

Bitter Cold Sweeps Deep Into State, Leaving Eight Dead

By United Press International
Deep-South Texas felt the sting of the sharpest attack of winter today from the storm that billowed across the state, leaving a trail of ice, snow, closed schools and slippery roads.

Intermittent freezing rain and sleet pelted the Gulf Coast today, but areas of North Texas began to thaw out.
Bone-chilling weather still covered the state but skies cleared over much of North Texas and a welcome sun came out enough to begin melting the ice. However, meteorologists said cloudiness would spread back over the north.

Pampa registered a low of 11 degrees in the early morning hours.
The eastern part of the state by late today or tonight.
Amarillo registered the coldest overnight temperature at 10 degrees and Dalhart had 11.

Official U.S. Weather Bureau rainfall recordings for the 24 hours ended at 6 a.m. included: Laredo .78 of an inch, Brownsville .08, Corpus Christi .77, San Antonio .16, Houston .60, Galveston .96, Beaumont .42, Austin .05, Waco .02, Dallas .05, Fort Worth .04, Abilene .03, San Angelo .07, and Brownwood .18.

At dawn today, temperatures ranged from 11 degrees at Pampa to 39 degrees at Laredo. The freezing line extended along a line from Beaumont to Palacios to just north of San Antonio to El Paso.

Spotty areas of light freezing drizzle were reported at dawn in East Texas and in the Austin area. Skies were generally cloudy except clear around Wink and Midland and in the Wichita Falls, Childress and Amarillo areas.
Other early morning lows included 19 at Wichita Falls, 15 at Dalhart, 18 at Childress, 23 at Lubbock, 33 at Houston, 27 at Wink, 35 at Alice, 33 at Corpus Christi, 26 at Dallas, 25 and freezing drizzle at Tyler, 27 at Junction, 39 at Laredo, 34 and fog at San Antonio, 34 at Midland, 34 and fog at San Angelo and 32 and fog at El Paso.

President Backs Cold War Rayburn's Plan Thaw Seen By Kennedy

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Administration forces in the House had a strong assist today from President Kennedy in their attempts to gather enough support to pass Speaker Sam Rayburn's plan to liberalize the rules committee.

Kennedy made it clear that "as an interested citizen" he hoped the House would support Rayburn's move to add three new members to the committee, thereby breaking the power of the GOP-Southern Democratic conservative coalition which has controlled the group and blocked liberal legislation.

The vote on Rayburn's plan had been scheduled for today but the speaker decided to postpone the showdown until Tuesday. The postponement was greeted by taunts from conservatives who claimed Rayburn delayed the move because he was afraid of losing.

The President told his first news conference Wednesday night that no "small group" of congressmen should be permitted to prevent the full House from acting on his legislative proposals.

Other congressional news: Medical Care: Rep. Frank Kowalski, D-Conn., proposed a medical care program designed to provide coverage for nearly every American over 65 years old. Under the bill, persons covered by Social Security would pay one-quarter of one per cent tax on income.

Cong. Walter Rogers in a news-letter earlier this month stated that he was in favor of continuing the rules committee as it presently constituted. This would mean that he is opposed to the addition of members.

The two airmen, now en route home, are Capt. Freeman B. Olmstead, 24, of Elmira, N.Y., and John R. McKone, 28, of Tonganoxie, Kan. They were the survivors of the six-man crew of a plane shot down by the Russians over the Barents Sea July 1.

The President personally announced the Russian action at a nationally televised news conference Wednesday night. He said it "removes a serious obstacle to relations."

At the same time, Kennedy disclosed that he had promised Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev that American U2 spy plane flights over Russia would not be resumed.

The dramatic disclosures of simultaneous tension-easing concessions in Moscow and Washington came at Kennedy's first formal meeting with Washington news men since taking office. In addition to being televised, the conference was broadcast to radio listeners around the world.

Kennedy covered a wide range of foreign and domestic problems. He discussed Cuba, the Congo, Laos, the Chinese famine, reciprocal trade, the dollar gap and the seized cruise ship Santa Maria.

On the domestic scene, he talked about the House rules fight, civil rights, New York politics, aid to the unemployed, freedom of information, the budget and electoral reform.

Kennedy, while cautiously optimistic about an era of better relations with Russia, sidestepped the question of a summit conference and declined to commit himself to a meeting with Khrushchev if the Soviet leader returns to the United Nations in New York this spring.

The President said "it would be more appropriate to wait until we had some indication whether Mr. Khrushchev is planning to come to the United Nations."

President Telephones Families Of Release

Ochiltree Due Dry Year, Onion Rings Forecast

Two American fliers who spent nearly seven lonely months imprisoned in Russia because their plane flew too close to the Iron Curtain were being sped home to their families and freedom today in an astonishing turn of the cold war.
Just five days after President Kennedy took office the Soviet Union, in an obvious gesture of good will, released Capt. John R. McKone, 28, of Tonganoxie, Kan., and Capt. Freeman Bruce Olmstead, 24, of Elmira, N.Y.

They had been held since their RB-47 reconnaissance plane was shot down over the Barents Sea by Soviet aircraft last July 1.
President Kennedy made the dramatic announcement at his news conference in Washington Wednesday night after the two airmen had actually taken off from the Moscow airport.

U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn E. Thompson, who had been unsuccessful in effecting the release of the airmen during the Eisenhower administration, suddenly found the door open in talks with Soviet officials in Moscow during the weekend.

President Kennedy personally phoned the elating news to the wives and families of the two men in Topeka, Kan.
"I'm just numb, very numb," said the 26-year-old Mrs. Connie Giff.

The fliers' arrival in Washington, expected this afternoon, was delayed because of a forecast of heavy snow in the capital. They were to spend the night at Goose Bay, Labrador, and reach their home country about noon tomorrow.

McKone: "It's like Thanksgiving and Christmas rolled into one."
"My feeling, was of complete joy, relief and thankfulness," said Mrs. Galle Olmstead, 25.

The two women were sped to Washington by Air Force plane to be on hand for their husbands' arrival.
For four other women, the news deepened their grief in a way. They are the widows of the four men who were flying with McKone and Olmstead, and were

Auto Insurance Rating System Under Twin-Attack In Legislature

AUSTIN (UPI)—The state's auto insurance rating system came under fire from two fronts Wednesday in the state Senate as the upper chamber introduced 27 bills before quitting for the day.

One bill, by Sen. Jarrard Sevrest of Temple, would establish "flexible rating" of auto insurance to let each company set its own rates based on loss experience. The plan would make the controversial "merit rating" auto insurance plan optional.

Secret said the present situation has "patent inequities" which would be removed by letting companies choose their rating plan.
The other measure, by Sen. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo, was a different version of a bill he introduced earlier eliminating minor violations from the penalty-point assessment under the "safe driving" insurance plan. Hazlewood said Wednesday's version "is just a negative version of the earlier bill," saying what a driver can be penalized for, by higher insurance rates.

Sen. William Moore of Bryan introduced a state "blue law" spelling out what businesses can open for sales on Sunday. The bill would close clothing, hardware, furniture, appliance, music, jewelry, building, record and radio and television stores on Sunday, but would permit food and other necessary sales.
Other measures introduced in the Senate included bills:
— Establishing a radiation advisory board in Texas, to license nuclear material users and regulate them.

Charter Airing Set Tomorrow

A meeting to discuss Pampa's proposed city charter changes has been called for 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the county courtroom of the Gray County Courthouse.
Frank Carter, 1324 E. Frederic St., said today he is calling the meeting to take up issues involved in next Tuesday's election when Pampa voters will approve or reject the proposed charter.
The meeting will be open to the public and everyone interested in city government is invited to attend, Carter said.
Carter, an opponent of the proposed charter, said he would act as moderator for the discussions.

Relay Of Navy Planes Keep Vigil Over Pirated Liner Near Africa

SAN JUAN, P.R. (UPI)—A relay of U.S. Constellation jet fighters flew a constant vigil over the luxury liner Santa Maria steaming on a strange voyage across the Atlantic toward Africa.

Under command of former Portuguese army Capt. Henrique Galvao and a heavily armed band of rebel followers, the 20,906-ton cruise ship was headed for the Azores, the jewel of Portugal's African possessions.

Two U.S. destroyers, the Gearing and the Vogelgesang, were dispatched from the Ivory Coast port of Abidjan, where they had been on a good will visit, to intercept the Santa Maria.

The U.S. ships were under orders to keep the liner in sight but not to try to board it by force.
Two Portuguese destroyers and a frigate steamed out of Lisbon bound for the African coast Wednesday and Tuesday. It was believed one or more of them would try to head off the Santa Maria but there was no immediate indication whether they would go as far as engaging the rebel-held ship in battle.

