

CONGRESS SPLIT ON DRAFT AND UMT

Premier Stalin Is Put in Spotlight

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Diplomatic officials agreed today that President Truman has flashed a powerful spotlight on Premier Stalin.

But what has them worried is this: Will—or can—Stalin apply the brakes to bring Russia's Communist aggression in Europe to a quick halt in the face of possible steps to build up America's military might?

Or will he decide to grab while the grabbing is good?

European Reaction Divided

LONDON—(AP)—Europe divided on familiar lines today in its reaction to President Truman's preparedness speech.

Non-Communist newspapers and officials who would talk-hailed it generally as a forthright statement in defense of freedom against communism.

Communist newspapers and radio stations for the most part took the line that it was threatening talk intended to create "war panic." But the eastern press gave it little space.

The Moscow radio devoted only 30 seconds to the President's message asking Congress yesterday for universal military training and the draft and urging support for "free nations." Its comments will come later.

Russian-controlled newspapers in Berlin characterized the address as "firebrand talk" and a "panic speech."

The bannerline of Vapaa Sana, Helsinki newspaper of Finland's Communist-dominated People's Democratic Party, said "Truman is leading the guns-calls for universal military training, a threat with direct action."

The Budapest Communist newspaper Szabadnapi said "The Truman speech is nothing but a cheap electioneering trick designed to excite war panic and threaten the disappointed masses, thus creating a reactionary national unity headed, naturally, by himself."

The London Foreign Office said Britain "warmly welcomed" the President's speech, "in particular the emphasis on the essentially defensive character of the American policy."

Czechoslovakia's Communist press gave scant attention to the speech, and much of that was reproachful.

Czechoslovakia, where the Communists took control last month, produced the first Communist criticism. The Prague government radio said last night, "there are other ways to preserve peace than to introduce universal military service."

Italy, where the Communists are campaigning for an election April 18, finds the speech very interesting, a spokesman for Christian Democratic Premier Alcide De Gasperi said. He said the message helps give impetus to Europe's democratic countries.

Approving comment came from spokesmen of some of the five countries which signed a 30-year mutual-defense treaty in Brussels yesterday. The signers were Britain, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Veterans' Needs Aim of Meeting

Mrs. Paul D. Hill, executive secretary of the Gray County Red Cross, attended a meeting at the Amarillo Veterans Hospital yesterday.

Representatives from several counties attend this meeting once a month to learn what the veterans in the hospital need. The Red Cross recently completed a motion picture theater at the hospital with the latest in sound equipment, Mrs. Hill said.

ITALIAN DRAFT

ROME—(AP)—Vice-Premier Rinaldo Ossola said today the Italian government is recruiting "about 30,000 men from those who already have done military service" to augment public security forces.

HST Scorns Wallace and His Communists

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman took the political offensive against Henry Wallace today with strong indications that he will open up soon on the Republicans.

The President's declaration that he would prefer defeat to the backing of his ousted cabinet officer marked a quick shift in campaign tactics.

It acted as a shot in the arm for administration Democrats, gloomy over the Dixie civil rights revolt and the threat of Wallace's third party presidential race.

New York's Loyal Sons of St. Patrick responded with applause and yells when the President went outside his prepared text last night to tell them bluntly:

"I do not want and I will not accept the political support of Henry Wallace and his Communists. If joining them or permitting them to join me is the price of victory, I recommend defeat. These are days of high prices for everything. But any price for Wallace and his Communists is too much for me to pay. I'm not buying any."

Wallace, who already has announced his plans to reply to Truman's foreign policy address to Congress with an ABC radio address at 9:45 p. m. (CST) tonight, declined comment.

But a spokesman said Wallace had wired the four major networks asking for "equal facilities to those given Harry Truman for his personal and political attack on me and the millions of Americans who support our program for peace."

Most politicians thought the President's move marked a deliberate turning point in his campaign strategy. They expect him to come up slugging soon against the Republicans.

Not for long, they predict, will Mr. Truman be content to remain silent in the face of attacks such as the one launched against him by a bloc of House GOP members.

Cut in Passenger Service Ordered

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The government today ordered a 25 percent reduction in coal-burning passenger train service because of the coal mine shutdown.

It was issued under the wartime powers which the ODT still retains. The agency said the step was necessary because "railroad coal stocks today are considerably lower than they have been on previous occasions when stoppages in coal production have interfered with railroad operations."

The Bureau of Mines reported two days ago that coal stocks generally were at dangerously low level. At the time the ODT acted, the government was making other moves to end the work stoppage which already has forced the steel industry to cut operations.

Federal Conciliation Chief Cyrus S. Ching met with Ezra Van Horn, spokesman for the mine operators, and arranged to talk later with John L. Lewis, chief of the United Mine Workers.

