

Daily News Series Sheds Light On John Birch Society

EDITOR'S NOTE: Since the John Birch Society has become a major subject of controversy throughout the nation and inasmuch as local interest has been heightened by last night's visit to Amarillo of the Birch Society's founder, Robert Welch, The News is running a four part series by M. C. Maloney, a Freedom Newspaper news editor, who made an exhaustive study of the Society. The first article in the series follows:

By M. C. MALONEY

Some two years ago 12 men met in a midwestern city — the purpose of the meeting was known only to one of the 12, Robert Welch.

From this two-day session has sprung what is probably the most controversial and widely discussed organization in recent time — The John Birch Society.

The 11 invited guests of Welch, a retired candymaker from Belmont, Mass., were busy men. They were important men. They had come from such widely separated areas as Oregon and Virginia, from Tennessee, Wisconsin, Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Massachusetts and Indiana.

These 11, who shared with Welch a growing concern with the rapid advances being made by international communism, listened as he outlined his plan for an effective organization to fight the Red threat.

The immediate threat Welch saw as the general encroachment of communism on the world and its infiltration into many phases of American life.

But even beyond this he saw the ever increasing growth of collectivism and its threat to the freedom of man.

He outlined the background, the methods and the purposes of his proposed organization — an organization he envisioned as composed of individuals dedicated to victory in the immediate battle against Communism and, beyond that, to the defeat of collectivism and the return in this country to a constitutional republic as he said was originally conceived by this country's founders.

Thus was formed the John Birch Society, named for a young Baptist missionary and Army Captain who was killed by Chinese Communists 10 days after the surrender of Japan.

In the 28 months since birth of the Birch Society that wintry day in Indianapolis the society has mushroomed into an organization which presently claims chapters in 34 states and is apparently well on its way to its goal of 1,000,000 members.

For 27 of these 28 months the Birch Society was almost unknown to the general public. Now, almost as though a master switch (See BIRCH, Page 2)

Russian Spaceship Hero Says 'Craft' Was Landed Safely

MOSCOW (UPI) — Spaceman Yuri Gagarin said Saturday his pioneer flight in orbit was such a breeze he now wants "to do some real flying"—to the moon, Venus or Mars. He disclosed the Russians are building special-space ships presumably for a manned moon flight.

Gagarin told the largest news conference ever held in Moscow that his own spaceship, "Vostok" East returned to earth intact, its instruments in tip-top order, and it could be used again for space flight.

The Soviet air force major explained for the first time how he was able to see the earth from his spaceship. He said his ship had a "porthole," and he had a clear view of the earth at all times.

But the spaceman failed to clear up the mystery of exactly how he landed back on earth following the epochal space flight he said was made, at heights ranging from 110 to 118 miles.

Asked to give details on how he landed, the 27-year-old Gagarin said Russia had developed several "techniques," including use of parachutes, for landings from space flights. But he side-stepped any direct answer.

"My landing showed the correctness of all the means developed to land," Gagarin said. Gagarin, who received a delirious

Frost Forecast As Winds Shove Cloudiness Out

By United Press International

A howling cold front rammed through Texas all the way to the Gulf Coast yesterday, unleashing bitter sub-freezing weather in the Panhandle and high winds that blew dust into the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

The U.S. Weather Bureau issued a freeze warning for the Panhandle and High Plains and forecast frost as far south as Dallas-Fort Worth, threatening tender spring crops.

High winds capsized a boat on Eagle Mountain Lake near Fort Worth and a fisherman, Floyd Miller, 28, of Fort Worth, was missing and presumed drowned. At least three boats were reported overturned.

A few snow flakes were reported at Borger Friday night as the polar front whistled through the Panhandle and pushed rapidly downstate. Gusts north of winds up to 40 miles an hour whipped behind the front, stirring up dust which cut visibility at Brownsville to four miles, unusual for the southern tip of the state.

The cold front drove into the state on a violent note, as high winds blew down the main tent of the Cole Brothers Circus on some 800 persons at Iowa Park near Wichita Falls Friday night.

Seven persons were injured, including one seriously. Damage estimated at upwards of $10,000 was inflicted by high winds that struck a lumber yard at Amarillo a few hours earlier.

The winds also knocked out a power substation at Wichita Falls and early Saturday electric power was disrupted in parts of San Antonio when lines were broken. Temperatures plunged to 24 degrees. (See WEATHER, Page 2)

Adenauer To Get Big Reception

AUSTIN (UPI)—The Texas hospitality treatment with a slight German accent is planned for West Germany Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's brief visit to the Lone Star State.

Adenauer was scheduled to arrive at Bergstrom Air Force Base here at noon Sunday for an overnight visit with Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson at his ranch 75 miles west of Texas' capital city. Johnson will accompany Adenauer from Washington.

Johnson's ranch is located in the hill country that was settled more than 100 years ago by German immigrants. Fredericksburg, the heart of the German colony, will be the scene at 4 p.m. tomorrow of a special reception for Adenauer at the Gillespie county fair grounds.

A brief history of the colony's founding in the rugged Indian country will be outlined for the 85-year-old chancellor. A program of songs, by the city's Kinderchor (children's choir), Adenauerchor (men's choir) and Mary Choral choir from St. Mary's Catholic Church will be presented.

Adenauer will be accompanied during his Fredericksburg visit by Retired Fleet Admiral Chester Nimitz, a native of the city who won worldwide fame for his Navy leadership in the Pacific during World War II.

The chancellor will visit Fredericksburg's colorful "Sunday Houses," small homes that were built by the German settlers a century ago for use only on the Sabbath when they left their farms to attend a day of worship services in the town.

Thousands of Central Texans, whose ancestors came to the United States from Germany, were expected to throng Austin's Congress Avenue for a special parade honoring the Chancellor Monday at 11:30 a.m.

Bands from the University of Texas and five Austin high schools along with ROTC cadets from the University and Texas A&M College will escort the chancellor to the state capitol. Austin school children and university students will be excused from classes during the chancellor's visit.

Adenauer will address a joint session of the Texas House and Senate at noon Monday. The speech will be broadcast live to Germany over special voice of America facilities.

'New Frontier' Chiefs Worry Over Program

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Some high-ranking new frontier leaders were showing concern Saturday because Congress is not moving faster with President Kennedy's 16-point priority legislation program.

The President, they said, has not registered criticism or complaint. But the administration apparently is worried about signs that, despite Kennedy's personal popularity, lobbies and pressure groups opposed to his program are making headway at the capitol.

But those now indicating concern cite these factors: Many key White House aides are ex-professors with limited experience in congressional relations. Too little personal attention may have been paid to senior committee chairmen, for example, or to the "realities" of committee strength. Republicans, probing for weak spots in the administration's armor, can accomplish almost as much by delay as by outright opposition. Hence, a too-relaxed work schedule in House and Senate may play into their hands and those of conservative Democrats.

Kennedy, who knows the Senate and House as a former member of each, saw the Senate Finance Committee give a working-over to Stanley S. Surrey, the former Harvard law professor whom he named as assistant treasury secretary. Surrey's nomination was held up for weeks until Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon assured the committee he and the President, not Surrey, would really make tax policy.

Food-Wage Program Prepared For Use In Foreign Countries

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Administration officials soon will announce plans to donate food to be used as wages for workmen on roads, dams, and other development projects in six foreign countries.

A seventh food-wages project also may be approved soon. George McGovern, the administration's food-for-peace director, said Saturday.

The projects are part of a broader administration plan to expand the food-for-peace program, making wider use of America's tremendous food production to feed hungry people and spur economic development abroad.

Two Attacking Planes Landed On U. S. Soil

HAVANA (UPI) — Six and possibly seven B26 bombers strafed and bombed military targets in Havana and two other cities Saturday. Frightened Cubans feared more raids to come and Fidel Castro mobilized his 300,000-man militia for defense against invasion.

Premier Castro blamed the United States for the dawn air raids which caused heavy damage and a number of casualties. Cuba accused the United States of "aggression" before a special United Nations meeting in New York and President Osvaldo Dorticos in an interview charged the planes were piloted by "mercenaries" from United States bases.

The government charged the raids were a "prelude to a large-scale military aggression."

Two of the attacking planes landed in Florida where their pilots identified themselves as defecting Air Force officers. One plane was badly shot up. A third plane, also damaged, landed in a "foreign country," exited Cubans in Miami said.

Casualties were officially estimated at seven dead and 39 wounded in Havana with five wounded in Santiago.

At the United Nations, Foreign Minister Raul Roa charged the rebels planned another raid, probably Saturday night. The report spread through Havana but the city seemed outwardly calm. The dawn raiders struck at Camp Liberty Army headquarters in Havana, San Antonio De Los Banos and Santiago.

Two B26 bombers swooped low over Havana about 6 a.m. strafing and bombing.

Panic was reported in San Antonio De Los Banos where at least two and possibly three planes, including one alleged to be a jet, dropped bombs and strafed Saturday morning.

Two planes, one painted black and the other gray staged a simultaneous raid at the eastern city of Santiago.

The Defense Ministry charged the planes which raided Santiago flew to the U. S. Navy base at Guantanamo.

President Dorticos said six or seven planes all told were involved. All were "foreign based," and came from a long distance, he charged.

Columns of troops and militiamen streamed through Havana to (See WAR PLANES, Page 2)

Birch Society's Founder Brands 'Comsymp' Folk

AMARILLO, Tex. (UPI)—Robert Welch, top man in the far-right John Birch Society, found himself facing an attentive but enthusiastic audience of nearly 1,800 in Amarillo Saturday night.

The crowd interrupted his speech with wild applause 18 times. Welch called the theme of his talk, "The Principle of Reversal" so widely-used by the Communists.

"But this principle of reversal the Communists frequently take their greatest weakness or danger...and by bluff and audacity and lies...convert it into their greatest item of strength."

There was no picketing here Saturday night and no heckling from the audience, though Welch on one occasion apparently thought there was. On that occasion he stopped his speech, peered into the darkened audience, and said: "I'm sure that some of you here have coughed, but I'm equally sure some of you have not. I'm equally sure some of this coughing is heckling... I just wanted the hecklers to know I am aware of it."

Welch came up with a new word which he said was recently "coined by a friend of mine — comsymp. A comsymp is a man who is either a Communist or a sympathizer with Communist purposes."

"We see the principle of reversal at work in infiltration of Communists into the Protestant ministry because that is almost the last place the ordinary American would expect to find them."

"But while the percentage of comsymps in that field is only around three per cent, and no blame can be attached to the other 97 per cent, except for the same gullibility with which Americans as a whole are afflicted, the three per cent have maneuvered themselves into powerful positions."

"For the key to this whole situation, I believe, is that Protestant ministers do not become Communists, but Communists do become Protestant ministers."

"And often it is very easy for these hard core Communists to push themselves ruthlessly up the ladder of clerical organizations."

Birch

Critics of the conservative right-wing society have denounced it as being un-American, fascist, reminiscent of the Ku Klux Klan and a counterpart of the American Nazi party.

The top Communist in the United States, Mrs. Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, joined the critics and described the Birch group as a "freak organization" she said "it seems impossible that if (the society) will make any impression on the American people."

Demands for investigation of the group have come from senators, congressmen, California state senators and assemblymen of both Democratic and Republican parties.

Gov. Edmund Brown, of California, has said he would request California Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk to make a report on the Society.

Welch himself has been labeled a little Hitler, a Mussolini, a fake patriot and a slick demagogue by Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, who spoke on the floor of the Senate. But Young, however, called for no investigation, saying that Congress is too busy to take time for such an investigation.

The Society itself has demanded an investigation to check into its aims and activities.

Welch, in a telegram to Gov. Brown, said: "We respectfully request and in view of statements made to press by officials of your state we urgently demand the proposed investigation of the John Birch Society by the California State Senate Un-American Activities Committee."

He told Brown as many members of the society as desired "will gladly testify" and said "Unlike our Communist enemies none of our members will take the fifth Amendment."

Welch's demand was in reply to a resolution introduced by California Assemblyman John A. O'Connell, D-San Francisco, condemning the organization for "divisive, coercive and un-American tactics." This, and another similar resolution were withdrawn when their backers conceded they had insufficient votes to get them out of the Rules Committee.

In the midst of the attacks and charges, the society was not without its defenders, also in high government positions.

Sen. James O. Eastland, D. Miss., chairman of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee, of whom Welch had requested an official investigation of the Birch Society praised the society as a "patriotic organization."

A California congressman, Rep. John Russo, also jumped to the defense of the society of which he said he was a member.

Rep. Edgar W. Hiestand called congressional attacks part of a "pro-Communist smear", and was proud that the society was successful in fighting communism.

