

Major Storm Sweeps To East; Midwest Due Heavy Snow

By United Press International
A major storm moved ominously eastward across the Great Plains today.

From eastern Oklahoma across Arkansas and Missouri into the Ohio Valley and Tennessee, weather stations warned of heavy snow, sleet and more of the rain that drenched southeastern Texas Sunday.

Another high pressure center in Indiana signalled snows in Illinois, southern Wisconsin and southeastern Minnesota with up to 3 inches expected in eastern Iowa.

The U.S. Weather Bureau at Chicago said the major storm would gather force as it moves slowly toward the East Coast, where major cities still are cleaning up from last week's fifth major weather onslaught of the season.

A United Press International count showed at least 107 persons in 22 states died last week of weather-blamed causes including over-exertion and exposure. Massachusetts' death toll was heaviest, at 17, while Illinois counted 11 dead.

New York Mayor Robert F. Wagner said his executive ban on non-essential city traffic would continue at least until Tuesday to give street crews a maximum break in cleaning away 17.4 inches of snow that fell during 24 hours early in the weekend.

The city's supermarkets braced for a rush of shoppers today. Many restaurants closed on account of the snow Sunday and apartment house ladders dwindled while dairies stationed milk trucks at strategic corners to supply hard-pressed families.

East Coast air traffic moved gradually back to normal. New York's LaGuardia airport scheduled its first flight since Friday night. Newark Airport reopened late Sunday and Boston's Logan Airport expected to resume full service by noon.

The storm stranded hundreds of airline employees at Idlewild Airport over the weekend along with a dozen would-be travelers who spent the weekend watching runway snowplows from the observation platform and catnapping on couches.

In New England, thousands of families began the week without heat and electricity as the storm moved out to sea. A utilities spokesman estimated about 250,000 persons lost electricity for varying periods during the weekend and 40,000 were without heat late Sunday.

The Weather Bureau at Boston said the 14.4 inch snowfall brought the season's total to 50 inches, highest since the 89-inch record in 1947-48. Boston's fire department appealed to residents to clear away snow around fire hydrants and police backed up a temporary ban on parking with $50 fines and possible license suspension.

At Quincy, Mass., giant ice cakes pounded away supports under part of the Squantum Yacht Club. In Maine, harbor ice up to 4 feet thick idled commercial craft and sent fish prices soaring. The Cape Cod Canal was closed.

In Manchester, N.H., the cold weather burst a 30-inch water main. Escaping water promptly froze across a 12-block area.

Cuttyhunk Island, Mass., with a winter population of about 100, was isolated and Coast Guard crews worked to free a path for a supply tug.

Snow, Ice Cover Area; Down-State Floods Loom

By United Press International
The snow-laden cold front that raked the Texas Panhandle upper South Plains under a path of snow and ice swept through the state today, triggering heavy downpours that threatened to drive several Texas rivers over their banks.

The snow was confined to the Panhandle, South Plains, Big Bend western portion of North Central Texas, where accumulations of a low of 15 inches in the early morning hours today, with two to two and a half inches of snowfall over the weekend.

Texas, where accumulations of four inches were reported today.

The heavy rain over the rest of the state neared flood proportions. No letup was in sight. Only the extreme southern tip of the state was free from precipitation.

Several points reported more than two inches of rain during a 24-hour period that ended at 5 p. m. today. San Angelo had 2.5 inches of snow on the ground, and Dalhart, Amarillo and Abilene had two inches. Heaviest rainfall reported was 4 inches at Hillsboro, north of Waco. Austin had 2.23 inches, Waco 2.06 and many points reported more than an inch.

At Hamilton in Central Texas, a half-onch of snow was reported on the ground by daybreak, and snow continued to fall there. Hamilton city schools closed, as did rural schools at nearby Gustine and Alwyn.

Several schools reported they would remain open, but with curtailed bus service.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said the cold, wet weather would continue through the week with only a slight warming in the middle of the week.

Early morning temperatures today ranged between 18 degrees at Amarillo and 44 at Brownsville and Galveston.

The storm piled drifts of snow a foot deep in the Panhandle, but a clear skies and warmer temperatures moved in behind the front Sunday, it began to melt.

The front produced a tornado Sunday near Flour Bluff, near Corpus Christi. Another storm - called "tornado-like" - sent 32-mile-an-hour winds in the Kennedy, Pawnee and Karnes City area.

There were no injuries from the tornado or windstorms, but five houses were slightly damaged at Flour Bluff. The windstorm, accompanied by three inches of rain in 55 minutes, upset two house trailers at Kennedy and another at Pawnee. Trees and television antennae fell in some areas.

Minor flash flooding occurred at Kennedy and San Antonio Sunday. And hail battered Pearsall 50 miles from San Antonio.

Some railroad officials have questioned whether Mitchell should continue to head the panel in view of the announcement that he would seek the Republican nomination for governor in New Jersey.

Fight Over 'Little Hoover' Bill Opens

AUSTIN (UPI) — Controversial legislation to create a "Little Hoover Commission" to police state government goes before House and Senate committees today as Texas lawmakers begin the fifth week of the 57th session.

The House Committee on State Affairs scheduled the first night meeting of the session to air the measure sponsored by Reps. Dick Cory of Victoria and Don Kennard of Fort Worth.

A companion bill by Sen. Bill Patton of Ganado will be heard at a late afternoon session of the Senate State Affairs Committee.

The proposed 12-member commission would investigate the executive branch of state government and recommend curtailed expenditures and elimination of duplicated services.

"It has become increasingly apparent that the hodge-podge of state government bureaus, divisions, departments and other administrative units is too costly a luxury for the taxpayers of this state," Cory said.

"For too long the mechanics of state government have remained unchanged or have been altered by patchwork and expediency," he added.

A bill to create a "Little Hoover Commission" died in the last session of the legislature.

