glenn, wife of Herman Glenn of McLean, will be conducted by Rev. Jesse Leonard, pastor in the First Baptist Church at 2 p.m. Friday.

Mrs. Glenn, born in Indiana, Miss, March 17, 1927, died at 3:45 a.m. May 31 at Highland General Hospital. She had been hospitalized only four days.

Survivors, in addition to her husband, are a son, Franklin Lee of the home, her mother, Mrs. Lois Lowe, Houston; two brothers, W. F. Payne of McLean, H. P. Payne of Houston; three sisters, Mrs. Juanita Morgan and Mrs. Mary Tabor, both of Houston and Mrs. Lois Hall, Boise, Idaho.

Burial will be in Hillcrest Cemetery under the direction of Richeson-Lamb Funeral Home of McLean.

Tubing Head Missing

PERRYTON (SpI) — Clayton Meadows of the Pan American Oil Company of Pampa reported the loss of a Cameron Iron Works tubing head at the W. H. Tarbox well No. 6 southwest of Perryton. The value, estimated by Meadows, was $475.

First dinner fork in America was owned by Governor John Winthrop of Boston.

Sirloin Steak Keynotes Festive Dad's Day Meal

BROILED STEAK, sizzling hot, served as Dad likes it, is sure to make a success of the "appreciation dinner" you are planning for Father's Day, the dinner that says "We love you."

Plentiful chicken makes good summer eating in combination with whipped potatoes. Fried chicken with light airy whipped potatoes is an ideal menu feature. Chicken and potatoes also are excellent combined in casserole dishes. For a main dish feature that unites these two foods, here is a favorite recipe of our family, Company Chicken 'N Potatoes.

And speaking of favorites, potatoes are among the most popular vegetables on the family dinner table. Many families have potatoes at least once every day. Homemakers today have learned how to serve this vegetable in a variety of ways and still not be forced to peel, boil and mash potatoes. The answer is instant whipped potato flakes.

Instant whipped potatoes are available in a 5 1/2 ounce package that contains two foil envelopes, each envelope making four servings. Also, new on many food store shelves is an economy package that saves homemakers about seven cents. The new economy package makes flakes so the homemaker easily can prepare anywhere from one to 16 servings at a time. Made of the best grade of white mashing potatoes, these "flavor flakes" whip instantly into delicious lump-free whipped potatoes.

Main Dish Feature Unites Two Popular Foods... Company Chicken 'N Potatoes

Using the sharp point of the knife... Dad cuts around the bone which he places to one side of the platter. Carving the steak is then easy as one cuts across the full width of the steak, in slices as wide as desired, considering the thickness of the steak.

The steak should be from 1 to 2 inches thick for best results. In broiling, it should have a covering of fat around the edges, and an intermingling (marbling) of fat through the lean.

BROILED SIRLOIN STEAK
Beef sirloin steak, cut 1 to 2 inches thick
Salt
Pepper
Set roaster for broiling. Place steak on broiler rack. Insert broiler pan and rack so the top of 1-inch steak is 2 to 3 inches from the heat, and 2-inch steak is 3 to 5 inches from the heat. When one side is browned, season, turn and finish cooking on the second side.

Guest Menu Serves Six For Less Than $3

How often have you put off having guests for dinner just because it seemed like the budget couldn't take it? Well, with a few rules and some imaginative planning, you can fulfill your social obligations any week and still toe the budget line.

First rule to follow always is to serve foods that are plentiful and thus at their lowest price. Keep many kinds of spices, herbs, and condiments on your pantry shelf to give basic foods a "special treatment" appeal. Clip and file interesting recipe ideas for varying the ways of serving foods, especially vegetables and salads, to lend an impressive original touch to an inexpensive meal.

For a good example of how to serve six people at approximately only $2.54 try this economy-planned Springtime menu.

Green Salad with Lemon Rind (28 cents)
Hot Peach Cobbler (95 cents)
Luxury Filet of Flounder—Saute filets of flounder in 3 tbsp. melted margarine mixed with 1/4 c. crushed potato chips. As soon as the filets are golden, turn carefully and saute on other side. When brown sprinkle with 2 tbsp. sherry or lemon juice and 1 tbsp. orange peel. Pour over 1 can of lobster bisque. Dust top with 1 tbsp. finely crushed potato chips and put under broiler for one minute.