Hiestand described society members as "violent, emphatic, dedicated anti-Communists" with not more than two per cent possible extremists.

Catholic Priest Saved From Fire

GARLAND, Tex. (UPI)—A sleeping Catholic priest suffered burns on his face and body early Saturday when a $20,000 fire roared through the rectory of the Good Shepherd Catholic church.

Father Anthony Furgal was awakened and rescued by two unidentified priests who smashed in a window of the rectory.

War Planes

The Cuban government has less than a dozen B26 twin-engine bombers and Doficos said all were in their hangars.

The Camp Liberty base on the edge of Havana was shattered. "They were real clever," a militiaman said. "First they got us with bombs and then they strafed us with machine guns."

One dropped a stick of bombs and zoomed upward through a hail of tracer bullets. The second dove to the attack and then roared away, damaged by bullets. A third criss-crossed the area to try to wreck parked planes.

Several planes at Camp Columbia took off in pursuit. Ammunition dump explosions rocked the area. Shattered "ass littered the camp streets. The cream-colored headquarters building was pocked with bullets.

One of the three attacking B26 bombers over Havana was first reported to have been shot down. Other reports said it limped to safety outside Cuba.

(In New York, a spokesman for the anti-Castro Cuban revolutionary Council, headed by Dr. Jose Miro Cardona, confirmed the attack was made by defecting Cuban air force pilots and the planes "bore Cuban markings.")

Premier Castro rushed to Camp Liberty—once the stronghold of ousted Dictator Fulgencio Batista—and issued a fiery communique calling every able-bodied Cuban "to the post to which he has been assigned."

"The fatherland or death," the communique said.

"The Cuban delegation to the United Nations has received instructions to accuse the United States government directly of aggression," he said.

The U. N. 98-nation Main Political Committee in New York began an emergency session to hear Cuba's charge that "aggression" had been committed by "North American aircraft." Russia forced the meeting after the U. N. General Assembly president refused a Cuban plea for an emergency full assembly meeting.

At Santiago, one black plane and one painted gray attacked the air base landing strip and caused damage to three parked planes. The Armed Forces Ministry said it said these planes flew off to the U. S. naval base at Guantanamo.

(A spokesman at the Guantanamo base said all was quiet and nothing untoward occurred there. "We are prepared for any eventuality," he said.)

Trainman Killed In Rail Mishap

W. W. Ratliff of Canyon, Santa Fe Railroad brakeman, died at 10 p.m. Friday in Highland General Hospital following a rail mishap near White Deer.

Ratliff sustained severed legs and loss of blood when he slipped from a water tank car and its wheels passed over both legs about 7:25 p.m.

The brakeman on the Pampa-Skellytown freight was perched on the lone water tank car just after it was cut loose from the engine. He was intending to turn the hand brake on the car to stop it as it rolled downhill east on a stock raiing adjacent to the main line, according to A. B. Caudie, Santa Fe agent at White Deer.

Ratliff, who was on the east end of the car, slipped to the ground just ahead of the wheels and failed to have enough time to get out of the car's path.

Witnesses at the scene said Ratliff was conscious until he was placed in a Duenkel - Carmichael ambulance and brought to Highland General Hospital. He lived only a couple of hours after the accident.

Duenkel - Carmichael Funeral Home took the body to the funeral home in Canyon, where funeral services will be held.

Weather

(Continued From Page 1) grees in the upper Panhandle early Saturday, and the Weather Bureau predicted low readings in the lower 20s Sunday morning in northwest Texas and the High Plains.

The delayed winter punch, described by the Weather Bureau as a reinforced polar front, came after a day of summery weather Friday which sent temperatures to 94 degrees at Austin. Brisk winds there fanned a fire which covered 1,000 acres of cedar brakes and threatened a section of expensive homes before it was brought under control Saturday morning.

Gusty winds cleared clouds from all of Texas except in Eastern portions, and some showers were reported at noon Saturday southwest of Texarkana.

Winds gusted to 41 miles an hour at Fort Worth Saturday afternoon, and temperatures were held to 60 degrees, compared to Friday's high of 84.

Russian

His descent from orbit to Russia's secret "cosmodrome" took 30 minutes. He gave no details on the ascent that was presumed to have taken 29 minutes—the amount of time left after subtracting the orbit and descent periods.

The Soviet Union has enough cosmonauts ready to carry out its space program and additional flights, as well.

Gagarin was assisted and prompted on technical details by members of the Soviet Academy of Sciences who also answered questions. The scientists made these points:

The spaceman came through the orbital journey in complete good health.

His pulse count was a normal 70-75 beats per minute before he boarded the Vostok—and was the same when he returned. It was, in fact, the same as when he had gone to bed the night before the flight for a "sound sleep" of 10 hours.

Reports that the Russians had made previous attempts to launch a man into orbit were a "Western invention." Scientists said there had been no previous attempts.

Gagarin told the news conference that from the height of 110 to 118 miles the earth "looks very good."

"Large mountain areas, large rivers and forests, the coastline, lakes, islands were easily distinguishable," Gagarin said.

"During the space flight I was fully able to adhere to what we pilots call 'navigation by geographical locality.' The clouds covering the surface of the earth could be seen very well, the shadows of these clouds on the earth.

"The sky, however, was quite black. The stars in the sky look brighter and can be seen more accurately against this black sky.

"The earth has a very characteristic and very beautiful blue halo. The aureole becomes particularly distinct at the horizon when gradual transition in colors takes place from soft blue to light, from light blue to blue, dark blue, violet to black, to a quite dark sky. The transition is very smooth and very beautiful."

FIRE KILLS MAN FORT WORTH (UPI)—Johnny Crash, 19, a Fort Worth Negro, died when fire swept his home Saturday. Firemen said they believe the fire started from a cigarette dropped in a wastepaper basket.

$21,000 Story Not Believed

FORT WORTH (UPI)—Dist. Judge Harold Craik doesn't believe William C. Preston Jr.'s story that he flushed $21,000 in $100 bills down the bathroom plumbing to keep his wife's lawyer from getting it.

So Craik has ordered Preston, 57, to report to him at 9 A.M. Monday to begin serving three days for contempt and any additional time it takes to persuade him to give his wife $10,000 cash.

Preston is a former business man who claims he now is broke. The $21,000 is an issue in a divorce suit brought by his wife of many years, Mrs. Mary Preston. She claimed that much of Preston's estate is her separate property. Preston said he sent the $21,000 down the drain in the Fort Worth club last August to keep creditors and her lawyer from getting it.

Level Of Water In High Plains Area On Decline

Water levels in wells in the Northern High Plains of Texas generally declined slightly during the past year, according to a report of the State Board of Water Engineers.

Bulletin 6103, released this week, records annual water-level measurements of 352 observation wells in eight counties covering most of the two northernmost tiers of Panhandle counties. Although declines were shown for most of the wells, the decline in most cases was small, often less than a foot. Similarly slight rises were noted in a number of wells.

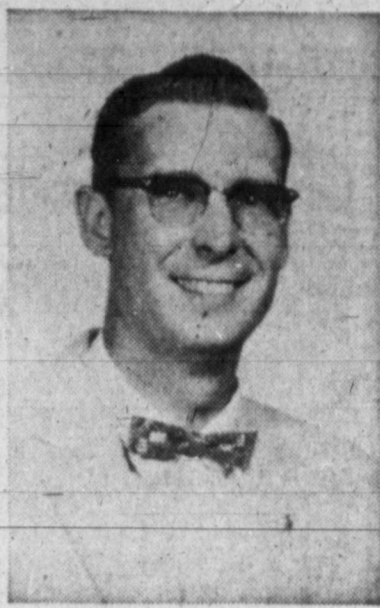

Bulletin 6103 is available for free distribution at the Board of Water Engineers Office, P.O. Box 2311, Capitol Station, Austin.

The observation wells reported on are located in Dallam, Hansford, Hartley, Hutchinson, Lipscomb, Moore, Ochiltree, and Sherman Counties. Annual water-level measurements are made during the first few months of the year because at that time water levels generally have recovered from the major part of the effects of pumping during the previous irrigation season.

Changes in water levels reflect changes in the amount of ground water in storage and are related to recharge, which is primarily from precipitation, and to discharge, which in this area is primarily by means of pumping for irrigation.

The bulletin contains maps showing locations of observation wells in each of the eight counties, and tables showing assigned well numbers, dates of measurements, water levels, and changes in water levels. Measurements were made by representatives of the Board of Water Engineers, the U.S. Geological Survey and the North High Plains Ground Water Conservation District No. 2.

Wrong Language Used By Singer; He Gives Reason

NEW YORK (UPI) — Tenor Richard Tucker opened his mouth on the stage of the Metropolitan Opera Thursday night and the wrong language came out. Tucker was singing in the final performance this season of the opera "Martha," which has one well-known aria. He was singing English.

But without warning he launched into the aria in Italian. "M'appari tutt' amor il mio sguardo l'incontro," he lamented, to the consternation of the conductor, the audience and the cast. Tucker explained later — after a round of applause — that he had received a flood of letters complaining that opera goes missed the Italian words, made famous by Caruso, so he decided to oblige them.

Modern Styling Boosting Sales Of Hearing Aids

NEW YORK (UPI)—Hearing aid sales have been booming, yet fewer people seem to be wearing them.

Behind this modern paradox are the great strides being made in perfecting electronic aids that tuck out of sight behind an ear, or are hidden in eyeglass frames.

This success in miniaturization and camouflage has turned the hearing aid industry into a $60 million annual business, and expectations are for a doubling or tripling of this volume in the not too distant future, according to the president of Otation Listener Corp.

Leland E. Rosemond noted that about 1.5 to 2 million persons now wear various types of hearing aids, but about 5 to 8 million more need them.

But he is confident that as people learn how inconspicuous modern aids are, and how well they improve their hearing, they will turn to them in increasing numbers.

High fashion has come to the hearing aid field with slim, modern eyeglass frames that give no hint of the full-range aids contained in them.

In another significant advance, Rosemond said his firm has a microphone smaller than a fingertip which is buried in the bridge of eyeglasses. This front hearing brings in the voice of a person facing the wearer above the babble of a crowded room.

Rosemond started in the hearing aid business 30 years ago, and in 1954 bought Otation. It was that same year that the Ossining, N.Y. firm brought out the eyeglass frame hearing aid which was an instant success, and today accounts for the vast majority of industry sales. There are two basic types of hearing aids—bone conduction and air conduction. In the former, sound vibrations are transmitted through the bone behind the ear to the middle ear, bypassing the outer ear. In air conduction, amplified sound is led directly into the ear canal.

To determine what type of aid is needed and whether for one or both ears, audiologists carefully test a person's hearing to decide the level and type of loss.

Eichmann May Not Testify Until Summer

JERUSALEM (UPI)—It will be midsummer before Adolf Eichmann will be permitted to take the stand to tell his own story of the Nazi slaughter of Jews, authorities at his court trial predicted Saturday.

Whether he takes the stand then in his own defense will be up to Eichmann and his West German lawyer, Robert Servatius of Cologne. Servatius has said he still is undecided. While the three-judge court spent the weekend recess pondering a ruling on its competency to try the former Nazi SS colonel, Eichmann sat reading quietly and resting in his cell.

The court headed by Judge Moshe Landau said it would rule Monday morning on Servatius' challenge that the court had no legal right to try Eichmann.

One ounce of atoms, completely converted into energy, would produce enough electricity to last a city of 500,000 a year.

Mrs. Katie Vincent Honored Guest At Historical Meeting This Week

The Pampa Genealogical and Historical Society paid tribute to several important historical events occurring in April with their second anniversary dinner Tuesday night in the Starlight Room of Coronado Inn.

The program opened with a reading by President Tracy D. Cary, of letters from Vice-President Lyndon B. Johnson, and Governor Price Daniel urging a larger use of the state song, "Texas, Our Texas," by William J. Marsh, at all patriotic and public functions from March 2, Texas Independence Day, through April 21, San Jacinto Day. A recording just made by RCA of the song and sent by the composer to Cary commemorating the 125th anniversary of Texas Independence was played and sung by the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary Choir.

Leading the pledge of allegiance to the flag was Luther M. Fruit, followed by the invocation given by C. V. Ingram.

Special guest of honor was Mrs. Katie Vincent, member of a pioneer Pampa family, a "REAL" daughter of the Confederacy, whose father John Crawford was the first Confederate veteran to be buried with full military honors in Fairview Cemetery here. Her grandfather organized the 28th Tennessee Infantry Regiment, and Mrs. Vincent related several anecdotes of the War Years.

