AUSTIN (UPI)—A sergeant of arms kicked 20 University of Texas students out of a public hearing on the controversial "teachers' oath" bill Wednesday night because they "insulted" a legislator who made them angry by his remarks.

The four-hour hearing in the House chamber was unruly from the start and demonstrative opponents of the measure, which included ministers and at least one lawmaker in addition to the students, had to be warned more than once that they would be ejected for disorder.

Rep. Joe Chapman, a co-sponsor of the bill to require teachers to sign an oath affirming belief in a "Supreme Being," became the students' target during his testimony before the lower chamber's State Affairs Committee.

College intellectuals... they do not realize that the Communists are infiltrating the classrooms," Chapman said. "Our youths are being doped and misguided. They ought to get down on their knees and ask God to forgive them."

At one point, Chapman remarked that "mothers are scrubbing floors to put their children through college," and this really infuriated the students.

Several got up and stalked out of the meeting. Another told Chapman his remarks "were just too much for us to take." So Sergeant of Arms B. L. Parker was ordered by committee chairman Rep. Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline to show the students to the door.

One of the students who identified himself as Edwin P. Shaw testified before the committee earlier that there was no need for such a law.

"The Supreme Being will prevail—if there is one," he said, "regardless of the laws passed."

It was the first time any large group of persons has been ordered from a public hearing this session of the legislature.

Rep. W. T. Oliver of Port Neches, another sponsor of the bill, said the legislation was needed to "protect our democratic way of life."

"I do not believe atheists should be allowed to teach," he said.

The bill was sent to a subcommittee composed of Rep. W. T.

Dungan, chairman, and Reps. Ben Lewis and Murray Watson, all co-sponsors of the bill.

Oliver said he was delighted to get such a favorable subcommittee and said a similar bill failed in the last legislature only because "we didn't start soon enough."

A group of ten ministers opposed the bill on grounds it was unconstitutional and violated the principles of religious freedom.

The Rev. Harold Kilpatrick of Austin read a resolution adopted by the Texas Council of Churches opposing the Oliver bill because they said it was "a mockery of true religious freedom."

The Oliver bill provides that no religious test should ever be required to hold public office, an administrative post or any job in public schools or colleges; provided all persons in those posts acknowledge the existence of a Supreme Being.

"His liberty alone which gives the flower of fleeting life its sweetness and perfume, and we are weeds without it. All restraint, except what wisdom lays on evil men is evil."

President Unveils New Program To Re-Vitalize Home Building In U.S.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy unveiled a program today to pep up home building and revitalize slum-infested cities with emphasis on better housing for low and middle income families.

In a special message Kennedy told Congress it must redeem the pledge of the 1949 Housing Act of "a decent home and suitable living environment for every American family."

To achieve this goal, the President proposed expansion of present federal housing efforts and several new uses of federal mortgage insurance.

By 1970, he said, construction of two million new houses and apartment buildings will be necessary merely to keep up with population growth.

The nation will be stronger as it is better housed, Kennedy declared, and it will present a better image to the world as it eradicates "ugly, crime-infested cities and haphazard suburbs." He estimated 14 million American families "live in substandard or deteriorating homes."

Kennedy put no over-all price tag on the array of proposals he sent Congress. It appeared they would cost perhaps $3 billion over a period of years.

Citing the 18 per cent drop in home building last year, Kennedy said "there is no longer an enormous backlog of economic demand which can be released simply by providing ample credit."

"Credit devices must now be used selectively," he said, to stimulate home building for moderate and low income families. He said it is these families who offer the largest and most immediate potential housing market.

Kennedy said he would "shortly after" to Congress a proposal for creation of a Cabinet-rank Department of Housing and Urban Affairs. The Housing and Home Finance Agency is headed now by Robert C. Weaver, whose sub-cabinet rank is the highest ever held by a Negro.

The President made no mention of the executive order he has promised to issue banning racial discrimination in all federally

Texas High Court Rules Against Proration Order

Decision Is Called Most Important Conservation Ruling In Last 15 Years

AUSTIN (UPI)—A Railroad Commission gas proration order for a South Texas well was struck down Wednesday by the State Supreme Court in a decision hailed as "the most important oil and gas conservation ruling in 15 years."

The case involved the Normanna Field of Bee County in a suit carried to the Supreme Court by Atlantic Refining Co. and six other firms on direct appeal from the Travis County trial court which upheld the commission order.

The firms contended that under the commission's proration order, a tiny lease operated by the partnership of Bright and Schiff — on a 3 acre tract—received a production proportionately 200 times that of other and larger wells.

Associate Justice Robert W. Hamilton, writing the high court's opinion, said it could find "no substantial evidence in the record to justify such a wide discrepancy in the rate of production."

The court ruled the commission order invalid and ordered the case sent back to the trial court with instructions that it find in favor of Atlantic and enjoin the commission from enforcing its original order.

Hamilton called the proration "an unreasonable basis upon which to prorate gas production from this reservoir. It does not come close to compelling ratable production."

The judge said it was estimated the gas in place under the field was valued at only $7,000 but over the life of the field the lease could produce gas valued at $2.5 million.

Hamilton said the commission must yet decide what is fair proration for the field which will conserve gas and be "fair and just to all parties without depriving any of them of his property."

The commission had prorated Slick, Luling, second massive and first massive pay zones in the Normanna Field on "what the industry called an 'unreasonable basis upon

$54,241 Total Sales Made At Livestock Show

Receipts totaled $54,241 for the two sales held yesterday at Pampa's Recreation Park on the closing day of the 16th annual Top O' Texas Junior livestock show.

Fat calves in the junior livestock sale sold for a total of $24,906.02 for an average price of $315.26 per calf and 38 cents per pound.

Total sales for the hogs in the junior sale was $7,015.07 for an average of $56.13 per pig and 27 cents per pound.

In the Hereford Breeders' sale yesterday afternoon, J. P. Callahan sold the grand champion bull to Nathan Allen of Demolines, N.M., for $1,035.00. The Reserve Champion bull consigned by McGee and Breeding of McLean was sold to Pat Northcap of Silvertown, Texas, for $1,000.

Tommy Potts of Memphis sold the Grand Champion female to J. O. McNatt of Greenville for $660. The Reserve Champion female, consigned by J. P. Callahan of Conway was sold to W. L. Keener of Seneca, N.M., for $780.

The 36 head of bulls shown here Tuesday brought a total of $19,680, for an average of $547.00 per head. Five females sold for $2,640, an average of $528 per cow.

Forty-one head of breeding cattle sold yesterday totaled $22,320.00 for an average of $545 per head.

Wayne Maddox, retiring Breeders' Assn. president, said the top price in the Hereford Breeders sale for a single bull, was $1,110 paid for "Dr. Real Domino 15," sold to Vernon Trish of Miami. This was $75 more than was paid for the Grand Champion bull.

Russia Launches Another Rocket With Dog Aboard

MOSCOW (UPI)—Russia announced it launched another dog named Little Blackie and other living things into orbit around the earth in a five-ton space ship today and brought them back alive.

The official Soviet news agency said the space ship and its living cargo landed right on target "in the required area of the Soviet Union."

The dog, named Chernushka or Little Blackie, was in "normal" condition after the flight, Tass said.

(In Washington, the chief of the United States' man-in-space program, said he believed the Russians "are about ready to put a man up there." George M. Low, chief of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's manned space flight program, said the latest Soviet exploit and a similar one last August have put the Russians many months ahead.)

The announcement said the main purpose of Chernushka's flight was "the further adjustment of the design of the space ship and of the systems on-board so as to insure the necessary conditions for the flight of man."

The rocket launching announcement came as Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev met with U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson in the Siberian city of Novosibirsk.

Senator Hurls Block On School Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy today ran into a Senate challenge to his effort to keep parochial schools out of his multi-billion-dollar education program.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., said he was preparing an amendment to the administration's bill that would make federal construction loans available to private schools, including church-operated ones.

Kennedy appealed at his news conference Wednesday for Congress to avoid letting such controversial issues as segregation and aid to parochial schools kill

Family Of Four Listed Missing

WAYCROSS, Ga. (UPI)—Michael Potter, his wife and two children left home six days ago on a trip which normally takes a little more than an hour.

They have not been heard from since.

Potter, a 30-year-old finance company manager, said he was taking his wife, their year-old son and 2-year-old daughter, to a friend's birthday party in Valdosta, Ga.

They were seen leaving their modest, three-bedroom home last Saturday in a pink, company-owned 1956 Cadillac.

Ware County Sheriff Robert E. Lee said roads have been checked for possible wreckage, but none was found.

Little Hope For Better Relations With Red China

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States appeared today to have reached a dead end in its renewed efforts to get improved relations with Red China.

Officials said the Kennedy administration would keep trying, but had little hope after the new Communist refusal to release American prisoners and to permit U.S. newsmen to enter the Red-held mainland.

Hopes Bolstered For Man In Space

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI)—A "routine" flight success by a Redstone missile Wednesday night bolstered hopes that the United States will send a man into space within two months.

The 70-foot Army missile sent a dummy warhead on an almost flawless trip of nearly 300 statute miles.

9 U.S. Churchmen Are Being Held By Congo Reds

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—A U.S. Embassy official headed today for the Oriental Province capital of Stanleyville to intercede in behalf of nine American missionaries blocked by pro-Lumumba forces.

Frank Caslucci, a second secretary at the embassy here, said he had hopes of getting the Stanleyville leaders to support his request to free the Americans who are missionaries for the World Grace Testimony group.

