Sale Of Butter Halted For All Of This Week

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP)—Go easy on the butter, boys and girls, it's all you get this week. Retail sales were halted by the government last midnight and will not be resumed until rationing starts next Monday.

Butter Freeze Taken With Good Grace By Most Monday Buyers

Add to out-moded words for this week, "Mas, give me a slice of bread and butter," for the government's sudden freeze of butter, margarine, lard, and other edible oils and fats, Sunday, caught the majority of housewives as flat footed as shoe rationing.

Two Years Of Warfare Seen By Churchill

LONDON, March 22 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill sketched for the world in a radio broadcast last night his vision of a post-war order where peace might eventually be kept by a European and an Asiatic council of free nations, but warned the British people of the necessity of "keeping their eye on the ball" to win a struggle which might go on two years or more before Adolf Hitler is crushed into "death, dust and ashes."

The speech, which was devoted chiefly to the problems of creating a peaceful world of tomorrow and a comprehensive "four-year plan" for improved social conditions in Britain, drew quick but mixed reactions today from the British press, some sections of which felt the prime minister hadn't gone far enough in his post-war thinking, while others stressed the necessity of winning the war as the primary consideration at present.

Although military affairs were given a secondary place in the speech, Churchill packed a surprise "punch line" at the end—a line not contained in his prepared text—when he revealed that the British Eighth army under Sir Bernard L. Montgomery was "on the move" against Field Marshal Rommel's African Corps at the Mareth line in southern Tunisia, where military operations have been awaiting a decisive clash for days.

Some Farmers Have Not Yet Completed 1943 Plan Sheets

M. Weaver, AAA administrative officer, reminded farmers of the county Monday that 150 farmers out of 940 to be signed up for increased war crop production for 1943 have not been in the office to fill out their farm plan sheets.

VESEL LAUNCHED

ORANGE, March 22 (AP)—The USS Frost, escort vessel, was launched at Consolidated Steel corporation's shipyard yesterday.

Russians Press Toward Smolensk

Railway Town Occupied By Heavy Force

MOSCOW, March 22 (AP)—The Red army has captured the railway town of Durovo, 57 miles east of Smolensk on the main line from Moscow, and the Russian column driving southward toward the rail line from Bely has made new progress, the Russians announced today as the battle for the Donets river line southeast of Kharkov grew in ferocity.

Durovo was occupied by the same Russian force which broke through the German defenses at Vyasma to crack the next salient so long pointed threateningly at Moscow. The advance was made in the face of repeated German counterattacks that cost the Germans heavily in men and material, the mid-day communique said.

The Russians on the march south of Bely seized two strongly fortified German positions, the communique said, and in one place moved in over the bodies of 275 Germans.

After conceding the loss of Belgorod, 50 miles north of Kharkov, last night, the Russians reported today they were holding stubbornly east and southeast of the city in the area of Chuguev. The Germans have tried repeatedly to cross the Donets river and continue their advance, but each time they have been thrown back by the Red army defenders, it was said.

A Pravda dispatch reported that several settlements in the Chuguev region were continuously changing hands as the Red army stiffened its resistance and the fighting increased in ferocity. Soviet artillery, Pravda said, has forced the Germans to change their tank tactics.

Large enemy tank forces are now being broken up into small groups which operate simultaneously, searching for weak spots and trying to disperse the Soviet fire, the newspaper said. Soviet gun units are knocking out the German tanks, it was said, and Soviet cavalry is successfully pursuing enemy machine-gunners.

U.S. Population Now Over 135 Millions

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP)—The census bureau estimated today that the nation's population had reached 135,694,000 on Jan. 1, an increase of 1,651,000 during 1942 or nearly double the average yearly gain for the past decade.

Navy Men Killed In Plane Crash

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 22 (AP)—Ensign J. L. Greenfield, 26, USNR, of Shamrock, Tex., and Aviation Radioman Third Class Robert H. Deycher, 19, USN, of Reading, Pa., are presumed to have been killed Saturday when their plane crashed in the Atlantic ocean.

He Isn't Dead Or Ill

LONDON, March 22 (AP)—Adolf Hitler emerged yesterday from a 13-day silence which had given rise to rumors of his illness or death to tell the German people in a radio broadcast the crisis on the Russian front had been surmounted, assure them their losses in war dead were relatively small, and yet admit that many parts of Germany had become "war zones" as a result of incessant Allied bombing.

Hitler Makes Short, Subdued Talk

They were convinced it was his voice they heard. In one of the shortest and most subdued speeches he has ever delivered the fuhrer told a German war-dead memorial day gathering at the Zeughaus (military museum) in Berlin, the fourth such assembly since the war began, that 545,000 German soldiers had been killed since the start of the conflict.

Hitler made his total figure for two years of war unduly low. Hitler told his people the army, despite its losses, was being rapidly strengthened by additional classes of service men and the return of wounded men who had recovered.

While again picturing Germany as the bulwark of Europe against an incursion from "inner Asia," he failed to repeat specific assurances of the smashing of the Russian armies and produced nothing to match his declaration of March 18, 1941, that "England will fall."

Flood Threat In Southeast

By The Associated Press. Main-gorged rivers slowly crept toward dangerous crests today in several southeastern states, forced hundreds to evacuate their homes in low-lying areas, and threatened heavy property damage.

Extensive flood damage threatened in Alabama as the Coosa, Alabama, Warrior, Tombigbee, Cahaba and Conecuh rivers rose steadily above flood stage.

Scholastic Census Nearing Completion

Scholastic census workers in the city and county areas are on the home stretch this week in order to be through with the survey by the first of April. According to Superintendent W. C. Blankenship, April 1 will complete the census, although next month will be used for a double check.

Dive Bombers Do Damage At Munda

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP)—American dive bombers, raiding Munda on New Georgia island for the 98th time, struck a Japanese supply area and an enemy gun position, the navy announced today in a communique which told also of bombing raids on Vila and Kahili.

Lines Drawn On Tax Fight

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP)—Democratic leaders began today a formal canvass of the party's house membership designed to head off a potential coalition of a segment of democrats with republicans that might spell house passage of the Ruml plan to skip an entire tax year in putting income taxpayers on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Allred Loses Committee's Approval, In A Tie Vote

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP)—The senate judiciary committee declined to report favorably President Roosevelt's nomination of James V. Allred, former Texas governor, as judge of the fifth circuit court of appeals.

Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) said the committee subsequently declined to adopt a motion by Senator Danaher (R-Conn.) to postpone consideration of the nomination indefinitely, a move tantamount to killing it. The vote on the Danaher motion was also a tie, 5 to 5.

Chairman Van Nuys (D-Ind.) said that "so far as the committee is concerned it's (the Allred nomination) dead. However, it could be revived by motion of any member."

Port At Biserte Hit Hard By Allied Bombers

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP)—Destructive missions were executed by Allied aerial squadrons throughout Saturday night and yesterday, bombers leading off with a blasting of the docks of Ferryville, a port of Bizerte's deep harbor 10 miles south of that naval base.

A considerable force of heavy and medium bombers of the western desert air force attacked objectives in the Mareth and Mediana areas, while bombers of the Tunisian air force attacked some enemy air fields, the communique said. Fighters escorting the bombers over Mareth positions by day-light yesterday shot down one Messerschmitt 109, but there was little air opposition, the bulletin reported.

Nazi Points Hit By RAF

LONDON, March 22 (AP)—British Vhrwind bombers damaged the important railway viaduct at Morlaix, in Brittany, scoring several hits and starting a fire as the RAF continued its attacks on German communications in France over the weekend, the air ministry announced yesterday.

Naples Harbor Is Bombed By Yanks

CAIRO, March 22 (AP)—Liberator bombers of the Ninth United States Air Force attacked Naples harbor Saturday night, an American communique said today, and scored hits on railway yards and the Vittorio Emanuele mole and left a ship burning.

Visiting In Panama Wallace Party Is

DAVID, Panama, March 22 (AP)—Vice President Henry A. Wallace will lunch today with President Ricardo Adolfo De La Guardia at the mountain resort of Boquete, after which the Wallace party, De La Guardia and U.S. Ambassador Edwin C. Wilson and his staff and ranking officials of Panama will depart for Panama City where they are due to arrive in mid-afternoon. The Wallace party is scheduled for a three-day visit in the coastal.

YANKS OPEN WEDGE, CAPTURING MANY ITALIAN PRISONERS

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, March 22 (AP)—American armor drove a wedge into Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's last defense barring the way to the Gulf of Gabes with the capture of about 1,400 Italian prisoners and Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery pressed a full-scale attack on the Mareth line today.

Field reports said an American column was within sight of Maknassy, a strong German position on the Fafsa-Mahares railway some 50 miles west of the port of Mahares. The battle of Tunisia, which Prime Minister Churchill announced last night was under way and going well, found Rommel's southern forces squeezed in a coastal strip of barely 70 miles separating the correlated drives of Montgomery and U.S. Lieut. Gen. George S. Patton, Jr., from the south and the west respectively.

In the north, Col. Gen. Jürgen von Armin's troops drove a British First army detachment from Nefsa station, which lies 47 miles southwest of Bizerte and about two miles northwest of the Djebel Abiad, but the dominating heights of the Djebel Abiad were covered by a new British line.