Braised Chip Broccoli—Thaw completely two packages of frozen broccoli spears and saute them in 3 tbsp. salad oil until tender. Remove from oil and dress with 1/4 c. sour cream mixed with 1/4 c. crushed potato chips and 1 tbsp. paprika.

Green Salad with Lemon Rind—Arrange freshly washed and dried greens in a garlic rubbed salad bowl. At last minute pour French dressing to which thin pieces of lemon rind have been added over salad.

so that when one side is nicely browned, the steak will be cooked half way through.

Thus, only one turning is necessary. To avoid piercing the steak and allowing juices to escape, tongs may be used to turn it. Or the fork should be inserted in the fat part.

Each side of the steak is seasoned after it has been browned. Seasoning before broiling tends to draw out the juices, thus reducing the tenderness of the meat.

Water Is Food's Worst Enemy Unless Caution Is Taken To Use It Properly

"Most women drown their vegetables first, then stew them until they almost become nutritionless weeds," says Cathy Celairo, who directs the test kitchens of the 25 year old Brooklyn Cheese Company, producer of the 4-C's Redi-Flavored Bread Crumb Mix.

Nothing harms vegetables quite as much as cooking them for a long time in a great quantity of water. The best results are always obtained by cleaning and cooking tender, young produce with the smallest amount of water and cooking only until just tender with a little stirring as possible.

Waterless pan cooking, pressure cooking, steaming in a double boiler or on a trivet in a closed kettle are the best ways to allow the steam from the water in the vegetables themselves to tenderize without devaluating them.

For the most flavorful and valuable vegetables it's necessary to first select the best produce available and then cook them properly. Here are a few pointers from Cathy Celairo on how to buy and cook some of the vegetables that will be plentiful.

SUMMER SQUASH... It is fresh if you press your finger nail against it and it sinks in easily. There should be no puddy or brown spots. Summer squash can be parrot and seeded, and then steamed covered in a strainer over boiling water until tender.

CABBAGE... Look for firm heavy heads. Contrary to the old idea that cabbage has to be cooked for hours the newer method calls for shredding it finely and cooking it in boiling water for only 7 to 8 minutes. It should be tender but crisp.

ASPARAGUS... whether green or white select those with tightly closed tops and tender stalks. Before cooking cut off the lower part of stalks. The asparagus in bunches and stand them upright in deep steapan or bottom part of double boiler with lower ends in 1/2 cup boiling water. Cover tightly inverted top of double boiler can be used and cook about 12 minutes until tender.

CAULIFLOWER... Look for compact shape, creamy color and surrounding bright green leaf stalks. Before cooking cut off the tough end of the stem, remove the leaves and soak in cold salted water, head down for 15 minutes. Drain it and either cut up into flowerettes or keep whole. Use a deep saucepan with a closely fitting lid and pour in only enough boiling water to cover the bottom. Place cauliflower on trivet in pan and steam it for 15 to 20 minutes, less if cut up into flowerettes.

ARTICHOKE... the small green ones are most tender and have a better flavor. Don't store them. Buy only as needed. Soak in cold water for thirty minutes before cooking or hold by stem and dip quickly several times into deep bowl of salted water. To cook, artichokes should be placed upright in only 1 1/2 inches of boiling water.

CORN... when buying strip back husks and examine for signs of worms. Milk should exude on puncturing kernels. To store remove only outer husks retaining thin inner layer until cooking time. Drop each ear slowly so as not to disturb boiling into 1 inch boiling water, add a tablespoon of sugar, cover and boil rapidly until tender, from 4 to 10 minutes.

More than seven million pounds of vitamins are produced annually in the United States.

Spring Luncheon Brilliant Idea For Uniting Friends

A spring luncheon party is a good way to bring together friends who may have been separated during the winter months. Doubtless your home is sparkling in its freshness after the seasonal clean up. Somehow you feel like having a little celebration.

Finding just the right dish may require a little searching. Reba Staggs, home economist, suggests beef stuffed tomatoes or green peppers for this occasion.