The Americans are being held with nearly 300 Europeans at Kindu in Kivu Province. All have been refused exit permits, according to U.N. officials.

Mexican Leftists Cheer For Castro

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—A capacity crowd of more than 2,000 persons applauded lustily Wednesday night resolutions denouncing President Kennedy's food for peace plan and praising Fidel Castro as a four-day leftist peace conference ended.

President's Jobless Compensation Bill Hits Senate Committee Snag

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy's $1 billion proposal to extend unemployment compensation ran into a snag today in the Senate Finance Committee.

Finance Chairman Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., said "I don't know if we can get it out this week or not. We may have to go over to next week."

If the bill were delayed — or if it were changed and sent back to the House, or into a Senate House conference committee for a compromise — the emergency anti-recession measure probably would not meet the administration timetable.

Officials have expressed hope that Congress would complete action on the bill and have it on the President's desk by mid-March, so that the extra benefits could be started by April 1.

The finance committee met again today to discuss the bill, which was passed eight days ago by the House on a 392-30 vote. It would provide up to 13 extra weeks of jobless pay for an estimated 600,000 workers who have exhausted state unemployment benefits.

The stumbling block was a provision limiting total payments to 39 weeks in any state. Several finance committee members were objecting on grounds that about a dozen states already are giving more than the average of 26 weeks in benefits.

The objectors want the 39-week ceiling removed, so that these states also would be able to benefit from the entire 13-week extension.

Pennsylvania, for example, currently provides benefits for a maximum of 30 weeks. Under the bill, instead of receiving 13 extra weeks, the state would be limited to an extension of only nine weeks.

Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., Wednesday proposed an amendment lifting the 39-week limitation. He contended it would be an "inequity" to force employers in Pennsylvania to pay the higher payroll taxes to finance the extension without getting the full benefit.

Sleet And Snow Storm Flails East, Midwest

By United Press International

Thousands of midwestern factory workers and schoolchildren were idle for the second day in the wake of a mammoth mountain-belt storm that unloaded up to a foot of new snow in Nebraska and Iowa, 11 inches at Milwaukee, Wis., and drifts measured at 15 feet.

The U.S. Weather Bureau predicted 6 to 12 inches of snow in Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Maine and Vermont before the storm retreated into higher elevations of New England and the Middle Atlantic States.

Gale force winds whipped rain, sleet and snow simultaneously into New York City during the night and churned an inch of slush on sidewalks. The mercury dropped to freezing on the heels of sunshine and 60-degree spring-like weather Tuesday.

Computers and meteorists faced hazardous driving conditions today at both New York and Boston. Police in Boston imposed a ban on parking at midnight.

Chicago's 3-inch snowfall turned to slush in generally rising temperatures under partly cloudy skies.

In Iowa, authorities hoped for good flying weather to continue the search for little Jimmy Frank, a 4-year-old Winthrop, Iowa, boy who disappeared from his home just before a blinding snowstorm hit the state Wednesday.

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas

Each of our fifty states governs its people by its "local laws." But people cross state borders every day to do business or find new homes.

People make contracts outside their own state; others seek divorces; and some leave to get married. Sometimes a non-resident claims the right to inherit property under a state's laws.

It might surprise you, but Texas like other states, has two systems of law: "Local law" for the home people, and "conflict of laws" to solve some legal problems of people who live or come from other states.

In Texas, for instance, the property a man and wife get (which is not a gift or inheritance) becomes community property. But in Massachusetts, what a husband gets is his separate property. In some law suits, a Texas court may need to find out how much property the Massachusetts husband has. When it does, the Texas court uses Massachusetts law to decide the point. The choice of law results when you use the rules found in the study of conflict of laws.

Take a practical case: Suppose two Texans crash their cars in New Mexico, but sue each other in Texas. Which do you use: Texas or New Mexico law? The Texas court will decide who is negligent under New Mexico law.

Now suppose a Texas court decides for one party who is then sued again for the same thing in a second state. Well, to make all states treat each other alike, our United States Constitution has the "full faith and credit clause": So the first judgment will bind the parties just as if the new court in the new action had made the old judgment itself.

But a state does not have to give "full faith and credit" to a judgment if the first court lacked jurisdiction.

For example, a state can grant divorces to its own residents, but not to non-residents. Thus, a Texas court may question a Nevada divorce if it finds that the divorce went to a Texan who was not really a legal Nevada resident when he sought his divorce.

This legal give-and-take among states—called the conflict-of-laws—helps uphold the dignity and authority of all states. And it enables the citizens of all states to live and work together in a great nation.

Un-American Activities Committee Serves An Indispensable Purpose

In view of the large amount of mail that I have received as to the possible abolition of the Committee on Un-American Activities of the House of Representatives, I thought it well to call to the attention of the people in our District the most recent developments relating to the subject. I do this because I feel that a great amount of misunderstanding developed as to the possible influence that might be brought to bear on the Congress by those groups commonly referred to as "left wing organizations." In a previous newsletter I undertook to allay any fear that anti-Communist activities on the part of government agencies might be in jeopardy. My conclusions were definitely confirmed by the overwhelming vote in the House of Representatives on March 1, 1961, approving funds for the continued operation of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. The Resolution on the subject was rather innocuous-looking on its face, but it spurred a lengthy and detailed discussion. I do not use the word "debate" because the discussion was so one-sided it would hardly be fair to call it a debate. It involved the history of the Un-American Activities Committee, the many trials and tribulations of that Committee and the several Members who have seen service with it, and especially the most recent activities of the Committee and the activities of those who would like to see it destroyed.

I have reference to the so-called "San Francisco riots." As most of you know, it was the meeting of the Un-American Activities Committee in San Francisco, and the resulting hullabaloo directed at it by a large group that constituted the basis for the film, "Operation Abolition." This film is quite controversial primarily because of a resolution of criticism adopted by the National Council of Churches. This resolution allegedly objects to the showing of the film. Much has been said to the effect that the film was "doctored" and did not represent a true picture of what actually transpired. However, I feel that many of you who have seen the film have been able to view the matter objectively and can see for yourself whether you think it was "doctored" or not. Certainly, it could be expected that portions of what transpired might be deleted in preparation of any filming of an actual event. But there is little doubt in the minds of those seeing the film as to the physical actions of the persons undertaking to interfere with the duly constituted procedure of the Congress of the United States in full accord with the Constitution and laws applicable. Whether or not these physical actions were Communist-inspired is a matter that should be subject to the determination by the person seeing the activities. Certainly, the physical actions of those making up the group, or the mob, as the case may be, were not in keeping with the provisions of the Constitution or the laws of the Federal government or any State within that government. Hence, it would seem to me that one would be justified in concluding that the inspiration for such action certainly came from an un-American source. Further, such action and procedure should be condemned in the minds of all who subscribe to our form of government.

However, to get back to the House discussion, the Resolution simply authorized the expenditure by the Committee on Un-American Activities of a sum not to exceed $331,000 in carrying out its work. Whether or not this was the proper amount of money was a question which could be readily answered. A long and effective history of the Un-American Activities Committee provides ample evidence as to the monetary needs of that group for proper investigation. The figure of $331,000 had been determined after full consideration by the Un-American Activities Committee and the Committee on House Administration before the matter was brought before the entire Congress. So, the question before the House was not one of whether or not the House Un-American Activities Committee should continue to exist. The need for the Committee was admitted and the question before the House was as to the amount of money needed by such a Committee. To admit the need for a Committee and then deny it the money upon which to operate would be grossly unfair if not dishonest. In fact, it would be "un-American." It would be like saying, "We cannot convict you under the Constitution and laws of this land and give you the death penalty, so we will starve you to death."

The fact is that the Un-American Activities Committee serves an indispensable purpose. In meeting its responsibilities it should be afforded the weapons to carry out and execute the purposes for which it exists. I think the vote on the Resolution before the House on March 1, 1961, is a clear and unmistakable indication as to how the people of this country feel. Their duly elected Representatives underwrote this policy by a vote of 412 to 6.

This will give you some indication of why I told you several weeks ago that the House Committee on Un-American Activities was not in jeopardy.

Grandma With Shotgun Captures Five Robbers

WALLKILL, N.Y. (UPI) — The good citizens of Wallkill today toasted Mrs. Susan Redden, a shotgun-armed grandmother who led a posse of Wild West fashion in capturing five teen-age drug store robbers in the midst of an alleged robbery attempt.

The widow of a New York City policeman, Mrs. Redden said she was awakened by the crying of her grandchild Wednesday. And while comforting the youngster she glanced through a window to see a group of youths entering Edsall's store.

She called police in this town of 1,200 persons but was unable to reach them.

Then she told the operator to keep trying while she snatched up her shotgun and went into the battle line.

The operator finally got through to help. But before that, 12 off-duty guards from the nearby Wallkill State Prison heard Mrs. Redden's appeal and formed a posse, rushing to her assistance.

Mrs. Redden and her posse held the youths captive until state police arrived. Four youths were captured inside the store. A fifth was apprehended in an automobile nearby.

Candidates Fail To Pay Poll Tax

EDINBURG, Tex. (UPI) — Floyd Feldman and Adam J. Cavazos, candidates for the Edinburg School Board, can't vote for themselves, or anybody else for that matter.

Both admitted Wednesday, a bit flushed of cheek, that they forgot to pay their poll taxes this year and aren't qualified as voters.

