City Postpones Rate Hike Talk

The City Commission today tabled the municipal lighting request of Southwestern Public Service Co. until its next meeting, which will be held Tuesday, Oct. 11.

The meeting was moved up today from next Tuesday's regular meeting date to permit the commissioners and Mayor Ed Myatt to attend the Texas Municipal League convention at Galveston, Sunday through Tuesday.

Lyons told the commission that a number of prominent factors brought about the request. He pointed to cost for materials, labor, and fuel, and told the commission that replacement of various items also played a major part in bringing about the requested increase that will, if approved at 8.4 mills over the present rate of 6 mills, cost the city about $15,000 to $16,000 more a year.

This was determined by figuring the August bill, (less mercury vapor lights, which are not included in the proposal) of $2,983.20 against the 2.4 per cent increase sought. This showed the city would pay $1,193.28 more on the month.

There was much talk about the proposed fuel cost adjustment which places the request at 40 per cent. Mayor Ed Myatt was dead set against the adjustment. He said he would be willing to go along with the 1.8 per cent rate increase requested but, "I just can't see the fuel cost adjustment."

"Well, would you go for 8.4 per cent then?" said Lyons.

The mayor shook his head in the negative. During the talks about costs today against costs of 1940, when the city entered into the lighting pact with the utility, Commissioner Hershel V. Wilks said, "If there is one product that can be sold today at the 1940 price it's electricity."

Lyons readied a reply, but other (See POSTPONES, Page 3)

Khrushchev Summons 20 Leaders

Seeks Support For Proposals

By HENRY SHAPIRO United Press International Nikita Khrushchev has summoned 20 heads of state to a 1:15 p.m. "summit conference" at Soviet headquarters today, the police department disclosed.

There was no immediate explanation of the sudden meeting but Khrushchev has met with most of the leaders in an effort to line up support for his disarmament, African and other policies.

The invitation did not include British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan who had a two-hour talk with Khrushchev Thursday night, Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah who met with Khrushchev for 70 minutes or Canadian Premier John Diefenbaker.

Among those invited were Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser, Indian Premier Jawaharlal Nehru, Yugoslav President Tito and Indonesian President Sukarno.

Khrushchev already has served dramatic notice that uppermost in his mind is the U2 spy plane incident and the dread of being spied upon. He has inserted this into almost every major statement he has made.

Khrushchev rose to his feet in the United Nations General Assembly Thursday roaring about the U2 incident having smashed the Paris summit conference last May. And in a bizarre sidewalk press conference in a chill drizzle Thursday night he revealed that a Russian recently was shot on charges of spying for the United States.

Citing U2 flier Francis Gary Powers, sentenced to 10 years in captivity by a Soviet military court, the Soviet premier said: "We have dealt very leniently with Powers."

Leadership Banquet Set By Key Club

The second annual Leadership Banquet of the Pampa Key Club will be held tomorrow night in the high school cafeteria at 7 p.m.

Speaker for the occasion will be D. E. Scott of Wellington. The event is designed to honor youth leaders of the community and schools. A "leader of the year" award will be presented to the person, in the opinion of a selection committee, thought to have put forth the best qualities of a good leader.

Banquet committee chairmen are: Stan Michno, awards; Bill Don Eads, food and house; Wayne Denison, tickets; Mike Palmer, invitations. President of the Key Club is Bill Byerly.

Red Nations Examine Peiping, Moscow Tiff

By K. C. THALER United Press International LONDON (UPI) - Communist nations have set up a high court of inquiry to examine the conflict between the Soviet Union and Communist China. Iron Curtain sources disclosed today.

The sources said its findings may either mend or break completely the ideological split between Peiping and the rest of the Communist world.

They said the investigating commission - a sort of Communist world high court - is comprised of top representatives of the Red camp, including renegade Yugoslavians.

The Moscow representative is no less than chief theoretician MOVING? See or call Harris Transfer, 309 Bradley Drive, MO 5-5006 or 5-3405. Adv.

Mikhail Suslov, a member of the Soviet Communist Party Presidium and one of the top Kremlin leaders. The court is to report its findings to a Communist summit meeting Nov. 7, in Moscow and recommend whether the Moscow or Peiping policy line is to prevail.

The outcome may be a compromise of some sort, but if the Moscow summit fails to reach a settlement the Red camp may formally agree to disagree, the sources said.

This would be tantamount to an official ideological break in the Communist world.

At least some of the East European Communists now appear to want to publicize the existence of the Sino-Russian trouble, possibly to prepare public opinion for an open split.

Castro Claims His Fight Not With U.S. Citizens

HAVANA (UPI)—Premier Fidel Castro said today the U.S. State Department's "strong advice" to American citizens to leave Cuba is part of "an insidious campaign" against his government.

"Castro, in an unscheduled, mid-night television appearance, said 'American citizens who are here and who come here to visit will have no problems with the revolutionary government.'"

"The (American) citizens are not to blame for the errors of the United States government. The call for Americans to return to their country only serves to bother the (American) families who live here...who reside here by choice."

Castro showed up unexpectedly shortly after midnight on a panel-type show televised by CMQ, a station recently seized by his government. A number of Cuban newsmen and radio commentators who accompanied Castro to New York reviewed their trip.

The premier, in an apparent explanation for the arrest and subsequent expulsion of several members of the U.S. embassy staff here in recent weeks, said: "In the Yankee embassy, they have been conspiring against Cuba. We cannot permit acts of espionage in our countries. There have been several cases of espionage by American citizens. They (the American government) would like us to let the spies continue working here. Officials of the embassy here have been plotting."

ment strained relations between Cuba and the United States almost to the breaking point.

Castro declined to comment on the note and said, "notes" from the embassy are now routine things. They do not merit any comment."

Americans by the dozen, heading "strong advice" from the State Department to get out of this Caribbean island, jammed airline offices seeking passage home.

Foreign Office sources said the note—believed to be a protest against the Castro regime's seizure of three American banks—was "energetically" rejected because it "violated the most elementary rules and principles of diplomacy."

Cuba's official press and radio were bitterly critical of the State Department warning, describing it as a "provocation" and an "aggression" against Cuba.

(Informed sources in New York said the State Department thinks Castro intends to start big trouble, perhaps by attacking the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo or by aggravated mistreatment of the Americans still in Cuba.)

(There was speculation that such an act might be intended to direct attention from growing resistance in central Cuba, where an estimated 11,000 soldiers and militiamen are said to be trying to hunt down anti-Castro guerrillas in the hills. (Unconfirmed reports said 45 of Castro's militiamen were killed on Wednesday alone in clashes with the guerrillas.)

Huddle Set By Ike And Macmillan

To Discuss K's Behavior At U.N.

By JACK V. FOX United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI) - British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan will fly to Washington for a weekend conference with President Eisenhower on the roughhouse tactics of Nikita Khrushchev at the United Nations, it was disclosed today.