The ODT order requires railroads to reduce coal-burning passenger train service 25 percent under the operations as of March 1, 1948.

It prohibits the carriers from substituting diesel-electric or other equipment for coal burning locomotives, which will be laid up as a result of the order.

All special passenger train service requiring coal will be prohibited, and circus and carnival trains using coal will be banned for the duration of the order.

ODT authorized the railroads to take any other action necessary to carry out the terms of its order. Ching told reporters the talks with Van Horn and Lewis were cancelled over passenger reservations or ploratory.

Yanks Bail Out Over Soviet Zone

BERLIN—(AP)—Brig. Gen. Telford Taylor was injured today when he and seven other Americans parachuted from a C-47 over Berlin.

Taylor, chief U. S. prosecutor of war crimes in Germany, was brought to an Army hospital suffering from a wrenched back and a slight hip injury.

The plane developed engine trouble and all the passengers bailed out. The pilot and co-pilot landed uninjured at the RAF's Gatow Airport, in the British zone of the city.

At least one passenger besides Taylor was reported injured—a sergeant who was treated at a hospital in the Russian Zone.

Mrs. Taylor also was aboard the plane. She had not been located two hours after the bail-out. Others of the passengers also were being sought in Russian-occupied territory.

The Taylors were returning to Nurnberg, site of the war crimes trial, after Taylor conferred here with Gen. Lucius D. Clay, U. S. military governor. The plane took off in rain at 1:50 p.m. (7:50 a.m. EST) time.

Taylor landed in the middle of a street in Pankow, Russian-occupied territory in the northeast section of Berlin. He was brought to the Army hospital by a German doctor.

Some of the other passengers reported they had been picked up by Russian soldiers and taken to Russian headquarters.

The Fire Department answered a call at 414 W. Oklahoma at 3:35 p. m. yesterday. A gas heater had started a blaze that burned several articles of furniture and all the paper off the walls. There were no injuries.

Grocery Is Burglarized

Burglars smashed a window of Mitchell's Grocery on South Cuyler between 1 and 3 a. m. today, entering and taking merchandise valued at around $150.

Chief Deputy Rufe Jordan said the place was equipped with a burglar alarm, but the batteries were down and no alarm was sounded.

The Sheriff's Office said the building was entered on the south side, through the third window from the end of the building. The burglars stood on a lettuce crate to break and enter the window which is seven or eight feet from the ground.

The window glass was thought to have been smashed with a board or a gloved hand after which the burglars reached through and released a latch on the inside. They came out through the same window, climbing over stacks of crates.

Among the items taken were two large Cudahy hams, weighing 17 or 16 pounds each; three small cured hams, and about seven cartons of Camels, Luckies and Raleigh cigarettes. It is thought some bacon was taken also, although a complete check on merchandise had not been made early this morning.

The Sheriff's Office said it did not appear to be the work of experienced burglars.

Poison Grain Will Be Distributed At McLean Friday

County Agent Ralph Thomas will be at the City Hall in McLean Friday between 1 and 2 p. m. to distribute poison grain to farmers engaged in a field rat poisoning campaign.

In the past much replanting has been necessary because of the damage by rats. This year a strong effort is being made to kill out rats before the crops are planted.

Party Labels Seem Lost in Mad Shuffle

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Congress split down the middle on President Truman's plans for storing up the nation's military strength with universal training and revival of the draft.

Party labels were lost in the shuffle as leaders divided over the two measures Mr. Truman said are needed to flex the muscles of a country that has become "the principal protector of the free world" against communism.

The upshot seemed to be a trend toward giving the President one—but not both—of the manpower raising laws. Universal military training looked like slightly the better bet although the cards are stacked against UMT in the House right now.

As a third step to halt the aggressive march of "one nation"—Russia—Mr. Truman also called for quick and final approval of the $3,300,000,000 Marshall Plan for European recovery.

The Senate already has passed its bill. And, within four hours of the President's address to Congress, the House Foreign Affairs Committee stamped its okay on a similar program.

The Chief Executive told a New York St. Patrick's Day banquet audience last night that the big issue in the world now is "tyranny versus freedom."

"Our faith and our strength," he said, "must be made unmistakably clear to the world."

Bluntly, Mr. Truman accused Russia of trying to sabotage the peace and of seeking to bring all of Europe under Communist sway.

The still-free nations that remain, the President said, this country must support with its full strength—"military, economic and moral."

And he said—as he had earlier in the day to a joint session of Congress—that this nation must be strong to keep the peace. He warned against "the insidious propaganda that peace can be obtained solely by wanting peace."