But Ralph Rawlins, school board attorney, said he knew of no law that would prevent their qualification as a school trustee.

for construction of rental and cooperative housing. Officials are thinking about asking Congress for $500 million for these loans. They would be made to local housing authorities, cooperatives, nonprofit associations and limited-profit corporations.

For low income families: Action by Congress to permit the Public Housing Administration to subsidize construction of 100,000 low-rent housing units. "Unless we increase the supply of low-rent housing, our communities cannot rid themselves of slums," Kennedy said.

For elderly persons: Doubling the present authorization of $50 million for direct loans to nonprofit groups for construction of housing for older persons.

Reserving 50,000 units of low-rent public housing "specifically for low-income elderly persons and families" and an increase of $10 a month in the subsidy on apartments occupied by elderly persons, thereby lowering the rent they pay.

For urban renewal: The President asked Congress to authorize over four years $2.3 billion in grants for slum clearance and rebuilding. These funds would not begin to be spent before fiscal 1965, officials said, because of the long time between conception and execution of an urban renewal project.

Kennedy's request was more than double the $300 million a year former President Dwight D. Eisenhower had asked for urban renewal. Eisenhower had opposed any new public housing authorization.

Both admitted Wednesday, a bit flushed of cheek, that they forgot to pay their poll taxes this year and aren't qualified as voters.

But Ralph Rawlins, school board attorney, said he knew of no law that would prevent their qualification as a school trustee.

Today's Lenten Message

By JAMES FRANCIS CARDINAL MCINTYRE Archbishop of Los Angeles (Written for UPI)

The philosophy of materialism has been spreading widely in the areas of education, and of literature, and of science. Gradually the consequent departure from the principles of the natural law and from the tenets of the revealed law has lessened the respect due to divine and human authority.

The result is confusion in thought and confusion in action. This confusion is necessarily the consequence of such a departure. The standard of action that observes the difference between right and wrong is not respected. Since the substitutes are not permanent, but vacillating and frustrating, they do not constitute tradition or custom or recognition of law.

The theory that "moral and spiritual values, when applied in human behavior, exalt and refine life and bring it into accord with the standards of conduct that are approved in our democratic culture" is an example of the departure from divine law and the substitution of day-to-day disposition.

The opposite of materialism is commemorated in the Feast of the Resurrection. Almighty God manifests His supreme power over life and death when He rises triumphantly from the dead, conquering heaven and earth and releasing the bonds of hell by His resurrection and ascension into heaven.

His resurrection is a supreme testimony and the most convincing confirmation that the order of nature is the work of divinity. The wonders of the world are contained within the order of nature. Let it be remembered that God is the author of nature, and as the creator of nature, God is empowered to prove His divinity as he suspends His law in the resurrection, in testimony of His divinity.

Bill For Rural Electric Is Tabled By House

The Daily News Austin Bureau AUSTIN — Three of the five House members from the Panhandle Wednesday voted to table a bill which would have permitted rural electric cooperatives to serve areas annexed by cities.

Voting to table the bill were Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger, Rep. Ted B. Springer of Amarillo and J. Edgar Wilson of Amarillo.

Rep. Grainger W. McIlhenny of Wheeler and Rep. Jesse M. Osborn of Muleshoe voted against the motion.

The death blow came on a motion by Rep. Frank McGregor to table a compromise version of the REA bill. The House approved 77-54.

The bill was amended to allow cities to extend, deny or limit REA service to existing lines, and to levy a state gross receipts tax on the Co-ops.

Rep. Byron Tunnell of Tyler led opposition to the measure.

Rooms Needed For Delegates To Convention

More accommodations are needed for feminine conventioners in the area, who will be attending the first annual convention of the Top of Texas District, Texas Federated Clubs, planned here March 29-30, according to Mrs. Tom-Rose, general convention chairman.

Accommodations in local hotels and motels have been filled and an appeal for rooms in private homes for the night of March 29 is being made by local convention chairmen.

Pampans, who have an extra room and are willing to share it for the one night, are asked to contact Mrs. W. R. Campbell, 1200 Mary Ellen, by phone MO-5-5803.

Texas Basking In Sunshine

Fair skies stretched from border to border today and Texas basked in bright sunshine as a late winter cold front lost its punch and temperatures began to climb again.

The front swept through the state Wednesday and depressed the mercury rather sharply. Laredo had the top reading in the state, 74 degrees, while the day before readings in the 90s were recorded at several South Texas points. The overnight low was 15 at Dalhart.

Trustee Election Set At White Deer

WHITE DEER (Sp.) — Board of Trustee election for White Deer Independent School District has been set for April 1, for the purpose of electing two members to the board.

Three candidates have filed their names with Felix Ryals at the Tax office. Incumbents McConnell and Harmon are seeking re-election, and filing for a place on the ballot is Wayne Jordan of White Deer.

Two members with terms expiring are C. Russell McConnell, of White Deer and Ed Harmon of Skellytown.

Voting places in the district will be at the High School building in White Deer with W. J. Stubblefield as presiding judge, and at the Skellytown Grade School with W. H. Price as judge.

Former Teacher Gets Prison Term

DALLAS (UPI)—Federal Judge Joe E. Estes sentenced a former high school-civic teacher to serve three years in prison Wednesday for sending obscene letters through the mail.

Francis LeRoy Miles, 37, Garland, who taught at Thomas Jefferson High School in Dallas, pleaded guilty to the charge. Estes probated the sentence.

Miles was charged in connection with a nationwide crackdown on a male "Pen Pal" club.

Rotarians Attend School Program

The Pampa Rotary club yesterday attended a program presented by the sixth grade of Stephen F. Austin school. The program theme was the Civil War and depicted the several phases experienced by both the North and South over several years. Each scene featured a musical number that was popular in the era portrayed.

The program was introduced by D. V. Biggers, school principal, and the meeting was presided over by Jack Edmondson in the absence of the club's president, R. E. (Dick) Batson, Jr.

Visitors and guests for the day were R. E. Darnell, J. W. Dillard, Ben Organ, "Cap" Jolly, Charlie Thut, Warner Phillips, Randy Cain and Dr. Joe Donaldson.

Corned Beef 'N Cabbage In Honor Of St. Patrick

Some folks serve corned beef brisket with crisp cabbage slaw or cooked cabbage wedges in honor of St. Patrick's Day. New Englanders like a variety of vegetables cooked with the tasty brisket for an old-fashioned "boiled dinner." By no means limited to special occasions or geographic location, a Golden Glazed Corned Beef Brisket is highly appetizing fare anytime.

The amount of corned beef to buy depends on the number of servings needed. Four servings to the pound is an easy rule to follow when making the purchase. Since corned beef is so delicious either hot or cold, it's wise to buy enough to serve for more than one meal.

Homemakers will find convenient 2 1/2-8 pound brisket pieces vacuum packed in transparent, flavor-tight wrappers which are drip-free too. The label carries the brand name of the world's

Shrimp Casserole Shopper's Special

Looking for a shopper's special? Here it is, Shrimp Casserole, a company-elegant dish you can put together at the drop of a newly purchased hat. To make it, ready these ingredients in advance — cooked, cleaned shrimps and a medium thick white sauce, seasoned with garlic salt, salt and pepper, and combined with cooked peas. When ready to make dinner, in a casserole alternate layers of soft 1/2-inch bread cubes, the cooked, cleaned shrimps, and the white sauce with peas. The white sauce should be the topmost layer. Sprinkle with buttered bread crumbs and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 20 minutes.

cooking for a crowd, whole briskets which range in weight from 5 to 16 pounds are also available. If desired, both the whole briskets and the brisket pieces may be purchased with a special garlic flavor.

When carving corned beef start slicing at the narrower, thinner end of the brisket. Cut across the grain. When the direction of the grain begins to change about halfway through, turn the remaining piece and continue to cut across the grain. Slice the meat paper thin for sandwiches and into 1/8 inch slices for main dish servings.

GOLDEN GLAZED CORNED BEEF

Yield: about 8 servings
2 to 2 1/2 pound piece corned beef brisket
8 peppercorns
1-3 cup chopped onion
2 bay leaves
1-3 cup prepared mustard
1 1/2 teaspoons horseradish
1/4 cup red wine vinegar
1/4 cup dark corn syrup
1 teaspoon grated lemon peel

Remove casing from around the corned beef. Place brisket in a large kettle and cover with water. Add peppercorns, onion, and bay leaves. Cover. Simmer until fork-tender, about 1 hour per pound. While corned beef is cooking, combine the remaining ingredients in a small saucepan. Heat this glaze about 5 minutes to blend flavors. Remove the cooked corned beef from the kettle. Score the fat side with diagonal slashes. Place the brisket on a shallow pan. Cover the top with the mustard glaze. Place under the broiler until the glaze, browns and bubbles. Baste the meat once and return to the

Bacon 'N Eggs Offer Invitation To Breakfast

Slices of crisp, brown-sugar cured bacon are an open temptation to bacon snitching. Surrounding fluffy scrambled eggs, bacon is a welcome invitation to a hearty breakfast. Fresh fruit and toast or rolls are finishing touches to this meal centered around the high quality, complete protein found in bacon and eggs.
Although a skillet is most often used for cooking bacon, pan-frying is not the only cooking method. To broil this handy meat, separated slices are arranged on a broiling rack and placed 3 to 5 inches from the heat source. A quickie way to separate the slices as the bacon comes from the refrigerator is to slip a rubber scraper between slices and "peel off" as many as needed. Broiled slices should be turned to cook uniformly. To be sure of serving bacon with the prized sweet smoke taste, experienced homemakers look for the brand name of the two most trusted words in meat.