Macmillan will go to Washington Saturday afternoon and return to New York Sunday evening.

The prime minister held a two-man summit meeting with Khrushchev Thursday night that lasted for more than two hours and ended in what appeared to be a complete deadlock between East and West.

Khrushchev and Macmillan did agree to "think over" the major problems they discussed and to meet again.

Macmillan, who will be accompanied to Washington by British Foreign Secretary Lord Home, was expected to discuss in detail his conversation with Khrushchev and to coordinate Anglo-American strategy for the remainder of the United Nations sessions.

There was no thought of an attempt by Macmillan to bring Eisenhower and Khrushchev together.

The suave, silver-haired British leader did not appear on the surface to have been upset by Thursday's shouting, table-thumping interruptions by Khrushchev during Macmillan's U. N. address.

But he was grave and emerged without a word after his conference with Khrushchev.

Family Of Five Blast Victims

MARSHALL, Mich. (UPI) - A family of five was presumed wiped out early today when an explosion and fire completely destroyed their two-story farmhouse near this Central Michigan community.

Delmar Brown, his wife, and their three children were inside the building, but only one body was recovered—that of Brown's youngest daughter, Sally, 1½.

She was apparently blown into the front yard by the force of the explosion, caused either by a faulty oil furnace or by a faulty water heater.

Indonesian President To Offer Suggestion

By BRUCE W. MUNN United Press International

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) - Small nations today joined a mushrooming campaign fostered by Russia to move the United Nations out of New York to a "friendlier" city, preferably abroad. Neutralist President Sukarno of Indonesia intends to demand removal of the world organization in his major address to the General Assembly this afternoon, it was reported. Saudi Arabia favored the idea of moving, which was raised last week by Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

Khrushchev suggested Geneva or some other "neutral" city as a site, leaving a still-expanding $100 million property here. The Ford Foundation currently is building a new $6.2 million U.N. library. The United States contributes 33 per cent of the operating costs. Russia gives 13 per cent.

The issue was one of several, including possible final action on a seat for Red China, that promised a weekend of diplomatic fireworks.

It appeared another critical issue - the Congo - would come up today when Belgian Foreign Minister Pierre Wigny delivers an afternoon address to the assembly and its 15 new African states. His last appearance was met by a walkout of some Africans who denounced Belgian tactics in the Congo crisis.

The 98-nation world parliament, most of its members still shocked by Khrushchev's heckling Thursday of British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and saddened by their failure to agree at a private meeting, appeared headed for a showdown on the issue of where to meet.

Supposed'ta? No, Gotta!

Mayor Ed Myatt today received legal advice consisting of one word from City Attorney Robert F. Gordon when he queried Gordon about ordinance readings. "Do I have to read this thing?" asked the mayor.

"You're supposed to," replied Gordon.

"Supposed or gotta," asked Myatt.

"Gotta," declared the city attorney.

And with that the mayor solemnly read city ordinances concerning the city budget for 1960-61 and the $1.50 tax rate ordinance to legally place them into operation in New York as a good reason for getting out.

U.S. Hands New Blow To Economy Of Cuba

WASHINGTON (UPI) - The United States aimed a new economic blow at Cuba today by closing its 110 million Nicaraguan nickel plant there and considering export controls like those on Russia and Red satellites.

The State Department announced Thursday night that the U.S. government-owned Nicaro plant in Oriente Province would be closed down by Saturday because of what it termed "confiscatory taxes and harassment" by the Castro regime.

The Cuba government had delivered an ultimatum that after last Saturday no nickel could be shipped from the plant unless special taxes were paid. Thousands of tons of refined ore piled up because the United States refused to pay the levy.

Cuba let some of the strategic nickel go through but for a time imposed an embargo on all shipments from the plant, the State Department said.

The department said the Cuban taxes violated international agreements and this country has "reluctantly concluded it has no alternative but to close the plant."

Mystery Man Not Bormann, Say Officials

BUENOS AIRES (UPI) - Interior Minister Alfredo Vitolo said early today it appears certain the one-armed German arrested last week is not Martin Bormann, that he may be some other important Nazi figure.

Vitolo said he hopes to determine definitely today whether the suspect is 48-year-old Walter Flegel as his identity card says he is.

The Argentina official said "all the available evidence" contradicts the theory that Flegel actually is Bormann, the wartime Hitler deputy who was officially declared dead six years ago.

He said Flegel's body measurements do not tally with Bormann's, while his papers say he is 12 years younger than Bormann would be if he were still alive.

Vitolo added, however, that authorities here are checking "discrepancies" in Flegel's story which may prove that he is a major Nazi fugitive.

One major question that remained unanswered was exactly how Flegel lost his right arm.

Put Aside Personal Grief To Campaign

Nixon Given Strong Boost By Chief Executive

CHICAGO (UPI) - President Eisenhower flies to Denver today to attend his mother-in-law's funeral.

Eisenhower gave Vice President Richard M. Nixon his biggest endorsement Thursday night by describing him as the man best prepared to enter the White House.

The Chief Executive hailed the vice president as a man of vast diplomatic and Cabinet-level experience in apparent contrast to his Democratic rival, Sen. John F. Kennedy.

aside his personal sorrow at the death of Mrs. Eisenhower's mother - Mrs. Elvira S. Doud - to laud Nixon in his first major political speech of the 1960 campaign.

He planned to discuss foreign policy briefly today at a Polish-American Congress convention before departing by jet plane for Denver to attend funeral services for Mrs. Doud.

He was scheduled to return to Washington by jet after the services.

The President attempted to correct any impressions that he downgraded Nixon's contribution to the Eisenhower administration in a speech to a Republican fundraising dinner here.

Democrats have been making political capital out of a presidential news conference comment that it might take him a week to think of any decision Nixon made on a key policy matter.

character, patience and sound judgment so essential for effective leadership in the troubled world of tomorrow."

In a thinly veiled slam at Kennedy, the President added that Nixon was not a man "intimidated by selfish pressure groups at home nor tyrants abroad."

Eisenhower pounded his table in approval when Nixon, speaking over closed-circuit TV at a GOP rally in Boston, said that Americans were not likely to vote for Kennedy because his party was the same one that created a "mess in Washington a decade ago."

Too Much Harmony?

Political Campaign Songs Hit A Flat Note

By GABE KAIMOWITZ
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

OYSTER BAY, N.Y. (NEA) — The Old campaign song ain't what it used to be (sung to the tune of the "Old Gray Mare").

In the days when politicians were politicians, songs like "Old Abe Lincoln Came Out of the Wilderness" or "Happy Days Are Here Again" would have brought the crowds to rally round the party flags.

But nowadays, 10 Rolls-Royces, seven press agents and a full bred opera singer are needed to call to arms a weather-beaten crowd of Congressmen, reporters and advertising agents for a political songfest.