"We will have to take risks during the coming year—risks perhaps greater than any this country has been called upon to assume," he declared grimly. "But they are not risks of our own making and we cannot make the danger vanish by pretending that it does not exist."

Mr. Truman used different words before Congress: "We must be prepared to pay the price of peace, or assuredly we shall pay the price of war."

In that address, the President made only minor changes as he went along.

But in talking to the St. Patrick's Day dinner in New York he took a major text departure when he lashed out by name at Henry Wallace, the third party presidential candidate.

After asserting that "we must beware of those who are devoting themselves to sowing the seeds of dissunity among our people," the Chief Executive declared: "I do not want and I will not accept the political support of Henry Wallace and his Communists."

Both major political camps agreed on one thing: they want to do something to stop the spread of communism across not only Europe but the world.

But there the agreement stopped. Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said that if this country does not now have the essentials of national armed security "we must provide them by the most available immediate means."

Vandenberg was said to view with some favor the President's request for a limited military draft. But he apparently is less inclined toward universal military training.

Senator Taft of Ohio, a GOP presidential candidate, indicated he may fight the draft, as well as the UMT proposal which he long has opposed.

Chairman Andrews (R-NY) of the House Armed Services Committee said Congress could enact a draft bill by July 1 if it wants to do it. He said 800,000 men horse to 20 to 26 years old could be obtained properly sugared.

10 Die as B-29 Crashes in Landing

TAMPA, Fla.—(AP)—Ten men were killed and four injured early today when a B-29 from the Spokane, Wash., Airbase crashed and burned on landing at MacDill Field here.

The four survivors were admitted to the base hospital. Their condition was described as "good."

The bomber was coming in for a landing in a dense fog when it hit the edge of the runway at the southwest corner of the field. It was reported by Capt. George G. Byrnes, MacDill Field public information officer.

The big craft hit the ground, bounced once and then crashed and burned. Wreckage was scattered over a wide area.

Fog was rolling from the bay and hugging the ground about 150 feet thick, Capt. Byrnes said. Apparently it was impossible to pick out the runway quickly.

The plane had stopped at Maxwell Field, Montgomery, Ala., and was arriving at Tampa from that base. It was attached to the 92nd Bomb Squadron at Spokane. The crash occurred at 2:32 a. m.

The injured men were listed as First Lt. Roy M. Walsh, believed to have been the pilot, First Lt. R. H. Hathaway, Staff Sgt. C. C. Miller and Corp. J. M. Miller. Their home addresses were not immediately available.

Names of the dead were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

Talks Held On Enlarging College Here

Plans were discussed at a breakfast meeting at the Schneider Hotel this morning for expanding the Pampa Business College, 408 E. Kingsmill.

O. H. Foster, owner and operator of the school, told a group of businessmen and ministers that he would like to sell 100 nine-month scholarships in accounting or secretarial work in order that a new, larger building could be financed.

Foster, who established the school here July 19, 1946, has invited a group to attend the meeting. He formed a Board of Directors from the group, and officers were elected.

J. Wade Duncan was named chairman of the board; Floyd Watson, vice chairman; Huelyn Laycock, second vice chairman; and J. L. Swindle, secretary.

H. M. Luna was named to head a committee on finance; the Rev. B. A. Norris, grounds; the Rev. E. Douglas Carver, building; and the Rev. Clyde Smith, music and entertainment.

Foster told the group that he would like to have a building large enough to accept 100 students at one time. The present capacity is about 35, he said. He explained that a number of business course students can be obtained in outlying towns if the facilities are available. Foster, who has been in business college work for 33 years, said he would like to add other courses.

A committee composed of Duncan, Luna and Norris was named to make plans for the finance drive, which will be conducted by a full-time enrollment secretary.

False Statement Brings About Fine

One person was fined $10 yesterday in the Court of Justice of the Peace D. R. Henry on a charge of giving a false statement on an application for a driver's license.

The person applied for a renewal of a license issued several years ago, and stated on the application that no test had been taken and failed, while the records revealed the applicant had failed two such examinations.

Three more such cases are pending in this Court.

One person was fined $14.15 yesterday in the Court of Justice of the Peace Charles I. Hughes on a charge of being intoxicated in a public place.

Work Begins To Expand City Schools

Cantrell & Company Architects, Inc., of Pampa started this morning on a preliminary informational survey with a view to possible expansion of elementary school units, additional shop and physical education facilities for the High School and new Negro school units.

Supt. Knox Kinard said the local firm was appointed to make the preliminary survey at a meeting of the School Board Monday.

The firm will draw preliminary sketches and make cost estimates. Each elementary unit at present takes care of little more than 400 students. Plans will be considered which will boost the accommodation to around 600. The elementary school capacity would then be enlarged from around 1,700 to near 2,400, and at the same time remedy certain unsatisfactory conditions now existing.