Patton Force Eight Miles Nearer Coast

forces thrust due east from El Guetar, mopped up Bou Hamran, eight miles nearer the coast, and captured more than 2,000 Italian prisoners. Heavy shell fire by American batteries forced some of them to surrender.

American troops are now at grips with the last axis defenses guarding communication routes on the coastal plain.

Jap Concentrations Are Bombed Steadily

By The Associated Press. Australian Army Minister Francis Forde declared today that Japan was more determined to attack Australia than ever before as the range of Gen. Douglas MacArthur's bombing attacks emphasized the growing concentration of enemy power in the islands on the fringes of the continent.

Nazi Points Hit By RAF

LONDON, March 22 (AP)—British Vhrwind bombers damaged the important railway viaduct at Morlaix, in Brittany, scoring several hits and starting a fire as the RAF continued its attacks on German communications in France over the weekend, the air ministry announced yesterday.

HOW TO MAKE "POINT" SHOPPING

QUICKER, EASIER AND SIMPLER!

Do It The Easy Way

IF you want to avoid waiting in line . . . IF you want a wider choice of point rationed foods . . . IF you want Point Rationing to work right for you . . . follow these

8 GOLDEN RULES OF FOOD RATIONING:

1. SHOP EARLY IN THE WEEK!

"Point" shopping naturally takes longer because you must give your grocer "points" for the rationed food you buy as well as money. So be "an early bird" by shopping early in the week. You'll avoid crowds, get more help in buying from your grocer, get a wider choice of point-rationed foods, and the best "point" buys.

2. BUY ONCE A WEEK!

Before Point Rationing went into effect, you may have had to shop many times a week in order to get enough food for your family. But not anymore. Point Rationing sees to it that you can get your fair share when you want it. That's why there's no need now for shopping more than once a week. You'll save yourself time . . . save tires, gasoline, and money, too.

3. DON'T USE MORE THAN YOUR WEEKLY "POINT" ALLOWANCE!

You and your family have a certain number of "point" stamps for each ration period. Total them up; then divide them equally by the number of weeks in the ration period. You may use your "points" any way you like, but, remember, when they are used up, you won't be able to buy any more rationed foods until the next stamps are good.

4. PREPARE YOUR "POINT" SHOPPING LIST BEFORE YOU SHOP!

Be sure to include all "point" rationed items you plan to buy. Put down the "point" value beside each rationed food on your list; total the points on your list; then compare it with your family's "point" budget for the week. If you find you have gone over your budget, switch to more non-rationed foods, or substitute some low-point items for some of the high-point ones.

5. USE 8 AND 5 "POINT" STAMPS WHEN YOU CAN, INSTEAD OF 2 AND 1 "POINT" STAMPS!

When you buy foods that take a lot of "points", or several different rationed items at one time, use the least number of stamps possible to make up the amount. Use high-point stamps first; save low-point stamps for low-point purchases you may want to make later in the month. For example: on a 15-point purchase, use two 8-point stamps—not three 5's and a 1.

6. REMEMBER—YOUR GROCER CAN'T GIVE YOU "CHANGE" IN STAMPS!

Stamps A, B, and C are good until April 1st. They total up to 48 points. By different combinations, you can get any total of "points" from 1 to 48. This means you will be able to give your grocer the exact amount of "points" for any rationed item. By using all of your family's ration books together, you will find it easier to make up the right combinations of "points" . . . and you will not run out of stamps before the next ration period.

7. BUY FOODS THAT AREN'T RATIONED WHENEVER POSSIBLE!

To make sure you don't run out of "points", buy as many fresh fruits and vegetables as you can. Also, use other non-rationed foods, such as cereals, as much as possible. Try many of the interesting, new war-time recipes now available. You can make your own soups, stewed fruits, etc. Above all, don't reduce the nourishment in your family's meals. Remember, we must have a strong, healthy "home front" to back up our men on the fighting fronts.

8. DON'T BLAME YOUR GROCER FOR WARTIME INCONVENIENCES!

Perhaps you can't get many of the things you'd like to have. Maybe it takes you a lot longer to shop. Don't blame your grocer. He's doing the best job he can. Trying to serve you as quickly as possible; helping you give your family the most delicious, nourishing meals possible during wartime. So do your part, too. Help make rationing work, help your grocer . . . help your country win the war quicker.

Swapping Orgy In Majors To Keep Players Happy

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK, March 22 (AP)—Warlike baseball, which already has brought the substitution of chilblains for sunburn and snowmen for bathing beauties in the training camp life of the athletes, also has produced the I-don't-want-to-play-for-you society among the players.

Bob Johnson, slugging outfielder for Connie Mack's Philadelphia A's in recent years, is the latest to be issued his card in the new organization.

Mack sent him to Washington last night in exchange for Shortstop Jimmy Pofahl and infielder-outfielder Bobby Estelle.

He is one of at least seven major leaguers since late last fall who have announced a preference for a different job or baseball uniform—and have been traded by owners seeking to conserve their meager supply of manpower.

Pofahl also is one of the group. Only last month he was sent to Minneapolis of the American association for Pitcher Owen Scheetz. When he said he preferred his defense job to playing in the minors, the Senators retained him and paid cash for the hurler. Now he is with the Athletics.

The trend got its start late last fall when outfielder Eric McNair was released to Washington by Detroit. He joined the Athletics later.

Eddie Joost, second baseman, and Pitcher Paul Derringer of the Cincinnati Reds, expressed their hopes of transfers during the off-season and were sent to Boston Braves and Chicago Cubs, respectively.

Babe Dahlgren, much traveled first baseman, made his ultimatum to the Brooklyn Dodgers stick and he finally was shipped to the Philadelphia Phillies for Lloyd Waner and Albie Glossop.

Billy Meyers, former Cincinnati and Chicago shortstop, really is the founder of the present society. Sent to Los Angeles last year, he refused to report and spent the year railroading. Saturday his contract was sold to the Boston Braves.

Wally Moses, Chicago White Sox outfielder, may be the eighth member. He has expressed general satisfaction with the Sox 1943 pact but refuses to sign in hopes of being traded to the Mackmen.

Defensive Skill Is Determining Factor For AAU Champions

DENVER, March 22 (AP)—Skill in backward defense that comes with years of grueling play is still independent competition still is the factor that makes a National AAU basketball champion.

The Phillips 66 Oilers of Bartlesville, Okla., with a lineup of AAU-experienced men, proved this theory in defeating the Denver American Legion with a lineup of mostly college-experienced players, 87-60, for the 1943 title Saturday night.

Armstrong Meets Tribani Tonight

PHILADELPHIA, March 22 (AP)—Hammering Henry Armstrong, 30-year-old Los Angeles negro who once bossed boxing's feather, lightweight and welter divisions, meets another obstacle in his comeback campaign tonight in a 10-rounder with Young Al Tribani, of Wilmington, Del.

Armstrong is expected to weigh 140, six or seven pounds less than his rugged 21-year-old foe. Despite the disadvantage in age and weight, the former triple champ has been installed as a 4 to 1 favorite.

Pete Watkins After World Record In The High Jump

PETE WATKINS

COLLEGE STATION, March 22 (AP)—Kendrick (Pete) Watkins, who has spent plenty of time in the air during the last ten years, hopes to set a world's high jump record for Texas A. and M. this season—even if he won't be able to get in the usual long practice periods, and if the army is willing.

Pete's senior year comes at a period when A. and M. has stepped up its program under a wartime schedule and he, like all other Aggie athletes, can't spend the standard time in sports. Too, Watkins is among 23 A. and M. athletes called for activation as privates in the regular army Monday, and while he will be sent back to A. and M. for training his athletic status will be in doubt since the army must give him permission to compete.

But Watkins has already shown he's in fine fettle for the track and field campaign because last week he leaped 6 feet 7 inches in the Border Olympics at Laredo—and he did it with just one week of practice. Pete was tied up with basketball and got away from it just in time to make the Olympics.

Watkins last year soared 6 feet 3-4 inches and was named on the all-America college team. That's just two and one-fourth inches below the world record held by Les Steers of Oregon.

Pete, a 6-foot-5" 195-pounder, started jumping in grammar school at Iowa Park, Tex. He won the event five straight years in Wichita county meets.

"I've always had an ambition to jump," Watkins said. "I guess it was sort of hero worship for my brother, Worth, who won the National AAU and placed for three years while attending Abilene Christian college, that got me started."

In his senior high school year Watkins entered a meet held at Kyle Field here. He jumped 6 feet 2 7/8 inches and this performance impressed Coach J. S. (Dough) Rollins, then Aggie track coach but now a major in the army. Rollins induced Pete to cast his lot at Aggie land.

Last year Watkins added hurdling and javelin throwing to his jumping. Until the past basketball season he wore glasses in all his athletic activities but discarded them to wind up scoring 136 points as a member of the cadet cage team. When he reported for track this spring he again brought out the spectacles.

Watkins competed Saturday in a triangular meet with Texas and Southwest Texas State, will appear in dual meets against Rice, will go to the Southwest exposition meet in Fort Worth if it is held, will participate in the Southwest conference meet at Houston in May and possibly will enter the Drake relays. He took part in the latter meet last year, tying for first place at 6 feet 4 inches, but a drizzle of rain prevented him from setting a possible new Drake Relays record.

