Fund Drive Time

UF Goal $68,746

By ED HAYES WILSON
Daily News Staff Writer

The Pampa-Lefors United Fund campaign will begin at noon tomorrow when officials of the fund meet for a luncheon with the Pampa Kiwanis Club in Fellowship Hall of First Methodist Church. This "Away We Go" stage of the drive will see the entire organization shift from steam to jet propulsion.

"We're going to go top speed in our effort to raise the $68,746 we have established for this year's goal," was the way Melvin Munn, campaign chairman, put it.

The group plans a strenuous effort to gain the goal by Oct. 31. And plans are being made to reach every person in Pampa and Lefors to tell them the story of the United Fund, what it does, and how it benefits the community.

"We are trying to talk to people in all walks of life. Contributions, large or small, will be appreciated," said Munn.

All volunteer workers of the Pampa-Lefors United Fund campaign are urged to attend the kickoff luncheon at noon tomorrow in Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church.

"We hope all officials and volunteers are able to attend the luncheon," said Melvin Munn, drive chairman.

The luncheon will be served at $1.25 per plate.

John Gikas, publicity chairman, has met with Munn, representatives of both radio stations and The Pampa Daily News, to frame a publicity campaign that is expected to be the largest ever in Pampa.

Feature stories, daily reports on the amount of money received, spot radio announcements and interviews will be prepared to keep the drive in the public's mind. And committee heads will be advised to keep in close touch with Gikas so that he can funnel the information to the news outlets.

TESTS PODIUM — British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan tested the podium in the U.N. General Assembly a day before he made a major address today to the assembly. Macmillan and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev have agreed to a meeting, the first East-West summit contact in New York.

Electric Service Rate Increase On Friday Commission Agenda

A detailed explanation of the request by Southwestern Public Service Co. for a rate increase on electrical service supplied to municipal-owned facilities, excepting mercury vapor street lights, will be presented to the Pampa City Commission tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Gordon Lyons, district supervisor of the firm, will make the presentation and explain in detail his company's request.

The commission meeting was set tomorrow instead of Tuesday, the regular meeting day, to permit members and other city officials to attend the Texas Municipal League convention in Galveston Oct. 2-4. Southwestern Public Service Company's rate increase request will be the first in 20 years. It would boost the present 6 mill rate to 8.4 mills.

This would mean an increase of 40 per cent, with a 1.8 mill hike of 30 per cent requested and an attached fuel cost adjustment that would push the increase another 10 per cent.

This last named item created an edginess in the commission meeting Tuesday when Lyons' information, requested earlier by the commission, was read and discussed.

"The net charge per kilowatt hour of the above rate (All kWh used per month at .78 cents) shall be increased or decreased 0.01 per kWh for each 0.5 cent increase or decrease, or major fraction thereof, in the delivered cost of gas at all of the company's steam-electric generating stations above 12.5 cent or below 10.5 cents per thousand cubic feet during the second preceding month."

Upon reading that, Mayor Ed Myatt telephoned Lyons and asked that, if the commission granted the 1.8 mill boost, would the PSC agree to "forget" the fuel clause adjustment. Myatt said Lyons informed that he would have to discuss it with persons higher in the organization.

In appearing before the commission several weeks ago with the initial request, Lyons noted that the utility gains a 5.53 per cent rate of return from its multi-million dollar investment; that a journeyman linesman's monthly salary has jumped from $160 in 1940 to $487.06 in 1960, and that it cost $50 to install a residential type street light in 1940, but that it now costs $165.

In his report this week to the commission he noted these cost and salary increases, and that since 1943 taxes paid by the utility have jumped from 12.52 per cent to 21.24 per cent, plus various other information.

By law, the utility could ask a maximum return of eight per cent on its investment.

The utility figured its requested rate boost from the following items as of June 30, 1960:

Plant account in service, $7,175,985,182.43; taxes, federal income, 787.98, less reserve for depreciation and amortization, $1,125,618.53; net plant in service, $6,050,169.45; cash material and supplies, $29,670.40; working capital, $49,521.59 and supplies, $29,670.40.

Total valuation for rate base, $6,129,361.44 and gross operating revenues, $1,177,294.39.

Operating expenses, $326,871.67; maintenance expenses, $69,301.05; annual depreciation and amortization, $143,359.40; taxes, general, 787.98, less reserve for depreciation and amortization, $1,125,618.53; net plant in service, $6,050,169.45; cash material and supplies, $29,670.40; working capital, $49,521.59 and supplies, $29,670.40.

From this rate of return calculation the utility pointed up its estimated rate of return.

The commission also will have on the agenda third and final readings of the ordinances to legally approve the 1960-61 budget and the new $1.50 tax rate, among other items.

State Department Urges Americans To Leave Cuba

Repeated Police Harassment Of U.S. Citizens Cause For Concern

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The State Department said today that it was urging all American nationals to leave Cuba. Press officer Francis W. Tully said that repeated Cuban police harassment of U.S. nationals made it advisable for them to get out of the country.

The spokesman said the continuing attitude of Cuban Premier Fidel Castro and other high officials had added to these harassments. Tully said the American embassy in Havana some time ago began encouraging "the departure of dependents of embassy personnel" as a "necessary and prudent" measure.

He added that now "The United States government considers that other American residents in Cuba would be well advised to take similar action and has so informed them."

Tully said that since the first of this year more than 43 U.S. citizens "have been detained and harassed at different times and for various periods by the Cuban investigative police."

He noted in particular the case of an American woman and her two sons who earlier this year were "dragged from their car and roughed up by a mob in the presence of police officers who did nothing to protect these innocent persons or prevent this violent act."

More recently, Tully noted, "personnel of the American embassy have been detained and questioned in violation of the rules and customs which govern diplomatic immunity."

Teams from the U.S. embassy in Havana have visited American residents privately to counsel them to ship their dependents out immediately, and to leave themselves unless vital business requires them to stay.

The advisory would apply to an estimated 2,000 American civilians living in greater Havana.

However, informed sources said the recommendation did not apply to the 6,000 American families living on the great U.S. naval base at Guantanamo, in eastern Oriente province.

The embassy advice was understood to be based on the rapidly deteriorating diplomatic and internal political situation in Cuba.

The Cuban government has expelled four embassy attaches in as many weeks and arrested and harassed at least three others, ignoring their diplomatic status.

Repeated U.S. protests have either been ignored or received and filed by minor Cuban diplomatic functionaries without reply. Travellers from Havana reaching the U.S. mainland in the past 24 hours described the Cuban internal political situation as chaotic.

Chamber Election

Dag Policy Backed BY Macmillan

Pampa Chamber of Commerce members will vote this week on five new directors for the coming year. E. O. Wedgworth, chamber manager, said today that 12 names were put on the second ballot, which was mailed out yesterday afternoon. The 12 polled the most votes in the nominating ballot mailed out last week.

The 12 nominees are Floyd Watson, W. L. Veale, Lou Troja, Arthur Teed, Dick Stowers, Aubrey Steele, John Parker, George Kleeburg, Malcolm Hinkle, B. L. Henderson, Jack Edmondson and Mrs. Dona Cornutt.

The ballots must be returned by Monday and will be opened at 10 a.m. The five receiving the most votes will serve one-year terms.

S'West In For Praise By Envoy

DALLAS (UPI) — Robert C. Hill, U.S. ambassador to Mexico, charged Wednesday that people of the eastern United States have a tendency to apologize to Communists but said the Southwest "still has people who believe in the Bill of Rights and the Constitution."

Hill was one of six men who received honorary degrees from the University of Dallas, a Roman Catholic institution.

Hill received an honorary degree of doctor of humane letters. He threw away a prepared speech and spoke extemporaneously.

Hill criticized "those Americans who have become ashamed of their past and afraid of the present."

But he said the nation was not in trouble because "there are still states that are proud of the republic... they will drive the fuzzy headed thinkers from positions of power."

The ambassador said it was a relief to be in Dallas and "out of New York so I wouldn't have to witness any more of the nauseating extravaganza of Khrushchev and his fellow gangsters parading around the United Nations and New York City."

Hill termed the performance of the USSR premier "sickenings."

Coca-Cola, Sealtest Break-Ins

Two safe-cracking artists will be returned to Pampa tonight or early tomorrow morning from Fort Worth to be interrogated about the rash of safe break-ins in the city and in Gray County in the past year.

Sheriff Rufe Jordan said today that the two men, George Carmack Jr., 25, and David F. McLaughlin, 28, both of Durant, Okla., have signed statements admitting that they robbed safes at the Coca-Cola plant Aug. 23, and at the Sealtest Dairy April 22.

"When Buck (Deputy Sheriff Buck Haggard) returns with them I want to chat with the men about other safe jobs here. I think we may get some other things cleared when we interrogate them," said the sheriff.

Among unsolved safe entries the pair is expected to be grilled about are the June 6 robbery of The Pampa Daily News that netted the robbers some $1,800, the first of the two jobs at Coca-Cola, and one at McLean.

The second Coca-Cola job to which they have admitted, netted them $1,574, while the Sealtest effort "earned" them about $2,200.

Fire Prevention Week In City Slated Oct. 9-15

Pampa will observe Fire Prevention Week Oct. 9-15 along with the rest of the nation. President Eisenhower officially proclaimed the week, and Mayor Ed Myatt followed suit shortly thereafter.

It is being sponsored locally by the Fire Prevention Committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce.

In setting the program into early operation, George Neef Jr., committee chairman, today named members of various committees. They are:

Finance — Dale Thut, James Gallemore and Perry Gaut; publicity — E. O. Wedgworth and Fire Chief Ernest Winborne; poster distribution — Winborne and members of the Pampa Fire Department; Downtown Parade — Cameron Marsh, Paul Payne and Jack Nichols; School Poster and Essay Contests — Joe Page and principals of Pampa schools; Schools Poster Display Downtown — Lindy Houck and Ott Shewmaker; Theater Films — George Neef; Films for School Use — John Evans; Service Club Announcements — the Rev. Fr. Edward Cashman; Fire Drills and Demonstrations — Winborne; Fire Stations Open House — Winborne; Home Inspection Blanks — Sam Beget; Sirens — Winborne and Fire Truck Rides — B. R. Nuchols.

"I want to stress the importance of a good Fire Prevention Week in Pampa. Every effort should be made to educate the public on the importance of a good fire record in the city, since it will save lives, property and money. I trust the residents will enter into this project with all possible enthusiasm," said Chief Winborne.

Man Believed To Be Missing Nazi Arrested

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) — Police here are holding a German resembling Martin Bormann, Adolf Hitler's wartime deputy who was sentenced to death in absentia at Nuernberg, the government said today.

Interior Minister Alfredo Vitolo said federal police in Zarate, 85 miles northwest of here, arrested the suspect "a few days ago" because of his marked resemblance to Bormann. He was brought to Buenos Aires, where he is being held in the foreign section at police headquarters.

Other sources said the suspect, a one-armed man who gave his name as Walter Fleguer, was arrested Saturday.

Fleguer had lived since 1949 in Zarate, where he had a job in a textile factory. He married an Argentine woman of German descent and they have three daughters.

Mrs. Fleguer told police that, although she believed her husband entered Argentina illegally, she had never had any idea that he was a fugitive Nazi. She said she knew no one named Bormann, but admitted that a photograph of the former Hitler deputy closely resembled her husband.

Police have been unable so far to identify Fleguer positively with Bormann, who was officially declared dead six years ago by authorities in Berlin.

Bookies Are 'Cleaned' By U.S. Revenue Agents

WASHINGTON (UPI) — All bets were off today for bookies and lottery operators in at least 28 cities where federal revenue agents conducted raids Wednesday night in a large-scale crackdown on gambling.

The Internal Revenue Service reported 93 arrests were made in raids on 62 locations in 28 cities in 22 states. These figures were expected to rise when all reports were in.

Those picked up were charged with violating the federal law requiring gamblers to buy special $50 tax stamps and pay a 10 per cent federal tax on gross income.

The coordinated raids followed the pattern of a similar roundup staged at several dozen localities in April.

Targets of the roundup were horse racing bookies and gamblers who work the policy, or numbers, game.

Reports showed arrests made in Manhattan and Brooklyn as well as in upstate New York at Niagara Falls and Syracuse. Other cities included Detroit and suburban River Rouge; Chicago and suburban Highwood, Centralia, Ill.; Pittsburgh, Sharpsburg, McKeesport, Homewood and Waynesburg, Pa.; St. Louis and suburban University City, Mo.; Lawrence, Mass.; Bridgeport, New Haven, West Haven and Stamford, Conn.; Charlotte, N.C.; Nashville, Tenn.; Frankfort, Ky., and Clinton, Sharpsville, Cleveland and Columbus, Ohio.

E. S. Carr, Ex-Mayor Of Pampa, Dies

E. S. Carr, 85, of 507 E. Browning, a former two-time mayor of Pampa and a retired rancher, died at 3 a.m. today in Highland General Hospital following a heart attack.