Finance hearings began on both sides of the capitol. The House Appropriations Committee heard money requests of the adjutant general and the Real Estate Commission and the Senate Finance Committee listened to the Agriculture Department and the Water Development Board outline money needs.

Also scheduled for hearing by the Senate State Affairs Committee is a bill by Sen. A. R. Schwartz of Galveston proposing the creation of a state school for the mentally retarded along the Texas Gulf Coast.

The school has been recommended by the State Board of Hospitals and Special Schools.

'Featherbedding' Probe Slated By Rails Panel

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A special White House commission began efforts today to settle a bitter dispute over proposals by the nation's railroads to end alleged "featherbedding" by train crews.

But the first issue before the 15-man commission concerned the status of its chairman, former Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell, who has stated that he saw no conflict in his dual role, has said he would resign as chairman if other commission members objected.

Today's closed hearings were the first step in a long-range drive to avert a nationwide strike over railroad proposals to reduce the size of train operating crews.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower created the commission last year to recommend a solution to the two-year-old dispute over work rules.

Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg, speaking for the Kennedy administration, endorsed the idea and said he hoped the panel would provide a "constructive and permanent" peace formula.

The main issue is the railroads' demand for abolition of firemen on diesel locomotives in freight and yard service to save an estimated $270 million a year. Union spokesmen contend this would be unsafe and inefficient.

The carriers also have sought sweeping rules revisions in methods of computing pay for the 200,000 train-operating employees on grounds that the present system is wasteful.

The tri-partite commission is scheduled to submit its findings to President Kennedy by Dec. 1. It also is authorized to mediate the dispute but no recommendations would be binding.

Eisenhower named five representatives each of management, labor and the public to the commission. All five rail unions involved — engineers, firemen, trainmen, conductors and switchmen — are represented.

Under settlement terms of the recent New York Harbor tugboat strike, the commission also will make recommendations on the size of crews for railroad-operated tugs and ferries in the New York area.

Aid For Farmers Pushed

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., told some 1,300 members of the Southern Association of Agricultural Workers today that agriculture will continue "for a long, long time" to be the South's basic industry.

The agricultural capacity of the South and the nation, he said, is a major asset and is nothing to be apologetic about.

Stennis made the main speech at the 58th annual convention of the association, which opened this morning and ends Wednesday. Persons from 13 states are attending.

"Our enormous capacity for agricultural production provides the foundation for the strongest economy and highest standard of living in the world," Stennis said. "Further, it is the foundation for our position of leadership in world affairs."

"At home, our people are better fed and better clothed than in any other nation in the entire world. Further, our agricultural product capacity brings this food and fiber to the consumer at the lowest cost, based on percentage of daily earnings, than in any nation in the world."

Stennis said the nation's agricultural productive capacity is essential in the maintenance of "our vast worldwide military machine and allows it to share food with peoples of the 'have-not' nations in the worldwide contest for the preservation of basic human freedoms."

U.S. Polaris Sub Base Set For England

LONDON (UPI) — The United States Navy and the British government plan to establish a base for American Polaris nuclear-fueled submarines some time this month at Holy Loch near Glasgow. Plans were proceeding smoothly until today when it developed they will have to do it over the prostrate body of Bertrand Russell.

Russell, or Lord Russell as he is known over here, is 88 years old, an eminent philosopher and mathematician and a man who doesn't mind going to jail in protest against ideas from which he disents.

He disents in a major way against the Polaris base, and the reference to over his prostrate body is not used loosely or idly. Specifically, Russell plans to sit down or lie down on the pavement somewhere between Marble Arch and Whitehall between 12:30 and 3 p. m. on Feb. 18.

He hopes hundreds of persons will join him and in his capacity as a leader of an anti-nuclear weapon organization known as the Committee of 100. He has issued instructions on how to sit down or lie down in a manner best calculated to frustrate the police.

guerillas Whirl Into Fast Attack On Laotian Convoy

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI) — Communist-backed Pathet Lao guerrillas today attacked a royal Laotian army convoy 25 miles north here on the important Vientiane-Luang Prabang highway. The army canceled a second convoy which was scheduled to leave here for Muong Kassy, site of the rear headquarters of a column that drove from Vientiane to Sala Phou Khoun.

Government forces have been bogged down by a shortage of gasoline in their drive on the rebel-held Plain of Jars with its strategic airfields.

Sources said a Laotian task force under the command of Col. Oudone Sanaikone has been unable to get ammunition and other supplies for two days because there was not enough gasoline to send truck convoys.

They said chartered planes piloted by Americans were dropping supplies daily at Muong Kassy. But there was no way to get food and ammunition to the infantry and an artillery battery located just south of the junction of Muong Kassy.

Oudone's column of an estimated 1,000 men has been repeatedly hampered by the shortage of supplies. Last month the troops had no rice, little ammunition and gasoline for only two days.

U.S. Ambassador To Moscow Flying Back Tomorrow

MOSCOW (UPI) — The status of Russia's new 7.1-ton sputnik remained a mystery to Muscovites and to the Western world today amid speculation that its task was completed when it was launched.

There was no official word on the satellite's whereabouts or its radio frequency since it was put into orbit Saturday.

This led observers here to believe that the new sputnik, man's heaviest object in space, may have served its purpose merely by soaring beyond the pull of gravity, a success for scientists interested primarily in launching a great weight on an "improved multi-stage rocket."

The observers said the world may hear no more about the satellite until it begins dropping back toward the atmosphere and burns up in friction, like a shooting star.

(Observatories in Germany and Britain reported picking up signals which might have come from the sputnik but the Jodrell Bank station in England said the signals more likely were from America's Explorer VII.)

Two Dead, Three Missing After Ship Collision

YOKOHAMA, Japan (UPI) — One of us have any business of being around," an American survivor of a ship collision in Ito Bay said today.