Kinard said the primary purpose of this survey is to get all the information together in a tangible form so that it can be examined and discussed, so that adequate planning can be made for the future of the children of Pampa.

He stated a prospectus should be ready in around 30 days.

It was the opinion of the board that it was necessary to build adequate facilities for the Negroes of Pampa, to take care of all grades on the basis of the need now and the probable need in the future.

Horse Balks Until Properly Sugared

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—For several years U. S. District Judge George A. Welsh has been carrying a tooth of a mounted policeman's horse in front of the Federal Building.

Recently an excited policeman burst into the jurist's chambers. It seems Judge Welsh had for a draft bill by July 1 if it wants to do it. He said 800,000 men horse to 20 to 26 years old could be obtained properly sugared.

Colorado Antlv Names Its 'Snowslide Belt'

DURANGO, Colo. — (AP) Single-ide areas in southwestern Colorado's Rockies have historic names, the same as mountain and rivers.

Douglas N. Stewart, state highway maintenance chief, believes the 23-mile stretch between Durango and Oury along the route of the "million dollar" highway is possibly the worst avalanche area in the United States where a main road is involved.

'Shantrel' Gives Using New Touch

ASHBURY, Md. — (AP) — It's official now: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meron are living in a "shantrel" and have to put license tags on their home here.

City Solicitor Harry H. Cropper took a look at the Meron residence the other day and came up with this verdict:

"I would say it's a 'shantrel.' That's a cross between a shanty and a trailer." He ruled that the City officials pondered a week over the question. The Masons said their home was a portable cabin, minus wheels. County assessment records listed it as a house. City Plumbing Inspector William E. Neal called it a trailer. Solicitor Cropper agreed, and that settled it.

St. Louis Downs NYU to Win National Invitation Tourney

Texas Aggies to End Spring Training With Intra-Squad Game

COLLEGE STATION — (AP) — Chasley Royalty may be just the guy Texas Aggie football Coach Haggy Stetler has been looking for.

Chasley, a 155-pounder from Fort Worth, has done so well on the third team during spring training scrimmages that he has been moved to the no. 1 backfield.

The scat back will be seen in action in the sports day intra-squad game Saturday.

Stetler also has moved Preston Smith from the second team to the right half spot on the first team. Smith, a letterman from Bryan, will share the position with Jim Boswell of Hearne, who did not come out for football last season.

Another newcomer, Clovis Olask, a transfer from San Angelo Junior College, also will alternate in the first team backfield. He and Bobby Goff, a letterman from Kenedy who was injured much of last season, will split the fullback chores.

Women's Titleholders Golf Meet Begins Today

AUGUSTA, Ga. — (AP) — The annual Women's Titleholders Golf Tournament begins today with twenty of the nation's leading female golfers entered.

The first aerial photograph ever made was by Nadar, a Parisian, in 1859, after a rough over time with DePaul, provided most of the evening's thrills.

Yet for all of the one-sidedness of the main attraction the crowd of 18,492 for the most part stayed put and marveled at the hoop wizardry of Coach Ed Hickey's St. Louis proteges.

Controlling the ball for the most part, St. Louis bore down after Macauley made it 12-5 with 10 minutes gone. NYU saw little of the ball, and when the Violets did gain possession they didn't appear to know what to do with it. They tossed it away half a dozen times in the first half.

Coming onto the floor after leading 23-18 at halftime, the Bills and Macauley broke the game wide open. In four minutes, they were on top 35-20 and Ed had made nine of the 10 points.

Bennett Named Aggie Captain

SILLWATER, Okla. — (AP) — A. L. Bennett was named 1948 basketball captain—a post he filled in acting capacity all season—and Bob Harris was elected 1949 captain by the Oklahoma A and M basketball lettermen yesterday.

The Oklahoma Aggie varsity balloted to name its all-opponents team, reserving top honors for Howard Shannon of Kansas State, only opponent to receive a unanimous vote.

TCI Sells Gin And Oil Mills

PECOS, Tex. — (AP) — J. C. Wilson, president of the Texas Cotton Industries, said the TCI had sold all of its gin and oil mill interests to the West Texas Cotton Oil Company.

Wilson said that the sale included gins at Pecos, Barstow, Presidio, Imperial, Buena Vista, and Balmorhea, and a cotton seed oil mill and other properties at Marfa.

Training Camp Roundup

Stanky to Have Competition at Post

BRADENTON, Fla. — (AP) — The Boston Braves manager, Billy Southworth, let it be known today that Eddie Stanky will have to beat out Connie Ryan for the second-base job.