Funeral service will be conducted at 3 p.m. Friday in the First Presbyterian Church. Officiating will be the Rev. R. E. Hubbard, pastor, assisted by the Rev. James Todd of Claude.

Interment will be in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Duenkel Carmichael Funeral Home.

Edward Spencer Carr was born Jan. 1, 1875, in Wabasha, Minn. He came to Grayson County with his parents in 1882. He was married Dec. 5, 1897, to Effie Ann Blakney at Sherman, in Grayson County. In December 1902, they settled at Conway in Carson County, where in 1906 he built a general merchandise store and became postmaster. In 1914, he moved his family to Claude for the school year, coming to Pampa in the spring of 1915, where he entered the law.

Shot A Failure

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — An Air Force attempt to fire a Titan missile 10,000 miles today fell far short of its goal when its second stage engines shut down too soon.

The Air Force said the missile's dummy warhead landed instead more than 6,000 statute miles down the Atlantic missile range — ICBM distance but far off target.

Explosions Greet Fidel In Havana On Return From Assembly Meet

HAVANA (UPI) — Two bomb explosions at a giant welcome home rally Wednesday night brought a storm of fury against the United States from Premier Fidel Castro and an announcement he was setting up a neighborhood spy system to catch "lackeys of imperialism."

The noisy blasts interrupted Castro's speech but did no damage. A panic was averted when Castro had his lieutenants lead the 150,000 massed Cubans in the national anthem.

Five persons, including a man wearing the garb of a priest, were reported arrested.

The bearded premier scoffed at the bombs, blamed them on the United States and said he was setting up big-brother vigilance committees in every block of Havana to root out what he called "lackeys of imperialism and tyranny."

He said civilian militia units would be enlarged throughout Cuba "zone by zone."

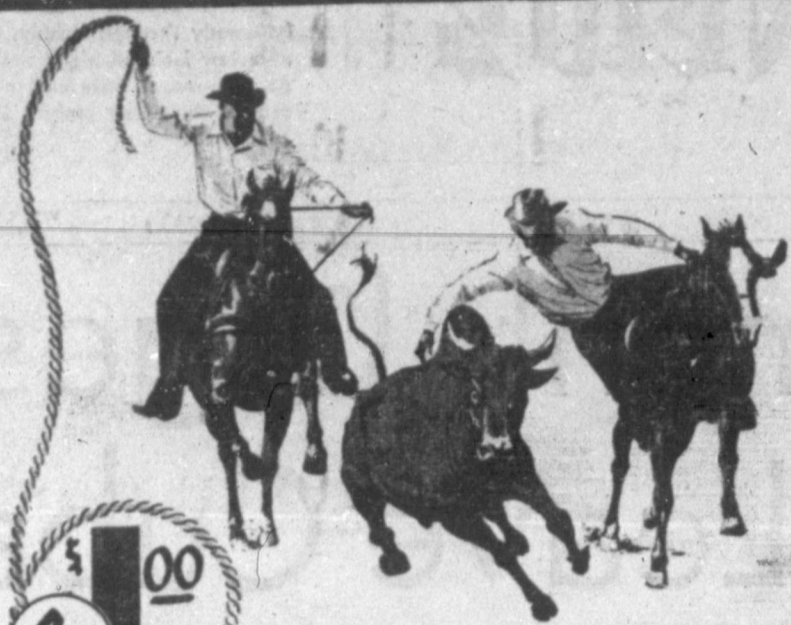

The bombs exploded in Zayas Park, across the street from the palace where Castro, flanked by Soviet Ambassador Sergei Kudrizev and other honored guests, spoke. Alto, on the stand were the Russian crewmen of the Soviet turbojet which flew Castro back to Havana from the United Nations General Assembly. Castro's Cubana Airlines plane was impounded in New York by a court order.

The blasts resounded throughout the nation over radio and television networks carrying Castro's speech. The bombs apparently were of the type known as "petardos"—small but noisy. Castro told the crowd: "Everybody knows who paid for that bomb—those are the bombs of imperialism."

"I believe tomorrow they will go to charge your excellency," he said, in what was interpreted as a threat.

MEXICO'S SESQUICENTENNIAL — Tremendous stone statue of Father Jose Maria Morelos, one of the leaders of Mexico's War of Independence, will be covered with flowers and wreaths when the 150th anniversary of the country's independence from Spain officially opens Sept. 16. The country's 32,000,000 people have been preparing for the event for a year. The 80-foot statue was constructed 25 years ago. It stands on the Island of Patzcuaro.

Foreign Commentary

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign Editor

If there is one thing in common among new nations, it is an overwhelming desire to avoid the whipsaw of the cold war made frighteningly evident at the current session of the United Nations General Assembly.

One of the men they look to for guidance is a thin, dark-skinned man in jodhpurs who came to the glass-encased U.N. headquarters this year reluctantly.

He is Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, a sadder and wiser man than only a few years ago when he was decrying Western alliances and openly admiring the Soviet Union and Red China as shining examples of a brave new society.

This year as cold war tensions reach one of their periodic peaks and as neutral nations increase their voting strength in the United Nations, there has been a corresponding increase in speculation that there soon is to emerge a so-called third force which would function in the vacuum between the Communist East and the capitalist West.

The neutrals, covering a vast area of the earth and with a population of hundreds of millions, would comprise this force.

There are men who have openly aspired to lead this force. Among them are President Tito of Yugoslavia, President Nasser of Egypt and President Sukarno of Indonesia.

But none of these has the prestige of Nehru.

Among them all, none should know better than Nehru the difficulties of welding such a force and the unlikelihood that it ever truly will emerge.

One ambitious attempt occurred in 1955. That was the Bandung conference in which Nehru was a prominent participant.

Sukarno was the host and he hailed it as "the first inter-continental conference of the so-called colored peoples in the history of mankind."

Nehru used it to urge non-alignment with power blocs and called NATO "one of the most powerful protectors of colonialism."

But, from the start, the conference called to demonstrate unity among the Afro-Asians demonstrated only that they, too, were divided.

In the end, Red China stole the show.

A year earlier she had signed with India a pact of non-aggression outlining five principles of co-existence. This theme she also pressed upon the participants at Bandung.

Five years later, Red China demonstrated its good faith with armed aggression against India's borders.

EVIDENCE

Before our modern idea of evidence in science, in daily affairs, and in our courtrooms, men did strange things to "test" truth in a court trial. Our notion of evidence in law courts is actually only a few centuries old. It entered court procedure at about the same time that Galileo and Newton used scientific evidence to upset older theories of nature.

Before then, men talked to prophets, fortune tellers and augurs before they acted. These men would look into the sky and find out how many and what kind of birds flew in from what quarter, charred entrails of sacrificial animals.

Court tests for truth in the Middle Ages were many, but somewhat drastic.

You might dispute with your neighbor over land. If so, the court might order a test by ordeal. The contestants would walk through fire. They might be tied and cast into water or you might meet your opponent with sword and shield. You or your agent might fight it out with your neighbor on the theory that Providence would not let the unjust win, or, after due rites, the court might toss you both into the water. If you did not drown, you won. Or perhaps you both grasped a red hot iron or walked barefoot through hot coals. If you came out without blisters, they believed your story.

As you can see, few people went to court of their own will. The risks were many, not the kind you'd choose.

Later in England, where we got most of our law, men had other ways to reach decisions. For example, take the "oath-helpers." Suppose your case was to be tried. You'd not go into court with facts, as today. No, you took with you "oath-helpers." Oath-helpers would swear that your neighbor had wronged you. In turn he would bring his oath helpers and do the same.

Lodge Goes To Coast After Tour Of Texas

EL PASO (UPI)—Republican vice presidential nominee Henry Cabot Lodge moves his campaign to the West Coast today dangling a challenge before Russia to let its "many colonial territories" hold free elections.

Lodge was scheduled to fly to California today, home state of his GOP running mate Richard M. Nixon, for a speech tonight at Los Angeles.

In his three speech sweep through Texas, home territory of his Democratic rival Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, Lodge pitched his appeal on experience in foreign policy and hit hard at Democratic charges the United States is losing prestige in the world.

Celanese To Build New Plant

Celanese Chemical Co. announced it has agreed to purchase a 1,000-acre tract of land at Bay City for construction of a multi-million dollar petrochemical plant.

This announcement came at a luncheon in Bay City.

"This is another forward step by Celanese in its program of expansion and diversification in basic chemicals and the polymers derived from these chemicals," said James H. Worth, president of the firm, in announcing the transaction.

Just when the plant will be erected was not made clear. However, Worth pointed toward "future construction" and building will probably begin sometime next year.

The Bay City site offers an advantageous industrial climate, including proximity to raw materials and excellent shipping and distribution facilities.

The tract is 80 miles south of Houston on the Texas coastal bend. It has ready access to the Gulf of Mexico via the Colorado River barge canal.

Plans for the plant are still in the formative stage and details for construction will not be available until a later date.

Celanese has extensive operations at Pampa and Bishop which produce a chemical family of oxygenated hydrocarbons, and a plant near Houston for the production of linear polyethylene, a petroleum-based plastic.

Cub Recruiting

"A special meeting to register boys who previously had not enrolled in Cub Packs at Sam Houston School will be conducted at the school gymnasium beginning at 7:15 o'clock tonight.

Parks Brumby will assist in the follow-up meeting and all interested parents and their sons are invited to attend.

The school P.T.A. sponsor the school's Cub Scouts.

Probation For Four

Four persons were given probation sentences yesterday when their cases were heard by the grand jury of the 31st District Court of Gray County.

Clifton Blue, Bennie B. Owen and Robert F. Srader each was given probation for eight years for burglary, while Danny Royce Wilemon was placed on probation for five years for armed robbery.

Services Pending For Mrs. Rich

Funeral services are pending for Mrs. Donnie Jane Rich, 77, who died 6 a.m. this morning in her home, 625 N. Christy.

Mrs. Rich was born in Roxton on Dec. 27, 1882. She resided in Hall County for over 30 years prior to moving to Pampa 13 years ago. She was a member of Harrah Methodist Church.

Mrs. Rich was preceded in death by her husband, G. W. Rich, who died in 1940.

Survivors are six daughters, Mrs. Clara Leffew of Clarendon, Mrs. F. E. Dyer, Mrs. Kathleen Braddock, Mrs. Orlando Olivolo, Mrs. Dick Cook, all of Pampa; Mrs. Harry Bahr of White Deer; six sons, Vernon of Pampa, G. D. of Lovington, N.M., Coy, Roy, Dell and Loris of Santa Monica, Calif.; two sisters, Mrs. Gene Haggard of Beaumont, Mrs. Bertha Wester of Sherman; two brothers, Horace and Bill Patterson, both of Dallas; 31 grandchildren; and 15 great-grandchildren.

Arrangements will be announced later by Duengel Carmichael Funeral Home.

Autos Crash Near Kingsmill

Two autos were damaged slightly in a wreck one mile west of Kingsmill yesterday, Highway Patrolman Stanley Schneider, the investigating officer, said.

Edrie Millie Kuns, R-1 Panhandle, attempted to make a right turn with her 1960 Ford Falcon and Donald Patton, also of Panhandle, skidded in front of the Kuns' auto, thus causing the Falcon to hit the side of Patton's 1956 Chevrolet.

There were no injuries and no citations, Schneider said.

Pleads Not Guilty

Tom Berry of Pampa, was placed on $1,000 bond yesterday in Gray County court after entering a not guilty plea to a contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

His trial will be held at a later date.

ent demonstration that outdid his table-pounding against Hammarskjold himself last week.

Delegates turned and stared open-mouthed. Macmillan, seated in a dark blue suit, his white hair glistening in the bright television lights, looked embarrassed but he continued speaking.

Khrushchev subsided a bit then, but when Macmillan began talking about the Paris summit conference torpedoed by the Russian leader last spring in a fit of anger over the U2 spy plane incident, Khrushchev lost his temper again.

The Russian began shouting disagreement to the statement, waving his finger at the British leader today in the first East-West top level conference since breakup of those Paris talks.

His shouts were in Russian and rang through the hall.

ed the farm implement business.

In 1921 he and the late J. T. Crawford Jr. purchased the Pecos Hardware in Pampa, which they operated as Carr-Crawford Hardware until 1925. He entered the ranching business in 1925, forming a partnership with Cliff and Edna Vincent in which he continued until 1946 when he retired. Mr. Carr was mayor of Pampa two terms, first in 1916 and again in 1939. He was a life-long member of The First Presbyterian Church, being a charter member of the local church.

Mr. Carr was preceded in death by his wife in September 1948. Survivors are one son, Chester of Amarillo; two daughters, Bonnie of Wheeler and Edna of Lefors; seven grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Nella Mae Smith of Abilene.

Pallbearers will be the grandsons, Edward Vincent, Robert Carr Vincent, R. J. Holt, J. R. Alvin Carr, Ralph Wilson and Ernest Eads Jr.

Students Place In Scholarship Competition

One Pampa girl and two area high school senior students today were named semifinalists after scoring high on National Merit Scholarship qualifying contests held last spring.