Victor Andrews, 47, of Laguna Beach, Calif., who was hospitalized along with his wife and two other Americans after the collision Sunday night.

Andrews, his wife June, 50, and an 11-year-old son, and his wife, Kathleen, 49, also of Laguna Beach, are the only passengers aboard the Danish freighter Laest Maersk, which sank after colliding with the American ship Alcoa Pioneer.

Doctors here said none of the Americans was in serious condition. The welds are copublishers of the Laguna Beach Post newspaper.

Mardi Gras Under Way

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — "Throw me something, mister," is the cry again ringing through old New Orleans as the city and its thousands of visitors let their hair down for the unbridled mirth that is carnival season.

The "City that Care Forgot" has forgotten its school integration woes and is concentrating on the 20 remaining Mardi Gras parades scheduled and as many fabulous balls.

Five parades kicked off the wild fun-loving season over the weekend in downtown New Orleans and the suburbs. No parades were scheduled today, but two balls will keep the merriment rolling.

As always, the thousands lining the parade routes stream along on the colorful floats to throw favors, bright-hued glass beads and cheap trinkets.

Castro Seizes Plant That Supplies U.S. Naval Base On Guantanamo Bay

HAVANA, Cuba (UPI) — The Castro regime put further strain on its relations with the United States during the weekend by seizing the water company that supplies the big U.S. Guantanamo naval base and by attacking the Kennedy administration.

Premier Castro's government "intervened" Sunday in the Caimanera Aqueduct Co., which is the main source of fresh water.

Although there was no attempt to shut the water pipes, the Navy made it clear that water would be brought in by tanker if necessary.

The take-over of the Caimanera company was strictly a "paper" formality since the source of the water supply and the pumping station which carries it to the base have been under Cuban military guard for several months.

In a speech in Havana, President Osvaldo Dorticos strongly criticized President Kennedy's pledge to aid Cuban exiles in the United States, and said the aid offer "destroys the first hope" of better understanding between the two countries.

Talks Precede Move For New Israel Cabinet

JERUSALEM, Israel (UPI) — Israeli President Izhak Ben-Zvi arranged a series of talks today with all parties prior to asking outgoing Premier David Ben-Gurion to form a new cabinet.

Mapai party secretary Joseph Sagmogi said Sunday night the party, the largest in Israel, has only one candidate for premier — Ben-Gurion.

The 73-year-old statesman, who resigned last week, hopes to re-form his outgoing cabinet on the basis of "forgive-and-forget" after having got his way in ousting former Defense Minister Pinhas Lavon from the trade union federation leadership.

But sources said he is likely to meet trouble both from his own party colleagues and other coalition members. Foreign Minister Golda Meir and Commerce Minister Pinhas Sapir have been too critical of the premier's methods in bounding Lavon to be happy in the same cabinet with the "old man," the sources said.

U.S. Ambassador To Moscow Flying Back Tomorrow

MOSCOW (UPI) — U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson, completing his second assignment in Moscow, flies to Washington Tuesday for his first personal report to President Kennedy.

Thompson, scheduled for reappointment by Kennedy, was expected to advise the new chief executive on the possibility of meeting Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev soon.

The veteran diplomat was reported planning to discuss the pros and cons of meeting Khrushchev as part of a detailed report on the prospects for Soviet-American relations.

There has been considerable speculation that Khrushchev will attend next month's United Nations General Assembly session in New York.

JFK Picks Texan Guam Governor

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy announced Sunday he would name Texas lawyer Bill Daniel as governor of Guam. The 45-year-old Daniel, a brother of Gov. Price Daniel, has a ranch near Liberty, Tex., and has served in the Texas House of Representatives. He has been a practicing lawyer 22 years, and is a graduate of Baylor University.

Mardi Gras Under Way

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy called today for stern action to slash American spending abroad and a bold drive to lure foreign funds here in order to halt the overseas drain on U.S. gold reserves.

One of the chief weapons Kennedy proposed in a special message to Congress was to cut from $500 to $100 the amount of duty-free goods American tourists could bring home from other countries every six months.

The President also asked Congress to prevent American companies from using "tax havens" abroad as a means of escaping U.S. levies. But he also said he had ordered a check on whether U.S. tax laws might be driving "undue amounts" of American capital out of this country.

These were among a score of proposals Kennedy made for keeping the dollar "as good as gold" by ending the 10-year-old balance-of-payments deficit which has resulted from more American money going to foreigners than has come back from them.

Kennedy's program would have a wide impact on bankers, businessmen and tourists here and abroad. It also would limit spending overseas by American servicemen and their families, although Kennedy has revoked former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's order cutting the number of military dependents overseas.

The first step, Kennedy said, is to revive the U.S. domestic economy. But beyond that, he said, much must be done with "maximum emphasis" placed on expanding U.S. exports.

"Our costs and prices must therefore be kept low," he said, "and the government must play a more vigorous part in helping to enlarge foreign markets for American tourists.

"A return to protectionism is not a solution," he said. "Such a

Lenten Season Is Episcopal Topic

St. Mathews Episcopal Church women held their first meeting in February following the weekly service of Holy Communion.

The Rev. Wm. West, rector of St. Mathews, gave a program concerning Lent for the spring season. "Lent is a time for the spring house-cleaning of one's soul," he said, "by giving up our own desires for better Christian living and faith in God."

Mrs. William Gableman gave a report on the Junior Cotillion which is a successful project sponsored by the women of the church. Mrs. Felix Vendrell reviewed plans for the Diocesan Council to be held in Pampa this March.

After the meeting a salad luncheon was served from a table decorated with a Valentine centerpiece. The hostesses were Mrs. Bob Smith, Mrs. E. E. Etheridge, and Mrs. Jack Curtis.

Blustery Winds Are Hard On Good Looks

ALICIA HART
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Beauty often takes a beating during the cold winter months. Winter winds chap the skin, and the drying effects of steam heat contribute to cold-weather blues.

