The judge said Yarborough 'didn't elaborate." He said it was his understanding his name had gone to the justice department.

In Washington, a confidential source told United Press International that Benavides' name had not been submitted to the White House. The White House itself had no comment on the matter.

The post has been vacant since Allred's death several months ago. Cases on the docket have been handled by Dist. Judge Ben C. Cennally of Houston.

Another Laredo jurist has been prominently mentioned for the mers post. He was state Dist. Judge E. D. Salinas. Speculation was that a judge of Latin-American extraction would be named to fill ner the position.

State Cool Front Pushes Southeast

By United Press International

A weak cool front pushed southeastward through Texas today bringing drizzle, clouds and dense fog to the area just ahead of the cooler air and clear skies and only slightly lower temperatures to the rest of the state.

The Pacific front swept across most of the state Sunday, stirring up dust in West Texas and bringing threats of severe thunder storms and hail to northeastern and eastern portions of the state

The bad weather did not mater ialize, however, and the weather warnings were lowered Sunday

The front had progressed as far south early today as a line from near Lufkin to near Cotulla Dense fog was reported along the coast and as far inland as Cotulla, San Antonio and Lufkin. Drizzle was falling along the mid coast as far inland as Alice.

Overnight lows ranged between 23 degrees at Dalhart and 27 at Lubbock to 68 at Corpus Christi and 67 at Houston. Texarkana reported 1.21 inches of rain during the 24-hour period ending at 6

CONGO TROOP STRENGTH - The United Nations and rival leaders in the Congo are building up troop strength as civil war continues. Newsmap shows areas held by four strongmen, their estimated troop strength and the contingents of U.N. forces. Almost all Moroccan, Sudan, Indonesian and United Arab Republic soldiers have been withdrawn. Offsetting this, India has pledged 3,000 troops and Tunisia 600 more. Present alignment in Congo ranges Antoine Gizenga, successor to late Premier Patrice Lumumba of Oriental Province against President Moise Tshombe of Katanga, President Joseph Kasavubu of Leopoldville Province and Albert Kalonji of South Kasai Province.