The crowd was taken in the fancy hired British limousines by the press agents to Teddy Roosevelt's home on Long Island to hear the 12 "greatest presidential campaign songs in American history." Among the judges were Metropolitan Opera star Robert Merrill and musicologist Sigmund Spaeth.

And they heard nary a political (strangely enough, "Happy Days" cal song dated beyond 1932 (strangely enough, "Happy Days" was passed over in favor of something called FDR's "Grand March").

One press agent gave this politico-musical commentary:

"In the old days, the songs slugged away at everything from an opposing presidential candidate's virility (Martin Van Buren) to his drinking habits (Ulysses S. Grant).

"When we made a record all for a radio broadcast, we had bum and recorded the songs for a radio broadcast, we had to censor as many as half the verses of some of the old songs."

Today, at campaign headquarters for Richard M. Nixon in Washington, there is a song "everybody likes but we don't know if it's dignified enough to be considered official."

It's "Go Vote for Nixon-Lodge," which is played to a boisterous Dixieland beat. The lyrics were written by Gilbert S. Watson.

What was Watson doing in the Elementary, Writing "Madly for Adlai."

Neither the Nixon nor the John F. Kennedy camps have selected official campaign songs yet. In Nixon's corner, the innocuous "Here Comes Nixon" sung to the tune of "Good Night Ladies" also is popular.

Kennedy rosters, when they sing, "High Hopes," which Frank Sinatra originally sang for motion picture interests, not political ones, or "Walking Down to Washington" which happily has any tune at all.

So without a modern song to consider, four judges turned back the political clock and came up with "Little Mac," as the all-time political campaign favorite.

Oh, you must know the song: "We must beat Lincoln and Johnson too. Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah, sound the rally through the whole United States, Little Mac and Pendleton are our candidates."

Who was "Little Mac?" He was the Democratic candidate in 1864, George B. McClellan, a Civil War general who lost his political shirt to his boss, Abraham Lincoln.

Socialite Tabs
2-1 Edge In
Demo Voting

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (UPI) —

Claiborne B. Pell, a Newport socialite making his first race for the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate, ran up a 2 to 1 margin over his closest opposition in Wednesday's Democratic primary, four-time Gov. Dennis J. Roberts.

J. Howard McGrath, attorney general in the Truman administration, ran a poor third.

to oppose Republican Raoul Archambault for the Senate seat held by 82-year-old Theodore Francis Green, D-R.I. who has announced his retirement.

Pell's vigorous campaign was criticized by both his opponents as one of "ballrooms, bumper stickers and balloons" but it paid off for the handsome political newcomer whose father was U.S. minister to Portugal and Hungary. Unofficial returns from all of the state's 358 precincts were: Pell, 83,595; Roberts 45,096 and McGrath, 7,580.

MUSICOLOGIST Sigmund Spaeth regards "Tip (William H. Harrison) and Ty (John Tyler)," an 1840 Political song, as the best of original campaign tunes. Washington Window

WASHINGTON (UPI) — James A. Farley was easy in his mind during political campaigns if there was evidence that the Negro vote was going for his candidate.

Farley was chief engineer of the New Deal political machine created by Franklin D. Roosevelt. He estimated that the Negro vote was the balance of power between the major parties in 17 substantially industrial states outside the South.

Political managers in this presidential campaign go along with Farley's-estimated of the strategic importance of Negro voters. A shift of Negro voters from the party of Abraham Lincoln to the party of Roosevelt was basic in 1936 when FDR won all states but two, Maine and Vermont. The Democrats' congressional victory was equally impressive.

Roosevelt and the Democrats would have lost the 1944 election but for the Negro vote. Political statisticians here calculated that Negro voters determined the 1944 winner in 10 states—New York, Pennsylvania, Missouri, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, West Virginia, Kentucky, New Jersey and Ohio.

Negro votes are likely to be equally decisive this year if the politicians are correct in their belief that this will be an unusually close election. A bloc vote becomes a decisive balance-of-power vote only in close elections. The farm vote used to get the most attention. The Negro vote gets the most attention now, at least in terms of platform promises.

There is not much the politicians could have promised Negro voters this year, which is not pledged in one or both of the major party platforms. The suspicion that more has been promised than can be delivered is inescapable. The parties are committed, however, and an effort will be made.

There is not a great deal of difference between the platform promises of the Democrats and Republicans. The differences mostly are in degree of emphasis or in the extent to which the planks are specific.

Negroes numbered more than 15 million in the 1950 census. The Negro vote is concentrated in large states which cast a substantial electoral vote. The Negro vote is tomorrow's political powerhouse, and on the order of nuclear power to boot. Only in a close election, however, may such a bloc obtain full impact.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People checked the 1952 Negro vote in 30 cities. The survey indicated that about 75 per cent of Negroes voted for Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic candidate. He was not hurt because his lead was too great in the North to be cut down even by a big minority opposition.

Two-Man Summit Meeting Is A Flop

By JACK V. FOX
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—A two-man summit meeting between Britain's Harold Macmillan and Nikita Khrushchev failed to ease today the East-West deadlock, reinforcing American warnings the Soviet Premier's United Nations visit would be a "washout."

Macmillan, calling at the Soviet legation Thursday night in a dismal drizzle, talked with Khrushchev for two hours and 12 minutes. Neither side gave an inch. Khrushchev did not see the British prime minister out to his car. Macmillan emerged without a word. His face was taut.

A British Foreign Office spokesman revealed the two men had made no progress on the three major problems they discussed—Berlin, disarmament or the Russian call for dismissal of U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld. "Each side expressed its views and held to them," the spokesman said.

American U.N. Ambassador James Wadsworth said earlier this week that unless Khrushchev showed some reasonableness his visit would be useless and the sooner he went home the better.

At the Khrushchev-Macmillan meeting: —Agreement was reached on one thing. Khrushchev will repay Macmillan's visit early next week. Meantime they will think over their differences. —The question of President Eisenhower seeing Khrushchev was not discussed. —Macmillan will stay here longer than he originally intended. He may see Eisenhower again before he returns to London.

Just before Macmillan arrived at the Soviet headquarters residence, Khrushchev came out under an umbrella and compared Macmillan with Neville Chamberlain, the World War II prime minister who has been blamed for appeasing Hitler. Khrushchev said Macmillan was taking a similar role with German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

The Foreign Office spokesman was asked whether Macmillan was aware that Khrushchev had characterized him as a "Chamberlain."

"I am not aware that Mr. Macmillan was aware, but in our country the Chamberlains are very distinguished people."

Who To Believe Is Question Now Bothering Voters

By United Press International

Voters trying to judge which presidential candidate is best qualified to lead the nation were caught today in a bewildering cross-fire of praise and disparagement.