Susan A. Kay, 111 Harvester was the semifinalist from Pampa High School. The other two were John E. Rogers of Box 95, Canadian, and Willis Arnold Tacker of Box 38, of Wheeler High School.

The three are among 10,000 high school seniors who advanced to the semi-final stage after tests were conducted in more than 15,000 high schools last spring.

All semi-finalists will take another examination, the three-hour scholastic aptitude test of the College Entrance Examination Board, in their respective testing centers on Dec. 3.

Winners will be announced in May, 1961, and will receive four year college scholarships ranging from $750 to $1,500 per year.

Scout Open House At S. F. Austin

The Boy Scout open house program shifts to Stephen F. Austin Elementary School at 7:15 o'clock tonight, where George Ethertedge, a Scout Round - Up Committee member, will explain the story of scouting to parents and their sons who are interested in becoming Boy Scouts.

Boys 11 years of age and older will be invited to join the Scouts, while boys eight through 10 years of age will be invited to become members of the Cub Scouts.

Something For The Boys

FORT WAYNE, Ind. (UPI)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson says that since hurricanes are named for girls, Republicans should name recessions for boys.

"There should be Recession Charlie for Charlie Wilson (former defense secretary), Recession Ezra for Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson, and Recession George for Treasury Secretary George Humphrey," Johnson said.

"Recession Richard is on the way, but he's on the way out," Johnson added.

a reference to U.S. Ambassador Philip Bonsal.

"Mark this well," he added, "the moment I was talking of imperialism, the bomb exploded."

The crowd responded with a thunderous chant of "To the wall, to the wall"—death by firing squad.

Castro said the bombings would only spur his revolutionary program and promised that each bomb the "imperialists" paid for would mean the nationalization of another American-owned property.

The crowds carried anti-American and pro-Russian signs and chanted such slogans as "Viva Castro," "Viva Khrushchev," "Viva Lumumba," and the familiar "Cuba yes, Yankees no."

The United States, Castro told the crowd, was a "cold and hostile nation" where 20 million Negroes are "oppressed and exploited."

As for New York, where he had hotel difficulties and was restricted to the island of Manhattan on security grounds, he said it was a city of "persecution and provocation" where the "club and truncheon . . . is an institution of terror."

Castro said "dozens and dozens of Cubans, both men and women, were beaten by the thugs of the New York police" during his 10-day stay.

Lefors Club Chartered

Official organization of the Lefors Optimist Club was held in the Lefors Civic Building Tuesday night, with Raymond Ben White, elected to head the club.

Other officers elected were: J. L. Pennington, first vice-president; H. C. Dunn, second vice-president; and Gerald L. Pflug, secretary-treasurer, Phillip E. Eeahart, George C. Duncan and L. T. Smith were elected to the board of directors for a one-year term.

Leonard R. Cain, Edgar E. Brown and Bob Clemmons were named to the board for two-year terms.

The organizational meeting was under the direction of Bill Spear of Denver, Optimist International field representative.

The Pampa Optimist sponsored the Lefors club. Newt Secret and Kendall Green were chairmen of the new club panels of the Breakfast and Evening Optimist Clubs.

Texas GOP Unit Ignores Lodge

SAN ANTONIO (UPI)—A group of Texas Republicans, including GOP gubernatorial candidate Mike Nolte, snubbed Henry Cabot Lodge in San Antonio Wednesday.

At the same time the Republican vice presidential nominee was speaking, a group of 118 former supporters of the late Sen. Robert Taft met in a night club owned by Nolte.

Nolte said the group met for two reasons: To ignore his arrival in San Antonio, and as a protest to Lodge's candidacy.

LOOK WHAT DODGE HAS DONE FOR COMPACTS

The name, Lancer: one hardtop; one 2-door sedan; two 4-door sedans; two wagons. What kind of cars are they? This kind: two feet shorter; many pounds leaner; a couple of hundred dollars less in cost than usual automobiles. Lancer welcomes a family of six lavishly. Has plenty of trunk. Its fully-unitized body is very quiet, very tough. Lancer is also mannerly. It corners decisively, takes a well scarred road with aplomb. Parks obediently. More reasons to buy? Read on. The interiors are rich, but simple: Shed soil, wear well, feel good. The engine is highly spirited, but extremely light on regular gasoline. One more thing, Lancer is built by Dodge. Our name is on it. This means Lancer will stay nice and shiny. How so? The body is rustproofed by an exclusive Chrysler Corporation process. Enough talk. Meet Lancer at your Dodge Dealer. Now.

BARE FEET IN THE MARKET place and TV in the living room underline the violent contrasts of life in Nigeria.

Denmark Offers New Plan On Disarmament

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—Denmark today proposed complete reorganization of disarmament negotiations and offered for international inspection its possession of Greenland, where the United States has a major base at Thule.

The proposal was put before the General Assembly by Danish Foreign Minister Jens Ota Krag. He did not spell out details for his proposed new disarmament commission except to call for an expert study of adequately controlled arms reductions measures. His proposal raised a problem for the United States which has an important military network in Greenland as well as the main base at Thule. But since the United States already has offered to open Arctic areas under its control to mutual inspection with Russia, Washington was not expected to oppose Krag's plan.

Motorist 'Backs' Out Of Her Test

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI) — Minnette Ernst flunked her driver's test Wednesday when the examiner told her to try her hand at parking.

Miss Ernst put the car in reverse, stepped on the accelerator and sent the auto rocketing across a street, up a terrace and through a pony corral before it rrammed into the side of a church.

Miss Ernst wasn't hurt but she'll have to wait a little longer for her driver's license.

write the entire U. N. charter. He didn't say so specifically, but he implied that if he didn't get his way the Soviet Union might pull out of the U. N.

Fred Astaire May Do Third TV Special

NEW YORK (UPI) — There is some talk that Fred Astaire will not do another TV special next year.

If so, it's probably understandable. Because we're probably going to elect him president this year.

Astaire, a young man of infinite charm, taste, style and talent, touched up his third annual NBC-TV special with the customary daubs of charm, taste, style and talent. I'm beginning to think he has a future in show business.

Whether dancing with his perfectly made dancing partner, Barrie Chase, or a 12-man chorus, or identical twins Ruth and Jane Earl, Mr. Astaire brought to the screen fresh humor and excitement. He danced with Miss Chase twice. First came a clever spoof of sophisticated ladies to the song, "Miss Otis Regrets," and then a rowdy, driving blues dance with the Count Basie Band wailing and singer Joe Williams whomping out the sad sounds. The blues number, with Astaire dressed as a schoolboy and Miss Chase as a tart, was staged on a stylized shanty-town street scene that breathed life around the dancers.

Hermes Pan's choreography managed to impart newness to nearly all of the numbers. Miss Chase's ballet number, to "Valse Triste," was a lovely interlude. The only portion of the hour that was on the ordinary side was the opening number. After that, however, things began to happen.

"Hong Kong," ABC-TV's new "Wagon Train" neighbor, was nearly home free in its premiere Wednesday night when, suddenly and without warning, it was trampled by a runaway script.

Robert Buckner's teleplay chose to go hog wild in pursuit of stale complications and standard fist-cuffs, and lost sight of the one thread that had some originality and charm.

The charming part of the hour involved a young sailor from Ohio, capably portrayed by Burt Breinckerhoff. He was so homesick for the farm when he arrived in exotic, swinging Hong Kong that he looked up his old buddy, Rod Taylor, and asked Taylor to get him to a farm, any farm, where he could run with the pigs. He might have said, "Take me to your litter," but he didn't.

Anyhow, Taylor fixed him up with a pig, and with a girl, but the sailor got himself captured by the Communist Chinese border guards when the pig ran away. This led to some amusing lines. If not for the slippage into far-fetched, stock adventure situations, we could have had a solidly entertaining hour.

Rod Taylor stars as Glenn Evans, an American newsman stationed in Hong Kong. He knows all the girls, has a big apartment and a sports car. He's the town's social director. Taylor plays the part with snap and conviction.

The series also features Miss France Nuyen as a night club singer named "Happy." She's going to cause trouble. Not for Taylor, for Ward Bond's "Wagon Train."

The Channel Swim: A two-hour production of "Peter Pan," with Mary Martin again starred, is scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 8 on NBC-TV. The third TV production of the classic, in color, will be videotaped at a cost of $500,000.

William Talman, dropped from "Perry Mason" last season, is losing his status as an "untouchable." He'll appear in a couple of "Have Gun, Will Travel" episodes, on CBS-TV this season.

Unlike Congo, Nigeria Is Ready

By TOM A. CULLEN
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

LONDON — (NEA) — Britain soon will lose the biggest and brightest jewel in her colonial crown when 43 million Nigerians gain their independence. But it won't be another Congo.

Nigeria, the slumbering black giant of West Africa, shakes off 46 years of British colonial rule on Oct. 1.

At the British Colonial Office there are mixed feelings of relief and satisfaction over a job well done.

Colonial officials are quite open in their contempt for the Belgians and the way they scuttled out of Congo with out preparing the Congolese for self-government.

In contrast, the British say they have done everything possible over the past four years to ensure stable government in Nigeria. The Nigerian constitution provides a delicate system of checks and balances, of safeguards for minority groups.

Princess Alexandria will represent the Queen at the Independence Day celebrations in Lagos, Nigeria's capital. The Archbishop of Canterbury also will be on hand to give his blessing to the new nation.

So will representatives of 59 nations.

They will watch while the Union Jack is hauled down, and the new, green-and-white flag of Nigeria is run up over the federal parliament in Lagos.

Fifty year ago the loss of Nigeria would have precipitated a British Cabinet crisis, caused the downfall of the existing government. There would have been protest meetings, letters to The Times.

Now the average Briton walks the street unaware that the population of the British Empire will be exactly halved on October 1.

Since 1936 Nigerian Politicians have been given practical experience in governing, and native civil servants have been trained to take over British jobs. At the same time, the British have encouraged foreign investment in Nigeria to strengthen the economy.

In area, Nigeria cover 373,000 miles, which gives it more European room than any country in Europe with the exception of Russia.

Its population, 43 million, is greater than that of Canada, Australia and New Zealand combined.

Actually, Nigeria is three countries rolled into one, with each retaining its own distinctive character.

The Northern Region contains nearly half of Nigeria's population consequently, nearly half of the votes. It is predominantly Moslem, lives under a feudal system of emirs and sultans. Its leading politician is the Sardauna of Sokoto.

The Western Region if more progressive, more Europeanized, and is the home of the colorful Yoruba tribe. Its political boss is Chief Obafemi Awolowo, who becomes Opposition Leader in the new Nigerian federal parliament.

The chief tribesmen in the Eastern Region are the Ibos, known for their business acumen and trading ability. American-educated Dr. Nnamdi Azikiwe better known as Zik, is their leader.

Nigeria is a land of glaring contrasts. Its national income is only $38 a year per head, which is less than half that of cocoa-rich Ghana, yet it is the first African nation to have television.

The TV station at Ibandan, Western Nigeria, transmits four hours a night, with African announcers introducing such U.S. programs as Highway Patrol.

ans are illiterate, and during the recent election voters were registered by taking their finger-prints. Yet Nigeria sent a 16-man team to the Olympic Games in Rome. The majority of the population lives in grass huts, but most of the new office blocks and skyscrapers like the New Victoria Hotel just completed in Lagos have air-conditioning.

White Cake Inspired By White House Recipe

If our fifth President, James Monroe, is best remembered for the Doctrine carrying his name, it now seems likely that the President's lady, Elizabeth Kortright Monroe, will be remembered for her fabulous White Cake.

In a fascinating and rewarding search for the best cake recipes in our country's past, The Dromedary Company discovered wonderful recipes used by famous American women of history. These treasured historic recipes, some of them hand written more than a century ago, and still preserved, are now the inspiration for many famous Dromedary Cake-Mixes.

Mrs. Monroe's White Cake, for instance, was so outstanding, its texture and flavor so delicate, that she served it frequently to famous guests during her occupancy of the White House in the early nineteenth century. This was an era of gracious living, for President Monroe, a native Virginia, had a keen appreciation of good food. This was further enhanced during the period he served as minister to France, appointed by Thomas Jefferson.

So, from this era of elegance, Mrs. Monroe's favorite recipe, now the inspiration for its White Cake Mix, Dromedary received the rights to this recipe in return for its contributions to the support and endowment of the James Monroe Memorial Foundation in Fredericksburg, Virginia, a member of the National Trust for Historic Preservation.

You'll recognize this White Cake Mix. Like all the other wonderful Dromedary Mixes it comes packaged in glittering gold foil to keep it "mixing bowl fresh". In "twin" packs too, so you can bake one layer only if you wish. There's the added convenience of free pan liners also.

To add lustre to your menu, we suggest this White Cake with a frosting that's just as easy to prepare — a luscious, no-cook Mocha Cinnamon Frosting.