For six servings the following recipe may be used:

BEEF-STUFFED TOMATOES
2 cups coarsely ground cooked beef
1/2 cup finely chopped celery
1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 teaspoon salt
6 medium tomatoes
1/2 cup crushed potato chips

Combine the cooked ground beef, celery, onion, lemon juice, mayonnaise and salt. Remove slice from tops of tomatoes and scoop out centers. Stuff tomatoes with meat mixture and top with crushed potato chips. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for 20 to 25 minutes.

When green peppers are substituted for tomatoes, they are prepared by removing a slice from the tops and scooping out the seeds. Cook peppers in boiling salted water for 5 minutes, then stuff with beef mixture and other ingredients and bake.

Cookie Jar Holds Many Surprises

Ever add candy to cookie dough? It's a trick your cookie jar raiders will like.

The taste and texture of a any number of plain rolls or molded cookies can be varied pleasantly merely by folding a couple of chopped candy bars into the dough. Only caution is that you select a candy bar that has a distinctive, readily identifiable flavor for in the baking the flavor becomes milder.

To illustrate this, here's a candied version of a popular cookie known as snow balls. Peanut butter flavored Clark candy bars are finely chopped and blended into the rich butter dough, providing a nice melding of flavors.

CANDIED SNOW BALLS
(Makes 3 dozen)
Cream 1 cup butter thoroughly. Add 1/2 cup sifted confectioners' sugar, beating until well mixed. Beat in 2 cups sifted cake flour, 1 tablespoon milk and 1 teaspoon vanilla; blend well.

On cutting board, chop 2 Clark bars into flaky small pieces. Stir chopped candy into the dough.

Wrap dough in transparent saran or waxed paper and chill a few hours. Shape into 1-inch balls with your hands. Place balls two inches apart on ungreased cookie sheets.

Again chill for 15 minutes. Bake in a 375 degree oven for 20 minutes. While warm, roll in confectioners' sugar.

Dainty Chocolate Dewdrops

WE'RE ALL CHILDREN WHEN IT COMES TO COOKIES, especially when they're as deliciously tempting as these Chocolate Dewdrops, with their dainty meringue caps. Try Chocolate Dewdrops and fruit with a brimming glass of fresh sweet milk. They're a perfect combination with this "most nearly perfect" of all foods.

CHOCOLATE DEWDROPS
1 package sweet cooking chocolate
1 whole egg
1 egg yolk
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 cup sifted flour
1/2 cup finely chopped nuts
1 egg white
1/2 cup sifted confectioners' sugar
* Or use 1/2 cup quick-cooking rolled oats

Melt chocolate over hot water and stir until smooth. Remove from hot water. Combine egg and egg yolk and beat until slightly thick and light colored. Gradually add granulated sugar, beating after each addition. Blend in salt, vanilla, and melted chocolate. Add flour and nuts and mix well.

Drop by teaspoonfuls onto well greased baking sheets. Then flatten cookies slightly with a spoon. Beat egg white until soft peaks will form. Gradually add confectioners' sugar and beat until stiff peaks will form. Top each cookie with a dab of egg white mixture. Bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) for 10 minutes. Let cookies stand 1 to 2 minutes before removing from baking sheets. Place on rack to cool. Makes about 2 1/2 dozen.

Southeast Asia Becomes The Testing Ground For East-West Limited Warfare Strategies

By WARD CANNEL
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

SAIGON (NEA) — It is by grim tacit agreement that Southeast Asia is the schoolroom where technicians of the divided world can learn the vital art of limited warfare without warring on the neighbors.

This arena is the only place on earth today where real hand-to-hand fighting goes on between Communist and free worlds.

That no brassstacks move is underway to stop it surprises nobody in this area. What you hear instead from solemn military liaison men is:

"We're learning a great deal. We are only observers, of course. But the observation post is excellent."

On a clear night, they say, you can see:

— That China's military strength right now is poor, weak and tattered — but steadily improving.

— That friction between Red China and Soviet Russia appears to be growing. "Stranger things than possible alliance between the U.S. and Soviet Russia in the future have happened," one top-level observer says.