Over baking bacon is a dandy cooking method when a quantity of slices are needed. A rack set in a baking pan is the equipment to use for baking bacon. The oven should be hot, that is 400 degrees F. At this temperature the bacon will brown in 10 to 12 minutes. Cooking several extra slices in the morning provides bacon bits for many uses. Crumbled into French dressing, an otherwise plain lettuce salad takes on new interest. The same is true for cream soups or hot vegetables.

Delicious Confection Is Conversation Piece

Share, if you're entertaining during St. Pat's Day week, here's a clever, unusual, and absolutely delicious confection — a centerpiece and conversation piece that will make any Irish heart proud. It's a big, green, glistening shamrock made of popcorn!

So simple to make, all it requires is some cardboard, a bit of aluminum foil, your favorite light popcorn ball recipe and a few drops of green food coloring.

When finished, your shamrock can be decorated with small shamrocks and set on a dollie on a cake plate in the center of your table.

Best of all, you can make your shamrock days ahead of time. Wrap it in foil or saran, and it'll be fresh and crisp, come serving time.

Here's how to make this Irishman's Dream:

Cut a shamrock measuring 10 inches from top to the bottom of the stem and about 7 inches from side to side out of a piece of cardboard. Cover the shamrock with aluminum foil.

Pop about three quarts of popcorn and put in a buttered bowl in a slow oven (300 degrees). Make your favorite light popcorn ball syrup, and, to the cooked syrup, add a teaspoon of green food coloring.

Set aside about a fourth of the syrup (keeping it hot enough to stay liquid) and pour the rest over the popped corn, mixing well with a buttered spoon.

Working quickly (with your hands greased or slightly wet) pile the coated popcorn onto the shamrock pattern, packing it firmly on all sides. Build to a height of at least two inches. Let the mold cool.

For the finishing touches, trim rough edges with a sharp knife and using a pastry brush, touch up any spots not thoroughly coated with the remaining syrup.

After that, slice, serve, and watch it disappear! Incidentally, it's wonderful with ice cream.

BASIC SYRUP RECIPE

2½ cups granulated sugar
1 cup light corn syrup
¾ cup water
½ cup butter or margarine
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
Mix together sugar, syrup, water, butter or margarine, and salt in a saucepan. Bring to soft crack stage (270 to 290 degrees F).

BACON-EGG BUNS

4 bacon slices, cut in half
4 eggs
4 sliced hamburger buns
¼ cup butter
Butter bottom halves of buns. Fry bacon until almost crisp. For each serving: Arrange two slices of cooked bacon side-by-side and over them break an egg. Cover with bottom bun half, buttered side

BIMIENTO CHEESE TOAST WITH POACHED EGG

4 teaspoons butter or margarine
4 slices enriched bread toast
¼ cup pimiento cheese spread
4 poached eggs
Butter toast. Spread 1 table-spoon pimiento cheese on each slice of buttered toast. Top each slice of hot toast with a poached egg.
Yield: 4 servings.

Nourishment For Morning's Work

Since it has been proved that "just coffee" is not sufficient nourishment for anyone who has to have brain or muscle power for a morning's work, here are a couple of breakfast suggestions that will give that power!

Winter Cocktail

Just Like Spring
"Is Honey the Nectar of the Gods?" It is written that "Ancient stories and legends speak of honey as the Nectar of the Gods; and Aristotle, the Greek Philosopher, a bit mystified by its goodness, referred to it as "dew distilled from the stars and the rainbow." Honey is the oldest sweet, according to history.
All of these slogans ring true, so that if we add another "Bee Wise, Use Honey in Your Meals," we too can prove its worth in a Pineapple Winter Cocktail.

Winter Cocktail

1 package frozen fresh or canned pineapple in broken slices
1 medium size avocado
2 large grapefruit
Partially thaw the frozen pineapple. It should still be slightly frosty. Drain. Pare the grapefruit with a sharp knife, cutting off all the outer membrane. Then slip out the sections from between the membrane walls. Peel and dice the avocado. Combine the fruits, heap lightly in sherbet glasses and cover with this dressing:
¼ cup syrup from the pineapple
¼ cup lemon juice
¼ cup honey
Blend ingredients together. Garnish with sprigs of mint or watercress, or with sliced raw cranberries or cubes of bright jelly.
Serves 4 to 8.

The Easter parade for small fry will turn up fashions like these. Her dress has tiny capelet; print is a black floral on white. His Rugby sport jacket is polished woven cotton in blue-and-white with matching blue slacks.

Hobgood Circle Meets For Study

The Hobgood Group of First Christian Church met in the home of Mrs. G. E. Cree with Mrs. Charles Lanehart, presiding, during the business meeting.

Grown-Up Mood For Stylish Tots

NEW YORK (NEA) - In a grown-up mood, small fashions for the Easter parade display little capelets, ensembles, Chanel-type jackets and clear hot colors.

The lesson was given by Mrs. Taylor entitled "God's People, the Instrument of the World" in which she read inspirational scripture pertaining to the prophesy of the Messiah.

Boys will be boys; but they'll have the distinct image of the gentleman about them in the 1941 Easter parade. Their Rugby and Eton suits have the British look with the traditional-glen plaids; district checks and tweed patterns lightened and brightened by new hues: blues, reds and plum tones.

Canadian Card Club Tell Winners Following Sessions

CANADIAN (Spl) - Mr. and Mrs. John Chambers were hosts to the couples club recently.

Mrs. R. F. Fry and Mrs. Orla Boyd Curmatt were guests for the evening. Members present were Mrs. Jack Williams, Abe Haddock, J. T. Russell, E. EEC. Payne, John Wilkinson and Tom Hill.

High scores were tallied by Mrs. Barton and Mr. Waterfield. Vernon Flowers scored low.

The 40-50 Club met with Mr. and Mrs. Pat Murphy recently. Attending were Messrs. and Mrs. Tom Hill, John Wilkinson, Warren Harrington, Harry Rathjen, Abe Haddock, and Mrs. Ralph Alexander.

Guests and members of the J.U.G. Club met with Mrs. Orla Curmatt recently.

Members and guests of the H. H. Canasta Club met with Mrs. Stanley McKee.

Pioneer Club Has Luncheon

WHITE DEER (Spl) - The White Deer Pioneer Club met recently for a luncheon in the Fellowship Hall of the Methodist Church.

Homemakers Class Has Lunch Meet

WHITE DEER (Spl) - The Homemakers class of the White Deer Baptist Church met recently in the home of Mrs. Finis Keeton for visitation and a covered dish luncheon.

Hostesses for the social hour were Mrs. May Skaggs and Fanny Skaggs both of Pampa; W. J. Stubblefield, R. A. Thompson both of White Deer.

After a brief business meeting, Mrs. Joe Mitchell gave a short devotional. A box of clothing was packed and sent to the Goodwill Center in Amarillo.

The luncheon was prepared and served by the Ruth and Naomi circles of the W.S.C.S.

Attending were Mrs. Joe Seitz, Rick Rammig, Leon Nicholson, Burl Caudle, Glenn Robertson, C. D. Freeman, Joe Mitchell, Tobe Vinson, Ester Robertson, Glenn Reid, C. C. Kelly, Oscar Cummings, ham, and Arnold Dass.

The next meeting will be May 18 with Mrs. Vern Crumpacker, Gertha McConnell, Frank Kune, and J. J. Crutchfield as hostesses.

Dear Abby... Differences Can Be Settled With Dignity

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What is a 96-engineer supposed to do when her husband and son get into a knock-down drag-out fight in the house? My son is 16 and he is as big as his father. Last night they went at it again over a difference of opinion. I kept out of it until they started knocking over furniture and pulled the curtain off the window. I ordered them to stop but they didn't pay any attention to me. I called the police because the neighbors on both sides said it didn't - they would. Now neither my husband nor son will speak to me. Frankly I am sick of both of them. Should I walk out?

READY TO LEAVE DEAR-READY: Yes, and on the way out tell them to let you know when they are ready to settle their differences in a civilized manner and you'll be glad to return.

DEAR ABBY: We have been married quite a few years and I have always had to be the first one up in the morning when the alarm went off. If I didn't get up and wake my husband he would never get to work in the morning. He says he would rather lose a day's work than be a little late. We have had both coal stoves and coal furnaces. More recently we have had gas and oil heat. But believe me, a coal stove was no fun. When I had been sick and was just home from the hospital, it didn't matter - I was STILL the first one up. But on Saturdays, oh boy! If he had a fishing date, getting up all by himself at 3:30 a.m. was no problem at all. Why?

DAILY READER DEAR-READER: You can't blame a man for bouncing out of bed faster to go fishing than to work. You are married to a spoiled little boy. But don't be too hard on him. You spoiled him.

DEAR ABBY: I'm a nervous wreck. My husband has a habit of taking things. He calls it "borrowing," but he never returns what he takes. If he sees a tool or something at the shop where he works, he just takes it. I keep seeing more and more things around the house that I know do not belong to him.

He got into some trouble over this habit some years back, but his boss felt sorry for me and the children, so nothing was done about it. We have a nice home in a nice neighborhood and could buy anything we really needed, so I can't understand why he risks his job and reputation this way.

Deaf And Blind Children Enjoy Thrills Of Circus

CHICAGO (UPI)—The deaf children laughed first because they could see.

Then their blind playmates laughed, and the circus was the most exciting place in the world.

It wasn't just the annual Shrine Circus. It was an afternoon away from class for more than 200 youngsters from the Alexander Graham Bell school for the deaf and blind, all guests of the Lake View Lions Club.