MOCHA CINNAMON FROSTING
3 squares unsweetened chocolate
1 1/2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
4 tablespoons butter
3 egg yolks
1 tablespoon instant powdered coffee
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
Melt chocolate in top of double boiler over hot water. Remove from heat and stir in sifted confectioners' sugar. Stir in hot water. Add butter one tablespoon at a time, stirring after each addition until melted. Beat in egg yolks, powdered coffee and cinnamon. Yield: enough to fill and frost 8-inch layer cake.

Old-Fashioned Virginia Apple Tansy Requires Piquant Touch Of Rosewater

Ever taste, or even hear of, a Virginia Apple Tansy?

It's an old-fashioned dessert made with Virginia apples on Virginia plantations. The thrifty mistresses of these colonial kitchens used the fruit of their own orchards which flourished in the Old Dominion as early as 1640.

One Mrs. E. Smith, English author of a cookbook entitled "The Complete Housewife," published in England in 1724 and issued later in an American edition by an enterprising printer in colonial Williamsburg, gives the following directions for making and Apple Tansy.

We reproduce her recipe as she wrote it, with the quaint spelling and punctuation unchanged. In this form, it is still an eminently usable "receipt" — as the old-fashioned cooks spelled it.

TO MAKE A VIRGINIA APPLE TANSY

"Take three pippins (apples), slice them round in thin slices, and fry them with Butter; then beat four Eggs, with six Spoonfuls c. Cream, a little Rosewater, Nutmeg and Sugar: stir them together and pour it over the Apples; let it fry a little, and turn it with a Pyeplate. Garnish with Lemon and Sugar Strewed over it."

Don't let the rosewater called for in this recipe defeat you. If you want to be authentic, you can get rosewater at the drugstore. If you prefer a modern substitute, use a few drops of pure vanilla extract instead. Oldtime cooks had no vanilla until Thomas Jefferson brought it back with him from France. They relied on such readily available flavors as rosewater orange and lemon.

VIRGINIA APPLE TANSY
3 medium Virginia Apples (Winesaps)
2 tablespoons butter
4 eggs
6 tablespoons light cream
1 tablespoon rosewater or vanilla
1 tablespoon sugar
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
pinch of salt
1 tablespoon grated lemon rind mixed with 2 tablespoons sugar
Core apples, but do not pare. Cut in thin rounds. Fry quickly in butter on one side until golden. Turn carefully. Mix eggs with remaining ingredients and beat until blended. Pour over fried apple slices. Cook over medium heat, pulling cooked eggs gently from side of pan and tilting pan slightly to allow uncooked portion to slide under. Continue cooking until eggs are set but still soft. Sprinkle with sugar and lemon rind. Fold as for an omelet, or cut into pie shaped pieces. Makes 4-6 servings.

Exclusive Pastries Easily Made At Home

Fruit Pastries as appetizing as any served in the most exclusive French restaurants can be easily made at home with Pepperidge Farm baked Patty Shells. Fill them with whipped cream, ice cream, or vanilla cream filling. Garnish with fruit or berries.

Blueburgers Are Exciting Way To Perk Up Those Saturday Night Get Togethers

Here is an exciting way to perk up those Saturday night hamburgers when friends drop in.

Prepare meat patties as you usually do. But just before the cooking is completed, crumble American blue cheese over them, and continue cooking till the creamy cheese is slightly softened.

The resulting "Blueburgers" are just as simple to make as they sound. Yet the subtly sharp flavor of the blue-veined cheese produces a delightfully different taste sensation sure to please everyone.

Plus factor in their favor, too, is that the pungent cheese eliminates any need for lots of other seasonings.

For an easy - preparation meal fit for an informal gathering, complement the Blueburgers with a salad featuring tomatoes, cucumbers and greens, accompanied by warmed potato chips, fresh pears and grapes and your favorite beverage.

With a speedy meal such as this, you'll have one Saturday supper you can put together with a minimum of work, both before and after.

Anyone for a Blueburger? If so, give these a try.

BLUEBURGERS

2 pounds ground beef
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
2 tablespoons milk
1/2 cup crumbled American blue cheese
8-10 sliced hamburger buns

Combine ground beef, salt and milk lightly. Shape into eight or ten thick patties. Make a depression in the center of each by pressing meat with the back of a tablespoon.

Place in buttered hot griddle or skillet, indentation side down. When nicely browned on this side, turn. Fill depressions with crumbled cheese. Continue cooking until browned on second side or to desired degree of doneness. Meanwhile toast halved buns. Place a Blueburger in each toasted bun.

Swiss Steak Assumes Epicurean Class With Addition Of Spanish Olive Gravy

With the abundance of beef in stores this fall, beefy main dishes should be making frequent appearances on dinner tables.

Swiss steak undoubtedly will be one of its forms. If you are an imaginative cook you can turn it into an epicurean entree just by adding imported Spanish olives. Home economists at Mario's, one of the better known importers of true Spanish olives, suggest onion, anchovy and pimiento-stuffed olives to lend an exciting flavor accent.

For a company meal serve the steak on a large platter with a border of fluffy whipped potatoes.

SWISS STEAK WITH OLIVE GRAVY
(Six servings)
2 pounds beef chuck or round, cut 2 inches thick
1/4 cup flour

1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon freshly ground pepper
1/4 cup shortening
2 carrots, sliced
1/2 cup onion, anchovy, pimiento stuffed olives, sliced
2 1/2 cups canned tomatoes
Pound meat with meat hammer or edge of heavy saucer. Dredge and pound in flour seasoned with salt and pepper. Brown meat in shortening in heavy skillet on all sides. Add carrots, olives and tomatoes. Cover, and cook slowly 1 1/2 hours.

Lunch Away From Home Should Be Appealing

If you have children in your household, you may be putting up school - day lunches five days a week, for one, two, three, four or five. Certainly a lunch has to be had somewhere, if the hot lunch program is not available in your school.

It may be your husband takes his lunch, rather than take the time to stand in line at a crowded counter. You, yourself, may carry your lunch neatly wrapped, carried in a carry-all size purse. Whoever it is that eats a carried lunch, let's hope that the meal that goes to school — or work — is one that is appealing as well as nutritious.

What should a packed lunch contain? It should include milk, some protein food, fruit or vegetables, enriched or whole grain bread and a teaspoon or two of butter.

Put this into a basic pattern — pack one or two generously filled sandwiches, something crunchy as a fruit or vegetable, something sweet, and liquid nourishment from milk or a soup. Being more specific, choose a beef or a peanut butter - honey - raisin filling. Add pickles and carrot sticks, a hot cream soup, fruit and a cupcake or cookie.

Another possibility could be a sandwich with a fruit filling, vegetable salad, apple and cheese wedges, honey date bars and milk for a child, coffee for the grownup. In a packed lunch, a sweet taste can be a delight. It adds variety and a satisfying finish to the meal. Try these to brighten up the lunch box and give the mid day snack a lift.

FRUIT FILLING AS A SANDWICH SPREAD
1/4 cup each dried prunes, dates, figs, orange peel
1 teaspoon candied ginger (if desired)
1/4 cup honey
Chop fruit and blend with honey.

Use between slices of buttered bread.

HONEY DATE BARS
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup honey
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 eggs or 6 egg yolks
1 1/4 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup chopped dates

1 cup chopped nuts
Blend shortening, honey and vanilla until creamy. Beat in eggs one at a time. Sift dry ingredients into egg mixture. Blend. Add nuts and dates and stir just enough to distribute evenly. Spread in a greased 9 x 13-inch pan. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) until golden brown, 30 to 35 minutes. Cool.

ALL NEW F-85 — Entering the low-price field this fall is the all-new, smaller Oldsmobile, the F-85. This smartly styled new six-passenger car is built on a wheelbase of 112 inches, with over-all length of 188.2 inches. The F-85 is offered as a four-door sedan or four-door station wagon, with deluxe versions of each (shown above). Sedans have a generous 12.1 cubic feet of usable luggage space, while cargo space in the station wagons is 73.5 cubic feet. The high performing, economical F-85 is powered by Oldsmobile's all-new aluminum Rockette V-8, a water-cooled engine mounted up front. Rated at 155 h.p., the 350-pound Rockette V-8 engine has one of the highest power-to-weight ratios in the industry and is engineered to perform efficiently on regular-grade gasoline. Luggage rack shown above on the deluxe station wagon is optional at extra cost. On display after Oct. 6 at Tom Rose Motors, 121 N. Ballard.

'Nut' Phones Fidel; Phone Has No Cord

NEW YORK (UPI) — This is the story of the man in the bedsheet and the telephone without a cord.

Harried police guarding Cuban Premier Fidel Castro were waiting for his departure Wednesday from Harlem's Hotel Theresa when a taxi pulled up. A Negro man garbed in a strange-looking robe stepped out.

Police and security agents immediately stopped him and demanded to know where he was headed.

The man in the bedsheet robe replied: "I'm going to see Fidel." He was asked for credentials. "I have no credentials but it is important that I see Fidel," he replied.

Police said this was impossible. The man stepped back to his taxi, reached inside and extracted a telephone, minus the cord. He calmly lifted the receiver and, while the amazed police watched, spoke: "Fidel, they won't let me up to see you."

Officers hustled him back into the cab and the stranger was driven away.

One policeman remarked: "This is the nuttiest guy yet."

A fellow officer replied: "Who knows. Maybe Fidel is up there on the other end saying 'Why won't they let you in?'"

WORKS ONLY ONCE

BOONE, Iowa (UPI) — Iowa Attorney General Norman Erbe said today he decided to try a new excuse on his wife when he forgot their wedding anniversary.

"But, dear, I was out running for governor and it slipped my mind," Erbe told her. The Republican nominee said things were "a little bit cool, but improving" around the house today.

Drunk Weaves In 'Public Place'

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—Rowan McClinton, 39, was the defendant in a drunken driving case and was weaving in the witness chair when he testified Wednesday in Judge Wendell Odom's court.

"Have you ever seen this defendant commit a breach of the public peace in your presence?" McClinton's attorney asked the arresting officer, H. C. Riggs.

"Yes, sir," Riggs replied. "He's committing one right now. He's drunk in a public place — this courtroom."

Financial Review

NEW YORK (UPI) — Things are looking up for the air freight industry with the coming of the jet age, but there will have to be radical changes in ground handling before a complete breakthrough can be accomplished.

Flying Tiger Line officials note that the initial obstacle to the development of volume commercial air freight already has been solved by the design and manufacture of the Canadair CL-44 turbine-powered air freighter.

This unique aircraft, they say, can carry payloads of some 70,000 pounds at 400 mile-an-hour speeds at one half the direct cost of the most modern air freighters now in use.

competitive in price with the rates which can make air freight speediest of surface carriers," they declare.

But, most industry executives agree that "to achieve a real breakthrough in airfreight, introduction of speedy, economical flying equipment must be accompanied by entirely new methods of ground handling which will permit operation of cargo versions of the commercial aircraft they are designing.

Flying Tiger has been working with Canadair on development of integrated loading systems. Lynott says the two firms have developed a pallet system that will enable a train of ten 7½ by 10 foot pallets to be loaded or unloaded in 30 minutes. Each pallet is capable of handling 8,000 pounds.

The Flying Tiger line will begin operations with the CL-44 in mid-1961, and it expects a huge volume of freight to materialize with the advent of this aircraft and accompanying lowered rates.

CHICAGO — (NEA) — Picture a building large enough to house three major league baseball parks and you'll have some idea of the immensity of Chicago's new $5 million dollar lakefront exposition center, McCormick Place.

This giant-addition to the Chicago skyline, on the edge of Lake Michigan, is three blocks long and a block wide.

Operated by the state-created Metropolitan Fair and Exposition Authority, the center was named for Col. Robert R. McCormick, late publisher of the Chicago Daily Tribune, who began his fight for such a hall in 1927. The center officially opens Nov. 18, 1966.

Ed Lee, the center's general manager, predicts the facility will attract an unprecedented number of trade shows and conventions.

"While Chicago has continued to lead the nation in conventions and trade shows, there has been a gradual decline since 1955," Lee said, attributing the decrease to increased competition from other cities. Lee said McCormick Place was designed exclusively for exhibitions, conventions, trade shows, cultural exhibits and theatrical and musical performances all year round. He and his staff of engineers and architects traveled all over the U.S. to get the recommendations of the people who would be using the center.

From the outside the center's size is not immediately apparent. The architectural emphasis is horizontal and, therefore, visually deceptive. But the building contains about a million square feet of usable floor space; it is air conditioned throughout.

The building is gleaming white exterior panels — 50 feet high and precast concrete. Its sculptured exterior panels — 50 feet high and 17 feet wide — cover more than 152,000 square feet.

Inside, the building contains four floors. Minimum ceiling height in the main exhibit area is 30 feet. This hall could seat 25,000 to 30,000 persons.

The building auditorium will seat 5,000 persons and according to Lee, "there isn't a bad seat in the house." All auditorium seats will be stepped and staggered to allow everyone of any size an unobstructed view of the huge stage.

Motorized walls will divide the three separate areas. "Here we can simultaneously run at least three big shows — completely unrelated — with no difficulty," Lee says.