Dr. Lowell Harrison, head of the history department of West Texas State College and an expert on the history of the Civil War period, was speaker for the program. Noting that the dinner was being held on the eve of the 100th anniversary of the War, Dr. Harrison reviewed the story of the gallant men who served under John B. Hood, Benjamin Terry, and others. "The South never lost a battle on Texas soil," Harrison said, "because Texans fought so furiously in other states, they prevented the enemy from coming close." The speaker noted that Texas was the only one of the southern states which entered the Confederacy by the decision of the voters in public election. The others did so, he stated, by vote of their state conventions. The vote in Texas was approximately 45,000 for and 13,000 against, "thus the study of Texas history of this period is necessarily that of the South."

It is noted that while the nation's business is faced with an acute shortage of qualified office workers, the nation's business is finding it hard to obtain competent help.

The office machine manufacturer, Office Equipment Manufacturers Institute, sponsors of the show, said that while the nation's business is faced with an acute shortage of qualified office workers, the nation's business is finding it hard to obtain competent help.

There will be nearly 200 million typewriters, and military service of the most modern business men still have seriously depleted the office equipment and related needs of the skilled office worker. Supplies are in short supply. To compensate partly for this new equipment expansion here the manufacturers have expended considerable effort to reduce the cost of their products.

And while these products will cover the broad range of the efficient machine age, the nation's business is finding it hard to obtain competent help.

Technical Gains Forcing Oilmen Back To School

TULSA, Okla. (UPI)—The plotting a rigorous study schedule, average oilman is likely to find it difficult to carry new techniques in reservoir management back in the schoolroom at least once a year.

Multi-million-dollar research programs are solving technical problems in the oil industry, but they raise a new problem of educating personnel to take advantage of new discoveries.

The result has been the growth of a vast education program within the industry . . . not only for new personnel, but for oldtimers as well. No one in the oil industry seems to learn his job on a time. He must learn it over and over.

Typical of education programs which are expanding throughout the industry are the series of schools conducted by Jersey Production Research Co. for its parent company, Standard of New Jersey and Affiliates.

Thirty-four engineers from the United States and seven other countries are in Tulsa for a five-week reservoir school. After completing a rigorous study schedule, they will carry new techniques in reservoir management back to Venezuela, Canada, Colombia, Peru, Iran, Iraq and Arabia.

When the production men leave town, a two-week logging school will begin. After that, there will be a worldwide classroom immigration of exploration engineers.

If the Standard of New Jersey program is bigger than most, it is not unique.

The annual report of Sunray Mid-Continent Oil Co. boasts of an accelerated program of employee training and development.

"Development was aimed at improving performance and acquiring a broader understanding of new and revised responsibilities," the report said.

Continental Oil Co. has instituted a new training program to promote self-development in first-line supervisors. Five one-week programs were conducted during 1950. The company has worked out a cooperative program with Oklahoma State University. Stillwater, through which Ponca City, Okla., has been designated a graduate study center. Ponca City is the home of one of the company's largest employe groups.

The back-to-class movement has affected oil service companies, too.

Dowell Division of Dowell Chemical Co. recently set up a new technical service department, which will have as one of its main jobs the continuous technical training of district field service personnel.

Business Finds Competent Help Hard To Obtain

NEW YORK (UPI)—Today's fundamentally new, but draws help. He noted that ads for typists businessman is faced with an acute problem of getting competent office help to provide the human talent necessary for efficient and profitable operations.

The office machine manufacturers continually provide him with modern equipment, but they can't supply him with the people to run these machines.

There will be nearly $30 million worth of the most modern business machines, equipment and related ranks of the skilled office worker.

This trend toward simplification of machine operation is not more and more emphasized as the help becomes more pronounced, according to the president of the Office Equipment Manufacturers Institute, sponsors of the show.

Lloyd M. Powell said that although there are nearly 1.5 million more clerical workers today than in 1950, factors such as marriage, pregnancy, and military service, still have seriously depleted the ranks of the skilled office worker.

The manufacturers have expended considerable effort to reduce the operational skills needed to cover the broad range of business machine usage. Natural efficiency and speed, a paramount completely accomplished.

Powell, who also is president of Dictaphone Corp., said the want ad sections of the newspaper want ad sections of the newspaper point up the need for skilled

He explained that perhaps many of the young people starting out in the business world have not yet realized the fine potentials awaiting them, "if they are willing to develop their skills and talents."

Powell added that no matter how you look at it, a machine without its human operator, is a collection of nuts and bolts.

MATTERS OF THE MILITARY

Army PFC On Overseas Duty

SEOUL (AHTNC) — PFC James E. Diehl, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben J. Diehl, Lefors, recently attended a five-day religious retreat at the Army's Far East retreat site near Seoul in Korea.

Protestant, Catholic and Jewish chaplains alternate planning and conducting the retreat programs for those of their respective faiths. Included are group discussions and individual conferences which serve the moral, religious and spiritual needs of those attending.

Diehl, a clerk-typist in Headquarters of the 1st Cavalry Division, entered the Army in April 1960, completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif., and arrived overseas last December.

He is a 1957 graduate of Price School, Amarillo, and attended St. Benedict's College, Atchison, Kan. chison, Kan.

Communists Are Speaker's Target

Information and education were the two weapons for fighting communism in this country cited by Dan Ammerman of Amarillo at a meeting of the Young Democratic Club of Gray County Friday night.

Ammerman, KGNC radio and television announcer who has a 15-minute program each week on communism, "It is Happening Here," said we must be informed about the communist threat and we must educate our children and ourselves as to exactly what communism is and how it differs from America democracy.

Ammerman said that to his knowledge no country had ever crept into communism via socialism, but that he believed socialism — not the social reforms of a democratic society — but total socialism was a step toward communism and that communists would encourage socialism as a step in their direction until an opportunity offered itself to take the country by tearing the populace asunder with fear, hysteria, and confusion.

The godless communists will take advantage of every opportunity of immoral practices to steal the minds of our youth, said Ammerman. For this reason, Ammerman continued, we must be concerned about the quality of television programs, movies, and literature available to youth.

Ammerman said that though the publishing of pornographic literature was the product of our culture, the communists did not hesitate to turn it to their own purposes in breaking down the morals and religious faith of children and youth.

Aaron Sturgeon, Gray County campaign manager for Senator Bill Blakley, also spoke to the club about plans for opening and staffing a headquarters office for the Blakley for Senator campaign.

Italian fliers were first to use bombs dropped from planes dropping cans filled with nitroglycerine over Tripoli in 1912.

William R. Petty Serving Aboard USS Kearsarge

WESTERN PACIFIC — William R. Petty, aviation machinist's mate first class, USN, son of Mrs. Edith V. Petty of Panhandle, is serving aboard the anti-submarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS Kearsarge operating in the Western Pacific.

PVT. DEE W. GOODMAN — son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Goodman, 1006 Charles St., Panhandle, recently was graduated from the 82d Airborne Division Jump School at Fort Bragg, N.C. Goodman received his paratrooper wings after completing four weeks of intensive ground and aerial training.

USN Hoover On Spring Exercise

SAN DIEGO — Brushel D. Hoover, quartermaster second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Hoover, Miami, is serving aboard the dock landing ship USS Alamo operating out of San Diego, Calif., which will take part in a large U.S. Pacific Fleet exercise during the Spring of 1961.

Nicknamed "Green Light," the exercise will be conducted by the U. S. First Fleet, commanded by Vice Admiral C. L. Melson. Divided into three phases, "Green Light" will involve more than 50,000 men, 150 ships and 300 Navy and Marine Corps aircraft.

Aaron D. Davis Finishes School

SAN DIEGO — Aaron D. Davis, apprentice petty officer first class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wylie J. Davis of 730 Lefors St. recently completed nine weeks of Recruit Training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif.

Apprentice petty officers are chosen from the ranks of the seaman recruits to assist Company Commanders. The selection is based on individual aptitude and leadership qualities.

Pampan Serving In Pacific Area

WESTERN PACIFIC — Jerry L. Higginbotham, hospitalman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus L. Higginbotham of 614 Sloan St., is serving aboard the anti-submarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS Kearsarge operating in the Western Pacific.

The carrier serves as a fast-moving airbase, command communications center where track is kept of all units participating, and where positions and records of submarine contacts are plotted and maintained.

Best Coffee-Brewing Techniques Offered To Ease Bureau Problem

By DICK WEST

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The United States has become so involved in world affairs that even our coffee drinking habits can have international repercussions.

At the moment, for instance, there is grave concern in the pan American Coffee Bureau over the coffee brewing trends in this country.

The bureau, which keeps its ear to the ground, if not in the grounds, on all matters concerning coffee, has discovered that we are tending to make the stuff weaker than we once did.

Ten years ago, it reports, the average U.S. housewife made 48 cups from one pound of coffee. But nowadays she stretches a pound into 63 cups. When you consider that we drink more coffee than the rest of the world combined, you can see why the bureau is concerned over the stretch-out.

In an effort to reverse the trend, it has undertaken a campaign to promote what it describes as "the best brewing techniques," which is another way of saying more punch to the pot. I picked up this information, along with a free cup of strong brew, at a "coffee hour" which the bureau sponsored Tuesday in the old Supreme Court chamber in the capitol.

Among those partaking of its hospitality was Mrs. Lady Bird Johnson, wife of the vice president, who was presented with a silver ladle for use in measuring coffee.

"We're sorry it's not Texas size," said the bureau official who made the presentation. A friendly press agent who happened to be standing nearby told me that the ladle, which holds two tablespoons of coffee, had been adopted by the bureau as the "standard" measure for a cup of coffee.

"We're trying to give ore to Jackie," he confided. I also learned, between sips, that Latin American countries whose economies are largely dependent on coffee exports are trying to find new ways to use surplus production.

'Priceless' Document Returned

CHICAGO (UPI) — A priceless 350-year-old religious document that turned up in a department store with a $5 price tag was on its way back to a Spanish monastery today as a gift from a high school senior.

William (Rusty) O'Malley, 16, of suburban Park Forest, said he "couldn't take any money for it. It didn't cost me much, and they couldn't have a single page of the books."

He referred to the abbey of Montserrat, near Barcelona, Spain, where a monk identified the hand-lettered parchment as the only known remaining fragment of two psalm books copied at the abbey around 1600.

The document is larger than a standard newspaper page and bears the third through ninth verses of the 72nd Psalm. It was believed to have been stolen from the monastery in 1835 during the Carlist wars.

It accompanied a bundle of other documents and fragments to the department store from an overseas purchaser.

O'Malley said he bought the document in Chicago for a wall decoration. He said he spent his Christmas money on it because it "looked like a good buy at $5."

Later he became curious about its origin, and following advice from the store's buyer, wrote to the abbey.

Officers Elected By Lions Club

Among other things, they are turning coffee beans into fertilizer and making them into a paste fodder for cattle.

I would think, however, their best hope for a profit-making sideline would be a new product now on the market in Brazil. Somebody in that country has invented coffee-flavored lipsticks.

Gene Lewis was recently elected president of the Evening Lions Club at a regular weekly meeting, it was announced yesterday.

Other officers elected are: James Edminster, vice president; Otis Calcoate, 2nd vice president; L. B. Penick, lion tamer and Austin Ruddick, tail twister.

Actress Taking 'Pills' To Avoid 'Glamor Girl Syndrome' Malady

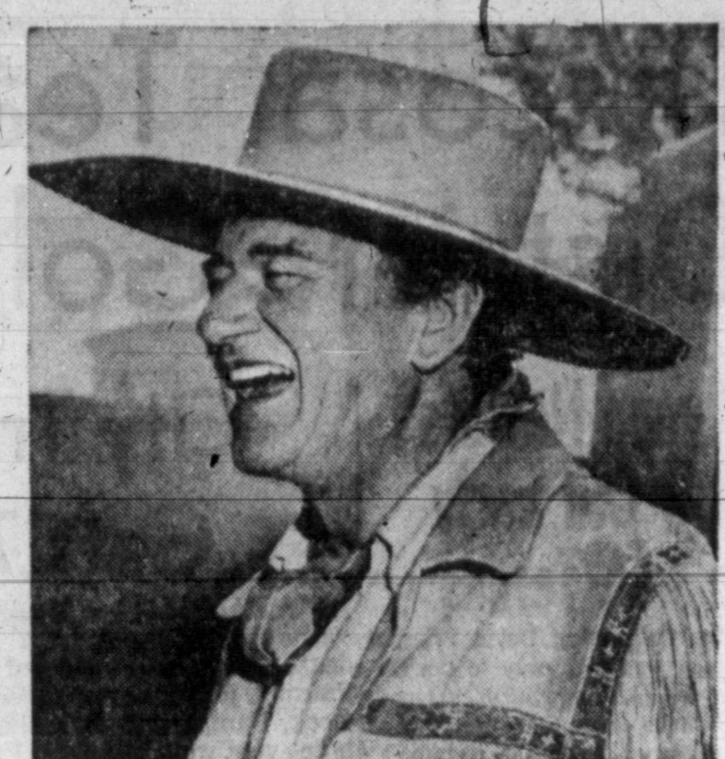

By VERNON SCOTT
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Elizabeth Taylor, Marilyn and Brigitte have suffered tremendous emotional upheavals in the past few years involving both their marriages and careers. Dolores says she knows how to avoid the dread ailment. "Some glamour girls turn to religion or philosophy to find their way back. But it takes a person of tremendous character to withstand the pressures and paralysis of adulation. Too often and too easily it becomes self-adulation."