— That free world capabilities in limited warfare are excellent today.

Specifically, we have learned a great deal about jungle warfare as it has changed in the past 15 years. We have established tremendous uses for low-flying, slow aircraft in limited warfare. We can move men and material in record time into trouble areas. And among ourselves, we have established smooth communications regardless of language differences.

It is unlikely, political sages on the scene think, that any move will be made in the immediate future to put an end to this steadily bubbling test tube area of Southeast Asia.

It is also improbable that either side on a danger spot — say North and South Viet Nam — will push very hard to enforce every last regulation of such agreements as the 1954 Geneva armistice.

Curiously, this theater of limited operations is maintained — whether it wants to or not — by the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization which was set up precisely to keep Communist aggression at a standstill.

With SEATO's perfect record of not having fired a shot since its formation (also following the 1954 armistice), one source close to its council of experts can say quite honestly:

"We have gathered an excellent file on present Communist capabilities, tactics and supply from the little actions which occur in up-country outposts."

"We keep this file up-to-date and share it with member nations which are in need of such information."

What keeps SEATO's file up-to-date is the constant military action which often tells its own tale through prisoners who may report some of what they know or bountifully cross-examine.

"In the mountains of Southeast Asia," a SEATO military officer explained, "it is impossible to identify every man. A South Vietnamese does not look differently or talk differently from his North Viet Nam brothers."

One result, obviously, is an almost free flow of information between both sides on this grisly playing field.

Another result — an integral part of this deadly practice scrimmage — is harassment almost impossible to stop.

In the mountains, it takes the form of hit-and-run raiding parties which grenade military outposts in groups of 5 to 25.

In Saigon itself, an immaculate city so western in its appearance that it was once called the Paris of the Orient, one Joint U.S. Military Advisory Group staff member said:

"It's got to be that this town is full of Communists — just waiting."

"I remember what happened in Bangkok on December 8, 1941. A crowd of Japanese businessmen disappeared when war was declared. They reappeared several hours

U-2 Pilot Is Hero In Old Home Town

By JACK V. FOX
United Press International

GRUNDY, Va. (UPI) — The school day of the seventh grade class of Mrs. Mary Meade in Grundy High School these spring mornings begins with a prayer for Francis Gary Powers.

Whatever he may be to the rest of the world, the 30-year-old pilot of the lost U-2 is a hero in his home town here in the extreme western point of the Virginia mountains.

Francis left Grundy High in 1946. He had gone to grade school in nearby Harmon, a hamlet so small it isn't on the maps. His family home was there (five daughters and the one boy) and his dad had a ramshackle shoe repair shop on the road twisting through the steep valley.

The boy loved to hike, like the mountain men before him. There is a beauty in these hills, but it is stained with coal mine outcroppings, soured with poverty and plagued by sudden torrents. You can read the grimly humorous haired of the floods in the names — Dismal River, Contrary Creek.

An ambitious young man has burst out of these surroundings. One out of every seven families has moved from the area in the past 10 years. Francis Powers broke the bonds and, in so doing, may have forfeited his life.

Dr. John T. Holland, pastor of the Baptist church, summed up the feeling in his sermon last week when he wondered that a "child smuggled down in these mountains" had been chosen by collapse of the summit conference and made Powers the best known American spy since Nathan Hale.

"That word 'spy' is one to avoid here. It falls in about the same class as 'renovator.' Remarkably, the last time most people heard of this area was the case of Cpl. Ed Dickenson of Cracker Neck, Va., the first of the Korean-turbochick who came home to courtmartial and prison. These are proud people and they are proud of Francis. The boy has long been gone but he is remembered and loved. Whatever he did, they say, he did for his country.

Digging into the past of Francis Powers bring again and again the impression that he would seem the most unlikely for a cloak and dagger role, that of the adventurer.

He was shy, almost to the point of painful bashfulness. He avoided girls. The high school dating pastime was necking in a drive-in movie but Francis stayed with the boys. A college classmate says young Powers never had a date during his four years in college.

He was a fair athlete, not a star. He played football in high school, moving from guard to halfback in his senior year because of his swiftness at foot. In college he went out only for track.