The center will have no hotel accommodations, but negotiations have been completed for the purchase of air rights over the tracks of the nearby Illinois Central Railroad for construction of a large hotel within 100 yards of the center. It is literally only a stone's throw from the building's 110-foot-wide outdoor lakefront promenade to Meigs Field, Chicago's lakefront airport.

Some 30,000 persons can move through the center without congestion. A tunnel running the entire length of the building will be used by vehicles to take visitors to and from the hall.

Nearby parking areas provide for 9,000 autos. A glass-walled, full service restaurant will seat 650 persons. A self-service "buffeteria" will serve 1,800 persons an hour. Full banquet service can accommodate groups up to 5,000. A recital hall will seat 500 for small concerts, recitals and lectures.

A small art gallery will exhibit some of the world's leading art collections. Fourteen separate meeting rooms can hold up to 800 persons.

"There's just nothing like it anywhere else," Lee said.

Politics In New England States As Unpredictable As The Weather

BOSTON (UPI) — Somebody once said practical politics consists of ignoring facts.

but whether you ignore or heed the facts, New England politics is as unpredictable as its weather.

New Englanders will vote in November for two native sons, Democratic presidential nominee John F. Kennedy and Republican vice presidential nominee Henry Cabot Lodge.

This fact alone — and one that can't be ignored — puts the balloting in doubt in at least five of the New England states. The exception: Vermont which is expected to stick to its deep Republican tap-roots.

President Eisenhower captured all six states in 1956. Neither party is expected to win the bloc this year.

Massachusetts perhaps tops the political puzzle in New England because its heart belongs to two candidates. Both Kennedy and Lodge are from Massachusetts.

Kennedy, as a presidential candidate, may have an edge in Massachusetts. But Lodge, the blue-blood who stood up to Russia in the United Nations, is held in high regard by Democrats and Republicans alike.

The GOP high command hasn't written off Massachusetts. To the contrary, Republican strategists are making Massachusetts a front line in its offense to win votes for GOP presidential nominee Richard M. Nixon and his running mate.

On paper, Massachusetts is a Democratic state. There are about 800,000 registered Republicans.

But one million voters declare no party affiliation in the Bay State. These are the "independents" who could tilt the outcome either way. Their votes are the most coveted by both camps.

Democrats acknowledge privately that Lodge's stature has risen since his defeat by Kennedy for the U.S. Senate in 1952. Kennedy beat Lodge by 70,737 that year.

In Connecticut, Democrats appear to have a slight edge in the presidential footrace since this year, for the first time, the registered Democrats outnumber registered Republicans.

Democrats beat the Republicans in a registration race in Connecticut by a whisker. The results: 51 per cent of the registered voters are Democratic.

Connecticut Gov. A. A. Ribicoff boarded the Kennedy bandwagon two years ago. He may steer it to victory but only over rough tracks.

Connecticut Republicans have no where to go except up. Ribicoff's landslide win in 1958 produced a Democratic sweep of all six congressional seats. Ribicoff isn't running this year—his term has two more years to go—and Republicans feel they can get their feet back in the door.

The person who once said "As Maine goes, so goes the nation" probably regretted that utterance. It just isn't so. Maine often has gone one way, the rest of the nation another.

Maine is expected to go for Nixon-Lodge this November.

Peter M. Damborg, veteran political analyst for the Guy Gannett Newspapers in Maine, said that Nixon is getting stronger in Maine with each day of the presidential campaign.

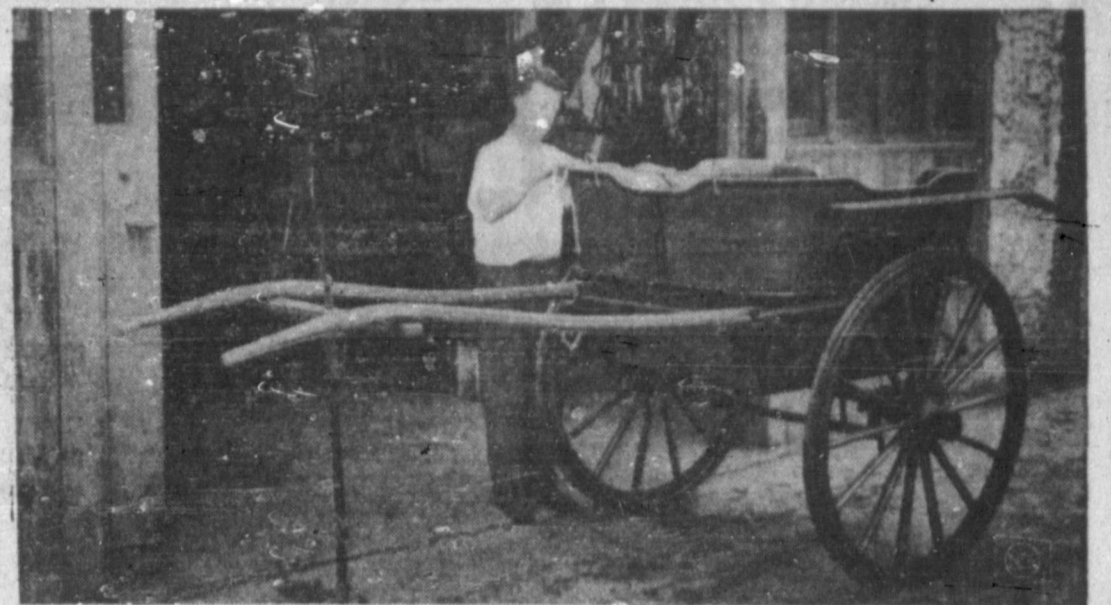

Nixon has visited Maine five times since becoming vice president, including a recent trip. He billed himself as a "favorite son," a play on Kennedy's New England "native son" theme.

New Hampshire, believed to be the only state in the nation that is Republican in every major public office, will stay that way, from all indications. Republicans traditionally out-vote Democrats by better than two-to-one in that state.

Frank O'Neil, political editor of the Manchester (N.H.) Union Leader, said "it is difficult to see how Kennedy can upset the Republican trend in New Hampshire."

To win, O'Neil said, Kennedy would have to cut very deeply into registered Republican ranks "to make it even a close run and his chances of doing this are remote."

The religious issue—Kennedy's Roman Catholicism — has not been the emotional issue in New

Austin Madam Quits; Pays $5,000 Bond

AUSTIN (UPI)—Peggy Stephenson Breant Webb, a red-haired madam, has announced she is "retiring" from business in Austin.

Mrs. Webb paid a $5,000 bond forfeiture Wednesday and announced through her attorney that she is "out of business."

"That's what she tells me, and I think it's true," said the attorney, Perry Jones.

Mrs. Webb was ordered to pay the bond nearly a year ago for violation of a permanent anti-prostitution injunction against her house. She fought the injunction all the way to the Third Court of Civil Appeals, but lost.

She claimed she closed the place after the injunction was issued, but her second husband reopened it without her knowledge while she was honeymooning with a third husband.

The bond forfeiture was one of the largest ever paid in Travis County, according to Dist. Clerk O. T. Martin Jr.

England that it has been elsewhere in the nation.

But the religious question exists in New England even if it is dormant.

Congressional Seat Apportionment Due

WASHINGTON (UPI)—If you are looking for intellectual stimulation, you might as well drop this right now and reach for the nearest copy of Playboy magazine.

But if you'd like something in the way of sexy literature, I have just the thing. It's a new report by a House subcommittee on the role of the Census Bureau in congressional apportionment.

I am glad that I read the report because it enlarged my area of enlightenment. I still don't understand congressional apportionment, but if I hadn't read the report I wouldn't have known that I didn't understand it.

If you are willing to follow me into the wilderness, I believe I can lead you to this same position of clear-cut confusion. Fair enough? Very well, let us proceed.

Every 10 years, as the crow flies, it becomes necessary to reshuffle the state quotas of congressional seats on the basis of the latest census. This is one of those years. There is no getting around it. It's in the Constitution.

In the old days, as the report explains, "the number of persons per congressman was selected. This number was then divided into the population of each state to provide a quota for the state. The number of seats to be assigned was not predetermined."

This system was abandoned in 1850, apparently because it was not sufficiently complicated, and a new method was devised. To quote the report:

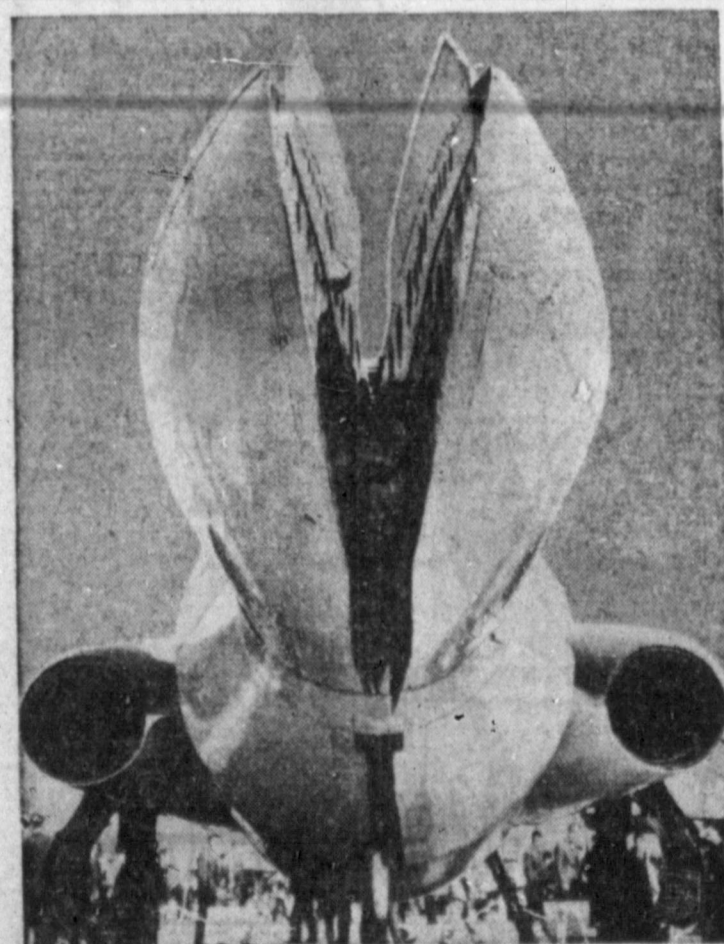

"First the total number of seats to be assigned was selected. This total was divided into the apportionment population for the country as a whole to obtain the average number of persons per representative. In turn, this average was divided into the population of each state to determine the state quota."

Things rocked along like that for awhile and then it was discovered that in some instances the number of representatives assigned to a state could drop when the size of the House was increased.

This was known as the "Alabama paradox." Needless to say, Alabama didn't like it.

Finally, the problem was dumped into the lap of the National Academy of Sciences, which recommended that congressional seats be divided up according to the "method of equal proportions."

And how does this method work? Well, all I can tell you is that it follows the principle of "reciprocals of the geometric means."

Dear Abby... Don't Toss "Seamy" Marriage Aside

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I thought I had the most wonderful husband in the world until I got a call from a store saying he was behind on his payments for a fur jacket. He never gave me a fur jacket, Abby. When I asked him to explain it, he said a friend where he works didn't have any credit so he let him charge the jacket to our account. He won't tell me the friend's name to prove he's telling the truth.

He's been staying out late and has been short of money lately, and his kisses have grown cold. I love him, Abby but I'd leave him tomorrow if I knew where a 28-year-old woman could go with four children.

HEART-BROKEN

DEAR HEART-BROKEN: Don't go anywhere. Just because your marriage is coming apart at the seams is no reason to throw it away. Let your husband know he isn't kidding you. And let him know you love him and are deeply hurt. And let him know you intend to raise your four children with their own father. Show some love and determination. Don't act like a discarded old shoe or you'll be treated like one.

DEAR ABBY: We would like your opinion of a woman, 28, who has recently made a very good marriage. (Her third, his second.) She has requested all her friends to please to call her "Hildegard". We have called her "Hilda" all her life, so this seems a little ridiculous. She is a nice person and we hate to see her lose her best friends over a foolish idea like this.

DEAR "FRIENDS": If you are Hilda's best friends, I can understand why she put her "garde" up. What's in a name?

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl of 13 with a serious problem. I have asthma. It's bad enough in the summer, but it's worse in winter. I can't get too hot or too cold. I can't get near wheat, feathers, hay, cats, dogs or chocolate. I can't do push-ups or tumble. I am starting junior high and there are so many things I am going to be left out of that it isn't even funny. Is there a cure?

"As MAD as"

DEAR "As MAD as": There is more to life than push-ups, chocolate and the other taboos on your list. And one way to "get over" something is to get over being "mad" about it. Did you ever hear about the man who complained because he had no shoes until he met a man who had no feet?

DEAR ABBY: Don't be so hard on the girls who write DEAR JOHNS. If you want the other side of the story, I wrote my Don a "Dear John" because I got tired of hearing how beautiful the girls in Germany were. My girl friend wrote a "Dear John" to Jim because she was fed up hearing how fantastic the Korean girls could dance.