Dolores recently starred in "St. Francis of Assisi" and is currently costarring with Robert Wagner in "My Uncle Elroy" which he plays "all things to all men," as in "Sail a Crooked Ship." At 23 the saying goes. And, that's his career is well launched, but a problem. It seems that Gobel is so busy trying to be "fixer" for his friends, he constantly ends up in the soup. Gobel, appearing without his TV wife Alice for the first time in seven years, plays "Uncle Elroy" in the show. Poor "El" is living with his widowed sister and her two children.

Before the show even gets on the air, George is bound to have his mind cluttered up with problems involving that gang. "Elroy always gets into trouble, but not because he's incapable of doing his job as a real estate and insurance salesman," George explained. "You see, he can do things like fix electrical wiring, plumb and outboard motors. "But, Elroy is always in the grease because he's helping out other people."

George ran into a little trouble on the set finding out where Gobel left off and "Uncle Elroy" began. "During the first couple of days rehearsing for 'Elroy,' I'd say, "This isn't the way to do it," George recalled. "But the director, Don Weis, would say 'You're not George Gobel, you're Elroy.' "It took a few days to get used to it, I've done other characters before, but they were patterned after me."

Little George isn't going to change his ways so that Gobel fans won't recognize him. He's certainly not trying to hide out from old fans.

John Wayne makes his debut as a producer-director with the $12,000,000 Technicolor production of "The Alamo," which opens Thursday at the Capri theatre for a seven day engagement. Wayne portrays Col. David Crockett in the roadshow epic with three scheduled performances daily at 1:45 p.m., 5:00 p.m. and 8:15 p.m. Others in the cast include Richard Boone, Richard Widmark, Laurence Harvey, Chill Wills, Frankie Avalon, and beautiful Linda Cristal.

Gobel Soon Will Appear In New Role

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — For the first time in his TV career, George Gobel is going to play somebody else. For years, the slow talking Gobel has been himself, a character that millions of Americans found to their liking. George has a new series called "My Uncle Elroy" in which he plays "all things to all men," as in "Sail a Crooked Ship." At 23 the saying goes. And, that's his career is well launched, but a problem.

It seems that Gobel is so busy trying to be "fixer" for his friends, he constantly ends up in the soup. Gobel, appearing without his TV wife Alice for the first time in seven years, plays "Uncle Elroy" in the show. Poor "El" is living with his widowed sister and her two children. Before the show even gets on the air, George is bound to have his mind cluttered up with problems involving that gang.

Missing Ford Theater Plan Proves Mystery

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The restoration of Ford's Theater, the theater's original owner, Abraham Lincoln was shot, had drawn from memory concentrates, for the moment, on while he was in jail. Ford, along mystery rather than construction, with other innocent people, was scheduled for completion by April following the shooting of Lincoln. The two-million-dollar project is arrested during the chaos which followed the assassination of the president. It's believed that he made the Great Emancipator's assassin-drawing for the lawyer who denation. So far, the only work done fended a stagehand implicated in has been some essential historical the crime. Ford was later cleared and released from prison.

The mystery: who has the architect's original drawing which disappeared after the trial of the alleged Lincoln conspirators? The plan is necessary to restore the building exactly as it was on the night that John Wilkes Booth fired the fatal shot. The interior of the hold theater has undergone a complete change during the last 95 years. So on Lincoln's death, the War Department leased the building, took out all of the seats and stage, and converted it into an office. Later it became the Army Medical Museum and, in 1931, the Lincoln Museum, one of Washington's most popular tourist attractions.

Last year, Congress voted $250,000 for research, engineering studies and blueprints necessary for restoration. Finding the missing drawing became paramount for accurate restoration. In October, 1960, David C. Mearns, chief of the Library of Congress manuscript division, Mearns, an authority on Lincoln, found a floor plan of the theater while going through a file of legal documents on the conspiracy trial.

Chimp Puts Writer Out Of Office

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — It's tough enough for authors to write TV scripts in Hollywood, but things reached a new low recently when Max Shulman was evicted from his office by a wandering chimpanzee.

Max was minding his own business waiting for friends to drop by his office at Fox Studios when a caged chimp escaped. The furry little fellow, no respecter of Shulman's reputation, finally settled in Max's head quarters. Coaxing from Max, studio executives and assorted secretaries couldn't budge the animal. Finally, the corralled the chimp and hustled him back to his cage.

But, Max's day was ruined as he vacated his office so janitors could clean up messy tracks left by chimp's dirty feet on an air conditioner and the author's typewriter. "That darn chimp has driven me out of my office," Max said, heading to chat about his "Dobie Gillis" TV series.

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Former Miss Kent plays the role of a detective's Girl Friday. The film is based on Frank Gruber's new novel of the same title.

Guinness' Plans

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Alec Guinness, who won the Academy Award in "The Bridge on the River Kai," will play the starring role in the screen version of Frank Tinsley's novel "Mutiny". "Mutiny" will be filmed later this year in Britain and on coastal locations by Columbia Pictures.

Short and Long

DUNEDIN, Fla. (UPI) — Paul Runyan played the shortest final match and one of the longest final matches in the history of the PGA championship. He set a record by beating Sam Snead 8 and 7 in 1938 and equalled another by beating Craig Wood 1 up on the 38th hole in 1954.

Pat Boone Plans Only Television Show Of Season

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Pat Boone makes his only television appearance of the season this month in his current fight against over-exposure. Two years ago the teenage idol was bombarding the public with a weekly TV show, movies, recordings, personal appearances, books on teen-age manners and a monthly column in a national magazine.

"I was forcing myself on people from all angles," he admitted. "Fortunately I was lucky with any attempts at success in all mediums. But how long could it go on? I was practically dressing and undressing in public, until I began to wonder how people could take it any longer. "I had to decide whether to go into a fourth year of TV or make myself scarce and concentrate on movies and records."

With the help of Col. Tom Parker (Elvis Presley's canny manager) and Bing Crosby, Pat bowed out of television. "Tom used to call me on the phone and give me advice all the time," the 26-year-old singer explained. "He suggested I leave TV right away, adding that I should never give away anything I'm trying to sell. I realized that my record sales had dropped off when my TV show was going well. He was right. He also pointed out that Elvis had done only three or four TV programs in his entire career to avoid overexposure.

"Then I thought about Jackie Gleason, Sid Caesar and Milton Berle—some of the great ones. No performer can last on TV forever. I was 23 years old, and at best maybe I could hope for 10 years of TV success. By the time I would be 33 I'd have to go into hibernation." Pat had been forewarned by old producer Crosby back in 1957 when the young singer first beamed his half-hour show. "Bing wrote me a letter, although we'd never met," Pat said. "He told me he would never do a weekly show and quoted George M. Cohan's famous words, 'never stay on too long. The best way to stick around in show business to be good, be brief and be scarce.'

PCC Golf Tourney Entries End Today

Deadline for entering the Pampa Country Club Golf Championship Tourney has been extended through today. Governer Heiskell, tournament chairman, announced yesterday the deadline was extended because of inclement weather.

Entries in the tourney took a sudden turn upward yesterday, Heiskell revealed. A total of 62 players have signed for the event, compared to 81 last year. However, Heiskell expected that last year's entry list would be exceeded with the entries which are expected to come in today.

Play in the 18-hole affair will begin tomorrow. Players have until Saturday, April 22, to complete their first matches, Heiskell said.

The tournament is the first of the season for the country club and the only one restricted to club members.

Course officials reported there were 40 or 50 players on the links yesterday despite the chilly weather. During the afternoon the wind practically stopped blowing, giving the golfers a chance to "warm up" for the big club event.

White Sox, 6-2
DETROIT (UPI)—Billy Bruton's three run homer and a two-run triple by Norm Cash powered the Detroit Tigers to a 6-2 victory over the Chicago White Sox Saturday.

Baltimore Wins
BALTIMORE (UPI)—Southpaw Steve Barber pitched a brilliant five-hitter Saturday to blank the Minnesota Twins and carry the Baltimore Orioles to their first victory of the season, 8-0, after two straight losses.

PERFECT — Robert (Corky) DeGraff has plenty to smile about as the youngest kegger ever to roll a 300 game in an American Bowling Congress Tournament. The 24-year-old Grand Rapids, Mich., star hit the magic number in the 58th renewal of the ten pin World Series in Detroit.

Tascosa Team Wins District Golf Tourney

Pampa Netters Bow Out Early In 3-4A Tennis

Don Collins and David Price of Pampa won their way to the District 3-AAA boys doubles tennis semifinals in Amarillo Friday and then bowed out of the picture.

The Harvesters outlasted David Niles and Allen Payne, Borger, 7-5, 6-2, in the opening match.

But Collins and Price fell in the semifinals to Mike Jones and Pat Wiman of Monterey, 6-1, 6-3.

Pampa lost in the first round of the other divisions.

Jerry Thompson extended Roger Camp, Lubbock, in the first set before losing 6-4. Camp won the next session, 6-0.

Diana Mayes, Pampa, lost to Terry Peterson, Amarillo, 6-0, 6-0, in the girls doubles.

Cella Forrest and Carol Fritz, Lubbock, downed Linda Connors and Donna Walsh, Pampa, 6-1, 6-0, in the girls doubles.

So, the district 3-AAA tennis title went to Lubbock.

Yesterday's final play was an all-Lubbock affair with only netters from Tom S. Lubbock and Monterey schools of Lubbock playing it off.

All players from the other seven schools in the league were eliminated in the first two rounds of play Friday.

City Track Crew Gets 7th Place

AMARILLO — Tascosa's golfers of Amarillo tangled with the linksmen from Borger here today in a sudden death battle and emerged the victors in the District 3-4A tourney played over three Panhandle area courses—Lubbock, Pampa and Amarillo. The first two rounds in the 54-hole event were played at Pampa and Lubbock.

Tascosa and Borger teams wound up the final 18 holes today with a team score of 930 each, necessitating the sudden death play.

Palo Duro went into third place with a 852 team score. Pampa ranked fourth with 968. Other rankings were, Monterey 972, Amarillo 978, Lubbock 1,024, and Plainview 1,056.

Cardinal Hurler Shuts Out Reds By 4-0 Margin

ST. LOUIS (UPI)—Righthander Ernie Broglio hurled a two-hit shutout for the St. Louis Cardinals Saturday to stop Cincinnati, 4-0, in an abbreviated 5.2-3 inning game which brought a bitter protest from Reds' manager Fred Hutchinson.

It was the first loss of the season for Cincinnati, which had a 3-0 mark going into the game.

Play was halted in the sixth due to a steady drizzle with the mercury reading 40 degrees. Manager Hutchinson bounded from the visitors' dugout and announced to first base umpire Dusty Boggess and home plate umpire Vinnie Smith that the game was being played under protest.

Hutchinson told reporters the game either shouldn't have been started or should have been called in the third or fourth inning because of playing conditions.

Pampa LLers To Register

Registration of boys who are interested in playing Little League baseball in Pampa this summer will be held this week, Ben Hamilton, Pampa junior baseball commissioner, said today.

Hamilton said that boys should register between 4 and 8 p.m. tomorrow through Thursday at the Pampa Optimists Boys Club Building, 601 East Craven.

There will be an insurance coverage fee of $2 this summer, Hamilton stated, and all boys who register must pay the fee in order to be protected from injury this summer.

Workouts are scheduled to begin Thursday and the three drills will conclude Saturday. Little League play is slated to begin in Pampa in mid-May.

Indians Pitcher Scores 3-1 Win Over Senators

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Jim Grant, who pitches in Griffith Stadium as if it were his own back yard, hurled the Cleveland Indians to a 3-1 victory over the new Washington Senators Saturday before a crowd of 9,816.

Grant, with relief help in the last two innings from Frank Funk, thus remained unbeaten in his appearances in this city. Counting his wins here over the old Washington Senators, Grant now has won nine games here without tasting defeat.