U.S. Navy planes reported Wednesday night the Santa Maria was about 900 miles east of Trinidad and steaming southeast at about 15 knots. At that course and speed it would take the ship more than a week to reach the African coast.

Colonies Seek Way To Bar Union Hoods

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Senate investigators of the Teamsters were preparing today to Congress to tighten up anti-union provisions of the labor reform law.

John L. McClellan, D-Ark., from a new round of verbal clashes with Teamster President James R. Hoffa, was reported today to be preparing legislation to rid unions of corrupt influences.

McClellan is chairman of the Senate Permanent Investigations committee which just concluded two days of hearings on Teamsters, particularly on charges Hoffa allowed corruption flourish.

The labor reform law enacted years ago prohibits any person convicted of certain crimes from holding union office. McClellan was expected to recommend that perjury be added to the list.
The latest phase of hearings ended Wednesday with New York Senator Antonio (Tony Ducks) Fazio invoking the Fifth Amendment more than 50 times in refusing to answer questions about alleged misappropriation of a union's funds.
Another highlight of the final session, two members of Teamsters Local 107 in Philadelphia testified after taking part in efforts to rid their union of corruption.
Another witness, Harold J. Gibbons — Hoffa's executive assistant — denied previous testimony he knew of union money being used to bribe policemen in Philadelphia.

Special School Districts Urged To Assist Handicapped Persons

By FLETCHER ROBERTSON
Daily News Special Correspondent
AUSTIN — A bill authorizing the establishment of special school districts for the education, training and guidance of handicapped persons has been introduced in the House by Rep. Maurice Pipkin of Brownsville.

Terms of the proposed statute provide that a county commissioner shall call an election for the creation of a district on receipt of a petition signed by 1 per cent of the qualified voters of the county asking for a plebiscite.

Two or more contiguous counties, under certain conditions, may combine and vote on the establishment of a special district, the bill sets forth.
The district would be governed by a board of directors which would have the authority to levy taxes not to exceed 5 cents per $100 valuation.
The board would be comprised of one director from each commissioner's precinct, one director at large and one director at large for each 50,000 inhabitants of the district. Terms of office would be staggered.

Each group may, with or without outside assistance, provide a residence center to be located within the district for trainees who, in the opinion of the board, will benefit from group living in getting adjusted to their work and to general society.
The main purpose of the proposed law is summarized by Pipkin in these words in the bill: "Special school districts would be created to provide education, training, special services and guidance to handicapped persons peculiar to their conditions and needs to develop their full capacity for usefulness to themselves and society and to prevent them from becoming or remaining in whole or in part, dependent on public or private charity."
Minimum age for handicapped persons to enroll in the special schools is set at 5 years in the bill.

Military Plane With 28 Aboard Listed Missing

TORBAY, Nfld. (UPI)—A U.S. Military Air Transport Service C-118 plane carrying a total of 28 passengers and crew was reported missing today. It was believed to have crashed in the Atlantic off Newfoundland.

The Royal Canadian Air Force rescue coordination center in Halifax said another U.S. Navy plane reported seeing an explosion 28 miles south of Argentina at 8:14 a.m.
The missing plane was due at Argentina at 6:07 a.m. It was last heard from at 2 a.m.

Huff explained that he and his 14 associates consulted widely with various authorities on city charters and sifted all the best points into the one the voters are being asked to approve.
The speaker explained that Pampa was the only city in the state that had our present type of ward system and that it was outmoded in that it denied every citizen an opportunity to have a voice in selecting all those who were to run the city's affairs.
Visitors and guests of the club were Bueck Worthington, Bill Carnes, H. E. Harper, K. I. June and J. B. Wiggam.

Rotarians Hear Of Handicapped Pupil Schooling
Pampa Rotarians yesterday heard about the program in the public school system for special assistance to handicapped children. Stephen McGrady, director of the program locally, said that the end result was not only helping the child to learn, but rehabilitating him to find social acceptance.
C. A. Huff, former mayor of Pampa and a member of the charter commission, urged the group as individuals, to support the proposed charter which will be voted on Tuesday.

IT'S THE LAW
in Texas

(This newsfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

The 1958 Federal Tax Law has introduced a new factor in selecting or changing the form of a business organization, a change which can mean substantial cash savings and other benefits for the owners of a business. Every person in business, whether presently operating as a sole proprietorship, a partnership or a corporation, should re-examine his business form in the light of the new federal tax law.

If a business is now operating as a partnership or a sole proprietorship, it can be incorporated, and still be taxed, substantially the same as a partnership or sole proprietorship. In this way, it can avoid the federal corporation income tax, and pay only the tax on income to the proprietor.

The new tax law, called "Subchapter S", gives the businessman the usual advantages of the corporate form — limited liability, ease in transferring interests and continuity of the business after death — without the double tax burden imposed on both the corporation and the stockholders.

If you are already operating your business as a corporation, in many cases you can cut your taxes substantially by taking the option to be taxed as a partnership or sole proprietorship without giving up the other advantages of the corporate form. Although there is no limit on the worth of the corporation, except for tax loss carry-over, the business must meet several qualifications, the most important of which are: the corporation must have 10 or fewer stockholders; be a domestic corporation; have only individuals and/or estates as stockholders; have only one class of stock, and not get more than 20 per cent of its receipts from rents, royalties, dividends, interests, annuities or profit from the stock market.

There are various other factors to consider in taking the option to organize as a corporation and make this tax election. First, all the stockholders must agree to the move. The decision must be unanimous and must remain so.

You should also investigate the possibility of putting your business back into its original form in the event that you are dissatisfied with the pseudo-corporation. Certain procedures must be followed to revoke the form. The corporate form of business gives advantages in estate planning not available to the partnership or the sole proprietorship.

In other words, the advantages of taking the option to form a pseudo-corporation should be studied thoroughly before entering into such a business entity. Only with competent advice and thoughtful consideration can you make your business work to the full advantage under the 1958 Federal Tax Law.

Urge Poultry Be Added For Needy Families

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sens. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., and John J. Sparkman, D-Ala., asked the Agriculture Department yesterday to include poultry in President Kennedy's stepped-up program of food distribution to the needy.

The two senators—both from poultry producing states—urged in a joint telegram to Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman that the department make poultry meat a basic product in building adequate high protein diets.

"Nutritional research showed poultry meat among the very highest in protein content and the very lowest in fat content," the two senators said. "Poultry meat is available the year around in adequate quantities, easily available through commercial channels."

Algeria Talks:
Informed sources in Paris say preliminary preparations will be made so thoroughly beforehand if and when peace talks between France and the Algerians are announced publicly, all essential points of negotiation just about have been covered.

But if the current popular hope in France for a meeting between President Charles de Gaulle and Algerian rebel leader Ferhat Abbas comes to nothing, it probably will be because of their mutually opposed attitudes as to the role of the French army in Algeria. Abbas and his followers want the army out of Algeria so that millions of Arabs can feel free to vote as they really want the promised self-determination referendum. But De Gaulle wants the army to stay.

Communist China is considering possibility of chartering large Japanese freighters for use in trade with Latin America, an area which Peiping regards highly as prize in the campaign to spread influence abroad.

Jealousy of the proposal. They are unhappy about getting mixed in the Cuban mess and they realize that any ships chartered from Red China now could not use ports for refueling until six months after any charter ends.

Expect the Soviet Union to mark its 40th anniversary in Moscow with the West on a cease-fire mediation agreement. Moscow apparently feels communism's chances presently are good in Laos and therefore is in no hurry to solve the troubles there. There are signs that Moscow really wants a major international conference on Laos.

Observers look for Belgium to go to the polls some time in April in new elections to give the voters a chance to outline their feelings about the country's political set-up. The present government of Premier Gaston Eyskens is expected to win final parliamentary approval for its austerity program within the next few weeks.

Certain gifts can be deducted on that Federal income tax return for 1960, Wiley E. Davis, administrative officer, Internal Revenue Service, Pampa, said today.

You can deduct gifts to the Salvation Army, Red Cross, Community Chest, churches (including assessments), non-profit schools and hospitals, veterans' organizations, Scouts and non-profit groups primarily engaged in research for cure of certain diseases.

On the other hand, the IRS representative said you "cannot deduct gifts to social clubs, propaganda groups, labor unions, chambers of commerce, relatives, friends, other individuals, political organizations but you cannot deduct dues or other payments to them, for which you get personal benefits.

"For example," he said, "you can deduct gifts to a YMCA but not dues."

The IRS representative advised taxpayers to get full particulars on contributions from the instructions that accompany 1960 tax forms, or from the free IRS Document 8053, "Contributions."

Barbecued Spareribs Most Welcome At Family Dinner On Winter's Day

One fleeting moment marks the close of an old year and the beginning of a new one—a transition so slight that one can scarcely tell the exact time. A New Year means many things to many people, but a wish for all the world could well be made for a Year of Health—Wealth and Happiness.