The partially deaf and blind wore earphones to "see" the action, but the headsets didn't get in the way of peanuts and cotton candy. The blind children couldn't run up and down the aisle, but no one said they had to sit all the way back in their seats.

The deaf couldn't hear the lions roar or the dogs bark or the horses prance, but they could shudder and shriek and clap for the clown, and fear for the pretty girl on the elephant.

The clowns were luckier than people who sat near the children. Grease paint masked their eyes.

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI)—Mrs. Leo Brown's laundry looks white and sparkling when she hangs it out to dry. Sometimes it looks just as nice an hour later.

But if the wind changes, Mrs. Brown told City Hall Wednesday, soot from a nearby lumber yard covers her neighborhood. "When I want to do my washing," she said in demanding action, "I have to check to see if the wind is coming from the west."

Pampa Minister Declares UNICEF Not Communistic

UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund, is not communistic nor a communist front organization, Rev. David Mills, pastor of Lamar Christian Church and chairman of the local Trick of Treat for UNICEF last October, said today.

Rev. Mills said he had heard accusations from several sources that J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, had charged that UNICEF is a communist organization, so he wrote Hoover to find out. Rev. Mills said Hoover replied that he has never made any such comment concerning the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF).

Hoover further stated according to Rev. Mills, that since UNICEF was one of its affiliated agencies, the matter would be of interest to the State Department. Rev. Mills said he then wrote Dean Rusk, Secretary of State, and received a full report including a four-page listing of the members of the United States Committee for UNICEF; an eleven-page report from C. Lloyd Bailey, Executive Director of the U.S. Committee for UNICEF; a two-page report from the National Catholic Welfare Conference; and a 64 page report from UNICEF.

The report lists leaders of some of the most prominent organizations in the United States connected with UNICEF.

The report also votes it is true that the UNICEF Executive Board which has the final say on approving allocations, is composed of 30 countries, elected for a three-year term by the U.N. Economic and Social Council. Of these 30 Board members; 4 are Communist. The report from the National Catholic Welfare Conference states: "They (the Communist Countries) do not exercise a determining influence on the Board. . . In general, discussions deal with technical aspects of disease control, child nutrition, and various procedural

Movie Actress Now 'Virtually' Out Of Danger

LONDON (UPI)—Elizabeth Taylor is "virtually" out of danger and may be out of bed in two or three weeks, her doctor said today.

It was the most optimistic statement yet made since the 23-year-old movie queen was stricken with pneumonia last Saturday.

Dr. Carl Heinz Goldman visited Miss Taylor this morning and reported afterward she is "virtually off the danger list."

"Her improvement has been maintained. We are cutting down on the oxygen in the respirators and her breathing is much easier," he said.

He added that Miss Taylor "may be out of bed in two or three weeks time."

The doctors who have been attending Miss Taylor will hold a conference at the clinic this evening to discuss the best way for continuing treatment.

Miss Taylor's gallant fight against double pneumonia has brought offers of medical help from around the world, including Russia.

Eddie Fisher, her husband, disclosed the Russians offered to fly drugs and any other "medical equipment necessary" to help speed his wife's recovery.

Border Olympics Set

LAREDO (UPI)—Thirteen college golf teams tee off today in a prelude to the two-day Border Olympics track and field competition Friday and Saturday.

College golfers play 18 holes today, 36 Friday and 18 Saturday. Sixteen high school golf teams play 18 holes each day. A total of 154 golfers will take part.

Officials said the final entry list for the Border Olympics showed a record number of teams and contestants will take part in the track and field meet—105 teams and 1,242 contestants.

The teams entered include nine university team, headed by defending champion Texas; 16 college teams, including 1960 champion Texas Southern; 13 junior colleges, paced by Howard County Junior College, defending titlist; and 67 high schools, including the defending champion—Midland.

Junior college track and field preliminaries will be staged Friday morning, with high school prelims that afternoon. University and college prelims will begin Saturday morning.

Ohio St. Star Cops 'Best Player' Honor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Jerry Lucas, the 6-foot, 8-inch star around whom Ohio State has constructed an unbeaten season, today was named college basketball's "Player of the Year" for 1961 in a nationwide poll conducted by United Press International.

The junior center, who also topped the voting last week for the UPI All-America team, spreadeagled the field in balloting by 292 sports writers and broadcasters throughout the country.

Lucas received the votes of 242 writers, a stunning 82.9 per cent. Fellow All-American Tom Stith of St. Bonaventure was a remote second place finisher with only 19 votes and All-America Terry Dischinger of Pacific was third with nine.

"I consider it quite an honor with players like Dischinger and Stith in the country," said Lucas today when informed of his selection. "It's something to live up to the rest of the year and next year."

"This latest honor comes at a time when Lucas is getting ready to lead Ohio State into its final game of the regular season Saturday against Illinois.

PHS Slates Single Game

Pampa's Harvester baseball team will kick off its season Saturday afternoon with a single game at 2 p.m. with Elk City, Okla., rather than a doubleheader, Coach Deck Woldt announced yesterday.

Woldt changed to a single game after conferring with Elk City officials. Reason for the change was a delayed ending of the basketball season and the Elk City coach didn't feel he had the pitching staff to play a twin-bill so early in the season.

Lone Star Boxers Tie For Second

CHICAGO (UPI)—Margarito (Chico) Marquez, 17, El Campo, Tex., schoolboy won the flyweight title at the finals of the 24th Western Golden Gloves Wednesday night by pouncing out a three-round decision over Billy Ray Bauman of Nashville.

Heavyweight Claud Devenport, 20, a college football player from Arlington State, lost in the finals to Al Jenkins of Green Bay, Wis.

Fort Worth tied for second place in the team trophy race with 14 points along with Louisville and Chicago. St. Louis won the team title with 19 points.

The swift-punching Marquez advanced to the finals with a unanimous decision over Caesar Forrest of St. Louis.

The 250-pound Devenport clubbed out an easy decision over Reford Clagg of Hollywood, Calif., in the semifinals. If Devenport had won the heavyweight championship he would have been the second Texan ever to have done so. Orlan Ott won the heavyweight title in 1944.

"Marquez had history in his corner in the flyweight title fight. More Texans have won the flyweight crown than any other title in the Western championships.

Pre-Season Predictions Bring Grief

Our latest — and last — bubble has been broken.

After watching the football team finish in last place and the basketball team tie for sixth, we held out hopes that the Harvester baseballers would rescue us from the lower division.

Yesterday that brief dream came to an end as the coaches' predictions for the District 3-4A baseball race were announced in a neighboring paper. Eagerly, we grabbed the story and read it; then re-read it again as the Pampa name leaped out — from a last place.

Now we don't know what the other coaches have got against Pampa, but as hope springs eternal from the breast of an optimist, we feel almost sure that Pampa will finish higher than eighth.

Having never seen the baseballers in action, this personal prediction comes off the top of our head.

However, we feel sure that despite the fact that the pitching staff has yet to be fully tested under 3-4A bats, the Harvesters can't tumble from last year's third place finish to the league bottom.

While our little world was clouded with gloom after reading the predicted cellar finish, Pampa Coach Deck Woldt seemed almost relieved.

"Good; that's just fine. Now if we finish higher than eighth, everyone will think I'm a good coach," Woldt said.

However, one couldn't help but notice that by the tone of Woldt's voice, he didn't think he would finish in eighth place either.

For those who are interested in gory statistics, the rankings were (number of votes in parenthesis): (1) Lubbock (45); (2) Lubbock (40); (3 & 4) Fescosa and Borger (30 each); (5) Palo Duro (23); (6) Plainview (22); (7) Amarillo (18); and Pampa (16).

So far in non-conference games, Lubbock seems to be pulling an Amarillo Sandie trick reminiscent of basketball season; i.e., they lost both their opening games to Odessa by identical 3-2 scores, while Monterey split an opening two-game series with Odessa. Permian.

Plainview has won both its games over Levelland by 8-7 and 4-3 scores to round out teams who have opened their seasons. The rest of the 3-4A nines go into action this weekend with Pampa opening at home against Elk City, Okla., in a Saturday afternoon game at 2 p.m.

Pampa games this season will be played at Harvester Park, west of the football field, instead of the Optimist Park. Woldt said that fences would be put up prior to 3-4A play which starts March 28.

Woldt plans a 300-foot fence in right, 336 to the left field line and 360 in dead center, somewhat longer distances than are found in most high school parks.

SPORTS IN SPURTS: Two Pampa boys turned in incredible seasons according to the final Southwest Conference basketball statistics. Bobby Gindorf was the sixth best free throw shooter in the SWC with an 80.7 percentage on 46 of 57, placing one percentage point behind A.M.'s Carroll Broussard, an All-SWC selection.

Pampa's Jerry Pope, a TCU starter, pumped in 120 points in 23 games for a 5.2 average, finishing three places under Gindorf in scoring (130).

Six area boxers, five from Pampa, are entered in the Red River Tournament which began in Wichita Falls last night.

Entered under Pampa Optimist sponsorship are Johnny Ironmonger (112); Tommy Woodruff (119); Charles Moore of Borger (125); Mack Taylor (132); Kenny Powell (139); and Dickie Willis (156).

The AAU-sanctioned tournament ends Saturday night.

Champ Looks Tough

Patterson Plans 'Right' Attacks

MIAMI BEACH (UPI)—Champion Floyd Patterson, finishing his glove preparations today, indicated he may make Monday night's third title fight with Ingemar Johansson a battle of right hands.