On Tuesday, Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox whipped the Phils by driving in four runs. Yesterday, Gil Coan of the Washington Senators clouted a homer with the bases loaded, single and stole a base in the Senators' 11-7 win.

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. — (AP) — Southpaw Frank Biscan, trying to make the grade with the St. Louis Browns, will make his debut against the New York Giants today.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — (AP) — George Munger and Al Brasie are Manager Eddie Dyer's mound choices today as his St. Louis Cardinals meet the Cincinnati Reds.

Cardinals meet the Cincinnati Reds

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — (AP) — Connie Mack insists batting practice is the important thing in training camp, and he's giving the Philadelphia A's 1 1/2 hours of it every day.

SARASOTA, Fla. — (AP) — It will be Joe Dobson and Harry (Fritz) Dorish for the Boston Red Sox today against the world champion New York Yankees.

ORLANDO, Fla. — (AP) — The Washington Senators hit the road for Clearwater today to give the Philadelphia Phils a chance to even up their two-game exhibition series.

The Senators won yesterday, 11 to 7. Rookie Gil Coan paced the Washington attack with two hits, one an inside-the-park homer with the bases loaded.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK — (AP) — There's at least one in every baseball camp. That is, a rookie "wonder" who won't be ready for a year or two. . . In touring the Southland you hear more about these prospects than the veterans they may some day replace. About kids like John Groth, Wall Drogo, Stan Lopata, Dick Manville and Johnny Bucha.

HANK THE SECOND
Drogo, a big boy from the University of Connecticut, was on the draft lists of both pro football leagues and both pro basketball leagues. He chose baseball and isn't even on the Boston Red Sox roster. Still he's the guy they'll point out in the Boston camp and ask: "Doesn't he look just like Hank Greenberg?" . . . There is a remarkable resemblance in the way Walt carries his head and shoulders—and he appears to be able to slug the ball a country mile, too. . . This year Joe McCarthy apparently is going along with Stan Spence as his first baseman. But in another year or two, if Drogo learns to handle his feet around first base.

JOHNNY ON THE SPOT
In the Detroit Tigers camp, everything else comes almost to a halt when young Groth steps up to the plate. The batting practice pitcher glances down at the screen in front of him, for Groth has the habit of slashing murderous drives right through the box. . . He's only 21, a strong, well-built youngster and they can't fault him on anything but experience. He has had only a year of pro experience and Steve O'Neill figures he'll need one more in the minors "then he'll be back to stay a long time."

Lopata went South as a member of the Phillies' minor league squad, but Manager Ben Chapman keeps muttering about the possibility that he'll beat out all three veterans. Ben won't keep him unless he can be the first-stringer, so you can tab him for triple-A ball this year. The same goes for Bucha, who came up from Omaha to the Cardinals with a .361 batting average. . . Incidentally, they're about the only young catchers coming along.

Baseball Enthusiasm Causes 176,000 Broken Window Panes
NEW YORK — (AP) — Hard-slugging school baseball players broke 176,000 window panes in city schools during the last academic year. The board of education footed the bill for $100,000. A spokesman said today there was little evidence of vandalism. It was just a case of enthusiasm.

Tag Match Marks Return of Pat O'Dowdy to Local Ring

One form of wrestling that has proven to be the most crowd-pulling type of this ancient sport will be seen tonight at the Sportatorium, when four men tangle on an Australian tag match.

BOWLING

The tag match, with two men on a team, has proven to pack plenty of action and thrills. Up to now, no limitations have been seen in the local tag matches, and by tonight's card one can anticipate to see even more, with the return of Pat O'Dowdy to the local ring.

O'Dowdy, by far one of the roughest gladiators to step into the local ring, will be teamed with Carl Gray of Milwaukee, Wis. Gray is a newcomer to the local ring.

Their opponents will be two proven gentlemen known as Salvatore Flores and Gorilla Poggi.

With past matches proving to be everything short of a riot, Promoter Vic Burnett has added the services of an extra referee to handle tonight's bout. The men in white will be A. D. Jones of Berger and Homer Anderson of Tampa.

Two 15-minute warmup bouts will pit O'Dowdy against Flores and Poggi against Gray.

Action will begin at 8:15.

Tennis Meet Enters Semifinals

NEW YORK.—(AP)—The National Indoor Tennis Tournament squared away for semifinal singles contests today as strictly a family affair.

Opening Will Be Saturday

Formal opening of the Paul Crossman Refrigeration Co., 112 W. Foster, will be held Saturday, it was announced today. The remodeling has been underway about eight weeks.

Paul Crossman said there would be favors for the men and women visitors at the appliance store. The building has been completely remodeled, with an all-glass front including door. The interior has been renovated, and new fixtures have been installed.