Nail-Biting Habit Often Sends Boys In Opposite Direction Fast

By Alicia Hart
Newspaper Enterprise Beauty Editor

Nail biting is a nervous habit. Teen-agers who have the habit invariably yearn to break and almost always find it difficult to do. But there are ways to go about getting rid of those chewed-up, stubby nails. For what teen-ager could possibly look pretty as she bites her nails? It's enough to send the boys in the opposite direction fast.

First, any pharmacist can compound a bitter but harmless substance to use on your finger ends. The taste is so unappetizing that you'll soon lose any desire to nail-bite.

Another aid lies in those plastic nails that you can buy in the five-and-dime. After all, they're tough and you're not going to want to chew them once they're cemented in place. You can apply polish and let your own nails grow out beneath.

Meanwhile, take an envelope of gelatin in a glass of water or orange juice each day. This will help your nails to grow in more place.

Now, step by step, your hair has been dried and damaged. Since few of us care to give up professional hair care, the best way to counteract this damage is by pampering your hair at home. Give yourself a hot oil treatment once a week, just before you go to have your hair done.

Brush, brush, brush each day. Use a brush with nylon or natural bristles, whichever seems best suited to your hair type. And set your hair at night with those squishy pink plastic rollers that are easy on your hair and easy to sleep on.

It's strange and fascinating the way a lovely smile can light up a face and turn a plain girl into a beauty. It shouldn't be a grin or a grimace.

And the eyes should smile, too. Practice in front of your mirror if you want a smile that's enchanting.

From Paris, come these new hairstyles displaying the new look of the small, sleek head. But each of these styles, however casual it may seem, depends on expert cutting. If your hair has some natural curl, you won't need a permanent. But if your hair is straight, you'll need a permanent for body. Short, short hair (left) displays swirled back with little tendrils at the nape of the neck. The rounded, curved bang is used (center) in combination with cheek curls. Hair is swept forward from the crown to achieve bangs. The small, neat head as most American women will probably prefer it (right) has hair swept across forehead in longish bangs. Hair is cut carefully in layers. Hairstyles shown are by Antoine of Paris.

Junior High PTA To Meet Tonight

Pampa Junior High School will hold its first meeting of the year tonight 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Introduction of the school faculty will be made in the general assembly to be held in the auditorium. Then parents will be taken on a tour of their child's classroom and have the opportunity to talk with the teachers.

PTA meetings for the current year have been cut to three to increase interest of the parents. Mrs. B. L. Lambright, president, has announced.

Two or three rows of big, round, heavy beads hanging right down to the waistline. In this country, the idea will probably be copied in lightweight beads.

New Short Hair Style Relies On Expert Cutting

By ALICIA HART
Newspaper Enterprise Beauty Editor

If we gals had to use fashion as a calendar guide, we'd never know what year it was. Here we face autumn of 1966, and everything new from hairdos to hemlines is reminiscent of the 1920s.

Dresses are shorter and waistlines lower. As a natural complement to this silhouette, hair will be worn shorter, too.

But here the resemblance to the '20s ends. For instead of the manish shingle the effect will be close, but not flat, with a curved, face-framing outline. What's actually happened is that the bouffant hairdo has been modified so that it is curved instead of curled. And bangs of all types have come into their own.

The ends of some of the new hair styles sweep under in a short version of the pageboy. Others turn up in feathery tips or come forward in soft, feminine curls on the cheek. And many of them require the use of a small barrette at the side. The trend is away from the elegant, formal look of the beehive and the chignon, and towards a soft, youthful appearance. In fact, one famous hair stylist has created a whole series of what he terms "baby" looks, none of which has a straight part. If the part shows at all, it is asymmetrical.

Though the new caplike coiffures, with their wide curly waves, may look straighter than the poufs and swirls of the spring and summer hairdos, don't make the mistake of thinking you won't need a permanent.

You will, if your hair doesn't wave naturally, for it will need a lot of body to hold the styling. A soft, undercurl permanent is best.

Remember, too, that these simple, feminine hair styles make scrupulous hair care a must. To look its best, your hair must be shining and springy, so frequent shampoos are in order. And don't spare the brush.

The fall hair styles will open up a whole new millinery vista, too. It will be fun to select hats that are little more than hair ornaments as well as large, perky fur bombes. You'll enjoy the change in this season's new look in fashion, particularly if your hair style is really a switch from what you've been wearing.

Local Lodge To Host Circle Meet

Pampa Rebekah Lodge No. 355 met Thursday 8 p.m. in IOOF Hall, 218 W. Brown with Mrs. Joe Stenbridge, noble grand, in charge of the meeting.

It was announced that Panhandle Circle of Rebekah Lodges will meet with the Pampa Lodge on Sept. 29 for a salad supper. Members are asked to bring their favorite salad.

It was also announced that the Junior IOOF and Theta Rho Girls' Banquet will be held in the Hall on Oct. 22.

Mrs. Ross Neugin, team captain, directed the Rebekah Degree team in an initiation service for Mrs. Alice Williams.

Announcements were made of the illness of Mrs. H. N. Mayo's husband, who is to undergo surgery in Worley Hospital; of the death of Mr. Vernon Hall's brother-in-law in Mobeetie on Sunday; Mrs. J. W. Ladd's stepfather, T. J. Ladd's funeral in Amarillo on Wednesday.

Mmes. Tom Beard, H. N. Mayo and Harold Thornhill were hostesses during the social hour that followed the business and initiation meeting.

Ruth Millett Lackadaisical Daughter Needs Set Of Rules

A mother wants to know what to do about 17-year-old daughter who won't lift a finger around the house. She writes:

"I feel that I am a complete failure. My daughter is 17 and just beginning to date. For some reason I cannot get her to do any housework or cooking or even to iron her own skirts and blouses."

"I have set aside her ironing for days and then I finally iron it myself. Her room is always a mess. I keep wondering what kind of wife she will make, since she doesn't know how to do the first thing around a house. What would you suggest I do at this point?"

Lay down a few rules and stick by them.

One—That she make her bed and tidy up her room before she leaves home in the morning.

Two—That she iron her own clothes. If she leaves them unironed for days, just leave them. She'll get busy when she finds she hasn't anything to wear to school or on a date.

Three—That she cook dinner one night a week. Let her plan the menu, do the marketing, cook the meal and get it on the table. A little praise will go a long way here toward getting her to take pride in the kind of meals she prepares. Also, be sure that she has a simple recipe book that she can follow without trouble, so that she won't have to call on you to show her how to prepare a dish.

Four—That she be responsible for one or several household chores each week. No mother who doesn't have household help should let a 17-year-old daughter act like a star boarder.

It will help if you will write out the new rules and say quietly, "This is how it is going to be." Then all you have to do is stick by your decision and not fall into the mistake of thinking it would be easier to do her work for her than to see that she does it.

Mrs. Bill Phillips, Recent Bride, Feted With Post Nuptial Shower In Civic Center

LEFORS (Sp) — Mrs. Bill Phillips, nee Sandy Call, was honored with a bridal shower in Civic Center on Saturday afternoon.

Hostesses were Meses. Charles Roberts, Bill Watson, Jeff Stubblefield, Earl Lane, Deck McDowell, Horace Blair, Vernon Northcott, Ben White, Earl Atkinson, Frank Poarch, L. W. Cates, Jerry Pflug, J. R. Sparkman, Junior Taylor; Misses Leann Pafford, Mary Watson, Beverly White, Jan Atkinson, Sue Phillips, Frances Harkcom, Linda Poarch, Sharon Hines, Pat Berry, Barbara McDowell, and Judy Lane.

Miss Phillips registered guests in a green and white lace-covered book, at a white covered table adorned with a dogwood blossom in a bid vase.

Corsages of kitchen gadgets were presented to the honoree; her mother, Mrs. Bob Call, and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Harold Phillips.

An arrangement of dogwood blossoms and Bells of Ireland were flanked by green candles in white holders and centered the white net over green tulle clothed serving table. The cake was decorated in white roses and green leaves. Linda Poarch served the cake as Beverly White served the lime sherbet punch. A gift center was arranged in the middle of the room, with gifts extending from the ceiling to the floor, mingled with white and green streamers of crepe paper.

Guests were Meses. R. H. Barron, M. M. McAninch, Bessie Stracener, Leonard Sanders, Claude Petty, Bessie Call, Harold Phillips, John Cornett, A. T. Cobb, Charlie Tutor, John Roberts, Henry Dunn, Alvin Jones, O. B. Phillips, Junior Taylor, R. C. Ogden, Miss Johnnie Cornett, and Master Bobby Call, Jr.

Sixty-five persons sent gifts, who were unable to attend.

The Hardcastles Note Anniversary

SKELLYTOWN (Sp) — Mr. and Mrs. Wood Hardcastle were honored on their 22 wedding anniversary with a surprise party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson. Conversation and games of dominoes were enjoyed.

Individual cakes inscribed with the numerals 22 were served with coffee.

Attending were Messrs. and Mrs. Doc Stockton, L. Z. Rhodes, Cammie Terry, Vaughn Payton and Mrs. Lena Moore.

Four Area Teams Carry Unblemished Records Into Grid Action

Four teams—White Deer, Shamrock, Perryton and Miami—take their unbeaten records into battle tomorrow night to highlight another big weekend of Panhandle football.

And, by the time these four teams finish their respective games, at least one will have its record blotched by a loss.

The big game—possibly of the season—is at White Deer, where the Bucks of Class A attempt to play the unwelcome host to Class AA's Shamrock Irish in a clash pitting unbeaten.

Shamrock (4-0) will bring its potent running attack, spearheaded by Bill McBryde, a 200-pound fullback, and fleet-footed Jerry Jernigan, a halfback.

In Jernigan, the Irish have an ever-present threat. In Shamrock's last outing, Jernigan scored on runs of 7, 19 and 48 yards as the Irish downed Wheeler, 36-6.

White Deer, which bombed Lefors 36-6 two weeks ago as Dickie Hanna and Joe Grange teamed up for three touchdowns via the passing lanes, showed the other side of its offense last Friday when it swamped McLean 54-6 while rolling up 447 yards on the ground.

Tom Lester, who scored three times against McLean; and Johnny Spence, who ripped up 48 yards against the Tigers, supply the Bucks' ground punch.

Perryton (3-0) may have its share of trouble in chalking up its fourth victim when it hosts always-dangerous Phillips, also 3-0.

Perryton edged Dalhard last week, 14-12, on touchdowns by Joe Champion and Butch Cook and the deciding two-point conversion by Carl Ellis.

Miami's eight-man team, the area's other unbeaten team, travels to Darroutzet in what could turn out to be the Warriors' roughest test to date.

Coach Bill Hines of the Warriors said earlier in the season that Darroutzet—which played in Class B last season—probably be Miami's early-season stumbling block.

In beating Morse, 38-6, last week, Miami (4-0) sent five different men across the goal line, highlighted by Tommy Seitz' 70-yard touchdown gallop early in the first quarter.

Elsewhere, Canadian hopes its luck will be a little better tomorrow when it travels for a game at Panhandle. Last week, Stinnett's Rattlers, top ranked Class A team, whitewashed Canadian, 46-0.

Canadian, tabbed as the team to beat in District 2-A, has found the going tough in non-district games and will go into the Panhandle game with a 1-3 record.

McLean, still without the full-time services of quarterback Ken Willingham, treks to Claude tomorrow.

Tiger Coach Cliff Bradshaw still is looking for the right combination to get McLean rolling along the victory path. He has nightmares everytime he thinks of the 54-6 defeat pisted on his boys last week by White Deer, and Claude could be the team to take revenge on.

Cyde Windom, an all-district guard last year but a fullback this year, and Jim Watson constitute the ground attack for the Tigers.

In other area games, Wheeler, 36-6 losers to Shamrock last week, go to Estelline in a battle of unknowns. Jim Jolley is the only returning letterman in Wheeler's backfield, and he's been the take-charge guy in games to date.

Groom, which fought back late in the game to tie Clarendon 14-14 last week, travels to Gruver. It's the last non-conference game of the season for Groom which enters Class B play against Turkey in two weeks.

In the lone Saturday area game, Lefors will play Stratford before a homecoming crowd at Lefors.

The Pirates are 2-2 on the season after dropping Wellington, 32-0, last week. Lefors used both passing and running effectively in the Wellington game and should be at top strength for the Stratford tilt. — A. E. M.

Hard Practices Ready Pampa

Last Half Rally Tops Reaper II

By ARTHUR MAYHEW
Daily News Sports Editor

Roaring back from a 9-8 tie at halftime, Perryton's ninth graders dumped Pampa's Reaper's, 22-8, in a wild and woolly contest yesterday at Harvester Field.

Pampa scored first when Quarterback Kenneth Hebert gathered in a punt on his own 20, found daylight on the left side of the field and scampered 80 yards for the Reapers' only touchdown at 4:37 on the first quarter clock.

Only once did Perryton defenders get near Hebert, but a timely block by Richard Rexroad at the Pampa 20 cleared Hebert's path.