Once upon a time, long ago, Honey was a symbol of abundance, a source of strength and vitality, so Honey became a fine gift. Honey has always been associated with wealth and royalty—so while we start a new year, it's logical to use Honey as the symbol of our good wishes. Honey has long been known as "nutritious and delicious," and "wealth will come in health," we believe.

Honey can be used so many ways that even after a Holiday meal can be enhanced with unusual servings.

A far cry from turkey, goose or duck, but one which is equally appetizing and greatly appreciated on a cold January day is "Barbecued Spareribs."

Try them for health, wealth and happiness.

BARBECUE SPARERIBS ...
 4 pounds spareribs
 1/2 cup chopped onion
 2 cloves garlic
 1 1/2 cups catsup
 2 tablespoons vinegar
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon prepared mustard
 1/2 teaspoon black pepper
 2 tablespoons of any thick steak sauce

1 cup strained honey
 Cut spareribs in serving size portions. Simmer in enough water to cover plus 2 teaspoons salt for 1 1/2 hour. Mix the remaining ingredients and cook over low heat for pepper, Worcestershire sauce, salt, pepper, 1/2 of bologna slices and shredded Gouda in covered saucepan; blend. Heat; pour into shallow 2-quart casserole. Top with remaining hot bologna slices and Gouda wedges. Broil just until cheese softens, 3-to 5 minutes. Yield: 8 to 10 servings.

BEST HAMBURGERS (Serves 4)
 1 pound ground beef
 1/4 cup dry red table wine
 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
 1 tablespoon grated onion
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 Hamburger buns or toast

Mix beef, wine, parsley, onion, salt, and pepper. Shape lightly into four nice patties. Broil or saute in butter or bacon drippings until as done as desired. Serve between halves of buttered, toasted hamburger buns, or on toast, with whatever relishes you like.

SURPRISE BURGERS (Serves 6)
 1 pound ground beef
 1 large onion, chopped
 1 small clove garlic, chopped or put through garlic press
 1/2 green pepper, chopped
 2 tablespoons bacon drippings or butter

From The Sea Comes Pigs' Knuckles Recipe

When it comes to hearty winter meals, housewives can take a tip from the men of the sea. Something in the clean air of the sea encourages an appetite for simple, wholesome food.

Chefs on board liners like North German Lloyd's M.V. Berlin respond to this high seas appetite by including a few rib-sticking dishes among such French, American and German specialties as crepes suzette, juicy steaks and Weiner Schnitzel.

Although he expends great labor preparing elaborate dishes, E. Wollmershaeuser, chief chef of the Berlin, is especially proud of his family-style meals, particularly those associated with the liner's name sake, the city of Berlin.

Wollmershaeuser outdoes himself with a very simple dish which is particularly satisfying after a cold day on the navigating bridge: pigs knuckles and sauerkraut prepared as they would be by a Berlin housewife, according to Captain Roessing, a native Berliner.

PIGS KNUCKLES AS SERVED ON THE NORTH
 2 tablespoons flour
 1-3 cup dry red table wine
 1-3 cup catsup
 1/2 cup grated Cheddar cheese
 1-3 cup chopped pimento-stuffed olives
 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
 Salt and pepper to taste
 6 hamburger buns

Saute beef, onion, garlic and green pepper in bacon drippings until meat is no longer red, stirring with a fork so that meat is separated into bits. Sprinkle flour over meat and blend well. Add wine and catsup; cook, stirring constantly, until mixture boils and thickens. Remove from heat. Add cheese, olives, Worcestershire sauce, salt and pepper. Cut a thin slice from the top of each bun and hollow out inside; fill with meat mixture (about 1/2 cup per bun); replace tops. Place in a baking pan; cover with a lid or aluminum foil and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 30 minutes. Good with cole slaw and potato chips. These also can be prepared ahead of time.

An average of 13 1/2 million people, in 27 countries, receive food every month through various CARE programs using U.S. farm surpluses. Contributions to the CARE Food Crusade, New York 16, N.Y., deliver these foods to the hungry in 20 of the countries.

New President Enjoys Hamburger

GAYNOR MADDOX
 Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Our new president is a man who enjoys a good hamburger. We understand, also, he enjoys wine, both in cooking and served occasionally with his meals. Therefore, we suggest he add to the White House pantry library an excellent new book by Emily Chase of California called, "The Pleasures of Cooking with Wine" (Prentice Hall—$4.95).

For the White House menus we recommend these two recipes from "The Pleasures of Cooking with Wine":

BEST HAMBURGERS (Serves 4)
 1 pound ground beef
 1/4 cup dry red table wine
 2 tablespoons chopped parsley
 1 tablespoon grated onion
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon pepper
 Hamburger buns or toast

Mix beef, wine, parsley, onion, salt, and pepper. Shape lightly into four nice patties. Broil or saute in butter or bacon drippings until as done as desired. Serve between halves of buttered, toasted hamburger buns, or on toast, with whatever relishes you like.

SURPRISE BURGERS (Serves 6)
 1 pound ground beef
 1 large onion, chopped
 1 small clove garlic, chopped or put through garlic press
 1/2 green pepper, chopped
 2 tablespoons bacon drippings or butter

tatoes, then season with 1 teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon sugar. Mashed peas and bacon is a typical side dish with this meat. Wash 3 1-3 lbs. dried green peas and soak overnight in 2 quarts water. To the water in which the peas have been soaked, add 1 onion, 1 bay leaf, 1 leek, carrot celery and 1 quartered, peeled raw potato. Boil 2 1/2-3 hours. Season with salt and pepper, and mash. Garnish with bacon and onions both diced and fried brown.

Mashed potatoes are also served with this dish, although some American cooks may prefer to omit them. Chef Wollmershaeuser peels the potatoes and boils them with 1 teaspoon salt. When drained he mashes them with 1/2 teaspoon salt, dash nutmeg, 1 teaspoon butter and 2 hot cups of light cream.

White Family Aided Her

Negro Carpenter's Daughter Given Major Roles In Metropolitan Opera

NEW YORK (UPI) — The Metropolitan Opera opens its 50th season Friday in an open-air performance at the Met. A Negro carpenter who made her way to the musical summit with the aid of a devoted white Southern family.

Five other Negroes have preceded 30-year-old Leontyne Price at the Met, but none has been entrusted with such a heavy first-season schedule — five major roles. The tall, slender soprano will make her debut as Leonora in Verdi's "Il Trovatore" and later portray a gallery of heroines: Donna Anna in "Don Giovanni"; Lu in "Turandot"; Aida, and Madame Butterfly.

Next fall she will be accorded an honor never before attained by a member of her race. She will sing the title role in an open-air performance at the Met in Puccini's "Girl of the Golden West."

Her parents, James and Kate Price of Laurel, Miss., will be in the orchestra seats at Friday's performance. Nearby will be Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Chisholm, members of a socially prominent Laurel family, and their daughters, Cynthia, Jean, and Peggy.

Miss Price's aunt was a maid in the Chisholm's antebellum mansion, and the singer was a childhood playmate of the Chisholm daughters, who call her "sister." The Chisholms assumed financial responsibility for

A CROWD GATHERS to listen to Jesus as He delivers the Sermon on the Mount in the all-time Academy Award winning attraction, "Ben Hur," opening tonight at the LaVista theatre. The picture has been brought to Pampa on a roadshow basis with one evening performance nightly at 7:45 p.m. and three matinees weekly at 1:45 p.m. on Saturday, Sunday and Wednesday.

John T. Dendy Rites Slated At Perryton

PERRYTON (SpI) — Funeral Services for John Troy Dendy, 58, of Perryton, will be held at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow in Trinity Presbyterian Church in Perryton. The Rev. Tommy Bower will officiate. Burial will be in Ochiltree Cemetery at Perryton, under direction of Boxwell Brothers Funeral Home of Spearman.

Mr. Dendy died at 11:20 p.m. Tuesday in Perryton.

He was born Dec. 24, 1902, in Runge, Tex., and had lived in Perryton for 18 years. He had lived in Waka for 20 years before moving to Perryton.

Survivors include his wife, Treva, two sons, Fred and Max Dendy, both of Perryton; one brother, Omar Dendy of Portales, N. M.; four sisters, Mrs. L. B. Magee of Blum, Tex., Mrs. John McDonald of Portales, Mrs. Frank Finley of Amarillo and Mrs. Jeff Wilson of Dave Creek, Colo., and five grandchildren.

Jaycees Set Poll Tax Sale At Perryton

PERRYTON (SpI) — Perryton Jaycees will have a trailer house in down town Perryton Saturday January 28 for the convenience of shoppers who wish to pay their poll tax.