American National Greatly Increases Insurance In Force

W. L. Moody, Jr., president of the American National Insurance company, in his annual report to that company's policyholders termed the results achieved in the year 1942 "gratifying."

The report shows that the amount of insurance in force increased by more than $100,000,000 to the total of $992,429,586. The assets were increased by approximately $11,000,000 and are now $111,773,191.49. Since organization, the company has paid to policyholders more than $117,000,000.

An interesting item shown in the statement is the amount of $16,934,687.83 for surplus protection to policyholders. Moody, in commenting on this, stated: "The large surplus funds in excess of statutory requirements offer substantial additional protection and safety to the policyholders and assure the ability to meet all obligations promptly and to make progress in face of present conditions."

In listing the assets, the company shows $40,334,274.88 in bonds, of which over 35% are obligations of the United States government. Cash in banks amounts to $24,688,390.88, and mortgage loans are listed as $25,519,880.02.

The American National ranks among the larger insurance companies of the nation. Its home office is in Galveston, with personnel of almost 800 employees. Its three hundred branch offices are located in 34 states and over 4,000 agents represent the company.

Coffee And Sugar Are Golf Prizes
MIAMI, Fla., March 22 (AP)—Attracted by the value of the prizes, a field of 214 players competed yesterday in a Red Cross benefit golf tournament.

First prize went to Mrs. Thelma John—a pound of coffee. Miss Burnice Felton won second prize—two pounds of sugar.

New York Cage Games Open This Evening

NEW YORK, March 22 (AP)—Three of the most scoring-minded basketball teams in the country and Rice, co-holder of the South-west conference title, tonight open a four-day session of basketballing in Madison Square Garden.

Tonight's twin bill is the final half of the first round in the National invitational tourney.

The Texas outfit will oppose St. John's of Brooklyn, labeled by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau as the ninth best point-making quietest in the country. The Redmen won 18 of their 20 games by dumping an average of 88.9 tallies through the hoop in every game.

The second contest puts Western Kentucky State, rated second behind Rhode Island State with an average of 81.1, against Fordham, which is 18th on the list with 64.7. Rhode Island topped the nation in points with 80.7 in each fray.

Negro Held After Man's Throat Cut
MEXIA, March 22 (AP)—James Edward Fisher, Dallas negro, faced a charge of assault with intent to murder today in connection with an attack on Harvey Smith, a bus driver, here Saturday night.

Smith's throat was cut while he was helping passengers off at bus here. He is expected to recover. Charges were filed by Chief of Police A. B. McKenzie in a justice of the peace court.

Woman Flier Dies In Merkel Crash
LONG BEACH, Calif., March 22 (AP)—Aviatrice Cornelia Fort, 23, second woman to sign up with the Women's Auxiliary Ferrying Squadron, was killed late yesterday in the crash of an army plane near Merkel, Tex.

Miss Fort, stationed here, was on a routine plane ferrying flight, the ferrying division of the air transport command said.

Daughter of Cornelia Clark Fort of Portland Farms, Nashville, Tenn., Miss Fort had logged more than 1,100 hours in the air.

Tigers To Have First Intra-Squad Contest On Wednesday Of This Week

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP)—Manager Steve O'Neill of the Detroit Tigers, has scheduled the first intra-squad game for his athletes on Wednesday. It will be in preparation for the weekend series with the Chicago White Sox.

Southwest Clubs Start Baseball
COLLEGE STATION, March 22 (AP)—The Southwest conference baseball race opens this week with the defending champion Texas Aggies clashing with Rice in a two-game series.

The Aggies and Owls will play here Friday and Saturday.

Texas, the only other conference school with a baseball team, does not start the title drive until next week, meeting Rice at Houston in two games.

Texas and A&M opened the season last week with games against service teams. Texas beat Brooks Field of San Antonio 23-7 while A&M lost to Randolph Field of San Antonio twice—5-2 and 13-1.

WALLINGFORD, Conn.—Arrival of Eddie Joost's trunks was seen by Manager Casey Stengel of the Boston Braves as a sure indication the former Cincinnati Red infielder expected to reach an agreement with his new club soon on salary terms.

COLLEGE PARK, Md.—Manager Oesie Bluege was all smiles today as he contemplated a Washington outfield of Stan Spence, George Case and Bob Johnson with Gene Moore in reserve. Johnson, a heavy hitter, came to the Senators last night in a trade for Jimmy Pofahl and Bobby Estelle.

MEDFORD, Mass.—Although Manager Joe Cronin and a trio of his players have been here for almost a week, the Boston Red Sox training season didn't officially open until today.

Rose Bowl Champs Lose Most Of Men

By ROMNEY WHEELER
ATHENS, Ga., March 22 (AP)—If there's an eight-ball in the house, kindly pass it to James Wallace Butts, Jr., of the University of Georgia. His Rose Bowl football champions are going, going, gone.

In fact, says Wally, any resemblance between spring football practice and what begins today at Georgia will be strictly coincidental. Of the combined freshman and varsity squads which finished the 1942 campaign, only 40 players remain—and 20 of these are enlisted reserves in one or another of the armed services. Butts says he expects most of these to be called for active duty by July 1.

All-America Frankie Sinkwich, who played out his eligibility in a blaze of gridiron glory, graduated last week and moved on toward an officer-candidacy in the U. S. Marines.

What makes Wally doubly mournful, however, is the prospective loss of Sinky's brilliant understudy, Charlie Trippi, who paced Georgia to its Rose Bowl victory over U. C. L. A. last New Year's Day. Trippi, a sophomore, played his first season of varsity football last fall. As an enlisted reserve, Butts expects him to be long gone from Athens by next October.

Florida Abandons Its Sports Program
GAINESVILLE, Fla., March 22 (AP)—All intercollegiate sports are being abandoned at the University of Florida for the duration of the war.

Football will be the principal sport affected by the decision, announced yesterday by President John J. Tigert. Florida is the first Southeastern conference school to take such action.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, March 22 (AP)—Cleveland is going for indoor track in a big way. The K. of C. is importing all 300 pounds of Jack Lee as a starter for Saturday's meet.

Maybe this northern spring training ain't so hot, but as soon as the umpire start calling 'em the fans will say they've seen the first robbin'.

LIGHT EXERCISE
Story making the rounds of the Iowa Pre-Flight School (we don't guarantee its truth, but it illustrates something) is that a cadet was galloping around the track one day when he stumbled and cracked his head against the rail.

As he lay there, waiting for the first aid squad to pick him up, another cadet ran past him shouting, "well, don't just lie there. Do some pushups or something."

MONDAY MATINEE
Tommy Byrne, the southpaw from Newark who has inherited Lefty Gomez' No. 11 uniform on the Yankees, resembles El Gufo in one way—he'd rather hit than pitch.

The difference is that Tommy really can hit. He batted .593 in his last year at Wake Forest College. Leo Diegel has raised more than $800 for the Red Cross at the El Rio Golf club in Tucson, Ariz. This winter by plastering two-bit fines on golfers who hit into traps and by rigging up golf bets in which all the dough involved went to the Red Cross.

Mary Elizabeth Glass And Lieut. L. S. Ross Marry In Fort Worth

PINK AND BLUE SHOWER GIVEN

Mrs. W. C. Killough and Mrs. Jeff Chapman entertained with a pink and blue shower honoring Mrs. Alvis Ingram Friday afternoon.

Refreshments were served and gifts presented to the honoree. Those attending were Mrs. Glenn Farnley, Mrs. Henry Riebbourg, Mrs. Austa Smith, Mrs. Guy Simmons, Mrs. W. M. Thompson, Mrs. Lillian Smith, Mrs. Miller Russell, Mrs. Grace Tynes, Mrs. T. E. Sanders, Lillian Crews and Alice Ruth Sanders.

Sending gifts were Mrs. Bob Killough, Mrs. Henry Webb, Mrs. E. R. Killough, Mrs. M. R. Hull, Mrs. Mamie Hoger, Mrs. Britton Hull, Mrs. C. C. Rumpf, Mrs. Elton Neely, Mrs. R. L. Glasser, Mrs. Shortess, Mrs. Dolores Kipatrik, Mrs. L. E. Bender and Mrs. Hudgins.

Holy Communion At St. Mary's Tuesday Morning

There will be a Holy Communion service at the St. Mary's Episcopal church Tuesday at 10 a. m. the pastor, the Rev. R. J. Snell, announced Monday.

At that hour, the women's auxiliary will make the presentation of the United Thank offering. There also will be a brief meditation.

Young lady, does an old TABOO mean you don't know this help?

Periodic pain is no longer a forbidden topic. So learn about CARDUL, which may help in one of two ways: (1) as a tonic, it may pep up appetite, aid digestion, and thus help build energy for the "time" to come; (2) started 3 days before the time, and taken as directed, it may aid in relieving purely functional, periodic pain. CARDUL's 62-year record says: Try It! (adv.)

How American it is TO WANT THE BEST!

It's part of our American heritage... this right of every man to get the best he can through honest toil, skill, and planning.

High on his list of desires is a home of his own... large or small... luxurious or simple... each to his own taste.