His grades were fair — he finished, coincidentally, 22nd in a class of 71 in high school and 22nd in a class of 89 at Milligan College.

His Grundy High School yearbook is revealing. There are none of the wisecracks and remembrances of escapades penned beside the pictures of his classmates. Only formal best wishes and signatures with the exception of one ironic comment: "Best of luck to a fast runner, Billy Glass."

He enlisted in the Air Force because he was bored. He was about to be drafted and his attempt to get a Coast Guard Academy appointment had not come through.

Up to that time his horizons had been bound to the area around his birthplace in Jenkins, Ky. He went to college in Tennessee — less than 100 miles from home and hitchhiked back to his family almost every weekend.

There was an ironclad integrity about the young man. It was summed up in a strange way by one of his classmates in high school, Mrs. William Witt, when she talked about Powers' alleged "confession" to Soviet authorities after his U-2 was downed.

"It's just like Francis," she said. "He would tell the truth, he had to tell the truth, no matter what the circumstances."

The people here are praying Powers will be released alive, but most of them are not very confident of it. The toughest subject you can hit upon is why Powers did not take his own life before he was caught.

"Francis must have had a reason," they say.

Three Die In Auto Crash; 6 Badly Hurt

MINERAL WELLS (UPI) — A grinding head-on crash, early today, killed three motorists and injured six others, two so critically they are not expected to survive.

Killed were Mrs. Helen Valley, 32; Floyd Kemp, about 55, and an unidentified man.

Critically hurt were Mrs. Mamie Gang, 55, and Mrs. Wills Mae Westbrook, 40. Seriously hurt were Ervin Gana, 14; Salvador Valley, 11, and Mary Ann Valley, 13. All were in one car, and believed to be from Mineral Wells. Mrs. Valley was driving.

The driver of the second car, who was alone, was identified as James Vester Howe, 19, a serviceman assigned to the Fourth Missile Battalion at Camp Wolters, near Mineral Wells. He was taken to a military hospital.

Highway patrolman Jim Smith said the accident happened on a curve of U.S. Highway 281, four and one-half miles north of Mineral Wells. Smith said the point of impact was on the center strip of the highway, and there were no skid marks.

NO PRESS CONFERENCE
WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower will not hold a news conference this week because of a heavy appointment schedule, the White House said on Tuesday.

Today is Thursday, June 2. The 154th day of the year, with 212 more in 1960.

The moon is in its first quarter.

The morning stars are Mars, Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1840, English novelist and poet Thomas Hardy was born.

In 1851, Maine passed a prohibition law — the first in U.S. history.

In 1882, General Robert E. Lee took over command of the Confederate armies of eastern Virginia and North Carolina.

In 1924, Congress conferred citizenship on all American Indians.

In 1948, the Italian people voted to abolish the monarchy.

In 1963, Queen Elizabeth II, 27 years old, was crowned at Westminster Abbey in London by the archbishop of Canterbury.

Thought for today: English poet and novelist Thomas Hardy said,

Pedestrian Killed

ABILENE (UPI) — Billy Dale Shores, 26, was struck and killed early today on U.S. Highway 80, about four miles north of nearby Lawn.

The car was driven by Douglas Kolb, 20, Coleman, Tex. He told highway patrolmen that he didn't see Shores.

The Department of Public Safety reported Shores was lying partially on the highway.

Studies have shown that temperature may vary by as much as 20 degrees between a city's business center and its suburbs.

Mercury Up After Chill Front Stalls

By United Press International
The U.S. Weather Bureau forecast another day with temperatures in the upper 80s and 90s for Texas Thursday after a cold front stalled in the Panhandle.

A few scattered thundershowers were expected in all sections of the state with the mercury expected to climb to between 82 and 82 in East and North Central Texas, 88-98 in South Central and Southwest Texas and to the 78-88 range in Northwest Texas.

A line of thundershowers extended from just east of the Waco area southwestward toward Laredo early today.

The weather man said warm humid air would continue, with any cooling to be limited to the extreme northern parts of Texas.

A severe thunderstorm forecast for parts of the Pecos Valley and South Plains Wednesday night failed to materialize. However, about 2 1/2 inches of rain fell in the Alpine area along with hailstones of moth-ball-size.