President Eisenhower gave this ringing endorsement Thursday night to Republican White House hopeful Richard M. Nixon:

"His counsel has been invaluable to me. He is dedicated, decisive, persistent in pursuing new ways for improving government and a man possessed of the character, patience and sound judgment so essential for effective leadership in the troubled world of tomorrow."

The Chief Executive threw this jibe at Democratic nominee John F. Kennedy: "Leadership is not a mere whirling across the public stage in a burst of glib oratory. We don't want leadership that has a stultifying preoccupation with our faults."

But the Democrats saw it differently. Kennedy told a fund-raising banquet in Syracuse, N.Y. Thursday night that Nixon had an opportunity on his foreign trips to study long-range problems of various areas and then see to it that the administration carried out his recommendations.

But, the Democrat said, the vice president failed to produce plans that might have staved off later troubles in Cuba, Laos, India, Japan, Poland and other countries he visited.

Kennedy was scornful of Nixon's 1950 "kitchen debate" with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in Moscow. "Standing up to Mr. Khrushchev is not enough," he declared.

ius and Ethel) Rosenbergs. You electrocuted them and they did not even admit their guilt."

He was asked about Soviet Army Col. Rudolf Ivanovich Abel, serving a prison term in the United States as a Russian spy.

"That's different," said Khrushchev. "There are spies and there always will be spies. Why, we shot one of our own men only two weeks ago who was spying for your government."

But he made it clear spying was to be done on the ground—no planes over Russian territories.

"It is one thing for a spy to work in a country and another thing for a state to claim the right to fly over other countries," he said. "That is war."

Was Nixon Sabotaged By TV Makeup Man?

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Chicago Daily News says "numerous complaints" about Vice President Richard M. Nixon's facial appearance on TV Monday night have led to a full scale probe to find out who was in charge of his make-up.

In a copyrighted story, the Daily News said two authorized make-up artists who were supposed to have had a hand in the job denied they had worked on the GOP presidential nominee before his TV encounter with Democratic nominee John F. Kennedy.

Syd Simon, make-up artist who was in the studio on a stand-by basis, said a man carrying a case walked into the studio before the broadcast and maintained he was the make-up man. But Simon did not know his name, the Daily News said.

"We all say a Democratic make-up artist made him up," the Daily News quoted John Hall, business agent of the make-up and hair stylist union's New York local.

New Adult Choir To Sing Sunday

The newly reorganized Adult Choir of St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Church will sing its first High Mass of the season Sunday at 11 a.m. The choir will be under the direction of Tracy D. Cary, who was appointed music director for the church last week in an announcement by the pastor, the Rev. Edward Cashman, C.M.

Using the liturgy for the seventeenth Sunday after Pentecost, the choir will sing a setting of the Mass by Charles Gounod. The offertory will be the 14th century motet, "Soul of My Saviour" by Maher. "Adoro Te Devote" written by St. Thomas Aquinas in the year 1274 will be sung in the fifth Gregorian mode during Holy Communion.

Mrs. Jack Edwards will be at the organ for the service.

Business Women's Week Proclaimed

The week of Oct. 2 through 8 has been declared "National Business Women's Week" in Pampa in a proclamation signed yesterday by Mayor Ed Myatt.

The Pampa Business & Professional Women's Club is sponsoring the event locally. The week is noted nationally by the National Federation of Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., and is set aside to pay tribute to women in business and the professions and the contributions they make to the nation. The theme of "National Business Women's Week" is "Symbol of the Sixties — More Women at Work."

queries steered from that track.

The commission rounded out the meeting with the third and final readings of ordinances on the new city budget and the new tax rate approving the return of checks for paving to seven residents of N. Christy street, since other residents of the block did not agree to pay their portion of the paving costs, and declaring void tax assessments and several firms who were formerly in the city, but who had moved from Pampa before their names were stricken from the tax roster.

This last is a legal step to clear the delinquent tax rolls. These firms moved from Pampa in the latter stages of 1950, 1954 and 1955, and they were billed in double assessment before they were removed from the tax list. The stricken amount totaled $489.41.

When asked about production costs, Lyons said that depends on the plant, noting it costs less with newer facilities. And to this Mayor Myatt replied, "Then Pampa, in a sense, is being penalized when you use older power plants."

Lyons then noted that certain older facilities are no longer in use. One thing was made clear: Pampa has far more street lighting facilities than does Borger. This was brought about when Commissioner Wilks discussed Pampa's street lighting as compared to Borger.

Lyons, in agreeing, also pointed out that Borger pays almost four times as much for city lighting service than does Pampa.

"I'll agree we have far better lights than Borger," said Wilks. As the dickering back and forth progressed, it became apparent that the commission didn't want the fuel cost adjustment clause attached. And when the discussion swung back to the debated clause, Lyons dropped his 8.4 mills request to 8 mills, or about a 35 per cent.

This was the first time he had offered to accept less. But it still wasn't enough for the mayor. Lyons asked the mayor if he would give Lyons his opinion on a solution and Myatt said, "Yes I will."

"I'll go along with the 1.8 mill hike to 7.8 mills and abolish the fuel cost adjustment clause," said the mayor.

"I'd still like 8 mills," Lyons stated. And that was just about the sum of the problem when the commission decided to table the request. But they advised Lyons that he will receive a definite answer at the Oct. 11 meeting.

Macmillan arrived a few minutes later for his meeting with Khrushchev and dashed into the building—without an umbrella.

Said a British spokesman afterward: "I am not aware that Mr. Macmillan was aware (of Khrushchev's comparison with Chamberlain), but in our country the Chamberlains are very distinguished people."

GOP Unit Forms To Support JFK

A "Republicans for Kennedy" move has been established at Canadian, and the organizational meeting last week drew some 75 persons.

The movement was formed by people who believe the policies of Richard M. Nixon, presidential candidate of the Republican party, have the "backward look" as that, they said, of the "Eisenhower administration."

Furman Williams, a Panhandle Democrat, was named chairman of the steering committee. Williams, in accepting the post, said he would leave policy matters to officers who will be elected in a meeting to be held in the near future.