The Indians' righthander, who now has registered 17 of his 30 major league wins over some team wearing a Washington uniform, let the game for a pinch-hitter in the eighth inning after allowing the Senators' only run Saturday although reliever Bill Stafford had to save the game for winner Bob Turley.

Baylor's Nine Wins Over TCU

FORT WORTH (UPI)—Baylor swept past Texas Christian 8-4 Saturday in a Southwest Conference baseball game played as cold, 45-mile-an-hour winds hit Fort Worth.

The victory for the Bears was their second in as many days over TCU. Baylor won 16-7 in the first game of the two-day match Friday.

Athletics Lose To Yanks 5 To 3

NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Yankees capitalized on Bud Daley's wildness to defeat the Kansas City Athletics 5-3, for their first victory of the season Saturday although reliever Bill Stafford had to save the game for winner Bob Turley.

Football Coaches And TV Man Hurt In Accident, Recovering

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UPI)—The conditions of two University of Florida football coaches and a Tampa television executive, victims of a boat explosion, ranged Saturday from fair to satisfactory.

Coach Jim Powell, 39, and Ray Ellis, 56, business manager for educational television station WEDU at Tampa, were reported at Mond Park Hospital to be in satisfactory condition. Coach Franklin (Pepper) Rodgers, 29, was listed in fair condition.

Their condition had been listed as serious Friday night.

Three other coaches — Jimmy Dunn, 23, John Donaldson, 35, and Jack Green, 37—were treated and released Friday afternoon, several hours after the cabin cruiser exploded in the entrance to Tampa Bay.

Powell was suffering from second and third degree burns of the eyes, head, both hands, arms and legs. Ellis had second and third degree burns over his entire body. Rodgers had second and third degree burns of the arms, face and legs.

The accident occurred aboard the Hi-Way, a 40-foot Chris Craft sea skiff owned by Tampa Sand and Material Company, a subsidiary of Cone Bros. Contracting Company. The boat was loaned to Ellis, who was host for the trip to catch king fish off Egmont Key. Ellis formerly was an assistant football coach at Georgia Tech.

The explosion occurred when the skipper, Bill Black of Tampa tried to start the stalled engine. Black, who was bruised and his hair singed, was the only man aboard the vessel who was not treated at a hospital.

Boston Red Sox Take Angels, 3-0

BOSTON (UPI)—Rookie outfielder Carl Yastrzemski drove in a pair of runs and scored the other Saturday in a 3-0 Boston Red Sox victory over the Los Angeles Angels behind Ike DeLoach's four-hitter.

Texas A&M Wins In Golf Tourney

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (UPI)—Texas A&M handed Southern Methodist its first defeat in team play Saturday, taking a 4½ to 1½ Southwest Conference golf victory over a wind-swept course.

The conference defending champion Aggies now own a 10-2 record after two matches, while SMU has a 13-5 mark after three matches.

Aggie individual victories were registered by Billy Martindale, who defeated David Gray 1-up, and Ralph Johnston, who took a 4 and 2 win over Max Strother. Sonny Wright of SMU bested A&M's John Lively, 1-up, while Dickie Duple of A&M and Ross Teter of SMU tied after 18 holes. Martindale and Johnston scored a 4-and-2 victory over Gray and Strother, and Duple-Lively whipped Teter Wright, 3-and-1. Johnston won medalist honors with a four-over-par 74.

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK APR. 16-22

National Library Week Termed Of Growing Benefit To Nation

By HELEN BELEWETT
Assistant Librarian

National Library Week will be observed April 16 to 22, 1961. This marks the fourth annual nationwide observance of the reading development program, designed to increase appreciation of the vital role of the printed word in our national life, and encourage support and use of libraries of all kinds by everyone.

With the theme, "For a Richer, Fuller Life, Read," the Week unites individuals and groups in over 5,000 communities in all fifty states, in a common effort geared to the needs of the local community. In 1961, as in 1960, the program will place special emphasis on introducing teenagers to the field of adult reading.

NLW's effectiveness in the past years can be measured in impressive gains in reading of all kinds, newspaper and magazine as well as books. There have been great increases in library circulation and registration figures, as well as in citizen action to expand library support.

Most significant, the Week has stimulated public awareness of the observance not as an end-in-itself, but rather as the focus of long-range, year-round activity centered on local goals — goals to meet the needs of the total community and create a climate for intellectual growth so essential for personal fulfillment.

Sponsored by the National Book Committee, Inc., a non-profit citizens' group, in cooperation with the American Library Association, NLW was launched in the Spring of 1958. It was the first concerted nationwide effort to focus public attention on reading as a source of personal fulfillment, on the importance of reading in our national life, and on the libraries which, if used fully and supported properly, can make reading materials accessible to everybody.

Personal reading habits are fixed by the interplay of many forces in the schools, in the home and in the general atmosphere of our culture; National Library Week can only be a contributing factor.

The ultimate total effect of such a personal fulfillment, on the in- in the degree to which it strengthens all continuing year-round efforts for the spread of reading and the support of libraries.

The achievements of National Library Week, this year, next year and in the future, will become increasingly evident as its objectives become more and more a part of citizen activity in every area of American life.

Pampa Red Cross Will Be Host To Panhandle Units

Pampa Chapter of the American Red Cross will be host to the Panhandle Association of Chapters at 10 a.m. Tuesday in Coronado Inn. John Gikas, president of the association, said a coffee will be held from 10 to 10:30 a.m. with Mrs. H. A. Gilliland and Mrs. Luther Pierson, Gray Ladies, in charge of the coffee table. A short business session will be held in the morning when officers for the coming year will be elected.

Borger Prepares For Oil Exhibits Sept. 8 To 9

Some of the most modern oil field equipment in the nation, valued at thousands of dollars, will be displayed in Borger, September 7, 8, and 9 when the Fourth Biennial Magic Plains Oil Exposition is held. Countless visitors from the Texas - Kansas - Oklahoma - New Mexico oil areas are expected to attend.

Starting in 1955, the Magic Plains Oil Exposition has continued to grow with each show and the 1961 addition is expected to be even bigger and better. One of the few major oil shows held in the Southwest in 1961, the Magic Plains Oil Exposition has already attracted exhibitors from Chicago, Illinois; Los Angeles, California; Peoria, Iowa; Houston, Texas; Bartlesville, Oklahoma; Midland, Texas; Lancaster, Ohio; Littleton, Colorado; and exhibitors from the surrounding areas of Pampa, Amarillo, and Borger.

Exhibits Committee Chairman R. B. "Berl" Hughes stated, "We feel the Magic Plains Oil Exposition is fulfilling a definite need for the oil industry in this section of the country. We have made many plans to improve the '61 show, and we feel when the event gets under way, these changes will be quite evident. Show hours will be 1 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Thursday and Friday, September 7 and 8; and 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturday, September 9. We are making a special effort to invite representatives of all major companies in the area, and plan a method of identification which will be a great asset to all exhibitors."

Show officials spent approximately $8,000 in major improvements to the show grounds, located in Johnson Park in Borger. The main exhibit building is one of the few Aluminum Domes in the nation. At present, only fourteen spaces remain unsold in the Dome, and approximately one-half of the outside space is sold. Plans are being made to secure a tent for auxiliary exhibit space to locate companies desiring to participate who will not be able to be placed in the main exhibit building.

Approximately 35,000 adults visited the Magic Plains Oil Exposition in 1959; and estimates are this number will be increased in 1961.

The speaker for the evening will be Ray Davidson from the Amarillo office of Dowell Division of the Dow Chemical Company. Davidson will speak on "The General Aspects of Well Stimulation." The talk will cover fracturing and acidizing of oil wells.

Perhaps Mere Salaried Man Gets 'Break' On Income Tax Records

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Financially speaking, I am a simple man mainly because I don't have enough money to be complex.

In 1960, all of my income came from "salaries and wages." I had, therefore, no "gains and losses from sale or exchange of property other than capital assets." Neither did I rake in anything from "annuities or pensions," or from "rents and royalties" or from "partnerships, estates, trust and other source."

And, finally, I registered a blank on "income (or loss) from unincorporated business" and on "profit (or loss) from business or profession."

If you asked me how I managed by the following note:

"I now have three children in college. If you get more than you need, please set it aside for a loan to me."

aged to avoid enriching myself by these methods, I would have to say that I'm just lucky. I guess. At least I felt lucky when I sat down to make out my income tax return.

My relatively uncluttered fiscal affairs spared me the task of figuring out how much I could deduct for depreciation and amortization, not to mention depletion of oil wells.

Nevertheless, in order to satisfy the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service I am obliged to maintain and preserve two drawers full of old doctor bills, cancelled checks, gasoline receipts and other vital statistics.

I got to wondering, as I was sorting out this rat's nest of deductible documents, just how much of a paper-saving burden is imposed on the citizenry by various government regulations. Fortunately, my curiosity could be easily slaked by hunting up a copy of the revised "Guide to Record Retention Requirements" recently published by the General Services Administration.

You perhaps will not be surprised to hear that 10 executive departments and 17 independent federal agencies place on the public record - keeping responsibilities of one sort or another.

In all, the guide contains 908 entries that require various individuals and companies to retain records anywhere from 30 days to "permanently."

If, for example, you collect admission tickets to some event, you have to preserve the stubs at least six months. If you are engaged in the manufacture of smoking opium, you must keep permanent records.

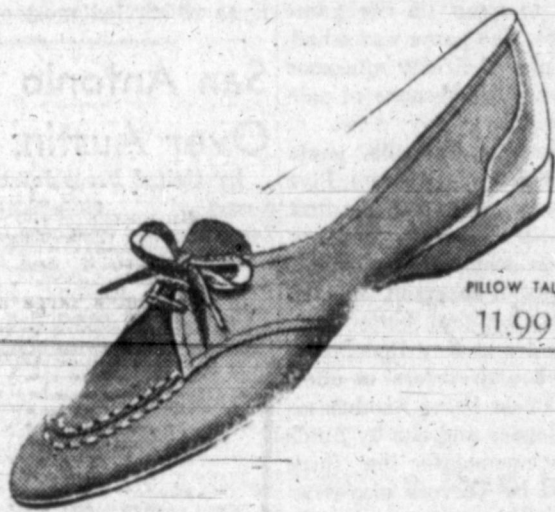

Proprietors of bonded wine cellars are required to keep 35 different types of records. But persons producing wine for family use have to keep only one.

Rabbits are said to be one of the oldest living mammals on the North American continent.

Peg O' Pampa

As we sit down to start this column, our mind keeps turning to the pleasure of an afternoon in the bright sunshine we're just 'kid enough to enjoy playing with the neighborhood youngsters. We love to investigate around and look at all the new baby plants beginning to peak through from beneath the soil and to contemplate the promise of trees and grass turning green. It is a pleasure to envision the patio suppers and the always-new adventure of a picnic while the head-of-the-house has thoughts not so pleasant as he surveys the greening grass. Seems cynical thoughts of lawn-mowers and crab-grass spoil the fun for him. He also suspects us of beginning to add up all the outdoor repair jobs he has been putting off with cold weather as an excuse. And how right he is! Aren't we women awful? Speaking of women, we spent an enjoyable evening this week reading "Life With Women and How To Survive It" in True Magazine. If you can enjoy having fun poked at women, you'll find it funny. Otherwise we'd recommend it "for men only."

ROSES to the new Woman of the Year. Libby Shotwell it is grand she was so honored. Energetic Libby certainly deserves it. How many of us wish we could have her vigor and vitality. And enthusiasm for everything she undertakes! We know husband Frank is bubbling over with pride! And laurels to the women of Beta Sigma Phi who work so hard each year to make the big event an ever-memorable one. It is a fine service to the community.

HERE AND THERE spied blond and pretty Hilda Duncan downtown recently. She always so chic and poised. Also noticed Lucille Douglas probably on a coffee break. Lucille is a wonderful individualist in this age of conformity. We've noticed another talented and attractive newcomer to Pampa, charming Kay Windle, whose hubby is a teacher, we believe. Understand Betty Henderson, Betty Cain and Jean Duncan had quite an outing recently when they took their assorted children to the circus in Amarillo and then to the movie, "101 Dalmatians" seems they numbered 11 in all and drew quite a few stares as they filled into the movie. But the children had a ball and we wouldn't be surprised if the mothers enjoyed it just as much! We think of such things now and then, but always chicken out when it comes to getting ready and off. Sighted blond Sonya Clay in the downtown area. Her hair always looks so attractive and neat. Never wild and windblown as Peg's usually is. Noticed shy, but always pleasant Joyce Gikas doing some window shopping. Maybe when our weather warms up Peg can get around more and come up with more news and observations.

