Late Pass Nips North, 33 To 26

MOBILE, Ala. (UPI) - A leaping end zone catch by Fred Brown of Georgia in the last seconds of play Saturday gave the South a 33-26 Senior Bowl victory over the North to climax a tremendous passing duel between Norman Snead of Wake Forest and Dick Norman of Stanford

Snead's 41-yard toss to Brown was the fourth scoring pass of the game for the tall Wake Forest ace who set a flock of records in the Atlantic Coast Conference last fall.

Norman also was on target, firing three touchdown passes and bringing his team from behind to tie the South at 26-26 late in the fourth period.

The victory was the seventh for the South, coached by Weeb Ewbank of the Baltimore Colts, in the series and it avenged a 27-6 shellacking by the North last

Las Cresas Club Presents 1960 Pledges Twilight Time

Las Cresas Club presented its ten pledges at a formal Presentation Bail, "Twightlight Time 1960" on Friday evening in the Pampa Country Club. Pledges were presented beneath a blue archway studded with stars and escorted down a blue satin carpeted aisle to a dias high-lighted with a flocked tree with a backdrop of blue satin sprinkled with tiny stars. Each pledge was greeted by Misses Saron and Karen Riddle and was presented with a small gift of a white cultured pear and a white carnation nosegay.

Music for dancing from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. was provided by The Valiants of Borger.

Miss Mary Alice Coombes, club president, introduced each pledge with a clever descriptive jingle.

Pledges and their escorts were guests of honor at a pre-ball party given in the home of Miss Rose Webb and following the dance, Miss Jean Gerik entertained with a party:

UPPER LEFT PHOTO—Miss Kathy Watt, from the left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Watt, 2133 Beech, escorted by Jim Ward, wore a gown of blue and white chiffon interwoven with lace and was introgown of blue and white chiffon interwoven with lace and was introduced with this verse "Kathy is sometimes a little quiet; But she sparkles like the stars at night"; Miss Rose Webb; daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Webb, 428 Wells, escorted by Dale Cox, wore a gown of blue nylon over net and taffeta fashioned with a bouffant floor-length skirt with a bustle for bock interest and was introduced with "She is a picture of loveliness like a fragile rose; And her bubbling cheerfulness simply overflows"; Miss Janis Lively, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Lively, escorted by John Osbarn, wore a formal gown of floor-length Champagne Rose Chantilly lace and tulle and was introduced with "If you look at Janis, you'll see how she beams; At this her night of exciting dreams"; Miss Louise Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Richardson, escorted by Mike Klein, wore a formal gown of white chiffon and was presented with "She is charming and gown of white chiffon and was presented with "She is charming and just grand; Also, she's a very good member of the Harvester Band",

AT THE RIGHT—Miss Sandra Redus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Redus, 1017 N. . Somerville, was named Best Pledge from the 1960 rush season and was presented with an arm bouquet of one dozen red, long-stemmed roses by Miss Mickey Biard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Biard, 2118 Beech, who was Best Pledge for 1959. The honor was accorded Miss Redus because of her cheerful attitude and effort during the rush season. Miss Redus was escorted by Jeff Hulender and was introduced with this verse:

"Sandy is always smiling and gay; She drops everything to help another; But that's just her way."

Don Lane publicity chairman for the Pampa March of Dimes, explained the two-fold purpose for the current drive at the Pampa Council of Clubs meeting held Thursday morning in the City Club

"In addition to raising money for the National Foundation," he said, "the drive also is urging people to get their polio shorts." It was also pointed out that medical research into the prevention and cure of birth defects and arthritis are now included in the research program of the national foundation.

Mr. Lane announced that a movie "The Bridge Between' will be shown at the Capri Threater on Jan. 23 at 10 a.m. with doctors in attendance to conduct a question and answer session after the

In addition to these activities during the March of Dimes Drive, Jan. 9 has been set as Coffee Day in-local restaurants; on Jan. 14, wo high school students, Kristi Brown and Jerry Baxter, will present four one-act plays with the proceeds donated to the MOC; on Jan. 21, teenagers will celebrate the end of final exams by selling peanuts on the downtown streets; and on Jan. 31, the Mothers March will be conducted under the di-rection of Mrs. R. A. Mack.

FEELING AS BRIGHT AS a new penny in this first week of the we'd described our condition as more like a wooden nickel can you imagine already one whole week of the new year has past? We overheard some joker say the other day that there are only 327 more days until Christmas . . . humor like this we can do without especially so soon after imerging from a hectic holiday laden with food, a few more bills than usual and income tax time looming on the not-to-distant horizon bundle of joy this morning, aren't we??

LET'S SEE what we can do to jar ourselves out of the doldrums a good recipe for this is to think of other people. and we think immediately of the wonderful Christmas present that John Jones, student at Texas Christian University, received from her parents... their consent to allow her to attend summer school at the University of Hawaii this next she and a group of her sorority sisters, Alpha Delta Pi about 15 of them, got together and cooked up the stupendous idea of going to school in Hawaji this summer .. and sometime in July, they will no over to California to attend their sorority's national convention believe JoAnn told a friend sort of a delayed Christmas present, but she will have just that much longer to enjoy it.