Dear Abby... Wedding Invitation Calls For "Clean-Up"

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I just received a letter from my sister telling me her son is marrying a high-class girl in November and a formal wedding invitation will follow. We have a brother, Charlie, who lives on a farm. Charlie's wife works the soil and runs the tractor like a man. She is a good woman but she doesn't go to beauty parlors and keep herself up like some women who have more time. My sister said she was counting on me to see to it that Charlie gets a haircut for the wedding and his wife washes herself up real good and dresses right. I am Mrs. Warren Pickens, James Price, Charles Vignal, Emery Vignal, J. L. Yokley, and Miss Daisy Childers.

no good at getting so personal with people. How can I handle this?
CITY SISTER: Write your sister and tell her if she wants to be sure all the relatives clean up for her wedding she should do her own dirty work.
DEAR ABBY: My daughter went to a dance with a girl friend, but they didn't come home together. They each met a boy at the dance and hooked rides home that way. My daughter got home at 1:30 A.M., as she said she would. Her girl friend got home at 5:30 A.M. She lied to her mother and said she was with my daughter all that time. Should I tell the girl's mother? My daughter is 19 and her friend is 18.
DEAR CONCERNED: If YOUR daughter had stayed out until 5:30 A.M. with a fellow she met at a dance, wouldn't you want to know? "Do unto other..."
DEAR ABBY: Before my wife and I were married she was the most affectionate little thing in the world. We have been married only two years and now every time I go to kiss her she tells me I need a shave. What do you think is the matter with her?
NEEDS LOVE
DEAR NEEDS: The matter with HER? Maybe you just need a shave.
For Abby's pamphlet, "What Teen-agers Want To Know," send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope in care of this paper.
Shelves are always needed. If you put up a new one, coat the wood immediately with a thin coat of fresh, white shellac. That will keep dirt from working into the wood. Later you can decide on a final finish.

INFORMAL — It wasn't that there weren't enough chairs, it was just that B. F. Mitchell preferred having refreshments in this informal fashion rather than precariously balancing a coffee cup on his knee. Mr. Mitchell was winner of one of the door prizes. Other winners were Mrs. Elsie Densmore and Mrs. Desso Bramley. (Daily News Photo)

Polly's Quiz

Dear Polly: I'm getting ready to paint my eight-year-old daughter's room. I plan to use gray for walls and woodwork. She has a pink and black floral spread, pink ruffle and I expect to buy pink cafe curtains. What color shall I paint her desk and chest?
DEAR MRS. R. R. P.: Gray seems a bit odd for a little girl's room. White walls and woodwork would be prettier. Paint her furniture white, too. But if you insist on gray walls, use white curtains trimmed with giant pink rickrack and for fun, paint the two pieces of the furniture pink.
Dear Mrs. W. J. T.: I'm glad you enjoy reading this column in spite of your feeling that I recommended an "icky mess" to another reader. Difference of opinion keeps things interesting. You say that you speak with authority but when you talk of your "opulent" color scheme of sandalwood, Wedgwood blue and purple, I don't hear a thing.

Channel To Lecture At Lubbock Christian College

Jay Channel, minister of the Mary Ellen-Harvester Church of Christ, will be among the speakers for the Lubbock Christian College Lectureship, which begins Sunday evening and continues through Wednesday.

Channel will address the assemblage of the lectureship Tuesday afternoon. His topic will be "Never Failing Love."

All evening sessions of this fourth annual event will be held at 8 o'clock in the Municipal Auditorium of the Texas Tech campus. Talks, reports, classes and discussions will be conducted on the LCC campus during the mornings and afternoons.

Jimmy Wood, minister of the Northside Church of Christ, Odessa, will speak Sunday evening on "The Living Christ." Speaker for

Drama To Explore Moral Theology

The "grey zone" where human passions meet the mind will be explored dramatically on CBS-TV Network's Lamp unto My Feet program, Sunday, Oct. 9, at 10 a.m. (EDT). The program is produced by CBS Public Affairs in co-operation with the National Council of Catholic Men.

Following the dramatization, Paulist Fr. George Hagmaier, co-author of the best-selling book, "Counseling the Catholic," will discuss problems of psychology and Christian moral theology with Dr. George Crothers, the program's moderator. Fr. Hagmaier's book has created wide interest for its scientific and humane synthesis of the findings of modern experimental psychology and the traditional moral teachings of the church.

The opening playlet is usual in that it treats frankly the difference of opinion which prevails among the clergy as to the validity of the psychological approach to "many perennial moral problems."

Lamp Unto My Feet is carried on a delayed basis in some areas. Viewers should consult local newspapers for date and time of broadcast.

A special feature of this year's lectureship will be reports by missionaries on their work in foreign countries. Women are invited to hear reports given by wives of missionaries. The daily chapel period at 9:30 in the LCC auditorium will also feature outstanding speakers and will be open to the public.

A dinner will be held for church leaders from 5 to 7 p.m. in Tuesday in the LCC cafeteria with Hugo McCord of Oklahoma Christian College, speaker.

College Course On Jesus' Life Is Attracting Large Audiences

By LOUIS CASSELS
United Press International

There are, apparently, a good many people in America whose attitude toward Jesus Christ is summed up in the words: "I want to believe, but I can't."

These honest doubters may find an answer to their dilemma in a remarkable television program which has attracted a large audience in the nation's capital and which will soon be available on film for broadcast in other communities.

The program is a college course in the life and teaching of Jesus. It is taught by Dr. Edward W. Bauman, brilliant young theology professor at American University.

The course is not a one-sided presentation of arguments in support of orthodox Christian doctrines. It is, in Dr. Bauman's words, "an open-minded look at all the evidence" concerning Jesus, what he did and said, and his impact on history.

The New Testament scriptures are used as source material, but Dr. Bauman does not ask his television students to accept them on faith as an infallible authority. On the contrary, he takes full cognizance of all the theories and interpretations advanced by modern Biblical criticism. Where serious differences of opinion exist, he gives all viewpoints fairly and fully. He also deals extensively with non-Biblical materials, such as the Dead Sea Scrolls and other archaeological discoveries.

Dr. Bauman's willingness to let the chips fall where they may stems from a deep conviction that Christians "have nothing to fear from an honest search for truth."

"We are not trying in this course to tell anyone that he 'should' believe in Jesus," he says. "Our only objective is to help the serious inquirer discover for himself that he can believe in Jesus — and accept all of the essential affirmations of the Christian faith — without any sacrifice of intellectual integrity."

Dr. Bauman has been conducting his extraordinary adult religion class since the fall of 1958, under the joint sponsorship of American University and the National Capital Area Council of Churches. The broadcast time — an hour each Saturday morning — is provided free by commercial television station WMAL-TV.

A man and a woman both members of Methodist or Methodist-related churches, have been named to Cabinet positions in their respective countries, Korea and Japan. Both are graduates of Methodist universities in the United States.

Mrs. Masa Nakayama, a member of the United Church of Christ of Japan, has been appointed Welfare Minister in the Cabinet of the Japanese Prime Minister, Hayato Ikeda. Methodism is a part of the United Church. Dr. Il Hyung Chung, an active leader in the Korean Methodist Church, has been appointed Minister of Foreign Affairs in the new Government of the Second Korean Republic. Mrs. Nakayama is the first woman to serve as a Cabinet minister in Japan. She is a graduate of Kwasui Girls' High School and Methodist College, one of the oldest Junior-College-related schools in Japan and one that is supported financially by the Woman's Division of Christian Service of the Methodist Board of Missions. She is also a graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware. She has served six terms in the Japanese House of Representatives and been Welfare vice-minister and chief of the women's department of the Liberal-Democratic Party.