The true work of art is but a shadow of divine perfection. —Michael Angelo

FASHION NOTE seems Princess Margaret of England doesn't believe in conformity either. Noticed a news item where she is wearing her skirts long this year, while "fashion" is supposedly dictating short skirts. And last year, when skirts were long, she wore hers short. Well, if Princess Margaret can do it, so can we. Maybe we won't get out the yardstick, pins, scissors, needle and thread after all. And just wear our skirts long this year, too. Sure would save time!

HAWAII IN APRIL. Twentieth Century Culture sure put on a wonderful guest-day event the other day. It followed a Hawaiian theme with the hostesses in Hawaiian muumuu. It was a most unusual event. They flew in orchids and fragrant plumaria. The members wore leis of this unusual flower which filled the library with the most delightful fragrance. And the orchids were presented to the guests. One of the most outstanding of all attending was Viola Jordan. She wore her hair down, with flowers in it. It is so refreshing to see such long hair, luxuriant hair in this day and age. And such a lovely shade! Viola, who is such a charming person, was especially charming in appearance at this affair.

HEARD from an informant that Mahunta Hills is assisting a Girl Scout troop by teaching them baby-sitting techniques. Such as requesting the name and number of the family doctor in case of emergency. Where the parents may be reached. As well as the techniques of child care. It is grand of Mahunta to give of her time and talents in this way. Sure is a service to users of baby-sitters. Seems Peg heard several years ago that the medical auxiliary, (I think) had such a course outlined, but needed to have some club or organization to sponsor it. It would be a wonderful thing for the community. Next step we would like to see is a baby-sitter center or clearing house where a mother could call and get the name of a reliable, well-qualified sitter. And we bet Pampa newcomers would love it! It could include names of both teenage sitters and adult women sitters.

Art is like a border of flowers along the course of civilization. —Lincoln Steffens

POTPOURRI going back to the Woman-of-the-year tea it was so nice to see all the women so-honored in the past. And such a charming gesture to leave two vacant chairs. One for Ruby Lee Hughes and one for Inez Carter, neither of whom were able to attend the tea. In this week's issue of life, is an interesting article by Lillian Snow's son-in-law, Albert Rosenfeld, who is Life's science editor. Have you noticed how nice Zee Holloway looks in a pastel blue? Really most becoming on her. Elsa Plants looked so nice and spring-like the other day in a light-blue cotton. We love the time of year when everyone blossoms out in light cotton dresses. From all reports, Peg understands the Girl Scout leader recognition day was one of the nicest things Pampa has had in a long time. Over 100 women were there and were given their yellow "leader" stripes for their uniforms in an impressive ceremony presided over by Martha Holt. Guest speaker John McCausland gave an inspiring and thought-provoking talk.

The object of art is to crystallize emotion into thought and then fix it into form. —Francis Desarte

TRAVEL PLANS hear that Eunice Pierson and Louise Sewell are forming a duo for a cruise to Hawaii. And we remember now that no passports are needed into this part of the United States. The ship they are sailing on will also be boarded by a convention group, which is holding an International meeting on the Islands. Don't you know they will have a BALL!!! There is a smidgen of a rumor, too, that Leora Rose has a wonderful trip in mind. Oh Spring, it does bring out the wanderlust, doesn't it? But how about that Russian Cosmonaut. We read that he took that space trip without even telling his wife about it. Imagine him gulping down his breakfast, giving her a peck of a kiss on the cheek as he dashed out the door. Not telling her where he was going or even when he would be home. She might even still be waiting dinner on him!!! We're not sure if we were Valentina Gargarin that we could ever trust Yuri again!!! Could you?

PEG HAS RUN OUT of steam and can't resist the out-of-doors any longer so.

Bye Now
Love, Peg

Miss Kotara Becomes Bride Of Mack Grange

Miss Joy Ellen Kotara became the bride of Rhiney Mack Grange with wedding vows repeated on April 8 at 9:30 a.m. in White Deer Sacred Heart Church with Fr. Jerome Hancock officiating for the exchange of double-ring vows.

Miss Kotara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kotara Jr. of White Deer. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Grange of Skellytown.

Vows were repeated in a setting of floral arrangements of yellow Snowball Chrysanthemums, Lilies and palms.

BRIDE—The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white. Imported Chantilly lace fashioned with a squared, scalloped neckline edged with seed pearls and sequins and long, tapered sleeves, which ended in bride-points at the wrist. The bouffant skirt of tulle and tulle featured an overskirt of tulle with embroidered medallions outlined with pearls and sequins. Her veil of imported illusion fell to headpiece-length and was held by a headpiece of Chantilly lace and rolled illusion studded with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade arrangement of white roses, stephanotis showered with white satin streamers tied in Love Knots.

ATTENDANTS

Miss Marilyn Kotara, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Grange, bridegroom's sister and Mrs. Jerry Kotara, cousin of the bride. They dressed identically in frocks of maize silk organza over taffeta complemented with half-hats of flowers and net. Each carried bouquets of Yellow Daisies with Ivy streamers. John Kotara, brother of the bride, attended the bridegroom as best man. Groomsmen were Maynard Kotara and Joe Grange. Seating the wedding guests were Kelly Brown, Jerry Braddock and Mike Germany.

Misses Debbie Kotara, bride's sister and Miss Vickie Maddox, bridegroom's niece, served as flower girls wearing Mint Green chiffon frocks trimmed with white lace. White flower headpieces complemented their dresses and they carried white baskets of yellow carnations and yellow Daisies.

Miss Gaylene Kotara, dressed as the flower girls, carried the rings to the bridal pair on a white satin pillow.

Mrs. Laddie Kotara, organist, provided nuptial airs and served as accompanist for Edward and David D'Zuik as they sang "Ave Maria" and "Mother, At Your Feet I'm Kneeling."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kotara chose a mauve lace over pink satin dress with matching accessories and a rose cymbidium orchid. The mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Grange, wore a toast suit with brown accessories complemented with a yellow cymbidium orchid.

RECEPTION

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in Sacred Heart Church parish hall. Members of the houseparty were Janet Reinart of Hereford, Vickie Urbanczyk of Hereford, Mrs. Jerry Braddock, Margaret Roundtree and Janet Hooper.

For a wedding trip to Hot Springs, Ark., the bride traveled in an orchid suit with white accessories and a corsage from the center of her bridal bouquet. The bride was graduated from White Deer High School and Draughton's Business College of Amarillo. The bridegroom was graduated from Detroit High School in Detroit, Tex., and has served two years in the Army Medical Corps in Germany. They will make their home in White Deer, where the bridegroom is employed.

The Jim Whites To Note Golden Date

By DORIS E. WILSON
WOMEN'S PAGE EDITOR

"The Day... Today"
Without, the day may be what it may. Within, 'tis the Golden Wedding Day.

Seated around the family board Children and grandchildren, a lively horde,
Many things fill our hearts with pleasure,
Given by the One who gives without measure.

But most of all we are thankful, I hold
For the precious gift of two hearts of gold,
So a toast: I propose, say me not nay.

The Bride... The Groom... the Golden Wedding day. (Anon)
The above verse is one of the favorites of Mr. and Mrs. Jim White, 721 N. Somerville who are, today, being honored on the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary with a reception in the home of their daughter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Skeet Roberts, who reside north of the city. Assisting hosts will be the honorees' granddaughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Chapman and their great-grandson, Tice Chapman.

The wedding ceremony, which led up to the occasion today, was performed on Mar. 29, 1911 at four o'clock in the parsonage of the officiating minister, Elder B. F. McMillan, in Beloit, Kan.

We have the original newspaper article, which heralded the nuptials. It was written by the officiating minister, Elder McMillan and was published in the Beloit Gazette, which we have been told, is preparing to celebrate its 100 anniversary of publication.

Since the more or less polished journalism of today seems less colorful than the style used in 1911, we asked the permission of the honorees to reprint their wedding write-up. The original article reads:

It is with pleasure that we record the marriage of Miss Amy Dora Funk and Mr. James B. White, both of Mitchell County, which took place on the 29th day of March, 1911, at the residence of the officiating Minister, E. E. B. F. McMillan.

These worthy young people represent a large number of relatives on both sides, and who by their long residence in Mitchell County and by industry and honesty, have accumulated the many good things of life. Above all, they have gained the respect that good people are entitled to.

The Bride is a loved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Milton Funk, whose beautiful home is on Laban Creek, six and one-half miles southwest of Beloit. All the modern conveniences of a country home, with an automobile for pleasure, are found at the Funk home, to make life easy in many ways. And that splendid hospitality and true friendship makes their many associates feel at home there.

The Bride's relatives have lived in Mitchell County for many years and are among the best in thrift and good name. Their farm is a busy place where stock is reared and fed with profit. The Bride's home was one of

Outer And Inner Beauty Discussed At TC Forum Club

Twentieth Century Forum Study Club met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. M. McDaniel, 1800 Charles. Mrs. William Ellis, president, gave a report on the Top of Texas District convention held recently in Pampa.

Mrs. Bob Curry and Mrs. William Fraser presented the afternoon's program. Mrs. Curry gave a report on Elizabeth Arden and her business career. The health resort, Main Chance, was described and pictures were shown of the daily beauty routine prescribed at the resort. She mentioned that many well-known celebrities, such as Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower and Clare Booth Luce, have been patrons at the spa.

Mrs. Fraser discussed a phase of "Inner Beauty" and discussed, under Mental Health, the Inferiority Complex and explained how it shows itself in one's personality and what one may do to overcome this handicap.

Refreshments were served during the social hour. Attending were Mes. D. M. Lawrence, Bruce Pratt, Aubrey Steele, Arthur Teed, F. J. Vendresell, C. V. Wilkinson, Roy Bourland, Bob Curry, Joe M. Daniel, E. J. Dunigan, Frank Kelley, William Ellis, H. C. Federer, William Fraser, Gene Groom, J. R. Holloway and Calvin Jones.

The Groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. White, who live 10 miles southwest of Beloit and is an honored man in that exceptionally good community.

The Mother of the Groom is a sister to John and Thomas McCall, who are well and favorably known.

The early training of the groom, under favorable circumstances, will make for the bride and home all that may be desired, to fill up the cup of marriage joys, a Mantle of good character rests upon his head.

The Bride was dressed for the happy event in beautiful silk which in color and pattern harmonized with the sacred occasion. The Groom was clad in conventional black and together they represented not only youth, but also good and noble parentage and noble character. Their home will be on what is known as the James Buchanan farm in center township.

The business of the farm will never be so pressing but that time will be taken to make their many friends welcome in their home.

May the best of heaven be their portion through life. (B. F. McMillan.)

MATURE PARENT

MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE
Dear Madam:
You should be thrown off the newspaper. The grandmother who told that daughter-in-law to whip her two-year-old's hands for throwing his mug on the floor is worth a million of you. My mother often blistered my hands when I was a small boy to teach me right from wrong. You and your modern notions go against God and the Bible which says "Spare the rod and spoil the child."

ANSWER: All right, sir. I'm squaring off. Let's go.
I have hinted at your error before. This time I'm going to town on it. This time I have not only checked my own Bible concordances — and failed to find your savage quotation. This time I have also checked with the library of Union Theological Seminary, my city's seat of theological learning — and the library has failed to find it.

Your un-modern, King James version Bible does not contain the line: "Spare the rod and spoil the child."

What's modern, sir, is your phrase. It was coined by an American journalist who died in 1896 — a man named Finley Peter Dunne. So you are alone with your faith in the virtue of blistering children's bodies to teach them right from wrong. Now stand up for it alone — and stop falsifying the Word of God to support you.

I doubt that you will. The people who falsely endow this catch-phrase with scriptural authority are seldom able to stand up without support. They have been leaneers from a long way back. They still trust the moral views of the parents who blistered their hands as children, though a little examination would prove these views as unreliable as their biblical scholarship. And they will go on believing in them just as they'll go on believing that a nearly forgotten journalist's words are Holy Writ.

The anniversary table is being planned around two lovely, gold and white antique Meissen candelabra, silhouetted with a colonial lady and gentleman. The candelabra will flank an all-white floral arrangement of Snap Dragons, Stock and Iris accented with gold foliage and the golden numerals "50" on a white satin cloth.

Members of the houseparty will be Mmes. Earl Mead of Higgins; Mrs. Bill Chapman; Miss Jeanne Casey; Mrs. Dick Pugh; Mrs. Clinton Henry; Mrs. Reagan Peeler of Hereford; Mrs. Alfred McQueen of Quinter, Kan.