A true American is mighty proud of his home; he gives it the very best care he can. Every man can afford the best when it comes to paint—MINNESOTA paint.

Under the MINNESOTA trademark there's a line that reads "Since 1870." That short phrase means a lot to American homeowners. Since 1870, the year MINNESOTA paint first appeared on the American scene, millions of gallons have gone out to beautify and protect millions of homes.

"SINCE 1870"—that is your assurance of Quality.

Double Ring Vows Read In Fort Worth

Lieut. and Mrs. Lawrence Sullivan Ross, IV, are honeymooning in New Orleans, La., and Houston following their marriage Saturday evening in Fort Worth at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. E. E. Winger, 1105 Buck St. The bride is the former Mary Elizabeth Glass, daughter of Mrs. Velva Glass of Big Spring and W. F. Glass of Fort Worth.

The double ring wedding service was read by the Rev. Benedict Borgering, Catholic minister, before an arrangement of palms and other greenery, flanked with wrought iron stands of white gladioli, and white tapers in tall candelabras.

Pre-nuptial music was furnished by Dorothy McCauley, pianist, Pauline Snyder, violinist, and John Brigham, vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin gown made with Chantilly lace ruffles which outlined the neck and bodice. The bouffant skirt fell over a hoop into a graceful train. Her finger tip veil with Mary Stuart lace was trimmed with orange blossoms. She wore a single strand of pearls, and carried a white prayer book with a white orchid and showers of white sweetpeas.

Miss Joy Lee Chandler was maid of honor and wore a pink net formal, fashioned with bands of embroidery on the bouffant skirt. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink sweetpeas, roses and blue delphinium.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan Ross of Waco, was attended by Lieut. Eddie McElhannon of the Big Spring Bomber School.

Mrs. Ross attended Our Lady of Victory academy, Fort Worth, and Texas Christian University. She is a member of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

The bridegroom, instructor at the Big Spring Bomber School, was graduated from A. & M. College and was a member of the De Molay fraternity.

A wedding reception was held in Mrs. Winger's home following the ceremony. Pink gladioli centered the buffet and a pale pink bridal cake, surrounded with sweetspeas and garlands of hot house smilax centered the refreshment table. The cake was flanked with cathedral tapers in silver candelabras.

Members of the houseparty included Frances Mitchell, Leobell Weaver and Mrs. Byron K. Butt. The couple will be at home in Big Spring.

WAAC Induction Stations For Two More Texas Towns

DALLAS, March 22 (AP)—WAAC induction stations are to be established immediately at Abilene and Tyler, Lt. Col. F. W. Steffen, WAAC district procurement officer, announced here.

At a conference of recruiting officers from 73 North Texas counties, Colonel Steffen said too many women are finding weak excuses for not enrolling in the corps.

Second Officer Virginia Williams will have charge of Abilene's new station; Second Officer Clelia Hingie of Tyler's.

War Or No War Clothes Are Still Pretty

She gave up sugar and learned to cook all over again using honey and syrup; she even gave up shopping in the family car because of gasoline rationing and when she rationing popped up one morning, she even decided she could manage on three pairs of shoes per year—but take away the little woman's greatest weakness, CLOTHES, and there'll be trouble brewing for the Axis!

Not even war, nor the idea that clothes might be rationed during '43 have dampened the spirits of American designers. Keeping the point in mind though, they have introduced some of new ideas for the wartime wardrobe, featuring lovely new shades in sandstone gray, "Best Girl Pink," sand dune and many others.

According to local merchants who have begun to receive shipments of spring and summer clothes, silks and sheers stand side by side along with nylon hose, slippers and other pre-war luxuries, but elegant substitutes in celanese rayon, butcher boy linen and visonette net, brighten the picture considerably. The same old shades of browns and blues, greens, etc., (brightened or dulled perhaps) have sprouted out for spring in delightful colors such as tangerine, sea patrol (light aqua), mist blue, lime, magnolia, sand dune (gold) and Hawaiian tan.

Breakfast In The Thomas Home Honors High Heel Slipper Club

Group Sponsors A Rummage Sale Here Saturday

Mrs. Clyde Thomas, Jr., sponsor of the High Heel Slipper Club, entertained with an informal breakfast in her home Sunday morning honoring pledges and club members.

An arrangement of purple and white iris, intermingled with leafy fern centered the breakfast table and smaller tables were centered with bowls of violets.

A two-course meal was served and pledges attending were Dorothy Anthony and Helen Blount. Members present were Annie Egan, Mrs. Douglas, Betty Jo Pool, Margie Lawwell, Barbara Lawwell, Doris Nell Tompkins, Celia Westerman, Nancy Thompson, Betty Bob Dilts and Mrs. Jane Darby.

The High Heel Slipper club held a rummage sale Saturday afternoon to raise money for several dances and other entertainments which will be held soon.

The club will sponsor a "Spring Fever Dance" March 26 and a Kid Dance on April 2. Announcement date of the annual spring formal has not been made, but plans are underway for the entertainment.

Participating in the sale were Eva Jane Darby, Annie Eleanor Douglas, Betty Bob Dilts, Celia Westerman, Joanne McLaren, Charles Pinkston, Billie Ragsdale, Billie Frances Shaffer, Margaret John McElhannon, Bertie Mary Smith, Jo Ann Switzer, Betty Jo Pool, Doris Nell Tompkins, Marilyn Keaton, Barbara Lawwell, Marjorie Lawwell and the club sponsor, Mrs. Clyde Thomas, Jr.

Hank Hart Wins Sergeant Rating

Thomas T. (Hank) Hart, for a number of years sports writer for The Herald, has been advanced to the rank of sergeant in the army air corps, it has been announced from headquarters of the Antilles Air Task Force at San Juan, Puerto Rico.

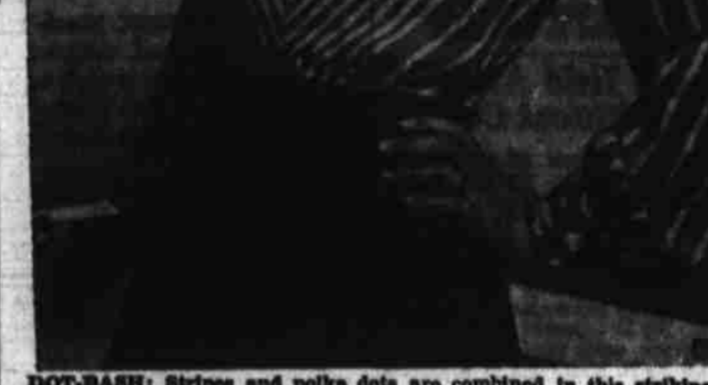

Sgt. Hart, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hart of Big Spring, has been in the service since November 16, 1940, joining at El Paso. He joined his present unit last March 2, and is now stationed at one of the tropical air bases guarding the vital approaches to the Caribbean area.

Burks Scheduled To Die Tomorrow

LAKE CHARLES, La., March 22 (AP)—With hope of a stay of execution apparently gone, Horace Finnon Burks prepared today to die in the state's portable electric chair here tomorrow for his part in the death of a Houston, Tex., salesman on St. Valentine's Day three years ago.

Governor Sam Jones said in Baton Rouge last night that there appeared to be no reason to stay the execution.

Mrs. Annie Beatrice Henry, companion of Burks when the salesman, J. P. Calloway, was shot to death in a frozen rice field near here, was electrocuted last November.

DOT-BASH: Stripes and polka dots are combined in this striking blouse of gray and white rayon print, designed by Florence Galster. Note stand-up ruffle.

Store owners agree that ready-made clothes have been greatly altered due to war substitutes, but according to designers, new ideas of styling have originated from necessity. One Big Spring shop exemplified the fact in a linen frock of cocoanut brown which buttons from the arm hole to the waist with isomon buttons, contrasting with other yellow accessories. Buttons, of course replace the slippers.

Okla. Governor Won't Share Any Control Of Lake

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 20 (AP)—Governor Robert S. Kerr gave a verbal cold shoulder today to proposals for joint control of recreational facilities in the Red river dam area by Texas and Oklahoma.

A big lake, with 1,200 miles of shore line in both states, will be created when the $80,000,000 project at Denison, Texas, is completed.

A bi-state compact, a feature of which would eliminate need for purchase of licenses from both states by fishermen and hunters, won some support in the two states as an appropriate method of regulating pleasure activities in the area.

But, the Oklahoma governor commented, "Oklahoma furnished practically all the land for the Red river dam and so far as I am concerned the least we can do is to retain the sovereignty of the state over that portion of the lake which will be within the state."

"I am not interested in any proposal which would result in Oklahoma losing any benefits which are hers or may be obtained for her at any future time."

The south bank of the Red river, Kerr pointed out, is, by a decree of the supreme court of the United States, the boundary between Oklahoma and Texas.

"It may be," he said, "that when the lake is formed behind the dam the south bank of the river will extend southward of course, that will be a matter to be determined by the courts."

He said there might be some question as to whether Texas had any authority over the hunting and fishing in the reservoir but at all events, he continued, he would insist that all sportsmen purchase Oklahoma licenses for use in the area.