Ingo Sparmate Thinks Floyd Will Triumph

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Ingemar Johansson's chief sparmate, after his last session with the former champion today, didn't say it directly, but there was little doubt that he thinks Floyd Patterson will beat Ingo next Monday.

Everybody, including Johansson, has made it no secret that he expects to win by landing another right-hand crusher as he did in their 1959 fight. But listen to Solomon McTier, the only heavyweights left in the camp after Alonzo Johnson departed last week.

"It's easy to slip his right, or to block it. He telegraphs the right every time — he cocks his right hand. I don't think he ever hit me in the head with a right, although he landed some good rights to the body."

In his 3 1/2 weeks in camp McTier boxed 42 rounds against Ingo.

"I can hit Johansson in the body anytime I want to, but he is wise about left hooks to the head," McTier said, talking freely with his time in camp done.

NON-TITLE BOUT SET

PARIS (UPI)—Solomon Boysaw of Cleveland, Ohio, and Gracien Lamperti, European featherweight champion from France, will meet in a 10-round bout here March 20. The non-title bout will be staged at 132 pounds—just a bit over the featherweight limit.

Never before has the 28-year-old champion thrown so many straight rights in training as during the current campaign.

Patterson and trainers Dan Florio and Buster Watson know that Ingemar will be watching this time for Floyd's booming left hook, which floored Ingo twice for a fifth-round knockout in their second fight last June 20. Hence, the straight right could prove a violent surprise.

Floyd demonstrated that his left hook is still lethal Wednesday in a workout before 500 persons in the plush Napoleon Room of the Deauville Hotel. He buckled the knees of sparmate Wilson Hannibal in their first round.

However, during most of his two sessions with 195-pound Hannibal of New York and one round with New Yorker John Henry, a 210-pounder, Floyd concentrated on repeated left jabs that made openings for the straight right.

At a news conference, Patterson admitted, "Yes, it's true I'm using left jabs more than ever and the right hand, too. I've improved both of them a lot."

Headrick Inks New Texan Pact

DALLAS (UPI)—Sherrill Headrick, outstanding linebacker for the Dallas Texans of the American Football League, has signed a 1961 contract with the club.

Jack Steadman, general manager of the team, called Headrick "the heart of the Texas defense."

"Our coaches felt that Sherrill was almost in a class by himself as far as the AFL linebackers were concerned," Steadman said.

Your RIGHT TO VOTE

MR. AND MRS. VOTER, do you feel that you should have an opportunity to vote on legalizing Parimutuel Horse Race Betting?

A constitutional amendment (H.J.R. #4) is being considered whereby Texans will be given an opportunity to legalize horse race betting in Dallas, Tarrant, Harris, Galveston, Brazos, Midland, Hidalgo, Cameron and Webb Counties, subject to approval by LOCAL OPTION.

H.J.R. #4 provides for distribution, ANNUALLY, among all counties that do not have race tracks, one-half of the STATE TAX REVENUE obtained from horse racing. Each county would receive approximately $1.00 per capita population the first year. Counties where the tracks are located would receive 2% of parimutuel handle. The state's tax income from horse racing alone would run close to $12,000,000 the very first year—possibly more—besides all the income tourists would bring to Texas—which would amount to millions of dollars, plus a great ad valorem tax on race tracks, breeding farms and many valuable race horses.

Please express your opinion by checking the appropriate box below. You do not have to sign your name unless you like, but we would prefer it.

YES: I feel that the people should have an opportunity to vote on horse race parimutuel betting.

NO: I am not in favor of letting the people vote on the subject.

Baylor Cage Coach Quits

WACO (UPI) — R. E. (Bill) Henderson, Baylor basketball coach for 18 years and president of the American Basketball Coaches Association, resigned Wednesday but will remain at the school as assistant director of athletics.

B. M. (Bill) Menelec, Henderson's assistant for 14 seasons and former NAIB All-America star at North Texas State College, will succeed Henderson.

Henderson's basketball teams won 200 games including 108 Southwest Conference contests.

BILLY COOPER seeks PV mark

Two School Records Already Tied

Pampa In Graham Meet

With two school marks already tied and the track season less than two weeks old, Coach Dwain Lyon was preparing his Harvester dirtmen for the big Possum Kingdom Relays in Graham Saturday.

Billy Hughes tied the second mark last weekend when he ran a 2:07.1 — although not placing — in the 880 to tie the PHS mark set by Frank Snow in 1957.

The first record was tied by Billy Cooper in a practice meet with Amarillo two weeks ago when he vaulted 11' 6" to tie Kent Mitchell's mark set last year.

These two records, among all, seem to be the surest bets to be bettered once warm weather hits the track scene. However, once you move past these two, the rest of the PHS records seem to be pretty safe, especially Alton Thygerson's 9.8 hundred and 20.9 220 which he chalked up in 1958.

In the weight events, sophomore

Randy Matson should break the marks in the shot put and discus long before he graduates. The shot mark of 55' 8 1/4" was set by Jon Cantrell in 1955 and Matson already has heaved the iron ball 52' 3 1/4" to finish second in the Canyon Reef meet last weekend.

Matson again will be Pampa's strongest threat at Graham Saturday but potential point earners lurk in the forms of Steve Dobbin in the open quarter, Bill Martin in the high jump and Cooper in the pole vault, along with Hughes in the 880-Yard dash.

Dumas Tops PHS Netters

Pampa's Harvester tennis team was looking forward to matches at Clarendon on Monday and at Phillips on Tuesday after losing, 4-2, yesterday to Dumas in the season-opener on the PHS courts.

A pair of sophomores, Jerry Thomas and Don Collins, won the only matches for Pampa, Thomas winning, 6-1, 6-4, and Collins triumphing, 6-4, 6-2.

In boys doubles, Gary Storrs and David Price fell, 2-6, 2-8, while the girls' doubles team of Jean Abbott and Linda Conners lost, 3-5, 2-6.

In girls' singles, Donna Walsh lost, 7-9, 2-6, while Dianna Meyers tumbled, 5-7, 2-6.

Tomorrow's scheduled match with Clarendon has been rescheduled for Monday as there will be no school at PHS tomorrow.

NMS Star Highlights 1961 BC Dream Team

EL PASO (UPI) — George Knighton, New Mexico State's 6-7 forward who led the loop in scoring, was the only unanimous choice for the 1961 coaches' All-Border Conference basketball team announced today.

It marked the second straight year the big Cullbert, Ga. Negro star was a unanimous choice and since he is only a junior, he will have a chance to make it three in a row.

Rounding out the first team were teammate Billy Joe Price, 6-8; Larry Armstrong, the fiery 5-9 sparkplug of the Arizona State team which shared the championship with New Mexico State; Al Tolen, Texas Western's 6-0 forward; and David Kissinger, Hardin-Simmons' 6-3 guard.

Knighton and Armstrong, who averaged better than 21 and 19 points, respectively, were the only also averaged better than 20 juniors. Kissinger and Tolen points per game.

New Mexico State's Vincent Knight was placed on the second team after making the first team last year as a junior. Other second team berths went to Tony Cerkvenik and Ollie Payne of Arizona State, Joe Skaisgir of Hardin-Simmons.

The only honorable mention vote went to Texas Western's Nolen Richardson.

'Giant-Killers' To Enter Big NCAA Tournament

Pensacola Tee Opens, Palmer Early Choice

PENSACOLA, Fla. (UPI) — Arnold Palmer, his sights set on his fourth tournament win of the year, teed off today with 149 other top golfers as the 72-hole Pensacola PGA Open got off to a booming start.

Palmer, defending champion and 1960's top money winner, was the odds-on favorite to take the lion's share of the $20,000 purse after his blazing practice rounds. The Ligonier, Pa., golfer, who now plays out of Miami, shot a sizzling eight-under-par 64 over the 6,400-foot Pensacola Country Club course earlier this week.

All indications were that the putting trouble which bothered him in the Greater New Orleans Open last week, where he finished out of the top five for the first time in over a year, had cleared up.

'Tiny' Morehead St. Faces Hard Sledding

Morehead State is going to be thrown against the "giants" of college basketball when it starts play in the NCAA tournament next week, but the Kentucky school is confident of bringing them down to earth with a couple of economy-sized players.

Granny Williams and Hecky Thompson, each of whom measure 5-11, once again provided the spark as Morehead State defeated Western Kentucky in overtime, 80-72, Wednesday. The victory gave the Eagles the Ohio Valley Conference and assured them an NCAA berth.

Liston KO's Howard King

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Burly, big-fisted Sonny Liston of Philadelphia, who scored his 25th straight victory Wednesday night on a repeat knockout over Howard King, plans to challenge for the heavyweight crown next week.

Sonny, weighing 219 1/2 to 204 for King, of Reno, Nevada, floored King for a count of eight in the second round and for the full count in the third round of their 10-rounder.

Another post-season tournament position will be filled tonight when Kentucky and Vanderbilt meet on a neutral court in Knoxville, Tenn. The two teams finished the regular season tied for second place in the Southeastern Conference and the winner of this play-off game goes to the NCAA.

Mississippi State won the Southeastern title, but passed up the tournament bid because of an unwritten state segregation law.

The Ohio Valley Conference concluded its campaign in a three-way deadlock, but Morehead State eliminated Eastern Kentucky earlier this week to earn the right to play Western Kentucky.