Establishment of two new bureaus, one for personnel and training, the other for research studies and program resources, by the National Board of the Young Women's Christian Association of the U.S.A. has been announced by Miss Lilace Reid Barnes, national president. This new plan of operation coordinates certain services of the National Board to the more than 1900 units of YWCA work across the country. # Battle-Ready Harvesters, Tascosa Collide In Opening 3-4A Contest

Baylor, Tigers Tangle

By United Press International
This is one weekend when every team in the Southwest Conference is rooting for Baylor.

It's been a long time since the conference has been able to hold up its head in Bengal country, and the Bruins and a Bull figure it's time to stop this nonsense.

The game Saturday night between Baylor and Louisiana State at Baton Rouge for all practical purposes is rated a tossup. Louisiana State will have to stop a pair of the fastest backs it will face all season in Ronnie Bull and Ronnie Goodwin.

And for Baylor, it means facing one of the toughest defensive teams in the nation—at the moment rated third. The Bengal line is led by guards Ed McCreedy and Roy Winston and averages 215 from tackle to tackle.

In the opening game of 1957, Rice beat LSU 20-14. But since then Paul Dietzel's storm troopers from the Cajun country have clubbed Rice twice, 25-6 and 26-3, then beat Texas Christian 10-9 and Baylor 22-0 last year, and opened this season blanketing Texas A&M 9-0.

There's another whammy the Bruins must face. The Bengals haven't been beaten in Baton Rouge since 1937, and further have given up only one touchdown in that time.

Texas Tech wound up its drills for Texas with more goal line defense and Coach DeWitt Weaver said the squad would be hurt in the game because his top pass defender—halfback Dan Gurley—is definitely out with a sprained ankle that isn't responding properly to treatment.

Texas will be in top shape, too. Coach Darrell Royal said, and tapered off drills Thursday with attention to the aerial attack. He said there would be no changes in the starting lineup.

Coach Jess Neely stressed the Rice kicking game in light drills as center Boyd King and halfback Bob Way returned to duty and were pronounced able to play against Tulane. It's a game that resumes a series after 13 years, and now stands even at 6-1.

Arkansas concentrated on pass patterns for its final practice before its conference opener with TCU at Fort Worth. Coach Frank Broyles said the Porks will be able to count on the services of tackle Paul Henderson who has recovered from a leg infection, and the only quarterback missing will be junior guard Charlie Moore who could be sidelined for the season with a knee injury.

Texas A&M planned another polishing drill today for its game at San Antonio with Trinity Saturday. Fullback LeeRoy Caffey and halfback Randy Sims will definitely miss the game, Coach Jim Myers said.

Bucks Await Shamrock Invasion

Top Game Pairs Two Unbeatens

By ARTHUR MAYHEW
Daily News Sports Editor

Two high scoring football machines collide headon at 8 p.m. today in White Deer when unbeaten Shamrock (4-0) tackles the equally-unbeaten Bucks (4-0) to highlight White Deer's annual homecoming.

Shamrock's Irish have had little trouble in rolling over its four victims, running up a 33-point-per-game average while holding its opponents to a mere 6 points per contest.

Comparative scores shed little light on the game's outcome. White Deer defeated McLean, 54-6, while Shamrock won, 38-6, over the Bucks. Against before, the Tigers triumphed, 36-6, and the Irish beat the Pirates, 34-12. White Deer managed "only" a 14-0 victory over Canadian white Shamrock won, 24-0.

White Deer's other victory was over Groom, 42-6, and Shamrock toasted Wheeler, 36-6, last week for its fourth win.

Coach Colie Huffman's Class A Bucks feature a strong running game in Fullback Thomas Lester, a 165-pound senior who scored three times against McLean. White Deer's passing leaves little to be denied, also, as Quarterback Dickie Hanna and Halfback Joe Grange teamed up for three TD passes two weeks ago against Le-fors.

Up front, two players that missed the McLean game—Jimmy Lopez, 180-pound guard, and Dean Reed, 167-pound tackle—probably will return for some action tonight for the Bucks.

Shamrock, of 5-AA, will bring a terrific one-two ground punch in the forms of Halfback Jerry (The Jet) Jernigan who has scored 44 points in his first four games, and Fullback Bill McBryde, who has bulled his 190-pound frame over the goal for 30 points.

Irish Coach David Kelly, in his first year as head coach, said yesterday that White Deer is expected to be the roughest game his team has played to date.

"White Deer is at least 30 points better than any time we've played so far," Kelly said firmly.

"We expect the Bucks to fill the air with footballs against us. We've got a pretty good interior line but we've got to improve on our pass protection," he said.

"I look for the game to be a contest between a power offense (Shamrock uses a multiple offense of T and single wing) and a pass offense," Kelly concluded. But Buck Coach Huffman had a different side of the story:

"Don't let that statement fool you; Shamrock's also got a good passing offense too."

White Deer officials are looking for a sellout crowd with the news that at least 200 fans are making the trip from Shamrock for the important non-conference clash.

The probable starting lineups and weights:

Last Ditch Borger Rally Nips Rebels

BORGER — Austin Borger scored two touchdowns with less than two minutes to play yesterday to defeat Lee's ninth grader, 34-30, in a high-scoring game here.

Larry Gregory was the leading scorer for the Rebels with two touchdowns, one a 60-yard run, and a two-point conversion. Ricky Stewart racked up 10 points with a TD and a conversion and Don Rexroad scored once for Lee from 25 yards out.

Coch Lester Ramsey singled out the play of Ronnie Oler and Keith Reimer as outstanding along with the always-consistent play of Gregory and Rexroad.

Speedy Borger Downs Shockers

Harvester Field took the hue of Christmas in September last night as the green playing field was dotted with red flags while Borger's Bullpups blanked Pampa's Shockers, 26-0.

The two teams almost had to take a back seat to the officials as the men in striped shirts stepped off 140 yards on 14 penalties—115 yards of which were against Borger. At least four other penalties were refused.

Sparked by the running of A. C. Tillman, 140-pound, 5' 3" half-back, the Bullpups marked up their first score when Tillman, a speedy pint-sized version of Cleveland's Jim Brown, exploded around right end for 25 yards for the first touchdown at 6:15 of the second quarter.

After a fumble, Pampa took the ball on its own five and uncorked its longest sustained drive of the evening.

Nelson Rockwell's 33-yard gallop, a five-yard gain by Dickey Hafley and a roughing penalty moved the Pampans to Borger's 25. Two plays netted nothing, but another roughing penalty put the ball on the Bullpup's 10.

Rockwell then took a handoff on a reverse and ran over the goal, but a Pampa holding penalty nullified the play. Two passes went astray and a fumble killed the drive on Borger's 15.

Borger's Tillman racked up his second TD from four yards out at 6:55 of the third quarter. Tillman set up his own score with a 35-yard run from Pampa's 43 before being knocked out of bounds on the 8.