The second quarter had barely begun when Perryton Quarterback Rodney Ivy climaxed a 76-yard drive by swiveling the last nine yards through Reaper defenses for Perryton's first score.

An Ivy-to-Randy Gyger pass added the tying two-point conversion at 9:53 of the second quarter.

The Reapers sparked by the running of Hebert, Perry Thompson and Sam Bryan, uncorked another potential drive that finally bogged down on the Perryton 15. This turned out to be the deepest Pampa got the rest of the game.

Perryton went ahead to stay at 14:45 of the third quarter when Ivy elected to keep on a quarterback option from four yards out, then hit Eddie McGarragh on a pass for two conversion points.

Jerry Slaton wrapped up Perryton's scoring for the afternoon by taking a slick handoff from Ivy and scooting four yards for a touchdown at 7:36. A fumble marred the extra-point run play.

The Reapers rolled up four first downs, all the first half, and made only one yard rushing the second half. Hebert was the leading ground gainer for Pampa with 34 yards on eight carries and played an outstanding defensive game.

Twice Hebert was the lone man between Perryton and the goal line and twice he knocked the runners out of bounds.

Gary Davis' clutch tackle of fullback Gary Newcomb early in the fourth period also averted another Perryton score after Newcomb had raced 44 yards to Pampa's 27.

The loss was the Reaper's second of the year. They fell 42-8 to McLean last week.

Colonels Take Series Opener

TORONTO (UPI)—Relief pitcher Ken McKenzie, hero of Louisville's opening game victory over the Toronto Maple Leafs, is justifying the view of some experts who tabbed him as one of the Colonel's key men in their bid to capture the Little World Series.

Louisville won the first game of the best-of-seven series, 4-1, Wednesday night as McKenzie struck out two men in the ninth inning to cut a Leaf rally short. The relief ace came on in the final inning with two on and none out. He struck out Jim King and got Joe Hannah on a fly to center, but then hit Herb Plews on the wrist to load the bases.

Sports Slivers

By ED HAYES WILSON

Terry Culley, Pampa High School basketball coach, has been sneaking around town lately with eyes alert for prospects; this, now, is over and above his treks up and down the corridors of the school and, to be frank, things don't look too good at this time.

We might as well face up to the fact: to produce, a coach must have material, and in basketball that material must be tall.

Oh, you can rely on a small, fast fellow here and there. But your post and pivot men must be long and lanky. Pampa High School just "ain't loaded" with such boys and Culley is beginning to fret.

"We're hurtin' for height. We've as much speed as the next team, but we sure are lacking in dunkers," said Culley.

Culley takes over as head coach, replacing Cliff McNeely, who, as Hoosiers say, has gone "on to finer things." McNeely now is at Castleberry High at Fort Worth in an administrative capacity.

He takes over where one of the most successful coaches in Texas operated for years. He follows a fellow who actually was placed upon the dias of an idol, and he replaces a man who was actually worshipped. But, get this, it doesn't worry Culley one bit. He knows he has a tough assignment, but he has accepted the challenge.

This year things may be rough, but you can bet the kitchen sink things will get better in a couple of years.

Culley has a number of sophomores, and they have the talent. True, most of them aren't tall. But, as the coach said, "Maybe they'll grow."

Wayne Kreis, 5' 10" and 160 pounds, leading scorer in junior high play last year; Ronnie Chase, 5' 9", Gordon Balch 6', and Lark Miller, 5' 10" are boys to be heard from in the future.

"Either of those four youngsters could be starters this year. They're that good, and we (Dean Evans is his aide) expect them to play quite a bit this year," Culley pointed out.

The base for the Harvester cagers is four returning squadmen from last year. From this group, slender Allen Wise, 6' 3", and Pat Carter, 5' 10" are lettermen. The other two, Larry Stroud, 6' 2", and Bill Neslage 5' 11", were with the Harvesters in 1959 as reserves.

Coming up from the Shockers of 1959 is a boy Culley believes will be a fine ball player, Jim Crinklaw, a 6' junior. Culley said the boy likes the game, is aggressive, and always willing to train. And when you get a lad such as that, go the route with him because he'll produce when things are going the toughest.

Training daily with the above group are Lloyd Balch, 6' 1"; Bob Neslage, 6' 2"; Harold Burgess, 6', and Charley Fant, 5' 9".

Of the last named boy, Culley had this to say: "He isn't fast, although you'd think so when you hear a cage coach mention a boy his size. But this kid is a competitor. He'll scrap with you all day under that basket."

After eight years as aide to McNeely, Culley gets his chance. He'll probably use many of the ideas the former coach had, but he also has some of his own he put into use.

In the past, the Harvesters used a tandem post (two pivot men) and that probably will be the attack base this season, but don't count on that as positive. Culley is awaiting long, tall Randy Matson to finish the football season, and he'll not establish a certain method of attack until that time.

Matson is only a sophomore, but he made Coach Babe Curfman's starting lineup and you can expect him to be a starter with the basketball team.

So that's about the shape of things at this time. Culley will officially put the cagers in training Oct. 15, but the boys are on the hardwood daily getting in a few licks at the baskets. This coming team may not be the best Pampa has ever produced, but it's going to be an interesting one to see in action. Culley wants it this way. He insists on his men going out all at times, and the kids know it.

When a coach impresses his boys with that, you can watch out for them; they'll beat you just when you think your boys have a "coaster" on tap.

Curfman Steps Up Drills For Tascosa

By ED HAYES WILSON
Daily News Sports Writer

Training this week for the Harvesters has been strenuous. The extended practice followed a statement by Babe Curfman that he'd put his charges through their toughest works of the year this week, and the burly head coach has definitely lived up to what he declared.

This, naturally, was expected. The Harvesters, and there is no use belying the fact, have defeated themselves three times hand running. They've fumbled, cut wrong on passes, dropped passes, missed numerous key blocking assignments, and, overall, failed to come through at critical times, but they have not quit.

They have hustled constantly in three of the hardest workouts this week that a Harvester team has ever gone through. And, the best part of it is, the team is in its best shape of the year.

Only one player may not be ready to go Friday night against Tascosa. Jimmy Crouch, one of the reserves, suffered a separated shoulder and may not see action. But the remainder of the squad is in excellent shape.

Big Duke Garren, the number one center and ace defensive man, is back in shape and his knee injury is healed. He is a key man in Harvester workings and when he's not in peak condition things don't perk for the team. Curfman, though, said today that Garren is in his best condition of the year.

Curfman didn't talk of lineup changes this morning. He said that some were being contemplated, but "We aren't certain at this time and I'd rather not talk about it."

This will mark Pampa's first conference game. The boys really want to trip up the Rebels, and if the leave the field with a victory things could definitely look up before the year is out. Meantime, though, the boys must seek solace for their losses in the fact that they will be sorely outweighed again and that they will have to increase their tempo of aggressiveness if they expect to overcome the Amarillo team.

ARDMORE, Pa. (UPI)—A record-breaking 66 by Jack Nicklaus, 1959 National Amateur champion, and 71-cards by three teammates sent the United States into the second round of the World Amateur golf championship with a nine-strike lead over the field.

Nicklaus, 29-year-old junior from Ohio State University, conquered the tough East Course at the Merion Golf Club with devastating effect. Not only did he bust its par 70 by four strokes, but he toppled the old amateur mark of 67 set on the 6,694-yard layout in 1924 by D. Clarke Corkran during a U.S. Amateur championship.

Nicklaus had six birdies and sank putts of 30 feet, 25 feet and 22 feet as he helped the U.S. team gain a 208 total and a flying start in the 72-hole biennial tournament featuring some 120 players from 32 nations.

New Zealand and Mexico were tied for second with 217 as the "Olympics of Golf" moved into the halfway mark.

MICKEY MANTLE ... takes HR lead

After 420-Foot Homer Finale

Williams Retirement Ends Fabulous Career

BOSTON (UPI)—Ted Williams, the incomparable master of drama, is gone but not forgotten.

The fabulous, 42-year-old slugging star of the Boston Red Sox did it again Wednesday—twice. His next-to-last "Williamesque" touch was a mighty home run in what was to be his last appearance as an active player in Fenway Park, where he's thrilled millions for the past 22 years.

But the 420-foot smash—the 521st of his career and his 29th of the season—turned out to be Ted's bon voyage to baseball.

The retirement had been announced last Sunday as effective after the Yankee series.

Williams' dramatic 420-foot homer in the Boston-Baltimore game was his 29th of the season.

In the only other AL game scheduled, the Kansas City Athletics defeated the Cleveland Indians, 4-0.

Mick Hits Two, Yankees Win

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press International
It was a heart-warming windup by Ted Williams but those closing drives by Mickey Mantle and the New York Yankees could prove a bit bone-chilling for Pittsburgh.

Williams went out like a grand opera, as Casey Stengel would say. The 42-year-old Boston slugger rocketed the 521st homer of his career in the eighth inning and then announced he was finished for good moments after the Red Sox beat the Baltimore Orioles, 5-4.

Ted may have taken his last turn at bat, but that certainly doesn't apply to either Mantle or the Yankees.

Mantle belted his 39th and 40th home runs Wednesday night to take over the American League leadership from teammate Roger Maris. The two blows, off south-paw Chuck Stobbs, powered the red-hot Yankees to their 12th straight victory, a 6-3 decision over the Washington Senators.

Whitey Ford, who will start one of the World Series games against the Pirates, pitched five innings Wednesday night and that was enough to earn him his 12th victory. He gave up two runs, including Bob Allison's 15th homer. Cleotis Boyer also homered, giving the Yankees 190 for the season, a total that ties their own league record set in 1956.

Williams' dramatic 420-foot homer in the Boston-Baltimore game was his 29th of the season.

In the only other AL game scheduled, the Kansas City Athletics defeated the Cleveland Indians, 4-0.

Shockers Eye Borger As First '60 Victory

ANTI-BRIBE GRIDDER — Jon MacBeth, Florida fullback, charged that a New York man and a fellow student tried to bribe him to shave his team's margin of victory against Florida State. Officials are now looking into theory that syndicate may be behind full-scale fixes of college games.

Important Tilt Pits Old Football Rivals

Pampa High School's Shockers, still looking for that elusive first victory, take on arch-rival Borger 'B' at 7:30 p.m. today at Harvester Field.

Seventh Graders Tackle Phillips

Pampa Junior High's seventh graders will be playing for their first victory—and their first score—of the season at 4 p.m. today when they host Phillip's seventh graders at Harvester Park.

In its first outing, Pampa fell before cross-town enemy, Lee, 24-0.

now stands at 0-2 after losing to Phillips, 38-6, and Perryton, 18-0. By comparative scores, Borger will be the favorite because of its 8-8 tie with Perryton last week.

The Shockers will go into the game minus the services of John Osborne, double-duty man at guard and linebacker, who will sit the Borger game out with a hurt knee.

Phillips feels both his offense and defense improved markedly from the Phillips to the Perryton game.

"Moving the ball is our main problem," Phillips said yesterday. "Our defense did a good job on Perryton but we've got to get our ground game moving."

"Of course, we're using a new formation this year and some of the boys haven't caught on fully yet," the coach added.

The Shockers probably will start Keith Pearce at left end; Richard Organ, guard; Jack Nichols, center; Douglas Locke, strong guard; Glen McCathern, tackle; Shawn Hills, strong end, and Gerald Owens, wide end.

In the backfield, Phillips will go with Marvin Rake at quarterback; Nelson Rockwell at wingback; Ralph Palmer at full, and Dee Allen at halfback.

Picket Line Prognostication

One of these weeks we'll shake Lew Caudill, the circulation manager of the Pampa Daily News off our back, but in the meantime we'll have to abide with him. The "x-pert" and Caudill finished in a tie for the second week in a row in Picket Line Prognostications last week when each posted 20 correct football selections, had eight losers and two ties. Home-Deck, advertising director of the newspaper, was the third entry, but he fell by the wayside with an 18-10-2 mark.

This week, Art Mayhew, the sports editor, will join us in the selection panel. Art's a fine fellow, but the "x-pert" and Caudill plan dire doings for the young man following the publication of selections in Thursday's edition of the Daily News.

Collides With Borger Austin

Lee Eighth Hunts Win

Robert E. Lee's eighth graders, hoping that their offense has improved to equal their defense, take aim on Borger Austin's eighth graders at 4 p.m. today at Harvester Park.

The eighth grade Rebels fell to Perryton, 6-0, last week but had a 60-yard touchdown run called back because of a penalty.

Lee also mounted a drive late in the game to the Perryton 15-yard line but lost the ball on downs. Reb Coach Bill Kennedy hopes today's game goes the other way.

"We've been working mostly on offense this week," Kennedy said yesterday. "Against Perryton, we made some offensive mistakes that hurt us."

"Our defense did real well against Perryton. They moved the ball on us pretty good at midfield but inside our 20 we tightened up and held.

"We've improved and we're going to do better," Kennedy added.

Lee will go into the game with a line averaging about 136 pounds per man and a backfield that will average 121.