Even your hair begins to long as brittle as a bird's nest from so much exposure to sizzling radiators.

Yet with a little know-how and a very small expenditure, you can hold the damage to a minimum. Chapping and dryness are the most common winter skin complaints, and your hands come in for more than their share of both.

If you've been indulging in the heavier household tasks during the winter, you can remove the resultant grime and soften your hands at the same time. Dip a wet nail brush into a palmful of dry baking soda. Brush under the nails and into those hard-to-get-at knuckle crevices. You'll be amazed at how clean and soft your hands will be.

For added insurance, use your favorite hand lotion often. A woman's hands are usually a barometer of her age and should never be neglected.

Because we live and work in steam-heated rooms, our hair often loses its resiliency during the cold season. Frequent hot oil treatments will help considerably. And they're easy to do at home.

First heat the olive oil. Then part the hair into one-inch sections and rub the oil into the scalp with absorbent cotton. Let the oil soak in for about 30 minutes. Before shampooing wrap a steaming towel around your head, changing it two or three times as it cools.

Brushing will stimulate circulation and help keep your hair soft and shining. Be sure, though, that your comb and brush are scrupulously clean. A good soaking in lukewarm water and soda for about 10 minutes will thoroughly clean your hair grooming tools.

It's wise, during winter, to wear foundation make-up for it will help prevent your face from becoming dry. Faithful nightly applications of a rich cream are a must, too.

You may never have given a thought to winter in relation to your feet other than feeling that they're like blocks of ice much of the time. But it's true that penetrating cold hardens foot calluses. Before using padding on the calluses, try soaking your feet in soda bicarbonate to soften the hardened skin. It's a good trick for softening the rough elbow skin, too.

Chrome Dome Doesn't Mean Power Under Hood

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Some friends of ours own a resort. The wife interviews all the applicants for jobs and does all the hiring and firing. If you saw that collection of maids and waitresses, you'd think it was an old ladies' home. A girl under 50 hasn't a chance to get hired there, and even a good-looking matron over 50 gets fired if she looks sideways at the husband. It's true in his younger days this man was mixed up with some of the help and gave his wife a pretty bad time, but how that he's fat, bald and over 60, don't you think she should let the old goat run the business and quit worrying about him?

Mrs. A. E. Pittman Honored By Lodge

PERRYTON (Sp) — Mrs. A. E. Pittman, retiring noble grand, was honored by the Perryton Rebekah lodge at a banquet held Jan. 27, in the Harvest Room of Hotel Perryton.

Decorations on the banquet table included the three links of love, friendship and truth, accented by the Bible and a rose.

The invocation was given by A. E. Pittman and the program was directed by Mrs. Fannie Jackson. Mrs. Fred Tillman spoke briefly on the principles of Rebekahs. Readings were presented by Mr. Pittman and Mrs. Jackson.

A gift of appreciation was presented to Mrs. Pittman by the lodge members. Mrs. Walter Shaull, noble grand, made the presentation.

Mrs. Pittman presented gifts to her officers and other lodge members. Members also received favors from Mrs. Fannie Jackson, banquet hostess.

At the close of the evening a silent prayer was held for Mrs. Bertha McManley, past noble grand of the lodge.

Those attending were Mmes. Walter Shaull, J. H. Woodward, Loren Allen, Finley Allen, John Stubblefield, Hardy Hulsey, Jesse Moulton, Rod Symons, Eva Fisher, Fannie Jackson, E. E. Posey, Fred Tillman, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pittman.

Congenial Couples Have Dinner Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bowers were hosts at a dinner for members of the Congenial Couples Class of First Methodist Church recently.

Table games comprised the evening's entertainment following dinner.

Attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Elmer Radcliff, Odell Henry, Irl Smith, H. W. Goodner, Vernon Moore, Ben Graham, A. B. Whitten, Aubrey Ruff, Paul Bowers, Mmes. Ross Byars, Clyde Medkief, Malcolm Denson, Elizabeth Graham, Wayne Denson, John Paul and Charles Bowers and a guest, Mary Dunn.

'Winter Wonderland' Hep Cat Dance Theme

"Winter Wonderland" was the theme for the annual Hep-Cat Presentation Ball given recently in the Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn. The dance theme was carried out in a setting of sky-blue taffeta with garlands of Angel hair forming clouds studded with silver stars forming a background for eight flocked Cedar trees of varying sizes, sprinkled with silver glitter.

A white-wrought iron settee flanked with two small chairs completed the setting.

As each new member was introduced by Miss Kitty Gates, president, they were presented with a white fur cat with a lavender ribbon around its neck on which was written "Hep Cat."

Following introduction of new members, honors were presented by the club's high school sponsors, Miss Linda Key and Miss DeAnn Drew. Miss Kitty Gates was named Sweetheart and had as her attendants, Misses Ann Qualls and Martha Haslam. Miss Donna Corner was named Best Pledge. The Sweetheart and Best Pledge were presented with a half-dozen long stemmed red roses and necklaces inscribed with Sweetheart or Best Pledge 1961. The Sweetheart attendants were presented with bracelets inscribed with Sweetheart Attendant 1961.

Miss Gates and her escort, Tim Eller, began the dancing for the evening.

New members presented were: Miss Cheryl Ammerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Ammerman, wearing a yellow tulle street-length formal, escorted by Richard Fatheree; Miss Donna Conner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conner, wearing a light blue lace over taffeta ballerina-length formal, escorted by Claude Middleton; Miss Linda Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Cox, wearing a white street-length silk organza formal, escorted by Jim Shelhamer; Miss Suzanne Darling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Darling, wearing a light pink floor-length formal, escorted by Jimmy Jamieson; Miss Diana Edminster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Men's Keg Play Ends In Flurry

Pampa's Men's City Assn. 19th annual bowling tournament roared to a close late Sunday at Garden City with neck-and-neck battles in both the Class A and Class B finals featuring the final day's action.