Crossman, who has been connected with the appliance business 17 years, said the floor plans were designed by a New York designer, and that it was an exclusive setup here. He said the color scheme was also furnished by the same designer.

Max Praeland has been named head of the Sales Department, and George Converse is head of the Service Department.

12-Year-Old Girl Wed in Tennessee

They are living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Morris, and she plans to continue going to school "at least until the end of this term."

Odessa Slugger Returns to School

CONWAY, Ark.—(AP)—Rex Pearce, 329 slugger with Odessa, Texas, of the Longhorn Baseball League last summer, is giving up pro sports at least for a couple of years.

He wants to return to his halfback spot on the Arkansas Arkansas Intercollegiate College team that walked off with the State Teachers College football championship last fall.

The conference ruled then that it didn't care whether Pearce had played pro baseball. But after the grid season, the conference changed its mind; any more playing for pay would make Rex ineligible.

He decided he'd rather play football.

Besides, he's only a sophomore and wants to finish his college education.

Local Girl Cast In TSCW Play

Miss Jeanne Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Anderson of Pampa, has a part in "The Plough and the Stars," now being presented by the Texas State College for Women theater.

The Irish play, by Sean O'Casey, opened last night and will be shown through Saturday night at the College Theater.

Miss Anderson plays the part of Molly. The play, set in the tenement district of Dublin, depicts the conflicts of poverty-stricken people. A junior speech major, Miss Anderson also appeared in the annual Nativity Pageant.

Nueces County Gets Hospital Authority

AUSTIN.—(AP)—The Attorney General ruled that Nueces County is authorized to purchase and operate a county substructure hospital from current funds.

This was conditioned upon compliance with the statute on county hospitals. The opinion, addressed to Nueces County Attorney James C. M. Martin, said it would not be necessary to hold an election to authorize such a hospital, unless a bond issue is required.

Shake-Up of State Department Methods Is Now Under Study

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A shake-up of the way the State Department operates is under study.

Persons familiar with the detailed reorganization plan said Monday its main objective is to tighten the workings of the big department, which has taken on many new duties since the end of the war.

Whether the plan actually will be carried out, however, remains to be decided by Secretary Marshall and President Truman.

It is understood to assign major authority for the day to day operations of American foreign policy to four assistant secretaries. They would be responsible, respectively, for United States relations with (a) Europe, (b) Latin America, (c) the Far East and (d) the Middle East and Africa.

In addition there would be either three or four other assistant secretaries to handle public relations (both domestic and foreign), economic affairs, United Nations affairs and possibly the administration of occupied areas, such as Germany and Japan.

Such an assignment of duties would differ radically from the present system.

Now, for example, Assistant Secretary Norman Armour is in charge of political relations between the United States and all other nations. Assistant Secretary Willard Thorp runs economic re-

The course, with three classes weekly, has begun at Brooklyn Evening Technical High School. About 30 flagging students, who must be 18 or older, attend the classes, the Board of Education said.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 60 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

WALLACE

But the President showed by his blast at Wallace that his patience with political enemies is running low.

It was a challenge to Wallace with no quarter. It was remarkable in some respects because it came only a few weeks after repeated invitations by Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath for Wallace to come home. These bids hardly could have been issued without the President's tacit approval.

By classing Wallace's followers as Communists, Mr. Truman picked up an issue the Republicans have been using against both him and his former cabinet member. By his stroke the President renounced what neither he, nor the Republicans, seem likely to get in any event—Communist support.

Govt. Honors Claims Of Texas City Vets

WASHINGTON — The government has brushed aside technicalities to pay claims to families of veterans killed in the Texas City explosion.

Rep. Thompson (D-Tex.) has disclosed the decision to make payments to dependents where it could be shown beyond reasonable doubt the veteran had lost his life in the explosion and fires which took several hundred lives.

Under normal requirements, Thompson said, the government must be shown the official death certificates. However, a large number of Texas City victims were unable to be identified and other bodies were never recovered.

The government's ruling was made in a test case involving Frank P. Jolley, who disappeared in the disaster.

Easy Does It, Says Kassel Of Conducting

CHICAGO — Art Kassel never plays loud music. That's one reason he has been a successful band leader for 25 years.

Few maestros have been waving batons that long in dance halls, night clubs and hotels.

"Let's see," says Kassel. "There's Ted Lewis, Jan Garber, George Olson, well, I guess you could count the others on the fingers of one hand."

You could write a long list of outfits which blew in and out of the business in a quarter century. Some were sweet. Some were hot. They featured the rumba, swing, or something else. The jitterbugs liked 'em big and loud.