Abilene reported .56 of an inch and Texarkana had .55.

Presidio led the heat parade again Wednesday with 105 degrees, Junction had 101 and Laredo 100. Temperatures in the upper 90s were common.

Pampa Rotarians Attending Meet In Miami Beach

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (SpI) — Two members of the Rotary Club of Pampa are meeting in Miami Beach this week with more than 15,000 Rotarians and their guests from most of the 116 countries of the world in the 51st annual convention of Rotary International.

Rotarians and their wives from Pampa in attendance at the convention in Miami Beach include Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Wilks and three children, and Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Sparkman.

During the week, they will hear numerous distinguished speakers, will participate in discussion forums on their various businesses and professions and on the service activities of Rotary clubs around the world, they will consider proposed legislation, and they will enjoy special entertainment features.

Among the speakers scheduled to address the Rotary convention are Dr. Victor A. Belaunde of Lima, Peru, president of the General Assembly of the United Nations; James P. Mitchell, U.S. Secretary of Labor; Captain Eddie Rickenbacker of New York City, chairman of the board of directors of Eastern Airlines; Ben C. McGehee, chairman of the board of commissioners of Metropolitan Dade County, Florida; and Rotarians and Rotary Foundation Fellows from ten countries.

The Rotary delegation from Pampa was especially interested in plans announced for the 1961 convention of Rotary International in Tokyo, Japan, the first Rotary convention to be held in Asia.

Stock Market Must Be Right, Wall Street Not Unanimous

NEW YORK (UPI) — The financial district cherishes its old adage which says, "whenever Wall Street is unanimous in anything, it usually is wrong."

At the present time one can discern a wide variety of opinions on the stock market and its future. Unanimity just isn't there.

Divergent opinions even come from the same brokerage house.

In the case of Paine, Webber, Jackson & Curtis, the firm is publishing a diversity of market opinion of two of its highly respected market experts.

Their views are carried side by side in the firm's "security buyer's review" in what the critics call a highly objective editorial policy.

William Kurtz, senior market analyst of Paine-Webber, gives his views under the heading, "The Aggressive Approach."

He believes the current market is at the lower end of the 1960 range and that the January-MARCH decline of 15 per cent represented a typical post-war adjustment at a noncritical stage of the bull market that began in 1957.

Harry D. Comer, the firm's director of research writes under the caption, "A Conservative Appraisal."

Comer refers to the Dow theory signal that occurred on March 3 when the rails came to a new low since 1958. He cites figures to show that the Dow theory spotted other bear markets.

"Both technical and economic aspects of the current situation," says Comer, "provide a nonbullish background, speaking generally."

Kurtz asserts that his market has found stability and cites a group of stabilizing factors in the economy to help it—high government expenditures, federal reserve flexible credit policy, high birth rate during and after World War II, forecasting a sharp rise in family formations after 1962, growing importance of social security, unemployment compensation and other government payments, moves of management to increase productivity with new machinery and equipment, and rapid expansion of research.

Comer recites an equally formidable list of adverse market factors, such as early discounting of the steel strike, disappointing automobile sales and high auto inventory, high interest rates, decline in rail traffic, high yields on bonds draining funds from stocks, lessening fear of inflation, and the anticipated budget surplus.

Kurtz says the economy now is influenced more by long-range growth factors than cyclical forces.

"In view of the economy's underlying growth and its greater stability compared with prior eras," says Kurtz, "it is not surprising to find stock market averages in a growth trend, interrupted by only moderate adjustments."

Kurtz recommends growth stocks, while Comer suggests defensive issues.

Kurtz suggests "one might purchase many favorably situated issues in rapid growth areas such as electronics, leisure-time industries, amateur photography, drugs and cosmetics, business machines, car and equipment leasing, automated retailing, aluminum, and plastics."