Harry Garrison captured the A title with a 654, one pin better than Henry Stephens' and Dave Coddington's 653, and two pins better than Bill Whitsett's 652. Confidently, Garrison, Stephens and Whitsett were all rolling on the same alleys during the last part of the night Sunday.

In Class B, DeWey Cudney posted a 689 to beat Lee Cable, who had a 688. Delmar Jones was in the lead with a 685, and three were tied for fourth place with 663s. Saturday afternoon's team leader survived the final round as Hudson's Keglers won the Class A division and Kewanee No. 1 captured the Class B title.

In doubles, Leon Harris and Bob Holt took home the Class A title with a 1,239 while B. Phillips and K. Winborne won the Class B with a 1,306.

Wells, tournament director, said today that the all-events winners would be announced later in the week after team scores are tabulated. Wells added that a complete prize list would be posted at the alleys by Saturday and that prize money would be mailed by no later than Feb. 20.

FINAL RESULTS

Class A Team: Bob Hudson 3,126; Panhandle Packing 3,078; Bob Hudson Insurance, 2,998; Pampa Warehouse, 2,998.

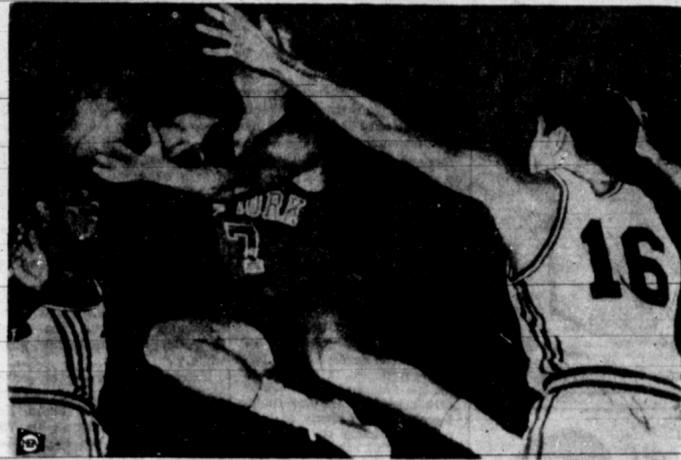

Class A Doubles: Leon Harris & Gault, 1,239; Keith Robinson & Holt, 1,231; Harvey Hoepf & Buck Donnell, 1,218; Harvey Simpson & Jim Herring, 1,207.

Class A Singles: Harry Garrison, 654; Henry Stephens, 653; Dave Coddington, 653; Bill Whitsett, 652.

Class B Team: Kewanee No. 1, 1,306; Independence Insurance, 3,081; Moore Dry Goods, 3,080; Lane & Co., 3,081.

Class B Doubles: B. Phillips & K. Winborne, 1,306; Bill Sargent & Maule, 1,288; Kenneth Smith & Morris, 1,273; Henry Bob R. T. Richardson, 1,271.

Class B Singles: DeWey Cudney, 689; Lee Cable, 688; Delmar Jones, 685; Tenynson, Morris and Rr., 663.

Hot Sub-Par Finish Gives Texan Victory

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI) — Billy Maxwell and Don January, a pair of Texas neighbors, totaled away most of the money today from the marathon 90-hole Palm Springs Golf Classic.

Maxwell, a pudgy, rosy-cheeked kiewpie-doll type, won his $5,000 in cash the hard way — with a 14-under-par 345 to win the five-round open tournament. He was steady Sunday and finished fast with a two-under-par 34 on the back nine at Tamarisk Country Club while other contenders for the top money faltered.

January got his money — $50,000 — in what has to be called the easy way. He scored a hole-in-one on the 15th hole at the Indian Wells course in the second round to get this bonus but finished the tournament with 359 strokes in a tie for 40th place. The tie gave him an additional $18,333, which he can use to help pay the man who makes out his income tax.

Maxwell had a one-under-par 71 for the final round to go with his previous rounds of 68-70-68-68 and was two strokes ahead of the field.

Second place money of $3,400 went to Doug Sanders, the dashing Georgian who plays out of Ojai, Calif. Sanders had a final round 69. The same as Arnold Palmer, who won the first Palm Springs Classic last year. Palmer finished third at 348 and won $2,200, followed by Bill Casper, Apple Valley, Calif., with 349 and $1,900, and the San Francisco Bay area stars, Ken Venturi and Bob Rosburg, at 350, good for $1,600 each.

Don Whit, Borrego Springs, Calif., grabbed $1,400 for his seventh place 351. Three golfers, tied at 352, collected $1,200 each — Jack Fleck, the 1955 National Open champion from Los Angeles; Stan Leonard, the Vancouver, B.C., veteran; and Al Mergert, the Phoenix, Ariz. club pro who led the tournament in the second and third rounds but zoomed to a 78 and a 75 on the last two rounds.

Big Three Cage Teams Back Home

By MARTIN LADER
United Press International

The college basketball season has come down to the "psychological" stage, and with this in mind the big three of Ohio State, Bradley and St. Bonaventure all will utilize their home court advantage tonight as they try to "pile it on" in the waning days of the campaign.

Top-ranked Ohio State which breezed to its 16th straight victory of the season over Michigan, 80-58, Saturday night, takes on Big Ten foe Indiana tonight; second-ranked Bradley engages Drake; and third-ranked St. Bonaventure is matched with small college power Tennessee A&I.

Since all three of the top teams undoubtedly will engage in post-season tournaments, this is the time of year that they'll be showing their best as they seek an important mental edge over future opponents.

Bradley and St. Bonaventure were idle Saturday, but several other members of the nation's elite saw action. In these important contests, fifth-ranked Duke beat fourth-ranked North Carolina 81-77; sixth-ranked Southern California was upended by UCLA, 86-83; Iowa, tied for seventh place in the latest UPI ratings, was on the short end of a 77-60 count with Cincinnati; and 10th-ranked Kansas State defeated Oklahoma, 71-63.