Approximately 300 guests have been invited to attend with out-of-town guests expected from Hereford, Amarillo, Panhandle, White Deer, McLean, Canadian, Higgins, Beloit, Kan., Quinter, Kan., Liberal, Kan., Texarkana, and Carmel, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. White moved from Kansas to Gray County in 1916 and farmed southwest of Pampa for 11 years. They moved into Pampa in 1927.

Following the reception this afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. White will be hosts to out-of-town guests and relatives at a dinner party this evening in the home of Mrs. Ann Haske.

Abundancy Of Living In America Described At Civic Culture Meet

"Learning To Live In America" was the program topic presented by Mrs. J. B. Townsend at the Civic Culture Club meeting held Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Emmett Osborne, south of the city.

Mrs. Opelia Morris introduced the program topic and asked the group to join in singing "America, The Beautiful."

Mrs. Townsend in developing her topic said in opening remarks, "I am going to take the liberty of inserting one word into my topic, 'Learning To Live Abundantly In America. We all know we live everyday as it comes, but I wonder if we are living it as abundantly, as joyously as we might. America is a wonderful country and we are fortunate to be American citizens and privileged to enjoy all the bounties and wonders that are here."

She continued by describing the privileges of living in America by pointing out the National Forests, "which are ours to explore and enjoy. There are more than 150,000 miles of forest highways, and developed roads in the National Forests transportation system and scarcely a mile of it without some scenic attraction. Hiking and riding trails total over 120,000 miles and these are ours to use and enjoy free of charge."

"There are the wilderness areas for those yearning for solitude and wanting to rough it. There are 79 such wilderness areas, almost completely undeveloped and free of all artificial influences. These are accessible only by trail or water and are to be kept in their primitive status."

"Times are changing," Mrs. Townsend stated, "There are endless statistics facing us. We have no way of knowing if they are accurate or not. This we do know, things will change rapidly and the experts are concerned less the very mass and quantity of our increasingly urbanized and mechanized society stamp out our individualism, depress the educational standards, gobble up recreational areas, our wilderness areas and create insoluble political problems. Regardless of the accuracy of the forecasts, the future is not something already there waiting for us up ahead. We create it as we go. It is our country and our future, how shall we meet it?"

Refreshments were served during the social hour.

Attending were Mmes. Carl E. Axelson, Stanley Brandt and her houseguest, Mrs. C. L. Rackow of Detroit, Mich., R. E. Dauer, A. D. Hills, Emmett Gee, A. C. Houchin, C. F. Pennington, K. A. Sorenson, Louise Sewell, Katie Vincent, H. W. Waters; Willis White and three guests from LeFors, Mmes. E. E. Atkinson, Carl Hall and L. R. Spence.

33rd YEAR Ask The Designer

By GAILE DUGAN

Dear Gaile: My daughter will graduate from college this summer. She will begin her first job immediately after graduation. Since her clothes will be very different from those she has worn on the campus, I would like to start planning her wardrobe now. Please tell me what to buy in order to give her a good basic wardrobe for the office. She has a great collection of sweaters. Should she keep them?—Mrs. R. L. V.

Dear Mrs. R. L. V.: Since I am in Dallas this week for fashion showings, I put your question to Texas designer Ike Clark. He is well-known in the Southwest for his young career clothes. This is his advice:

"First get rid of those sweaters. They don't belong in an office. Now, begin with two sheath dresses, one with a companion jacket, the other with little cap sleeves. Add a couple of shirtwaist dresses in a medium color with three-quarter cuffed sleeves. (If your daughter likes prints, the print should be small.)

"She will also need several pairs of plain pumps with two-inch heels, a slim calf bag, a summery bag and a half dozen pairs of short white cotton gloves. When you and your daughter go shopping, aim for a businesslike look as you buy. can be held over from college since the change here need not be too great during her first year out of school."

Dear Gaile: My husband and I are going to Europe this summer for the very first time. I am more excited than I can say. But I don't know what clothes to take. I am sure of one thing: we don't want to be burdened with lots of luggage. So I'd like clothes to serve more than one purpose. Could you give me a few hints? We'll be gone two weeks.—Mrs. D. N. J.

Dear Mrs. D. N. J.: How wonderful! Of course, you're excited. But, you're sensible, too, in not wanting to travel with heaps of luggage. You should be able to go through the entire trip with one large suitcase and one small overnight case.

Advice as to what should go into them comes from the young Dallas designer, Charles Dickey. He does elegant but practical clothes that are ideal for travel. This is what he says:

"First, pack a cotton shantung sheath with a wool challis jacket. Then add a wool challis dress in matching floral. One jacket can be worn with either dress. The wool challis dress, without jacket, is a cocktail OR sun dress.

"Next, a cotton georgette halter dress with companion sweater, both in a cocoa color. (The fabric here is drip-dry.) You should also have a dark silk linen sheath for town wear.

"As for accessories, take a pair of black patent leather pumps with the stacked leather heel, bone-leather shoes and a pair of real walking shoes in sturdy leather with a low heel."

High School Counselor Speaker For Horace Mann PTA Thursday

Miss Evelyn Milam, Pampa High School counselor, was guest speaker at the Horace Mann PTA meeting held Thursday afternoon in the school auditorium. In discussing "Daily Living... Is It Purposeful," Miss Milam said that "to help our children broaden their horizons to the extent that they become better citizens and parents should be our fondest dream. We must help them to realize their potential and work toward that potential. Parents should show responsibility and demand respect from their children."

Miss Milam emphasized two points which all children should learn from their parents: first, how to do and second; how to do without. "Our main job is not to make our children happy in every instance, but encourage independence and acceptance of responsibility."

Miss Milam was introduced by Mrs. James Reeves.

To open the meeting the Horace Mann Band, directed by Charles Meach, presented a program of selections which included "Here Comes the Parade," "Cowboy Suite," "Rip Van Winkle," and "Indian Dance."

Mrs. Sam Groom gave a devotional.

A letter from the Horace Mann faculty was read by Mrs. Leon Daugherty expressing appreciation for the PTA activities during Teacher Appreciation Week.

Dear Abby
By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our upstairs neighbor has a 12-year-old son who takes piano lessons. She uses "piano practicing" as a punishment. The poor kid lost his overshoes, so she made him stay home all day Saturday and practice the piano for three hours! I can hear "The Blue Danube" in my sleep.

Would it be all right if I, and the neighbor next door to her, told her she should think up another punishment?

THE LADY DOWNSTAIRS
DEAR LADY: Tell her. If the boy has any desire to play the piano, the mother couldn't find a better way to destroy it. She has a right to "punish" her son, but not the neighbors.

DEAR ABBY: I am 17 and I guess you could call me a "good girl." I mean I obey my parents, get good grades and have nice friends.

I am corresponding with a boy who is in the Air Force. It is sort of my hobby. I like him very much and he writes interesting letters. He doesn't write "love letters" (but he signs them "Love"). My problem is this: My mother reads his letters while I am gone. I don't lock them up. I keep them in a shoe box in my drawer. If she asked if she could read them, I would let her because there is nothing in his letters I have to be ashamed of. She even asked me if I would please ask this boy to print because his writing is hard for her to read. I think she is wrong to read his letters without asking me first, but how does a respectful daughter tell her mother this?

LETTER WRITER
DEAR LETTER WRITER: In a respectful way.

DEAR ABBY: Our son (24) is engaged to marry a very beautiful, but mixed up, young lady. She is 20, spoiled and moody, and has already broken two engagements after the wedding invitations were out.

Our son now finds himself in the same predicament as her first two victims. The invitations are out, and the wedding gifts have already started to come in. Now this girl has asked for "more time to think it over." Her parents are no help because, while they have money, they have no character and are eager to get their daughter safely married and out of their home. We have talked to our clergyman and he thinks we should call it off. Our son is trying to persuade the girl to go through with it. He is sure he can straighten her out after the marriage. I

A "Fatty" Must Be Realistic About Shedding Those Unwanted Pounds

ALICIA HART
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

About once a month, I lunch with a friend who really does need to lose weight. As a matter of fact, she is under doctor's orders to lose 20 pounds.

As she strips off her glove, she reaches eagerly for the bread plate. While she butters two and often three rolls, she studies the menu. Invariably, she orders something like pancakes stuffed with creamed chicken.

She has a green salad with this and finishes up with creamed coffee. But she refuses dessert with a firm "no."

The glow of self-denial is obvious. As she refuses it, she adds: "I'm dieting, you know." And though this is her pattern day after day, she has difficulty in understanding why she can't lose weight.

Occasionally, she goes on a crash diet of some sort. This usually lasts for about a week and she actually does lose some weight. But at the first sign of a weight loss, she reverts to her former eating habits. She has been a fatty for years and is sure to remain one.

The simple act of standing up straight can drop years from a woman's age. Try it in front of a full length mirror if you're doubtful. Just pull yourself up, haul in your stomach and flatten your shoulders. Now, take another look at yourself. You're prettier, aren't you? And your clothes fit you better.

Well, the only way to keep this look is to sit and stand straight every day. It must be a conscious thing at first. You must tell yourself many times each day to straighten up. Then, gradually, you'll find yourself doing it automatically.

And after a while, it will become second nature with only an occasional slump now and then. And you'll pull out of these fast. There's an additional bonus in standing straight, you feel better, less fatigued, less cramped.

Touching your toes 25 times each morning without fail is still one of the best ways to a lithe figure. But no fair bending your knees.

Keep your legs straight, feet together. And really pull yourself up each count so that you feel the stretch. Then reach for your toes again. This will help to flatten your abdomen, too.

Turn Teenage Slumber Party Into Practical Beauty Bee

That teen-age favorite, the slumber party, can be turned into something new — a beauty bee! You can still talk boys, boys, boys while you and your guests but a professional stylist roll up each other's hair.

Ask each of your friends to bring along her own shampoo equipment rollers, clips, hairbrush and comb. Then you're all set to spend the evening shampooing hair and trying out new hair styles.

Limit the number of girls to four or five since they'll have to take turn at shampooing and using the hair dryer, if you have one.

To try out new hair styles without actually cutting the hair, lather it thoroughly. Now, it can be pushed, twisted or pulled into any style you've been anxious to

But there's one labor at a beauty bee: no scissors. Hair cutting should never be done by anyone but a professional stylist. Make your friends happy with little party favors. These can be inexpensive caps to cover rollers, combs, hair ornaments or miniature cans of hair spray. Be sure to clean up the bathroom and hang those soaping towels to dry when you've finished with your beauty session, or mom may never let you repeat the party.

Senior Center Corner

By MRS. H. M. NORRIS
Senior Center Corner

Here we are back again after a brief vacation from column-writing last week. It isn't all, serious business down at the Senior Center, we must tell you. There are plenty of laughs mixed in with the seriousness of dominoes and Canasta. Sometimes you just never know what is going to happen next. For instance, this Thursday I was called in to referee a wrestling match between Uncle Billy Frost and another person. Luckily the match was postponed until some night around 9 p.m., when most of the Senior Citizens will be busy watching television.

Grandview 4H Learns To Cook

Individual cooking and baking have been the projects for the Grandview 4-H Club which meets twice monthly with their leaders, Mrs. Dean Burger and Mrs. Keith Davis.

Thus far, members have learned to make fudge, cookies, milk shakes, salads and prepare vegetables.

Miss Lou Ella Patterson, Gray County Home Demonstration agent, has given demonstrations on baking cinnamon rolls and muffins.

Grandview members are Juanita Miller, Sharon Maddox, Billy Lowry, Sandra Bulkeley, Connie Burger, Monnie Weinheimer and Kathy.

District Governor Welcomed At Banquet

Altrusa Club members from Pampa, Amarillo, and Berger held a Tri-City Banquet in the Starlight Room of the Coronado Inn on Monday evening to welcome Mrs. Jo- ella Terrill Butler of Wichita Falls, District Nine governor, Altrusa International. The occasion also marked the 44th anniversary of the organization of Altrusa Inter- national; the local club has been organized nine years.

Invocation, before dining, was offered by Mrs. Rufe Jordan. Special guests, introduced by the Pampa Club president, Mrs. Clyde Vanderberg, were Ed Myatt, im- mediate past mayor of Pampa; E. O. Wedgeworth, Chamber of Com- merce manager and Mrs. Wedge- worth; presidents of other service clubs in Pampa, Mr. and Mrs. John McCausland of the Evening Kiwanis Club; Benny Shackelford of Pampa Junior Chamber of Com- merce; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lewis of the Business and Professional Women's Club. Altrusa Girls of the Month, Miss Darla Edwards for March, who introduced Miss Carolyn Tennyson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Tennyson as the Girl of the Month for April.

Welcome to members and guests was extended by Mr. Myatt, who pointed out that the Monday evening meeting was "the 394th event held in the Starlight Room since the opening of the Hotel on Jan. 17, 1960."