The Bullpups scored again in with 17 seconds left in the third period from 2 yards out and Jim Rouse wrapped up the Borger scoring for the night in the fourth quarter by bulging over from the Pampa 3 at 2:04. A Young-to-Wilson pass added the two extra points.

Pampa's Harry O'Neal was a Shocker fighter all the way. As Borger attempted to pass for its conversion after its second TD, O'Neal intercepted the throw and ran 75 yards before he was brought down. It was the longest — and best — run of the night but it didn't count because it was a conversion pass.

For Borger, Tillman was the leading rusher with 100 yards on 11 carries, almost 10 yards per trip. Pampa's leading ground gainers were Rockwell with 17 yards and Hafley with 14.

Borger's win was its second against one tie. For Pampa, it was their third straight loss. A. E. M. Game At A Glance:

Quarterbacks To Form Line

Quarterback Club members will form their regular greeting line for the Harvesters when they come back on the field for the game tonight with Tascosa which will begin at 8 p.m.

Sharon Haralson, president of the organization, also urged members to attend the Band Boosters chili supper which will be held in the high school cafeteria beginning at 5:15 p.m. and concluding in time for those attending to reach their seats in Harvester Stadium prior to game time.

"We would like to have a good turnout for this game. It is the first of the conference contests, and means much to the boys.

"Anyone can support a winner. Its the losers who need support and our boys, for their driving efforts in losing causes, deserve the resident of Pampa," said Haralson.

'Late Entry' Stalls Air Force Golf Meet

SAN ANTONIO (UPI)—A late entry—specifically a C-47 cargo plane that crash-landed on the fifth hole fairway—caused momentary confusion and a 45-minute delay in the final round of the Air Force Worldwide Golf tournament Thursday.

But T. Sgt. Rudy Spiers of Washington, D.C., maintained his early lead and finished with a four-round total of 287, one under regulation figures and good enough to win the open division title.

M. Sgt. R.T. Pritchard of Laredo, Tex., AFB won the senior division title with a 309 and Staff Sgt. Polly Chapman of Chanute, Ill., was the winner in the women's division with a three-round total of 257, 41 over par.

The tournament was held at Randolph AFB.

Five strokes back of Spiers in the open division was Airman 2.E. Edward W. Moore of Langley AFB, Va., who set a new course record with his four-under-par 68 on the final round and finished with a 292.

Maj. Fred Moseley of Trux Field, Wis., was third with a 295 and 1st Lt. Foster Bradley of Randolph AFB and M. Sgt. Harold Ridgley of Andrews, Md., placed fourth and fifth, respectively. Each shot a 297, with Bradley taking fourth place on a sudden-death playoff.

In the senior division Col. William B. Reed of Keesler AFB, Miss., took second and Col. B. J. Burkett, Columbus AFB, Miss., finished third. Both shot 316.

The eight winners in the open and senior division will represent the Air Force in next week's interservice worldwide tournament at Fort Ord, Calif.

Winner of the team title Thursday was the United Air Command foursome, with an aggregate of 1,195. There were 12 different commands vying for the team victory.

Rehm took the loss for the Colonels, of the American Association.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Hank Casey, finally a hero in his hometown after giving favored Henry Hank a boxing lesson, took over today as a top middleweight contender—ready to fight either Gene Fullmer or Paul Pender.

Winner of the rubber match with the third-ranked Henry Hank of Detroit Thursday night, Casey survived a riotous final round, in which he was pounded around the ring to win a unanimous decision.

Each fighter weighed 158 pounds. The San Francisco battler salted the victory away in the middle rounds when he found that he could hit Henry Hank with a straight right to the face just about anytime he wanted.

TORONTO (UPI)—The Toronto Maple Leafs, who knew all along they had the pitching and defense to go all the way, will have the added threat of the long ball to throw at Louisville in the third game of the Little World Series tonight.

The Leafs, representing the International League, banded out 16 hits, including three home runs, to trounce the Colonels, 10-1, Thursday and even their best-of-seven series at one game each.

Steve Demeter supplied most of Toronto's new-found power with two homers and a double. The third roundtripper was slugged by Jim King.

Toronto got all the runs it actually needed in the opening inning off Louisville starter Dick Rehm with three hits, a walk and a wild pitch for two runs.

Steve Ridzik went all the way for the Leafs, yielding four hits.

The separation of the men from the boys' in Class 3-4A starts tonight, and Pampa's Harvesters will be out to place Tascosa's Rebels in the boy category beginning at 7:30 at Harvester Stadium.

The Harvesters have worked hard for this one. Three consecutive days of stern practice sessions have been churned through for this one and the squad has reached its peak condition of the year as the result.

Tascosa will be favored. The Rebels have been out three times, winning one, losing two. But the losses were not by a wide margin and the victory, a surprise dumping of Odessa Permain, gives them much more prestige than the Harvesters can boast, at least at this time.

Last week's havoc, a 23-0 loss to Arlington Heights of Fort Worth in which the locals fumbled seven times and lost the ball on six of those occasions is marked off. The Harvesters, though, are rankled about that one and it could be they'll take it out on the Rebels tonight.

And that, to put it mildly, would please Coach Babe Curfman and his aides no end.

Whatever happens to the Harvesters tonight definitely hinges on the play of the willing red-head Duke Garren.

This boy, a bruising linebacker and fine center, is the key to Pampa's defense. It's true that Duke can't do the job alone. But if he's ready to go, the Rebels had best root out some real "meanies" to take care of Garren.

"Duke is our mainstay on defense," Curfman said this morning. "He's not been in top condition up to now, but the kid's ready to go full speed tonight."

Another boy who will bear writhing on defense this evening is Billy Cooper. He was switched to the defensive unit last week and Frank Luka, the Fort Worth Star Telegram's top grid scribe, said, "He's as good a linebacker as I've seen this year."

Curfman, too, was high in his praise of Cooper. He tagged Billy as being the one bright spot in the Harvesters' dismal showing, and looks for another good effort from the converted right halfback against the Rebels.

Tonight's conflict could turn into a real defensive affair. Tascosa has shown very good efforts in this department, while Pampa's attempts to stall the opposition have been spotty. When the Harvesters do turn in good defense spurts they are worthy of mention but their lapses have been costly in that they have been the prime factor in the team having a 0-3 record.

Some of this lapse comes from the fact that the Harvesters have been badly outweighed in each of these contests. And this will be the case tonight. Tascosa will field a defense unit averaging about 178 pounds, while Pampa's defenders will be lucky to top 155.

Jimmy Crouch is the only squadman on the doubtful list. He suffered a shoulder separation earlier and may not make the game.

"We aren't sure about Crouch. If he's able to play, fine. But we won't use him if there is any doubt," said Curfman.

Final World Series pitching assignments, whether sparkplug Dick Groat will be available to the Pirates and close races for the batting, home run and RBI totals will be decided on a weekend that wraps up the major league baseball season except for the World Series.