The Jaycees annually conduct a "pay your poll tax and vote" campaign. Five Jaycee members have been sworn in as deputy tax collectors to aid in this campaign.

Although 1961 is considered an "off" year, a special senatorial election is slated as well as city and school board elections.

Residents alerted to the fact that if they let the Jan. 31 deadline pass without paying their poll taxes, they will be ineligible to vote in any elections this year. There is no second chance in the event other elections are called.

Schwalk Infant's Rites Conducted

PERRYTON (SpI) — Graveside services for Michael Dean Schwalk infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Schwalk of 621 S. Ash, were conducted at 11 a.m. yesterday in the Ochiltree County Cemetery. The Rev. Carroll Ray, pastor of the Perryton First Baptist Church, officiated.

The infant died at 6:15 p.m. Monday in Sanford Hospital.

Other survivors include the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schwalk of Perryton.

Catholic Home For Aged To Be Built In Panhandle

PANHANDLE (SpI) — Preliminary plans for a $250,000 Catholic home for the aged to be built in Panhandle are being prepared by a Lubbock architect, Hugh Dryer.

Announcement of plans for the home, which will serve 50 persons, was made by Bishop John L. Morkovsky of the West Texas diocese covers 73,000-square miles and has a Catholic population of about 92,000 persons.

After a recent meeting with the architect, Bishop Morkovsky said the home will consist of four bedroom wings radiating from a central community core of a chapel, dining room and recreation rooms.

The home will be built with funds contributed by donors throughout the diocese. Bishop Morkovsky said construction will start when funds are available.

A planning and finance committee appointed by the Bishop met in Amarillo recently and approved general plans for the home, including its location at Panhandle. The home will be erected east of the Catholic Children's Home there, on property donated by Mrs. Ross Gordon of Panhandle.

One of the factors considered in location of the home for the aged, said Bishop Morkovsky, was the availability of the Catholic sisters at Panhandle to staff the new facility. The religious order, School Sisters of the Third Order of St. Francis, staff the Catholic Children's Home and also teach in parochial schools in Dumas, Borger and Dalhart. The order's American Center and Novitiate is located at Panhandle.

The planning and finance committee recommended that a contact be made with each individual parish in the diocese to determine the number of senior citizens interested in living at the home and also to seek prospective donors.

At the recent meeting of Architect Dryer and Bishop Morkovsky to discuss preliminary plans, Mr. John Steinlage of Panhandle, director of the Children's Home who also will supervise the home for the aged, was present.

Members of the planning and finance committee which met in Amarillo recently include: Mr. and Mrs. Owen Seamands of Hereford; Joe Berg of St. Francis; Vern Wisdom of Panhandle; Mr. and Mrs. T. L. McMahon of Amarillo; William R. Hogge of Plainview; Florence J. Albracht and Joe Lange of Nazareth; Lawrence Jensen of Vega; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Boyd of Pampa; Mike Britten of Groom; Gus Ronner and John Venneman of Spearman.

Perryton Banks Note $1 Million Deposits Boost

PERRYTON (SpI) — Total Bank deposits in Perryton were up nearly a million dollars at the end of 1960 compared with figures at the same time in 1959. A total of $13,854,064 was on deposit in the First National Bank, Perryton National Bank and the Perryton Savings and Loan as of Dec. 31, 1960.

On Dec. 31, 1959, deposits in the same three institutions were $12,890,881.

At the end of the last day of business of 1960, the First National Bank had $7,489,361.57; the Perryton National Bank had $4,148,086.89; and the Perryton Savings and Loan had $2,216,615.74.

Both banks made changes in their boards of directors at their annual stockholders meetings this year.

The Perryton National Bank added Giltner LaMaster on the board. Other board members are A. P. Spicer, J. D. Sims, Dr. Manse Wood, Edwin Garland and Gale S. Rogers.

J. R. Stump joins Carl Ellis, L. R. Conner, Moira Caldwell and R. H. Holland on the board of directors of the First National Bank.

21 Bookkeeping Aspirants Sign For New Course

PERRYTON (SpI) — A course in bookkeeping will be offered by the Perryton High School commercial department.

An organizational meeting held Tuesday night with 21 signing for the course.

According to Douglas F. high school commercial teacher, classes will begin the first of February and will meet on Monday and Thursday nights 6 weeks.

Enrollment for the course is open and anyone interested in rolling should call Fiskin or Zoler at the high school.

American Ideas Find Room In The Backwoods Of Nigeria

By TOM DORSEY — the land grant colleges of America provide a vast reservoir of ideas and experience but the ultimate answers to the problems of Nigeria and Africa can only be found by their adaptation within our schools to meet the specific needs of our land and our peoples.

The University of Nigeria, conceived and built here by the government of Eastern Nigeria, is the first in Africa to be established within basic educational concepts developed in the United States.

When the school opened, Dr. M. I. Okpara, premier of Eastern Nigeria, said: "Educational systems — such as the land grant colleges of America — provide a vast reservoir of ideas and experience but the ultimate answers to the problems of Nigeria and Africa can only be found by their adaptation within our schools to meet the specific needs of our land and our peoples."

He said the university will be characterized by "its devotion to preparing students of all races, colors and creeds from all parts of Africa and the world to engage in the practical occupations involved in building a better society."

The university's faculty, under President Dr. George Johnson of Michigan State University, is dominated by Americans and Nigerians. But there also are staff members from India, Ireland, Sierra Leone and Britain.

Most of the Americans are affiliated with Michigan State. Also represented are the University of Michigan, Columbia University Teachers' College, Grambling College of Louisiana and Miami and Baldwin-Wallace of Ohio.

The coed student body includes more than 30 women. Each student pays nearly $400 in tuition and resident fees annually.

The school year is divided into three terms, each 10 weeks long. English is the official language of instruction.

Initially, classes are being offered in English, economics, history, mathematics, education, sociology and other courses found in a typical American liberal arts college.

Eventually, the curriculum will be broadened to include science and engineering. Colleges of agriculture, law, medicine, commerce and others will be added.

Two classroom blocks, two student resident halls and most university staff quarters are complete. Work continues on other facilities.

The university was conceived six years ago after a fact finding tour taken by government officials through Europe and America. A law was passed in 1955 establishing the school.

The Eastern Nigeria Marketing Board will set aside $1.5 million annually for the university. The University of Nigeria fund was started in 1954 and totals more than $7.5 million.

Acting as liaison between the government and university is a six-man provisional council of leading world educators cooperating with the U.S. International Cooperation Administration and the Inter-University Council for Overseas Territories in the United Kingdom.

On the council are two Americans, Dr. Eldon Lee Johnson, president of the University of New Hampshire, and Marguerite Cartwright, an Afro-American scholar.

The News Briefly Told

HELDON, Iowa (UPI) — The Midland National Bank, closed 10 days ago when the more than $2 million embezzlement of Mrs. Ernie Geiger came to light, closed its doors today, but only after start payoffs to depositors included by a government agency.

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The California Public Utilities Commission heard further arguments regarding a proposed 1,600-mile pipeline to transport natural gas to Southern California, from Texas through Mexico.

BEAUMONT (UPI) — Four charges of unlawful possession of gambling machines were thrown Wednesday in Beaumont and St. Arthur.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A farm conference called by President Kennedy in hopes of building unified support for new moves to avert the agricultural economy, produced more discord than unity.

MOSCOW (UPI) — Diplomatic observers believed today that Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev will go to New York to attend the United Nations General Assembly in New York, with the way possibly cleared for a meeting with President Kennedy.

COLUMBIA, Ohio (UPI) — Walter E. Brown, postmaster general under President Herbert Hoover, died today in his apartment here.

Personal Property Deadline April 1 or Tax Rendition

April 1 is the deadline for business, firms, corporations, associations and public warehouses to furnish the city tax office with a complete statement, list and schedule of all real and personal property for tax purposes.

Aubrey Jones, city tax assessor, said today the rendition property must be made as of April 1 this year.

Those said first publication of public notice was made yesterday and will appear again tomorrow.

The tax assessor said the law provides that the business personal property must be rendered for taxation with the name and address of the owners and be filed in the tax office in Pampa City.

Plead Guilty in Check Counts

Two men and a woman entered guilty pleas when arraigned in City Judge William J. Craig's city court on charges of swindling with worthless checks.

Bulb Alexander of Shamrock is fined $5 and costs and made restitution of a check for $23 to the Mer Drug Store in Lefors.

Vayne R. Howard of White Deer is fined $10 and costs and months in jail for giving a worthless check for $47.90 to the Jefferson Western Wear Co.

W. Nellie Grable of Pampa was fined $1 and costs and made restitution of a check for $10 to the Weston Food Store.

Leads Not Guilty

Lloyd Leon Bennett, 311 E. 10th St., pleaded not guilty when arraigned before County Judge William J. Craig today on a charge of driving while under license suspension. Bond was set at $1,000.

suspended all such flights—a ban Kennedy has promised to continue.