SOMEWHERE IN NEW GUINEA, March 21 (Delayed) (AP) Two second lieutenants whose bomber crashed in the water north of Buna a few days ago are recovering from severe sunburn in a hospital and will be flying again soon.

They are Howard G. Eberly, Oregon City, Ore., co-pilot, and John M. Dawson of Coral Gables, Fla., bombardier. Apparently they were the only members of the crew who made shore, although they knew of two others who got out of the bomber after it hit the water nose first at more than 100 miles per hour and, as Dawson said, "sank in five seconds."

Eberly and Dawson said they kept "perfectly still" when sharks came within 100 feet of them and they were unharmed. After 14 hours in the water, including about 10 hours of searing sunshine, they stumbled ashore and met an American infantry patrol which had just arrived to search for them.

Mrs. Partridge To Give Talk On OCD At AAUW Meeting

Mrs. A. B. Partridge, warden coordinator of the Office of Civilian Defense, will speak at the Tuesday evening meeting of the American Association of University Women when the group meets with Mrs. Carl Blomshield.

Ethel Rives Bird of Coahoma will also speak on "The National Office of Civilian Defense Set-Up and Its Purpose."

The meeting will start at 7:30 o'clock and all members are urged to attend.

VOWS READ AT ST. MARY'S FOR YOUNG COUPLE

Miss Mary Hundley of Raleigh, N. C., and Sgt. Fisher A. G. Horlock of Houston were married Saturday evening in St. Mary's Episcopal church. The single ring ceremony was read by the pastor, the Rev. R. J. Snell.

The bride was attired in an ice blue two piece suit and her accessories were white.

The couple will be at home in Big Spring where the bridegroom is stationed at the Big Spring Bomber School.

Downtown Stroller

MARIBEL MENDON'S engagement and approaching marriage to Lieut. ROY BLACK was announced Friday at a pretty party given in her sister's home, Mrs. IRA THURMAN. MARIBEL found a couple of guests who were really surprised and that tickled her to death. Claimed that nobody else seemed a bit surprised over the announcement.

Several of the local girls went to Fort Worth over the weekend to see the knot tied right for MARY ELIZABETH GLASS and Lieut. L. S. ROSS.

And still speaking of weddings, MARY SON BROWN fooled us, anyway, for we didn't know until she made the announcement of her marriage Sunday which took place January 10 in Oklahoma. She is now Mrs. ROY HEATH of Lubbock.

To newcomers in town, thought we might remind you of the Episcopal women's style show to come off on March 30th at the city auditorium. We can't predict, of course, but in years past the style show has always been one of the outstanding events of the season. It is remarkably well put on and looks downright professional.

The girls who went out to the enlisted men's dance Saturday night at the post all came back saying they had a swell time and were still laughing Sunday over the antics of Pfc PHILLIP TUCKER, who put on a novelty song and dance number.

Since yesterday was the first day of spring, we're looking forward to some warm days coming up soon, we hope. If the weather man will just cooperate now with some warmer weather predictions.

Firestone Offers A Free Booklet On Gardening

In support of a "back-to-the-soil" movement instituted by thousands of Americans who are going to plant Victory Gardens to help solve our nation's food problem, the Farm Service Bureau of the Firestone Tire & Rubber Co. has published a pocket-size garden book which is free to those who ask for it at the local Firestone store at 807 E. 3rd.

The book, said D. J. Shepard, manager, is entitled "Helpful Information for Growing a Successful Victory Garden" and is based on latest scientific principles of vegetable growing and reflects the Firestone company's 27 years experience as sponsor of its employees' gardens, one of the largest industrial gardening projects in existence. Last year employees produced a total of $48,700 worth of vegetables. Gardeners are told how to select a garden spot and then apportion planting space according to needs. A planning and planting chart lists major vegetable crops and provides complete information on planting dates, spacings between plants and rows, together with instructions for weeding, drying and storing vegetables. There also is a wealth of other information such as diseases and insect control, fertilization, watering, etc.

Not only will Victory Gardeners find the free booklet very handy, but they may find their gardening needs satisfied at Firestone. From seed to working tools, the store has a practical assortment of things needed to help plant and grow a garden.

These include rakes (metal ones), shovels, spades, hoes, leaf rakes, trowels, clippers, dandelion spuds (good for weeding), and even a grass whip (instrument that may be welded effectively like a golf club). For the lawn there are mowers, sprinklers, etc., and lawn and garden either may be benefited by an assortment of plastic mulches. Fertilizers are available.

Firestone is offering a complete assortment of seed sample for a fairly large Victory Garden. A regular $3 value, these go for $1.49. Those who like to grow sinias will want to call at the store, too, for Firestone is giving away a package of the giant Burpee sinias to those who call at the store.

Prices Rise in Portland
PORTLAND, Ore. (UP) — The cost of living has risen more in Portland in the last two years than in any other major city in the United States, according to an index compiled by the department of labor. It now takes $1.35 to buy what a dollar formerly did.

Vineyard Busy With Spring Planting

Trees, Shrubs Should Be Set By April 15, Nursery Man Advises

One of the busiest spots in town these days is the Vineyard Nursery located at 1705 Scurry, for from the first of March through the 15th of April, planting time.

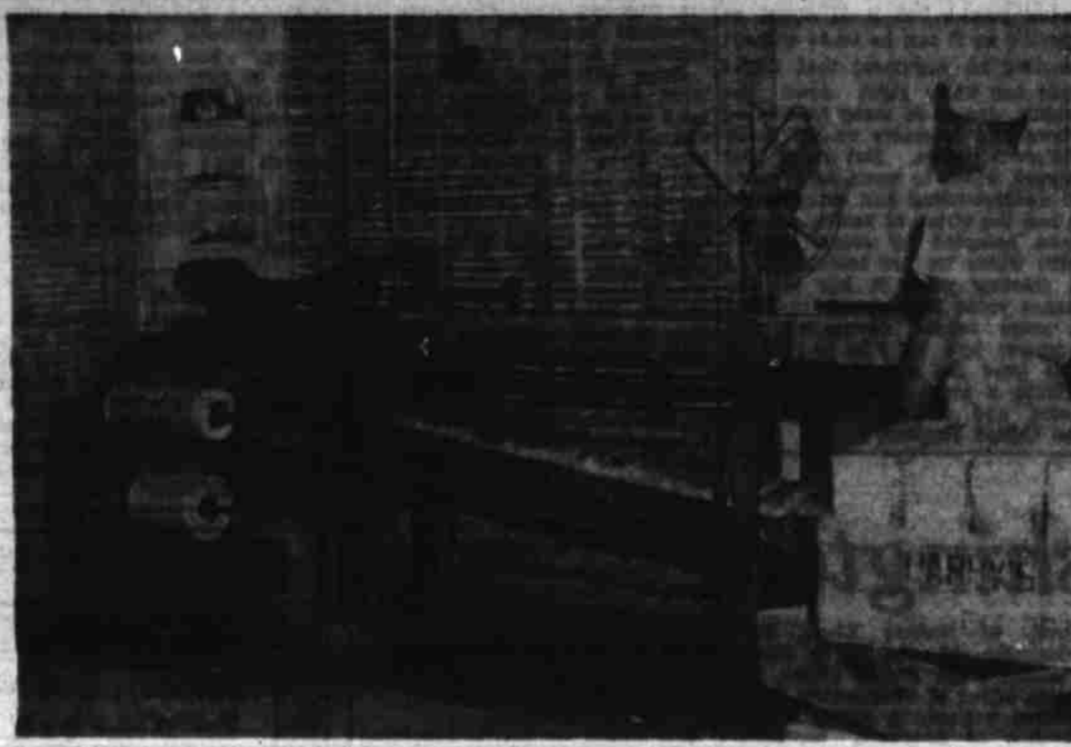

The nursery, owned and managed by J. O. Vineyard, has three distinct services that it provides its customers. First is the planning, designing and landscaping of the yard, next the actual construction or work done, and then the service such as spraying of the trees or shrub.

This is the ideal time of year to plant not only such hardy shrubs as nandina, Arizona cypress, Italian cypress and pyracantha, but also such fruit trees as cherry, plum, apricot, peach and apple.

The fruit trees, if given plenty of water, are easily grown in this area. In addition grapes and berry trees of all kinds are favorites with customers at Vineyard's nursery.

The elm and the silver leaf poplar are two of the trees most in demand for planting here. The nursery advises that planting should not be delayed past the 15th of April and that it is important to keep the ground around the bush or tree well worked and watered.

Plant food is also needed by the new shrubs and trees and they should be sprayed for the aphid or other bugs common in this area.

March is also the month of pruning of old trees and shrubs to clear them of old growth and aid in its new growth. Whatever service it is in the planting and growing business that customers need to know, Vineyard's nursery is in a position to be of help. Vineyard has years of experience of "know how" in this business of growing things.

Tires of His Clothes

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (UP)—The police responded to a hurry call from the Red Cross stating that a young man in a locked, parked car was taking off all his clothes in public. By the time the speeding police got there, the young man was completely nude. He was 3 years old, and remained in that condition until his mother arrived with the car's keys.

Sees Rules Same

CHICAGO (UP) — No major changes in playing rules for 1943 are anticipated by Elmer Layden, commissioner of the National Football league, when owners and coaches convene April 6 for their annual business meeting. "We probably will freeze the rules for the time being," Layden said, "unless the coaches decide some radical adjustments are necessary."