Although Ohio State is given a big edge against Indiana tonight, the game should feature an outstanding personal duel between the Buckeyes' Jerry Lucas and Indiana's Walt Bellamy, Lucas, a first team All-American as a sophomore last season, had a quiet night in the rout-of-Michigan with 17 points. High men for the Buckeyes—who led by 25 points at one stage—were John Havlicek and Mel Nowell with 18 each.

Tech Takes Slim Lead In SWC Race

Horns Face Do-Or-Die Roadtrips

By ED FITE
United Press International

Coach Harold Bradley's Texas Longhorns, afflicted with a painful ailment known as roaditis, face a formidable task of overhauling the free-wheeling Texas Tech Red Raiders while tackling the toughest road schedule of any of the four top Southwest Conference contenders.

The loop basketball schedule hits the half-way point (7 games) Tuesday night with Tech out in front with a 5-1 record, trailed by Texas, Texas A&M and Arkansas with 4-2 marks. Hanging on the outer fringe of contention were Southern Methodist and Rice at 3-3.

Most observers figure an 11-3 record an almost certain assurance of a championship, while some even feel that a 9-5 mark would earn a title tie.

The defending champion Longhorns lost their share of the conference lead last Saturday night by succumbing on the road — a 63-59 defeat at the hands of Rice. Texas' other loop loss also came on the road, a quadruple overtime affair with Texas Christian, while the only club the Longhorns have beaten on the road is Baylor — and that by only one point.

Thus, the psychological disadvantage of the remainder of the schedule must weigh heavily on the minds of Bradley and his charges, who still must face SMU, Arkansas, Texas A&M and Texas Tech on the road. They must win three of those four and all their home-games to get that 10-3 finish.

Tech still has Arkansas, Texas A&M, Baylor and Rice left to face away from home, while the Aggies must play TCU, Rice, SMU and Arkansas on the road and Arkansas has Rice, Texas Tech, TCU and SMU to go.

It is evident Tech has the smoothest path. The Raiders must face Arkansas twice, SMU at home and A&M on the road with in the next two weeks. If they can break even on a home-and-home basis, they would stand 7-3 with only Baylor and Rice left away from home and TCU and Texas at Lubbock.

The Raiders travel to Arkansas for one of four games on tap Tuesday night when SMU hosts Texas, Rice visits A&M and TCU visits Baylor.

Saturday night, Tech faces SMU at Lubbock in the feature game with the Aggies at TCU, Arkansas at Rice and Baylor at Texas. While Texas was failing to Rice last week, Tech whipped TCU 69-57.

Arkansas rapped Baylor 74-58 and TCU 88-75 and SMU whipped Rice 63-53.

The Aggies' Carroll Broussard had his high scoring average sliced a bit, but still set a 27.2-point pace in league play and 22.6 for the season.

Funeral Services Set For A's Parke Carroll

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (UPI) — Funeral services will be held Tuesday for Parke Carroll, former vice president and general manager of the Kansas City Athletics and general manager of the old Kansas City Blues from 1950 to 1954, when the Athletics replaced the Blues in Kansas City.

Carroll, 56, suffered a heart attack while playing golf at the Blue Hills Country Club Saturday and died an hour later in Research Hospital.

The funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. at the Fulton Funeral Home Chapel. Burial will be in Maple Hill Cemetery.

Carroll was named vice president and general manager of the Athletics when the late Arnold Johnson transferred the franchise to Kansas City, Mo., from Philadelphia in 1954. He served in that capacity until a month ago when new owner Charles O. Finley fired him and hired Frank Lane.

Carroll had been in organized baseball since 1942. He was business manager of the old Minneapolis Millers from 1942 to 1945; general manager of the Newark, N.J., club in the International League from 1945 to 1949, and general manager of the old Kansas City Blues from 1950 to 1954, when the Athletics replaced the Blues in Kansas City.

Wilt Aids Warriors To Overtime Victory

By United Press International

Time waits for no one — especially the National Basketball Association team that figures an extra period will wear out Wilt Chamberlain physically.

Chamberlain, defending N B A scoring champion, tallied 11 points in overtime Sunday as the Philadelphia Warriors clipped the New York Knickerbockers, 136-128. The Philly skyscraper totaled 55 points for the game.

Each of the other games also had individual stars as Sam Jones scored on a jump shot with three seconds remaining to give Boston a 123-121 win over St. Louis; Elgin Baylor netted 21 points in the third quarter in Los Angeles' 125-120 triumph over Detroit; and Dick Barnett tallied 34 points as Syracuse topped Cincinnati, 139-115.

Phil Jordan climaxed a New York rally with a basket in the last four seconds to tie Philadelphia, 119-111, at the end of regu-

PHS Hikes To Berger

Pampa's Harvesters begin the first phase of "Operation Foul up" tomorrow night in Berger when they meet Berger's second-place Bulldogs in a District 3-A game.

A loss to Pampa would drop Berger out of the district race and a Harvester win could conceivably move Pampa into a tie for sixth place with either Plainview or Tascosa.

On Friday, Pampa goes to Monterey — the other second place holder — and on Feb. 15, the Harvesters trek to Amarillo before returning home for the season's finale Feb. 16 against Plainview.

Sun Devils Threaten To Up Border Margin

By United Press International

Arizona State's Sun Devils, riding the crest of a five-game undefeated string on league play, put their Border Conference basketball leadership on the block just once this week.

The Devils host Hardin - Simmons, a team they defeated 85-73 earlier on the Cowboys own Abilene court, Saturday night at Tempe and will be overwhelming favorites to boost their loop record to 6-0 and season mark to 14-4.