All this time Kassel followed a formula. He avoided extremes. He held to an "easy rhythm."

"I like to play for the ordinary dancers," he explains. "I try to play the way they want to dance."

Bad luck pushed Kassel into a leader's role.

"I walked around Chicago for nine months with a clarinet under my arm," he recalls. "Nobody gave me a job, so I organized a band."

That was in 1923. His first engagement was at the Midway Gardens.

"I listened to him play that clarinet," he says. "I shifted to the saxophone."

If you live in any one of several hundred places in the United States you may have seen Kassel and his "Kassels in the Air"—a group name bestowed by Jimmy McFarland, a young man who went places with a horn.

Kassel, now observing his 25th anniversary at Chicago's Blackhawk night club, has performed in every state except New Mexico. He and his troupe leave the big cities in May and ramble until October. They average 15,000 miles.

"It's a rugged, but rewarding, life. Sometimes it gets a little confusing," Kassel took a quick glance at the typed itinerary one day last summer. The music makers boarded their bus in Oshkosh, Wis., and rolled down to Delavan Lake. Kassel took another look at the itinerary. They should have been in Delavan, Ill.—200 miles away.

Kassel—he's 47 but looks 37—has been busy. Not too busy to compose 30 tunes. Among them are "Doodle Dee Deo," "Hell's Bells," "Around the Corner," "Angeline," and his latest, "Oh What I Know About You."

He sees no chance of the bottom dropping out of the music market. He figures the future this way:

"As long as guys like to put their arms around gals, there'll be dancing. As long as there is dancing, there'll be bands."

Per capita use of water by U. S. city residents has been estimated at 127 gallons a day.

Mrs. Prather Is Club Hostess

Mrs. Jack Prather was hostess of the Lefors Home Demonstration Club Monday in the home of Mrs. A. T. Cobb.

Mrs. Cobb presided over the business meeting. The club voted to give six tea towels and six bath cloths to the Gray County Council of Clubs for use of club activities.

It was announced that a training school will be held on March 17 at the agent's office for making eas forms and a training school will be held in the home of Mrs. G. G. Smith on April 1 for making eas foundations.

Miss Ann Hastings, county agent, gave a talk on color in the kitchen. She advised that there should be some idea of the desired motif before starting to redecorate your kitchen.

She stressed the kitchen should be as cheerful as possible because it is often the center of family gatherings. She pointed out that like other rooms in the home, the kitchen may have to follow the conventional style, the kitchen can be full of personality and imagination. "Color," she stated, "does not detract from efficiency of the kitchen but can add much to its attractiveness."

The Easter motif was carried out in the refreshment, plate and servers of candy, bunnies in nests. Eggs were served to Mesdames J. Diehl, P. F. Scurlock, P. S. Hankenburg, J. T. Rodgers, P. F. Hankenburg, Tom Clabby, B. D. Laughon, Hugh Braley, A. H. Brewer, A. D. Baker and those mentioned.

The next meeting will be a covered dish luncheon on April 17 in the home of Mrs. L. R. Wence.

Decorating Tricks

By MRS. ANNE CABOT

About this time every year, most home-makers find their kitchens look "tired" because of winter worn and soiled paint. This may be changed easily with just a little ambition and some inexpensive and quick drying paint. Paint the flowers and peasant motifs on canister sets, cupboards, chairs, tables and on or around windows and door frames. The motifs may also be used as appliques on curtains, towels and chair seats. You'll be delighted with the finished effect and the admiring oh's and ah's of your family will more than repay your work.

Richard Scheig Named "Scarecrow" At Las Cresas Club's Barn Dance

Last Friday night, March 12, the Las Cresas Club held its annual Barn Dance in the Palm Room and named Richard Scheig as its "Scarecrow." The dance started at 8 o'clock with a nickelodeon providing the music until 9 o'clock, when the J. C. Daniels' Texas Toppers orchestra took over.

The "Put Your Little Foot," "John Paul Jones," and the old time square dances were enjoyed by all.

The Palm Room was decorated with bales of hay for the couples to sit on. In one corner stood a man-sized scarecrow dressed in old overalls, plaid shirt and an old hat. A huge painting of an old covered wagon hung on one wall and a large stand where refreshments were sold was also decorated with various barn yard paintings. The refreshments sold consisted of apple cider, Dr. Pepper, cokes, and hot-dogs.

In the latter part of the evening the "Scarecrow" was presented. The "Scarecrow" had to be a Senior that all the girls in the club agreed upon. This year's "Scarecrow" was Richard Scheig, 1428 N. Russell. He was given an identification bracelet with his name engraved on the front of it. On the back of it Las Cresas was written. After the presentation, dancing was resumed until 12 o'clock.