At his news conference, Kennedy appeared to lean over backward to avoid any inflammatory references to matters involving the Soviet Union. But he acknowledged that "in some areas" where American and Russian interests clash "tension... is quite high."

On other international subjects, he said:

CUBA: "We have no plan at present to resume diplomatic relations with Cuba" because the revolution there has been "seized by aliens for their purposes." The United States welcomes national movements in Latin America but is concerned when they "are seized by external forces and directed not to improving the welfare of the people involved but towards imposing an ideology which is alien to this hemisphere."

CONGO: The United States will "increase substantially" its food shipments to relieve famine in the turbulent area and also will step up the flow of hospital supplies.

NUCLEAR TEST BAN: The United States has asked that negotiations with Britain and Russia, scheduled to resume Feb. 7, be postponed until late in March to give Kennedy's administration time to "prepare a clear American position."

CHINA: He is "not anxious to offer food" to famine-stricken China "if it is regarded merely as a propaganda effort by the United States." Anyway, China is still exporting rice and has given no sign that aid from the United States would be welcomed.

LAOS: The United States "is using its influence" to try to foster the establishment of an "independent, peaceful country." There has been no Soviet reply to a British proposal to re-establish a three-nation control commission to try to end the civil war there.

Gold and Dollar Gap: He plans to send Congress recommendations on how to meet the deficit in U.S. international balances but does not believe that exchange restrictions will be needed.

Pampans Study Junior College At Levelland

Findings of a Pampa group which went to Levelland to study that city's junior college installation will be reported soon to the Public Improvements Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

E. L. Henderson, chairman of the committee, said today six Pampans made the trip to Levelland. Accompanying Henderson were Aubrey Steele, Jimmy McCune, Wayland Merriman, E. O. Wedgeworth and Blair Wilkins.

The group met with Levelland junior college officials and made a tour of the entire installation.

Henderson said the college there, in a city of 8,000 population, has an enrollment of 600 students. The group found, Henderson said, that the people of Levelland were highly pleased with the operation and considered it an important adjunct to their city.

Chamber Manager Wedgeworth said a thorough study of all the facts and figures will be made in an effort to try to determine if the matter of a junior college for Pampa should be presented to the people.

● Fliers

killed when the plane was downed.

One, Mrs. Oscar L. Goforth, whose husband was the electronics technician on the RB47, was almost fearful of seeing the two returning men.

"I still have hope that my husband is alive," she said in Topeka. "I'm getting more nervous now, because it's getting closer to the time when I'll know for sure."

McKone and Olmstead were released at 10 a.m. Wednesday Moscow time, (1 a.m. CST) and put aboard a Dutch KLM airliner shortly after noon. Not a word of their release had leaked to the general public.

The New York Herald Tribune got wind of the story but withheld publication of what would have been a 19-hour newsbeat when presidential press secretary Pierre Salinger said it might jeopardize the release of the fliers and the national interests.

As the big airliner was about to take off, it got a flat tire. This delayed the takeoff an agonizing five hours.

McKone and Olmstead flew to Amsterdam, changed so quickly to an Air Force Constellation that they did not have time to talk to their wives by telephone, and then flew to Preswick, Scotland.

The plane stayed there only 55 minutes, for refueling, then headed for Goose Bay, Labrador, for another stop, before flying on to Andrews AFB at Washington and a reunion with their wives.

Thompson said the two fliers "looked healthy, both mentally and physically," when they arrived at the U.S. Embassy in Moscow Wednesday morning.

Neither had been permitted to see a U.S. official since they were imprisoned.

When Olmstead saw Embassy Counselor Edward Thayer at the front door of the embassy he exclaimed, "Boy, am I glad to see an American again."

Still awaited anxiously from the fliers' own lips was the story of what happened over the Barents Sea seven months ago and what their treatment was during their imprisonment.

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Yesterday I saw to people together who had absolutely no business being together. The man is the husband of a very good friend of mine. The woman is the wife of a respected professional man. He was helping her into his car and they were laughing and so wrapped up in each other's company they didn't know anyone else was on the street. This was about noontime. I worked on my mind so much I decided to call up my friend and tell her about her husband. She told me if she wanted a report on her husband's activities she would hire a private eye. I felt that I'd been struck across the face. Was she right—talking to a man like that when I was only trying to be a friend? If I had been in her place, I would have appreciated the tip.

SPEECHLESS: You could find yourself "speechless" often. How do you know that the man and woman had "absolutely no business being together"? A woman once wrote to me a similar story. It turned out her husband had asked the other woman to help him select a very special anniversary gift for her. Forget the tip and button your

Lincoln Pinwheel Is Prexy Tribute

A fine tribute to Abraham Lincoln's birthday on Feb. 12 is a Lincoln Jelly Roll Pinwheel. Decked with 12 miniature flags, it's made, simply from jelly rolls purchased at the bakery.

Lincoln Jelly Roll Pinwheel

- 1 cup heavy cream
- 2 tablespoons confectioners' sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 2 bakers' jelly rolls
- Toasted almond halves
- Beat cream, sugar, and vanilla extract together until stiff. Place jelly rolls end to end and spread whipped cream over top and sides of both rolls. Garnish top with toasted almond halves. Decorate with 12 miniature flags.
- Yield: 12-14 servings

Auxiliary Changes Meeting Dates

PERRYTON (Spl) — Meeting dates of the ACYC Auxiliary have been changed to avoid conflicts with other activities. In the future the group will meet the first and third Tuesday of each month, at the Veteran's Memorial Building.

According to Mrs. W. M. White, chairman, the Auxiliary plans several projects in the near future. All parents of ACYC members are urged to attend the meetings.

ebekah Lodge Plans Banquet

PERRYTON (Spl) — The Perryton Rebekah Lodge No. 225 met Tuesday night in the Lodge Hall at Mae Shaul, noble grand and Zel Allen, vice-grand in charge of the meeting.

Plans were made for the semi-annual banquet to be held Friday 7:30 p.m. in the Coffee Shop of Perryton Hotel.

The charter was unveiled in honor of Past Noble Grand Bertha Nalley.

Louise Woodward spoke on the "Life of Thomas Widley, founder of IOOF Lodge in the United States."

The degree team had a practice session at which time the lodge presented a gift to the team captain, Gladys Brooks.

Refreshments were served by Luella Mooneyham and Roberta Sultan.

Visitors present were Winnie Berr, from Lodge No. 286 at Borger and Grace Carns from Lodge No. 308 at Oklahoma City.

Official's Nightmare Hits Trice

Every basketball official probably has nightmares before a big game as his mind ponders whether one call of his will make the difference in a team winning or losing. One crucial whistle late in the game and the final outcome is decided.

Weldon (Bird Dog) Trice, assistant Pampa High School principal and former PHS football coach, found himself in such a situation Tuesday night in Plainview where Pampa was playing a District 3-4A game, although it was far from a title game. Trice was prevailed upon by both Pampa Coach Terry Culley and Bulldog Coach Bob Clindaniel to help call the game when the snow induced a 15-minute cancellation by the two assigned officials.

Trice, who calls approximately 150 games a year in the Panhandle area, was joined by another experienced South Plains official, Charles Price, principal of Plainview's Coronado Junior High and former Plainview high track coach.

The contest began and progressed, with Plainview taking an early lead and building upon it handsomely. The calls were quick and impartial and at halftime, both officials expressed the hope that the game would stay loose—score-wise—to forestall any big decisions.

Plainview led 17-12, 35-25 and 47-36 at the quarter points and it looked like the two men in stripes were going to get their wish.

But, as suddenly as the snow storm outside had blown up, Pampa caught fire and began to close the gap. The Harvesters cut the score to 51-42, then 53-50, then 56-54 and finally—56-56 with 18 seconds left in the game.

Price then called a foul on Pampa with 11 seconds remaining but the Plainview lead missed the shot and after a scramble—Pampa gained possession of the desired basketball.

With the clock slowly blinking off the seconds, Pampa sophomore Wayne Kries took the ball down the left side. He gained the initial step on his defender, but stopped momentarily as if to pass off, then headed goalward again. By this time, however Plainview star Jackie Swanner had moved into position and Trice called a charging foul as Kries roared into the goal.

The rest of the story is known. Swanner made both ends of the 1-and-1 free throw in the last two seconds and Pampa lost its sixth straight game, 58-56.

"I'd call it 10 out of 10 times the same way," Trice said yesterday afternoon, adding that he was taking some ribbings from the PHS students about the call.

"If Kries had kept moving, instead of stopping, the foul would have been the other way. But, he didn't, it was a clear case of charging and I had to call it."