'Thrifty Wash' At Beaty's Laundry Proves Popular

The "thrifty wash," newest addition in helpful services offered at Beaty's Steam Laundry, has been unanimously approved by Big Spring housewives as the most helpful time-saver in many a day.

The thrifty wash features a finishing service on flat work with wearing apparel, starched and darned enough for proper pressing. Not only is it a time saving bundle, but the new service is also economical.

Today, Beaty's has a total of 26 employees, all women except for three men. Modern washers, equipped for better service, new irons and irons for finishing work, are among the many reasons for Beaty's long list of satisfied customers.

Ben Alexander, who has managed the local plant for the past several years, is no newcomer to the laundry business. He has been associated with cleaning plants for the past 25 years and worked in Beaty-owned laundries in Hobbs and Roswell, N. M., before coming to Big Spring. He personally supervises all work which comes to the plant for cleaning.

Government specification in the tailoring of military uniforms are recognized by Beaty's who service a large percent of the men at the Big Spring Bombardier School.

"The bachelor bundle" is another service offered. Shirts, uniforms and all starched clothes are pressed and then finished with regular electric irons for perfect tailoring. Buttons are sewed on and torn places mended.

Beaty's like other firms, has felt the man shortage which handicaps pick-up and delivery service to a certain extent. Alexander pointed out the saving in bringing laundry bundles to the plant, even though two trucks are operated in delivery service.

The growth of potatoes has been stimulated by the use of ethylene and propylene gases.

The Charter As A Basis

Speaking obviously of the demorepublican resolution to have the senate declare itself on postwar problems, but without mentioning it either to condemn or approve, President Roosevelt Tuesday remarked that what we are trying to do is: first, win the war, and second, work toward general objectives.

This remark capital correspondents look to mean that the administration would not favor any senate pronouncement at this time on postwar policy except a general declaration of willingness to cooperate with other United Nations. Others in the administration seem to think the bipartisan proposal goes too far and might tie the president's hands by committing him in advance to a policy that time and circumstances might alter completely.

That is one reason the constitution leaves the nation's foreign policy in the hands of the president—it can be kept fluid to meet emergencies. If the senate took a notion to write down this country's role in the peace settlement it would not only exceed its authority but might destroy unity in our own country and with our allies.

If the senate wants to be helpful within safe and reasonable bounds it could adopt the Atlantic Charter either in toto or in principle. That would undoubtedly strengthen the president's hands in dealing with post-war settlements and give a great deal more force to that misdeed document than it now carries, among friends and foes alike.

The charter isn't specific on many points, but it is about as specific as it can be made without starting an argument that might split our unity right down the middle, due to so many conflicting views and interests on so many different points. But as a guide toward which to work, as a guide to understanding and compromise, it has the virtue of having already been accepted by every country with which we are associated. As a starting point it has an immense value far beyond anything a mere senate declaration can possess; and by adopting it at this time the senate would contribute a great deal to unity at home and understanding among the United Nations.

Capital Comment—Texas Folk In Washington

By GEORGE STIMPSON

Herald Washington Correspondent

Slipping coffee, reading morning paper and Congressional Record in House Office Building cafeteria, when Grady Hill, who seems to have my number, phoned that Congressman O. C. Fisher, of San Angelo, wanted me to be his guest at weekly Texas delegation luncheon in Speaker's dining room on first floor of Capitol; not the kind who has to have invitation like that dangled before me more than once. Sure, I said, I'll be there.

Between Congressman Fisher and "Gib" Sandefur, son of late President Jefferson Davis Sandefur of Hardin Simmons University at Abilene; Gib's youngest sister, Mary Louise, is wife of Stanley Walker, famous newspaperman, who hails from Lampasas; told me all about that ranch of his at Marynest, 50 miles from San Angelo; offered to pay for the lunch of whole party, both Congressmen and delegation, chairman of delegation, overlooked on ground of unconstitutionality, whereupon Gib invited everybody present to be the guest sometime of Marynest Board of Development.

Quite a few visitors from Texas present; Lyndon Johnson introduced Paul Bolton, International News Service and Time magazine correspondent at Austin; Sam Russell had several—Fred Brown, manager Baker hotel at Mineral Wells, Allen Gunn, Mineral Wells utility man, and C. R. Pennington, of Abilene, member of board of Lower Colorado River Authority; Ed Gossett had H. D. Fillers, superintendent of schools at Wichita Falls, here with group advocating use of school buses in connection with athletic games and sports; Speaker Sam Rayburn reminded Ed that Dr. Fillers used to live at Bonham; Judge Hatton Summers, of Dallas, had two guests, but the Judge had to leave early; they were introduced by Frank Connell, clerk of the house judiciary committee, who is from Dallas; they were two Dallas businessmen, Fay Means and Leland Dyart; Judge Mansfield had with him his nephew, Dr. Meyers, connected with schools at Richmond, Virginia; naturally a good time was had by all; Lyndon Johnson invited me to come out to a reception later in afternoon to Paul Bolton.

The Johnsons, Lyndon and Ladybird, live in comfortable, spacious, picturesque home in Northwest suburb of Washington; had hard time getting taxi; whole raft of Texans there; Jimmie Allred, full of paprika as usual, Sam Rayburn in high good humor, Mr. and Mrs. Maury Maverick, Maury's executive assistant, Malcolm Bardwell, of San Antonio; Arthur "Tex" Goldschmidt, of San Antonio, director of Harold Yokes's power division; Capt. Jimmie Boyd and wife, West Texas; Lead-Lesser Bill Kibirell, of Dallas; Lieut. John Connally of the U. S. Navy, Austin; Hope Riding Miller, society editor of Washington Post, native of Bonham, father is Dr. Riding at Sherman, husband, Dr. Miller, now captain in army; Mrs. Welly Hopkins, of Gonzales, wife of chief counsel of United Mine Workers; and most of those who had been guests at the noon luncheon in Capitol.

Speaker Rayburn gave Hope Riding Miller, Tex Goldschmidt and me a lift home; I had dinner with Sam at his apartment; after good visit rode with him to the White House, where Sam acted as master of ceremonies at reception given by President to about 120 freshmen Representatives and Senators, including Congressman and Mrs. Fisher; Sam is good at that sort of thing; says he already knows virtually everyone of the new members of house; occasionally when new member pops up for recognition Speaker has to be prompted by his parliamentarian or time-keeper. Picking up bulldog edition of Washington paper learned that 23-year-old Lieut. Amon G. Carter, son of the Fort Worth publisher, has been missing in North Africa for over a month; was artillery officer in armored division in action around Sbeitla.

Since Lyndon Johnson moved into house last fall he and Ladybird have been practically running a hotel service; generally a visiting Texan or two occupying spare beds; everybody fortunate enough

There's Still A Threat On Freedom Of Screen

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—There have been assurances lately from government spokesmen, including the president himself, regarding the continued freedom of the screen.

Even without a knowledge of what has gone before, it would take no great divining power to suspect that these assurances have been given in answer to a fear still felt, to some extent, in Hollywood—a fear of government encroachment.

There was quite a furor, a while back, when the Office of War Information through Lowell Mellett, chief of its motion picture division, requested that his local office be permitted to read scripts of all productions in advance of shooting. Hollywood got its usual censorship jitters, which subsided only when Mr. Mellett explained his reasons—among them, that Hollywood had volunteered its closest cooperation with the government in the war effort, that the OWI was in position to inform the producers concerning angles, even in non-war picture subjects, which could help or unintentionally injure the cause, and that this could be done most practically if the suggestions were made before production rather than after.

Mr. Mellett apparently convinced the producers, for they have now agreed to the request, reassured that it does not mean a grab for censorship powers. The arrangement is on a voluntary basis, as it was before the OWI's request was made formally.

Hollywood is eager for victory and would be the last to do anything, except through ignorance, that might aid and comfort the enemy. If the OWI, by enlightening suggestion, can prevent such possibilities, the script readers feel it to the good.

If the jitters still persist, as they do to a degree in some quarters, it is because of the realization that the smooth functioning of such an advance arrangement depends in large measure on the personalities involved. Hollywood likes to trust and respects Lowell Mellett, and anticipates no difficulties while he is at the helm. But if Mellett should depart from the scene and his successor should prove less acceptable, it could be very unpleasant.

And it could be worse than that. Given the wrong man, say a chap to find refuge in the Johnson hospitality, and friendly atmosphere and hospitality.

with caustic leanings, we could have some ticklish situations. That kind of would-be czar conceivably might not appreciate the difference between "suggesting" and "telling," and also conceivably might be hazy about the point at which his true function ended and officious meddling began.

The producer involved would squawk loud and long, naturally—and all Hollywood, fortunately, would squawk with him. It would, in fact, be Hollywood's duty to squawk.

Business as Usual

DETROIT, Mich. (UP)—A U. S. Army sergeant volunteered as an elevator operator in the USO club here. Soon after he went to work he posted a sign which read, "Permissible to Tip the Elevator Operator." Most of his customers were enlisted men. No report is available on his "take."