The chaparones were: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Carruth, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Cowan, Mrs. G. H. Anderson, Mrs. C. O. Duenkel and Mrs. W. M. McWright.

The next dance to be given by the Las Cresas Club will be "Kid Day" dance to be held April 1, when all Seniors will be admitted free.

WALL STREET
NEW YORK, March 17—(AP)—The stock market held gains ranging to more than a point today as President Truman urged revival of the draft in a message on the foreign situation.

Aircraft led an early rally in which steel and rails joined, but retreated slightly from their best after the Executive's speech to Congress. Some issues advanced again in the closing minutes of the market. Transactions approached 1,000,000 shares.

Touching new highs for the year or longer were North American Aviation, Grumman, Sperry, Douglas Aircraft, Lockheed, Glenn Martin, Curtiss-Wright, Republic Aviation, Boeing and Consolidated Vultee. Holding improved positions elsewhere were Bethlehem, Chrysler, Southern Railway, Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Western Oil, Standard Oil (N.J.), American Woolen, U. S. Gypsum, Pasco, Phelps Dodge and Montgomery Ward. Lower were Johns-Manville and Owens Illinois.

Reaction by the aircraft was attributed to lack of specific recommendations by the President for home plane orders.

U.S. Is Fast Running Low Of Crude Oil

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is fast reaching the point where its supply of oil in the ground won't be enough to meet its needs.

Today's acute shortage may be temporary. The petroleum industry could probably meet current demand if it could obtain the steel products to expand activities in oil fields, refineries, and distribution lines.

But by 1954 we shall be using daily about 7,000,000 barrels of oil - and it is unlikely that we can rely on a domestic output of more than 5,000,000 barrels a day. This is the estimate of W. C. Schroeder, chief of the Office of Synthetic Liquid Fuels of the Bureau of Mines.

We probably shall never be able to produce much more oil than now, in the opinion of Interior Department experts. There may be occasional upward spurts, but the general trend is likely to be downward, says Max W. Ball, director of the Oil and Gas Division.

State Pays Another School Allotment

A decade ago, E. J. Headlee of Denton was writing so many letters to relatives, he decided to just write the same letter to all of them and have it mimeographed. He adopted the practice — one mimeographed letter per month. The letters were so newsy and interesting and contained so many names, that friends of the relatives asked to be put on the list. Headlee complied. Every month, for 10 years he has been writing and mimeographing his letter. But now 1,000 persons receive it. Charles Heartill, Denton newspaperman, tells the story of Headlee.

"To him," Heartill says, "friends are riches and he wants the biggest bank deposit of friends in the world."
Mr. and Mrs. Headlee, who have been married for 30 years, have built a huge home in Denton with plenty of guest rooms, to accommodate subscribers to the monthly letters.

The letters now have a name: "The Doings."
A heading says: "It is not a newspaper—it is free."
During the war, 500 subscribers to The Doings were overseas. The letters still go to such faraway places as Germany, the Philippines and Japan.
The Doings runs as many as six or seven, single spaced pages per issue. It chronicles births, deaths, marriages. It quotes citizens briefly on topics of the day.
Headlee has a get-the-news habit, writes at odd times. Sometimes he gets an idea in church and makes penciled notes, meanwhile receiving nudges from his wife. He makes no apologies for his spelling.
"I get near enough that anybody ought to make out what I mean," he says.

America was named from Amerigo Vespucci, an Italian navigator. A metronome, used by music students, marks time by means of a pendulum.

Fuel Too High, So Drills Own Gas Well
JAMESTOWN, N. Y. — (AP) — Anthony Mangine says he tired of paying fuel bills averaging $1,400 a year for his restaurant and residence.
He interested a neighbor in drilling a gas well. Two weeks later, they tapped a supply of natural gas at a depth of 875 feet. He estimated the daily yield at 200,000-500,000 cubic feet.
You cannot save free enterprise if you let the system which protects it go to ruin.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

How to Keep 'Em Down On the Farm

The other day Pete Swanson's nephew, Bud, allowed as how he was fed up with farm and country life... and was going to the city where there was a lot more opportunity and excitement.
Some folks might have tried to stop him. But not Pete. He even advanced Bud carfare for the trip... figured that when he'd had a good look around, he'd come back where he belonged.
And what happened? After seven days of big-town bustle and excitement, Bud was back behind the wheel of a tractor, with color in his cheeks again. And he'd traded the night life of the city for a quiet glass of beer with Dad.
From where I sit, that's how it goes. Try to prevent some one from getting what he thinks he wants—and he'll go on wanting it. But give him his head, and he'll settle for the sensible thing—whether it's country life, or a temperate glass of beer!