But, as Trice said later, and was concurred, the game actually wasn't lost in the last seconds. It was lost in the first three quarters as Plainview couldn't miss from the field and Pampa couldn't do anything right.

We found out a long time ago that one boy doesn't lose—or very seldom win—a game by himself. Basketball is still played by five boys and it takes all five working together to win.

Last Eight-Team Schedule?

'61 NL Slate Shows Night Tilt Increase

CINCINNATI (UPI) — The National League listed a total of 318 night games for the 1961 season today in what could be the last eight-team schedule ever to be used by the major leagues.

The American League will announce its 10-team schedule for 1961 shortly and the National League will adopt a similar schedule next year when Houston and New York begin operation.

This year's total of 318 night games represents an increase of two over last year although the Los Angeles Dodgers reduced their total from 64 to 60. One of the Dodgers' night games in Los Angeles will be held on May 30 against the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Phillies have scheduled 55 night games, a total second only to the Dodgers. As they did in 1960, the Cards and Philadelphia Phillies will play all their home games at night except on Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays.

Pittsburgh is scheduled for 47 night games, an increase of five over last year, and the Cards increased their slate by two with a total of 50.

Chicago has scheduled 37, one less than in 1960, and San Francisco will play the same number of night games, 23, as it did last season.

Clinging to their custom, the Chicago Cubs will be the only major league club to play all their home games during the day-time.

The National League opens its season on April 11—one day earlier than last year—with Chicago at Cincinnati, St. Louis at Milwaukee, Pittsburgh at San Francisco and Philadelphia at Los Angeles in a night game.

Harvesters Sing Palo Duro 'Blues'

Pampa, Dons Battle In Amarillo Friday

It'll be the same song, second verse and—Pampa hopes—the same chorus when the Harvesters embark on the second half of their 1961 District 3-4A schedule in Amarillo tomorrow night against league-leading Palo Duro.

Pampa topped the Dons, 57-46, in the district opener in Pampa on Jan. 3, but the sharp-shooting Palo Duro crew hasn't been stopped since, besting Borger, 62-60 in overtime last Tuesday to gain sole possession of the top rung in 3-4A with a 6-1 mark.

Counting non-conference, Palo Duro has won 11 of its last 12 outings and the lone district loss to Pampa has been the only thing that has kept Coach Tom Gley's group from running away with the conference lead.

Pampa, which through the changing fortunes of Dame Luck has met the district's top scorer in two of their last four games, will face the district's new top scorer in the Don's Steve Carter.

Carter, a 6-0 senior who was all-district in 1960, was held to 8 points in the first Pampa-Don clash, but has since gone berserk and now tops the scoring pack with 127 points in seven games, an 18.1 average, replacing Amarillo's Harold Denny who now has 123.

Palo Duro's late-district surge also can be attributed to another "gunner," Toby Hall, who poured in 22 points against Borger to boost his year's total to 105. Hall, 6-2, was the big thorn in Pampa's side in the game here with 16 points and either he or Carter can undo the best defense if given room.

Meanwhile, on the home front, Pampa will be trying to repeat its earlier winning performance against the Dons and thereby throw the 3-4A race back open.

A Pampa victory would leave the race open to four teams, although one will be eliminated tomorrow night when Monterey (5-2), the surprise team of the district, and Amarillo (5-2) get together in Amarillo's Armory.

Pee Wees Resume Play

Houston, which leads the sixth grade division with a 4-0 mark and is tied for the fifth grade lead with an identical 4-0, goes back into action today in highlight games of the Kiwanis-Optimist Pee Wee basketball league.

The Houston crew hosts Wilson in the feature game of the sixth grade loop while Lamar is at Austin and Travis goes to Baker.

In fifth grade competition, Houston hikes to Wilson and the other co-leader, Austin (3-0) visits Lamar while Baker is at Travis.

Games begin at 6 p.m. in the respective schools.

STAN MUSIAL ... 'old men' eye career milestones

'Satisfied and Set' Musial, Spahn Sign High-Salary Pacts

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
Stan Musial and Warren Spahn are signed, satisfied and set today for a 1961 baseball season in which both may reach career-capping milestones.

Musial signed for an estimated $75,000 with the St. Louis Cardinals Wednesday while Spahn agreed to an estimated contract of between $72,000 and $75,000 with the Milwaukee Braves.

Musial already has passed the 40-year mark and Spahn will become 40 on April 23.

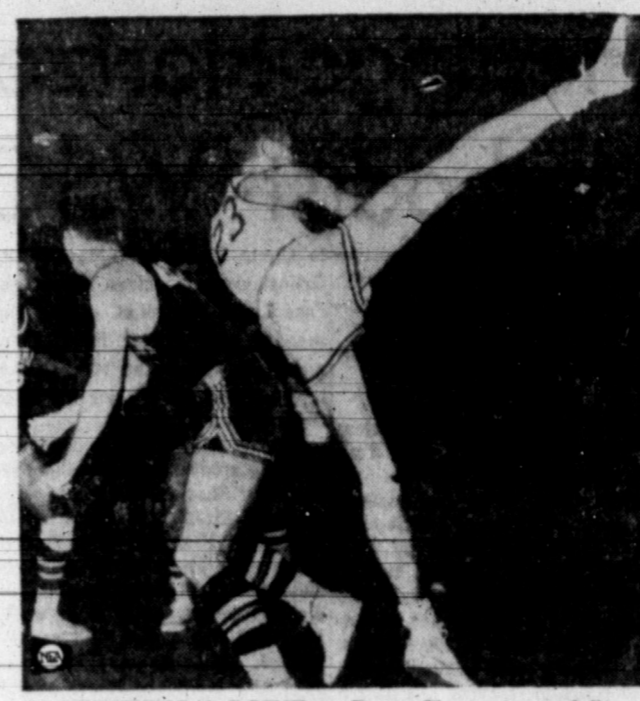

Musial needs 137 hits this year to set a National League record of 3,431 hits for a lifetime. He should be very close to that figure by the end of the season if he can approximate his 1960 pace when he hit 275 in 116 games.

Spahn, with 288 victories, needs only 12 more to become the seventh 300-game winner and the first National League left-hander to reach that goal in history.

He turned in a record 11th 20-win season when he had a 21-10 record in 1959 and he also pitched the first no-hitter of his career.

General Manager Bing Devine of the Cardinals said Musial's contract "is one of the highest in the major leagues and we agreed on it within 30 seconds."

Musial is believed to have accepted a slight reduction from his $80,000 figure of the last few years, because he realizes "he no longer can play a full 154-game season."

STRETCHING A POINT — Doug Clementson of Stanford prepares to brace himself as he unsuccessfully tries for a rebound in Palo Alto. Directly behind the long-legged guard and trying to scramble out of the way of the inevitable tumble is Fordham's Bill Sheridan.

Tennessee A&I Takes Big Small Cage Lead

NEW YORK (UPI) — Tennessee A&I maintained a commanding lead today in the United Press International small college basketball ratings (with first-place votes) in their close battle for second place.

Southern Illinois, winner of its only two games last week, was the lone newcomer to the top ten, vaulting from 12th place to 10th.

In the only other change involving the top teams, Kentucky Wesleyan and Southwest Texas switched places with the Kentucky school moving up one notch to eighth position.

Prairie View A&M remained fourth, Grambling was fifth, Wittenberg was sixth and American University held seventh place.

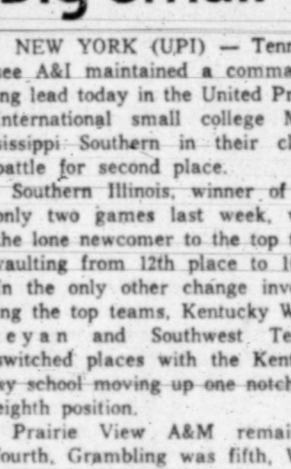

For the second straight week Hofstra nosed out Mississippi Southern for second place although being outscored in first and second place ballots.

Mississippi Southern received two first place votes (to Hofstra's one) and 11 second place votes (to Hofstra's eight), but the Dutchmen got enough secondary support to outscore Mississippi Southern by 11 points, 273-260.

Southwest Louisiana headed the second 10, Maine was 12th, Los Angeles State was 13th and South Dakota State was 14th.

The University of California at Santa Barbara and Northern Michigan were tied for 15th, followed by Williams and Evansville. In a deadlock for 19th place were Arkansas State and Westminster (Pa.).

Fullmer-Pender Fight Depends On Sugar Ray

NEW YORK (UPI) — Gene Fullmer and Paul Pender probably will meet in a June outdoor fight in New York for the undisputed middleweight crown under a Feature Sports-Norman Rothschild co-promotion — if Fullmer beats Sugar Ray Robinson on March 4 at Las Vegas, Nev.