Response to the then - mayor's welcome was given by Miss Rose White, Altrusa Club of Berger president. Following buffet dining, Pampa Madrigal Singers, under the direction of Miss Rosemary Lawlor presented a group of songs, which included "Now Sing We All This Day," "O, Softly Singing Lute," "In These Delightful Pleasant Groves," concluding with "Green Sleeves." The Madrigal Group is composed of Miss Lawlor; Mmes. Helen Conway, Louise Richardson, Mary Wilson; Messrs. Tom Atkin, Sid Smith, David Mills and Jim Dailey.

Miss Bertie Warner, president of the Amarillo club, introduced Mrs. Butler, who directed her remarks to "being a good Altrusan." She said that service clubs make every town a better place in which to live. "It is an exciting thing to be an Altrusan, but we must also accept the privileges and respon- sibilities that go with it. If you enter wholeheartedly into its ac- tivities, it can be the most re- warding, worthwhile activity in your adult life outside of your church. But it doesn't just hap- pen; it takes planning and dili- gent work."

She advised members not to take committee assignments too lightly and went on to advise that "the clubs that are enjoying the great- est growth are the clubs that have planned for new members. When a new member is brought into the club, give them a good idea of what is expected of them; that it is a service club not a social club. Impress upon them that it is a working club that has fun while it works."

She stressed that a club must have a financial and service project if it is to be a successful club. "Team work is one of the greatest rewards; working with other people. You go from Altrusa what you put into it. Attendance is the keynote to the type of members we are. There are those who make the meetings just regularly enough to hold their classification. They dash in for the meal; hand their report to someone else to make for them; and then dash off to another appointment. But they are the loser this way. Sometimes the nice friendships are formed within Altrusa after a meeting is over and you have the opportunity to really visit and get to know another member."

"After a full and busy day, there is such a temptation to skip a meeting. One of the nicest sounds of the whole day is the sound of your own key in your own door of an evening. There is such a temptation to put on a housecoat, prepare a bite to eat and settle down to an evening of television. We can very easily become anti- social when a good television program is on. But if we would try to adjust our time, resist these temptations and go on to the meeting and enjoy it. It does take a lot of self-discipline to be a good member, but the beauty of it all, is that most Altrusans are!"

For the benediction, Miss Lawlor sang "Prayer" (David Guion) accompanied by Mrs. Fidelia Yoder at the piano.

Banquet preparations were under the direction of Mrs. Grant Anderson. Dining table appoint- ments were created by Mrs. Roy Kay using daisies and stock ar- ranged with streamers of greenery and lighted by blue tapers. Approximately 75 members and guests attended the banquet.

Fashion Hemlines Have Their Ups And Downs

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) —The hem- line is only one facet of fashion that has its ups and downs. So do the pants that more women are wearing than ever before.

To date, there are 11 lengths of these trousers and the woman shopper needs a chart to know what she's getting when the clerk suggests "deck" or "Capri" or "Nassau" or "Berimuda."

Wilma Donaldson, fashion coor- dinator for Queens casuals which sells more than one million pairs of pants annually, has tried to eliminate some of the confusion by drawing up a guide for the woman shopper. (And, of course for observant males everywhere. At the same time, Miss Donald- son said that one of the newest trends in trousers is to make them reversible. For instance, tapered pants are done in gabar- dine, solid color on one side, flora printed on the other. Put a roll on the pants leg, and every- one knows you're coordinating your trousers with an overblouse made of the same floral print.

Now, for Miss Donaldson's dic- tionary of pants lengths:
—Shorty short. Just as high on the leg as modesty will permit.
—Intermediate short. Two inches longer than the shorty.
—Regulation short. Two inches longer than the intermediate.
—Jamaica short. Mid - thigh, on most women.
—Nassau short. About two inches longer than the Jamaica. —Bermuda short. Hemmed off at about two inches above the knee.

—Knee pants. Just what the name indicates — a lengthy highly popular for summer, ending in the middle of the knee.

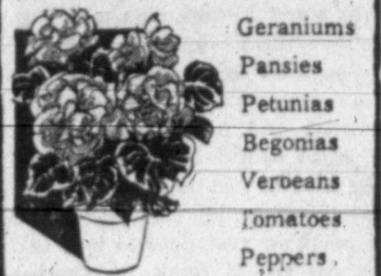

—Deck pants. About two inches below the knee. Also known as cabin-boys.

—Pedal pusher. A length which stops at mid-calf.

—Capri. A tapered leg trouser which stops three to four inches above the ankle bone.

—Slack — the familiar length reaching all the way to the ankle.

Elegant Dressing For Crisp Salads

The beautiful crisp salads greens of springtime deserve nothing less special than this elegant but simple to make Creamy Anchovy Dressing. To prepare: drain oil from 1 can (2 oz.) flat anchovy filets into a measuring cup and add salad oil to make 1/2 cup. Pour into a pint jar that has a tight fitting cover. Chop anchovy filets into 1/4-inch pieces, then add to oil along with 1/4 cup evaporated milk 1/4 cup wine vinegar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 clove garlic and 1/4 cup finely snipped parsley, (if desired). Cover tightly and shake vigorously until dressing is creamy and smooth, about 1 minute. Chill until ready to use. (Before using remove garlic clove.)

National Piano Guild Auditions
To Start Locally On Friday

Mrs. Few Brewster
... to judge auditions

Mrs. Few Brewster of Austin, will arrive in Pampa to begin judging the National Guild Auditions on Thursday, April 20. These annual auditions, sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers, are held in hundreds of cities over the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii.

Locally, they will be held in the First Methodist Church as in previous years. The auditions are scheduled to begin on April 21, and will continue through the 26, with teachers from surrounding towns also participating.

Mrs. Brewster comes to Pampa with a background of much experience, having served the Guild in many auditions — in Virginia, Missouri, Illinois, Iowa and Texas. She is a graduate of Baylor University and has also studied at Mary Hardin - Baylor College. She has served as president of the Texas Federation of Music Clubs, chairman of the education department of the National Federation of Music Clubs. The Brewster-Allison Award of $1000, established in her honor, has been presented twice to the National Federation by Dr. Irl Allison, founder of the National Guild of Piano Teachers in 1929.

In addition to activity participating in the work of numerous clubs, including Mu Phi Epsilon, honorary music sorority, Mrs. Brewster has compiled two Master Yearbooks for music clubs. She is also a world traveler and her most recent tours have included such European Music Festivals as Salzburg and Edinburgh.

Mrs. Fidelia Yoder is chairman of the Guild in Pampa, and Mrs. Herman Jones is assisting as monitor.

Try Something New And Different With New Twist In Stand-By Items

It has been reported by visitors to the recent British Food Fair in London that two mixes a minute was the rate of sales for Cake Mixes.

Honey is a stand-by that can be used in a myriad of ways. A quick meal can be had in a few minutes with a box of pancake mix and a jar of honey from the shelf. Served with sausage or bacon, a fruit salad and coffee, it makes a good lunch.

Honey may be served cold, or warmed a bit to enhance its flavor. Honey thinned with orange juice makes for variety. Butter and honey-mixed half and half is easy to spread on piping hot biscuits or fresh bread. Try adding a dash of cinnamon and you'll have spiced honey to give variety.

Other honey butter combinations are honey, butter and peanut butter, so tasty in sandwiches; as well as on hot toast or waffles. Honey, butter and whipped cream is good as a topping. Chopped nuts, grated orange peel, or chopped dried fruits, added to honey butters are treats as sandwich spreads. Try using cream cheese by using 3 tablespoons liquid honey with a 4 ounce package of cheese.

In conclusion, Mrs. Harrah read James D. Houston's poem "Quintet To Eight Islands" with soft background musical accompaniment of "Beyond the Reef."

Decorations with Hawaiian accent were used throughout the club room with the register table centered with fresh baby orchids, which were given to guests. The speaker's table was appointed with driftwood and tulips, while the coffee table was centered with native pineapple, shells and orchids. Fish nets, shells and memoirs from the Island completed the motif.

Table appointments were a punch bowl of ice surrounded by fresh gardenias, orchids, Ivy and Lily-Pads, Macadamis nuts, coconut chips and cookies were attractively served from containers made of Monkey-Pad wood. The table was centered with driftwood accented with Bird of Paradise,

OIL MEET SPEAKER—Lawrence J. O'Connor Jr., imports administrator in Washington, will address the 15th annual meeting of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Assn., in Midland, May 14-16.

Independent Oil Group Schedules Midland Session

AUSTIN (Spl) —For the first time since its organization 15 years ago, the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association will go to West Texas for its annual meeting. The independent oilmen's association will meet in Midland, May 14-16.

TIPRO President John Hurd said the decision was in keeping with the westward movement of oil production in Texas over recent years. The Permian Basin, of which Midland is the nerve center of oil production, is now the largest producing area in the state. Some 600 independents from across the state are expected to attend the meeting of Texas' largest producer association.

Hurd said the three-day meeting would concentrate on imports, federal gas regulation, and well spacing—all highly controversial areas now undergoing detailed review.

Recent TIPRO recommendations to the FCC and the Interior Department on both the gas regulation issue and on oil imports will be "of prime interest" throughout the convention, Hurd said. State tax problems also will rank high on the oilmen's agenda.

W. J. Weaver of Midland, general chairman of the meeting, announced that five members from Midland and one from Big Spring have been named to head various arrangements committees planning the annual meeting. They are: John C. Hostetter, Program Committee; Walter H. Walne, Jr., Entertainment Committee; W. S. Montgomery, Arrangements Committee; A. W. Rutter, Jr., Reception Committee; Mrs. W. J. Weaver, Ladies Committee; and Marvin M. Miller of Big Spring, Chairman Finance Committee.

Gas Tax Rate Relief Urged

DALLAS (Spl) —Texas motorists have seen taxes on their gasoline rise 64 per cent in the past decade, Estill Heyer, president, Texas Mid-Continent Oil Gas Assn., said today.

In a statement concerning proposals to increase the federal tax rate, Heyer pointed out that total state and federal taxes on a gallon of gasoline 10 years ago were 5 1/2 cents. The annual gasoline tax bill in Texas was then $134 million. He contrasted this to today's tax rate of 9 cents a gallon and a $340 million a year tax bill paid by Texas gasoline buyers.

"We hope Congress will keep its promise to let 1 cent per gallon of the present federal tax expire June 30 to give auto users some relief from this excessive tax burden," Heyer said.

Heyer explained this would not harm the nation's highway construction program if provisions of the current law are followed. "The drop in gasoline taxes will be made up by earmarking for highways a greater portion of other federal highway user taxes, which are not now being used for roads," Heyer said.

Pipeline Company Plans Extensions

TULSA (Spl) — Mid-America Pipeline Company today announced plans for two branch extensions from its liquefied petroleum gas pipeline to serve new market areas in central Iowa.

Robert E. Thomas, Mid-America president, said right-of-way acquisition began in January, 1961, and is already 75 per cent complete on the first extension from Whiting to Ogden, Iowa.

Construction of the six-inch extension is to begin this summer, and completion is scheduled by next fall. The Whiting-Ogden extension will total 108 miles.

The second extension will be from Ogden City to Charles City, Iowa, about 100 miles, and construction on it is scheduled for 1962.

Both extensions will branch out from the west leg of the main Mid-America line, on which pumping capacity is being stepped up at the same time by one additional pump station at Whiting, Iowa.

Cos of the two projects was estimated at $4.5 million.

Anne Tripplehorn To Participate In Style Show

Miss Anne Tripplehorn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Tripplehorn, 1616 Charles and senior at Stephens College in Columbia Mo., has been selected to participate in a "Campus Originals" fashion show program to be held at Scruggs Vandervoort Barney in St. Louis on April 22.
Miss Tripplehorn was given the opportunity to select fabrics in any pattern and color from the collection manufactured by Cone Mills and design an ensemble. The ensemble she sketched, patterned and produced will be modeled by another Stephens College student at the fashion show.
The three most outstanding student designers will be cited for their efforts after the judging.

Traffic Death Rate Climbing

AUSTIN (UPI)—Traffic continues to take a higher toll in Texas this year than last, the Department of Public Safety said Saturday.
The DPS said 426 fatal accidents have killed 415 persons through the week ending Friday, compared with 399 fatal accidents and 483 deaths through the same period of 1960. Both figures were up 7 per cent.

Scientific Actor

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Herbert Lom, who recently completed a role in "I Am at the Stars" as a dedicated German scientist who assisted Werner von Braun, will next appear in a science fiction film.
Lom play Captain Nemo, commander of the submarine Nautilus, in the film version of Jules Verne's "Mysterious Island."