According to Comer, "investment portfolios should hold more than their usual allotment of defensive type common stock, such as utilities, telephone, bank, department store, food and tobacco; also fixed income securities, including convertible bonds. New purchases of common stocks for capital gains should be selected

Marine Recruiter Here June 6

MSGT. Charles Snow, a Marine Corps recruiting sergeant will be in Pampa June 6 to interview applicants for enlistment in the U.S. Marine Corps. While in Pampa Sgt. Snow will be located at the post office between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Sgt. Snow announced that the Marine Corps is currently offering an enlistment for "Marine Corps Aviation duty only". When a young man is qualified and enlists for this program he is assured of spending his entire enlistment in Marine aviation. Upon completion of his recruit training he is sent to Jacksonville, Florida to the Basic Airmans school. Upon completing Basic Airmans school he will then receive schooling in either Aviation electronics or mechanics school.

Sgt. Snow also stated that the Marine Corps has a "120 day delayed enlistment" program that is quite popular. Under this program a young man may enlist in the Marine Corps Reserve with the agreement to go on active duty within 120 days. During this 120 days the young man has no drills or meetings to attend and this time counts toward his longevity pay.

Young men who may be interested in contacting Sgt. Snow while he is in town can get in touch with him at the post office on the first and third Monday each month.

Seaton Nod To Padre Isle Park
WASHINGTON (UPI) — U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough says Seaton won't stand in the way if Congress wants to pass legislation establishing a national seashore park on Padre Island.

Seaton earlier recommended Congress pass a bill to create three parks—at Padre Island, the Oregon Dunes and Cape Cod.

Yarborough said many Texans want to push ahead this year with the plans for Padre Island, and not wait for hearings and other action on the two other proposed parks.

Mrs. Latham Has Worthwhile Meet

Worthwhile Home Demonstration Club met Friday with Mrs. Carl Latham, 1800 N. Christy with Mrs. Shelby Hood, president, presiding during the business meeting. Mrs. J. L. Carlton, council representative, reported that the Chamber of Commerce would give full cooperation to Gray county council's invitation to District One Texas Home Demonstration Ass'n to meet in Pampa. Members voted to meet at 9:30 a.m. during June, July and August. Miss Lou Ella Patterson, Gray County Home Demonstration agent, presented a program on bed linens and covers. She said that yardage is available for sheets, but the best ready-made sheets can be bought a little cheaper than yardage. "Heavy muslin wears longer than percale sheets and linens rotated wear much longer." She continued, "Contour sheets can be made for oversize or odd size beds. Synthetic blankets such as nylon and dacron are taking the place of wool. Electric blankets are now washable and are in great demand. When bindings become worn or need repairs, the blankets can be returned to factory and renewed for half the price of a new blanket." Refreshments were served by the hostess during the social hour. It was announced that the next meeting will be with Mrs. Dick Wight, 820 N. Dwight on June 17 at 9:30 a.m. Members attending in addition to those mentioned above were Mmes. Kay Kennedy, N. L. Welton, Roy Tinsley, O. A. Wagner, W. G. Kinzer, Frank Totty, Ben Dickerson, W. G. Kinzer.

Wayside Club Is Center Hostess

Wayside Club was Senior Center hostess on Thursday afternoon in Lovett Memorial Library with Mmes. Tom Rodgers, J. A. Reeves, W. F. Taylor, J. S. Fuquis, Homer Taylor, W. R. Dunn, Skeet Roberts, R. E. Montgomery, Gus Greene and W. A. Green representing the club. Door prizes were won by Mrs. Cleo Setts and Murrey King. Altrusa Club members assisting with hostess duties were Mmes. Louise Sewell, W. A. York and Jay Flanagan. Gray Ladies providing transportation of guests to and from the Center were Mmes. O. F. Kreimeyer, Charles Duenkel, Jess Beard and Stanley Brandt. It was announced that the meeting on Thursday would be Birthday Party for all citizens having birthdays in June.