New Mexico State, the only team regarded as any sort of threat to the Sun Devils' supremacy, goes after its third victory in four starts inside the circuit when the Aggies entertain Texas Western Saturday night at Las Cruces.

The other Saturday night game has West Texas at Arizona, while tonight Texas Western faces Hardin - Simmons at Abilene and West Texas goes outside to travel to Oklahoma City University.

Last week, the Sun Devils came from behind to whip West Texas 78-71, then returned home to upend Arizona 94-78 before a record Tempe crowd of 5,500 with 1,500 other fans turned away. Pint-sized Larry Armstrong led State to a 48-36 halftime lead and went on to score 30 points.

The only other league activity last week saw Hardin - Simmons whip Arizona 84-80 and Texas Western break into the win column with a 71-67 verdict over West Texas.

In outside games, Hardin - Simmons defeated Loyola (La.) 62-51 and Centenary 78-68, New Mexico State downed Pasadena 94-66 and University of Pacific 84-59 and Texas Western beat Pasadena 91-81 in a pair of overtimes.

LSU Rewards Paul Dietzel

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI) — Coach Paul Dietzel's grid success at Louisiana State University has been rewarded. The board of supervisors announced over the weekend that he has been given a $90,000, five-year contract — largest in LSU's history.

Dietzel, whose 1958 team won the national championship, has a six-year mark at LSU of 36 victories, 23 losses and three ties. The new pact represents a $1,000-a-year hike and replaces an old five-year agreement which still had two years to go.

LSU officials said it was the "university's way of imparting confidence not only in him, but in the entire athletic setup."

Hard-Luck Boxer Eyes Title Shot

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Harold Johnson a man with the build of a giant and the troubled heart of a little boy, hopes that Tuesday night he'll get halfway to the end of the boxing rainbow.

Johnson climbs through the ropes at Convention Hall for a bout with 23-year-old Jesse Bowdry of St. Louis. The winner will be recognized by the National Boxing Association which stripped ancient Archie Moore of his crown, as the light-heavyweight champion of the world.

But it's only halfway to a long-dreamed vision for the 32-year-old Philadelphian.

"I won't be happy until I fight Moore again and get it settled," he says quietly. "Sure, half is better than nothing and I've had more than my share of that. But I want to win recognition everywhere."

Johnson, who has the iron-hard body of a weightlifter, almost hit the big jackpot six years ago. He was leading Moore on points going into the 14th round. Then he was knocked down and the fight was stopped.

It was just the beginning of his troubles — and a six-year wait for another chance.

Whatever the reasons, Johnson has had only 12 bouts in the last five years. In that time he earned a meager $16,000 with his fists. Which figures out to a hungry $3,200 a year.

"There's been a number of times I felt like hanging them up and chucking the whole business," he admits. "My family wanted me to quit but I couldn't do it. I felt that all the time I've spent, since I came out of the Navy in 1946, should be rewarded and that if I stuck with it, sooner or later something would break right for me."

Johnson has a defense, too, for the insinuations that he lacks courage and overt sneers that he lacks the killer instinct.

Trio Wait For Wins

By United Press International

Rochester, Springfield and Buffalo displayed the wisdom of Socrates in the American Hockey League over the weekend as they successfully applied the old adage, "Good things come to those who wait."

Snowed out of their Saturday night contests, the thinking man's trio made the game and the points the following evening.

Rochester had no trouble downing Providence, 5-0. Bob Kabel's two goals led Springfield's 6-2 romp of Quebec. Buffalo tried to get its weekend's worth as Billy Dea waited until 6:45 of overtime before clinching a 2-1 win over Cleveland.

In Saturday's only game, Cleveland topped Providence, 5-2. The AHL is idle tonight.

Cokes, Smith Fight In Welter Battle

DALLAS (UPI) — Charles (Tombstone) Smith, the elongated Los Angeles welterweight who is eager to fight his way back up in the ratings, tests young Dallasite Curtis Cokes tonight.

Smith was sitting pretty back in 1958 when he held the No. 2 rating and appeared to have a victory over Virgil Akins, then the champ, in the bag. Akins, however, roared back in the first round of their non-title bout and scored a knockout.

Cokes will be a rugged foe. The Dallas better has easily whipped Stefan Redl and Joe Miceli in his last two outings.

Also on the Monday card will be world lightweight champion Joe Brown. He will face Texas champ Rip Randall in a three-round exhibition bout.

FORT WORTH (UPI) — Four backs and four linemen have signed applications to enroll at Texas Christian University, bringing the number of schoolboy athletes signed since last Wednesday's deadline to 15.

The latest signees included backs, John Hulst of Newcastle, Vic Mohel of Taylor, L. J. Horak of Caldwell and Kenneth Thetford of Graham. Linemen Benny Carter of McKinney, Gary Cooper of Everman, Roy Smith of George West and Richard Sullivan of Whitney.

DALLAS (UPI) — Both ends from Robstown High School's football team have signed pre-enrollment applications at Southern Methodist University. Coach Bill Meeke said today he identified them as Tommy Walker and David Corlier. Walker also is a basketball prospect.

A Loss Of Perspective

A suburban lad handcuffed a young adult couple, strangers to him, and held them in their home at gun point for hours. His grievance: He didn't want to return to the private school his parents had chosen for him.

A five-year-old, angered because a relative refused to take him along on a little trip, carried out his threat and burned down the living room of his parents' house.

These are merely new examples of a not uncommon phenomenon of the times. All of us have read again and again instances in which boys of varying ages have shot and killed one or both of their parents for such minor grievances as having been criticized for not doing their homework.

'Skyline' Tells The Park Row Story

Gene Fowler's farewell is here, a story of Park Row in the 'twenties, called 'Skyline.' On my pillow late at night I slowly realized with sorrow that I had known a saintly man whose goodness glows with a supernatural light as of a halo.