Both managers Casey Stengel of the Yankees and Danny Murtaugh of the Pirates are providing pre-Series tests for their prospective starters in the big show starting next Wednesday.

Stengel gave Whitey Ford his final outing Wednesday night and is following tonight through Sunday with Art Ditmar, Bob Turley and Ralph Terry. Murtaugh is firing Vern Law (20-8) tonight and will follow Saturday and Sunday with Bob Friend and Vinegar Bend Mizell.

Actually Murtaugh's chief concern will be the ability of Groat to swing an effective bat. The sparkplug shortstop, who hasn't had an official at bat since Sept. 6 because of a wrist injury, is in a head-to-head battle for the National League batting title with Los Angeles' Norm Larker and wants to win the title as well as get himself ready for the Series.

Larker had one hit in four tries Thursday night in the Dodgers' 4-3 loss to the St. Louis Cardinals — Thursday's only major league game — and is batting .324 compared to Groat's .325. Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants ranks third at .320.

The American League batting title also is coming down to the final series with Pete Runnels of the Boston Red Sox leading Al Smith of the Chicago White Sox, .317 to .315. Runnels, who lost out to Ted Williams on the final day of the season two years ago, winds up against the Yankees while Smith is finishing against the Cleveland Indians.

Hank Aaron and Ed Mathews RBI's apart, 120 for Aaron to 117 for Mathews.

THIS IS THE NEAR buzzer to be tested Oct. 11.

Civilian Defense Officials To Test $5 H-Bomb Raid Alarm For Home

By RAY CROMLEY
 Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Civil Defense officials think they have a little five dollar gadget that could be the difference between life and death for you if an H-bomb attack ever came. They call it NEAR, for National Emergency Alarm Repeater.

The pocket-sized alarm, a buzzer designed for use in "every" home, office and factory, will be tested on a city wide scale in Charlotte, Mich., Oct. 11.

The Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization is installing buzzers in 2,000 Charlotte homes, business buildings, schools and plants in preparation for that test.

If this alarm-buzzer works as expected, it could give you the few extra minutes you'd need to take cover or get to a place of says one Civil Defense man. Plans haven't been made on whether the U.S. Government or the power companies would be expected to pay the $50 million. With mass production, the buzzers would cost somewhat under five dollars. Some Civil Defense officials think the cost could be cut to 3.50. he gadget will be small, about the size of two packs of king-size cigarettes tied together. It could be moved room to room, plugged in wherever you want it, just as you plug and unplug lamps and your TV and move them from room to room at will.

The buzzer alarm gadget will need little care, Civil Defense technical men say. Each has a small light that will burn out eventually. Replacing that light will be almost as simple as replacing a bulb in a light socket.

The chief value of the home buzzer system is speed and certainty. The Conelrad warning signal takes time. Some estimate it will take 20 minutes for stations to change over. During that time there may be confusion. City and neighborhood alarms may be confusing. But there would be no mistaking one of these buzzers. One in your bedroom would be guaranteed to wake you at night with a jump.

The system may eventually be divided into networks, so that the warnings will go off only in the areas to be attacked, if the military men can tell in advance.

Major development work on the new gadget was done by the Midwest Research Institute, of Kansas City, Mo. A.C. Spark Plug produced the buzzers to be used in the Oct. 11 test. Both companies did their work under Civil Defense contracts.

Influx Of E. Germans To W. Berlin

BERLIN (UPI) — East Germans are fleeing to the West in record numbers because they fear a new Communist blockade may cut their escape routes, it was reported today.

Heinz Lonchant, director of West Berlin's Marienfelde refugee center, said new Communist pressures are forcing thousands of East Germans to cross the border.

The East German Communists began putting the squeeze on West Berlin shortly before Soviet Premier S. Khrushchev departed for the United Nations General Assembly sessions in New York. The Soviets have given the Communist East German regime control over all West Germans traveling to and within the city. But the Russians retained their control over the Western Allies in Berlin.

Lonchant said 18,000 persons fled to West Berlin last month to set a record for the year. In the first three weeks of September, the figure already has passed the 15,000 mark, he added. More than 110,000 refugees have escaped from Communist East Germany so far this year, as compared to 90,862 for all of 1950.

Congo Ruling Body In Expose Of Lumumba

By WILBUR G. LANDREY
 United Press International

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI) — President Joseph Kasavubu gave his official blessings today to a ruling high commission which accused ousted Premier Patrice Lumumba of asking Communist China and Russia for military help.

The commission, comprised of students and a handful of such intellectuals as the Congo has produced, was created by army strongman Col. Joseph Mobutu last week to act as a caretaker government.

The commission released a series of damaging documents Wednesday night as evidence that Lumumba was working hand-in-glove with the Communists and that Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah was interfering in the Congo's internal affairs on Lumumba's side.

A letter said to have been sent

Lumumba by Nkrumah Sept. 12 told how to deal with Kasavubu's "treachery" and use the United Nations for his own ends.

"Whenever in doubt, consult me, brother," the letter said. "We have been in the game for some time now and we know how to handle the imperialists and colonialists. The only colonialist or imperialist I trust is a dead one."

Mobutu has expelled all Soviet and other Communist diplomats and "technicians" from the Congo since his takeover and has demanded the United Nations withdraw both the Ghanaian and Guinean contingents from the U.N. command refused but did transfer the Ghanaian forces out of Leopoldville.

The commission announced Kasavubu had agreed to install it formally today as a caretaker government.

Husband Kills Self After Murdering Wife

JACKSONVILLE, Tex. (UPI)—A man accused of killing his wife in a hail of bullets shot and fatally wounded himself this week as police battered down the door of his home.

The murder-suicide of Clyde Jewell Sherman, 30, and his wife, Betty Lou, 29, left their three young daughters, aged 7, 8 and 9, orphans.

Police said Sherman and his wife had been having marital difficulties, and she left him two weeks ago and moved in with her mother, who also lives in Jacksonville. She took the children with her.

Wednesday night, Mrs. Sherman was driving with her sister, Mrs. Lola McDaniel, when they noticed Sherman, a truck driver, passing them in another car.

In a few minutes, Sherman drove back and blocked the road with his car. He jumped out and jerked open the other car door where his wife was sitting. Without a word, he opened fire.

"He opened the door and fired, and fired, and kept on firing," Mrs. McDaniel, sobbing hysterically at times, told police. She wasn't scratched by the bullets. Mrs. Sherman was killed instantly. She had been hit four times.

A short time later, Police Chief Sam Bollinger and Sheriff Allen Dotson went to Sherman's home, flanked by several other deputies and policemen.

Bollinger said they knocked on the door, then "heard something" and broke the door down. They found Sherman inside. He had put a bullet in his head and died within minutes after he was rushed to a hospital.

The children were at their grandmother's at the time of the shooting.