Isolation Island

By JOHN C. FLEMING and LOIS EBY

Chapter 14

"You don't mind, do you, Jim?" Jim, aware of Don's and O'hanessey's quick resentment at Landa's announcement, was irritated. This was the second time she had deliberately used him and his boat as a refuge from her fiancé, and he hated being embroiled high-handedly in family battles. Still, he couldn't resist the entreaty in her dark eyes.

"Come along if you want," he invited casually.

Don's gasp at Landa was one of helpless misery. Jim felt sorry for the man. "Why don't you come along too?" he asked.

For a moment, Don brightened, but quickly relapsed into dull inertia. "Sorry. Too busy today."

Out on the sun-warmed deck of the Sea Bat, the crew greeted Landa with friendly shouts. Even Jim's usual chaffing at any delay in the work was forgotten today. While two of the crew took the broken piston ashore to be welded, he and Cass Wilson helped Landa into one of the diving suits. Cass Wilson donned the other and, carrying the paint-treated board, vessel and crayons, was lowered into the water beside the boat.

Landa had a moment of fright standing on deck in the heavy diving suit. As Jim lifted the helmet over her head, she took a last glance down at her clanking boots, the bronze breastplate like medieval armor across the canvas suit. Her eyes lifted to Jim's face in a flash of terror.

He grinned. "You don't have to go if you're scared."

His amusement reassured her. She smiled. "Who says I'm scared? Put down that helmet!"

And then she was over the boat's side, drifting down through a blue-green void, with flat, stale air to breathe and the faint tunk-tank sound of the compressor motor in her ears. Blue grey fish, speckled, striped, fat, flat drifted past her face plate. And, as she felt the bottom of the strait beneath her feet dark rocks and towering kelp jutted from patches of white sandy ocean floor, that rippled with greenish silver light and deep shadows. It was another world.

Cass Wilson, a weird, cumbersome giant in his diving suit, approached her carefully so as not to entangle their air lines, and set up her easel. Fascinated and absorbed, she began to work, struggling to capture on the board esal the enchantment of this underwater kingdom, the eerie beauty of its strange colorings.

When Jim told her through the phone she'd been down long enough, she wailed, "Just a few minutes! I've really got something, I think!"

Once up on the deck of the Sea Bat again, she climbed out of her diving suit to hang over the boat's edge impatiently while Cass Wilson brought up the board easel. "These colors down there!" she cried to Jim. "And coloring always was my strong point in painting."

She reached for the board as Jim and Fuzz helped Cass onto the deck—took one horrified look at it. It was a scene to shudder at. The silver-green light and shadows of the drawing were now clashing reds, purples, yellows!

"I can see," drawled Jim, "that cool's your strong point." But he patted her shoulder consolingly as her face clouded with disappointment. "Never mind. I can also see by your expression that you're not color blind. It must be colors look different below the surface of the water."

Cass was scratching his bald head. "I remember now," he said. "The guy in the art shop warned me about that."

Slowly Landa's puckering face cleared with a laugh. "A fine time to tell me!" she jeered.

She found suddenly she was faint with fatigue. She stretched out on the warm deck and Cass brought her hot coffee and sandwiches. Jim Blair sat nearby, smoking.

He didn't look at her, his eyes were creased against the sun as he scanned the sea in the direction of the mainland for the returning dinghy. Landa had a sudden intense longing to talk out her problems. Maybe, once looked at in the sunlight, they would dissolve before they settled down on her spirit again. She said in a snarl, unsteady voice:

"Jim, do you think I'm being childish and stubborn about the letter—and about postponing our wedding?"

Jim turned back. "I haven't passed judgment," he said. "Why should I?" He was slightly impatient, and she protested quickly.

"I'm not asking you to take sides. I'm not even sure I'm right. I only want you to listen and tell me what evil spirit, as Maria would say, has crept into my heart. You're the only one I can talk to."

Jim crushed out his cigarette, giving the process his full attention. Then he looked up at her and smiled. "Shoot."

Slowly, choosing her words with care, she began to talk of her childhood, of her father—a quiet, detached but affectionate—of O'hanessey, the dominating, splendid Uncle always riding, hunting or playing whist with her father—except when he was talking to Don and her of their future.

"It was Uncle Mike who always told me my life was here," she murmured. "And my father who sent me away to school. I remember the day I left, he asked me in a strange, faltering voice if I had a chance, whatever voice if I had

Washington Daybook—Will East Coast Be Bombed?

By JACK SKINNER

WASHINGTON—Will Nazi bombs fall on the U. S. A? German threats of reprisals for the bombing of Berlin have revived that old controversy here in Washington. The fact that these threats specifically mentioned East Coast cities in the United States (Boston, New York and Washington) caused OCD Director James M. Landis to caution civilians to hop to the business of preparing for any eventualities.

As for the air experts, there are some differences of opinion as to the probability of Nazi air raids, but those differences are a good deal less than a few months ago.

What could Germany gain by bombing the United States? (1). A terrific morale weapon. Pictures of burning American cities carried in the Nazi press would give the German people a feeling that "Yokel" America, always watching it. That would answer their demands for reprisals, and convince them that Nazi air power is capable of striking back.

(2). A raid would cause a clamor here to keep more interceptor and fighter planes at home, thus relieving some of our pressure in the air on the British, African and Pacific fronts. It might also force diversion of anti-aircraft weapons from vital theaters of war.

These are powerful arguments in favor of the probability of long-range Nazi bombings. Furthermore, such long-range bombings, no longer need be classified as "suicide missions," for global war maps show that round trips with heavy bomb loads could be made to the east coast and even to mid-western cities.

On the other hand there are these counter-arguments:

Something is wrong with Nazi air power. No person who has followed day-by-day reports from Russia, North Africa and England can fail to conclude that the balance of air power has been steadily swinging away from the Axis. Material, gasoline, or manpower shortages must exist somewhere.

If those shortages are vital enough to cause the Axis to divert its energies to construction of necessary war-front planes, submarines, or other material, rather than to long-range bombers, there is little likelihood that the advantages to be gained by bombing the U. S. are strong enough to cause a change of war policy now.

In other words, the Nazi threats may be just that, designed to cause us to strengthen our home defenses at the expense of war front shipments.

Conservative air observers think the increasing strain of getting bombers over here is just about offset by the desperation to supply Nazi home morale and stem the tide of our overseas shipments of planes and anti-aircraft guns.

Which desperation becomes uppermost will determine whether we will or won't be bombed.

THE WAR TODAY: Complete Annihilation For Rommel?

By DEWITT MACKENZIE Britain's prime minister gave us the official news we had been anxiously awaiting and injected Churchillian drama into the Tunisian crisis last evening with his impressively measured announcement: 'I have just received a message from General Montgomery that the Eighth army is on the move, and he is satisfied with the progress.' 'Thus we have what appears to be confirmation that the Allied offensive to oust the Axis from Africa actually has begun. It takes the like of a Churchill to handle big news with such telling effect--and it takes a Montgomery to send such a message of repressed assurance. Confidence is one of the British commander's outstanding characteristics. He has unlimited faith in himself, and that inspires in his men the morale which has carried them to their sensational victories. So he is officially on the move again, after a heavy artillery bombardment of the Mareth positions and an exploratory stab at the German left flank on the sea. And up to the northwest in the Gaza sector, on the other side of Rommel's armor, our own hard-hitting General Patton's Yankee troops have been consolidating positions which they reached through mud and rain. Marshal Rommel is in a nasty spot and it will take all his tactical skill--and it is great--to extricate himself. He may try to stand Montgomery off on the Mareth line and attack Baton in an effort to remove the American threat to his rear. At the week-end I ran across some notes I made in Cairo after Montgomery smashed Rommel's line at El Alamein and started the historic Axis rout which finally wound up in Tunisia. My memo concerned the possible lessons to be drawn from the victorious tactics of the Eighth army commander, and I had jotted down the following operations: If you can't outflank, you must break through the enemy's strong point in his line and then keep exploiting weak spots in the break. Once you get behind the enemy you can smash him. These are modern tactics. They were used first by the Germans against the Poles, and again in France.

Abilene's Zoo Inmates Win New Lease On Life And New Quarters

ABILENE, March 22 (AP)—Four lions and two bears, feature attractions at Abilene's zoo, won't die today as scheduled.

The state parks board stepped in at the last minute and offered to take over the zoo, "lock, stock and barrel," giving the larger animals, sentenced to death as an economic

AAFBS Officers Get Promotions

Public relations office of the Big Spring Bombardier School announced today promotions of eight officers, the transfer of bombardier instructors to other fields and the honorable discharge of six enlisted men, over 38 years of age.

Lieut. Frank R. Argus, supply officer of the aviation cadet detachment, has been advanced to the rank of captain. Capt. Argus served two years with the U. S. Marines and was commissioned April 30, 1942. Other promotions were from second to first lieutenant: Lieut. John P. Dukes, a pilot from Denver, Colo.; Lieut. Edward A. Frederickson, Jr., ground school instructor from Madison, Wis.; Lieut. Donald C. Rhoads, ground school instructor from Spencer, Iowa; Lieut. Raymond L. Troyer of Continental, Ohio, who is assistant bombight maintenance officer, and Lieut. Wallace L. Devlin of Denver, Colo., who was commissioned at Lubbock, Sept. 6, 1942.