Fullmer is favored at 2-1 over Sugar Ray.

Feature Sports announced today that Pender of Brookline, Mass., is now ready to defend his portion of the title "in a fight outside of Boston" and would be pleased to compete under Feature Sports promotion.

Pender, recognized as 160-pound champion in New York, Massachusetts, Europe and the British Empire — has insisted upon fighting in Boston since he became challenger and champion.

But Bill Fugazy, president of Feature Sports, disclosed today that 30-year-old Paul had told him Tuesday night he was ready to "step out" and that he was willing to fight for Fugazy's outfit because he considered it "the most enterprising" in boxing.

Pender's remarks purportedly were made at a dinner in Jamestown, N.Y.

Colonels Win, Providence Nips Canisius, 67-64

By United Press International
Providence College, a "Cinderella" basketball team for the past two seasons, is well on its way toward the "cliffhanger" title for the 1960-61 campaign.

The Friars, led by little Johnny Egan and jumbo Jim Hadnot, pulled out another close one Wednesday night by defeating Canisius, 67-64, for their 12th victory in 14 games this season.

Egan paced Providence with 27 points while the 6-10 Hadnot, who scored the deciding baskets in at least five "squeakers" this season, added 26 points. This time it was Egan's turn and the swift playmaker scored two free throws with five seconds remaining to clinch the triumph.

Providence built up a 16-point edge at halftime, but the Golden Griffins from Buffalo, N.Y., closed the gap to 65-62 with 36 seconds left before Egan sunk his free shots.

Seventh-ranked Louisville rolled over Kentucky Wesleyan, 82-66. Brad Olsen hit 22 and Fred Sawyer 20 for the Cardinals. Winifred Thompson's 23 points led the team.

The success brought Louisville record to 15-2 for the season. In other games on Wednesday, small schedule, Dick Falena scored six points in the overtime period to give Pittsburgh a 57-55 upset victory over Villanova; Tennessee A&I, top-ranked small college team, won its 17th in a row, tripping Gannon, 115-68; St. Joseph's 32 point output led over Hofstra, No. 2 small college, 77-74 in overtime; Louisiana State nipped Loyola (La.), 51-49; Toledo beat Baldwin-Wallace, 65-38; Georgia mauled Mercer, 66-46.

San Antonio Team Sold

Alamo Man Grabs TL Franchise

SAN ANTONIO (UPI) — San Antonio's Texas League baseball franchise was awarded to John Monfrey, San Antonio businessman, Wednesday after stockholders dissolved the San Antonio Community Baseball Corp.

The action was taken by unanimous vote of the 15,216 shares represented, comprising 83 percent of the outstanding stock of the corporation. The corporation was formed in early 1958 and has been in control of the Mission's Texas League franchise the past three years.

Monfrey recently purchased Mission Stadium from the Baltimore Orioles.

Dissolution of the corporation returned the franchise to the Texas League, and League President Dick Butler said he would award the franchise to Monfrey.

Raoul Cortez, San Antonio television station owner, offered Monday to put $50,000 into the San Antonio Community Baseball Corp. to keep it alive. Cortez said he wanted to lease the stadium, "lock, stock and barrel," including concessions, parking and advertising.

Cortez withdrew his offer when his conditions weren't met by Monfrey, Cortez, Corporation president Dan Sullivan, and Dick King, general manager of last year's baseball team.

Trice canceled out early Tuesday as an official for the White Deer-Gruver game because of his trip to Plainview. It's just as well: White Deer lost, 67-66, this one with the district championship at stake, while the girls' game—which Trice also would have had to officiate—would up $4-53 with White Deer's Does winning.

It's enough to make a guy turn in his whistle.

TEN PIN TALES

John and Barbara Moore will be holding a slim 15-pin lead over their nearest competitor when the March-of-Dimes Scotch-bowling tournament concludes this weekend at Harvester Bowl.

Red Watson, Harvester Bowl manager, said that $85 had been collected to date in the tournament for the benefit of the MOD drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore's 688-total tops Leon and Mary Harris, who are holding down second place with a 673.

The Men's City Assn. Bowling Tournament begins Saturday with the team events scheduled for Garden Lanes and the doubles and singles matches set for Harvester Bowl.

Starting times and matches are on the bulletin boards at the respective bowling palaces and may be obtained there.

"Bowlers of the Week" last week at Harvester Bowl were LeRoy Thompson with a 633 scratch and Barbara Moore with a 563 scratch series.

Post Season Games Eyed

AUSTIN (UPI) — Action on whether to approve high school all-star football and basketball games other than those of the Texas High School Coaches Association was postponed Wednesday by the executive committee of the University Interscholastic League.

Those post-season games which the executive committee is considering sanctioning are the Oil Bowl game at Wichita Falls; the Panhandle Grid Classic at Amarillo; the Lions Bi-County all-star game at Arlington and the Green Belt Bowl at Childress.

Vikings Seek Swift, Able Striking Force

By NORMAN MILLER
United Press International
NEW YORK (UPI) — The Minnesota Vikings will pass up some "average destroyers" in favor of a young swift striking force when they select 36 players today for their first campaign in the National Football League.

In some off-hand remarks at an informal conference in the hotel lobby, General Manager Bert Rose of the Vikings disclosed Wednesday that the list of experienced players offered by 12 NFL clubs included several who were over the hill and undoubtedly would pick pro football if claimed by Minnesota.

Rose and Coach Norm Van Brocklin of the Vikings want no part of these. They are primarily interested in younger players, with less glamorous names, who would complement the Vikings' draft choices and help their long-range building program.

By noon today the Vikings will pick three players from a group of eight offered by each other NFL club except the Dallas Cowboys.

boys. Before these names become public, the clubs giving up each player will be responsible for notifying him that he has been sent to Minnesota.

While the lists of available players were secret, it was learned they included such players as Alan (The Horse) Ameche of the Baltimore Colts, who has a serious heel injury; Dave Middleton of the Lions, who is a doctor in Detroit; Johnny Olszewski of the Washington Redskins and Frank Gifford or Alex Webster of the New York Giants.

One minor trade was completed at Wednesday's meeting when the Pittsburgh Steelers sent defensive end Bill Ray Smith to the Baltimore Colts for defensive halfback Jackie Simpson.

Other than that, the second day of the winter meetings was consumed with a discussion of the television program, hearing a bid from a Canton, Ohio, group to erect a pro football Hall of Fame, and other minor matters.

WEST POINT, N.Y. (UPI) — Charles L. Klausning, 35, former freshman coach at Rutgers, will be coach of Army's defensive backfield this year, it was announced today by football Coach Dale Halt. Klausning succeeds Tom Harp who was named head football coach at Cornell last month.

Hawks Up NBA Lead

By United Press International

With 49 games of their season gone, it appears the St. Louis Hawks will win the Western Division crown in the National Basketball Association without much trouble, but there are plenty of close battles left to make the remainder of the pro season interesting.

In Wednesday night's NBA games, the Hawks beat New York, 116-109, their 32nd win against 17 losses. In the feature game of the Detroit doubleheader, the Pistons, second to the Hawks in the Western Division, downed third-place Cincinnati, 138-125.

On the West Coast, fourth-place Los Angeles won its second straight over the Syracuse Nationals, 117-112, at the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

While it doesn't seem likely St. Louis can be overtaken, Eastern Division leader Boston is in no such comfortable position, having a .694 percentage compared to Philadelphia's .625.

MODERN LIVING PRISONERS FAIRFAX, Va. (UPI) — Four children and a maid at the home of Mr. Edith Rage found themselves prisoners of modern living Wednesday when the temperature hit eight degrees.

Everybody's Money

By MERYLE STANLEY RUKESYER Though it is fashionable today to ask, "What will President Kennedy do in the next four years?"

There is a tendency, especially at the time of the inauguration of a new chief executive, to overlook the nature of our competitive national economy.

It is well to remember that even during the dark days of the Great Depression of the early Nineteen Thirties, while many were waiting, enterprising trend buckers were laying the foundations of spectacular lifetime successes.

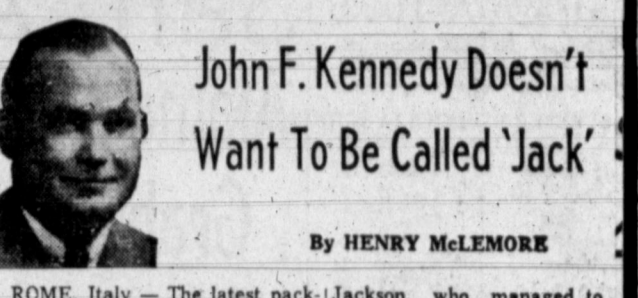

Even in the chronically depressed regions, including bituminous coal areas of West Virginia, it is a mistake for displaced and chronically unemployed persons to wait passively for federal remedies.