Ohio-Keglers Pace Classic

DETROIT (UPI) — The Sullivan's of Detroit, formerly the Pfeiffer Beers, rolled a weak 2790 series while the Amster-Kirtz of Akron, Ohio, bowled 2879 as the Classic Division made its American Bowling Congress tournament debut Wednesday night.

Both teams will be in action again tonight as the Classic Division entrants roll two three-game blocks on successive nights. The team with the highest six-game total will be crowned Classic champion.

Billy Golembiewski, the defending ABC Masters' tourney champion, was the only Sullivan team member to perform like a pro. Golembiewski had a 631 series.

There was one change in the top five in regular team play as the Valley Builders of Patterson, N.Y., took fourth with 2855. St. Alin Canton, N.Y., were chosen Wednesday as the East's representatives in the NCAA hockey tourney March 16-18 at Denver.

Representative EAST PROVIDENCE, R.I. (UPI) — Rensselaer Polytechnic of Troy, N.Y., and St. Lawrence University of Canton, N.Y., were chosen Wednesday as the East's representatives in the NCAA hockey tourney March 16-18 at Denver.

Reversal Of Logic

Since several cities have been hovering on the verge of some sort of program for rehabilitation of downtown business areas, a little discussion on the federal urban renewal plan seems worth while.

Human Events a Washington newsletter last June ran an article entitled "Corruption Unlimited: Urban Renewal" which does a pretty fair job of describing the program under which local communities have been receiving federal funds to enter one of the most socialistic schemes ever devised. A few quotes seem in order:

"Urban renewal promises the conversion of blighted areas, business and slum, into aesthetically-pleasing, sell - balanced developments, serving the needs of the community. A city submits a plan for its purchase - under condemnation if necessary - of the blighted areas. The federal government, if the plan gets its approval, will pay two-thirds of the loss sustained when the land is resold to private contractors who agree to construct developments satisfactory to the city and federal planning agencies."

Author James Wick explains that the Constitution permits private property to be taken under eminent domain only if it is needed for "public use." However, the U.S. Supreme Court now has ruled that redevelopment programs can use the condemnation procedure to seize property for "aesthetic" improvements. He continues:

"With the 1954 decision, the lid was off. Government can take one man's private property and sell it (at a small fraction of its cost) to another man for his private use. If the latter's use complies with the Grand Design."

"Urban renewal is not slum clearance. It may include slum clearance, but primarily, urban renewal is city-planning by the city"

Contradiction

The rationale of a number of minds is of great curiosity to us. There are so many who object to the advance of government in size and power, who are doing everything possible by petition and otherwise, to get the government to do just one more "good thing."

Urban Renewal

Let us examine the field of altruism. It appears from a letter we have recently received that those of us who may not agree that altruism is the highest good to which many may aspire can readily be accused of brutality, unfeelingness, hard - heartedness and just plain indifference to human suffering. Such is not only not the case but is the precise opposite of the truth.

Let us approach the problem this way. We are told by a few reputable scientists that the birth rate of homo sapiens on this earth is now so staggeringly effective that we are experiencing a "population explosion." Some of these same scientists, alarmed by the mental image of an earth so crowded that humanity will be standing elbow to elbow without even room to recline, have gone so far as to advocate governmental tampering with the reproductive processes in an effort to forestall the human deluge.

But a close examination of the facts tends to bear out our contention that birth rates have not changed perceptibly if at all. Rather, the reason for the so-called population explosion relates to a decline in the death rate. It is not that more people are being born, it is that more people are living longer, having children over a longer span for years.

Thomas Malthus, the gloomy Scoteman of a prior age, made one significant observation which is certainly true. He pointed out that it would not be possible for more people to live on this earth at any one time than could be fed. Having stated an ultimate given, which is self-evident, he propounded the clearly invalid doctrine that food production increases only arithmetically whereas births tend to increase geometrically. The answer, Malthus claimed, was to control the number of births.

If a population increases as a result of the self-responsible action of the adult members of the

WELFARE STATE IN OPERATION

By refusing a while back a public handout to 6,000 unmarried mothers and their 23,000 illegitimate children, Governor Davis and the Louisiana State Legislature dramatized a question that deserves the most serious attention from the American taxpayer.

The high cost of supporting illegitimacy is of concern in many parts of the country. The birth rate of illegitimate children has more than doubled in the past two decades.

According to Government reports, illegitimate births in the U.S. increased from 89,500 in 1940 to 201,700 in 1957. As a result, the federal-state program of Aid for Dependent Children (ADC) has become tremendously expensive. It now costs more than $300 million a year, of which the federal government pays in excess of $400 million.

In 1959, ADC cost California $114 million. New York paid out $83 million. Pennsylvania's cost ran to $56 million. Much of this money is spent on families in which the mother is not married to the father. Obviously, there is ample ground for public indignation.

The taxpayers should be outraged because it is clear that in many instances the mothers of illegitimate children are not simply sinful or foolish; they are knowingly engaged in a racket at public expense. Municipal and state authorities have learned, as a result of investigation, that many of these women are creating welfare empires. They know that the more illegitimate children they have, the more money they can take from the public till. Indeed these women have no desire to marry their "boy friends," for that would result in a halt to ADC payments.

What the federal government is doing in its ADC programs, therefore, is not only subsidizing sin but actually encouraging women to live in an immoral way. So long as these women know that they can produce children without benefit of marriage, and enjoy a handout from a glib Uncle Sam, they will continue their disgraceful behavior. And, of course, this means that ADC costs will go up and up each year.

When a state attempts to do something about the situation, a howl of outraged protest rises from every "liberal" throat in the land. "Why, you are penalizing innocent children," say such passionate defenders of the welfare state. It is true, to be sure, that a cut-off of ADC to mothers of illegitimate children may cause some temporary hardship. But strong action is needed to cut out a ruthless racket that is injuring the national economy and weakening the moral fiber of an entire class of people.

What kind of advancement is it for Negroes from the South to swarm into Chicago or New York, produce children by illicit liaisons, and then immediately seek a place on the handout list? This isn't advancement; it is degradation. This is the way a society of drones is produced - a society without principle or self-respect. A pamphlet issued by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare says the rate of illegitimate births is about ten times higher among Negroes than among whites, that virtually all the increase since 1940 has been among Negroes.

Instead of being a humanitarian measure, aid to mothers of illegitimate children - especially those women who have given birth to several such children - adds up to a heavy human cost. ADC gives a kind of economic sanction to illegitimacy. Certainly, it is a profound irony that poor but honest and respectable taxpayers - who abide by the decades and honorable conventions of good society - must give of their substance so that the government can give money to immoral women. In this action of contemporary government, one can see a brilliant illustration of why the so-called welfare state is, in actuality, the illfare state that badly serves "the better elements in the population."

would have to say that the act of spoliation committed by some ruins the prospects for true altruism. What happens to the loot after it has been wrested by force from the producers becomes a matter of secondary, not primary consideration. To argue otherwise is to counsel a society which must subsist on plunder and grand theft. Is such a society altruistic?

It cannot be. The answer to the population explosion in the end must be nature's laws. And tho' it may seem cruel to some, in point of fact this is the greatest altruism of all. Persons who learn that others have surpassed their productive efforts are either inspired to increase their own production or to rob those who have succeeded.

Nixon Setting Up 'Phantom National Committee' In Los Angeles, GOP Congressional Leaders Told

ROBERT S. ALLEN

PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—Republican congressional leaders are being told that former Vice President Nixon is in the process of setting up what is being described as a "phantom National Committee."

Purpose of this reputed organization is to provide him with the means and facilities to stage a national comeback in 1964. According to these inside reports, Nixon sees no likelihood of gaining control of the Republican National Committee. "At the most, all he can hope for is a "neutral" successor to Chairman Thurston Morton when he quits later this year. So Nixon has decided the simplest and most effective thing to do is establish his own "National Committee."

GOP congressional leaders have been informed this is what is behind the recent statement by Robert Finch, close Nixon aide, that he plans to open a "separate political office" in Los Angeles. Finch is also credited with asserting that, initially, this Nixon headquarters will be staffed by four members of his former Capitol office, and financed with surplus funds from last year's presidential campaign.

Now the congressional leaders hear that Clifford Folger, wealthy Washington investment banker, is to raise the money to put this office on a "permanent basis." A former Ambassador (1957-59) to Belgium and long a strong Nixon booster, Folger is without peer as a Republican fund raiser. He was especially active in that regard for the Nixon-Lodge ticket last year.

Also said to be participating in this backstage plan are Leonard Hall, Nixon's personal campaign manager, and former Treasury Undersecretary Fred Scribner. Among the congressional leaders, word of this reputed Nixon strategy is not improving their already-chilly attitude toward him. As recently disclosed in this column, Senator Styles Bridges, N.H., potential long-time chairman of the GOP Policy Committee, and Victor Johnston, veteran executive director of the Senate Republican Committee, are bluntly critical of the former Vice President.

The congressional chiefs are pointing out that the National Committee is around $1 million in the red from the 1960 campaign, and Nixon's ambitious maneuvers in his own behalf for 1964 are not viewed as very conducive to paying off this debt and securing much-needed additional contributions for next year's crucial elections.

Meanwhile, a subcommittee of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee has issued a 1119-page report that should be of special interest to admirers of the former Vice President, as well as students of politics in general.

It is a compilation of every speech, statement and other pronouncement made by Nixon in the 1960 campaign - from August 17 through November 7.

Copies can be obtained by writing to the Committee, headed by Senator Ralph Yarborough (D.Tex.). Other members are Senator Glen McGee (D.Wyo.) and Hugh Scott (R.Pa.).