In the backfield, the scoring punch will have to be provided by Quarterback Johnny Robinson, the lightweight of the team at a 'wringing wet' 95 pounds. Fullback Terry Criss and Halfbacks Ronnie Klein and San Williams.

Unbeaten Lee Hosts Borger '11'

Joe Perryman, head football coach of the Robert E. Lee seventh grade team, will have two things going for him when his team takes the field at 4 p.m. tomorrow against Borger Austin's seventh graders at Harvester Park.

First, Lee's seventh graders are undefeated, winning their opener 24-0 over Pampa's seventh graders. Second, Perryman is a second cousin of Darell Royal, one of the state's winningest coaches since he took over the reins at the University of Texas.

"I like to run the plays my kin-folks do," Perryman said yesterday, meaning that Lee will use the belly series and quarterback options a great deal in tomorrow's game.

"Borger will be rough after winning their first game," Perryman opined. "But, our boys are in good shape, and they're ready to play. Perryman likes to run his team by up-tits and used three against Pampa (all three scored), while the defense held Pampa to two first downs.

In the starting backfield, Kenneth McWilliams will open at quarterback despite a bruised left hand; Larry Daniels will be at fullback and Lewis Meers and Gary Crossland will be the halfbacks.

Others expected to see extended action are Billy Joe Roden and Danny Boyd, the smallest man on the team at 85 pounds but one of the hardest tacklers according to Perryman, Larry Eckroast, George Nichols, Charles Heller and Vaughn Taylor.

WORTH MORE BECAUSE THEY WORK MORE!

Chevy's '61 fleet swings in with a ready-made reputation as the trucks that are worth more because they work more...the latest editions of the haulers that scrapped the I-beam axle and proved the important advantages of independent front suspension!

You'll find new models in the '61 fleet—lower priced, long-wheelbase 4-wheel drive trucks—and thoughtful refinements throughout the line. But the big news for '61 is nailed-down proof (based on actual owner reports) that Chevrolet's torsion-spring design is the best thing that's happened to trucks in decades!

With Chevy's independent front suspension and Sturdi-Bilt design, you cruise over trails where other trucks creep. You feel the difference in less wheel rattle and vibration. You can see why drivers are happier, why loads are better protected and why the truck itself will stand up to thousands of miles of more work. That goes for any size Chevy, too—pickups, tilt cabs, tandems, all of them.

Check the latest specs with your Chevrolet dealer: capacity, power teams, options, the works. Then, by all means, drive a '61. Once around your Chevrolet dealer's block and you'll never be satisfied with a front axle truck again!

Whip this Flexride over a rutted road and find out what torsion springs are all about!

AROUND THE WORLD

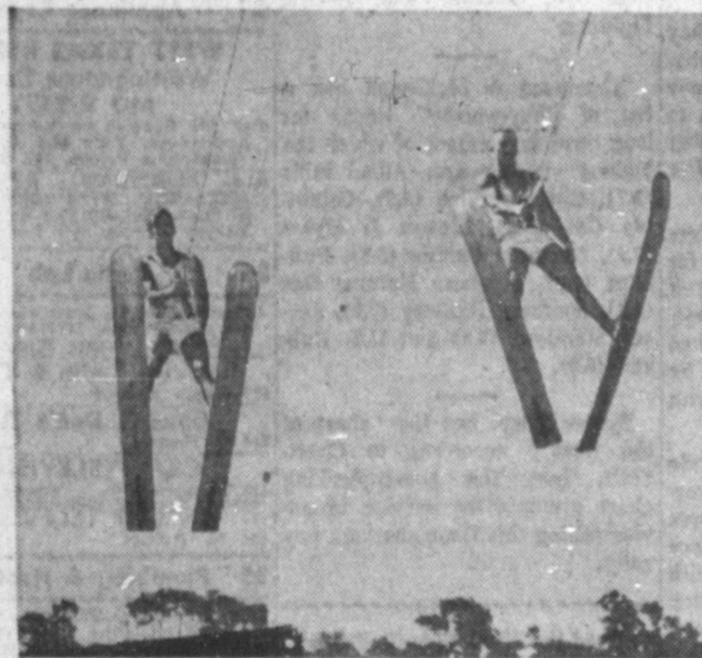

JUST WATCHING—Nine-year-old James Sebo, son of general manager Steve Sebo of the New York Titans of the American Football League, had a comfortable seat as he watched team members work out at New York's Polo Grounds. Carrying the ball is Gerhard Schwedes (right), former Syracuse University grid star, who's showing Jim a thing or two.

SMALL FRY—This could be a skin diver who stayed under water so long that he shrank to almost nothing. Actually, it's one-year-old Allen Connley, playing with his dad's swim fins, face mask and snorkel at San Antonio, Tex.

BOTTOM FISHING—A wet seat is a small price to pay for relaxation, according to this young angler who's set up a folding chair in the middle of a pond at Ashstead, Surrey, England. He may end up catching a fish in his back pocket.

DOUBLE THREAT—The husband and wife team of John and Judy Resch are shown water skiing together at Cypress Gardens, Fla. Both recently won top honors in the Lakeland tournament and did well in the Midwest regionals, too.

DOWN AND OUT—Yankee shortstop Tony Kubek gives all he has as he fires in attempt at double play after making force on Orioles' Gene Stephens. It took place in the first inning at New York's Yankee Stadium. Al Pilarcik, who started the action, beat the relay to first.

HIGH TIDE—In the surf at Miami Beach, cute Janet Williams has no kick coming, but she does seem to be getting her kicks from a solitary game of beachball. It's difficult to believe that anyone as attractive as lissome Janet can't find somebody to play catch with as she churns up the surf.

TOSSED—Jane Cederqvist, 15, was tossed high by exuberant classmates after returning to Stockholm, Sweden. Jane had been in Rome, Italy, where she won a second-place silver medal in the Olympic 400-meter free style swimming. When she got home, she set a world record for the 1,500-meter free style.

FOR BIRD WATCHERS—Exquisite Esther Sanders, of Van Nuys, Calif., has her hands full. She's toasting claybird hunters who will compete in the annual fall trapshooting tourney of the Sahara Hotel's Gun Club in Las Vegas, Nev. Esther's dancing at the hotel, and offering this encouragement to the marksmen.

SHE'S ALL SET—Jean Linsicum, one of 12 water skiers who'll soon tour the Orient under the Defense Dept. and USO auspices, got a good workout during a holiday in Bermuda. She practiced daily offshore near Hamilton, for Jean wanted to be sure she was more than ready for the tour that will entertain American servicemen from Hawaii to Formosa.

HOOT AND SHOOT—With a gun on one shoulder and an owl on the other, bank clerk Brian Holland is all set for some hunting after work in Worthing, England. The pet bird rides his owner's shoulder, although Holland keeps it tethered so passers-by won't be startled at sight of the unusual little pet.

HIS SPEED'S 80—He's Marvin McSwain, 80, and he's still rolling along on his bicycle when he hops onto it and heads for a game of tennis in Paris, Tenn. McSwain's been a volunteer fireman for 55 years, and that bike generally gets him to the scene of a fire before anyone else.

FLYING GRIDDERS—West Point seems geared for an aerial game this year as practice sessions got under way. Head coach Dale Hall smiled down from the helicopter as some of his gridders "landed" from the whirly-bird and went into hurried action.

AWAY THEY GO!—With an assist from their mothers, these tots got a start from a paddock in Palisades Park, N. J. Competition in the 22nd annual Diaper Derby was open to all babies in the crawling stage. Any who got up and toddled a few steps were disqualified.

Lady Astronaut Travels On High (Heels)

Jerrie Cobb, 'Down To Earth' Girl, In Beautiful Shape For Space Flight

By MARY KAY FLYNN
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

BETHANY, Okla. (NEA)—What is America's first lady Astronaut really like?

She's a pretty 29-year-old miss who probably would take high heels along on her first space flight if given the chance. She's a woman who would mistaken for an average American housewife on TV's "What's My Line?"... She's a girl who is "scared to death" to make a speech... She's Jerrie Cobb woman career pilot.

JERRIE COBB—She prefers dresses to slacks on flights.

Despite the fact that she's the first of 12 women to pass all the tests previously met by seven male Project Mercury Astronauts, she maintains her femininity with deliberate aplomb.

Jerrie prefers dresses to slacks on flights; she usually carries along those high heels and like many a woman might do, she often kicks off her shoes in the cockpit.

She's down to earth and equally at ease in a fashionable dress and hat or bulky space suit and helmet. There's nothing masculine about her 121 pounds attractively arranged over 5 feet, 7 inches.

"Aviation's woman of the year in 1959" was "early frozen with fright" when she spoke to the Aero club in Kansas City, Mo.

Although she describes herself as "disgustingly healthy," Jerrie developed a slight throat ailment a few days before the speech. But she doggedly practiced her well-outlined talk with the aid of a tape recorder. She was prepared until the sponsors changed her topic at the last minute.

Extemporaneously, she spoke about her flight exploits, which include the setting of speed, altitude and distance records in a light plane. When the talk was over, listeners applauded and agreed "it was just like a private chat."

The vivacious, affable Astronaut (perhaps Astronauta) admits that flying always put stars in her eyes. But until recent developments, her nights were confined to the earth's atmosphere.

Now she's ready to share a space capsule and fame with an Astronaut, and predicts:

"Men and women will eventually make space flights together. While she lives and breathes flying, she says:

"Flying is not work to me—it's like a holiday all the time."

Her holiday mood does not tolerate reckless courage or devil-may-care tactics, however. Hers is a serious, dedicated way of life. She wears a religious medal on a chain around her neck as a symbol of her faith.

Jerrie began her flight training in Oklahoma under her father's guidance; he's Air Force Lt. Col. (ret.) William H. Cobb. She earned her CAA private pilot license on her 16th birthday and a commercial and instructor's license at 18.

Although speed and altitude records frequently were her targets as a pilot of propeller aircraft, she piloted a jet airplane for the first time last year during a visit to Tyndall Air Force Base, Fla.

"We (an Air Force pilot was aboard) climbed to 46,000 feet and passed through the sound barrier. After 16 years of flying, this was the highest and fastest I had ever flown."

In her present civilian position as executive pilot for Aero Design and Engineering Co. in Bethany, Okla., she constantly is on the move in the twin-engine executive type plane which the firm manufactures.

But now, Jerrie Cobb seeks a higher goal; she's shooting for the moon. "I'd want to do it even if I didn't come back."

LADY ASTRONAUT prepares for her first jet flight.

Man In Space, But No Woman In NASA Plans

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The National Aeronautics and Space Administration has the highest regard for women and can prove it.

But, a NASA spokesman said, it has never had a plan to put a woman in space, it doesn't expect to have any in the foreseeable future.

Any story you may have read or heard to the effect that NASA is selecting and training girl Astronauts just isn't true, the spokesman said.

He hastened to add that the fact that men only figure in NASA's space travel plans does not mean the agency is afflicted with sex bigotry or prejudice.

He and other NASA officials expressed belief that women someday will ride spacecraft into orbit around the earth or on missions to the moon or planets. But that day lies in the unknowable future.

"The most recently publicized 'girl astronaut' was Jerrie Cobb, 29, of Oklahoma. She went through many of the toughest tests at the Lovelace Foundation in Albuquerque, N.M., where the seven Mercury Astronauts had taken

REAL MEAN THIEF
CHARLES CITY, Iowa (UPI)—A burglar added insult to injury Wednesday when he stole $6 from the Floyd County Democratic party headquarters, then painted the name "Nixon" in two-foot-high letters across the front of the building.

UNEXPECTED WINDFALL
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)—Mrs. Ruth Alexander, 27, was caught one name short Wednesday in the maternity ward at Doctors Hospital.

She had chosen the name Karen for a girl, and a girl was born. But Mrs. Alexander was still caught off guard, with no name for a third child, a girl.

"We had no idea we would have triplets," said Mrs. Alexander. "We didn't even expect twins!"

physical and psychological examinations.

By all reports, she did fine, and the foundation's director, Dr. W. Randolph Lovelace, said she was qualified to be an Astronaut.

A national magazine called her the first U.S. lady Astronaut. It said she might ride a rocket into space in late 1962.

If she does, it won't be a NASA rocket, and NASA is the only U.S. agency that has scheduled any rocket-riding in the next few years.

Lodge Greeted At San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO (UPI)—Republican vice presidential nominee Henry Cabot Lodge and his wife Emily were welcomed to Texas today by about 300 persons at the San Antonio International Airport.

Mayor J. Edwin Kuykendall made Lodge an honorary "alcalde" or mayor of the historic Alamo City. The former U.N. ambassador was also given a Texas 10-gallon hat.

Lodge, who arrived at 11:30 a.m., was to go to the Alamo to lay a wreath on the site of the historic Texas battle of 1836 and speak later at the Alamo.

Texas Woman Wins Cake Prize

WASHINGTON (UPI)— Mrs. Bertha Campbell of San Benito,

Tex., won $1,000 Tuesday for her original recipe for toasted butter pecan cake at the 12th annual National Bake-Off, sponsored by Pillsbury Co.