Striking out at proposals to reorganize the Defense Department, Brucker charged that "The abolition of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Departments of Army, Navy and Air Force, together with their secretaries, would be disastrous."

AFTER THE BALL — Retiring Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell is really taking only a "vacation" from the Washington scene.

There is an area for useful governmental opportunity at home and abroad, but the trend toward big government should be resisted whenever it saps the productive spirit of self-help and individual responsibility.

John F. Kennedy Doesn't Want To Be Called 'Jack'

ROME, Italy — The latest pack-boat to reach these shores from the United States brought the news that John Fitzgerald Kennedy does not want to be called Jack on the grounds that Jack is not a dignified enough name for the President of the United States.

Whether we agree with him or not, I feel that all of us should accede to the President's wishes. He ceased to be Jack the moment we learned how he felt.

Some Americans I know are not in agreement with Mr. Kennedy in his objection to being called Jack. Bud Brinkerhoff says that if he had as much jack as Jack he would insist on being called Jack.

Mr. Lincoln was generally known to all people and the press as Abe, and during his stay in the White House the Presidency achieved the greatest prestige it has ever had.

For The "Over 60" Group

Dream House For Our Elders

By JERRY BENNETT

WASHINGTON (NEA).— You may soon be able to build your dream house after you retire for as little as $9,000 plus the cost of a lot.

Architect Robert B. Waring of the Douglas Fir Plywood Assn. has designed a six-room compact home especially for people over 60. The use of inexpensive plywood which reduces labor costs makes the low price tag possible.

Called Freedom House, because it eliminates much of the cost of building a new home, the 1,084 sq. ft. structure was displayed for the first time at the White House Conference on Aging this month. The blueprints will soon be released to builders for nationwide construction.

Co-sponsors of the Washington display are the Douglas Fir Plywood Assn., the National Retired Teachers Assn., and the American Assn. of Retired Persons. But credit for conceiving the novel structure in the first place goes to Mary Cleverley, public housing administration commissioner for elderly housing.

Mrs. Cleverley got the idea when she saw pictures of a similar house advertised as the ideal vacation home. To her the structure looked like the solution to housing problems of the aged as well.

Statistics show that the "over 60" population totals about 23 million and will increase to 29 million by 1970. At least 18 million of these people are in low or middle income groups.

Most of these people have already raised families and would like to move into smaller, low upkeep homes. Yet most of the housing for retired people falls into one of three categories which often are unattractive to elderly, middle class, house hunters.

Luxury apartments for the wealthy, public housing for the indigent and private housing developments, often designed for disabled persons, generally are the only choices the elderly house hunters have.

Many elderly people, still in good health, resent the idea of living in homes built for the handicapped. Others dislike private housing developments because they feel that they are being segregated.

At a special housing conference here last year, Mrs. Cleverley suggested converting the vacation homes into low cost retirement dwellings that elderly people could build on lots of their own choosing. The result was architect Waring's plans and the White House Conference display model.

Freedom House has two bedrooms, a dining room, living room, kitchen and bath. Enclosed by its two wings are a courtyard and patio. A garage and workroom combination which can also serve as storage space, is attached to the house.

Although Freedom House is not advertised especially for the handicapped, it does contain conveniences to make life easier for healthy and disabled persons alike.

For instance, electrical outlets are 18 inches from the floor to eliminate stooping. Master light switches are located near both entrances and in the master bedroom, making movement in the dark unnecessary.

A seat near the tub makes bathroom dressing more convenient. Grab-bars offer protection against falls when getting in or out of the tub.

WHY PAMPA NEEDS THE NEW CHARTER!

PAID POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

In Texas, cities are permitted to adopt their own charters, and are known as "home rule" cities. The charter is the constitution, so to speak, under which the city government operates.

Pampa's present City Charter was adopted in 1927. It was based largely on the charter of the first city in Texas to operate on a Commission - City Manager form of government.

During the 33 years which have followed, there have been many changes in Pampa and in the needs and demands of its citizens.

There have been many changes in the laws of the State and Federal Government relating to municipal government. In many important matters your City officials have been hampered in the proper operation of the City's affairs by conflict between the old charter and new laws, or because the City could not avail itself of certain privileges granted by State law but not provided for under the charter.

On occasion, it has been necessary for the City Attorney to appear before the State Legislature, at considerable expense, to ask for legislation validating certain actions and ordinances which were deemed necessary.

It has long been recognized those in close touch with the City's business that a modern, up-to-date charter was needed, and it would make for efficiency and economy at the City Hall.

Two years ago, the voters of Pampa elected a Charter Commission of fifteen citizens to develop a new charter in keeping with present conditions and needs. These were all business or professional men, longtime residents of Pampa, substantial taxpayers, with their principal interest being in Pampa and its future. Many of them have served this community in a distinguished manner in various capacities through the years.

Now, after nearly two years of work, during which time dozens of City Charters were examined (including about fifteen new charters recently adopted by Texas cities approximately the size of Pampa), expertly in the field were consulted, and all laws applicable were studied by qualified attorneys, the proposed new charter was approved by the Charter Commission. It was recommended to the City Commission that it be submitted to the voters at an election to be held on January 31.

A copy was mailed to each qualified voter.

We suggest that if you have any questions concerning the proposed charter, see some member of the Charter Commission, as they would be in best position to answer or explain it to you.

The members of the Charter Commission are: Lynn Boyd, Gene Fatheree, Crawford Atkinson, C. P. Buckler, F. M. Culbertson, C. A. Huff, T. C. Lively, Sr., Robert D. Olsen, Ames A. Poole, Arthur M. Teed, Ewart Ray Duncan, E. E. Shelton, H. R. Thompson, Joe Tooley, and Calvin Whately.

The new charter is a new document on the whole, yet dealing with every matter under the present charter. It has been made to conform to all State laws, and much it contains is required by law. It was prepared for present needs, with a view to future needs.

Certain basic changes are proposed:

1. Election of City Officials

There shall be a mayor and four councilmen, who will be elected from the city at large, and for a term of two years. Without regard to real or imaginary geographical dividing lines, any citizen who desires, may offer as a candidate for either mayor or councilman. Every voter in Pampa shall be privileged to vote for or against any candidate. This would result in the election of officials who are the choice of the people of the city whose affairs they are to handle. This would be fair and democratic.

At present, the Pampa voter has a choice only in the selection of the mayor and the one commissioner in the ward where he lives. He has no voice in the selection of the other three commissioners who are in charge of the City Government. In other words, under the present ward system your vote is worth 40c on the dollar. Ward 3 and Ward 4 together, with approximately 25% of the voters and paying 25% of the taxes, elect two of the four commissioners; and on occasion a commissioner has been named by a mere handful of voters.

According to our information, Pampa is the only city in Texas of comparable size which follows this archaic and obsolete ward system in their elections.

2. Taxes

None of us, including the members of the Charter Commission, like to pay taxes, but there must be taxes to operate a city. The important thing is to handle tax assessments and finances in such a way as to get the most for the money spent. There are two classifications of collected tax money. One is the general fund, that portion set aside for operating expenses; the other is the allocation to interest and sinking fund account for the retirement of bonded debt.

By State law, the maximum rate for all purposes is set at $2.50. Under our old charter, the general fund is limited to $1.00 rate on valuation, whereas for sinking fund requirements it is possible to go up to the legal limit.

It is obvious, with more expenses, higher costs and a growing city there continues to be more pressure on the general fund, and it is inadequate to meet the needs. These are the alternatives: Money can be borrowed to tide over emergencies; valuation of property can be raised; piecemeal bond issue financings can be used. Each of these presents objections and means extra costs in interest and delays. Raising valuations throws a continuing burden on the taxpayer, particularly the small home owner. It also builds up unnecessary reserves in the sinking fund. Joining several fairly small improvement projects together and issuing bonds to cover has been done, at the greater increased cost of elections, interest, etc.

Routine improvement items, for instance, could be budgeted, completed and paid for out of the general fund with a small on our present valuation, without the heavy expense that goes with bond elections, interest, etc.

The proposed charter provides more latitude for the City's operation, and would be more economical in the end.

3. Annexation to City of Adjacent Territory

In this area, the proposed charter simply follows the procedures permitted by State law (see Sections 8 and 9 of Article 1, Page 3). No effort is made to assume any power or authority except that which is permitted by law and is practiced by all other cities in the State.

4. Coverage of City Employees by Insurance

In keeping with the general practice throughout the State, it is proposed to provide the good, loyal employees of the City with the same benefits received by employees of industry and commercial concerns in the community, and for the City to participate in the cost. It is felt this is only just and right.

This has no relation to retirement benefits which are prescribed by State Law, and are now in effect.