MALE HELP WANTED - Republican National Chairman Thurston Morton has definitely made up his mind on one thing regarding his successor—he should not be a member of Congress!

ship is a full-time job, and the next incumbent should have no other work but that.

Morton also is telling party leaders his successor should have three other qualifications: He should be nationally known; an able and experienced political organizer; and not be aligned with any faction or possible candidate for the 1964 presidential nomination.

So far, Morton has found no one who meets these high requirements. But he is still hopeful. The list of prospects he is mulling over includes: -Former Interior Secretary Fred Seaton, Neb., who has national stature, is widely known throughout the party, and has campaign experience dating back to 1948.

-Sumner Whittier, former Veterans Administrator and Lieutenant Governor of Massachusetts, who is able and popular, but not nationally known.

-Cecil Underwood, former Governor of West Virginia, who failed in a Senate bid last year, is young

The Doctor Says:

By Dr. HAROLD T. HYMAN

I used to feel very sorry for the many men who dreaded retirement. And for their wives who wondered what they'd do when they found themselves with "twice as much husband and half the income."

Here are a few stories which tell why my attitude changed: We have a neighbor, an elderly carpenter who has been in "mothballs" for the past several years. He loves wood. He handles a piece of good wood the way a concert violinist handles a Stradivarius. He strokes it after it has been planed the way you would pat the hand of a cherubic youngster.

Ever since his retirement, he has been leaving home just as punctually as ever, walks to a shop maintained by townfolks for vocational training of the mentally retarded. There he spends his day teaching by example the skills necessary for turning out modest articles that can be sold for the benefit of the shop and the individual worker.

At day's end, he returns home with no more money in his pocket than when he set out, but a much richer man in spirit.

Except that she reads to the blind, another of our neighbors, a retired business woman, invests her retirement time with similar satisfactions.

The third of this small group is chair-ridden. Because she had little formal education, she had more or less persuaded herself that "good literature" was beyond her grasp. So she wasted her days and nights staring at soap operas, gun battles and rassing matches.

With some urging, she was persuaded to make the reading acquaintance of some of the famous characters of literature. Soon she made friends with Huck Finn's Aunt Polly, David Copperfield's Peggoty and Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch. Now she has promoted herself to following the career of Scarlett O'Hara.

She keeps apologizing for her slow progress. "But," she says, "no matter how long it seems to take, I get to the end too soon."

Need I add that none of these neighbors appears in need of psychiatric guidance or treatment? None faces the long hours of the day and night with dread or apprehension.

and forceful, but also is not a national figure.

-Representative William Miller, N.Y. chairman of the House Republican Campaign Committee, who is young, vigorous and ambitious but is handicapped, in Morton's opinion, by being a member of Congress.

Need Man Who'll Put Cards On The Table

By HENRY McLEMORE

ROME, ITALY — Could not a place be made in our State Department for a man whose job it was to speak the plain truth, uncouched in diplomatic language to ask blunt questions, and now and then lay the cards right out on the table?

Even if he had to occupy a tiny room, without a square yard of wall - to a wall in his name, and use a parking meter when he drove himself to work, there are times when he, and he alone, would be invaluable.

For example, I would have liked to have had this State Department man on hand when Mr. Zorin made his furious attack at the United Nations on the death of Lumumba, and demanded a full inquiry into that regrettable happening.

The man I have in mind would have reminded Mr. Zorin, without mincing words, that he was a heck of a man to be talking - that all the world knew that he, Mr. Zorin, was in Prague, Czechoslovakia, when the Communists overthrew the government there, and its leader, Jan Masaryk, fell from a window. Or was hurled from a window.

His was just as precious a life as Lumumba's, but the Soviet Union vetoed and re-vetoed to make a United Nations inquiry impossible. The circumstances surrounding Mr. Masaryk's death are still covered in mystery.

My State Department man would have reminded Mr. Zorin that there is still more than a cloud of mystery surrounding the death of the Royal Family of Russia, and that if Lumumba were shot down he was shot down in no colder blood than the men, women and children of Hungary, Poland, East Germany, and all the rest.

Earlier, when the two American liars were released after a long stay in a Russian jail, the State Department men I have in mind would have wanted to know, and real loud, too, what all the shouting in praise of Mr. Khrushchev was all about. After all, the men had been shot down while outside of Russia, had been held without trial of any sort, and released without any sort of apology for the illegal treatment given them.

My man would have asked, also, what would have been the reaction in Russia if this country had been guilty of such conduct toward a Russian plane and its crew shot down, say, somewhere off our coast? Would this country have allowed such a thing? Would our President have been praised when, at his own time and pleasure, he set them free?

This new addition to our State Department probably would have some questions to ask certain of our allies concerning how they feel about trading freely with our avowed enemies, selling them materials which might well be used to destroy us and them. The answers could be very revealing.

No such man will ever be given even broom closet space in the State Department, I am sure, for the USA, as well as the rest of the Free World, still seems to be living in the distant past when it comes to diplomacy.

We still operate in a world of notes, double-talk language, and soothing syrup. These are all about as real as a desert mirage. The Iron Curtain world talks tough, acts tough, and goes marching on. It would be refreshing to have a State Department man who spoke their language. Once in a while, at least.

TRAP DOOR NEXT

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI) — The Dug Out tavern recently connected burglar alarms to its doors, windows and roof.

Thieves broke through a trap door in the floor Wednesday and looted four vending machines.

I LIKE HARRY

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Former President Truman told an AFL-CIO gathering Wednesday that his study of U.S. history indicated that the nation's great presidents are followed "by men of lesser ability."

"As one of the great ones I can make that statement," he added.

Lawyer Purchases JFK's Old Home
WASHINGTON (UPI)—A government lawyer has bought President Kennedy's century-old red-brick home in Georgetown, Md.

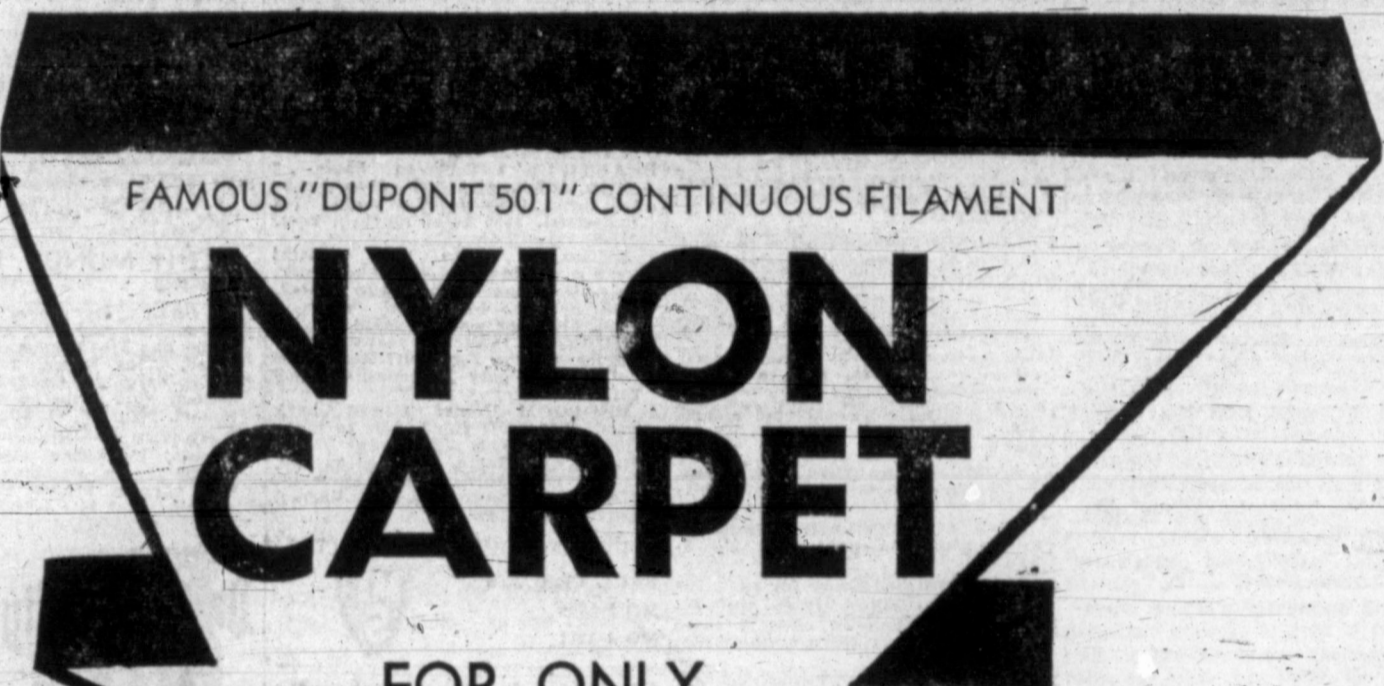

Mr. and Mrs. Dale J. Ausbrook planned to take immediate possession. Ausbrook is an attorney for the Development Loan Fund. He was reported to have paid Kennedy $100,000, although the White House would not confirm this. Kennedy bought the three-story home for $78,000 in 1957 as a gift for his wife, Jacqueline, who then was in the hospital recovering from the birth of her daughter, Caroline.

ACTRESS MARRIES
HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Actress Laraine Day, 46, former wife of Leo Durocher, was wed Tuesday to TV executive Mike Grilikhes in a three-hour Mormon ceremony.

Miss Day divorced Durocher in June, 1954. She previously was wed to Ray Hendrick.
