Dear Abby... A Small Diaper Will Stop 3-Cornered Fight

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Yesterday a policeman knocked on my door and told me I would either have to put a diaper on my baby or keep him in the house. He is only 14 months old and I see nothing wrong with letting him play outside in his play pen with nothing on. One of my neighbors reported me and I have a pretty good idea which one. Do you think it was right to report me for something like that?

ANGRY MOTHER DEAR MOTHER: Your neighbor should have spoken to YOU about it. Although the sight of a bouncing bare baby boy is likely to offend very few people, it's those few whom you must consider. A small diaper, in the future, will prevent a 3-cornered fight.

DEAR ABBY: My wife sleeps with some deal on her head and I can't tell if she is going to bed or going to the moon. Not only that, but at bedtime she sneezes a lot of goop all over her face which has put an end to my giving her a goodnight kiss.

What is wrong with women today? They try everything in the book to hook a man and once they get him, they get themselves up like spooks just when they should be their prettiest. Please print this, Abby. It might wake up some of these sleepy time gals.

DEAR ABBY: I have known this

PTA Budget Discussed At Board Meet Of Robert E. Lee Junior High School

At Robert E. Lee PTA executive board meeting held Monday at the school Mrs. J. A. Sears, president, presided at the meeting, which included a treasurer's report given by Jack Nichols, school principal, and a discussion of the coming year's budget by Mr. Nichols and Mrs. Sears.

Mrs. Chester Thompson, program chairman, outlined the programs to be presented throughout the year beginning with the meeting scheduled for Sept. 15 at 7:30 p.m. through to the May 26th program.

It was announced that the executive committee board will meet at 1 p.m. preceding the general meeting of the PTA each month.

It was also reported that Mrs. Bessie Lewis' name had been submitted as a nominee for the office of state PTA vice president.

Mrs. R. D. Wilkerson will be taking subscriptions to any Parent-Teacher publications, it was announced.

This morning he called and apologized. He asked me if I would please go out with him to give him a chance to prove he could behave like a gentleman. Should I?

DISAPPOINTED
DEAR DISAPPOINTED: Go. If he wants to date you again, knowing you won't tolerate any funny business, he is apparently looking for the company of a respectable girl. If he gets out of line—lose him. Permanently.

DEAR ABBY: My brother got married two weeks ago and we noticed his wife wears her engagement ring on her finger first and she put her wedding band next to it so that the wedding band is on the outside.

I thought the wedding band was supposed to go on the finger first and then the engagement ring. Is there a right and wrong way? And if so, which is which?

JUST ASKING
DEAR JUST: The wedding band should go on first—closer to the heart.

If you want a personal reply from Abby, write to her in care of this paper and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. She answers ALL letters.

Soviet Newspaper Calls Life In Prison 'Too Soft'

MOSCOW (UPI) — The news- paper "Soviet Russia," without mentioning U-2 pilot Francis Gary Powers, complained Saturday that life in Russian prisons is too soft. It called for "hard labor and discipline" for convicts.

The editorial apparently was written in reaction to critical observations of Soviet prisons by Western newsmen here to cover the Powers trial. One British correspondent had described Russian prisons as horrible.

"Soviet Russia" said some prisons were marked only by the presence of guards and barbed wire and that they actually were "the prisoner's own home."
"The barracks have curtains, neat beds, pillow cases and towels which are changed every 10 days," the publication said. There are "radios, chess and domino games, flower beds, guitars, lectures and a library."
It said prisoners in one camp which shows motion pictures twice a week, even complained because the films were old.
"Soviet Russia" said this was as if the criminals were living in a "hotel without any trouble or pay."
"They don't pay for clothing, tobacco or soap," the article said. "Haircuts and shaves are free. They have hospitals, dentists and grocery stores. And the prisoners complain if the store doesn't have cookies or sweets."
"Labor colonies should have a regime which would make the criminal accustomed to honest labor and discipline as well as make them respect the rules of Socialist society," the newspaper said.
"Get them rigid wooden beds instead of soft mattresses and prisoners' garb instead of the clothing worn by free persons."

It was a near-perfect weekend for Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees, but a perfectly miserable one for Danny Murtagh of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The reason for Casey's joy is that the Yankees came through a back-breaking weekend of three straight doubleheaders in pennant-winning style. They swept a twin-bill with Cleveland Friday, did it again on Saturday and split with Detroit Sunday. The Tigers won the opener, 6-2, but the Yankees took the nightcap, 8-5.

Maybe it's time to start taking the Green Bay Packers and Dallas Texans seriously.

The Packers, their five-year plan running far ahead of schedule, ripped off their third straight exhibition victory during the weekend, beating the Chicago Bears, 35-7.

The Texans made the Denver Broncos their fifth straight victims, 48-0, to take the favorite's role in the new American Football League.

Before they did, however, Cotton Davidson, former Baylor star, and Jack Spikes, the former Tex. as Christian fullback, led an attack that at times appeared unstoppable.

The Los Angeles Rams (2-1) treated another big crowd in the Coliseum (48,175) to a good show by defeating the Cleveland Browns (2-1), 22-17; the Dallas Cowboys (1-3) beat the Giants (0-3), 14-3, before a crowd of 10,636 at Louisville, and the Philadelphia Eagles (2-1) whipped the Washington Redskins (0-3), 24-6, before a crowd of 21,000 at Norfolk, Va., in other NFL games.

In the only other AFL game, the Boston Patriots (4-1) defeated the Oakland Raiders (2-3), 28-14, before a small turnout of only 3,500 at Amherst, Mass., on Sunday afternoon.

This league is composed of teams from Pampa, Borger, Spearman, Guymon, Okla., and Peryton. Members of the Contractors' Equipment and supply team are: Mary Pryor, captain; Dorothy Followell, Sally Hegwer, Georgianna Organ and Lela Swain.