MATURE PARENT

By MRS. MURIAL LAWRENCE
Let's suppose I've bought a new slip cover for the living room sofa, one of scarlet chintz bright with field flowers. I love it. It refreshes the greys and dull blues of my rug, drapes and other upholstery. The whole room seems to glow with new color. Then my sister-in-law comes to dinner. She takes one look at my glorified sofa and cries: "Heavens, what a flashy print! Was it a mark-down? Why, that red clashes with everything you've got in this room!" I experience a sense of shock. Then it turns to hurt. But by the time my guests are ready for dessert, the hurt has changed, too. It has become intense resentment of my sister-in-law. But my problem is neither hurt nor resentment. It is my original sense of shock — my shocked respect for my relative's failure to see beauty in my slip cover, to recognize values where I knew it to be. Were I to understand my hurt and resentment as by-products of my shocked self-respect, I could recover and easily say to my sister-in-law: "I still think it's a beautiful slip cover." Many of our resented hurts are originally shocked self-respect. If you don't believe this, check back on yours. If you discover shocked self-respect, adapt the method you would apply to children. When Patty's new friend deserts her party, to go off with another child, you won't deal with her hurt and resentment. You will deal with the shocked self-respect from which her hurt and resentment stem. You won't waste time in anger at the rudeness of her guest or humiliate Patty with pity. Understanding that she is suffering from shock at the guest's failure to value the hospitality she was so proud of, you'll support her original pride in it. Supporting that initial respect she offered the disrespecting guest, you'll say: "Joanie was pretty dumb to run away from such a lovely party. How about inviting me to it instead?" By this support of Patty's self-appreciation, we reduce the shock that has weakened it. As it recovers its strength, her hurt and resentment inevitably lose their strength.

DEAR ABBY....

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: This may be a free country, but I am living under a dictatorship. Whenever my husband and I go anywhere, he tells me what time we are going to leave before we even get there. He says, "We are going to stay ten minutes!" (Or however long HE wants to stay.) When the time is up, he jumps up and doesn't even ask me if I am ready to leave. He starts for the door and says, "If you're coming with me, you'd better hurry up."

It is so humiliating to have him act this way in front of my friends and family. I've talked to him about it; begged and practically gotten on my knees, but he's so hard to change. What can I do? DEAR HUMILIATED: Get on your knees and stand up for your rights. When your husband TELLS you how long he intends to stay, YOU tell HIM you might want to stay longer. If he doesn't want to come back home with a friend (and pick a nice-looking one) to take a taxi.

DEAR ABBY: I agreed to take my block to collect for the Cancer Society. I skipped the house next door because I knew that the husband of the lady living there was in the hospital with cancer. I just couldn't ring her bell.

When my husband came home I asked him if he thought I did the right thing. He said no. I was wrong because for all I knew those people probably wanted more than anyone else to give toward conquering cancer. I still have my doubts. A b b y. Would you, had you been in my place, have had the nerve to ring this lady's bell under the circumstances?

DEAR UNDECIDED: No. But I would have left the information in her mailbox so that she could have quietly made her decision and contributed if she wanted to.

DEAR ABBY: I read a letter in your column concerning elderly parents who were neglected by their children. I don't want to seem heartless, but it is my experience that people usually get back what they give. Just because people happen to be parents doesn't entitle them to kindness in their old age that they haven't earned.

I know a widow who cries all over town that her children ignore her. Actually, she is to blame. All her life she made trouble for them. Her evil imagination and wicked tongue almost broke up the homes of two of her sons. Now they want nothing to do with her.

Be fair, Abby, and print this to show the other side of the OLD BUT NOT LONELY.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "HAD IT": Any husband who will lock his 25-year-old, attractive, immaculate, affectionate wife out of the bedroom is either physically or mentally sick. (Or both.) Before you see a lawyer, insist that he see a doctor.

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Abby's best-selling book, "Dear Teen-ager", is on sale at all bookstores.

Young Brothers, Would-Be Flyers, Plunge To Death

POMONA, Calif. (UPI) — Two runaway brothers aged 12 and 14, were killed early today when a light plane they apparently stole crashed and burned in a school playground.

The single-engine plane, its engine going full-blast, smashed into the ground at Emerson Junior High School in the heart of a thickly populated residential area in this Los Angeles suburb.

The victims were identified by their parents as Thomas McDonald, 12, and his brother, James, 14. Both boys had run away from their home Monday.

Both of the brothers were in love with flying, friends said. They had attempted to steal a plane several weeks ago but were caught, police said.

Found in the charred wreckage of the Tri-Pacer four-seat craft was the body of the brothers' pet dog.