Why didn't he wear sandals and a cow? I criticized Gene for condoning guilty wrongs by notorious public men of his time and circle which had an important aggregate harmful effect on the morals of the rabble. He implied that the charm, the shocking abandon of luxurious wantons compensated the harm they did far, far beyond the company of those who knew them.

I agree with Damon Runyon on the vocation of the reporter and the reporter's duty to walk alone shunning popularity. Which reminds me, there is a studio and factory a block from where I often work on 45th Street, where shields, plaques and medals are designed, graven and washed in gold for presentation in considered recognition of the glory of heroic columns who savagely condemn racism, bigotry and McCarthyism. This is now a commerce. The banquet departments of big hotels run it.

22-Year-Old Cuban Sent To Court Of St. James

By HENRY McLEMORE

ROME, Italy — Cuba's new ambassador to the Court of St. James in London, aged 22, heralds a new era in diplomacy.

France is said to be grooming a 9-year-old for Washington. His hoops have been taken away from him, as have been his skates, at the moment he learns to sleep in a dark room without being afraid he will be off to present his credentials to President Kennedy.

Looking Sideways

By WHITNEY BOLTON NEW YORK — Not being an architect, an employee of the federal government, a kinsman of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt or even much of a left-over Druid, I probably have utterly no business commenting on the weird memorial that has been approved as a lasting monument to the war-time president, but if ever Stonehenge was brought to life in terms of concrete and steel—there it is.

No sensible man can reasonably deny the value of children and infants as diplomats. The saving in money alone makes it worth while.

Allen - Scott Reports: Powers Release 'If Cordial Relations Continue' Hinted to Stevenson by Zorin

WASHINGTON — Premier Khrushchev is personally letting it be known he is willing to release U-2 pilot Francis Powers. The Kremlin ruler has communicated this dramatic word to President Kennedy through their representatives at the United Nations — Ambassador Adlai Stevenson, who had a long talk with Khrushchev during a Russian visit in 1959, and Ambassador Valerian Zorin.

Censorship Upheld

The Supreme Court has upheld a censorship ordinance in the city of Chicago, but with the notation that the decision does not necessarily mean anything much. The court's reluctance to get squarely on the line is nearly as alarming as its apparent decision that governments may, by decree, determine what may be offered for public amusement, entertainment or discussion.

The Doctor Says:

By Dr. HAROLD T. HYMAN Few of us reach years of discretion without suffering the aches and pains of foot and back troubles caused by faulty mechanics and even faultier shoeing. Since our difficulties are due, for the most part, to errors that date back to infancy and childhood, we are obligated to protect the rising generation from repeating our mistakes.

Quotes In The News

WASHINGTON — Sen. Mike Mansfield saying the Eisenhower prepared budget would show a $1 billion deficit instead of a surplus. "The revenues just aren't there. A too risky picture has been painted."

The Nation's Press

DIAGNOSING THE SOCIAL SECURITY SYSTEM'S CONDITION (Editor's Note: The following column was written by Richard Starnes and appeared in the Washington Daily News.) A man who sits down and writes a column like this one is apt to end up scrubbing the tar and feathers off his pet, and soon as that is done, putting on a clawhammer coat and getting a medal pinned on himself.

Washington's Status Symbols Shift Rapidly

WASHINGTON (UPI)—As several hundred thousand social historians already have observed, it's a changing world we live in. Almost everywhere you look, the status is rapidly unquoining. This is particularly true in Washington, which has a somewhat rootless population and is more responsive than most cities to the shifting sands of time. About a year ago, for instance, I compiled a research paper on status seeking in the U.S. capital. It told how federal employees at four levels of the government could be recognized by their status symbols. I was looking over this list recently and I found that it already is out of date. The advent of the Kennedy administration has introduced a whole new set of status symbols that need to be identified and catalogued. I have decided that the best way to approach this task is to classify various symbols under generalized headings and then denote which ones are "in" and which are "out."

Ambassador Post Seen For Gavin

WASHINGTON (UPI)—LL Gen. James M. Gavin, retired Army research and development chief, was reported under consideration today as the next U.S. ambassador to France. The much-decorated World War II paratrooper commander now is president of Arthur D. Little, Inc., an industrial research and consulting firm. He will be 54 years old next month. The White House had no comment on reports that Gavin had been tapped for the Paris post, one of this country's key diplomatic assignments. There also were unconfirmed reports that Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. was being considered for the post of ambassador to Italy.

State CROP Director To Speak Here

The Rev. Norman Sundwell, Texas director of the Christian Rural Overseas Program, will speak at a meeting of the Gray County CROP organization at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the Agricultural Building, east of Pampa on Hwy. 60. H. M. Nichols of Panhandle, Asst. Texas CROP director, announced yesterday that plans for 1961 will be formulated and adopted at the Thursday night session. Nichols said all ministers in Gray County are urged to attend the meeting. "It is necessary that each church in the county be represented," Nichols said, "if the 1961 CROP work in Gray County is to accomplish the greatest amount of good. The meeting will mark the first appearance of the Rev. Mr. Sundwell in Gray County, according to Paul Bowers, Gray County CROP chairman.

Self-employed tax rules...

Self-employed tax rules, together with tips relating to the federal income tax, are explained in the instruction booklet which farmers and ranchers will receive in the mail along with their blank forms. For those with unusual problems, copies of the official pamphlet, "Farmer's Tax Guide," may be had by contacting the IRS office at 120 W. Kingsmill St. Those needing help in preparing their income or self-employment returns may check with the local IRS office by telephone or in person. Taxpayers are urged, however, to fill out their own returns as far as possible "before" asking Internal Revenue help. The IRS representative reminded farmers and ranchers that February 15 is the deadline for filing their income and self-employment tax returns if they do not file an estimated return on January 18. If an estimated return was filed and the tax due paid on January 18, farmers and ranchers have until April 17 to file their final return for the year 1960.