School Inspection Finished By Boulter

E. H. Boulter of Lubbock, deputy school superintendent for the district, has returned from a visit of the ten accredited schools in the county here.

The superintendent, who completed his visitation with Walker Bailey, county superintendent, in his report to the state office made no recommendations for changes. Achievement tests for the schools will be held the last week of April and the first of May which will fully determine if the schools are fulfilling all requirements.

Deadline Tonight On Filing For The City Election

Deadline for entering the race for city commissioner without the necessity of securing a petition bearing the names of 50 qualified voters is midnight today.

Thus far, only two names have been entered on the ticket—those of Grover C. Dunham, mayor, and T. J. A. Robinson, also an incumbent.

Under terms of the city charter, any citizen may file with the city secretary 15 days prior to the date of election with no more than an application in writing.

If it is possible to get a place on the ballot up until two days prior to the date of election by accompanying the application with the signature of 50 qualified voters. So far as can be determined, this happens only once in the history of the city government under the present charter.

Ft. Worth Banker Suffers Gun Wound

FORT WORTH, March 22 (AP)—Fred A. Rogers, 57, a vice president of the First National Bank, was critically wounded early today by a shotgun charge in his chest in the back yard of his home.

He was given a blood transfusion at 8:30 a. m.

Rogers slept in a rear bedroom of his home last night. Some time before 5:30 a. m. today he is believed to have heard a noise in the garage. Carrying his .410 gauge shotgun, Rogers went to investigate.

Mrs. Rogers heard him call for help. She later said she had not heard a shot.

She found him lying in the yard. It is thought he stumbled on a hedge in the darkness, causing the gun to discharge.

Wage Dispute In Deadlock

NEW YORK, March 22 (AP)—Charles O'Neil, spokesman for the northern Appalachian soft coal mine operators, declared today that the wage conference with the United Mine Workers was deadlocked because neither party could reach a decision on the matter of retroactivity in a new contract.

Telegrams were sent by the operators Saturday to President Roosevelt and various government officials which were understood to carry an implied request for federal intervention, but Dr. John R. Steelman, head of the federal conciliation service, said in Washington today that he had "no immediate plans for entering the situation."

The present contract for 450,000 miners expires March 31 and the union and the operators have made counter proposals for continuing negotiations for a month. The UMW offered to continue with the proviso that any contract would be retroactive to April 1, but the operators suggested that the retroactive date be fixed by a governmental agency.

Livestock

FORT WORTH, March 22 (AP)—Livestock: Good and choice fed steers and yearlings 14.25 to 15.25; good heavy bulls 12.25 to 12.75; good to choice slaughter calves 13.50 to 14.50 with choice veals to 15.00.

Stocker steer calves sold up to 15.50 with light weights held around 16 and higher. Best stocker heifer calves generally brought prices 50c to 1.00 below similar steers. Stockers and feeder steers and yearlings 10 to 14.50.

Most good and choice 190 to 300-pound butcher hogs 14.75 to 14.85; good 160 to 185-pound averages 14.00 to 14.70. Packing sows ranged from 14.00-25 and stocker pigs cleared at 13.50 down.

Good and choice wooled and fall-born lambs at 15.00; shorn lambs with No. 2 pelts at 14.50, and a few shorn aged wethers at 8.25.

Wall Street

NEW YORK, March 22 (AP)—Bidding for rails, gold mines and scattered industrials gave the stock market a somewhat brighter appearance today although many leaders were unable to shake off small minus signs.

At new tops for 1943 or longer were Dome Mines, McIntyre Porcupine, and Willy-Overland common and preferred. In front were Santa Fe, Great Northern, Southern Pacific, U. S. Steel, Chrysler and J. I. Case. Du Pont was a soft spot. Allied Chemical stumbled, as did Westinghouse, Goodrich and Montgomery Ward.

American Soldiers Honored For Bravery

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN AUSTRALIA, March 22 (AP)—Two American soldiers, one of whom led a charge on a Japanese machinegun nest armed only with a pistol, today were awarded Silver Stars for gallantry in action by Lieut. Gen. Robert L. Eichelberger, commander of U.S. troops in New Guinea.

They were Private First Class Julius Aschenbrenner, of Pinckney, Mich.; and Technician Floyd J. Nichols, 251 Arcadia Place, San Antonio, Tex.

President Has Cold, Is Taking It Easy

WASHINGTON, March 22 (AP)—The White House said today that a cold which kept President Roosevelt in his quarters over the week-end was better, but that he still was remaining in the White House proper and had only one appointment.

That was with Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis at 11:45 a. m.

Car Damaged In Crash Near Here

Highway patrolmen investigated a collision 17 miles north of Big Spring early Sunday morning when a car driven by Wendell E. Johnson was in collision with a truck driven by Dave Clifton Snodgrass of San Angelo on Highway 87.

The cars sideswiped each other and the Johnson car was damaged considerably, highway patrolmen said. None was injured.

Firemen Have A Busy Weekend

Firemen had a busy weekend, but no serious fires.

Quiet until 5:34 p. m. Sunday, things suddenly warmed up. A trash and grass fire was reported at that time at Fourth and Scurry streets with no damage resulting.

At 7 p. m. fire broke out in the bulk of the once burned cement office building at NW 2nd and N. Gregg streets—with no further damage. At 8:10 p. m. the department had one of the most unusual calls on record here. Fire from crude oil waste which had run under a culvert at 904 W. 3rd street several weeks ago when a truck overturned, had been ignited. By blocking one end and flooding the bridge, the fire was brought under control.

As they were preparing to pull away, a car carrying several Mexicans crashed into the rear of another machine and Avelardo Subia had to be taken to a hospital for treatment.

Japs Hit In Burma Raids

NEW DELHI, March 22 (AP)—United States bombers and fighter planes, continuing their attacks against the Japanese in northern Burma while the British are pounding them in the south, blasted enemy installations and left great fires burning at Mogaung, a United States communique said today.

Mogaung is about 225 miles northeast of Mandalay and 75 miles from the China border.

Other fighters and bombers on offensive reconnaissance in the Myitkya area 25 or 30 miles northeast of Mogaung, strafed and burned enemy motor vehicles and strafed two river steamers which were believed to have been sunk, the communique added.

These operations were carried out without the loss of an American plane.

North Side property owners and all persons interested in bettering the community are urged to attend a meeting which will be held at the North Ward school, Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Problems of the community will be discussed at the meeting.

The middle of last week Mrs. Ellis Mason opened a letter from her son, S/Sgt. T. J. Mason, who is in the air corps. He was in Colombia, South America. Sunday he walked in to visit with her. A quick flight up to the states was the answer.

Mrs. T. J. Dunlap returned Monday from a brief visit with her husband who is in the air corps cadet training at Texas A. & M. college. He had just been released from the hospital after a week's confinement due to a severe throat infection.

Sweetwater officers Monday came here to gain custody of Bortalo Monaldi and Fabian Peros, Mexicans arrested here by State Highway Patrolmen Burt Haynie and White on charges of car theft.

Police are looking for a 1942 model car which was reported to have crashed into a telephone post and some shrubs in front of the El Nido courts, on E. 3rd street, at 3 a. m. Sunday. The pole was broken in two and two ornamental cedars were smashed—but the car kept going.

Mrs. H. T. Wright and children have arrived here to join their husband and father, H. T. Wright, who last week came here from Ranger to become assistant manager of Montgomery Ward store. Wright held a similar position in Ranger.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Bolt have received word that their son, Capt. W. T. Bolt, Jr., is now commanding officer of the headquarters 33rd two-engine flying training group at Stuttgart, Ark. Capt. Bolt recently was transferred there from Adams Field at Little Rock, where he was flight director.

Naval Aviation Cadet William F. Hasinbiller has reported to the navy pre-flight school at Athens, Ga. Son of C. W. Hasinbiller who was stationed here for some months with Brown & Root and Bellows, air field contractors, young Hasinbiller took CAA primary training at Abilene.

Chester I. Little, Jr., of route 2, Big Spring, has been appointed a flight officer in the army air forces. He recently completed his training at the Stuttgart, Ark. air field, and now joins the glider transport air arm as a pilot. Little formerly operated a Herald route.

Further Relaxing Of Cotton Quotas Opposed By C. Of C.

Opposition to any increase in the cotton acreage beyond the 10 percent hike in quotas recently announced by the secretary of agriculture, and a determination to resist vigorously the removal of the brake on cotton production control was voted by the chamber of commerce directors Monday.

Directors, after hearing appeals voiced by more than a score farmers and farmer-ranchers, went on record as accepting the 10 percent hike, but opposed to any change in national quotas at this time.

Plans for the annual club-boy livestock show, to be held on a county basis April 7 this year, were discussed by Fred Keating, head of the Howard County Fair association, who felt that judging on a

Pope Pius Confined With A High Fever

By The Associated Press

Pope Pius XII was reported today by the Berlin radio to be suffering from a severe cold and confined to bed with a high fever, but the British radio, in a broadcast recorded by CBS, quoted a Rome announcement that he was only slightly indisposed and that his doctors "say there is no cause for anxiety."

The report said that the Pope's audiences had been suspended.
